

The Game 33

Chapter 33: I've Learned It! We're Together!

The next day.

Qin Lin received a call from Qin Ren, telling him that the promotional video and promotional photos had been completed.

He went to Qin Ren's studio immediately.

"Lin Zi, watch it yourself. We'll change it if you're dissatisfied." Qin Ren played the promotional video for Qin Lin.

Qin Lin was still very satisfied with the promotional video. Qin Ren's studio had clearly put in a lot of effort. He had also decisively paid the studio to not make things difficult for Qin Ren in front of his partners.

After leaving, he had to consider publicity.

Firstly, he had to attract the locals of Youcheng County before thinking of a way to attract more tourists.

Therefore, he went straight to RT-Mart.

In Youcheng County, advertising was not done at the television station. Almost no one watched Youcheng County TV. Or rather, no one watched satellite TV that was not popular in this era.

However, there was a place in Youcheng County that most people could see.

It was the open-air screen of the Eastern Business Square. This screen had been rented by the big hair salon on the square's first floor for many years and was used to repeatedly play the merchandise introduction and big hair advertisements.

The Eastern Mountain Commercial Square was the center of Youcheng County. It was where they ate, drank, and ate.

If he could upload the promotional video of his sea of flowers, most people in Youcheng County would be able to see it.

When he arrived, Qin Lin went straight to Manager Chen's office, wanting to settle this matter through Manager Chen's connections.

At this moment...

Manager Chen also handed tea to a middle-aged man respectfully in the office. "President Chu, I have no choice. The other party only gave me 2.5 kilograms of this special-quality okra. I've already distributed 3 catties to you."

Of course, Manager Chen did not dare to say that it was 10 catties. President Chu was the person in charge of Youcheng County and Sand City's RT-Mart. He had the final say. The other party was also the brother-in-law of a director in the headquarters. As soon as he said it, the other party would definitely want it. He could not refuse to give it to him.

This was a sacred item for men. It concerned their sexual happiness.

“Can you beg him to think of a way?” President Chu asked with a frown. At his age, a man wanted to play with little white rabbits outside and had to take good care of his family. He really did not have the strength to do so, and that special okra was really awesome. The effect was obvious.

Manager Chen said helplessly, “President Chu, I’ve been urging him too, but this is not a matter of money. The other party said that it’s really little.”

When President Chu heard this, he could not help but feel frustrated.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

Manager Chen got up and opened the door. When he saw that it was Qin Lin, his face was filled with enthusiasm. “President Qin, why are you here so early today?”

Qin Lin smiled and said, “Manager Chen, I want to ask you a favor today. Isn’t the open-air video at the Eastern Business Square always rented by your RT-Mart? I want to advertise. Can you help me ask if RT-Mart can rent some time to me every day?”

“President Chu, he is...” Manager Chen immediately looked at President Chu and wanted to introduce Qin Lin. President Chu could also make the decision on this matter.

President Chu was in a bad mood now. He interrupted Manager Chen and said unhappily, “Manager Chen, do you think our company lacks that little money and needs to rent a company during the advertisement time? We can’t possibly rent it.”

When Manager Chen heard this, he knew that he was in trouble.

The okra was still counting on someone else.

He hurriedly said, “President Chu, President Qin is the one who provided the okra.”

“???” President Chu was stunned for a moment.

What the f*ck...

The next moment, he smiled and went forward to hold Qin Lin’s hand. “President Qin, hello, hello. We can’t sublet during the advertisement time. We’re not short of that money, but as happy friends, we can give you some free time every day.”

“???” Manager Chen had learned something!

Qin Lin was a little surprised to hear this.

When he came, he was still thinking about how much money he needed to rent some outdoor videos in the commercial square. He did not expect the other party to give them away for free.

However, he also knew that others would not suddenly give him benefits for no reason. They must have a request.

At this moment, President Chu asked, "President Qin, what advertisement are you going to broadcast? I want to plan a suitable time for you."

Clearly, this was a thoughtful service.

Qin Lin explained, "President Chu, I recently built a villa and a triangular plum blossom sea. I want to advertise it."

President Chu immediately said, "President Qin, then from 7:30 to 8:30, this is one of the most crowded times. For the next week, I'll give you this hour for free."

"Thank you, President Chu." Qin Lin immediately thanked him.

