

The Game 1561

Chapter 1561 This Is Fake News, Right?

After making the decision, Prince Tara immediately took out his phone and made a long-distance call.

Although they said that this matter was simple, the operation was very complicated and needed professional people to carry it out.

Therefore, he had to find a professional to run the errand.

There were many such people in the world, so it didn't take long for Prince Tara to contact someone who specialized in this. The other party also had an entire company to run errands for.

Lu Tong was completely dumbfounded. When he brought the security team back, they didn't look right.

He did not think that his boss was joking. After all, Prince Tala's identity was not ordinary, and Minister Lu seemed to be someone from the top.

Lin Lanzi also found him immediately and asked, ""Coach Lu, what did Chairman Qin say about playing professional games?"

"Chairman Qin wants them to play in the world Cup," Lu Tong said in surprise.

"What?" Lin Lanzi was in disbelief when she heard the news.

She didn't know much about football, but she did know about the World Cup. It wasn't a place that could be played casually. Wasn't a certain football team often criticized online because they couldn't even get into the world Cup?

Now, Chairman Qin wanted the national soccer team to play in the world Cup?

It seemed like the world Cup was not a place that ordinary teams could play in.

Time passed.

On the internet, the popularity of the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team was getting higher and higher.

They were all netizens who hated a certain someone for not living up to their expectations and compared him to the Linlin Scenic Area security team. They even wanted the Linlin Scenic Area security team to play in the world Cup.

The discussion was getting more and more intense.

The popularity on the internet naturally provoked the members of a certain football team. One of the star players, Zhang LAN, directly flamed him on the internet. don't compare us to amateur players. It's an insult to us. We are qualified to participate in the world Cup qualifiers, but they don't even have the qualifications to participate in the qualifiers.

In fact, a certain foot even protested against all the media accounts on the internet that had discussed and published this statement, causing many media accounts to be blocked for a while.

At the end of the day, a certain someone still had a lot of power. That was why even though it was obviously very bad, it had always been fine. If something happened, it would just find someone to take the blame.

However, the more this was the case, the more the netizens rebounded. The more you didn't allow me to say it, the more I wanted to say it, and the more I wanted to scold.

However, there was one thing that made everyone feel helpless.

That was, some people were qualified to participate in the world Cup qualifiers, while others were not qualified at all.

Therefore, there was a saying: "if you have the ability, then go. If you can't, then don't talk nonsense!

However, in the country, no one else was qualified, so there was no way to get on. This was also one of the reasons why the team was so fearless.

It was also in this craze that the World Cup qualifiers were getting closer and closer.

Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin woke up early in the morning and was surprised when he saw the screen in his mind.

In the desert's metamorphosis, the sapling of the milkfragrance tree emerged from the soil.

During this time, while Prince Tara was busy preparing for the Linlin Scenic Area security team to play in the world Cup, he had been planting the seeds of the milkfragrance tree on the mutated desert.

He had failed all the time before, but he had succeeded today.

After breakfast, he transplanted the sapling of the custard tree from the game and called Yu Shui over to transplant the custard pastry to the simulated desert.

Then, he went to the hall to tell Prince Tala the good news. After all, he had taken the money from Prince Tala. Now that a plant had been successfully cultivated, he had to tell him.

Who knew that Prince Tara would also find him with a face full of joy. "Academician Qin, let me tell you two pieces of good news. Now that things have been settled, the Linlin Scenic area's security team can go to vanidoo as foreign aid. Also, our condition is that only the Linlin Scenic area's players can participate in the world Cup. Another piece of good news is that the country that is hosting this world Cup is as rich as our petroleum country. It's also located in Asia, so the number of Asian World Cup spots has been increased to six. If your Scenic area's football team can enter the World Cup, it will definitely cause a sensation in the world."

This was indeed good news. Qin Lin also smiled and said, "Prince Tala, I have good news for you. I have cultivated a milkfragrance tree that can survive in the desert. I have asked the plantation Department to transplant it into the simulated sand farm.

"Really?" When Prince Tala heard this, his face instantly lit up.

The biggest purpose of him coming to Linlin Scenic Area, in addition to bringing back the chickpeas, was to ask academician little Qin to cultivate the Milky fragrance trees and date palm trees that could survive in the desert.

Now, academician Qin had already cultivated one. In such a short time, it could only be said that the other party was really amazing.

Without hesitation, Prince Tala rushed out of the manor and headed for the simulated desert field.

Qin Lin also started reading the stack of documents given by Prince Tala.

This was the information on Lu Tong and the security guards. He just needed to get the information and ask Lu Tong and the others to apply for the corresponding visas.

Thinking of this, Qin Lin called Lin Lanzi's number and left the manor with the information.

The sci-fi area under development at Linlin Manor had not been opened to the other party yet. An area of 10000 mu was not so easy to develop.

The key was that there were no good ideas and projects now, so most of the places had not been developed.

The training of the soccer team was here.

Chapter 1562 This Is Fake News, Right?

After the soccer team was formed, a training football field was built in the scenic Area, but it was not open to the public.

When Qin Lin arrived outside the sci-fi area, Lin Lanzi was already waiting for him. She immediately greeted him when she saw him."Chairman Qin."

She then led Qin Lin inside.

Qin Lin also handed the documents in his hands to Lin Lanzi."Let's get this done quickly. The World Cup qualifiers are about to start."

"Chairman Qin, are you for real?" Lin Lanzi received the information in shock.

When Lu Tong first heard about this, she thought he was just joking. However, after she checked the World Cup, she found out that the soccer team in their Scenic Area was not qualified to participate in the qualifiers.

The teams participating in the world Cup must be national-level.

Lin Lanzi hurriedly picked up the information and read it. Then, the expression on her face became even more incredulous.

This was a fake competition.

The Asian region had 58 members of the World Cup football Association. 57 of them had football teams, and one of them, vanidoa, did not have a football team.

Right now, he was going to let the scenic spot soccer team use the vanidoda shell to participate in the competition.

Although they were external help, if their Scenic Area was the one who was seeking help, then their Scenic Area would be the one participating.

Lin Lanzi looked at Qin Lin in a daze. Had her boss reached such a high level in the game now?

When they arrived at the training field, they could hear the shouts of training coming from inside.

Lu Tong was shouting loudly on the sidelines, and the security football players were also training madly. After all, who wouldn't be under great pressure when they heard that their boss wanted them to play in the world Cup?

Lu Tong had also seen Qin Lin and Lin Lanzi. He jogged over immediately. "Chairman Qin, CEO Lin!"

Lin Lanzi directly handed the information to Lu Tong and said, "Help everyone register, and then apply for a visa together. Prepare to go abroad to participate in the world Cup qualifiers."

"Ah!" "For real?" Lu Tong exclaimed.

Lin Lanzi nodded solemnly and added, "Also, let everyone know that we're going to sign a new football management contract with the company!"

She knew very well that these people were only receiving a fixed salary from the scenic Area and were not bound by contracts in the football industry.

No matter what the results were, these people would receive a lot of attention during the World Cup qualifiers this time.

If they were lucky enough to win one or two matches, it would be a different story. After all, a certain team had only won one match in the preliminaries, not even qualified to participate in the preliminaries.

Therefore, once that happened, these people's reputation would definitely rise.

When the time came, there would really be commercial value, and there might be shameless football clubs who would come to play with people.

Therefore, they still had to sign a replacement contract.

"Okay, President Lin." Lu Tong nodded his head. This was how the world worked, so he was able to calm down.

Since the boss had decided to be serious, it was also an opportunity for him. When he first became a Football Manager, he stepped down with humiliation.

This time, if he could lead a team of security guards to achieve a better result than a certain football team, that would be the best revenge.

He had to think of a good strategy.

Lin Lanzi and Qin Lin left the training field and called Chu Feng. The Linlin Scenic Area didn't have a soccer contract yet, so they needed this lawyer's help.

