

The Game 381

Chapter 381: Xiangshui Tribute Rice Wine! Find Some SMA Raw Materials Seeds!

Li Kai was a little awkward being stared at by Qin Lin, but he still said to Tang Xiuwan immediately, "Xiuwan, long time no see."

For some reason, Qin Lin thought of Li Kai's reaction previously.

He knew something was wrong.

Tang Xiuwan had already walked into the consultation room with a strange expression. "Yes, long time no see. Senior Brother Li, why are you here? And who are these two?"

Qin Lin was about to introduce himself when Li Kai suddenly pushed him out the door. This puzzled Tang Xiuwan.

When they reached the door, Li Kai whispered to Qin Lin, "Brother Qin, why don't you go back to the villa first? As for the medical room, I'll help you persuade Xiuwan to go to the villa."

"..." Qin Lin was still staring at Li Kai. His gaze clearly expressed one thing: Brother Li, there's something wrong with you.

Li Kai could not stand Qin Lin's gaze and pretended to ignore it.

He walked back into the consulting room and closed the door behind him.

Inside the door, Li Kai looked at Tang Xiuwan and did not know what to say for a moment.

Outside the door, Qin Lin was stunned.

Beside him, Qin Ren also asked in a daze, "Lin Zi, are we going back now?"

"Let's go back first!" Qin Lin took a few more glances at the closed door of the consulting room before leaving the county hospital with Qin Ren.

After that, Qin Ren went to his company.

Qin Lin, on the other hand, returned to the villa. However, thinking that something was wrong with Li Kai, his curiosity burned. He took out his phone and called Li Qing.

As soon as the call went through, Li Qing's voice came through. "Qin Lin, I just arrived at the winery. The batch of Xiangshui Tribute Rice wine has fermented. I'm mixing it."

Qin Lin immediately changed directions and headed to the winery.

Previously, when Li Qing came, he had said that this batch of wine was about to be released. He did not expect it to be so soon.

Unlike when he arrived at the winery previously, a very high wall had already been built around the winery. The sign of the 'Qinglin Winery' made of Quality 1 pear wood was hung at the entrance, and there was a security booth on duty beside it.

After parking the car in the parking lot at the entrance, Qin Lin got out of the car. The security guard on duty came out and greeted respectfully, "Boss."

"You've worked hard." Qin Lin nodded at the other party.

"Not at all. It's my duty," the security guard replied hurriedly with a smile.

There was a saying that went, "A good word can bring warmth in winter." A friendly greeting from the boss clearly made the security guard very happy.

When Qin Lin entered the winery, he saw Master Ma, Li Qing, and the others busy.

There was already a strong wine fragrance in the winery compared to the original wine trough.

This meant that the wine made by the winery was much better than before. However, the winery had no intention of selling the wine now. The first batch had actually been made long ago, but it was still stored in the cellar.

Although many wineries sold new wine, it took more than half a year for the wine cellar to have a preliminary texture.

"Boss is here." Master Ma saw Qin Lin.

"Boss!"

"Boss."

The other old masters also greeted him. They did not forget to urge the young man beside them, "Boss, you're here. What are you waiting for? Say hello."

Those young people were all apprentices who had just been recruited after the New Year.

Just as Qin Lin had said, as long as the salary was right, there was no such thing as not being able to recruit apprentices.

These apprentices basically did not know Qin Lin. It was normal for them to be stunned when they saw their boss being so young.

"Coming." Li Qing had already handed a spoonful of wine to Qin Lin. "I just mixed it. Try it."

Qin Lin took the spoon of wine and took a sip.

He wasn't much of a drinker, but the wine made his eyes light up.

This wine was delicious.

The texture was good. There was none of the spice of the new wine. In addition to the wine fragrance of the old cellar, there was a special mellow fragrance.

The fragrance of the wine and the mellow fragrance was simply classic.

"How is it? The wine brewed from this Xiangshui Tribute Rice is very good, right?" Li Qing asked with a smile and pride.

He had brewed this wine himself.

Qin Lin nodded.

He could roughly guess why this wine was different from other new cocktail parties.

Because this was brewed from Quality 1 Xiangshui Tribute Rice, it must have perfectly inherited the attributes of Quality 1 Xiangshui Tribute Rice. The words 'wine is grain essence' were not unreasonable in a certain sense.

Moreover, other than inheriting the attributes of the Quality 1 Xiangshui Tribute Rice, the wine fragrance produced by the 60-year-old wine cellar also added a lot of color to this wine.

As for whether this was the case, he had to bring some wine into the game to see its attributes.

With that in mind, Qin Lin instructed Master Ma, "Master Ma, fill a jar with this mixed Xiangshui Tribute Rice Wine and the batch of ordinary wine from before. I'll bring it back."

"Okay," Master Ma replied and led his men into action.

Qin Lin looked at Li Qing, who was mixing wine again, and asked curiously, "Old Li, I remember that your uncle doesn't have a girlfriend, right?"

Li Qing looked at Qin Lin in confusion. "Qin Lin, why are you concerned about my uncle's relationship problems? Do you want to introduce him?"

Qin Lin naturally wouldn't say that he was being nosy. He said, "I'm just asking. After all, you're already having a second child. As an uncle, he dropped the ball."

The more he realized that there was something wrong with Li Kai's attitude towards Doctor Tang.

From the way they addressed each other, they should be senior and junior from the same university.

The key was that under normal circumstances, even if they were senior brothers and sisters in university, if they had not seen each other for a long time, their feelings would have faded.

Chapter 382: Xiangshui Tribute Rice Wine! Find Some SMA Raw Materials Seeds!

Brother Li's attitude was a little off. He was about to meet the other party alone and asked him to leave as soon as the door was closed.

But that shouldn't be.

Dr. Tang had a child and had just gotten a divorce.

Could it be that Brother Li was good at this?

However, on careful thought, although Dr. Tang was not beautiful, he still had a special temperament. That gentle and graceful feeling should be the type that many men liked.

The key was that a woman's identity as someone's wife could easily arouse his desire to be the prime minister.

Li Qing sighed and said, "I don't know what's wrong with my uncle. In any case, he's already so old. His family has arranged many blind dates. The blind dates are all fair, rich, and beautiful in the eyes of ordinary people. He wasn't interested in them at all. After knowing the women for a few days, he found them boring, so he stopped contacting them."

"I once thought that he was interested in men. Look, he keeps staying at your place. It seems like your food is delicious and the wine is good. It might also be that my uncle is interested in you. Qin Lin, be careful."

Qin Lin knew that Li Qing was joking. He shook his head and said, "Just make it up. Aren't you afraid that your uncle will hear these words?"

"Do you think I'm afraid of him? If he's so capable, he can find a girlfriend," Li Qing said nonchalantly. Then he picked up a spoon of the wine brewed by Xiangshui Tribute Rice and drank it.

