

The Game 141

Chapter 141: The Design of the Jewelry in Reality! 3

??

They were nothing like the squirrels she'd encountered before.

After drying its fur and combing it with a comb, she put on its small clothes. Red Hair's looks seemed to have improved significantly.

When it was put down, the wild squirrels came over and surrounded it curiously.

Zhang Guizhu carefully grabbed another wild squirrel. The wild squirrel subconsciously struggled, but in the end, Zhang Guizhu placed it in the basin.

Qin Lin was relieved to see that Zhang Guizhu had successfully cleaned the first wild squirrel.

It could be seen that Zhang Guizhu was very skilled and professional.

He could at least be at ease about her as a pet handler.

Qin Lin let Zhang Guizhu busy herself before sitting down at the side. He simply looked at the game in his mind and controlled his game character to go to the mine to mine again.

The night after tomorrow was New Year's Eve. He only had a piece of yellow jade in his hands now, and he had yet to settle the gift for Zhao Moqing and his mother.

New Year's Eve was a little different for him. Zhao Moqing was already a member of the family. He planned to invite the Zhao family to a New Year's gathering and also wanted to give Zhao Moqing's parents a gift.

So he went to dig at the mine.

It seemed that the heavens had made up for his business losses because of the rain today. This time, he didn't dig for long before he actually received a game notification:

[Congratulations on obtaining a piece of Green Jade: Quality 1]

[This is a piece of green jadeite ore that can be sold for gold coins. You can also find Sebara from the Forging House to forge jewelry!]

Qin Lin immediately controlled his game character to put away the jade. With the harvest, he was even more motivated and continued to control his game character to mine.

"Qin Lin, what are you thinking about in a daze?" Zhao Moqing came over and sat beside Qin Lin.

Qin Lin came back to his senses and smiled. "I was thinking about you."

Zhao Moqing snorted. "When did you become so glib-tongued?"

Qin Lin smiled and focused on the game in his mind again. He controlled his character to mine. Today, his luck seemed to be really good. Soon, there was another notification.

[Congratulations on obtaining a piece of Black Jade: Quality 1]

[This is black jade ore. It can be sold for gold coins. You can also find Sebara from the Forging House to forge jewelry!]

However, this was the end of his luck today. Next, he controlled the game character to dig through the remaining area of the third level of the mine and dig out the entrance to the fourth level. He did not obtain anything good.

Moreover, he controlled the game character to enter the fourth level and received the notification of the level restriction. He had to level up again before he could enter.

Qin Lin could only give up on mining. Because of Ranches Story's mine setting, special ores and items would only appear after the first dig. It was impossible to dig them again in the future.

He steered the game character toward Sebara's Forging House and clicked on the forging list. This time he intended to forge the ring.

[Please choose the style of the ring you want to make!]

[You can also give me the design drawings you already have!]

Qin Lin looked at the designs of the rings in the game. Compared to the pendants, none of them seemed to be good. He could not help but feel a little disappointed.

Since he wanted to specially make gifts for others, he naturally did not want to be casual about the style.

That led him to the second prompt.

He could give Sebara the design blueprints that he already had. There were naturally no design blueprints in the game character's toolbar now.

What if he took the design drawings into the game in real life? Could he get Sebara to build the jewelry according to the designs he'd taken into the game?

If that was the case, the available styles would change from the original few to countless.

Chapter 142: Reality Is Damn! Medicine Wine +2 Taste! 1

As soon as Qin Lin had this thought, he drove straight back to Youcheng County. As soon as he reached home, he turned on the computer in his room and checked the design blueprint of the ring online.

There were many such drawings on the Internet, and there was also a special "Myriad Pictures Network" that sold the right to use such designs. These were the copyrights that the website had bought from various designers.

Qin Lin casually chose a design plan and printed it out with the home printer he bought from the computer.

He took the design and entered the game to replace the game character. He placed the design in the storage box of the house.

After exiting the game again, he looked at the screen in his mind and controlled the game character to walk towards the storage box.

[An unknown design. You can check out the Sebara Forging house!]

On the blueprint was the design for the ring he had just printed.

Qin Lin immediately controlled his game character to go to the Forging House to find Sebara.

[Please choose the jewelry you want to forge!]

Qin Lin clicked on the list and the ring option appeared again.

This time he chose to hand over the blueprint directly to Sebara. Then another prompt appeared:

[Please choose the material you want to forge!]

Qin Lin immediately chose yellow jade ore and gold ore as materials.

[Current materials can be used to forge a pair of rings. Do you want to choose the size to forge?]

In the end, when he saw that the blueprint could indeed be used, Qin Lin smiled and chose no.

Please reading on Mybo x n o vel. com

He was only testing this design. The style was too common.

He logged out of the game and logged into the Myriad Pictures Network. He chose the ring design option and immediately saw rows of ring designs pop up on the page.

The design of the jade ring was basically in the shape of a jade. However, the front of the ring was made of jade, and it was surrounded by other metal edges. One could design a variety of patterns.

Naturally, there were also some that were all jade, but that made it seem very simple.

Qin Lin looked at the blueprints and was suddenly attracted by a ring design.

The design was completely made of gold and jade. The center was made of jade and was wrapped in gold. There were also old and young designs.

The design was exquisite and definitely eye-catching.

The key was that the designer had also left a carved name and time location on the outer ring. The person who had customized the ring could carve the name and time on it.

Moreover, after purchasing this design blueprint, he could type out the words he wanted to carve and directly generate a preview of the effects.

This was obviously a design that had more sentimental significance than art. It was also cheap, just 500 yuan a copy.

Qin Lin bought it directly and tried to type the words “Qin Lin 2018.6.13 Zhao Moqing”. The corresponding words appeared on the blank space of the design.

2018.6.13 was the day he and Zhao Moqing confirmed their relationship.

Looking at the effect map, Qin Lin decisively chose to print the blueprint.

Next, he tried to type down his mother’s name and her birthday. The words on the ring and bag rings changed.

Another printout.

Thinking that there were only three jade ores in the game now, it seemed impossible to print the name and birthday of Zhao Moqing’s parents separately.

He dialed Zhao Moqing’s number.

Zhao Moqing’s voice came through.

“Qin Lin, what’s wrong?”

“Moqing, when is your parents’ wedding day?”

“Why the sudden question?”

“Tell me first!”

In the villa.

Although Zhao Moqing was very puzzled about what Qin Lin was up to again, she still told him about her parents’ wedding anniversary.

Not long after, Qin Lin brought the three blueprints into the game to replace his game character and placed the blueprints into the storage box.

