

The Game 151

Chapter 151: Application for Scenic View 4A? County Request!

Qin Lin had a new idea about the ranch.

This time, after Wang Cai learned the skill of catching the Frisbee, it made him think of horse racing in the game. Perhaps he could also learn horse racing skills when the time came.

Therefore, he wanted to build a riding track that might be useful in the future.

Besides, it should be good to have some horses on the ranch. They could provide tourists with pictures or experience riding horses.

However, he did not know if the original land was enough. The riding track was too small and petty.

Qin Lin told Sun Ming his thoughts.

As they chatted, Chen Li and a few people from the county department came in to entertain them and chatted with everyone at every table.

“President Sun, Boss Qin, how’s the food today?” Chen Li walked to Qin Lin and Sun Ming’s table and asked with a smile.

Sun Ming teased, “Chief Chen, how about the food? No matter how delicious it is, can it be better than the food in President Qin’s manor?”

“That’s true.” Chen Li smiled and said to Qin Lin, “Boss Qin, eat first. I have something to discuss with you after eating.”

“Okay!” Qin Lin nodded.

After the meal, Chen Li found Qin Lin and brought him to his office. After inviting Qin Lin to sit down, he handed him a document.

Qin Lin took the information in confusion. When he saw the contents, he asked, “Chief Chen, is my villa qualified?”

This information was about the application for 4A Scenic View.

The application for a Grade 4A scenic spot was not simple, and it was not something that any scenic spot could apply for. First, one had to apply for a report from the city-level tourism department. If the city-level application was approved, one had to contact the provincial-level tourism department to evaluate it.

Reading on Myb o xno vel. com ,Please!

The most troublesome thing was the various conditions.

One had to know that after Youcheng County’s comprehensive tourism + program, there were more than 30 scenic spots of all sizes in the county, but only four of them could successfully apply for a 4A scenic spot.

Chen Li smiled and said, "Qinglin Villa isn't qualified now, but it's barely enough after the expansion project is completed. Boss Qin, you can take a look at the conditions for the application. What your villa lacks now is written on it. I've also given you some suggestions."

Qin Lin nodded and read the document.

There were many conditions to apply for the 4A scenic area. The information given by Chen Li listed every condition in detail.

First condition: transportation and transportation problems.

The information given by Chen Li indicated that there were two roads that led directly to the county city. There was also a suggestion written on it: The mountain villa applied to the county city for a special bus.

Second condition: facilities perfected.

The bridal chamber, the restaurant, the shopping center, the rafting project, the sliding grass, the jungle adventure, the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea, and so on.

There were also many suggestions written at the back: Identification information, guidance information perfected, sales center salesperson training, holding a certificate...

Third condition: tourist safety.

Security, surveillance, scenic patrol.

Also given advice: Set up an infirmary.

Fourth condition: hygiene.

When the villa opened for business, it was approved by the county. There was basically no problem. 'Qualified' was written at the back.

Condition five: Post and Telephone Service.

Here, Chen Li wrote that the county would coordinate communication and complete it as soon as possible.

Condition six: tourist shopping.

This had the sales center.

Chen Li's advice: Build at least one specialty shopping product.

When he saw this, Qin Lin felt that the triangular plum potted plants were just in time. He wondered how the trial sales at Yu Shui's side were going.

...

Condition nine: tourist satisfaction.

Suggestions: Establish tourist scores, complain, suggest services.

Condition 10: Market attractiveness, with sufficient visibility and character: (Qualified)

Condition 11: Receive more than 500,000 people a year (Qualified).

These conditions had to be met before the 4A rating would pass.

The last two conditions were undoubtedly the most difficult, but to Qinglin Villa, the last two conditions were the simplest.

After reading Chen Li's information, Qin Lin suddenly realized that his villa would really be qualified to apply for a 4A scenic area.

If he could apply, he would naturally not give up. This was also a form of affirmation to his villa. And 4A meant a national scenic area.

As for 5A, it was at the international level. It had to be upgraded on the basis of 4A. First of all, it had to be at least 4A for three years.

If the 4A upgrade was successful, he would dare to think about 5A three years later.

"Chief Chen, thank you." Qin Lin closed the documents and thanked Chen Li sincerely.

If he wanted to apply for the 4A scenic area, just this information alone could save him countless time. If he were to do it himself, he would definitely waste countless time.

Chen Li waved his hand and said, "Don't thank me. I want Qinglin Villa to rise to 4A more than you do. When Qinglin Villa succeeds, our Youcheng County will have the fifth 4A scenic spot. This is also my political achievement. Perhaps I can rely on the influence of your Qinglin Villa to go further."

These words were a little sensitive, so Chen Li stopped. Then, he said, "In addition, there's something else that the county wants to ask Boss Qin."

"Chief Chen, what is it?" Qin Lin asked curiously. Then, he said, "If I can do it, I'll definitely cooperate with the county."

Chen Li explained, "Boss Qin, several factories of Qinglin Food Company have started production, right?"

Qin Lin nodded and said, "More or less. The last seven production lines are still in labor. They're developing sour and spicy ketchup."

The ketchup he'd gotten from the game earlier had two secret recipes: sweet, sour and spicy.

The sour and sweet sales had basically opened up. Now, there were 35 production lines producing sour and sweet products. In addition to Cheng He, the provincial agent, Deng Guang had also bid for three more foreign agents. They were already on the right track.

Therefore, he planned to use the remaining seven production lines to produce hot and sour flavors. He had already given the formula to Deng Guang and asked him to adjust the equipment.

What Chen Li wanted to say must also be related to Qinglin Ketchup.

As expected, Chen Li said, "Boss Qin, actually, the county has always been paying attention to the production of Qinglin Ketchup. We know that you've already ordered the raw materials from elsewhere. The county wants you to place the raw materials in your hometown."

The word 'hometown' was well used. He was playing the emotional card.

The county had assigned a special person to supervise the direction and completion of the funds given to Qinglin Food Company's Enterprise Guidance Fund, so they naturally knew the detailed situation of Qinglin Food Company.

By the time those factories were all working double shifts to start production, 850,000 bottles of 200g ketchup could be produced on that day. At least 300 million bottles could be produced that year, which was 60,000 tons of ketchup (more than 1.3 million tons of ketchup were produced in the country last year, and 60,000 tons was 1/3 of the ketchup produced by the top 10 brands last year).

Think about it. How many raw materials did 60,000 tons of ketchup require?

If these raw materials could all be placed in Youcheng County, how much wealth, jobs, and livelihood advantages could they create?

Besides, if Qinglin Ketchup could squeeze out one of the top 10 brands, there would be even more demand in the future.

The county naturally wanted to keep this benefit in Youcheng County.

