

The Game 1311

Chapter 1311 586-One Year Old!

Minister Lu also got the results of the special bubble experiment in the fire station.

He was overjoyed when he saw that the rescue training with bubble was saved by two-thirds of the original time when the firefighters were fully armed.

It could save lives at critical moments and reduce the damage caused by fire.

Most importantly, with these bubbles, the firefighters' mobility was increased, which also increased their safety.

Moreover, the bubble was still strong in the fire field, and its temperature resistance was completely up to standard.

After receiving the results, Minister Lu immediately went to report to the leader, " " leader, the test results are out. the effect of this bubble on the fire is simply unbelievable. take a look, this is the report from the fire department. "

The leader had been paying the most attention to this matter these days. He immediately stood up and took the report.

Seeing the effect of the bubbles on the fire field, he was also surprised. although I knew it would be useful in fire fighting, I didn't expect it to be so useful.

at this moment.

There was a knock on the door.

"Leader, Minister Lu, what can I do for you?" academician Hao walked in.

minister lu didn't expect the leaders to call academician hao, but he could guess what it was.

Sure enough, the leader said, " academician Hao, the two seeds that your rocket exploration team brought back have been successfully cultivated. These two plants have incredible effects. The key is that the effects of these two plants are too coincidental. Take a look at the information on these two plants.

As he spoke, the leader took out the information and handed it to academician Hao.

Academician Hao took the information and looked at it. When he saw the data on bubble grass and color-changing tree, he was shocked. "Of these two materials, how strong is the bubble made from bubble grass? could it be used as a space shield and oxygen supply? Also, can the color-changing components of the color-changing grass be used on space protective clothing?"

The leader and Minister Lu looked at each other. Academician Hao's point made them even more worried.

After all, they had suspected that these two plants were not a natural coincidence.

Academician Hao's conjecture explained something.

Academician Hao noticed the strange expressions on their faces and said, " "Leaders, do you think that these two plants have such a special effect because of artificial interference?"

The leader and Minister Lu didn't deny it and nodded.

Academician Hao's expression turned serious. If that was the case, he knew what it meant.

academician Hao, " the leader immediately said, " you have to pay attention to this in the follow-up of your deep space rocket exploration.

Although this was only a speculation, he had to be careful of it. What if?

"En!" Academician Hao nodded. He knew what this could mean. He immediately went back to his research team and began to adjust the follow-up deep space rocket exploration plan.

Half a month later.

Goddess mountain.

Qin Lin went through a forest and came to the pool full of bubble grass again. He began to collect the seeds of bubble grass.

Minister Lu had already faxed over the document on the technology sharing of the soaked grass.

He could now cultivate the soaked grass on a large scale.

The only thing was that the first batch of the seeds of the soaked grass needed to be supplied to the Chinese Academy of Sciences.

therefore, qin lin naturally began to take action.

The effect of the bubbles from the grass was extremely great, and he wanted to cultivate it as soon as possible.

However, it was too slow to rely on the three bubble grass's seeds. Hence, he had to speed up.

Anyway, Minister Lu left in a hurry and didn't know how many seeds the three soaked grass had harvested, so he had the final say.

Therefore, it was not a problem for him to accelerate it by several times.

After collecting a small bag of seeds, Qin Lin returned to the game mountain road and logged out of the game.

He took out the seeds of the three bubble grass and put them together, then sent them back into the game. He controlled his game character to go to the processing plant in ore town to start processing these seeds and increase the production.

after he finished processing the seeds of the kimchi grass and brought them out of the game, he also called shen li to his office.

Chairman Qin, " the moment Shen Li arrived, he asked, " you called me over. You must have something important to tell me, right? "

"mr. shen, you should know about the space seed, right?" qin lin asked directly.

Shen Li nodded. the color-changing tree that professor Li Kai cultivated is one of them. I've seen the information and condition of the color-changing tree. It's really amazing.

"When Minister Lu brought the color-changing tree back, I even arranged for an escort vehicle."

qin lin nodded and passed the bag of bubble grass seeds to shen li. he said, this is another type of space Seed. It was brought back from outer space together with the one that brother li cultivated. Take this seed back and arrange for a botanist team to cultivate this thing. As for the relevant information, I'll send it to your email through the management app.

Shen Li was a little surprised to hear Qin Lin's words. After all, it was a space plant.

Before this, he had never even heard of the existence of plants outside of earth. Now, they appeared in front of him one after another.

"Alright, Chairman Qin." Shen Li nodded and returned to Linlin's laboratory with the seed.

As soon as he arrived at his office, he saw the information on the space Seed.

this thing was called bubble grass.

What shocked him even more was the effect of the soak grass.

Chapter 1312 586-One Year Old!

According to the information, he could naturally see how great the prospects would be if this thing was cultivated.

Just the identity of the space plant and the characteristics of the bubbles on the grass would cause a rush, right?

Not to mention that it had such a great effect.

He immediately picked up his phone and made a call, starting to arrange the planting of the soaked grass.

Linlin Manor.

After Qin Lin finished arranging the bubble grass, he returned to the office, and Zhao mochen and Lin Fen came.

Lin Fen was carrying little Qin Feng.

Yang was following behind the two girls.

The crocodile seemed to be used to little Qin Feng playing on its back. It liked to stick to little Qin Feng.

After all, if its master didn't want to pay attention to it, it could just play with its little master.

"lin lin, i didn't invite anyone else in my hometown, but i did invite your uncle dashan and uncle shuigen," lin fen said as soon as she entered the house.

"that's what i should do!" Qin Lin nodded. Because little Qin Feng was about to turn one year old, they would be holding a one-year-old party. According to the custom, little Qin Feng would have to catch a few weeks off.

With his current status, if he wanted to hold this banquet, the number of people who wanted to come would not even be enough to book the entire Zhong min hotel.

Therefore, he didn't want to make it a big one. He just invited some familiar people to the Linlin Manor.

People like uncle Dashan and uncle shuichan had helped their family before, so they had to be invited.

Time passed.

It was also time for little Qin Feng's first birthday party.

Linlin Manor began to get busy.

Early in the morning, Gao Yaoyao had been ordering the waiters around in the main hall.

The original waitresses were not enough, so she had specially transferred a few clever waitresses from Linlin villa over.

After all, it was little boss's birthday party, so he couldn't be careless.

In the kitchen.

Master Lin was also busy with the chef. He had also transferred the head chef and chef from Linlin villa.

A basket of blue vegetables and fish was carried into the kitchen to be cleaned.

These were all quality 2 ingredients that Qin Lin had taken out from the game. He had to prepare more for his son's birthday party.

In the wine cellar.

Qin Lin also pushed the cart to the corner. The cart was still covered with foam to prevent the wine from sliding down.

When he reached the corner of the wine cellar, he picked up a small wine barrel that was half a meter tall and put it on the cart.

Inside the barrel was Fen wine.

Other than food, the first birthday banquet naturally required wine.

This barrel of wine had been brought out of the game before, and it had been decades.

Quality 2 ingredients plus decades-old wine-the grade of his son's one-month-old party was incomparable to the banquets outside.

