

The Game 221

Chapter 221: Sending Benefits This Time! Shocked Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen! 2

Chen Xiao looked at the incense burner in his hand and knew that it was sent by Qin Lin. He entered the room immediately and lit the incense.

She had the same thought as Zhao Xianhong. Regardless of whether this thing was effective or not, her son-in-law's intentions were the most important. What her son-in-law gave her was precious.

After lighting the incense, she left the bedroom and closed the door. She planned to finish the episode in the hall.

Although he did not understand why the female lead could be resurrected after being blown up by a bomb in the bus, it looked quite interesting.

Zhao Xianhong quickly came out of the shower. There was already a faint fragrance in the room.

He lay down on the bed as usual. Insomnia victims had to stay awake the next day and could only lie down early. After tossing and turning for two or three hours, he could still guarantee to fall asleep around 12 AM.

After Zhao Xianhong lay down, he realized that something was different today. In the past, he would be frustrated when he couldn't sleep, but today, his heart was especially calm without a trace of frustration. This made him feel magical.

Zhao Xianhong naturally did not know that this was the effect of sandalwood incense. As he was thinking, he felt sleepy and actually yawned.

In the hall.

Chen Xiao also finished watching the episode very quickly. Then, she turned off the television and walked to the bedroom. At this time, her husband should be tossing and turning. He wouldn't be able to fall asleep until one o'clock.

But when the door opened, she froze. Her husband was snoring on the bed, obviously sound asleep.

"So fast today?" Chen Xiao was surprised. Could the incense given by her son-in-law really help him sleep? But wasn't the effect too strong?

As Chen Xiao thought about it, she realized that she was also feeling sleepy and yawned slightly.

Feeling like she could fall asleep any time she wanted to, she went into the bathroom to shower.

...

The next day.

Qin Lin had just finished breakfast when he received a call from Zhao Xianhong.

He guessed what it was about and immediately picked up. "Dad, how's the incense?"

Zhao Xianhong's happy voice sounded. "Qin Lin, the incense you sent is too magical. I haven't slept so well in a long time. I was sleepy the moment I lay down last night. I don't even know when I fell asleep. Qin Lin, thank you so much."

"Dad, don't thank me. This is what I should do." Qin Lin smiled when he heard the effects of the sandalwood incense.

This sleep enhancement +2 was obviously very powerful.

No matter how much the sandalwood incense outside could be sold for, as long as it was targeted at people with insomnia, its value would definitely increase greatly.

Qin Lin sent today's items to the villa. After Chen Dabei and his men moved the items from the car to the villa, he entered the villa and headed to the office.

As soon as he arrived at the office, he saw Xiao Luo walking out with two security guards carrying a sign wrapped in red silk.

That sign was the sign of Qinglin Winery.

"Boss." When Xiao Luo saw Qin Lin come out, he hurriedly said respectfully, "The lady boss called and asked us to bring this sign to the winery to hang it up."

Qin Lin nodded and said, "Go. Be careful on the way. Don't touch the sign."

"Don't worry, Boss. Nothing will go wrong," Xiao Luo promised immediately.

After Xiao Luo left with his men, Qin Lin passed by an empty office and heard Zhao Moqing's voice coming from inside. "Yaoyao, I didn't expect you to be so smart. Set up the other signboard too."

Qin Lin walked in and saw Gao Yaoyao holding a piece of red silk and arranging it on a 'Qinglin Villa' signboard.

Since there was a new signboard, they naturally had to hang some red silk to express their joy.

When Zhao Moqing saw Qin Lin enter, he immediately asked, "Qin Lin, Mom asked you to choose an auspicious day. Two days later is the best. It's suitable for opening and listing. Therefore, I've already asked everyone to prepare for the listing event the day after tomorrow."

"Okay, just arrange it." Qin Lin nodded.

Zhao Moqing continued, "When the time comes, should we invite Chief Chen and those suppliers? Also, whether Mr. Chen and Mr. Li want to invite you or not has to be decided."

The listing ceremony was a festive day. Naturally, they had to invite people close to them, such as Uncle Ergen, Uncle Dashan, and the others.

People like Qin Ren, Hu Fei, Zhang Shi, and Lin Feng who had business dealings with the villa would definitely be invited.

Needless to say, Chief Chen was in charge of the tourism industry.

As for Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen, it would be unreasonable not to invite them. They definitely had to be informed. On the other hand, Chen Fengwu, the calligraphy master that Chen Shengfei had helped find, hoped that Chen Shengfei could help.

After all, the signboard was made with the other party's calligraphy. Firstly, the etiquette was in place. Secondly, the master and the signboard could take a photo. Perhaps there would really be a good story.

Qin Lin told Zhao Moqing his thoughts. Then, he and Zhao Moqing worked together. Zhao Moqing and his mother called their relatives and friends to inform them.

He took out his phone and invited the others, including Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen. Everyone obviously gave him face and said that they would definitely be there the day after tomorrow.

Chen Shengfei even promised to invite his uncle, Master Chen Fengwu.

In the afternoon, Zhao Moqing went to Qin Lin's office. "Qin Lin, have you thought about the prizes and benefits for the listing? I still have to film a video to promote it the night before."

Qin Lin smiled and said, "I've already thought about it. There's no need to draw the prizes and benefits for the day. As long as the tourists spend 100 yuan at the villa, they can receive them for free. Moreover, there are three types of benefits..."

Chapter 222: Sending Benefits This Time! Shocked Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen! 3

Qin Lin told Zhao Moqing about the welfare plan he had long thought of.

He prepared three kinds of perks:

The first was the Qinglin Medicine Wine for acne.

Other than keeping a few catties in reserve, he intended to take out 40 catties, then purchase 30 milliliters of the sealed bottle and pour it into the wine. That would give him 666 bottles of perks.

He could drink 30 milliliters three times if he saved it. After all, it was more than 50 degrees medicinal wine. 10 milliliters a time was the best amount for medicinal wine.

The second was naturally the Quality 1 sandalwood incense with sleep enhancing abilities.

There were 300 boxes of 100g Quality 1 sandalwood incense. The effect of Quality 2 had already been learned from Zhao Xianhong. The effect was very strong, and the effect of Quality 1 was probably not bad.

On the other hand, 0.5 grams was enough for one sleep aid. He planned to buy some special packaging. Each package could hold 10 grams, which meant one portion was enough for 20 uses.

That left 3,000 copies for visitors to claim.

The third type was naturally Qin Lin's medicinal wine. This was the kind that nourished the kidneys and strengthened the body like before. He took out 60 catties of the latest batch and which was also 30 milliliters. There were a total of 1,000 servings.

In this way, the benefits totaled 4,666.

However, there were more than 4,666 tourists who could be satisfied. After all, many of them came as a family, husband and wife, and couples. There would only be one person who would pay the bill and could only receive one.

It was also very simple to receive it for free. That was to spend the full 100 yuan. When the bill was paid, one out of three would be chosen until it was delivered.

The benefits this time were definitely not low.

After all, everyone knew that the Qinglin Medicine Wine was now worth more than 60,000 yuan a bottle. Ordinary people would not have the chance to drink it. Now, they were giving the tourists a chance to drink it.

