Chapter 1161 Kazufuru's Ultimate Counterattack! Killing Linlin Beef? 3

He knew that the next time he came to the Linlin Manor Food Festival, he had to get a girlfriend first. This was too much for single dogs.

If it weren't for those missions that required a girlfriend to complete, he would have long been qualified to enter the food night.

as the spots for the food night were all taken by people, it also meant that the food festival was coming to an end.

The next day, the special road section would also be cleared, and those foreign chefs would not be allowed to set up stalls.

After all, the roads had to be open to traffic.

After the representatives of Linlin villa and you city counted the chefs and tourists who could enter the food night, they also began to make arrangements.

Linlin Manor.

Lin Lanzi had arranged everything. She had also sorted out all the relevant information into a document and sent it to Qin Lin's office. Chairman Qin, this is the specific layout of the food night. Because we've invited more gourmets, we've set up a judge's platform.

the judging panel is different from the area where the chefs and the tourists sit. There's a separate area. Other than making food for the tourists to taste and get their comments, the chefs also have to make food for the gourmets to taste and let them rate them!

the person with the highest rating from both the gourmets and the tourists is first place, and so on.

"En!" qin lin nodded.

These gourmets were invited because of the news that the ointment country and cattle were going extinct. However, this did increase the gold content of the top three of the food night to a certain extent.

After Qin Lin finished reading it, he signed it directly and arranged it according to the plan.

While Linlin Manor was arranging the gourmet Night in an orderly manner, the invited gourmets had naturally arrived in you city.

because they were invited, the gourmets were also arranged to spend their nuptial night at the shanli villa.

It just so happened that nuptial chambers 1 to 10, which had always been in reserve, could be used.

Other nuptial rooms were also reserved.

The foot of the Hui Yuan mountain was one of the invited members. However, when he arrived at Ming city, he set off with another gourmets from the ointment nation, called Tairo Jingi.

His face was dark the entire time at the foot of the hill, because he had learned from shouhei that other gourmets from the herbal medicine country were also invited.

The other party's intentions were truly despicable.

"ai." Mr. Haihara, this time the other party's purpose is obvious, " sighed shouhei. if I didn't want to confirm the quality of their beef, I really wouldn't want to come. This makes me feel bad.

It was obvious that everyone in Linlin Manor knew what he was thinking. How could they not see it?

Hui Yuan looked at the special refrigerator box at his feet and said coldly, " anyone can see the other party's goal, but they really think that we and the cattle are lambs waiting to be slaughtered. They are wrong.

this time, I'll let the other party know what it means to counterattack with a bull. They won't expect it and will be so shocked that their jaws will drop.

It didn't matter if their country's Wagyu went extinct. As long as the reputation of the Wagyu was still there, they could still reverse-import Wagyu from Australia and re-cultivate it. There was always a chance to restore the glory of the Wagyu.

however, if kazufuru's honor and status were to be stolen by the other party this time, then all of this would just be empty talk.

In order to get the beef in the box, he had given a large portion of the Rister family's assets.

After paying such a huge price, he definitely couldn't let the other party succeed.

This absolute counter would give the other party a huge surprise.

Chapter 1162 The Mysterious Millionaire! You're Too Arrogant! 1

The food Festival was over.

The gourmet Night was about to begin.

There was even more attention on the internet.

For one, the chefs and tourists were there for the food night.

Moreover, many chefs and tourists had already taken selfies and uploaded them online this week. Some of them were even taken by other tourists and uploaded online, which made them popular online.

many people were still discussing who would become the top three gourmets or the lucky tourists who would receive the rewards.

Furthermore, the Linlin villa slaughtering of the Wagyu cows and the invitation of international gourmets to the food night had added a different meaning and color to the food night.

Linlin Manor.

qin lin received a call from lin lanzi, saying that the rich man who was willing to spend a million yuan to buy a portion of his beef had appeared.

It wasn't strange for the other party to visit Linlin villa.

In other places, if a rich person was willing to spend a million Yuan like this, the people there would have to be polite to the rich person, even treating the other party as God.

But this time, Linlin villa was the organizer.

Therefore, no matter what kind of rich person came, he had to greet them politely.

if linlin villa didn't agree to this deal, no matter how rich they were, they would have to leave.

Even if they agreed now, the other party would have to cooperate with Linlin Manor's progress.

however, lin lanzi's tone seemed a little strange, as if she was still mysterious.

he only knew what was going on when lin lanzi brought her people to the manor.

liu yi followed behind lin lanzi.

Behind Liu Yi was lasda, who had returned to inherit the family business.

It turned out that these two guys had spent a million to buy this opportunity.

"boss qin, we meet again." Liu Yi greeted Qin Lin very politely as soon as they met. He had to pay attention to Qin Lin's status in all aspects.

then, he apologized, " "I hope boss Qin doesn't mind using this method."

"Mind what? Chairman Liu, you must be joking." Qin Lin didn't care about this at all.

By doing this, the other party could be considered to be adding bricks and tiles to the food night.

"Sir, we meet again." lasda also greeted qin lin.

Lasda was a little different from before.

When he was a chef, he dressed very casually, especially when he was a chef at Linlin villa. Just like Master Lin and the other chefs, he wore slippers and a small vest when he was free.

Now, he was wearing a formal suit and his hair was combed neatly. He looked like a successful businessman.

"Lasda, looks like you've done a good job of inheriting the family business." Qin Lin smiled and shook hands with lasda.

Although he didn't like lasda in the beginning, he changed his attitude and thought that he was a good person, especially when he was the head chef of Linlin villa.

He had asked the other party to train a chef, and the other party had not held back at all and had done his best.

Mr. Qin, " Liu Yi said, " actually, lasda is the one who is willing to pay a million for your beef. He's a foreigner, so I have to do it for him.

Qin Lin looked at lasda in confusion."Lasda, you're not doing this just to eat my beef, are you?"

