

The Game 471

Chapter 461: Is this flower really that awesome? it immediately caused! sensation

The more hou ping thought about it, the more happy he became.

The people of Linlin Manor did not recognize the Duke's Rose, so he had to seize this opportunity.

He couldn't be bothered to go to the toilet with his Secretary. He hurriedly found a waiter and said, "Little sister, I want to meet your boss. I have something important to tell him."

the waitress looked at hou ping in confusion, but she had no choice but to take out her walkie-talkie and report to gao yaoyao, the supervisor.

In the office.

Qin Lin was listening to Lin Lanzi's report. The county was going to hold a 4A scenic spot award ceremony, so Linlin villa would definitely have to prepare a card acceptance ceremony.

They needed to prepare a stage, a red carpet, and a special background wall for the ceremony.

Moreover, this matter couldn't be resolved simply. After all, it was related to the reputation of the villa.

Generally, a powerful scenic spot would make a big fuss after setting it up.

Lin Lanzi had worked out the plan overnight. After the Villa had approved it, she went to the county to get in touch with the people there and then set it up together.

let's leave the design of the ceremony background wall to Millennium Entertainment production! Qin Lin signed Lin Lanzi's plan and handed it back to her. "You can just go to mo Xiang and ask for approval."

"en!" Lin Lanzi nodded.

the ceremony's background wall had to be done by an advertising planning company, and she knew about millennium entertainment. it was now the largest advertising company in you city, and one of the major shareholders of the company seemed to be a brother of the boss.

She naturally understood this kind of friendship business.

Lin Lanzi opened the office door and saw Gao Yaoyao with a man and a woman.

"Sister LAN Zi." Gao Yaoyao greeted Lin Lanzi with a smile.

Lin Lanzi also responded, but she looked at hou ping and Zhao moqing in confusion. However, she didn't ask much and went to Zhao moqing's office. This plan required the boss's signature and the lady boss's loan.

Hou ping, however, took a few more glances at Lin Lanzi because this woman's figure was really not bad, and her mature face was also very beautiful.

He didn't expect there to be so many pretty girls in Linlin villa. The head of the service staff in front of him was also a pure and beautiful girl, and her smile was very sweet.

These beautiful women were completely different from his Secretary.

Being the owner of this villa must be very cool.

Gao Yaoyao didn't know what Hou Ping was thinking and brought him into the office.

"Yaoyao, who are these two?" Qin Lin asked, puzzled.

boss," Gao Yaoyao explained, "Mr. Hou said that he wanted to spend 500,000 Yuan to buy a rose pot in the toilet. He said that the pot is fated with him. I can't make the decision, so I had no choice but to bring him to see you.

"???" Qin Lin looked at Hou Ping in confusion.

The Rose pot in the toilet.

Isn't that only the Duke rose?

&Nbsp; interesting.

Hou Ping was surprised to see Qin Lin.

He was too young.

Linlin villa, Linlin leisure tea, Linlin tomato sauce, Linlin laboratory, all these together undoubtedly showed that the boss behind this was very powerful.

but who knew that the boss of Linlin villa was so young.

Hou Ping quickly remembered what he was here for after the initial shock. He quickly smiled at Qin Yang and said, I'm sorry to disturb you, but my name is Hou Ping. I'm in the flower business, especially the Rose business. Before my father passed away, he was still holding a grudge against a blue-wrapped, pink-core double-colored rose.

today, I happened to see a rose decorated with blue cores at the entrance of the villa's toilet. I think this might be fate. My late father is guiding me, so I want to buy this rose for 500,000 Yuan. I hope you can fulfill my wish.

This was naturally made up by him.

He wanted to use this kind of show to show his filial piety to his father to make the other party sympathize and sell the flowers to him.

Moreover, the other party didn't care too much and placed the flowers at the door of the toilet. He even offered 500,000. As a businessman, he would definitely sell it, right?

Qin Lin knew what the Duke's roses were about. He immediately looked at Hou Ping and said, Mr. Hou, you're very knowledgeable. You actually know the background of that rose.

Hou Ping was stunned.

What did that mean?

The other party knew that Duke rose?

Duke's Rose. I don't think you can buy it for 500000, right? " Qin Lin directly exposed hou Ping's thoughts.

"Ahoho!" Hou ping was really confused. He subconsciously said, if you know that it's the Duke's Rose, why would you place it at the door of the toilet? "

"Can't I like it?" "No matter how precious and meaningful it is in the xingtiao Kingdom, it's nothing to me," Qin Lin retorted.

"Tsk tsk." Hou ping didn't know what to say. He only felt like a clown. He could only say,"Um, I'm sorry, I won't disturb Yingluo anymore."

After saying that, he hurriedly left Qin Lin's office with his Secretary. If he didn't leave now, he would be looked at like a monkey.

Most importantly, the other party knew that these were Duke King's roses, so he couldn't buy them at the real price. That would require a lot of liquid funds, unless he stopped doing business.

After leaving the office area, hou ping started to curse in an extremely incomprehensible manner, " "Isn't there something wrong with this? Just because he liked this, he placed this kind of flower at the door of the toilet? This is a waste of God's gift, and you will be punished by the heavens."

Then, he left in a hurry.

He had to do one thing.

even if he couldn't buy it, he could still send this news to the distributors in the xingtiao kingdom. this news would at least win him some favor, which was better than doing nothing.