Qin Lin thought of Dr. Tang and subconsciously asked, "Old Li, did you not understand what kind of person he likes when you arranged blind dates for him in the past? Why don't you change your thinking? For example, he might like someone with a child, the kind that got a divorce?"

"Pfft!" When Li Qing heard this, he choked on his wine. Then, two lines of wine sprayed out of his nose.

"Cough, cough!" Li Qing coughed until tears fell. After a while, he wiped them away and said, "Qin Lin, what's wrong with your brain? How is this possible?"

"Ha!" Qin Lin was silent.

But who could possibly know?

Anyway, something was wrong.

Master Ma quickly sealed the two jars of wine Qin Lin wanted and carried them to the car.

"Are you going back or staying in the winery?" Qin Lin asked Li Qing.

"I'll go back when this batch of wine is in the cellar," Li Qing said.

Qin Lin nodded and got into the car. Just as he was about to drive, he remembered that he had taken a sip of wine and couldn't drive.

He immediately found a security guard who could drive and asked him to drive him back to the villa.

When he arrived at the villa, he moved the two jars of wine back to his office.

He put down the wine and locked the office. He entered the game with two jars of wine and saw the note for both wines:

[Qinglin Wine: Quality 1]

[This is a wine brewed by Qinglin Brewery. Because it's white wine brewed from a 60-year-old wine cellar, it produces a +1 wine fragrance. As the cellar is stored longer, it will increase the taste and wine fragrance.]

This was a new wine made from ordinary materials by Master Ma and the others. Compared to the wine made from ordinary wine cellars, the new wine made from the 60-year-old wine cellar had a natural wine fragrance +1.

This was because the wine would increase in texture and fragrance as it was stored in the cellar. According to past experience, after 15 years, it could become texture +1 and wine fragrance +2.

With the game time ratio, it was only a month.

Moreover, according to Li Qing, this Qinglin New Wine +1 was actually not inferior to Maotai New Wine.

[Qinglin Wine: Quality 1]

[This is a wine made with Xiangshui Tribute Rice. Not only does it have a special wine fragrance for 30 years, but it also perfectly inherits the attributes of Xiangshui Tribute Rice. It has many effects: wine fragrance +1, mellow +1, taste +1, delicious +1, vitamin VPP anti-aging +1.]

This remark also confirmed Qin Lin's guess.

And this attribute was probably difficult to compare to even those old wines like the Qiangjiu and Maotai. So what if they had the attributes of texture +2 and wine fragrance +2?

He also had mellow +1, delicious +1, vitamin VPP anti-aging +1.

It was not certain who was stronger.

Furthermore, if he placed it in the game for a month, it would be equivalent to hiding it in the cellar outside for 15 years. The texture and wine fragrance would increase by one to two.

If the Xiangshui Tribute Rice of Quality 2 was brewed, the new wine brewed would have a wine fragrance +1, mellow +2, taste +2, delicious +2, and VPP anti-aging +2.

In the game, if it was placed for a month, according to the time ratio, it would precipitate for 15 years. After the texture increased, the texture would increase by +3.

When the Xiangshui Tribute Rice was cultivated, he could make wine with it in batches. What could he compare it to famous old wines like Qiangjiu and Maotai?

It was also possible to compete for the position of the number one white wine. When the time came, whoever talked about famous wine would definitely ask for Qinglin Wine and not Maotai or Qiangjiu.

Unfortunately, there was no competition for the first white wine.

With that in mind, Qin Lin placed the two jars of wine in a corner of the storage room.

This was where he kept the wine.

He could see that there were already three batches of rosewood, the medicinal wine brewed by myrtle, the Vitality Wine of the Quality 3 wild ginseng, and some remaining medicinal wine for hemorrhoids.

In addition, there were four jars of original white wine that had not been brewed. Before the New Year, he suddenly thought that other than medicinal wine, original white wine could also increase the age. Therefore, he took two jars of 20-year-old and 30-year-old wine from the winery.

According to the game time ratio, it was already 35 years and 45 years old.

If he said that this was his private collection, it would have nothing to do with the aged wine in the wine factory's wine cellar.

After putting away the wine, Qin Lin exited the game. He had nothing to do next, so he looked at the game in his mind again and controlled his game character to stroll around Ore Town to see if he could trigger a plot mission.

Chapter 383: Xiangshui Tribute Rice Wine! Find Some SMA Raw Materials Seeds!

He played games as he waited for Li Kai to return.

He could not help but feel gossipy.

However, after waiting for a long time, Zhao Moqing came to look for him after work at night, but Li Kai did not return to the villa.

"Let's go to the bridal chamber to see if Brother Li is back!" Qin Lin said to Zhao Moqing and walked towards the bridal chamber.

Zhao Moqing hurriedly followed and asked curiously, "Mr. Li Kai, what's wrong?"

"I'll tell you in detail when we get home." Qin Lin brought Zhao Moqing to the reserved area of the bridal chamber, which was where the bridal chamber was.

Li Qing and Li Kai had been staying in the first and second bridal rooms.

As soon as Qin Lin arrived, he saw Li Qing walking out of Room 1. When he saw him, he asked, "Qin Lin, have you seen my uncle? He hasn't returned yet."

"He's not back yet?" The gossip in Qin Lin's eyes intensified.

Was he going to stay out all night?

It couldn't be that fast, could it?

Back then, after he and Zhao Moqing confirmed their relationship, they only held hands at first and only touched each other after three days. The real progress was on Valentine's night a month later.

"I wonder where this guy went." Although Li Qing had been making up stories about his uncle, he clearly still cared about him.

Qin Lin reminded him, "Could he have gone to find a woman?"

"How is that possible? Does he know how to find a woman?" Li Qing did not believe it. He took out his phone and called Li Kai, but no one picked up.

He continued to dial.

No one answered yet.

He continued to call.

This time, the call went through. Li Qing immediately placed the phone to his ear. Li Kai's panting and impatient voice came through. "I don't have time to talk nonsense with you now. I'm hanging up."

"..." Li Qing was f*cking angry. "What the hell?"

However, he was much more relieved to know that his uncle was fine. He chatted with Qin Lin for a while before returning to his room.

Qin Lin also left with Zhao Moqing. His mother was already waiting in the parking lot with Wang Cai.

When they returned home, Qin Lin told Zhao Moqing about leaving today and Dr. Tang.

Zhao Moqing was surprised when he heard that. "That's impossible, right? Even if there was something in the past, this is only the first day we met, right? Besides, Mr. Li Kai looks like a decent person."

"Then do you think I'm decent?" Qin Lin suddenly teased. He had already gone to the closet and taken out a purple sexy nightdress and stockings.

It was one of the 20 items he had bought last time. At the same time, he picked up two bottles of Qinglin Tea under the table beside him.