Qin Lin frowned and said, "Chief Chen, it would naturally be best if we could buy ketchup on the spot. We can also save a lot of costs, but Youcheng County can't provide so many raw materials now."

Chen Li nodded and said, "The county naturally knows about this situation. Therefore, the county intends to take out another batch of support funds and let the county take the lead in getting people to plant tomatoes. When the time comes, we'll supply them to Qinglin Food Company."

"Of course. We won't let Qinglin Food Company suffer a loss either. When we sign the contract, we'll do it according to the market price. We'll do whatever needs to be done. As for the problem with the planting, the county will step in to resolve it. Qinglin Food Company will only be responsible for producing and selling at full capacity."

"Alright, if the county has this plan, I'll cooperate with the county." Qin Lin agreed readily. This was a win-win situation.

If conditions allowed, he would naturally want to contribute more to his hometown. However, he had to pay more attention to some aspects of real cooperation.

It wasn't that he didn't trust the county, but he couldn't completely trust the people who planted it. If someone got greedy and planted it and catalyzed it, it would be big trouble.

When the time came, he would have to agree in advance that he would definitely not accept it.

Seeing that Qin Lin had agreed, Chen Li smiled. "Then I'll thank Boss Qin on behalf of the county."

This way, the county could start planting tomatoes in the future.

Tomatoes were actually a lot of places that didn't dare make a big deal out of it, because there were so many places where they were planted that they could easily stall sales.

News of last year's sluggish sales of tomatoes was also endless.

But who asked Youcheng County to produce Qinglin Ketchup? This natural advantage was meant to be a big deal.

Chapter 152: Supreme Set Meal! The Real Watermelon Is Mature!

Qin Lin quickly left the county government.

He had to settle the shortcomings of applying for the 4A scenic spot first.

Actually, Chen Li's insufficient advice was not difficult. It was just very cumbersome.

Among them, applying for a bus route was the easiest. He needed to just write an application and the county would take care of it.

He had already entrusted Qin Ren's studio with identifying and guiding information.

The salesperson training at the sales center was simple. He just needed to spend some money.

It was more troublesome to set up an infirmary. After all, it was not easy to find a reliable doctor.

As for the tomato planting matter, it was not something that could be settled in a short period of time. After all, the county had to take the lead.

When the news of the support fund was released, there would definitely be a lot of people looking for it. Just the review and inspection alone would require the county to be busy.

Fortunately, the tomatoes were planted in February. There was still time.

When Qin Lin returned to the villa, he saw Yu Shui smiling as he led his gardeners to the entrance area to move the triangular plum potted plants.

When Yu Shui saw Qin Lin, he couldn't wait to report, "Boss, our triangular plum potted plants are very popular. We sold 205 pots in one morning, 190 pots for 100 yuan, and 15 pots for 400 yuan. We should be able to sell 400 to 500 pots today."

As he spoke, Yu Shui was all smiles and was clearly very happy.

The triangular plum potted plants were selling well. He and the potted garden were stable.

"Yes, well done." Qin Lin was not stingy with his praise.

Reading on Myb o xno vel. com ,Please!

He had limited the number of tourists to 1,500, but had still sold 400 to 500 pots. This conversion rate showed that triangular plum potted plants were really popular.

Tourist and shopping conditions in 4A Scenic Area required at least one specialty shopping product to qualify. This seven-colored triangular plum pot fall was unexpectedly in line with the requirements of the specialty shopping products.

After returning to the hall, Qin Lin found Zhao Moqing and discussed with her about applying for the 4A scenic area.

Moreover, in addition to the matter of scenic area 4A, they also needed to start setting up the rafting project, the bridal chamber project, and the restaurant.

The rafting kayaks, life jackets, hard hats, passenger transport vehicles, as well as the restaurants, daily necessities for the bridal chamber, and other items had to be purchased.

Then there was the matter of hiring more staff. Whether it was waiters, cash registers, or cleaners, they had to double that.

In addition, there were employees in charge of rescue, driving, carrying kayaks, patrolling the river, taking photos, and so on.

Qin Lin found the daily customer numbers of a few famous drifting projects.

The Mulan Divine Ox Creek Valley was 7 kilometers long and had an average of 1,500 passengers per day.

Jiuyi Creek Valley was 13 kilometers long. The highest number of visitors on holidays was 5,000.

Ligui Bamboo Sea Creak Valley's entire journey was 8 kilometers, with an average of 1,200 passengers per day.

In other words, with enough tourists, he had to be able to accommodate an average of 1,500 people per day and 5,000 people per holiday.

This required a lot of employees, at least 35 or more.

Next, he would be busier. He would have to work with Zhao Moqing on some matters.

...

As time passed, everything in Qinglin Villa was progressing steadily. At the same time, Qinglin Food Company was also developing steadily.

The sour-sweet production line was already full and could be produced in double shifts.

Moreover, Deng Guang had also informed him that the sour and spicy tomato sauce production line data had been adjusted.

In Youcheng County's industrial area.

Qin Lin drove to a factory and stopped. On the door of the factory were the words: Qinglin Food Co., Ltd., Factory 6.

The 42 production lines of Qinglin Food Company were placed in six different factories.

That was the limit of a small place like Youcheng County.

Therefore, Qinglin Food Company's plan this year was to pay off the money, then find a piece of land to build a factory, move all the production lines over, and manage them uniformly.

Naturally, in addition to the county's corporate guidance fund, there was also the initial investment from Qinglin Villa.

Although he was the boss, they were still two businesses. The accounts had to be clear.

“President Qin.” Deng Guang was already waiting at the entrance of the factory with a few people. When they saw him, they got out of the car and welcomed him.

Deng Guang had already addressed him as President Qin.

Because he was the general manager of Qinglin Food Company.

The development of Qinglin Food Company had always been personally handled by Deng Guang, so its ability was not bad.

Now that the factory had been expanded, there were already so many employees and many positions needed to be refined. In order to better manage it, Deng Guang’s position naturally had to be promoted.

Zhao Moqing and a few assistants were still in charge of the finances. Even if the production matters were handed over to Deng Guang, he would still have to handle it himself.

“President Qin.”

“President Qin.”

The few people behind Deng Guang also greeted Qin Lin respectfully.

These people were the director of this factory, the production line leader. The director was the production line leader of the original factory, and the few production line leaders were the original outstanding employees.

The greatest benefit of a fast-growing company to its employees was that they were willing to work, could endure hardships, had a certain level of ability, and stood out quickly.

After Deng Guang was promoted to the general manager, the factory manager was not reappointed.

It was impossible for six such small factories to appoint a factory director just for one factory. They had only set up a director’s position, which was equivalent to a workshop director.

