Chapter 2991

“Hah!” Philip bellowed, jumped into the air, and punched the approaching huge stone pillar!

Boom!

His punch turned into a chimera fist that slammed into one of the huge stone pillars. In an instant, the surface of the stone pillar rippled with cracks with his fist as the center and shattered with a bang.

The moment the stone pillar burst, Philip spun and jumped in the air. He turned his body around and kicked the other stone pillar that came from the side!

Boom!

That kick turned into a chimera leg and shattered the stone pillar with one kick. Everything happened in a split second.

Rumble!

However, in a flash, Ignis had gotten close to him. His fists turned into hundreds as they bombarded Philip intensively.

Philip went into full battle mode and fought Ignis in the air, on the ground, and in the ponds!

The whole area exploded in flames!

Hundreds of shadow punches from Ignis blasted on Philip like rapid cannonballs. Philip also countered with his chimera fists, each punch colliding with the other party's fists. A terrifying flame storm erupted.

Swoosh, swoosh!

In an instant, these hundreds of rain swords shot down like a rapid line of fire. The attack was indiscriminate, fast, and intense. No one could escape such a heavy attack.

Philip frowned. Tremendous energy pressure and the power of rules poured out from his body. He raised his fist and punched the hundreds of rain swords in the sky.

Roar!

A dragon's roar shook the world.

Philip's punch turned into a huge water dragon with its jaws wide open. It swung its tail and slammed into the hundreds of rain swords!

Clang, Clang!

Hundreds of swords stabbed the dragon's body, forming rainwater and ice crystals. The huge water dragon crushed the hundreds of rain swords in the sky in an instant.

At the same time, a big water cannonball blasted from the dragon's mouth toward a certain location on the ground.

Philip had to deal with the intensive attack of the two. The battle here reached new heights. Every punch to the flesh produced terrifying waves of heat.

The fight became extremely fast. The attacks between the three were so fast that no one in the surroundings could see clearly.

"What a fast attack! I can't see clearly at all!"

"This is scary! All of us are bound to die under such an attack!"

"This young patriarch of the Clarke family is amazing. Under such an offensive, he's not at a disadvantage at all!"

"Explode!" Suddenly, Ignis roared angrily and gathered the power of flame rules in his fist.

Boom!

Then, he punched Philip. A huge flaming cannon shot out from his punch at Philip!

Ignis' terrifying aura swept over everyone. Everyone was shocked and stared at Ignis in stunned silence. This aura was too compelling!

"No, I don't think so. The aura of a half-step to the other shore isn't like this. It lacks something..." In the crowd, an old man said with a frown.

"Scary! A strong person like this actually exists among the Five Elements. Are they really about to repeat the events from decades ago?"

"Who knows? However, if people of the Five Elements make an appearance in the world, I believe someone will stop them."

Everyone chattered.

Philip frowned. He could feel the fierce aura from the other party getting stronger and more terrifying. The opponent was about to attack with all his strength.

Ignis’ every punch contained a huge and terrifying power that was enough to destroy the world.

“Young Patriarch Clarke, if you keep dodging like this, you’ll end up losing sooner or later.”

Ignis jumped into the air, rotating and creating a spark shaped like a lotus. The fire lotus dazzled brightly, and the red-golden petals blasted at Philip one after another like confetti.

Philip looked up, and a strong sense of crisis enveloped him. He lowered his body, crossed his arms over his chest, and suddenly pointed to the sky.

A huge red sword formation rose from under Philip’s feet. Red chimera swords circled Philip, spinning non-stop. The buzzing filled the air.

The battle became more exciting and tense!

It was an eye-opening experience for the onlookers. They had never seen such an amazing fight before. This was simply a feast for the eyes.

Layer after layer, the central battleground collapsed. Huge pits formed in the ground one after another, and the space shook with signs of collapse.

"Explode!" Ignis suddenly punched Philip, and a heart-stopping energy pressure burst out from his fist.