Everything was proceeding in an orderly manner.

Finally, the list of participants for the World Cup qualifiers was released. For a time, whether a certain football team could participate in the world Cup had become the most discussed issue on the internet.

Many senior football fans had even begun to check the competition schedule of a certain football team, wanting to see the possibility of the national football team advancing to the World Cup.

Many fans had basically analyzed that as long as the national football team won five consecutive games before and after the qualifiers, they could basically enter the World Cup.

This was the most ideal result.

In the Asian region, it seemed that it was very difficult for a national football team to win five games in a row.

It seemed even more impossible for a certain foot.

Therefore, if a football team wanted to enter the World Cup, they still had to seek a glimmer of hope in danger. It depended on whether the opponent would give them face.

Many senior fans in the country had already begun to study the information of their opponents in the group stage of the qualifiers.

They clicked on the soccer teams of each country, looked at the data of their players, and analyzed the strength of their opponents.

Huang rongbin was such a person. He was also idle, so he looked at the football players of every country in the Asian region one by one.

The friends around him couldn't stand it anymore and said, "

"Huang rongbin, what's so good about that?"

that's right, our country's soccer team can't even make it into the world Cup!

"Yeah, I've stopped watching football for a long time."

".."

Indeed, many people were disappointed in football and chose not to watch it because there was no home team they could support.

It always felt like something was missing when he supported foreign teams and star players. It did not feel as genuine as it did with his heart.

Huang rongbin did not care about his friends and continued to watch each team. He loved to watch the game and was bored anyway.

"Which team is vanidoa?" Huang rongbin suddenly clicked into the information of a team.

Vanidoa was an Asian country with weak sports. Although it was the grey Plains of the World Cup, it had never participated in the preliminaries of the world because there was no football team.

This year, they had just formed a football team to participate in the qualifiers.

Just by looking at the information, this vanidoa team was obviously just there to make up the numbers.

However, when Huang rongbin opened the information of the wanidoa players, he was completely dumbfounded.

The players were all Chinese.

How could he be so sure? This was because there was a huge difference between the wannidoans and the Chinese.

"Are you kidding me?" Huang rongbin clicked on the profile pictures of these players. When he looked at the information, he was completely dumbfounded and exclaimed.

His friends were all speechless by his surprised look.

"Huang rongbin, what the hell are you doing?"

"Yeah, it's so noisy!"

"You scared me!"

Huang rongbin immediately opened the information on vanidoa and handed his phone to his friends. "Take a look for yourselves."

A few friends came forward in confusion and saw the contents of the phone.

Chen Fan, representative player of vanidoa, foreign aid, nationality: The team from the eastern countries was the Linlin Scenic Area security team.

Li Yan, wanidoa's representative, foreign aid, nationality: The eastern countries ...

"F * ck!"

"I'll go!"

"F * ck!"

".."

A few of his friends exclaimed at the same time after reading the information.

Is this for real?

The players on the vanidoa football team were actually from their country?

More importantly, these players were from the Linlin Scenic area's security team?

The Linlin Scenic Area security team was very popular during this period of time. The reason was very simple. Some people on the internet provoked a certain football team, saying that it was better to let the Linlin Scenic Area security team participate in the world Cup qualifiers than to let a certain football team participate.

The football team had even gone mad, saying that they were qualified to participate in the world Cup qualifiers, while the Linlin Scenic Area team did not even have the qualifications to participate in the world Cup qualifiers.

What was going on now? The Linlin Scenic area's security soccer team was actually going to participate in the world Cup qualifiers?

In other words, the Linlin Scenic area's security soccer team was going to go up against a certain soccer team?

When Huang rongbin and the others discovered this, they quickly took screenshots and posted the news on the internet.

Title: " you'll find it absolutely hard to believe. Linlin Scenic area's security soccer team is going to participate in the world Cup. We can almost see the Linlin Scenic area's security soccer team going up against a certain soccer team!

This was definitely shocking news and could also attract a lot of attention.

Huang rongbin posted the news on the internet and it immediately attracted the attention of many people.

It must be known that at this time, the internet was full of discussions about the World Cup, and related topics were very popular.

If you suddenly put the popularity of Linlin's Scenic Area and the world Cup together, it would not be as simple as getting attention.

In addition, the news of the Linlin Scenic area's security soccer team going up against a certain football team was simply explosive, okay?

In a short period of time, this piece of news was removed from the hot search. Countless people could not believe that this was true.

"This is fake, right? A soccer team for the security guards of a Scenic Area is not qualified to participate in the world Cup qualifiers."

"It must be fake. Anyone with a brain would know."

the photoshopped picture is very good. Keep working hard!

Chapter 1563 Mars Has Hit Earth

At first, not many people believed Huang rongbin's news on the internet. After all, those who knew about the World Cup knew that the Linlin Scenic area's security team was not qualified to participate in the world Cup qualifiers.

As for the whole team becoming foreign aid for other countries in the game, it seemed a bit like a fantasy. How could it be convincing?

However, there were always some naive people who took it seriously and really clicked to see the information on vanidoa.

Then, an incredible scene happened. After these people clicked in to check the information on the vanidoya team, they found that the team's information was really the same as the news published on the internet.

The Linlin Scenic Area soccer team had all become foreign aid for this country and were even going to represent the country in the competition.

When these people discovered this, they immediately posted the news on the internet, wanting to prove that the news was true.

As more and more people sent out such messages, more and more people were attracted to look at vanidoa's information.

He wouldn't have known if he hadn't looked, but the next moment, he realized that it was real.

Very quickly, the reporters were attracted. After confirming that this was true, they started to report like crazy.

In an instant, the news that the Linlin Scenic Area security team was going to participate in the world Cup qualifiers went viral on the internet.

At the same time, the official account of Linlin Scenic Area also made an announcement. The news was that Linlin's restricted area's security soccer team was currently training intensely in preparation for the Olympic qualifiers.

This news caused a sensation on the internet.

This meant that there would be two teams from their country participating in this Olympic qualifiers.

At this moment, someone raised a question. It seems that a certain football team said that they were the only ones qualified to participate in the world Cup qualifiers, and that Linlin's Scenic Area was not even qualified to participate. Don't insult them and compare them to the Linlin's restricted zone football team.

Now that old matters were brought up again, this matter became even more popular.

Previously, because Linlin Scenic Area was indeed not qualified to participate in the world Cup, the discussion stopped for some time.

Now that the World Cup qualifiers were about to begin, Linlin Scenic Area could really participate in the world Cup. This time, everyone was completely out of their minds.

Everyone knew that this team would probably run into the Linlin Scenic Area security team.

Moreover, there was a sense of comparison between the two sides now.

If the Linlin Scenic Area security team were to enter the World Cup, then the football team would have no last cover.

In an instant, the comments were like a tide:

"I don't have much time left!"

if they can't even compare to the Linlin Scenic area's security soccer team, then all the excuses they've made in the past would be a joke.

"Did you guys notice? The head coach of the Linlin Scenic area's security team is Lu Tong. He was the one who took the blame back then. If he can lead a security team to the World Cup now, then our football team will be completely humiliated."

"Didn't you notice something? Those who offend Linlin's company don't have a good ending. Do you still remember those who offend Linlin's company?"

Such comments quickly resonated with the crowd.

That's right, those who had offended Linlin company in the past, whether it was the Cola company or the glasses company, had all been destroyed.

Especially that air conditioning company, who had tried to ride on the popularity of the Linlin Scenic Area, but ended up coming up with an everlasting warm grass.

It seemed that it was the same now.

They had just ridiculed the Linlin Scenic area's security team for not being qualified to participate in the world Cup qualifiers, and now what?

Linlin company had directly sent these security guards into the world Cup qualifiers.

If he didn't mock her, perhaps this wouldn't have happened.

It could only be said that the boss behind Linlin company had a really bad temper.

It was getting more and more lively on the internet, with more people ridiculing and ridiculing a certain someone.