When Zhao Moqing saw this scene, he snorted softly.

There were more and more tricks.

...

The night passed.

The next day, Qin Lin went to the warehouse to move the things in the game to the villa when he received a call from Li Qing.

He immediately went to bridal chamber 1 and 2.

As soon as he saw Li Qing, he asked, "You really didn't come home last night?"

Li Qing said directly, "He's not back. I couldn't get through to him this morning. The notification said that his phone was switched off. Do you think he really went to look for a woman? Why don't we go to the county to look for him? My uncle is inexperienced with women. I'm afraid he'll be schemed against by some woman."

"Well..." As Qin Lin was thinking about telling Li Qing about Dr. Tang, he saw Li Kai walking into the bridal chamber unsteadily.

This guy's legs were a little wobbly as he walked. He still had one hand on his waist and looked listless, as if he had spent all his energy last night.

When Qin Lin saw this scene, he subconsciously said, "No way? You're really the prime minister, but you're still playing so crazily?"

"What?" Li Qing looked at Qin Lin in confusion.

Before Qin Lin could speak again, Li Kai had already seen Qin Lin. He jogged closer and said proudly, "Brother Qin, I've already persuaded Xiuwan last night. She agreed to come to the villa's medical room. She went back to the hospital today to settle the resignation procedures. Let's not talk about it anymore. I didn't sleep well last night. I'm so tired."

When Qin Lin saw Li Kai's tired expression, he couldn't help but tease, "Brother Li, although I want to poach Dr. Tang, I don't want you to sacrifice your looks."

Li Qing was surprised to hear Qin Lin's words. "Uncle, did you really find a woman last night? I knew it. Why were your legs so weak when you came back? You even held your waist."

"What?!" When Li Kai heard their words, he looked at them in frustration. "Brother Qin, you can't question my character like that bastard Li Qing. Xiuwan sold the house, and I helped her move the furniture for the entire night. Besides, I'm not that dirty. I slept on the sofa for a good night."

"???" Qin Lin.

"???" Li Qing.

He looked like he had been up with a woman for a night, but in the end he did nothing?

Li Qing said in an exaggerated manner, "Uncle, she let you stay. That opportunity was in front of you, but you didn't do anything. Are you useless?"

"I can't be bothered with you." When Li Kai heard this, he entered the bridal chamber with a dark expression. He closed the door and took out his dead phone to charge it. After turning it on, he hurriedly called Professor Ren.

As soon as the call went through, he said into the phone, "Professor Ren, I'm really sorry to call you so early. You're the leader in life health science. I just want to ask you about SMA illnesses."

"I checked the information last night. Your department once cracked experiments on SMA therapeutic drugs and found some substitute matching herbs, right? Can you help find some seeds for me?"

He knew that those medicinal herbs were still rare and difficult to cultivate, but it was not like Brother Qin did not have a chance with the special soil.

Xiangshui Tribute Rice was a precedent.

Chapter 384: Potential to Be a Bootlicker? Li Kai Wants to Solve the SMA Disease!

Seeing that his uncle had already closed the door, Li Qing could only ask Qin Lin, "Qin Lin, who is this Dr. Tang? What's going on?"

Qin Lin looked at Li Qing's inquisitive expression and told him everything about Dr. Tang.

He wondered how the Li family would react if Brother Li really wanted to be the prime minister.

When the time came, he hoped that there would not be a melodramatic plot between rich families.

“Could it be that Uncle really has such a hobby?” Li Qing was surprised when he heard that. Then, he shook his head and said, “Qin Lin, do you think my uncle and Dr. Tang used to have something going on? Is it because of Dr. Tang that he’s not interested in women all these years?”

Anyway, he felt that it was extremely abnormal. When had his uncle become so enthusiastic about women? He had even helped the other party move the furniture for a night and made himself weak.

If he could be so attentive to women in the past, he would not have failed every blind date and remained single.

When Qin Lin saw that Li Kai was back, he returned to his office and opened the backstage application of the villa’s management program to see if he had to deal with the approval.

After dealing with it, he looked at the game on the screen in his mind as usual and dealt with the game.

Fishing, cutting trees, checking mountain goods... Unfortunately, he did not gain anything today.

In the afternoon.

Li Kai hurriedly looked for Qin Lin. “Brother Qin, lend me your car. I’ll pick Xiuwan up. She has already resigned. I can bring her to the villa for an interview.”

Qin Lin looked at Li Kai and knew that his heart had really moved. His anxious expression really looked like a little boy who had just wooed a girl.

After giving Li Kai his car key, he asked curiously, “Brother Li, isn’t Dr. Tang a doctor at the county hospital? How did he resign so quickly? Didn’t he have to be informed 30 days in advance?”

He had to pay attention to such procedures. Otherwise, if the villa hired Dr. Tang, it would be troublesome if he caused trouble with the county hospital.

When Li Kai heard this, he explained, “Brother Qin, you don’t have much contact with this kind of thing. This depends on the situation. Xiuwan is an attending physician after all. This time, someone took her position as a chief physician first, so we still have to give it to her next time, right? But there are many doctors below who want to take her place.”

“The fact that it can be done so quickly means that someone wants to replace her next chief physician rating. If she leaves, won’t the next opportunity be empty?”

“As soon as she handed in her resignation, didn’t she give others a chance to operate openly? Perhaps your county hospital is already fighting openly and secretly for her empty opportunity.”

“The hospital might even give an approval in view of Xiuwan’s special situation.”

Qin Lin did not expect a hospital, which was supposed to be a very sacred place, to be so complicated.

This was also a sorrow of modern medicine. In this environment, some quacks who relied on connections could take advantage of it.

Everyone said that doctors and patients had a tense relationship and that patients’ families often attacked hospitals. Could it also be related to such quacks?

Li Kai took the car key and said to Qin Lin before leaving, "Brother Qin, I told Xiuwan that the treatment here at the villa will be according to the chief physician treatment of the county hospital and the commission of the villa's normal employees. You can't screw up."

"Alright!" Qin Lin nodded.

He would still give Li Kai face.

Moreover, Tang Xiuwan was qualified to be a chief physician and was capable enough. His small medical room in the villa would have to pay a premium if he wanted to poach her.

This treatment was not too much.

After Li Kai left, Qin Lin went to Zhao Moqing's office and told her about Tang Xiuwan.

When Tang Xiuwan came, they would interview her together.

Not long after, Li Kai led Tang Xiuwan to the villa.

Tang Xiuwan was not wearing a white coat today, but a more fitting set of clothes. Because she had put on light makeup for the interview, she looked much better than yesterday.

Zhao Moqing saw Tang Xiuwan nod slightly. She probably knew why Mr. Li Kai was so enthusiastic about her. That gentle temperament that could be felt at a glance should be envied by many women.

