

The Game 301

Chapter 301: How Could There Be Such A Move?

In Qinglin Villa.

Qin Lin sent the things in the game to the villa and returned to his office to light some agarwood incense as usual.

After a while, Zhao Moqing arrived with Lin Lanzi.

Lin Lanzi was a little surprised to smell that fragrance when she entered the office. Zhao Moqing's office also had this kind of incense. It made one feel very comfortable and energetic.

This boss and lady boss knew how to enjoy themselves.

"Hubby, there are many fans tagging us on the official account now. How should we respond?" After Zhao Moqing entered, she opened a few videos and handed her phone to Qin Lin.

"What's wrong this time?" Qin Lin asked curiously.

Although the official account of the villa was a very good publicity method and could bring a lot of popularity to the villa, it could not avoid some troublesome things.

Because there were too many haters, hackers, keyboard warriors, and people trying to gain popularity online.

Zhao Moqing explained, "We should be implicated for no reason. Yesterday, we posted a video of the floating bridge viewing area. The three ducks were noticed by someone. A video called 'Knife Beating People' attacked a person called Duck King Wu. The other party seemed to be venting his anger on us and even tagged us so that we could apply for the Guinness Book of Records."

"Duck King Wu? It's this guy." Qin Lin was stunned. He picked up Zhao Moqing's phone and watched the relevant video. Then, he really felt a headache.

Wasn't this 'Knife Beating People' too enthusiastic?

Previously, he had checked the duck information and found out about Duck King Wu. The duck in Duck King Wu's hand should also be a genetic mutation. He had spent half a year promoting this Guinness record.

He was going to apply to earn a good sum of money from the Guinness. Wouldn't 'Knife Beating People' be hated for his video?

However, wasn't this Duck King Wu too confident in targeting Qinglin Villa?

"Manager Lin, what do you think of this matter?" Qin Lin looked at Lin Lanzi. Since Zhao Moqing had established the multimedia department and Lin Lanzi was the supervisor, she would be in charge of such matters in the future. She couldn't possibly hire her to be an idle fish.

Lin Lanzi thought for a moment and said, "The Internet is paying attention to this matter now. There's a saying: What people fear cannot be feared, and what the heavens give must be received. The lady boss has already asked Manager Chen to weigh the three ducks. They're 43 catties, 46 catties, and 43.5 catties respectively. We can totally apply for the Guinness. This will also be very beneficial to the popularity of the villa. It'll also be a promotional selling point in the future. I think it can be done."

Qin Lin nodded. "You're the director of the multimedia department. If you think you can do it, go ahead. We'll also see how to apply for the Guinness Book of Records."

"Then I'll get going." Lin Lanzi also left the office decisively. She was swift and decisive, like a strong woman.

Seeing that it was only him and Zhao Moqing, Qin Lin also reached out to her.

Zhao Moqing understood and took the initiative to sit on his lap.

She had rejected Qin Lin's advances in the office, but she felt that he should be happy to play such a small game with her.

As a woman, if her husband was unwilling to play with her, that would be sad, right?

"You can touch, but don't mess up my clothes," Zhao Moqing reminded Qin Lin when she saw that his hands were moving around too much. Then, she sat on Qin Lin's lap and opened the webpage to look for information about Guinness.

After logging into the Guinness official website, the two of them browsed the relevant information.

Applying for Guinness required a lot of procedures. There were a total of six troublesome procedures listed. In other words, applying for Guinness was troublesome. It seemed that Guinness also wanted to prove its worth. It was not easy to get this record.

However, there was another VIP upgrade channel under these steps and troublesome procedures. The content after clicking on it was a little intriguing.

Zhao Moqing and Qin Lin clicked on the VIP channel and customer service contacted them. After chatting, the two of them looked at each other.

This so-called VIP channel was probably for people to spend money so that things could be handled quickly. The procedures above were to fool ordinary people. They might not necessarily accept it.

Furthermore, the spending level was also 38,000 yuan, 48,000 yuan, and so on.

The other party even vaguely suggested that as long as they spent money, they could help even if there were some violations.

What...

The general idea was to spend money on certificates.

Qin Lin did not know whether to laugh or cry. "No wonder people online say that the current Guinness Book of Records is a fun project for rich people. You can buy it with money."

“Is this reliable?” Zhao Moqing asked in surprise.

She had thought the Guinness Book of Records was awesome when she didn’t know. Now that she knew the truth, she felt her jaw drop.

Qin Lin felt that it was a little unreliable. No matter how he looked at it, it looked like a scamming website.

He carefully checked the relevant information again and really found something interesting:

Guinness was originally a beer company. When clients came to drink, they liked to talk. They talked about how many meters the tallest person in the world was, how fast the fastest horse was, and what size the most heavily endowed woman was.

Therefore, in order to please the client, the Guinness Brewery published a world record book and then updated it every year for the client. As time passed, 65 years had developed into a very awesome and credible record company.

Over the years, Guinness records were naturally popular in China. There were also countless strange Guinness records. For example, the most popular group wedding, the hotpot boss’s collective hotpot base, tens of thousands of people dancing a square dance at the same time, a mouthful of dry Coke, and so on. Anyway, there were all kinds of records.

Chapter 302: How Could There Be Such A Move?

And these people would really get a certificate called ‘Best in Great World Guinness’.

However, Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing searched carefully and realized that this was actually done by a local company in Shanghai. It was probably because the other party had signed an agreement with Guinness Company to help Guinness Company handle certain businesses in China. They were not qualified to issue a Guinness World Records certificate.

However, people were smart enough to use this cooperation to create a “Most Proof of Guinness in the World”. Furthermore, it was an all-English certificate that most people could not understand.

This was the so-called Guinness Certificate that could be bought with tens of thousands of yuan. It could also be said that this certificate was actually unrelated to the Guinness World Record Certificate at all, and it would not be registered officially in the Guinness World.

Previously, didn’t an Internet celebrity who played with knives apply for the Guinness Book of Records? He really got a certificate, but countless people criticized him for faking the video and said that there was not a single foreigner on the Guinness Book of Records. The official Guinness Book of Records did not have his project record at all.

Okay, that was probably the truth. That certificate was issued by the company in Shanghai, the “Best in Great World Guinness.”

This was also what the Duck King Wu wanted to apply for. The amount of money spent on the real Guinness World Records was unimaginable. He would not certify such a strange record for a duck.

If Qinglin Villa wanted to apply, they would apply for this.

“Do I still need to apply?” Zhao Moqing looked at Qin Lin, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Wasn't that a little self-deprecating?

“Let's apply. No matter what, we can let everyone know that our ducks are the biggest in the world,” Qin Lin said speechlessly.

This trap was very deep.

However, it had to be said that for some people, it could really fool many people if it was used well.

If they did not spend time investigating seriously, they would really not know what was going on. They were certain that 99% of the people in the country did not know the difference and would only think that the Guinness Book of Records was something.

Therefore, this 'Best in Great World Guinness' certificate could still fool many people.

