

The Game 1171

Chapter 1171 Qin Lin's Appearance! Lift The Lid Of The Pot! 2

in addition, lucky tourists also appeared one after another.

These tourists would receive a prize of 100000 Yuan.

Linlin villa's official livestream room was broadcasting the entire process.

The number of people in the live broadcast room was still hot.

Through the live broadcast, the audience was looking forward to seeing the certificate of the 100000 Yuan prize money being awarded to the lucky tourists.

This was because the main event was coming up. The beef that little Qin cooked was worth one million Yuan.

any lucky tourist who got this opportunity would become a millionaire in the blink of an eye.

Soon, the lucky one was born. It was a young man who looked like a college student. He was muscular and should be a sports student.

"It's me, haha, it's me!" boss! the young man shouted excitedly when he saw that he had received the reward for cooking beef from little Qin. He even jumped a few times on the spot.

"then, let's congratulate this handsome man. how should i address you?" lin lanzi said with a smile.

"hu dong, i'm hu dong!" The young man's face was full of excitement.

alright, Mr. Hu Dong, " Lin Lanzi said. you have two choices now. One is to eat Qin's beef, and the other is that a Mr. Lasda is willing to buy the beef for a million.

"I want a million." Hu Dong made his choice without hesitation.

what kind of joke was this? was this a multiple choice question? It was clearly a single-choice question.

How long would it take for him to earn back a million after he graduated?

for the sake of eating a portion of beef, he didn't want a million? If he was not a nouveau riche, he must have a problem with his brain.

Lasda also stepped forward and said to Hu Dong, " Hello, I'm lasda. I have a contract here. Sign it and a million will be transferred to your account. Qin's portion of beef will naturally be mine.

Hu Dong did not hesitate. He took the contract without a word and signed his name. He also filled in his card number in the bank card for the recipient.

Lasda took back the contract and signed his name. There were two contracts, one for each person. Once he was done, the contract came into effect.

He also asked Liu Yi to help call the number of the Ming city notary office.

Because Liu Yi was the one who handled the notarization at Ming city's notary office, lasda, a foreigner, couldn't do it.

With a phone call from Liu Yi, the one million Yuan from the notary account would be transferred to Hu Dong's account immediately.

Sure enough, it didn't take long for Hu Dong to take out his phone and point it at the camera.

That was 1 million Yuan in his account.

normally, a transfer of one million yuan would not be so fast at this time. however, special accounts like notarized accounts did not have such restrictions and would be noted at the bank in advance.

As long as they switched to the same profession, the speed would be very fast.

If he were to cross, it would take some time.

This transaction had also attracted the attention of Fei da and the other gourmets.

Even the gourmets of the paste country at the foot of the gray plain mountain were also looking at the live broadcast screen and watching the scene inside.

"isn't that lasda's?" Feida asked the other gourmets, surprised.

he clearly knew about lasda.

After all, lasda was a three star Michelin chef.

last year, he had challenged the top 10 michelin three star masters in the west. none of them were his match and he was defeated by lasda.

Lasda was the best Chef in the West.

Even gourmets like them wanted to eat lasda's food.

However, after a period of continuous challenges, there was no news of master chef lasda. Almost no one in the Western countries knew where he was.

"It really seems to be him." The other gourmet said in surprise.

"I didn't expect to see this man here," another gourmets said in surprise."He seems to want to buy this beef for a million?"

This was what shocked Fei da and the other gourmets.

What kind of chef's beef was qualified to make this lasda do this?

Moreover, this one million was equivalent to the cost of the operation.

This was because the Linlin beef was provided for free.

but what kind of chef would pay such a high price?

even the people at the foot of gray plain mountain, who were like dead people, couldn't help but be curious.

They were gourmets, after all, and it was hard not to be curious about the situation.

At this moment, they saw a young man in a chef's uniform appear on the live broadcast screen.

As soon as this young man appeared, the chefs and tourists at the scene made a lot of noise. It was Qin Lin.

Qin Lin put on a white chef's suit to make it look more formal.

when lasda saw qin lin, he immediately stepped forward to greet him."sir."

obviously, the gourmets also knew that qin lin was the one who was going to cook the beef.

When the foot of grey plain mountain saw Qin Lin in the video, he said in disbelief,"Why is it him?"

"mr. hui yuan, do you know this chef?" fei da asked curiously.

he's not a chef, " said the foot of grey plain mountain hurriedly. he's the one who developed the coagulation plague treatment potion.

"What?" feida was obviously stunned.

Moreover, the potion that was developed could not only be used against the coagulosis plague, but also against various animal plagues.

It was like an all-purpose potion that should not have appeared in this era.

And now, the foot of gray plain mountain was telling him that the one who developed this potion was this young man in a chef's uniform?

if he wasn't joking, then it would be too shocking.

Chapter 1172 Qin Lin's Appearance! Lift The Lid Of The Pot! 3

was this a chef for a scientist?

qin lin's appearance naturally attracted everyone's attention, and the live broadcast room quickly boiled over.

After the concoction of the cobble plague, his fame and reputation had reached the peak.

Qin Lin also walked to the kitchen counter and put down a bag in his hand. The bag contained the ingredients needed to make the special beef recipe.

Now, this food night was his one-man show.

He also took the grade 2 Linlin beef that had been prepared for him, then put it under the chopping board.

The next moment, he stretched out his hand and two of his fingers picked up the handle of a knife. The kitchen knife fell into his hand and even turned along with his hand.

Just this alone was enough to shock all the chefs around, as well as the gourmets from Feida.

Even an ordinary chef might not be able to do this.

Qin Lin then started to process the grade 2 Linlin beef in his hand.

He was going to make a piece of beef in a pot today.

To simmer the beef in the pot, one naturally had to slice the beef first. However, to do so, the beef had to be sliced moderately, and each slice had to be evenly distributed.

To him, this was not a problem.

After receiving the special beef cooking skill, the technique of cutting beef was engraved into his muscle memory.

So, after the kitchen knife in his hand drew another arc, it turned into a knife shadow and cut into the beef. The speed was so fast that all the chefs, Fei Da, and the other gourmets were shocked.

"What a fast saber!" Yu Xin!

"Yes, they've almost all turned into saber shadows." Fei Da!

"This cutting technique is too awesome!" The famous celebrity with the surname Xie.

Even the viewers in the live streaming room were in disbelief. Through the video, they could see that the blade was almost blurry.

If this wasn't a live broadcast, they would have suspected that it was edited.

It was too fake.

However, what was happening in front of him was obviously real.

This speed was enough to make people wonder if the knife had cut into the beef and if it was effective.

This doubt didn't last long, because when the water in the pot next to them started to bubble, everyone saw Qin Lin cut the beef and put the big piece of beef into the water.

After the beef entered the water, it spread out in an unbelievable manner, turning into pieces of evenly sized meat.

It was as if it had been cut out by a computer.

This caused everyone to exclaim even more. The bullet comments in the live broadcast room paused for a moment, and then the comments flooded in like a tide.

"What did I just see? This knife skill is unbelievable."

"With that kind of speed, how did he manage to control the size of each piece so neatly?"

When this video gets out tomorrow, people will definitely say that it's fake. Special effects!

"....."

The beef couldn't be left in the water for too long. Qin Lin took the opportunity to scoop up all the beef and put it into another pot with oil.