In fact, when some hemorrhoid tourists found out about the effects of the hemorrhoid medicinal wine, the reputation of the Qinglin Villa medicinal wine would rise to another level.

Naturally, after taking out so much medicinal wine at once, Chen Shengfei, Ma Liewen, and the others would definitely inquire about it. He just had to use the excuse that it had been mixed.

With Chen Shengfei and the others' character, they would not ask too much. When they left, he would just sell them a bottle of bronze wine as a benefit.

After Zhao Moqing heard about the benefits from Qin Lin, he immediately returned to his office to make plans. Then, he found Gao Yaoyao to take a video.

Time passed, and soon another day passed.

By the next afternoon, Ma Liewen and Chen Shengfei arrived at the villa early.

Behind the two of them was an old man with white hair. Although the old man was old, his body was obviously very strong, and his face was full of energy.

Qin Lin immediately went forward to welcome them. "Mr. Chen, Mr. Ma, thank you for coming."

"Boss Qin, we've known each other for so long, so there's no need to be so polite." Chen Shengfei smiled and suggested, "Besides, there's no need to call us Mr. Chen and Mr. Ma. It'll seem distant. Just call us Old Chen and Old Ma. We'll be more cordial."

Qin Lin didn't hesitate when he heard this. He smiled and said, "Alright, Old Chen and Old Ma. Don't call me Boss Qin, either. I'm young, so you can just call me Qin Lin."

He had known Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen for a long time and knew them well. They were both worth befriending.

At this moment, Chen Shengfei also introduced the old man to Qin Lin. "Qin Lin, this is my uncle, Master Chen Fengwu."

Qin Lin had already guessed it and immediately went forward to shake hands with the old man. "Master Chen, your writing will definitely brighten my villa."

“Boss Qin, you overestimate me.” Although Chen Fengwu knew that his handwriting was not bad, he did not have the thick face to say that his handwriting could bring light to a villa.

Ma Liewen suggested, “Qin Lin, Master Chen likes to make tea. Let’s go to your office and make tea. This time, I brought some high-grade oolong tea.”

“Let’s go!” Qin Lin also called the three of them to his office.

As soon as Ma Liewen entered Qin Lin’s office, he took out a small can of luxuriously wrapped tea leaves from his briefcase and sat at the tea table to make tea.

The moment Chen Shengfei entered, he was attracted by the plaque. “Qin Lin, this plaque is not bad. When did you hang it up?”

Master Chen Fengwu also walked under the plaque. “The words on this plaque are almost meaningful, but the person who made it is quite skilled. It’s impressive.”

Qin Lin smiled when he heard this evaluation. That was the attribute of the high-end atmosphere +1 effect.

“Oh, the texture under the wax...” Master Chen Fengwu suddenly moved closer to the plaque and observed it for a moment before saying in surprise, “This plaque is actually made of rosewood? The texture and the color of the wax are probably made of high-grade rosewood.”

“High-grade rosewood?” Chen Shengfei also stepped forward in surprise. Rosewood was not rare, but high-grade rosewood was very rare.

“F*ck...” Ma Liewen exclaimed, “I didn’t realize that this entire tea table was made of rosewood. Moreover, it seems to be high-grade rosewood too.”

Chen Shengfei was attracted and immediately squatted in front of the tea table to check. A moment later, he looked even more surprised.

This large tea table was really made of high-grade rosewood.

Chen Shengfei felt that it was unbelievable. High-grade rosewood no longer depended on the price. It was very rare. They could buy it, but it was definitely not easy to build such a big tea table with so many high-grade rosewood at once. Even they might have to spend a lot of manpower and favors to get it.

“This desk is also made of high-quality rosewood,” Master Chen Fengwu said suddenly, stroking the top of the desk.

“What?” Chen Shengfei exclaimed.

“Even the desk?” said Ma Liewen.

The two of them looked at Qin Lin in unison, clearly asking where he got so much rosewood at once.

Chapter 223: Money Can’t Buy Some Things! 1

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen walked to the desk and observed it carefully. They realized that this desk was really a high-grade rosewood.

It was not that they were ignorant, but that rosewood and red sandalwood were rare collectible-grade wood. Moreover, the better the quality, the fewer the high-grade ones.

As for the top-grade ones, they were completely rare. They were almost rare, and the people who owned them hid them tightly and would not take them out at all.

Many people collected such furniture. High-grade furniture could be slowly assembled into a set. Top-grade rare furniture could only be obtained by luck.

Otherwise, when that person from the Wang family was still the richest man in the world, he wouldn't have specially brought people to take photos of the mahogany furniture at home in that interview for "The Day of a Wealthy Man"?

That was because that set of furniture was made of top-notch rosewood. Very few people in the country could find top-notch rosewood to make a complete set of furniture.

With that complete set of furniture, even the richest man would definitely show off, much less someone who liked to collect such wooden furniture.

There was also a complete set of top-notch rosewood furniture in the corporation that Ma Yun had created. It represented nobility.

It was said that the rosewood cabinet that stood in the corner with extremely fine and complicated workmanship was even hand-made by the old carpenter who hired Engineer Su according to the cabinets in Empress Dowager Cixi's palace. This cabinet alone cost five million yuan.

Although five million yuan was nothing to rich people like them, it was really not something that could be bought with just five million yuan.

The price was there. There was no such thing in the market.

It was said that one could buy anything with money, even emotions. However, those were only inferior things.

When something really reached a certain level, even money could not buy it.

Although Boss Qin's high-grade rosewood desk and red sandalwood tea table were inferior to the top-notch ones of the two former richest men, they were still very rare.

It was a pity that there were only two large pieces, not the full set. Otherwise, even if it was a set of high-grade furniture, it would be an astonishing achievement for the rich who liked such furniture.

"Qin Lin, I really realize that you always have unexpected surprises. You always have good things." Ma Liewen sighed. He took the oolong tea and sat at the tea table again. "However, you don't have any tea, right? You'll have to count on me now. I love tea and have a collection of good tea leaves."

Ma Liewen felt rather proud.

After all, it was inevitable to be proud of something he liked.

Chen Shengfei was still looking at the rosewood desk. He tried to ask, "Qin Lin, do you have any channels in this area? If you can help me ask around, I also want some rosewood furniture at home, but nothing big."

When Qin Lin heard this, he smiled and said, "Old Chen, I'll help you keep an eye on this. If there's any news, I'll inform you."

Although the refresh of trees in the game was random, rosewood would definitely refresh again in the future. Life was long, and there was still a lot of time.

It wouldn't be difficult for him to get a complete set of rosewood furniture of Quality 2 or above. Wouldn't that be better than two of the former richest men?

Since Chen Shengfei liked this kind of furniture, he would find an opportunity to get him a set when the trees were refreshed in the future. However, in order to avoid others from probing, he had to leave it in the game for a while.

It was better to make it old-fashioned until before the founding of the state.

Then it would become an antique. If others asked, it was still an old item. If they saw it in the market, they would buy it.