The last drawing was the name of Zhao Moqing’s parents and their wedding anniversary.

Then, he exited the game again and controlled the game character to the storage box to take out the three blueprints. Then, he went to the Forging House to look for Sebara.

...

After Qin Lin chose the yellow jade ore and gold ore, another notification appeared. He decisively chose to forge it, followed by the size selection.

He picked out size 12 for one and 15 for the other.

Moqing could wear ring number 12.

15 was his, naturally.

A pair of rings were quickly forged.

He controlled the game character to continue forging.

He had always known the size of his mother's ring. He had also bought rings for Zhao Moqing's parents with her. Her first salary was to buy a pair of rings for her parents.

A moment later, three pairs of rings appeared in the game character's backpack.

After controlling the game character to return to the ranch, Qin Lin entered the game again.

Because he enters the range where there is no way to appear outside the ranch, only at the ranch, a barrier of air like a ranch wall was always present.

[Yellow Jade Ring: Quality 1]

[This is a ring made with yellow jade as the main body. It looks exquisite +1, art +1, translucency +1.]

The notes were identical to the ones for the pendant and bracelet. They were all appearance, art, and translucency +1.

Presumably, the price was not cheap either.

With a thought, Qin Lin logged out of the game with the six rings. Then, he went out and headed to the Jewellery Pavilion again to appraise the rings.

When he arrived at the Jewellery Pavilion, Qin Lin realized that the person at the front desk was no longer the girl from last time, but the old man himself.

"Hello, you're here again." The old man recognized Qin Lin. After all, this young man had left a deep impression on him.

Qin Lin smiled. "Old Master, I want you to appraise these rings."

"Sir, this way please." The old man led Qin Lin to a table and sat down.

Qin Lin also took out six rings.

The old man could tell at a glance that these rings were very translucent. The price was certainly not low.

Moreover, from the words on it, he knew that it was probably a gift for his family on New Year's Day.

This young man was really thoughtful.

If his granddaughter could find such a boyfriend, he would be at ease. The boyfriend his granddaughter had now was nothing but good-looking.

After appraising the six rings, the old man said, "Sir, these rings you custom-made are not cheap. They are all ice-type, and the quality is very high. The most expensive is the yellow jade ring for 20,000 yuan. The green and black jade rings are about 10,000 yuan. If this is the price, your custom-made ring is not at a loss."

Clearly, the price was a far cry from the bracelets and pendants.

However, the key was that finding Sebara to forge bracelets and rings both came in a pair. However, the price difference was so great. Suddenly, he felt that Sebara had cheated him.

The old man smiled and asked again, "Six ring gift boxes?"

"Yes!" Qin Lin nodded.

The yellow jade rings were his and Zhao Moqing's.

The black jade was for Zhao Moqing's parents. The black jade was not ostentatious, and Zhao Moqing's father could also wear it out.

As for the two green rings, they were for his mother. Both had her birthday and name written on them.

Qin Lin bought a gift box and placed the ring inside. After leaving the Jadeware Pavilion, he went home first and hid the gift box containing the ring at home. He would take it out on New Year's Eve.

Afterward, he drove back to the villa. But as soon as he got out of the car in the parking lot, he saw a man with a haggard face and stubble get out of a car.

He had also seen so many tourists of all shapes and sizes that he could tell at a glance that this man must have some sad story.

Another man got out of the car and placed his hand on the haggard man's shoulder. "I drove you all the way from Lu Province to Min Province. Let yourself have some peace and quiet first. Hide from that woman first."

When the haggard man heard this, he seemed to be filled with sorrow. "How f*cking stupid. She was clearly the one who cheated on me, but today, the Provincial High Law said online that I can't ask for a divorce just because she cheated on me? How am I supposed to appeal to court?"

"What does it mean, cheating on me is just her being unfaithful to me and it doesn't prove our relationship fell apart?"

"The point is, after she saw that news, she actually had the nerve to come to me to sign the divorce papers and split the assets?"

The other man fell silent at this.

He was now considering marriage.

"..." Qin Lin was forced to be a bystander.

The conversation between the two men seemed incredible even to him.

It seemed like he had lived for nothing for the past 20 years. It seemed like the plot in movies and television shows where they had to find evidence of an affair and win the lawsuit.

Why did the law in reality say that it couldn't constitute a divorce? This seemed to be even more melodramatic than those movies and television shows?

Thinking about it, if a married woman wasn't afraid of being caught cheating, and a married man wasn't afraid of being caught cheating, what the hell was going on?

Wouldn't that open a shackle for some people?

He remembered that it wasn't like this anywhere else! There were people in Youcheng County who had successfully sued for adultery in the past. Cheating was the basis for a broken relationship that couldn't be reconciled.

The Provincial High Law...

Qin Lin felt that it was not good to secretly watch the show and quickly left.

When he returned to the villa's hall, Zhang Guizhu had already cleaned up the squirrels. The wild squirrels had showered and had their furs combed. After putting on their clothes, they looked even more handsome.

"Why did you call to ask about my parents' wedding date?" Zhao Moqing walked over and asked.

"It's a secret!" Qin Lin said with a smile, "Invite your parents over for dinner the day after tomorrow."

"Secret!" Zhao Moqing snorted and didn't ask further. She could guess what surprise Qin Lin wanted to prepare for her parents.

Then, she said, "By the way, Zhang Guizhu said that it's best to arrange a dormitory for her because the villa has to entertain tourists during the day. In the future, cleaning up the squirrels will have to wait until the tourists leave. She has to stay here."

Qin Lin thought for a moment and said, "There aren't any extra dormitories now. Let her stay with Gao Yaoyao first. She can stay in the staff dormitory for a while."

Zhao Moqing nodded. "I'll talk to them later."

...

For the next two days, the weather was clear again. It seemed that God knew that New Year's Day was coming and the weather couldn't look gloomy.

Qin Lin woke up early in the morning and headed to the warehouse. After moving his things out of the game and sending them to the villa, he drove back to the warehouse with a few bags and entered the game again. Then, he placed some things he had prepared into the bags.

Quality 2: Xiangshui Tribute Rice, Quality 2: yam, Quality 2: okra, Quality 2: conch, Quality 2: eel, Quality 2: wild fish, Quality 2: strawberry, Quality 2: watermelon!

These were to be taken home.

He invited Zhao Moqing's parents to celebrate the new year together, so he naturally had to prepare everything.

After moving all these things out of the game, Qin Lin entered the game again and brought a transparent empty wine bottle to a container for brewing wine.

According to the time ratio, the wine in this first container was 20 years old.