After that, he added water according to the sequence, then added the secret ingredients into the pot one by one. After a series of processes, he finally covered the pot with a lid and let it boil.

Qin Lin also took out his phone, looked at the time, and set a timer.

At that moment, everyone's attention was on the pot.

Whether it was the gourmet, the chefs around him, or the audience in the live stream.

At this moment, everyone knew that the dish would be ready when the lid was opened.

After an unknown amount of time, Qin Lin's phone rang. He immediately reached out to grab the lid and opened it with anticipation.

Whether or not he could make glowing food depended on this moment.

Finally, Qin Lin opened the lid slightly. At that moment, Qin Lin's eyes lit up and a ray of light appeared from the pot.

He suddenly lifted the lid.

In the next moment, everyone's eyes were fixed on the pot, unable to turn away. All of them revealed looks of disbelief.

Then, there was a wave of exclamations.

"I'm going to run!"

"I'll f * ck!"

"F * ck Yingluo!"

"my tiangang!"

"What?"

"Oh my God!"

Chapter 1173 Is This Magic? Is He The God Of Cooking?\(1\)

When little Qin was cooking, her smooth cooking skills had already amazed everyone.

Especially that knife skill, it was so hard to see.

That speed was like a special effect.

However, when the tens of millions of online viewers in the live broadcast room saw little Qin open the pan, everyone's eyes widened.

If that knife skill was a special effect, then what was this?

As steam rose from the pot, there was actually a burst of light. The food in the pot was completely covered by the light.

What kind of joke was this?

"Damn, did little Qin put a special effect light in the pot?"

I didn't expect this. I thought it wasn't a special effect.

"Are you sure the one above is a special effect?"

"Could it be that little Qin is a Chinese little boss?"

"....."

The audience in the live broadcast room went crazy. They had never seen this before.

Although there was always a rumor on the internet about plants that glowed, who had ever seen food that glowed?

That was just a kind of teasing.

What did they see today? little qin's food really glowed when he opened the lid.

It was not just the audience in the livestream room.

The chefs, the audience, and the gourmets were all in shock.

yu xin didn't know what she was feeling now, she could only cover her mouth with her hand.

it was the same for the celebrity with the surname xie.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he would have thought he was dreaming.

Fei da and the other gourmets even rubbed their eyes.

"Did I see that pot light up just now?"

"Did I see it wrong?"

"You didn't see it wrong, I saw it too!"

"is that magic?"

"....."

These gourmets were definitely knowledgeable about food, but when had they ever seen something like this?

All of them were shocked by Qin Lin's move.

After the light, the live broadcast also showed Qin Lin's pot of beef stew. The beef was served with all kinds of ingredients, and there was even a trace of steam floating in the air. It was obviously very beautiful.

Just the color alone showed that the beef was definitely cooked to the extreme, making people very appetizing.

At the scene.

even lasda was stunned by this scene.

He had always been curious about how good Mr. Qin's cooking skills were. It was also a question that he had never been able to understand.

in his days at linlin villa, every time he thought that he had some understanding of this gentleman's cooking skills and that it was his full strength, he would soon find out that he was wrong.

&Nbsp; this Mr. Qin would soon show his stronger cooking skills.

What has Mr. Qin done now?

The food he made actually glowed when he opened the lid.

He had always suspected that Mr. Qin had used some kind of magic to cook.

Was that magic?

the chefs that lasda had brought with him were even more dumbfounded. they had been chefs for so long, but they had never seen anything like this.

it's just cooking, why did it shine? It wasn't disco dancing that required lighting effects.

Was the scene in front of him really something that could be done by cooking?

...

Qin Lin put down the pot lid in his hand and smiled.

It was indeed glowing.

In other words, this pot of beef had +4 deliciousness and +4 texture attributes.

He picked up a piece of beef and put it in his mouth. As soon as it entered his mouth, the meaty fragrance spread out. As he chewed, the delectable taste bloomed completely, and the texture made him unable to stop.

it was simply a divine delicacy.

the taste was indescribable, and it went straight to the soul. it was far from what the +3 food could compare to.

Even Qin Lin himself was a little fascinated by this delicious taste.

It was a pity that the special beef cooking technique could only be used in an environment like the food Festival. It was impossible to make it on normal days.

qin lin took a sip and then got himself another bowl.

he was not a glutton.

However, this was really too delicious, and he couldn't make it often, so he filled a bowl for himself.

After that, Qin Lin called for the staff and lasda.

A portion of this pot of beef was for lasda. After all, he had spent a million dollars to buy it.

The other portion was for the gourmets.

it was time to let these gourmets experience this kind of food and let them know what a country of gourmet was.

Soon, the staff brought the divided beef to the area where the gourmets were.

Lasda also called over the chefs he had brought along who were still in shock.

have a taste. Let's see what a truly top-notch delicacy is. Lasda said to the chefs. He picked up a piece of beef and tasted it. Then he was stunned.

it was the same for those chefs.

they had been shocked by his cooking skills just now, and after eating the beef, they were completely stunned by the taste and texture.

Even as chefs, they couldn't believe that they could eat such a delicious dish.

It was too delicious.

Other than such an intuitive description, they could not think of any other words.

Then, lasda immediately started to move.

there was no time to waste on such a delicacy. he would eat it first as a form of respect.

The other chefs also reacted. They didn't even care that lasda was the boss and all started snatching.

They finally understood what their boss, lasda, meant.

The chefs in this country were so terrifying.

...

The staff also served the beef to the gourmets from Feida.

The aroma that wafted in the air instantly attracted the attention of Fei da and the other gourmets.

feida and the others had been shocked by the live broadcast video and wanted to taste the beef in the pot.

Chapter 1174 Is This Magic? He's The God Of Cooking, Right?

Now that the beef had finally been sent in, there was no reason for him to hesitate.

They immediately began to taste the beef.

however, as soon as the beef entered their mouths, the +4 deliciousness rushed straight to their souls. after chewing, the +4 texture also made them unable to stop. they could only subconsciously move their mouths.

One of the gourmets even bit his tongue because it was so delicious.

It was an embarrassing thing for a gourmet.

however, this also proved how amazing the beef was.

A +3 delicacy was enough to intimidate lasda, the number one chef in the West. A +4 delicacy was definitely magic to them.

Even the gourmets from jiangyao country at the foot of grey plain mountain were dumbfounded after eating the beef.

They could not say a word.

No matter how arrogant they were and how unwilling they were to admit it, the beef had crushed their beef into pieces.

This kind of delicacy was definitely not something that any of the chefs in their ointment country could make.

The only thing they could do next was to eat in silence.

In the face of such delicious food, it seemed that they had put down the shame of being a bull and had no time to care about this.

it's really delicious. I don't even know how to describe the taste anymore, " Fei da mumbled.

"Yes, yes, this is the most delicious food I've ever eaten in my life." Another gourmet chimed in.

it's really unbelievable. Are you sure he's a chef and not a magic caster? "

"No, he's not a chef. He's just a scientist."

"yiyi," fei da.

"yingying" was the sound of the gourmets.

All of the gourmets were stunned.

That's right, he wasn't a chef. He was just a scientist who had developed a potion to cure the coagulated plague.

However, a scientist had made a delicacy that no chef could make.

Was cooking related to science?

