

The Game 41

Chapter 41: A Good Opportunity for Publicity! I Won't Forgive You!

When Zhao Moqing saw these curses, she could not help but feel angry. They were all a group of keyboard warriors who typed on the keyboard without knowing the truth. This certain voice was really reasonable.

However, this twisted fact was actually supported by so many keyboard warriors.

The key was that even her sister-in-law had been affected and could not help but seek justice. She knew that her sister-in-law was not a keyboard warrior, but she followed the crowd. There were many keyboard warriors, and everyone's mouths were gold. Those who followed the crowd also this post.

It was because of this that the logic on the Internet sometimes allowed those who took videos with their phones to call the shots. Many people were forced to collapse because of such 'justice'.

It was also because the Internet was so turbid that rational people were often not in a hurry to comment.

If they let the bullet fly for a little longer, things would eventually become clear. This was to prevent the situation from turning around and embarrassing itself.

Zhao Moqing immediately took out her phone and called Qin Lin. She wanted to tell Qin Lin this news.

On the other side.

When Qin Lin returned home, he took a shower and played with Wang Cai before entering his room to plan.

Today, the villa had a good start and earned more than 100,000 yuan a day. It also filled him with confidence. The tourism management professional knowledge he had learned in university was finally useful.

Other than the game in his mind, his biggest reliance now was naturally the 30 acres of triangular plum blossom sea. He was confident that, in terms of size, there was no one in China who could compare to his sea of flowers. As long as the publicity was good, it could attract more tourists.

What was the point in receiving 238 tourists? Those top summer villas in the country could even receive 20,000 tourists a day.

Of course, his small villa did not have the ability to receive so many guests, but it was still possible to increase the number of guests by two or three times.

At that time, the villa could not only have a sea of flowers. It could not only have that small adventure in the forest and slippery grass.

They lacked the ability to play and squeeze the tourists' wallets dry. Those who could come out to play did not care how much money they spent.

Especially some young people. They brought girls out to play, but the villa only asked them to fork out less than 300 yuan. If they were embarrassed, the villa should be even more embarrassed.

Therefore, he wanted to develop a new project. Not only did this project have to interest tourists attracted by the sea of flowers, but it also had to make them have fun and pay from their wallets.

He had seen the terrain around the villa. Actually, there was a natural good project. There was a lake and a dam around the villa, naturally because there were many rivers.

A river that crossed beside the villa led straight to the top of a mountain. It could completely build a 10-kilometer, two-hour high mountain drift project. It was definitely possible to sell it for 150 yuan per person.

Drifting was also a popular project in modern travel and fun.

In many villas and scenic spots, it was a necessary project. Many people without river conditions had even created dry land rafting and glass slipstream rafting...

However, to build a drifting project, the investment was not low. The most important thing was to build a floating river. With the river conditions, it was probably no less than a million yuan in 10 kilometers. There was also the construction of a tourist service center, warehouse, bathroom, cooling room, ticket office, drift supermarket, waiting long cables, starting and ending docks, and so on.

Other than that, there were rubber candy, life jackets, helmets, inflatable equipment, boat carriers, tourist sightseeing vehicles, cisterns, and simple mountain roads.

This would probably cost more than five million yuan.

However, if there was this drifting project, the villa's level would increase greatly.

Furthermore, according to the villa's current momentum, it could earn 100,000 yuan a day and at least three million yuan a month. It was completely capable of handling this project.

If the publicity was good and the tourists increased, the floating investment could be earned in less than a month.

Therefore, the key now was still publicity. He thought of a certain music platform. Those popular villas and hostels had become Internet celebrities through a certain music platform.

As long as the publicity was good, even an ordinary place could attract a sea of tourists.

Qin Lin was making a plan when he received a call from Zhao Moqing.

He picked up the call immediately. "You miss me so quickly? Why don't I book a room at the hotel and pick you up now?"

Zhao Moqing said anxiously, "You still have time to be mischievous? Look at Douyin's video from the same city. That unreasonable woman is slandering the villa today."

Qin Lin frowned and logged into Douyin after hanging up. He chose the same city and saw a woman's arrogant video. "Everyone, take a look. Qinglin Villa is forcing tourists to buy..."

"What the f*ck..." Qin Lin was speechless. Why were some people so pretentious?

If not for the fact that there were too many such people, this world would probably be much more harmonious.

The key was that this video was clearly a self-media account. It had 250,000 fans.

Did the owner of this video not investigate? Was he brainless? Was he just trying to uphold justice?

This video had already received a lot of likes. It was already the hottest topic in the city.

He looked at the video comments. They were all scolding his villa. If this continued, his villa's business would definitely be affected.

After all, a person's subjective consciousness was very strong. Once they decided that something was bad, they would have a very strong subconscious.

However, he was not in a hurry. This woman seemed to have forgotten that there was a surveillance video in the villa.

Furthermore, in order to prevent such a thing from happening, the villa's surveillance cameras had audio pickup devices that could clearly hear the live conversation.

He did not expect it to really be used.

However, did the other party not know that he would be held legally responsible for spreading slander and destroying someone else's reputation?

"It's just that these likes don't seem to meet the standards of a prison sentence." Qin Lin frowned and opened the video. Then, he chose Dou+ to help him become a trending topic. The price slid to the right.

Feeling that one account was not enough, Qin Lin registered two more accounts and helped this video become a trending topic. The price slid to the right.

Then, switching between his three accounts, he boosted the video to the hot search for the second time.

After a few waves, it cost him 10,000 yuan.

Naturally, this would help this video become a hot topic and let more people know about the video that was defaming him.

After tonight, there might be countless people scolding him online. If he broke through the flow pool, the entire Internet might scold him.

After all, such incidents were what the netizens were most concerned about. It was also the favorite video of those keyboard warriors who had no sense of justice.

However, this was his best chance to promote the villa. It might become an Internet celebrity attraction.

Because of reverse psychology.

Many incidents on the Internet proved that the more grievances one suffered in the beginning, the more benefits the person who was smeared would receive when the situation was reversed.

Those keyboard warriors would immediately delete their offensive comments. Then, they would once again act as if they had long known this and change their tune.

"Next, I'll wait for the video to spread before calling the police," Qin Lin muttered to himself.

If others came to steal his job, he would not forgive them.

At this moment...

On the other side, a woman was also watching the video excitedly on her phone.

"Hubby, this villa is going to be unlucky." Lin Chunlan said to her husband with a smug expression. She did not forget to say to the young man beside her, "Cousin, thank you for helping me vent my anger this time."

Beside him, Lin Chunlan's husband shook his head helplessly. Since they were already back, they should just let the matter pass. However, his wife insisted on fighting for this.

Guo Huai was also smiling when he saw the likes notification backstage, but he still asked for confirmation, "Cousin, Cousin-in-law, you have to be sure that what you say is true. After all, I plan to make this hot."

He had been working on this account for almost three years and only had 250,000 fans. Some of them were even bought with money and did not create any hot topics.

This time, the matter of his cousin and sister-in-law being forced to purchase fruits in Qinglin Villa was definitely a popular social event.

This matter could definitely help him increase his fans.

Therefore, he decided to invest 2,000 yuan in Dou+ to increase the first wave of traffic to see the effect.

Lin Chunlan said nonchalantly, "Cousin, didn't I show you the video? How can it be fake?"

Guo Huai nodded and decisively took out his phone to play Dou+.

After all, they were all family. He did not suspect anything. His cousin had been very good to him since he was young.

Chapter 42: Man-made Guidance! The Keyboard Warriors Are All Chess Pieces!

Guo Huai quickly threw out 2,000 yuan on Dou+ and waited for the video to spread.

Within a few minutes, he realized that the likes and comments had increased crazily. In particular, the number of likes had increased unexpectedly. The number of fans had also increased significantly.

"The effect seems to be surprisingly good." Guo Huai's face revealed excitement.

This seemed to be the rhythm of spending 2,000 yuan to be on the hot search.

Lin Chunlan was also paying attention to this video. When she saw that there were more and more likes, she could not help but look proud.

The other party had made her look bad in front of so many people, and she was making it impossible for the other party to continue operating this villa.

Who would go if their reputation was bad?

On the other side.

Qin Lin looked at the effect of the 10,000 yuan Dou+ he had thrown in and revealed a smug expression.

The more popular, the better.

He still had one thing to do now, which was to ensure that after this matter became popular, there would be no accidents.

However, as the video began to ferment, he also received three calls. They were from Gao Yaoyao, Master Lin, and Chen Dabei.

He had just comforted Gao Yaoyao and the other two when he saw Qin Ren's call.

He was also planning to look for Qin Ren and immediately picked up.

"Lin Zi, why did Guo Huai call your villa? What happened?" Qin Ren asked with concern. They were all in Youcheng County, so he naturally knew who the media account belonged to.

The other party was one of the first self-media accounts in Youcheng County. This account had been in operation for three years and was still very famous in Youcheng County.

Their studio had also created a self-media account, but they did not have many fans. Only the customers and acquaintances from the past paid attention.

Qin Lin smiled and explained, "I met an unreasonable person. By the way, Da Ren, you're in the advertising industry. Can you find a group of Internet ghostwriters?"

Qin Ren replied, "Yes, you want to find Internet ghostwriters to explain this?"

Qin Lin smiled and said, "No, let them slander me, especially that person in the video. It's best if they scold me as badly as possible."

"Alright, I'll help you deal with it." Qin Ren did not refuse. However, after hanging up, he looked at Chen Shengfei in the video in confusion. There must be a reason why Lin Zi hired ghostwriters to slander him.

"Hu Fei, can you check who this person is?" Qin Ren asked a partner beside him. The other party studied computer technology, so it was not difficult to find some information online.

Hu Fei looked at the video and nodded.

He had also seen this video and knew that Qin Ren definitely wanted to help his brother. If he could help, he would not reject him. After all, after filming the other party's promotional video, their company's media account had gained some fans. That promotional video could be their signature.

After Hu Fei operated the computer for a while, he suddenly cursed. "F*ck..."

"What's wrong?" Qin Ren asked.

“Look for yourself. This kind of person is a shill? What’s Guo Huai thinking?” Hu Fei pointed at Chen Shengfei’s photo on the computer and said, “How can the chairman of the Blue Ocean Corporation be a shill? Is this Guo Huai brainless? With a word from him, his account might be in vain despite working hard for three years.”