Lasda smiled. yes, I do have a goal. Sir, you know my father is in the food business. When I go back, my father is going to reform the company and get involved in the restaurant business. I'll be in charge of recruiting and training chefs, and I'll open a restaurant chain.

it's those Western chefs. They're just like me in the beginning. They're a little unruly. I've been a head chef here for a while and haven't shown my face to the outside world. They think that I'm not famous enough.

moreover, they think that they are very good at cooking, so they are not very willing to follow some of the rules I made. I also want to add some Chinese food elements, but they also look down on Chinese food.

so, I used Western and Chinese food to compete with them and completely beat them into submission. I let them know that a chef should put his heart on food. They shouldn't have that kind of unruly heart.

qin lin nodded. this guy's awareness was very high now.

Besides, he knew about lasda's cooking.

In terms of cooking, the other party was very serious and had a goal. To be honest, it would be a loss for the cooking world if the other party went back to inherit the family business.

Otherwise, there shouldn't be more than three people in the world who could cook better than him.

Speaking of which, it was something that he couldn't do anything about. Lasda had insisted on competing with him, who had a cheat. The outcome was already decided, and he couldn't explain everything.

Sir, " lasda continued, " I do want to build the best restaurant chain in the world, and I have very high standards for the chefs under me. But after seeing my cooking, these people think that my cooking is the best in the world. They even think that with me around, no restaurant can compete with me ...

" this kind of mentality is not good, so i want to let them see what real cooking is. in your country's words, they are beyond others. "

" i didn't know how to ask you to show off your cooking skills before, but after i saw you holding a food festival, i used this method. "

" besides, i also think that sir's idea of holding a food festival is very good. i can also hold a food festival when i go back. not only can i promote my reputation, but i can also choose excellent chefs to recruit. "

Qin Lin finally understood lasda's goal.

At the same time, it could be seen that even if he went back to inherit the family business, he would still be very dedicated to it.

Chapter 1163 The Mysterious Millionaire! You're Too Arrogant! 2

Moreover, with such an attitude, he wasn't afraid that his restaurant chain would fail. Perhaps it wouldn't be long before there was another well-known restaurant chain around the world.

lasda, I know what you're up to, " Qin Lin said with a smile. I'll get someone to make the arrangements. Let's make some tea first. You've been at the villa for so long, you should be used to drinking tea by now, right? "

Lasda nodded. you're right, Sir. After I went back, I felt that the coffee didn't taste right. I even had someone buy me tea leaves.

qin lin invited liu yi and lasda to sit at the tea table. he took out a grade 2 tie guan yin and made a pot of tea.

after liu yi finished his cup of tea, he exclaimed in surprise, " Mr. Qin, I've heard that you have a very good tea in Ming city that can't be found outside. I finally know how good this tea is today.

As the night fell, the night of delicious food arrived.

Linlin villa and Linlin Ranch were all up and running, and they were busy.

An open space in the Linlin Ranch was already brightly lit. Rows of lights had been set up, as well as various decorations to enhance the atmosphere.

This was the location of the food night.

Of course, there were also tools such as temporary kitchen counters and barbecue grills, which were arranged on the spot in a special order, so that tourists who entered the food night could taste the food at the various chefs.

As for the knives, the chefs usually brought them with them.

In particular, the chefs who could enter the gourmet Night were all capable and had strict requirements on kitchenware. They would also help themselves get used to it.

Naturally, there were many ingredients prepared on the kitchen counter. However, the ingredients were all of Grade 1, not the expected Grade 2.

Because they were going to cook the Linlin beef, only the Linlin beef was a quality 2 ingredient today.

As for the tourists, they were responsible for eating after entering, and then scanning the code for the chefs and giving them likes.

at the same time, the official account of linlin villa had already started a live broadcast.

At this time, the screen of the live broadcast was the venue of the food night. It could be seen that even though the chefs and tourists had not entered the venue and the food night had not officially begun, the number of online viewers in the entire live broadcast room had begun to increase rapidly, reaching more than 5 million.

More than 5 million online viewers, what kind of concept was that?

many celebrities did not even have a total of five million viewers for their live broadcast, let alone the number of people watching online at the same time.

Moreover, the 5 million viewers were only temporary. The number was still increasing. At this rate, the final number of online viewers would probably exceed the previous live broadcast of the greenhouse tree seed event.

after waiting for so many days, the night of good food has finally begun.

"I'm very curious about little Qin's cooking skills!"

that's right. One million for a serving of beef. If it's burnt, it'll be embarrassing for the rich man who spent one million.

"Upstairs, I have an image!"

"....."

there was a separate area at the food night, with a row of clean tables and chairs and a screen in front.

Through this screen, one could clearly see the entire scene of the food night.

Naturally, this place was for the gourmets who were invited.

Very quickly.

all the gourmets were invited here. some were from china, some were foreigners with blonde hair and blue eyes, and some were from the foot of the gray plains mountain and tairo ijing, who were from china.

When he came in from the foot of the grey plain mountain, he was accompanied by Tairo ijing and a few gourmets from the ointment nation.

When he entered and saw the other gourmets, his face darkened. As expected, more gourmets from the country of medicine had been invited.

This was obviously done on purpose.

Even though he already knew that the other party had evil intentions, he still couldn't suppress his anger.

That kind of anger had to be completely vented later to calm down.

"Mr. Haiga, we meet again." A golden-haired middle-aged man came over and greeted him.

"Mr. Feida, you've been invited as well. It seems that Linlin villa is very confident," said the man at the foot of the grey plain mountain teasingly.

This Feida was a world-famous gourmets, and he was invited to almost all international food festivals.

There was even a joke among the various international food festivals. If any Food Festival did not have Fei da, it would not be complete.

This was good. With Fei da around, when the other party embarrassed themselves with their beef, Fei da would be the best witness.

Feida's own properties were even more than his, so it was impossible for him to be bribed.

The other party could have his current status because of his true love for food. It could be said that he was a person Without Borders.

