

The Game 39

Chapter 39: Reasonable With a Phone? The Crowd's Eyes Are Bright! 1

Chen Shengfei felt that comfortable feeling and could not help but pick up the okra to eat.

Food therapy was a food treatment method that had been passed down since ancient times. Naturally, the food therapy he was talking about was not those useless items among the commoners. Instead, it was a true food therapy passed down from a family of traditional Chinese medicine.

Now, they still had to take the English test to get a Chinese medicine license. They also had to learn Western medicine. There were also rules that many prescriptions needed to be prescribed Western medicine. Many times, those who tested if they were compatible or not would still learn Western medicine.

On the other hand, some true Chinese medicine heritage families were ambitious. The capable old Chinese medicine doctors naturally did not take this lying down. They simply did not take the exam and only used their medical skills to show it to their family or familiar people. They did not show it to outsiders at all.

Some people simply changed careers and used the secret techniques they had passed down to start a private food therapy business. This did not require any verification.

This was true food therapy. It was really effective, but ordinary people could not even find a way.

Top-grade food therapy was something only people of a certain status could afford. Every meal was calculated at 100,000 yuan.

Chen Shengfei was also a famous person in Min Province. He had naturally eaten top-notch food therapy, but the effect might not be as strong as what he was eating now. This kind of physical comfort was very strong.

At this moment...

Among the others who stayed for lunch at the mountain villa, those who made Quality 1 wild fish and Quality 1 okra also noticed some abnormalities. Although the effect was not as good as Quality 2, it was still effective.

"Honey, this fish is very delicious today. I haven't seen you cook so well at home."

"This taste is really good. The texture is also very good. I didn't expect you to be so good at cooking?"

"..."

However, there were clearly many people who were puzzled. The fish was better and tasted better, but the vegetables picked from the other vegetable fields seemed to be no different from the ones they had made in the past. Clearly, it was easy to distinguish between the game products and ordinary ones.

On the first day of business, at noon, the villa was thriving.

Qin Lin was naturally happy about this. Lin Fen and Zhao Moqing were even happier. The villa's good business made them sigh in relief.

Master Lin also made a table of dishes for the three of them.

The three of them ate in the hall and enjoyed the lively atmosphere.

A quarrel suddenly sounded, attracting everyone's attention.

It was a couple with a child arguing with a waitress. Something seemed to have happened.

"Ma'am, your child grabbed 200 yuan a catty of red strawberries. The price has been clearly marked. Furthermore, he has been eating them secretly without being weighed." The waitress was clearly a little anxious. These strawberries were different.

There were only a few kilograms of special strawberries that cost 200 yuan per catty. This child had grabbed a lot of them at once. Furthermore, she had been eating them without even weighing them.

The woman holding the child's hand said indignantly, "What do you mean? Are you saying that my child is a thief? You're the ones who placed these two kinds of strawberries so close to each other. Can you blame us?"

"Also, why is your villa fussing over a child?"

Amidst the argument, the child seemed to be very proud. He grabbed those strawberries and ate them with relish. Clearly, he was attracted by the deliciousness of the quality 2 strawberries.

Qin Lin frowned as he watched this scene. From the conversation, he could roughly guess what had happened. It was just that a brat had done something wrong again. The parents did not want to discipline him and instead pushed the responsibility. They blamed their villa for placing the two types of strawberries so close.

Wasn't this strange? But there were really many such strange people in society nowadays.

The key was that tourists seemed to be able to take advantage of such matters.

When the couple saw the waiter's anxious look, they became even more domineering.

Qin Lin was about to go over and resolve it when Gao Yaoyao had already jogged forward. "Sir, Madam, our fruits are clearly priced. Besides, this 200 yuan per catty strawberry is marked very clearly. It's completely separated from the other strawberries. If you think we've wronged your child, we have surveillance cameras in the hall."

Gao Yaoyao's words clearly made the couple's expressions change.

However, they did not want to pay for this mistake. After all, their child was still young. It was true that the other party had placed the two types of strawberries too close to each other. Furthermore, they had placed them somewhere their child could reach.

The people around clearly saw through the entire matter. They all looked at the couple in shock. As long as they were reasonable people, such immoral people were usually the most annoying.

Especially when the brat made a mistake, it was even more annoying for a parent to be so confident.

Square dance elders who squeezed people on the bus, a naughty child's parents, and a woman with many men... These people were almost the same as the scammer profession. They crazily destroyed the social atmosphere.

