

The First Heir 2891

Chapter 2891

Lord Ludo flipped his folding fan open, fanned himself, and cursed under his breath, "How ignorant."

On the side, Fennel looked at Philip and whispered, "Did you offend him? Why is he always so sarcastic to you?"

Philip stroked his chin, laughed drily, and said, "I'm not sure either. Maybe I'm too handsome..."

Pfft!

Lord Ludo spat the tea he was drinking and stared daggers at Philip. Then, he said, "There are nine mines in Mystic City. Because of some incidents that modern society can't explain, the locals call them Mystic Mines. A lot of jade and ancient weapons have been dug up in Mystic Mine Three in the past few days, so it's in the limelight and has attracted many looters."

Hearing this, Philip and the others nodded repeatedly.

According to Lord Ludo, it was nothing more than a mine that had unearthed jade and ancient weapons.

"What about Mystic Mine Seven?" Philip asked.

Lord Ludo glared at him vehemently and said, "A bloodstone was dug up in Mystic Mine Seven three years ago. The entire jade looked as if it was permeated with blood. It was red from the inside out. It was rumored that people who have seen this bloodstone have gotten into accidents one after another. They either committed suicide, were dying from illness, or went crazy. After that, Mystic Mine Seven was closed. It was only opened recently."

while, Philip asked anxiously,

Ludo shrugged and said,

said, "Where is Ludo said, "How would aback before he scratched his

go!" Lord Ludo stood

"Where are we

"To

left without waiting for Philip and

The latter looked at the former with a puzzled look dryly and followed without explaining. Very soon, the group been formed nearby, all of which were selling jade, weapons, and other collectibles. Quite many people

What's up with all the mystery?" 17 followed behind and “You’re right. It’s a jade quarry. The entire Mystic City is the base leading to the largest jade mine in the whole country. The jade here is of the best quality.

and asked, “Why

The First Heir

Chapter 2892

At the mention of Mystic Cave, Philip frowned. His mother and the secret vault of the Larson family were connected to Mystic Cave. To enter Mystic Cave, he had to obtain the recognition of the nine Mystic Mines, which sounded quite far-fetched.

After thinking about it, Philip looked at Lord Ludo and asked, “Why do we need to obtain the recognition of the nine Mystic Mines? Is the Mystic Cave controlled by the nine Mystic Mines?”

Lord Ludo smiled and said, “It seems that you know nothing about Mystic City at all.”

This was blatant sarcasm.

“The nine Mystic Mines of Mystic City are controlled by the three Dragon Kings here, three each. As for Mystic Cave, it’s jointly guarded by the three Dragon Kings. Without the tokens from the mines under their names, you won’t get the chance to enter Mystic Cave.”

Hearing this, Philip asked, “What’s inside Mystic Cave? Why enter it?”

that anything brought out of the Mystic Cave is an invaluable treasure, and quite a few people brought out things that don’t belong to this world. Most have been taken away by the Nonagon and the Supernatural Bureau. Only a small portion of those can be

Nonagon and the Supernatural frowned and looked at Fennel about Mystic City in the first place. Unless they have cooperation with Mystic City, I think most people wouldn’t even know that this place thought for a while, looked at Lord Ludo, and asked, “Are these things lightly, “The treasure of the ancient sage comes from Mystic Cave. Now that Mystic Cave has been sealed off by the three Dragon enter Mystic Cave in the following days, they have to go to any of the nine Mystic way of

it was. It

it, Philip turned to Fennel and the others

the Lovelace family ruins this time, it seems that all the families and forces are connected to this Mystic Cave. Maybe the Lovelace family will also

The First Heir

Chapter 2893

Lord Ludo walked to the door, and a manager greeted him with a fawning smile, "Oh, Lord Ludo, how nice to see you today. Please come in. We've reserved a good private room for you..."

Lord Ludo hummed and told his subordinates to take out a wad of money to toss it to the manager.

Philip and the others followed silently, but the manager immediately changed his attitude. He stopped them and shouted coldly, "What are you doing? Who told you to break in? Can't you see that this is the VIP passage? The entrance for ordinary guests is over there!"

Philip was startled and looked at the manager with a goatee in front of him.

"They're with me," In front, Lord Ludo turned his head and said coldly at this moment.

Instantly, the chills on the manager's face turned into a complimenting smile. He bowed and said, "Oh, so you're a friend of Lord Ludo's. I'm sorry for not recognizing you. Please come this way..."

What a pretentious guy with his nose in the air!

could not be bothered about this person and followed Lord Ludo through the front

they entered, they could hear the noisy circular corridor divided into eight sections. The place was full of people, and business was booming. There were fewer people on the second floor, and they seemed to have unusual identities. All of them were dressed up, and the dozen private rooms. There were many dignitaries in each area. They each stroked their chins and looked led Philip, Lord Ludo, and cases filled with jade. At Ludo, this batch of goods just arrived. Please take a look..."

manager to leave. Philip and the others sat a while before he said to Philip and the others, "You can go out and have a look around if and said, "That did

Many people saw them but paid no attention. The people here came to the first floor. It was better to find out some news in a crowded place. The atmosphere on the first floor was very different from the second floor. It was noisy

The First Heir

Chapter 2894

Philip did not expect the starstone to react all of a sudden. He picked up the small black stone without a change in his expression and looked at it. He found nothing special about it. It was just an ordinary stone.

