

The Game 37

Chapter 37: Surprise Tourist! This Sea of Flowers is in My Old Home! 1

Chen Shengfei was confident that he had eaten all kinds of imported and special strawberries, but at the price of 200 yuan a catty, no strawberry could taste as good as what he was eating now.

This 200 yuan a catty seemed to be cheap.

It was really delicious!

With this in mind, he picked up another strawberry and ate it one by one.

Suddenly, Chen Shengfei realized that a fishing rod was moving. He hurriedly picked up the fishing rod and pulled the line. Immediately, a fish was caught.

"It's really wild fish." Chen Shengfei recognized it and revealed a surprised expression.

Soon, he caught a few more fish. They were all wild fish. This made him slowly believe the waiter's words.

However, he put these fish back. He wanted to catch a big fish.

As time passed, the villa slowly became lively.

Several groups of people arrived one after another. They were all attracted by the promotional video in the Eastern Business Square.

Gao Yaoyao had just received two waves of tourists with the waiter when two more waves of people came.

"Guests, Qinglin Villa welcomes you..."

Gao Yaoyao welcomed the guests with a smile and brought them to the ticket office.

The final price of the sea of flowers was set at 50 yuan. After all, the goal of the sea of flowers was to attract tourists. 100 yuan was still too high.

In the hall, Lin Fen looked at the increasing number of tourists with a happy expression. She only knew that with so many guests, her son's business would definitely be good.

"There are already 37 people." Zhao Moqing was calculating and said to Qin Lin, "Each person paid 50 yuan for the sea of flowers tickets, so in total, we have earned 1,850 yuan. Some of these people will definitely eat here and buy some fruits. We can earn even more."

Naturally, she did not know that it would be more than she had imagined. After all, with some seeds, the okra, strawberries, and other things Qin Lin brought out would be sold without cost.

"This is just the beginning. More people will come today." Qin Lin smiled and said, "In the future, there will be people from Sand City coming over. We'll think of a way to advertise in the city and promote it online. There will be more people. Perhaps my sea of flowers will even become an Internet celebrity attraction.”

“Hmph, isn’t it a good idea to build a triangular sea of flowers?” Zhao Moqing looked at Qin Lin’s confident expression and inexplicably wanted to be proud.

“Of course. I’ll reward you with a kiss.” Qin Lin smiled and kissed Zhao Moqing’s mouth.

“Woof!” The dog beside them barked and jumped at their feet. It watched the two of them flirt as if it wanted to participate.

Gao Yaoyao had already brought the new group of people to the ticket office of the sea of flowers.

“Guests, you can queue in the ticket office to buy tickets and enter the sea of flowers to watch.”

When the tourists heard this, they lined up in front of the ticket hall.

Chen Xue was a university student in the photography department. Her hobby was traveling around and filming some fun and interesting videos. This time, when she came back from work, she was attracted by the promotional video of Eastern Business Square.

She did not expect such a beautiful sea of flowers to appear in her hometown, so she decisively came to investigate.

When Chen Xue bought the tickets, she realized that there were pine nuts sold in the ticket hall. She thought of the squirrels in the promotional video and immediately bought a pack of pine nuts. There were not many of them, but the price was 10 yuan.

However, when she thought of those squirrels, she still bought them.

Chen Xue followed the others into the sea of flowers to check their tickets. The tickets were taken away by another waiter at the entrance. She was even reminded seriously not to hurt the small animals.

The sea of flowers did not surprise her much in the beginning. The surrounding triangular plum varieties were not much different from the ones she had seen in the past.

However, she was quickly surprised. The triangular plums around her began to give her a pleasant surprise. They were very beautiful and attractive, making her take out her phone to take photos.

As she walked forward, she was filled with surprise. Chen Xue was quickly attracted by the colorful triangular plum in front of her.

The pleasing feeling was even deeper. It gave people an extremely comfortable feeling and was difficult to describe with words.

This was naturally the effect of being gorgeous +2, ornamental +2, attractive +2, and happy +2.

The attributes of a large number of seven-colored symbiotic triangular plums would definitely make one unable to look away.

The surrounding cries of surprise continued.

“Yes, the triangular plum in this section is clearly more beautiful than the ones outside.”