In modern society, looks could be relied on for plastic surgery. One's temperament was either innate or nurtured for a long time.

Men might think that an Internet celebrity's face was good-looking at first glance, but at second and third glances, they would feel tired. Because of his stiff expression, his face was lifeless.

However, as time passed, women with temperament would slowly sink into it.

Li Kai brought them closer and introduced them very enthusiastically. "Brother Qin, I've brought her here. Xiuwan, this is the Brother Qin I told you about. The beauty beside him is his wife."

"Dr. Tang, we met again." Qin Lin smiled and greeted Tang Xiuwan.

"President Qin," Tang Xiuwan replied in surprise when she saw Qin Lin.

She had grown up in Youcheng County and resolutely returned to Youcheng County with her boyfriend after her postgraduate studies. She was extremely familiar with Youcheng County.

However, Qinglin Villa could be said to be a place that surprised her very much. She did not expect anyone to be able to build such a place in a small place like Youcheng County.

Before her daughter had been checked for SMA, she had also come once with her ex-husband.

That time, the family was very happy, but because of the sudden disaster, their happy family had already shattered.

Chapter 385: Potential to Be a Bootlicker? Li Kai Wants to Solve the SMA Disease!

He did not expect her to be working at Qinglin Villa now.

Naturally, she did not expect the boss of Qinglin Villa to come looking for her personally yesterday. He even came with Senior Brother Li, who had already deleted all her contact details.

Last night had really made it difficult for her to sleep. She had even thought that if she had made a different choice back then, would it have led to another outcome now?

“Dr. Tang, let’s talk in the office.” Zhao Moqing also invited Tang Xiuwan.

Tang Xiuwan nodded and the few of them entered Zhao Moqing’s office.

Actually, after confirming that Dr. Tang was capable, with Li Kai’s relationship, this interview was just a formality.

The interview process was mostly casual chatter. At the same time, he used the interview to inquire about Dr. Tang.

It was always beneficial for the other party to know more about the villa.

There was a problem that had to be dealt with. Zhao Moqing also said to Tang Xiuwan, “Dr. Tang, our medical room still needs two rotation doctors and two shifts of nurses. After you enter, it might be something you have to deal with immediately.”

Tang Xiuwan nodded and said, “Senior Brother Li told me about this last night. I have a candidate too. After I join, I can invite him to work at the villa.”

She was not worried about this. Not all doctors who were capable were necessarily in the hospital. Many people were actually not used to the various struggles in the hospital, and they could not stand the filth between the departments. They might as well go out or return to the town to open their own clinics and medical rooms.

He did not dare to say it in big cities. In a small county like Youcheng County, many people caught a cold, caught a fire, had a fever, and suffered minor injuries... Most of them chose the nearest clinic.

“Then welcome to the villa, Dr. Tang,” Zhao Moqing said with a smile.

After the interview, as soon as Tang Xiuwan left Zhao Moqing’s office, Li Kai followed her and did not forget to say, “Xiuwan, isn’t the tap of your new apartment dripping? I’ll drive you to buy a new tap and install it for you.”

“Senior Brother Li, this is too much trouble for you.” Tang Xiuwan’s words clearly carried a hint of embarrassment.

“It’s no trouble. Why would it be?” Li Kai immediately expressed.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing stood at the office door and watched this scene.

Li Qing was already outside. He went forward and asked Qin Lin, “Qin Lin, do you feel that my uncle has the potential to be a bootlicker?”

Qin Lin shook his head and said, "Old Li, that's not right. Your uncle is brave enough to pursue happiness. Wasn't he like this when you chased after your wife?"

"Tsk!" Li Qing said confidently, "Didn't I tell you that Lin Liu was the one who chased me back then? She sent me milk tea every day."

Zhao Moqing suddenly teased, "When I was shopping with Sister Lin Liu previously, she even said that Mr. Li sent milk tea to her school dormitory at night. I didn't expect her to chase you with milk tea. I'll ask her next time."

"Don't..." Li Qing panicked when he heard this.

Qin Lin immediately looked at him playfully.

Li Qing coughed awkwardly. "Well, the sun is very strong today. I'll take a walk in the Sea of Flowers."

After Li Qing left, Zhao Moqing smiled and said, "This uncle and nephew are very interesting. It's difficult for ordinary people to imagine that they came from that kind of family, right? They don't make people feel unapproachable at all."

Qin Lin smiled and said, "It's difficult to get close to them because some people's status makes them innately arrogant. Under their arrogance, they are born high and mighty. Once people put down their arrogance, they can enjoy life better. Look, aren't they living freely?"

"Hubby, your words seem very philosophical?"

"Right?"

"How smug!"

...

The sun was setting.

At night, when Qin Lin, Zhao Moqing, and his mother finished dinner, two guests arrived. It was Uncle Dashan and Qin Long.

Qin Lin immediately stood up to welcome them. "Uncle Dashan, Brother Long, how are you?"

Qin Long immediately said, "Qin Lin, isn't the plantation opening tomorrow? I invited you to take a look."

Qin Long and his father had originally prepared 300,000 yuan for the plantation to open.

However, because of Qin Lin, he obtained the tomato plantation support fund in Youcheng County. The scale had expanded, and it only opened today.

After opening, he was also prepared to apply for a second batch of funds to continue expanding and start planting.

The county's tomato plantation fund was not on their father's account.

All the people who had applied for the support fund were the same. Those funds were on the accounts of the county city. There was a special financial review management that was given to these plantation owners step by step...

Only when these plantations were produced step by step according to the plan and approved could the next funds be distributed.

Otherwise, the county would not be so stupid as to give out the funds at once. That would cause a lot of trouble.

Qin Dashan also hurriedly said, "Xiao Lin, you have to come tomorrow. Our family's plantation is thanks to you."

Clearly, Qin Dashan's invitation was filled with anticipation. He was very grateful to Qin Lin. Otherwise, the county's tomato plantation support fund would not have anything to do with his son.

"Uncle Dashan, I'll definitely go tomorrow." Qin Lin also smiled and nodded.

"Qin Lin, thank you." Before Qin Long left, he thanked Qin Lin heavily before leaving with his father.

The next day.

After Qin Lin sent the things in the game to the villa, he also drove to the west city.

Chapter 386: Potential to Be a Bootlicker? Li Kai Wants to Solve the SMA Disease!

The place where Qin Long contracted the plantation was called Jiejian Village. It was a village not far from the west city. Only the west city had a direct road in.

Not long after Qin Lin's car entered the road, a BMW appeared behind it and kept honking.

He was probably going to overtake Qin Lin.

He was about to lean back on the steering wheel when he heard the horn behind him still blaring.

This made him a little unhappy.

He was already giving in, so why was he still pressing? He had to give him time to react, right?