This was also why so many scenic spots could be played with the best projects in the world.

There was really no false publicity. It was really the 'Best in Great World Guinness', the kind that was limited to the country.

Qinglin Villa did not need this certificate. They just wanted to make use of this popularity.

In the end, Zhao Moqing still spent money on this Shanghai company and took the VIP special passage. Then, she received a special document to fill in the form.

As Zhao Moqing filled in the form, she suddenly asked, “What are the names of the three ducks? We still have to name the ducks first so that they can get their certificate in advance.”

Qin Lin was also conflicted. He had difficulty naming again. He asked, “How about Big Flower, Second Flower, and Third Flower?”

“What kind of name is that?” Zhao Moqing said speechlessly, “They're covered in snow-white feathers. They might as well be called Big White, Second White, and Third White!”

“...” Qin Lin was silent.

He did not think that Zhao Moqing's name would be better than his.

However, looking at Zhao Moqing's expression, he felt that he shouldn't have the right to object. This made him worry about the future. With Zhao Moqing's naming ability, she still had to name her child in the future. He didn't dare to think about it...

Finally.

The names of the three ducks were confirmed. They were called Big White, Second White, and Third White. The application was for Big White, who weighed 46 catties. After filling in the information, he sent it to the company in Shanghai.

When Lin Lanzi heard the names of the three ducks, she was a little worried about their future children.

She naturally knew something about the villa. She knew that there was a dog called Wang Cai and a squirrel called Red Hair.

Now, it was Big White, Second White, and Third White.

What names had these two chosen?

...

Online.

Because of the video sent by 'Knife Beating People', everyone's eyes were fixed on the duck.

This should be the moment when people paid most attention to ducks.

Everyone was also looking forward to Qinglin Villa's reply.

Although it was a little strange to apply for a Guinness record for ducks, ducks that big were really rare.

The key was that it had become popular and was related to the Guinness records. There was something interesting to see.

The last thing they lacked in the country was people who liked to watch the fun.

Finally.

While everyone was waiting, Qinglin Villa sent a video in response.

This time, it was Lin Lanzi who appeared.

Lin Lanzi's figure was good to begin with, and she was beautiful and elegant. With the help of the beauty filter, she was simply a goddess. She attracted countless sims in an instant.

Naturally, the most important thing was Lin Lanzi's words. "Our boss said, Okay, I've applied for a Guinness record. The heaviest duck is 46 catties."

It was such a simple reply, but it made a domineering point. 'If you want me to apply, I'll apply.'

And these 46 catties of weight really shocked everyone.

How heavy was 46 catties? Most girls couldn't carry it, right?

Duck King Wu naturally received the news quickly. When he saw the video, he still could not believe it. "That's impossible. Their duck is so heavy. I've been promoting it for half a year. Why didn't they respond?"

Duck King Wu felt very aggrieved now. Since the other party had this duck, if he had responded to him when he started promoting it, he would not have had to spend so much effort in the past six months and even spent so much effort looking forward to it.

Now that he was going to apply for the Guinness Book of Records, the other party had to respond at this time. Wasn't this bullying?

Naturally, he did not know that Qin Lin had only obtained this duck not long ago.

If not for the fact that he had tagged Qinglin Villa, Qin Lin might not even have bothered to respond or apply.

At this moment.

The assistant jogged over and reported to him with an ugly expression, "Boss, the people from Guinness said that Qinglin Villa has already applied for 46 cattles of Guinness records for the duck. They can't certify you anymore. Please call their person-in-charge."

Why should he still call them?

Duck King Wu complained in his heart as he picked up his phone and called the other party. If he did not certify him, he would have to return the 48,000 yuan. He could not pay for nothing.

When the call went through, Duck King Wu heard the person-in-charge's voice on the other end. "Mr. Wu, I'm very sorry. Because someone else has applied for the same project and surpassed your duck in terms of data, we can't continue to certify you. Now, we can discuss how to fight to reduce your losses."

When Duck King Wu heard this, his heart skipped a beat.

Did this mean that the other party did not want to give him a refund?

"What do you mean?" Duck King Wu asked angrily.

The voice on the other end sounded again. "Mr. Wu, although we can't certify you as the largest duck in the world, there are many types of ducks in the world. There are fluffy ducks, short-haired ducks, golden ducks, meat ducks... and so on. You can identify what breed your duck is. We can still help you certify the number one duck in the world."

The meaning of this was obvious. They would not give a refund, but they can take a step back. They've thought of the best in the world for you.

"..." Duck King Wu was stunned.

He hadn't expected Guinness to do this, either? He felt like he had really been tricked, right?

However, when he thought of the 48,000 yuan and his plan, he could only say helplessly into his phone, "Alright, my duck is a short-haired duck. I'll apply for the record for the world's heaviest short-haired duck."

The person on the other end of the line smiled. "Mr. Wu, we're at your service. After helping Qinglin Villa authenticate, we'll rush to you as soon as possible."

"Sigh!" Duck King Wu sighed. Although this was a little self-deprecating, it was better than wasting his efforts, right?

After sighing, he instructed his assistant, "Continue with the Guinness certification. Change it to the short-haired duck Guinness World Record and send a video."

"You can do that?" The assistant was stunned.

On the Internet, there were many people paying attention to this matter. As the instigator, Wang Yang had naturally been paying attention to this matter. He led Su Juan to a Porsche. He naturally planned to take Su Juan to Qinglin Villa. This was the first stop on their honeymoon.

Su Juan held his arm and was still scrolling through the video with one hand. Suddenly, she said, "Hubby, Duck King Wu sent another video. Look."

Wang Yang leaned over. It was indeed a video of the Duck King Wu:

"I'm sure everyone is very concerned about Duckie's condition and the situation of the Guinness Book of Records. I'll inform everyone here that the Guinness Book of Records will still be certified. Everyone, please look forward to Duckie's certification as the world's heaviest short-haired duck!"

"???" Wang Yang!

"???" Su Juan!

The two of them looked at each other in shock. They were directly stunned by this operation, okay?

They had never thought that Guinness could perform such a coquettish maneuver.

Chapter 303: VIP Guests of the Villa! The Effect of This Beauty Egg Is Too Strong!

Duck King Wu's operation had indeed attracted everyone's attention, but this retreat made everyone know that the ducks in Qinglin Villa were the biggest in the world.

Under such popularity, there were really people who specially went to Qinglin Villa to see ducks, such as Wang Yang.

There was some distance between Min Province and Youcheng County, and it took more than two hours to drive there. Even so, Wang Yang brought Su Juan to Qinglin Villa as soon as he arrived.

After parking the Porsche in the parking lot, he immediately held Su Juan's hand and entered the villa. Soon, he entered the gravel road in the viewing area of the pontoon bridge.

Following the gravel road to the entrance was a newly built ticket booth. There was already a long line.

In the ticket booth, Gao Yaoyao was already helping with two other waitresses.

