

The Game 121

Chapter 121: Gift! The Harmony Between the Two Families

Qinglin Villa was lively, and so was Qinglin Food Factory.

In the afternoon, a van arrived at the factory and piled bags of nuts and chocolate high in the yard. All the employees knew something was going to be handed out that day.

The nuts and chocolates were all very big gift bags. To these factory employees, they were full of anticipation. If they brought them back for their sons and daughters to eat, they would definitely be happy.

“Those who have collected their items, get off work. Those on the night shift will come back tomorrow morning to collect their items.” Deng Guang had been staring at the scene. Now that the factory’s employees were overloaded, one production line’s employees were already three times their normal demand.

He wouldn’t be at ease until he watched some things personally.

Under normal circumstances, if any factory dared to support three idlers in such a position, bankruptcy would not be far off.

However, Qinglin Food Company had no choice but to expand 35 production lines. They were about to enter production. It was impossible without skilled workers. At the very least, they had to familiarize themselves with the use of production line equipment. They could only hire them while adapting to the old factory. When the time came, they would be transferred to a new factory.

In the villa.

After handing out the items and cleaning up, Qin Lin left some employees on duty and got the others to get off work early. Some of the waitresses had already been chatting on WeChat and might be eager to go to the county to be f*cked.

As the boss, he could not be insensible.

Those who stayed behind were willing, and he would give them 100 yuan overtime red packets.

Naturally, those who were willing to stay on duty were most likely single or had no one to ask out.

Master Lin’s apprentice, Lin Bing, was very smart. He had already tried to get close to a waitress who was on duty.

.....

“Boss, Sister Mo Qing, Aunt Fen, we’ll leave first.” Gao Yaoyao held the hands of the two waitresses and greeted Qin Lin, Zhao Mo, and Lin Fen before leaving.

Lin Fen waved her hand with a smile. Among her son’s employees, Gao Yaoyao was the most likable. She was very proud to see her son’s employees all smiling.

Before this, she had not dared to think that her son would have so many employees.

Then, Lin Fen also urged her son, "Xiao Lin, let's go quickly. We can't let Moqing's mother wait too long."

"Yes." Qin Lin nodded with a smile.

His mother and mother-in-law were getting along very well. They often went shopping together and talked about almost everything. They were middle-aged best friends. It also meant that he didn't have to deal with some upsetting family relationships like many men.

Zhao Moqing also held Lin Fen's arm with a smile. Her mother-in-law was close to her mother, so she was naturally the happiest.

Qin Lin instructed the staff on duty and led his mother and Zhao Moqing to the parking lot.

When Lin Fen and Zhao Moqing were about to get into the car, he secretly took out two exquisite gift boxes and handed them to Zhao Moqing and Lin Fen.

"What is it?" Zhao Moqing was pleasantly surprised.

Or perhaps no woman would be unhappy to receive a gift from her husband?

Qin Lin smiled and said, "I especially prepared a gift for you. Open it and take a look."

Zhao Moqing eagerly opened the gift box and saw an exquisite violet pendant lying inside.

"It's so beautiful!" Zhao Moqing said in surprise.

Qin Lin smiled and asked, "Do you like it?"

"Yes!" Zhao Moqing nodded happily and said coquettishly, "Help me put it on."

Qin Lin took the Violet Jadeite Pendant with a smile and walked behind Zhao Moqing. He stroked her beautiful hair and placed the pendant on her fair neck.

"Is it nice?" Zhao Moqing asked happily.

Qin Lin nodded and praised, "My wife is naturally beautiful. She looks good with anything."

"Mom is still here!" Zhao Moqing rolled his eyes at Qin Lin.

But Lin Fen was enjoying this scene of the lovey-dovey pair. She just hoped the two of them would be like this forever.

Curious too, she opened the gift box to see what her son had given her.

The gift box contained an exquisite jade bracelet.

That pleased her.

She had once had a jade bracelet too. Her son's father had bought it for her on her anniversary, but he had sold it at a loss.

"Xiao Lin, this bracelet has such a good color. It's not cheap, is it?" Lin Fen asked the question that old people cared about.

Qin Lin didn't hide anything and explained, "This pendant and bracelet are custom-made from Violet Jadeite and Flower-Green Jade. They both cost 50,000 to 60,000 yuan!"

"That's expensive." Lin Fen was clearly shocked.

Zhao Moqing subconsciously touched the pendant and took it off before putting it back into the gift box.

She had never worn such expensive jewelry before.

With a pendant worth more than 50,000 yuan around his neck, wouldn't his heart ache if it was stolen?

Qin Lin asked, "Why did you take it off again?"

Zhao Moqing said, "It's so expensive. It's too eye-catching. It's fine as long as I know I have it."

Qin Lin shook his head and took out the pendant from the gift box. He walked behind Zhao Moqing and put it on for her again. "What's so eye-catching about it? Those rich people wear pendants more expensive than this. If you buy a pendant, you wear it. There's only one now. There will be more in the future. Are you going to keep it and let it collect dust?"

Zhao Moqing didn't refuse when she heard Qin Lin's words, and she couldn't hide the happiness on her face.

Lin Fen stuffed the gift box with the bracelet into Qin Lin's hands. "Xiao Lin, give this to Moqing's mother later. Chen Xiao has raised such a good daughter-in-law for our family. She has already forgiven you for what you did previously. She even wants to give you 300,000 yuan to buy a house. You have to be filial to her in the future."

"Mom, is your son a heartless person?" Qin Lin smiled and took out another box from the car. Inside was another Flower-Green Jade bracelet.

When Zhao Moqing saw that Qin Lin had even prepared a gift for her mother, she felt tears at the corners of her eyes.

That was touching.

She immediately turned to her mother. "I'll put the bracelet on for you, Mom."

A moment later.

The three of them got into the car.

Qin Lin brought his mother and Zhao Moqing to the central square. The two elders had agreed to meet there. Taking advantage of the lively atmosphere, they went shopping together.

After finally finding a parking space, Lin Fen called Chen Xiao and hung up. "Moqing, your mother is over there."

Chen Xiao also brought Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen with her.

"Mom, where's Dad?" Zhao Moqing asked.

Chen Xiao explained, "He's been having a meeting in school since the afternoon. It seems that Liao Province has demoted English to a secondary subject, and Shanghai has also announced that they will be demoting English to a secondary subject. Therefore, the schools in other places have no choice but to take this issue seriously. The provincial education bureau has requested for schools from all over the country to hold a meeting to discuss it and finally give their opinions."

"English has been downgraded?" Zhao Moqing said in surprise.

Qin Lin was also a little surprised because English had made him suffer a lot back then.

English has always been one of the topics of public debate. Many people felt that they had started learning English in elementary school, and by the time they graduated from university, it would take too much time to go back up. However, once they were out in society, many people would not need a single sentence in their entire lives. They would basically forget about it for three to five years.

Naturally, there were also many people who said that in university, many papers or postgraduate papers were basically in English. English was only Grade 4 or 6. It was like reading a book. English was still very useful.

Anyway, they each had their own reasons. It was just like having Christmas or not. They argued very fiercely.

"Moqing, you're finally here." Li Jiawen smiled and took Zhao Moqing's arm.

At this moment, Qin Lin also handed the gift box in his hand to Chen Xiao and said, "Mom, this is your gift."

"You bought me a gift?" Chen Xiao looked surprised. She opened it and saw the bracelet inside. "Is this a jade bracelet?"

