

The Game 1151

Chapter 1151 Have You Heard Of Food That Glows? 2

Then, he saw the special beef's cooking skill.

[special beef cooking skill: special culinary skills!]

[this is a world-famous cooking technique created by the gourmet. It is only effective when used to make beef, and it may even make a glowing beef delicacy. Effect: Deliciousness +1, texture +1, fragrance +1, light effect +1! [special effects: deliciousness +2, texture +2, fragrance +2, light effect +1]

[special effect restrictions: 1. Only high-quality beef is effective! [2. It's only effective when cooking at a grand food Festival!]

[after using it, you will be able to obtain the exact contents of the recipe.]

Qin Lin looked at the attributes of the special beef cooking skill and was surprised.

It was the first time he had obtained such a cooking skill. It actually had two skill effects.

one of the skills 'effects was no different from the previous ones, but the special skill at the back was even more impressive. its attributes were both +2.

This was very awesome, okay?

the cooking skill he had obtained before was all +1. even if he used quality 2 ingredients to cook, he could only make quality 3 dishes.

If he could activate the +2 attribute, then cook with the quality 2 snow and beef, would he be able to make +4 attribute beef?

Most importantly, it had the incredible attribute of light effect +1.

Was this the key to the gourmet's ability to make glowing food?

However, there were two restrictions to this special effect. One was that it could only be used on high-quality beef, which was a quality 2 beef. The other restriction was that it had to be prepared at a grand food Festival.

This restriction was a little harsh.

He knew about the food Festival.

He also knew that a grand food Festival meant that it had to be on a large scale.

However, he couldn't possibly hold a grand food Festival just to cook beef, right?

That would be too extravagant and troublesome.

Only a fool would do such a thing, right?

However, he had to learn this skill first.

Qin Lin decisively chose to use his skill.

In an instant, the familiar feeling appeared again. A stream of information poured into his mind and was deeply imprinted.

It was the skill information about cooking beef.

At the same time, there was a recipe for special materials.

this recipe was also one of the reasons why the special beef cooking skill had such a special effect.

Moreover, the reason why food glowed was also related to these materials.

When this material was compressed to a certain degree, it would react with the steam. At the moment the pot was opened, light was added in, producing a special light effect.

This light was not harmful to food. Instead, it made the beef more delicious and the surface more greasy and juicy.

From the information he had obtained, he knew that only by using this recipe and then cooking it would it produce a special attribute effect.

Moreover, with the same secret recipe, using the cooking skills in the game could also produce special effects.

&Nbsp; after these two conditions were met, only the two other conditions could be met to produce the special attribute effect.

So, to be precise, there were four restrictions.

even if this secret recipe was placed in front of others, there was no way to learn it secretly, unless the other party also cheated.

Even he himself couldn't cook as he pleased.

After using the skill scroll, he had gained a lot of muscle memory. He had used the special beef cooking skill many times, so he had a lot of experience.

after receiving the information about the skills, qin lin logged out of the game and drove away from the villa.

When he arrived at the warehouse, he entered the game again and went to the storage room. When he killed the cattle for the mission, there were still some quality 2 snow and beef left, and he planned to take some out.

[whole snow and beef: quality 2]

[this is one of the most expensive types of beef. It is said that there is a limited number of whole-snow cattle every year. The pattern is as dense as marble, and it has a smooth texture like butter. It is oily but not greasy, tender and tasty. Because of the game's improvement, the quality is better. Taste +2, deliciousness +2, nutritional value +2, immune system +2, anemia prevention +2, accelerated metabolism +2!]

qin lin picked up a big piece of beef and logged out of the game. then, he went to you city to buy the ingredients needed for the special recipe.

After he was done, he returned to the manor and took the beef and ingredients to the kitchen.

He decided to give it a try and see if there was really a Food Festival for beef with special attribute effects.

What if?

"Chairman Qin, are you going to cook again?" master lin asked curiously when he saw qin lin coming in with beef and other ingredients.

"Yeah, I'm planning to make some beef." qin lin nodded and gave the beef to the chef and his assistant.
" "process the beef and wash the ingredients,"

The chef and the apprentice who got the beef didn't dare to do it intentionally, so they hurriedly started to work.

"Chairman Qin, I'll be your assistant?" Master Lin news.

"master lin, you can just watch. you won't be able to help this time," qin lin said with a smile.

after the chef finished processing the beef, qin lin took the beef and started to process it with a knife.

Since he had the skills to cook beef, his cutting skills were quite good.

A moment later, a piece of beef was prepared.

after that, he began to make a portion of stewed beef according to the memory that he had obtained in his mind.

first, he added oil to the hot pot and fried the scallions and ginger.

after that, he added the beef and stir-fried it. when the meat turned white, he added soy sauce and stewed it slightly, then poured water into the pot.

This was the most important time. After the water boiled, the surface of the fish was scooped off. Then, spices such as aniseed, cinnamon, pepper, and Canna were added. In addition, the ingredients in the secret recipe were also added one by one.

Moreover, the order in which these ingredients were put in was also very important. The timing had to be controlled well, or else the result would be different if there was a slight difference.

when all the ingredients were added, it was stewed for 20 minutes on low heat.

while qin lin was cooking, master lin and the other chefs had already surrounded him and were staring at him.

they all knew that their boss was very good at cooking, but this was the first time their boss had cooked beef.

before the 20 minutes were up, a fragrance slowly spread out. the skill's fragrance attribute had been triggered.

However, when he smelled the fragrance, Qin Lin frowned slightly. The fragrance seemed to only be at the level of +1. The reason why he could confirm it was naturally because he had learned from the previous medicinal cuisine's +1 medicinal fragrance.

Master Lin and the other chefs subconsciously licked their lips when they smelled the fragrance.

The +1 fragrance attribute bonus was still very attractive to them.

finally, it was time to start cooking. qin lin immediately opened the lid, but there was no light.

In other words, without satisfying those conditions, there was no way to make glowing beef.

qin lin took out a pot of stewed beef and tasted it. he didn't even need to enter the game to know that the deliciousness and texture of the beef had been increased by +3.

That was all. It was only a Grade 3 stewed beef.

With so many of these things happening, he had gained experience.

"What's wrong, Chairman Qin? Didn't you do well?" master lin saw that his boss didn't seem to be satisfied, so he took the chopsticks and tasted it.

The texture and deliciousness of a quality 3 made his eyes light up.

This is very delicious, okay? At the very least, he could be sure that no one outside could make such delicious beef.

However, it was already so delicious, and his boss was still not satisfied?

Master Lin could only sigh with emotion. As a chef, he would really feel inferior in front of his boss's cooking skills.

It was the dream of all chefs to be able to make such delicious beef. If the boss was not satisfied, it meant that he could make something more delicious.

This Kasaya

Qin Lin sighed. He walked out of the kitchen and took out his phone to call Lin Lanzi. As soon as the call went through, he said to Lin Lanzi, chief Lin, our villa hasn't had an event in a long time. Why don't you plan a Food Festival? remember to make it Grand.

On the other side, Lin Lanzi hung up the phone with a face full of doubt. Why did the boss suddenly want to organize a Food Festival?

however, she didn't dare to disobey her boss's order. she immediately gathered the resort's multimedia department for a meeting.

