

The Game 1321

Chapter 1321 The One Chosen By Heaven! The Messenger Of Justice!

He hurriedly went up to pay the bill. If he won, would he have a common topic with the two beauties?

If he could tour fairy tale mountain with these two beauties, would he have a chance?

At the thought of this, he rushed to the cashier.

"Sir, the total is 2300 Yuan. You can draw 23 times," the cashier said after calculating.

The young man didn't hesitate and immediately scanned the code to draw the lottery. He even began to think that the God of love would give him a chance to win the lottery and give him a chance to find love.

"thank you for your participation!"

When he saw the 23 "thank you for participating" in a row, the young man's mouth opened wide and he was dumbfounded.

The opportunity was right in front of him, but the heavens didn't give him a chance.

After Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili left, he immediately ran back to the shopping center to continue buying things and increasing his count.

the two beauties said that they wanted to live in the greenhouse tree community. as long as he won the prize, he would be able to meet them in the greenhouse tree community, right?

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili had already left the shopping center, but they had no idea that their casual question had caused a man's mind to run wild.

The two girls couldn't wait to go to the hall to collect the winning fairy tale mountain tickets.

The package included a round-trip cable car ticket, a ticket to the mountain, a ticket to some projects in the mountain, and a ticket to stay a night in the greenhouse community.

However, they couldn't enter the mountain now after getting the tickets. They had to wait until tomorrow afternoon and evening. Moreover, they had to enter the mountain in batches.

As for why, it was the Linlin Scenic area's decision. After all, they couldn't let tourists swarm into the mountains.

it was the first time it was operating and they were inexperienced. there would always be problems.

They would enter in batches so that the staff could get used to it first.

therefore, zhu yuanyuan and wang lili could only wait.

Linlin Manor, Qin Lin's office.

Lin Lanzi and Chen Li suddenly came to the door together.

seeing the two of them, qin lin knew that it must have something to do with fairy tale mountain.

Otherwise, Chen Li and Lin Lanzi would not have had any interactions.

"Boss Qin, sorry to disturb you again." Chen Li said the moment they met.

Qin Lin smiled. Xian Chen, you're treating me like an outsider. Mr. Lin, let's sit together. Something must have happened for you to come to me together.

after the two of them sat down, lin lanzi also went straight to the point, "President Qin, isn't fairy tale mountain open? In addition to the cable car, there's also a trekking path up the mountain."

therefore, the county wants to carry out a poverty relief project on the way up the mountain by foot, such as carrying a palanquin up the mountain.

the porters can use small bamboo palanquins to carry the tourists up the mountain, and the tourists will pay for the hard work.

"fairy tale mountain is very high up to the top. if it's just physical strength, tourists will have to stop and walk a lot. " therefore, with this project, I believe that many tourists will be willing to sit in palanquins and enjoy the scenery. This will also provide many opportunities for the wine industry.

"Boss Qin, I'll have to trouble you with this." chen li said as he handed a document to qin lin.

Qin Lin also took the information and read it.

Poverty alleviation had always been the government's responsibility. Moreover, no matter how developed a city was, there would always be a portion of poor people.

You Cheng was the same.

There were many job opportunities in you city. In the countryside, he could grow Linlin's laboratory crops, and in the county, he could work in the factory.

However, there were still some people who couldn't find a job or earn money.

Most of these people were lazy, and they deserved to be poor.

However, some people were not like that. They were uncultured and wanted to grow crops. There was no more land in the villages. They wanted to work in the factories, but they were illiterate and did not know how to operate machinery. They could not satisfy the delicate work.

Some of them were even affected by the innate deafening effects.

This kind of people only knew how to work hard to earn money. As long as there was hard work, they could do better than anyone else.

this was the type of people that the county wanted to help the poor.

After all, the county knew how important the Linlin Scenic Area was to the county. They would not make things difficult for themselves, nor would they want to cause any trouble.

Those who were selected to help the poor were definitely honest people.

After Qin Lin finished reading the information, he nodded. "that's not a problem. president lin, you can just go and receive them from the county. as for these porters, we won't charge them any fees. they just need to be registered. naturally, if they do anything wrong and affect the scenic area, they will be punished accordingly. " qin lin also knew that people always had all kinds of existences, and many people had many helplessness and congenital deficiencies.

Moreover, many people were poor not because they didn't work hard, nor because they were afraid of fatigue and hardship. It was just that sometimes, they couldn't even put their strength to work in the right place.

They just needed someone to give them a chance.

he didn't mind giving the other party a chance.

"Alright, Chairman Qin." Lin Lanzi nodded.

"Thank you so much, boss Qin." Chen Li also expressed his thanks.

After this matter was settled, Lin Lanzi and Chen Li also made a trip to the county. They had to settle it immediately, but they didn't expect that the county had already prepared everything, whether it was the sedan chair or the sedan bearer.

time passed, and the second day soon arrived.

Your city was very lively early in the morning. Tourists who had booked fairy tale mountain tickets arrived in your city early, either by train or by car.

Chen Li had also arrived at the county early in the morning and arranged for a specialized person to keep an eye on the poverty relief project.

Chapter 1322 The One Chosen By Heaven! The Messenger Of Justice!

Since this matter had been decided, it was impossible for someone of his level to keep an eye on it. He just had to make arrangements.

In the morning, after he had settled his matters, sun Xian called him to the conference room for a meeting.

As soon as he arrived at the meeting room, he saw a few people in charge of traffic.

Seeing this, he subconsciously asked, " "It collapsed again?"

A traffic officer immediately nodded. yes, it's starting to get congested. The outer Third Ring Road is also starting to get congested.

Sun Xian sighed. just as we expected, the climate is changing. This is the best time for tourists to come for a vacation. With such a big project in Linlin Manor, it's hard not to be congested.

try to maintain the traffic this time. You guys will have to work hard on the transportation. It seems that the construction of the fourth and fifth outer rings will have to be rushed.

After that, sun Xianhe pulled Chen Li along for a discussion.

