

The Game 311

Chapter 311: The Way of the World! This Egg's Temptation is Too Great!!

Qin Lin poured a cup of tea for Chen Li. "Deputy Chen, have some tea."

Chen Li picked up the teacup and took a sip. He said in surprise, "Boss Qin, your tea tastes much better than the ordinary tea I drink. It shouldn't be cheap, right?"

Qin Lin smiled and explained, "It's the oolong tea that Old Ma brought over. Oh, I mean Ma Liewen. I don't know the exact price."

Ma Liewen had brought over the oolong tea last time, but he did not bring it back and had left it for Qin Lin. He felt that Qin Lin's lousy low-quality tea was an insult to this red sandalwood tea table.

Furthermore, this good tea was indeed different. Even someone who did not know how to taste tea could easily tell its quality after drinking it.

Some tea leaves were expensive for a reason.

"Oh, President Ma." Chen Li naturally knew that two rich people in Qinglin Villa were regulars.

Previously, it was also those two who hyped up the Supreme Set event in Qinglin Villa and made it so popular.

The county thought that these two tycoons were helping Boss Qin stand on the stage, which showed that their relationship was not ordinary.

Even the county had designs on these two tycoons.

After all, as long as these two people leaked a little and invested in Youcheng County, Youcheng County's capital for publicity would be impressive. It might be able to attract many investors in the short term.

However, in the end, Sun Xian gave up on his eagerness and did not contact the two of them.

Firstly, leaving Qinglin Villa and Qinglin Food Company was already a long-term advantage. It also matched their global tourism pace. It was not good to be anxious for quick success.

Even if he relied on his relationship with Boss Qin to interact with these two people and the other party invested a little shamelessly, it would not be sincere. He would not invest too much and would instead lose a good impression.

On the other hand, the other party had a relationship with Boss Qin and had been running to Qinglin Villa. As long as the county did a good job, especially while supporting Boss Qin, these two could see that Youcheng County's environment was not bad.

When these two realized that Youcheng County had the advantage and took the initiative to invest, their gains would be even greater.

Qin Lin put down the teapot and took a sip of tea himself. He asked, "Deputy Chen, you're a busy person now. It should be very important for you to come over personally, right?"

When Chen Li heard this, he immediately became serious. "Boss Qin, it's indeed important. Didn't they talk to you about the ketchup planting cooperation last year?"

"Sun Xian has been personally in charge of this during this period of time. The various towns have reviewed and selected some people. They plan to invite you to the county for the next few days. Everyone will meet and look at the regulations."

This matter was also one of the most important things in the county at the moment.

If the tourists brought by Qinglin Villa promoted the economy of various industries in the county city, then Qinglin Ketchup could directly drive the people's livelihood.

Not to mention that the ketchup factory was recruiting more and more employees, and the salary far exceeded the current salary in Youcheng County.

According to the county's estimate, after Qinglin Food Company expanded, the highest production capacity for a double shift could reach more than 800,000 bottles of 200g. Moreover, as far as they knew, the cost of the materials for Qinglin Ketchup was very high. The cost of each bottle of materials reached five yuan.

Then when it reached a maximum of more than 800,000 bottles of daily production, the cost of the materials would be more than four million yuan. How many tomatoes could be widely planted among these materials?

For a small county, this could completely drive a planting chain and create more farmers' jobs.

This was based on the fact that Qinglin Ketchup was no longer expanding.

What if Qinglin Ketchup developed unexpectedly and could squeeze into the top 10 brands?

If the county watched as this piece of meat was eaten by other places, they could jump into the reservoir collectively.

"What's the exact time?" Qin Lin asked.

He was also happy to see the results. After all, Youcheng County lacked tomato materials and could only buy tomatoes from elsewhere. The cost would be much higher.

No matter what company it was, materials were of utmost importance. It was best to be close to the principle.

At first, he had thought of contracting land to plant.

This way, all the interests could be grasped in his hands, but he finally gave up on the idea and chose the cooperation method proposed by the county.

In China, this kind of monopoly of the interest chain was not feasible and was not advocated by the country.

Even if he was an oligarch, could he be more impressive than Big Boss Ma?

Why were those live streamers with goods worth billions a year being dealt with? Other than that tax-avoidance streamer, the others were also alternative oligarchs because they had skipped all the middle economic chains. It did not conform to the benign ecological development of our country.

While China was focused on creating new industries, it also created more jobs for more people and made more people rich. It was not about creating industries and destroying more industries at the same time. It was about overturning all the people in the middle and taking all the money.

This way, it was easier for something to happen if there were no details in between.

Then there were those agricultural food companies like Qinglin Food Company. Why didn't they choose this kind of monopoly chain of interest? Most of the time, they chose to cooperate in planting.

Because no one was a fool.

If the company and the officials were compared to a business.

Other than earning money, the company had actually also earned policy support, a peaceful environment, and a large market gathered by more than a billion people.

Other than taxes, what the officials wanted to earn was nothing more than livelihoods. Furthermore, livelihoods were the most important.

Chapter 312: The Way of the World! The Temptation Of This Egg Is Too Great!!

You've earned so much from me. If you don't let me earn my livelihood, I'll mess with you. If you let me earn enough livelihood, I'll treasure you.

If you want to earn so much from me and still want to expand overseas and make my people unable to survive, I'm sorry.

Dissatisfied?

Then you can choose not to do it. You should be welcome overseas.

Therefore, the people born in our country were really the happiest in the world. No country would value their people so much.

Unfortunately, many xenophiles could not understand this.

Qin Lin knew very well that even if he had the system and could obtain many good things, he was still one of the billions of people in China. It was impossible for him to violate this basic principle.

Naturally, it was up to him to decide if it involved dominance, the responsibilities of both parties, and legal contracts. After all, it was not charity.

Even if it was someone selected by the county, if they wanted to get into his car, they had to follow his rules. Otherwise, they would be invited to get out of the car. He still had the right to replace them.

Chen Li smiled and said, "As for the time, it depends on when Boss Qin is free. After all, you need to prepare for this cooperation."

On this cooperation, the two sides had been discussing happily. Boss Qin also had a sense of the big picture. The county had already taken advantage of him. For such matters, the county would also accommodate and cooperate.

"Alright, I'll get the factory to arrange it. When the time comes, I'll inform the county in advance." Qin Lin smiled and nodded. He suddenly looked at Qin Long and said meaningfully, "Deputy Chen, my brother is also in the tomato plantation business. He started preparing before the county."