The Secretary next to him also took out her phone and started to operate it. Since President hou couldn't buy it, then she could post a video to attract some attention and traffic, right?

Chapter 462: Is this flower really that awesome? it immediately caused a sensation (2)

In the office.

Gao Yaoyao looked at Qin Lin in confusion. Boss, you said that the Rose pot at the toilet entrance is worth more than 500000? "

"It's not just that," Qin Lin explained with a smile.

"Boss, are you kidding me?" Gao Yaoyao panicked when she heard that. The 500,000-Yuan rose potted plant is just left there. I'll quickly tell sister Moxi and ask her to approve another fence."

After that, the girl left in a hurry. It was a 500000 Yuan flower. What if the tourists didn't control themselves and destroyed it?

When Zhao mochen received Gao Yaoyao's report, he also felt that his husband was getting more and more ridiculous. He went to Qin Lin's office immediately. hubby, can't you tell me what you're going to bring home? 500000 Yuan is right in the toilet. When did you start to treat money like money? " 1

Qin Lin heard Zhao moyin's reprimand and laughed, "That's not just 500000 Yuan."

"More than 500000?" asked Zhao Moxi anxiously. How much is this flower worth?"

let me put it this way, " Qin Lin explained with a smile. the most expensive pot of roses in the world is worth 4.5 million US dollars. The pot at the door of the toilet should be able to sell for five or six million US dollars.

"?????"zhao moyu was stunned when he heard this. " "Doesn't that cost more than 30 million Yuan? You actually spent 30 million to buy a rose and then put it at the door. Are you suffering from some rich man's quirk?"

zhao moyu was suddenly a little confused.

Although she and Qin Lin were now considered rich, she still didn't dare to think about spending 30 million Yuan on a rose.

She frowned again and said, "that's not right. I didn't sign a contract with the villa or the food company to transfer a large amount of money. Is it the money from the laboratory?" Or do you have a lot of money in your pocket?"

this matter was a little serious when it came to the issue of private money. qin lin hurriedly explained, these flowers were grown in that special soil. You can't buy them with money.

He quickly threw the pot to the soil and continued to explain, " also, the value of this flower isn't how much it can be sold for, but the meaning of its existence. This flower is called the Duke's Rose, and only one place has this flower. It's basically extinct in other places.

Zhao mochen's curiosity was piqued and he asked, " "Where?"

Qin Lin explained, " in the White Palace of the Starstreak Kingdom, roses are the national flower of the Starstreak Kingdom. However, the real national flower is the Duke's Rose. It represents faith and honor.

moreover, only the White Palace has this flower in the entire world, and only a small number of top figures in the Hoshino nation are qualified to see this flower.

yes, now our villa has one, and it's even placed at the door of the toilet.

"Qianqian." Zhao moqian's mouth was wide open in shock when he heard Qin Lin's words.

This was the first time she had heard of such a flower, and she was in disbelief.

Her husband actually put this kind of flower in the toilet?

However, when she thought of the recent incident of the two bears fighting on the internet, why did she want to say that it was well done?

She might have understood why her husband had done that.

It was just disgusting. 1

Although disgusting people was a very unethical thing to do, it also depended on who the person was.

I think I'll ask Chen dabeai to send a security guard to keep watch. In the end, Zhao moyin also left in a hurry. Although he felt that his husband had done a good job, the value of the flowers was still there. He still had to look at them and surround them.

Zhao Moyu was not the only one who was in disbelief. As a video went viral on the internet, more and more netizens found it unbelievable.

The video was of a rose potted plant placed at the door of a toilet. The person who filmed it was obviously not very skilled, and such a video would usually not be popular.

However, the title of the video was Linlin villa.

linlin villa was a hot topic on the internet, and such a title would easily attract attention.

If it was just this, it would still be difficult to become popular. After all, it was just a rose pot. Compared to the triangle plum in Linlin Manor, this rose pot was obviously not as outstanding.

However, the content of the video was really unbelievable.

"Shocking! This was a Duke king rose, and it was placed at the entrance of the toilet by Linlin Manor. The Duke king rose was the real national flower of the Star-Spangled nation, representing faith and honor. In the whole world, it could only be seen in a part of the White Palace. Other places had gone extinct, and only a small number of people in the world could enjoy it.

It was obviously sent by hou Ping's Secretary, and the content was shocking.

If this was true, wouldn't Linlin Manor be humiliating them? He had placed the capital Overlord's national flower at the entrance of the toilet.

But this was done beautifully.

It was just that there were too many videos on the internet that were trying to please the masses, and not many people believed them.

you're exaggerating about a rose in front of the toilet in Linlin Manor. Does Linlin Manor know about it?"

Linlin villa: I don't believe in rumors, I won't spread rumors!

you're trying to use our intelligence to rub against the ground. Seriously, how could Linlin Manor get their hands on such a thing?"

don't insult my intelligence. Although Linlin villa is very popular, it's only a scenic spot. How can you get this kind of flower?"

"Seeing that the story is well made up, I'll give you a like!"

"....."

The comments clearly did not believe the authenticity of the video.

After all, no one would believe this.

In you city's Zhong min hotel, hou ping was lying motionless like a dead fish, gasping for breath. The Secretary beside him cursed with a face full of regret, what's all this about? President hou, look at these people online. They don't believe in the Duke's Rose at all.