Qin Ren now knew why Qin Lin had hired ghostwriters to defame himself and had even specially defamed Chen Shengfei. He immediately said to Guo Zhen, “Contact the ghostwriters and help defame Qin Lin, especially Chen Shengfei. By the way, tag the official account of the other party.”

Hu Fei looked at Qin Ren in surprise and said, “F*ck, are you trying to kill Guo Huai? But I like it. I’ve been unhappy with this guy for a long time. He keeps asking women out to show off. By the way, we can also ride on his popularity and advertise for our studio!”

Qin Ren nodded and said, “After this video ferments for a night, we’ll send a video tomorrow to reveal Chen Shengfei’s true identity and help Lin Zi stand on the stage. At the same time, we’ll freeload.”

A moment later, the ghostwriters flooded Guo Huai’s video comment section. This also made Guo Huai’s video more and more popular.

More and more people started cursing. Under the guidance of the Internet ghostwriters, most of the curses began to target Chen Shengfei in the video.

“F*ck, is this person stupid? He’s being a pawn for this seller.”

“He looks like someone who can’t earn any money, and his wife has even cheated on him. He’s really doing anything to earn money.”

“He’s so good at pretending. He even bought everything. Who doesn’t know that he’s a shill?”

“While being a shill, his wife is still at home fooling around with other men, right?”

“...”

It was as if everyone was wantonly promoting their own justice and sending comments that they thought were righteous and vicious to Chen Shengfei in the video.

These people did not know that they had already become pawns led by others.

Time passed.

The next day came quickly.

In a luxurious villa in the city, Chen Shengfei stretched comfortably. His wife, Tang Wan, had already gotten up to put on her clothes. When she saw him wake up, she said with a flushed face, “Hubby, did you eat something last night? You’re even better than usual!”

“Really?” Chen Shengfei smiled and hugged his wife. Although she was already in her 30s, she had money and took good care of herself. She was at her most charming.

Furthermore, he also realized that he felt comfortable all over today. He had always felt weak after being squeezed dry by his wife in the past.

“Hmph!” Tang Wan pouted and said with satisfaction, “Didn’t you count how many times we did it last night?”

This reminded him of something. The okra seemed to have this effect, right?

Thinking of this, Chen Shengfei said to his wife, “Get the nanny to get me more of the okra I brought back.”

He guessed that the okra was not simple. Last night, he was only focused on eating the fish and did not notice it.

Tang Wan was very satisfied last night. She would naturally satisfy Chen Shengfei’s small request early in the morning. She actually helped him get the okra personally.

Chen Shengfei went downstairs. After eating the okra he had brought back, he quickly revealed a surprised expression. The warm feeling at his waist appeared again.

In other words, it was really related to the okra?

This was good stuff!

400 yuan a catty was completely worth it.

He did not care about this effect. What was more important than making his wife look at him contentedly?

Chen Shengfei went to the corporation happily, but as soon as he entered the office, his secretary rushed forward to report, “Chairman, someone is defaming you!”

“???” Chen Shengfei frowned. Which competitor was doing this under the table?

However, when he took the video and looked at it, he was f*cking dumbfounded. It was what happened at Boss Qin’s villa.

He was not in the mood to argue with such a small fry yesterday.

However, this did not mean that the other party could jump around in front of him, especially when he saw some comments defaming his wife. How could he tolerate this?

“Get the company’s legal team to send a lawyer’s letter to Douyin!” Chen Shengfei instructed calmly and then ignored it. This matter was actually nothing compared to the company’s major matters.

“Okay!” The secretary respectfully withdrew and went to the company’s legal department.

Youcheng County.

Guo Huai woke up early and picked up his phone to log into Douyin. He checked his video and found that there were already more than 300,000 likes, and it was still increasing.

This made him unusually excited.

It was completely popular. Even his fans had increased a lot and were close to 300,000. At this rate, with some manipulation, it was possible to exceed 500,000 fans.

Guo Huai knew very well what the premise of a media account's rapid increase in fans was. It was to create a popular video so that he could have a chance to enter the official traffic pool.

Indeed, this kind of social problem was the most important.

Guo Huai scrolled through some videos proudly and realized that other bloggers had already started to take advantage of this matter. This was a good thing. It meant that he had already entered the traffic pool, and his fans would increase.

Suddenly, he saw a video from a studio. The person who sent the video was someone he knew. Wasn't the other party Hu Fei from Youcheng County?

Previously, he had seen the other party at a Youcheng County media gathering. The other party's studio had also created a media advertising account, but it was nothing. He wanted to brag in front of a girl, but he was rejected.

"This guy is also trying to gain popularity!" Guo Huai's face was filled with disdain, but as the video played, the content made his expression change instantly.

Chapter 43: Retribution! I'm Dead Meat!

The video released by Qin Ren's studio was a clarification video. Because of the popularity of Guo Huai's video, this video had a lot of attention.

"First of all, we have to make it clear that our studio was the one who made the promotional video for the sea of flowers in Qinglin Villa. In addition, is the person who posted that defamatory video a fool? Shouldn't he investigate the other party's identity if he were to defame him? The man in the video is actually the chairman of Blue Ocean Corporation in the city which is one of the top corporations in the entire Min Province. Why would he need to be a shill?"

"In addition, we've already understood that this matter was caused by a brat who was insensible and made a mistake. His unreasonable parents did not think about education and instead made a scene. Do they really think that it's reasonable to hold a phone and take a video?"

At the end of the video, there was also a surveillance video of the villa and the current conversation captured by the audio recorder. Qin Ren had specially taken this from Qin Lin.

When this video was released, the same city had already exploded.

When the promotional video of Qinglin Villa hung up on the open-air video of the Eastern Business Square, it was already popular. Yesterday's incident made Qinglin Villa even more popular. However, last night, it was popular for the wrong reason. Everyone was scolding Qinglin Villa.

No one expected things to turn around overnight?

Qin Ren's studio was also willing to spend a lot of money and invested in Dou+. Under the hot topic of Guo Huai's video, their video also became popular. Even Chen Shengfei became a little popular. Many videos introducing Chen Shengfei appeared.

This was naturally because those in the city who knew about Chen Shengfei's media account were trying to gain popularity.

In a short period of time, things had become another topic that society cared about.

Now, there were too many naughty children making mistakes and their parents being unreasonable. Naturally, it was more dramatic for unreasonable parents to treat a person like Chen Shengfei as a shill. It made this parent seem ignorant and stupid.

Therefore, the people who had seen the video yesterday were stunned.

This reversal made them unable to react.

Many people looked at their abusive comments and silently chose to delete them. Then, their sense of justice erupted again and they commented again, "Little brat..."

After watching the video, Guo Huai hurriedly took out his phone and went online to search for information about Blue Ocean Corporation. When he saw Chen Shengfei's information, his legs felt weak.

"Damn it, you guys killed me!" Guo Huai cursed angrily.

He did not investigate seriously because he believed in his cousin and cousin-in-law and wanted to use this matter to gain more fans. Who knew that his cousin-in-law would actually cheat him? The shill he talked about actually had such an identity?

He immediately wanted to delete this video, but he suddenly received a system notification. "Your video is suspected of illegal dissemination. It has been banned."

Immediately after, another official system notification appeared. "Your account is suspected of illegal video transmission. The situation is serious. Your account has been permanently banned."

"No... No..." Guo Huai was anxious.

For three years, in order to get this self-media account, he had spent a lot of money on materials, filming, and spending money on Dou+. He had only started to earn money this year. Furthermore, he had accepted two advertisements. If his account was gone, he would have to compensate double.

Guo Huai anxiously took out his phone and contacted Douyin's official management, but he found that he had been blocked.

He was stunned.

The self-media account with more than 200,000 fans was clearly insignificant to Douyin, especially after it was sent a lawyer's letter by a lawyer team. How could they care about your life?

It was fine if he did not continue to pursue the matter. If he continued to pursue it, he would be dead meat.

"It's over!" Guo Huai was not stupid. He knew his situation. He called his cousin-in-law in frustration. "Cousin-in-law, didn't you tell me that it was true? Why is this happening? I treat you like family, but you actually tricked me like this? You're worse than dogs."

Lin Chunlan was clearly unhappy to be scolded. "It's just a video, just delete it. I'm the one suffering, it's all been filmed. I don't know how I'll go to work."

With that, Lin Chunlan hung up angrily.

“F*ck...” Guo Huai smashed his phone angrily. Could this be resolved by deleting the video?

Wasn’t it just a video?

Not to mention that he was about to vomit blood.

If the other party called the police and accused them of slandering and damaging their reputation, with hundreds of thousands of likes and so many videos to ride on their popularity, they would have to eat three free meals.

He finally knew what it meant by the more you trusted someone, the more they might trap you to death.

...

In the morning, Qin Lin left 300 catties of ripe okra behind and sent the remaining okra to the villa.

As soon as he arrived at the villa, he saw Gao Yaoyao running out excitedly. “Boss, do you know who that Mr. Chen is? He’s the chairman of a large corporation in the city. The media account that slandered you is in trouble. His video and account were blocked just now.”

She was also very worried about the villa being slandered. She had been paying attention to the development of the matter. Now that she saw Qin Lin, she could not help but report the good news.

Qin Lin got Chen Dabei to unload the things in the car with the security guard and took out his phone to look.

As expected, he could not see the video from yesterday. Even his account had been blocked.

This was within his expectations. Once Mr. Chen’s identity was revealed, even if Mr. Chen did not speak, Douyin would probably not tolerate the person who sent the video. After all, it was Douyin who was in the wrong. They were also afraid that Mr. Chen would find trouble with them.

However, he would not let it go if others criticized him.

If it were another situation and he had no way to retaliate, his villa might be finished. All his efforts during this period of time would have been in vain.

Furthermore, he knew very well that if he met such a tourist this time and did not deal with it, such an incident might occur again.

Therefore, Qin Lin left the villa and went straight to the Youcheng Police Station.

There was a criminal law called libel.

Slandering someone’s reputation, as long as it spread to a certain extent or caused serious mental damage to the victim, would constitute slander. According to the severity, it would be sentenced to less than three years in prison, criminal detention, control, or deprivation of political rights.

However, this criminal law also left room for negotiation. Other than seriously endangering social order and the interests of the country, it was only dealt with when told.