"Hey, Qin Lin, do you play with incense too?" Chen Shengfei walked to the tea table and saw the incense sticks and incense burner on the shelf beside the tea table. "Your office is getting better and better. There's no brand name for this incense, so it should be a very precious custom-made one, right?"

It was no wonder he thought so. Qin Lin had too many good things.

From the first time he came to eat wild goods, there were different kinds of good things every time he came. Now, Qin Lin felt that anything he saw might be good.

Besides, when it came to incense, the really high-end ones were custom-made. And there weren't a lot of them, especially the kind of agarwood that cost 13,000 yuan a gram.

That kind of thing was even harder to come by than the Xiangshui Tribute Rice. He'd only gotten his hands on it a couple of times, but he had to admit that when the agarwood incense was lit in the office, it was really unobstructed and very effective.

Chen Shengfei opened the incense box curiously and smelled the familiar fragrance emitted by the powder inside. He was surprised again. "This is... agarwood?"

He could tell. No wonder this fragrance was so familiar.

Qin Lin said in surprise, "Old Chen, you can tell?"

Chen Shengfei explained, "I've bought agarwood incense a few times. I didn't expect to see this incense here today."

Now Ma Liewen was intrigued. "Let's light some."

Although he did not use incense, he had heard from Chen Shengfei that Old Chen was bragging back then.

Chen Shengfei looked at Qin Lin and asked. It was fine to take a look at such things, but it would be impolite to do it privately.

“Go ahead!” Qin Lin nodded.

Chen Shengfei immediately became excited. He immediately took the incense burner and skillfully operated it. It could be seen that he often used incense.

He skillfully lit the incense and covered the incense burner. After a while, white smoke curled up, accompanied by a faint and pleasant fragrance.

“Wow, this smell is as good as you said, Old Chen.” Ma Liewen let out a surprised sound after a moment. “Besides, I feel strangely refreshed. Old Chen, it seems that this thing you’re using is pretty useful.”

Chapter 224: Money Can’t Buy Some Things! 2

“Why else do you think I bought those?” Chen Shengfei replied angrily. Then, he sighed with emotion. “However, Qin Lin’s agarwood incense is of a higher grade than the one I bought. Not only is it fragrant, but it also has an effect. You should have already felt it.”

Master Chen Fengwu also felt the effect of the agarwood incense.

Although he and Chen Shengfei had only come by car, they were still very tired. After the incense was lit, the fatigue quickly disappeared.

At his age, he could boast that he was knowledgeable, but he could not believe that he had not experienced such a magical incense personally.

“Qin Lin, do you have a way to get this agarwood Incense?” Chen Shengfei asked expectantly.

“Old Chen, this really depends on luck. I might not have it even if I wanted it myself.” Qin Lin knew what Chen Shengfei meant, but he could only tell the truth.

The refresh rate of this agarwood tree was too low. Ever since it had been refreshed previously, it had yet to be refreshed. If they were unlucky and did not refresh this thing for a month or two, he and Zhao Moqing would be out of stock.

“Sigh.” Chen Shengfei sighed and did not continue asking. This was indeed very rare.

“The tea is ready. Try my collection of oolong tea.” At this moment, Ma Liewen also called for everyone to sit down. He only loved tea. This oolong tea was worth a few thousand yuan.

Boss Qin had many good things, but there were no good tea leaves.

Good tea leaves were not easy to come by.

Qin Lin also liked tea, but the tea he drank was ordinary tea. After taking two sips of the oolong tea, he felt that it was different from ordinary tea.

First, there was the fragrance of tea. The fragrance was very strong in the mouth, and there was a sweetness after bitterness. The sweetness was very evocative.

The reason why Northerners did not like to drink tea was actually because they could not stand the bitterness of tea. It was because they resisted and their hearts were in chaos. They could not taste the sweetness after the bitterness.

The taste of tea was the sweetness after the bitterness, as well as the process of slowly returning to blandness and fragrance.

There was a saying: When tasting tea, bitterness is its journey, fragrance is its gift, and returning to blandness is its nature.

Therefore, many people had different opinions when they tasted tea.

Some people drank tea as if they were tasting emotions. It was always difficult to pursue, but once they succeeded, it would be sweet. However, no matter how sweet it was, it would slowly return to normal as time passed. But when they were old, the sweetness of the past could be recalled carefully, like the fragrance of tea.

Naturally, some would say, how could there be such a metaphor? How many men and women could go from courting to growing old together?

But that was because they did not choose the right tea leaves. The tea leaves were all moldy and rotting, and they were still making them. Could tea like that be fragrant? Apart from the bitterness, there's nothing left but nausea.

Ma Liewen finished making a pot of tea and chatted as the time passed. In the blink of an eye, it was evening.

"Let's go to the hall and see what we're having for dinner." Qin Lin called out to Chen Shengfei and the others.

The three of them were invited to support him this time, so he was naturally in charge of entertaining them.

When he arrived at the original hall, he realized that Master Lin had already brought over the ingredients for dinner with an apprentice.

When Master Lin saw Qin Lin, he said, "Boss, the lady boss has already instructed that you have to entertain Mr. Chen and the others tonight. I came over in advance to prepare."

Qin Lin nodded.

Zhao Moqing was always so understanding. He would arrange many things for her.

He then said to Master Lin, "Master Lin, I'll help you later. I'll make the fish and eel."

"Yes, boss!" Master Lin nodded.

Li Kai suddenly appeared at the entrance of the backyard and shouted in surprise, "Brother Qin, are you cooking again tonight?"

"Mr. Li, you're here too?" Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen naturally knew Li Kai.

However, they were good friends with Li Qing and Li Kai's seniority was different. They were not very close.

Li Kai nodded at Chen Shengfei and said to Qin Lin with a smile, "Brother Qin, remember to call me when you eat."

Just as Li Qing had said, after eating Qin Lin's fish, Li Kai had been thinking about it.

With that, Li Kai walked back into the backyard.

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen looked at each other. This person was indeed as jumpy and neurotic as the rumors said.

Wasn't it just a meal? And he made it sound like he was afraid of missing it.

Boss Qin's food is delicious, but he was from the Li family after all. There's no need for that, right?

"Boss Qin, why is this person here?" Chen Shengfei asked curiously.

Qin Lin explained, "There's a problem with the watermelon seeds in my backyard. Mr. Li, please help me take a look."

After Chen Shengfei, Ma Liewen, and Chen Fengwu sat down, Qin Lin asked Gao Yaoyao to send over some fruits and snacks before entering the kitchen with Master Lin.

After Chen Shengfei sat down, he looked at the hall and felt a little emotional. "When I first came here, I came in accidentally because my tire was broken. At that time, the villa was still in a panic and there weren't many tourists. Now, in such a short period of time, the villa is already so lively."

"When I entered this hall, I still felt that this hall wasn't at that level. It was far inferior to the Hundred Fragrance Pavilion. But now, I feel that the hall of the Hundred Fragrance Pavilion is far inferior to this."

Ma Liewen smiled and said, "Old Chen, it's a good thing that your tire broke at that time. Otherwise, we would have missed too many good things. We might still be eating those things from the Hundred Fragrance Pavilion and buying Li Fei's empty things."