This kind of thing still needed to be planned by the people in the multimedia department!

Chapter 1152 Another Event At Linlin Villa: Food Night

Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin looked at the virtual screen and finished his daily tasks for the day. Then, someone knocked on the door.

Lin Lanzi and Chen Li actually walked in together.

"you two, why have you come together?" qin lin got up and asked curiously. he invited chen li to the tea table and sat down.

after lin lanzi sat down, she explained, "Chairman Qin, didn't you ask me to prepare for the food Festival? Chen Xian is also here for this matter."

boss Qin, " Chen Li nodded. I'm indeed here for the food Festival. You city's weather has been changing recently, and there's been an explosion of tourists.

" although we were attracted here by the changing climate due to the pleasant weather, we can't just rely on the weather alone. we can't just eat everything in one move. "

" so, the county has also thought of holding some activities, but you know that our county lacks experience in this area, and we are definitely not as good as your linlin villa. "

after hearing that your Linlin Manor is going to hold a Food Festival, the county wants to join you in organizing this Food Festival. It will be held once or several times a year.

make this event a little more sensational. It might be a big feature of our you city tour, so I came to discuss it with you, boss Qin.

Qin Lin had organized the food Festival just to try making a special beef dish and make it glow.

He didn't expect the county to have such thoughts.

sure, the county can discuss this with President Lin. I have no objections. Qin Lin didn't refuse. Since it was jointly organized by the county, the food Festival was naturally even grander.

Moreover, the county thought that this would become a special feature, so he would not refuse to cooperate. Anyway, there would be no loss to Linlin Manor, and he could help the county, so why not?

If you city's tourist environment was good, it would also be good for Linlin Manor.

"I'm really grateful to you, boss Qin." Chen Li's face immediately showed joy. After chatting with Qin Lin for a while, he also impatiently left with Lin Lanzi to Linlin villa to discuss the food Festival.

In the next few days, Linlin villa and you city entered the preparation phase together. Lin Lanzi also came over from time to time to report the latest situation.

a few days later, chen licai and lin lanzi went to qin lin's office again.

"President Qin, take a look at the design and flow of this entire Food Festival." lin lanzi said as she handed the proposal to qin lin.

Qin Lin took the plan and read it.

the food festival was divided into two parts. one was naturally the food part.

During the food Festival, you city's various snack vendors, snack shops, restaurants, and even private people could participate.

They could sell their own food on the same day and then collect likes and comments from tourists. At that time, you Cheng would open a special website, and all the chefs who made food could register and apply for a like QR code.

Naturally, on the day of the food Festival, it was not limited to the chefs in you city. Chefs from outside could also attend.

You city would completely seal off the road from you city's new district to Linlin Manor. Stalls would be set up on both sides of the road, allowing chefs from you city to show off their cooking skills and collect likes from tourists.

The batch of chefs who had received the most likes from tourists would be able to participate in the food night held in the Linlin Ranch area.

The other side was for the tourists.

On the day of the food Festival, when tourists arrived in you city, as long as they spent at any cooking stall, snack bar, or restaurant, they could get a chance to draw a lottery.

there were some challenge missions that could be obtained from the lottery, such as how much food to eat, how much soda to drink, or the long jump, or how long to kiss with your girlfriend, or how long a princess would carry her.

As long as these tasks were completed, they could get the remaining tickets of the corresponding food night.

there were a total of 1,2,3,4, and 5 departments in the ticket sales section.

The five different departments could be combined into a ticket to form an entrance QR code. At that time, they could participate in the food night.

Moreover, one ticket could bring a family of three in.

qin lin looked at the plan and felt that it was more like a variety show.

moreover, if they really did it and promoted it well, it would be of a higher grade than those variety shows, right?

after all, there would be tens of thousands of tourists in you city and hundreds of thousands of people in you city. most of them would probably attend.

which variety show could afford to invite so many extras?

Other than the fact that there were no celebrities, this Food Festival was definitely big enough.

However, in order to hold a Food Festival like this, the final reward must be rich and attractive enough.

And the rewards were all in the gourmet Night.

the chefs who entered the food night could get a reward of 10000 yuan. moreover, they would also get likes on the food night, and the top three gourmets would also emerge.

The third place would receive 100000, the second 300000, and the first 500000.

Naturally, the gourmet's first place position was more important to the chefs than the reward.

With the popularity of Linlin villa and you city, the attention would definitely be very high.

He believed that these chefs would change their names to first, second, and third place in you city Gourmet Festival.

At that time, there would be huge benefits.

Naturally, after the visitors entered the food night, in addition to giving the chef a like, they could also draw a lottery and get rewards.

Or a reward of 100000 Yuan, or a beef dish made by little Qin.

The last reward was requested by Qin Lin, but the first 100000 Yuan should be the most attractive reward for tourists.

Chapter 1153 Another Event At Linlin Villa: Food Night \(2\)

thinking about it, who wouldn't want to participate if they could have fun, eat delicious food, and have the chance to get a reward of 100000 yuan?

Naturally, you city would pay for the bonus. If they were in charge of it, they would seem rich and overbearing.

However, after this event, you city would get hundreds or even thousands of times more benefits.

Qin Lin looked at the details of the food Festival, especially the security. You city had put in a lot of effort. Not only would the police force be fully deployed, but the fire department would also be on standby. They would even be transferred from outside.

there would also be linlin villa's security guards, the various scenic area's security guards, and the security guards from various companies in you city, so there would be no problems with the food festival.

On the other hand, Lin Lanzi actually wanted Happy Elephant to be a warm-up animal for the food night. She had taught and trained related skills, and even wanted Xiao Wu to maintain order. Was it possible to give it a small megaphone to shout?

This was interesting.

qin lin looked at the perfect feast plan and had a general understanding of the situation. he gave lin lanzi another suggestion.

he could provide the ingredients for the gourmet night. he could also provide a high-quality ingredient (quality 2).

In other words, the food served at the gourmet Night was of the emperor's supreme set meal level.

If he wanted to get it, he would get it to the best.

After that, he also signed his name on the proposal.

after returning the proposal to Lin Lanzi, Qin Lin also invited Chen Li, "Chen Xian, since the matter has been settled, let's make some tea."

"we'll listen to boss Qin!" Chen Li smiled and also made an inviting gesture toward the tea table.

He was in a very good mood now. Boss Qin had signed the plan, and his task this time had been successfully completed.

Qin Lin took out a quality 2 Tieganyin and made a pot of it. He chatted with Chen Li for a while, but Chen Li only left after receiving a call.

After that, Lin Lanzi returned to the mountain villa and started to let the multimedia department only produce videos to promote the food Festival.

In the evening, the video of the Linlin Manor Food Festival was also released through the official account of the village, which was the accounts of Wangcai, Xiaowu, and Snowy.

The official account had more than 130 million fans, including the fans of the animals. As soon as the video was released, it received the attention of countless fans and became a hot search.

Moreover, Linlin villa hadn't held an event for a long time. Now that they suddenly held one, it was hard not to attract attention.