However, he did not want to argue with such a person. He might have road rage. He had a beautiful wife and a good career. It was better not to provoke such road anger.

This kind of person would be punished by the heavens.

However, to Qin Lin's chagrin, although he made way, the BMW behind him did not go over and continued honking.

Wasn't this too much?

As Qin Lin was thinking, his phone rang. The screen in the car showed his brother-in-law, Zhao Moyun's number.

Why did his brother-in-law suddenly call him?

Qin Lin hurriedly picked up the call and said, "Brother, why are you calling me?"

Zhao Moyun's voice sounded. "Qin Lin, I've been honking behind your butt for a long time. At least give me a response."

"What? The car behind is you?" Qin Lin could not help but say in surprise, "I thought it was some road rage person."

"You're the one with road rage," Zhao Moyun said angrily. "You brought your sister-in-law in the car. Only fools have road anger."

Qin Lin did not expect to meet Zhao Moyun again.

However, why was his brother-in-law heading here? He could only reach Jiejian Village from this direction. Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen were not from Jiejian Village.

Both parties quickly arrived at Jiejian Village and stopped the car at the entrance.

Qin Lin got out of the car and saw Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen get out. He went forward and said, "Brother, Sister-in-law, why are you here?"

Li Jiawen explained, "Shan Shan lives here. She went on a blind date with a man after the New Year. She feels good after spending some time with him. Didn't you call us here to play and help her investigate that man? Shan Shan, you've seen him before. She went to your villa with me last year."

Qin Lin nodded.

This was normal. Whether it was a man or a woman, many times when they had a boyfriend or girlfriend, they would ask their friends out to play and let them help investigate.

However, most of the time, friends could not help. Even in a small place like Youcheng County, there might be awkward things like 'my friend's new girlfriend is my ex-girlfriend, or my best friend's boyfriend is also my ex-boyfriend'.

Wasn't this changing dates?

The place was small, and most of the time, the circle was small. If everyone liked to play, this awkwardness was inevitable.

Therefore, if feeling unsure, it shouldn't be regarded lightly. Otherwise, after two or three times, you would become very famous in this small place's circle of friends. You might become the topic of gossip from time to time.

At this moment, Zhao Moyun added, "Shan Shan's ex-boyfriend is that very annoying Liu Hua. He asked you where you caught the fish. I heard that he really went to catch fish. Shan Shan refused to listen and directly fell out with him."

To be honest, Qin Lin did not have a deep impression of Shan Shan, but he had a deep impression of Liu Hua. He had even seen him a few times at the reservoir.

The other party seemed to be very persistent in catching the Albino Tiger.

Zhao Moyun asked, "Qin Lin, why are you here?"

Qin Lin explained, "A big brother at home opened a plantation here. It's opening today, so I came to take a look."

Hearing this, Li Jiawen was stunned for a moment and said, "It can't be such a coincidence, right? Shan Shan's blind date also runs a plantation. Her father and the other party's father were junior high school classmates, so they were on a blind date."

"If the other party's surname is Qin, it might be." Qin Lin was a little surprised.

Although everyone said that Youcheng County was very small, this was really a coincidence.

Why were the people he knew in the same circle?

"I'll call Shan Shan to pick me up," Li Jiawen said as she took out her phone and made a call.

A moment later, a small electric car drove over from the other end of the village.

Two people were still sitting in the small electric car. They were still wearing boots.

However, looking at the young man riding the electric car, Qin Lin immediately recognized him. It was Qin Long.

Behind him was a long-haired girl. As soon as she got out of the car, she ran towards Li Jiawen. "Jiawen, you're here."

When Qin Long saw Qin Lin, he immediately ran forward with joy. "Qin Lin, you're here too?"

This made Qin Lin and Zhao Moyun look at each other.

What a coincidence.

The girl called Shan Shan also saw Qin Lin and immediately greeted him politely, "Boss Qin, do you know Qin Long?"

She knew who this person in front of her was.

Many people said that with Qinglin Ketchup, Qinglin Tea, and Qinglin Villa's potential, the other party would soon be the richest man in Youcheng County.

Qin Lin explained, "Brother Long is the eldest brother in my village. His family has a good relationship with mine."

Shan Shan immediately tugged at the corner of Qin Long's shirt. "Why didn't you say that you knew Boss Qin? I even told you just now that my best friend's sister-in-law is the lady boss of Qinglin Villa. Are you serious about making a fool of me?"

"There's nothing to say." Qin Long hurriedly apologized to her and invited Qin Lin, "Qin Lin, let's go to the plantation!"

“Okay, I’ll listen to Brother Long.” Qin Lin nodded and got into the car again. He followed Qin Long’s small electric car inside.

Chapter 387: Potential to Be a Bootlicker? Li Kai Wants to Solve the SMA Disease!

Seeing that Qin Long had a girlfriend again, Uncle Dashan should be very happy. After all, he had taken on a criminal record for a woman. Uncle Dashan had always been afraid that Qin Long would not be able to find a girlfriend.

Now, Shan Shan was also a beauty with good conditions.

It was good that Qin Long could walk out of his previous shadow, which meant that he was still optimistic.

Soon, Qin Lin and Zhao Moyun followed Qin Long to a seemingly endless plantation. There were already many employees working inside.

After Zhao Moyun got out of the car, he said in surprise, “This kind of plantation is too big. It must cost a lot, right?”

Qin Long explained, “This is a support fund applied by the county. It’s specially planted tomatoes for Qin Lin’s factory.”

“Okay.” Zhao Moyun nodded. With Qin Lin’s factory as a backer, this kind of plantation was equivalent to a guaranteed profit.

Qin Dashan knew that Qin Lin was here and came out to welcome him immediately. “Lin Zi, you’re here. I’ll bring you to see the plantation.”

This plantation was very big and well planned. Qin Lin followed Uncle Dashan for a long time before finishing his tour.

Qin Lin could also tell that Qin Long and Uncle Dashan were really serious about this kind of plantation. When the tomatoes were planted and the county’s support fund was returned, it would not be difficult to earn money.

At noon, Qin Lin left with Zhao Moyun and returned to the villa.

As soon as he parked in the parking lot, he saw Li Kai take a delivery from the security booth at the entrance and run toward the original hall.

Qin Lin looked at this scene in confusion. What was Brother Li doing with his anxious expression?

With that in mind, he walked curiously toward the original hall. When he arrived, he heard movement in the backyard.

When he entered, he saw that there was already a piece of land beside the artificial field. He could see that there was a lot of soil dug out by the artificial field mixed in.

The elements of special soil survival +2 and genetic improvement +1 in the soil of the artificial field had not been exhausted yet.

Li Kai was holding the opened package in his hand. He took out some seeds and was seriously planting them in the new field before covering them with soil.