This energy seemed as if it had been accumulated for a long time and was released at this moment. Like a nuclear explosion, this earth-shattering beam of energy slammed into Philip.

Philip also raised his hand and punched out with his accumulated strength. His chimera fist exerted full strength at this moment. Along with the chimera's roar, the mighty power of that punch slammed into the huge beam of energy!

In an instant, the four quickly left with the seriously injured Ignis.

The crowd clamored!

Philip actually crossed two small realms and seriously injured Ignis of the Five Elements. At this moment, he lay in the middle of the battleground. He was exhausted and could not move an inch.

This was the adverse effect of fighting across the realms by force. The secret treasure of the ancient sage fell to the ground in the rain.

In an instant, the onlookers were about to make a move!

“It’s the secret treasure of the ancient sage!” Someone shouted, and in an instant, dozens of figures rushed forward in the rain and charged at Philip who was lying on the ground. These people rushed over as they fought with each other.

In just a few minutes, dozens of people who wanted to take advantage of the situation were dead. On the ground, blood mixed with rain, and corpses with sword injuries all over littered the ground. In the distance, those people lurking in the dark trembled.

No one expected Cody to kill so boldly!

Everyone's faces turned grim as they looked at Cody standing in the rain.

They said loudly, "Mr. Crane, you're making an enemy of all the major disciple families by doing this!"

"Cody Crane, aren't you afraid of offending the six great disciple families by going on a rampage?"

"Hand over the ancient sage's secret treasure and you can leave with Young Patriarch Clarke! Otherwise, don't blame us for joining forces!"

Some elders or patriarchs of the disciple families who had yet to make a move stepped forward at this moment and expressed their intention to join forces.

Claus ordered his servant to take Philip inside for treatment before he said to everyone, “Mr. Leigh, calm down... Young Patriarch Clarke’s opponent was someone from the Five Elements. The envoy from the Fire Element was seriously injured too.”

Claus sighed and added, “Young Patriarch fought across the realms this time and seriously injured the opponent. It really caused quite a stir.”

A battle across the realms? Everyone was dumbfounded!

After Claus explained everything to them, they breathed a sigh of relief but were filled with worry too.

“Why did the Five Elements appear?” Fennel asked with a frown.

He knew a bit about the Five Elements. They were regarded as a bunch of ambitious people decades ago. After several big figures joined forces later, they were driven to the stargate to guard over the Mirror Seal. For decades, the Five Elements had disappeared from the secular and disciple world.

Unexpectedly, they reappeared again.

Claus frowned and said, “According to the news I received, it should be Windsor Well who contacted them.”

“Windsor Well?” Hearing this name, Fennel scowled as a hint of chill flashed in his eyes.

He said, “Very good! Not only did he try to attack us several times, but he even contacted the Five Elements this time.”

Chapter 3000

The news that Dragon King Well had offended the young patriarch of the Clarke family and gotten his manor destroyed, and subsequently got resorted by a mysterious person, quickly spread throughout Mystic City. Everyone in the city panicked because many families had offended Young Patriarch Clarke too.

Now, the well-being of the Third Dragon King of Mystic City was unknown, which was enough to deter everyone. Everyone speculated what was the next step Young Patriarch Clarke would take.

In Claus' private villa, Philip and the others were chatting.

"Young Patriarch Clarke, your destruction of Windsor's manor has spread throughout the city. All the patriarchs of the families who haven't left are panicking now."

Claus sat on the side and said, "The example you set is very good."

Philip nodded lightly and said, "I want to thank you for your hospitality these days. I'll leave the rest of the things in Mystic City in your good hands."

Claus nodded and said, "Please rest assured, Young Patriarch Clarke. I'll take good care of the aftermath in Mystic City."

At this time, a maid walked in quickly and said, "Lord Dragon King, Young Patriarch Clarke, Miss Nolan is awake."