In fact, because of the popularity, many internet celebrities immediately began to ride on the popularity in various ways.

For example, a web celebrity with more than 4 million fans was like this: "it's unbelievable. as soon as I got on Moutouyin, I saw the news that Linlin Manor was holding another event. this news is so surprising and exciting. everyone knows that every event at Linlin Manor is very popular."

This internet celebrity had also counted the popularity of Linlin villa's previous events in detail and even edited the video.

The video on the internet quickly received more than 300,000 likes, and it was still increasing. This was a success in riding on the popularity.

Moreover, there were many internet celebrities who tried to gain popularity like this.

although this food festival had nothing to do with them, it was important to freeloader off their popularity.

Even if we have nothing to do with each other, you're still my brother.

It was also because there were too many internet celebrities who tried to ride on the popularity of the food Festival, so the popularity of the food Festival was also at a terrifying level.

on the other hand, some internet celebrities who had some analytical skills said, "everyone knows about the food Festival at Linlin Manor, but everyone seems to be talking about Linlin Manor and how popular the food Festival is. But have you forgotten how much exposure and attention the food Festival has under such a hot atmosphere? "

" if i can get the title of gourmet of the gourmet festival, how many people will know about it? i'm afraid countless chefs will be attracted to it. " when the time comes, the gourmets who get the title will be able to open restaurants and restaurants that are popular on the internet. They'll bring countless opportunities.

"Just like the competition of the culinary gods, this will be a chance for all chefs to become famous."

moreover, with the financial resources of Linlin villa and the financial resources behind the boss of Linlin company, and the cooperation with you city officials, we don't have to worry about them being sneaky, because they won't ruin their own reputation.

Indeed, this analysis video made a lot of people feel that it was reasonable.

This kind of exposure was something that even those variety shows could not compare to, right?

How many people would take videos and upload them to the internet? He would probably dominate the screen.

Moreover, this was something that could not be learned from other places. First, there was no magical scenic spot like Linlin villa. Second, there were not as many fans as Linlin villa. Third, there were not so many tourists, and they did not have the reputation of Linlin villa.

In a villa on Mayang Street in new ocean City, a mature-looking and elegant woman was busy in the kitchen.

Yu Xin felt that she was a person who loved good food very much. She often learned a lot of good food and made delicious food.

Moreover, she didn't think that the food she made would be worse than those head chefs.

she had once thought of holding a food party that belonged solely to her and letting people taste her own food.

It was just that her husband was very rich. Even if she did such a thing, it would definitely be because of her husband's career. All they could do was to compliment her.

In addition, she wasn't an extroverted person who would go out and invite people she didn't know to taste delicious food.

Moreover, she wasn't famous, and her activities attracted people, most of whom were people in her circle of connections.

This was boring.

After making a snack, she put it on the table and started to watch a certain sound's food video while eating.

this was also her daily hobby. when she encountered interesting food, she would also learn it, but she felt that those food bloggers did not do as well as her.

She would share it sometimes, but unfortunately, she did not know much about online marketing and did not know how to film. Therefore, even if she shared it, the people who liked it were only her friends.

occasionally, she would show her face and the people who liked her were all men who didn't know what they were thinking. anyway, everyone understood what some people were thinking.

Soon, a notification popped up from an account she followed, attracting her attention. It was about Linlin villa.

She had been to Linlin villa before, bought some high-quality ingredients from Linlin villa, and used them to make food.

the food made with those ingredients was indeed very delicious.

Therefore, she also paid attention to Linlin Manor.

yu xin immediately played the video. after watching it, her eyes lit up.

Wasn't an event like Linlin villa suitable for her?

No one knew her identity, but countless people would taste her food.

Most importantly, she felt that this event was very interesting. If she could enter the food night and obtain the title of gourmet, then she should have a lot of people following her food videos in the future.

The most important thing was the ingredients used for the food night in the video. They were all ingredients that were rare in the outside world and were definitely things that many people who loved cooking would want to try.

Yu Xin thought about it and immediately took out her phone to make a call. To participate in such a food event, she had to find two assistants.

There were many people like Yu Xin.

the event at linlin villa had indeed attracted the attention of many chefs. this was an opportunity to become famous in a day.

Other than the famous chefs who were afraid of losing face, the other chefs began to understand the details of their participation.

Moreover, many of the inheritors of Mingjian's food also saw the video, and each of them had their own ideas.

just like the analysis online, they really didn't care about the 500000 yuan prize money. if they could get the title of gourmet, they would definitely earn far more than that in the future.

Of course, the prerequisite was that he had to earn the title of gourmet.

However, before the final result was out, wasn't everyone full of confidence?

however, not long after the video was released, qin lin received news that several well-known domestic tv stations wanted to buy the live broadcast rights. they must have seen the potential of this food festival.

However, Qin Lin refused directly. If he didn't care about the money, wouldn't it be great if he could do a live broadcast on the official account of Linlin Manor?

Chapter 1154 The Food Festival Begins! You Cheng Is Paralyzed! 1

Linlin villa's sudden Food Festival had attracted the attention of countless people on the internet in a short time.

Especially the fans of Linlin villa.

one must know that linlin villa was very fun. moreover, the climate in you city was changing, so many people wanted to go there.

Now, there was even a Food Festival. This was simply too attractive.

The key was the gourmet Night. Not only did he have the chance to get a cash reward, but he also had the ingredients provided by Linlin Manor's Gourmet Night.

The old fans all knew that these ingredients were for the Supreme Emperor set meal.

Moreover, the Supreme Emperor set meal could only be found in the Linlin Manor. It was impossible to find it anywhere else, because the ingredients of that grade were simply not available.

however, linlin manor rarely served the emperor's supreme set meal now. no one had ever eaten it except for the emperor's supreme set meal as the reward for the previous events of linlin manor.

There were people on the internet who offered 100000 Yuan to eat the Emperor supreme set meal, but Linlin villa wouldn't specially make it for people for 100000 Yuan.

This was the legendary series that was priceless.

Now that Linlin Manor's food night provided this ingredient to the chefs, it was equivalent to all the tourists who entered the food night being able to eat the Supreme Emperor set meal.

This had indeed become the point that the netizens were most concerned about, and it was also the most heated discussion.

"F * ck, I really want to enter the food night."

"This is a chance to eat the emperor's supreme set meal,"

"If you're lucky enough to get a bonus after eating the emperor's supreme set meal, you'll wake up laughing from your dreams."

"Upstairs, since you know it's a dream, wake up quickly!"

"....."

"You guys only care about the bonus, but didn't you notice that there's someone who can eat a portion of beef personally cooked by little Qin as a reward? Are you looking down on little Qin?"

Soon, someone mentioned little Qin.

In the beginning, after the 100000 Yuan reward was attracted, the reward of little Qin's personally cooked beef seemed to be ignored.

everyone knew that little qin was very famous. moreover, he had also developed a potion to cure the coagulated plague, which was highly respected.

But that didn't mean he knew how to cook.

Maybe the food he made had a special meaning, but for ordinary people, eating such a meaningful meal was not as practical as the 100000 Yuan bonus.

"me too, 100 thousand can do a lot of things."

a meaningful meal can't help me much, but 100000 yuan can help me get out of this predicament, if i can get 100000 Yuan.