"What kind of people are those on the internet?" hou ping said disdainfully. He's just a keyboard-wielding braggart, what knowledge does he have?"

"Indeed, a bunch of country bumpkins know about the Duke King's Rose." The Secretary nodded in satisfaction.

Although he was unhappy with the criticism, the comments and likes were very fast. Moreover, the number of likes increased very quickly.

Indeed, Short Video were promoted based on viewership, likes, and comments. This also made the Secretary's video more and more popular, and it became a big hit with the popularity of Linlin villa.

This was especially true during the recent period when the Star-Spangled nation was on the rise. Even if the video of the National beauty, who represented the Star-Spangled nation's faith and honor, being placed at the entrance of a toilet was fake, it could still add to the fun of it.

However, just as everyone was discussing this as a joke, the video became more and more popular. Soon, it was seen by an expert who was knowledgeable about flowers. After a video by a professor V in flower research, the direction of the discussion changed.

" many people have tagged me, asking me to see if the duke king's rose in front of linlin manor's toilet is real or fake. actually, when i first found out about this news, my first thought was that it was fake. "

I'm sure everyone knows what the Duke's Rose is now that it's a hot topic. It's true that the entire world has gone extinct, and only the White Palace has survived. It's also true that it has a great significance, and it's the faith and honor of the capitalist Empire.

this flower is almost impossible to cultivate. All the floral scientists in the world have tried it, including me. But they all failed. The difficulty of cultivating this flower is almost as difficult as the Xiangshui tribute rice. It's almost impossible to succeed.

so, under this premise, the news that Linlin Manor has the Duke king rose is naturally false. But remember, when I saw the Duke king rose in the video, I was shocked.

that's right, the Rose pot that everyone is laughing at is the Duke king rose. This also made me think of someone, professor Li Kai. We might not be able to cultivate it because our abilities are limited, but professor Li Kai has cultivated the adonasi grass root, which has almost cured the Sima disease. If he were to cultivate the Duke king rose, I would not doubt it.

"But if this Duke king rose was cultivated by professor Li Kai, then the owner of Linlin villa must know what it is and what it means. He even put it next to the toilet. I want to ask him what his intentions are, and then give him a thumbs up. Beautiful!"

When the professor's video was released, it immediately caused a sensation.

Chapter 463: Qin Lin: He actually threatened me?

Duke Rose's popularity exploded.

Those who originally thought that the video was just for show suddenly realized that the flower was actually so awesome. Everyone was shocked.

Then, the scene completely changed.

I was too shallow. It turns out that Linlin villa can really get this kind of flower.

"If the flowers are real, it would be a beautiful job to put them at the door of the toilet."

your faith and honor can only be smelled at the entrance of my toilet.

"Haha, whoever can access the internet, go to the Hoshino and upload it online, haha."

professor Li Kai has just solved the problem of the raw materials for the Sima drug. Now, he's going to make the capital country's national flower worthless again!

"i can only say that professor li kai is awesome!"

"....."

With the Duke Rose's sudden popularity, Li Kai also became popular for some reason.

Linlin villa's medical room.

Li Kai sat next to Tang xiuwan, staring at her as she filled in the data.

He was actually no different from a young boy who had his first love. He had just said goodbye to his single life and always wanted to stick to his girlfriend. Especially when night fell, he wanted to stick to her even more.

Li Kai was always in such a state, especially for an old tree like him who had just come back to life. Once the depression of an old virgin broke out, he would burst out.

The nurse outside suddenly ran in with her phone. "professor li, you're on the hot search again. you're amazing."

"What?" li kai suddenly froze.

What's the matter now?

However, the nurse placed her phone on the table and played a video. It was a video about Li Kai posted by a Weibo user who wanted to ride on the popularity of the post.

I have to say, some people can always shock everyone from time to time. I'm talking about professor Li Kai. Everyone knows that he solved the problem of growing the raw materials for the Sima drug.

that's right. This professor Li Kai has done something big again. He has cultivated another Duke king rose. Many friends should have seen the video about this flower. This flower is really amazing. It's a Pixiu.

" professor li kai has not only managed to cultivate the duke king rose. "

The blogger of the video explained the rarity of the Duke's Rose and the significance it represented.

f * ck! F * ck! F * ck! Li Kai felt his whole body go numb when he saw the video.

It was a huge wok.

But this time, he really didn't do anything.

professor Li, you're really amazing. You've cultivated this kind of flower again! The nurse said with admiration.

Li Kai wanted to explain, but Tang xiuwan was also looking at him with her watery eyes."senior brother li, you're amazing!"

Alright, now Li Kai couldn't explain himself even if he wanted to. Who wouldn't want to have their beloved woman look at them with admiration?

However, he really didn't know about the Duke's roses. It must be that old Brother Qin had used that special soil to grow them.

It was wrong again.

Other than the special soil that he and Brother Qin had brought back this time, only the man-made fields in the backyard had special soil. He didn't see any special soil used to cultivate the Duke king rose.

It seems that old Brother Qin had left some special soil in other places.

However, he also understood that in a family with his background, the old man often said that one had to be prepared for many things. A cunning rabbit had Three Burrows, and one could not let others know everything about one's background.

Brother Qin is such a smart person, how could he not have made other preparations?

Time passed.

the duke's roses were getting more and more popular.

After all, everyone knew the significance of this flower to the shinjy.