The so-called “only deal with what you tell” referred to the crime of defamation. The court would only accept it if the victim confessed. Otherwise, it meant that they would provide a private settlement.

This also caused the cost of defamation to be too low. Many people on the Internet were unscrupulous. Once such a thing happened, the victims would squeeze tears and admit their mistakes or push the blame on the young and ignorant. Many victims would forget about it.

Some people would even take out money and settle it privately.

When many victims saw that it had already happened, they wanted to get some benefits and accepted it.

Of course, there were also people who did not like these two sets because they wanted to teach you a lesson. If the situation was serious, they could only go in and eat three free meals.

Qin Lin wanted to make an example of him now, so he was determined to report the case first.

It was the parent’s fault for not educating the brat. If the parent knew that and still threw a tantrum, he would educate this parent on behalf of society and be a role model for this brat.

Qin Lin entered the police station and registered the case. He also provided evidence. Actually, the video was so big that the police officers in Youcheng Police Station knew about it, so they accepted it easily.

After that, the police station asked Qin Lin to go back first and start investigating the woman’s identity in the video.

...

On the other side, Guo Huai’s expression turned even uglier when he received the message on his phone.

“Mr. Guo, your account has been blocked and you have failed to fulfill the advertisement contract. I hope you can compensate us as soon as possible. Otherwise, we will sue you...”

He had accepted two advertisements. If he compensated according to the contract, it would not be enough even if he sold his car.

This made him angrier the more he thought about it. In order to help his cousin and cousin-in-law vent their anger, his career had been ruined, but this cousin-in-law actually acted as if nothing had happened.

Guo Huai drove straight to his cousin’s house. When he reached the door, he knocked fiercely.

“Cousin, you’re here?” His cousin said awkwardly. “I know this has affected you, but the videos have been blocked. I’ll treat you to a meal to apologize.”

“Is that something that can be resolved with a meal?” Guo Huai roared angrily. “Do you know that my account has been blocked because I helped you? I spent more than 100,000 yuan on this number. Two advertisements flew away. Now, I have to compensate more than 200,000 yuan. You have to pay this money. Otherwise, I won’t let you off.”

When Lin Chunlan heard this, she walked out unhappily. “Guo Huai, this is your fault. I just showed you the video and complained to you. Don’t think I don’t know that you want to use this video to increase your popularity. Now that something has happened, you’re looking for us to make a scene.”

Guo Huai almost vomited blood when he heard this. He finally knew what kind of person his cousin-in-law was. No wonder she had done such an embarrassing thing in Qinglin Villa.

As they were arguing, they suddenly saw a few police officers going upstairs.

When one of the police officers saw the three of them, he said, “Ms. Lin Chunlan and Mr. Jiang Hang, I hope you can cooperate with us to investigate the defamation of Qinglin Villa. Also, please tell us the owner of the account of Huaiying Media in Youcheng County.”

When she heard this, Lin Chunlan was instantly dumbfounded. She thought it was just a small matter and did not expect the police to come looking for her. She was so frightened that her legs felt weak.

Chapter 44: Trying to Study the Game Seed! The Villa Is Completely Popular!

Qinglin Villa had really become famous these days.

On the first day, the trending topic of the villa’s forced sale caused an uproar. This was a social problem that attracted attention.

The next day, the incident suddenly reversed and turned into a naughty child making a mistake. A parent’s unreasonable social topic or such a naughty child making a mistake was more infuriating.

After all, there were often brats on the Internet who made mistakes and caused huge losses, but the parents wanted to use the excuse that he was only a child to brush it off.

Some parents even said confidently that the law could not control their children and acted as if it was a matter of course.

This also made Qinglin Villa even more popular.

Therefore, Qin Ren’s studio’s media account also gained a wave of fans. As a thank you, Qin Ren’s studio also released the promotional video of the triangular plum blossom sea that had been filmed previously when it was at its most popular. It helped Qin Lin attract popularity to the triangular plum blossom sea.

Instantly, the art-like sea of flowers promotional video attracted a huge wave of popularity.

Everyone who saw the video was attracted by the sea of flowers in the video.

Because it was really beautiful.

Under the effect of the entry, every scene seemed to have been carefully carved by a great artist.

Especially the video in the center. The sea of flowers was so charming that one could not take their eyes off it. The dancing butterflies, the pleasant birdsong, and the fearless squirrels were all so shocking.

In a short period of time, countless people asked about the sea of flowers. It had become an Internet celebrity attraction.

This was also another goal that Qin Lin had carefully planned. Not only would he make the people who defamed him pay, but he would also publicize his villa.

As a result, the number of tourists in the villa increased drastically. Not only were there many locals in Youcheng County, but many people in Sand City and the city were also attracted to clock in.

Qinglin Villa.

Qin Lin was holding a hoe and rummaging through a piece of land in the large courtyard behind the hall.

Beside him, the security captain, Chen Dabei, was also busy with a hoe. He looked like he would do whatever his boss was doing.

“Lin Zi, what are you doing?” Qin Ren asked curiously.

This villa was already so popular. He did not understand why his brother was still in the mood to dig.

He had been staying at the villa for the past two days to film the triangular plum video.

His studio’s account had also increased a lot in traffic. The studio’s media account naturally had to continue to gain another wave of scenery traffic. The other partners were not familiar with Qin Lin, so they were sorry to leave this matter to Qin Ren. It could be considered a ‘business trip’ to this villa.

“I plan to plant watermelons!” Qin Lin explained and took out a bag of seeds to plant.

Qin Lin naturally dug the ground because of this Quality 2 watermelon seed.

[Seed of seedless watermelon (Quality 2)]

[A seed that has been specially cultivated. The watermelon planted tastes delicious. There is no planting season restriction, and the growth cycle is extremely short.]

The seeds outside could be obtained from the game.

Then the seeds in the game should be able to be planted outside, right?

It was also his way of trying.

Although he knew very well that the ordinary watermelon seeds outside could be planted in the game to produce a Quality 1 watermelon, it must be related to the game itself.

Quality 2 watermelon seeds did not have a game level 3 land. It was very likely that he would not be able to plant Quality 2 watermelons outside.

But he had to try, right? After all, the reality was not a game. It was unpredictable. Everything was not static.

Even if the Quality 2 seed could not plant a Quality 2 watermelon outside, if the quality deteriorated and a Quality 1 watermelon could be planted, then cultivating new seeds could be considered a new breed and was stronger than ordinary watermelons.

What if the environment changed because of the difference? The plant seeds had an environment and climate adaptability. What if one or two of them adapted to this environment and could maintain their original quality?

Wasn't that awesome?

One had to know that the earliest rice research had also relied on such a difference to obtain seeds. Although the chances were low, they always hoped that it was possible.

Furthermore, this Quality 2 seed had another characteristic, which was that there were no seasonal restrictions. It could also be planted directly in winter.

"Plant watermelons? Lin Zi? It's almost October. Are you joking?" Qin Ren opened his mouth and felt that his brother was teasing him.

Everyone knew that watermelons were planted in March.

If he wanted to plant it in October, he had to get a big shed.

Qin Lin did not explain and continued to plant the seeds in his hand on the ground.

The greenhouse naturally had to be built. This was because, in order to nurture seeds, he had to turn these two quality seeds into multiples again... After many procedures, he still had to rely on ordinary watermelons to pollinate them before he could nurture seedless watermelon seeds from the four-fold plant!

The process was complicated and required a lot of effort.

Other watermelon seeds needed a big shed in winter.

This process was complicated. For the past two days, he had been studying the books and knowledge related to technology.

After planting the seeds, he did not forget to instruct Chen Dabei, "Remember to water them."

"Okay, Boss!" Chen Dabei nodded.

When Qin Ren saw this, he did not continue asking. Instead, he said, "By the way, Lin Zi, have you created the villa's official account? With this popularity now, it's time to attract traffic. It's estimated that the popularity will continue for the next few days. Who would have thought that the sea of flowers videos taken by those tourists can actually look so good? The more tourists there are, the more traffic you have. You might be able to blow up the flow pool. That would be awesome."

Qin Lin nodded. "I've already done it. Moqing is helping me manage it."

At this moment, Gao Yaoyao jogged in from outside and said, "Boss, the 300 catties of okra this morning has been sold out. Many tourists, especially the male tourists, want to buy it."

As she spoke, her pretty face clearly turned slightly red because she knew the effect of the okra and why those male tourists wanted it.

This was because the effect of the Special Quality 2 okra had been exposed by a tourist. After all, there were always tourists who were willing to try.

There was no need for Qin Lin to publicize it.

There was even a rich second-generation heir who was attracted online yesterday. He even brought two female companions and ate a meal of special Quality 2 okra.

Then, that rich second-generation heir spent the night in Youcheng County last night and was inexplicably discovered. This morning, he was even posted online. Under the popularity of the villa, this rich second-generation heir even became popular!

This made Qin Lin a little confused.

Quality 2 okra was famous, but there were only a few of them every day. Therefore, even Quality 1 okra was very popular.

Moreover, Quality 1 okra was indeed effective. After all, it had the effect of kidney filling +1.

Therefore, this okra suddenly became the most popular food in the villa.

"I'll handle it!" Qin Lin nodded at Gao Yaoyao.

After this batch of okra became inexplicably famous, he planned to stop supplying it. Apart from supplying the villa with okra, he could also use some land to plant other crops to provide for the villa and increase the diversity of food.

However, Gao Yaoyao said, "Boss, other than the special quality watermelons, the strawberries that cost 40 yuan a catty have been sold out. The fish in the fish pond is almost gone. Before the morning passed, 261 people had already been served. Many people said that there are too few things to spend on. We don't even have enough stove and grill to rent. Many people take turns using one. The tourists are complaining."

"Sigh!" Qin Lin sighed helplessly when he heard this.

Who could blame him?

Initially, they only wanted to take the opportunity to promote it, but the popularity exceeded their imagination.

Furthermore, his triangular sea of plum blossoms had attributes. The tourists who came would definitely be surprised and shocked. Later on, there would be more people. In the future, it would probably increase explosively.

However, the result was that many things in his villa could not keep up. When tourists reached a certain level, the density would be too high, and it would affect the view of the sea of flowers. There would be many problems.

At that time, he would probably have to limit the number of tickets every day.

He was probably the only one who would worry about too many tourists, right?