Feida could hear the anger at the foot of Grey Plain Mountain. He sighed and said, Mr. Haishihara, I feel sorry for your country's Kazufuru.

Mr. Feida, don't feel sorry, " said Hui Yuan. As long as the coagulosis is over, our Wagyu will bloom again. Besides, this time they want to prove that their Wagyu are stronger than our country's. They even want to change their name. I'll let them know that their Wagyu is still far from good.

I heard that their villa's live broadcast of the food night has almost 10 million online viewers. It'll be a very exciting scene.

As he spoke, he patted the box in the assistant's hand.

Seeing this, Feida understood that the people at the foot of Grey Plain Mountain were here to cause trouble.

This made him look forward to it.

Today, a good show of food was about to begin.

On the other side, the tourists and chefs who were qualified to enter the food night also began to enter the venue under the guidance of the staff.

Chapter 1164 The Mysterious Millionaire! You're Too Arrogant! 3

Yu Xin took the chef's passage, and under the guidance of the staff, she entered with the other chefs who had entered the food night.

She was no longer as confident as she was when she first came, thinking that she could get into the top three.

This time, she had almost entered the night of delicious food by a hair's breadth.

This was mostly due to her looks and figure. After all, a beautiful and handsome chef would really get more attention at the food Festival. If the food was worse, the tourists would also like it.

In this era where looks were the most important, some people did have a natural advantage.

Otherwise, she really wouldn't have been able to enter the dinner tonight.

Therefore, she was now focused on participating and had no intention of entering the top three.

Yu Xin was assigned to a kitchen counter in the North. All the cooking ingredients were prepared. She also took out the knives she brought and began to wash them.

At the same time, she was also observing the other chefs. When she looked to the left, she was surprised to see that it was the famous celebrity with the surname Xie. He was seriously handling his knife and didn't pay attention to anything else, even if many chefs around were observing him.

In fact, it was a little unfair to the other chefs that such a big star participated in the competition. Because of his special identity, it was obviously easier for him to get likes than others.

Therefore, the other party was also the first to enter the food night with likes.

Some people even thought that even if they entered the food night, the other party would definitely reserve one of the top three seats.

after all, with such a big star around, would the tourists who entered the food night be biased?

There would definitely be a bias.

Therefore, it was not entirely true that this celebrity with the surname Xie had excellent cooking skills, comparable to that of a master chef.

This was because every time he cooked, he would comment on either the people in the entertainment industry or the audience and fans. They would always be more tolerant of his food and lower their expectations.

He even took the initiative to find an excuse for her. It was already very impressive for a big star like her to do this.

Fortunately, Linlin villa had invited those international gourmets this time, so they wouldn't be biased towards the celebrity.

just as yu xin was thinking about this, she saw a beautiful woman with a great figure and good looks walk in.

She recognized the person. She was Lin Lin Manor's general manager, Lin Lanzi.

to be honest, she was a little envious of him. he was beautiful, had a good figure, was single, and had his own career. most women yearned for the life of others.

lin lanzi was the host for tonight. after entering the venue, she started to greet everyone and introduced the rules of the food night to them.

The rules were very simple. The chefs would use the ingredients provided to cook the food they were good at and attract the tourists who came later. Each tourist had three votes, so they could vote for three people.

In addition, each chef had to make a dish for the gourmets and let them grade it. In the end, the three best gourmets would be decided.

After Lin Lanzi finished announcing the rules, she said, of course. Today's situation is special. Every chef will also get a portion of Linlin beef as an ingredient. Without a doubt, this Linlin beef is the best ingredient for this Gourmet Night. Moreover, its meat quality is far better than the best snowy beef and beef. Everyone should make good use of this portion of beef.

As she was speaking, the staff had already pushed in small carts with lids.

At this moment, all the chefs' eyes were on the carts.

It was the same for the viewers watching the live broadcast.

They all knew that it must be Linlin beef, one of the main characters of this food night. After this night, Linlin beef should be able to replace the beef from Jiangyao country.

To be able to step on the things of the ointment country to obtain glory, even surpass it, and replace it was definitely something that the people of the country would love to see.

However, just as Lin Lanzi finished speaking, an untimely voice was heard. Linlin beef is one of the best ingredients for this Gourmet Night. I don't think so. Besides, it would be too arrogant to say that it's far better than the best snow and beef.

Chapter 1165 Watari Beef Is Indeed More Delicious Than Linlin Beef? 1

The gourmet Night began.

As the boss, Qin Lin naturally paid attention to it. He still had to make a serving of beef in the evening.

It was just that he didn't go in the beginning, and it would be too rushed to go at the last moment.

however, the screen in the main hall of the Linlin manor was already connected to the live broadcast, and one could watch the live broadcast through several cameras of the Linlin manor's livestream account.

Zhao Mochen, Lasda, and Liu Yi were also watching the live broadcast.

"Teacher, I really have to congratulate you." Lasda looked at the Linlin beef being pushed out and smiled. "After tomorrow, everyone will know about Linlin beef. They won't say that the whole snowy beef is the best beef in the world anymore."

he had been a head chef in Linlin villa before, so he knew the inside story of Linlin beef the best. at that time, he had no lack of Linlin beef to practice with.

Naturally, it was still called Wagyu beef at that time.

However, Linlin villa's beef was far from being comparable to pure snow and beef.

Qin Lin nodded with a smile.

He was even more confident about this. If he were to rank the beef, he would rank it into normal beef and beef, normal whole snow and beef, quality 1 whole snow and beef, and quality 2 whole snow and beef.

Normal snow and beef were beef from the paste country. They were produced in the game and were at least of 2 quality. The current one provided by food night was of 2 quality.

So, how could the whole snow of the ointment country be compared to beef?

At this moment, they all heard an untimely voice from the live broadcast. Linlin beef is one of the best ingredients for this Gourmet Night. I don't think so. Besides, it would be too arrogant to say that it's far better than the best snow and beef.