As the sun set in the West, the foot of fairy tale mountain became more and more lively. As fairy tale mountain was open to the public, tourists with tickets had arrived early, planning to enter the mountain as soon as possible to experience it.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili were the same.

they had also dressed up. their beautiful looks and hot bodies really attracted the attention of many male tourists.

Especially some old lechers, they couldn't take their eyes off the two.

This naturally caused the dissatisfaction of the female companions beside the old pervert.

a woman with a big belly and an oily face kicked the old pervert beside her and said, " "What's there to see? You're dressed so flirtatiously when you're here to play, you don't look like a good person at all. If you owe a man A , just say it, there's no need to come here to sell ****."

The more the big-bellied woman spoke, the more annoyed she became. She started to curse, and even her female companions beside her echoed her.

These women also attracted the attention of the tourists around them. Everyone shook their heads. This behavior was really hard to explain in a few words.

zhu yuanyuan and wang lili seemed to have heard the woman's scolding and subconsciously quickened their steps to leave. sometimes, they were quite distressed.

It was true that they didn't do anything. It was just that they were dressed a little too spicily, but it wasn't their fault.

"Lili, are we going to take the cable car now?" Zhu Yuanyuan asked as soon as she entered.

wang lili immediately pointed to the other side and said, " Yuanyuan, there seems to be a palanquin over there. It seems like we can take the palanquin up the mountain. Let's take the palanquin.

"Alright!" Zhu Yuanyuan nodded and thought it was a good idea. Although they had free cable car tickets, it was also a good idea to spend some money to enjoy the scenery and take care of the business of the porters.

Who didn't want to make a living by doing such hard work?

"Uncle, how much does it cost to ride the palanquin once?" Zhu Yuan Yuan asked one of the porters.

The porters were lining up. When they saw the tourists, their faces lit up. They were all people who only knew how to work hard. The scenic Area had given them a chance, and they cherished it very much.

beauty, 100 yuan for each trip! The sedan bearer immediately said happily. They were carrying the sedan for two people because the scenic Area did not charge them any fees. One person could earn 50 yuan for each trip.

"Then we'll take two palanquins," Zhu Yuanyuan said immediately.

"Alright, if there's not enough, you guys have to go to the two palanquins in front. We have to line up," the sedan bearer said happily.

Indeed, these palanquin bearers had to line up to avoid snatching guests. The palanquin bearers who came down from the mountain patted the end of the line, and so on.

Naturally, if one's physical strength was good, they could go up the mountain later than others, and go down the mountain before others, then they could also be in front.

The porters were very happy to see Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili, not because they were drifting, but because they were light, about 90 pounds, so they could carry them easily.

Soon, the two women sat in the palanquin and were carried up the mountain.

Coincidentally, the few women who had been cursing earlier came. The greasy woman even mocked, "look, everyone. This kind of woman has no shame. She has a cable car to climb the mountain, but she's using it as a sedan. She's wasting money to humiliate others.

His words made the women around him feel a sense of justice.

that's right. All people are born equal. What right do you have to be a b * tch? one look and I can tell you're not a good person.

"This kind of person really deserves to die. He's immoral."

They even took out their phones and started taking pictures of Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili.

This scene made the tourists who had wanted to go up the palanquin when they saw the two beauties go up to sit in it back down. A few tourists who were asking the palanquin driver for the price immediately left when they heard these righteous denouncement.

This made the porters look angrily at the women who had recorded the video.

However, those women didn't notice this. Instead, they were very proud of their own denouncement.

"we can't let these two sluts go, expose them!"

"yes, we're going to expose them."

"trample on their dignity, let them be famous."

"....."

Chapter 1323 This Really Is Wonderland! The Internet Has Exploded! 1

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili heard the discussion behind them, but they didn't refute it. They could only sigh.

To be honest, they really didn't mean to insult the palanquin bearer. After all, the palanquin was here, and everyone was willing.

This was also the relationship between service and being served.

they didn't want to climb the mountain, so they had to pay for the service. it was fair for the porters to work hard to support the family.

"Yuanyuan, ignore them. Let's play on our own." Wang Lili said to Zhu Yuanyuan in a good mood.

"En!" Zhu Qianqian nodded.

As the porters carried them up the mountain, they also began to appreciate the surrounding scenery.

There were many types of green plants planted on the mountain path, and many of them seemed to be very precious. It was very easy to see.

However, Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili frowned inexplicably.

Because they had seen such a green landscape in other places, they had come here to see the fairy tale Wonderland.

However, this mountain path didn't have the beautiful scenery that was shown in the video.

They also knew that it wasn't night yet. The introduction of fairy tale mountain at the foot of the mountain said that day and night were two different worlds.

During the day, it could only be regarded as a normal green garden Scenic Area. At night, the mountain would turn into a fairy-tale Fairyland.

this also made them look forward to the arrival of night.

As time passed, when the sun had completely set in the West, Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili were carried by the porters to the registration area of the greenhouse community on the top of the mountain.

After the two women got off the car and paid, they rushed to the registration counter and took out their tickets and ID cards.

After the registration attendant scanned the room, he immediately registered the two girls and gave them two room cards. They were lucky and won two prizes in a row.

Another waiter immediately came over to show them the way. "Two visitors, please follow me!"

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili followed him and soon entered the greenhouse community.

A cluster of greenhouse trees appeared in his eyes, intertwining with each other. It was an indescribable spectacular sight.

"It's so beautiful." Zhu Yuanyuan was pleasantly surprised.

"Yes, every greenhouse tree is very attractive," Wang Lili nodded.

Obviously, they were attracted by the greenhouse tree's +2 beauty and +2 attraction attributes at first sight and couldn't look away.

Not only them, but the other tourists who came in were also attracted.

I've only seen videos of her on the internet before. I didn't expect to see her in person.

yeah, it's so beautiful. We can stay there at night.

"There are so many greenhouse trees, but I can only live in one. I really want to live in all of them."

"Honey, wake up. We don't have that much money."

"....."

What surprised the tourists even more was that they didn't find any insects in the greenhouse.

This was too magical.

They were at the top of the mountain, where mosquitoes were the most abundant.