Now that the flower was placed at the door of the toilet, it was impossible not to notice it.

Under such circumstances, everyone surprisingly gave him a like and exclaimed, " Well done!

Moreover, someone had actually posted the video and news on the Hoshino's website.

The result was obvious.

after all, 99% of the people in the star-spangled nation had no chance of seeing the legendary duke's rose.

Now that the flowers were placed at the entrance of the toilet, anyone could see them. This not only made them feel humiliated, but it also made them feel unbalanced.

After all, it was a treasure of their own country. They couldn't see it themselves, but people from other countries could see it as they pleased. What was going on?

For a time, the Hoshino network was filled with comments cursing 'f * ck' and 'sh * t'.

This also showed that they had a sense of defeat. After all, the Duke's Rose was far away on the other side of the ocean. They could not do anything at all, and could only curse.

These angry curses were also screenshotted and uploaded to the internet.

This was even more explosive.

For some reason, everyone who saw these angry comments felt a sense of comfort.

This kind of popularity even suppressed the popularity of the two bears fighting.

After all, when it came to the matter of the two bears, they could only watch the capital Country jump up and down.

On the other hand, the Duke rose incident could make them laugh and disgust them.

Naturally, there were also people who criticized Linlin Manor for not cultivating such things and trampling on their honor. They also called for everyone to learn from the faith and honor that the Duke rose represented.

"as long as we truly understand the duke rose's faith and honor, we will be able to understand and the world will be harmonious ...

There were even people who urged Linlin villa to donate the flower to the capitalist country and make a post to apologize for it, so that they could get their forgiveness. 1

Qin Lin didn't pay attention to these people at all. They were just sitting on chairs that were tilted.

He couldn't learn the kind of belief and honor to jump up and down and cause trouble everywhere.

Time passed.

The Duke's Rose incident continued for two days. Everyone on the internet knew about it. Then, a lot of people had the idea of going to Linlin Manor to take a look at the Duke's Rose.

Chapter 464: Qin Lin: He actually threatened me?

f * ck, I'll feel like I've lost out if I don't go and take a look at this Duke rose.

that's right. Everyone, take more photos and upload them. Then, we'll organize a collection and upload it to the internet to stimulate them.

it's something that 99% of the people in the capital Empire can't see. Wouldn't it be a great sense of accomplishment to go and see it? "

"....."

As soon as this thought appeared, more and more people were affected and rushed to you city and Linlin villa.

Under that kind of enthusiasm, the number of people who took action was beyond imagination. When these tourists came, they directly caused Linlin villa to be overcrowded.

The number of people had far exceeded the number of people achieved in previous events.

Especially at the toilet, it was really crowded and crowded. They could step on someone's foot with just one step. 1

These people were all holding their phones and taking pictures of Duke rose. The people behind couldn't squeeze in at all. It would be troublesome if there were really people who needed to hurry.

Upon seeing this, those who did not know the situation would think that the toilet in Linlin villa had some magic.

Fortunately, Zhao moqing had ordered people to surround the Duke Wang rose, and even sent security guards to watch.

More and more people came to Linlin villa, which caused the goods in Linlin villa to be sold out many times. They had to ask the suppliers to provide them with temporary supplies, and the sales volume rose at an incredible speed.

you city was also affected. almost all the hotels were booked, even the small hotels and inns were not spared.

many people who wanted to go to you city for the duke's rose were surprised to find that they couldn't book a room in you city.

when the county head received the news, sun xian and chen li were both a little dumbfounded.

Everything had happened too quickly.

"Boss Qin doesn't give us time to react every time he causes trouble," sun Xian sighed."It's suddenly overcrowded."

Chen Li laughed. there's no helping it. Who would have thought that professor Li Kai would actually cultivate something like the Duke king rose? it's normal for these people to want to join in the fun.

Sun Xian nodded. When he thought of what had happened online, he couldn't help but smile. boss Qin, it's indeed an insult to put the Duke's Rose at the door of the toilet. If this gets out, I'm afraid the other party won't just sit back and do nothing.

As he was talking, his phone rang. When he saw the number, he quickly picked it up. 'okay, I understand', 'we'll make the arrangements 'don't worry'.

After he hung up the phone, he frowned.

"Sun Xian, what's the matter?" Chen Li asked doubtfully.

Sun Xian sighed. it's Minister Lu from before. There are people from the Hoshino coming over. It's probably because of the Duke's roses! 1

Even though he knew that boss Qin's actions would not be ignored once they spread, the speed was obviously faster than he had imagined.

however, when he thought about what the duke's rose represented, it wasn't strange.

Right now, Duke rose was placed at the door of the toilet at all times. This was a matter of face, and anyone would be anxious.

Almost at the same time, Qin Lin also received a call from professor Ren in his office. Naturally, he was told that someone from the Hoshino wanted to discuss something with him.

He didn't expect that in just two days, the people from the Hoshino would come looking for him.

Isn't this too rushed?

However, this also meant that placing the Duke's Rose at the entrance of the toilet had indeed provoked him.

boss Qin, " professor Ren said, " Minister Lu asked me to make this call on his behalf to tell you that he will help you stop the main people.

however, there will be people looking for you. The other party has made an application to discuss with your side, so you have to respond. You have to go through the motions.

but they're just minor characters. You can do whatever you want. You don't have to worry. The best they can do is threaten you. We're in the new era, so we're not afraid of them.