"Who is this?" lasda asked, confused.

qin lin also frowned. in the live video, a middle-aged man walked forward with a man who looked like an assistant.

At the scene of the food night, Lin Lanzi looked at the foot of gray plain mountain, which had suddenly appeared, and asked with a smile, " "so it's mr. shanxia of grey plain."

She was in charge of inviting these gourmets, especially when her boss said that he would specifically invite gourmets from the country of medicine, so she specially invited a few more.

She had read through the information of these gourmets from the herbal medicine country several times, so she naturally recognized them at a glance.

Moreover, she knew that Lin Lin's cow incident was a bit of a murder and salt to the paste country and the cow. Therefore, she had also predicted that the gourmets of the paste country would cause trouble, so she was very calm at the foot of the gray plain mountain.

however, the foot of grey plain mountain couldn't stay calm. he was looking for trouble with anger and came to slap linlin's beef face.

He took the box from the assistant's hands and said coldly, " " just now, this lady said that linlin beef is the best ingredient for this food night, and it's even better than beef. how about we have a competition before the food night? "

"There are many quality chefs here at the food night, right? You can choose one of you to make a delicious dish with your Linlin beef. I'll use the beef I brought and ask our chef to make a delicious dish."

" after that, we'll mark the gourmets without revealing the ingredients. we'll see whose beef is better. "

This was clearly a challenge, and also a provocation.

The other party had an ulterior motive and wanted to invite him to taste the other party's Linlin beef. He would use this violent method to make the other party regret it.

Lin Lanzi naturally saw through the intention of the foot of gray plain mountain. She didn't rush to speak, but instead asked, Mr. Hui Yuan, as far as I know, the condition of the Wagyu in your country is not good. I wonder if the beef in your hand can represent the Wagyu? "

The foot of the grey plain mountain sneered, " our plaster country isn't the only country that has Wagyu beef. There's also the Wagyu beef from Australia. Their Wagyu beef is no worse than ours. Besides, the Wagyu beef I'm holding is the best in Australia. So, if you think we can't produce Wagyu beef, you're making a big mistake.

At the foot of grey plain mountain, he looked straight at Lin Lanzi with a smug expression, as if he had seen through everything.

he knew that under such circumstances, the other party had to agree even if he didn't want to. otherwise, he would be guilty.

At this moment, Fei da and the other gourmets were already looking at each other. Although they knew from Fei da that there would be a good show to watch, they didn't expect the people at the foot of the gray plain mountain to be so direct.

The key point was that Australia was involved. After all, the best beef in the world was in the ointment country and Australia.

The cow from the plaster country was already like that, so only Australia and the cow were left.

Originally, no matter how the name of Linlin beef was changed, it was only targeted at the ointment country and beef. It had nothing to do with other beef and Australia.

The Australian team could at least save some face for the Wagyu beef.

now that the best beef from australia was brought to the foot of grey plain mountain, it would be fun if they lost.

it wasn't just the problem of the ointment country and beef. it proved that the whole world's beef was inferior to linlin beef. it was a loss of face.

however, from the look of the foot of gray plain mountain, he seemed very confident and confident.

at this moment, it was not only the grey plain mountain that had victory in its grasp.

The Rister family in Australia was also paying attention to this matter.

if the world and the holy land of cattle were like plaster countries, then the one who had the best beef in the world was the rister family.

The leader of the Rexton family was called Meryl Rexton.

Meryl Rister had agreed to slaughter the mutant and black Yak at the foot of the grey plain mountain, not only because of the irresistible reward, but also because the man from the eastern country was too arrogant.

The other party had only stolen some Wagyu cattle breeds from the plaster country, and they were not the Wagyu that the other party had raised themselves. Yet, they had actually changed the name of the Wagyu cattle to Linlin cattle and even dared to boast that Linlin cattle was better than Wagyu beef.

as a family that had the best beef, he could not tolerate it.

Now that he had killed the mutant Heniu, he could take the beef to the foot of the grey plain mountain and teach the man from the eastern country a lesson.

At the venue of the food night.

after lin lanzi heard the words at the foot of grey plain mountain, she also said with a smile, " mr. hui yuan, since it's a food night, we naturally won't object to a food exchange. let's have a friendly exchange! " the reason why she dared to agree was naturally because she had received the news from her earpiece that chairman qin had asked her to agree.

that's right. qin lin had seen this request from the foot of grey plain mountain in the live broadcast. how could he not agree?

this was like giving his face to him.

With beef of 2 Grade, it would be useless even if the other party found the best Chef in the country of plaster. No matter how good he was, could he be better than lasda?

Even lasda's cooking skills couldn't break through the limit of one grade.

The internet was in an uproar. The netizens had not expected that there would be such a shocking event at the Linlin Manor's food night.

This was obviously because the people of the ointment nation were not convinced.

However, the menacing appearance of the grey plain mountain made everyone a little worried. If the Linlin beef couldn't beat the other party, it would be a joke.

at this time, no one wanted linlin manor to become a laughing stock.

At the scene.

Seeing that Lin Lanzi had agreed, the foot of the gray plain mountain revealed a cunning smile. He waved his hand, and a man wearing a chef's uniform walked up.

"this is watanabe. he's the representative chef for us and beef." the foot of grey plain mountain also introduced with a smile.

Watanabe he was one of the best chefs in the plaster country. He had been planning for this moment.

Moreover, in the face of this Eastern country's insult, everyone in their country would be United against the enemy.

At this moment, the gourmet from Feida saw this scene and started discussing in surprise.

" it's actually the watanabe river. he's the best chef in the herbal medicine country. "

" that's right. i've tried his food before. it's really good. "

there's good beef and Watanabe's cooking. Mr. Haiga is very well prepared.

"..."

Meanwhile, the gourmets from the country of paste, such as shoutaro ini, were all smiling.

they all knew about the plan at the foot of gray plain mountain, and were waiting to watch a good show.

it was wrong for this eastern country to think that they could be manipulated. after all, their plaster country had a strong history of more than 1700 years.

lin lanzi looked at the river but was very calm. she smiled and said, since Mr. Haiga has found a chef, then let's choose a random chef from our side.