In the past, people would still hope that a certain football team would be able to give them a surprise. Although they were disappointed every time, this time, they might as well hope for the Linlin Scenic Area security team.

Naturally, this news was a huge blow to him.

It could be said that the football team was also dumbfounded. They had not expected the Linlin Scenic Area football team to actually be able to enter the World Cup qualifiers.

This was something that he had never expected.

It was just that they didn't take an amateur team in a Scenic Area seriously, so they were really angry when they saw the comments on the internet.

So, it didn't take long for the football stars to release news one after another:

don't let us meet them. Otherwise, we'll let them know the difference between an amateur and a professional.

"Don't think that just because you bought the World Cup qualifiers, you can compare to us. You're just going there to make a fool of yourself."

I really hope to meet the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team. That way, everyone will know how much of an amateur they are.

".."

Even after a day of brewing, a certain Association also released an announcement: Don't use your hobbies to challenge other people's jobs. I hope that some people can be down-to-earth.

Everyone could understand what the Association was saying and knew who it was referring to.

Obviously, they couldn't stand the ridicule on the internet. The key was that they had long been trained to be shameless.

However, the Linlin Scenic Area security team had actually used this method to participate in the world Cup qualifiers. This was a provocation.

How could they tolerate this?

This made the netizens more and more excited. As if they were watching a show, they even began to vote on the internet. Naturally, between a certain football team and the Linlin Scenic Area security team, which one would get better results in the world Cup qualifiers?

Chapter 1564 Mars Has Hit Earth \(2\)

Surprisingly, 99% of the people voted for the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team, while 1% of the professionals voted for a certain soccer team.

This vote ignited a certain foot's anger.

The star player, Zhang Shi, immediately showed the news to his teammates. the people online are so ignorant. They really think they can beat us.

Another star, who was also the captain of a certain football team, Chen Hong, also said angrily, "I saw the votes too. I was just about to tell you guys that we've been completely looked down upon by everyone. So, if we run into the Linlin Scenic area's security guards this time, we'll definitely teach them a lesson.

Zhang Shi nodded. that's right. We must let them know what a professional is. If we don't give them a score of 5:0 or more, we won't have the face to face the domestic fans.

These star players began to unite against a common enemy and had a firm goal.

Linlin Manor, Qin Lin's office.

Surprisingly, Deng Guang came looking for him.

As the person in charge of the Linlin department's head office, Deng Guang was very busy now. He had even studied the top management Science in the country some time ago.

Even people like old MA had studied this management course before. The lecturers were all top business management professors.

If a business management professor was really that good, why didn't they become bosses like old MA?

He felt that such Advanced Studies were meaningless.

This was probably a big mistake. People who had mastered knowledge might not necessarily be able to put it into practice.

Even if these professors had a thorough understanding of business management, they might not be able to control people's hearts and control human nature.

However, their research and knowledge would definitely be very useful. A person who could control and manipulate people's hearts and learn their knowledge would be able to manage the company better.

Moreover, don't underestimate this professor. These professors might be consultants in several super-large companies. They didn't have to work every day and could earn millions a year.

Therefore, who said that knowledge was useless?

"Chairman Qin, I saw the news on the internet as soon as I came back. I didn't expect you to let the security team of the scenic Area participate in the world Cup qualifiers."

"President Qin, how much do you know about the security team? I have a plan here, but I don't know if you think it's feasible?"

"Tell me about it," Qin Lin said with a smile.

Deng Guang explained, "Chairman Qin, if the soccer team in this Scenic Area is good enough, even if they can win one or two games and have better statistics than a certain team, their sportswear and sports shoes will probably receive a lot of attention. It might even become popular.

so, before that, why don't we buy some clothing factories and start our own brand to try it out? even if it doesn't blow up, it'll still benefit us if we have some fame.

Qin Lin nodded when he heard this.

After all, which of the rising fashion brands in the country wasn't so popular? They signed endorsement deals for sports stars through top events.

If a sports star achieved good results, the product they endorsed would also immediately become popular.

Under these circumstances, countless people were paying attention to the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team. If the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team could enter the World Cup, it would receive enough attention.

After all, a certain football team could not even make it into the world Cup.

If the scenic spot soccer team could still achieve good results in the world Cup, it would definitely receive more attention.

If they could win the championship, then the players would advertise and create a classic scene, such as taking off their shoes and kissing them.

That would be a well-known sports brand.

Naturally, this kind of thing would never happen.

However, it would be a different story if he had a hack.

At the thought of this, Qin Lin turned to Deng Guang and said, CEO Deng, you'll be in charge of this matter. However, before you acquire the clothing factories, let me have a look at the clothing produced by those factories first.

"Alright, Chairman Qin!" Deng Guang nodded immediately. After he left, he took out his phone and contacted the other party.

To Qin Lin's surprise, Deng Guang was surprisingly fast. It did not take long for him to send seven to eight sets of specialized sportswear and sports shoes.

Deng Guang asked his men to put down the clothes and shoes and said, Chairman Qin, these are the clothes and shoes from the factories we inspected.

Qin Lin nodded and took the clothes and shoes.

With the effect of the eye of truth, he immediately saw the effects of these clothes and sports shoes.

[sportswear: normal!]

[this is an ordinary sportswear produced by an ordinary sportswear factory. It's not famous at all, and the production process is rough!]

..

[sports shoes: normal!]

[this is a very good pair of sports shoes. Although it's not famous, the workmanship is excellent. It's obvious that they put in a lot of effort!]

Qin Lin quickly finished looking through the attributes of these sportswear and sports shoes. Although they were all ordinary, he could still distinguish the differences.

Therefore, he chose a set of sportswear and sports shoes with the best remarks and handed them to Deng Guang. "Director Deng, let the factory that produces this set of clothes produce a batch for the players to wear!"

"Alright, Chairman Qin." Deng Guang nodded. He trusted his boss's judgment. Since his boss had already chosen this set, it meant that this set was really good.

Time passed!

The World Cup qualifiers were finally about to begin.

The national football team and the Linlin Scenic Area football team also began to head to the foreign country where the competition was held.

The only difference was that the players in Linlin Scenic Area had to go to vanidooa first.

The Linlin Scenic Area soccer team had obviously received a lot of attention. When Lu Tong led the team into Ming City Airport, reporters swarmed in.

Fortunately, the scenic Area had already made preparations, so they were not surrounded by reporters.

However, the reporters had noticed something different about the Linlin national team. They were not wearing any clothing brands on the market, but had the Linlin company logo on them.

It was just that for now, this point had not received much attention from these reporters. Their attention was now on these players.

Lu Tong and the Linlin scenic soccer team boarded the plane safely and headed to vanandoa.

The reporters naturally wouldn't give up so easily. Many of them even followed them to vanidooa, planning to follow and film the entire process. The internet was also following the Linlin Scenic Area football team.

On the other hand, there was not much attention on the soccer team. After all, the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team was more novel and attractive than the soccer team.

Therefore, the popularity of the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team and the football team was one-sided.

This also made the people of the football team even angrier. More than one star said that if they met each other on the field, they would show the Linlin Scenic Area football team.

There was a difference between the world Cup qualifiers and the official World Cup. It did not receive as much attention as the World Cup, not to mention the Asia region qualifiers.

Therefore, after all the teams had arrived, the qualifiers officially began and the grouping and tournament arrangements were completed.

Linlin Manor.

After the grouping for the World Cup qualifiers was out, Prince Tara went to find Qin Lin immediately and said with a face full of surprise, ""Academician Qin, quickly take a look at the grouping for the World Cup qualifiers."

As he spoke, he passed his phone to him. On it was the group information.

Qin Lin took the phone and looked at it. He was stunned and felt a little incredulous.

This was because the first opponent that Linlin Scenic Area had to face was a certain football team.

Wasn't this too much of a coincidence?

