

The First Heir 61

Chapter 61

Agnes' expression changed. How much money did Philip have?

"How many can you get today?"

"Um... I have to try."

John trembled. However, he was fueled with motivation at the same time.

If he managed to get this business, he would definitely be the best sales representative this year!

Ten minutes later.

"Mr. Clarke, the 100 BMW motorcycles you're asking for comes up to a total of 28,570,000 bucks." John walked over with his bill. He had already contacted the other shops and got them to deliver the bikes today.

Philip looked at the time and took out his card for the salesperson. "Take my card."

George had given him this card when they were at the desert shop last time.

inside. He could use it however

first asset

billion bucks was nothing

saw his family mining for gold and grabbed the card while being in a daze. He asked suddenly, "Are you not going to

Huh?

Philip was the one who

a loan? Why should I? I

Nouveau riche!

a truly

buying 100 BMW motorcycles just like former me! He really bought them! It's a

my. That man is so willing to part with his

want envious gazes, Philip took over a bunch of keys from John and walked out the door with