Such a small factory was actually no different from a workshop in a large factory.

The seven production lines of the 6th factory were all used to produce hot and sour tomato sauce. The hot and sour production line data had been debugged, so he naturally had to come over and take a look.

Chapter 153: Supreme Set Meal! The Real Watermelon Is Mature! 2

Deng Guang brought Qin Lin to a production line. He took some of the sour and spicy ketchup and handed it to Qin Lin. “President Qin, try it. I’ve gotten someone to try it. It’s better than the sour and spicy taste of the top 10 brands. However, I still need you to decide.”

Qin Lin took it and tasted it. He wasn’t a person who likes spicy food, but after eating this ketchup, he felt that the taste was very good.

Even if he didn’t pick up the game and look at the notification information, he knew that this must be Quality 1.

Just to be safe, he also said to Deng Guang, "Give me two bottles of the finished product. I'll go back to the villa to study them and call you again."

"Yes!" Deng Guang nodded.

Qin Lin left the factory with two bottles of sour and spicy ketchup. He went to the warehouse first and entered the game with the two bottles. He saw the note. It was of Quality 1.

He was relieved. He called Deng Guang so that he could start the production.

After leaving the warehouse, they headed for the villa. This time, Qin Lin didn't drive on the same road as before. Instead, he drove on a newly built road.

This road was specially built by the county to go to the villa. As it led directly to the villa, they could not go anywhere else. It was almost equivalent to this road being specially made for the villa. Moreover, it was shorter than the original road.

Before long, they arrived at Qinglin Villa. The exit of this road was a parking lot.

This parking lot was even larger than the previous one. Moreover, it was specially built. There were all kinds of signs, parking spots, and security booths. It was also several times larger.

Qin Lin parked the car in a parking space. As he walked in, he saw a very large building, more than five times larger than the previous hall.

This was the Drifting Project Hall, which would also be the service hall of the villa in the future.

Qin Lin walked into the hall. The hall felt empty, smooth, and grand.

At this moment...

Reading on Myb o xno vel. com ,Please!

In the hall, Gao Yaoyao was cleaning with a group of new waitresses.

"Sister Qing, move these potted plants over there with me." Gao Yaoyao kept instructing a girl.

The waitress hurriedly said, "Okay, Supervisor Gao."

Just like Qinglin Food Company, after the expansion of Qinglin Villa, there were naturally changes in the employees' positions.

Gao Yaoyao was one of the first employees of the villa. She had grown up with the villa step by step. Previously, she had been promoted to a foreman and had always performed well. Now that the villa's expansion project was completed, she had also been promoted to a supervisor and was specialized in managing waiters.

Other than Gao Yaoyao, the first batch of waiters had also been promoted to foreman. From now on, they would be in charge of the Drifting Project Hall, the restaurant, and the sales center...

In addition to the waiters, the number of security guards increased again. Chen Dabei naturally became the head of security.

Many of the first batch of old employees had been promoted.

After the construction of the villa ranch and the comprehensive Sea of Flowers was completed, the basic scale would be completed. At that time, they would have to refine the various departments and raise their positions. Gao Yaoyao, Chen Dabei, and the others would still have a chance to be promoted to department manager.

“Boss!” Gao Yaoyao put down the potted plant in her hand and greeted Qin Lin with a smile.

Qin Lin nodded at her and did not forget to instruct, “Remember to reserve a spot in the infirmary.”

Gao Yaoyao smiled and said, “Don’t worry, Boss. I know.”

“Okay.” Qin Lin was still confident in Gao Yaoyao, so he walked out of the drifting hall and continued walking forward.

He could see that there were also cleaning ladies busy in the bridal rooms. They laid out blankets, pillows, and daily necessities.

“Boss, are you here to inspect our work?” An auntie saw Qin Lin and greeted him jokingly.

“Sister Hong, I don’t have to worry about you,” Qin Lin said with a smile. Sister Hong was originally the head cleaner of the guest room at the Jizhong Hotel. Previously, she had been in charge of the dishes, but now, she had returned to her job.

Sister Hong smiled and walked over to one of the bridal rooms with her blanket. She didn’t actually know anything about being in charge. She only knew how to take the lead. If she wanted someone else to do something, she would do it first and then complete it with everyone else.

Qin Lin actually took a fancy to Sister Hong. He didn’t need a cleaner to do anything else. He just needed them to work hard.

He checked a few of the decorated bridal rooms. There were no problems with the cleaning.

There was also a testing device hanging on the walls of the bridal room. It was to test if the harmful gas met the requirements. Only when it met the requirements could the guests move in.

Due to the size, materials, and construction method, the harmful gas had already dissipated when it was built. Now, it has already reached the standard.

Qin Lin then went to the dining room to take a look. There were also people decorating. The table he had ordered had been delivered and was being installed.

When he returned to the original hall, Qin Lin saw Zhao Moqing typing on his laptop.

Qin Lin walked behind Zhao Moqing and looked at the computer.

On the computer was a proposal.

The villa would expand, and the rafting, bridal chamber, and restaurant would be opened at the same time. As long as the publicity was good, the number of tourists in the villa would definitely increase. There would be no lack of business plans. Otherwise, the operation would definitely be chaotic.

At that time, there would be a limit of 1,500 people in the Sea of Flowers. With the bridal chamber and other projects as a neutralization, it would not be a problem for the rafting project to have a limit of 2,000 people.

Mountain Villa Day receives about 2,000 to 3,500 visitors.

150 drifting tickets, 50 Sea of Flowers tickets, and 400,000 tickets per day.

Naturally, many people might not be able to understand the numbers here. Most people would subconsciously think that the people who visited the sea of flowers in the morning played drift in the afternoon, and the people who played drift in the morning played drift in the afternoon. There were still 1,500 people.

Chapter 154: Supreme Set Meal! The Real Watermelon Is Mature! 3

This was under the circumstances that there was still a limit of 1,500 customers. Those who played in the Sea of Flowers in the morning might not be able to drift in the afternoon. Those who drifted in the morning might not be able to play in the Sea of Flowers in the afternoon.

What if he had to continue playing? He would have to stay overnight. He would either have to consummate his marriage in 150 rooms in the villa or in the county.

And once they stayed overnight in the county, the county would definitely do their best to seduce these tourists and spend a lot of money.

This must have been the county's plan from the start.

As for how many visitors they could receive, it depended on how many people the popularity of the drifting project would attract.

Zhao Moqing pressed save on her computer. When she saw Qin Lin, she said, "I've made the relevant plans, but after the rafting and bridal chamber are opened, we still have to think of an event to increase our popularity as much as possible."

"I have to think about it." Qin Lin nodded and thought about it. He immediately had an idea.

The event could still be a lottery.