This was her misallocation. At the last minute, she could only take over. She did not expect there to be so many people in the floating bridge viewing area.

Especially in the afternoon, the number of people began to increase. From the afternoon until now, more than 1,300 tickets had been issued in the floating bridge viewing area.

This was almost the limit of the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea in a day.

Fortunately, there were stone paths and intersecting pontoons in the observation area. There were more tourist areas than the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea. Otherwise, there would be an emergency flow restriction now.

Gao Yaoyao admired her boss more and more. Her boss really made everything popular.

“Two tickets to the floating bridge viewing area.” Wang Yang immediately went forward and handed his identity card to a waitress in the window.

In the past, there was no need for an ID card to buy tickets in scenic spots. However, after the disaster, all scenic spots had to register their tickets according to the regulations. Although the disaster was over, they would still come out from time to time to cause trouble.

Gao Yaoyao found this tourist familiar.

When she saw the waitress refresh the other party's ID information, she remembered that the other party was the first tourist to use the set meal at the Supreme Set event.

The waitress also looked surprised after scrolling through the information. This was because this tourist had been to the villa twice, but his spending record had reached tens of thousands of yuan. The villa's note showed that he was a VIP.

There was originally no VIP in Qinglin Villa.

However, as the manor villa was built on an increasing scale, the VIP guest system would be implemented in the future. After all, it was impossible to let all tourists enter the manor villa. The level had to be highlighted.

When the time came, the manor villa would be specially used to welcome high-end VIPs. Most of the Quality 2 items would also be spent inside.

Anyway, ordinary people could not afford it.

Therefore, Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing naturally began to plan this aspect. In the future, they had to specially get a special VIP system.

In order to reach the level of a VIP, Qin Lin would directly send the VIP qualifications to people like Chen Shengfei, Ma Liewen, and Li Qing.

The second was that if he spent more than 30,000 yuan at the villa, he could directly be promoted to a VIP. This condition was very harsh. After all, it was very difficult for tourists to spend so much.

Clearly, Wang Yang had reached this requirement previously in order to win the lottery. He had already been preliminarily selected.

If he did not come today, the villa would also call to inform him when the VIP system was implemented.

The waitress calmed down and said respectfully to Wang Yang, “Mr. Wang, you're a VIP guest of our scenic area. We have a free viewing ticket for you.”

With that, she took out two identity cards for the floating bridge viewing area.

Wang Yang was clearly a little stunned. He did not understand how he had become a VIP guest, but looking at the tourists around him, he felt inexplicably proud.

Everyone else had to spend money to buy it, but he, a VIP, was given a free ticket.

The tourists around were also attracted. A tourist at the nearby window could not help but ask the waitress at that window, "Can I get a VIP pass too?"

It was not his first time here. Every time something new came out of Qinglin Villa, his girlfriend wanted to come.

However, this was the first time he had heard of a VIP in Qinglin Villa. He felt left out seeing someone getting a free ticket.

Wang Yang looked over. He also wanted to know how he had become a VIP.

The waitress immediately said with a smile, "Sir, our apologies, we're not able to give you a VIP pass. When your consumption reaches a certain level, you will be automatically upgraded."

When he heard this, the tourist stopped asking. He could not handle it. It clearly cost a lot to advance in this way. He was not a tycoon.

Wang Yang left proudly and pulled Su Juan into the observation area of the pontoon bridge.

Hearing what the waitress said, he probably knew that he had met the requirements from the last lucky draw.

In the evening, the setting sun once again shone into the reservoir, intertwining with the pontoons and duckweed. It was the most beautiful time in the pontoon viewing area.

When Wang Yang and Su Juan entered, they were immediately attracted by the scenery.

"Hubby, it's so beautiful." Su Juan pulled Wang Yang towards the pontoon.

The pontoon was already full of people, some watching the duckweed, most filming the ducks.

Wang Yang and Su Juan also saw the three ducks. Only when they saw them with their own eyes would they know that the ducks were really big.

As time passed, there were more and more people on the pontoon. It was lively.

Tourists gathered on the pontoons, attracted by the beautiful view. They only left when it began to get dark and there was no longer any room for viewing.

Chapter 304: VIP Guests of the Villa! The Effect of This Beauty Egg Is Too Strong!

Yang Dong and Gao Yaoyao quickly arrived at Qin Lin's office to report the situation at the floating bridge viewing area today.

Yang Dong's face was clearly filled with joy. Today's tourists had proven the success of the floating bridge viewing area. Next was for him, the intern supervisor, to perform well.

Gao Yaoyao said, "Boss, there were more than 2,000 tourists in the observation area today. Furthermore, most of them increased drastically this afternoon. The ticket income has also reached 100,000 yuan. It's expected to be more tomorrow."

“Yes!” Qin Lin nodded and asked Yang Dong, “What about the situation in the viewing area?”

Yang Dong frowned and said, “Boss, I think we have to limit the flow of people in the viewing area. Although the viewing area of the pontoon bridge can accommodate more tourists, after the number of people increased in the afternoon, many tourists entered and refused to come out. There are too many people. Not only will it affect the viewing, but it will also be very dangerous.”

“Calculate this and give me a specific number of people.” Qin Lin had no solution to this problem because there was no way to control the stay time of the tourists.

Furthermore, there were still railings to lean on in the observation area of the pontoon bridge. They could also enjoy the scenery and sit down to rest in the pavilion. They stayed here longer than at the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea. If it was too popular, they could only use the flow restriction method.

Other scenic spots were afraid that their projects would not be popular, but Qinglin Villa was so popular that every project had to be restricted.

Yang Dong nodded. “I’ll report to you on average for the next two days.”

After letting Gao Yaoyao and Yang Dong leave, Qin Lin left the office and walked straight to an office near the hall.

Or rather, it could not be called an office. It was called a security room.

This was an office location provided by the scenic area to the tourist police. The security room was also one of the necessary security functions of the 4A scenic area.

Since Qinglin Villa wanted to apply for a 4A scenic area, the county naturally had to help build a security room.

If Qinglin Villa could be upgraded to a 5A scenic area one day, it might have to be upgraded again. At that time, he would have to specially build a building outside the scenic area and not in it.

If Qinglin Villa really had a chance to become a 5A scenic spot in the future, the county would definitely not hesitate to build a police station.

A 5A scenic spot was the best publicity for a county.

Qin Lin walked into the security room. Captain Hong was busy with his men. Chen Dabei was also cooperating with Captain Hong and the others to fiddle with some instruments and tools.

“Boss!” Chen Dabei hurriedly got up and greeted him.

“Boss Qin!” Captain Hong nodded at him.

“How are the instruments?” Qin Lin asked.

These were instruments to search for miniature cameras. What was the worst thing about service places like hotels and bridal chambers? It was that someone might secretly install cameras in the rooms. The hotels might not discover them and might even let tourists stay inside.

Therefore, many star-class hotels would also pay enough attention to this.

He had seen a piece of news previously. A couple had checked into a hotel and was about to do that when they cautiously discovered a miniature camera. They had almost entered a certain domestic movie area.