At this time, the street vendor, who was in his 20s, counted the money in his hands from the transaction he just made and said, "Have you taken a fancy to this stone? It's quite ordinary. It's yours for 5,000."

'5,000? For a small stone like this?'

"Is this stone so expensive?" Philip pretended to ask in surprise.

The street vendor looked at Philip and said, "Buddy, you look unfamiliar. Are you new here?"

Philip did not deny it.

said, "This thing is from Mystic Mine Three. In fact, everything here is, so the prices are definitely not cheap. Moreover, to tell you the truth, this stone has been here for three months but no one wants it. Since you're the first person who has taken a fancy to it, I'm willing to make a loss and smiling face of the street vendor at a glance. He then

That's a huge loss for me!" The vendor immediately snatched the stone unconcerned. He got

"Well, seeing that this is your first time, let me do you a favor. 2,000! That's the with 2,000. He turned around, owner of the stall next door smiled at the vendor and said, "Not bad, buddy. You actually sold a vendor wiped his nose and said with a smile, "It's easy to between the two. A faint smile appeared on the corner

a worthless

That was not certain.

continue to wander around but found a place to take a break. He took out the stone with irregular contours. He glanced at it carefully, wondering

The First Heir

Chapter 2895

After that, Claus reached out, took the blackstone from Philip, put it up to the light outside, and said, "Well, it's a blackstone alright. Although not very pure, the quality is quite good. How much did you buy it for?"

Claus returned the blackstone to Philip after saying that.

Philip smiled and said, "2,000."

Claus nodded and said, "You've made a profit, then. You should be able to sell this blackstone for hundreds of thousands of dollars on the black market."

Hearing this, Philip's heart skipped a beat. The price of this small stone had jumped from 2,000 to hundreds of thousands within a few minutes?

Although Philip was not short of money, he was still agitated.

"Mr. Motley, you mentioned just now that this is a blackstone. Is there anything special about it? Why is it so valuable?" Philip asked.

Claus glanced at Philip and asked with a smile, "Is this your first time here?"

Philip nodded and smiled with a shrug.

explained unhurriedly, "Most ordinary people can't tell blackstone apart, and many stone diggers will treat them as worthless stones. Moreover, ordinary people can't use this blackstone. Only people with special means or special organizations can use this blackstone, so if you first time here, why don't you sell this blackstone to me for your kindness, Mr.

hearing this, a bodyguard behind Claus immediately pointed at Philip and scolded, "Boy, what did you say? How dare you speak rude," Claus' face was slightly angry as he glared at his subordinate, who immediately lowered his head. Then, he

Then, he turned looked in the direction Philip was headed and shook his head slightly. When Claus was about to leave, he suddenly stopped

Clarke, Dragon King," the smile on his face got to send a token to his private

Claus

***

floor. Fennel and the others

Ludo was still looking at the stones. He also bought several pieces and found some valuable things inside.

Ludo looked

Chapter 2896

The Dragon King's Token?

Philip frowned as his eyes fell on the token in his hand. To grant the Dragon King's Token, the person behind this must be one of the Dragon Kings in Mystic City!

Lord Ludo looked at Philip with envy and disbelief. He asked, "How did you get this thing?"

Even he could not get hold of a token from the three Dragon Kings, but Philip got one right after taking a stroll outside. His luck was really too good.

Philip scratched his head and said, "I don't know either. I met a middle-aged man earlier and had a conversation with him about jade."

Lord Ludo frowned and asked, "A middle-aged man? What's his name?"

"Claus Motley," Philip did not hide the truth.

said, "I really don't know if I should praise your good luck or what.

saying that, Lord Ludo glanced at Philip with jealousy before he turned to look at his jade others were also full of City?' Philip looked carefully at the Dragon King's Token out to be Ludo, how much do you know about Claus Motley?" Philip here were brought in by Claus, including his this, several people were startled and asked, "But...

and said, "There are also rumors that Claus is not as close to the people as he seems, and everything is just a

and the his interaction with Claus just now, Philip felt that this rumor seemed inaccurate. It was likely that an opposition party was trying to that you've obtained the Dragon King's Token, we don't have to stay here any longer. With this token, you

The First Heir

Chapter 2897

In the lobby, a middle-aged man with gold-framed glasses sat at a table, drinking tea. He wore a gray-black suit and looked quite high-spirited.

Meanwhile, other guests in the lobby knelt on the floor, afraid to look up.

Upon seeing Philip's return, the owner of the hotel hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Mr. Clarke, you're finally back. An esteemed guest is looking for you..."

Philip frowned and knew without asking that the middle-aged man was looking for him.

“Young Patriarch Clarke, it’s a pleasure to meet you. I just made some tea. Do have some...” The middle-aged man with glasses gently pushed the cup of tea to the opposite side.