Zhao Moqing explained, "Mom, Qin Lin said that this is jadeite. It costs more than 50,000 yuan."

"It's so expensive?" Chen Xiao was also shocked. He immediately looked at Lin Fen, then quickly returned the gift box to Qin Lin and said earnestly, "In the future, when you buy such things, give them to your mother first. As long as you treat Moqing well, I'll be very happy."

Qin Lin was stunned.

This mother and mother-in-law...

Lin Fen stepped forward with a smile and held Chen Xiao's arm. She showed her left hand to her. "Take the one Xiao Lin bought for you. I have one too. It's identical."

Then she added, "I'll put it on for you."

Only then did Chen Xiao not refuse, her face filled with joy.

Anyone would be happy to see their son-in-law so filial.

"Isn't it the same?" Lin Fen helped Chen Xiao put it on and even reached out to compare it with the one on Chen Xiao's wrist.

"Yes, it should have been polished from the same raw material." Chen Xiao nodded. As she spoke, she suddenly waved her left hand with the bracelet at Zhao Moyun. "Sigh, the bracelet given by my son-in-law is very nice. I realize that it's better to raise a daughter and find a good son-in-law."

"..." Zhao Moyun suddenly opened his mouth.

How could he not know that his mother was talking about him? But didn't he give her apples and flowers? He didn't forget his mother after getting married.

Besides, wasn't it always like this in previous years?

At this moment, Li Jiawen, who was beside her, said enviously, "Made of Violet Jadeite? Moqing, your pendant is so beautiful. Your brother is also a man, but he only knows how to send apples and flowers every year. He doesn't know how to be sentimental at all."

"..." Zhao Moyun.

Didn't she hug and kiss him happily just now and even posted his gift on her Moments? She said that the greatest happiness in her life was to find a husband who loved her.

In the end, he could only look at Qin Lin bitterly.

He didn't think he'd have an easy night home. It looked like he'd have to buy two presents to make up for Christmas tomorrow.

It was so hard on men.

...

The next day.

It was noticeably colder.

Qin Lin couldn't bear to get up early in the morning. He hugged Zhao Moqing and dawdled for a while before picking the mature crops in the game. Then, he went to the warehouse to move everything out of the game and shipped them to the villa.

When he arrived at the villa and asked Chen Dabei to bring people to unload the goods, he received a message from Senior Brother Chu. It was a drafted investment agreement and a sentence from Senior Brother Chu. "The most important thing about this kind of investment is the equity issue. I've saved two loopholes and backup plans for you. You can guard against the other party and take the initiative when necessary."

"Thank you, Senior Brother Chu," Qin Lin replied.

Senior Brother Chu said, "If you want to thank me, wait for me to go to your villa and entertain me."

Qin Lin returned to the hall and was about to print out the investment agreement when he saw Gao Yaoyao and the cashier girl feeding Red Hair pine nuts at the bar. The cashier girl was even combing Red Hair's tail with a small comb.

As expected, it would lead an exquisite life. It even had two girls to serve him. As its master, he did not have such luck.

Seeing that Qin Lin had arrived, Gao Yaoyao said happily, "Boss, Red Hair and those squirrels became popular again today."

Qin Lin knew that it must be Douyin. He took out his phone and saw that there was indeed a video of the squirrels from Qinglin Villa on the trending searches.

"I really admire the boss of Qinglin Villa. He actually trained the little squirrels to be so smart..."

"Can you believe it? The little squirrels are all dressed up, and they even know how to pack pine nuts..."

"..."

The videos were all of Red Hair with a couple of little squirrels in clothes.

In these videos, the actions of these little squirrels wearing clothes and picking up the pine nuts fed by the tourists and putting them into their bags were really too eye-catching. The popularity also exceeded the long legs of the coquettish person Douyin wanted to support.

Qin Lin couldn't help but sigh. It seemed that everyone was becoming more reasonable about online beauties. This coquettish beauty was even worse than a few squirrels.

This made him think of something. In the future, there would be many animals when this ranch opened. There would be no lack of villa animals.

Now that the squirrels were on fire, he could try to tame these wild squirrels.

Chapter 122: Squirrel Home! Complete Taming of Wild Squirrels!

As Qin Lin thought about it, he looked at the screen in his mind and controlled his game character to go to the pet merchant to see if there was anything that could help train the little squirrel.

After finding the pet merchant, Qin Lin opened the list and found something that was helpful to him.

Squirrel House.

Little squirrels had actually long become one of the family pets. Its adorable appearance was very popular.

Therefore, Squirrel House was also one of the most popular pet sellers. However, most of them were in bamboo baskets in reality.

Only those squirrel ecological parks would build simulated squirrel homes for squirrels, which were made into the shape of trees.

However, only the squirrels raised in the ecological park would live in such a home. Wild squirrels would not.

In the game, the Squirrel House sold by the pet merchants had the simulated tree shape of the Squirrel Ecological Garden.

This kind of Squirrel House could be installed by digging a pit and burying the lower part.

[Squirrel House: Quality 2]

...

[This is a pet item specially sold by pet merchants. There is a food storage room specially prepared for small squirrels. It is very liked by small squirrels and is easy for the owner to clean up.]

[The space can house five small squirrels. The effect of living with small squirrels: Attraction +2, Safety +2, Pleasure +2, Cold Resistance +2, Infiltration +2.]

When Qin Lin saw the attributes of Attraction +2, Safety +2, Pleasure +2, and Cold Resistance +2, he felt that there was hope for those squirrels to truly become members of the scenic area.

After all, there was still Red Hair.

Merging into the environment should be the meaning of simulation. Those ecological parks could make the Squirrel House extremely realistic. Merging into the forest made it impossible to tell the authenticity without looking.

Moreover, the attributes of his game would definitely be stronger.

Qin Lin thought for a moment. There were about a dozen squirrels around the three Quality 3 triangular plums, probably no more than 15.

A few of them had already been taken in as lackeys by Red Hair. They were now civilized rats with clothes and bags. The others might be relatively stupid. He wondered if Red Hair could handle them too.

In that case, he would have to buy three more Squirrel Houses.

After Qin Lin bought the Squirrel House and sent it back to the ranch, he returned to his senses from the game. Then, he headed to the parking lot and drove the truck to the warehouse.

When he arrived at the warehouse, the first thing he saw when he entered the game was the three simulated Squirrel Houses placed in front of the game house.

It was all withered branches, about 1.5 meters tall and half a meter wide.

Qin Lin went forward and touched one of the Squirrel Houses. With a thought, he brought the Squirrel House out of the game and appeared in the truck.

After moving the three squirrel houses out of reality, he started the truck and drove to the villa. At the same time, he called Chen Dabei and asked him to wait with the cart for unloading.

The truck could not drive into the villa, so it could only be moved in manually.

As soon as the truck stopped, Chen Dabei walked forward with a few security guards. "Boss, what did you bring back this time?"

"I bought a Squirrel House. Ship it to the Sea of Flowers while there aren't many tourists," Qin Lin instructed Chen Dabei.

“Okay, Boss!” Chen Dabei nodded and called for a few security guards to start working.

After Chen Dabei brought his men down from Squirrel House, Qin Lin followed them to the Sea of Flowers.

There were not many tourists in the Sea of Flowers, but the squirrels had already arrived.

Red Hair had already led a few of its underlings, who were wearing clothes, to run among the three triangular plum trees.