As they chatted, Li Qing walked in. He was still wearing his apron and had obviously just come down from the winery.

When Chen Shengfei saw Li Qing, he immediately pulled him to sit down and asked curiously, "Li Qing, you haven't left since Old Ma and I left last time, right? What are you doing here in the villa?"

"Can't you smell it? I'm making wine," Li Qing said as he picked up a piece of watermelon and ate it.

"Wine?" Ma Liewen's eyes lit up. "It's not the Qinglin Medicine Wine, is it, Li Qing? You can't brew ordinary wine yourself."

"I want to brew the Qinglin Medicine Wine too. Do you think I have the chance?" Li Qing sighed and took two more bites of the watermelon before saying casually, "Boss Qin made 100 catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice to brew wine."

"Making wine with the Xiangshui Tribute Rice?" Chen Shengfei was surprised.

Chen Fengwu was also a little uneasy.

He had eaten Xiangshui Tribute Rice at Chen Shengfei's place before and knew how rare it was. Rich people like Chen Shengfei could only get some occasionally.

But did someone actually want to use this kind of rice to make wine?

Ma Liewen was even more incredulous. "Good grief, I can't believe you guys would do something so extravagant. That's the Xiangshui Tribute Rice."

Li Qing said with an expression that said, "Let me tell you, this Xiangshui Tribute Rice is a luxury for us, but not for Boss Qin. For example, you can't buy it even if you have the money. However, someone from Xiangshui took the initiative to exchange the Xiangshui Tribute Rice for Qinglin Medicine Wine from Boss Qin. This is how the Xiangshui Tribute Rice for brewing wine came about."

"There's such a thing?" Ma Liewen was immediately taken aback, but it made sense when he thought about it. There were things that money couldn't buy, but it didn't say that equally precious things couldn't be exchanged.

In a certain small country, they could even change people, such as changing culture.

"Old Ma, could it be the same that time? We still thought that Qin Lin was deceived." Chen Shengfei suddenly said to Ma Liewen.

"I think so. At that time, Qin Lin also thought that the other party was a swindler." Ma Liewen also remembered that they had shared some of the Xiangshui Tribute Rice and brought it back. At first, they thought that Qin Lin could not have obtained that much Xiangshui Tribute Rice and thought that he had been deceived.

However, it was not that Qin Lin had been deceived, but that Li Fei's Xiangshui Tribute Rice was far inferior to Boss Qin's.

At that time, Qin Lin even said that he had taken it from a friend and thought that he had been deceived. Perhaps at that time, someone from Xiangshui knew that Boss Qin had medicinal wine and came to contact him.

When Li Qing heard what the two of them said, he roughly knew what was going on. The time the two of them mentioned must have been when Xiangshui found out about the medicinal wine from some unknown source. It was the first time they came to the house to interact and Boss Qin treated them as cheats.

"By the way, where's Boss Qin?" Li Qing asked.

Chen Shengfei explained, "In the kitchen. He said he'll help Master Lin make fish."

"He's cooking again?" Li Qing was pleasantly surprised and walked straight into the kitchen. Boss Qin had been cooking a little more frequently recently, which was a good thing.

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen looked at each other.

Why did they have to be so shocked?

Chapter 225: How Many More Skills Are Hidden? Men Should Accept Their Fate Sometimes! 1

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen had not eaten Qin Lin's cooking yet, so they naturally did not know what Li Qing and Li Kai were looking forward to.

Not long after, dishes were served by Li Qing and a kitchen apprentice.

When Qin Lin came out with the last dish of braised meat, there were already more than ten dishes on the table.

Among them were three courses of fish and two courses of eel. He had made them with the system's culinary skills. They had the attributes of +3 delicacy, +3 texture, and +1 appetite.

Li Kai didn't even need anyone to call him. When all the dishes were served, he had already washed his hands and sat down at the table. "Brother Qin, the fish and oysters are ready. I've been craving them for days."

Li Qing took the bowls and chopsticks and distributed them to everyone. After sitting down, he said, "Fortunately, we came down in time today. Otherwise, we would have missed this meal."

As he spoke, he had already made himself a bowl of fish soup.

Li Kai ate in silence, not wanting to waste any more time.

This was the time to eat.

"The dishes are all here. Everyone, eat!" After Qin Lin sat down, he said to Chen Fengwu, who had come for the first time, "Master Chen, it's your first time here. Try our villa's dishes."

Chen Shengfei also explained, "Uncle, you should really try Qin Lin's food. It's much more delicious than the food in those hotels, restaurants, and restaurants."

Chen Fengwu was also looking forward to hearing Chen Shengfei say that. He picked up a piece of fish with his chopsticks and put it into his mouth.

The +3 taste, +3 texture, and +1 appetite of the fish made the master look incredulous.

How was this just more delicious? This taste was not comparable to those restaurants at all, okay?

He could not describe the delicacy.

Anyway, at his age, he had never eaten anything that tasted so good.

"Uncle, how is it? It's delicious, right?" Chen Shengfei knew what was going on from Master Chen's expression. He smiled and picked up a piece of braised meat for himself. Just as he started chewing, he realized that something was wrong. "Eh, why does this braised meat taste even better today? Is it my imagination?"

"I don't think you're imagining it," said Ma Liewen. "I think the fish is even more delicious today. It's a level stronger than before. It even reminds me of someone."

“Old Yang!” Chen Shengfei subconsciously said a name.

Ma Liewen nodded.

The Red Gate Feast was once famous in Ming City. They had eaten the Red Gate Feast before, so they naturally knew how delicious the dishes that Old Yang had carefully prepared for a long time and only opened once a year were.

Unfortunately, as Old Yang grew older, he no longer had the energy and stamina to hold a popular banquet. His few disciples did not learn well either. Even if they used the same materials and did the same thing, no one would buy it.

Old Yang’s disciples didn’t want to improve either. They had already gone to deal with low-end games and got some services like the Red Gate Feast for ordinary rich people or rich second-generation heirs.

Unfortunately, the Red Gate Feast was going to be lost in the open market.

The two of them never expected to be able to eat dishes that were comparable to the Red Gate Feast. They even felt that the taste and texture were slightly better.

The two of them looked at Li Qing and Li Kai, who were silently eating fish, and suddenly recalled their reaction to Qin Lin cooking.

They must have eaten it before.

In other words, Qin Lin was the one who did all this?

That left them too shocked.

The two of them ate more than ten dishes and realized that the taste of the okra and yam had not changed. It was still the same as before. It should have been made by Master Lin.

Only the fish and eel tasted better. This should be made by Qin Lin.

Chen Shengfei looked at Qin Lin in surprise. “Qin Lin, we’ve known each other for so long, but I didn’t expect you to be so good at cooking.”

Ma Liewen agreed. “Well, obviously, Old Chen and I met you first, but Li Qing tasted your cooking first. I’m envious.”

Li Qing looked up and teased, “Old Ma, can you not be like a resentful woman? This is not how you get jealous.”

Qin Lin also smiled and said, “Old Ma, don’t you and Old Chen get to eat now? Besides, I don’t cook often. I was just thanking Mr. Li previously.”