"....."

Well, Qin Lin's beef was obviously ignored.

The temptation of 100000 was obviously greater.

However, this was not absolute.

Because someone quickly made an announcement. It was a guy called the Fun Shop owner.

these days, this guy's presence on the internet was also very strong.

It was said that he was in the school loan business and had scammed many college students. Now, he was going to change his business to make money.

Therefore, boss Luo had been riding on the popularity of many people these days because of the things he had done in the past that had been despised by others. He had even been blocked by people who were unhappy with him.

"This guy immediately posted a video," paying 150000 to buy the right to taste little Qin's beef."

He was obviously freeloading on Linlin Manor to make his presence known.

however, this did indeed make many netizens turn their attention to the reward of little qin's beef.

Someone had bought this opportunity for 150000 Yuan.

it was a little big.

Just when everyone thought it was a big deal, someone else made a bid of 200000, which was 50000 more than boss Luo.

It was obvious that he didn't like boss Luo.

It wasn't the first time boss Luo had been targeted on the internet.

200,000 Yuan was obviously a bigger sum.

But soon, an even bigger deal appeared. A rich second generation internet celebrity directly announced that he was willing to buy the reward of little Qin's beef dish for 500000 Yuan.

This internet celebrity rich second generation had already gained a strong sense of presence the last time he bought two greenhouse tree seeds, and this time, his presence was even more prominent.

After all, there shouldn't be anything more generous than 500000 Yuan for a serving of beef, right? Even the rich wouldn't dare to be so arrogant.

It seemed that the rumor on the internet that young master Wang's investment company was making a lot of money was true.

however, a mysterious person quickly made an announcement saying that he was willing to buy the reward of little qin's beef for 1000000.

And this was even more ruthless. Although his identity was not revealed, he was notarized by Ming city and transferred one million Yuan to the notary bank account.

In other words, whoever obtained the reward for little Qin's beef would be able to obtain the 1 million.

A million for a portion of beef. This should be the most expensive portion of beef on the internet, right?

The life of a rich man was really unimaginable to ordinary people.

But all of a sudden, the night of delicious food became even more Grand.

Who would've thought that a portion of beef made by little Qin, which was originally ignored by everyone, would suddenly be worth one million Yuan?

He had to go to this Food Festival.

If he could enter this food night and get this one million, he would be rich.

But very quickly, someone on the internet raised a question: I say, rich people, you announced on the internet that you want to spend money to buy little Qin's beef. Did you get the permission of Linlin Manor? "

This was simply an interrogation of the soul.

That's right, no matter how much you want to spend, you have to get the permission of Linlin villa first.

Linlin Manor.

Chapter 1155 The Food Festival Begins! You Cheng Is Paralyzed! 2

Qin Lin met Lin Lanzi in the office. Naturally, it was about the incident on the internet.

"Then who's the one who wants 1 million for a serving of beef?" Qin Lin asked in surprise.

Could he sell a serving of beef for a million Yuan now?

If he had known that this would happen, he would have opened a restaurant instead of a mountain village. He would have sold 100 servings of beef a day, which would have been 100 million Yuan.

Was there anything better than this?

Of course, he was just thinking about it. Without the current situation, even if he opened a restaurant to make beef, it would be impossible to sell it at this price.

Lin Lanzi said, "I don't know who the person who spent one million Yuan is. However, the other party can pass the notary review of Ming City. There's definitely no problem with his identity. Ming City will definitely pay attention to our Food Festival.

It should be some rich man who likes to keep a low profile. Now, someone has won the prize. If you want to make a deal, do we agree?"

Qin Lin thought for a while and said, "After the results are out, it's their freedom to make a deal. If someone offers such a high price to buy it, it will reflect the style of our Food Festival.

"Alright!" Lin Lanzi nodded.

After getting Qin Lin's approval, she also returned to the villa and asked the multimedia department to produce a video and release it on the official account.

After knowing that Linlin Villa was not against the million Yuan deal, the people on the internet were in an uproar.

Countless people had booked train tickets to You City.

One could imagine that the food street jointly organized by Linlin Villa and You City would be very popular.

However, on the day of the food festival, something that Qin Lin, Lin Lanzi, and You Cheng didn't expect happened. You Cheng was paralyzed on the same day.

You City train station.

A train stopped, and the passengers swarmed out of the train. There were so many of them that it seemed like all the passengers on the train had alighted at this stop.

The passengers were all wearing thick coats when they got off the bus. After getting off the bus, they took off their coats directly, revealing the thin short-sleeved shirts inside.

These people were obviously well prepared. They had all come to you city to participate in the food Festival and knew the current climate of you city.

Chen Dong was like this.

The purpose of his participation in the food Festival was very simple. In fact, he was here for the opportunity of the one million Yuan, or the 100000 Yuan reward of the food night.

therefore, he had to enter the gourmet night.

he had seen the video of the food festival at linlin manor and some of the details of the release. many of the various tourist tasks in the event did not require him to rely on his brain.

he admitted that his brain was not as good as others, and he had never scored 80 marks on tests since he was young.

But if he didn't rely on his brain, he didn't believe that he couldn't get a chance to enter the food night.

Chen Dong arrived at the taxi waiting area as he thought, but there was already a long queue here.

more importantly, there was not a single taxi in the waiting area.

that's right, you city's rental cars were in short supply after the food festival began because there were too many tourists.

in other cities, taxi drivers were the same as passengers. many times, they had to wait in line. even during off-season, they had to wait in the waiting area for a long time.

but now you cheng was doing the opposite.

As the rows of tourists looked on anxiously, a car finally arrived at the station. There was only one car, and it extended away with a tourist.

After that, the waiting area for cars to leave was empty again.

Chen Dong could only sigh when he saw this scene because there was still quite a distance from his seat, and he had no idea how long he would have to queue.

In any case, a long time had passed, but Chen Dong discovered that he was still quite far away from where he got on the bus.

This Kasaya

Suddenly, Chen Dong noticed that a wave of noise had appeared at the exit of the station behind him, and he and the people in the surroundings all followed his gaze to look over.

A young man walked out from inside, surrounded by a few men in suits. They were obviously bodyguards.

There were also some female tourists who followed him and took out their phones to take pictures of the man.

Chen Dong felt that this man was familiar.

After a long time, he remembered that he had seen it on a certain voice channel. It seemed to be a recent TV series with a star as the second male lead.

No wonder some female tourists recognized them and took pictures. Young women nowadays liked to be fans of actors in popular dramas.

However, Chen Dong was puzzled. What the hell was this celebrity doing here? They even joined the queue at the back.

The celebrity was also stunned when he saw the long line and the empty parking area.

However, he quickly picked up his phone and began to broadcast the scene.

this was even more eye-catching.

Indeed, there were celebrities present at the food Festival jointly organized by Linlin villa and you city.

Moreover, she was not a celebrity.

on the other side of you city, there were also many people gathered. among them were the popular young men from last year.

Why did he say last year?

This was because the other party had acted in a very popular TV series last year, and this year's TV series was a little lackluster.

Even so, his appearance still attracted the attention of the tourists.