After all, no matter how rich he was, he couldn't get so many quality 2 ingredients.

No matter how rich he was, he couldn't buy a barrel of Fenjiu that was decades old at once.

Qin Lin packed the barrel of wine, pushed it out of the wine cellar, and transported it to the manor's dining room.

he instructed gao yaoyao to keep a close eye on her before returning to the inner area.

The inner area was where Linlin's family lived. No one else had a way to enter, not even Li Qing and Chen shengfei.

But today, many people had come in.

as soon as qin lin entered the inner area, he saw his mother-in-law, chen zhao, happily carrying little qin feng and helping to entertain uncle dashan and uncle shuigen.

His father-in-law, Zhao xianhong, was also chatting with them.

His brother-in-law, Zhao Mo Yun, was making tea with Qin Ren, Qin Long, and the other young people.

The tea leaves were naturally Tieguanyin tea leaves of Grade 2.

It was rare for them to drink this kind of tea, so they obviously enjoyed it.

"Hubby, come here for a moment." zhao moxi saw qin lin return and pulled him to the table on the balcony.

Qin Long's wife, Shanshan, was also on the table.

this shanshan was the best friend of zhao moxiang's wife, li jiawen. the first time she met her, she had a deep impression of her ex-boyfriend.

The guy behind them had been fishing for a White Yellow tiger in the reservoir for a long time.

Later, he was a little surprised that Shanshan and Qin Long got together. It could only be said that fate was ingenious, and his circle of friends had digested it.

shanshan was still carrying qin long's child in her arms. however, her eyes were a little red and she looked aggrieved.

"what's going on?" qin lin asked, puzzled.

"Qin Long has misunderstood Shanshan. He thinks that she's in a relationship with another man," Zhao moyin explained.

"Eh!" Qin Lin was stunned when he heard this. He asked, " "Why would you misunderstand me for no reason?"

it's just a classmate I've known for more than ten years, " Shanshan said, feeling wronged. we used to be very close, so we had a late-night snack together.

because I used to be close to her, and there were other classmates at the time, so they joked that I was that classmate's woman. I've already stopped joking with them, but who knew that the joke would spread out of the table and reach ah Long's ears.

"Qin Long must have misunderstood this. Hubby, can you explain it to us?" Zhao mochen also said.

"Eh!" Qin Lin remained silent.

to be honest, he didn't know how to comment on this kind of thing.

After all, there was something wrong with the fact that such a messy thing could spread out over a late-night snack and even reach Qin Long's ears.

at the very least, it showed that these people who ate supper were a bunch of messy people.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have played such tricks after going out with a girl.

Moreover, to be honest, although he had never done such a thing before, as a man, he still understood such things and such thoughts.

Everyone knew what men were thinking at the table. They all wanted to find a few women to liven up the atmosphere.

They would never invite their girlfriends or wives for such a drinking session. They would only invite other women in their circle of friends.

Chapter 1313 586-One Year Old!

It was nothing more than finding a free-of-charge partner.

Of course, it would be great if he could play for free since he didn't have to be responsible for it.

But many women didn't understand this logic and wouldn't avoid suspicion.

Once you agree to this kind of drinking session, people will think that you can invite them and should be very casual, and they will start to test you.

First of all, he would make all kinds of dirty jokes. If you didn't mind, he would take it a step further. Maybe he would even touch you.

In the future, there would be rumors. In addition to these people being a mess, the woman herself was also responsible.

In any case, women had to remember one thing. Men's drinking sessions were not simple.

When you agreed to this drinking session, you had to be prepared for this kind of messy thing to happen.

of course, if you already have this intention, it's nothing to mess it up.

If he didn't have this intention, then he would avoid suspicion and not go.

Therefore, Qin Long might have misunderstood this matter, but he would definitely not participate in it.

Seeing that Zhao moyin was about to say something, his phone rang at the same time. He picked up the call and left, not wanting to get involved in this matter.

After this, he should also talk to Zhao moyin about it. This kind of thing could only be solved by the couple themselves. Outsiders would only deepen the conflict.

It was Chen Sheng Fei.

He, Li Qing, and Marvin were also invited.

The three of them were one of the few friends Qin Lin had in the outside world.

Qin Lin answered the call and went out of the inner area to welcome him.

This time, Chen shengfei and the other two came with their wives. Lin Liu and the other two were also carrying their daughters in their arms.

"Qin Lin, congratulations. In the blink of an eye, little Qin Feng is already one year old," Chen shengfei congratulated.

"Yeah, time flies." marvin agreed.

today, little Qin Feng is here to catch Zhou, " Li Qing said. I've prepared something good for him.

Qin Lin looked at Li Qing's mysterious expression and felt that there was more to it.

However, he didn't dwell on it. It was just something for the child to catch.

he also called gao yaoyao over and asked her to arrange rooms for chen shengfei and the others. they definitely wouldn't be able to go back tonight.

Very quickly, Master Lin had also brought people to prepare a sumptuous spread of food. Each dish and the decades-old Fen wine were placed on the table.

Naturally, everyone enjoyed the first birthday banquet.

when the meal was over, it was time for little qin feng to catch up.

The location of the Zhou capture was still inside the manor, and the invited people were all invited back to the inner area.

The inner hall was also covered with a layer of soft cushion, and little Qin Feng was placed on it.

Lin Fen and Zhao Moyu had already started to place all sorts of things on the table.

There were abacuses, calculators, books, rulers, coins, pens, seals, fake swords, and so on.

qin lin could understand this.

however, when he saw meat, celery, and scallions, he could not understand.

During the Zhou-catching, the guests could also bring things into the Zhou-catching pool.

So, in a short while, there were credit cards, bank cards, keyboards, washboards, durians, banknotes, and other things on the cushion.

In any case, there were all kinds of them.

In ancient times, capturing the Zhou Dynasty had a special meaning. People would be very careful when capturing the Zhou Dynasty. However, in modern times, no one believed in this. Therefore, it was just a fun atmosphere.

Little Qin Feng was obviously not interested in the things placed in front of him. He did not grab anything like other children when they saw things in front of them.

after li qing saw that the others had put down their things, he also stepped forward mysteriously, took out something, and put it on the cushion.

When everyone saw what he had placed, they were all stunned.

It can even be done like this?

Chapter 1314 Release My Daughter! Fairy Tale Mountain Opens! 1

The item that Li Qing took out really shocked everyone.

He took out a photo, a very beautiful photo.

There was a baby girl in the photo. Who else could it be but his daughter?

Qin Lin's face twitched when he saw Li Qing showing his son his daughter's photo.

They had seen people bring things for their friend's son, but had they ever seen people give their daughter's photo to their friend's son as a gift?

Li Qing was probably the first one.

"Qin Lin, the gift I prepared for little Qin Feng is not bad, right?" if little Qin Feng has my daughter's photo, then my daughter will be his, " Li Qing said proudly. we've decided on the betrothal.

"tsk." qin lin didn't know how to answer.

when did li qing become such a sixth brother?

"Li Qing, I didn't expect you to really do such a thing." Chen shengfei was stunned. He stepped forward and took out a photo, placing it on the cushion.