When it saw Chen Dabei installing the Squirrel Home, it immediately scurried down to Qin Lin’s shoulder.

It probably knew what this Squirrel Home was.

As soon as the first Squirrel House was installed, it scurried to it and crawled through a hole.

This sight caught the attention of the other squirrels.

A moment later, Red Hair emerged from another opening. It squeaked as if to express its joy. Finally, two squirrels in tiny clothes leaped tentatively down onto the Squirrel House.

Seeing Red Hair crawling around the Squirrel Home, the two of them finally crawled into a hole.

Then, the two squirrels also squeaked and followed Red Hair between the holes, as if they were playing.

This scene made Qin Lin smile. As expected of a game product.

He supervised Chen Dabei and the others to place the Squirrel Home beside the three Quality 3 triangular plum trees. They tried their best to cover the Squirrel House with the dense branches.

In that case, the three Squirrel Houses would not seem out of place. Coupled with the fact that they had integrated into the environment and had the +2 attribute, the tourists should not pay too much attention to the Squirrel Houses under the attraction of the three Quality 3 triangular plum trees.

Qin Lin waited at the side. Soon, two female tourists appeared and arrived at the central area.

The first thing they did was run towards the three Quality 3 triangular plum trees.

‘There really are little squirrels with clothes.’

“Hurry up and give them the pine nuts. See if they really know how to put them in a bag.”

“...”

Clearly, these two girls must have seen the video and specially came to film the squirrel.

It was also very likely that they were natives of Youcheng County who could come at this early hour.

Moreover, as Qin Lin had expected, the two girls were so happy filming the squirrels that they did not notice the additional Squirrel Houses under the triangular plum branches.

“Check on these squirrels tonight.” Qin Lin observed for a while and instructed Chen Dabei.

Previously, the squirrels would leave at night. Now that he had these three Squirrel Houses, he wondered if the squirrels would stay.

Chapter 123: Squirrel Home! Complete Taming of Wild Squirrels! 3

On the other hand, if these little squirrels stayed, they would really belong to the villa. Should he hire a pet breeder and vet?

After all, squirrels also needed to take off their clothes often to comb their fur. Otherwise, it was easy for problems to arise.

The ranch at the villa was also gradually being built. When the game ranch opened, there would be a lot of animals.

With that in mind, Qin Lin took out his phone and logged into the recruitment form. He chose Youcheng County to recruit veterinarians and breeders.

Not long after returning to the hall, Zhou Chengjun arrived with the old man. Naturally, the old man also had to sign the contract. After all, he was the owner of the formula.

Qin Lin smiled and welcomed him. "Old Master, we meet again."

"Boss Qin, I've really troubled you this time. You really think highly of my skills." The old man was in a good mood. It was probably because his grandson finally wanted to learn his skills. As for how his grandson wanted to use this skill, he didn't care. Even if this formula belonged to the company that invested in it and 51% of the ownership would belong to someone else.

At least his side had passed on the craft, not cut off the generation here.

Besides, thinking about his grandson, he sighed again. His usually cheerful grandson had secretly cried in the bathroom last night.

He probably knew what it was about. It was a girl from a big city. It was indeed difficult for their small county family to satisfy her.

...

Therefore, he knew that his grandson was also eager for this five million yuan investment.

Qin Lin also summoned Gao Yaoyao and asked her to make two cups of honey water before sitting down.

He looked at Zhou Chengjun in confusion. He felt that the other party seemed to be in a different state from yesterday. There was a haggard look on his face with a hint of maturity.

It was a strange feeling, as if he had suddenly matured after experiencing some storm.

Qin Lin naturally did not know what had happened to Zhou Chengjun.

Continue reading on MYBOXNOVEL.COM

Besides, many women online said that the easiest way for a girl to mature was to fall in love with a scumbag.

Actually, this was the same for boys. A relationship that ended without a hitch might also be the easiest way for boys to mature.

This was the case for Zhou Chengjun.

He did not expect this to happen. He had been working hard for the future for the past few days after his return. He had been filled with anticipation, but everything had changed in the past few days.

He didn't beg or try to win her back. If a few years of affection couldn't even hold on to these few days, then it was all in vain.

Once there was a crack in a relationship, it would be difficult to return to how it was before.

He didn't believe she'd been completely pressured by her parents. Maybe, no amount of long-term affection could outweigh a few days of novelty. No matter how good a relationship was, there was always the fear of facing up to the daily necessities.

"President Qin, I made this sauce myself. Try it." As soon as Zhou Chengjun sat down, he eagerly handed two small bottles of sauce to Qin Lin.

A man did not cry easily. He had cried last night. Enough was enough.

All he wanted now was to succeed and anesthetize himself with success.

Qin Lin more or less felt that something must have happened to Zhou Chengjun, but he did not ask further. He opened the sauce that Zhou Chengjun had made and tasted it.

It tasted good, even better than the old man's cooking.

That was incredible.

"President Qin, how does it taste?" Zhou Chengjun asked expectantly.

"Yes, not bad." Qin Lin nodded.

"Then what about the investment?" Zhou Chengjun was clearly a little nervous at this moment. After all, the five million yuan investment was just a verbal promise from the other party. The other party could go back on his word at any time.

Qin Lin smiled and said, "Why? Are you afraid that I'll go back on my word? Wait a moment, I'll print out the investment agreement."

With that, he walked to the bar and printed out the two agreements on the printer. He returned to the table and handed one to Zhou Chengjun. "You can read the agreement carefully and make sure there's no problem. See if you can abide by it, then accept my investment."

"Okay." Zhou Chengjun did not hesitate. He hurriedly took the agreement and read it. Moreover, he read it very seriously, as if he was looking at his future.

Qin Lin did not disturb Zhou Chengjun and said to the old man beside him, "Old Master, try our villa's medicinal honey water."

"President Qin, thank you for thinking so highly of my grandson," the old man said sheepishly.

After all, he had rejected the other party's offer to buy the formula previously. Now, his grandson was begging him for five million yuan.

Actually, Qin Lin did not care about this. Besides, he really did not want such good craftsmanship to be lost. In addition, he had been persuaded by Zhou Chengjun.

However, the old man's gratitude was on his face. He now knew from his family how successful the young man in front of him was. He was a big shot in Youcheng County.

Such a person was willing to take care of his grandson and invest five million yuan in him. No matter what, he was a great benefactor and also his grandson's benefactor.

The old man's mind was that simple.

After some time, Zhou Chengjun finished reading the investment agreement. Actually, seeing that the two conditions he had raised yesterday were met, he said decisively, "President Qin, let's sign it."

"Sure!" Qin Lin smiled and took out a pen to sign both documents.

Zhou Chengjun was even more decisive. After signing, he even asked his grandfather to sign.

After the old man signed, Zhou Chengjun heaved a long sigh of relief and said solemnly to Qin Lin, "President Qin, thank you."

Qin Lin also smiled and invited, "Let's have lunch at the villa. I'll treat you guys to wild food."

Chapter 124: Squirrel Home! Complete Taming of Wild Squirrels! 4

"Thank you, President Qin." Zhou Chengjun thanked him again.

Not long after, Chen Li arrived. When he saw the contract in Zhou Chengjun's hand, he smiled and said, "Boss Qin, have you signed the contract? Looks like our Youcheng County is going to produce another product with potential?"