Qin Lin asked curiously, "Brother Li, what's this?"

Only then did Li Kai see Qin Lin arrive. He explained, "Brother Qin, let me tell you. This is a medicinal seed called Donasi Grass Root. It's very rare and difficult to cultivate. Professor Ren's department has been experimenting but has not been able to cultivate it in large quantities."

"I asked Professor Ren to send these seeds over. If we can use the special elements in this special soil to improve this medicinal herb and cause a genetic mutation, we might be able to plant this medicinal herb in large quantities."

Qin Lin seemed to have guessed something. "Can these herbs be used to make SMA medicine?"

When Li Kai heard this question, he was embarrassed for a long time before nodding. "Yes!"

Qin Lin teased, "Brother Li, you're taking advantage of your position."

He knew that Li Kai suddenly wanted to study this because Dr. Tang's daughter had SMA. Otherwise, the other party would only be interested in his low-temperature genetic experiment.

When Li Kai heard Qin Lin's words, he hurriedly said, "Brother Qin, how can this be abusing your position for personal gain? Think about how miserable those children who got SMA are. Other children can go to school and play with their friends. They can only lie down slowly and not move, waiting for death to come."

"If it can be cultivated successfully and planted on a large scale, we can save them and restore their bright smiles."

"Moreover, it can bring our laboratory great fame. We can even apply for a large sum of prize money from the country. When the time comes, the prize money will have nothing to do with me. It will all belong to you three capitalist shareholders."

Qin Lin teased, "Then you'll get the beauty?"

"..." Li Kai seemed to have been killed in one blow. His thoughts had been exposed, and he suddenly had no ability to refute.

"Brother Qin, you're as superficial as Li Qing!" Li Kai simply ignored Qin Lin and started working.

Qin Lin smiled and did not disturb Li Kai anymore.

Brother Li was right about one thing. If this SMA illness could be resolved, Qinglin Laboratory would indeed obtain a huge reputation.

Chapter 388: If We Record the Tree of Sound!

Another three days passed.

Not only had Tang Xiuwan joined the villa, but she had also recruited two doctors and nurses on duty.

Many doctors were not good at interpersonal relationships and were not used to the fights and dirty relationship methods in the hospital department. They left the hospital to open their own clinics.

As long as these people paid more than what they earned from their own consultation, it was usually not difficult to recruit them.

The salary of Qinglin Villa was naturally not low. Most importantly, his daily work was very easy and there were no problems.

The two nurses had been poached directly from the county hospital.

A nurse's resignation was not as troublesome as a doctor's. She could leave without that salary.

Many nurses would quit after they had a boyfriend or got married. There were also many who would leave.

The salary of Qinglin Villa was much higher than that of the county hospital. If it was a public recruitment, even the nurses from the three hospitals in Youcheng County would probably come to apply.

Tang Xiuwan had personally poached two nurses in their early 30s who had given birth.

Nurses of this age were more calm. They had a family to support, a high salary, and they cherished it. After working for so long, they were more patient.

The villa's medical room was also in the office area, and it was beside Captain Hong's security room.

However, because of the special function of the medical room, the space was much larger than the security room.

When Chen Li arrived at Qinglin Villa, the medical room was also moving medicine in and some medical equipment.

These were all necessary to the medical room.

"Deputy Chen, sorry to trouble you again." Qin Lin looked at the medicine and equipment and thanked him.

Their villa did not have any channels to buy medicine and medical equipment. It was also the county who pulled the strings and attached themselves to the Chinese Medicine Hospital. They signed a contract with the Chinese Medicine Hospital to buy it for them.

This was much more convenient.

In the future, if the medical room needed medicine and medical equipment, they could just contact the Chinese Medicine Hospital.

Chen Li smiled and said, "Boss Qin, if anyone should thank you, it's the county. The county has received too many benefits from your villa."

“By the way, the last medical room is done now. Have you written the document for your application for View 4A?”

“It’s already prepared.” Qin Lin nodded.

Chen Li said, “Boss Qin, give me the application document. I’ll bring it back to the Tourism Bureau to sign and then help you submit it to the Tourism Bureau in Ming City.”

A county-level tourism bureau was not qualified to approve a 4A tourist area.

They only had a preliminary review of the recommendation qualifications, which was to recommend the scenic area to the city or provincial tourism bureau. When the city or provincial tourism bureau sent someone to the scene to investigate and visit secretly, the review would be sent to the national tourism bureau.

As long as the National Tourism Bureau signed it, Qinglin Villa could be upgraded to a 4A scenic area.

The speed of this process depended on how strong their relationship was.

Small cities with connections would usually help their scenic spots urge them. A successful application for 4A was also very beneficial to small cities.

Sun Xian had such connections in Ming City. Otherwise, Youcheng County’s global tourism would not be so popular.

Qin Lin nodded and brought Chen Li to his office to make tea. Then, he printed out the 4A scenic area application document and handed it to Chen Li.

After Chen Li received the application document, he immediately brought it back to the Tourism Bureau and signed all the procedures at the county-level Tourism Bureau. Then, he submitted the document to the Ming City Tourism Bureau through the Tourism Bureau’s internal email.

After that, Chen Li went to Sun Xian’s office to report, “Sun Xian, the 4A scenic area application for Qinglin Villa has been submitted to the Ming City Tourism Bureau.”

“Have you finally submitted it?” Sun Xian’s face lit up when he heard this news. He immediately picked up the phone. “I’ll call Li Ke from the City Tourism Bureau and ask him to help go through the procedures as soon as possible.”

To be honest, Qinglin Villa applying for a 4A scenic spot meant more to the county than Qinglin Villa itself.

Qinglin Villa’s application for a 4A scenic spot was successful. It meant that Youcheng County had another 4A scenic spot. Coupled with the previous four 4As, it directly broke through the barrier of five 4As.

Moreover, he felt that with Qinglin Villa’s current momentum, the possibility of applying for 5A in three years might be greater than the other four 4A.

What Qinglin Villa lacked now was only the size and the number of tourists. As long as they finished developing the contracted 5,000 acres and the number of tourists broke through, there would be no problem at all.

It meant a lot that a tourist county could have another 5A scenic spot.

When the call went through, Sun Xian pressed the speaker button and let Chen Li listen. Then, he smiled and said, "Li Ke, I'll have to trouble you to keep an eye on it again. We're applying for Qinglin Villa this time."

On the other end of the line, Li Ke smiled and said, "Qinglin Villa. This scenic area is very popular. It should have exceeded the four places you applied for previously, right?"

Sun Xian smiled and explained, "That's right. The number of guests has already exceeded the other four."

"Alright, I'll take a look first. Then, I'll arrange for someone to go through the process as soon as possible," Li Ke said. After a moment of silence, he suddenly said in surprise, "Sun Xian, something's wrong with this Qinglin Villa!"