When Li Qing heard this, he felt that something was wrong. “Wait, why are they Old Chen and Old Ma while I’m Mr. Li? Boss Qin, we’ve been in your villa for longer than the two of them, right? I even helped you mix and brew wine. Do you treat me as an outsider?”

Now Ma Liewen retaliated. “Li Qing, that’s not how you get jealous. It’s just a title.”

Qin Lin was stunned.

It was no wonder that Chen Shengfei, Ma Liewen, and the others would play together. They were mocking each other and did not let go of any opportunities.

Li Qing said to Qin Lin, "Call me Old Li in the future. I can't be excluded."

Qin Lin smiled and nodded.

He naturally did not think that Li Qing cared about this. Those who really cared about this would not say it out loud. Instead, they would hide it in their hearts.

Those who could really say it out loud actually treated them as friends.

At this moment, Li Kai suddenly interrupted, "Brother Qin, you can call me Brother Li."

This was all just playing around.

At this moment.

Zhao Moqing called him to discuss the listing tomorrow. Now, he was going to release a promotional video.

He could only inform Li Qing and the others before leaving the table.

Ma Liewen couldn't help but sigh. "Who would believe that the person who can brew the Qinglin Medicine Wine is comparable to Old Yang in culinary skills? I wonder how much ability Qin Lin still has hidden."

Chapter 226: How Many More Skills Are Hidden? Men Should Accept Their Fate Sometimes! 2

"Training pets!" Li Kai interrupted again. "I was doing an experiment in the backyard watermelon field this afternoon. There was a little squirrel dressed and carrying a backpack standing on a watermelon and staring at my experiment for a long time. Then Ms. Lin walked past with the dog. The squirrel jumped onto the dog's head again and walked away together."

Ma Liewen added, "There's more than one squirrel. Qin Lin trained a lot of squirrels at the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea."

Chen Shengfei suddenly thought of something and said proudly, "You guys definitely don't know about Qin Lin's ability. Only I should know."

That did get the others' attention.

"What is it?" asked Ma Liewen curiously.

Chen Shengfei explained, "Fishing. Qin Lin and I went to the reservoir to fish before. Do you know how he fished? When I caught one, he had already caught two buckets. It was as if the fish ran to his hook by themselves. He's definitely better than those fishing masters. I even saw him catch a wild big fish with my own eyes."

Ma Liewen and Li Qing felt a little emotional.

How much more ability was Qin Lin hiding?

Even Chen Fengwu, who was a master, felt that Boss Qin was a very strange person. It was already not bad for a person to be able to make a name for himself in an industry. It was already impressive for him to become the top in this industry.

However, he could even achieve top-notch results in different fields. It was really not something an ordinary person could do.

Qin Lin returned to the office area and walked towards a multimedia room.

This was specially arranged by Zhao Moqing.

There were already more than 1.8 million fans in the official account of the villa. Coupled with the fact that the villa was busy, she naturally had to hire some special people to handle some matters. Otherwise, she would not have the energy.

When Qin Lin walked into the multimedia room, the lights inside were brighter than those outside. They were specially installed for filming videos.

Other than Zhao Moqing and Gao Yaoyao, there were two other people inside.

A man was holding a camera machine and connecting it to a computer. He was editing a video. He was naturally a professional editor he had recruited. He also took care of the cameras.

The other person was a girl who was watching the video on another screen with Gao Yaoyao.

It was a synced video of the cut.

The girl was the planner.

In the past, Zhao Moqing had thought of the video lines for the official account of the villa. Now, she had handed them over to a special planner.

As for the female lead of the video, it was naturally Gao Yaoyao. Who asked her to be so generous and amiable?

“Boss!” Gao Yaoyao noticed Qin Lin and hurriedly greeted him.

The girl planner and editor hurriedly greeted him respectfully.

“Boss!”

“Boss!”

Qin Lin nodded and said, “Carry on with your work. Don’t worry about me!”

Zhao Moqing pulled Qin Lin to the screen and said, “Qin Lin, come and take a look at the video. If there’s no problem, I’ll post it at prime time tonight.”

“Yes!” Qin Lin nodded.

...

Time passed.

The sky quickly turned completely dark.

The villa was no longer as peaceful as it used to be. With the opening of the bridal chamber, many overnight tourists would stroll around the villa and talk intimately.

For many couples, this was also a form of romance. After all, the villa was brightly lit and they could go anywhere.

And night was naturally the golden time of the Internet world.

Most people had already finished work and started online life.

In particular, a certain voice had become the gathering point for most of the Internet traffic. It was either looking at beautiful women or handsome men, or listening to chicken soup for the soul, or scolding someone, or being a wave of goddesses...

Qinglin Villa's fans had already reached more than 1.8 million after the last Supreme Set Event.

Moreover, it had not been long since the Supreme Set Event and the Qinglin Medicine Wine. The popularity of the Qinglin Villa was still very high, and the number of fans was increasing every day.

Many fans were even looking forward to the next event at Qinglin Villa.

After all, every event at the villa was popular on the Internet, and the prizes were even more amazing.

The melon king, the Supreme Set meal, and the Qinglin Medicine Wine were all rare outside. In fact, the standards were so high that most rich people could not eat these things.

One after another, it was difficult not to look forward to the activities at Qinglin Villa. Some hardcore fans would even click on the Qinglin Villa's backstage every day to take a look.

What if there was another activity at the Qinglin Villa? Then they would know immediately and book the bridal chamber at the Qinglin Villa.

Everyone knew that the bridal chamber at Qinglin Villa would be the most popular at that time.

Today, many fans of Qinglin Villa were surprised to find that the villa had released a new video. Gao Yaoyao, this beautiful girl, appeared on screen again.

The content of the video immediately attracted many fans.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Gao Yaoyao. I have good news for everyone today. Our villa has custom-made two signs. We'll be hanging them up tomorrow. On the day of the listing, our villa has prepared 4,666 benefits for the tourists that day."

"Remember, this is a benefit. There's no need for a lucky draw. As long as you meet the requirements, you can receive the benefit for free..."

After watching the video, everyone was surprised. Many people even became anxious.

The first benefit was the Qinglin Medicine Wine that strengthened the body and nourished the kidneys. Each serving was 30ml, a total of 1,000 servings.

The Qinglin Medicine Wine had long been known by everyone. Everyone knew that this bottle of wine cost at least 60,000 yuan per catty. Moreover, the people who had won the prize had already confirmed that it could make men last very long in bed.

Chapter 227: How Many More Skills Are Hidden? Men Should Accept Their Fate Sometimes! 3

Tomorrow, Qinglin Villa would actually give away 1,000 servings of this wine for free. Even if each serving was only 30 ml, it could be used sparingly for more than three days. Moreover, according to the 60,000 yuan per catty, it was worth 3,600 yuan.

Now it was available for free as long as the conditions were met.

This was a real gift. It wasn't like those influencers who talked about cutting prices for their families as benefits but sold them at a higher price than online.

Most importantly, this medicinal wine was something that those rich people could not buy even if they wanted to. Now, they had a chance to receive it for free.