No matter how good the insect repellant was, it was impossible for there to be no mosquitoes at all.

How did Linlin villa do this?

Of course, these tourists did not know that the other places on fairy tale mountain, including the tents and dormitories, needed to repel insects and mosquitoes, but the greenhouse area did not.

This was because the greenhouse tree itself had A +2 insect repelling attribute.

After being attracted by the greenhouse trees, the tourists couldn't help but take out their mobile phones to take pictures. At this time, of course, they had to record it.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili were the same.

they first took out their phones to take the panoramic view, taking their own pictures, then asking the other party to help them take theirs, and then taking a photo together.

After they were done, they couldn't help but post it on their WeChat moments with the title: The first group of visitors to experience the fairy tale mountain in Linlin.

The title of the post was filled with pride. Not long after it was posted, people liked it and many people commented enviously. They couldn't help but smile.

There was only one chance for the first experience of fairy tale mountain.

"Let's go and take a look at the greenhouse tree we stayed in for the night." wang lili said.

"Yes, let's go!" Zhu Yuanyuan nodded.

The two of them each had a greenhouse tree, and they were adjacent to each other.

Zhu Yuanyuan went to her greenhouse tree and swiped her room card to open the special door. She entered and smelled a special flower fragrance.

The fragrance of the flowers was very light and very charming.

The most important thing was that the interior decoration made her eyes light up. The pink decoration style, coupled with the green original embellishment, was simply like the bedroom of an elf princess.

she put down her bag and couldn't help but jump onto the big bed. when she lay down, she actually felt a magical refreshing feeling. it was as if her heart was calm, and all her worries were gone.

This was naturally due to the greenhouse tree's +2 refreshing attribute.

But this made Zhu Yuanyuan feel wonderful.

She loved traveling and had stayed in all kinds of hotels, but none of the hotel rooms could give her this feeling.

with all these feelings added up, she was afraid that she would be a little reluctant to leave.

Then, she remembered that the greenhouse tree's seeds cost 10 million Yuan each. So, she was living in a 10-million-Yuan room now. It was not surprising that she was living comfortably.

Zhu Yuanyuan quickly left the greenhouse and went to Wang Lili's greenhouse.

Wang Lili was already lying on the bed, reluctant to get up.

The style of Wang Lili's greenhouse was different from hers. It was blue and had a fairy-tale style.

Looking at Wang Lili on the bed, Zhu Yuanyuan pounced on her. This girl was lying so comfortably that she had to take advantage of her.

Chapter 1324 This Really Is Wonderland! The Internet Has Exploded! 2

in an instant, the two women began to joke and play on the bed. but soon, something was wrong, and there was the sound of fabric tearing.

The joke was a little exciting.

The sky gradually darkened.

Looking at fairy tale mountain from a distance, one could see that the entire mountain seemed to be slowly transforming. A special kind of light lit up between the mountains, slowly illuminating the entire mountain.

Fairy tale mountain was already crowded with tourists.

In particular, the tourists from the three-tent dormitory area had already come out. They had been waiting for night to fall.

At this moment, the dormitory area was completely covered in fluorescent light.

Being in this fluorescent light, it truly became a celestial realm, not a world on earth.

At the top of the mountain.

In the greenhouse tree District, the door of a greenhouse tree opened.

zhu yuanyuan and wang lili walked out. what was amazing was that they had changed their clothes and their faces were a little red.

As soon as they walked out of the greenhouse, the two were attracted by the scenery in front of them.

The entire greenhouse community had become an indescribably beautiful world.

They were already shocked when they saw it in the video, and now that they were watching it with their own eyes, they were even more shocked.

under the cover of these fluorescent lights, he found that the greenhouse tree community seemed to have become more beautiful and more enjoyable to look at. there was also a sense of gentleness that made people feel inexplicably at ease.

it was caused by the natural mutation of the space vine and the night queen's +1 fluorescent appreciation and +1 fluorescent softness attributes.

The two women walked into the district and stopped subconsciously. There were many people like them.

In that fluorescent light, they actually felt an inexplicable sense of peace, as if no worries could affect them.

This was the effect of the special fluorescent light. The fluorescent light made people calm and gave them A +1 attribute.

With all these attributes added together, it was not strange for the tourists to say that they were in a Fairyland and could not extricate themselves.

Following that, countless tourists took out their mobile phones again and began to film the surrounding scenery. They had already talked about their own personal experiences.

Linlin's fairy tale mountain had already become a hot search on the internet. It was extremely popular. As soon as the tourists' experiences were posted, many of them entered the traffic pool and became a hot topic.

this caused the internet to become lively.

The number of tourists who visited fairy tale mountain in the first batch was always limited. Countless people did not manage to get a ticket and could not go, so they could wait for the first batch of tourists to share their experience.

after the visitors shared their experiences and read the descriptions, the internet went into an uproar.

"d * mn it, i was stuck for a moment and didn't manage to get a ticket. now that i've seen someone else's description, i can't wait to run over. " sigh, i'm already shocked by the video and thought it was beautiful. Now that i've seen the experience shared by the visitors, i want to go even more. i have no choice but to go.

"Aren't you trying to tempt me? I have to work, and I'm not in the mood to work at all. My mind is full of greenhouse trees, residential areas, and fairy tales!"

"....."

The people online were completely attracted by everything that had happened on fairy tale mountain. As a result, countless people rushed into the Linlin Manor's reservation homepage, and the homepage collapsed again.

This time, it had completely collapsed. The tourists could no longer enter the page. The multimedia department of Linlin villa had asked the programmers to start repairing it almost overnight.

it showed how crazy everyone was about fairy tale mountain.

That night was a sleepless night for the first batch of tourists who entered fairy tale mountain, but many of the tourists in the greenhouse Tree Community went to bed early and started to set an alarm.

This was because the greenhouse Tree Community had another function, which was to watch the sunrise. There was also a special viewing platform for watching the sunrise.

Therefore, after living in the greenhouse Tree Community, they naturally wanted to take a good look at the sunrise.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili were the same. They went to the greenhouse early in the morning, set an alarm, and went to sleep.