Qin Lin aimed the bottle at the valve and filled it with wine. Holding it in his hand, he focused and saw the note.

[Qinglin Medicine Wine: Quality 2]

[This is a special medicinal wine. It has a special effect. It nourishes blood and vital energy +2, nourishes the kidneys and strengthens the body +2, treats frequent urine needs +2, and has texture +2!]

Qin Lin looked at the note and realized that there was an additional attribute compared to before.

That was texture +2.

At first, Qin Lin's medicinal wine did not have any texture attributes, but now, it had a texture +2 attribute.

He hurried to the other two punch containers to investigate.

As expected, the freshly brewed wine did not have any texture attribute, and the second batch of soaked wine also had a texture attribute of +1.

Qin Lin held the wine in his hand and took a sip. With just one sip, his eyes lit up.

He was a man who didn't like to drink.

However, under the +2 attribute, the mellow fragrance was really indescribable. It was classic!

Qin Lin brought the bottle of wine out of the game. He believed that this New Year's Eve meal was definitely unique.

If it were Chen Shengfei, Ma Liewen, and the other tycoons who knew the scale of this meal, they would probably rush over as soon as they received a call.

But when he loaded the things into the car and got into the driver's seat to start it up, he was suddenly dumbfounded.

He had been drinking!

Chapter 143: Kneeling on the Keyboard! This Isn't Right!

"Tsk!" Qin Lin suddenly wanted to slap himself.

He had been careless.

If he drank, he wouldn't be stupid enough to get behind the wheel. Many tragedies caused by drunk driving were ultimately caused by the driver's bad luck.

He could only take out his phone and call for a designated driver.

When he logged in to find a driver, his head hurt again.

In the suburbs, there was actually no way for the program to locate him.

This...

In the end, he could only call the transport team's supervisor, Zhao Liyuan.

"President Qin, I'm transporting goods at your factory. What are your orders?" Zhao Liyuan's tone was even more respectful than before.

Qinglin Food Company was developing faster than he had expected. When it first outsourced its business to them, it was only a factory. Now, several factories were ready to start work.

Just the outsourcing business of Qinglin Food Company was enough to support this convoy.

"Captain Zhao, I have something to trouble you with." Qin Lin had no choice but to make up an excuse. "I drank a little with a client in the warehouse. It was only after the client left that I realized that I couldn't drive anymore. I can't even locate a substitute driver."

On the other side, Zhao Liyuan revealed a stunned expression.

President Qin...

Although he didn't understand why President Qin had to go to that warehouse to drink with someone and couldn't drive himself in the end, he didn't ask further. He directly called a subordinate who was moving ketchup into the car and headed to that warehouse.

Qin Lin didn't wait long before Zhao Liyuan arrived.

"Drive my car back." Zhao Liyuan instructed the young man as soon as he got out of the car. Then, he walked towards Qin Lin and said with a smile, "President Qin, where are you going now? I'll be your driver this afternoon."

Naturally, he wouldn't let anyone else have the chance to drive him.

This was a good opportunity to improve their relationship. He could not let it go.

He knew very well that as Qinglin Food Company developed in the future, the outsourced transportation business would definitely grow. He could not be the only one. An upper-sized company could not possibly outsource transportation to a single company.

Zhao Liyuan walked to the car and opened the door for Qin Lin. After Qin Lin got into the car, he got into the driver's seat.

After Qin Lin got into the car, he said, "Let's go to Youcheng County. I want to bring some things back."

"Alright!" Zhao Liyuan immediately started the car and drove towards the county.

When they arrived at Youcheng County, Qin Lin moved everything home before letting Zhao Liyuan send him to the villa. When they arrived, he got out of the car and said, "Captain Zhao, sorry to trouble you."

Zhao Liyuan immediately said, "President Qin, why are you being so polite with me? If you encounter such a thing again in the future, you can just call me if you think I'm worthy."

"Sure!" Qin Lin smiled and nodded.

He knew what Zhao Liyuan was thinking. As long as the other party did not make a mistake, he would not terminate the contract.

When they entered the villa, Qin Lin received a call from Chen Li.

He answered it and said, "Chief Chen, what are your instructions?"

Chen Li's laughter could be heard. "There are no instructions, but there is a notice. After New Year's Day, the county has a meeting to summarize the past and look into the future. They will invite the county's corporate elites to participate. This quota was originally decided three months ago. This time, Sun Xian specifically instructed that you must come."

Qin Lin naturally knew what these so-called corporate elites were. They were probably the big bosses with higher strength in the county.

Three months ago he was naturally not qualified to attend such a summary meeting.

With the influence of Qinglin Food Company and the mountain villa, he should be qualified now!

Time passed.

Because he had an appointment with Zhao Moqing's parents for the New Year's gathering, Qin Lin, his mother, and Zhao Moqing left the villa in the evening and returned to Youcheng County to prepare.

Today, Qin Lin was going to personally cook fish.

After learning how to cook fish, he had to perform from time to time.

Seeing Qin Lin take the initiative to bring up the fish, Zhao Moqing teased with a smile, "Someone is finally willing to make fish again. Didn't I discover it last time? You're afraid I'll scold you if you don't cook for me, right?"

How could Qin Lin not understand the hidden meaning? "I'll cook for you when I have time in the future," he quickly said.

"Hmph!" Zhao Moqing's pretty face revealed satisfaction and a hint of arrogance.

Lin Fen came in and said, "Moqing, ask when your parents will arrive."

Zhao Moqing said, "I just called. They should be here soon."

As she spoke, there was already a trace of rice fragrance emanating from the kitchen.

That was naturally the meal cooked by the Quality 2 Xiangshui Tribute Rice.

...

Youcheng County's First Class district.

Zhao Xianhong parked the car and got out.

He had been in a good mood recently. After his son got married, his daughter also found a good husband. Everyone could see how promising his son-in-law was.

He didn't even need to worry about his children anymore. He was about to rise another level in school.

Chen Xiao also got out of the car with Li Jiawen.

"When is Moyun coming over?" Zhao Xianhong asked his daughter-in-law.

Li Jiawen explained, "Dad, it's New Year's Eve today. KTV has been busy all day. He'll make arrangements first and come over later."

Zhao Xianhong nodded. "Let's go up first!"

When Lin Fen heard the doorbell, she opened the door immediately. When she saw the three of them, she said happily, "Chen Xiao, in-law, and Xiao Wen, come in quickly. The meal is just about to be ready."

"Auntie, I can smell it. It's the fragrance of Xiangshui Tribute Rice," Li Jiawen said with a smile. She was craving it.