There were so many participating teams in the Asian region, and the probability of the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team meeting one of them in the first match was very low.

But now, the two sides had indeed met.

Not only Qin Lin, but many people on the internet were also paying attention to this matter. So, when the grouping was released, the internet was in an uproar.

Everyone had been talking about the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team going up against a certain soccer team, and now the two sides had really met.

He didn't expect that the first round of the preliminaries would have a Mars colliding with earth.

Chapter 1565 A Familiar Smell \(1\)

Qin Lin immediately said to Prince Tara, ""Prince Tala, is there any problem with the gambling platform you mentioned before? You can also place bets on the regional qualifiers?"

Prince Tara nodded and said, " don't worry. This platform is the world's largest platform. It has a special application. There will be no problems. However, you have to go through an audit application before you can place a bet on this platform.

ordinary people can't access this platform. Those who can access this platform are all rich people. You can place your bets on this platform through the computer I brought. Moreover, I have the right to recommend you. Once you register, you will be approved immediately.

Prince Tala, " Qin Lin said immediately, " if you don't mind, can you give me your computer? I want to play with it.

"No problem!" Prince Tala nodded and immediately went to his room. He brought back a notebook with a pure gold cover, which blinded Qin Lin's eyes.

Prince Tala immediately opened the platform and handed the computer to Qin Lin. academician Qin, please register. I'll recommend you to join and you'll be able to pass the review immediately.

"Alright," he said. Qin Lin nodded and followed Prince Tala's instructions. After that, Prince Tala made a recommendation, and it was quickly approved.

After that, he also found the Asian qualifiers, Linlin Scenic Area soccer team, and some other football team's betting information through this special app.

At this time, the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team's winning rate was not high, and the odds were even three times.

Obviously, this platform's analysis was better.

This made sense. After all, there was indeed a gap between the amateur and professional football teams.

Qin Lin hesitated and immediately placed his bet on the Linlin attraction to win. There were still additional stakes below, which were additional stakes from guessing the score.

He did not hesitate and clicked on it. It became the scenic Area soccer team winning 1:0 against a certain soccer team. The odds remained unchanged and were still three times.

He clicked on it again, and it became Scenic Area soccer team 2:0 to win a certain foot, but the odds became 5 times.

He clicked on it again, and it became the soccer team of the scenic Area winning 3:0, but the odds became 7 times.

Qin Lin continued to click on it, and it became Linlin Scenic area's 4:0 win against a certain foot, the odds also became 9 times.

"It's almost time, right?" Qin Lin thought about it and clicked on it again. The bet changed to Linlin Scenic Area winning 5:0, and the odds became 11 times.

This time, it was really about time.

Then, Qin Lin saw the bet amount.

To set up a professional football club, if it was based on the level of the Super League, it would require a lot of money, at least 5 billion.

There were a few big clubs that started with 10 billion.

Of course, Qin Lin didn't want to pay for it himself. If he paid for it with the book of winning streaks, it would be a disgrace to the cheat.

After some thought, he directly entered 10 million in funds.

Let's take it slow.

Moreover, if he won 10 million, that would be 110 million.

There were still so many competition schedules to go. The money to set up a club would be easy to spend.

The moment he pressed the confirm button, Qin Lin found that the winning streak book in his mind had become 98/100.

He used it again.

It worked.

The soccer team naturally knew about this competition schedule. They paid more attention to it than anyone else, and couldn't wait to meet the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team.

When they got the news, the football captain, Chen Hong, and the star player, Zhang Shi, immediately gathered all the players.

Chen Hong held the schedule and said with a smile, "everyone, do you all know?" Even the heavens are helping us, letting us meet the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team in the first match. This is a chance for us to teach them a lesson."

everyone, keep your spirits up. We can't miss this opportunity. This time, our goal is to get the score to 5:0, " Zhang Shi said with a smile.

Chen Hong nodded. that's right. It has to be 5:0. At that time, those arrogant people in the country will know how big the gap is between professional and amateur. They will no longer be so arrogant.

His words made the other team members nod in agreement.

During this period of time, the comments from the outside world had also made them very unhappy. They all said, "

"Yes, we must beat them 5:0!"

"Send them home at 5:0."

"That's right, it must be 5:0."

".."

In the beginning, these people were like rainbows, and they had already kicked the Linlin Scenic area's security team home 5:0.

One by one, they clamored.

Chen Hong even took out his phone and posted a message on Weibo:He was sent home at 5:0.

This also encouraged Zhang Shi and the other star players to share and post the news one by one.

For a time, the Weibo of a certain football team's members was full of content that was sent home with a score of 5:0. It was also the first thing that attracted the domestic media and football fans 'light pillars.

They naturally knew who these stars were talking about. They were referring to the Linlin Scenic Area security team.

This seemed to show the confidence of a certain football team.

He also showed his confidence.

It seemed to be the first time the domestic football fans had seen such a domineering side of a certain football team.

In any case, domestic football was more focused on this alternative Derby.

Finally.

The World Cup qualifiers began. Because they were split into groups, all of the groups had their first match at the same time.

One of them was a match between a certain football team and the Linlin Scenic Area security football team.

At the same time, the National Sports channel and the internet live broadcast of the preliminaries between the national football team and the Linlin Scenic Area security football team had already begun.

Lu Tong had already arrived at the manager's seat by the side of a football field during the qualifiers. He looked a little nervous. After all, this was a battle for him to turn things around.

Chapter 1566 A Familiar Smell \(2\)

Soon, the players from both teams came out. As soon as the players from a certain football team came out, they looked at the Linlin Scenic area's security team with disdain and even began to provoke them.

if you're a security guard, then just do your job. Don't come to a place like this!

"A bunch of security guards actually want to play with our professional team. I really don't know if your boss is stupid to spend this money."

".."

Chen Hong, Zhang Shi, and the others also saw Lu Tong, who was sitting in the coach's seat of jinglin Scenic Area. The provocation in their eyes intensified.

Of course, they recognized Lu Tong. After all, he was not very capable. When they were training, he even complained that they were not good at this and that. He gave them all kinds of plans.

However, it turned out that the other team's training was completely useless. They still could not make it to the World Cup.

Now, the other party was actually with this group of security guards. It was embarrassing to come here.

Lu Tong naturally saw Chen Hong, Zhang Shi, and the others 'small actions, but he didn't want to pay them any attention. He immediately waved his hand and called over two players on the court.

One of them was the captain, Lin an, and the other was Liu fan, who had the best physique and skills.

Both of them were retired soldiers. Liu fan was also a former Scout, so his physical fitness was extremely strong. Although he was retired, he had been eating the sea cucumbers provided by the scenic Area, which had increased his physical strength, endurance, and strength by a lot.

Lu Tong turned to the two of them and said, " we don't have to worry about the provocation of the other team members. Lin an, you are the team leader. Remember to keep everyone calm. From the start, organize the middle and backfield. Liu fan, if you have the chance, charge forward. Your stamina and endurance are definitely better than the other team members. If you have the chance, show them what you're capable of.

He had once been the manager of a certain football team and was naturally very familiar with the players. He even had training and tactics specifically targeted at a certain football team.

If a certain football team wanted to avoid being targeted by him, the other party would have to change their playing style long ago. Unfortunately, would a certain football team change their playing style? If he did, he wouldn't have been so bad.

Lin an and Liu fan nodded.

The two men were hesitant at first. After all, they were not professional football players. Now they were playing in the football qualifiers, but when they really came to the field, they felt their blood boiling.

They were soldiers. Even though they were retired, they still had the blood of soldiers and the pride of soldiers who would never back down.

Originally, they had thought that they would only be able to work as security guards in Linlin Scenic Area for the rest of their lives. After all, the salary of the scenic Area was really high, and the treatment was very good.

He just didn't expect his boss to form a football team on a whim, let them play football full-time, and now play in the world Cup qualifiers.

Today was the beginning of another battle for them.