Naturally, they slept together. They only slept under one greenhouse tree and had an empty room. Anyway, they had two rooms. They were willful.

Early the next morning, when the sky was still bright, they got up and left the greenhouse without even changing their appearance.

The other tourists had also woken up early and were walking towards the sunrise viewing platform at the top of the mountain.

The place was also illuminated by the fluorescent light of the mutated Night Queen and the mutated space vine. There were carefully set swings, tables, and pavilions all around, which could fully meet the needs of the tourists in the greenhouse Tree Community.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili found a swing and sat down. They looked at the mountains in the distance and waited for the sun to come out.

As they waited, the light of the setting sun finally appeared in the distant mountains. The sun slowly revealed its tip, and at that moment, everyone was drawn to the Twilight.

the sunrise was very beautiful. when the sun revealed more than half of its face, it was like a red lantern with soft flames, illuminating most of the sky with a red glow. it was so close to them that it seemed as if the golden clouds were about to set.

However, there was one thing that had to be said. sunrise was beautiful, it was not enough to match the beautiful scenery of fairy tale mountain. It was as if they were on a different level.

Or rather, the sunrise was beautiful, but it was not worthy of fairy tale mountain.

The sun soon rose completely. At this time, it lost the view of sunrise and took away the Fairyland of fairy tale mountain. The whole mountain returned to normal and lost the brilliance of the night.

after zhu yuanyuan and wang lili watched the sunrise, they went back to the greenhouse to catch up on sleep.

It was the same for the other tourists who were watching the sunrise.

Chapter 1325 This Really Is Wonderland! The Internet Has Exploded! 3

They didn't wake up until noon. After washing up, they left the greenhouse Tree Community.

They were a little reluctant and wanted to stay for one more night, but they only had one night's stay after winning the lottery.

They took the cable car down the mountain. It was a different feeling to look at fairy tale mountain and the distance from the cable car.

When they arrived at the lobby of the cable car, they walked towards Linlin villa. They were not done with the Linlin villa yet. After that, they still had to go to the Linlin Ranch to play.

however, as soon as they arrived at the ticket booth of the floating bridge viewing area, they found that there were many people pointing at them.

"It seems to be them!"

"yes, they're the ones on the hot search video."

zhu yuanyuan and wang lili were confused. these people were obviously talking about them. what video?

They had no idea what had happened.

They only knew that the hot search video seemed to be related to them.

After buying the tickets, they couldn't stand the pointing and whispering, so they left in a hurry. Then, they turned on their phones and logged into mouyin.

After watching a few videos, they saw a video about her making a sedan chair.

"Using money to trample on other people's dignity, this is a shameful act of ridicule."

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili frowned when they saw the video, but they were furious when they saw the comments.

"She's pretty, why would she do such a thing?"

hook bars and whores. They finally walked out of the dark alley and now they think they're high and mighty, trampling on other people's dignity.

I won't sit in this kind of palanquin. I don't feel that my dignity is higher than others', and I can't trample on others' dignity.

it's right not to censor their faces. Let everyone see them clearly and know who they are.

I feel like we should do some human flesh on them to let them know that other people's dignity can not be trampled on.

"....."

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili didn't expect that they would be exposed on the internet as if they had done something unforgivable.

They clearly remembered that when they gave the money, the porters were clearly smiling very happily.
linlin manor.

Qin Lin had also met Lin Lanzi. After hearing Lin Lanzi's report, he frowned.

The purpose of the palanquin carrying project was good. It was to help the poor and give these palanquins a good income.

Who knew that a video of the two female tourists sitting in the sedan chair would be taken and uploaded to the internet? it was even exploded by the netizens.

What the hell was this? You're still standing on the moral high ground after smashing people's jobs?
more importantly, the popularity of this online explosion was getting bigger and bigger.

Chairman Qin, we have to deal with this matter quickly to avoid creating more public opinion. lin lanzi said to qin lin.

Qin Lin nodded. He naturally understood. At this moment, his phone rang. It was Chen Li. He immediately picked it up."County Chen, is it because of what happened online?"

Chen Li's voice came through. boss Qin, I'm very sorry. I didn't expect the porters project to cause such an internet explosion. We're very sorry. The county's intention is that if the internet explosion can't be quelled, we have no objections to stopping the porters project.

Chen Li's words made Qin Lin frown. If he stopped, it would make those hypocrites and the Holy Mother of the internet proud.

Moreover, they couldn't just ignore the fact that other tourists had come to his Scenic Area to play and their projects were destroyed because of them.

He couldn't do such a thing.

therefore, he had to think of what to do.

Chapter 1326 592-Must Be Dealt With! Take Li Kai To The Palanquin!

When Qin Lin heard Chen Li's words, he immediately said, "Chen Xian, this project was started with good intentions. We didn't do anything wrong. We can't give up just because some people who think they have high moral values and think they can benefit the world are criticized.

"Isn't that equivalent to admitting that we were wrong? On the contrary, it will make those people feel that their justice has succeeded, and they will become arrogant. In the future, they might even become worse in such things."

Qin Lin would never compromise on this kind of thing. He was determined to deal with it.

He remembered reading a story about the Han Dynasty.

When Emperor Wu was still in power, the Xiongnu people had once asked for a marriage alliance for the princess of the Han Dynasty.

At that time, a doctor called Di Shan agreed and said that the use of force would make the people poor and invade the people of the frontier fortress.

The Imperial censor Zhang Tang felt that this was the ignorant view of a foolish scholar.

Di Shan retorted Zhang Tang, thinking that although he was "foolishly loyal," Zhang Tang was "feigning loyalty." He also criticized Zhang Tang's way of handling the case of the King of Huainan and the king of Jiangdu (rebellion).

"If I send you to manage a County, can you stop the Xiongnu from attacking?" Emperor Wu asked Di Shan.

"I can't," Di Shan said.

"What about the county?" Emperor Wu asked.

"I can't," Di Shan said.

"What about yiyang (the city built on the most dangerous part of the frontier fortress)?" Emperor Wu asked again.