The first benefit instantly attracted everyone's attention, but when Gao Yaoyao mentioned the second benefit, many people were dumbfounded.

A Qinglin Medicine Wine that could cure hemorrhoids?

Many people squeezed their legs together inexplicably when they saw this. Then their faces revealed their urgency.

Because that was Qinglin Medicine Wine, which cost 60,000 yuan per catty. Now that Qinglin Villa said that it could treat hemorrhoids, they shouldn't be joking, right?

After all, this medicinal wine that could treat hemorrhoids was also 30ml, but only 666 portions are available. This meant that this medicinal wine was even more precious than the one that nourished the kidneys and strengthened the body.

If it cost 60,000 yuan per catty for the medicinal wine that nourishes the kidneys and strengthens the body, how much was this more precious medicinal wine worth?

In the video, Gao Yaoyao announced the third benefit. "The first two benefits have already made everyone look forward to it, right? Then let's talk about the third benefit. This benefit is a true blessing for insomniacs. That is 3,000 sets of sandalwood incense that can increase sleep. Each set costs 10 grams. It will last until it's sold out. Moreover, Yaoyao has experienced this sandalwood incense personally. It's very effective."

"The above 4,666 benefits can be received for free as long as you pay 200 yuan tomorrow. Moreover, because it's a benefit, you can only receive it once."

The third benefit also attracted everyone.

Because hemorrhoids were common, insomnia was also very common.

In modern society, there was poisonous chicken soup everywhere. The young people on the Internet were already 25 years old and had millions of dollars in savings, cars, and houses. This naturally caused huge pressure on the young people who were working hard in reality, and also caused their insomnia rate to be very high.

Many people suffer from insomnia in the dead of night. They find it difficult to sleep when they turn the other way. Their hearts and minds are tortured.

If there was something that could help him sleep, it would definitely be a blessing.

Most importantly, the fact that the Qinglin Villa gave the incense and the Qinglin Medicine Wine together as benefits showed the value of the incense. Otherwise, wouldn't the Qinglin Villa be making a fool of themselves?

Those who saw the video were already eager to try.

In Min Province.

In a villa, Wang Yang was already wrapped in a towel. He picked up the Qinglin Medicine Wine and poured himself a cup. The effect of this wine was extremely strong, but it wouldn't last long.

"Brother Yang, there's an event at Qinglin Villa again. They're even giving us some medicine." A woman ran out with a towel around her waist and sat beside Wang Yang with her phone.

Wang Yang looked at the woman's phone and saw the welfare video of Qinglin Villa. Without any hesitation, he said to the woman, "Baby, I'll go to Qinglin Villa tomorrow."

Even if it was 30 ml, it could be used three times.

Besides, he could pay the bill himself and get his girlfriend to do it again. Wouldn't that mean he could use it six more times?

However, the woman suddenly clenched her fists nervously and frowned at Wang Yang. "Brother Yang, I've already divorced him. Will you really marry me?"

"We'll get our marriage certificate after we return from Qinglin Villa," Wang Yang said decisively. He was not irresponsible. If he said he would marry her after winning the prize at Qinglin Villa, he would marry her. So be it.

Initially, he had wanted to marry a girl who was quiet and did not play in nightclubs. However, one of his brothers had thought the same and had also found a quiet female teacher.

But his friend had recently discovered that the other party was a mistress for four rich people. Wasn't that ridiculous? A man who had hung out at night had been defeated just like that.

In the end, he realized that the child did not belong to his friend either.

That scared him, too. In that case, he might as well leave it at that.

Men should resign themselves to fate sometimes!

“Brother Yang, you’re so good to me.” The woman was instantly touched as she looked at Wang Yang.

However, he looked at the woman seriously. “Don’t go to the nightclub after you get married.”

The woman nodded frantically. “No, I’ve had enough fun. It’s fine as long as you’re around in the future. Brother Yang, don’t go, okay?”

“I’ve had enough fun too. Let’s live a good life.” Wang Yang sighed and picked up his phone. “I’ll book the bridal chamber at Qinglin Villa!”

“Yes!” The woman nodded and happily scrolled through the video.

She was really willing to stop going to nightclubs for Wang Yang’s sake. As for her ex-husband, perhaps it wasn’t true love. He was too honest and unromantic.

A moment later, the woman saw a video and suddenly said to Wang Yang, “Brother Yang, look, a very famous Professor Ren is posting a video to scold Qinglin Villa.”

“As a professor dedicated to physical health research, I’m very angry at what Qinglin Villa is doing. They’re playing to the gallery. It’s common knowledge that those who have hemorrhoids have to abstain from alcohol. Their diet needs to be very light. Now, in order to promote themselves to increase their popularity, Qinglin Villa is actually openly promoting medicinal wine that can treat hemorrhoids. They’re breaking through our bottom line of understanding. This is very shameful...”

“???” Wang Yang stared at Professor Ren’s promotional video in shock.

It seemed like Qinglin Villa was in trouble.

This was because he knew that Professor Ren was really very famous. He wasn’t the kind of expert professor who played to the gallery. He was a real professor of medicine at the Chinese Academy of Sciences and was about to become an academician.

Most importantly, what Professor Ren said made sense.

Because people with hemorrhoids did have to avoid alcohol.

Indeed, many people on the Internet knew that not only did hemorrhoids require abstinence from alcohol, but they also needed to have a light diet. When they saw Professor Ren’s video, more and more people tagged Qinglin Villa, especially those who were watching the commotion.

In a suite.

A woman’s face revealed a ferocious expression when she saw the video. This woman was none other than Chun Chun.

She had suffered heavy losses the last time at Qinglin Villa. Her account had been blocked, and the other party had even asked that lawyer surnamed Chu to sue her for financial compensation.

Now it finally gave her a chance for revenge.

She took out her phone and contacted the Internet ghostwriters. She wanted them to help Professor Ren scold Qinglin Villa. She wanted to hype this matter up. With Professor Ren’s status, Qinglin Villa would be unlucky no matter what. She wanted others to scold them for playing to the gallery and insulting people's intelligence. They actually said that alcohol could treat hemorrhoids.

"This time, I'll let your Qinglin Villa have a taste of what it's like to be attacked by the Internet." Chun Chun gritted her teeth and transferred 100,000 yuan.

Although it had been a little difficult recently, and 100,000 yuan was already a lot, if this matter was blown up, Qinglin Villa would lose a hundred times, or even a thousand times more than that.

After all, that was Professor Ren, the person who had made a huge contribution in the previous disaster.

Chapter 228: Big Trouble! The Problem Solved Is Simple! 1

As Chun Chun secretly supported Professor Ren's video, the video of Professor Ren attacking Qinglin Villa quickly became popular.

This attracted the attention of countless netizens.

With Qinglin Villa's reputation and the reputation of Qinglin Medicine Wine, if it were another professor, no matter who it was, the netizens would definitely scoff. Perhaps this professor's comments section would immediately be attacked, and he might even be mocked for playing to the gallery?

But this Professor Ren was different.

Not only was he famous, but he had really contributed a lot.

The several drugs he had researched had benefited countless people, making the originally expensive drugs cheaper.