"Chief Chen, take a seat." Qin Lin welcomed Chen Li over and sat down. He did not forget to introduce him to Zhou Chengjun's grandfather and grandson. "This is the director of the county's Tourism Bureau, Chief Chen."

Zhou Chengjun and the old man hurriedly greeted Chen Li respectfully.

To ordinary people, a chief was already a big deal.

"Chief Chen, stay for lunch. I'll get the kitchen to make a bowl of dumplings. Why don't you try the sauce?" Qin Lin knew that Chen Li had come over to inquire about the sauce, so he invited him with a smile.

He even wondered if there was a way for Zhou Chengjun to get a corporate guidance fund from the county. After all, this sauce was also a recipe of Quality 1. The prospects were definitely good.

"Sure." Surprisingly, Chen Li did not refuse.

At noon, Qin Lin asked Master Lin to kill a wild big fish to entertain Zhou Chengjun, his grandfather, and Chen Li.

The fish was delicious, and Zhou Chengjun and the old man were full of praise.

...

However, Chen Li was not lucky. He only paid attention to the dipping sauce and was full after eating the dumplings. After his meal, he left in a hurry with a bottle of sauce.

Qin Lin also said to Zhou Chengjun, "The first sum of money will be transferred to your account in a few days. Now, you can go to the factory and make preparations. I won't interfere with how you operate, but you have to let me see the results."

"President Qin, I won't disappoint you." Zhou Chengjun promised Qin Lin before leaving the villa with his grandfather.

Afternoon.

Qin Lin handed the investment agreement to Zhao Moqing and asked her to put it away. When he had nothing to do, he controlled the game character to go to the Spring Mine to mine and see if he could dig some more jade ores.

Continue reading on MYBOXNOVEL.COM

After all, it will be New Year's Day in a few days. There would be Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, Zhao Moqing's birthday, and his mother's birthday in the future. There would be many days to give them presents.

...

The county.

Chen Li quickly carried a bowl of dumplings and a bottle of sauce to the office.

This attracted the attention of many of the staff, who wondered what the chief was up to.

After Chen Li entered the office, the people inside also put down their pens and documents. They cleared the table in front of them and asked Chen Li to put down the dumplings and sauce.

Chen Li smiled and said, "Sun Xian, I have to say that this sauce is really good. It tastes even better than Lao Gan Ma."

Sun Xian picked up his chopsticks, picked up the dumplings, dipped some sauce into them, and put them in his mouth. Then a second and a third.

After eating three in a row, he sighed and said, "It does taste very good. It's a pity that it's only been discovered now. We've missed the best time for such products to develop."

Chen Li nodded and said, "Indeed, this kind of product is like a huge mountain that occupies almost the entire market. However, the fact that there's this sauce today means that our Youcheng County has something good. It's just that we haven't discovered it yet, but Boss Qin has."

Sun Xian smiled and said, "Human success is not a coincidence. The restaurant has been in Shui Nan for decades, and so many people have eaten it. How was Boss Qin the one to discover the value of this sauce? This is why Boss Qin can succeed."

Chen Li smiled and said, "That's true. Everyone on the Internet feels that they were born at the wrong time. They envy others for having good opportunities, but if they were to take the helm, their companies might not be able to survive those few cold winters on the Internet. Should the county support this sauce?"

This made Sun Xian frown. He thought for a moment before saying, "Let's take a look first. Zhou Chengjun is just an intern. After all, he's not Boss Qin. We have to inspect him."

Chen Li nodded.

If the management rights of this sauce were with Boss Qin, the county would definitely support it decisively.

However, Zhou Chengjun was not Boss Qin after all.

Chapter 125: Snake-like Eel! Red Hair Is Too Smart!

Qin Lin controlled his game character to the Spring Mine. He was unlucky today. He smashed the rocks with his hammer and dug a large area. Other than gold, silver, and copper, he did not obtain any jade ores.

After digging for a moment, he received a game notification. The eels that had previously been cultivated were mature.

Qin Lin immediately controlled his game character to return to the ranch and go to the Level 2 paddy field to harvest the loach that he had prepared for farming. Then, he controlled his game character to buy some loach seedlings and placed them in the Level 2 paddy field for farming. He had not forgotten what he had promised Chen Li.

The loach was very effective in replenishing blood. With the game attribute enhancement, it should be even better.

When he was done, he found an empty spot and entered the game. He went to the storage room and saw the message:

[Eel: Quality 1 (50 catties)]

[This is a delicious ingredient that Southerners like very much. It is also the leader of Southern nutrition. It is game-raised, parasite-free, and pollution-free. Taste +1, chewiness +1, freshness +1, nourishment +1, spleen-nourishing +1, liver-nourishing +1, energy-nourishing +1, metabolism +1, blood sugar reduction +1.]

[Eel: Quality 2 (6 catties)]

[This is a delicious ingredient that Southerners like very much. It is also the leader of Southern nutrition. It is game-raised, parasite-free, and pollution-free. Taste +2, chewiness +2, freshness +2, nourishment

+2, healthy spleen and stomach +2, liver-nourishing and liver-protecting +2, energy-nourishing and qi-boosting +2, improved metabolism +2, reduced blood sugar regulation +2.]

Qin Lin looked at the note and finally understood why this eel was called the leader of nutrition.

This effect was really too much.

The key was that it was parasite-free and pollution-free. It was reassuring to eat them.

Normal eels that weighed 0.5 catty were already very heavy, but this Quality 1 eel was one catty. It looked like a snake.

.....

A catty of this size was more than 50 yuan on the market, and with this Quality 1 effect, it could not even be bought for 100 yuan a catty.

Then he looked at the Quality 2 eel.

There were only two of them, which meant that one was three catties.

Those who did not know would probably be surprised. They would really think that it was a big snake.

Qin Lin immediately logged out of the game and pretended to drive out of the villa with two woven bags. It was impossible to take out so many catties of eel directly in the villa. It would easily arouse suspicion.

He simply drove to the warehouse and found an empty spot to enter the game. Then he put all the eels into the two woven bags.

Because he had eaten a fruit of the Tree of Strength he could easily carry more than 50 catties of eel in his hand.

Only then did Qin Lin exit the game and drive back to the villa.

The afternoon was more leisurely.

There weren't many customers in the lobby, either.

When Chen Dabei saw him carrying two bags in, he went forward and asked, "Boss, do you need help?"

"Pour the eel in this bag into the fish pond. Tell Gao Yaoyao that it was caught from an old field in the countryside. The price is 200 yuan a catty." Qin Lin also handed the 50 catties of eel to Chen Dabei.

When Chen Dabei saw how relaxed Qin Lin was, he didn't mind and reached out to lift it. However, when he took it, he felt his hand sink and the bag fell to the ground.

If an ordinary person did not prepare to hold something weighing more than 50 catties, it would be difficult for them to catch it with one hand.

Chen Dabei was shocked.

So heavy?

Just now, Boss Qin came in with one hand and looked relaxed.

How strong must Boss Qin be?

This was something he hadn't really expected.

Chen Dabei lifted the bag and went to the fish pond. He opened the woven bag and poured the eels into the fish pond.

He was obviously surprised to see the size of the eels. Each of them was huge and slippery. One of them had crawled out of the bag and flipped on the ground, darting around desperately.

"Snake..." A girl's panicked shout sounded.

The eel crawled to her, and she mistook it for a snake.

The girl's exclamation startled the other tourists in the hall. They all looked over and stepped back in fear when they saw the big eels.