"Yes," replied Di Shan confidently.

Therefore, Emperor Wu sent Di Shan to manage the frontier fortress. More than a month later, the Xiongnu people invaded and beheaded Di Shan.

Wasn't Di Shan even more awesome than these Holy Mother Phoenix?

The great saint mother of the Han Dynasty, the spokesperson of the Han and Xiongnu's unity, he had not burned Xiongnu's Sutras, nor had he drawn Chanyu's comics. He had not scolded Xiongnu's mother, and more importantly, he had wanted to give the Han Princess to Xiongnu to be his wife.

In his heart, he only thought that this was for the good of the people of the world, so that the people of the frontier fortress would not be attacked. He thought that he was right, that he was just and right, but he did not know the cruelty of the Xiongnu people and the hatred of the people of the frontier fortress.

This was just like the messengers of justice on the internet. They didn't know the actual situation at all. They didn't know the family situation of these porters, or their own situation. They didn't know what these porters wanted.

Right now, they were only condemning others with what they believed to be justice.

They believed that their justice was justice, and anything that didn't conform to their justice was wrong.

It was a ridiculous thought.

Chen Li's voice rang out again. boss Qin, the county naturally doesn't want this project to stop. Our people in the county are supervising the visits. Before someone even filmed the video, each sedan chair carrier had already made more than 100 yuan.

if the matter is resolved and everyone has less to worry about, the porters can earn more. It can be as little as 7000 or 8000 Yuan a day, and it's possible for them to earn more than 10000 Yuan a day.

For a poor family, a monthly income of 7000 to 8000, or even more than 10000 Yuan, what kind of hope was that?

Naturally, how much they could earn would depend on the physical strength of these porters.

After all, it took time to go up and down the mountain, and the porters 'physical strength was limited.

For someone like Qin Lin who had taken two fruits of the tree of strength, it was possible for him to earn tens of thousands a month if he were to be a sedan bearer.

In fact, these porters didn't feel that they had lost their dignity by using labor to exchange for income. On the contrary, they felt that they had gained more self-respect.

After all, they could earn more money than before. They could support their families. They could give their children more pocket money every month and give their wives more living expenses. They could save some money and buy jewelry for their wives.

this was what the porters really thought.

"County Chen, we'll really need the county's cooperation when the time comes," Qin Lin added.

"Sure, boss Qin." Chen Li said.

After Qin Lin hung up the phone, he also instructed Lin Lanzi, Mr. Lin, take a video of the porters as well. Record their needs for this job. This job is very important to them. Get the county to cooperate with them.

"Alright, Chairman Qin." Lin Lanzi nodded.

qin lin frowned and remembered.

Before letting Lin Lanzi shoot this video for publicity, he had to give the current internet tyrants a reverse impact. Otherwise, if they were to be affected by this, the impression would be that the two female tourists had used money to trample on their dignity.

at this time, the effect of lin lanzi's video would be much smaller.

Therefore, he had to first create an impact on this impression.

As he thought about it, he pulled out his phone and dialed Li Kai's electric arc.

"Old Brother Qin, what's wrong? Why are you calling me all of a sudden?" Li Kai's puzzled voice was heard.

"Brother Li, come to my office for a while," Qin Lin said immediately. "I'll take it as you're going there to have fun."

in linlin's laboratory.

Li Kai was a little confused as he held his phone.

A pastime?

This was the first time that Qin Lin had called to say that he wanted to take him out for some fun.

This was really rare.

He was so happy that he immediately said into the phone, " "Brother Qin, wait for me. I'll be right there."

After hanging up the phone, Li Kai left the laboratory in a hurry and drove to Linlin Manor.

When he arrived at Qin Lin's office, the first thing he did was ask, " "Brother Qin, why are you suddenly calling me? where are you taking me to have fun?"

when qin lin saw li kai, he greeted him, " "let's go, i'll take you for a walk."

Li Kai's face was full of doubt. Just for a stroll?

He clearly said it was a pastime.

however, he immediately followed after qin lin.

Naturally, Qin Lin was going to bring Li Kai to fairy tale mountain.

Chapter 1327 592-Must Be Dealt With! after the two of them got into the car, he started the car and drove directly to the parking lot at the foot of fairy tale mountain.

after parking the car, qin lin brought li kai out of the parking lot.

"Brother Qin, are you sure you don't want to wear a mask?" Li Kai reminded him after he got out of the car.

Both he and Qin Lin were quite famous now, so they would still be recognized if they went out. Although they would not be surrounded by celebrity fans, it was inevitable that people would take photos of them with their mobile phones.

That was also very annoying.

"Old brother Li, you're not a big star, why are you wearing a mask?" qin lin said teasingly. he didn't wear a mask because he didn't want to wear a mask.

What was the point of wearing a mask?

The two female tourists who were criticized on the internet for using money to trample on the dignity of the porters were only ordinary people.

What if the person sitting in the palanquin was a famous and prestigious person, or an academician? Or even a very big leader?

then, the netizens wouldn't have subconsciously denounced it. at the very least, they would have given it some deep thought.

It was a very simple problem. The porters worked hard to make a living, and this kind of internet violence only happened because they were led by the Holy Mother.

they couldn't find an academician or a high-ranking leader to come over.

However, it was the same for him and old brother li. With the two of them together, others would have to think twice before trying to slander them.

based on the money he had donated, the skills he had donated, and based on the blame that brother li had taken on him.

if they really dared to slander them without any bottom line, they would be in deep trouble.

If there were really people who dared to defame and denounce them, even mouyin would be greeted. They would be afraid and the relevant accounts would be dealt with immediately.

In this case, the momentum of denouncing the internet violence would be reduced, and everyone would listen to what others were saying.

in that case, the video that lin lanzi shot would definitely be very good.

qin lin and li kai's sudden appearance naturally attracted the tourists who came to fairy tale mountain. many people recognized the two.

"It's little Qin, and professor Li Kai!"

"it's really them!"

they're hanging out together. Their relationship is really as good as what the internet says.

"....."