Chen Li was not a fool. When he heard Qin Lin's words, he pretended to be surprised and said to Qin Long, "Mr. Qin is also in the tomato field. Then I really want to understand this situation. I wonder if Mr. Qin can tell me?"

When Qin Long heard the two of them talking about tomato planting, he thought he could relate. Wasn't he planting tomatoes?

However, he did not expect the two of them to suddenly talk about him.

He did not dare to hesitate about the difference in status with Chen Li and hurriedly told him everything he had learned about planting tomatoes.

Chen Li nodded and said, "Mr. Qin, our county has set up a special support fund for a tomato plantation. As long as you have tomato planting technology and experience, you can apply. If Mr. Qin is interested, you can fill in the information and submit it to me."

"Ah!" Qin Long was stunned. He clearly did not expect such a good thing.

Although he and his father had contracted 300,000 yuan to develop a plantation, the initial expenses were huge. The first year would not see a very big profit.

If he could apply for a support fund from the county, he could expand the plantation.

Qin Long was not stupid. He knew that this good thing must be because of Qin Lin, but he frowned and asked Chen Li, "Deputy Chen, um, I made some mistakes previously. I have a criminal record. Can I still apply?"

Qin Lin added at the right time, "A female colleague of Brother Long met a drunk person at the KTV who took advantage of her. Brother Long helped and accidentally hurt the other party. He's not a bad person."

He remembered Qin Long's kindness and did not mind helping him at a time like this.

Since this support fund also supported the plantation to plant tomatoes, others could, but why couldn't Qin Long?

Chen Li also smiled and nodded. "The law doesn't stipulate that people with criminal records can't apply for credit or support funds. Mr. Qin, don't worry."

Naturally, the law did not stipulate that a criminal record would affect credit collection, but in fact, it was very difficult for people with a criminal record to apply for such things. Competition for the same position was also prioritized by people without a criminal record.

It could only be said that Boss Qin was loyal and Qin Long was lucky. After all, it was because of Boss Qin that there was such a support fund for planting tomatoes.

Furthermore, he could tell what Boss Qin meant. It was better to teach someone to fish than to feed them. Boss Qin saw it clearer than many people.

“Really? That’s great.” Qin Long was pleasantly surprised to hear this good news.

Chen Li nodded and said, “However, once the application is successful, the county has requirements. The employees’ salaries must be uniformly arranged by the county. The price of the tomato sales channel will also be discussed by the county.”

This was also a hard condition. The county did this to support the people’s livelihood and did not want to be exploited by the people of the support fund in private. Secondly, it was to avoid malicious collusion and price increases.

If he got into an argument with Qinglin Food Company over this, the situation would be ugly.

This kind of thing was not uncommon. Didn’t such a thing happen in the beginning when Watermelon County planted special watermelons? The investors left in a fit of anger. Later on, it was only when the county kicked out the greedy villagers that they comforted the investors.

Later on, everyone in the entire Watermelon County earned money on the special watermelon strip industry chain. Only those few villages were pulled down and dragged down financially. He wondered if they were regretful now.

Their county did not want such a bullshit thing to happen.

Qin Lin also smiled and said, “Brother Long, go back and write the information well.”

“Lin Zi, thank you.” Qin Long nodded sincerely and left impatiently.

He was not stupid. He definitely did not receive this treatment just because Deputy Chen wanted to understand tomato knowledge.

After Qin Long left, Chen Li and Qin Lin did not mention this topic again.

This was just a normal relationship. He would not say it openly.

Chen Li even changed the topic and said, “Boss Qin, you have to speed up the application for scenic spot 4A.”

Chapter 313: The Way of the World! The Temptation Of This Egg Is Too Great!!

“Yes!” Qin Lin nodded.

The two of them chatted for a while more about the application for scenic area 4A before Chen Li left with Zhong Lei.

After leaving the office, Chen Li asked Zhong Lei, "What do you think about Qin Long?"

Zhong Lei thought for a moment and said, "Not only is Boss Qin low-key, but he's also different from those who suddenly succeed. If it were me, if I could choose the way others help me, I would be willing to choose Boss Qin's way of helping Qin Long."

Chen Li nodded and said, "Go back and personally keep an eye on Qin Long."

The two of them walked towards the parking lot. As soon as they reached the hall, they heard someone exclaim, "Haha, this is the only chance to buy a Beauty Egg today."

The sound attracted many tourists around them.

Chen Li also walked over curiously with Zhong Lei.

When the two of them came, they had naturally seen the video of Qinglin Villa. Clearly, someone had taken the opportunity to buy the egg.

In the hall, a fat middle-aged woman in her 40s excitedly exchanged a ticket for a big egg.

She clearly did not expect to be so lucky. She had drawn the only chance to buy a big egg today.

"Sister, are you selling these tickets? I'm willing to pay 300 yuan." A tall and fashionable beauty suddenly walked forward and asked.

"Sister, I'm willing to pay 500 yuan," another beautiful young woman in a short skirt and black stockings stepped forward and said.

Seeing the effect of the Beauty Egg online, it was obvious that many women with spare money were attracted.

The middle-aged woman looked at the two beautiful women and snorted heavily. "Do you think I can't afford this egg? I have money."

With that, she took the ticket and left without looking at the two women.

The male tourists around them discussed and sighed when they saw this scene.

To be honest, they understood that the two beauties were in a hurry to buy the Beauty Egg. After all, they were beautiful and needed to be maintained. However, there was no need for the fat middle-aged woman to waste this egg.

In the office, after Chen Li left, Qin Lin also took out his phone and sent a message to Senior Brother Chu. "Is Senior Brother Chu around? Let's talk about the legal business."

Although the county was in charge of the cooperation this time, they had to sign many contracts and many legal terms. They needed a professional lawyer to handle them.

Previously, Senior Brother Chu had said that he would be looking for a legal team soon. He did not expect it to be so soon.

And the legal business was something that every company avoided. In fact, many groups would become legal departments. However, even if there were companies in the legal department, a lot of the legal business would have to be contracted to law firms outside.

Because their specialties were different.

The legal department of Nan Shan was reputed to have more than 1,000 lawyers. Didn't they still have to contract some legal business to top law firms outside?

Not long after he sent the WeChat message, Qin Lin's phone rang. It was Senior Brother Chu.

After picking up the call, Qin Lin heard Senior Brother Chu's voice. "Qin Lin, I knew you would need a professional legal consultant soon. Hand the business to our Power Law Firm and we will definitely not let you suffer."

Qin Lin smiled and said, "Senior Brother Chu, I might have a legal business to deal with soon. If possible, please come over first."