He also knew that President Chu must have a motive and was waiting for him to speak.

President Chu smiled and said, "President Qin, the okra you sold to Manager Chen previously is really good. I want to buy some too."

Qin Lin knew President Chu's motive now.

No wonder.

Qin Lin immediately smiled and said, "President Chu, how can I let you buy this? I'll deliver 10 catties to you in the evening."

"Thank you so much, President Qin!" President Chu smiled in satisfaction. Then, he suddenly asked, "President Qin, actually, I'm also in charge of the big RT-Mart in Sand City. It's even on the first floor of the Wanda Plaza over there. There's also a big advertising screen. If you need it, I can also send President Qin some time to advertise. President Qin, remember me as a friend if you have such special okra in the future."

Qin Lin's eyes lit up as he said, "President Chu, I can think of another way regarding the okra. When the time comes, I'll send 10 catties to you."

Actually, he had already left a lot of Quality 2 okra in his space over the past month. It would not rot in the game, and he was not in a hurry to deal with it.

However, he still understood the logic of being a rare commodity.

"Then I'll have to trouble you, President Qin." President Chu was instantly filled with a smile. After all, it was really difficult to go home and satisfy his wife after he was done playing outside.

His body could not handle it.

Manager Chen looked at the two of them chatting happily and felt a little bitter.

This special quality okra had been sold to President Chu. What should he do?

When Qin Lin left, he handed the promotional video to President Chu. The other party would arrange it. In the evening, when he sent the mature okra to the RT-Mart, he also sent 10 catties of Quality 2 okra over.

President Chu had been waiting for a long time. When he received the okra, he even treated Qin Lin to dinner very enthusiastically. Clearly, he was more tactful than Manager Chen.

President Chu had mentioned many times that the advertisement video would be released on time at 7:30. Qin Linye had promised many times that he would get the okra as soon as possible.

This made President Chu very happy.

When Qin Lin returned home, it was already past seven.

Now that everything was settled, he was just waiting for the villa to open.

After taking a shower, Qin Lin took out his phone and called Zhao Moqing.

It was time to tell Zhao Moqing about the surprise at the villa.

The call went through quickly.

Qin Lin said immediately, "Moqing, I want to tell you something. Didn't I tell you that I built a villa?"

Zhao Moqing snorted. "Qin Lin, you're finally willing to tell me? Auntie told me long ago. I was waiting to see how long you would hide it from me."

Qin Lin said awkwardly, "Moqing, well, I didn't mean to hide it from you. I just wanted to give you a surprise."

"Surprise? You didn't even discuss it with me!" Zhao Moqing expressed her dissatisfaction again and asked, "Are you afraid that I won't support your entrepreneurship? Am I such an unreasonable person?"

Qin Lin immediately apologized. "Of course not. I'll apologize, okay?"

Zhao Moqing then said in satisfaction, "That's more like it. Qin Lin, don't hide anything from me in the future. Also, what can you do with your tens of thousands? I still have 50,000 yuan here. If you need me to transfer it to you, I'll support you if you want to start a business."

These words made Qin Lin's heart feel a warm current. However, Zhao Mosheng was clearly misled by his mother's previous words. Qinglin Villa was not a farmhouse that cost tens of thousands.

Qin Lin smiled and said, "The villa will open tomorrow."

"Then I'll take a leave tomorrow!" Zhao Moqing immediately said. As the lady boss, even if Qin Lin's farmhouse was small, she had to be there. After saying this, she said, "Alright, I won't talk to you anymore. I'm shopping with Sister-in-law."

On the other hand, Zhao Moqing hung up the phone and walked toward the Eastern Business Square with Li Jiawen.

Li Jiawen looked at her sister-in-law and sighed. "I've never seen a girl as silly as you. You even want to use your money to start a business for your boyfriend?"

"Sister-in-law, help me keep it a secret!" Zhao Moqing said hurriedly.

Was she giving it to her boyfriend? It was for her husband. She and Qin Lin had already secretly registered their marriage.

“You!” Li Jiawen shook her head.

At this moment, the two women suddenly heard a few exclamations.

“Look at the outdoor video in the square. It’s so beautiful!”

“Where is this sea of flowers?”

More and more people in the square looked up and were stunned when they saw the sea of flowers. The gorgeous and poetic video was too attractive.

The sea of flowers was so beautiful!