“...”

Chen Xue agreed with the discussion beside her. This had already exceeded the triangular sea of plum blossoms she had seen in the past. She could not help but take out her phone and start taking photos.

“It’s so beautiful!” Chen Xue took her phone and adjusted it to the best angle to shoot.

She was certain that the beautiful scenery in front of her definitely exceeded all the triangular plum blossoms in the country. Even those sea of flowers that were much larger than this could not compare to the scenery in front of her.

Not only Chen Xue, but the group of tourists who came in with her and the tourists who had come in previously were also attracted. They took photos with their phones and got their companions to take photos. All of them were immersed in the sea of flowers.

After taking two videos, Chen Xue was even more surprised to discover that the videos she took seemed to have improved a lot compared to before. There was actually a feeling of artistic conception. This was a technique that only the masters the teacher had mentioned had.

Clearly, because of the +2 attribute enhancement, the shock effect in her phone video increased.

She naturally knew her skills. The reason she was filming so beautifully now must be because the sea of flowers in front of her was really too beautiful.

When the scenery was too perfect, one could take pleasing video photos without much technology.

This was like a true beauty. Even if one took a photo of the beauty casually, she would still be extremely beautiful. There was no need to angle it or beautify her, let alone photoshop her.

Chen Xue could not help but send the video she had taken to a WeChat group and even sent a message: Sisters, let me share the beautiful scenery.

It was her university dormitory group.

“Ah, Xue Xue, what is this place? It’s so beautiful!”

“Wow, it’s so beautiful. So you took a leave to see the scenery.”

“Xue Xue, you’re a bad person. I want to go too.”

Chen Xue saw her roommates’ reactions and understood. They must be attracted and shocked.

However, when she reached the center, she was shocked.

When she looked at the three four-meter-tall triangular plums in the middle, she was completely attracted to them and could not look away.

She could not describe that beauty and could only subconsciously take photos with her phone.

Gorgeous +3, ornamental +3, and attractive +3 attributes were clearly more shocking.

Chen Xue really could not believe it. It was not only the flowers in front of her, but also the butterflies dancing around the three triangular plums.

There were also many birds chirping on the triangular plum. One could even see a few squirrels jumping on the branches and peeking out from time to time.

The harmonious scene was really too beautiful. It was as if this was a paradise.

Chen Xue thought of something and jogged to the three triangular plums. She took out the pine nuts she had bought previously and placed them on the flower bed. Immediately, a squirrel jumped down and picked up the pine nut.

The key was that the squirrel did not leave and was still looking at the other pine nuts in her hand.

She immediately picked up another one and placed it down. The squirrel immediately picked it up again.

This really surprised her. This squirrel was not afraid of people.

Chen Xue tried to put a pine nut on her shoulder again. To her shock, another squirrel jumped from the tree to her shoulder and grabbed the pine nut.

She picked up a pine nut and placed it in front of the squirrel. The squirrel actually reached out and caught it.

This scene almost melted her young girl's heart, and she even took the opportunity to film.

This scene also attracted the other tourists. They could not help but take photos with their phones.

Many people even regretted not buying pine nuts and immediately ran back to buy them. However, the tickets had been cut by the security guards. If they wanted to go in again, they had to buy more tickets.

But at this moment, no one cared about the 50 yuan ticket.

Chen Xue sent the video behind to the WeChat group again. The group immediately became lively again.

"Xue Xue, you're getting more and more overboard. Tell me where we are now."

"Yes, I want to go too. I want to take a leave too!"

"It's October, but there are still so many butterflies. And the squirrels are so cute."

"Xue Xue, tell me quickly where you are."

"This is a sea of flowers in my hometown." Chen Xue sent a message proudly.

After all, this sea of flowers was really too beautiful. In the future, she could proudly introduce it to her friends and invite them to play.

These words aroused even more dissatisfaction.

"Xue Xue, you're too much. I've known you for two years, but I didn't know your hometown had such a beautiful place."

"That's right. You actually haven't said that you'll bring us to see it. We can't be friends anymore."

“ ... ”

Chen Xue smiled when she saw this message. This sea of flowers did not exist in the past. She would bring her sisters over next time.