It was also his daughter's photo, and it was very beautiful.

Chen shengfei did not forget to say to little Qin Feng, " "Little Qin Feng, take a look. Isn't this sister pretty? She'll be your girlfriend and wife in the future. You have to choose her later."

marvin seemed to be willing to show weakness and also took out a photo.

It was also a photo of his daughter, and the photo was also very beautiful.

He also placed the photo in front of little Qin Feng and made a face to tease him. little Qin Feng, quickly look over here. This sister is the most beautiful and gentle. You have to choose her. A beautiful and gentle sister will be very happy to be your lover.

"ran ran." qin lin looked at the three of them with a scrutinizing look.

Did the three of them discuss this beforehand?

The others also looked at this scene in shock.

Especially Qin Dashan and Qin shuigen. They had never thought that Chen shengfei and MA Levin, the big tycoons, would have such a side to them.

Naturally, he was envious.

After all, who wouldn't want their son and grandson to be so popular?

this rich man was fighting to give it to his daughter.

However, they also knew that not everyone in the world could have the same treatment as little Qin Feng.

Who asked little Qin Feng to be born with a good father?

Li Qing looked at Chen shengfei and Marvin in disbelief, " "how did you guys know?"

He had carefully prepared this for little Qin Feng's Zhou capture, but who knew that these two guys had also prepared it.

he didn't believe that chen shengfei and marvin had the same thoughts as him.

That was impossible.

How could he have telepathic thoughts with two men?

"Li Qing, our wives have been doing beauty treatments together," Chen shengfei said proudly.

"Yeah," "We didn't expect you to do something like this, Li Qing." Marvin smiled and nodded.

Li Qing finally understood.

Women were bad things.

Otherwise, his daughter would be little Qin Feng's only choice now.

At the side, Li Kai's face was already extremely dark.

He had never thought that someone would do such a shameless thing. He quickly turned to Tang xiuwan, who was holding his daughter, and asked, " xiuwan, do you have a photo of our daughter? "

Tang xiuwan immediately understood what li Shixiong meant. He wanted to join in the fun.

She immediately hit him with her elbow and said, " " senior brother li, don't mess around. even if there are photos, they're at home. "

"hehe," li kai sighed.

How could Li Qing and the other two be like this?

Seeing that someone was trying to snatch his son-in-law away, Li Qing did not dare to hesitate and said to Qin Lin, "Qin Lin, let little Qin Feng catch Zhou. I know that our two families will definitely be engaged when we're young."

Chen Shengfei immediately chimed in. Li Qing, don't do that. It's clearly an arranged marriage between my Ningning and little Qin Feng.

"We don't know whose daughter we've caught yet," Marvin said, not willing to be outdone.

Qin Lin shook his head.

How could these three be so confident that their son would choose their daughter's photo?

At this time, little Qin Feng's capture week had naturally begun.

After his grandmother Chen Zhao let him go, the little guy babbled and looked at the things in front of him happily.

After a while, he crawled two steps and grabbed a small colorful pen.

Seeing this, Zhao Xianhong smiled and said, "Yes, I caught a pen. Not bad. I might like to write novels in the future."

As if he understood his grandfather's words, little Qin Feng immediately threw the pen away.

It was as if he knew that there was no future in writing novels. It was impossible for him to write novels.

Then, he crawled in front of the durian and tried to hold it with his hands.

"Pfft!" Zhao Moyun couldn't help but laugh when he saw this.

Because he was the one who put the durians there.

He was also the one who placed the washboard and keyboard.

He naturally knew what this meant.

They were all for kneeling.

This little nephew wouldn't f*cking choose durians, right?

When Li Jiawen saw this, she knew that it was her husband's doing. She glared at him fiercely and said, "Hubby, is this your doing? If little Qin Feng chooses durians, I'll buy you 10 when we get back and let you kneel down."

"Ah!!!!" Zhao Moyun was in pain.

He had only thought it was fun and made a joke.

It seemed that as soon as Li Jiawen said that, little Qin Feng let go of the durian and went around it. Then, he came to a bill.

It was also a good thing if he could get money. Catching Zhou and getting money also had a good meaning, representing a lifetime of wealth and prosperity.

However, little Qin Feng did not seem to care about the money at all. He climbed over and sat on the coins.

Chapter 1315 Release My Daughter! Fairy Tale Mountain Opens! 2

then, things got interesting.

There were three pictures of the girls in front of Qin Feng.

Qin Lin, " Li Qing said immediately, " your son took my daughter. He's my son-in-law now.

"That's right. At this time, based on strength, whoever catches their daughter will have her." Chen shengfei also added.

that's it, " Marvin nodded. it's up to little Qin Feng to choose.

"Ran ran." Qin Lin was speechless.

Little Qin Feng was only one year old, how could he be interested in a girl's photo?

he didn't believe that his son would take their daughter's photo.

however, as soon as he thought of this, he saw little qin feng crawl to the three photos and reach out to grab the photo of li qing's daughter.

" ? ? ? ? "Qin Lin was dumbfounded. He felt as if he had been slapped in the face by little Qin Feng.

This little guy didn't give his father any face?

li qing's face was full of joy. " qin lin, did you see that? little qin feng has made his own choice. can we set the child's marriage? "

However, as soon as he finished speaking, he saw little Qin Feng grab the photo of Chen shengfei's daughter again.

Chen shengfei added, " Li Qing, that doesn't count. Little Qin Feng has my daughter's photo now. Your daughter is in the past.

Who knew that little Qin Feng would actually put Chen Sheng Fei and Li Qing's daughter's photo above MA Levin's daughter's photo.

The three cards were stacked together.

Little Qin Feng happily patted the three photos with his little hands, as if he was playing with building blocks.

Otherwise, how could a child have so many thoughts?

This scene caused Chen shengfei, MA Levin, and Li Qing to look at each other.

"The little guy won't want all three, right?" Chen shengfei said in shock.

"So greedy?" Li Qing exclaimed.

"Then whose is this?" Marvin asked.

While the three of them were talking, someone finally couldn't stand it anymore. Li Kai said to the three of them with a righteous tone, "Can the three of you stop embarrassing yourselves here? What's the relationship between little Qin Feng and your daughter? He's clearly my future son-in-law. Is your relationship as good as mine and old Brother Qin's?"

after saying that, he took his daughter from tang xiuwan's arms and started to create a hype.

He directly put his daughter on the wall of little Qin Feng. He really thought of his daughter as an object to catch a week.

He didn't forget to ask Qin Lin, "don't you think so, old Brother Qin?" We're the closest."

"Ran ran." Qin Lin covered his face.

This old brother Li was clearly a high-level intellectual, but why was he even crazier than old Chen and old Ma?

Tang xiuwan's face turned red as she watched her senior brother's actions.

It was as if he was afraid that no one would want his daughter and was in a hurry to give her away.

But thinking about it, if it was little Qin Feng, and Mo Xiao and his wife were willing, it would be good to set an engagement.

All of a sudden, senior brother Li's behavior didn't seem to be too crazy.