Chen Dabei hurriedly explained, "Don't worry, it's not a snake. It's an eel. It's just a little big. jaundice is a good tonic. Besides, it was caught in the old field, so it's even more nourishing."

With that, Chen Dabei reached out and grabbed the eel. However, it was too slippery and broke free. Fortunately, he shook his hand and the eel fell into the fish pool.

The tourists were relieved to see this. Then, they all gathered around curiously.

Everyone knew about eels and how nourishing they were.

"How much is this eel?" the frightened female tourist asked first.

Chen Dabei explained, "This old field's big eel costs 200 yuan per catty. There's not many of it. If everyone wants to eat it tonight, you have to buy it earlier."

200 yuan a catty sounded a little expensive, but after so long, everyone knew that some things in Qinglin Villa were better than those outside, so they were eager to try.

This was the effect of reputation and word of mouth.

...

In the kitchen.

Master Lin also became idle in the afternoon.

Other than preparing meals and being busy in the kitchen, he was free as the head chef.

From a cabinet, he took out a bottle of Youcheng County rice wine. It was dark red, not recognizable, but rather the color of Coke.

Many people would also tease Youcheng County rice wine as Youcheng County Coke at the wine table.

Therefore, when people asked you if you wanted to drink Coke during a joyous occasion and poured you a bowl, they might just want you to drink a bowl of rice wine. Many foreigners who came to Youcheng County to drink often fell into the trap and were directly knocked out.

After all, when the wine reached the bowl, everyone hooted and had to drink.

Chapter 126: Snake-like Eel! Red Hair Is Too Smart! 2

Master Lin walked forward and opened the lid of the pot, revealing the conch inside.

After eating the conches brought by the boss last time, he had been craving them, so he asked his son to go to his house to get some from the old field. His son had sent them to him this morning. Now, he could take this opportunity to satisfy his hunger with some wine.

Master Lin plated the conches and sat down. He poured himself a small glass of wine, then picked one up and took a sip. But he had just chewed when he frowned. "That's not right. Why is it so different from the ones the boss bought?"

He picked up another and slipped it into his mouth. Then a second, but his frown deepened.

The taste and texture were completely different.

As the saying went, the greater the anticipation, the greater the disappointment. Master Lin frowned.

He had been craving it all day. It was not easy for him to get some wine at this time, but he suddenly realized that he had wasted his time. He had lost all interest.

"Master Lin, you're in a good mood!" At this moment, Qin Lin walked in with two Quality 2 eel.

Master Lin put away his disappointed expression and asked Qin Lin, "Boss, what good stuff did you buy this time?"

Qin Lin handed a woven bag containing two Quality 2 eel to Master Lin and said, "Master Lin, help me kill one of these eels to satisfy my cravings tonight."

Master Lin took the woven bag and opened it. He couldn't help but say in surprise, "Boss, it's such a big eel. It's top-grade. Where did you get it?"

...

Two eels of three catties tangled together like two long, hideous snakes.

Qin Lin made it up. "I bought it at the market. Remember to fry it with wine. That's classic."

"Alright, Boss." Master Lin nodded when he heard the instructions. After Qin Lin went out again, he sat down again and picked up a conch. It was really boring.

Could it be that this son of his casually bought some artificially bred ones from the market to fool him?

At the thought of this, Master Lin was no longer in the mood to drink. He simply stood up and placed the two eels in the fish pond that was specially prepared for the kitchen.

When it was time to cook for the employees in the evening, the three kitchen chefs got busy. Master Lin grabbed another piece of eel and started to deal with it with a knife.

Small eels were relatively difficult to deal with. There would be some residue no matter how the internal organs were handled. This three-catty eel was easier to handle.

After killing the eel, Master Lin cut the meat and began to boil the pot and pour the oil.

There were many ways to cook eel. Braising it was one of the most common methods in the countryside. This was because eel had a fishy smell and required cooking wine to remove the taste. After cooking wine entered the taste, it could make the eel meat carry a strong fragrance.

Soon, a strong fragrance wafted out of the pot.

Master Lin picked up a piece of braised meat with his chopsticks and placed it in his mouth to test the food. As he chewed, he felt a delicious taste appear in his mouth. The taste was too good, and the chewiness was perfect.

Master Lin subconsciously picked up his chopsticks and put another piece of meat into his mouth.

This really made it impossible to stop eating.

Looking at the braised meat in the pot made him hungry again.

After becoming a chef, no one planted the fields at home anymore. However, it had been a long time since he had eaten the conches caught by the old field. He had forgotten the taste of it when he was young, but he did not expect it to be so delicious.

He decided to call his son-in-law later and ask him to catch eels in the old field. If he couldn't catch one this big, he could catch something smaller.

That bastard son could not be counted on. Those conches had made him look forward to it for nothing.

The Quality 2 eel was indeed different from the Quality 2 conch.

When Qin Lin ate, he couldn't help but take out some medicinal wine and drink a little.

Lin Fen and Zhao Moqing praised it repeatedly after eating.

The two women realized that they were enjoying their food more and more. Qin Lin could always get so much delicious food.

However, they did not think too much about it. They only felt that the villa had become popular and became a channel, so he had more access to such things. Weren't there still so many fish ponds selling eel outside?

Perhaps there was really a huge difference between delicacies and simple meals.

They felt that they were eating delicacies now.

In the hall, the tourists gradually began to eat. The kitchen was thoroughly busy. There were obviously a lot of guests ordering eel today.

Most tourists would definitely not let go of something so nourishing.

Almost all 50 catties of eel had been ordered.

The apprentice, Lin Bin, had a pile of eel in front of him. He was going to kill all the eels today.

Naturally, Master Lin was the happiest with more than 50 catties of eel.

He had to try every dish out of the pot, didn't he?

Although the taste was not as delicious as the boss's own, it was definitely delicious.

As long as his son-in-law caught some eel of this level, he would enjoy it with some wine.

Master Lin began to look forward to it again.

After the din of the tourists' dining ended, the villa quickly fell silent.

Without any accommodation, no one would stay even if it was brightly lit. Now that the weather was even colder, even if they liked to play, they wouldn't rent a tent to stay. After all, in this kind of weather, doing that in the tent would freeze their buttocks.

Chen Dabei came to report after the tourists left. "Boss, you asked me to keep an eye on the three Squirrel Houses. A few squirrels didn't leave at night and stayed there."

"Let's go take a look." Qin Lin's eyes lit up as he brought Chen Dabei to the Sea of Flowers.

It seemed the plan to turn wild squirrels into domesticated animals had paid off.

There were lights on the stone path in the Sea of Flowers. At this time, there was still a special peaceful atmosphere in the Sea of Flowers.

Chapter 127: Snake-like Eel! Red Hair Is Too Smart! 3

As they reached the center, they heard squeaking.

As soon as Qin Lin stepped forward, Red Hair scuttled towards him and landed in his hand.

Its big furry tail swept his hand.

He could vaguely see a few small squirrels scurrying around in the three Squirrel Houses. Without exception, they were all wearing small clothes.

The others left again and went back.

It seemed that these squirrels were indeed smarter and more adaptable.

This type of squirrel was also easier to tame.

Looking at the few squirrels left behind, Qin Lin felt a sense of accomplishment, even if he didn't tame them.

"Add two more surveillance cameras outside the Sea of Flowers!" Qin Lin instructed Chen Dabei.