So the couple was furious. Not only did they call the police, but they also sued the hotel. The matter had blown up quite a bit, so there was no way the hotel could continue operating.

Their villa naturally had to think of a way to avoid this problem, especially the bridal chamber. Couples and young couples who came out to travel could not help but be interested.

If this was secretly filmed and spread to a domestic movie area, the villa's reputation would be ruined. The impact would definitely be huge.

Previously, it was always the people from the security department checking room by room. The efficiency was too slow.

Captain Hong said that there was a new scientific instrument used by the special forces that could be investigated efficiently, so he asked the county to help buy it. It was difficult to buy this outside.

The county naturally did not want any problems with Qinglin Villa, so they agreed to buy it through the county's channels. Now, the item has arrived.

Captain Hong also smiled and explained, "I'm debugging it now. I'm planning to ventilate it with Boss Qin when it's done."

Qin Lin walked to an instrument. A screen on the instrument was flickering like a radar wave.

Captain Hong explained, "This is a general union instrument. It's placed in the surveillance room. It can detect the sensors of miniature cameras, infinite signals, and other wave marks. When you check, just take the secondary instrument. If you find a miniature camera screen, it will show a red dot shape."

The secondary device was the size of a mobile phone. Ripples like radar also flickered on the screen. It could be searched by pressing the search button. It was indeed very convenient.

"Captain, it's been debugged," a scenic police officer said to Captain Hong.

Captain Hong nodded and picked up more than ten miniature cameras on the table beside him. He said to Qin Lin, "Boss Qin, why don't you be in charge of hiding these miniature cameras anywhere in the office? When you're done hiding, we'll go over and search?"

"Okay!" Qin Lin nodded and took the mini cameras before leaving the security room.

He did not dare to slack off in solving this hidden danger. He recalled the professor's video he had seen on a small website in the past.

Those videos specially taught how to hide the WeChat camera in the most hidden position when asking a girl to do that.

However, why would anyone hide a camera after asking a girl out to do that? Many men should be able to understand instantly.

Qin Lin carefully hid the miniature cameras in what he thought was a secret place and even specially placed one in his pocket. Then, he returned to the security room and said to Captain Hong, "Captain Hong, it's already hidden."

Chapter 305: VIP Guests of the Villa! The Effect of This Beauty Egg Is Too Strong!

Captain Hong also picked up a secondary inspection device and pressed the button to pull the search. Then, he saw the device show red.

Captain Hong held the instrument and pointed it in the direction. Finally, he looked at Qin Lin and said with a smile, "Boss Qin, take it out!"

"Looks like this instrument is really useful." Qin Lin smiled and took out a miniature camera from his pocket.

Then, Captain Hong also left the security room with the secondary communication device and searched the office. Without a doubt, all the miniature cameras that Qin Lin had hidden were found.

"Boss, Captain Hong, the effect of this instrument is really strong," Chen Dabei said in surprise. "I can rest assured in the future. Otherwise, even if we go to the bridal chamber one by one for manual inspection, I'm afraid we'll miss it."

Captain Hong also said to Chen Dabei, "Supervisor Chen, let's move the general union equipment to the surveillance room first!"

"Yes." Chen Dabei nodded.

Qin Lin also left the security room and headed to Zhao Moqing's office. It was time for dinner and he wanted to have dinner with her.

At the sales center.

Wang Yang also walked in with Su Juan. He had already rented a buffet seat and was going to bring Su Juan to buy food.

There were clearly many people cooking in the villa today, so there were many people choosing dishes in the vegetable and meat area.

The two of them bought some vegetables and realized that there were many people at the sales counter.

"Hubby, what's wrong with that sales counter? Go and see what's going on." Su Juan pulled Wang Yang to the sales counter.

When the two of them arrived at the sales counter, they realized that it was selling eggs. Furthermore, these eggs were bigger than duck eggs and chicken eggs. The one in the middle was as big as an ostrich egg.

"Beauty duck eggs!" When Wang Yang saw the sign, he immediately thought that this egg might have been born by those big ducks.

The ostrich egg-sized one should have been born by those three big ducks.

Moreover, these duck eggs were very expensive. One small one was 100 yuan, and the ostrich egg-sized one was 1,000 yuan.

“Is this beauty egg really as effective as it says?” a woman asked the waiter beside her.

When the waiter saw that someone was asking, he immediately introduced with a smile, “These Beauty Eggs are all produced by ducks with mutated genes in our villa. They have the effect of nourishing the yin, the lungs, the blood, and beautifying the face. They are definitely a blessing specially prepared for female friends. Moreover, this is only the promotional price now. The price might increase at any time. Everyone can only buy one. You must seize the opportunity.”

The Quality 2 Beauty Eggs were extremely effective. Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing knew very well that the effect of eating one was definitely not inferior to getting a beauty needle.

One had to know that a good beauty needle cost 4,000 to 15,000 yuan. It was obvious that women were crazy about their beauty.

However, the effect of this egg had to be known, so some would be released. At this time, it would depend on who was lucky enough to eat it. In the future, even if they had money, they might not be able to eat it.

After the waiter introduced them, the women blushed slightly. As long as they were men, they knew what the effect of nourishing the yin was. However, the beauty treatment made them a little tempted.

Wasn't a woman's face the most important thing? It was just that there were too many beauty products now, and many of them were ineffective. Now, they were still a little hesitant to say that an egg was effective.

After all, it was 100 yuan each.

At that moment, a few girls, who were obviously university girls, squeezed in.

“Na Na, these are the eggs.” Chen Xue brought a few university best friends from all over to take an egg first. She and her sister-in-law had eaten this duck egg before.

Sister-in-law did not notice, but she noticed the effect of the duck egg. Perhaps it really had a beauty effect.

Therefore, his university best friend came over today to buy one to confirm.

Suddenly, seeing the few girls buying it, the other women could not help but buy it too. They all picked up the duck eggs.

Wang Yang trusted the things in Qinglin Villa very much. He was fast and decisively grabbed the egg the size of an ostrich egg.

If it could really beautify the face, he would definitely not be stingy with his wife.

When Su Juan heard this introduction, she was already craving this beauty egg. She saw Wang Yang's actions and her face was filled with happiness. If it were her previous husband, he might be looking at his phone and unmoved.

"Baby, let's go. Let's see the effect of this beauty egg today." Wang Yang pulled Su Juan to settle the bill and left the sales center.

Tonight, Su Juan was full after eating this duck egg, but she was still looking forward to the effect of the duck egg.

When she returned to the hotel, she could not help but say to Wang Yang, "Hubby, try and see if this duck egg is effective."

"Why would I need its beauty nourishment?" Wang Yang asked curiously.

"Isn't it yin-nourishing too?" Su Juan reminded him.

"The effect can't be so fast, right?" Wang Yang said, but his body was already moving.

A moment later, his eyes lit up.

Because the effect was immediate.

