

The First Heir 2961

Chapter 2961

Samuel was stunned for a moment before he looked at the white jade box with horror. That thing inside was trying to resist!

Philip sneered. He had known about it long ago because from the moment he stood on the altar. The golden mark on his arm had been feeding him a warning message. The thing contained in the white jade box was definitely an existence that made the royal monster on his arm apprehensive!

To be precise, it was a rivalry!

It was a life form with the same existence as the White Marsh royalty. In other words, another royalty of the other shore was sealed in this box. Therefore, the mark on his arm continuously fed Philip a danger signal.

The two of them just looked at the white jade box, at a loss. After pondering for a moment, Philip reached out the arm with the golden mark and grabbed the white jade box.

In an instant, the golden mark on Philip's arm dazzled!

Immediately, Samuel and the other group gave chase!

After the secret treasure left the altar, the previous restriction effect disappeared, so everyone recovered their strength. In an instant, various energy storms and attacks blasted at Philip.

The black bear roared. The chimpanzee hammered the sky. The devil's shadow writhed!

The space was ravaged by tremendous energy and the power of rules. Philip and the others ran but quickly fell into this energy storm.

Boom!

The huge chimpanzee and black bear punched at Philip with terrifying energy fluctuations enough to destroy the world. Philip's speed was already at the speed of sound, but he still could not escape. He had to turn around and counter with a few chimera fists!

The sky shook, flames burned, and devilish energy surged.

When the chimera sword collided with the devil's sword, a huge energy storm exploded and formed a circle of energy ripples that swept the space with a bang. This terrifying energy ripple also accelerated the collapse of this space. Cracks appeared one after another, and the space began to collapse into fragments.

Fennel led the others. They were fighting while retreating and kept looking for a way out.

“The exit is over there! Quick!” Fennel found the exit and reared angrily.

Everyone ran quickly!

Lord Ludo did not want to leave. She looked back at Philip who was locked in a fight with several people and shouted, “No, I can’t leave! He’s still there!”

Fennel glanced at Philip who was caught in a fight over there and said with a hint of chill in his eyes, “We can’t stay here. We’ll only drag him down! Go!”

With that said, Fennel grabbed Lord Ludo and tossed her out the exit. At the same time, the red dragon halberd in his hand turned into a red dragon and swept across the people sneaking up from behind.

The overwhelming four or five sword slashes went straight at Philip. Such a powerful attack was not something Philip could resist!

He quickly stepped back and mobilized the energy of his whole body. The human-shaped fire chimera behind him blocked the attack with the chimera sword in its hand.

Clink! Clang!

With several consecutive blows, Philip was engulfed in the monstrous black devilish energy. This blow seemed enough to split this space open!

Boom!

Philip was sent flying, his body covered in blood. The fire chimera behind him also suffered several wounds, and the chimera sword in his hand also cracked in several places. He wiped the blood that spilled from the corner of his mouth and could barely steady himself. With a fierce fighting intent in his eyes, he said angrily, "Again!"

Philip had put all his strength into the attack just now, plus the rotation of kingship power, before he could release the power in the middle of the seventh zone. Even so, not much damage was done to Samuel at all.

That was the actual gap between the realms!

Philip sneered and said, "Do you want the secret treasure? Dream on!"

With that said, Philip turned around and ran away. Of course, he would run if he could not win. He could not foolishly wait to die.

“You want to run?!” Samuel roared, and the shadow behind him stepped forward to grab Philip. However, at that very moment, this layer of space shattered completely, and a huge claw fell from the sky. Under the gigantic claw, the shadow was crushed like an insignificant ant!

Puff!

Samuel spat out a mouthful of blood and flew out.

Everyone was stunned and stared at the sky!

The power of lightning that covered the claw desperately fought against the power of the rules of this world. There should be some kind of special restriction that prevented the giant claw from entering this world.

The old man snorted coldly and waved his hand. A green sword light as big as a mountain slashed the dark giant claw. At the same time, the old man roared, "Since you insist, I'll cut your claw off! I'll show you that this world is not something guys like you can covet!"

Philip stared with wide eyes at the huge claw that grabbed toward him. The claw was full of lightning and chaotic energy that was enough to kill any powerhouse at the peak of the seventh zone. Even a half-step to the other shore seemed very insignificant in the face of this giant claw. However, at this moment, the golden mark on Philip's arm suddenly dazzled with a golden glow.

The little guy suddenly sprang out from Philip's arm. With a golden body that looked like a lamb with two horns, it roared clearly. Then, with its horn, it butted the huge black claw!

One was the overwhelming black claw enough to kill anyone at the peak of the seventh zone. One was a little guy of the White Marsh royal family as small as an ant. There was no comparison between the two at all!

Just like a boat in the vast ocean, it was a suicide attempt!

However...

Boom!

The horns on the little guy's head actually burst out with dazzling energy that could compete with the sharp claw. The sharp claw was blasted out by the little guy.

"Royal White Marsh! Damn you!" The emperor in the sky roared angrily, "How dare the White Marsh family betray the other shore?! On behalf of the nine royal families, I'm going to kill you, this rebel!"

An angry roar! That imposing claw grabbed again!

This attack from the crack in the sky was extremely powerful, like a blow full of anger from a strong being.

This black sword energy with terrifying power and mighty power of rules slashed at Philip from the crack in the sky/

At the scene, 100,000 guards were dumbfounded!

Claus and the others were also shocked by this huge aura. By the time they could react, the black sword energy was already less than an inch away from Philip. At that time, Philip felt that his whole body was engulfed by a huge pressure. He could not mobilize his power of the rule even if he wanted to. Even a powerhouse at the peak of the seventh zone would be reduced to ashes under this attack!

Claus was shocked and immediately countered with an attack at the black sword energy while shouting angrily, "Emperor of the other shore, you're crossing the line by force and destroying the future of the human race!"

Philip and the others waited outside the door anxiously.

Claus walked up to Philip and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, don't worry. There's no injury that Dr. Hoff can't heal in this world. It just happens that I have some questions for you."

Philip frowned and looked at Claus. Then, they walked to the garden.

Claus served Philip some tea and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, do you know what happened in the outside world while you were having the challenge in Mystic Cave?"

Philip took a sip of tea and said, "Please speak your mind, Dragon King Motley."

Claus still felt apprehensive as he sighed and said, "Mystic Cave is a passage that leads to the other shore. While you were having the challenge, a crack appeared in this passage, and many powerful beings from the other side kept attacking the crack in the passage, trying to force their way into this world..."

"100,000 guards of Mystic City have been deployed all around, and tens of thousands of disciples and special guards from Cochly Mountain joined the ranks. Even the four great supremes were urgently summoned to stand guard and prevent the massive invasion of creatures from the other shore. It can be said that our country nearly experienced a catastrophe that could've destroyed our civilization just now..."

Philip quickly rushed to the room. Layla lay on the bed, her face pale. Her breathing was still very weak. He walked over, looked at Layla's condition, and stroked her hair. Then, he got up, walked out of the room, and bowed to Dr. Hoff.

He said, "Dr. Hoff, how is my friend doing?"

The old man in front of him was talking to Claus. Seeing Philip, he smiled and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, don't worry. Your friend is out of danger now. There's nothing serious, but..."

"But what?" Philip asked.

Dr. Hoff shook his head and said, "She seems to have a condition that I can't figure out. I've practiced medicine for decades, but I've never seen such a condition before."

"What condition?" Philip asked nervously.