Lin Lanzi walked in again and asked Fei da and the others with a smile, "gentlemen, how's the beef that little qin made?"

She knew that her boss's cooking was amazing. Even if she didn't eat the beef, she knew it was delicious. She could tell from the way lasda and the other gourmets couldn't stop eating.

Naturally, she wanted to come in and interview them. She wanted these gourmets to say that it was delicious, which would add to the Linlin beef.

after all, the beef was made from linlin beef.

fei da directly answered by violently nodding his head, "madam, qin's beef is too delicious. it's also linlin beef, but he can make such delicious food."

The other gourmets chimed in,

"Yes, this kind of delicious food is fascinating."

"no other chef can make such a delicious dish."

I've lived for decades, but this is the first time I've tasted such a delicacy.

"....."

The gourmets 'praises were naturally captured by the camera, which was what Lin Lanzi wanted.

Since the food Festival was held and the effect was so good, you city also hoped that there would be a second and third one.

Therefore, he had to get the material in advance, right? Maybe he could become famous all over the world in the future, and chefs from other countries would also want to come.

Naturally, it would depend on whether they were willing to come or not.

Fei da didn't think too much about it. After the praise, he hurriedly asked, "MA 'am, may I know when your next food Festival will be? Will this Empress Qin still cook at the food Festival?"

His words immediately caught the attention of the other gourmets.

They all knew what Feida meant. There was also a Food Festival, so why did he have to come?

lin lanzi smiled and replied, " our linlin manor will still have the next food festival. as for whether little qin will cook at that time, that will depend on his wishes. however, the ingredients will definitely not change. "

Madam, please invite me when the time comes, " Fei da said immediately. please, you must invite me.

When the other gourmets heard this, they all expressed their desire to invite them again.

"Please invite me too." An untimely voice rang out from the foot of grey plain mountain.

This stunned Lin Lanzi, and she looked at the foot of gray plain mountain with a ruminating expression.

The foot of Hui Yuan mountain was embarrassed and ashamed. "Please invite me when the time comes."

he was finally a gourmet, and he couldn't resist the temptation of such delicious food. more importantly, with qin mo's delicious food, linlin manor's food festival would soon become the most famous food festival in the world.

Any gourmet would want to participate in a Food Festival like this. Didn't you see how impatient Fei da and the others were?

If a Food Festival was excluded from this kind of food Festival, one's reputation and reputation would probably take a dive.

He was bowing so low for the honor and status of a gourmet.

Fei da and the other gourmets didn't want to waste any more time. They immediately began to eat the rest of the beef.

Unfortunately, there wasn't a lot of beef given to them, and they really wanted more.

After eating, Fei da and the other gourmets seemed to have lost something wonderful. They looked at their Empty Bowls and felt empty inside.

Then, Fei da took out her phone and shared the video again.

don't think that ordinary people have the right to post on moments. it's the same for celebrities and nouveau riche, and gourmets are no exception.

it was just that ordinary people couldn't see other people's moments. sometimes, they might even be better at sharing on social media than ordinary people.

Wasn't it just a rich second generation's circle of friends that was exposed?

The dog was wearing a watch worth more than 1.2 million Yuan. It was racing in the afternoon, had rows of sports cars in the garage, and showed off its 'car' at night and late at night.

Feida once again posted on her social media platform, I always thought that the harvest of this trip was Linlin beef. I've never tasted such delicious beef before.

However, I was soon wrong. There was actually a chef who looked like a mage here. Qin, I've never thought that someone could make food so delicious.

in fact, even the head chef of las vegas was very respectful to qin mo. he had spent a million to buy qin mo a chance to make a move. perhaps he was the god of cookery.

This Eastern country is really amazing. Now I believe the International rumors that this is really a country of delicious food.

The other gourmets shared similar messages.

Naturally, this news spread quickly in the Western world. Nothing in this world spread faster than the news.

The news of the Linlin beef being shared by the gourmets had spread, and many people were paying attention to it.

This time, it attracted even more attention. After all, lasda was involved.

lasda was definitely a famous person in the west. many people knew that he was a three star michelin master chef, and he was publicly acknowledged.

With such a person as a foil, it would be hard for the 'God of Cooking Qin' that Feida had mentioned not to be noticed.

And what kind of food could make these gourmets praise it so much?

at this moment.

at the food night's venue, qin lin finished the beef in his bowl and suddenly thought of something.

It was also his first time making this +4 dish, and he could only make it at the food Festival.

Therefore, Zhao Moyu and his mother had not eaten it yet.

he quickly asked someone to bring another pot, then picked up another piece of beef and started cooking.

If he didn't make another copy to bribe his wife and mother, they might say that he had a trick up his sleeve.

Moreover, the ingredients he had prepared were just enough to make another one.

qin lin's actions naturally attracted everyone's attention.

Before this, no one had thought of this and thus did not notice. This time, many quick-witted tourists had already taken out their phones and started taking pictures of Qin Lin.

the others also reacted and took out their mobile phones to take pictures. even the chefs did the same, including the big star with the surname xie.

Right now, he wasn't a big star, but little Qin in front of him was.

it was the same operation, the same speed, and the same amount of enjoyment.

Soon, as Qin Lin finished the process, the pot lid was covered again.

soon, even fei da and the other gourmets couldn't help but walk out. they wanted to see the state of the beef with their own eyes.

When the time was up, he reached for the pot lid again.

This time, everyone held their breath.

Especially the people at the scene, everyone pointed their cell phone cameras at the pot.

The pot was opened.

that kind of shocking light appeared again, and it was extremely bright.

The light was mixed with the steam, and it was bright and beautiful. It was captured by those mobile phones.

Qin Lin didn't care about the people around him and immediately tried it. It was still A +4 deliciousness +4 texture.

This kind of divine enjoyment was definitely not something that +3 could compare to.

When Fei da and the other gourmets saw this, they thought of the delicious food just now and subconsciously swallowed.

They thought that Qin Lin would make another serving for them, so their eyes were filled with anticipation. However, after Qin Lin finished, he asked the staff to bring the food to be packed. He didn't even have the intention of letting them try it.

Chapter 1175 Believe In Science! You've Caught An Extinct Fish 1

Looking at Qin Lin packing up, Feida and the others were stunned. They couldn't help but feel a sense of disappointment.

The audience in the live streaming room was stunned when they saw this scene.

They had thought that little Qin was going to cook again for the audience, but who knew that she would pack it up right away?

This was a sign that he was going to bring her home.

Qin Lin packed up and planned to leave for Linlin Manor.

The beef was only delicious when it was cooked and eaten immediately. If it was left for a long time, it would more or less lose its flavor.

For the rest of the time, Lin Lanzi would lead her people to clean up the mess.

"Sir, please wait a moment." Fei DA's voice was heard. He could not help but step forward and ask, "Sir, why does the beef you made glow when it's out of the pot? Did you cast some kind of magic?"

"Magic?" Qin Lin smiled and turned to leave. At the same time, he said, "You must believe in science."

" ? ? ? "Fei da was puzzled.

Could it be that cooking was related to science?

At this moment, countless thoughts flashed through Fei DA's mind. This was because Qin mo was a scientist who had developed a medicine to treat the coagulation plague.

Could it be that the other party had really Applied Science to cooking and created such a delicious dish?