After eating the Xiangshui Tribute Rice at Qin Lin's place, she felt that the difference in the rice outside was too great.

Unfortunately, the small bag of rice given by Qin Lin was gone after a few meals.

The three of them were ushered in.

When the food was almost ready, Zhao Moyun also mysteriously came with a bag. After entering, he said apologetically, "I'm a little busy. I'm not late, am I?"

Chapter 144: Kneeling on the Keyboard! This Isn't Right! 2

Zhao Moqing said, "Brother, you're just on time. We're just serving the dishes."

Zhao Moyun smiled and said, "That's good. After a busy day, I'm starving."

Lin Fen also greeted them. "Everyone sit down. Xiao Lin is making fish. It's almost ready."

After the group arrived at the table, Zhao Moyun saw the bottle of medicinal wine that Qin Lin had brought out. "Is it that wine again? Dad, shall we have a drink?"

He had drunk the wine before and naturally knew what effects it had.

"Yes." Zhao Xianhong nodded when he saw the wine.

The last time his daughter and son-in-law moved, he knew the effect of this wine after drinking it. Even though he was old and weak, he was still very enthusiastic about his wife after returning home.

Father and son poured a cup.

"Eh, this wine is different from last time." Zhao Moyun couldn't help but be surprised.

He ran a KTV and inevitably dealt with alcohol. This wine tasted far better than the last one.

Moreover, he had drunk 15 years of Maotai before. The taste was not as good as this wine.

“The fish is here. Everyone, try it.” Qin Lin quickly brought out a large basin of fish and placed it at the center of the table.

He did not play any tricks tonight. There was only a large pot of boiled fish. In addition to the side dishes, he also added some braised eel.

This basin of boiled fish had a taste +3, texture +3, appetite +1.

“This boiled fish looks delicious. Qin Lin, I didn’t expect your culinary skills to be so good.” Li Jiawen was a foodie and praised when she saw the big pot of boiled fish.

Please reading on Myb o x no ve l. com

Zhao Moyun, Chen Xiao, and Zhao Xianhong also nodded. From the looks of it, Qin Lin’s pot of fish was definitely better than those chefs.

“Jiawen, try it. Qin Lin’s fish is delicious!” Zhao Moqing said proudly. After all, she knew how delicious her husband’s fish was.

Li Jiawen didn’t stand on ceremony. She picked up a piece of fish and placed it in her mouth. Before she could swallow it, she couldn’t help but pick up a second piece of fish because it was too delicious.

Even the chefs of the big restaurants could not make such delicious fish.

Zhao Moyun looked at his wife and picked up a piece of fish with his chopsticks. After eating it, he was in disbelief. “Qin Lin, I didn’t know that you were so good at cooking after knowing you for so long. This fish is too delicious.”

When Chen Xiao and Zhao Xianhong saw this, they also picked up their chopsticks and tasted it. The two of them were also attracted by the deliciousness of the fish, which made them even more satisfied with Qin Lin as their son-in-law.

After getting along with this son-in-law, they realized that there were more and more advantages.

The meal was thoroughly enjoyable for both families.

There was nothing left of the big pot of boiled fish.

“By the way, I prepared gifts for everyone today,” Zhao Moyun suddenly said. Then, he took out the bag he had brought earlier and handed over small gift boxes from his face. He first gave them to Li Jiawen, then Chen Xiao, Zhao Xianhong, and Zhao Moqing.

In the end, he didn’t even forget about Lin Fen. “Happy New Year, Auntie.”

“Child, it’s enough that you came. Why did you have to give me a gift?” Lin Fen was a little embarrassed. After all, there was no need for Zhao Moyun to give her a gift during the New Year.

“Everyone, open it and take a look. I especially chose it,” Zhao Moyun said with a smile. Christmas Eve had traumatized his brother-in-law, Qin Lin. When he returned home, he almost knelt on the keyboard. Therefore, he had chosen the gift early today.

Chen Xiao, Li Jiawen, and the others opened the gift box and saw a golden necklace inside. Even Zhao Moqing and Lin Fen's box was also a golden necklace. Only Zhao Xianhong's gift was a watch.

"Hubby, you're the best!" Li Jiawen hugged Zhao Moyun and kissed him.

"How can I accept this gift..." Lin Fen was clearly embarrassed.

However, Chen Xiao hurriedly said, "Lin Fen, just accept my son's gift. If you don't accept it, you're not giving me face. I won't shop with you anymore. Come, I'll put it on for you."

When Lin Fen heard this, she smiled and did not hesitate anymore. She let Chen Xiao do whatever he wanted.

"By the way, I've also prepared a gift for everyone." Qin Lin smiled when he saw this. He also got up and walked into the room to take out the gifts he had prepared.

He first gave it to Zhao Moqing and Lin Fen, then to Zhao Xianhong and Chen Xiao. "Dad, Mom, this is a gift specially prepared for you."

When Chen Xiao and Zhao Xianhong arrived, they also did not expect their son-in-law to prepare a gift for them. After all, they had never seen any son-in-law do this.

The surprise on their faces could not be concealed. No matter what their son-in-law had given them, it meant that he was filial to them. How thoughtful.

As parents, the two of them were sincerely happy for their daughter.

"I knew you wanted to prepare a surprise for my parents' wedding anniversary," Zhao Moqing said, then asked Qin Lin curiously, "What's in it?"

"Open it," Qin Lin said.

"Hmph, you're still pretending to be mysterious." Zhao Moqing snorted and impatiently opened the gift box. An exquisite and beautiful yellow jade ring was imprinted in her eyes.

Chen Xiao, Lin Fen, and Zhao Xianhong opened the gift box and looked at the exquisite ring inside in surprise.

"It's so beautiful. There are even words!" Zhao Moqing was pleasantly surprised. When she took out the ring and saw the words, she couldn't help but hug Qin Lin and kiss him.

Qin Lin also smiled as he took out his ring and put it on. He placed it on Zhao Moqing's finger and said, "Do you like the couple ring?"

"Okay!" Zhao Moqing nodded with a face full of gratitude. Qin Lin requested for a night full of love, and she agreed to reward him.

Zhao Xianhong and Chen Xiao naturally saw the words engraved on their rings. It was their wedding anniversary.

Chapter 145: Kneeling on the Keyboard! This Isn't Right! 3

The two of them looked at each other and were very glad that they didn't forcefully separate their daughter from Qin Lin back then. Otherwise, who knew which family's daughter would benefit from such a good son-in-law?