Little Qin Feng was suddenly shocked by the girl in front of him.

However, children loved to have fun and friends. They would happily pull Li Kai's daughter along and giggle.

Chen Sheng Fei, Ma Li Wen, and Li Qing were left at a loss by Li Kai's killing move.

The three of them looked at each other and realized that the real sixth brother was here.

The thinking of the three of them was a little erratic, and even more different from that of ordinary people. So, how could they admit defeat at this time?

Chen shengfei went to his lover's side, picked up his daughter, and placed her in front of little Qin Feng.

Li Qing and Marvin couldn't stand it. They carried their daughter and placed her next to Qin Feng.

Now, there were four girls surrounding little Qin Feng.

Little Qin Feng was even happier. He giggled and clapped his little hands at the same time.

most importantly, this little guy knew how to be fair. he would pull one big sister and another one.

It even knew how to grab different fish and put them in the hands of the four girls, as if it was dividing the fruits.

This was probably the first time he had seen so many playmates.

What was the point of catching Zhou now? it had turned into a scene of little children playing.

It was just that Chen Sheng Fei, Ma Li Wen, Li Qing, and Li Kai suddenly didn't see eye to eye with each other. They didn't forget to snort at each other.

Lin Fen and Chen Zhao were naturally very happy to see this.

Little Qin Feng was popular with girls. When he grew up, he would not have to worry about not having a wife.

In fact, in the eyes of their grandmothers, it would be good if they could get engaged first. At least, they could book a lover for little Qin Feng first.

Of course, modern society didn't allow it. Otherwise, they would have thought that it would be good to have four of them.

At their age, it should be fine for them to be a little greedy, right?

Qin Lin looked at the four girls who were playing happily with little Qin Feng, but he was a little worried. There were too many childhood sweethearts, and he didn't know if they would become emotional debts.

Then, he laughed at himself. How old was this little brat? Why was he worried about this?

Little Qin Feng's hunt had become very lively because of Chen Shengfei, Ma Lewen, Li Kai, and Li Qing's interference.

After that, Zhao Moshu and Lin Fen also brought some people to the villa and the ranch to play.

Since they had invited him to little Qin Feng's birthday party, they couldn't just leave after eating. They had to play the role of a host.

In the evening, he sent Qin Dashan and Qin Shuigen off.

As for Chen Sheng Fei and the rest, they stayed there.

The next day.

He saw little Qin Feng riding little Yang around the manor's hall to play.

By now, Lin Fen and Zhao Mochen were very assured of little Yang. Even if they didn't look at him, they knew that little Yang would carefully take care of his little master.

At the side.

Lin Liu and the other girls also looked at this scene curiously with their daughters in their arms.

To them, crocodiles were very dangerous animals, especially one this big.

But they really didn't expect boss Qin to be able to tame such a big crocodile so well, and let little Qin Feng ride it so meekly.

It was only then that they remembered that in addition to the titles of genius, chef, and internet celebrity rider, boss Qin had also given squirrel the title of Beast Tamer when he first made squirrel perform in the triangular plum blossom sea.

Outsiders would never have thought that boss Qin could train a crocodile to this extent.

In the arms of Lin Liu and the other girls, their daughters were also looking at little Qin Feng and little Yang curiously. They even felt that it was fun. They even reached out to little Qin Feng, as if they wanted to play too.

Naturally, Lin Liu and the others didn't dare to let their daughters go over. Who knew if the crocodile would be as gentle to their daughter as it was to little Qin Feng?

Time passed day by day, and as the weather gradually cooled, the tourism industry around the country began to gradually decline.

On a cold day, other than those tourists who had a special preference for winter, most tourists did not want to go out.

The only places that weren't affected were the scenic spots that specialized in winter events.

Naturally, your city's tourism industry was not affected. Instead, it became more and more popular.

With the warm winter and cool summer, your city was the perfect time for a vacation.

Linlin Villa and Linlin Ranch were even less likely to be affected. Previously, the weather in your city had not changed, and in the middle of winter, the city was full of tourists.

Moreover, another project of Linlin Manor was about to be opened, and that was the fairy tale mountain.

Fairy tale mountain.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moyu were both here, accompanied by Lin Lanzi who introduced them.

It could be seen that the transformation of the entire fairy tale mountain was almost complete.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moxi soon arrived at the top of fairy tale mountain and saw the shocking scene.

The greenhouse tree was magical, beautiful, and had many game attributes.

The greenhouse on the top of the mountain had been specially designed by Lin Han and the other designers. The distribution of the sections was reasonable, and the decoration was perfect. With the intertwining green plants, it was perfect.

It could be said that even if one didn't live in the greenhouse Tree Community to experience the attributes of the greenhouse trees, just looking at it would still be extremely beautiful.

Most importantly, this wasn't the most beautiful time yet, because the mutated space vine and the mutated Night Queen had yet to take effect.

When the mutated space vine and the mutated Night Queen came into play, their attributes could turn this place into a fairy world.

On the side, Yu Shui had already brought people to pull open the curtains around the mutated space vines and the mutated Night Queen.

The reason fairy tale mountain hadn't been completely renovated before was to prevent people from discovering the abnormality of these plants, so they had covered it with these curtains.

Now that fairy tale mountain had been renovated, it could be opened to the public.

Fairy tale mountain was bound to shock all the tourists tonight.

Chapter 1316 588! The Shocking Fairy Tale Mountain! The Real Fairy Tale World

Yu Shui quickly brought people to remove the curtains covering the mutant space vines and the mutant Night Queen.

When Qin Lin, Zhao Mochen, and Lin Lanzi entered the greenhouse tree community, Lin Han was cleaning up the scene with his senior brothers and sisters.

One could see that they were all smiling and looking at the greenhouse Tree Community in front of them with satisfaction. This was the proud work of their joint efforts.

It was also the best housing estate project they had ever done.

On this mountaintop, it was like a paradise.

When they were working on the design, they didn't expect the finished product to be so beautiful.

Naturally, they did not know that the greenhouse tree had game attributes.

They could even imagine how romantic and wonderful it would be to watch the sunrise in this place.

Moreover, Linlin Manor had already promised them that they would use the names of the designers during the promotion. They were also allowed to mention fairy tale mountain when promoting their finished products.

When fairy tale mountain became popular, they would get huge benefits.

When Lin Han saw Qin Lin, Zhao Mochen, and Lin Lanzi, she immediately went up and greeted them, " " president Qin, president Zhao, president Lin, you're here. Shall I show you around the greenhouse community? "

The three of them nodded.

Lin Han led the way into the flower house community, and as they walked, she did not forget to introduce, " the greenhouse tree is divided into three parts, forming a semi-arc. We should try to maintain the situation where we can see the sunrise even within the greenhouse tree area.

At the same time, we've also interwoven the mutated space vine and the mutated Night Queen in the greenhouse. We're using modern red mist.

Lin Han clearly knew a lot about the greenhouse tree that she had designed. She explained it as she walked and talked eloquently.

after a more detailed understanding of the greenhouse tree community, qin lin was more and more satisfied. it was indeed well done.