Many people also took out their phones and started taking pictures of Qin Lin and Li Kai.

it was like when you were traveling and suddenly saw gu li le and brother hu, you couldn't help but take out your phone to take pictures.

to a certain extent, meeting qin lin and li kai was more of a surprise than meeting celebrities.

Qin Lin's smile grew wider when he saw people surrounding and taking pictures.

this was exactly what he wanted.

He also brought Li Kai to where the porters were.

Fairy tale mountain had only been open for a day, but these porters were already frowning.

originally, when a project had just opened, it was definitely the best time for business. however, because of the internet scandal, the tourists did not dare to sit in the palanquin at all. these porters also had no business at all.

These porters rarely came into contact with the internet. Even if they did, they wouldn't be interested in Qin Lin and Li Kai.

Therefore, no one recognized Qin Lin and Li Kai.

However, the palanquin bearers were looking forward to Qin Lin and Li Kai's arrival. They were naturally looking forward to them sitting in the palanquin.

They wanted to earn money to support their families.

qin lin also smiled and said to the porters, " "Masters, we need two palanquins to go up the mountain. We'll have to trouble you."

the eyes of the porters lit up.

one of them immediately stood up and said in surprise, " "There's a guest in the palanquin. Everyone, don't be so dejected. Whose turn is it now? hurry up and carry the palanquin."

Immediately, two groups of sedan bearers stood up with faces full of joy and invited Qin Lin and Li Kai to the sedan.

"brother li, you're taking me to see the scenery?" Li Kai didn't know what was going on. Seeing Qin Lin get into the sedan, he followed.

The sedan bearer lifted the sedan at the first moment and carried the two of them into fairy tale mountain.

This scene was seen by all the tourists around.

when qin lin and li kai walked towards the porters, the tourists had already noticed them.

When they saw Qin Lin and Li Kai get on the palanquin and let the porters carry them up the mountain, the tourists couldn't stay calm.

After all, the video of the two women sitting in the palanquin was still trending on the internet. Therefore, no one dared to sit in the palanquin.

Who knew that little Qin and professor Li Kai would go directly to the palanquin? weren't they afraid of being exposed on the internet?

Indeed, seeing this scene, some visitors fell into deep thought.

why are Xiao Qin and professor Li Kai sitting in the palanquin? " some of the tourists frowned. how could they do such a thing? " this was obviously a person who had been led by online abuse and thought that it was right, or that he himself was standing on the moral high ground.

however, his words immediately caused the surrounding tourists to be dissatisfied.

" do you have a brain? don't talk nonsense. "

"just say that it's little qin and professor li kai."

"Even if you don't have a brain, you should still shut your mouth."

"....."

These people were all dissatisfied with the tourist.

This was because he was talking about little Qin and professor Li Kai.

Just like some celebrities, it's easy to slander them, but if you try to slander some celebrities, why don't you try? The moment you blurted it out, others would know that you had ulterior motives.

You have to look at the person you're slandering.

Not to mention hei Xiaoqin and professor Li Kai.

how many people had received little qin's favor during the cobble plague? how much technology did professor li kai and little qin donate?

Chapter 1328 592-Must Be Dealt With! Take Li Kai To The Palanquin!

Moreover, every time they developed something new, they would sell it to the people in the country first. They even directly sanctioned foreign countries for the benefit of the country.

even if they were sold overseas, the price would be much lower in china.

So, would this kind of person use money to trample on other people's dignity?

This was impossible, and no one would believe it.

then why did little qin and professor li kai have to sit in the sedan?

It was easy to figure out that the porters worked hard to make money, and the tourists paid for the service. It was an easy to understand relationship.

The palanquin was also a service profession.

Naturally, it didn't matter if he couldn't figure it out. Sometimes, it was right to follow the right person.

therefore, since little qin and professor li kai were already in the palanquin, there was naturally no problem with them.

Many of the tourists who wanted to sit in the palanquin thought so and walked towards the palanquin driver.

"master, how much is the palanquin going up the mountain?"

"That's right, how much is one person? Let's have one."

"....."

This was a sudden surprise for the palanquin bearers. After yesterday's incident, tourists didn't dare to come and sit in their palanquins.

The sedan-bearer immediately shouted at the tourists again, " 100 per person. Bring them directly to the greenhouse at the top of the mountain.

The tourists who were tempted immediately got on the palanquin and let the palanquin driver carry them up the mountain.

who would be stingy with 100 yuan if they could come all the way to linlin scenic area?

With the fuse in place, more and more tourists had no qualms. They began to look for porters to carry them up the mountain.

However, there were also some tourists who were dissatisfied.

For example, the tourist who had been scolded by others was very unhappy, so he immediately posted the video of Qin Lin and Li Kai sitting in the sedan on the internet.

he did not forget to write a leading title: Yet another person used money to trample on other people's dignity.

At the same time, he was frantically editing the text in the video.

"Everyone still hasn't forgotten about those two women who used money to trample on other people's dignity, right?

Now, little Qin and professor Li Kai from Linlin laboratory had done the same. They actually thought it was right to trample on others 'dignity with money.

They were famous people, how could they do this? In other words, this was the arrangement of Linlin villa, and only Linlin company could afford to arrange for these two.

Or perhaps, Linlin villa is like that Big Boss Ma, gradually becoming a capitalist and completely revealing their fangs?"

This was a very strong guide. After uploading it, under the popularity of the internet violence, they soon saw the hot search. All of a sudden, the internet violence incident was abuzz, and it had a trend of developing into public opinion.

Soon, the women who had posted the video of Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili on the internet also saw the video.

When the big-bellied woman saw the video, she was displeased."What's wrong with little Qin and Li Kai?"

The other women also frowned.

they had finally punished the two sly foxes and caused everyone to criticize them on the internet. who knew that little qin and li kai would come out to join in the fun?

They knew that little Qin was Li Kai, a famous person, and a scientist.

However, they didn't care about that. Now that someone had posted a video to denounce the two of them, they would definitely not be polite.

She couldn't make herself feel uncomfortable, could she?

Little Qin and Li Kai's way of doing things made them uncomfortable.