Qin Lin laughed when he heard this.

Even though it was professor Ren who conveyed the message, he could feel the confidence in his words.

Indeed, they were powerful and could be said to be unafraid of anyone.

"Boss Qin, I have a personal opinion. You did a great job." Professor Ren hung up the phone. 1

...

At noon the next day, a few cars entered the mountain villa. A group of people alighted from the cars, and Chen Li was leading the way.

Beside him was a middle-aged white man with blonde hair and blue eyes.

As for the others, they were all retinue.

"Mr. Smith, please!" After Chen Li got off the car, he extended his hand and invited the white man.

Although the county didn't want to entertain him, they had to show courtesy on the surface.

Originally, they were going to discuss this in your city and invite boss Qin over. However, boss Qin was in a hurry and wanted to come over directly to take the Duke's Rose away.

A translator immediately said to the white man, "Mr. Smith, please!"

"Please!" Smith replied with a frown. He then followed Chen Li into Linlin Manor.

As soon as he got out of the parking lot, he saw a dense crowd of tourists in the villa. He saw them walking toward the direction marked as "

This made him frown, and anger even appeared on his face.

Before he came, he had watched a lot of videos on the internet and knew that the Duke's Rose was there. These people were all there for the Duke's Rose.

He felt deeply humiliated when he saw the playful, teasing, and mocking expressions on the tourists' faces.

It was the Duke's Rose, which represented their faith and honor. What right did these people have to watch it? What qualifications did they have to watch?

This time, he had to bring back the Duke's Rose.

Very quickly.

Qin Lin saw a group of people in his office.

"Boss Qin, we meet again." Chen Li greeted Qin Lin when he saw him. Then, he smiled at Smith and said, "Mr. Smith, this is Mr. Qin. He's the owner of the Duke's King Rose. You can talk to him if you want to!"

The translator also started to translate for Smith, "Mr. Smith, this is Mr. Qin. He is ....."

Smith looked at Qin Lin.

Knowing that the person in front of him was the instigator, he could not hide the anger on his face. "Asshole, do you know what you did? You insulted us! You should make atonement for your actions."

Qin Lin was a little confused.

He had passed the English test band 4 in college, but he had almost forgotten about it in the past year. To be honest, he had not spoken a single word of English since graduation.

He scolded you and said that you insulted them," the translator said hurriedly. He asked you to atone for your actions.

"Then ask him, how do you want me to atone for my sins?" Qin Lin's face was full of ridicule when he heard this.

With Professor Ren's phone call to remind him, he was confident and didn't care.

"How can I go one?" the interpreter asked Smith.

Give us the Duke rose immortal and apologize to us as the face of the world," Smith said viciously. otherwise, you will face the conquerors. You can't Alfred.

Qin Lin looked at the translator.

The translator smiled and relayed the message. he scolded you again and asked you to hand Duke rose to him immediately. He also asked you to apologize in front of the world's media. Otherwise, you might have to face the consequences that you can't afford. Yes, he is threatening you.

County Chen, he's threatening me. I'm a little scared. Do you think I should hand Duke rose over to him?
" qin lin couldn't help but smile as he spoke to chen li.

that's up to you, boss Qin, " Chen Li said with a smile. we can't make your decision.

"He's already threatened me," Qin Lin said teasingly,"I'm just a little brat, so I'm very scared. Why don't I give this tree to him first?" It doesn't matter if we give him this one anyway."

I'll cultivate other ones later. Not only will I plant them at the entrance of the toilet, but I'll also plant two in the smelly ditch. Oh, I can also give two to big Xiong and the others.

well, when the mass cultivation is done, I'll donate one to every toilet door in the world and plant one in every stinking ditch. What do you think? "

" f * ck. " when chen li heard this, he didn't know how to reply for a moment. this was a little too ruthless.

But at this moment, Smith's anxious voice suddenly rang out, " "Buchen, you can't do this. If you dare to do this, we will never agree!"

His words made everyone look at him in shock.

Because he was speaking in Chinese.

The translator looked as if he had seen a ghost. His Chinese was so good, what was the point of him translating?

Chapter 465: A man's helplessness: (1)

Smith didn't care about his status or demeanor at all.

It was already humiliating enough to place a Duke's King rose at the door of a toilet, but the other party still wanted to plant a stinking ditch and donate one to every toilet in the world.

What kind of joke was this?

If the other party really dared to do so, they would definitely make them pay a painful price.

Xian Chen, " Qin Lin smiled at Chen Li. they can't stop me if I want to donate something, can they? "

"Well, there's no international rule that states that the Duke's Rose can't be donated," Chen Li said.

Qin Lin waved his hand at Smith. "See, it's no use even if you don't agree."

Smith looked at the translator out of habit.

"???" The translator was stunned.

Don't you know Chinese?

Smith saw the expression on the translator's face and realized that he had no more time to pretend. He looked at Qin Lin in annoyance. "What do you want?"

He could also see that the other party did not care about his threat at all.

"Mr. Smith," Qin Lin retorted, "you're the one who came looking for me. Shouldn't I be the one asking you what you want?"

Smith glared at Qin Lin angrily. we can buy the Duke's King rose from you and cut off the cultivation technique. I don't want the Duke's King rose to appear in front of the toilet again.

"Then I'm sorry, I'm not selling." Qin Lin smiled and refused decisively. He didn't make this thing to make money.