Gao Yaoyao continued, "Boss, there's one more thing. There are too many people. The two security guards in the sea of flowers can't keep up. Today, we discovered that a tourist threw a stone at a small squirrel."

Qin Lin sighed.

There were always some people who had slipped through the net of quality education. He could only instruct Chen Dabei, "In the afternoon, go to the veterans' recruitment area in the same city online and post the information about recruiting security guards. After that, your security department will also take a commission. I'll take a look at how much you take next time."

"Okay, Boss!" Chen Dabei immediately replied with a face full of joy.

He was getting more and more satisfied as the security captain. He had more and more subordinates, which made him work harder. He immediately went to get a water bottle to water the watermelon seeds.

When Qin Lin came out of the hall, he realized that the Quality 1 okra and Quality 1 strawberries had indeed been sold out. On the other hand, there were fewer people asking about the 20 Quality 2 watermelons. If they were sold as a whole, this watermelon would cost more than 1,000 yuan.

If he played in a place and used a soft knife to cut the flesh, the tourists would not feel heartache if they spent 2,000 yuan slowly. Ordinary tourists really could not bear to spend 1,000 yuan at once.

At noon, Qin Lin looked at the registration.

In one morning, 321 people had already been served. Most of them had watched the video online and came to clock in. Just the tickets to the triangular plum blossom sea had been sold for 16,050 yuan.

Furthermore, the Quality 1 okra, Quality 1 strawberry, and 10 catties of Quality 2 okra he had shipped over in the morning were all sold out. They were also worth 43,350 yuan.

The other turnover added up to 21,476 yuan.

The turnover this morning had already exceeded 80,000 yuan. Furthermore, most of it was done without any capital.

This was still the reason why he did not completely squeeze out the spending power of these tourists. He had to get more things that could allow tourists to spend.

There was a vegetable garden in the vegetable villa, so he could still handle it for the time being.

On the other hand, he had to contact a fruit wholesaler to get more ordinary fruits to deal with the tourists who were about to explode. It was probably not enough to rely on the game.

There was also the fish in the fish pond. The fish he caught every day in the game were far from enough. He had to contact wholesale seafood.

Furthermore, the 30-acre triangular plum blossom sea had a limited capacity for tourists. Before it exceeded the density limit, they had to do a diversion project.

The planned rafting project was about to begin.

Otherwise, when the number of tourists reached a certain number, it would be awkward if they had to queue for a long time to see the sea of flowers.

Chapter 45: Others Can't Eat It, I Can't Finish It!

The villa's hall was already very lively. The dining table was filled with people. There were still people waiting outside. There were not enough stoves and barbecue racks for the tourists, so many tourists chose to order food.

This also made Qin Lin decide that other than the diversion project, the villa had to be expanded. Otherwise, the experience would be too bad.

He walked to the back of the kitchen and placed two tables inside.

Master Lin was already serving the dishes one by one.

With more employees, this place had been transformed into an employee cafeteria. Naturally, the employees could only take turns eating. After all, there were too many tourists. Usually, the management ate first before taking over the important positions of the class and changing the employees to eat.

Gao Yaoyao and Chen Dabei were especially excited today and could not wait. This was because Qin Lin had given Master Lin 35 catties of wild grass carp today for the chef to cook for everyone.

They had never eaten such an expensive big item before. How could they not look forward to it?

"Lin Zi, where did you get so much stuff?" Qin Ren followed behind and had already begun to rub his hands, his eyes shining.

The last time Qin Lin sent one to his house, he still remembered the taste. Looking at the braised grass carp, he could not wait.

"Eat your food!" Qin Lin did not answer.

This kind of big goods was indeed very rare. For example, bass. Only one or two big goods above 10 catties were discovered all year round.

Because of the game, he could have one or two a day.

Therefore, he tried his best to control the number of large goods. Otherwise, the number would be too shocking. There was still a group in the game's pond.

Others could not even eat it, but he could not even finish it.

These things could be eaten privately or used to entertain people like Chen Shengfei who did not lack money. It would instead make these people feel proud.

Qin Ren did not stand on ceremony. He took the bowl and attacked the plate of wild grass carp.

"Boss, this fish is too delicious. I'm going to bite my tongue." Gao Yaoyao exclaimed as she ate. It was clearly the first time this girl had eaten such a delicious fish.

Master Lin reminded her, "Young lady, why are you making a fuss when you're eating? Hurry up and eat. Let someone else eat. We're busy outside."

"Got it." Gao Yaoyao stuck out her tongue mischievously.

After lunch, Qin Lin instructed Chen Dabei, "By the way, go to the wholesale market after dinner and post a message. Tell them that our villa wants to wholesale some fruits and seafood every day."

There were already many tourists in his villa. It was considered a fixed channel. There was no need to go to wholesale personally. Those wholesale chambers of commerce rushed to deliver goods to his door at a low price, just like when he went to RT-Mart previously.

"Okay, Boss!" Chen Dabei hurriedly swallowed a mouthful of fish and replied.

As expected, just as Chen Dabei went to the wholesale market to post the information, a fruit wholesaler and a seafood wholesaler came looking for him in the afternoon.

Qin Lin also knew the fruit wholesaler. His name was Lin Feng.

His previous fruit shop had been receiving goods from him.

The seafood wholesaler was a middle-aged man.

"So this villa belongs to President Qin." Lin Feng saw that Qin Lin was clearly smiling. "President Qin, we're old acquaintances. You have to continue taking care of my business."

"President Lin, as long as the price is right, we will definitely continue to work together," Qin Lin said with a smile. He had a good impression of Lin Feng in the past.

The middle-aged seafood wholesaler also said, "President Qin, hello. My name is Wang Wei. I have many seafood types available. Other than delivering them to your door, you can also lower the price."

"President Wang, let's talk." Qin Lin shook hands with him.

Although the wholesale items outside did not make him much money, he was not willing to spend more money if he could sell them at a cheap price.

Next, Qin Lin discussed the details with the two of them. He had made fruits and vegetables in the past and was very clear about the wholesale price of fruits. He had also checked the wholesale price of seafood. The other party could not take advantage of him.

They both gave him a lower price than the market. He accepted it and finally signed the contract.

From tomorrow onwards, Lin Feng would send more than ten kinds of fruits to Shan Zhuan. As for the quantity, it depended on the demand in the future. Wang Wei would also send some cultivated fish, crabs, prawns, and other seafood to the villa every day.

In the future, fishing in the fish pond would depend on luck.

In the evening.

The okra in the game had matured again. Qin Lin sent this batch of mature okra to RT-Mart and brought 10 catties of Quality 2 okra to President Chu. He thanked the other party for the advertisement time in the open-air video. Then, he informed him that he would not be sending more okra in the future.

After all, it was only 6 yuan a catty for RT-Mart. His villa was selling for 15 yuan a catty. If it could be sold, he would definitely not give it to RT-Mart.

“President Qin, it seems like I have to go to your villa to eat this special quality okra in the future.” President Chu hugged the 10 catties of Quality 2 okra like a treasure.

Qin Lin smiled and said, “Then I’ll welcome President Chu anytime.”

...

After leaving RT-Mart, Qin Lin went straight to the seed shop and did not deliver goods to RT-Mart. In the future, the okra planted would naturally be supplied to the villa.

However, other than the six boxes that were sold in the game for a long time to earn game coins, the other 24 boxes could obtain more than 3,000 catties of okra every day. No matter how popular the okra was, the villa did not need so much.

Therefore, he planned to plant something else.

For example, yams were not cheaper than okra in the market now. They had also reached 5 yuan a catty.

There was also broccoli. Broccoli was harvested from March to July. It was already considered an off-season vegetable. The market price had already begun to rise in the past two days, so it was slightly cheaper than okra.

He planned to take out some land and especially plant broccoli and yams. When the time came, he would sell them at the villa for 15 yuan a catty like the okra.

When they returned to the villa, it was still lively until dark. According to the statistics today, there were more than 600 tourists.

This was definitely an astonishing number of tourists for a villa. From this, one could also see the power of online publicity. Naturally, the triangular sea of plum blossoms he had built had game attributes. This was also the main reason.

At night.

When Qin Lin returned home, Lin Fen asked with concern when she saw him, “Xiao Lin, how has the villa been for the past two days?”

Qin Lin smiled and said, “Mom, business is very good now. Don’t worry!”

Lin Fen suddenly suggested, “Xiao Lin, why don’t I go to your villa to help? I’ve been eating the bass you brought back. My body is much better.”

Qin Lin frowned and said, “Mom, there are employees in the villa. Why would I need your help?”

“Xiao Lin, I’m bored cooped up at home all day,” Lin Fen said stubbornly. After she recovered, she did not want to stay at home forever.

Unless her son gave birth to a grandson for her to raise!

When Qin Lin saw his mother’s stubborn look, he was helpless. He could not be more stubborn than his mother. He knew that she was someone who could not stay idle. If he did not agree, she might run to the villa tomorrow and not let her go. She might even be in a bad mood.

Qin Lin could only deal with his mother first. He was really vexed.

...

The next day, he got up.

Qin Lin looked at the screen in his mind immediately.

The okra, yams, and broccoli were all ripe.

He controlled the game character to pick and plant new seeds. Then, he entered the game and saw the harvest information in the storage room.

Quality 1: 900 catties, Quality 2: 4 catties.

Quality 1 yam, 420 catties. Quality 2 yam, 2 catties.

Quality 1 broccoli, 380 catties. Quality 2 broccoli, 2 catties.

Qin Lin looked at the notes of the yams and broccoli.

[Yam: Quality 1]

[This is a special crop. It has a nourishing effect. It improves physique +1, improves the spleen and stomach +1, and nourishes the kidneys +1.]

[Yam: Quality 2]

[This is a special crop. It has an extremely strong nourishing effect. It improves physique +2, improves the spleen and stomach +2, and nourishes the kidneys +2.]

[This is a special crop. It has a nourishing effect. It purifies the blood vessels +1. It fights diabetes +1, catheterization +1, and kidney nourishment +1.]

[This is a special crop. It has an extremely strong nutritional effect. It purifies the blood vessels +2. It fights diabetes +2, catheterization +2, and kidney nourishment +2.]

“???” Qin Lin had chosen these two vegetables according to the market price, but when he looked at the note, why did he feel that something was wrong?

Kidney nourishment?

Nourishing the kidney?