Because this was an order from Chairman Qin.

indeed, qin lin knew that the chef brought by the other party must be very top-notch.

He used this method to humiliate the other party. He would randomly choose a chef to compete with the other party. If you lost again, you would not only be slapped in the face with the beef, but also in the face of the entire world of chefs in the jiangyao country.

Therefore, as soon as she finished speaking, Lin Lanzi also began to point at a random position with her finger.

However, when her finger stopped, she was stunned.

Because she was pointing at the famous celebrity with the surname Xie.

this ...

She actually panicked a little subconsciously. Even if it was any random chef, they had entered the food night with their own strength. This big star seemed to have relied mostly on her own fame and strength.

The chefs around them were also surprised. No one had thought that they would pick this big star randomly.

The chef with the surname Xie was obviously nervous.

He didn't expect that he would be chosen. Naturally, he could tell that this person from gray plain mountain didn't come with good intentions. This seemed to be a competition between Linlin beef and he beef, but it didn't seem to be just that. There seemed to be other things in it.

Moreover, he knew the one at the foot of gray plain mountain.

In the past, he had a Food Show and had thought of inviting some gourmets, including those at the foot of the grey plain mountain.

however, he was rejected by those gourmets, and they even ridiculed him at the foot of the grey plain mountain. after all, he was a celebrity, and they felt that it was an insult to food for celebrities to do food shows.

but for some reason, he felt his blood boiling. he really wanted to represent the linlin beef, so he walked out.

The viewers in the livestream exclaimed in shock at the sight.

Everyone knew this big star. He had always been a person with good cooking skills.

Moreover, because of this character setting, many people on the internet were dissing him.

It seemed like it was time to test his character design.

The people at the foot of grey plain mountain were stunned when they saw this celebrity with the surname Xie. They obviously recognized him and teased Lin Lanzi, " madam, i think you should choose another person. otherwise, the outcome will be decided. "

Lin Lanzi smiled. Mr. Hui Yuan, there's a saying in our country that one's words carry enormous weight. Since I've already made my choice, I won't change it.

you're really arrogant and ignorant, " the foot of the grey plain mountain snorted. in that case, Mr. Watanabe, I'll leave this place to you.

"alright, mr. haiga." Watanabe nodded and took the box with the mutated beef. His face was filled with a sense of mission.

his mission was to use this beef to teach these people from the eastern countries a lesson.

Lin Lanzi had already asked people to prepare two separate kitchen counters for the big star Xie and Watanabe.

they returned to the gourmet's area at the foot of the mountain.

At this moment, Fei da and the other two gourmets had arrived in front of the screen and turned it off.

Since it was a gourmet competition, as judges, they couldn't watch the process of the competition. When the food was brought in, they could only be fair to the food without bias.

Just like in the movies, watching a chef cook, knowing who made it, and then evaluating it was biased. Some chefs even bribed them, and it became a little unfair.

That kind of cooking show was really nonsense.

As soon as they came in from the foot of the grey plain mountain, the gourmets from well Saburo and the others went up to them."How is it, Mr. Haiga?"

this was actually a question. if they were to vote later, they would definitely vote for the wagyu beef.

" don't worry about it, " hui yuan said with a smile. " the beef is even more delicious. i've already eaten it myself. it's the beef of the rister family's mutant cow. "

If these gourmets from the herbal medicine country nodded, then they would just vote for better food.

They still believed in the people at the foot of gray plain mountain. The other party would not be wrong.

Very quickly, life outside had already begun.

the superstar and watanabe took action at the same time.

Watanabe carefully took out the piece of beef. Mr. Xie also took out the Linlin beef.

both sides 'knife skills were decent. although the superstar's skills were not as good, they were not that much worse than watanabe's. after all, watanabe was one of the best chefs in the plaster country. he would definitely have some skills.

The two of them were actually making a piece of stewed beef, which was not a very difficult dish to make.

this was because the beef slices were not even, and there was a slight difference between the tender and old beef, which would affect the final taste.

moreover, the two's technical skills were dazzling.

it was the famous celebrity with the surname xie, and his actions were very visually appealing.

in the past, people had questioned whether his cooking show was special effects or the techniques of other chefs and video editing. now, it could be proven that it was not the case.

very quickly, the beef for both of them was also out of the pot.

from the color and appearance, the two were obviously evenly matched, which surprised the audience in the live broadcast room. this big star seemed to have some skills.

At this time, a special person went up the mountain to number the two portions of beef and then re-divided them into small bowls.

In this case, the gourmets at the foot of the gray plain mountain wouldn't know who made it.

Only the chefs at the scene and the audience in the live broadcast room knew that No. 1 was Linlin beef, and No. 2 was he beef.

the meat had been brought to the area where the gourmets were.

at this point, the screens in the stadium and the livestream rooms switched to show the economy of the gourmets "districts.

Even the audience waiting in the stadium could see what was happening on the screen. For a moment, they were a little nervous.

the two portions of beef were brought into the quarantine area, and then two small bowls were placed in front of each gourmet.

One bowl was Linlin beef, and the other was Wagyu beef.

Hui Yuan picked up the small bowl of beef in front of him and chopped it up. The number of the beef in this bowl was 2.

He took a bite and laughed. This was the beef he brought. He had just tasted it not long ago. It was also made by Watanabe River and was exactly the same.

It was still so delicious.

then, he looked at the other bowl of linlin beef. he wanted to see what the beef tasted like. how dare it boast like that.

after eating two mouthfuls of linlin beef at the foot of grey plain mountain, his face changed instantly.

The delectable taste that assaulted his taste buds made his eyes widen.

that deliciousness, and that texture, how was it possible?

At the side, several other gourmets from the ointment nation had also finished tasting the two portions of beef. They could clearly feel that the No. 1 beef was far more delicious than the No. 2 beef.