Feida thought about it and was even considering if he should find someone to invest some money in to research it.

the taste was an irresistible temptation for a gourmet like him.

After eating such a delicacy, he didn't know if he would be able to eat other food when he went back.

Qin Lin didn't care so much. He took the packed four-quality beef back to the manor and entered the inner area directly.

As soon as they arrived at the inner area's Hall, Qin Lin found that Zhao Moyi and Lin Fen were both there. Zhao Moyi was holding the child.

On the table in front of them, there were still bowls.

"Is this a well-prepared plan?" Seeing this, Qin Lin put the beef in his hand on the table and opened it.

"I saw you pack it up on the live broadcast." Zhao moyu first explained, then pretended to be angry and asked, " besides, if it's not for mom and me, do you want to give it to someone else? " how can I? honey, don't you know me well enough? " Qin Lin said as he helped Zhao moyin and his mother get a bowl of beef each and handed it to them.

"This is more like it." Only then was Zhao mochen satisfied, and he couldn't wait to pick up a piece of beef with his chopsticks and put it into his mouth.

When she was watching the livestream, she had also seen the beef glowing in the pot.

It was the first time she had seen such a magical scene.

"Ah, this beef is so delicious." Zhao Mo swallowed a mouthful of beef, and his pretty face showed shock. then, she hurriedly picked up another piece of beef.

She had eaten all kinds of delicacies at Linlin villa.

Her husband could get her anything that wasn't available in the outside world. However, even though she had been influenced by those delicious foods, her resistance to them had already become very strong.

Now, she couldn't resist the beef at all.

"Lin Lin, the beef you made is so delicious." Lin Fen was also deeply attracted to the beef.

she couldn't organize too many words to describe it, so after exclaiming, she just lowered her head and ate.

while zhao mo was eating his beef, he did not forget to ask,"Hubby, did you really not cast a spell on this beef? Not only is it delicious, it even glows when it's out of the pot."

"There's no magic." qin lin shook his head and explained,"it glowed because those special materials reacted in a specific order and time."

he could only explain it this way.

After all, he didn't even know the specific details. Even if he had the secret ingredients, he would need the special beef cooking skill.

"I see!" Zhao Moxi didn't seem to understand, but he didn't ask.

.....

The night passed.

The next day, the internet was in an uproar.

the number of people who watched the food night's live broadcast was always in the minority with the big figure of 1.4 billion people. many people only saw the specific scene of the food night when they woke up the next day.

This year, countless People's World views were destined to be subverted.

Videos with the title 'glowing food' were all over the internet.

As long as the audience was on a certain voice channel, they would be guaranteed to see a related video within three videos.

The topic of food that emitted a glow wasn't low, because many years ago, there was an animation called " Chinese little master chef " that had swept countless people's childhood.

It was a food animation. Every time the protagonist finished cooking and opened the pot, the food would shine, blinding the eyes of a generation.

But who had ever seen food that glowed in real life?

now, the beef that little qin made was actually glowing in the pot?

Countless people were dumbfounded.

Some people even added the soundtrack of Chinese little master, even adding the special sound effect of the boiling pot, but there was no sense of disharmony at all.

New Oriental cooking school.

the moment li yan woke up, he heard the exclamations and discussions of several of his roommates.

This made him very unhappy. Yesterday, he was punished by the teacher to toss the ladle, and he was exhausted.

The biggest cooking school in the country was the new Oriental cooking school.

This new Dongfang had nothing to do with that new Dongfang.

In fact, going to the new Oriental cooking school to learn cooking and going outside to find a teacher-apprentice were very controversial.

For one, everyone felt that the tuition fee to learn cooking at the new Oriental cooking school was expensive. It would take too long, and everyone learned the same skills, nothing special.

Chapter 1176 Believe In Science! You've Caught An Extinct Fish! 2

Secondly, everyone felt that they didn't have to pay school fees if they went outside to find a master to learn. They could even get an apprentice's salary. Moreover, the master had different unique skills.

Naturally, this was also a matter of benevolence and wisdom.

it was possible to become an apprentice, but there were also many people who had been an apprentice for years without learning any real skills.

moreover, those masters outside actually liked to hold back when teaching their students, afraid that their disciples would snatch their jobs after they mastered it.

he didn't have to worry about new oriental. the teachers all had a quota and would do their best to teach. some people could even get a recommendation for the chef level test.

this was also a rare opportunity to find a teacher outside. once you got the examination certificate, you could even apply for a job at a star hotel after graduation.

usually, it was very difficult for a chef to have such an opportunity to learn from a master outside, unless you really had the opportunity to learn from a famous chef. unfortunately, most people would find a master in a snack bar or some unrated cafeteria to learn from.

naturally, it was not absolute. after learning it, it would still depend on one's own development.

Therefore, everyone had their own opinions.

Li Yan chose the new Oriental cooking school.

He was awoken by the noise and looked at his dormmate angrily, but the next moment, he was attracted by his dormmate's discussion.

really? it's not a special effect, right? "

Linlin villa's livestream video. How could it be a special effect when it was taken by so many people watching? "

"If it's not a special effect, then tell me why the pot glowed?"

"....."

Li Yan knew that these students were talking about the Linlin Manor Food Festival. Last night, he was punished to toss the ladle, so he didn't watch the live broadcast.

Now that he heard his classmate talk about the glowing food, he was immediately attracted and took out his phone to check the internet.

He clicked on mouyin and saw a related video with the title: The modern version of Chinese little master chef, glowing food.

"The food is glowing?" li yan opened the video curiously.

The video started with little Qin cutting the beef skillfully.

li yan knew of little qin. he was too famous. just this move alone made him admire little qin.

this was because he had never seen such superb cutting skills from his teacher.

Even the chefs and lecturers hired by the school at times did not have such an ability.

But then, when he saw little Qin open the pot and the light shining from it, Li Yan couldn't stay calm anymore.

"Are you kidding me?" Li Yan exclaimed.

When he saw the video, he subconsciously thought that he had transmigrated or reincarnated.

In a novel he read online recently, the protagonist was reborn into a world of supernatural recovery. He learned ancient martial arts in high school and there was a chef who could make magic food.

It's glowing and it's not magic?

Li Yan was even a little excited.

After being ordinary for so many years, he had actually been reborn. He would soon be able to welcome a vast world.

However, reality was cruel.

after watching a few videos, he knew that he hadn't transmigrated. it was the food that little qin had made that night that had really shone.

"What spell? We must believe in science!"

When Li Yan heard what little Qin said in a video, he just wanted to say, " can you please use science to explain why this is glowing?

Even science was used in cooking.

was there a need to raise the threshold so high?

The video of Qin Lin cooking beef at the gourmet Night had indeed shocked countless people. This incident took a full week before it slowly faded away.

Linlin Manor's Food Festival was also well known. It was a great success.

Qin Lin didn't pay much attention to this.

It was impossible to hold a Food Festival often. It was more or less once a year.

Lin Lanzi and you Cheng could handle this, so he didn't need to worry too much.

therefore, for the time being, he returned to his daily life. every day, he stared at the game in his mind and completed his daily missions to see if there was a chance to trigger the plot mission.

When he had the time, he would enter the game and explore goddess mountain.

Other than the dwarf Valley, he explored deeper into the area and found another stone statue.