Why did it have such an effect?

It seemed like these two vegetables were not expensive for no reason.

Chapter 46: Chen Shengfei Is Here Again! There are Good Things Here!

Qin Lin moved the okra, yams, and broccoli out of the game and placed them in the car before pulling them to the villa.

As for the strawberries and watermelons, they would have to make another trip. A three-wheeler could not pull so many.

He felt that it was time to buy a blue truck. He could drive this C1 truck.

He could also use the driver's license that Zhao Moqing had dragged him to get during the driving school event at university.

At that time, because of his family's reasons, Zhao Moqing had helped pay the fees for his driver's license. It made him feel like he was living off a woman. It was really fragrant.

When he arrived at the villa, he saw that there were already baskets filled with various fruits and aquariums filled with seafood in front of the hall.

Lin Feng and Wang Wei had already brought the goods over. When they saw him, they went forward.

"President Qin, you're here. I was waiting for you to check the goods."

"President Qin, come and take a look. I guarantee it's fresh!"

Qin Lin nodded and went up to check the fruits and seafood the two of them had sent over.

The two of them did not treat him like a fool.

The fruits and seafood looked good.

He called Chen Dabei over to bring people over to weigh and then calculate the number.

The contract he signed with the two of them was a weekly settlement.

After they were done, the two of them chatted with Qin Lin for a while before bidding farewell and leaving. They were still very busy at the market. This was the first time they came by themselves. After that, they would get their employees to deliver the goods.

Qin Lin also went to the computer to register the number of wholesale goods.

On the first day, more than 100 catties of fruits were wholesale. Crab, prawns, and other seafood were also wholesale for 30 catties. There were also ordinary black carp, grass carp, and bass. There were more than 100 catties in total.

As for the exact number, he would adjust the consumption of the mountain villa.

However, he was not afraid that these would not be exhausted. He had received more than 600 tourists yesterday, and those who came to play would always buy some fruits.

Furthermore, there were many people who had eaten yesterday. These people came to this villa to help themselves. Under such an atmosphere, no one would be stingy. These seafood were only 30 catties each, so they were not afraid that they would not be consumed.

The profits of these wholesale items were only at different prices. The profits would definitely not be as much as the items produced by the game. However, it could be considered a supplement.

Furthermore, these wholesale items could also better conceal the things he had gotten from the game.

“Chen Dabei, pour those fish into the fish pond,” Qin Lin instructed Chen Dabei. He then looked at Gao Yaoyao and said, “Gao Yaoyao, bring people to put the things on the shelves. I’ll give you the exact price later. Just stick it on.”

Some shelves had already been placed outside the hall, and a simple umbrella had been built to cover it. Now, there were no conditions. Before the special sales center was built, they could only make do.

“Okay, Boss!” Gao Yaoyao replied sweetly and got busy with the waiter.

Chen Dabei also brought two security guards to the fish pond.

Qin Lin looked at the wholesale data recorded and had a flash of inspiration. If he really could not win against his mother, he would let her record the wholesale number every day. Anyway, the system software would automatically calculate it, so she did not need to think too much. She just needed to register the number.

He would treat the rest of the time as her recuperating in the villa. He would let her take Wang Cai for a walk when she was free. Under the lively atmosphere, it was good for her body to be in a good mood.

Gao Yaoyao quickly arranged the fruits and seafood with the waiter. Soon, tourists arrived and the villa started to get busy.

It was almost noon.

A Maybach 62S drove into the villa’s parking lot again. When Chen Dabei, who was patrolling, saw this car, he went up to guide it to park.

Chen Shengfei got out of the car with a square-faced man.

The square-faced man frowned as soon as he got out of the car and said, “Old Chen, your taste is a little special. Why did you come to such a place this time?”

Clearly, he was disappointed.

This parking lot was still muddy. It was too degrading.

If he was not extremely familiar with Chen Shengfei, he would have felt that the other party was patronizing him.

Chen Shengfei knew what the other party was thinking. He smiled and said, "Old Ma, don't be fooled by appearances. We've worked together for so many years. How can I brush you off with something disappointing?"

Old Ma nodded and followed Chen Shengfei into the villa.

When Chen Dabei saw this, he immediately found two warning signs and placed them around the car.

The warning signs signaled not to touch this car. Otherwise, it would be troublesome for the tourists and the villa.

Old Ma and Chen Shengfei walked to the reception hall and felt even more disappointed. "Old Chen, this facility seems a little backward."

This was clearly a villa. Furthermore, one could tell at a glance that it was a small investment from a small place. It was not even at the level of a casual villa.

He usually went to such top-notch vacation villas, and this one in front of him was really a little uncomfortable.

If the person who brought him here was not Chen Shengfei, he would leave now.

"Old Ma, I told you not to look at the outside. You can eat wild goods here. Wild bass weighing more than 10 catties and wild grass carp weighing more than 30 catties. That smell will definitely whet your appetite." As Chen Shengfei spoke, he entered the hall and walked toward the fish pool.

"Old Chen, are you joking?" Old Ma was clearly stunned.

He naturally knew about wild bass and wild grass carp. He had eaten a lot of them. Most of them were about two catties. When he ate five catties of wild bass at the Hundred Fragrance Pavilion, the boss of the Hundred Fragrance Pavilion had bragged that he was the king of bass.

Now, Chen Shengfei was telling him that there were still 10 catties of wild bass here?

As he was thinking, Old Ma followed him to the pool. Then, he was stunned and looked at the big fish inside in disbelief.

"These... are all f*cking wild?" Old Ma was in disbelief. What did he see?

Not only were there 10 catties of bass, but there were also two other types of fish. They should be 20 to 30 catties, right?

Looking at the price again, the price was only 250, 280, and 300 yuan per catty.

Chen Shengfei smiled and said, "It's indeed wild. It's still very different from artificial farming. Moreover, this isn't the only good thing here."

With that, Chen Shengfei walked to the shelf with an inexplicable smile, as if he was looking for something, but he did not find the 400 yuan a catty okra he was looking for.

He had brought Old Ma here for this.

“Mr. Chen, welcome again!” Qin Lin recognized Chen Shengfei and immediately went forward to welcome him.

When Chen Shengfei saw Qin Lin’s happy expression, he immediately said, “Boss Qin, I brought a friend to support you. This is Old Ma.”

“Hello, Mr. Ma.” Qin Lin shook Old Ma’s hand politely.

“Ma Liewen.” Chairman Ma also introduced himself and asked, “Boss Qin, these fish of yours are amazing. This is the first time I’ve seen so many big fish.”

“Boss Qin, give us a whole fish!” Chen Shengfei said as he pulled Qin Lin to the side with a strange expression. He whispered, “Boss Qin, why is the 400 yuan a catty okra from before gone? Old Ma is my good friend and I especially brought him here. His wife is more than ten years younger than him.”

Qin Lin immediately looked understanding. “Mr. Chen, I understand. I still have two things that are very effective. Do you want to buy it together? The price is the same!”

His wife was more than ten years younger and needed to be nourished!

Quality 2 okra, Quality 2 yam, and Quality 2 broccoli were too few. He did not plan to put them out now. These things were considered private in the future. They were usually placed in the game storage room. Anyway, they would not spoil inside the game.

This thing could only be taken out at critical moments.

Only the Quality 1 ones were sold.

“Then I’ll trouble Boss Qin.” Chen Shengfei nodded. “By the way, cut one of the special watermelons and two catties of strawberries. Let’s start with the appetizer first.”

“Then Mr. Chen, find a seat first,” Qin Lin said and went inside to arrange.

Chen Shengfei walked to the side and brought Ma Liewen to a table to sit.

“Old Chen, to think that there’s such a big item in such a place. I didn’t come in vain.” Ma Liewen’s attitude had clearly changed greatly.

Chen Shengfei smiled and said, “Old Ma, after eating this fish, you’ll realize that it’s more delicious than you think. Moreover, I said that this fish isn’t the only good thing here. This time, I guarantee that you won’t pay attention to the exterior of this villa again.”

“Is it that exaggerated?” Ma Liewen was stunned.

Even if this wild fish was big, he had eaten too much good food. After eating it once, the novelty of eating it for the second time would decrease drastically. The delicacies that could make him forget to return could be counted on one hand.

Chapter 47: I Was Superficial! I’m Completely Shocked!

Ma Liewen and Chen Shengfei sat at a relatively quiet table in the corner for a moment. Gao Yaoyao sent the cut Quality 2 watermelon and Quality 2 strawberry over.

“Mr. Chen, Mr. Ma, your watermelon and strawberries.” Gao Yaoyao’s face was filled with enthusiasm as she said sweetly, “The other things are already being made in the kitchen.”

“Yes!” Chen Shengfei nodded and said to Marvin, “Old Ma, try this watermelon and strawberries. They taste very good.”

As he spoke, he had already picked up a piece of watermelon and placed it in his mouth to chew.

When Ma Liewen saw this, he picked up a piece and took a bite. His eyes lit up. “This melon is delicious!”

Watermelons were common fruits, and he had eaten many expensive ones. However, he had really never eaten such a delicious watermelon in his hand. It was as if his taste buds had been stimulated. When he took a bite, there was a sweet aftertaste in his mouth.

Ma Liewen picked up another strawberry and placed it in his mouth. He could not help but praise, “Old Chen, you’re right. Other than fish, there are indeed other good things. There’s actually such a delicious watermelon and strawberry. I’m confident that I’ve eaten all kinds of fruits. I’ve also eaten a special watermelon that costs 100 dollars a catty, but it’s really nothing compared to this.”

Chen Shengfei smiled and said, “This means that it’s not that there are no watermelons in our country that are better than others. It’s just that they’re not as good as others. Now, many people are only staring at the specially imported varieties outside, but they don’t know that many of their things are better.”

“That’s very philosophical. I agree.” Ma Liewen gave Chen Shengfei a thumbs up.

A moment later, the kitchen helper brought the fish up. A wild bass more than 10 catties were made into fish head soup, steamed, and braised bass!

“Old Ma, try it!” As Chen Shengfei spoke, he had already picked up a bowl of fish soup and filled it for himself. After taking a sip, he revealed an intoxicated expression. “Classic.”

“Old Chen, you’re exaggerating,” Ma Liewen teased.

Chen Shengfei smiled and said nothing.