"Don't push, everyone. Be orderly." The celebrity didn't forget to shout to the people around him, then said solemnly, I'm here to participate in the food Festival with everyone else. I also want to get a ticket to the food night. I'm going to do a mission. Of course, if you have any extra tickets, you can share them with me.

There was a hint in his words.

Moreover, for the fangirls, they would definitely hand it over to him.

However, his words were very righteous, and no one could hear any problems.

Linlin villa had never expected that these celebrities would come here of their own accord.

Chapter 1156 The Food Festival Begins! You Cheng Is Paralyzed! 3

Not far away, you city's streets were completely paralyzed. Because of the outbreak of tourists, all the people from nearby counties and cities drove here to participate in the food Festival.

Even though you city's streets had been renovated a few times, it was still impossible to do it on the first day.

In the county.

Sun Xian and Chen Li naturally also received the news of you Cheng's paralysis.

The two of them blushed a little.

Because of the cooperation with Linlin villa, the county was in charge of you city's traffic.

at that time, they were very confident that there would be no traffic problems.

Their confidence came from the road modifications that they had done a few times before. Tens of thousands of tourists a day in you city could still be very smooth.

Who knew that

However, they could only ask the traffic police to do their best to clear the way. Now that the traffic had started to get congested, there was no other way.

Moreover, the road to Linlin villa was blocked, and the taxi coming back from Linlin villa was also blocked. There was no way to pick up people at the station.

As a result, the trains stopped at the train station one after another. As more and more tourists arrived, even the station was packed with people. It was no longer just a problem of queuing up. It took a long time to move a few steps.

Chen Dong had practically waited for close to two hours before it was his turn to get on the bus.

He heaved a sigh of relief when he got into the taxi and left the train station.

it was f * cking suffocating inside. everyone was sweating. the point was that they didn't know which grandson's feet were smelly, but they were spreading everywhere.

He also didn't know which bastard kept farting, almost killing him.

F  k.

chen dong sat in the car and had already started to think of a plan. after wasting two hours, there should be many people who had already started to spend their money on the lucky draw to find the portion of the food night tickets.

after all, the tickets to the food night were limited.

However, not long after he left the station, Chen Dong noticed that the taxi had stopped.

he looked up and was dumbfounded.

The road in front of him was densely packed with cars, and he couldn't see the end of it. Many tourists had even gotten off their rental cars and were chatting beside them.

He even saw someone enter the car with an empty bottle of mineral water, then look around sneakily. Not long after, they came out with a bottle of yellowish liquid and threw it into the trunk of the car as if it was nothing.

this scene was just like during national day, when the highway was stuck in traffic for hours.

chen dong's face was filled with black lines, and he subconsciously felt that he was a little interesting as well, so he hurriedly asked the driver, " "Master, do you have any empty water bottles?"

The master looked at Chen Dong with a strange expression, then handed him an empty water bottle with practiced ease.

Chen Dong had an embarrassed expression.

Just like that, he was stuck on the road for another two hours. He wasted a total of four hours before he arrived at the road designated by you city for the food Festival.

He immediately thought of his plan: spend money after getting out of the car. He didn't need to spend too much. After all, he could draw a lottery if he spent money. He would continue to spend and draw until he got the mission. Then, he would complete the mission and draw the lottery to get a random ticket to the food night.

However, after he got off the car, he realized that a stall was already surrounded by a crowd, which made him puzzled.

Could it be that this stall was easier to win?

Chen Dong walked over with curiosity, yet he was shocked to discover that the chef at this stall was actually a celebrity. Moreover, he was an extremely famous celebrity with extremely good culinary skills.

But why would such a big star come to this Food Festival? wouldn't this cause a riot and congestion?

Chen Dong didn't want to join in on the fun, especially since he had already wasted over four hours. He hurriedly found a chef's stall and started spending.

he had been waiting for more than four hours and was hungry.

Chen Dong bought a scallion pancake and received a chance to draw a prize.

The chef said directly to him, " Sir, congratulations on winning the lottery. You'll have a chance to win the prize by scanning the QR code. Participate in the task I designed. After completing the task, you can draw again and get a random part of the ticket to the food night.

That's right, Linlin villa and you city didn't make this mission mandatory. The main thing was that it didn't violate the rules, so the chefs could design it themselves.

when chen dong heard this, he instantly had a feeling that this would be very easy.

He immediately took out his phone and scanned the QR code for the lucky draw.

The next moment, a prompt appeared, [you've received a chance to complete a mission. Please kiss your girlfriend for two minutes. After you complete the mission, you'll be randomly given a ticket to the food night.]

chen dong was very excited when he saw a mission appear, but when he saw the specific mission, he looked at the chef in shock and said, " well, what if I kiss my girlfriend for two minutes and don't have a girlfriend? "

"No choice!" The chef waved his hand.

Chen Dong was f * cking helpless, and he could only hatefully go to the other stalls.

then, he realized that it was not easy to get a chance at the lottery.

He had to go through a few stalls in a row before he could get another chance at the lottery.

Chen Dong immediately took out his phone and scanned it.

This time, he actually drew another mission: [you have received a mission. Please carry your girlfriend in a Princess carry for 3 minutes. After you complete it, you will be randomly given a ticket to the food night.]

chen dong's mouth fell open. he did not know what to say as he looked at the mission. targeting single dogs?

he simply wanted to cry but had no tears.

At this moment.

A clear and melodious voice sounded, " who's lacking a girlfriend? I have a mission. Let's carry each other like a princess.

Chen Dong's eyes lit up when he heard this sweet voice.

There was such a good thing?

He immediately turned around and saw a beautiful girl who weighed almost 200 pounds waving her phone and shouting.

"Wan Wan" Chen Dong.

Chapter 1157 522-From Now On, There's No More And No More!

the food festival lasted for a week.

after the food festival began, you cheng completely dominated the hot search on the internet for the past two days.

The popularity of the food Festival was beyond everyone's expectations. Starting from the second day, not only you city was paralyzed, but Ming city was also affected.

this was because if foreign tourists wanted to come to you city, they had to first fly to ming city, and then from ming city to you city.

The train tickets from Ming city to you city were snapped up almost instantly.

of course, the videos related to the food festival were also posted on the internet one after another. there were all kinds of food videos, and all kinds of mission videos of beautiful women and handsome men.

For example, the task of a couple kissing for two minutes, a Princess carry, and running three laps with the girlfriend on his back.

of course, there were also tests of men's long jump, such as squatting, supporting the horizontal bar, and swishing within the specified time.

all kinds of videos were uploaded, and people could see related videos almost every two videos they watched.

moreover, not only that, but all kinds of internet celebrities also came to the scene and began to ride on the popularity, posting videos related to the food festival.

It was fine if it was an internet celebrity, but there were also celebrities.

Obviously, it was no longer just an internet celebrity's ability to ride on popularity. Some of the celebrities' embarrassments had been torn down long ago. It was no longer just riding on the red carpet.

many celebrities arrived in your city and posted videos of them eating delicious food and doing missions at the food festival.

there was even a very smart celebrity who hired a photographer to film himself. he treated this as a variety show and gave people a first-person perspective the entire time.

most importantly, this celebrity's video went viral in an instant, and it was very popular. there were more than 5 million likes.