When Sun Xian heard this, he frowned and asked, "Li Ke, what's wrong with Qinglin Villa?"

Li Ke's voice sounded again. "The 4A scenic spot application for Qinglin Villa has already been approved by us. It was even personally reviewed by Director Li. It can already be sent to the National Tourism Bureau. What else do you want me to keep an eye on?"

"What?" Sun Xian was stunned when he heard this news. He subconsciously looked at Chen Li as if he was asking what was going on.

When Chen Li heard this news, he was stunned. He whispered, "That's impossible. I've just submitted it to the city. Why did Chief Li approve it? Unless the other party has instructed someone to keep paying attention and wait for the application from Qinglin Villa, it's possible that I was transferred to the other party's backstage email as soon as I submitted it."

Chapter 389: If We Record the Tree of Sound!

The key was that Director Li dared to sign it directly.

One had to know that they had to take responsibility for this matter, but it also meant that the other party was as confident in Qinglin Villa as they were. They were sure that there was no problem with Qinglin Villa.

"Um, Li Ke, I'm sorry. I'll see what's going on here." Sun Xian hung up and immediately got Chen Li to log into the backstage of the Tourism Bureau to check the progress of the application.

However, when he saw the progress of the application process, it indeed showed that the City Tourism Bureau had approved it.

Chen Li and Sun Xian were stunned.

What was going on?

Did someone from the city really greet him?

Chen Li frowned and said, "Sun Xian, don't tell me the city is also coming to poach Boss Qin?"

"That's impossible, right?" Sun Xian was anxious. He frowned and said, "What kind of companies don't they have in a big city? They shouldn't do such a bullying thing. If they dare to do this, I'll go to the city to protest."

While Chen Li and Zhao Moqing were in a daze, Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing also arrived at the villa's ancient ginkgo courtyard.

The ornamental courtyard of the two 500-year-old ginkgo trees had been built.

The workers around them had evacuated.

The entire courtyard's architectural model was retro and not small. There were even stone tables and stone chairs around the courtyard.

This was naturally prepared for the tourists who came to listen to the sound of the trees.

The two of them strolled around the ancient ginkgo courtyard. Now, all they had to do was clean it up and it would be open for business.

"I didn't expect Master Lin and these two ancient ginkgo trees to have such a story." Zhao Moqing looked at the two stone tablets and the story of Master Lin saving the tree and how the family was saved by the tree cry of this ginkgo tree decades ago.

This story added a lot of magic to the two ginkgo trees.

Naturally, if it was just a written description, this magical color would not attract much attention. But what if the Tree of Sound in this story really existed?

Then everything would be different. The story would be more than mythical. It would be a real historical story.

A gust of wind blew, and Zhao Moqing immediately sat down on the stone chair beside him. In an instant, the sound of trees appeared on the two ginkgo trees, and a pleasant voice sounded.

Qin Lin also sat on the chair to accompany Zhao Moqing.

With the attributes of the Tree of Sound +2, peace of mind +2, relaxation of the body and mind +2, and relief of pressure +2, it was really enjoyable to listen quietly like this and relax his entire body.

Zhao Moqing asked, "Hubby, how do you think this ancient ginkgo garden will be opened? There are so many tourists in the villa now. I'm afraid everyone will crowd over if they find out about the magicalness of the ancient ginkgo tree."

"In that case, I'm afraid there won't be enough room for so many tourists. It will also cause damage to this place. Therefore, we still have to limit the flow."

Qin Lin listened to the trees and was open-minded. He said, "Actually, there's no need for us to open all the projects as regular paid projects now. This ancient ginkgo house can be treated as an unconventional project."

"We can do this. The VIP and bridal chamber will be accompanied by an ornamental ticket to the ancient ginkgo courtyard. Ordinary tourists can also draw a lottery. More than 100 tourists will be given viewing tickets every day."

"This way, the ancient ginkgo court can be controlled to allow about 300 tourists in every day. This is not a place you can enter just because you want to. When everyone finds this ginkgo magical, the style will be maxed out."

"Okay, I'll listen to you!" Zhao Moqing nodded.

With the development of the villa, it did not matter if the ancient ginkgo house charged or not. It was better to use it to increase the style of the villa.

A moment later, Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing also left the ancient ginkgo courtyard.

When they passed the backyard, the two of them saw Li Kai squatting on his new piece of land and watering it seriously.

Qin Lin knew that Li Kai had planted an herb seed called Donasi Grass Root in this field.

This herb could be used as a substitute for the raw material for the SMA potion. It was just very difficult to cultivate and very rare. The requirements for the survival environment were harsh, just like the Xiangshui Tribute Rice.

"Brother Li, how is it?" Qin Lin walked over and squatted beside Li Kai.

Li Kai frowned. "I don't know for now. This Donasi Grass Root will germinate initially in three to seven days. I don't see any signs of seeds germinating. It's not good."

"Yes!" Qin Lin nodded. Seeing Li Kai frown, he quietly dug out a seed of Donasi Grass Root.

He wanted to bring it into the game to see its attributes.

After returning to the office, Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing returned to their own office.

As soon as he entered the office and locked the door, he entered the game.

When he saw the note on the Donasi Grass Root, he was stunned.

[Donasi Plant Root: Quality 1]

[This is a seed that can be planted to produce the Donasi Plant Root. The Donasi Plant Root contains a material factor that can repair, treat, and strengthen neuronal diseases. It can be used to make therapeutic drugs for rare neuronal diseases.]

[Planting Requirement: Level 1 medicinal garden!]

"Medicinal garden?" Qin Lin recalled the information he had seen on the forum.

The medicinal garden was also a special plantation like the paddy field in the new version. It would only open as its level increased. It could plant medicinal herbs.

According to the forum strategy, he seemed to be able to develop a medicinal garden when he leveled up next time.

Now, the Donasi Grass Root seeds that Li Kai had planted could actually be planted in a Level 1 medicinal garden?

When the medicinal garden opened, what if he planted the seeds in the Level 1 medicinal garden and calculated the time until they were about to germinate before secretly transplanting them into Li Kai's field?

With special soil, this seed had already germinated. With the attribute of survival +2, it would not be a problem to survive. After growing for a long time, it also had the attribute of improving the genetic probability by +1. It might really be able to be cultivated.

When the time came, he could completely push the blame to Li Kai.

However, he had to see how Li Kai's cultivation was going first. Moreover, he had to wait for him to level up again.

...

Zhao Moqing and Qin Lin discussed the opening method of the Ancient Ginkgo Academy. When they returned to the office, they found Lin Lanzi and told her about the Ancient Ginkgo Academy, asking her to film the promotional video.

After Lin Lanzi heard the instructions, she immediately went to the ancient ginkgo courtyard to investigate the situation.