The egg of Qinglin Villa was really effective. Moreover, the effect was actually so fast?

...

The night passed.

The next day, Wang Yang woke up and saw Su Juan running out of the bathroom in surprise. "Hubby, look. My face is really much fairer."

His eyes lit up again as he stared at Su Juan.

Wasn't that so? She had yet to put on makeup, but her skin was clearly fair and translucent. It was also a little tighter and more exquisite.

Wasn't the effect of this beautifying egg too powerful?

Compared to the yin-nourishing effect, this beauty effect would make people crazy, right?

"Wash up and change quickly. We're going to the villa." Wang Yang subconsciously said, "If there are still big eggs today, I'll snatch them for you to eat first."

"Yes!" Su Juan nodded hurriedly.

She was the beneficiary and knew better that this beauty egg had a great effect. Not only was the skin on her face fairer and tighter, but it also felt refreshing when she woke up in the morning.

If other women knew the effect of this beauty egg, there would definitely be people fighting to buy it.

Chapter 306: An Inner Fight Between Tourists! This Egg is More Effective Than 10,000 Beauty Needles!

Wang Yang brought Su Juan to the sales center early in the morning.

At this moment, other than the game products that Qin Lin would send over every day, the products provided by the other suppliers had long been placed on the sales table by the waiters, naturally including the duck eggs produced by the duck house.

There were not many duck eggs produced in the duck house now. After all, there were only three ducks of Quality 2 and only 100 of Quality 1.

In reality, there was no such ratio of time in the game. It would take a long time for the 300 ducklings to grow to the point where they could lay eggs.

Furthermore, ducks only laid one egg every one to three days. If they were lucky, they would lay one a day. If they were unlucky, they would lay one every three days. These three Quality 2 ducks did not lay many eggs.

Qin Lin naturally had to guarantee that Zhao Moqing would have one duck egg every day. He also let Yang Dong try to hatch the fertilized duck eggs.

After all, many of the 100 Quality 1 ducks were male. When they gathered together, some of them had ill intentions towards the three Quality 2 ducks and rode on their backs.

After all, many of the 100 Quality 1 ducks were male. When they gathered together, some of them had ill intentions towards the three Quality 2 female ducks and rode on their backs.

In addition, if he did not use Quality 2, would the duck hatched from the egg be able to maintain Quality 2?

After all, he had taken out the Quality 2 watermelon seed to cultivate previously. Without the game land, the watermelon was only Quality 1 in the end.

If he cultivated this duck cub now, without the game duck house, he did not know if it would degenerate into Quality 1 duck.

However, this would take at least 18 days. He would only know when the first duckling hatched.

If the duck hatched from Quality 2 duck eggs had really degenerated, it would be the same as the duck genes that Professor Ren had previously imagined.

Most importantly, if the hatched duck degenerated, then as long as he controlled the source of Quality 2 duck eggs, he could sell Quality 1 duck eggs without restraint. He was not afraid that someone would use this duck egg to cultivate ducks.

If it did not degenerate, he had to take precautions against the sale of Quality 2 and 1 duck eggs. After all, if he could nurture it, others could nurture it.

At the sales center.

The waiter had already placed the egg on the table.

However, when Wang Yang arrived with Su Juan, he realized that there were already a few girls standing in front of the sales counter. The one in the middle was holding the duck egg the size of an ostrich egg.

When Wang Yang saw this, he knew that he had been beaten to it. He immediately went forward and asked the girl holding the ostrich egg, "Beauty, can you give me this egg in your hand? I'm willing to pay double the price."

Chen Xue immediately looked at Wang Yang warily and protected the duck egg in her arms.

How could she let him? She was already completely sure that this duck egg could really nourish her face.

Her university best friends had also limited themselves to buying a small duck egg yesterday. Under special attention, they also realized that this small duck egg was much more effective than face masks. Furthermore, it was even more effective than washing their faces.

If she wanted a long-term and effective change, she should eat more.

Women were always very hardworking for their beauty. Therefore, they came over early in the morning to buy this ostrich-egg-sized duck egg. They felt that the effect of this 1,000 yuan per egg would definitely be stronger.

"Xiao Xue, looks like we're not the only ones who know the effect of this egg."

"How could it be? For the sake of this egg, it's the first time I've woken up so early."

"Xiao Xue, let's go make egg custard."

A few university best friends also urged Chen Xue.

"Sir, I'm sorry," Chen Xue said politely to Wang Yang before leaving with her university best friend.

Wang Yang could only sigh. He had guessed that this would happen. After all, it was a good item from Qinglin Villa. When the effect of this duck egg spread, more people would probably fight for it.

"We can only eat small ones today," Wang Yang said helplessly to Su Juan. "We'll come over earlier tomorrow."

The next day.

Wang Yang set the alarm on his phone. As expected, he woke up earlier. He brought Su Juan, who was still yawning, to the sales center and was stunned.

The girls from yesterday arrived first again, already holding a duck egg the size of an ostrich egg.

Chen Xue hugged the duck egg and heaved a sigh of relief when she saw Wang Yang appear.

"Xiao Xue, thank goodness you're smart and came early."

"It's just as you said. People will snatch it."

"It's just a little early."

Chen Xue nodded and left with the duck egg the size of an ostrich egg.

After eating the duck egg soup yesterday, they clearly felt that the effect was much better than those small duck eggs. As they ate it, the skin on their faces was clearly much better and fairer.

Fortunately, he had guessed that the other party might snatch it today and specially came earlier.

“Damn it.” Wang Yang was helpless. His preparations had been predicted by others. He hurriedly said to Su Juan, “Let’s do it a little earlier tomorrow.”

On the third day.

As expected, Wang Yang came earlier. At this time, the door of the sales center was not even opened.

However, to his surprise, the girls from yesterday were already waiting at the door. Today, he could tell that the skin on the four girls’ faces was much fairer and looked much rosier.

This meant that the beautifying egg the size of the duck egg was powerful.

When Chen Xue and her university best friend saw Wang Yang and the others, they immediately became vigilant.

After eating two duck eggs the size of ostrich eggs, she and her friends knew the effect of the duck eggs better.

Chapter 307: An Inner Fight Between Tourists! This Egg is More Effective Than 10,000 Beauty Needles!

As long as they stayed here every day and used up their New Year’s money, they felt that they should be able to charm many juniors.

Finally, the sales center opened.

The waiter began to lay out the goods. Both parties stood guard at the sales counter for the eggs and watched as the duck eggs were placed.

However, there were no duck eggs the size of ostrich eggs today.

“Aren’t there any big ones today?” Chen Xue asked hurriedly.

“Not today. That kind of egg is very rare. It’s very likely that it’s often out of stock,” the waiter replied with a smile.

There were only two eggs yesterday. The boss took one and there was one saved at the duck house. There was not much left for the sales center.

These words disappointed Chen Xue and Wang Yang. In the end, they could only choose small duck eggs.

“This won’t do. We have to think of a way.” Wang Yang looked at Chen Xue and the other girls and muttered to himself.