“Okay, Boss!” Chen Dabei nodded.

Qin Lin walked out while Red Hair stayed in his hand. Then, it pulled out a pine nut from its small bag and bit it.

...

Qin Lin looked at the little fellow and thought about its note. The little fellow was very intelligent. It could bring those wild squirrels to ask for clothes and even bring them to live in the Squirrel Houses, proving this point.

So that gave him some more ideas.

Previously, he had seen a zoo online where elephants would pick up trash and throw it into the trash can. Everyone had commented that it was so cute and that humans were not as good as an elephant...

What if all the squirrels in his scenic area learned it? It would definitely attract a lot of attention and add to the popularity of the villa.

Not to mention most of the tourists, there were still a small number of tourists who occasionally dropped their napkins and tickets in the Sea of Flowers.

He was not a pet trainer and did not have the ability to train squirrels. Therefore, he could only rely on Red Hair.

If he could teach Red Hair, it might be able to lead the other little squirrels.

After returning to the hall, Qin Lin also left the villa with Zhao Moqing and his mother.

In the car.

Wang Cai whined unhappily.

Red Hair was plucking at the fur on its head.

However, other than barking in dissatisfaction, Wang Cai did not resist at all. The fellow on its head was too agile. Every time it tried to resist, it would be berated by its three masters.

Back home.

Qin Lin grabbed Red Hair and went to the sofa in the hall. He waved a tissue in front of Red Hair and even pulled the trash can to the side of the sofa. “Look, you can’t throw the trash on the ground. You have to throw it into the trash can. The Sea of Flowers... Well, it’s where a lot of flowers are. If there’s paper on the ground, remember to pick it up and throw it into the trash can.”

Qin Lin felt like a fool for saying this to a little squirrel.

When Zhao Moqing came out and saw this scene, he couldn’t help but tease, “Qin Lin, what’s wrong with you?”

Lin Fen smiled when she saw this scene. She also felt that her son’s actions were too unreliable.

It was just a squirrel.

Qin Lin explained awkwardly, "I'm just training Red Hair's skills?"

Zhao Moqing smiled and said, "If pets are so easy to train, won't those pet trainers lose their jobs? Red Hair is already very smart, okay? Don't torture it."

Qin Lin still wanted to continue. Wasn't it easy to teach a squirrel with high intelligence?

Didn't those genius students self-study and score 100 points without the help of a teacher? It should be able to learn to pick up trash by itself.

He shook the tissue at Red Hair, then crumpled it into a small ball and dropped it to the floor.

An incredible thing happened.

Red Hair scuttled straight down, grabbed the wad of tissue, and crawled back to the couch. Then it dropped the wad into the trash can.

"..." Qin Lin.

"..." Zhao Moqing.

"..." Lin Fen.

Both women looked surprised at the sight.

Red Hair, on the other hand, squeaked at Qin Lin. It didn't know if it should say that it was too easy or ask for credit.

Chapter 128: Hunters Often Appear As Prey! 1

Zhao Moqing looked at Red Hair's actions and eagerly took out a piece of paper, crumpled it into a ball, and threw it on the ground.

Red Hair scurried out again and picked up the ball of paper. He scurried onto the sofa and threw it into a nearby trash can.

Zhao Moqing was so excited that he almost jumped up. "Qin Lin, it's too smart. It actually really understood."

Indeed, Red Hair's cleverness was unexpected.

Qin Lin now knew what the note meant by 'very intelligent'.

After teasing Red Hair for a while, Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing returned to their room. He told Zhao Moqing about Chen Li's request. Chen Xiaoru would come to the villa. If he wasn't around, he would ask Zhao Moqing to help entertain her.

...

The next day.

Qin Lin woke up and looked at the game in his mind. He picked all the ripe crops in the morning and headed to the warehouse as usual.

Red Hair had followed him when he left, and the dog was not to be left behind.

When they arrived at the warehouse, Qin Lin entered the game.

There were a few more things than usual today.

[Mudfish: Quality 1 (35 catties)]

.....

[This is a delicious ingredient that Southerners like very much. Taste +1, delicious +1, nourishing spleen and kidney +1, hydrating and reducing swelling +1, nourishing blood and nourishing qi +1.]

[Spinach: Quality 1 (40 catties)]

[This is a common delicious ingredient with many effects: Yin-nourishing +1, constipation prevention +1, clear and warm intestines +1.]

[Carrot: Quality 1 (55 catties)]

[This is a vegetable with very high vitamins. It nourishes the blood and qi +1, helps the liver and eyes +1, and cleans the intestines +1.]

This was something he had obtained from the Level 1 and Level 2 paddy fields. It could replenish blood.

None of them were of Quality 2.

He would get Master Lin to make some of these for Chen Xiaoru and sell the rest at the villa.

Moreover, he had specially brought out 20 catties of Quality 2 okra today.

This Quality 2 okra had to appear from time to time.

Qin Lin moved everything out of the game and sent them to the villa.

As soon as Red Hair arrived at the villa, it rushed towards the Sea of Flowers to look for its underling.

The dog followed him into the hall.

Although the weather was getting colder, the enthusiasm for travel would not diminish much.

This was because travel was a way to release stress. It was the best way to empty one's mind and heal oneself. It was also a way for a couple's relationship to heat up rapidly.

How many men and women got their way in tourist hotels?

The villa quickly became lively.

A taxi pulled up at the entrance to the villa. New visitors had arrived.

Xiao Zhuang got out of the car with his female friend, Xiao Fang, whom he had not completely confirmed his relationship with.

It was the first time he'd chased a girl, and he didn't know how to suggest moving on to the next step. One of his buddies, who'd switched girlfriends a number of times, had given him the idea of going on a trip. Only one room had been left when he'd tried to book. However, it was out of town...

Therefore, when he saw that Xiao Fang liked the Sea of Flowers in Qinglin Villa, he decisively brought her over.

Xiao Fang got out of the car and said in surprise, "There are so many tourists this early in the morning. Qinglin Villa is really popular."

"Yes!" Xiao Zhuang quickly nodded in agreement.

They walked into the villa.

As soon as Xiao Fang entered the villa, she looked at the sales center. "That's where the medicinal honey water is sold."

Xiao Zhuang naturally knew that the medicinal honey water in Qinglin Villa was very popular. He generously spent 200 yuan to buy two large cups.

Xiao Fang took two sips and was pleasantly surprised. "Yes, this medicinal honey water is really delicious."

Xiao Zhuang nodded. It really lived up to its reputation. Then, he asked Xiao Fang, "Do you want to buy some strawberries? I heard that the strawberries here are very delicious."

"Sure." Xiao Fang nodded.

The two of them walked toward the area of the sales center for special breeds.

Quality 1 and 2 fruits and vegetables were all here.

As soon as he got close, he saw the sales counter selling strawberries.

The two of them walked over. As Xiao Fang picked out more strawberries, Xiao Zhuang's gaze was involuntarily attracted to a sales counter in front of them.

There were only a few okra on the sales counter. The sign said that the special variety of okra cost 400 yuan per catty.

Xiao Zhuang seemed to recall a legend from the villa.

Qinglin Villa used to sell a special variety of okra that cost 400 yuan per catty. That thing was a man's blessing and was very effective. There was even a rich second-generation heir who ate this okra and had too much fun with his two female friends and was reported.

This legend was also mentioned by many people in the video comments section of the official account of Qinglin Villa.