After that, Qin Lin brought Zhao Moxi down fairy tale mountain by cable car.

From the cable car, they could now see the various facilities inside fairy tale mountain more clearly. In addition to the greenhouse and Tree Community on the top of the mountain, there were three camping areas.

These camping areas were all tented, and they were also planted with mutated space vines and mutated Night Queen.

When the camping areas and greenhouse trees opened, it would alleviate the accommodation problem of tourists to a large extent.

They could stay directly inside the Linlin Scenic Area, and he believed that many tourists would not choose to stay in you city.

Therefore, it was not hard to imagine that the camping ground would be on fire.

Back at Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin saw Lin Fen playing with little Qin Feng. There were a few little girls next to them. They were the daughters of Chen shengfei and the others.

Chen shengfei and the rest had already returned to Ming city. After all, they were all big bosses and had a lot of daily matters to attend to. Only Lin Liu and the others stayed in the manor with their children to recuperate.

For a family like theirs, it was a simple thing to come to Linlin Manor often to recuperate. They did not lack money.

Moreover, they were indeed the envy of everyone.

After all, Linlin Manor had long been famous throughout the country. Everyone knew that it was the best vacation Manor in the country. No one could come here even if they wanted to. No matter how rich they were, they couldn't come if boss Qin didn't agree.

However, they could stay here often. It could only be said that their old man had a friend who was the envy of everyone.

Because Lin Liu and the others were staying there, little Qin Feng had more playmates. The ground was covered with a soft cushion, and the children climbed around, playing very happily.

Zhao Mo sneaked over and joined Lin Liu and the others, chatting while looking after the child.

Qin Lin went back to his office and started his daily tasks for the day, such as fishing and triggering plot tasks.

Unfortunately, it was another unlucky day.

However, you city's luck this year was very good. There was an endless stream of tourists, climate change, and a national treasure fish Nature Reserve, which overloaded you city's capacity to entertain tourists.

It was unbelievable that a city would have such a problem. It meant that the city had developed the tourism industry to the extreme, and no one in the country could compare.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili were very good friends. They were print models and could earn a lot of money in a year because of their good looks and excellent performance.

They had been reading a lot of news about you city and were curious about it. This year, the two of them had made an appointment to go to you city for a vacation.

They were lucky to be able to book the nuptial rooms at Linlin Manor on the first and second day. At the same time, they also booked a room at a homestay in you city for half a month.

coming to a city with such a climate for a vacation, they naturally had to take a good rest. moreover, they could do a lot of work remotely, using their mobile phones to take photos and videos and send them over.

They arrived at Linlin villa, took their ID cards, and checked in at the fastest speed.

After putting everything in the bridal chamber, Zhu Yuanyuan asked, " "Lili, where are we going to play first?"

"let's go to drifting!" I haven't been drifting for a long time, " Wang Lili said immediately. I heard that the drifting in Linlin villa is the most fun in the world.

"Yeah, I've heard about it too," zhu yuanyuan said.

linlin villa's drifting was indeed famous both domestically and overseas.

The popularity of Linlin villa had not only attracted domestic tourists, but also many foreign tourists.

Foreigners, after all, liked to play exciting games, so drifting was a must.

Chapter 1317 588! The Shocking Fairy Tale Mountain! The Real Fairy Tale World

Therefore, after the foreign tourists had played the drifting in Linlin villa, they were influenced by the +3 fun in the river and +3 fun in the water.

After the first time, these foreign tourists could not help but queue up for the second time, and then the third time, "

Anyway, the foreign tourists were having fun.

When these tourists returned to the country, they would naturally promote the drifting in Linlin villa, saying that it was the most fun drifting in the world.

There were also some drifting enthusiasts who did not believe in the game and came here just for it, but they also became addicted to it. The game's attributes were something that no one could resist.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili had to queue for a long time before it was their turn. They put on their protective gear and entered the river.

Similarly, as soon as the two entered the river, they were affected by the Kappa's happy stone.

The two of them had fun and even forgot that they wanted to take photos and videos. They only got off the kayaks when they reached the finish line.

"lili," zhu yuanyuan couldn't help but say, "the drifting in linlin villa is as fun as the rumors say!"

yeah, " Wang Lili nodded. if it weren't for the fact that it's already dark, I'd really like to play it again.

The two girls could only express their regret.

Then, they went to the restaurant in Linlin Mountain Villa. They had arrived late, so they naturally couldn't go to the Linlin shopping center to buy things like the beauty eggs and beauty cucumbers. They could only wait until early the next morning to get them.

Today, they could only eat the regular food of Linlin villa.

however, even if it was a regular meal, the restaurant also had various quality 1 vegetables provided by the plantation department, which were still better than the dishes of any other restaurant.

After having dinner at Linlin restaurant, Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili walked out of the restaurant. Suddenly, they heard someone exclaim, " "ah, what's that?"

"that mountain is glowing, what's going on?" Another tourist said.

Following that, more and more surprised voices were heard.

"Good drifting, what's up with this one and that one?"

it's amazing. It looks like a mountain from a fairy tale!

"Linlin Manor seems to be developing that mountain."

"....."

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili heard the exclamations and came out in confusion. They followed the tourists' gazes and were stunned. Then, shock slowly appeared on their faces.

In the dark night, the distant mountain peaks should be hidden in the dark and invisible to others.

However, the mountain in the distance was covered in a mysterious light that made people feel very comfortable.

In the dark night, the mountain glowed as if it had suddenly appeared from a fairy tale.

"It's so beautiful!" Zhu Yuanyuan didn't know how to describe it, so she could only say these three words.

wang lili nodded and stared at the mountain.

but what was going on with that mountain? Why was it glowing like this?

It wasn't a light created by technology. The light was gentler, more natural, and had an indescribable spirituality.

Everyone was shocked and curious.

then, many tourists who saw this scene couldn't help but take out their mobile phones and take pictures of the mountain.

No matter what, he had to take a video of such a magical scene and post it on his WeChat moments, uploading it as a video.

Moreover, it wasn't just in front of the Qinglin restaurant. All over the Linlin villa and the Linlin Ranch, tourists also saw it and couldn't help but take out their phones to take pictures.

You city. After the opening of the third ring Road, many you city people chose this road because it could go directly from the east of the city to the West.

This was the best route for many logistics workers who transported goods across cities.

Guo Qisheng was such a driver. The opening of the third ring Road really made his work a lot easier. He did not need to go through the traffic jam in the Urban area and could arrive at the station directly.

Tonight, he was going to deliver a batch of water. As he drove to the upper Third Ring Road, he looked into the distance and his eyes revealed a look of disbelief.

What was going on with that mountain in the distance?

The mountain was glowing?

He had been walking ever since the third ring was opened. The mountain before was not like this at all. It suddenly glowed.

it was so unbelievable that he couldn't help but stop the car and take out his phone to take a picture of the mountain.

After all, it was him. Along the way, many cars could not help but stop.

If a mountain suddenly glowed tonight, it wouldn't attract much attention.

In a short time, the WeChat moments of you city people exploded. Many people logged in to WeChat and found that their moments were flooded by a glowing mountain.