Senior Brother Chu smiled and said, "Then remember to treat me well."

Power Law Firm was definitely one of the most famous legal matters in the industry. Their lawyer was Director Luo Bing, the number one lawyer in Asia, and Jose, who was the best at fighting divorce property disputes.

Over the years, he had recruited more than ten talented senior partners.

After Chu Feng hung up, he left his senior lawyer's special office. He really did not expect his junior in the university club to be doing so well now.

Previously, when he told his wife that Qin Lin was the one behind Qinglin Villa, she was shocked. She had been talking about going to Qinglin Villa, but now, she was really going.

Chu Feng walked into the law firm's administrative director's office. A sexy woman was sitting inside.

"Sister Li Na, I need a few days of leave. Please arrange a few days," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Traveling with your wife again? Where are you going this time?" Li Na looked at Chu Feng with a smile. The other party was undoubtedly a talent, but he had spent too much effort on his family and wife. Last year, he had missed the opportunity to advance to a senior partner because his wife had given birth.

However, there was no doubt that she liked such a talent more.

Chu Feng smiled and said, "Qinglin Villa. It's owned by a junior I know in university. My wife has been talking about going."

"Qinglin Villa?" Li Na was a little surprised to hear the name. She asked, "The one with the Beauty Egg? Your junior owns it?"

"Yes!" Chu Feng nodded.

Li Na was pleasantly surprised. She said with a smile, "Chu Feng, I'm usually good to you, right? I heard that the Beauty Egg in Qinglin Villa is very good."

"I understand, I understand. I'll try my best." Chu Feng immediately nodded crazily.

It seemed that Qin Lin's Beauty Egg was really tempting to women. After watching the video of the Beauty Egg yesterday, his wife had also muttered about it in front of him countless times.

It seemed like he had to be thick-skinned and talk to Qin Lin about it this time.

Chapter 314: Strange Pet Interaction Skill!

The next day.

The popularity of the Beauty Eggs increased. When many people opened Douyin, they realized that there were many popular videos of the Beauty Eggs.

It was a video posted by the person who bought a small egg at Qinglin Villa.

Under this popularity, those who had bought eggs naturally had to post a video to show off.

Under that popularity, many videos posted by people who had bought the Beauty Egg were trending.

Furthermore, all these people's videos showed that the Beauty Egg was really effective.

This also made the Beauty Egg more popular and attracted more female tourists with good conditions.

It could be said that if male tourists went to Qinglin Villa at this time, they would definitely be lucky to see so many beauties.

Unfortunately, no matter how many female tourists there were, the supply of Beauty Eggs was limited. There was only one big Beauty Egg a day, and they had to buy the big Beauty Egg from winning the lottery.

This was indeed as Qin Lin had expected. All the tourists naturally had a sense of anticipation. As soon as the tourists arrived at Qinglin Villa, they would go to the lucky draw to see how lucky they were.

In the afternoon.

When Qin Lin brought Zhao Moqing and his mother to the original hall, Li Kai was already eating alone.

As for Li Qing, he had already returned to the city. After all, his wife was pregnant again. He needed to go back and care about her at this time.

As soon as Qin Lin and the other two sat down, Master Lin brought two sets of Beauty Eggs up.

These two were both Beauty Eggs of Quality 2.

Yesterday, Big White, Second White, and Third White had all laid an egg. Furthermore, they had not been molested by the Quality 1 ducks yesterday, so there was no egg fertilization. Other than one that was sold to tourists, the other two had been taken by Qin Lin. One was for Zhao Moqing and the other was for his mother.

Although his mother could not eat too many yin-nourishing eggs at her age, it had the effect of beautifying her face. It was still possible to eat it occasionally.

Zhao Moqing looked at the egg and looked at Qin Lin with watery eyes. "Hubby, do you think I'm the happiest woman in the world? I eat things that other women can't eat every day."

Wasn't that so? The villa only sold one egg a day to the public, and only one person could buy it. There was already a rumor in the villa that someone had bought the big egg at a high price.

It was obvious that those rich female tourists were crazy about the Beauty Eggs.

Zhao Moqing's only pain now was that she could not finish the big egg in a single meal. She had to eat the egg three times a day!

Qin Lin looked at Zhao Moqing's watery eyes and said with a double meaning, "If you're happy, isn't my sex life happy?"

What was the effect of the Beauty Egg? It nourished the yin and had a beauty effect.

Needless to say, it was good for both men and women.

There was no need to mention beauty enhancement. As the saying went, being fair could hide the ugly. A woman with fair skin looked even more beautiful.

Zhao Moqing was already beautiful to begin with. Her skin had become even fairer, and her looks and temperament had increased. Every night, he wished he could lick her moist skin.

When Zhao Moqing saw Qin Lin's strange gaze, she seemed to understand what he was implying and kicked him under the table. After all, Lin Fen, an elder, was still beside them, but he dared to say something shamelessly.

After lunch, Qin Lin went to the office immediately. He had not caught any fish or cut any trees in the game today. Most importantly, the first batch of wine had been brewed for more than 40 years.

According to his previous plan to store some wine for each year, he had to get a batch of 40-year-old wine first and another batch of 50-year-old wine 20 days later.

Qin Lin had just returned to his office when Chen Dabei arrived with a package. He reported, "Boss, this is your express delivery. It was just delivered to the security booth at the entrance. I moved it over for you."

"You've worked hard." Qin Lin nodded.

This was the tea set he had specially customized online.

After Chen Dabei left with his men, he took out a pair of scissors and opened the package. It was indeed a tea set. It was a custom-made Song dynasty imitation blue and white porcelain that cost thousands of yuan. It was the kind that he had specially requested not to leave any words.

The reason he asked for this was naturally because he wanted to put the tea set into the game.

As Ma Liewen had said, the red sandalwood tea table in his office looked equally out of place after being insulted with ordinary tea.

A set of antique-proof Song dynasty porcelain was nothing, but what if it was placed in the game for enough time? Then wouldn't the imitation become a real antique?

Qin Lin got up and locked the office door before entering the game with the tea set.

He took the tea set directly into the ranch house.

Then, Qin Lin exited the game and looked at the screen in his mind. He controlled the game character to catch all 35 fish today and then controlled the game character to go to Mount Notre Dame to cut the trees that had respawned today.

Besides, he seemed to be very lucky today.

[Congratulations on discovering a cuttable rosewood!]

[Congratulations on discovering a cuttable rosewood!]

...

Today, the trees that had been refreshed on Mount Notre Dame actually had two rosewood trees. It had been a while since he had encountered a high-quality tree.