The prize for this lucky draw was even more attractive than the two melon kings.

Last time, the melon king was for supreme enjoyment.

This time, they could draw the Supreme Set: Xiangshui Tribute Rice + Quality 2 okra + Quality 2 wild fish + Quality 2 eel + Quality 2 conch + Quality 2 watermelon + Quality 2 medicinal wine.

This combination was supreme, right?

This set meal was something that even the rich could not afford.

Once any tourist won the prize, even rich people like Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen would be willing to spend a lot of money to buy this set meal.

It was a high-end meal.

Reading on Myboovel.com ,Please!

Naturally, such a reward would definitely attract attention. There could not be too many of them.

When those rich people saw other things, even those who had never eaten Quality 2 would not care. However, once the famous Xiangshui Tribute Rice was released, the rich people who saw it would definitely pay attention.

This was something they couldn't buy even if they wanted to.

Qin Lin immediately told Zhao Moqing about this idea.

"Qin Lin, you're so smart. As expected of my husband." Zhao Moqing's eyes lit up when she heard Qin Lin's words.

She had eaten all these things before, so she naturally knew how good they tasted. Besides, she roughly knew the price. A meal would cost 10,000 to 15,000 yuan, right?

The key was that these things were not in value. Qin Lin said that these things were rare, like Xiangshui Tribute Rice. Most rich people could not buy them. This was the most attractive thing.

Actually, she was a little impressed with her husband. He could even get his hands on Xiangshui Tribute Rice often.

"Then I'll prepare for the promotional event?" Zhao Moqing asked Qin Lin. The hidden meaning was naturally that he couldn't screw up when the time came. He had to prepare everything.

"Yes." Qin Lin nodded.

Seeing that he was sure, Zhao Moqing started typing on the computer again.

Qin Lin smiled. Zhao Moqing was undoubtedly a good wife. She could help him a lot in both the villa and the food company.

Then, Qin Lin walked towards the backyard. He wanted to take a look at the watermelons.

Quality 2 seedless watermelon seeds were taken out of the game and planted. It was already a little longer than the expected one-month growth period. It was time for the melon to mature.

Entering the courtyard, he reached the artificial water field once more. There was still no movement from the Xiangshui Tribute Rice. It had obviously failed again.

He now wondered if his method was wrong, but his mother, an old farmer, didn't think there was anything wrong with the planting and cultivation process.

He could only continue to try and touch that probability.

Then, he looked at the watermelons at the side. These watermelons were already very big, more than 10 kilograms. They were about the size of the watermelons produced by the game.

He stepped forward and began to pat gently on those watermelons, listening to the sound it made.

Unripe watermelons were less hydrated and mature watermelons were more hydrated. The sounds were different. One was muffled and the other crisp. The general idea was similar to the logic of knocking on walls to find a secret room in television dramas.

Unfortunately, after knocking a few times, the sounds were too muffled, indicating that they were not too mature.

Finally, as he struck the sixth watermelon, his eyes lit up. The melon was ripe.

Qin Lin decisively plucked the melon. Now, it was time to see what level of watermelon this Quality 2 seed could grow in reality. Even if it degenerated and only became Quality 1, it would still be worth it.

Even if it was not even a Quality 1, it would only be an ordinary melon. Then, its value would be greatly reduced if it was planted and grew quickly in winter.

Qin Lin came out with the watermelon. Zhao Moqing looked up and saw it. "The watermelon planted in the backyard is ripe?"

Qin Lin nodded. "It's a little immature. It should be a few more days. Let me pick a mature one and see how it tastes."

"Me too." Zhao Moqing closed her laptop and followed him in.

It wasn't as if she hadn't tried watermelons before, but she still wanted to try the ones that were ripe in winter and grown by herself.

This was purely out of curiosity.

Chapter 155: The Market for Watermelons Is Huge! The Bedroom Is a Very Serious Thing! 1

Qin Lin carried the watermelon into the kitchen. It was not time for dinner yet, so there was only a helper on duty in the kitchen.

Master Lin brought people to the kitchen in the dining room to tidy up. Not only did they have to do the kitchen decorations, but they also had to take care of hygiene and safety.

"Boss!" When the chef saw Qin Lin enter, he immediately stood up to greet him.

Qin Lin nodded at the other party and washed the watermelon slightly. He took a kitchen knife and cut the watermelon into two.

After cutting the watermelon, he picked up a piece himself and handed one to Zhao Moqing.

However, after taking a bite of the watermelon, Qin Lin frowned slightly.

This was because the texture and taste had not reached Quality 2.

As expected, in a Level 3 land without the game, the quality of the watermelon seeds would drop if they were planted outside.

Zhao Moqing said in surprise, "Qin Lin, this melon tastes good."

“Boss, why are you in such a good mood today?” Master Lin suddenly walked in with a bag.

Qin Lin took a piece of watermelon and handed it to him. “Try it. It’s ripe in the backyard.”

Master Lin was interested now. He took the melon and tasted it curiously.

He naturally knew that a batch of melons had been planted in the backyard of the hall in the middle of winter. It seemed to be a new breed.

“Boss, this melon tastes really good.” Master Lin praised it after tasting it.

Qin Lin nodded.

Reading on Mybo xno vel. com ,Please!

The melon did taste good.

Although his attributes had not degenerated to Quality 2, it was definitely Quality 1. The taste was already the most delicious among ordinary melons.

Coupled with the fact that it was not affected by the seasons and its growth period was halved, when the seeds were cultivated and pushed away on a large scale, it could also sweep through the watermelon market.

It was a supermarket even bigger than ketchup.

According to official statistics, after China became the world’s largest watermelon producer and consumer, in 19 years, the watermelon industry produced 60 million tons a year, imported 220,000 tons, and exported 270,000 tons.

In the past two years, not only had this figure been maintained, but as the economy developed, industry output had also increased.

A few small county cities became the economic headlines because of their watermelons. The county with the highest watermelon production value reached 3.2 billion just by planting watermelons.

One had to know that Youcheng County’s GDP was only at the 25 billion mark. Just the watermelons alone had reached one of the seven percent.

This made Qin Lin look forward to the nurturing of this game seed even more.

After finishing a piece of watermelon, Master Lin said, “Boss, this watermelon is so delicious. It can be planted in winter and only for a short period of time. Why aren’t there many people planting it? It will definitely make money.”

Look, even a chef like Master Lin could tell the value of this watermelon.

“This is a new breed. It hasn’t been promoted yet,” Qin Lin said casually and brought Zhao Moqing out of the kitchen.

“Put down your work and try this melon.” Master Lin looked at the remaining melon and said to the kitchen chef.

The chef was also a little curious about the melon as he listened to their conversation. He washed his hands and picked up the melon to try it.