The referee was already in position and signaled for the players to get into position. This time, the football team was lucky to get the starting player.

After that, the match officially began. The team was full of energy today. As soon as the match started, they frantically led the way to the team.

In fact, the strength of the two teams could be slowly reflected after the start of the game.

In the first 20 minutes, both sides seemed to be in the stage of testing each other out. But after that, it was obvious that the team's skills were indeed better than the Linlin Scenic Area security team's, or it could be said that they had more experience.

There was also competition experience, especially at this level.

Even if a certain football team had been losing all this time, they definitely had a lot of competition experience.

The Linlin Scenic Area security soccer team had never played in a formal professional competition, so their experience could be said to be zero, not to mention that some of the players were really nervous.

After 20 minutes, the Linlin Scenic area's security soccer team members were frequently intercepted and bypassed.

Fortunately, Linlin Scenic area's security guards and soccer players were all brave enough to fight and Rob. At least they were not weak physically and could keep up.

On the other hand, the comfortable training made them very lacking in this area.

However, the successful stealing and passing also gave the players of a certain football team confidence, especially Zhang Shi. It was the first time he felt that passing was easy. At a glance, he could tell that the people on the opposite line were a little nervous and inexperienced.

He would be letting himself down if he didn't torture them.

"Catch the ball and attack!" Zhang Shi directly passed the ball to a teammate and then took the opportunity to rush forward.

Seeing this, Chen Hong immediately organized an attack and forced the Linlin Scenic Area soccer team to the front. For them, this game was very easy.

Sure enough, with their experience, they formed a line and created an opportunity for Zhang Shi to face the goalkeeper alone.

"Haha, I'll score the first goal!" Zhang shixiao stopped the ball and then aimed a fierce shot at the goal.

More importantly, the goalkeeper of Linlin Scenic Area had been deceived. The goalkeeper pounced to the right, but Zhang Shi's shooting position was to the left.

However, just as Zhang Shiyi's foot was about to kick the football, his expression suddenly changed. He felt the tendons in his leg Twitch inexplicably, and his kicking motion was slightly deformed.

He suspected that he had video chatted with his girlfriend too much last night, but fortunately, the shot was fast, accurate, and fierce.

Everyone in the country who was watching the live broadcast saw Zhang Shi miss the goal.

Countless people sighed. As expected, amateurs were no match for professional teams.

Did they misunderstand me in the past? Was it really not that a certain football team was too weak, but that the other countries 'football teams were too strong?

Otherwise, how could a certain team score so easily against the Linlin Scenic Area football team in the same game?

However, what happened next stunned everyone.

At such a close distance, the goalkeeper was deceived, but Zhang Shi's ball hit the post hard, and, under the huge force, it bounced back into the field.

"Tsk!"

"What the hell?"

"You can't shoot through an empty door?"

"Sure enough, I didn't misunderstand my foot!"

it's still that familiar recipe and smell!

".."

On the court, Zhang Shi himself was a little dumbfounded. He had never thought that the little cramp and the deformed shape of the kick would turn into such a scene.

Moreover, Zhang Shi's mentality seemed to have been affected by the fact that the goal was not scored. He even forgot to return to defend at the first moment.

This was probably a common problem of the players of a certain football team, a mental problem.

At this time, Lin an and Liu fan were already running at full speed towards one of the football teams 'half of the field. This was because head coach Lu Tong had told them that when a football team encountered such a situation, they would be very depressed.

It meant that when they were on the winning side, their momentum was like a rainbow, but when they were a little frustrated, they would easily lose it. Taking advantage of this time, they attacked with all their might, and the other party would definitely not have time to defend.

Therefore, a shocking scene appeared.

The Linlin Scenic area's security football team quickly closed in. The people who stopped the ball also moved their big feet into the distance. Some people realized it and went back to defend and give chase. However, in the face of the endurance and physical strength of veterans who had eaten special sea cucumbers, they seemed to find it difficult to catch up. They became more and more depressed. Some people even stopped chasing and began to jog and walk.

Liu fan accurately discovered this, and it was the same as what the head coach said.

As a retired Scout, his observation skills were strong, and his physical strength, endurance, and strength were the best. He quickly found a very good position and left the other team members behind.

After eating so many special sea cucumbers, it was obviously very effective.

His teammates quickly passed the ball to him. After he stopped the ball, he directly kicked the ball fiercely towards the goal.

It was just that he had no experience with this kick. It was too direct, and the trajectory was too obvious.

The goalkeeper accurately judged the position of the ball, but when he was about to pounce, he found that his nerve reaction was a little slower than his judgment. It was the aftereffect of drinking last night.

He was instantly terrified.

He had thought that since the captain and Zhang Shi had said that they were going to beat Linlin Scenic Area 5:0, he wouldn't be able to do much and had only drunk a little. Who knew that things would be different from what he had expected?

With Liu fan's strength, the ball was fast and passed through the goalkeeper's fingers, then flew into the net.

The referee's whistle sounded, and the goal was valid.

Linlin Scenic Area security soccer team 1:0.

When Liu fan kicked the ball, he felt that it was terrible. He also felt that he had kicked too straight. However, he did not expect that a goalkeeper would not catch the ball.

Then, he was excited. He had really scored a goal in a game against a certain football team.

In China, everyone was equally dumbfounded when they saw the ball rolling inside a certain goal. The ball had happened too quickly, so fast that they had not reacted from Zhang Shi's stinky kick.

Chapter 1567 The Real 5:0 1

A moment later, the internet in China was in an uproar.

it's unbelievable. The Linlin Scenic Area security team actually scored first!

"Yeah, although I'm teasing you, I really didn't expect Linlin Scenic Area to be so fierce."

"Actually, it's all Zhang Shi's credit. If it wasn't for him kicking the goalpost with an empty goal, the Linlin Scenic Area security soccer team wouldn't have such a fast counterattack speed."

Huang rongbin had been paying attention to the game. For him, this game seemed to have a different meaning.

He was the first one to discover the abnormality of the vanidoo football team and posted the news of the Linlin Scenic Area security team participating in the world Cup qualifiers on the internet.

I'm starting to feel disheartened. The Linlin Scenic Area soccer team might really win. Huang rongbin was a senior football fan and had done some research on a certain football team.

He naturally saw the reason for the ball just now. It could be said that after Zhang Shi kicked the ball askew, he lost most of his confidence and did not even return to defend.

This was a certain foot.

The reason why he thought he could win was because he didn't expect that there would be a player like Liu fan in the Linlin Scenic Area security team.

The physical strength, speed, and power that Liu fan had displayed just now were really amazing.

Several of Huang rongbin's friends only knew a little about football, so they didn't have to watch it. The reason why they accompanied Huang rongbin to watch it was also because of the Linlin Scenic Area.

After seeing the Linlin Scenic area's security team score a goal, they had hoped that the Linlin Scenic area's security team would win. Who would have such high hopes?

Time passed, and after more than 10 minutes, Huang rongbin and the others watched the live broadcast nervously again. The football team had launched another attack.

As Huang rongbin said, they were a lot disheartened. This time, the attack was obviously not as strong as before.

However, it could still maintain a certain degree of sharpness for the time being.

Soon, the ball was once again at the feet of the big star, Zhang Shi.

Zhang Shi's fighting spirit rose again. He had lost the goal because of a sudden cramp. This time, he vowed to save his face.

"Everyone, attack quickly and take a goal." Chen Hong also shouted madly.

The others immediately pressed forward. Although they had accidentally lost a goal, they still had some fighting spirit. Soon, they brought the ball to the Linlin Scenic area's goal with the momentum of a grieving Army.

Chen Hong immediately lifted his leg and was about to shoot.

The Linlin attraction's goalkeeper pounced out and blocked all of Chen Hong's field of vision. However, he was fooled. Chen Hong passed the ball and the ball once again fell in front of Zhang Shi.