It was just that this kind of okra was very rare. Now, it is almost extinct in the villa.

Xiao Zhuang did not expect to see it here. Thinking of his special purpose this time, he subconsciously looked at Xiao Fang beside him.

When he encountered such a legendary thing, he was naturally eager to try. However, he was afraid that if he bought it, Xiao Fang would know that he had brought her here for a special purpose.

“Wow, 400 catties of okra.” A couple suddenly ran over. The woman said slyly, “Honey, you’re in luck today. I wonder if this thing is really that powerful.”

“If I’m blessed, doesn’t that mean you’re blessed?” The man decisively picked up the bag and put it away.

Clearly, more than one tourist had discovered it. In the blink of an eye, two more pairs of tourists had discovered it. How could they let go of something they had only heard of?

In the blink of an eye, the 400 yuan per catty of okra was gone.

Xiao Zhuang was getting anxious.

This was immediately gone.

At this moment, he turned around and was pleasantly surprised to find that Xiao Fang had walked to the other side to look at the fruits and did not notice him at all.

Chapter 129: Hunters Often Appear As Prey! 2

How could he let go of this opportunity? He hurriedly went to pick up the bag to store the remaining okra, but he didn’t know that Xiao Fang was already looking at him with the corners of her mouth curled up.

Xiao Zhuang hurriedly took the bag, put the rest of the okra into it, and walked over to Xiao Fang as if nothing had happened.

Xiao Fang casually glanced at the bag and then at Xiao Zhuang, who looked like he was afraid she would notice.

Had she picked up a bargain?

He was such an innocent man?

Has he never had a girlfriend?

Xiao Zhuang naturally did not know what Xiao Fang was thinking. After paying the bill, he played jungle adventure and slippery grass before heading to the most important Sea of Flowers.

At this moment, he also remembered his good friend’s words. After playing one or two projects during the trip, it was time to make a move. At this time, the woman would not resist much.

He pretended to casually put his arm around Xiao Fang’s waist.

Seeing that Xiao Fang did not resist, he was immediately tempted.

His friends were right about being decisive.

...

The two of them quickly entered the Sea of Flowers. Xiao Zhuang had to admit that the Sea of Flowers was beautiful. If Xiao Fang wanted to take photos, he would do his best to be a photographer.

"Squirrel." Xiao Fang ran up to a squirrel happily. "It's just as cute as the ones in those videos."

Xiao Zhuang still nodded in agreement, but at that moment, he realized that a squirrel with an especially large tail had run to his feet.

He stepped back instinctively, then watched in surprise as the squirrel squeaked at him with a Sea of Flowers ticket in its claws.

Continue_reading on MYBOX NOV EL. COM

Only then did he realize that he had accidentally dropped the ticket. But then he realized that the squirrel was actually pointing a claw at the trash can beside it when it called out to him. Then it ran to the trash can with the ticket and threw it in.

"F*ck..." Xiao Zhuang couldn't help but curse when he saw this scene.

Had he been accidentally schooled by a squirrel?

This was bloody embarrassing.

The key was that the squirrels in Qinglin Villa knew how to pick up trash and throw it into the trash can?

That was incredible, wasn't it?

He looked around hurriedly and was relieved to see that the other tourists were not paying attention to him. Otherwise, if one of them took a video, there would probably be news tomorrow that the tourists were being educated by squirrels in the scenic area.

Then he would be notorious.

Most importantly, wasn't the owner of this villa too awesome? How did he train a squirrel to be like this?

Xiao Zhuang looked at Red Hair with curiosity. He tried to take out a piece of paper, crumpled it into a ball, and threw it on the ground to see if the squirrel would come and check again.

Unexpectedly, a voice came from the side. "Sir, please don't litter!"

Captain Hong, who was patrolling next to him, frowned at him.

"Ah... well..." Xiao Zhuang said.

It was bloody awkward again.

Xiao Zhuang immediately smiled sheepishly, then picked up the paper and threw it into the trash as quickly as possible.

...

Qin Lin naturally didn't know any of this. He was focused on the game in his mind and once again controlled the game character to go to the Spring Mine to mine. New Year's Day was coming and the gift had to be dug out quickly.

Unfortunately, even after digging through the second level of the Spring Mine, he didn't find any more jade. He still found plenty of copper, silver, and gold ore.

Moreover, he quickly dug up the entrance to the third level.

Qin Lin tried to control the game character to enter the third level. There were no restrictions, which meant that he could still enter the third level and continue digging.

The third floor seemed to give him luck. Not long after he controlled the game character to dig, a notification appeared:

[Congratulations on obtaining yellow jadeite ore: Quality 1]

[This is a yellow jadeite ore that can be sold for gold coins! However, I heard that Sebara of the Forging House has opened a jewelry forging service. You can take a look!]

He finally dug up another jadeite ore.

However, after that, his luck seemed to have run out and he didn't gain anything. After digging through the three-story empty area, Qin Lin had no choice but to give up on mining and control his game character to head to Mount Notre Dame.

Mountain goods were also what he had been looking forward to. After all, they could be soaked in medicinal wine.

Li Qing, Chen Shengfei, and Ma Liewen all had a strong need for this medicinal wine.

Unfortunately, the refresh rate of these mountain goods was too random. There was no fixed time or number of times, and even the number was random.

He had only harvested mountain goods twice in total.

However, he was unlucky in the mine. His luck seemed to have improved again after entering Mount Notre Dame. This time, he was surprised to find that the mountain goods had refreshed again.

Qin Lin didn't stand on ceremony and directly controlled his game character to pick the mountain goods.

[Congratulations on obtaining 2 catties of wild myrtle!]

...

[Congratulations on obtaining 2 catties of wild Cherokee rose!]

...

[Congratulations on obtaining 1 catty of wild myrtle!]

...

The harvests were myrtle and Cherokee roses again. Their total weight was higher than before, reaching 30 catties.

In other words, a total of 150 catties of medicinal wine could be soaked.

Qin Lin left the villa and went to buy more than 150 catties of 55° white wine and brewing containers. He spent some time brewing the wine and sent it into the game.

There was already a lot of medicinal wine in the game storage room. Including this batch, there were more than 350 catties.

Furthermore, the medicinal wine that had been brewed the first time had been kept in the game. Reality had been around for more than a month. According to the chronology, it had been settled for almost 17 years.

This was already old wine. The price was far more than 5,000 yuan a catty.

He wondered how much this 17-year-old medicinal wine would cost.

He was completely inexperienced in this area.

When Qin Lin exited the game, it was already noon. He drove back to the villa and just as he entered the hall, he saw Zhao Moqing soaking medicinal honey water at the bar counter.

Qin Lin leaned forward with a smile. "You made it for me because you knew I was coming back?"

"This cup isn't for you. If you want it, I'll make it for you later. This cup is for Xiaoru. She's been here for a while. I chatted with her and realized that this little girl is quite interesting." Zhao Moqing walked towards a table with the cup of honey water and saw Chen Xiaoru sitting there in her First Middle School uniform.

Qin Lin also followed. From their previous contact, he felt that Chen Li's daughter was quite interesting.

"Xiaoru, this cup of medicinal honey water is for you." Zhao Moqing handed the cup of medicinal honey water to Chen Xiaoru.

Naturally, this was free.

"Thank you, Sister Moqing." After thanking Zhao Moqing, Chen Xiaoru also saw Qin Lin behind her. She smiled sweetly and greeted, "Uncle Qin."