"This melon is really good. Better than what they sell out there."

Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing had just returned to the hall and entered the bar when Xiao Yun handed a piece of paper to Zhao Moqing expectantly. "Sister Moqing, this is my work plan."

"Okay, let me take a look." Zhao Moqing took Xiao Yun's proposal and nodded.

After the villa expanded again, the cash registers naturally increased again. The sales center, restaurant, and lobby all needed cash registers. Naturally, they also needed a foreman.

Xiao Yun, who was the earliest, had always done well and became the head cashier.

As for becoming a manager, she naturally had to make plans at the beginning. Zhao Moqing herself was writing a plan, so those managers naturally had to write a plan.

The proposal didn't require any bombast, just simple work content.

For example, what time they were going to do it, how they were going to arrange a few posts, who they were going to arrange to do it, and how they were going to work shifts during the holidays.

It was such a simple matter. When he had not adapted to his position in the beginning, he would not have lost his sense of propriety with the proposal.

Xiao Yun was naturally a little nervous when she saw Zhao Moqing looking at her proposal.

This was also the first time she had been a manager. It was the first time she had written a work plan seriously. Naturally, she wanted to be recognized.

She now had a sense of belonging to the villa.

Employees often only started to feel a sense of belonging to the company after becoming a manager.

Most employees only worked to earn money. It was impossible for them to have a sense of belonging to the company unless their salary was high.

Therefore, didn't a certain someone often talk about making her employees feel a sense of belonging? On a show, she even said that employees could only generate higher profits for the company if they felt a sense of belonging. However, she only said that she would increase the salary, without actually doing it. Therefore, she didn't even keep her position as the leader.

After Zhao Moqing finished reading the proposal, she returned it to Xiao Yun and said, "It's not bad. You can just follow the schedule."

"Thank you, Sister Moqing." Xiao Yun thanked her with a smile, her face full of energy.

At this moment.

A young man walked into the hall. It was Zhou Chengjun.

Dressed in a smart suit, his black hair combed neatly, he looked like an elite youth.

If he was walking with his hands in his pocket instead of holding a folder, and walking with a secretary, he might have resembled a young president.

Coupled with his pleasant face, many young female tourists around him could not help but take a second look at him.

Xiao Yun also stole a few glances.

Chapter 156: The Market for Watermelons Is Huge! The Bedroom Is a Very Serious Thing! 2

“President Qin.” Zhou Chengjun walked up to Qin Lin.

“Why are you free today?” Qin Lin asked with a smile.

After investing in Zhou Chengjun, other than getting Zhao Moqing to send someone to supervise the usage of the money, he did not interfere with how the other party operated.

“I’m here to report to you about my work.” Zhou Chengjun politely handed the folder in his hand to Qin Lin and said, “The production line from the factory has also arrived. They’ve already purchased the raw materials. This is my proposal.”

Qin Lin took the document and started reading.

Zhou Chengjun named this sauce ‘Old Sauce of Youcheng County’. There was even a label of 500 years of heritage behind it.

This name was obviously to add a style to the sauce and give it a foundation to increase the attention when promoting it. It was also a commonly used method for this kind of food.

If the product promotion was improving, it would also be easier to apply for an enterprise support fund from the county.

Zhou Chengjun was obviously very thoughtful.

Only their family knew if there was a 500-year-old inheritance.

“Just follow your plan. You should be better at this than me.” Qin Lin returned the proposal to the other party.

Since the management rights went to the other party, he was just an investor and didn’t want to interfere.

However, he was satisfied with the other party’s attitude. He wondered if the other party would maintain such an attitude in the future.

For the next few days, the villa was completely busy preparing for the opening of the new project.

Many tourists who had arrived at the villa also realized that a new place had opened up. Many tourists would consummate their marriage. Videos of the new hall and restaurant were posted online and attracted attention.

Reading on Mybo xno vel. com ,Please!

In the new lobby of the villa.

Qin Lin walked into a wide corridor.

Unlike the original hall, which had to be equipped with a kitchen, the new hall was large. There was a large office area behind it, divided into offices.

However, most of these offices were empty. Only the general management office, the finance office, the finance director's office, and the chairman's office were used.

The finance office was naturally used by Zhao Moqing's assistants.

The general management office was for Gao Yaoyao and the other supervisors. It was quite large and separated by seats.

Naturally, the foreman had no office to use.

And to use an office alone, one had to be at least at the manager level.

The villa could be maintained for the time being, and there was no manager. These things needed to be taken slowly.

If Gao Yaoyao could continue to manage the supervisor well, she could consider being promoted to manager. If she was really not capable enough, it would be a little difficult for her to become a supervisor. Then, she would have to consider external recruitment.

Qin Lin walked to the finance director's office and walked in without knocking. Zhao Moqing looked up at him. "I knew it was you who didn't knock."

Qin Lin smiled and walked towards Zhao Moqing.

She was wearing a white shirt and a small suit today. It was a pity that she wasn't his secretary.

Qin Lin walked forward and pulled Zhao Moqing up. Then, he sat on the chair. Before Zhao Moqing could react, he pulled her onto his lap and hugged her.

"We're in the office. Don't let anyone see us." Zhao Moqing glared at Qin Lin.

"You also said that I'm the only one who doesn't knock when I come in," Qin Lin said with a smile. Then, with a special meaning, he said, "It's good to have an office. Once the door is locked, we can have a lot more fun."

These words made Zhao Moqing reach out and pinch his waist.

How could she not understand what this guy was saying?

Don't even think about it.

However, Zhao Moqing enjoyed being hugged by Qin Lin like this.

Zhao Moqing did not forget about the important matter. "Many tourists have already taken videos of our new project and uploaded them online. We'll also upload an introductory video of our new project first as a warm-up."

“Yes.” Qin Lin smiled and nodded.

...

The video posted by the tourists had already attracted a lot of attention. After the official account of Qinglin Villa posted a warm-up video of the new project, it immediately caused an even more heated discussion.

Especially the fans who were paying attention to Qinglin Villa.

After so long, Qinglin Villa’s official account had already exceeded 1.65 million fans. There were no zombie fans at all. Those who could follow Qinglin Villa were definitely people who loved tourism.

“Qinglin Villa finally has a new project. If not for the fact that the Sea of Flowers is really beautiful, I would have complained previously.”

“There’s finally accommodation. The last time I arrived, it was already afternoon. The tickets for the Sea of Flowers were sold out. I was tired from the bus ride, but I didn’t get any accommodation at the villa. I even had to go to Youcheng County.”

“The accommodation seems good. It’s small and exquisite. There’s also a small courtyard where you can cook alone.”