Moreover, the glowing mountain was indescribably beautiful, as if it had come from a science fiction world.

not only you cheng.

on the internet, mouyin was quickly flooded by the mountain that glowed in the dark.

There were too many tourists who had filmed the video and uploaded it. In addition, the video had the label of Linlin villa, so it was difficult not to be added to the traffic pool.

Chen Xue had always been paying attention to the situation at Linlin villa. In addition, she had already obtained the qualification to intern at Linlin villa and would be doing her internship next year. As a result, she was paying more attention to Linlin villa than before.

The first thing she saw was a video posted by a tourist at Linlin villa.

Looking at the magical mountain that glowed in the dark in the video, she couldn't help but say to her other best friends in the dormitory, " come and take a look. Linlin villa seems to have a new project. The whole mountain is glowing.

A few of her close friends from the dormitory came over and saw the video.

Because of Chen Xue, the few of them had been paying close attention to Linlin Manor.

The video was obviously taken by a tourist from Linlin villa on a mountain in the distance. The mountain glowed in the night and was really beautiful.

The light was not the light of ordinary technology, but it was very natural and harmonious, and it was incredible.

"What project is this from Linlin villa? Xiaoxue, quickly ask." One of her best friends asked hurriedly, obviously attracted by the scene.

Chen xuehan had been working part-time at the Linlin Manor during the summer break and knew many of the employees there.

She immediately found a middle-level manager and asked. Soon, she knew the whole story and immediately said to her friends, " " it's fairy tale mountain, a project that linlin villa is about to open. furthermore, linlin villa will be releasing an announcement soon. "

This attracted a few of her close friends.

Fairy tale mountain. Hearing the name and thinking of the light that the mountain emitted, it felt very fitting.

They immediately clicked on Linlin Manor's official account. Sure enough, a new video was uploaded a moment later.

The title was Linlin villa's new project-fairytale mountain.

Chen Xue immediately opened the video.

As soon as the video started, they were shocked. It was obviously a picture taken by a drone from the sky. The entire mountain was captured in it. From the long distance to the close distance, they could gradually see the interior of the mountain.

this kind of shock was not something that the tourists could compare to when they were filming from a distance with their mobile phones.

Soon, a Valley appeared in the video. Chen Xue and the others were attracted by the valley and couldn't turn their eyes away.

in the valley, there were beautiful tents set up and surrounded by beautiful green plants. in the middle of the green plants, there were glowing vines and night queens.

the fluorescent light they emitted enveloped the surroundings, setting off the green plants, and setting off the entire valley into a fairy tale world.

They seemed to understand why this mountain was called fairy tale mountain.

But this was too beautiful. If she could live in these tents in the valley, she would also become a person from a fairy tale, right?

The video moved, and they soon entered the mountains. They could see that there were also many tunnels in the mountains. The tunnels were also filled with glowing plants and green plants. The scene in the video was more beautiful and attractive than any Botanical Garden.

Chen Xue and the others suddenly had the thought of going to fairy tale mountain to stay for a while. They wanted to take a stroll along the mountain path.

Not only them, but many people on the internet had been following the Linlin Manor's official website after seeing the video taken by the tourists.

When the promotional video was released, everyone had seen it. When they saw the valley and the mountain path, they were all attracted.

soon, the video went through two more campsite camps. these two camps were also very beautiful and attractive.

in the end, everyone saw the image quickly moving up the mountain and appearing at the top.

When the greenhouse at the top of the mountain appeared, everyone was so shocked that they couldn't look away.

it was as if a real fairy tale world had been placed in front of him.

Chapter 1318 Boss Qin Is You City's Benefactor!

The greenhouse tree had a game attribute, which was A +2 photogenic effect.

In the video, the beauty of the greenhouse trees was indescribable.

just a greenhouse tree alone was enough to make people unable to look away.

Now that it was a flower greenhouse community, the intertwining of the +2 photogenic appeal was spectacular.

In addition to the special fluorescent light of the mutated space vine and the mutated Night Queen, the shock was even deeper.

In the video, a voice also said, "

"Ran ran, this is a new project that Linlin Manor will be opening up: Fairy tale mountain was a project carefully built by Linlin Manor. Not only could one take the cable car for a tour, but one could also experience the fairy-tale world illuminated by the fairy-tale vines and flowers at night.

At the same time, fairy tale mountain would also open up four accommodation projects, three of which would be tents.

The last one is the final greenhouse Tree Community on the top of the mountain. Besides accommodation, you can also watch sunrise."

Chen Xue and a few of her close friends were deeply attracted by the greenhouse Tree Community.

They had no words to describe it.

After hearing the introduction in the video, they only nodded in their hearts and agreed to spend the night in the greenhouse community.

The internet was also shocked by the promotional video posted by the official account of Linlin villa.

Many of the people who paid attention to Linlin Manor had long been paying attention to the greenhouse tree.

Back when the greenhouse tree event was held, the entire internet was filled with news about the greenhouse tree.

Everyone had thought about how Linlin Manor would develop the greenhouse tree, but other than planting greenhouse tree decorations in the manor and ranches for tourists to rest, no one had seen Linlin Manor do anything else to the greenhouse tree.

However, he did not expect Linlin villa to silently come up with a greenhouse and Tree Community project.

for a time, the internet was bustling with activity.

666, I knew that Linlin villa would never disappoint!

"The environment of this tent is better than that of Linlin Ranch, especially the greenhouse Tree Community on the top of the mountain."

"If I didn't see it with my own eyes, I wouldn't have believed that this is a beautiful scene in the human world!"

"....."

In a short time, the popularity of Linlin villa's fairy tale mountain had reached the top three.

The fans who followed Linlin villa basically knew about it.

After watching the video, they only had one thought in their minds, and that was to be the first to experience it.

Countless people clicked into the Linlin villa's online reservation page after watching the video.

Sure enough, the ticket sales of fairy tale mountain and the pre-booked connection of the tent camping area, the greenhouse tree sunrise viewing community appeared inside.

Unfortunately, when he clicked on the link, the service was not available yet. Instead, there was a 12-hour countdown timer.

This made people anxious. When the time came, who knew how many people would rush to buy it? at that time, it would be impossible to get it without the hand speed of a single person for five years.

In you City County.

The night was already dark.

However, the county was still brightly lit. Many staff members had not gotten off work because the leaders had not gotten off work and were still in meetings.

Indeed, sun Xian and Chen Xian had an overnight meeting. The main reason was that after the weather turned cold, you city's special climate had attracted more tourists. Their you city needed to make some changes.

Sun Xian took a document and said, " although a large hotel has been built in the new area, and homestay is popular everywhere in you city, it's still a bit of a burden for you city's tourism accommodation after the climate changes and the establishment of the nature reserve.

now that the weather in other places is getting colder, more tourists are attracted to you city's climate. We can't even satisfy the problem of accommodation anymore.

in addition, with the planting of crops from Linlin Manor and the expansion of Linlin company's factories in the entire County, as well as more and more enterprises being attracted to us, the effect of attracting investment is obvious, and we've also attracted a large number of migrant workers.

after our investigation, we found that many of these workers are interested in buying long-term housing in you city. So, the county has decided to open up a new area and carry out a second expansion of you city. In addition to housing, we want to build a bigger hotel!

his words caused a heated discussion in the meeting room.

you city had just developed a new area, and it was very large.

for an ordinary county, this was enough to meet the needs of the city. the new district might even be empty and sparsely populated.

however, you city was really different. the new district had just been built, but the houses had already been sold out. the people of you city had really earned a lot of money in the past two years.