This was a sudden big surprise.

Furthermore, after cutting these two rosewood trees, he also obtained two portions of Quality 2 rosewood and six portions of Quality 1 rosewood.

Didn't this mean that he had the big pieces of rosewood furniture that he had promised to help Chen Shengfei keep an eye on?

His initial plan was to build a large piece of furniture and put it in the game for some time when there was more yellow rosewood. According to the game ratio, it would be an antique when the furniture was taken out before the founding of the country. He did not have to worry about the source.

Chapter 315: Strange Pet Interaction Skill!

Now, these six sets of Quality 1 rosewood could completely make a large piece of furniture.

Two sets of Quality 2 rosewood could also create a chair that matched his desk.

Qin Lin thought about it and controlled his game character to return to the ranch. Then, he came back to his senses from the game and went online to search for the design plan for the furniture and chairs. He downloaded and printed it into the game.

After that, he exited the game again and controlled the game character to go to the processing machine experience hall. He began to build furniture and chairs with the wood processing machine.

After building the two things, he controlled the game character to put them in the ranch house.

He would leave the furniture there for a while. When time was enough, he would take it out and inform Chen Shengfei. The chair could be moved out tomorrow morning and brought back to the office.

After fishing and cutting the trees, Qin Lin controlled his game character to head to the Spring Mine and start digging the fifth level.

40-year-old wine had to be bottled in silver. He planned to dig some silver ore to make a special silver imitation wine bottle.

When the time came, other than the words 'Qinglin Villa', he would also add the words '1980'.

This went on for more than 40 years.

He planned to take out 10 catties of 40-year-old wine, which was to create 10 special silver imitation wine bottles.

The probability of finding ore on the fifth floor of the Spring Mine was still very high. When the backpacking could not hold it anymore, he controlled the game character to go back to the ranch and sell all the gold and copper ore he had dug. Then, he brought the silver ore to the processing machine experience hall and chose the bottle processing machine to operate.

A moment later, two silver imitation wine bottles with the words "Qinglin Villa—1980" appeared in the game character's backpack.

With the words "1980," it inexplicably felt like the bottle was even more high-end.

After continuously mining, Qin Lin quickly made eight special-year silver imitation wine bottles. During this time, he also dug up a Quality 2 jade and a Quality 1 jade. He gave Zhao Moqing two more pieces of jewelry as a wedding gift.

There were still two more of the 10 special-year silver imitation wine bottles. Qin Lin controlled his game character to head to the fifth floor of the mine again. This time, before he could dig two slots, a notification appeared in his mind:

[Congratulations on obtaining an ordinary Mystic Stone Slab. Do you want to crack the information on it?]

Had he dug up the Mystic Stone Slab again?

Qin Lin's eyes lit up.

The last stone slab had given a secret recipe for ketchup. What would it give this time?

He decisively controlled the game character to crack the information on it.

[Decoding the Mystic Stone Slab...]

Not long after.

He was prompted again:

[Congratulations on obtaining a special pet secret message 03. You can exchange it for a pet interaction skill capsule from a pet merchant.]

This time, the stone slab was not the same as before.

And this special pet code 03 was a tool added to the new version. There was no such thing in the old version.

However, the pet interaction skill capsule was something from a more strange version. According to the plot, this version happened after Ore Town. It could be considered a respectful version.

This pet interaction skill capsule was something that could be obtained in this version. As long as it was an animal sacrifice event, it could be activated. Its function was to let pets obtain some interesting interaction skills.

Thinking of the interactive skills in the game, Qin Lin was a little interested. He immediately controlled the game character to leave the mine and look for the pet merchant.

[Wow, you actually obtained a pet secret message. It's even 03. I have pet interaction skill 03 to exchange with you. Can you exchange it with me?]

Qin Lin naturally chose to exchange. After all, it was useless to keep it.

[Congratulations on obtaining Pet Interaction Skill No. 03: Finding Someone Lucky!]

“???” Qin Lin.

It seemed like there was no such skill in that version, right?

He did not know what “Finding Someone Lucky” meant.

He immediately controlled his game character to return to the ranch and entered the game.

[Pet Interaction Skill No. 03: Finding Someone Lucky!]

[Pets with this skill can randomly find a lucky person to give a gift. However, you need to prepare a gift for your pet in advance.]

Qin Lin looked at the capsule with special runes in his hand in a daze as he thought about what use it could have.

After this thing was used on a pet, the pet would become a fortune boy and choose a lucky person to give the other party a gift.

Wasn't a pet with such a skill too strange?

Who would let their pet send things out every day and even prepare gifts for it?

Was he dumb?

“However, if it's Red Hair, it's not impossible.” An idea suddenly appeared in Qin Lin's mind.

Ordinary people would indeed not do this if they had pets.

His villa was a scenic area.

The matter of Quality 2's beauty egg lucky draw had already stirred up the tourists' anticipation. If another cute little squirrel would choose tourists to give gifts, and there were sometimes surprises, would that be another sense of anticipation?

This sense of anticipation was a little more attractive. Sometimes it was no worse than a popular project.

At the thought of this, Qin Lin exited the game and called Zhang Guizhu to bring Red Hair over.

The little guy usually stayed at the Sea of Flowers' Squirrel House during the day.

Not long after, Zhang Guizhu brought Red Hair to his office.

"Squeak," Red Hair called as it scuttled to his desk. Its rolling eyes stared straight at him, as if it knew he was the one looking for it.

Chapter 316: Strange Pet Interaction Skill!

Zhang Guizhu said, "Boss, if there's nothing else, I'll get busy first."

"Go!" Qin Lin nodded.

After Zhang Guizhu left, he locked the door, grabbed Red Hair, and entered the game. He took out the pet interaction skill capsule.

"Squeak! Squeak!"

Red Hair seemed to know that the capsule was useful to it and squeaked at him again.

[Do you want to use Pet Interaction Skill No. 03 on Red Hair?]

Qin Lin chose yes again.

A moment later, the pet interaction skill capsule dissipated and turned into specks of light that entered Red Hair's body.

[Congratulations, your pet has learned Interaction Skill 03: Finding Someone Lucky.]

"Just like that?" Qin Lin was a little surprised.

"Squeak, squeak!" Red Hair extended its small claws at him, clearly asking for something.

Was it going to deliver something?

Looking at the bulging backpack on its chest, there were pine nuts inside, right?

Shouldn't the squirrels who knew how to manage the house send out the pine nuts in their small backpacks at this time?

Qin Lin thought about it and exited the game.