This was a wonderful pass. Now, as long as Zhang Shi got the ball, he could face the empty goal. He rushed forward madly. He was now one step faster than the other Linlin Scenic Area players.

Finally, he reached the ball, which was less than half a meter away from the white line. He lifted his leg and was about to shoot with all his might.

However, it seemed that he lifted his leg too hard. He felt a sudden pain in his leg tendons and had cramps again. The aftereffects of video-chatting with his girlfriend last night were back.

Then, his face was filled with fear.

He stepped on the rolling football and the football was stopped by him, but he went into the goal in a way like a wild goose falling on the sand (the classic name scene of a certain Mao player!).

This scene stunned the Linlin Scenic Area players who were chasing him.

What was going on?

The audience watching the game immediately made a racket.

What was this?

Immediately after, curses were heard.

Huang rongbin and a few friends were watching the live broadcast and drinking water. When they saw Zhang Shi's move, they spat out the water.

It was only half a meter away from the white line. It was a free shot, an empty goal. You did an acrobatic show to shock your opponent?

The internet was even more exciting:

haha, what a familiar taste. All the best!

I'm just looking at how I never expected it. I really never expected it ...

"I seriously suspect that Zhang Shi is fixing the ball!"

".."

Seriously, even a middle school student wouldn't be like that. Even a child would be able to score the ball with just a touch of his foot.

Did a football star not even know how to touch the ball?

Linlin Manor's main hall.

Qin Lin, Prince Tara, Minister Lu, academician Zou, academician Zhu, and academician PEI were also watching the game. Gao Yaoyao and the waiters were also watching the TV.

After all, there was a team of people playing football on the court who were their colleagues. It was just that they really did not dare to imagine that the security guards of the scenic Area could play in the world Cup qualifiers.

Zhang Shi's magical performance naturally shocked them, and they couldn't help but burst out laughing.

When Prince Tara saw Zhang Shi's "wild goose falling on the flat sand," he immediately stood up. "Academician Qin, did you buy this player over? I remember you bet 10 million. If you win, you can earn 110 million."

His words made Minister Lu, academician Hao, academician Zhu, and academician PEI subconsciously look at Qin Lin.

That gaze was clearly asking.

After all, with Zhang Shi's performance twice in a row, no one would believe that he had not been bribed.

Did boss Qin really do that?

"It's a problem of his own strength." Qin Lin was a little embarrassed.

Did he need to bribe them? After all, he had the book of winning streaks.

However, the effect of the book of winning streak was really magical. He didn't believe that Zhang Shi would really make such a mistake. It must have been the book of winning streak that had played a role.

Chapter 1568 The Real 5:0 2

On the court.

Chen Hong wanted to cover his face when he saw his good pass turn into this situation.

This was f * cking bad.

Lin an, the captain of the Linlin attraction security team, didn't expect this either. But he reacted and immediately shouted, ""What are you still looking at? pass the ball, long pass."

The nearest Linlin attraction player did not hesitate. He immediately ran forward to get the ball and then pulled it back. One by one, he shot a gravity long shot across the half of the court and reached the foot of a attraction player.

The tourist player did not hesitate and made another long pass. The ball flew toward Liu fan.

Another long pass and quick attack.

This was Lu Tong's most effective way of dealing with the foot. Once it was disheartened and defeated, it would be too late to return.

After Liu fan received the ball, he was about to dribble the ball and break through quickly, but the Scout's observation skills made him discover something shocking.

The goalkeeper of a certain football team was drinking water.

What the hell?

The goalkeeper went to drink water during a game?

He had never thought that such a thing would happen on the field. Or did the other side really look down on them?

Thinking of this, Liu fan didn't hold back and immediately fired a long shot.

The football quickly drew an arc and rolled toward the goal at a very slow speed.

Seeing this scene, the football team's players were all stunned.

A certain goalkeeper heard the shout and turned around to see the football fly into the goal.

He opened his mouth, still holding a bottle of water in his hand, and his face was full of shock.

What was going on?

Didn't his teammate already score the ball in front of the opponent's goal? at this time, he should be putting pressure on the other side. How did the ball come here again?

In such a short time, couldn't he even drink some water?

That's right, he just wanted to drink some water. It wasn't his fault, it was his teammates who were too hopeless.

The goalkeeper consoled himself and did not even care about the manager's angry abuse on the sidelines.

The new head coach of a certain football team, surnamed Liao, was so angry that he couldn't control his anger.

He directly signaled to the referee to make a substitution.

There was nothing he could do about the goalkeeper for the time being, but Zhang Shi had been replaced by him. He had reason to believe that Zhang Shi had definitely been bribed. He knew the financial resources of the boss behind Linlin Scenic Area. It would not be a problem to bribe Zhang Shi. Otherwise, why would Zhang Shi make such a low-level mistake?

When Zhang Shi saw that he had been replaced, he was immediately unconvinced. He went directly to the head coach and said in dissatisfaction, ""Commander Liao, why did you take me off? I can still play."

Coach Liao's face suddenly turned cold, "you still want to kick?" Didn't he know what was going on with him? I'll report this to you when we get back. Just wait to be investigated!"

Zhang Shi was stunned.

He admitted that he shouldn't have video-chatted with his girlfriend too much yesterday, which caused his legs to cramp at the critical moment twice today. But what did this have to do with the investigation?

What did the coach mean?

Coach Liao didn't pay any more attention to Zhang Shi. He went straight to arrange the Warriors and replaced them with a new main attacker. He naturally wanted to challenge the tactics.

Without the rat sh * t Zhang Shi, he felt that he could turn the tables. After all, in the two attacks just now, he realized that the Linlin Scenic Area security team was not as experienced as them. If it wasn't for that B * stard Zhang Shi, they would have been 2:0 by now.

Lu Tong shook his head at coach Liao's action, thinking that he was too naive.

He had led a certain team before. Sometimes, a certain team really couldn't be set up with tactics and substitution.

Sure enough, Lu Tong was right. Even if they had changed tactics and replaced Zhang Shi, after losing two goals in a row, a certain team's morale had been completely destroyed. They didn't know how to play at all.

When the game started again, coach Liao was dumbfounded.

This was because the tactics that he had set up could not be seen on the field at all. A certain team's formation and tactics were already completely in a mess. There was no order at all.

Coach Liao immediately shouted crazily towards the field, but the more he shouted, the more chaotic the team's formation became. In the end, the team members seemed to be annoyed and ignored him.

After all, in a certain football team's heart, only a coach with no ability would shout like that on the sidelines.

This coach was obviously not capable.

Therefore, the daomu's next performance was simple. It was even more chaotic, then dejected. There were even people who were strolling and attacking.

"This ... F * ck ..." Coach Liao, who thought that he had good self-restraint, could not help but swear.

He subconsciously looked at Lu Tong and saw the latter smiling at him.

The strange thing was that he actually empathized with that kind smile and could instantly express his understanding.

On the other hand, the Linlin Scenic Area security team had become unstoppable after two goals.

Think about it, what would happen if a group of amateur security guards suddenly found out that they had scored two goals in front of a certain foot? He would definitely be pumped up and f * ck him ruthlessly.

In an instant, the situation became one-sided again, but this time, it was in Linlin Scenic area's favor. It became Linlin Scenic area's forbidden zone where they were fiercely beating up a certain football team.

In the first half, a certain football team member tried his best to block it and entered the second half with a 2:0 score.

However, in the next game, after a break, a certain football player not only did not gain momentum, but became even more dejected, as if his anger had been completely vented after the break.

The players in Linlin's Scenic Area had gotten stronger after a break, and their attacks were fiercer. They once again pressed down on a certain foot's penalty area.

The players of a certain football team could only helplessly try their best to kick the ball out of bounds.

But suddenly, something unexpected happened. One of the players actually kicked the ball directly towards his own goal. He actually wanted to pass it to the goalkeeper.