In other words, beef No. 1 was the beef brought by Mr. Haiga.

Chapter 1168 536-Face Turning Green! Linlin Beef Coronation! 1

in linlin villa's live broadcast room, the number of simultaneous online viewers had reached 50 million.

Perhaps some people felt that this number was too exaggerated.

There might be many reasons for this number.

firstly, the linlin manor food festival had attracted countless people, and many of them were looking forward to this food night.

Secondly, the competition between the famous celebrity surnamed Xie and Watanabe had also spread and attracted countless people.

One had to know that this big star with the surname Xie had a lot of traffic, and his cooking skills were also a hot topic.

Thirdly, the matter of Linlin's cow and he's cow had long been abuzz on the internet.

Fourth, the challenge at the foot of grey plain mountain had also arrived.

Linlin's cow and cow were no longer just a matter of cow.

Therefore, mouyin also gave all the traffic to the Youli villa live broadcast room.

people in the country always paid more attention to matters regarding the country of medicine, especially when linlin niu wanted to replace heniu and challenge heniu, which was full of drama.

That was why there were so many people online at the same time in Linlin's live broadcast room.

Of course, a certain tune was also at the peak of its popularity.

This livestream's popularity would also be a record, a record that other Short Video platforms would find difficult to reach.

since mouyin couldn't do anything to the linlin villa account, they might as well make good use of the linlin villa account to create popularity for themselves.

The livestream viewers watched as the gourmets finished tasting the beef, and their expressions became nervous.

they knew it was time to decide the winner.

Everyone was waiting for the gourmets to make their choice.

Fei da was the most famous and had the highest status among these gourmet families.

At this moment, his face was filled with disbelief.

This was because the two types of beef had exceeded his expectations.

One of them was already more delicious than the whole snow and beef he had eaten before.

The other one was much better than the whole snow and beef he had eaten before.

He really didn't think that there was such beef in the world.

this also made him feel that he was weak and isolated.

He had once thought that he had tasted all the delicacies in the world, but today, the beef was the most delicious he had ever tasted.

the other gourmets were equally surprised after tasting the beef.

this was also the first time they had tasted such top-grade beef. each serving was more delicious than the previous one, and one serving had completely crushed the previous all-snow and beef.

At this moment, the expression at the foot of gray plain mountain was extremely unsightly.

He tasted the beef that he had brought.

However, he was shocked to find that the other portion of beef was even more delicious. It tasted even better, and it was not just a little better.

"For Yingluo, why?" The people at the foot of grey plain mountain panicked. They didn't understand why the Linlin beef was more delicious than the mutation and beef they brought.

the other party's kazufuru was clearly stolen from their jiangyao country, so it was impossible.

then, he looked at the gourmets from the country of medicine in a panic.

He had told these people that they only needed to vote for the beef that was more delicious.

this even more delicious beef didn't belong to the beef he had brought.

he quickly looked at the gourmets from the herbal medicine country, trying to give them a warning.

As long as they all chose the beef that they had brought, even if Feida and the others chose Linlin beef, they could still say that different people had different tastes and retain a trace of dignity as beef.

The few gourmets from the ointment nation also looked at the foot of gray plain mountain.

There was even one person who secretly made an 'OK' gesture to him, and then handed out plate number 1 without hesitation.

The No. 1 plate was their Wagyu beef. This time, the other party was dumbfounded.

the gourmets from other countries also chose no. 1 beef at the same time.

Seeing this scene, the people at the foot of grey plain mountain turned pale.

all wrong.

Damn it.

The viewers in Linlin villa's live broadcast room were in an uproar at that moment.

They all knew that No. 1 was from Linlin beef. Even if the people who came in later didn't know, they asked in the public chat and the people who came in before them explained.

Now, he saw that all the gourmets of the ointment country had chosen Linlin beef.

" 666, linlin beef is awesome. this is the enemy's self-destruction! "

" haha, i'm looking forward to the expressions of these people who are stuck-up when they find out the truth. " so, it's always right to believe in Linlin villa at this time.

"Linlin Manor is specialized in dealing with all kinds of dissatisfaction overseas."

At the same time.

Feida and the other gourmets also made their choices and handed out plate number 1.

In the blink of an eye, there was only one person at the foot of gray plain mountain who had not made a choice.

at this moment, the bottom of grey plain mountain was suffering to the extreme.

he definitely didn't want to choose linlin beef, even if linlin beef was really more delicious, because linlin beef would replace and cause a huge insult to their plaster country and their heniu.

However, he knew that even if he didn't choose Linlin beef, it wouldn't change anything.

moreover, if he didn't choose linlin beef, it would probably affect his reputation as a gourmet, which he had maintained for many years. that would affect his various industries.

In order to obtain rhester's mutant cow's beef, he had already sacrificed a portion of his assets. If his other assets were affected as well, he would be in trouble.

He might have understood a saying in this country: he had suffered a double loss.

In the end, he could only grit his teeth and choose No. 1.

choosing linlin beef was the last thing he could do to preserve his honor as a gourmet.

Even if this would completely embarrass him, and cause the beef to be completely trampled into the abyss by the Linlin beef.

Chapter 1169 536-Face Turning Green! Linlin Beef Coronated! 2

when the decision was made at the foot of grey plain mountain, the audience in linlin villa's livestream room couldn't help but boil with excitement, and the same word quickly popped up on the public screen:

"face smacking!"

When it was time to gloat, the people of the country always had a tacit understanding and worked together.

After the gourmets had made their choices, Lin Lanzi also walked in with a smile. gentlemen, it seems that you've made your choices. Let's reveal the answer!

feida and the other gourmets immediately looked forward to it. the beef just now was really delicious.

They also wanted to know what kind of beef it was so that they could get it later.

the gourmets from the herbal medicine nation were also clenching their fists in excitement, waiting for the results.