"Mom, Dad, let me take a look." Li Jiawen curiously took the rings from Chen Xiao and Zhao Xianhong's hands. "Wow, this is Dad and Mom's anniversary. Qin Lin, you're so good at coming. Moqing, I'm so envious of you. Your husband is too romantic, unlike your brother, who doesn't have any romantic cells."

"Didn't you say that I was the best just now..." Zhao Moyun muttered softly. Then, he looked at Qin Lin bitterly. He was still not prepared enough.

This brother-in-law knew how to do things. It looked like he would have to ask him for advice later. Next time there was a festival, he would have to share romantic ideas with him. Otherwise, he would have to kneel on the keyboard sooner or later.

...

The next day.

As soon as Qin Lin arrived at the villa, he went to the Sea of Flowers to take a look. After Zhang Guizhu joined, she would accompany the little squirrels in the Sea of Flowers after the tourists came and left. At the same time, she would tidy up the three Squirrel Houses.

According to her, pine nuts stored in the Squirrel Houses were best cleaned up immediately after a rainy day. Such factory-produced pine nuts could easily spoil in a humid environment and make squirrels sick.

And squirrels wouldn't have that knowledge.

Qin Lin hadn't noticed this before, but he was glad that nothing had happened to the squirrels when they took away so many pine nuts.

When Qin Lin arrived at the center of the Sea of Flowers, Zhang Guizhu said in surprise, "President Qin, you've trained these squirrels to be very smart. Two of them actually know how to check trash."

She took out a small paper ball and threw it to the ground. Red Hair didn't move, but two wild squirrels had already scurried down and actually snatched the small paper ball.

In the end, one of them won. It ran towards a trash can with a small ball of paper and threw it in. When it ran back, it even squeaked at Red Hair.

Zhang Guizhu tried to throw another ball of paper. This time, the one that had lost previously seized the opportunity and rushed over to grab it.

Qin Lin was a little surprised to see this.

Please reading on Mybo x novel. com

He had no idea that wild squirrels knew this skill.

It seemed that the method of training wild squirrels with Red Hair was very effective.

Squeak!

Red Hair clearly didn't want to bother with the wild squirrel and jumped onto Qin Lin's shoulder.

Zhang Guizhu was teasing the other squirrels with pine nuts. It was obvious that she was very used to this job.

Qin Lin rubbed Red Hair's head and teased the little guy before leaving the Sea of Flowers.

When she returned to the lobby bar, she saw that Zhao Moqing had also arrived at the villa. He had already brought four assistants to calculate the financial data and did not disturb her.

It was New Year's Day. A lot of things had to be tallied.

He simply sat down, turned to his mental screen, and played the game.

He controlled the game character to leave Ore Town. This time, when he reached the park, he saw an NPC with a long tall hat standing in front of the park's bulletin board.

It turned out to be the mayor of Ore Town, Thomas.

In previous versions, Mayor Thomas had been the NPC who informed the game characters to go to Ore Town to inherit the ranch, or the NPC who was personally responsible for the operation and conduct of the festival. He had always been concerned about the affairs of the residents of Ore Town.

Qin Lin controlled his game character to walk to the noticeboard and saw a message pop up:

[In order to promote prosperity, the Ore Town has decided to prepare for the dog-catching Frisbee competition. The pet merchant has already opened up the dog-catching Frisbee training. Everyone can bring your dog to his place to learn skills. When the competition is held, everyone can bring your dog to participate—Thomas Announcement!]

Dog-catching Frisbee competition?

Qin Lin remembered that in the old version, there was a reward for this competition. Among them was a fruit of the Tree of Strength.

Moreover, in addition to the dog-catching Frisbee competition, there were also horse racing competitions. There were still rewards and a fruit of the Tree of Strength.

Something wasn't right.

Qin Lin suddenly thought of something.

Where was the dog?

Where was the dog in his game?

He thought some NPC would give him a dog?

Where was the NPC?

Chapter 146: Qinglin Villa Makes People Back Home Proud!

Qin Lin's mood immediately soured.

The game actually owed him a dog.

If it wasn't for the plot that had suddenly triggered this dog-catching Frisbee competition, he wouldn't have noticed this problem yet.

The key was that the pet merchants sold so many pets, but they didn't sell dogs.

Wasn't that embarrassing?

There was probably no way to complete this plot mission.

In the future, he would not be able to participate in the dog-catching Frisbee competition anymore.

Boohoo!

A dog barked suddenly.

"Wang Cai, slow down. Don't hit anyone," Lin Fen scolded.

Qin Lin looked over and saw Wang Cai running back to Lin Fen's feet in a fawning manner, as if it knew its mistake.

This seemed to be a ready-made dog?

Qin Lin immediately shouted, "Wang Cai."

.....

The dog came running at his shout and crouched in front of him, whining.

"Let's go. I'll take you to buy toys." Qin Lin took Wang Cai's dog leash and pulled it out of the hall. Then, they left the villa and drove to the warehouse.

Previously, he had brought things out of the game. He could bring out living things like fish, mackerel, and squirrels. This time, he wanted to see if he could bring living things in.

When he reached the warehouse, he squatted down and hugged Wang Cai. With a thought, he disappeared from the warehouse. When he reappeared, he was already in the game.

"Woof!"

The dog barked. It seemed to be shocked by the scene in front of it. As it barked, it shook its head wildly around.

After a while, when it was sure there were no problems, it began to scurry across the pasture, as if very curious about its new environment.

"Wang Cai, come here." Qin Lin walked to the entrance of the ranch and called out to Wang Cai.

His palm shot forward, blocked by a transparent barrier.

That wall of air remained, preventing him from leaving the ranch.

Woof.

Wang Cai scurried to his feet.

He pointed outside and said, "Wang Cai, get out."

He wanted to see if the dog could get out.

Wang Cai understood what he meant and walked out of the ranch. Suddenly, he bumped into something and was blocked.

It seemed the dog had no way out.

Qin Lin frowned. He wondered if it was okay for him to quit the game and leave Wang Cai inside.

Otherwise, the dog would not be able to continue with the Frisbee plot.

With that in mind, he exited the game.

When he looked at the game screen in his mind again, something that surprised him happened. A black dog appeared at the feet of the game character.

The dog was rubbing against the game character, happy red hearts popping out of his head.

This was how the dog acted cute in the game.

At the same time, a prompt appeared in the game.

[Obtained a dog, its breed is a wolfhound. Name: Wang Cai. Binding in progress... Binding complete.]

In other words, this black dog was Wang Cai. However, Wang Cai had completely turned into a 2D cartoon in the game.