The goalkeeper was staring at another man and did not pay attention to the ball at all. The ball rolled into the goal (a certain football scene).

Own goal!

This shot once again dumbfounded everyone.

How could an own goal like this happen in a game at the level of the World Cup qualifiers?

As expected of a certain foot.

A certain team gave the Linlin Scenic Area security team one point.

This was something that the fans and spectators would never have expected.

The goalkeeper was furious and shouted at the player, ""Where are you kicking?"

The player also questioned, "can't you see my light ball?" That's for you."

"I'm keeping an eye on the other player," the goalkeeper retorted, "can't you just kick him out of bounds?"

The player did not want to take the blame either, "there's still someone you need to watch over?" Can't you just mark the ball? No wonder drink water got a goal."

The goalkeeper and the players started quarreling on the field, and it seemed like they were going to fight. The referee ran over and kept blowing the whistle at the two men.

However, when he was about to draw his cards, he subconsciously stopped. This was because the two of them were teammates, and the key was that this Eastern team was already in a terrible state.

Finally, the judge put down the card in his hand.

Seeing this, coach Liao fell into his chair and murmured, ""I'll resign when I get back, or I'll have a short life."

Then, the mental state of the people in a certain foot completely collapsed.

3:0 was an impossible score for them to catch up with.

As a result, they started to mess up and their defense became weak. On the other hand, the jinglin Scenic Area security team was even more powerful.

Liu fan, in particular, seemed to have opened his conception and Governor vessels and gradually adapted to the competition.

After all, he was a retired Scout. The Scout had a strong learning ability and adaptability in the Army.

He began to feel like a fish in water, at least when he was shuttling between athletes.

It didn't take long for him to kick in another ball.

In an instant, the score became 4:0.

This time, the people of the certain foot were even more desperate. Their defense became weak and full of holes.

To them, this was already an irreversible score.

Hence, when the second half was about to end, Lin an, the captain of the jinglin attraction soccer team, also made a powerful shot, and the ball went straight into the net.

Since he could be the captain, he must be very strong. Coupled with the football team's current declining state, he could easily score a goal.

This number was a little glaring.

Chen Hong, the captain of a certain football team, seemed to have realized something. He forced himself to gather his spirit and wanted to organize an attack.

Even if they lost, they couldn't lose 5:0.

Unfortunately, he could not score at all, and his attacks were all blocked.

In the end, seeing that there was only a little time left, he had no choice but to shoot straight towards his own goal.

Even if it was 6:0, it couldn't be 5:0.

But this time, the goalkeeper kept his eyes on the ball. He was very clever and accurately blocked it, and slapped it out of bounds?

When Chen Hong heard the announcement of the end of the match, he could only curse.

Chapter 1569 Just Laugh! They're The Funny Ones! 1

Chen Hong really wanted to grab the goalkeeper and give him a good beating.

You couldn't even block the f * cking ball that you were supposed to, but you managed to block the ball that you didn't need to block.

He turned to look at the score of 5:0. He felt that it was so glaring that his legs were weak and he knelt down.

Really, the ball went in directly just now, and 6:0 was better than 5:0.

This was because when they arrived, Yang Yan was the one who wanted to send the Linlin Scenic Area security soccer team home with a score of 5:0.

How ironic was the score now?

Chen Hong could only sigh with emotion. How did he have such a stupid pig-like teammate?

At the end of the match, Liu fan and the Linlin tourist attraction's security soccer team couldn't help but cheer and shout wildly.

They found it unbelievable.

When they had arrived, they had been extremely nervous. After all, they had never played in a professional competition. Who knew that they would actually win against a football team, and it was a big win of 5:0?

Lu Tong heaved a deep sigh of relief. Then, a bright smile appeared on his face. He knew that he had washed away his humiliation.

Today, he had proven that it was not that he was incapable, but that he was really bad.

In China, after the competition ended, the internet was silent.

This was because the score had a huge impact on everyone.

Then, everyone came to their senses and realized that it was really 5:0.

Huang rongbin and a few of his friends were still in shock after watching the game.

A soccer team formed by a group of Scenic Area security guards had actually beaten a certain team to a score of 5:0 in the world Cup qualifiers.

This was the World Cup qualifiers.

"Quick, take a screenshot of all the Weibo posts of the football team's members." A friend suddenly thought of something and immediately said.

Huang rongbin reacted and immediately clicked on Weibo to check the status of the members of the certain team.

They had all sent out the message that they would send Linlin Scenic Area home at 5:0.

It was indeed 5:0 now, but they had sent him home with 5:0.

In the stadium, it was time for the winner to cheer and be interviewed. As for the loser, he had already left the stadium.

Chen Hong returned to the changing room immediately and said to his teammates who had just entered, ""Hurry up, quickly delete the Weibo post."

His teammates obviously understood what he meant. Embarrassed, they took out their phones and were about to operate it.

At this moment.

"It's too late. Our Weibo posts have already been taken and posted online."

"What?" Chen Hong was stunned, and so were the others.

They knew that they were done for this time. They were afraid that the people on the internet would not let them off in the future. They were going to become a complete joke.

This was all the fault of the security team.

Chen Hong's hands trembled as he opened the Short Video platform on his mobile phone. The first video was a dazzling 5:0.

This was the score between them and Linlin Scenic Area. It was a video specially made by netizens, which was also accompanied by the content of their Weibo. It was extremely ironic.

As he scrolled through the videos, more and more eye-piercing videos popped up, and the internet exploded.

30 years of unprecedented humiliation and a new record.5. Lost to an amateur soccer team made up of a group of security guards!"

a group of potato-eating security guards defeated a group of sea cucumber-eating people!

"It's not that there's no Messi in the country, it's just that Messi is working as a security guard!"

I've found an excuse. Mouzu: these security guards eat all kinds of natural grains. They're definitely much better than our abalone and lobster. This is the root cause of our loss.

hahaha, I'd like to apologize to a certain football team first. I shouldn't have suspected you of fixing the match in the past. It turns out that they are really noobs. Hahaha, you guys really played a match!

It seemed like the entire internet and the entire country was ridiculing them.

After all, it was during the World Cup period.

Everyone had hoped that their country's team would do well, but their country's team had lost 0:5 to a group of security guards. How ridiculous was that?

Naturally, everyone was glad that this group of security guards was also from their country.

This at least told them that it was not that their country's football was not good, but that a certain football team was not good, and only the group of people who managed the football were not good.

If they could have a large-scale talent show, would they be able to produce a strong team?

At this moment, everyone watching the live broadcast realized that the Linlin national security soccer team, which was representing vanidoa, was doing the same thing. They all took off their shoes and held them high.

Liu fan, who had scored the most goals, was even lifted up and shook his shoe in front of the camera.

Those reporters were naturally quick-witted people, and they immediately aimed their cameras.

Liu fan even faced the camera and kissed the surface of his sneakers affectionately.

This scene made the camera capture it even more crazily.

Back in China, everyone was watching this scene. They felt that Liu fan was crazy and that he might become a real star.

Naturally, more importantly, they saw the logo of the sneakers. There were two very eye-catching artistic words on it: Linlin.

Everyone reacted subconsciously, ""Advertisement, this is an advertisement!"

But obviously, Linlin's sneakers had been imprinted in everyone's memory.

This time, some business experts and vloggers couldn't sit still and started to comment.

Oh my God, the boss of Linlin company is indeed the boss of Linlin company. This move was played beautifully. If the Linlin Scenic Area football team can enter the World Cup, then the country will have another Linlin sports brand.

I was too narrow-minded. I thought the boss of Linlin company was just trying to teach a certain football team a lesson, so he made the security guards participate in the world Cup qualifiers. It turns out that teaching a certain football team a lesson was just in passing. What he really wanted was to create a sports brand.

Chapter 1570 Just Laugh! They're The Funny Ones! 2

look, this is the big boss's means. This is probably the big boss's goal.

since the rise of the boss behind Linlin company, many of his means have been eye-catching. This time, I can't even be considered as a background board.