He had to think about how to get Red Hair to give things. After all, Red Hair was too small.

A moment later, he called Zhao Moqing and asked her to send a plastic one-inch QR code over.

In today's society, was there anything more convenient than a QR code scan?

This QR code was connected to the backstage lucky draw system. After setting up a scan, a one-time winning message could pop up.

In other words, if Red Hair chose a tourist and let the other party scan the QR code, there would be winning information inside that could be exchanged for prizes.

Furthermore, this QR code could only be scanned once and was set to be updated once a day.

Zhao Moqing came over with a plastic one-inch QR code and asked curiously, "Hubby, what do you want this for?"

"Let Red Hair send a surprise to the tourists." Qin Lin took the plastic one-inch QR code and scanned it into the backstage lucky draw program. He set the reward for the scan: 400 yuan per catty of special quality okra.

It was also a catty of Quality 2 okra.

Then, Qin Lin drilled a hole in the plastic at the edge of the QR code and hung it on Red Hair's neck through the rope. He said seriously, "There's a gift in here. Choose a couple holding hands and let them scan it with their phones. Do you understand?"

As Qin Lin spoke, he even demonstrated on the QR code Red Hair was carrying.

"Uh!" When Zhao Moqing saw this scene, she asked in surprise, "Hubby, are you asking Red Hair to choose a tourist couple to give a gift? Isn't this nonsense? No matter how smart the little guy is, it won't understand what you mean, right? Does it know what a couple is?"

"Squeak, squeak!" Red Hair suddenly called out to Zhao Moqing as if it was refuting her. Then, it scurried out of the office.

This stunned Zhao Moqing. "What does Red Hair mean? Does it understand?"

Red Hair, however, was already outside. He scurried up the hall beam and looked seriously at the tourists coming and going, as if searching for his target.

In the parking lot.

A taxi drove in and Chu Feng got out of it with his wife, Wang Lan.

"Let's go into the villa." Chu Feng held Wang Lan's hand and walked into the villa.

He had received a call from Qin Lin yesterday and made some preparations. Today, he flew over with his wife.

"This is Qinglin Villa. There are so many tourists." Wang Lan looked at the tourists coming and going and said in surprise, "Qin Lin actually created such a place."

“Impressive, right? In the past, I felt that his achievements wouldn’t be small in school.” Chu Feng smiled and said, “Didn’t you want to come to the villa to play long ago? Let’s walk around first before calling Qin Lin.”

“Yes!” Wang Lan nodded.

They were about to leave when they heard squeaking. A cute little squirrel scuttled in front of them.

It was Red Hair.

“It’s a little squirrel from the villa. It’s so cute.” Wang Lan was a woman and was directly attracted to Red Hair. She squatted down and wanted to touch it, but she saw it holding something in its small claws and facing her.

It was a QR code.

This scene stunned Wang Lan and Chu Feng.

A squirrel ran up to them and held up a QR code?

What was going on?

Chapter 317: This Squirrel Is Too Smart! It Even Bragged Like This Before?

“Hubby, what does it mean?” Wang Lan asked Chu Feng in confusion.

“Maybe they want us to scan this QR code.” Chu Feng guessed a possibility.

But did this squirrel know what a QR code was?

But why was it pointing a QR code at them?

In the end, Chu Feng decided to give it a try.

After all, what bad intentions could a squirrel have?

Furthermore, this squirrel was Qin Lin’s.

What Chu Feng did not expect was that when he took out his phone to scan the QR code, the squirrel actually cooperated and handed the QR code forward. Its eyes were filled with anticipation.

Chu Feng was surprised.

This squirrel was too smart.

After scanning the QR code, he was stunned. A small program message popped up on the phone screen: Congratulations on obtaining a catty of a special variety of okra worth 400 yuan.

“???” Chu Feng.

Wang Lan leaned over and was surprised to see the message. “A catty of okra? Is it giving us a gift?”

“Squeak!” Red Hair cried out happily. Clearly, it was very excited to succeed in using the interactive skill for the first time. Then, without waiting for Chu Feng and his wife to react, it turned around and left.

Chu Feng and Wang Lan looked at the information about the okra in a daze.

“Can I collect this?” Wang Lan asked.

“It should be possible, right?” Chu Feng said.

Wang Lan suggested, “Why don’t we call Qin Lin and ask him directly?”

“Okay.” Chu Feng nodded and took out his phone.

400 yuan was nothing to the couple, but this was a gift from a squirrel. It was a very different experience for them.

Now, they could not care less about touring the villa and enjoying the scenery.

In the office.

Zhao Moqing also looked at the program on Qin Lin’s computer in surprise. “Qin Lin, was this thing really given away by Red Hair? Isn’t it too smart?”

She knew Red Hair was different from the other squirrels. He was more agile and smarter than the others, but this was too smart.

Qin Lin smiled and said, “In the future, you can refresh a gift every day. Discount roll, free set meal, watermelon, egg, and so on. This way, it might be very interesting over time.”

As he spoke, his phone rang.

When Qin Lin saw the number, he immediately picked it up. “Hello, Senior Brother Chu. You’re already here. Okay, I’ll come out to pick you up.”

“Senior Brother Chu is here?” Zhao Moqing naturally knew that Chu Feng was coming.

Yesterday, Qin Lin had told her about the county’s matters. Now, he was going to sign a legal contract with Senior Brother Chu.

Qin Lin brought Zhao Moqing out of the office and quickly saw Chu Feng and Wang Lan.

“Senior Brother Chu, Senior Sister Wang Lan.” Qin Lin immediately brought Zhao Moqing forward to greet them.

When Chu Feng saw him, he said to Qin Lin with a sigh, “Qin Lin, you’ve only graduated for more than a year, but you’ve already created such a big career. You’re going to make us senior brothers and sisters feel ashamed.”

Qin Lin smiled and said, “It’s just a small matter. I don’t know why it started.”

“Small matter? Can I understand that you’re in Versailles?” Chu Feng asked teasingly. He wanted to take over Qin Lin’s legal business, so he had naturally investigated the situation of Qin Lin’s industry before coming.

Qinglin Villa and Qinglin Food Company were not small fry.

According to the statistics online, the number of daily customers in Qinglin Villa had already steadily reached 3,000. This figure was one of the top in scenic spots 4A.

Although Qinglin Villa did not have a rating yet, the villa was beside Youcheng County. More than a million customers a year would definitely promote the economy of a county city.

Youcheng County would definitely push for the application for the 4A scenic spot. In other words, 4A scenic spot was nailed to the board of Qinglin Villa.