“Not bad. And drifting. Too bad I didn’t get to go last time.”

“...”

Zhao Moqing’s pre-release video became popular in Qinglin Villa. In a short period of time, many people knew about it, and the pre-release effect was achieved.

Later on, they would release an event announcement to ignite the popularity.

The next day at noon.

Qin Lin brought Zhao Moqing and Lin Fen into the new restaurant. There were already many employees eating inside.

The new restaurant was also large and divided into three sections.

The first section was the visitor’s ordering area. There were neat rows of seats, all custom-made to the standards of high-class restaurants, and three times the capacity of the original lobby.

The second section was the buffet barbecue area. This area needed ventilation. Outside the restaurant, there were half-pack cubicles made of bamboo materials. They also had a different flavor, but they also had three times the original capacity.

Chapter 157: The Market for Watermelons Is Huge! The Bedroom Is a Very Serious Thing! 3

As for the original location, when the original hall was converted into an aquarium, it would have to be demolished to see what new projects were built.

The third part was naturally the staff dining room.

The staff dining room was at the back, not at the front, where the staff now ate because of the firing ceremony at the new restaurant.

Master Lin was very serious about the firing ceremony. Early in the morning, he even brought the chef to worship the cook.

Therefore, the employees would be eating in front of the restaurant today.

When Qin Lin arrived with Zhao Moqing and Lin Fen, most of the employees inside quietened down and didn't dare to make too much noise.

Most of these were also new employees. Coupled with their young age, new employees would always be very reserved in front of their leaders. It will get better after a long time.

When Qin Lin arrived, Master Lin brought two helpers to serve the specially prepared dishes.

The kitchen was not the original three. After the kitchen was moved to this new restaurant, in order to deal with the increase in tourists, they naturally had to recruit people.

Now that he had recruited six more helpers, the original three helpers had already been promoted to chefs. He would probably have to recruit more apprentices in the future.

The original three helpers were actually quite good at cooking. This was because the salary of the villa helpers was also high. They would rather be helpers here.

After placing the dishes on the table, Master Lin said, "Boss, remember to tell me if there's a difference in the taste of the first meal the restaurant opened."

Qin Lin nodded.

.....

He did not know that the dishes cooked by the same chef in the new and old kitchens would taste different.

"The villa is so lively now," Lin Fen comforted the villa employees who were eating.

It was all an achievement for a son. His father would have been thrilled if he were still around.

After the meal, Qin Lin returned to his chairman's office and took out his phone to watch the video Zhao Moqing had sent earlier.

There were already a lot of likes and comments.

"Aren't you going to complain about the name of this bridal chamber? It's a house that's specially made for burrowing!"

"I suggest we bring a female companion..."

"Cannon fire!"

"The artillery hasn't stopped firing in a night..."

"..."

The comments section was busy, but compared to the beginning, the restaurant and rafting projects didn't seem to be paying much attention. Everyone was attracted to the bridal chamber. The comments section had been led astray, and it seemed to be getting worse.

Moreover, the comments section was indeed crooked to the extreme in the end. In the end, someone actually suggested that a girlfriend team go to the bridal room to fire the cannons.

The key was that someone actually agreed to such a speechless suggestion and even played a game of catch.

"Artillery One requests permission to join!"

"Artillery Two requests permission to join!"

"Three-years-old artillery applied to join!"

"Two-years-old artillery reporting!"

"..."

"Damn it!" Qin Lin cursed when he saw these comments. These people were showing off that they had a girlfriend, right?

What shocked Qin Lin even more was that when he was looking at the video comments section, it disappeared.

"What's going on?" Qin Lin was stunned. He clicked on the official address of the mountain manor and realized that he couldn't see the video that Zhao Moqing had sent. He hurriedly called Zhao Moqing to ask.

Zhao Moqing's helpless voice sounded. "The account's back end has received a notification that they are suspected of promoting a vulgar project. It will not take long before it is released."

"..." Qin Lin was stunned when he heard this.

His wedding night was very serious, alright? It was clearly those fans who had indecent thoughts.

Chapter 158 - Someone Buys a Meal for 60,000 Yuan? These Rich People Are All Crazy! 1

Qin Lin's head hurt.

Their villa's publicity was very serious, but the people on the Internet had led the comments section astray. Who could blame them?

They were promoting the bridal chamber, but the netizens insisted on being the artillery. Could he control them?

Naturally, many people knew that the promotional video of Qinglin Villa had been reviewed. Many people were watching the video and were about to join in when the video suddenly disappeared.

With popularity, there would naturally be people taking advantage of it, even if it was just a video of Qinglin Villa that was reviewed. After all, Qinglin Villa was popular.

After all, it was a deformed era where more than a dozen bloggers posted videos to ride on the popularity of women wearing revealing clothes.

"Oh my god, the Qinglin Villa video has been reviewed. How is this bridal chamber against the rules?!"

"My heart aches for Qinglin Villa. This kind of one-size-fits-all review is really scary. Please tell me how this bridal chamber violated the rules."

"Haha, Qinglin Villa is promoting the bridal chamber. The video was actually reviewed. Are the officials' thoughts too crooked? Everything they see is crooked?"

Without a doubt, with these people trying to gain popularity, Qinglin Villa became even more popular.

When Qin Lin saw this, he took the opportunity to ask Zhao Moqing to get Gao Yaoyao to post another video.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Gao Yaoyao. I've met everyone again. Everyone knows that our villa has a new project opening. At the same time as the new project is opening, our villa also has a new lucky draw event. The attraction of the prizes won't be less than the two melon kings' event!"

As soon as this video was released, the popularity of Qinglin Villa was ignited.

After all, the popularity of the two kings of melons was too hot. Those who had eaten the king of melons before even blew the taste of the king of melons into the sky.

Moreover, only 600 people in the world had eaten the melon king before. This gimmick was indeed very popular.

Now, Qinglin Villa actually said that there was a lucky draw event. The attraction was even greater than two melon kings.

One had to know that there were only two melon kings a year. Could Qinglin Villa find anything rarer than this?

This undoubtedly attracted a lot of attention. Those who saw the video began to wonder.

But the key was that Qinglin Villa did not say what the prize was.

Wasn't this just building suspense?

Qin Lin was naturally keeping them in suspense.

He wanted to take this opportunity to whet everyone's appetite before releasing the bomb.

Therefore, under Qin Lin's arrangements, Zhao Moqing found Gao Yaoyao to take a video.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Gao Yaoyao. I saw that everyone was paying attention to the lucky draw. I'm here to tell everyone the good news about the prize. There's still a day before the prize is announced."

This video was provocative and clearly deserved a beating. When Qin Lin asked Zhao Moqing to post this video, he was already prepared to be scolded.