The stone statue was the same as the previous one, it looked a little like Doraemon.

There was more than one stone statue like this on the Saint missus mountain, which seemed a little abnormal.

Could it have something to do with the version of 'Nobita and Doraemon'?

however, after studying it for a while, he didn't find any abnormalities.

In the office of Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin had already controlled his game character to the river and started today's fishing.

There was already an unknown amount of quality 2 fish meat stored in the pond. If these fish were taken out, they could probably be eaten for a very, very long time.

[congratulations, you've caught a Grade 2 black carp!]

[congratulations, you have caught a quality 2 grass carp!]

.....

After the fishing rod was upgraded to silver fishing rod, it was very rare to catch wild fish of Grade 1.

just as he was thinking, another fish took the bait. this time, after pulling the fish up, he received another notification.

[congratulations, your fishing rod has been upgraded. You can now go to the forging shop's NPC to upgrade it!]

Qin Lin saw the notification and couldn't help but be surprised.

among the tools in the game, only the fishing rod kept upgrading.

The other hoes had not been upgraded, especially after he had hired the dwarves. He no longer needed those things.

only the fishing rod would be used to fish by the river and sea every day.

After receiving this prompt, he quickly controlled his game character to go to the forging shop in ore town.

He clicked on the forging NPC and his game character received a prompt:

your fishing rod meets the requirements for an upgrade. Would you like to upgrade it? "

Qin Yu felt that this NPC was asking nonsense. No wonder there were so many NPCs, but this guy didn't have a name.

It would definitely be upgraded.

Not long after, he received another system notification.

[the silver fishing rod has been successfully upgraded to the Golden Fishing Rod. The seed store owner has released special bait for the Golden Fishing Rod, which can be used with the Golden Fishing Rod!]

After the fishing rod was upgraded, the notification was the same as before. The seed store had released new bait.

If I'm right, I can catch even more special fish with this combination, right?

As he thought about it, he controlled his game character to go to the seed store in ore town. Sure enough, he found bait for the Golden Fishing Rod. He bought it immediately and then controlled his game character to return to the farm.

then, he locked the office door and entered the game to check.

The Golden Fishing Rod was even more beautiful than the silver fishing rod. It was completely golden and made of dazzling gold, giving people a sense of extreme magnificence.

[Golden Fishing Rod: special!]

[power accumulation lvl 4, able to fish deeper. With special golden bait, it's easier to catch rare fish, and even very special fish!]

The Golden Fishing Rod's attribute made it easier to catch rare fish, so it was obviously useless. This was because the villa aquarium basically had all the rare fish that could be caught in this River.

unless a new species of rare fish appeared.

however, the fact that he could catch a very special fish attracted his attention. moreover, this attribute had an extremely low probability, which meant that it was definitely not ordinary.

Thinking about it, Qin Lin was eager to give it a try. He immediately exited the game and looked at the game on the screen in his mind again. He controlled the game character to go to the river.

there were still 16 times he could fish today, which was just enough for him to finish using the golden fishing rod.

Bait.

He threw out the fishing rod.

almost in an instant, a fish was caught.

However, it was a normal grade 2 black carp.

after catching a few more, he caught another grade 2 arhat fish.

Then, he cast the bait and cast the hook.

this time, a different notification appeared.

[congratulations on fishing up a special type of Atlantic sturgeon!]

"Atlantic sturgeon?" qin lin was stunned for a moment when he saw the name of the fish. he had heard of this fish before, but he didn't know if it was the one he knew.

In their country, there was a special fish called Atlantic sturgeon, which was exclusive to their country.

However, the fish was long gone.

This was also a huge loss for their country. If the Atlantic sturgeon that fell from the sky was that kind of fish, it would be quite impressive.

He had directly caught an extinct fish.

Chapter 1177 The Knight Of The Fish In The Water! 1!

qin lin retracted his gaze and went to the computer to search for information on bai xun.

The Atlantic sturgeon is a large fish that lives in our country. It is a fish unique to our country and the largest freshwater fish in our country. Because its mouth was shaped like an elephant's trunk, it was also known as an elephant fish, which was very pleasing to the eye.

The ancient Atlantic sturgeons were also known as tummies. They could be found in many of the inner rivers. They liked warm winters and cool summers, and would often migrate in the winter.

someone asked, was the white sturgeon delicious?

I'm sorry, I can't eat it.

Of course, the reason why the Atlantic sturgeon was inedible was not because it was poisonous. It was because the Atlantic sturgeon was a rare and precious animal in China. It was one of the first class wild protected animals in the country and was also known as the " giant panda in the water.

Moreover, the Atlantic sturgeons were already extinct.

Apart from the long-breasted Atlantic sturgeons, there was a saying that the reason why Atlantic sturgeons in other inland River regions went extinct was that they were too delicious and were eaten until they went extinct.

in the past, many emperors liked to eat atlantic sturgeons and had even established special atlantic sturgeons fishing teams.

Now, for every fish he ate, whether it was soup or meat, as long as he was sitting at the table, he would be given a five-year sewing life experience.

Naturally, it was impossible to find such an experience ticket now, because the fish was already extinct.

This is a huge loss to our country and also a huge regret.

It was like a giant panda suddenly going extinct. Not a single one could be seen.

qin lin was a little surprised after reading bai xun's introduction.

The Atlantic sturgeon was an extinct fish, and the Golden Fishing Rod could even catch this kind of fish.

Moreover, he was very puzzled by a problem now. The Atlantic sturgeons had just gone extinct, and the game had already been released.

so, was this something that he had caught after the extinction or before?

The meaning of this was different.

If it was caught after it went extinct, it meant that the Golden Fishing Rod could catch extinct fish.

This was a true bull.

Qin Lin didn't waste any time. He locked the office door, controlled the game character to bring the fish back to the farm, and then entered the game with a thought.

his eyes were filled with shock when he saw the atlantic sturgeon.

he could not tell from the game's animation, but seeing it with his own eyes now, this white sturgeon was probably more than two meters long and more than 100 jin.

Then, he saw the remarks of the Atlantic sturgeon:

[ornamental Wild Atlantic sturgeon: special]

[this is a very special type of Atlantic sturgeon that has undergone some mutation. It likes to live in inland river areas and will not leave once it is used to living in one area. It has become extinct in every river area, and only gold-level fishing rods or above can catch it: [aesthetics +2, likes to play around +2, closeness to humans +2, acting cute +2, deliciousness +2, taste +2!]

Qin Lin knew that this was the extinct Atlantic sturgeon when he saw its attributes. It was a little different because it had mutated.

Moreover, there were many more game-specific attributes.

Of course, the +2 in the view attribute was something many ornamental fish had. If they all didn't look good, how could you say you were an ornamental fish?

many fish liked to play on the surface of the sea. some small schools of fish even had this hobby, which was a wonder on the water.

Being close to humans was a special characteristic of dolphins. You, a fish that was almost extinct after being eaten by humans, had mutated to be close to humans.

Do you like to be eaten, or do you like to give me the 5-year sewing life experience?

Especially when you have +2 in both taste and texture.

This was a deep sin to both the Atlantic sturgeon and humans.

After learning the attributes of the Atlantic sturgeon, Qin Lin logged out of the game and controlled his game character to go to the river to continue fishing.

it didn't take long for qin lin to receive another notification.