Linlin Manor.

Prince Tala and Minister Lu also saw the scene. They could naturally see how much attention this was given to them.

"Boss Qin, so, playing against the national football team is fake, and this is your purpose?" Minister Lu was also embarrassed. Boss Qin's business ability was beyond doubt.

Otherwise, Linlin's company wouldn't have been able to develop to this point, just like boss Qin's attitude towards research. If boss Qin focused on business, he was afraid that even the business big shots would tremble in fear.

There was really nothing boss Qin was not good at.

"Academician Qin, you're amazing. I thought you were just playing." Prince Tala suddenly came to a realization.

Qin Lin felt a little helpless. This was Deng Guang's idea. His purpose was only to test the book of winning streaks.

However, he didn't want to explain, and there was no need to. He would just let these people think.

Just as Qin Lin was thinking about this, Lin Lanzi called.

He immediately picked up the call and heard Lin Lanzi's excited voice. "Boss, I didn't expect them to really win. Do we need to hold a celebration for our Scenic Area?"

"Mr. Lin, I'll leave the arrangements to you," Qin Lin said with a smile.

"Alright!" After Lin Lanzi hung up the phone, she made a few consecutive calls and made arrangements.

The next day, the Linlin Scenic Area opened for business as usual.

Tourists also went to the scenic Area one after another. Although the World Cup qualifiers had caused a lot of trouble on the internet, there were still many people who didn't know about it. Even if they knew, it wouldn't stop them from traveling.

However, when many tourists came to the scenic Area today, they found that something was wrong. There were soccer balls in many places of the scenic Area, and the staff were also wearing the uniform of the Linlin Scenic Area security soccer team. There was even a huge poster at the entrance, which was a group photo of the soccer team.

When Lin Yao entered the scenic Area with his wife, he saw this. He naturally knew why. It was because a certain football team had been beaten by the scenic area's football team 5:0 in the world Cup qualifiers.

It was really something to be proud of for the scenic Area team to have such an achievement. The scenic Area naturally had to celebrate.

There were still many people around who did not know the situation. They were puzzled.

"What's going on? What's the point of putting the football on the table?"

"Yes, football is our shame."

"There's a deeper meaning to this Linlin Scenic Area, right?"

".."

Lin Yao could not help but step forward and explain to these people, ""Guys, you might not know this, but Linlin Scenic Area has its own soccer team. They lost 5:0 in the world qualifiers, and the people on the poster are the members of the team."

"What?" "A certain someone can't beat the security of the scenic Area?" a tourist exclaimed.

The surrounding tourists who didn't know about this incident were in an uproar. They felt that it was too shocking, so they immediately picked up their mobile phones to check the news online.

Then, the noise grew louder and louder.

The World Cup qualifiers continued.

Because of their loss to the Linlin Scenic Area security team, under the pressure of public opinion, the management of a certain football team had to hold a press conference.

They expressed that the loss this time was not a problem with the strength of the players, but a problem with the equipment.

In particular, Zhang Shi said that when he was playing, he felt his shoes slip when he used force, causing him to lose the ball and affecting everyone's morale.

Otherwise, if his two goals had gone in, the security guards would have been the ones to affect the morale. The score would have been completely reversed.

The management of the football team also said that they would condemn the shoe supplier and supervise it to prevent such a thing from happening again. They also considered using the shoes from Linlin company in the future. Linlin company's security team had a big advantage in equipment this time. After all, everyone knew that their technology was very advanced.

Obviously, this was another excuse that he had found.

After all, they were best at finding an excuse after losing the game. They even secretly bragged about the shoes of Linlin's team.

This made the internet boo.

A certain sports shoes sponsor: " f  k! F  k! Shameless!

After that, the captain of a certain football team once again expressed on Weibo that the Linlin Scenic Area team's equipment was indeed superior. In the next match against Saudi Arabia, they would not have Linlin Scenic area's equipment and would definitely win.

Obviously, the football team had used Saudi Arabia to get back their face. After all, Saudi Arabia was also a professional when it came to losing. Many times, they were also the football team's pocket.

In the world Cup, some football team was 31st, while Saudi Arabia was 32nd.

That was why Chen Hong dared to say such harsh words.

In the Linlin Manor, Qin Lin was holding Prince Tala's notebook and looking at the second round of teams in Linlin Scenic Area.

The Linlin Scenic Area was up against the plaster country team in the second round.

The plaster country's soccer team was definitely a strong team in Asia, ranked second in strength.

Qin Lin looked at the bets and directly clicked on a bet that Linlin Scenic Area would win 2:0 against the country of healing.

In fact, he wanted a 10:0 score.

However, that would make people feel that there was a problem. Moreover, this would make the security team too proud and make them feel satisfied.

After that, if he didn't use the book of winning streak, the security team would be beaten back to their original state and could only rely on their own strength to compete, and the gap would be too big.

Moreover, if it really was 10:0, it might even give a certain someone an excuse. At that time, the other party would say, "it's really not that we're too weak. The plaster country lost 0:10, and they might even shamelessly think that they're stronger than the plaster country."

Therefore, it was better to beat Jiangyao country by 2:0.

Bet 20 million.

US dollars.

The book of winning streak's count decreased once again, indicating that the bet had worked.

The preliminaries also began very quickly, and it was at the same time as the two group matches.

Coincidentally, a certain football team against Saudi Arabia, and the Linlin security team against the plaster country team were going to be carried out at the same time.

In this match, the soccer team led by Chen Hong was clearly going all out to save face. After all, Saudi Arabia was a noob in their eyes. Every time they beat up Saudi Arabia, they would be very energetic.

However, the people from a certain team quickly realized that Schadt's match was also very exciting.

How could it not be exciting? Their opponent couldn't even beat the security guard in the dress. There was clearly a problem. They had to torture the other party.

What was special was that Schadt was a crazy person and often performed beyond his usual limits. He did not have this ability at all. When he encountered a tough opponent, he would start to lose if he fought a long battle.

Today's situation was a little bad because Saudi's goalkeeper suddenly went crazy. Chen Hong and the others' consecutive close-range shots were blocked by the opposing goalkeeper one by one.

Saudi's goalkeeper seemed to have transformed into the guard of the southern heavenly gate. He even killed a teammate as a sacrifice.

Under such circumstances, the football team was beaten to a pulp. Some people even started to mess up. In the end, not only did they not win against Saudi, but they also lost 2:0.

This time, Chen Hong and the others were really dumbfounded.

The internet was filled with endless ridicule.

Naturally, the news of the match on the other side had also spread. The Linlin Scenic Area soccer team and the plaster national team had also come to a conclusion. Linlin Scenic Area had won the plaster national team by 2:0.

After the competition, a member of the plaster country named the wave wind water sect (there really is such a person, plaster country number 14!) The players said that they had secretly formed hand seals but had not played before.

Some foreign media even vaguely expressed that the eastern countries were really a magical country. Their table tennis national champion was stronger than the world champion, and their football regional security team was stronger than a certain football team.

In the match that followed, a certain football team faced off against the plaster country and was directly kicked 0:3. Losing this match also meant that a certain football team would once again miss out on this world Cup.

But this time, the domestic fans did not seem to pay attention to them, and no one expected them to score.

Naturally, Linlin Scenic Area defeated Saudi Arabia 4:0 again and took first place in the data Group.

As long as the Linlin Scenic Area football team did not lose the next game, even if they tied, they would still be able to enter the World Cup even if they lost the rest of the games.

At this moment, everyone in the country was boiling with excitement because another team from their country had entered the World Cup. Naturally, a certain football team had completely become the background for the ridicule.

The only unfortunate thing was that the Linlin Scenic Area security team was representing other countries in the competition.

This also seemed to be a very ironic thing, as if the talented people were forced to go to other countries.

Naturally, what happened next gave him a chance to clear his name.