However, it did not matter even if he was scolded. This was a technique he had learned in a university class. In this situation, the more he was scolded, the more popular it became. The premise was that he had to confirm that the quality of the thing he was promoting was good. Otherwise, he would be shooting himself in the foot.

The quality of the items produced by the game was naturally high.

When this video was released, many people who followed this matter saw it. Many people thought that this girl was going to announce what the prize was. They were all waiting to see what could be more attractive than two melon kings.

Who knew the girl would give them such a turn at the end? Wasn't that teasing them?

"I can't stand it. I feel like I'm being teased. I can only forgive Yaoyao if she's my girlfriend."

"Previous poster, can you be more shameless? I strongly suggest treating Yaoyao as a prize. Otherwise, I won't tolerate it."

"Kill the boss of Qinglin Villa and snatch Yaoyao."

"..."

Qin Lin felt a little emotional as he read the comments of the old perverts. He was actually not scolded? There was a mistake in his university theory.

It seemed that there were indeed benefits to this girl's pure and beautiful appearance. After all, there were many old perverts in this world.

If he had been the one to shoot such an annoying video, he would have been lambasted.

The next day, when everyone's appetite was whetted, Qin Lin finally got Zhao Moqing to release the promotional video.

The video was longer than before. It was still showcasing Gao Yaoyao:

"Hello, everyone. I'm Gao Yaoyao. We meet again. Tomorrow, the villa's rafting, bridal chamber, and restaurant will be open. I'm sure everyone wants to know what our villa's lucky draw event is. However, don't be anxious. Let me introduce the new project to everyone first."

"First of all, our rafting is 10 kilometers long. The admission fee is 150 yuan per person. Yaoyao reminds everyone that because of hygiene issues, in addition to bringing a change of clothes, everyone has to bring their own towels and bath towels."

"The other thing is rooming. It has its own self-service barbecue yard. You can enjoy the night view of the villa on the spot. The bridal room is air-conditioned, hydropower... everything. The trial price is 300 yuan a night. There are only 150 rooms. First order, first serve."

"In addition, I have good news for everyone. Some tickets for the bridal chamber and the villa have been partially ordered online..."

A 150-yuan ticket to drift. That was the regular drift price.

The bedroom cost 300 yuan a night. That was already more than the price of a hotel in Youcheng County. In fact, it was higher than many hotels in 4A View.

However, the people who saw the video were quickly distracted by Gao Yaoyao's next words.

"Alright, it's time to tell everyone the good news. Tomorrow, the new project will be opened, and the villa will also be open for a lucky draw. As long as you spend 100 yuan at the villa tomorrow, you will be able to produce a lucky draw. The winner will be able to enjoy a 50,000 yuan Supreme Set meal. The ingredients for the set meal are rare treasures that are difficult to obtain outside. There are only a limited number of slots. For three consecutive days, there will only be five lucky tourists every day."

Chapter 159: Someone Buys a Meal for 60,000 Yuan? These Rich People Are All Crazy! 2

Gao Yaoyao's words stunned everyone. They were attracted by the two points of 50,000 yuan and the Supreme Set Meal.

But what was this Supreme Set meal worth 50,000 yuan?

Just as everyone was feeling puzzled, the video finally showed the combination of the Supreme Set.

Supreme Set Meal:

Xiangshui Tribute Rice: A unique rice produced in extremely small quantities annually.

3 catties of wild eel: The best wild food in the south. It's extremely delicious and has a very high nutritional effect...

Wild conch: The ultimate wild meal in the south. It's exceptionally delicious and has an abnormally rich protein content...

Special watermelon: A special new variety of watermelon, unusually delicious and produced in extremely small quantities.

30 catties

Luo Anning looked at the crazy crowd and her footsteps paused for a moment. Rong Yan held her waist tightly with one hand to prevent her from being knocked. Seeing her hesitation, he lowered his head and moved closer to her ear, "Aren't you very interested? Let's give it a try."

Looking at the crowd that was getting crazier and crazier, Luo Anning bit her lip and shook her head, "... I don't think so."

Didn't he not like to be crowded with others?

There were so many people. Even if he wouldn't be bumped, there would inevitably be physical contact at such a close distance. Could he bear it?

After considering all these, Luo Anning was a little disappointed and decided to return to the villa. Just as she was about to turn around and walk back, her waist suddenly tightened and the man used force to hold her.

"Don't worry, no one will bump into you. I'm here."The man's deep and magnetic voice was like a treasured vintage wine. It was so mellow and seductive.

Reading on Mybo xn o vel. com ,Please!

It was a little sexy and a little seductive.

Especially that sentence, with me here, it was worth a thousand words.

"... But you don't like to be crowded..."Luo Anning hadn't finished her troubled words when her lips were blocked by a slender index finger.

In the man's deep and phoenix-like eyes was a deep smile and... doting?

Before she could ask again, he raised his hand and snapped his fingers. Not long after, Xu Zhiyuan and the bodyguard immediately appeared behind the two of them.

"Young Master Rong, Young Madam, Good evening!"They greeted in unison.

Their voices were not low, but they were still drowned out by the cheers and cheers of the crowd.

Luo Anning turned around to look at the person who had just arrived. She opened her mouth slightly in surprise. Xu Zhiyuan and his bodyguards were all wearing ordinary casual clothes. The black and strict black suit that they wore during the day had long disappeared.

As for the bodyguards in black, they had changed out of their heavy black suits and put on ordinary clothes that were no different from ordinary people. The frightening sense of strictness had been greatly reduced!

Luo Anning could not help but sigh. "People really rely on their clothes and horses... different clothes make people have different temperaments."

Xu Zhiyuan coughed. Young madam, are you praising or belittling me?

"All of you follow me. Just don't let anyone get close."After giving the order, Rong Yan held his wife and walked into the crowd.

The bodyguard led the way, and Xu Zhiyuan followed closely behind the two of them.

With the strong body of the man in black leading the way, it was indeed much smoother. The two of them came to the long table filled with beer. At this time, the host gave the order and announced the official start of the beer competition.

new his stuff.

However, when this blogger's video was released, his comments section was in an uproar.

There was even shouting at each other under the first comment:

I'm the Wisest: "Haha. Someone even said Xiangshui Tribute Rice. Isn't that a freaking IQ tax thing? I've never seen anyone eat it."

Breeze Into the Night @I'm the Wisest: "Idiot, just because you haven't seen it doesn't mean it doesn't exist. That's because it's sent to the capital as soon as it's harvested. What appears outside is also on the rich people's tables."

I'm the Wisest @Breeze Into the Night: "Hehe, rich people pay smart business taxes as if I have to pay too."