A university student who had just graduated a year ago had created a 4A scenic spot by himself. Could one imagine how legendary this was?

He could even make a movie and be a role model for modern youth entrepreneurship, okay?

Furthermore, there was also Qinglin Ketchup. This product had too much potential and had already occupied a large market. It had a chance to become one of the top 10 brands.

Just based on this alone, the career Qin Lin had created was definitely not a small one. He was also a high-quality client in their Power Law Firm. In a few years, perhaps the senior partners of those lawyers would want to snatch such a client.

Wang Lan sighed with emotion. "Qin Lin, when Chu Feng and I graduated and had a meal, I remember you saying that you studied tourism management because you liked beautiful scenery. You wanted to create your own scenery one day. At that time, I thought you were painting your dream, but I didn't expect you to realize it so quickly."

"What? Did I say that at that time?" Qin Lin asked Zhao Moqing in surprise.

"I forgot. Maybe?" Zhao Moqing thought about it and seemed to remember.

At that time, a few senior brothers and sisters in the club had graduated, and everyone inevitably drank some wine. She did not remember some things clearly.

"Yes." However, Wang Lan said firmly, "Don't forget that I studied photography. At that time, I took a camera to film as a souvenir. I even sent the video to my personal network. Wait a moment, I'll find the video."

As Wang Lan spoke, she really took out her phone and started working. A moment later, she found a video.

The video was of Chu Feng, Wang Lan, and a few senior brothers and sisters graduating.

Wang Lan adjusted the video and Qin Lin appeared.

He was younger then. He seemed to have drunk a lot and said a lot. There really was that sentence about wanting to create his own scenery.

Chapter 318: This Squirrel Is Too Smart! It Even Bragged Like This Before?

Qin Lin had no impression of it at all. At that time, he seemed to be in a bad mood because of the situation at home. Coupled with the fact that his senior brothers and sisters had graduated, he was so frustrated and worried about him and Zhao Moqing. He wanted to stop drinking to relieve his worries.

Chu Feng smiled and said, "Buddy, you've realized the bragging you've done before. I think the school should invite you to be an outstanding alumni speaker. If you play this video, you'll become an alumni legend."

Qin Lin was not interested in the alumni speech, but he felt that it would be interesting to keep this video for five or 10 years.

Then, he invited Chu Feng and Wang Lan to his office and even asked Gao Yaoyao to arrange a bridal chamber for them.

After Chu Feng sat down, he took out his phone and said, "Qin Lin, your villa's little squirrel is too smart. It actually lets me scan it with a QR code. Is it giving something away? Can I collect the gift?"

"Red Hair gave it to you?" Zhao Moqing was surprised.

Wasn't this too much of a coincidence?

Qin Lin was naturally not stingy with a catty of Quality 2 okra. At night, not only the okra, but also the Quality 2 fish, eel, and Quality 1 egg were prepared. He got Master Lin to make them to entertain them.

This meal naturally surprised Chu Feng and his wife again.

They had eaten many delicacies, including Michelin restaurants, old Chinese restaurants, and so on, but this was clearly the first time the couple had tasted Quality 2 delicious food.

After entertaining Chu Feng, the two parties began to talk about the legal business. After all, this was a serious matter.

The company's legal business would vary according to the size of the company, the level of the lawyer, and the size of the law firm. The price would range from 30,000 yuan to tens of millions yuan a year.

With the scale of his Qinglin Villa and Qinglin Food Company, the legal business was contracted to Power Law Firm. Furthermore, a senior lawyer like Senior Brother Chu was a legal consultant for 500,000 yuan a year.

If Power Law Firm's senior partner was a legal consultant all year round, the price would increase by four times.

This price was also expected.

After signing the commission contract, Qin Lin also told Chu Feng about the cooperation of the county plantation. This was also something he immediately needed the other party to help deal with.

When the time came, he would have to draw up a contract with the plantation owner chosen by the county. Chu Feng would definitely have to worry about the restrictions, rights, and defense mechanisms.

After all, this kind of cooperation had to be dominant.

At night.

Qin Lin returned to his office and looked at the screen in his mind again. He controlled his game character to continue mining and created two more vintage wine bottles. Then, he filled the 10 bottles with the first batch of Qinglin Medicine Wine.

These 10 bottles of wine were 40 years old.

After that, 50-year and 60-year-old wine would also be produced.

After taking the 10 bottles of wine out of the game, he placed them in the small cabinet on the left of his desk. There was no place to put the wine for the time being, so he could only make do with it.

These wines were completely precious. It was useless no matter how rich one was. It all depended on his mood.

The next day.

The bridal chamber.

Chu Feng woke up feeling refreshed early in the morning. "The Internet is saying how good this sandalwood incense powder is for sleeping. I only know after experiencing it myself. I slept so comfortably."

"Yes, the effect of the Beauty Egg is also very good." Wang Lan also looked at her face in the mirror beside her.

Last night, Qin Lin had prepared a small Beauty Egg for her. When she woke up today, she clearly realized that her face was even more moisturized than after a beauty treatment.

Chu Feng did not forget his business. After getting up, he began to organize the information.

At noon, Qin Lin called Deng Guang over from the food company and introduced Chu Feng to him. "Old Deng, this is a senior from my university, a senior lawyer from Power Law Firm . From now on, he will be in charge of the legal business of our Qinglin Villa and Qinglin Food Company. If there are any legal problems with the food company, you can contact Senior Brother Chu first."

With that, he introduced him to Chu Feng. "Senior Brother Chu, this is the general manager of my food company, Deng Guang. He's also in charge of Qinglin Ketchup. This time, other than asking you to come over to cooperate with the planting, I also want you to help draw up an option reward document that the food company has legal protection."

Deng Guang's eyes lit up when he heard this.

He naturally knew what an option reward was. In a small place like Youcheng County, he had never thought about it. In his mind, such a thing was too far away.

He did not expect President Qin to plan to award options in the food company. As the general manager, he would definitely be a member of the reward.

This suddenly made him feel motivated.

Although he could not get the option reward immediately, he knew how much potential Qinglin Ketchup had. The value of this option reward must be very high.

Qin Lin naturally said it on purpose for Deng Guang to hear.

Firstly, Deng Guang had really done a good job.

Secondly, once a company developed, if it wanted to operate benignly and wanted the higher-ups to be devoted, options rewards were inevitable.

“President Deng, let’s leave our contact details later. Let’s meet again in the future.” Chu Feng smiled and shook hands with Deng Guang.

Deng Guang also replied, “Lawyer Chu, sorry to trouble you in the future.”