Professor Ren was about to be conferred as an academician as well. Most importantly, he was still a hero.

He had also been a member of the front-line research team during the unprecedented disaster crisis. He had made a huge contribution and was on the hero commendation list.

When such a person questioned Qinglin Villa, no one dared to think that he was playing to the gallery. Besides, it was indeed common sense to avoid alcohol when one had hemorrhoids.

In the video, it could be seen that Professor Ren was exceptionally angry when he attacked Qinglin Villa.

The most important point was that the effects of the Qinglin medicine wine had been proven. The effects of this treatment for hemorrhoids had not been proven.

There was no guarantee that Qinglin Villa would not deliberately resort to unorthodox means to attract attention.

After all, who could guarantee anything on the Internet?

More and more people saw the video and tagged Qinglin Villa.

This caused Qinglin Villa to fall into a whirlpool of public opinion.

...

In Qinglin Villa.

As soon as Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen finished dinner, they pulled Li Qing to Qin Lin's office to make tea.

After all, with Ma Liewen bringing the oolong tea and the agarwood incense in Qin Lin's office, wouldn't it be enjoyable to chat and drink tea inside?

"Agarwood incense." Li Qing sighed. "Qin Lin, when did you get such a good thing?"

Chen Shengfei teased, "Li Qing, to think you've been staying at Qin Lin's place all this time. You've been staying here for nothing."

Ma Liewen smiled. "He only has eyes for wine. If it weren't for you playing with incense, Old Chen, I wouldn't have paid attention to Qin Lin's shelf with a box of incense."

Qin Lin, on the other hand, poured everyone another cup of tea made by Ma Liewen.

As they were chatting, Zhao Moqing suddenly walked in with an anxious expression. There were Gao Yaoyao, the planner, and the editor.

"Qin Lin, something happened online," Zhao Moqing said anxiously.

"What's wrong?" Qin Lin asked curiously. This was the first time he had seen Zhao Moqing so anxious.

"Look at this video." Zhao Moqing immediately handed her phone to Qin Lin. A video was playing.

"Professor Ren?" Qin Lin was surprised to see the person in the video.

There should be very few people who didn't know Professor Ren, Elder Zhong, and Elder Yuan, right?

Although Professor Ren was far inferior to people like Elder Zhong and Elder Yuan, everyone knew that Professor Ren would be the successor to such people in the future. He had contributed greatly, and the reason why he was awarded as an academician was only because of his seniority. There were still some people ahead of him.

Although there was some seniority in such matters, there was no helping it.

Professor Ren's angry voice came from the video. "As a professor dedicated to physical health research, I'm very angry at what Qinglin Villa has done..."

"???" Qin Lin was stunned when he saw the video.

He respected people like Professor Ren very much.

But he did not expect to be rebuked by Professor Ren.

After watching Professor Ren's video, he was powerless to refute. This was because he also knew the common sense of alcohol abstinence. Before the outside world proved this effect, it was normal for others to suspect his medicinal wine.

However, he did not understand one thing. It was impossible for people like Professor Ren to criticize him for promoting an event like Qinglin Villa, right?

After all, there were many fake promotions online. The other party would not be in the mood at all.

But it was happening now, and Professor Ren looked furious.

Wasn't this putting Qinglin Villa on the fire?

Chen Shengfei, Ma Liewen, Li Qing, and Li Kai also came over when they heard the voice.

"What's going on?" Ma Liewen wondered.

Chen Shengfei wondered, "It's Professor Ren. Why would he suddenly come to criticize Qin Lin? That shouldn't be the case."

"Something's wrong," Li Qing agreed.

Li Kai suddenly interrupted. "The medicine is effective, I've drunk it. It can be proven."

This made Chen Shengfei, Ma Liewen, and Li Qing look at him with strange gazes.

Li Kai was immediately annoyed when he met the gazes of the three of them. He said, "I know Professor Ren and I've seen him before. He's indeed not someone who has such leisure. There must be some misunderstanding. From the angle of the shot, it's obvious that it was secretly taken from the side."

They watched the video and realized that was true.

Chen Shengfei frowned and said, "But Professor Ren's words are indeed directed at the villa. If we don't deal with this, the villa will indeed be in some trouble. Perhaps some people who can't stand Qinglin Villa or those who purely earn traffic online will take the opportunity to cause trouble."

"Then when everyone questions you, what's wrong can become right. What's fake can become real."

This was the drawback of the Internet. It was difficult to tell if it was real or fake.

Zhao Moqing frowned again and said, "This has already happened online. Many bloggers have already posted videos about this. Almost all of them are on Professor Ren's side and scolding our villa."

Qin Lin took Zhao Moqing's phone and scrolled through a few videos. Sure enough, he saw a video of a commenter:

Chapter 229: Big Trouble! The Problem Solved Is Simple! 2

"I just watched a video of Qinglin Villa. I have to say that it's a complete failure this time. Professor Ren personally criticized it angrily..."

Qin Lin frowned and scrolled through a few more videos. He saw another video of a commenter:

"Let's talk about Professor Ren first. He has made a lot of contributions and contributed greatly in the previous disaster. However, something that made him very angry happened today. It was the Qinglin Villa..."

He continued scrolling and soon came to a video of a commenter:

“Qinglin Villa will inevitably fall into the stereotype of businessmen in the end. Unfortunately, the publicity this time is unacceptable. It’s already painful enough to have hemorrhoids, but Qinglin Villa actually said that alcohol can treat hemorrhoids. It’s really shocking. No wonder Professor Ren...”

Sure enough, the first thing that popped up in any popular event were video commenters.

These people did not have talent or looks. The way they attracted traffic was to target the trending searches. They would post videos to comment on whatever was trending and use the trending topics to attract traffic.

And all they had to have was a mouth that could talk and put themselves on the moral high ground.

No matter what kind of people they were in private, on the Internet they were the high and mighty Virgin Mary who saw through everything. Their persona was set to the highest level.

Therefore, the higher the character setting, the more often such commenters would fail.

Under normal circumstances, they would also think about it carefully and even understand what was going on before commenting on the video to avoid being overturned. Once they were overturned, it would not be long before they were finished.

But now that someone like Professor Ren had appeared, it meant that he was absolutely on the right side. As long as they could deal with Qinglin Villa, they would be able to do so immediately. That was because they did not need to have any scruples.

Qin Lin smiled teasingly. “Looks like the villa is more popular than ever.”

Zhao Moqing became even more anxious. “Qin Lin, are you joking? Who wants this kind of popularity?”

Li Qing also frowned and said, “Everyone, help Qin Lin think of a way to deal with this.”

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen also frowned in deep thought.

If they were the ones who encountered this matter, how would they deal with it? However, their corporation’s situation was completely different from the villa. Even if it was the same thing, the way they dealt with it would be different.

The method that could be used by their corporation might not necessarily be used on Qin Lin’s villa.

Li Kai looked at the frowns on their faces and mocked them. “You guys are also people who do big business and big things. Do you need to think about such a small matter for so long?”

For a moment, Chen Shengfei and the others all looked at Li Kai.