He would be able to make the people of Linlin villa dumbfounded immediately.

lin lanzi also walked forward and picked up the number plates chosen by the gourmets. she said in surprise, "it seems that all the gourmets have made the same choice."

She naturally knew that No. 1 was Linlin beef.

This also made her look at the gourmets at the foot of the gray plain mountain and the ointment country with a playful look.

She didn't expect that these guys would all choose Linlin beef.

he had thought that these people would still cause trouble.

It was too unbelievable.

If he couldn't figure it out, he wouldn't think about it.

However, she also knew why Chairman Qin dared to agree to the competition so confidently. He probably already knew the result.

Lin Lanzi also announced,"everyone has chosen the Linlin beef, so the Linlin beef is the winner of this round's competition." &Nbsp;

The result made the excited gourmets from the herbal medicine country freeze and instantly dumbfounded.

What was going on?

didn't mr. fujiwara say that he could just choose the more delicious beef?

The more delicious food was the beef.

These few people looked at the foot of the mountain with suspicion, which made the foot of the mountain even more upset.

A bunch of pig teammates.

"The results are out. It also means that Linlin beef is indeed better than wakefu beef." lin lanzi continued, not forgetting to ask the foot of grey plain mountain, "don't you agree? mr. haiga?"

hearing this question, the foot of grey plain mountain clenched his fists.

This woman from the eastern kingdom was too despicable. The results were already out, but she still wanted to ask him.

How could he answer this question?

it's hard to say, okay?

The audience in the livestream room laughed when they saw the camera pointing at the ashen face at the foot of the grey plain mountain.

he had shot himself in the foot. this guy was as embarrassed as he could be, right?

In the end, when he saw Fei da and the other gourmets looking at him, he could only grit his teeth and say, "That's right, Linlin beef is even better!"

this time, it was the final decision.

linlin beef was indeed better than wagyu beef, and this was personally admitted by the top gourmets of the herbal medicine country.

It could be said that at this moment, the people at the foot of grey plain mountain were so embarrassed that they wanted to find a hole to hide in.

Linlin Ranch.

After the results were out, the food night's venue burst into cheers, especially the big star surnamed Xie, who clenched his fists tightly.

He had won.

at this moment, he also heaved a deep sigh of relief.

However, the expression of the person opposite him was ugly.

He had not only lost the Linlin beef, but also the chef.

Inside.

After Lin Lanzi finished asking the questions at the foot of the grey plain mountain, she turned to Fei da and the other gourmets, at the same time, I would also like to thank all of you for your evaluation.

you're welcome, MA 'am. It's our honor to witness the birth of a new dish of premium beef. Fei da waved his hand and then asked impatiently, "Your Linlin beef is definitely the best beef we've ever had. I wonder if we have the opportunity to purchase some?"

"yeah, it's my first time eating such delicious beef." The other gourmet chimed in.

if possible, I would like to buy some Linlin beef as well, " another gourmets said. there's no beef more delicious than this in the world.

the gourmets began to compliment him. this was also their characteristic, their pursuit of delicious food.

The gourmets at the foot of grey plain mountain and from jiangyao country looked at this scene with embarrassment.

they felt like clowns.

Lin Lanzi also smiled and said to Fei da and the others, "Dear gourmets, our Linlin beef is limited in quantity and we can't provide you with such high-quality Linlin beef. We can provide you with some ordinary Linlin beef."

" of course, the inferior beef is definitely much better than the ordinary whole snow and beef. besides, the gourmet night is not over yet. the top three chefs still need to be evaluated. this time, they will also use the finest linlin beef to make a delicious dish for everyone to taste. "

only now did fei da and the others know that linlin beef also had different grades.

However, when they heard that the other chefs would also use this beef to make a delicious dish for them to taste, their eyes lit up and they were filled with anticipation.

After Lin Lanzi went out of the venue again, Feida and the other gourmets sat down again. The screen that was turned off earlier was turned on again, and the situation outside the venue was live-streamed.

Naturally, Feida and the others did not idle around either. They took out their phones and started sharing on their respective social media platforms.

They would share every delicacy they had eaten, which was why many food festivals wanted to invite them.

as long as the food or ingredients were really good, they could quickly promote it through these gourmets.

and this time, they were sharing linlin beef.

According to Feida's description, this was: "I used to think that I had eaten all the delicacies in the world, but I realized that I was wrong in the magical Eastern country. They have beef that I have never eaten before."

you can't imagine how delicious that beef was. Even the whole snow and beef that we used to treat as the top beef can't be compared to it.

"I believe that after eating Linlin beef, you won't find any other beef delicious anymore."

It must be known that it was daytime in the West. If a gourmet like Feida shared Linlin beef, it would be quickly promoted.

Moreover, it was indeed true. For people who loved good food, beef used to be the best, but now the best was obviously Linlin beef.

After all, Feida wasn't the only one to say this. The other gourmets also said the same thing.

In other words, the beef had become a thing of the past.

Australia.

The Rister family, on the other hand, was filled with furious smashing sounds.

Meryl couldn't believe this.

He had killed the mutated cow of his family and asked them to bring the beef to the foot of Grey Plain Mountain to cause trouble.

However, how could the mutated cow's beef lose?

Why was the beef in that bridal chamber country so good? It was clearly a fight.

At the foot of the Grey Plain Mountain, they even said that their Linlin cow was the one who stole the country's cow.

But how did it turn out like this?

Mei Li felt that she had been tricked by the Grey Plain Mountain.

Originally, this matter had nothing to do with the Wagyu cows in Australia. The Wagyu cows in the ointment country were going to go extinct. Instead, it was the time for the Wagyu cows in Australia to rise and rule the world beef market.

But now, they had brought the best beef from the Reist family to challenge Linlin Manor, and they had lost.

This was not just embarrassing for the people at the foot of Grey Plain Mountain, but also for the Rexton family and their Heniu.

The current situation would probably be spread all over the world by the gourmets from Feida.