Moreover, it wasn't too hard for him to make money now. Just the Linlin leisure tea and Linlin ketchup could make him a lot of money every day.

"We can offer a high price, you can also offer a higher price." Smith was even more anxious.

"I can bid? The 10 billion dollars." "I'll sell it if you can pay me 10 billion USD," Qin Lin said jokingly.

"Impossible, you're not sincere at all." Smith was furious. How could they take out 10 billion dollars?

how much did the other party know about the 10 billion usd? How many weapons could he buy?

The more Smith thought about it, the angrier he became. He glared at Qin Lin and finally understood that the other party didn't want to talk at all.

this made him feel very humiliated.

The other party was only a merchant of this country. On what basis did he dare to use this kind of attitude towards him?

"You will regret this." Smith said viciously. He didn't have the mood to stay here any longer and left with a flick of his sleeves.

Outside, the more he thought about it, the angrier he got. He took out his phone and called his boss.

He wanted to report the truth and give the other party a painful lesson.

The call went through, and he immediately said, " " sir, the other party doesn't take us seriously at all. he refused to negotiate with us. this is an insult. we should take action. "

These words were filled with righteous indignation, but the person on the other end of the phone was silent. After a moment, a sigh came out. come back. There's no need to talk over there. I've already discussed it with the other party. This matter will be settled.

Smith was stunned when he heard that.

His superior's tone seemed to be compromising.

He hung up the phone and cursed, "Damn it."

how could he compromise?

The other party had no right to possess the Duke's Rose.

In the office.

Seeing Smith leave, Chen Li bid Qin Lin farewell and followed him out. Although he didn't like this guy, they had to take care of him while he was in you city.

Not long after, Qin Lin received a phone call from Minister Lu.

Qin Lin answered the call immediately.

"Boss Qin, I heard that you made Smith very angry," Minister Lu's voice was heard.

"It's all because of you, Minister Lu," Qin Lin said hurriedly.

"Boss Qin, I've also reached an agreement with the other party, so I have something to ask of you," Minister Lu said with a laugh.

"Please go ahead, Minister Lu," Qin Lin said immediately.

Minister Lu explained, " don't put the Duke's Royal Rose at the door of the toilet. Find a proper place to grow it. Also, try not to spread it outside Linlin Manor. This time, the other party was forced to agree to the terms of the exchange.

(I've tried to skip this plot as simply as possible. Everyone has also realized that many words have been skipped. I didn't dare to write a lot of content because I've crossed the dangerous line. To be honest, I regret writing this plot. It's my fault!) 2

Qin Lin roughly understood what Minister Lu meant.

The higher-ups must have made use of the Duke's Rose to create some trouble.

The final compromise was that the other party tacitly admitted that Linlin Manor had the Duke's roses, but he could not spread the Duke's roses.

Did this mean that he was the only person in the world who was allowed to own the Duke's Rose?

It was good to have a strong country.

"Alright, I'll follow your arrangements." Qin Lin replied with a smile.

He knew that what he was doing was nothing, and he would not do anything that would drag them down.

It just so happened that the Duke's Rose was so popular right now, so he could just plant two more and move them to the integrated sea of flowers. After all, the integrated sea of flowers would bloom after the last season of flowers was planted.

Moreover, with the Duke's Rose, the style of the originally ordinary comprehensive sea of flowers was different.

After hanging up the phone, Qin Lin told Zhao moyin about this. Then, he brought Chen dabeai to move the Duke's Rose to a comprehensive sea of flowers and sent security guards to patrol it.

The next day, when the people who came for Duke rose arrived at the villa, they found that Duke rose had disappeared from the toilet.

Linlin villa's official account also posted an announcement video:

the Duke's Rose has been transplanted into the integrated sea of flowers. When the integrated sea of flowers bloomed, you can visit the Duke's Rose.

Chapter 466: A man's helplessness: (2)

Naturally, the excuse was that Duke rose had caused a congestion in the villa and affected the normal operation of the villa.

It was not appropriate to disclose the matter that Minister Lu had discussed with him.

Linlin villa had not opened a comprehensive sea of flowers project before, which made many people look forward to this new project.

As Duke rose could no longer be seen at the entrance of the toilet, two days passed, and Linlin Manor's terrible crowded situation began to recover.

In the office.

Qin Lin went online to search for the blueprint he liked on design websites such as baitu network and mind map network.

Because tomorrow was his mother-in-law's birthday, he had to prepare a gift.

He had even promised to help his brother-in-law, Zhao moyun, prepare a portion of it as well, so as to prevent his son from losing his sense of existence.

Qin Lin searched for a long time on the internet and found three satisfactory drawings. Two of them were for bracelets and one was for a necklace.

The bangle's design was different. He had prepared it for himself and Zhao moyun, his brother-in-law, to give it to his mother-in-law together.

The necklace was the one he was planning to give to Zhao moqing, because he was surprised to find out that the day of his mother-in-law's birthday was black Valentine.

What was black Valentine? It was a Valentine's Day for the single nobles. It was a holiday for single dogs, so it was called black.

But why would a man give his girlfriend or wife a present on Black Valentine's Day? After all, this was a Festival for single people, not couples.

This led to another problem. If you didn't give your girlfriend a present on Black Valentine's Day, then you might really be having a black lover.

In order not to Miss Black Valentine's Day, you had to give your girlfriend a gift on Black Valentine's Day.