Ma Liewen also filled a bowl with fish soup and began to eat. Then, his face revealed disbelief. “Old Chen, is this fish soup? The wild fish we saw just now?”

Chen Shengfei smiled and said, “What else? It’s such a big fish!”

“F*ck...” Ma Liewen cursed. He was furious. “Is this the taste of wild bass? Then does the boss of the Fragrance Pavilion think I’m a fool? The last time he got a five-pound wild bass, he even bragged to me about how rare it was. He seemed to have given me a lot of face.”

“The taste of the other party’s 2.5 catties of wild bass is too different from this, right? He even said that a famous chef cooked personally? He must have used artificial growth to fool me. Otherwise, since they’re both wild, the taste wouldn’t be so different.”

"I'll be an idiot if I go to the Fragrant Pavilion again. I'll get my assistant to refund the membership card later."

"Uh, eat more. Later, you will realize that this fish is not only delicious." Chen Shengfei was stunned and did not know how to explain.

He had also eaten much wild fish, but they were really trash compared to Boss Qin's.

Old Ma shouldn't be talking about the Hundred Fragrance Pavilion. He suspected that Boss Qin had either added some materials and a special secret formula or some special breed that they didn't know about. Otherwise, how could it compare to those top-notch food therapies?

As Ma Liewen ate, he quickly felt that something was wrong. A warm current began to surge in his meridians and blood vessels as if his entire body had become smooth.

"Old Chen, this food therapy?" Ma Liewen was also knowledgeable and reacted now.

"The effect won't be worse than the Xue family's food therapy in the capital. Otherwise, why would I bring you here?" Chen Shengfei smiled and winked. "Besides, there's something better."

This completely surprised Ma Liewen.

From the beginning, he had completely looked down on this villa. It was too low-class. But now, he knew that he was too superficial.

He had completely changed his opinion of this villa. It was not only the delicious watermelon and strawberries.

This fish was definitely a classic. The warm current in his body and the comfortable feeling all over his body was definitely not fake.

According to Old Chen, it would not be inferior to the Xue family's food therapy in the capital. If the renovation was better and top-notch, this fish would probably have to be paid with tens of thousands of food therapy materials.

More importantly, Old Chen actually said that there was something better in this villa?

This inexplicably made him look forward to it.

If those guys in the city knew about this, their jaws would probably drop, right?

He, Ma Liewen, was actually looking forward to this small villa!

He found it unbelievable.

A moment later, a plate of yams, okra, and broccoli was served.

"Old Chen, these are the good things you're talking about?" Ma Liewen looked at the three very common vegetables in confusion.

Due to his previous experience, he did not immediately judge. Instead, he picked up his chopsticks and ate the three dishes.

After a while, he felt something strange again. The warm feeling at his waist appeared again.

“Old Ma, do you feel it?” Chen Shengfei also felt the warmth at his waist and asked with a strange smile, “Now do you know why my wife has been so gentle and in such a good mood these past few days? This effect is comparable to a small pill. The key is that the nourishment is not harmful and has a nourishing effect.”

“F*ck...” Ma Liewen cursed again before remembering that ordinary okra and yams also had this effect, but it was not so obvious.

He subconsciously picked up his chopsticks and kept eating.

When he reached 40 years old, his wife was more than 10 years younger than him. It was very hurtful to his pride to always stew supplements for him.

The more he ate, the more comfortable he felt.

For this meal, Ma Liewen ate until he was full.

“Sister, come here for a while.” Ma Liewen waved at Gao Yaoyao.

“Sir, what can I do for you?” Gao Yaoyao asked immediately.

“Where’s your boss? I want to see him,” said Ma Liewen.

“Sir, please wait a moment,” Gao Yaoyao said and took out her phone to call Qin Lin.

Qin Lin came over immediately after receiving the call.

When Ma Liewen saw Qin Lin again, he became very enthusiastic. “Boss Qin, do you still have okra and yams? I want to buy some and bring them back.”

Qin Lin still had a lot of Quality 2 okra. In the previous month, he had saved a lot in the game. He had more than 10 catties a day and still had about 300 catties.

This thing was placed in the game storage room. Due to the special nature of the game, it would not spoil. He was not in a hurry to take it out.

Wasn’t this a very good favor?

However, when he saw Ma Liewen, he pretended to be in a difficult position. “Mr. Ma, it’s not easy to obtain this kind of special quality okra. It’s still in the cultivation stage, and the production is limited every day. My villa can’t even supply it.”

It was still a rare commodity.

After taking enough advantage of President Chu, he naturally understood this logic better.

“Boss Qin, if there’s any, please get some,” Chen Shengfei said.

When Qin Lin heard Chen Shengfei speak, he took the opportunity to say, “Since Mr. Chen has asked, I’ll get a few catties of okra. However, the two of you will have to wait for a while. As for the yams and broccoli, they might not be available today. I can still get a few catties tomorrow.”

"It's fine. Old Ma and I can wait for a night." Chen Shengfei clearly felt proud when he heard Qin Lin's words.

After all, Qin Lin had given him face.

"Right. We can wait all night." Ma Liewen nodded back.

He and Chen Shengfei were talking about cooperation and renewing the contract to begin with. After working together for so long, it was just a matter of signing and discussing the details. It was the same wherever they were. It was just a matter of returning to the city to sign.

However, he had to bring some of this good stuff back. After all, he was usually busy and could not come here every day.

However, he thought of something. "Boss Qin, do you accept reservations here? Get me a membership card first. I'll save 500,000 yuan first."

"..." Qin Lin suddenly could not understand such a sentence.

He did not have a reservation service or a card service, let alone save 500,000 yuan.

He had gone to so many shops in his life and applied for so many membership cards, but none of them had more than 1,000 yuan.

Chapter 48: More Than 150,000 Yuan A Day! Want to Settle Privately!

"Mr. Chen, Mr. Ma, we don't have a card and reservation business yet," Qin Lin could only say awkwardly.

Wasn't it a joke to set up a card business in a tourist area?

Unless he came up with a project for high-end clients someday.

Ma Liewen could only suggest regretfully, "Boss Qin, you're making me unable to spend money even if I want to. It'll affect the experience!"

Chen Shengfei gave a suggestion. "Boss Qin, your villa is not very complete. I see that many places in the villa are deserted. You can completely solve the accommodation problem. There are quite a lot of tourists here now."

Actually, Qin Lin had this plan long ago.

When he was planning the rafting project, he also thought of building other facilities, including accommodation. This was also one of the necessary facilities in the scenic area.

However, funds and procedures were a problem now. He had to take it step by step.

He had to find a time to settle the relevant procedures first.

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liwen had a very comfortable meal. Naturally, the cost was also high. One Quality 2 watermelon was 1,300 yuan, two catties of Quality 2 strawberries were 400 yuan, two catties of Quality 2 okra were 800 yuan, two catties of Quality 2 yam were 800 yuan, and two catties of Quality 2 broccoli were 800 yuan.

One 11.5 catties of Quality 2 bass cost 4,600 yuan. In total, they spent 10,700 yuan.

It was unimaginable for ordinary tourists to eat more than 10,000 yuan.

However, to Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen, it seemed to be a common occurrence. After lunch, the two of them strolled around the villa as a form of digestion.

The villa only had a triangular plum blossom sea project, so the two of them could only enter the sea of flowers.

Unsurprisingly, the two of them were attracted by the sea of flowers.

No one could resist the effect of the game's attribute enhancement.

Chen Shengfei said in surprise, "Old Ma, I have to say that this sea of flowers is really beautiful."

Ma Liewen was stunned. "Old Chen, didn't you come in to take a look last time?"

Chen Shengfei explained, "I only cared about eating last time. Plus, I had something urgent to attend to, so I went back."

The two of them had been to many places for a vacation and had also traveled to many places. They had seen all kinds of scenery, but their picky gazes really could not attract them the moment they entered. Furthermore, the feeling of being in a good mood when they saw the beautiful scenery was really strange.

At this moment, Qin Lin's gaze was also attracted by a few tourists. They were all young ladies in Han clothes who were buying tickets to enter the sea of flowers.

This was clearly a carefully taken video and photo of the sea of flowers.

There were more people in the villa today than yesterday.

The popularity of his villa on Douyin continued to rise.

In Qin Ren's words, his triangular plum blossom sea had blown up Douyin's flow pool and become a real Internet celebrity.

Especially after the tourists were attracted to clock in, almost every tourist would take videos. Many of them also uploaded them to gain traffic. Most importantly, the videos taken by everyone were very good and artistic. They were easy to attract people.

This was unbelievable!

Therefore, his triangular sea of plum blossoms had condensed into traffic. In the future, the officials would continue to push the traffic and create a trending topics, just like the Unyielding Girl, Brother Pomegranate..., and Ding Zhen.

Now that the Internet was reorganizing Internet celebrities, it was important to be positive. Douyin did not dare to promote such Internet celebrities to create hot searches with great fanfare. As for the sea of flowers, it naturally would not be reorganized. They could promote it without restraint.

Therefore, there would be even more people attracted to Qinglin Villa in the future.

As for how long it could last, it actually depended on how his villa was maintained. It might only last a week or two, or it might last for a long time.

For example, back then, Unyielding Girl's methods were not as good as Brother Pomegranate's. Unyielding Girl gained more than 1.5 million fans in the time it took to blow up the traffic. Brother Pomegranate was very smart and put on all kinds of down-to-earth persona. In front of those people who took videos, he showed off his foreign language to foreigners and used the excuse of helping farmers. The time it took to blow up the traffic was even longer and more popular, attracting more than three million fans.

As for Ding Zhen, because a poor county needed him to attract attention, with the help of the Sichuan Provincial Government's tourism bureau, he directly increased to nearly ten million fans.

In this aspect, Qin Ren's suggestion was to first establish a villa media company in Douyin so that he could better transform this wave of popularity into his own traffic.

In the Internet era, as long as there were followers and fans, there was no need to be afraid of not having guests in the future.

For example, Brother Pomegranate was now in a music competition, right? It was almost impossible to miss out on his videos, but he had so many fans, and he could easily earn a few million yuan every year.

In the evening.

Qin Lin picked the ripe Quality 1 okra, yams, and broccoli and transported them to the villa again.

When the sky turned dark, Chen Shengfei and Ma Liwen stayed at the villa for dinner again.

In the evening, the two of them ordered another 20 catties of wild grass carp.