The big-bellied woman immediately said, " mind your own business. Our account just happens to have traffic. Repost it and condemn them together.

The others nodded and reposted it, adding their own titles.

Because of the internet uproar they caused, the popularity was on their account. As expected, the popularity of Qin Lin and Li Kai sitting in a palanquin suddenly reached the peak.

This also made these people proud.

However, what happened next left them dumbfounded.

Chapter 1329 Can Little Qin Be Criticized? A Deep Reflection?

the few women had just noticed that the video condemning qin lin and li kai had reached the top of the hot search list. they were happy, but suddenly realized that the video they had shared was gone.

what's going on? the video is gone? " The big-bellied woman said doubtfully.

She clicked on the video that she had shared and found a notification: The video had either been deleted or couldn't be seen.

The other people's faces also revealed a shocked expression.

This was because the videos that they shared were also gone, and the notifications could not be seen or deleted.

"What's going on?"

it seems to have been reviewed. Maybe our title was too sharp.

"try changing the title and post another one."

At this moment.

not only the big-bellied woman, but many people on the internet also posted such a situation.

Qin Lin and Li Kai were admired and praised by many, but there were also people who didn't like them.

These people were either jealous or for other reasons.

Therefore, when they saw people criticizing Qin Lin and Li Kai, they naturally didn't mind adding insult to injury.

however, just as the public's condemnation of qin lin and li kai reached its peak, their videos disappeared at the same time.

At the headquarters of a music department.

The head of the video editing team was standing in front of a director with his head lowered.

"What are you guys doing? This kind of video denouncing little Qin and professor Li Kai can also make it to the hot search?" The director couldn't hold back the anger on his face.

it would be strange if he wasn't angry.

He had been in a hotel discussing a contract with a female internet celebrity and discussing how to promote her. Who knew that his Big Boss would suddenly call him and give him a good scolding?

It was only then that he found out about little Qin and professor Li Kai's online abuse.

Others might not know the influence of these two people, but he did.

As mouyin had long sought refuge with the higher-ups and become the mouthpiece of public opinion, it was easy for them to know some inside information.

He had heard about these two when he went to Beijing with his Big Boss on a business trip.

these two were on the higher-ups 'side, and they were in good terms.

How could a Short Video platform like them hack such a person?

To be honest, the outside world thought that mouyin was very good. They were the leader of Short Video, could arm-wrestle with Penguin, and had a lot of market value. However, in the eyes of the higher-ups, they were nothing.

If the higher-ups wanted to replace them, they could suppress them a little and support other companies.

Therefore, they were very clear about what could be touched and what could not be touched.

"We've already deleted all the related videos as soon as we could," the head editor immediately said.

The director cursed for a long time before his anger subsided."Don't let this happen again. I still need to go and discuss a contract."

after saying that, the director left in a hurry. the internet celebrity that he wanted to promote had already taken a bath, so why would he want to waste more time here?

As for why he had to take a shower to discuss the contract? That was because they liked to be clean and had a sense of ceremony.

the head editor also heaved a sigh of relief after the director left. then, he went back to the department with a trace of anger. no one would feel comfortable after being scolded so badly.

At this time, it was best that no one bumped into his muzzle.

As soon as he arrived at the Department, a subordinate came to report, "supervisor, as per your instructions, the videos denouncing little Qin and professor Li Kai have been deleted, but there are still people who have tried to upload them again.

The editor-in-chief was furious when he heard this. "no matter who it is, ban their accounts. also, delete the video of the two female visitors in the palanquin. then, make an official announcement that the account that posted the video was not honest and will be deleted according to the relevant regulations."

"Yes, manager!" The employee nodded in understanding and immediately went to instruct his colleagues.

On the other side.

The pot-bellied woman and a few of her friends also uploaded the video to a certain voice.

After passing the review, the women were happy again.

This can't be deleted from the audit, right?

However, they weren't happy for long before they found that their screen had changed to 404, and the current interface was invisible.

"??? "The big-bellied woman immediately looked puzzled.

What the hell?

then, she quickly clicked on her main page and received a notification: your account has been banned for illegal activities.

"My account was blocked, what happened?" The big-bellied woman immediately became anxious.

although he didn't have many fans on this account, he had played it for a long time. because of the previous denouncement of the two women, he had gained quite a number of fans.

Now that her account was suddenly banned, how could she accept it? she would definitely be sad.

At this moment.

Her friends' faces turned ugly, and they said, "

"My account has also been banned."

"Me too, what's going on?"

"maybe it's because they sent a video of little qin and li kai, so the deleted video was already a warning!"

This time, the big-bellied woman and the others also reacted, and their faces became even uglier.

How unreasonable can you be?

There were so many people supporting them, so why did mouyin ban them?

It wasn't just these people. Many people on the internet had their accounts banned.

Firstly, there were many people who claimed to be righteous people.

Secondly, there were many people who wanted to gain popularity. Some people didn't care if they were right or wrong, they just wanted to see if they could gain popularity.

therefore, these people's mouyin accounts were all gone at once.

These videos disappeared in large areas, and there were even some accounts with many fans, which naturally attracted the attention of the netizens.

Chapter 1330 Little Qin Can Be Criticized? A Deep Reflection? 2

After all, many of these disappeared videos had made it to the hot search. Before this, it would have been seen after a few views. Now that they were all gone, it was naturally strange.

But very quickly, everyone was shocked, because the next video they posted had an official announcement from mouyin.

This was naturally because mouyin had taken action, so that every user could see their own announcement in the next video:

due to the fact that some accounts have violated the platform's regulations by posting untrue videos, these videos will be deleted. Some accounts that posted videos with malicious intent will be banned!

It was a short announcement, but those who had seen the video of the denouncement before would subconsciously think of this incident and the reason why the video of the denouncement had disappeared in the blink of an eye.

This was the official move of a certain music company.

This was a huge blow to everyone.

this was because a certain sound rarely made such a move, especially when it was a hot topic.

Once mouyin made a move like this, it meant that the hot news didn't conform to values, or it didn't belong to the content of positive energy.