It was also her first time here. She walked to the two ancient ginkgo trees and saw the two stone tablets about Master Lin's story.

When she saw the story of the Tree of Sound, she sat at the stone table and waited expectantly.

The lady boss told her about the Tree of Sound.

She was curious if it was as magical as the lady boss said.

A moment later, the wind blew, and as expected, a tree cried. The long and pleasant voice immediately calmed her down. The feeling of being empty and relaxed was indescribable.

"It's actually so magical." As Lin Lanzi listened, she suddenly took out her phone and turned on the recording.

She suddenly had an idea. She stood on the stone table and raised her phone to better record the music.

She wanted to try and see what effect this Tree of Sound had.

The wind stopped. The trees stopped singing. She waited. When the wind picked up and the trees sang again, she raised the phone again.

This repeated a dozen times before she stopped and played the recording.

The tree immediately rang on the phone.

At that moment, Lin Lanzi's eyes lit up. That feeling appeared again. Although the feeling was not as strong as listening to the Tree of Sound live and the effect was very bad, the recorded sound of the tree had some effect.

Moreover, this effect was definitely better than any light music that relieved emotions and stress.

This could be played throughout the villa to give all the tourists a better experience.

It was just that there was too much noise from recording with a phone. Would the effect be better if he used a professional recording device?

However, the villa did not have such equipment now.

Lin Lanzi brought her phone directly to Zhao Moqing's office. "President Zhao, our multimedia department wants to buy professional outdoor recording equipment."

Zhao Moqing asked in confusion, "Sister Lanzi, why did you suddenly think of buying this?"

Lin Lanzi directly played the Tree of Sound recorded on her phone to Zhao Moqing.

As the tree chirped on the phone, Zhao Moqing's eyes revealed surprise. Then, she said decisively, "I'll buy it. Buy a better outdoor recording device."

Why hadn't she thought of this before?

Now that she heard it, she could imagine how classy it would be if it was played in some places in the villa!

Chapter 390: Immortals Enjoy! Pilgrimage to Qinglin Villa!

In Qinglin Villa.

In the ancient ginkgo courtyard.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing arrived again.

Lin Lanzi was adjusting the outdoor recording equipment she had just bought.

A shelf was set up and the receiver was placed directly on top of the two ginkgo trees. Furthermore, in order to achieve the best effect, there were more than a dozen receivers.

This set of recording equipment was not cheap. It cost 30,000 yuan.

Qin Lin knew that the effect of the Tree of Sound was very good, but he had never thought of trying to record it.

It wasn't that he was stupid. It was that people had limited energy and thinking. It was difficult to be attentive to everything when the focus was different.

The recording device was set up and turned on.

A moment later, the wind rose and the trees cried. A voice began to be recorded on the recording device.

When the recorded Tree of Sound was about done, Lin Lanzi got someone to move the equipment back to the multimedia room and got the editor to start processing the recorded sound.

The editor at the villa was a computer technology graduate. Not only did he know how to edit videos, but he had also learned these operations.

As the recorded Tree of Sound was imported into the computer, he began to eliminate the static and guide the pure sound of the tree into a high-pitched quality.

Immediately after, he chose different wave tones to splice.

This process was somewhat similar to the light music pieced together by the sound of wind chimes that had once been created in Japan.

This light music, which was not played by humans, belonged to nature.

Soon, a pure piece of soft music was pieced together.

Lin Lanzi immediately instructed, "Play it."

The editor nodded and clicked on the patchwork Tree of Sound.

A piece of natural light music sounded the next moment.

The editor was not a professional musician, and his splicing skills depended on his liking. However, with the enhancement of the system attributes, this did not matter.

In an instant, Lin Lanzi's face revealed surprise.

Although it was still far less effective than listening under that tree, this professional recording device was indeed much better than the one he had recorded with his phone previously.

"Make a copy for me," Qin Lin instructed in surprise.

He naturally wanted to enter the game to see the note of the recorded Tree of Sound.

Although the recorded Tree of Sound was not as shocking as what was heard under the tree, this pieced light music still had the effect of relieving the body and mind and relieving pressure.

Coupled with the pleasant attribute, it made the soft music very pleasant.

Moreover, that effect was definitely not comparable to the light music produced by those music masters and music geniuses online.

In other words, those music masters and music geniuses were inferior to two ginkgo trees.

When the editor heard Qin Lin's words, he immediately operated and copied the Tree of Sound into a USB drive for Qin Lin.

Zhao Moqing also instructed as she listened to the music, "Sister Lan Zi, make the promotional video for the Ancient Ginkgo Garden as soon as possible."

Lin Lanzi nodded and said, "There's a problem. If this audio is uploaded online, it will probably be spread quickly. Some music talents might even steal it. After all, there are many such talents."

Qin Lin smiled and said, "Manager Lin, if the situation is bigger, so be it. We can even take the initiative to upload it to platforms like QQ Music for people to download."

"However, the music name has to be named after: 'Qinglin Villa's Tree of Sound'. The content also adds: 'Welcome to the notification of Qinglin Villa's Tree of Sound.'"

"This way, everyone who listens to the music will know about Qinglin Villa and remember it because of this Tree of Sound. This is better publicity than anything."

These words immediately made everyone look at Qin Lin in admiration.

The boss was indeed a tourism graduate. This publicity was huge.

They already knew the effect of this Tree of Sound. People who were stressed and frustrated definitely needed this. It was necessary for a song list.

And the last thing this impetuous society lacked now were people who were stressed, frustrated, and mentally exhausted. All kinds of bad things could make people feel so bad that they could explode.

When countless people listened to the light music of the trees and were comforted from the heart and mind, they would be even more shocked to know that it was only a weakened version. How many people would come to Qinglin Villa with the mentality of pilgrimage?

Don't doubt it. There would be countless people. Besides, the effect was permanent.

Qin Lin brought the USB flash drive back to his office and locked the door. Then, he entered the game and looked at the USB flash drive in his hand. He received a note:

[Flash drive: Ordinary]

[A tool to store data. At this moment, there is natural light music stored in the USB drive. You can check the information!]

Qin Lin focused and chose to check. He jumped out to check the information on the Tree of Sound.

[Tree Sound: Quality 1]

[This is a special tree cry. After playing it, it can give people a special enjoyment effect: pleasant +1, peace of mind +1, relaxation of the body and mind +1, relieving pressure +1.]

After this Tree of Sound was recorded, it was only left with the effect of Quality 1. No wonder the effect difference was so great.

After knowing the information, Qin Lin also exited the game. He connected the USB drive to the computer and uploaded the light music to his computer.

A pleasant light music immediately sounded.

Qin Lin also got up and went to the side to light the agarwood incense. As the fragrance spread in the office, he sat at the rosewood tea table and brewed the Quality 2 wild oolong tea. 2