Drifting Bottle @I'm the wisest: "Xiangshui Tribute Rice is real. It's also true that there's a special team of guards protecting it. You can't even eat the local ones."

I'm the Wisest @Drifting Bottle: "You're really a joke. You actually blindly believe that there's a special team guarding it. What are you thinking? Are you brainless?"

The Immortal Smile Sword @I'm the Wisest: "Behave yourself. Xiangshui Tribute Rice really exists. I heard from my boss that it seems to be very delicious. My boss can't forget it after eating it once, but he can't buy it."

Knife Beating People @The Immortal Smile Sword: "Your boss is in a hurry to pay the IQ tax, right? It's not like I haven't eaten Xiangshui Rice before. I was lucky enough to buy 20 catties of it. It's not even as good as Wuchang Rice."

Qingzhou had already passed 1987 @Knife Beating People: "You were lucky enough to buy 20 catties? I'll give you a chance to experience it for yourself."

"..."

Not only was the comment section of this blogger's video noisy, but the comments section of the other bloggers' videos and Qinglin Villa's videos were also in an uproar in a short period of time.

Chapter 160: Someone Buys a Meal for 60,000 Yuan? These Rich People Are All Crazy! 3

Moreover, in a short period of time, other than the Supreme Set meal being trending, Xiangshui Tribute Rice was also trending.

It could be said that the Qinglin Villa lucky draw was even more popular than the previous time.

It was just that the melon king was indisputable last time. After all, no one could find such a big melon again.

This time, it was different. No matter how well the 50,000-yuan Supreme Set was said, no one could prove the value of this set. Those haters and freeloaders could always grab this opportunity to gain attention.

In Qinglin Villa.

Zhao Moqing had already rushed to Qin Lin's office. "Qin Lin, there's an argument online. The lucky draw promotional event didn't seem to have any effect. I told you that 50,000 yuan might be too high. The tourists who come to our villa are all ordinary people, so it's impossible for them to know the value of these things."

However, Qin Lin was not anxious at all. "Don't be anxious. This situation is within my expectations. Let them argue for a while longer. They haven't released their trump card yet."

Ordinary people had limited knowledge. He was sure that 99% of ordinary people had never heard of Xiangshui Tribute Rice before they saw this video.

50,000 yuan was indeed a high price. These things did not need to be so expensive in the villa.

However, it could not be cheap either, because these things were definitely difficult to find elsewhere. Even if they could find one or two things with similar quality effects, they would definitely not be able to find such a complete set.

For this alone, it was natural for the price to rise.

Naturally, the main thing was whether anyone paid the price.

As long as enough people of status paid the bill, that was the price.

This was a Supreme Set that 99.99% of people could not eat. Everyone would flock to it.

That way, it would be worthwhile.

Reading on Mybo xn o vel. com ,Please!

This was also very simple. He could summon the two rich big shots, Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen.

As a form of gratitude, he placed a bottle of 20-year-old medicinal wine in front of the two of them. The two of them would definitely be happy. Moreover, if the two of them saw this set meal, they would definitely want to eat it too.

Therefore, he was in no hurry to let the Internet argue a little more and let the popularity accumulate a little. That would make it seem a little more worthwhile in the end.

But things often went beyond one's plans.

While they were arguing online, everyone's attention was attracted by a famous rich second-generation heir with the surname Wang. He posted:

"Is the Xiangshui Tribute Rice real? If it's real, whoever gets the Supreme Set Meal for 50,000 yuan, sell it to me. If it's not real, I'll make Qinglin Villa regret their fake publicity. Also, stop talking about the Xiangshui Tribute Rice. You're not even qualified to buy it!"

This rich second-generation heir had his own traffic. As soon as this post was released, it instantly exploded on the Internet and reversed the Internet discussion.

Because although this one had a bad reputation and was unreliable, his post at least proved one thing. The legend of the Xiangshui Tribute Rice was all true.

Therefore, was Qinglin Villa's Supreme Set meal worth 50,000 yuan? If the Xiangshui Tribute Rice was real, then the other things were definitely not ordinary. That would definitely be worth 50,000 yuan.

Wasn't this rich second-generation heir really willing to spend 50,000 yuan to buy it?

If Xiangshui Tribute Rice was a fake, there was naturally nothing to say.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing naturally knew about this post very quickly.

Qin Lin said disdainfully, "This guy really likes to join in the fun. It's as if he can eat it for 50,000 yuan. When the time comes, it won't be his turn to buy it."

Zhao Moqing suddenly exclaimed, "Qin Lin, look at this video. It's Mr. Chen."

Qin Lin leaned over and saw the video.

The video was on the Blue Ocean Corporation's official account. In a luxurious office, Chen Shengfei was facing the camera and saying, "Hello, everyone. I'm the chairman of the Blue Ocean Corporation, Chen Shengfei. Let me say something. I'll buy the Supreme Set of Qinglin Villa if anyone wins. There's no limit to the number."

A simple sentence had completely set off the entire network.

This time, everyone who questioned him shut up, because there was no way to question him.

Although Chen Shengfei of the Blue Ocean Corporation could not compare to Wang Yiyi, he was still a few levels higher than a second-generation heir.

If such a person said that, wouldn't it prove that the Supreme Set was really worth this price?

Soon, another heavyweight video arrived. "I'm the chairman of Shengwen Corporation, Ma Liewen. Let me also say that I'm willing to pay 55,000 yuan for the Supreme Set meal of Qinglin Villa. There's no limit to the amount."

This completely shocked everyone. Shengwen Corporation was also ranked in the top 50 of Min Province.

Qin Lin smiled when he saw this. As expected, how could foodies like Mr. Chen and Mr. Ma resist the temptation of this Supreme Set Meal?

Other than the eel and the conch, they had eaten these things before.

Unexpectedly, Mr. Chen and Mr. Ma went to promote the Supreme Set meal on their own without him saying anything.

Ming City.

After sending the video, Chen Shengfei lay comfortably on the boss's chair. He had originally planned to find time to go to Boss Qin's place and miss his things. Also, he was about to finish the wine and wanted to beg for a bottle.

However, when he saw the lucky draw at Qinglin Villa, he was worried that Boss Qin would run out of goods. He had already used them for the event. After all, there were very few goods.

Now, 50,000 yuan for the Supreme Set Meal was definitely worth it to him. Just the wine alone was worth a lot. He knew that someone would definitely sell it.

If he could buy it a few more times, he wouldn't have to beg Boss Qin in the future. He had saved up the number of times.

As Chen Shengfei was thinking, his assistant suddenly came in and reported, "Chairman, you asked me to pay attention to the situation of the Supreme Set at Qinglin Villa. President Ma has also sent a video. It seems that he wants to buy the winning spot 5,000 yuan more than you."