As time went by, his girlfriends naturally treated Black Valentine's Day as a day to receive gifts and red packets.

Therefore, there was a Valentine's Day every month now.

After selecting three blueprints, Qin Lin paid to download them and printed them out.

Then, he locked the office door, took the blueprint into the game, and put it in the item storage box. After that, he exited the game and controlled his character to go to seibala's place to make jewelry with Jade.

Qin Lin had asked seibala to forge two jade bracelets and a jade necklace. Not long after he entered the game and brought them out, his brother-in-law, Zhao moyun, came looking for him.

"Qin Lin, it's mom's birthday tomorrow. How's the present?" Zhao Mo Yun asked as soon as he entered the office.

Qin Lin smiled as he took out the two jade bracelets and handed one to Zhao moyun. "Here!"

zhao moyun took the jade bracelet, and at first glance, he saw the words 'zhao moyun& and li jiawen's gift'. he couldn't help but be surprised, "The craftsmanship is really good. Qin Lin, what's the price of this bracelet?"

Qin Lin smiled and said, " brother, let's go to the Jade ware shop to have it appraised. It was custom-made by someone else. I'm not sure if I've been scammed. It's for mom. It's better to confirm it first.

The quality of the Jade ore was the same as before, it was of a quality 1, so the price should not be too different. However, it was always good to know the specific price after appraisal.

Zhao moyun also nodded in agreement. let's go. We'll go and appraise it immediately. If we're tricked and give mom a fake or inferior product, then my son's status will be completely inferior to that of my son-in-law.

"Brother," Qin Lin said helplessly, "is it okay for you to be jealous of your brother-in-law like this?"

“Hehe.” Zhao Mo Yun smiled but did not say anything.

The two of them left the villa together and took Zhao moyun’s car to the Jade ware shop. The old man was still the one who appraised the Jade.

“Sir, you’re here again? Who did you prepare a gift for this time?” Old master Qin recognized Qin Lin and greeted him with a smile. After all, this young man had left a deep impression on him.

“Let’s first identify the two jade bracelets as a birthday present for my mother-in-law.” Qin Lin handed over his own bracelet, which was also engraved with the words ‘Qin Lin& and Zhao moyin’s gift’, to the old man.

zhao mo yun also handed over the bracelet in her hand.

The old man could tell at a glance that the two bracelets were from the same piece of yellow jade, and the workmanship seemed to be the same as the other party’s appraisal. Although the carvings were different, the artistic style was the same. Moreover, the craftsmanship of the person who made the bracelets was very good.

Sir, both bracelets have good quality seeds. The price is about the same, around 40000 Yuan. The old man had also come up with a price after some appraisal.

He was a little envious of his mother-in-law. His son-in-law’s gifts were not light, and he was very attentive.

She thought about her granddaughter’s boyfriend, who could even buy her a birthday present, but his silly granddaughter liked the parents ‘pretty ones.

” it means that i didn’t get scammed. this time, mom should have nothing to say, right? ” Zhao moyun was all smiles when he got the results, but just as he finished speaking, he saw Qin Lin take out another jade necklace.

What was going on?

qin lin handed the necklace to the old man and said,”Old man, please help me to identify this jade necklace!”

“This is Hong Luan! Red jade has an advantage in preserving its value.” The old man took the necklace and saw that there were words engraved on the body of the necklace. It was a date and the words ‘Qin Lin& and Zhao Moyu’.

Even at his old age, the old man knew that this was a necklace to show off their love.

He gave his wife and mother-in-law a present. Where did he find such a son-in-law?

Those who have daughters at home would be envious to death, right?

“Qin Lin, why did you prepare an extra necklace? what’s going on?” Zhao moyun asked hurriedly.

Chapter 467: A man’s helplessness: (3)

For some reason, he felt that he was going to be tricked by Qin Lin again.

Qin Lin smiled and explained, " it's Black Valentine's Day today. This is a gift for Motian. Brother, don't tell me you didn't prepare a gift for sister-in-law? "

"Qianqian." Zhao moyun was dumbfounded. He was not prepared for this. He immediately thought of the last time when his wife had said that Qin Lin cared so much about Qianqian.

When his sister posted this necklace on her moments and his wife saw it, he would give his mother a bracelet and not give her one. How sad would that be?

The image of a keyboard appeared in Zhao moyun's mind. Fortunately, there was only a laptop at home and no desktop, so the keyboard could not be knelt down.

But then he remembered that his wife liked to eat durians. There seemed to be two durians in the refrigerator.

"F * ck, Qin Lin, I'm going to be tricked by you again this time." Zhao moyun immediately grumbled. He had really f * cking prepared a move, but he had missed out on one.

Then, he thought of something else. that's not right. Isn't April Black Valentine's Day? "

This made him happy again. What did this have to do with him?

Black Valentine's Day was a holiday for single dogs, and he was already married.

"A lot of men celebrate Black Valentine's Day because they don't give a present," Qin Lin said with a smile.

"Hehe." Zhao moyun understood what he meant when he heard this, and two words appeared in his mind: It was still cold.

The old man also said to Qin ran at this time, " Mr. Qin, this red jade necklace is still very good at planting water. It's also worth more than the bracelet. It's also worth about 50000 Yuan.

"Grandpa, please pack three gift boxes for us," Qin Lin said with a nod.

The old man nodded.