Seeing this, Qin Lin decisively tried to control the game character to pet the dog. After a happy heart appeared on the dog's head, he clicked to let the dog follow him. Then, he controlled the game character to leave the ranch and head to Ore Town to find the pet merchant.

This time, the dog in the game followed the game character out of the ranch and into the Ore Town without any obstruction.

This was amazing.

He wondered if he could bring people into the game and then do the same?

However, he would not ask for trouble by trying such a thing.

Qin Lin controlled the game character to bring the dog to the pet merchant. When he clicked on the pet merchant, there was indeed an option for the dog's Frisbee skill.

Clicking on this option triggered the plot conversation:

[Do you have a dog too? You can learn the skill of catching Frisbees here. After teaching your dog, it can participate in the town's dog-catching Frisbees competition! However, you need to pay me my corresponding fee!]

[Do you want your dog to learn the skill of catching Frisbees?]

Qin Lin directly chose to learn.

The pet merchant spoke again.

[Don't worry and let me train the dog. Now I'll take you to the training ground!]

The scene changed. Like an old game, a small scene map appeared for training dogs, where they could train to catch Frisbee.

Following the pet merchant's instructions, he threw the Frisbee and controlled the dog to run, leap, and catch it.

After repeating this small game a few times, the plot progress bar was full. A notification appeared:

[Congratulations, your dog has learned the Frisbee skill. Its ability has increased!]

Wang Cai learned it already?

Qin Lin focused his attention on the words 'dog's ability has increased'.

In the old version of the game, training a dog with a Frisbee was something that would make the dog smarter, able to make a more powerful catch.

He wondered how much this increase in ability would affect Wang Cai.

The pet merchant also appeared again.

[The teaching is over! I'll give you a Frisbee. Train it diligently. When the dog plays in the Frisbee competition, try to get a good ranking!]

Qin Lin didn't know much about training pets, but he had seen the video about training dogs to catch the Frisbee. It didn't seem simple. This didn't seem like throwing the ball out for the dog to pick up. It would take a long time to train for the dog to catch the Frisbee.

Had Wang Cai learned it so easily?

Qin Lin controlled the game character to go to the park's announcement board again. The content had changed:

[The dog-catching Frisbee competition hasn't started yet. Please wait patiently!]

Seeing this, Qin Lin controlled the game character to bring the dog back to the ranch. Then, he entered the game with a thought.

Chapter 147: Qinglin Villa Makes People Back Home Proud! 2

When he reappeared in the ranch, he found himself holding a Frisbee.

Woof!

Wang Cai's cry rang in his ears. He saw the dog looking at the Frisbee in his hand and jumping around as if it wanted to play.

When Qin Lin saw this, he swung his hand and the Frisbee flew out. The dog also rushed out to chase after the Frisbee.

The moment the Frisbee landed, the dog actually leaped up and bit it. It was fast and accurate. Then he ran toward him again and handed him the Frisbee in his mouth when he got close.

Qin Lin took the Frisbee and the dog jumped at him again. It was obvious that it still wanted to play.

He swung the Frisbee out again.

He used more force this time. The Frisbee flew farther and faster, but the dog also seemed to be faster than before. It still caught up with the leap and caught the Frisbee accurately.

The dog popped the Frisbee into his hand again.

Next, Qin Lin tried various ways to throw the Frisbee. It was either fast, slow, high, or low, but the dog could bite the Frisbee accurately every time.

The dog was a little awesome now.

Most importantly, it did not take the dog long to learn this skill. It only took a few minutes.

If those dog trainers knew this, their jaws would probably drop.

.....

After playing with the dog for a while more, he brought it out of the game and back to the warehouse, not caring that it wanted more.

Woof, woof!

The dog clearly still wanted to play and whined at Qin Lin.

Qin Lin ignored the dog and walked straight to the car.

Seeing this, the dog could only immediately follow dejectedly.

Qin Lin started the car and soon returned to the villa. However, just as he was about to get out of the car, he heard a click. He turned around and saw in disbelief that Wang Cai had actually opened the car door and rushed out of the car with the Frisbee in its mouth.

“What?” Qin Lin was stunned.

Did the dog open the door itself?

In just a short while, Wang Cai had already entered the villa.

Qin Lin was a little shocked. He was sure that Wang Cai did not have this ability in the past. Had this dog really been affected by the increase in his gaming ability and become smarter?

This was really possible. After all, his physical fitness had increased after eating the fruit of the Tree of Strength.

Wang Cai had already rushed into the villa and arrived at Lin Fen's feet. He bit the Frisbee and called out to her.

Apparently, if the male owner didn't play with it, it would find another owner.

Why couldn't it play Frisbee without its male owner?

Lin Fen saw the Frisbee in the dog's mouth and smiled. "Did Xiao Lin buy this Frisbee for you?"

She knew what the Frisbee was for. She took it and tried to throw it gently. The dog immediately jumped up and bit the Frisbee.

That surprised Lin Fen.

The dog had this skill?

Woof!

Wang Cai barked excitedly when it saw that Lin Fen was willing to play with it.

It seemed to know that it wasn't going to have much fun in the hall. It ran straight for the unopened space in the backyard. When it reached the door, it didn't forget to bark at Lin Fen, as if urging her to follow.

Miraculously, Lin Fen understood what the dog meant and ran toward the backyard with it.

She sensed that something was different about the dog. There was something clever about him.

When Qin Lin returned to the villa's hall, Yu Shui found him and reported, "Boss, there's already the first batch of triangular plum potted plants in the garden."

The triangular plum pot plantation was naturally the area where Yu Shui was in charge of transplanting the potted plants.

Yu Shui was the person in charge of the potted garden and was in charge of more than a dozen landscapers.

After the past two weeks, the first batch of potted plants was finally transplanted successfully.

His initial idea of a triangular plum pot was not to make money, but to serve as a tourist souvenir for the scenic spot.

Tourist memorabilia had a special meaning for tourists, but it was also very important for scenic spots.

After tourists bought this triangular plum potted plant, flower friends would develop feelings for one potted plant every day.

Only people who had really raised potted plants could understand such feelings.

These people looked at the seven-colored triangular plum potted plants produced by Qinglin Villa every day. When they were free, they would subconsciously think of Qinglin Villa.

If they wanted to go out and play, the first place they would think of was Qinglin Villa.

Which was another reason why so many tourist attractions were selling tourist souvenirs.

“Let’s go and take a look!” When Qin Lin heard this news, he followed Yu Shui to the potted garden.

The potted garden was nothing like it had been at first. Simulated wooden fences had been set up outside, and dense bougainvillea had climbed over the fence.