He could only say that this celebrity was very smart.

naturally, the famous celebrity surnamed xie, who was very good at cooking, didn't need to ride on the popularity.

He also posted a video of his own food account, saying that he was here for the ingredients of the food night. He wanted to use those ingredients to make delicious food and hoped that he could enter the food night.

Of course, these were none of Qin Lin's business. He didn't pay attention to these things. Whether it was an internet celebrity or a celebrity, as long as they didn't cause any trouble, they could just ride on the popularity.

While these people were trying to gain popularity, they were also increasing the popularity of the food Festival.

What he had to consider now was a piece of news.

this news was also one of the few news that made it to the hot search on top of the food festival:

according to the latest news, the last batch of heiniu cattle in the plaster country has been infected with the high temperature coagulation plague. Without any healing potions, perhaps in two months, the heiniu cattle in the plaster country will be on the verge of extinction!

Although the coagulopathy plague in China was a thing of the past, foreign countries were still in deep trouble.

To many Chinese people, this was another piece of news that they could gloat over.

therefore, the comments under the news video were not sympathetic at all.

"I'm happy to see that, hahahaha!"

didn't you see last year's international beef and cow statue leading the show? hahaha!

"Isn't it their national treasure? aren't national treasures supposed to be extinct to be precious?"

" you're wrong. our country is already full of their national treasures. they buy it at linlin villa at a very cheap price! " it was true. as a citizen of the country of medicine, it was difficult for him to empathize with the disaster that befell the country of medicine.

We don't have the right to erase the sins of our ancestors with a smile.

Not everyone could be like that female reporter, who heartlessly posted a video about the death of a Big Shot from the jiangyao nation and even shed tears of sadness.

of course, there was another news that was also on the hot search. that was, the gray cloth grass and double sickle grass in the south of our country were in an emergency. the production of the potions was decreasing, and the supply of potions to the outside world needed to be limited.

This was a real emergency. If it was a fake emergency, no one would know. After all, the news came out too coincidentally.

However, they were not fools.

there were some things that could be seen through but not said out loud. he just had to shout 'well done' in his heart.

therefore, the survival of the ointment nation and the cattle was a problem, let alone export beef.

The key was that they had beef, so who would dare to buy it?

when qin lin needed quality 2 beef, he could take it out of the game and use the excuse that he had a special channel. after all, back then, plaster country had beef from wuniu. no one knew where he got it from.

after all, with money, there would always be people who could get beef from the plaster country.

However, in the current situation, this excuse would not work.

the most important thing was that beef was needed for the gourmet night.

if it was just for his own use, and he took some from the game, with his current status, no one would doubt him. what was wrong with him saving some beef?

The key point was that they had to provide Wagyu beef to other people during the gourmet Night.

This problem needed to be solved.

so, the only way now was to kill a wagyu at linlin ranch.

he had bought those fake healers from the ranch and replaced them with fake ones, so killing one wouldn't make much of a difference.

Moreover, cow's sperm could be stored, and there were professional artificial insemination specialists.

These wagoners were exchanged from the game, and some parts of the body could also produce quality 2 whole snow and beef.

Qin Lin thought about it and called Yang Dong to come to the manor.

as the manager of the breeding department, he was in charge of these things.

not long after, yang dong hurriedly arrived. "Chairman Qin, do you have any orders?"

qin lin revealed his purpose. "It's for the food night. I need to slaughter a cow at the ranch. Otherwise, there won't be any beef for us to supply."

Chapter 1158 522-From Now On, There's No Such Thing As A Match!

When Yang Dong heard this, he first nodded. Then, he thought of something and said, "Chairman Qin, I was discussing the news with a few Cattle Breeders today. They said that the cattle in the pasture country don't have any healing agents and might need to go extinct.

"So, why do the Wagyu in our farm still have to be called Wagyu? Besides, with our Linlin Ranch's Dogtooth grass, the meat of these cattle will definitely be more delicious. We can definitely create a better breed of beef than the wakefu."

"So, for the first slaughter, can we hold a ceremony like this? we can even invite some foreign gourmets in China to come to our food night as extra guests, or have a taste? To prove the truth? Especially those from the jiangyao nation."

qin lin subconsciously looked at yang dong when he heard this.

And even invited a gourmet from the country of medicine to taste it? It's fine if you want to kill someone, but you also want to kill the heart?

But it was a good suggestion.

Qin Lin thought about it and said to Yang Dong, "you should report this to President Lin and let her draw up a plan. After all, the food Festival is only a week away. Hurry up, or we won't be able to make it.

"alright, chairman qin." Yang Dong nodded. After leaving the Linlin Manor, he went straight to the office area of Linlin villa and went to the general manager's office.

This was also Lin Lanzi's office now.

Yang Dong knocked on the door. When he entered the office and saw Lin Lanzi, he said, "president lin, i've come from chairman qin's place. i have something to discuss with you."

"Go ahead, manager yang," Lin Lanzi nodded.

"It's the boss who needs to slaughter a Wagyu cow," Yang Dong explained. "Aren't the Wagyu cows in Japan dying?" There's no need for our Wagyu to be called Wagyu anymore, so we'll hold a ceremony to change its name and invite gourmets from all over the world to try our beef on the food night to prove that our beef is better than Wagyu beef, especially those from the ointment country."

Lin Lanzi knew it was meaningful when she heard this.

The pasture country was famous for its Wagyu beef, and it even attracted many people to see the beef every day.

The largest Wagyu cattle farm was even known as the holy land of beef.

If they really did that, the people of the country of medicine would be furious.

Let's gather people for a meeting," she said immediately. It's urgent, so we have to do it immediately.

Yang Dong nodded and followed Lin Lanzi out of the office.

The county also received the news very quickly.

Chen Li immediately went to Sun County to report, "Linlin villa is going to hold another ceremony. They plan to change the name of the cattle in the ranch to Linlin cattle. They also plan to invite gourmets from all over the world to try it on food night, especially those from the ointment country.

"Specially inviting people from the Jiangyao nation?" Sun Xian was stunned.

"Are you sure about this?" County Sun asked after a while.

Chen Li nodded, "The decision has been made at the villa after the meeting. My daughter hasn't started her university yet, right?" I'm working part-time at the villa, and the people there are all talking about it."

"Let's go and take a look!" Sun Xian immediately stood up and led Chen Li outside.

One had to know that the most famous ranch in Wakefu cattle breeding was located in the country of medicine. It was famous all over the world.

If there was a problem with the Wagyu in the country of medicine, the Wagyu in Linlin Ranch would replace them. By then, the world famous would be Youcheng County.

Sun Xian and Chen Li also quickly arrived at Linlin Manor and met Lin Lanzi.

"Leaders, what are you doing here?" Lin Lanzi received the two of them warmly when she saw them.

Mr. Lin," Sun Xian asked directly, "I heard that you're going to slaughter a Wagyu and hold a name change ceremony. You're also going to invite international gourmets to try the beef?"