The main thing was that the number of people gathering in the county had been increasing.

you city originally had a population of 450000. in the past, excluding the 100000 people in the rural towns and villages, and the people who went out to work, there were only about 250000 people in the county's cities.

after that, as you city developed, most of the people who went out to work came back. they either returned to the town or you city. there were more than 300000 people gathered in you city.

Now, not only you city people, but many people from other counties had also come to you city to find employment.

Because some people in you city really didn't want to work for others. Those who had land in the towns and villages would earn more by planting watermelons in Linlin's laboratory than working for others.

Therefore, Linlin company expanded its factories and more and more companies were attracted by you city. Gradually, it was difficult to recruit local people, so there were more and more migrant workers.

The main point was that Linlin company's salary was very high. The salary standards of foreign companies were also higher than that of ordinary County cities. Therefore, these foreign workers also wanted to settle in you city.

Chapter 1319 Boss Qin Is You City's Benefactor! He Stole Loneliness \(2\)

Currently, you city's population had already exceeded 450 thousand.

therefore, there was no need to worry about human flow and house purchase problems at all when the new district was opened. instead, it would reduce the pressure on the entire you city.

I didn't expect our you city to change so much in such a short time!

it should be said that from the moment boss Qin bought Linlin villa, no one thought he could bring such a big impact to you city.

that's true. Without the support of Linlin villa and Linlin company, our you city wouldn't have been able to develop to this point.

"....."

This was also a consensus in the county. Even if the climate change in you city attracted the Atlantic sturgeon and Atlantic pufferfish, it was all thanks to boss Qin.

if it wasn't for boss qin's opening of linlin manor, it wouldn't have attracted the two rich men, chen shengfei and ma lewen.

It was impossible for the two to invest 400 million Yuan to build the Linlin laboratory with boss Qin.

Even without boss Qin, the two tycoons would have invested 400 million Yuan. The Linlin laboratory might still be in Ming city.

If that had happened, it would have been even more impossible for professor Li Kai and boss Qin to become good friends and for him to develop something like the purification grass in Linlin's laboratory.

It was even more impossible for the purification grass to affect the special climate of you city, which was originally caused by the meteorite, and completely change the climate. It was even more impossible for it to attract the Atlantic sturgeons, Atlantic pufferfish, and those extinct national treasures.

in the end, it all started from the time boss qin bought linlin villa.

The root of all this was boss Qin.

It could be said that the entire you city was indebted to boss Qin.

Sometimes, he thought about it. If boss Qin hadn't bid for the villa and started the legend of Linlin villa, what would you city be like now?

the discussion for the new server quickly ended. those with foresight knew that you city would definitely expand to a new server. those without foresight wouldn't be able to sit in this meeting room.

After confirming the development of the new district, sun Xian announced the end of the meeting, leaving only Chen Li behind.

chen li was in charge of tourism, and you city's focus was on tourism.

When the two of them went to the office, they saw sun Xian's Secretary rushing in. "Sun County, Chen County, Linlin Manor has a new project."

The two of them were immediately attracted.

Linlin Manor had not had a new project for a long time.

then, the two of them thought of something. sun xian immediately asked, " has the development of that mountain been completed? "

Chen Li also looked at the Secretary with a curious expression.

That mountain was originally in a state of panic and was sparsely populated. So, when Linlin villa wanted to contract the mountain and the people from Hua hospital informed them, they naturally handed over the contract immediately.

however, they did not know what linlin villa had been developing in the mountains. they only knew that they had built a cable car and planted many greenhouse trees.

Linlin Manor had always been mysterious, so they didn't know much about it.

Moreover, they did not probe further and had always been confident in the Linlin Manor project.

The Secretary nodded and reported, " that's right. The development of that mountain has been completed, and it's about to be opened to the public. Linlin villa has called that mountain fairy tale mountain. Moreover, that fairy tale mountain is unimaginably shocking.

As he spoke, the Secretary's expression was still one of shock. Then, he took out the promotional video of Linlin Manor and handed it to sun Xian and Chen Li.

the video started.

Sun Xian and Chen Li's attention was attracted by the fairy tale mountain in the video.

As they watched, the two of them couldn't help but reveal shock in their eyes.

"as expected of linlin manor." Chen Li's face was filled with admiration.

Linlin Manor was still Linlin Manor, and all the development projects were shocking.

sun xian also nodded in agreement. " this is too shocking. boss qin's style is still amazing. "

The Secretary immediately said, " sun Xian, although the plants inside were cultivated and studied by boss Qin, the chief designer of fairy tale mountain this time is not boss Qin. It's Zhao moqian and President Zhao, Lin Lanzi and President Lin. Moreover, there are some young designers involved. There are notes at the end of the video.

This caused sun Xian and Chen Li to be stunned.

as far as they knew, the projects at linlin villa and linlin ranch had always been boss qin's handiwork. they didn't expect that this time, it was actually zhao moyin and lin lanzi's handiwork.

They naturally knew the two women. They were boss Qin's wife and the current general manager of Linlin villa.

Although the fairy tale mountain was still inseparable from the plants that boss Qin had been studying, it was not bad news.

After all, boss Qin's inspiration for the creation of a tourism project was limited. Now, there were other people in Linlin villa who could create such a magical project, even if it was with the help of boss Qin's research on plants. It was a good thing.

Next, sun Xian and Chen Li also clicked on the link to Linlin villa's reservation, wanting to see the reservation status of the fairy tale Mountain Project.

however, when the two of them clicked on the link, they were shocked to find that the predetermined interface was stuck and they couldn't enter it for a long time.

The two of them subconsciously looked at the internet. There was nothing wrong with the internet, which meant that the Linlin villa homepage had collapsed.

Linlin villa's internet server was the best, but it still crashed. It could be seen that the number of people who clicked on the link at the same time was beyond imagination.

sun xian and chen li subconsciously looked at each other. would this cause you city's traffic to collapse again?

Recently, the weather in other places had become cold, and countless people had been attracted to you city for a vacation. Now, Linlin Manor had such a shocking project.

The key point was that it was a mountain, which seemed to be able to accommodate a large number of tourists.

On the internet, those who clicked into fairy tale mountain also found out that the main page of fairy tale mountain had collapsed.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili were the same. They were stuck for a long time before they entered the main page.

The two of them saw the 12-hour countdown, and it was already the next morning after 12 o'clock.

Therefore, the two girls chose to go to bed early and set the alarm clock. They planned to get up the next day to book the tickets.

Moreover, they had set the alarm ten minutes earlier.

"Lili, one alarm clock is not enough!" "Just to be safe, let's set an alarm on our phones!" Zhu Qianqian said.

wang lili nodded and picked up her phone to set an alarm.