These were vine bougainvillea. Unlike mature bougainvillea, vine bougainvillea were difficult to use for creating a sea of flowers. However, they had the advantage of being able to climb vines and be used for decoration.

Now, the fence around the potted plant garden was covered with vines and triangular plums. It was a little beautiful, but the remaining water made it look good.

After entering, he could see the 50 seven-colored triangular plums of Quality 2 and two seven-colored triangular plums of Quality 3 in the distance.

Unlike the dense leaves and carefully trimmed art of the triangular plums in the Sea of Flowers, these triangular plums were a little casual. After all, they were only used to transplant the triangular plum potted plants.

In the middle area, a reservoir had been dug. There was also an irrigation system laid by water pipes. Beside these water pipes were pots of exquisite potted plums.

The flower pots all had a map of the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea with the words ‘Qinglin Villa’ on them.

These words were also used by tourists who could subconsciously influence purchases.

Qin Lin asked Yu Shui, “Tell me about the potted plant transplant.”

Chapter 148: Qinglin Villa Makes People Back Home Proud! 3

Yu Shui also introduced it to Qin Lin. “Boss, the triangular plum branches grow very quickly. The Sea of Flowers basically needs to be trimmed once a week, but this transplant doesn’t need dense branches or artistic styling. If there’s control, we can trim the branches from different parts and transplant them. We can basically transplant some every day.”

“Those 50 2.5-meter mature plants can basically transplant 20 pots a day, or a total of 1,000 pots a day. Those two 3.5-meter mature plants can also transplant 35 pots a day. Two can transplant 70 pots a day.”

Qin Lin immediately calculated carefully.

The attributes of the potted plants that were transplanted at 30% were greatly reduced, but they were still at 2%. Previously, the price was 400 yuan a pot, so 70 pots was 28,000 yuan.

The Quality 2 transplanted potted plant was already Quality 1 after its attributes decreased greatly. The price was set at 100 yuan per potted plant, so 1,000 potted plants meant 100,000 yuan.

If these potted plants could be sold, they could bring in 128,000 yuan for the villa on that day.

This was an unexpected surprise.

With that in mind, Qin Lin called Gao Yaoyao and asked her to come over.

Since the first batch of potted plants could already be released from the garden, they had to make some arrangements. As for the sales, Gao Yaoyao had to arrange for the service staff to cooperate.

Gao Yaoyao soon arrived at the triangular plum garden.

She had also guessed the reason. As soon as she arrived, she asked, "Boss, are the triangular plum potted plants about to be released?"

Qin Lin nodded and said, "Tomorrow, arrange for two waiters to cooperate with Yu Shui and the others to take 100 potted plants to test the effect."

Gao Yaoyao nodded. "Okay, I'll arrange it."

.....

100 potted plants were quite a lot. If they were placed side by side, they could occupy a lot of areas.

The next day, when Qin Lin brought the mature items from the game to the villa, Yu Shui had already brought 100 triangular plum potted plants to an empty space at the entrance of the villa.

Five of the pots were transplanted with triangular plums. One could tell the difference at a glance. Compared to the other pots, they stood out.

Two waiters nearby were also muttering something:

"...This is a seven-colored triangular plum potted plant specially cultivated by our villa. Only our Qinglin Villa has it in the country. Moreover, as long as we take good care of our triangular plum potted plants, they can basically bloom all year round..."

Naturally, he was reciting the introduction in case the tourists asked him some questions he couldn't answer.

"Boss, you're here?" Yu Shui hurriedly greeted Qin Lin.

"Continue with your work." Qin Lin nodded at him and entered the hall to give Gao Yaoyao some instructions before leaving the villa to return to the county.

He had to go to that summary meeting in the county later. He had to go back and take a shower and change his clothes.

Yu Shui watched Qin Lin leave, feeling a little nervous.

He was now in charge of the triangular plum pot plantation and had more than a dozen people under him. If the sale of this potted plant today was not ideal, he would be embarrassed. He would definitely not be able to raise his head in front of the others.

Even worse, the villa might not even need a potted garden anymore.

Soon.

The villa welcomed the day's tourists. Several taxis pulled into the parking lot and a group of young people got out.

“Students, this is Qinglin Villa.” Chen Xue introduced her university classmates as soon as she alighted.

The last time she went home, she accidentally discovered a good place like Qinglin Villa. She posted some videos of the Sea of Flowers in her dormitory’s group of best friends. When she returned to school, she was tortured by these three dormitory best friends. They said that there was such a beautiful place in her hometown, but as their best friend, she didn’t even bring them to play once in two years.

But she was really wronged. She didn’t even know there was such a villa two years ago.

She heard that this place was called Fuhai Villa in the past and did not have much business.

In any case, she really admired the boss of Qinglin Villa for making a villa with little business so popular.

Especially after Qinglin Villa became more and more popular, these three best friends of hers started nagging even more. This was because Youcheng County had become very famous in their class.

Because Qinglin Villa was in Youcheng County.

Qinglin Villa had made her, a native, proud.

Naturally, after the students in the class found out that Qinglin Villa was in her hometown, many of them agreed to come to Qinglin Villa one day to play and let her be their guide.

Chen Xue brought her classmates into the villa. The moment they entered, they saw the area where the triangular plum potted plants were placed.

Quality 2 seven-colored triangular plum potted plants had the attributes of gorgeous +2, ornamental +2, and entry +1.

The seven-colored triangular plum potted plant of Quality 1 also had a gorgeous +1 attribute enhancement.

Therefore, the group was inevitably attracted by these triangular plum potted plants.

“Chen Xue, this potted plant is so beautiful. Why didn’t you tell me that Qinglin Villa sold this seven-colored triangular plum potted plant?” A girl in a short skirt and thick leggings jogged over.

Another girl also said, “It’s true, it’s small and exquisite. This pot looks prettier than the potted plants I raised in the past. As someone who loves to grow flowers, Chen Xue, I’ll settle the score with you when we get back.”

Chen Xue felt wronged. When she came here previously, there were no such potted plants at all. Moreover, these potted plants were indeed very beautiful. She even wanted to buy one and put it in the dormitory.

At this moment, Yu Shui explained to Chen Xue, “Everyone, this is a seven-colored triangular plum potted plant specially cultivated by our villa. It was only launched today and has not been sold before.”

The first girl who ran over immediately said, “Uncle, are these the only sales today? Can I order a pot now?”

Chapter 149: Qinglin Villa Makes People Back Home Proud! 4

Another girl, who also loved flowers, chimed in, “Yeah, can we order now? What’s the price?”