The two of them also ate a meal that cost 9,800 yuan. They ate two meals in this villa and spent 20,500 yuan.

Two meals cost more than 20,000 yuan. If it were someone else who did not know better, they would think that he was running an illegal shop.

When the tourists left, Chen Shengfei also left with Ma Liwen.

They entered the county city. After all, there was no place to stay in the villa.

Chen Shengfei brought Ma Liwen to the largest hotel in Youcheng County.

As soon as the two of them arrived at the front desk, a middle-aged man in the hall looked at them in surprise. "That looks like Chen Shengfei."

Someone beside him asked in confusion, "Chief Chen, do you know him?"

Director Chen explained, "It's the Qinglin Villa that has been very popular these past few days. Chen Shengfei is the one who was mistaken as a shill. Who knows that he's the chairman of Blue Ocean Corporation? A villa that can attract such a person must be very attractive."

“Moreover, that triangular plum blossom sea is really not bad. You’ve seen the data of this Zhong Qiang Hotel. Like the other two hotels, there are clearly many outsiders staying there. They should be attracted to see that sea of flowers.”

The person beside him said in surprise, “No wonder you especially pointed out Qinglin Villa at the county meeting.”

...

In the villa.

Gao Yaoyao also handed today’s statistics to Qin Lin.

As expected, with the popularity of the Internet, there were even more tourists today. There were 923 people, and the ticket income alone reached 47,650 yuan.

Other than Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen’s expenses, almost all the Quality 1 okra, yam, and broccoli had been sold. He had gained another 36,000 yuan.

There were also 610 catties of Quality 1 strawberry. Coupled with the Quality 2 strawberries and a few Quality 2 watermelons, it was a total of 36,800 yuan.

Quality 1 wild fish, rented fishing rod, stove grill... A series of them added up to 28,800 yuan.

In addition, there were wholesale fruits and seafood. The turnover of this batch was also more than 16,431 yuan.

In other words, his turnover for the day had already reached 135,081 yuan.

If he added in the expenses of Ma Liewen and Chen Shengfei, this had already exceeded 150,000 yuan. It was definitely unimaginable in Youcheng County.

Furthermore, most of them were businesses without capital.

However, there was also a troublesome problem now. The sudden increase in the number of people would soon reach the limit of the sea of flowers’ passenger density, which would affect the viewing pleasure.

No matter how beautiful and good a place was, if too many people poured in at once, the beautiful scenery would be greatly reduced.

After Qin Lin finished looking at the data, he looked to the side. Zhao Moqing was already sitting at a table and operating her phone seriously.

Tomorrow was a weekend, so she was here to help again.

“Gao Yaoyao, cut a special quality watermelon and bring it up.” Qin Lin instructed Gao Yaoyao before sitting opposite Zhao Moqing with a smile. “What are you looking at? Why are you so serious?”

Zhao Moqing complained, “It’s all because of your villa’s self-media account. I’m editing the information according to the accounts of other tourist attractions and then applying for certification. Qin Ren said that after the certification, the popularity of your triangular plum blossom sea will first push the official account of the villa.”

“You’ve worked hard!” When Qin Lin saw Gao Yaoyao bring the watermelon over, he personally took a piece and fed it to Zhao Moqing.

“Hmph!” When Zhao Moqing saw Qin Lin’s actions, she snorted arrogantly and took a bite of the watermelon.

However, she was still very happy to be able to help Qin Lin. Then, she took out a piece of information and handed it to Qin Lin. “Also, you need to apply for a lot of procedures to build a raft. First, you have to apply for approval from the Tourism Bureau. There’s also a river contract, a river modification permit, and the relevant tourist project operating permit. The Land and Resources Bureau will show the usage permit...”

“So many procedures!” Qin Lin felt a headache when he heard Zhao Moqing say a bunch of requests.

Some things looked like it was quite easy for others to do when they were outside the door. When it was time for him to do it, he realized that everything was very difficult.

With so many procedures and permits, he would die if he applied.

Zhao Moqing also knew how much the procedures were. She smiled and said, “Tomorrow is the weekend. I’ll apply for leave on Monday to compensate you!”

“You’re the best!” Qin Lin said.

As the two of them were talking, Chen Dabei suddenly ran in and said, “Boss, the couple who caused trouble earlier is here again. They’re outside.”

“...” Qin Lin frowned.

Defamation was considered self-incrimination, but he had already called the police previously. The police had also collected evidence, so the police could report the case to the court.

There should be some progress these days.

A moment later, Lin Chunlan and Jiang Hang walked in.

Qin Lin frowned slightly and roughly remembered why this couple was here.

Before the official court session, as long as both parties settled privately and withdrew the report, everything would be calm.

This was also the reason why so many people had slandered others but did not pay the legal price. They had all been resolved privately.

The police would definitely give this opinion to the couple according to the procedures. The two of them must have wanted to reconcile in private.

Chapter 49: Reconciliation is Impossible!

After Jiang Hang and Lin Chunlan came in, her husband, Jiang Hang, asked, "May I know who is Boss Qin Lin?"

"I am!" Qin Lin frowned at the two of them.

Jiang Hang hurriedly walked in front of Qin Lin and said, "Boss Qin, we're here to discuss what happened before. We were wrong in that video. I hope you can forgive us."

With that, he pulled his wife and said, "Apologize to Boss Qin quickly."

Lin Chunlan said very reluctantly, "I'm sorry. Can this matter pass?"

Qin Lin felt that it was ridiculous when he saw this woman's perfunctory apology. "You think it's over just because you say so? If it's so simple, why do we need the law?"

When Lin Chunlan heard this, she was dissatisfied. "What do you want? We've already lost 250,000 yuan to our cousin. We've suffered heavy losses and learned our lesson."

"What does that have to do with me?" Qin Lin really felt that this woman was here to joke.

When Lin Chunlan saw that Qin Lin did not accept her apology, she said angrily, "What do you mean? Didn't you call the police just to extort money? How much do you want?"

Jiang Hang was anxious when he heard his wife's words. "Boss Qin, that's not what she meant!"

He was really suffering.

Previously, his legal consciousness was weak. He thought that it was just a small matter for his cousin to help vent anger for his wife. Who knew that it would cause such a thing? Even the account that his cousin had been working on for three years had been banned.

Furthermore, their cousin had even recorded his conversation with them. When he asked if it was true, his wife casually said that it was true. Most of the responsibility for this matter fell on the couple.

The key was that their cousin had even sued them and asked them to compensate for the losses. Under the adjustment of their family, the couple had accompanied their cousin for 250,000 yuan to withdraw the lawsuit, but they had also become enemies.

He brought his wife over now because he wanted to reconcile with Boss Qin in private and let this matter pass.

Unexpectedly, his wife was used to being unreasonable. She actually dared to say anything.

Lin Chunlan said unhappily, "That's what I mean. Jiang Hang, can't you tell that the other party just wants to extort a sum of money as your cousin did?"

Clearly, she could not get over the fact that she had lost 250,000 yuan to her cousin. She was angry and exploded at Qin Lin.

Qin Lin laughed in anger. "Then I'll tell you, I really don't want your money. I just want to see you pay legal responsibility. If a brat makes a mistake and as a mother, you don't care about education, then I'll educate you on behalf of society and let you be the best negative example for your child."

“What the hell? Chen Dabei, chase them out.”

He had never thought of reconciling with the other party.

How many people in society were depressed and even chose to commit suicide because of others spreading rumors and slander?

These people could spread rumors and slander a person into the abyss with just a word. If it were under other circumstances, he would not be able to reverse the situation. Then, the sea of flowers he had just bought would be useless. He would even have another stain that could not be washed away.

At that time, the other party would probably still show a smug expression.

Now, this person who was spreading rumors and slandering others wanted to reconcile in private. How could it be so easy?

When Chen Dabei heard his boss's words, he did not hesitate and went forward with a few security guards to chase the couple away.

However, Lin Chunlan still said stubbornly, “Hey, stop pretending to be noble. How much do you want?”

“Enough!” Chen Dabei could not help but shout, “Woman, you're smart, right? Do you know how much our boss spent building this sea of flowers? Our villa's turnover today is nearly 200,000 yuan. Does our boss care about your family's money?”

“Our boss is unwilling to settle. Just wait for the court to sentence you! You really can't control your rotten mouth.”

With that, Chen Dabei instructed a few security guards, “Chase them out. If they don't leave, call the police and let them take them away.”

Chen Dabei's words were very harsh, but it made the couple's expressions turn abnormally ugly, especially when they heard that the villa's turnover was nearly 200,000 yuan a day. It was almost comparable to what their family had compensated Chen Lin. Everyone knew that this kind of scenic spot was very profitable.

Jiang Hang was really flustered. This meant that the other party was really unwilling to settle. The court would really sentence his wife.

The key was that his wife had been sentenced and left a stain. Even his child would be affected in the future.

Jiang Hang was anxious. He wanted to pull his wife in to look for Qin Lin, but he was stopped by the security guard.

“I beg you, let me in to see Boss Qin. We were really wrong.” Jiang Hang immediately pleaded with the security guards and wanted to barge in.

Those security guards ignored the couple. They did not want to lose their jobs either. Seeing that the couple did not leave and wanted to barge in, a security guard faithfully carried out Chen Dabei's orders and took out his phone to call the police.

Soon, the police arrived and took the distraught couple away.

In the hall.

Zhao Moqing listened to the distant police siren and frowned slightly. "Qin Lin, what do you think this couple is thinking? They could have just apologized and settled the bill if the child made a mistake. Isn't it just a few hundred yuan?"

Qin Lin smiled at Zhao Moqing and said, "This is the importance of a man marrying a good wife. If he marries the wrong wife, he won't be able to live peacefully at home. There will be endless trouble and it will even bring disaster. If he accidentally takes such an unreasonable wife, he will definitely be in trouble. Do you think everyone is as understanding, smart, and virtuous as you?"

Zhao Moqing did not expect Qin Lin to praise her as he spoke. She pinched his arm shyly. "Everyone is still watching!"

Beside him, Gao Yaoyao and the others immediately lowered their heads and pretended to clean seriously.

Unexpectedly, the boss was caught off guard and started showing off.

At this moment, Zhao Moqing suddenly said to Gao Yaoyao, "Yaoyao, the official Douyin account of the villa should be approved tomorrow. I'll rent a Han uniform tomorrow afternoon. Cooperate with me to film an ancient sea of flowers video to promote it."