[congratulations on fishing up a special Atlantic sturgeon!]

He caught another one.

Qin Lin continued to cast the bait and controlled his game character to fish.

he was a little excited.

By the way, if he could save an extinct national treasure fish in the real world, he should feel a sense of accomplishment, right?

in particular, not long after, there were even experts who examined the areas where the atlantic sturgeons had appeared and confirmed that the atlantic sturgeons were extinct.

just how shocking was it to suddenly discover another atlantic sturgeon?

next, qin lin continued to fish and caught another atlantic sturgeon.

He had caught a total of three today.

then, he controlled his character to go fishing by the sea.

at the beach, he did not catch any extinct special fish. however, he found that the chances of catching a quality 2 wild giant yellow croaker were far higher than before.

When it grew to a certain extent, wild yellow croakers that were effective against cancer were actually extinct to a certain extent.

nowadays, it was almost impossible to see wild giant yellow croakers that could grow to this extent.

in the following week, qin lin would fish every day and catch a few atlantic sturgeons every day. after a week, the number of atlantic sturgeons he had caught reached 43.

this also led him to plan to bring these atlantic sturgeons outside.

Of course, he couldn't just take the 43 out and put them in the aquarium.

Even a fool would know that there was a problem.

Moreover, it was impossible for him to have such an idea that even a fool could see the problem.

therefore, he was planning to get the bai xun out and put it directly into the reservoir.

In that case, the area around the Atlantic sturgeons would not belong to Linlin Manor, but to the public.

Chapter 1178 The Knight Of The Fish In The Water! 2!

however, sometimes, doing some things didn't necessarily mean that you had to keep it to yourself.

In fact, as long as one felt that something was meaningful and was willing to do it, there were many things that one could do.

The reservoir next to Linlin villa was not an ordinary reservoir. This kind of century-old reservoir was built across rivers.

The reservoir was cut off by a River, and this River was the famous Min River tributary.

therefore, he just had to find a place with no one around and take the fish out directly.

The key was that he still had to pay attention to other places. In the water, he could be absolutely unrestrained, especially at night.

After he obtained the Shard of the Kappa, he had A +3 attribute in the water. Other than being unable to stay in the water for a long time without breathing, he was no different from a fish.

So, after dark and after dinner, he told Zhao Moyu, then drove out of the manor and along the road to the reservoir.

When the sky was completely dark, he also took off his clothes in the car and walked towards the water.

Naturally, he turned on the car lights as a light for his return.

Then, he jumped into the water.

in an instant, that feeling of affinity with water appeared again. when he swam, the water didn't seem to be his resistance, but instead became his help.

Soon, Qin Lin reached the water. It was dark here and no one could see this place. Moreover, no one would come here at night.

Therefore, Qin Lin entered the game with a thought and appeared in the game farm.

he went straight to the pond on the farm and fished up the sturgeons he had caught this week.

the atlantic sturgeons were rather large, over two meters long and over a hundred catties in weight. they were considered giant in the water.

If it were an ordinary person, it would be difficult for those people to get them out of the water.

Fortunately, Qin Lin had eaten two fruits of the tree of strength and picked up an Atlantic sturgeon. While it was struggling, he had already logged out of the game with a thought. The next moment, he appeared in the water in reality with the Atlantic sturgeon.

qin lin let go of the atlantic sturgeon and immediately felt the ripples of the water around it.

He didn't hesitate and entered the game again, bringing out the second Atlantic sturgeon.

It was only late at night that he took out all the sturgeons he had caught this week from the game and put them in the water near the reservoir.

When he let out the last white sturgeon, he discovered that the waves in the surroundings were already very numerous.

The Atlantic sturgeons had yet to completely swim away.

Furthermore, he discovered very quickly that there were a few white sturgeons swimming towards him, and actually used their heads to nudge him.

It wasn't very hard, just a light touch, as if they were intimately greeting each other.

Qin Lin was a little surprised.

This should be the +2 attribute of being close to humans.

it was somewhat similar to the dolphins.

When dolphins encountered humans who fell into the water, they would sometimes do the same thing and even save people.

Now, the Atlantic sturgeons that were brought out of the game had the same behavior because of their human-like attributes.

Did fish have any sound, or could they make any sound?

this had always been a question that many people could not understand.

Qin Lin, however, could clearly hear the sound made by the Sturgeon. It was very crisp and delicate.

This was definitely surprising.

The Atlantic sturgeon in real life shouldn't have such an ability.

Qin Lin suddenly had an idea. He suddenly swam and then turned over to get on the back of the Sturgeon.

Most importantly, the Atlantic sturgeon did not resist. It even carried him and swam wildly in the water.

It was as if it was just joking.

This should be the effect of the Xixi attribute.

And in the water, would a fish of more than 100 catties sink while dragging a person?

He wouldn't agree to it, because fish had buoyancy, and so did people, just like how a big ship could sail in the water.

As for the specific reason, go to the physics textbook in junior high school.

That white sturgeon carried Qin Lin and scuttled in the water at an extremely fast speed, shooting cannonballs as it pleased in the water.

Qin Feng felt that this was a little unbelievable. At this time, he felt like a Knight in the water.

No one had the chance to play like this in the water, right?

After all, no one had the means to find such a large Atlantic sturgeon to be their Mount.

Qin Lin was having so much fun that he quickly pounced into the water, swam for a while, and then turned over to another Sturgeon.

He wanted to see if every Sturgeon was like this.

and obviously, because of the game's attributes, almost every atlantic sturgeon was like this.

After Qin Lin got on the Atlantic sturgeon, it also let out a crisp cry, then carried him and swam in the water.

Qin Lin played for a while before getting back into the water. He followed Deng Guang's car and swam to the shore. Then, he put on his clothes and returned to the car. He started the car and went back to the manor.

he believed that these atlantic sturgeons would shock everyone very soon.

Back at the manor, Qin Lin went into the bathroom and took a quick shower.

After Zhao mochen coaxed little Qin Feng to sleep, he picked her up and walked to the **.

"only the son is sleeping."

"Just hold it in and don't make a sound!"

"How can you hold it?"

"....."

The conversation gradually died down.

...

The next day.

Qin Lin also left the manor and drove to the small road beside the reservoir to check for the traces of the Atlantic sturgeons.

however, there was some distance between the place where he put the atlantic sturgeons and the villa, and the atlantic sturgeons did not seem to be swimming over immediately.

After a long time of observation, Qin Lin drove back to the manor.

As soon as he arrived at the manor, he saw an old acquaintance.

Wasn't it chief Lu?

There was an old man behind chief Lu.

When the old man saw Qin Lin, his eyes lit up with admiration. It was a sign that they had been friends for a long time.

"Chief Lu, you're always coming here without * sound." Qin Lin greeted Captain Lu as soon as he entered the hall, then asked, "Who is this senior?"

Chief Lu introduced, " boss Qin, this is senior Chu Qingfeng. He's also a senior who has inherited traditional Chinese medicine. The Chinese Medicine Research group was set up by the Chinese medical Academy. Senior Chu is the person in charge.

"So it's senior Chu." Qin Lin also shook hands with Chu Qingfeng.

He had heard of this person when he was helping chief Lu decipher the Chinese medicine recipe. He was a senior who had the demeanor of an ancient doctor.