"..." When Qin Lin heard Chen Xiaoru's greeting, he asked in surprise, "Moqing is Sister Moqing, but I'm Uncle Qin? Do you know that Moqing is my wife?"

Chen Xiaoru nodded seriously and said, "I know. Sister Moqing is Uncle Qin's wife. I'll call you differently. Otherwise, should I call Sister Moqing auntie? Then I'll be calling Sister Moqing old. Uncle Qin, be careful when you go back. Also, if I call you Brother Qin, Sister Moqing might get angry. You still have to kneel on the keyboard."

"..." Qin Lin was helpless.

This young lady's twisted logic sounded quite reasonable. In any case, she wanted to mess up the seniority with Zhao Moqing.

"Pfft!" Zhao Moqing couldn't help but sneer when she saw Qin Lin's defeated expression.

When Qin Lin saw this, he leaned close to Zhao Moqing's ear and said, "Anyway, the seniority is messed up. Why don't you call me uncle?"

"Do you want to die?!" Zhao Moqing reached out and pinched Qin Lin. Uncle? Why didn't he let her call him Daddy?

Thinking of this, Zhao Moqing blushed.

Chen Xiaoru looked at the two of them and said solemnly, "Sister Moqing, Uncle Qin, can you two not flirt in front of a high school student?"

"..." Qin Lin.

"..." Zhao Moqing.

Qin Lin felt that he couldn't afford to offend this little sister. He said that he would go to the kitchen and left.

Only then did Chen Xiaoru quietly ask Zhao Moqing, "Sister Moqing, how did you get to know Uncle Qin? I want to write a love letter to my future stepmother's son. Can you give me some advice?"

"Study hard." Zhao Moqing chose to ignore the girl.

What was a third-year student thinking instead of studying hard? What kind of messy relationship was this?

When Qin Lin returned to the bar, Zhao Moqing couldn't help but say, "Chief Chen's daughter is too jumpy."

Qin Lin smiled and said, "Many single-parent children have autism and reverse psychology. It's already not bad that she can remain so cheerful."

Chapter 130: Quality 3 Watermelon! Isn't This Too Big?

Zhao Moqing nodded.

Chen Xiaoru was indeed cheerful, but she was also a little worried about this little sister's jumpy personality.

She and Qin Lin knew that the young lady had no ill intentions, so they smiled and let it go.

However, when they went to university and went out into society, they would meet all kinds of people. There would always be some narrow-minded people who liked to make a fuss about nothing.

The young lady might have suffered greatly when she encountered such a person.

In the afternoon.

After lunch, Chen Xiaoru played in the villa for a while. When she was about to return to school, she specially found Zhao Moqing and Qin Lin to say goodbye.

In the afternoon.

Qin Lin entered the backyard again and looked at the seeds of his experiment.

At Quality 2, among the lush vines, the green watermelon was already the size of a rubber ball and was about to ripen.

This was slower than he had expected, but not by much. It was definitely far less than the three months of growth needed for a normal watermelon.

...

On the other hand, the Xiangshui Tribute Rice seeds in the artificial water field announced that the experiment had failed again.

He could only take out the Xiangshui Tribute Rice seeds that he had brought out of the game previously and soak them in water to disinfect them again. He did not believe that he would not be able to trigger the mutation probability that was suitable for the geographical environment.

After soaking the Xiangshui Tribute Rice seeds, Sun Ming walked into the hall and greeted him with a smile. "President Qin, let's go take a look at those projects together. If there's anything you're dissatisfied with, we can fix it. After that, we'll start cleaning up."

With the county's support fund, it had been more than a month since Youcheng County was built. The bridal chamber, dining room, dormitory, and rafting project were almost over.

Continue_reading on MYBOX NOV EL. COM

Qin Lin followed Sun Ming out of the hall and walked towards the construction area.

There was a large divider in the area of the villa and construction to keep visitors from running into the site.

In the future, Qin Lin planned to spread the grass on this quarantine zone and plant all kinds of flowers as ornamental areas. This way, it would be connected to the rest area. When the time came, tourists would sit at the rest table or on the swing. Looking at the green grass and colorful flowers would also be refreshing.

It was how to prevent tourists from stepping on and littering.

Don't doubt it. Sometimes it was useless to even put up a sign that forbade trampling.

When they entered the construction site, Sun Ming gave Qin Lin a safety helmet. The first thing that caught his eye was the restaurant. The main building was made of horizontal wood, bamboo, and a special tiled roof. This was the architectural style that many ecological scenic spots would choose.

Then there was the dormitory not far away.

With more employees, there would be a night shift system after the consummation project was completed. Dormitories were a must.

The dormitory and dining room had also entered the renovation process.

Ahead was the bridal area.

The 150 caves had been built into several areas. There were also different appearances and forms. They were exquisite and complete. They even surrounded an independent courtyard.

At that time, special ornamental plants would be planted between each area.

The consummation material was specially chosen. It was made of soundproof glass and soundproof material.

He couldn't do it without the materials. Otherwise, he'd have to hold a concert every day in this cave. Well, it could be a symphony with the sounds intertwining.

Qin Lin was actually at ease with these projects.

He knew that Sun Ming and Youcheng First Construction Company would not act recklessly. Firstly, the county was keeping a close eye on them. Secondly, the villa was too popular. There were so many tourists. If anything happened, the tourists would post it online and it would definitely be trending.

Sun Ming and Youcheng First Construction Company were the first to be unlucky.

Sun Ming didn't look like he was out of his mind.

Sun Ming brought Qin Lin out of the bridal room and asked, "President Qin, do you want to take a look at the drifting project? Our people have tried it dozens of times and there are no more problems."

"Alright, let's go take a look." Qin Lin smiled.

Sun Ming said, "Then President Qin has to get someone to prepare a set of spare clothes first."

Qin Lin nodded and called Zhao Moqing before going to the new parking lot on the other side with Sun Ming. He got into Sun Ming's car and drove up the mountain.

The road to the top of the hill had been built. It wasn't very wide, but it was wide enough for vehicles to transport visitors. It would also prohibit other vehicles from entering.

To the side of the road was a track that was still under construction and various garden plants were being planted.

It was the county's eco-park project.

That track was naturally a small train track.

When the time came, many tourists would definitely choose to spend money to view the plants while going up the mountain.

Drifting had originally originated with the Eskimo's kayaks and China's bamboo rafts. Back then, it was all about meeting people's needs for life and survival. Now it has gradually evolved into water rafting. Even in winter, there was no shortage of visitors to the various scenic spots.

In fact, there was even a special drifting project in the northern region of China that specialized in winter drift. In the snow and ice in the north, there was still an endless stream of drifting tourists in thick cotton jackets.

The southern drift was just as full of tourists in winter. Besides, the southern drift played a different game in summer than in winter.

The summer water was fierce and powerful. On some swift and exciting slopes, under the impact of the current, the kayak would plunge into the water like a cannonball. It was a thrill to play.

The drifting water in winter was very slow. Even the impact of the slope would not be very strong. In fact, tourists would have to row kayaks themselves for most of the journey. It was controllable, but there was no way to play with water as recklessly as in summer.

Naturally, it was inevitable that water would enter the raft if they played with the rubber rafts. Many people could not accept it in the middle of winter. But for many people, this could not stop a restless heart from wanting to play, especially in the atmosphere of group action and excitement.