Faced with the crowd, the man still wanted to save face. He pulled his wife away, but the woman refused. Instead, she took out her phone with a dark expression and took photos of Gao Yaoyao. She even shouted self-righteously, "Everyone, take a look. The price of the fruits here is sky-high. 500 yuan for a catty of strawberries. This Qinglin Villa still wants to force tourists to buy them. This is a forced sale."

The woman was clearly going all out. She wanted to fight for this and did not care about the child watching from the side.

Wasn't this a society where whoever took out the phone to film would be in the right?

"..." Gao Yaoyao was speechless!

"..." Qin Lin revealed a stunned expression. Previously, Gao Yaoyao had said that a busybody might complain about the sky-high price of fruits, making him guard against this matter. He did not expect other strange things to appear. Some things were really impossible to guard against.

Chen Shengfei was eating happily when he saw this scene. He could not stand it anymore and walked forward. He said to Gao Yaoyao, "Pack these watermelons, strawberries, and okra for me. Not everyone knows what this special breed is. Some people have never seen a real sky-high price."

Gao Yaoyao said in surprise, "Sir, you said to pack it all?"

Qin Lin, who was watching from the side, looked at Chen Shengfei in surprise.

Although these watermelons, strawberries, and okra of Quality 2 were not much, they cost about 25,000 yuan in total.

"Pack them all. I want them all!" Chen Shengfei could not stand it when someone made a scene. He did not forget to say to the woman, "In front of the child, remember that you're a mother. Don't let the child imitate you."

These words made the woman's face turn green and white.

However, the stubbornness of such a person clearly exceeded Chen Shengfei's imagination.

The woman aimed her phone at Chen Shengfei and took a photo. "Look, not only is this Qinglin Villa selling fruits at an astronomical price, but they also especially found a backer to mock us, tourists, for not being able to afford fruits..."

"..." Chen Shengfei was stunned.

The surrounding tourists were stunned by this. Finally, someone could not stand it anymore.

"You're already the child's mother. Can't you be a role model for the child?!"

"How ridiculous. This gentleman is wearing a custom-made KION Western suit. The basic price starts from 50,000 yuan."

"This gentleman's watch is..."

Clearly, there were still many discerning people. Furthermore, everyone saw all of this.

At this moment, the man could not hold it in anymore. He knew that his wife had lost face and pulled her out.

"Sir, you haven't paid yet." Gao Yaoyao did not forget to shout at the man. "If you want to skip the bill, we can choose to call the police."

Her husband was frustrated and could only return under the disdainful gazes of the surroundings. He gritted his teeth and said, "I'm sorry. How much is it?"

"We'll settle the bill here!" Gao Yaoyao said unhappily to such a person.

The woman watched all of this angrily. She was clearly about to explode from anger. She did not notice that a young man had arrived beside her child.

"Little kid, well done. In the future, no matter where you are, you have to secretly catch and eat good food. You'll get a reward that way." The young man praised the child and even handed the strawberry he had bought to him. "Look, this is the reward you got this time!"

"Okay!" The child nodded happily with the strawberry.

The woman beside him seemed to be the young man's companion. She could not stand it anymore and kicked the young man silently.

A moment later, the man paid and pulled his cursing wife away.

However, the woman could not take this lying down at all.

In the hall.

Chen Shengfei did not care about the gazes around him and continued eating. This fish was really too delicious. He did not want to waste it at all.

Qin Lin called Gao Yaoyao over and praised her, "You did well earlier. Work hard!"

He was quite satisfied with Gao Yaoyao's performance earlier. Although she still had some shortcomings, at least she would not be at a loss like the other waiter.

Qin Lin looked at Chen Shengfei with interest.

This person was clearly a true tycoon and did not seem to be from Youcheng County. He was curious why he was here.

In the afternoon, Chen Shengfei's chauffeur drove over. Chen Shengfei also got the chauffeur to help him move his packed things into the car.

Gao Yaoyao also reported to Qin Lin, “Boss, Mr. Chen spent 31,432 yuan here.”

“I understand.” Qin Lin nodded and grabbed a Quality 2 grass carp and a Quality 2 black carp from the fish pool in the hall.

He was naturally going to give it to Mr. Chen.

Firstly, he wanted to thank him for his help. Secondly, this was a high-end customer source. It cost more than 30,000 yuan per person. If he could develop more customers through him, it would be much better than ordinary customers.

Other than attracting ordinary tourists, the villa naturally had to try to develop such a high-end customer source.