Of course, the other party had his own pride. For example, when he had to get a medical license, learn English, and learn Western medicine in Chinese medicine, he had decisively given up and led his family to start a medicinal cuisine business.

Usually, he only treated acquaintances.

it had taken chief lu a lot of effort to invite this man out of the mountains. at least, with the revival of chinese medicine and the systematic support and dissemination, this chu qingfeng had put in a lot of effort.

Chu Qingfeng shook hands with Qin Lin and said humbly, " " boss qin, i don't dare to accept the title of senior. in chinese medicine, the most important thing is that the one who has the best skills is the teacher. your medical skills are higher than mine, so how can i accept the title of senior? "

Indeed, in ancient times, there were many industries that paid attention to such things. Therefore, it was very normal for a 60-year-old to take a 20-year-old as his master.

Those who had reached the top were respected and those who had reached the top were teachers. This was not empty talk.

However, with the development of society, such fastidiousness had become less and less. As for whether it was a good or bad thing, sometimes it was hard to say.

qin lin was a little embarrassed after hearing chu qingfeng's words.

did this old senior make a mistake?

His medical skills weren't good, or rather, he didn't have any medical skills at all. He was far inferior to the other party.

However, he had a cheat and came up with so many secret recipes.

this was probably the source of the misunderstanding.

Qin Lin didn't want to get involved in this topic to avoid being exposed, so he quickly changed the subject and asked, " "Chief Lu, you've come here secretly again. Is there something you need?"

chief lu didn't deny it. he nodded and said,"I do have something to ask you for help, boss Qin. Let's sit down and talk."

"please!" Qin Lin smiled as he led the two to his office.

at the same time.

there were already waves under the water. through the water, it was clear that there were huge fish swimming below.

They seemed to be attracted by the laughter in the viewing area of the floating bridge, and they swam straight towards it.

Chapter 1179 The Extinct Atlantic Sturgeon Reappears!

Qin Lin invited Minister Lu and Chu Qingfeng to sit at the tea table in his office. He took out a Grade 2 Tieguanyin and made some tea.

Seeing this, Minister Lu said to Chu Qingfeng, " "Senior Chu, boss Qin's tea is really good, you can't find it anywhere else."

"Then I'm going to try it." Chu Qingfeng said with a smile.

For people of his age, drinking tea was a form of cultivation.

Moreover, those who studied Chinese medicine also liked to drink tea because their families were rich in making medicinal cuisines and they drank good tea.

However, when he drank the Tieguanyin tea made by Qin Lin, his face instantly revealed a look of disbelief. "boss qin, i've never had such good tea before."

"Senior Chu, Didn't I tell you?" Minister Lu said with a smile.

"En!" Chu Qingfeng nodded.

Qin Lin saw that the two of them had finished their cups of tea, so he poured another cup for each of them and asked, "Minister Lu, what secret recipe can't be cracked this time?"

The other party had brought Chu Qingfeng, an old senior in Chinese medicine, and he had actually guessed Minister Lu's purpose.

Minister Lu put down his teacup and said, "boss Qin, you've guessed it. This time, there is indeed another secret recipe that is difficult to crack. Moreover, this secret recipe should be very useful to senior Chu and the others' analysis. That's why we came here in person.

"What's the formula?" qin lin didn't refuse. after all, with the BUG in dr. dott's system, it wasn't hard for him to crack the secret recipe.

however, the secret recipe that made minister lu come here personally should not be ordinary. otherwise, he would have directly sent the information of the secret recipe over.

"boss qin, do you know yang imperial consort?" minister lu explained.

"En!" Qin Lin nodded.

Imperial consort Yang was one of the four famous concubines in ancient times, and there was even a famous poem that described her, 'a smile when you look back, a hundred beauties, six palaces without color'.

However, Minister Lu suddenly mentioned yang imperial consort, could this secret recipe be related to yang imperial consort?

"boss qin should know where imperial consort yang's grave is," minister lu explained. "it has become one of the scenic spots."

due to the recent heavy rain, one part of Imperial consort Yang's tomb collapsed, revealing a hidden compartment that was previously undiscovered. There are some ancient scrolls inside, and one of them was determined to be an ancient Chinese medicine prescription.

"So, that thing was sent to our Hua * Yuan for senior Chu and the others to study and decipher."

"It's indeed an ancient Chinese medicine prescription. I suspect that it's the legendary 'Yufei cream'," Chu Qingfeng added.

"jade consort cream? is there really such a thing?" Qin Lin was a little surprised.

he had thought that the thing was made up.

The reason why he knew about this thing was all thanks to a TV drama that he had watched before. That old TV drama was about imperial consort Yang.

It was rumored that noble Consort Yang had an accident and scratched her back, leaving behind a scar.

Many of the Imperial physicians were unable to cure the scar and were beheaded. For a moment, there was a rain of blood.

however, it had already left a scar, so how difficult would it be to remove it? After all, that was ancient times.

this was also another evidence that imperial consort yang's beauty had harmed the country.

Later, an old Daoist priest offered a secret recipe and treated the scar on noble Consort Yang's back, and this matter finally stopped.

The recipe that the old Daoist had given him was named the Jade consort cream. It was very effective and almost removed the scar.

Qin Lin thought that it was made up, but he didn't expect that such a formula really existed, and it was even found in noble Consort Yang's grave.

However, it needed to be studied and deciphered, and the recipe would definitely be incomplete.

Moreover, he also understood why Minister Lu had come personally.

If the Jade consort cream could really remove scars like the legends said, it would be of great significance. Putting aside the fact that 99.99% of people in the country had scars, it was a very good thing.

The number of people with scars, which had a great impact, also reached 11%.

The number of people seriously affected by scars also reached 3%.

This was especially true for firefighters, soldiers, and people with special professions. Almost all of them had scars on their bodies.

Of course, if the scars were on the arms, thighs, or back, the firefighters and soldiers wouldn't have cared.

However, some of them were really in very obvious places, even on the face. No one could not care about them.

We can't let some heroes do good deeds and be despised and loathed when they go out in the future, right?

this should not have happened.

However, this was just how society was.

perhaps some people would remember your moment of bravery and praise you, but as time passed, people would forget that when you went out again, everyone would look at you with disdain and treat you as a monster.

Children would cry when they saw firefighters whose faces were burned.

This was a very sad thing for an injured hero.

Even if this was a minority, the higher-ups could not ignore it.

If the Jade consort cream really had such an effect, it could prevent such a thing from happening.

Minister Lu's personal visit also explained the attitude of the higher-ups towards these heroes.

"We've already deciphered the majority of the ingredients for the secret formula of the Jade consort cream. However, there's still one main ingredient and two ingredients that we haven't figured out yet. That's why we've come to Minister Lu for help," Chu Qingfeng continued.

Minister Lu, I understand. Give me the formula and the relevant information first. I'll study it. Qin Lin also said to Minister Lu.

Although he could immediately enter the game and obtain the secret recipe through doctor Dott's BUG as long as he had the incomplete recipe, he still had to put on an act in front of the public.

There was nothing wrong with being cautious, and he couldn't immediately get the recipe out.

"Boss Qin, please wait!" Minister Lu said, then took out his phone and started to operate it.

Chapter 1180 The Extinct Atlantic Sturgeon Reappears!

a moment later, qin lin received the information from minister lu on his phone.