Lin Lanzi smiled and said, "County Sun, I didn't expect you to know about this so soon. We've just finished our preparations. The ranch has just finished their preparations. They're going to hold a live broadcast of the ceremony.

"Let's go and take a look together!" Sun Xian immediately said.

"Sun Xian, Chen Xian, please!" Lin Lanzi immediately invited the two of them to head to Linlin Ranch together.

The Linlin Manor Food Festival was in full swing and attracted countless people's attention. Suddenly, the official account of Linlin Manor started a live broadcast.

this attracted everyone's attention.

the livestream was at a part of linlin ranch. on the screen was a hurried patch of grass.

this made everyone even more curious.

"I suddenly saw the livestream of Linlin villa!"

"what's the point of doing a live broadcast so quietly? Are you going to show us the layout of the food night?"

Linlin villa usually doesn't do live broadcasts, so they must be doing something extraordinary. They're waiting for something big to happen.

"....."

In the live broadcast room, as everyone was commenting, a person dressed as a staff member walked into the video with a cow.

There was a big red flower on the bull's head and a red scarf wrapped around its body.

This bull seemed to have a happy occasion.

that was what everyone was thinking.

But at that moment, everyone saw another Linlin Ranch employee holding a banner. There was a line of words on it.

Linlin villa's first name-changing ceremony with a cow butcher!

? ? ? ?

Slaughter?

Everyone who was watching the live broadcast was stunned when they saw the banner.

compared to putting red flowers and tying red silk around them, just to slaughter them?

This f * cking Kasaya

But very quickly, everyone's attention was also attracted by the word 'change'.

Name change, as the name suggests, just change the name.

you want to change the name of kazufuru?

Not until then did everyone remember the news that the country of medicine and the cattle were going extinct.

Could this livestream be related to this?

Suddenly, Lin Lanzi's figure appeared.

She took a microphone and began to greet the audience in the live broadcast room.

Lin Lanzi often appeared in Linlin Manor's livestreams, and countless people knew about this beautiful and intellectual woman with a good figure.

It could be said that Lin Lanzi was willing to learn from those female internet celebrities and pose a little. Being a female internet celebrity would not be worse than those female internet celebrities on the internet.

naturally, to lin lanzi, she didn't care about the female internet celebrity position at all, as compared to the position of the general manager of linlin villa.

between using one's body to serve others, selling one's dignity, and using one's own hard work to achieve success, women with ability and dignity would choose the latter.

Moreover, even if Lin Lanzi wasn't an internet celebrity, she still had millions of fans on her personal account. Even Gao Yaoyao had more than a million fans after such a long time.

therefore, female internet celebrities and whatnot could not be compared to lin lanzi.

Lin Lanzi: " Wanwan, I'm sure everyone is curious about the purpose of this livestream. Actually, it's just as the banner says. It's a ritual for slaughtering and cattle.

" in the past, our country did not have wagyu cows. everyone knows the reason. now, we have our own wagyu cows, especially in linlin manor. we have raised wagyu cows for so long, and their meat quality has become better. it has surpassed the wagyu cows in the ointment country. "

that's why we have our first slaughtering ceremony. From now on, our Linlin Manor's Wagyu will be renamed Linlin cattle. Furthermore, our Linlin cattle's beef is of higher quality than Wagyu'S.

for this, we will also invite a few foreign gourmets in our country to come to the food night for tasting, especially the gourmets from the ointment country.

these words also showed the purpose of the linlin manor live broadcast this time.

However, everyone immediately understood that this was aimed at Heniu from the ointment country, killing him.

The Heniu of the country of medicine was going extinct, and Linlin Ranch even took the opportunity to change the name of Heniu to Linlin cow. This was to wipe out all traces of Heniu from the country of medicine.

In the future, when the Heniu of the jiangyao country went extinct, if they wanted to import it, would they call it Heniu or Linlin Niu?

The Linlin cattle from Linlin Ranch had better meat quality than the Wagyu cattle.

linlin villa dared to invite those gourmets, which showed their confidence. didn't they want to replace kazufuru's position?

This was to let the world know that Linlin was a cow, but not the other way around.

more importantly, you even invited the gourmets of the country of healing. not only did you kill them, but you also dug up their graves and whipped their corpses.

The audience who saw this all clapped and cheered.

666, do you still remember the agreement between the ointment country and cattle that the International beef tasting has isolated our beef? " haha, you didn't expect this to happen when you looked down on our beef, did you? "

"The country of medicine and the Yak Association: How dare you?"

"I suddenly realized that this time's Food Festival has a different meaning."

while the food festival was in full swing, the news also spread at an unstoppable speed.

Chapter 1159 Kazufuru's Ultimate Counterattack!

In the country of medicine.

A middle-aged man walked into Liushan Ranch with a lonely look on his face.

After yagyama yoshichiro's suicide, his Wagyu cattle farm had become a little desolate. Most of the Wagyu cattle inside had died from the coagulation plague.

Moreover, yagyama yoshichiro had used all his assets to hire a killer. The ranch was completely bankrupt, and all the employees had run away. Only the original assistant was left to help yagyama yoshichiro deal with the aftermath.

Today was also the last day of the closing of yagyama yoshichiro's farm.

The assistant saw the middle-aged man and went up to him. "Mr. Haiga, you're here."

The foot of grey plain mountain was one of the most famous gourmets in their plaster country, and there was a huge food industry in the plaster country.

Moreover, the other party had a great influence on the promotion of kazufuru from the country of medicine. He was also a good friend of the late boss, Yagyama yoshichiro.

At the foot of the grey plain mountain, the assistant nodded and sighed, " "My old friend's farm is about to close. I have to come and take a look. It's really sad."

The assistant said resentfully, " it's all because of that Eastern country. They didn't give us the drug. If they did, we and the cattle industry wouldn't be like this.

also, after knowing that our last batch of Wagyu cows were infected with the plague, they even reduced the output of potions. Now, we can't even buy potions from other countries.

When the foot of grey plain mountain heard this, he said with a face full of hatred, " they deserve to die. They're a bunch of inhumane animals.

he had also put a lot of effort into the wagyu business.

ever since he was young, he would always promote his country's wagyu whenever he participated in international food festivals.

After more than 30 years of publicity, Heniu also became the pride of their country's gourmets.

they were at a high-end international food festival, and whenever they talked about food, they would become the focus.

Now, all of this seemed to be a thing of the past.

At this moment, a woman with a very good figure ran in hurriedly. The pair of breasts in front of her were shaking wildly. When she reached the foot of the grey plain mountain, she said, " Mr. Haiga, bad news. There's an invitation to your Food Festival.

Hui Yuan frowned and said, "what's wrong with an invitation to a Food Festival?" Do you think I've received too few invitations?"

The woman with a good figure said anxiously, " Mr. Hui Yuan, this is an invitation from that Eastern country, Linlin Ranch. They want to change the name of the Wagyu cow to Linlin cow, and they said that the meat quality of Linlin cow is better than our Wagyu cow. They also invited gourmets from other countries besides you.

"What?" A look of anger appeared on the face of the grey plain mountain.

The eastern country did not give them any medical resources. After they and their cows were infected with the plague, Linlin Manor did this again.