Chu Feng was very efficient. In just a day, a planting contract was drawn up. As for the option reward document, it was not something that could be done in a short period of time. It still had to be considered by many factors such as the development trend of the food company and its future potential.

After the planting contract was completed, Qin Lin informed Chen Li.

The next day.

Qin Lin brought Chu Feng and Deng Guang to the county.

Deng Guang drove a Mercedes-Benz business car. He had gotten Zhao Moqing to approve the payment a year ago. After all, he was the general manager of the food company. Now that the food company was not small in Youcheng County, Deng Guang needed a decent car when he went out.

“Boss Qin, President Deng, we’re waiting for you.” Chen Li had long been waiting with the person-in-charge of the relevant departments. It was obvious how important this matter was to the county.

Qin Lin and the other two were welcomed to a hall. There were already many people waiting inside, including Qin Long. Clearly, he was the plantation owner chosen by the county.

These people also looked at Chen Li, Qin Lin, and the others immediately. When they knew that the people from Qinglin Food Company had arrived, their faces were filled with anticipation.

The thing they were most afraid of as planters was the sale of agricultural products. After Qinglin Ketchup became popular, they had thought of planting tomatoes to sell to Qinglin Food Company.

However, they did not have any connections. Now that the county was taking the lead and expanding the support fund, this was a big opportunity for them.

The main purpose of coming today was to understand the relevant terms and the contract requirements of Qinglin Food Company.

As long as Qinglin Food Company’s conditions were not too harsh, they would definitely not hesitate.

Qin Lin naturally did not have to appear for this specific matter. He could just get Deng Guang and Chu Feng to appear.

The county only sent Zhong Lei to contact a department director.

Chen Li invited Qin Lin to his office.

This scene was naturally seen by the plantation owners. Because Chen Li was in charge of the deputy county, they could naturally guess Qin Lin's identity.

Only the boss of Qinglin Villa could receive him personally. He did not expect the boss of Qinglin Villa to be so young.

When everything was settled, it was already noon. All the plantation owners had decisively signed with Qinglin Food Company. Although Qinglin Food Company had many contract terms, they did not squeeze them on the price. As the county had said, they would go at the normal market price.

Agricultural products were difficult to produce now. To them, this market price guarantee was enough.

It was also equivalent to saying that Qinglin Food Company would soon have cooperative tomato plantations in all the towns in Youcheng County.

Many farmers would find jobs in this chain of tomato raw materials. The county had also resolved some employment problems. Qinglin Food Company had resolved the problem of raw materials, and the plantation owner could expand and not worry about sales.

This was a benign and winning cooperation.

At noon, Qin Lin was also invited by Chen Li. He had a meal with the plantation owners in the county government cafeteria before bringing Chu Feng back to the villa.

In the car, Chu Feng sighed with emotion. "Qin Lin, it seems that the officials of Youcheng County value you more than I expected. The contract terms I wrote for you are a little conservative, especially the attitudes of those plantation owners. I think they will sign the contract even if it's stricter."

Qin Lin smiled and said, "It's already the best outcome if we win more like this. After all, we can't earn all the money."

Chu Feng sighed again. "Qin Lin, your words are very high-level. Perhaps this is one of the reasons why Youcheng County's officials value you so much."

Chapter 319: Walking Into A Trap? Need 100-Year-Old Ginseng?

When Qin Lin returned to the villa, he heard two girls' surprised cries as he passed by the hall with Chu Feng.

"It's so cute."

"Yes, this little squirrel's tail is too big."

Qin Lin looked over and saw Red Hair squeaking at the two girls, its claws still grabbing the QR code on its neck.

When Chu Feng saw this scene, he knew what was going on.

Qin Lin's squirrel was giving gifts again.

However, the two girls did not seem to be focused on the QR code Red Hair was holding. They kept taking photos of Red Hair with their phones.

"Squeak!"

Red Hair barked impatiently at the girls' phones, its claws still waving the QR code anxiously.

The two girls were even more surprised to see Red Hair anxious.

"It must like us. It keeps squeaking at us."

"Send a video later. This is a day to be liked by the little squirrel."

Seeing that the two girls were still not scanning with their phones, Red Hair was annoyed and stopped squeaking.

Perhaps in its eyes, these two women might be blind.

At this moment, a young man passing by also took a video with his phone and said in surprise, "This squirrel seems to be holding a QR code."

The two girls Red Hair had approached had also noticed the QR code.

"Really! It's holding a QR code."

"The little squirrel keeps squeaking. Don't tell me it wants us to scan the QR code?"

This seemed unbelievable.

But one of the girls still squatted down with her phone and tried to scan the QR code Red Hair was holding.

"Squeak!" Red Hair barked at her this time and turned to leave. It did not let her scan the QR code, leaving the girl dumbfounded.

Why was she suddenly despised?

Didn't this little squirrel keep squeaking just now and even liked her a lot?

Red Hair was already running toward the young man passing by. It began to call the QR code to the young man passing by.

The young man watched in shock.

He did not expect to be found by this little squirrel.

Was it because he had said something when he saw the QR code?

Looking at the little squirrel holding up the QR code, the little brother was eager to try for some reason.

Could this little squirrel be looking for him for a red packet?

What a surprise.

He took out his phone and scanned the QR code with WeChat. A small program message popped up on his phone screen: Congratulations on obtaining two small Beauty Eggs. Please go to the front desk in the hall to collect them.

The young man was stunned when he saw the notification. "Ah, two little Beauty Eggs. Can I collect them?"

Qinglin Villa's Beauty Eggs were too popular. His girlfriend was here for them. Unfortunately, Qinglin Villa only provided some small Beauty Eggs. As soon as they were placed on the market, they were all bought. He woke up late and was still angry at him for not being able to buy his girlfriend. At this moment, he did not know where they had gone.

However, he did not expect to receive this notification when he scanned the QR code that the little squirrel was holding.

"Squeak! Squeak!" Red Hair cried out happily when it saw that it had succeeded in finding another lucky person today.

The two girls beside him were completely dumbfounded. They could receive two Beauty Eggs from scanning the little squirrel's QR code?

What had they missed?

The two girls immediately wanted to scan the QR code, but Red Hair had already fled and disappeared.

The young man passing by could not wait to walk to the front desk of the hall at the side. He handed the phone to the waiter and asked, "Can I really collect this?"

The waiter had already been instructed by Zhao Moqing. When he saw this message, he immediately said with a smile, "Sir, the little squirrel, Red Hair, will give visitors a gift every day. Congratulations on being the lucky one today. You can receive the gift that the little squirrel, Red Hair, sent here."