Philip frowned and stepped forward. Without drinking the cup of tea, he asked coldly, “Who are you?”

The middle-aged man smiled slightly, turned to look at Philip, and said, “The people here call me Dragon King Well out of respect.”

Dragon King Well?

frowned and asked, “Why are said, “It’s nothing much. I heard that you’ve taken one of my subordinates away, so I hope that you here for

“In that case, you took a sip of tea and said, “Young Patriarch Clarke, let’s not beat about the bush. I’m here today just to ask you to let him go. If you came prepared. What if I don’t want flashed across Dragon King Well’s eyes. He put down the teacup in his hand gently, looked up at Philip, and said, “In that case, there’ll be no place for A threat!

smiled and said, “Did you find and said, “I know

know that I hate being threatened the most,” suddenly tensed. The guards behind Dragon King Well stared at Philip coldly before they drew guns from their waists and aimed them at subordinates don’t seem to understand the rules,” Philip glanced around and King Well said, “Put your

Chapter 2898

This confrontation caused the temperature in the lobby to plummet by more than 10 degrees!

Everyone could feel the sparks in the air.

The bodyguards brought by Dragon King Well were fully prepared for battle and put their hands on their waists. Fennel and the others also stared at these bodyguards solemnly.

In the end, Dragon King Well chuckled and said, “As expected of the young patriarch of the Clarke family. You’re bold and assertive. I hope you can still have such confidence when we meet next time.”

Philip smiled lightly and said, “I hope that you can still be a Dragon King when we meet again too.”

With that said, Dragon King Well turned to leave with his people. However, when he walked to the door, Dragon King Well said meaningfully, "If you want to know the base of the Lovelace family in Mystic City, bring Dumbo Lane to exchange for the information. I welcome you anytime."

After that, Dragon King Well left with his people.

Philip stood in the lobby and stared at the departing figures with a frown. Dragon King Well's last remark dropped like a bombshell!

know the base of the Lovelace family in Mystic King Well came prepared. He actually knows about the base of the Lovelace family in took a deep breath and said gravely, "Contact Aaron and tell him

Fennel nodded.

***

his men were locked in the dungeon. They were covered in mud water, and they shouted all day with Dragon King Well! Do you know what the consequences are? Hurry up and let you f*cking opening above, no one came. His voice was were sprawled on the floor. He kicked them and cursed, "Damn it!

tired from shouting but. had no choice looked at the dungeon below, saw

Dole, count yourself smart! But don't think that you can offset the mistake of capturing me even if you let me go now! I'll make you kneel and beg Aaron was unperturbed.

The First Heir

Chapter 2899

"Dumbo Lane, to tell you the truth, Dragon King Well has made an exchange for you with one condition. You're very lucky," Philip said.

Hearing that, Dumbo immediately shook off the two guards, laughed arrogantly, and said, "Hahaha, I knew that Dragon King Well would definitely save me! Young Patriarch Clarke, you're quite smart!"

After Dumbo said that, Philip kicked him and sent him crashing to the ground!

Thud!

In an instant, the two guards pressed their guns to Dumbo's head.

Dumbo's face was full of pain as he roared angrily, "Young Patriarch Clarke, how dare you treat me like this?! Aren't you afraid that Dragon King Well will pursue this?!"

Philip chuckled and said, "Dumbo, you don't seem to understand what I said. I said that Dragon King Well has to fulfill one condition of mine in exchange for you. Do you understand?"

Hiss!

and he was

'How could this be?'

did not bother to give Dumbo the time to

"Yes!"

out of the base. Aaron personally accompanied Philip to the residence of Dragon King Well. He also brought a team of fully armed elite hour later, they arrived

The sight was grand and dazzling. It looked like an ancient palace. Moreover, the entrance

he was stopped by several masked that only Mr. Clarke and Third Master Lane are allowed to enter. Other people

The First Heir

Chapter 2900

Dragon King Well was startled before he laughed and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, you really hit the nail on the head."

After that, he signaled his subordinates to retreat. The entire side hall was left with just Dragon King Well and Philip.

Dragon King Well motioned for Philip to sit down and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, there's no grudge between us, so we can sit down and have a good talk."

Philip raised his eyebrows and said with a shrug, "What are you trying to say? There's no one else here, so let's get straight to the point."

Dragon King Well smiled, pushed his glasses, and said, "I really like your forthright personality. It's very simple. I want to work with you. You help me get what I want, and I'll tell you what you want to know."

Philip frowned, thought about it, and asked, "How can you be sure that I want to work with you?"

Dragon King Well leaned back lazily, took a sip of tea, and said, "Because I, Windsor Well, may be the only person in the entire Mystic City who knows what you want to know."

this, Philip's

the clues of the Lovelace family?"

and said, "Only I know the Lovelace family's location and distribution of manpower in

He asked, "How can I know that deceit. After a moment of silence, Philip asked, "I brought Dumbo Lane with me. Let's make an exchange for the drive from the drawer of the coffee table, and said, "All the information in here is about the Lovelace family in Mystic City. Maybe what the side. He clicked on the City and several base locations

If

Windsor, and asked, "Did you delete noded and said, "Yes,