.....

The viewing area of Linlin villa's pontoon bridge was definitely one of the most popular projects in Linlin villa. It was even more popular than the triangular plum blossom sea, comprehensive sea of flowers, and aquarium.

not only could one see the most beautiful setting sun intertwining with the floating duckweed on the water, but the floating duckweed on the water itself was also very beautiful and full of ornamental value.

because the duckweed could purify water, the water in this area was unbelievably clear. when visitors came, they would be amazed by the water quality.

Moreover, there were also large wild fish that were rare to see outside.

in addition, there were also those beautiful face-preserving ducks. they were so beautiful that even swans could not compare to them.

The floating bridge above the water was also the best place to sightsee. Which tourist would not like to stroll on the floating bridge while enjoying the scenery?

Many families of three loved to rest on the floating bridge and take pictures.

In a Pavilion on the floating bridge.

The family of three was taking photos. The husband was in charge of taking photos, and the wife was in charge of posing for the BOSS. The two of them were exchanging sweet looks.

Their daughter was looking at the water in boredom. The couple had no intention of patting her. It was true love between parents, and an accident for a daughter.

All of a sudden, the little girl's attention was attracted by the ripples on the water.

the ripples were huge.

She stared at it and suddenly her eyes widened. A very large white fish came out of the water.

The little girl cried out to the couple, " dad, mom, look! A big fish, a big fish. It's even bigger than dad.

The couple was attracted by the little girl's voice.

The woman looked at her husband. Her husband was 1.8 meters tall and had long legs. What fish was bigger than her husband? Then wouldn't it be two meters?

The couple came out and looked at the water, but it was empty.

"Where's the fish?" his wife asked?

The husband smiled. we didn't take any photos of her. The little darling is angry. He's lying on purpose.

The little girl was immediately excited and shouted to explain, " "I'm not lying. It was there just now. It's a big fish."

As she spoke, she even tried her best to wave her little hand to prove it.

The couple watched their daughter's performance quietly. They obviously didn't believe her, and even thought about whether they should serve her with a feather duster when they got home.

Not only had this child learned to lie, but he had also interrupted their rare sweet time together.

just as the couple was thinking about this, they suddenly heard a cry of surprise.

"Look, what a big fish!"

the fish in the water are so big. It's the first time I've seen such a big fish.

there's such a big fish in the reservoir. Why didn't anyone notice it before? "

"....."

A commotion suddenly broke out, and the people on the floating bridge poked their heads out one after another, looking at the other side of the reservoir.

there were indeed a few huge white fish sticking their heads out of the water.

Moreover, the size of those fish was too unbelievable. They were probably two or three meters long.

"Mom, look, I'm not lying." The little girl also waved her arms and said to her parents.

The couple also saw the big fish and were shocked.

The couple had never seen such a big fish before, and it was white too. Could it be a shark?

the fish seemed to have been attracted by the noise. two of them directly raised their heads and stared at the people on the floating bridges.

"It's so big." A young girl cried out in surprise. She looked at the bread in her hand that was used to feed the fish. She tried to tear a piece of bread and threw it down.

When the fish saw this, it immediately covered the face and made a clear and melodious sound at the young girl. It even looked at the young girl with its eyes.

When the young girl saw this, she actually felt that this big fish was a little stupid and cute.

She also sensibly threw the bread in her hand down.

the young girl's actions also attracted other people. many of them had things to feed the fish in their hands and immediately threw them into the water. the big fish were quickly attracted and ate the things.

as if they had not had enough, these big fish stretched their heads out and looked at the tourists on the pontoon bridge, acting cute.

It was obvious that she was asking for more food.

their cute appearance made the tourists forget their huge size.

The sudden situation in the pontoon bridge area attracted the attention of many people.

An old man was being supported by someone as he walked over. He had heard that there was a big fish coming, and it was still two or three meters away, so he had rushed over.

He was a fish expert and wanted to see what fish it was.

This was a hundred-year-old reservoir, so it was possible for some big fish to appear.

when the old man reached the floating bridge and saw the few big fish, his eyes revealed a look of disbelief. "Atlantic sturgeon? How is this possible? there's actually a fish here."

The old man's words attracted the attention of the surrounding people.

A young man asked, "old Sir, do you know this fish?" What kind of fish is an Atlantic sturgeon?"

The old man didn't have time to answer the young man. He saw someone throwing some spicy snacks into the water and immediately stopped him, "this Atlantic sturgeon is an extinct species. No, it's a national treasure that's going extinct soon. It's as important as a giant panda. Don't feed it. If it dies after eating your food, it'll be in prison for five years.

The moment these words came out, the surroundings instantly fell silent.

some of the people who were about to throw things into the water stopped subconsciously. they looked at the things in their hands and quietly put them back.

Are you kidding me? these fish are national treasures? He had to go to jail for feeding her?

The old man had already taken out his phone and dialed the number excitedly.

He was going to tell the National endangered animal protection Department about this. The Atlantic sturgeon, which had just been declared extinct, had actually reappeared here.

It was truly unbelievable.

It wasn't just the Linlin Manor.

There was a diving platform in the reservoir, and there were already many people swimming there.

In the past, even if it was winter, there would be people coming for a winter swim all day long.

With the change in climate, the water was not as cold as before, so there were already many people in the water.

These people liked to go into the reservoir at all times. It was actually quite difficult to understand why they had a stalker behind them.

after all, the water was already a little cold, not to mention swimming in winter.

But some people just enjoyed it.

Liu Sicheng was just like that. He was already in his forties this year, and he would come to the reservoir to swim and exercise. Even if it was winter, he would come once a week, and he would never let go.

As a result, his physical strength was much better than many young people.

Liu Sicheng was swimming when he suddenly felt that something was wrong. There were obvious waves surging around him.

When he looked at the wave, his eyes widened. There was something big swimming in the water. It was probably two or three meters long, bigger than his entire body.

" I'm going to run! " liu sicheng was so scared that he frantically waved his arms and swam towards the diving platform.

However, he soon discovered that there was another one beside him.

The big guy's shadow could be seen under the water.

Liu Si Cheng's soul was about to jump out of his body, and he swam even harder.

However, this kind of high-intensity swimming could easily cause him to cramp up, so he did it decisively. This shocked him so much that he frantically slapped the surface of the water with both hands, but he couldn't swim at all.

His entire body seemed to be about to sink into the water.

If it wasn't for the fact that he was being pulled along, he would have already sunk.

but even so, he still choked on a lot of water.

What frightened him even more was that the big guy in the water was swimming toward him, getting closer and closer.

I'm done for, my wife. Don't remarry if I die! Liu Si Cheng cried out sorrowfully, and tears could not help but fall from the corners of his eyes.

finally, those unknown big guys swam around him, and he could feel the waves hitting his body.

He was about to be eaten.

However, the next moment, Liu Sicheng realized that his body was rising and out of the water. He seemed to be sitting on something and was being lifted up.

He lowered his head and his eyes widened. It was a huge white fish.

The fish carried him and swam quickly to the diving platform. He was so shocked that he quickly hugged the fish.

At this time, the people at the diving platform also noticed Liu Sicheng's condition, but they all looked at him and the big white fish he was crouching in disbelief.

a fish knight?

the scene in front of him was like seeing a ghost.