Other than making use of internet celebrities to make money, mouyin was still trustworthy in this aspect. Because the higher-ups were watching, even if there was one mistake, mouyin would be in trouble.

linlin ranch.

Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili also moved into the tent area.

the two of them were indeed the chosen ones, because the tent area of linlin ranch, the nuptial area of linlin manor, and the fairy tale mountain tickets were all very difficult to book.

Most of the tourists could not make a reservation.

However, they were really lucky to have booked all three places.

But even so, they were still in a very bad mood.

After all, he had been exposed on the internet.

They really didn't feel that they had done anything wrong to be scolded like this. They felt very wronged.

So, after Wang Lili packed her luggage, she took out her mobile phone to check the latest situation on the internet. She was shocked to find that the video of them being exposed on the internet was gone.

a moment later, she shouted happily, " Yuanyuan, take a look. The videos of us being attacked online are all gone. Also, the official said that the videos were wrong and many people's accounts have been blocked.

Zhu Yuanyuan was stunned and asked in disbelief, " "What's going on?"

Wang Lili immediately explained, " a video said that little Qin and professor Li Kai went to the palanquin in person. They used this method to prove that we were right. They are very influential. Even the official of the music department came forward.

"Really?" Zhu Yuan Yuan's face lit up when she heard this.

That was little Qin and professor Li Kai.

who didn't know about these two? not to mention their achievements, just little qin alone was handsome, talented, and versatile. he was the ideal partner for girls.

There was also professor Li Kai. His love for his Junior Sister was known by many women as the nation's husband ever since he started cultivating the main ingredients for the treatment of Sima disease.

Knowing the truth, Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili felt very happy.

The two of them actually went to sit on the palanquin for them. They were so gentle.

It wasn't just them. In a short period of time, the direction of the discussion on the internet had completely changed.

Qin Lin's goal was achieved.

Under such circumstances, countless netizens had no choice but to reevaluate the previous online video.

At this time, the official account of Linlin Manor released an interview video.

This video attracted everyone's attention in an instant. It could be said that once this video was released, it inherited all the popularity of the previous internet violence.

The video was taken in you City County. The first person to appear in the video was Chen Li, and it was an interview.

Many people on the internet knew Chen Li. He was already considered half an internet celebrity when he started his live broadcast as the Bureau chief.

Chen Li also spoke to the camera in a relaxed and natural manner. you city has been developing well for the past two to three years. You can say that most of you city's people are rich. However, you city is so big, and there are still many poor households. Some of the poor households are poor because of certain reasons.

it's not that they don't work hard, nor that they're lazy. It's because of some natural reasons or irresistible reasons that they only work hard.

therefore, with the opening of the fairy tale Mountain Project, our County has also done a poverty relief project. That is to let these people who only know how to work hard go to fairy tale mountain to be porters. They can earn a salary to support the family.

This explained why there was a sedan chair Project on fairy tale mountain.

At this moment.

Lin Lanzi's voice came out of the video again, "County Chen, can we interview the families of the two porters now?"

"of course," chen li immediately replied.

Then the camera moved out of the county and into an old building in you city.

It could be seen that the building was rented out, and most of the people were tenants.

Very quickly.

In the video, they arrived at the house of a Porter. The other party was a rented house, and the space inside was not big. The living room was filled with all kinds of junk. There were even dining tables, chairs, and sofas, making it seem very crowded.

There was another child doing his homework seriously, but his clothes seemed to have been washed many times and were a little old.

If this kind of clothes were given to the children of other families, they would definitely not wear it.

It could be seen that this sedan bearer's family was really very poor.

Chen Li started to introduce him, " this is Master Wu. He used to be a very hardworking worker and relied on his hard-earned salary to support his family. However, due to an accident, his eyes had problems and he couldn't see colors. Therefore, he can't look at his original job anymore and can only work part-time. Therefore, this fairy tale Mountain Project is just right for someone like Master Wu.

When Master Wu heard the words 'fairy tale mountain', he became a little excited. "County Chen, is this an interview?"

"That's right, Master Wu. I wonder what you have to say about being a sedan bearer?" Chen Li nodded.

"There's, there's something I want to say." master wu immediately turned to the camera and said anxiously, " I really need this job. I need to support my family. I want to buy two new clothes for my daughter next month. I'll rent a good suite first so that my wife and daughter can live in a better place.

it's true. I've worked hard to earn money. I really need this job. We don't feel that our dignity has been trampled on. Without this job, I can't live without dignity. Please don't destroy our jobs. Please let more tourists come and sit in our palanquin.

it was a simple statement and a simple request, but master wu's voice sounded like he was crying. in the end, he knelt down in front of the camera and begged.

This scene instantly moved everyone.

Those who saw the video felt a sense of suffocation. They could even feel Master Wu's hardships and helplessness.

At this moment, everyone once again recalled the condemnation and internet violence from before.

it was also at this moment that everyone deeply realized the innate problem of this palanquin bearer.

In their eyes, it was not shameful to work hard to make money. Only by working hard to support the family and making their family live better were they able to shine.

All of a sudden, countless people fell into deep thought.

After thinking about it, she started to scold him in a rebellious way. This time, she did not scold Zhu Yuanyuan and Wang Lili, who were the sedan chair, nor Qin Lin and Li Kai. Instead, she scolded the people who had denounced her earlier.

" now i know that those messengers of justice are not trying to help others, but to show off their own sense of moral superiority. "

" sedan bearer: thanks to the living buddha of the internet for making me unable to afford food! " the tourists said yes, the porters said yes, but the keyboard warriors Online, the messengers of justice, said no.

heat stroke firefighter scolded for washing his body with a bucket of water

The doctor Who had been operating for hours was scolded for drinking glucose.

old master yuan's luxurious car was scolded.

Grandpa was scolded for selling sugar water at a cheap price.

The police dog was scolded for drinking mineral water.

I suddenly don't understand what's wrong with this world. Is there something wrong with the world or is there something wrong with some people's hearts?"

Obviously, after Qin Lin's manipulation, the video shot by Lin Lanzi caused the entire internet to reflect deeply.
