Chapter 981

In this area, the killing intent raged everywhere, adding a layer of intensity to this rainy night.

“Move out!”

With that order, the fully armed men all assembled and opened the car doors before getting in.

Philip and Theo also got in the car, and the engines came roaring.

Very soon, more than a dozen black MPVs carrying these people followed directly behind the Land Rover ahead. They drove out of the iron sheet factory and headed toward Fenix Hotel and Restaurant in Phoenicia!

The whole sky was dark and terrifying!

The wind rampaged the trees while the thunder rumbled as if the sky was about to collapse.

Under the heavy downpour, one car after another broke through the curtain of rain. They crashed past the puddles as they rushed toward their destination!

Fenix Hotel and Restaurant, Phoenicia. The storm was about to hit!

At the same time in the luxurious little yard somewhere in the Westside of South River District.

Crack!

A blast of thunder and a streak of lightning directly cut through the night sky, illuminating the entire small courtyard.

This was Cecil’s headquarters in the South River District.

After several beeps, the call connected.

Fanny's originally cold and pale face immediately changed as her voice now carried a flattering tone. "Dave, what's the situation? Why didn't we receive any advanced notice that our venues would be raided? And so many establishments of ours have been seized at once. Is there a special operation?"

A faint chuckle came from the other end of the line. "Lady Mae, what are you talking about? We're doing our jobs seriously."

Fanny's face darkened, but she still said with a smile, "Dave, your words are a little unconvincing. Despite everything, you're friends with our master. Why didn't you inform us in advance?"

The words were not too harsh but contained a certain level of accusations.

"Lady Mae, do we have to notify you in advance before we do our jobs?"

The voice on the other end of the phone seemed unpleasant.

Suddenly, Fanny's expression completely changed.

This Dave had to be hiding something from her!

"Dave, is it convenient for you to reveal who is targeting our master?"

Fanny was a shrewd person and quickly understood the implications.

There was silence on the other end of the phone before a lowered voice sounded. "Lady Mae, it's not that I don't want to help, but this time, I'm afraid even Master Cecil can't avoid it. He has provoked someone who shouldn't be provoked. I also just received a last-minute notice and couldn't do anything about it."

Did the master provoke someone?

Fanny panicked.

Philip got out of the car. A dozen black seven-seater commercial vehicles were lined up behind him, taking up the entire entrance of Fenix Hotel.

Only an empty space right at the entrance was left.

Everyone got out of the cars at the same time!

Standing neatly and uniformly behind Philip while arranged in four rows, all of them looked serious and exuded chills!

In this area, the rain poured relentlessly while the sky was full of thunder and lightning.

It was befitting of this scene.

Everyone swiftly opened up the big black umbrellas, completely covering the small square in front of Fenix Hotel.

Looking down from a high altitude through the endless rain, black lotus flowers could be seen in full bloom—all neatly and densely arranged on the small square.

The countless dark umbrellas added a fearless and deadly chill to the continuous gloomy rain in the sky!

The sea of black umbrellas covered the entire front area, but only a wide umbrella surface blocked the rainwater.

Nonetheless...

Philip raised his head indifferently, his eyes full of coldness and ruthlessness. He glanced at the smug Cecil opposite him and said coldly, "I'm not here for an explanation tonight."

Cecil was startled, and his thick eyebrows were furrowed. Suspicion flashed in his eyes, followed by a disdainful smile as he asked, "Then what do you want?"

Philip was silent for a moment as a sudden killing intent soared into the sky after exploding from his body. He said in a deep voice, "Your life!"

Crackle!

A streak of lightning flashed across the night sky, completely illuminating the entire Fenix Hotel.

Dozens of people on Cecil's side, including the spectators who were hiding in the hotel at the moment, watched the movements outside through the curtain of rain. On other floors of the building, prominent leaders from various regions who were paying close attention to the action of the square downstairs were also shocked by this sudden bout of lightning!

After that, the call was disconnected.

With a frown, Yana flung the phone on the bed. With her arms crossed, she looked at the murderous scene raging downstairs.

Could it be that other forces had joined in?

Back to Philip's side. He glared at Cecil as if he was looking at a dead person.

Cecil was also taken aback by Philip's words just now.

He wanted his life?

Very well!

He was very brazen indeed!

Cecil came back to his senses and laughed. "Fantastic! As expected of the rich financier who Theo found. You're really bold! But do you really think people like you can take someone like me down?"

He was furious.

After the phone was connected, Cecil asked coldly, "What's the matter? Why are you calling me at this time? Don't you know I'm busy?"

He was at the brink of an explosion.

Cecil was like a walking bomb, ready to explode at any moment.

"Master Cecil, something has happened at home!"