There were very few large beautifying eggs to begin with, and they might even be out of stock. These girls were so hardworking that it was difficult to snatch them.

He had to do something unexpected.

Over the past three days, other than the two parties who had secretly taken advantage of the situation, the popularity of the villa's floating bridge viewing area had also reached its peak as more tourists arrived.

Just like the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea back then, more and more tourists uploaded videos of the floating bridge scenic area to various short video platforms.

Be it on Douyin, Youtube, or TikTok, one could see the video of Qinglin Villa's floating bridge.

In this heat, more tourists were attracted. The pontoon viewing area caused a crowd of tourists.

Qin Lin had no choice but to limit the flow of the floating bridge scenic area. There were 1,500 people in the morning and 1,500 in the afternoon, which was 3,000 people a day.

This made many scenic spots complain about Qinglin Villa's behavior. How many scenic spots were troubled by the lack of tourists?

How enviable was it?

Therefore, under their envy, they planned to learn from Qinglin Villa. For a time, many scenic spots announced the official establishment of the pontoon bridge, duckweed, and duck plan.

Unfortunately, they did not know that learning from Qinglin Villa would only lead to death because they were missing a cheat.

Under this popularity, the Guinness Company in Shanghai did not let go of the opportunity to gain popularity. They even went to Qinglin Villa immediately and released various videos to link Guinness to Qinglin Villa to attract traffic.

They had indeed attracted a lot of attention by doing this. Furthermore, they had set up the scene as quickly as possible and were prepared to certify the ducks in Qinglin Villa.

The place where the Guinness had given the duck witness to Qinglin Villa was in the area where the villa had originally served itself.

Because there was a buffet area at the restaurant, the equipment was better, the place was bigger, and this place was idle, so he did not think of a construction plan for a moment.

This time, when the Guinness people came to set up the certification scene, they were arranged to be in this place.

There were also many tourists who were attracted and came to the scene to take photos and videos.

The reason why the Guinness restaurant in Shanghai moved so fast was also because the preliminary preparations for the certification were originally prepared for the Duck King Wu. Now, the name has been changed for Qinglin Villa.

They also planned to certify this duck when it was at its most popular and ride on its greatest popularity. Moreover, many online platforms had indeed paid attention to this matter.

However, something unexpected by the Guinness Company in Shanghai was about to happen.

The person in charge of certifying the ducks in Qinglin Villa was called Yu Hong. He was the certification supervisor of the Guinness restaurant in Shanghai. It could be seen that they valued this time's seriousness.

On the other hand, the person in charge of contacting the Qinglin Villa was Chen Dabei, the security manager who had the most free time. Not only Qin Lin, but even Zhao Moqing did not appear.

It was really the Guinness Book of Records. They would even receive them. Forget about the 'Best in Great World Guinness' in Shanghai.

The other party was just here to gain popularity. Chen Dabei had already given him face.

"Supervisor Yu, when do you think this certification will start? I'll get the people from the duck house to bring Big White over." Chen Dabei asked Yu Hong enthusiastically. He was very enthusiastic about these things. He felt that this was his boss's trust in him.

Otherwise, why didn't he send Manager Gao Yaoyao, Yu Shui, and Yang Dong?

"Yes, we can start immediately," Yu Hong said with a smile as he looked around.

There were already a lot of tourists around. When the certification was done, these tourists would definitely take photos and videos. That would be a form of publicity for them.

Now, the number of tourists watching was enough to start the certification.

However, at this moment, a beautiful tourist exclaimed and said to her best friend, "Xiao Qi, look at this video. It says that the Beauty Egg of Qinglin Villa really has a beautifying effect. Moreover, the effect is very strong."

Her best friend leaned over. "The ID of Knife Beating People is very familiar."

The video was already being played. "All of you are paying attention to the viewing area of the pontoon bridge and how big the ducks are, but you haven't found the most important thing at all. That is the Beauty Eggs of those big ducks."

"Those Beauty Eggs really have the effect of beautifying one's face. Moreover, the effect is very strong, especially the ostrich-sized Beauty Eggs of the three big ducks. Eating one is definitely more effective than getting a beauty needle."

"This is an effect that my wife has experienced personally. Unfortunately, this ostrich egg-sized nourishing egg is only provided one a day, and it's often out of stock."

Clearly, this was what Wang Yang had thought of. Those girls were too hardworking. He could not snatch them away. More people would definitely know about it later.

Therefore, he had no choice but to do this.

Since the price of 1,000 yuan for the ostrich egg was just a publicity price, he would let this egg increase in price quickly. It would be too much if it did not increase by 4 to 5,000 yuan. Even if it was 10,000 yuan, there would be people who would buy it. After all, 10,000 yuan for a beauty needle might not necessarily have such an effect.

As long as the price rose to a certain extent, ordinary people would be excluded.

The price did not matter to him. If the price increased, even if the effect spread, he would have a better chance of obtaining it. Just like his Supreme Set previously, he had relied on money to win it.

Because they were all attracted by the viewing area of the pontoon bridge and the popularity of the duck's size, very few people paid attention to the duck egg. Now that they saw this video, the two beautiful tourists who were watching it were a little tempted.

Women always cared a lot about beauty. An egg was more effective than a beauty needle? Wasn't this too unbelievable?

"Let's take a look," the beautiful tourist said. She pulled her best friend away and rushed to the sales center.

She couldn't afford a beauty needle, but she could afford an egg, right?

The people beside the beautiful tourist naturally knew this news and started discussing.

"Hubby, the sales center has Beauty Eggs. They seem to be very effective."

"Jia Jia, shall we take a look too?:"

"Let's go together. The things in Qinglin Villa are very good. Perhaps that egg will really be effective."

"..."

In an instant, more than half of the surrounding onlookers were gone.

Women could not resist the temptation of beauty. Furthermore, that person had exaggerated it.

Yu Hong from Guinness was stunned when he saw the tourists leave.

This was not going as planned.

...

More tourists were gathering at the sales center. Most of them were women, and their purpose was to look good.

However, when they arrived at the sales center, the egg was already gone.

Chen Xue and her university best friends naturally saw Wang Yang's video. Her best friends were a little indignant.

"Xiao Xue, look at this 'Knife beating People' guy. Isn't he the one who tried to snatch our eggs?"

"He's so bad. This way, everyone knows the effect of the Beauty Egg. We'll have many competitors."

"I'm afraid that the price of Qinglin Villa will increase. When the time comes, we won't be able to afford the expensive ones."

"That's right. 1,000 yuan is just the publicity price. This person knows. We can't afford it if the price increases by five or ten times."

“The other party must have too much money.”

They were all university students and were clearly not stupid. They could tell Wang Yang’s motive.

“Then let’s perish together.” Chen Xue suddenly snorted. “We’ve recorded the effect of eating this Beauty Egg. It’s more convincing than his, so let’s upload the video. It’s not like he’s the only one with money. When the time comes, there will be many people who are richer than him, then he won’t be able to buy them either.”