If this wasn't targeting him, then what was?

moreover, the other party was trying to replace their position as the country of medicine and cattle in the international arena.

They had spent more than 30 years to get kazufuru to his current position.

The other party wanted to step on kazufuru's head and take his place.

"We can't let them succeed." they want to prove the quality of their beef at the food Festival, " said the foot of the grey plain mountain angrily. I'll give them a better one. They'll shoot themselves in the foot. They're so embarrassed.

Yagyama yoshichiro's assistant also understood what was going on and immediately said, " " mr. hui yuan, the linlin villa did offer beef of better quality than our quanxue beef. besides, we don't have any quanxue beef to offer now. "

" the other party definitely won't always have snow and beef that are better than us, " hui yuan said coldly. " the other party dared to make this move because they're certain that we can't take out any beef and can't question them. "

"But they seem to have forgotten that we're not the only country in the world that has Wagyu beef. Australia has Wagyu beef as well. Their Wagyu beef is almost the same as ours, but they have a mutant Wagyu cow."

"The Wagyu of the Rexton family?" Yagyama yoshichiro's assistant said in surprise.

If one were to ask which country had produced the most delicious whole snow and beef in the history of beef, then their ointment country really couldn't claim to be the first.

This was because Australia's whole snow and beef was not worse than theirs. It was just that Australia had only imported Wagyu beef from them for a relatively short time, and the output was far from comparable to theirs. Therefore, it could not shake their position as the ointment country's Wagyu beef.

However, Australia's ariest family still had two mutated Wagyu cows.

for some unknown reason, these two wagyu had mutated. he had once killed one, and the meat quality was even better than the best whole snow wagyu.

However, it was impossible to breed the mutated Wagyu. Even if it was successfully bred, it would become a normal Wagyu.

Otherwise, Australia's Wagyu would have replaced them long ago.

"That's right, it's that Wagyu cow." Hui Yuan Shan nodded. As long as he could get the beef from the rexts, he would definitely be able to make the Linlin Manor speechless.

Mr. Haiga, " yagyama yoshichiro's assistant asked, frowning, " but is the Rexton family willing to do so? "

"There's no such thing as willing or not. It just depends on whether the price you pay is big enough." Grey plain mountain said coldly, and then ordered his female secretary with a very good figure,"book me a ticket to australia."

Chapter 1160 Kazufuru's Ultimate Counterattack!

The female secretary immediately nodded.

However, the gaze at the foot of grey plain mountain was filled with determination. Even if he had to hand over a part of his business to the rexts, he would still get the mutated kazufuru's beef.

This was because the Wagyu cattle industry had a very special meaning in his life.

at the same time, other gourmets received the same invitation.

wagyu beef was a very important ingredient in a gourmet recipe, and so the gourmets were all very interested after learning the details.

They were also very curious as to whether the Linlin cow from Linlin villa was really better than the beef.

moreover, they had all eaten wagyu beef before. as long as they had eaten linlin beef, they could tell immediately.

If they couldn't win, they would definitely tell the outside world. They were very strict about food and absolutely didn't allow deception.

In Linlin villa, Qin Lin didn't know about this. Four days later, he went to Linlin Ranch because tomorrow night was the food night.

Now, the representatives of Linlin villa and you city were counting the chefs and tourists who had entered the food night.

He could make the arrangements after the end of the food Festival tomorrow, and then wait for the food night.

By the time Qin Lin arrived at Linlin farm, the Wagyu cow had already been slaughtered.

The entire kazufuru had been cut open and its internal organs had been removed.

it could be seen that the slaughtering master's skills were very good.

The entire Wagyu was dealt with cleanly and neatly.

after all, it was the first wagyu cow he had slaughtered, and the master he hired was also the best butcher in you city. he still had to pay attention to this aspect.

This Wagyu cow had been stolen from the game, so a portion of its meat was quality 2 whole snow and beef.

this portion of meat would also be used for the night of delicacies.

"Chairman Qin, you're here." When Yang Dong saw Qin Lin, he immediately went up to him.

The few Cattle Breeders beside him also greeted Qin Lin in unison.

although qin lin knew the quality of the beef produced in the game, he still asked, " "Masters, how's the quality of this Wagyu beef?"

One of the Breeders immediately said, " Chairman Qin, we can already tell which of these beef has better meat quality. For example, the whole snow and beef beside the chewy meat on this side have better meat quality than those from other places.

As he said that, he pointed out the body parts to Qin Lin.

qin lin nodded. because he had the ability to cook beef, he could distinguish beef very well. with a press, touch, and a look, he could tell which meat was of quality 1 and which meat was of quality 2.

Qin Lin returned to Linlin Manor after he was done with the butchering.

the next day, the food festival entered its last day.

On this day, there were only a few spots left to enter the gourmet Night.

Of course, the Linlin Manor had intentionally controlled the number of spots to prevent all the spots from being taken by others in the first half of the time, which would make the later half meaningless.

Therefore, even on the last day, there were still some spots that had not been obtained.

It was normal to do this behind the scenes. It could be said that no matter what kind of event it was, private or official, there would be no lack of this kind of operation.

this kind of operation didn't violate the principle of fairness. it only controlled the process to a certain extent.

In you city, in front of a light cake shop, Chen Dong was biting a light cake in his mouth and doing push-ups while sweating like rain.

The light cake was a special snack in you city, and the taste and texture were not bad.

he didn't know why the boss wanted people to do push-ups with light biscuits in their mouths.

To be honest, doing push-ups wasn't difficult, but it was a little difficult with something in his mouth.

Because you can't use your mouth to breathe, you can only rely on your nose.

Once a person was tired, they would mostly rely on their mouth to breathe. That was a subconscious action.

therefore, the person who completed the mission would subconsciously drop the light biscuit in his mouth, which also led to the failure of the mission.

However, to Chen Dong, this mission was difficult, but it was still better than completing missions like kissing his girlfriend, carrying his girlfriend like a princess, or carrying his girlfriend on his back.

Those missions were hell-like to him, and he couldn't complete them at all.

Finally, Chen Dong finished sufficient push-ups and completed this mission.

He immediately took out his phone to scan and draw a random ticket.

The next moment, a notification appeared, [congratulations, you have obtained the third part of the food night ticket.]

Chen Dong's eyes instantly lit up when he saw this notification. He had spent a few thousand on missions every day during this week, and he had already spent a few thousand.

The only thing he lacked was the ticket for the third part. The rest were repeated.

The key was that many people wanted to trade for things that others did not have, but they were surprised to find that there was no way to trade in each individual account.

the repeated collection would also be useless.

This was just like the goose factory.

now, he only needed to combine the five parts of the ticket on his mobile phone to get a new qr code. this new qr code was the ticket to the food night.

at that time, you could just take the qr code and scan it for the staff at the entrance of the food night.

Chen Dong excitedly synthesized.

The next second, another notification appeared. I'm sorry, but the admission qualifications for the food night are full.

" ? ? ? "The excitement on Chen Dong's face instantly turned dull.

He immediately checked the message and found that the last ticket had been synthesized two seconds ago.

he was two seconds later than the others.

" f * ck! f * ck! f * ck! " chen dong immediately scratched his head in frustration.