“I want to order a pot too.” Chen Xue also said that if there were only 100 pots, the other tourists would not be able to get them if they came.

“You can order them. There are two types of potted plants. One is 100 yuan per potted plant, and the other is 400 yuan per potted plant. If you want to order them...” Yu Shui immediately introduced them, unable to stop talking for a moment.

The two attendants at the side looked at each other. Uncle Yu didn’t seem to need their help. He seemed to be able to handle it himself.

As time passed, more tourists arrived. Then they were surprised to see the seven-colored triangular plum potted plants in the area around the entrance.

Quite a few tourists were intrigued.

In today’s society, most people kept potted plants on their balconies, whether for decoration or air purification.

This beautiful-looking seven-color triangular plum potted plant was obviously very good. Moreover, they had to bring some souvenirs back when they came out to play.

Therefore, there were surprisingly many people who ordered potted plants.

Yu Shui was relieved. This was a good start.

...

After Qin Lin returned home and took a shower, he also headed to the Youcheng County government. The summary meeting that Chen Li mentioned was held here. It was mainly a summary of economic development. Other than the people from the various departments in the county, there were also the bosses of the companies in Youcheng County.

“President Qin, over here.” Zhong Lei went forward when he saw Qin Lin. “Chief Chen is also speaking today. He’s preparing a script now. He asked me to pick you up.”

“Okay!” Qin Lin nodded and followed Zhong Lei upstairs to a very large hall.

At the front of the hall was a large multimedia screen that was broadcasting the results of Youcheng County’s economic achievements last year. On the tables below were name tags with names written on them.

Please reading on Myb oxn o ve l. com

If these names were placed outside Youcheng County, it would definitely not be a big deal. However, in a small place like Youcheng County, for their names to appear here, they could be considered notable figures.

Moreover, these seating arrangements were somewhat particular. It depended on either financial resources, size, or influence.

Surprisingly, Qin Lin saw his name at the first seat in the second row.

At this moment, many people were already sitting in those seats and chatting with each other. What made Qin Lin embarrassed was that almost all of these people were middle-aged men, and none of them were young.

Wasn't he going up a little too abruptly?

Some of the people inside naturally noticed Qin Lin and Zhong Lei, but no one cared. They treated the two of them as county staff.

"Hey, who do you think this Qin Lin is?" A boss asked curiously.

Another person was also intrigued. "I've never heard of him before. He's ranked 11th this year. Other than the 10 people who are still the same, it's only a matter of time before Youcheng County's Food Oil gets pushed to the third row."

A man with glasses said, "I know. This Qin Lin is the boss of Qinglin Villa and Qinglin Food Company!"

These words caused a commotion around them. Their businesses were all in Youcheng County, so they naturally knew about Qinglin Villa and Qinglin Food Company because they were too popular.

Those who were well-informed knew that the county had directly approved more than 50 million yuan to the other party. Just the importance the county placed on it alone was enough to surpass most of them.

"President Hu, is this news true?" someone asked curiously.

President Hu said with certainty, "Of course it's true. Do you know President Sun of Youcheng First Construction Company? He was the one who did the construction of Qinglin Villa. I heard President Sun mention it before and even said that he admired him."

Someone asked again, "What does the boss of Qinglin Villa look like?"

President Hu explained, "I heard that he's very young. It's precisely because of this that President Sun admires him."

"How young is he?" someone else asked curiously.

As these people were chatting, they suddenly looked towards a seat where a young man who seemed to have just graduated from university was sitting.

The name tag on that seat belonged to Qin Lin, who was first in the second row.

In an instant, the scene seemed to be a little quiet, followed by soft exclamations.

"F*ck..."

"It's him?"

“So young ...”

Qin Lin’s age had clearly exceeded everyone’s expectations!

He was awfully young!

Chapter 150: Application for Scenic View 4A? County Request!

Translator: Atlas Studios Editor: Atlas Studios

Qin Lin knew this would happen.

At such an occasion, a young man among a group of middle-aged people would definitely attract attention.

He could only nod politely at the men.

“There you are, President Qin,” came a familiar shout.

Sun Ming walke Iso came. Qin Lin saw Chen Li and Sun Xian, whom he had heard Chen Li mention several times.

Sun Xian was also famous in Youcheng County and had a very good reputation in the hearts of the people.

Because before this Sun Xian had come, Youcheng County had been very poor. No high-speed roads, no train stations, no business squares... all the entertainment had been very scarce.

It was said that before that, the county still owed more than 20 billion yuan. As for how they owed it, no one knew. Anyway, they did not do anything serious at that time.

However, after Sun Xian came, they had high-speed trains, train stations, and a commercial square. Moreover, the other party had accurately formulated an all-domain tourism+ plan to quickly improve the people’s livelihood and entertainment.

These were things that the people of Youcheng County could accurately sense.

The economic summary was actually very simple. It was an official celebration of merit. It roughly described the achievements of the various companies last year and their contributions to the county. Then, what the county had achieved.

Naturally, Qinglin Villa and Qinglin Food Company were also mentioned, especially Qinglin Villa.

This also made those bosses look at Qin Lin in unison.

It was almost noon when the summary meeting ended. The county had also prepared lunch for everyone in the cafeteria.

If it were any other time, these bosses would definitely not go to the canteen to eat. But today’s occasion was different. They chatted with each other as they walked towards the canteen. Being able to eat in the county canteen today represented their status in the county.

Naturally, the county would not really cook according to the usual canteen standards today. They had hired a chef outside and specially prepared the ingredients.

These had to be flexible.

“President Qin, let’s sit over there and talk about the villa project.” Sun Ming invited Qin Lin into the canteen.

“Please, President Sun.” Qin Lin nodded and followed Sun Ming to a table.

Sun Ming sat down and said, “President Qin, the construction of your villa and the county’s support fund have basically been completed. They’re all at the finish line. You can start setting up.”

Qin Lin nodded. The county’s support fund project included rafting, bridal chamber, staff dormitory, restaurant, and a comprehensive sea of flowers.

The comprehensive Sea of Flowers was built not just by Youcheng First Construction Company, it was also contracted by three greening companies. It would take a longer time to complete. After all, many flowers had seasonal requirements.

Now that the project that Youcheng First Construction Company was responsible for had been completed, their villa was about to be set up. This way, they would be able to put it into use in half a month when the test review reached the standard.

Sun Ming continued, “In addition, the foundation of the manor villa has been laid according to President Qin’s design requirements. Does President Qin have any new ideas about the ranch?”