Okay, women could be very vindictive.

Clearly, this was winding each other up.

Chapter 308: Mutual Destruction! How Did Boss Qin’s Head Grow?

Chen Xue and the others discussed for a while and posted the video that had been recorded with the Beauty Egg for the past two days.

Soon, more and more people who were attracted or followed Qinglin Villa saw the video recorded by Chen Xue and the others.

“We found something good at Qinglin Villa again. It’s a Beauty Egg from the sales center. A few of us sisters experimented with a small one yesterday and can tell everyone that it’s very effective. Today, we’re going to experiment with a big one...”

In the video, Chen Xue and a few of her best friends appeared on screen. It could be seen that for the sake of comparison, they did not turn on beauty filters.

Then, a few girls took out a duck egg the size of an ostrich egg and began to make duck egg soup.

Then the video changed. It was clearly cut to the next day.

Chen Xue and the girls appeared again.

The people watching the video clearly realized that the skin on Chen Xue and the others’ faces was much better than yesterday.

“As everyone can see, the effect is very obvious after using the first big egg. We snatched the second big egg today. Let’s look forward to tomorrow.”

After that, there was also a scene of the girls happily eating the duck egg soup.

The scene changed again. Another day had clearly passed.

Chen Xue and the other girls appeared on screen again.

This time, the skin on the girls’ faces was much smoother and fairer than on the first day. Someone even pulled the video back to look at the girls’ skin at the beginning.

In comparison, they all found it unbelievable.

Were two big eggs so effective?

Many women who had received beauty injections could even be sure that those expensive ones did not have this effect.

For a moment, the women who saw the video began to inquire about the egg.

No woman could resist this temptation.

The popularity of the certified duck by Guinness was directly overshadowed by the Beauty Egg. Soon, no one paid attention to it.

This was enough to show that the so-called Guinness Company in China was nothing.

Qin Lin also received a report from Gao Yaoyao in Zhao Moqing's office immediately and knew about the video sent by the two IDs, 'My Name is Xiao Xue' and 'Knife Beating People'.

Both of them remembered both IDs. After all, their official account had just used the video of the tourist, 'My Name is Xiao Xue'.

As for this 'Knife Beating People', there was no need to mention it. Previously, Duck King Wu had tagged the villa because of the video sent by 'Knife Beating People'.

The ducks could become popular so quickly because of this person.

"Isn't this 'Knife Beating People' too warm-hearted?" Qin Lin shook his head. The other party had made his Beauty Egg popular again.

To be honest, it was very easy for him to make the Beauty Egg popular.

The reason why he did not post a video to promote it and only said the eggs were limited stock was because he did not want to gather the popularity at once.

After some time, the popularity of the floating bridge viewing area and the ducks would definitely decrease. When the time came, there would be another wave of publicity and the popularity would increase again.

Therefore, the publicity for the Beauty Egg was not too urgent. They wanted to spread it among the tourists first and let everyone know that Qinglin Villa had it.

Therefore, the publicity for the beauty egg was not too urgent. They wanted to spread it among the tourists first and let everyone know that Qinglin Villa had it.

Gao Yaoyao said, "Boss, this isn't the first time this 'Knife Beating People' has come to our villa. Moreover, he's a VIP guest selected. He's won the Supreme Set. He's Mr. Wang Yang."

"It's him." Qin Lin had an impression of this person.

The other party seemed to be the first tourist in the Supreme Set event who did not sell the winning spot. He even posted a video of the Qinglin Medicine Wine, causing the price to reach 60,000 yuan a bottle.

Zhao Moqing asked Qin Lin, "Now that the Beauty Egg has been completely exposed, we have to raise the price in advance."

Qin Lin nodded. "The ordinary egg will increase the price to 300 yuan, the eggs laid by Big White, Second White, and Third White will increase to 5,000 yuan."

Zhao Moqing also instructed Gao Yaoyao, "Yaoyao, inform them of the price later."

Although this price was a little unfriendly to ordinary people, the Beauty Eggs were meant to be high-end.

She knew the effects of the Beauty Egg the best.

Now, a beauty treatment costs 300 to 400 yuan. If the effect was better, it would cost 500 to 1,000 yuan.

The effect of this small egg was not inferior to a good beauty treatment.

As for this big Beauty Egg, although she had never had a beauty injection, many people online said that it would not be worse than a beauty injection. Since it had a better effect, it should cost more than 5,000 yuan.

The key was that the Beauty Egg was directly digested and absorbed. It did not rely on external forces like beauty needles. Once too many beauty needles were used, there would be some side effects when one was old. It would be even more troublesome if they received an infection from the beauty needle.

After all, there are too many black-hearted people in this society nowadays. There were even fake medicines for cancer. Not to mention beauty needles, it was more reassuring to eat egg custard.

"Okay, Sister Moqing," Gao Yaoyao replied. "I'll arrange it later."

Qin Lin thought for a moment and said, "I'll continue to sell the eggs in the sales center. I'll still restrict everyone to buying one. As for the big eggs placed by Big White, Second White, and Third White, they can only buy one a day. Let's use the lucky draw."

"Every tourist who enters the villa can get a free lucky draw. Only by winning can they buy a big egg. This is also considered a medium-sized event. Let all the tourists have a surprise and a sense of anticipation."

Chapter 309: Mutual Destruction! How Did Boss Qin's Head Grow?

Zhao Moqing added, "The people who win the prize might not be willing to spend 5,000 yuan to buy a big egg. If they can't bear to buy it, they can transfer it to others. Also, we have to let Yang Dong and the others pick out the cured duck eggs."

Qin Lin naturally agreed with Zhao Moqing's suggestion. Indeed, not everyone was willing to spend 5,000 yuan to buy Quality 2 duck eggs. If someone was willing to spend 200 yuan to buy this opportunity, most people who won would probably sell it.

As for Yang Dong and the others, their selection was naturally the most important. There were some male ducks among the 100 Quality 1 ducks. These ducks were very excited, and be it ducks of Quality 1 or 2, they dared to climb on the female ducks' back.

There was no need to elaborate on the details of the ducks' sexual organs.

In any case, it would cause some ducks to lay eggs that were fertilized and could hatch ducklings. Yang Dong's duck house had already taken many fertilized duck eggs to hatch.

This fertilized duck egg had to be selected and could not be sold to the public.

There were many ways to choose. The simplest was to shine the light. Many people from the countryside knew that if they shone the light on an egg, they could see if there was fertilization inside.

Qin Lin thought of something and said, "Everyone knows the effect of the Beauty Egg now. It might attract people with bad intentions. Get Chen Dabei to arrange for more patrols and install a few more cameras."

Speaking of the devil, Chen Dabei arrived a moment later with a smile. He handed a certificate to Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing. "Boss, Lady Boss, this is the certificate given by Guinness. The person in charge of the other party still wants to see you, but I sent him away."

"Yes, well done." Qin Lin took the certificate and placed it on the table. He was not interested in looking at it.