With that, the waiter took out a wrapped translucent gift box from under the table. There was a pattern of small squirrels on it. Inside the gift box were two Beauty Eggs.

This was Zhao Moqing's doing.

"I can really collect it." The young man was surprised.

Was there such a surprise in Qinglin Villa?

Then, his face was filled with excitement. With these two Beauty Eggs, his girlfriend shouldn't be angry anymore, right? He could even do it twice with her at night, right?

The two girls Red Hair had found in the beginning were already full of resentment.

These two Beauty Eggs should be theirs.

...

Qin Lin brought Chu Feng back to the original hall and realized that Zhao Moqing and Wang Lan were also inside.

When Wang Lan saw Chu Feng return, she stood up and said, "Hubby, let's go drift tomorrow? I've never played before."

Chu Feng nodded. "Yes, I haven't drifted in a long time."

Qin Lin walked over and sat beside Zhao Moqing. He saw a waiter leading a man with glasses over. "Boss, this gentleman said that he's the producer of some show and has been asking to see you."

Producer of a show? What was that?

Qin Lin looked at the bespectacled man in confusion.

The bespectacled man also handed a business card to Qin Lin and said with a smile, "I'm Zhang Tao, the producer of Haixin Entertainment."

Haixin Entertainment?

Qin Lin did not pay attention to the entertainment industry, but he really knew this entertainment company because its reputation was too bad. Four of the 10 worst variety shows were created by this company and a few small television stations.

The worst and most corrupted program was a show where celebrities went to a vegetarian's house to eat. All of them felt that they were celebrities and were putting on airs as if they were big shots.

Chapter 320: Walking Into A Trap? Need 100-Year-Old Ginseng?

The celebrities on the show really felt that they were above everyone else. Ordinary people did not know each other, but they actually questioned each other arrogantly, as if they really had to know them. Otherwise, they would be cut off from the world.

Especially when two certain celebrities went to an ordinary person's house and rang the doorbell. When the other party rejected them, the two of them simply acted as if they were celebrities here to eat, and the ordinary people should not be so dumb to reject them.

To be honest, that show was really disgusting to the extreme. Qin Lin only found out because this variety show was trending.

It was obvious that the company that could create such a core value variety show had a bad reputation.

Naturally, most of the celebrities who could participate in such a variety show would not be popular. They needed to be sensational.

"Mr. Zhang, what can I do for you?" Although Qin Lin did not like this line of people, he still asked politely.

Zhang Tao smiled and said, "Recently, our company is collaborating with an online station to create a variety show about the animal world. We want to borrow Qinglin Villa's Big White. During this period, many famous celebrities will interact with the villa's Big White. Naturally, in return, we will also mention Qinglin Villa in the show."

When Zhang Tao spoke, he was all smiles and looked very confident.

He knew that it was difficult for ordinary people to resist the temptation of celebrities. Even if one did not chase after celebrities, they would be excited if a celebrity really appeared in front of them.

With the attraction of a celebrity, it shouldn't be difficult to borrow a duck.

"Uh!" Qin Lin frowned and said politely, "Um, Mr. Zhang, I'm really sorry. Our villa won't lend Big White out."

Although he knew that there would be messy people coming after the Beauty Egg and Big White after it became popular, he did not expect someone to appear so quickly.

It was still this notorious entertainment company.

When Zhang Tao saw that Qin Lin had rejected him, he was stunned for a moment. He hurriedly added, "Sir, don't be in a hurry to refuse. We can also get celebrities to visit Qinglin Villa. This will definitely promote Qinglin Villa."

"..." Qin Lin was really helpless. He could only continue, "Mr. Zhang, I've made it very clear that we won't lend it out. Moreover, our villa's projects are limiting the flow of people. We don't need the celebrity you're talking about to help promote it."

He finally understood why this company could create that notorious show. It was indeed difficult to communicate with them if they kept emphasizing on celebrities.

Beside him, Chu Feng shook his head. Why would some people take celebrities so seriously? Did they think that celebrities were very attractive?

Was he stupid? No. It was just a matter of perception and values, because more stupid people fell for their tricks.

After all, in the other party's industry, there were indeed too many people wrapping their toes around celebrities. A celebrity's identity would be praised. After all, in this era, even the toes of Internet celebrities were under scrutiny. With a celebrity supporting them, they would feel very proud if they went on the hot search because of the celebrity.

However, this kind of fool was only a small prick. It did not work in front of everyone.

Unfortunately, these people had only interacted with that small group of people in their own lives. They had long been floating in the sky because of this small group of people. They could not figure out what was going on and thought that everyone was so stupid.

"Senior Brother Chu, let's go to the office to make tea!" Qin Lin also invited Chu Feng, not wanting to waste any more time with Zhang Tao.

Chu Feng nodded and followed Qin Lin out of the original hall, leaving Zhang Tao with an awkward expression.

Indeed, it was awkward.

This was the first time Zhang Tao had encountered such a thing. In the past, even when he mentioned some celebrities, they would be infatuated.

However, now that he was rejected, he had no choice but to leave and enter a car in the parking lot.

A man was already waiting in the car. When he saw Zhang Tao enter, he asked, "How is it? Qinglin Villa has agreed to lend you the duck?"

Zhang Tao said with a dark expression, "The other party didn't agree."

The man in the car said, "Zhang Tao, is this what you call confidence? My money isn't so easy to get. If you take the money, you have to help me get the duck."

"Just prepare the rest of the money. I have plenty of ways." Zhang Tao's face was dark.

He naturally did not borrow the duck just for the production team. The reason why he used this excuse was none other than that it was easier to fool people. His real goal was that the other party had taken a fancy to the duck from Qinglin Villa.

As long as he borrowed the duck, it would be easy. If he used ordinary duck fertilization to get the egg, he could either find an excuse that the duck was dead and at most compensate Qinglin Villa with some money.

These tricks were also common in the entertainment industry. For example, the treasure inspection program has played this trick many times.

However, he did not expect to return empty-handed.

But there was something he could do. He found a box in the car and took something out.

"What's this?" the guy in the car asked.

Zhang Tao explained, "It's a miniature camera. I've already booked a bridal chamber in Qinglin Villa. I'll bring this WeChat camera into the bridal chamber. Help me record it remotely from here."

"When the time comes, I'll deliberately take a shower and take off my clothes to make this camera take some indecent actions. I'll upload the video online and say that Qinglin Villa is at risk of being secretly filmed to create public opinion. I can also sue Qinglin Villa as a victim."