In other words, from this moment on, the Wagyu of the Rexton family had lost its status as the most premium beef delicacy.

Now, the spot belonged to Linlin beef from the eastern country.

Damn that Grey Plain Mountain. It's all his fault. Meryl was extremely vexed and smashed another cup in anger. He turned to the family members beside him and said in a daze, he must die at the foot of Grey Plain Mountain. He has caused us great trouble. We'll use the properties he gave us to find the best assassins. He must pay the price.

The person beside him nodded and walked out.

Obviously, Meri had forgotten that he was the one who wanted to teach Linlin beef a lesson. He was very confident in his own beef.

At Linlin Ranch, at the food night's venue, the big star with the surname Xie had already returned to his kitchen counter and was preparing the food like the other chefs.

Although there was an episode at the foot of gray plain mountain, the food night still had to continue.

Therefore, these chefs also began to make food, and the tourists who were shortlisted for the food night were also invited to enter. After all, the voting for these tourists who tasted the food of the chefs was one of the segments.

Linlin Manor.

seeing this, qin lin also stood up and said to lasda and liu yi, " "Mr. Liu, lasda, let's go to the scene now!"

After all, the last segment of the gourmet Night was the beef cooked by little Qin.

Chapter 1170 Qin Lin's Appearance! Lift The Lid Of The Pot! 1

after the competition between the linlin beef and the heniu, the gourmet night proceeded in an orderly manner.

All the chefs, including Yu Xin and the celebrity surnamed Xie, had already sat down with their signature dishes in full swing, then handed them to the tourists in front of the kitchen counter for them to taste, hoping to get the tickets in their hands.

Naturally, there were only three tickets for the food night.

they wouldn't vote for any chef right away, but they would choose to taste the food of those chefs one by one.

They would only vote for the chef when there was something that was really more delicious than anything else, or when there was something that they liked more.

"Everyone, you can now make a delicious meal for the gourmets. Make good use of it." lin lanzi said into the microphone.

At this moment, those chefs also became serious.

The tourists 'votes were only a part of it, and the gourmets' reviews also accounted for a large part of it.

The chefs immediately took out a piece of Linlin beef and began to prepare it carefully. Then they handed it to the staff and sent it to the gourmets for a taste.

Moreover, every dish made by a chef had a serial number, so there would be no mistakes.

Fei da and the other gourmets had been waiting for a long time. When they saw the staff bring in the beef made by the chefs, they all looked at it with anticipation.

After the beef was served to the gourmets like Fei da, they immediately started to taste it.

as there were many chefs, they could only eat one or two mouthfuls of each serving.

However, as they tasted the beef, Fei da and the others discovered that each dish was surprisingly delicious. In fact, many of the flavors and textures were even better than the previous one.

in other words, the cooking skills of these chefs were better than that of the previous chef.

this made fei da and the others feel a little incredulous.

That chef was chosen by Linlin Manor to compete with the dubian River.

Watanabe was one of the best chefs in the country.

there were still so many chefs in linlin villa whose cooking skills were better than those sent out to compete with watanabe river?

this kasaya.

The gourmets at the foot of grey plain mountain and from jiangyao country had obviously also tasted it.

Their unsightly expressions turned even gloomier.

This was simply humiliating.

In the competition just now, there were so many chefs with better cooking skills that had not come out yet, but Watanabe he had lost.

"this beef is so delicious." "although every chef's cooking is different due to their skills and cooking methods, it's really enjoyable," fei da said with a face full of enjoyment.

"Mr. Feida is absolutely right." "If every chef can make this dish so delicious, it means the Linlin beef is really amazing," another gourmet chimed in.

The gourmets from jiangyao country could only frown as they savored the food.

They were still unwilling to admit this fact.

At this moment, some people entered the food night's venue.

They were Liu Yi and lasda.

There were a few other people following behind lasda. They were the Western food chefs he had brought to broaden his horizons.

As soon as Liu Yi entered, he smelled the fragrance in the air and said, " "Lasda, I'm going to taste the food myself."

"Yes, Mr. Liu!" Liu Yi nodded and said to the chef behind him, " "Let's go and try it. Let's see the cooking skills of this chef from the eastern country."

Lasda said with an evil smile.

It was because he knew the ingredients of Linlin villa, especially the premium beef.

with these ingredients, even an ordinary chef could make very delicious food. If these chefs who had qualified for the gourmet night were to make it, the delicious taste was definitely not something that the chefs he had brought with him could make with ordinary ingredients.

The key was that the fools he had brought here did not know about this at all.

They didn't even know the language of this country, so even if someone told them, they wouldn't be able to understand it.

It was a good time to give them a blow.

Let's see if they still dare to be arrogant when they return.

When the other chefs heard Lasda's words, they also went to the kitchen counters and began to taste the food.

Then, just as Lasda had expected, the expressions of these chefs immediately changed to a very interesting one.

They were all Western food chefs. Before this, they were very confident in their cooking skills. Even if they couldn't beat Mr. Lasda, they were still top Western food chefs.

However, after eating these things, they could no longer remain calm.

The food made by each of these Oriental chefs was so delicious. Moreover, many of the dishes made by these chefs were not something that they could make at all.

How could there be so many chefs with terrifying culinary skills?

For a moment, they clearly became much more humble.

Lasda had clearly noticed this.

But this was just what?

When Sir personally cooks, these people will know what the peak of cooking is.

It was a giant mountain that no chef in the entire cooking world could cross.

If there was a God of Cooking in this world, it would be Sir.

As time passed, the top three chefs of the food night were quickly decided.

The top three were all middle-aged men.

Yu Xinru's only thought was to participate.

The superstar with the surname Xie was also not nominated. It was obvious that his cooking skills were not as good as those chefs who specialized in cooking, not to mention the ingredients.

Under Lin Lanzi's lead, the top three chefs were soon awarded with bonuses and certificates. This was done in front of tens of millions of spectators.

If these three chefs were smart, they would probably reach the peak of their lives when they returned.