This 'Best in Great World Guinness' certificate was only used to fool people in the country. Once it was taken out of the country, it would be useless and would be laughed at.

Now that Big White, Second White, and Third White were hot, everyone knew that they were the largest ducks in the world. They could not even be bothered with the Guinness Company in Shanghai.

Zhao Moqing also instructed Chen Dabei to strengthen the patrol of the duck house and install more cameras.

Chen Dabei immediately returned to the security department and took action.

Zhao Moqing also got Lin Lanzi to take a video and post it.

Qinglin Villa, bridal chamber.

Wang Yang had also gotten his wish and booked a bridal room. Just as he moved in, Su Juan suddenly said on her phone, "Hubby, Qinglin Villa has sent a video. The price of the Beauty Egg has increased."

Wang Yang took his phone and saw the video posted by the official account of Qinglin Villa:

"Hello, everyone. I'm Lanzi. I believe everyone is already paying attention to the Beauty Eggs. Due to the price increase at the end of the promotional period, the small Beauty Eggs are 300 yuan each, and the big Beauty Eggs are 5,000 yuan each..."

When Wang Yang heard this news, he said excitedly, "YES, 5,000 yuan each. Ordinary people definitely can't bear to buy it. Baby, let's go earlier tomorrow."

He knew that his plan had worked. He could not work harder than those girls, but clearly, they should be out. Even if those who were not short of money were attracted, they should not know that they had to work harder to buy this duck egg.

However, what happened next stunned him.

Lin Lanzi's voice sounded again. "But because the number of big Beauty Eggs is extremely rare, we can't even provide them every day at the moment. Therefore, we will adopt a lucky draw situation. Only those who get a spot can buy them. To be fair, every tourist who enters the villa will receive a free lucky draw."

"What?" Wang Yang was dumbfounded.

What did this mean?

Furthermore, it could not be bought with money. He had to draw a lottery?

The key was that he could not rely on money to win this lucky draw. Instead, it was a fair method of giving everyone a free lucky draw.

Both sides were going to suffer?

Wang Yang suddenly thought of this.

Wasn't that so? In this situation, those girls couldn't buy it, and it seemed like he couldn't buy it either.

"I miscalculated." Wang Yang's face was filled with bitterness. If he had known earlier, he would have discussed with those girls to take turns buying it. This way, he might be able to buy it for a few more days.

However, the popularity of the Beauty Egg online was increasing. It also attracted the attention of some duck farming and research agencies.

When these people saw the price and effect of the egg, many of them seemed to be angry. They actually published some videos with harmful theories.

For example: "Ducks usually can't grow so big. It's very easy if it's catalyzed. The hidden danger is very big."

Another example: "The nutritional value of duck eggs is high, but I've never seen any with a beauty effect!"

Although these videos were not directly aimed at the Beauty Egg, everyone could tell what they meant. They clearly wanted to lead people astray.

The hidden danger was very big. Didn't that mean that the Beauty Egg might be dangerous?

Never seen a duck egg with a beauty effect? Wasn't this trying to guide people's opinion that the effect was fake?

There were always such people online. They did not need a reason to target you. They were just jealous.

Unfortunately, before these harmful videos could cause much of a stir, Professor Ren posted a video that criticized others. The general meaning was: Don't be jealous of someone else if they have something good. That's a duck with a genetic mutation. I've eaten that egg before.

No one expected Professor Ren to give Qinglin Villa a platform.

It had to be known that people like Professor Ren and Elder Zhong usually would not post videos to criticize others for such matters. However, once they did, it was equivalent to an endorsement. That was absolute authority.

Chapter 310: Mutual Destruction! How Did Boss Qin's Head Grow?

Those who were jealous were instantly silenced. They deleted the video and did not dare to argue with someone like Professor Ren. Otherwise, countless netizens would teach them a lesson.

A few days ago, a stupid woman had made some inappropriate remarks about Mr. Zhong. The netizens on the Internet drowned her with their saliva. The consequences were a lesson learned.

Qin Lin also saw Professor Ren's video.

This was probably the benefit of befriending people like Professor Ren.

With Professor Ren's endorsement, the popularity of the Beauty Egg soared even higher. Many eligible women could not help but be tempted.

Therefore, the security guards in the parking lot of the villa the next day realized that there were more female drivers with good cars. They had obviously come for the sake of their looks.

Naturally, under such popularity, the number of tourists attracted was also high.

...

The pontoon viewing area.

Chen Li brought Zhong Lei to a part of the villa early in the morning. From here, they could see most of the viewing area of the pontoon bridge.

Seeing the already crowded tourists on the pontoon, Chen Li sighed again.

After the New Year, Sun Xian and he were still worried if the number of tourists in Qinglin Villa could maintain last year's momentum.

After all, after the New Year, the number of tourists had decreased. Even the popularity on the Internet had become news related to the Spring Festival.

Who knew that while Sun Xian and he were worried, Qinglin Villa would cause such a huge commotion?

He looked at the number of tourists crowding the pontoon. They had restricted the flow. Clearly they were worrying for nothing.

Chen Li couldn't help but ask Zhong Lei, "You said that this reservoir has been here for decades, and our Global Tourism+ has also been in operation for a few years. Why didn't anyone think that this place could be built like this?"

Zhong Lei was also full of admiration. "Deputy Chen, how do you think Boss Qin's brain works?"

He had been traveling with Deputy Chen and knew the situation of the reservoir. In the past, no one had even taken a look at it.

Now that the reservoir had become such a popular viewing area in Boss Qin's hands, Boss Qin was really a genius in the management of the scenic area. He could turn any place into a treasure. He felt that no designer in the country could compare to him.

"How good would it be if the person in charge of those scenic spots in the county could be as enlightened as Boss Qin?" Chen Li sighed and continued, "Let's go and find Boss Qin. We still have serious matters to discuss."

The two of them quickly arrived at Qin Lin's office. When they walked in, Qin Lin was making tea with a young man.

The young man was Qin Long.

Before the New Year, he had said in the village that he would invite Qin Lin to the opening ceremony after the official opening of the tomato plantation.

His tomato plantation would be opening in two days. He specially came over early this morning to invite Qin Lin.

It was a gesture of respect and gratitude.

Qin Lin was pouring a cup of tea for Qin Long. When he saw Chen Li enter, he immediately stood up to welcome him. "Deputy Chen, why are you here? Take a seat. I just brewed a pot of tea."

"Boss Qin, I have something to discuss with you." Chen Li smiled and sat down with Qin Lin.

Qin Lin didn't forget to introduce, "Deputy Chen, this is a big brother from my village, Qin Long. Brother Long, this is Deputy Chen."

"Hello." Chen Li greeted Qin Long very naturally.

"Deputy Chen, hello," Qin Long replied nervously.

He was obviously a little nervous in the face of someone of this level.

It was really admirable to see Qin Lin and Deputy Chen's casual conversation.

This also showed that Qin Lin's position in Youcheng County was very high.