"Okay, Sister Moqing," Gao Yaoyao replied sweetly.

These Heavenly Mountain Villas were very popular. She was initially a model for promotional videos. Her private account was also followed by many people. Although she only had more than 2,000 fans, she was still very happy as an ordinary person who originally only had a single-digit number of fans.

"Moqing, why don't you resign and help me? I happen to need a finance department." Qin Lin took the opportunity to suggest to Zhao Moqing.

The villa had grown bigger, and there were many management problems.

This was especially so for the financial aspect. He had not recruited anyone officially yet. Firstly, there was no suitable person. Secondly, there was the problem of trust. Many of his profits were from buying and selling game items without capital. When he paid taxes, he had to do the accounts. If he recruited someone with ulterior motives, it would be troublesome.

Zhao Moqing was already working at the tax bureau, so she was the most suitable person.

"Ah, is that good?" Zhao Moqing frowned.

Qin Lin said directly, "What's wrong with that? You're my wife. The villa is mine and yours. Isn't it only right for us to build a husband and wife shop together?"

Gao Yaoyao and the others looked helpless. They were light bulbs again.

They looked at each other and silently left the hall. The boss's show of love was never-ending.

When Zhao Moqing saw Gao Yaoyao and the others' actions, she pinched Qin Lin again. "I'm not talking about this. I really want to help you take care of our own business, but my current job is thanks to my uncle. I've only worked for a year. Isn't it bad to leave directly?"

Qin Lin smiled and said, "Moqing, our villa will definitely pay a lot of taxes next month. We'll also have a lot of contact with the tax bureau in the future. Do you think your uncle will be unhappy? Instead, you have to inform him in advance about your resignation."

"Hey, I just said you're smart. You're being stupid again."

When Zhao Moqing heard the last sentence, she was clearly dissatisfied. She pinched Qin Lin again. "You actually called me stupid."

She naturally understood what Qin Lin meant. After she left, there was another seat. She told her uncle in advance that if he wanted to make arrangements, he could do a favor.

Furthermore, based on the villa's current situation, the taxes would definitely not be low. Just based on the current situation, it was a high-quality tax company in Youcheng County.

"Then I'll go back and greet Uncle first," Zhao Moqing said after thinking it through.

As a woman, she had to work hard with her husband, fight together, and support him fully. Only then could she lead a good life.

Chapter 50: Character Upgraded Again! Sonic Water Tribute Rice!

The night slowly deepened.

Other than some romantic couples who had rented tents to camp in the villa, there were no more guests in Qinglin Villa.

Qin Lin also rode a small electric scooter and brought Zhao Moqing out of the villa.

Slowly, it was mid-October. It was already a little cold riding an electric scooter at night. Zhao Moqing felt the cold and hugged Qin Lin tightly, leaning against his back.

"Moqing, let's buy a car first. What brand do you like?" Qin Lin also felt a little cold.

After a while, it would really be a little cold. It would be torture to ride a small electric car out.

In the past, there were no conditions. Now that there were, he could not let Zhao Moqing suffer again.

"You haven't paid off your villa's debt yet, and you're planning to start a rafting project. Do you have enough money? Why don't you buy it after you finish paying? We don't need a car to support our reputation," Zhao Moqing said. She knew that Qin Lin owed a few million yuan to start the villa, and now that he was doing a rafting project, it also cost a lot.

Qin Lin's villa had just improved, so she naturally hoped that money would be used.

Naturally, she did not know that Qin Lin had earned money from buying and selling without any capital, nor did she know that Qin Lin did not owe money at all.

However, these sincere words filled Qin Lin with happiness. Compared to that troublesome woman, Zhao Moqing was simply the best gift from the heavens.

After sending Zhao Moqing to Ming Yuan District in the East City, Qin Lin watched her go upstairs before leaving in peace.

Zhao Moqing was in a good mood and hummed a happy tune as she went upstairs.

Qin Lin's days were getting more and more promising, making her feel completely relieved.

Previously, she had secretly taken the household register and registered her marriage with Qin Lin because she really loved Qin Lin and believed that she could fight with him and have a beautiful future.

Now everything was going well.

Qin Lin had such an advantage now, so her parents did not have to worry about her suffering when she married Qin Lin.

When he returned home, he saw his mother and sister-in-law watching a very melodramatic Korean drama. It seemed to be about the reversal of events in a penthouse.

"It's so late. Are you with Qin Lin again?" Chen Xiao asked immediately when he saw his daughter return.

"Mom, you're so beautiful tonight. You seem a few years younger," Zhao Moqing immediately said.

"You're changing the topic again," Chen Xiao said angrily. "Come with me to Auntie Liu's house tomorrow weekend. It's her birthday."

"Mom, you can go to Auntie Liu's birthday. I still have something on tomorrow," Zhao Moqing said and immediately slipped back to her room.

How could she not know that Auntie Liu had a son who had just returned? Her mother was guarding against Qin Lin like she was guarding against a thief. She felt that she should discuss it with Qin Lin and lay her cards on the table.

In the hall.

When Chen Xiao saw Zhao Moqing close the door, he looked at Li Jiawen angrily and said, "She's definitely going to look for Qin Lin tomorrow. As her sister-in-law, why didn't you say anything to him? It's not that Qin Lin isn't good, but as her sister-in-law, do you want to see her suffer?"

"Mom, Moqing gave me some tickets to the sea of flowers last time. I made an appointment with my best friends to see the sea of flowers tomorrow. My best friend sent me a voice message." Li Jiawen said as she pretended to pick up her phone and talk to the air.

To be honest, she was about the same age as Zhao Moqing and understood her sister-in-law's thoughts.

Most importantly, because of her sister-in-law, she had also interacted with Qin Lin. Putting aside his family situation, Qin Lin was actually very good.

...

When Qin Lin returned home, he saw his mother hugging Wang Cai and watching a dog-blooded television drama. He looked at the title of the drama and it seemed to be talking about a melodramatic plot in a penthouse.

This melodramatic drama seemed to be quite popular recently and was very popular with some women in their 30s to 50s.

"You're back?" Lin Fen turned off the television and stood up when she saw her son return.

Wang Cai ran up to him and circled him.

"Mom, how are you feeling today?" Qin Lin asked with a smile.

"I'm in good health and in a bad mood!" Lin Fen snorted.

Qin Lin was stunned for a moment and asked, "Mom, what's wrong? Who made you unhappy? Is it Wang Cai?"

"Wuwuwu!" Wang Cai immediately cried and jumped, as if it was anxious to explain that it was not it.

Lin Fen snorted. "Don't malign Wang Cai. You're the one who made me unhappy. Do you know that people can't be locked at home all day? They have to go out more and do something appropriately. Otherwise, they'll easily fall sick from staying in. I'm not like your Second Aunt and Auntie Lin, who still has a child to take care of..."

"Mom, stop talking. I'll let you go to the villa tomorrow, okay?" Qin Lin saw through his mother's motive.

She was not going to stop.

Over the past month, he had been feeding his mother wild bass of Quality 2. With the +2 attribute, he had indeed recovered his mother's body a little. As long as she was happy, he would let her do some registration.

Seeing that her goal had been achieved, Lin Fen happily turned on the television drama and watched it again.

Qin Lin took a shower and returned to his room. He had just dried his body when a notification sounded in his mind.

He immediately looked at the game on the screen in his mind. Another crop had matured.

The six slots were especially used to sell game gold coins in the game. The maturity time was different from the other 24 slots. It would be later.

Qin Lin controlled his game character to pick these six boxes of okra and sell them in the game. He had just planted a new seed when he received a system notification. "Character upgraded!"

He had leveled up again!

Qin Lin was delighted and immediately looked at the screen in his mind.

After this upgrade, another six slots were opened. At the same time, six slots could be upgraded to Level 2.

In other words, the number of Level 1 lands did not change, but he had six more Level 2 lands.

Other than that, he could actually develop a Level 1 paddy field.

This stunned Qin Lin.

Paddy field?

This new version had this?

The old version definitely did not.

Qin Lin did not dwell on this. He directly controlled the game character to develop all the Level 1 lands that were opened up in six slots. Then, he directly upgraded these six Level 1 lands to Level 2.

Over the past month, there were six boxes of okra sold in the game every day. There were enough gold coins to upgrade the land.

After upgrading the Level 2 land, he directly planted strawberry seeds.

Now that there were more tourists, 600 catties of Quality 1 strawberry a day was not enough. Many tourists would buy some. Furthermore, because it was delicious, some tourists would bring a few catties with them when they left. This made many tourists unable to buy it even if they wanted to.

Now that he had six more plots of Level 2 land, he could harvest more than 600 catties of Quality 1 red strawberries tomorrow. His income would increase by about 25,000 yuan.

Then, Qin Lin controlled the game character to develop the Level 1 paddy field and controlled the game character to go to the seed shop in the ore town. Indeed, he discovered some seeds: rice, wheat, soybeans, corn, and so on.

Now, he had fruit, vegetables, and seafood. He had made up for the main dish as well?

Furthermore, the price of rice seemed to have risen quite expensive. It was already more than four yuan a catty.

However, looking at the developed seeds, he made a surprising discovery:

[Xiangshui Tribute Rice Seed: Quality 1]

[This is a special rice seed. After long-term research, it is a selected species that are constantly optimized. After planting it, it can harvest Xiangshui Tribute Rice! After being modified by the game, there is no season to plant it. There is a chance of mutation. It can adapt to a change in the environment (restriction: Game seed)

Mature time: 12 hours.]

Xiangshui Tribute Rice?

Qin Lin was really surprised.

Although ordinary rice was only two to four yuan a catty, the price of some top-notch rice was unimaginable for ordinary people. For example:

Jingyang Rice was 8,400 yuan per catty.

Thousand Year Rice was 6,900 yuan per catty.

Oden Rouge Rice was 2,000 yuan per catty.

The “Head Rice” in the Northern Wilderness was 1,888 yuan per catty.

Zhefang Rice was 499 yuan per catty.

Fangshui County Cold Red Rice was 368 yuan per catty.

The price of this rice was shocking. It was purely something from a tycoon’s table. Ordinary people would find it unbelievable, let alone eat it.

The Xiangshui Tribute Rice was 500 yuan a catty.