On the other end of the line, his subordinate stammered.

“Where’s Madam?”

Cecil’s brows suddenly twisted. Suspicion flashed across his face as he raised his eyebrows to look at Philip. Could it be him?

“Haha, Master Cecil, long time no see. Lady Mae is safe for now.”

Suddenly, there was a different voice on the line.

Cecil had heard this voice before and shouted furiously, “Tiger Zander? If you dare lay a finger on my wife, I’ll kill you!”

“Hahaha, I want to see exactly how Theo and you are going to take my life today!”

Cecil laughed, his eyes filled with an expression of victory.

His people had already arrived!

They outnumbered Theo’s men now!

How could they be a match?

In an instant, the figures gathered from all directions. Yielding weapons, they instantly filled the small square in front of Fenix Hotel.

This was an unexpected turn of events.

The change in this scene shocked everyone present!

As expected of Cecil Dane! He had a backup plan!

This reversal caused everyone in the lobby and upstairs to sigh and shake their heads.

Among them, Peter Murdoch was the most triumphant.

When he noticed the arrival of Cecil’s men, he immediately smiled and ran up to Cecil to flatter him.

“Master Cecil, you’re very wise indeed. What a godly plan! This time, it’s all over for Theo and that Mr. Clarke.”

As he spoke, Peter also glanced at Philip on the opposite side. There was a look of contempt and mockery in his eyes.

Young people were just too impulsive. It would not end well for him.

Earlier, Cecil had flown into a rage and shouted at his capable assistants Razor and Ali.
The two guys remained silent while looking at Cecil coldly. They were motionless.
They were resisting orders!
Cecil frowned and yelled, "Razor, Ali, are you f*cking deaf? I told you to hack him into pieces!"
However, the tattooed Razor and the burly Ali who was wearing a green vest still did not move a step.
They stood there coldly with a sea of people behind them, just looking at Cecil.
They looked as if they were staring at an idiot.
"Master Cecil, I'm sorry, but ten minutes ago, you were already kicked out of the board of directors by Cecily Group."

Razor put his hands in his pants pocket and said with an unruly sneer at the corner of his mouth.

Boom!

Hearing this, Cecil's heart trembled as his brows furrowed. He then roared furiously. "What the hell are you talking about? I'm the chairman of Cecily Group. Who the hell dares to kick me out?"

Cecil was enraged!

Were they turning against him?

However, just as Cecil's voice fell, a gruff and cold voice sounded in the venue.

"Me."

Bowen's participation in the underground chamber of commerce back then was still vivid in their minds! That was the big boss recognized by the entire South River District, Riverdale, and the surrounding small areas. It was not an exaggeration to say that he was the unofficial leader of the entire southern region.

Back then, he was full of spirits, and wherever he went, he was respected as Master Bowen.

Peter totally panicked and his knees went weak.

F*ck!

Was he not supposed to meet his benefactor?

Where was that person?

Was that a benefactor or a jinx?!

Peter felt like he was about to die.

On all levels inside the building, the prominent figures displayed different looks. They did not expect the other party's trump card to be Bowen Roy!

He was back! This session of the underground chamber of commerce would be full of surprises!

Ken's expression was the gloomiest. He had been preparing for a long time. After Bowen's incident back then, he had rushed to catch up and consolidated his position in the South River District!

Although he still had less than one-tenth of Bowen's territory back then, it was also enough for him to be proud.

Razor stood there with his hands in his pants pocket and said nonchalantly, "Master Cecil, I used to follow Master Bowen in the past. The things you did recently have gone overboard. How many brothers who followed you back then were secretly disposed of? Do you really think we don't know about it?"

Toward the end, Razor was almost roaring with anger!

After that, he took out a voice recorder and pressed the play button.

A seductive female voice could be heard saying, "Master Cecil, didn't you say that Joe is just a dog you raised? Why do you treat him so well?"

Cecil's voice replied, "Since he's a dog, I have to feed him well. Look, as soon as I said I'll give him Riverdale, he's so happy. What else is he but a dog?"

“Master Cecil, are you really going to give him Riverdale?”

“Since it’s mine, it’s up to me whether I want to give it or not. Why? If I don’t give it to him, would he dare to snatch it from me?”

It was followed by Cecil’s loud laughter...

“Master Cecil, be gentle with me...”

There was dead silence on the scene at this moment!

All the men behind Razor and Ali stared at Cecil fixedly.

The men behind Cecil were also shaken at this moment, looking at the burly Cecil in front of them with doubts in their eyes!

Cecil was actually this sort of person.

At the same time, Theo’s people brought Joe, who was covered in blood and had his limbs broken, directly from behind and threw him into the rain.