Moreover, he had set several alarm clocks in a row, with each alarm clock one minute apart.

This way, it would definitely be foolproof and they would not fail to get a ticket.

Time passed, and the second day soon arrived.

In the nuptial chamber, the alarm clock soon rang.

When Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili heard the alarm, they stood up almost in unison.

this was definitely the first time they had not woken up in a bad mood, because they were all thinking about getting tickets to fairy tale mountain.

However, when they got up in a hurry and picked up their phones to click on the fairy tale mountain reservation link, they were dumbfounded.

because the page was stuck again, they couldn't swipe in. both their phones were stuck.

The key was that the page didn't just freeze for a while or two, but for a long time.

"Why is it stuck again?" Wang Lili immediately became anxious.

they had set so many alarm clocks so that they could get up on time and buy tickets to fairy tale mountain, but who knew that they couldn't even get into the front page.

hurry up and go in. Hurry up and go in. Zhu Yuanyuan looked at the time and was a little anxious.

They had woken up ten minutes earlier so that they could enter the webpage as soon as possible and grab the tickets.

As time passed, the two women held their respective phones and looked more and more anxious, but they couldn't get in.

how many people were clicking on this page at the same time? otherwise, how could it be stuck like this?

Finally, under the two women's anxious eyes, Wang Lili's phone finally entered the page at the last second.

"it's here." Wang Lili was overjoyed. She quickly clicked on the option to book the fairy tale Mountain Gate ticket.

Zhu Yuanyuan also came over with anticipation.

However, as soon as Wang Lili clicked on the option, the screen froze again and a prompt that it was refreshing appeared.

after a few seconds, the interface refreshed again, but at this time, another prompt appeared: I'm very sorry. The tickets to fairy tale mountain have been sold out.

"wanwan " wang lili.

"Wanwan" Zhu Yuanyuan.

The two women were dumbfounded. It was sold out in just a few seconds?

They had made so many preparations, but what kind of loneliness had they stolen?

Chapter 1320 The One Chosen By Heaven! The Messenger Of Justice!

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili were both filled with disappointment.

What the hell was this?

He had set the alarm so many times for nothing, and he had been looking forward to it for nothing.

They just clicked on it, paused for a moment, and then it was over.

The two women could only start washing up in disappointment and then leave the bridal chamber.

The tickets to fairy tale mountain could not be booked, so he could only play the other events at Linlin villa first.

first, the two women went to the shopping center.

Since they were going to have fun, he had to buy some snacks, fruits, and two bottles of Linlin leisure tea.

snacks and fruits could fill one's stomach, and linlin leisure tea could replenish one's energy. they were indispensable for traveling. When the two women were about to pay the bill, they found that there were a lot of people around the checkout counter.

furthermore, he noticed that there was already a small mountain of goods under the feet of a fat man.

The two women were stunned.

Was this person here to travel or to make a big purchase?

There were also people who were like this. One of them even specially picked expensive things to buy. When it was time to pay, they were still swiping some two-dimensional code at the cashier.

zhu yuanyuan's curiosity was immediately piqued. she turned to the young man beside her, who was also carrying big and small bags, and asked, " "little brother, what are they doing? why did you buy so many things?"

the young man's eyes lit up when he saw zhu yuan yuan. after all, she must have a good figure and a delicate face if she could be a print model. she was a beauty in most people's eyes.

When he saw the pretty girl asking, the young man immediately explained enthusiastically, " "Didn't the Linlin Scenic Area open the Linlin fairy tale Mountain Project again?"

the online reservations have long been sold out, but Linlin villa has also taken out some fairy tale mountain tickets for a lucky draw.

"You guys know about the lucky draw, right? Linlin villa had done this a long time ago. If you spend 100 yuan, you can draw a prize and have the chance to get a free ticket to fairy tale mountain."

but there's a chance of winning the lottery. In theory, the more times you do it, the higher the chance of winning. These people don't lack money. As long as you win the lottery, there's a high chance that they'll leave without even looking at the things you bought.

"that's why i bought so many things. i want to play more."

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili's eyes lit up again.

They had thought that they had completely missed their first experience on fairy tale mountain. They did not expect that there would be such a way.

" f * ck, are you kidding me? i've already drawn more than 300 times and i still haven't won? " the fat tourist shouted in frustration.

then, he angrily walked back into the shopping center to buy things. he wouldn't stop until he won the lottery.

He did not know why he was so unlucky every time. In the past, when he had drawn the Supreme package, he had also failed to win a prize even once.

Even when he had won the lottery for eating the world's number one watermelon, he had kept refreshing the number of times, but he had never won.

Hearing the fat man's words, Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili paid the bill nervously because they didn't buy much.

the cashier said, " the total is 204 yuan. beauty, you can draw two times for free. if you have the chance, you can get a set of tickets to fairy tale mountain for free. "

Under the waiter's instructions, Zhu Yuanyuan began to scan the QR code.

the young man from earlier saw this and laughed, " " pretty girls, it's hard to win with two chances at the lottery. i can do it more times later and give you a free draw. "

Obviously, he was planning to show off. When he met a beautiful woman who took the initiative to hit on him, any man would have some dirty thoughts.

congratulations, you've received a fairy tale mountain ticket!

congratulations, you've received a fairy tale mountain ticket!

at the cashier, two voices rang out as zhu yuanyuan drew the lottery.

this sound made the surroundings suddenly quiet down, and everyone's breathing could be heard.

the young man was immediately embarrassed. he had just said that it was impossible for him to win the lottery twice, but what was this? He won twice in the lottery?

The fat tourist who had walked into the procurement Center also heard the sound. He stopped in shock and stared blankly with his mouth wide open.

at this moment, he felt like he had been abandoned by the god of luck. not only did the god of luck abandon him, but it also ridiculed him in his face.

Otherwise, how could he have failed more than 300 times while the other party had won so easily?

the surrounding tourists also revealed looks of envy and shock.

What kind of heaven-defying luck was this?

otherwise, how could he have won two sets of tickets in two tries?

No one suspected that there was an inside story. First of all, Linlin Manor did not need it, and with its current scale, it was impossible for their reputation to be ruined because of this.

More importantly, if he really wanted to arrange for the two beauties to enter fairy tale mountain, he could just give them tickets in private. Who would know if they entered?

the tourists should be in a better mood with the beauty watching.

Therefore, there was no need to play tricks in public.

It could only be said that this beauty was really blessed by the God of luck.

It took Zhu Yuanyuan a long time to react. She hugged Wang Lili excitedly and said, "lili, i won. i even won two cards."

"Then we can go to the greenhouse Tree Community?" wang lili didn't expect such a surprise.

The two girls were so happy that they were holding hands and jumping up and down, because fairy tale mountain was too attractive. Just the promotional video alone was very, very attractive to their Fairyland, so it was hard not to be excited.

However, a beautiful woman with a good figure made her jump a little choppy, attracting the attention of the male tourists around.

The young man who was being questioned was even more thirsty and wanted to strike up a conversation with her.