Li Qing said directly, “Uncle, why are you still talking nonsense? Tell me if you have a solution!”

Qin Lin also said, “Mr. Li... Brother, tell me. I’ll treat you to medicinal wine tomorrow.”

When Li Kai heard this, he immediately said, “Brother Qin, there’s no problem with my ability as a man, unlike the three of them.”

These words immediately attracted the glares of Li Qing, Chen Shengfei, and Ma Liewen. If this guy wasn't Li Qing's uncle, he would definitely be beaten up badly.

Qin Lin smiled and nodded. "Mr. Li... Brother, I understand. I won't give you the wrong wine."

If there was no problem with a man's ability, it meant that he did not need anything to nourish his kidneys and strengthen his body. What he wanted was something to treat his hemorrhoids.

Only then did Li Kai smile and say, "Actually, you guys are thinking too much about people like Professor Ren. This video should have been used by a lot of people. This medicinal wine is really effective. Boss Qin, send a video to tag Professor Ren and invite him to verify the effects of this medicinal wine."

"Professor Ren is a very inquisitive person. If this medicinal wine is really effective, it will definitely arouse his curiosity and even make him want to study it."

"As long as Professor Ren is here, won't everything be resolved? Besides, this medicinal wine is really effective, because he won't ignore it now that he has come this far."

Li Kai made it sound very simple, but Li Qing said, "Uncle, even if that's the case, there's still a premise. How can we let Professor Ren know that this medicinal wine is really effective? Otherwise, would he agree to come if you sent him an invitation? He might even think that you have other motives."

Li Kai shook his head and looked at Li Qing. "Li Qing, I'm so lucky that you didn't take the family route. With your memory, didn't I tell you that I met Professor Ren? He knows the director of our research institute. I'll call the director and make a promise. Our director can just go and say something. How simple is that?"

As Li Kai spoke, he took out his phone and dialed.

Qin Lin also said to Zhao Moqing, "Take a video saying that he will invite Professor Ren to verify the effects of the medicinal wine."

"Yes." Zhao Moqing nodded.

While Qinglin Villa was thinking of countermeasures, the matter on the Internet had already completely fermented. More and more people posted videos to comment, and public opinion was becoming more and more unfavorable to Qinglin Villa.

In the same house, Chun Chun had been paying attention to this matter. Seeing this result, she was very satisfied. She felt that it was the result of her spending 100,000 yuan to find fake ghostwriters to support the popularity.

Although her heart ached for 100,000 yuan, she wanted to laugh when she thought of Qinglin Villa's current situation.

Sometimes, she would even sacrifice 800 yuan to kill 1,000 enemies, let alone 100,000 yuan to kill Qinglin Villa. She had earned a lot.

“Qinglin Villa actually replied with a video?” Chun Chun had been paying attention to the account of Qinglin Villa and quickly realized that Qinglin Villa had sent another video.

Chapter 230: Big Trouble! The Problem Solved Is Simple! 3

She immediately clicked on the video:

“Let me explain about medicinal wine. First of all, this medicinal wine is a 20-year-old medicinal wine... It doesn’t mean that medicinal wine can’t treat hemorrhoids... In addition, our villa hopes to invite Professor Ren to verify the effect of this medicinal wine.”

Seeing this response video, Chun Chun smiled.

Inviting Professor Ren to verify it? Qinglin Villa was probably thinking too much.

If it were any other professor, they could have made him change his words.

But they could forget about doing that to Professor Ren. It would be a pure insult to his intelligence if they did that.

Qinglin Villa’s response video was naturally seen by everyone who followed this matter, especially those commenters. Bloggers like them only had one chance to gain popularity for a trending topic. They would only post a video. How much they could gain depended on their own abilities.

If they posted two or three videos of the same thing in a row, the intention of freeloading would be too obvious. Fans were not fools.

Therefore, they hoped that the person involved would have a response video every time because once there was a response video, they could send another video to gain traffic.

In a studio.

A man in a suit with a crew cut and a square face was frowning at the video of Qinglin Villa.

He was Brother Song, a reviewer who was ranked fifth on a certain platform.

The video he posted in this image could easily make people think that he was an official news anchor. He naturally gave people a positive impression.

It also added a lot of points to his career as a reviewer.

But no one knew that he was originally just an insurance salesman. He was even fired for fooling old people into buying insurance.

He had unexpectedly become a blogger after posting a video about a trending topic. Now, he has nearly three million fans.

Moreover, as long as he broke through three million fans, he would be able to advance a little further. It would not be a problem for him to reach the top three.

This was important. The benefits to the top three were nothing like the benefits to the top five.

An assistant at the side said, "Brother Song, Qinglin Villa said that they would invite Professor Ren. How is that possible? A person like Professor Ren wouldn't change his mind for money. Qinglin Villa made a mistake this time, are they going to insult our intelligence again?"

Brother Song pondered for a moment and suddenly made a decision. He said coldly, "If Qinglin Villa insults others' intelligence, we'll insult Qinglin Villa."

"The popularity of the incident is so high now. We just want to make things a little more intense. After posting the video, we'll spend another 200,000 yuan to invest in the video that was given to us to attract more traffic. We'll take this opportunity to make my fans exceed 3 million."

Brother Song was very ambitious. Otherwise, he wouldn't have fooled the elderly into buying insurance for his promotion. If he hadn't been exposed, he would have been a successful person in the insurance industry at the time.

But this time, Professor Ren was on the right side. He was not afraid of any problems. If he spent 200,000 yuan now, he could earn it back 10 times or 20 times in the future.

A moment later, Brother Song got his assistant to take a video. Then, he began to say to the video, "It hurts me to see the response of Qinglin Villa. Usually, when a company, especially a famous scenic area, is pointed out as wrong, the first thing to do is to be humble and correct it."

"But after Professor Ren pointed out that Qinglin Villa had made a mistake in common sense, they actually didn't repent and even tried to continue sensationalizing by inviting Professor Ren to verify the medicinal wine."

"I can only say that Qinglin Villa is trying to push people's IQ to the ground. It's even more impossible for Professor Ren to change his opinion of Qinglin Villa for such a common sense mistake."

"Don't think that just because you created a medicinal wine that rich people fight over, you can claim to be able to treat everything. How is this different from the former brain platinum, super height increase, and all-purpose medicine?"

"I can foresee that Qinglin Villa will shoot themselves in the foot again. I can also foresee that Qinglin Villa will quickly disappear because of this mistake, just like many Internet celebrities who suddenly became popular. In the end, no one will care about them."

The video went off without a hitch, and Brother Song realized that he was building up to the right emotions, especially the anger. When people watched the video, everyone thought he was a righteous man.

After sending the video, Brother Song took his phone and directly spent 200,000 yuan on publicity. Because of the one-time limit, he could only split his account and invest money.

As this matter was popular enough, as soon as Brother Song's Dou+ was done, the assistant reported excitedly, "Brother Song, it has already begun to attract traffic. The number of comments and likes, as well as the increase in fans, is ten times that of the previous video. With this trend, we can use this matter to break through three million fans."

Brother Song was all smiles when he heard this. Professor Ren was giving him a chance.