After a while, Qin Lin paid the appraisal fee and left the Jade ware shop with three gift boxes.

Zhao Mo Yun held the gift box that contained the bangle and sighed.

Why could women enjoy so many Valentine's Days?

After getting into the car, Zhao moyun took out his phone and transferred 40000 Yuan to Qin Lin.

Qin Lin received the text message and said, " "Brother, I told you I've prepared a gift for you. With our relationship, you don't have to transfer the money to me."

"That's a separate matter." Zhao moyun shook his head. To him, this was a matter of principle. The closer their relationship was, the more clear he had to be about such matters. It was for his own good, and also for his sister's good.

"ai." Qin Lin sighed. He suddenly thought of something and said to Zhao moyun, by the way, brother, the county has planned to put the Linlin laboratory and the Linlin villa in the same place. They want to use it as the center to expand and develop the suburbs.

"Really?" Zhao Mo Yun was surprised to hear this.

The so-called suburbs expansion was the next expansion of you city. It was called the suburbs because the area near Linlin villa would be outside you city after development.

However, with the flow of people from Linlin Manor, the flow of people here in the future might not be worse than the current Oriental commercial square. First of all, there was the flow of people from Linlin Manor, and maybe the flow of people from the center of you city would also move to this newly developed place.

Most importantly, this kind of development would usually create a group of rich people. If they knew the news in advance, they could do a lot of things.

"Mm! It's true." Qin Lin said with certainty.

"Qin Lin, thank you!" Zhao Mo Yun naturally believed in Qin Lin's news.

Moreover, Qin Lin had told him a piece of news that would make him rich.

If he knew about this and still didn't know what to do, then he really wouldn't be able to make a fortune.

When he went back, he would have to find a few friends to discuss it. He was definitely not the only one who could get the news in advance, but there had to be a tacit understanding no matter how to earn money in this game. He could not hinder others.

In addition, there was a line that must not be touched. Once that line was touched, the tolerance of the county was limited. It could become a crime if one was not careful.

"Brother, you're treating us like strangers if we say thank you." Qin Lin said, shaking his head.

Zhao moyun nodded. After starting the car, she suddenly turned to Qin ran and said seriously,"Qin Lin, then let's talk about something that's not considered as an outsider!"

"What's the matter, brother?" Qin Lin asked, puzzled.

Zhao moyun immediately said,"that lady, after you give her the necklace, can you ask her not to post it on her moments?"

"what?" Qin Lin was stunned for a moment. When he saw Zhao moyun's serious expression, he thought that he was going to say something important. Who knew that he was just telling Zhao moyun not to post it on his moments.

Zhao moyun said in embarrassment, "Qin Lin, you must stop Moyu from posting on his moments. You don't want to see me celebrate Black Valentine's Day, do you?" How pitiful would that be?"

Chapter 468: Two rewards! Please call me the king of dance! Wang!_1

At noon the next day.

Qin Lin brought Zhao Moyi and his mother to the Zhao family's house.

Chen Zhao's birthday this year wasn't on the 10th. On his small birthday, he was only invited to dinner by his close relatives. He didn't even go out to the restaurant.

His family and friends would just have a happy Meal at home.

To Chen Zhao, his current life was very complete. His husband was a senior in first middle school and might be promoted next year. His son wasn't outstanding, but he had a small business and married a good wife.

Her daughter had married a good son-in-law. Not only was the son-in-law capable, but he was also devoted to her daughter and filial to her.

The key was that her son, daughter-in-law, daughter, and son-in-law were all in you city, unlike her parents, who could only see her twice a year.

The family was together, and there was no need for them to be separated. This was a kind of perfection.

Sometimes, she felt that she should be the big winner in life.

zhao moyun also gave the bracelet to chen zhao, but the result was different from what he expected, because he only got one sentence in return. He finally had a conscience.

When Qin Lin and Zhao Mo gave Chen Zhao the same bracelet, he suddenly looked at the screen in his mind.

The town mayor Thomas appeared in the game farm.

This was another plot. Moreover, the appearance of this person was very likely to trigger another event plot. After all, it had been like this before.

Even on his mother-in-law's birthday, he couldn't just suddenly be in a daze and slack off to play games.

After his mother-in-law's birthday party ended, he drove back to the villa. He planned to go back to his office to see what kind of plot this triggered.

Zhao moyin and his mother stayed behind to accompany his mother-in-law. Together with li Jiawen, the four women had made plans to go shopping in the afternoon.

His mother had also instructed him to prepare a table full of dishes for dinner, and to celebrate with his mother-in-law again at night.

Qin Lin quickly agreed to his mother's request.

When he returned to the villa office, the first thing he did was to look at the game on the screen in his mind. He controlled the game character to go to the mayor Thomas and clicked to trigger the plot.

[ we meet again. Your farm has been doing very well recently. Do you still remember the flying disc competition I told you about before? Because there was a pet master in the town who came to travel, the dog Disc flying competition was held in advance. The champion would not only get a mysterious gift from the owner, but also the dog would get a gift from the pet master! [ do you wish to bring your dog to participate? ]

Since there was a plot mission, Qin Lin naturally chose to participate. After all, the champion of the flying disc competition would also get a fruit of the tree of strength.

Wasn't the purpose of bringing Gou 'Zi into the game to bind him for this flying disc competition?

[ that's great. Now that you've decided to participate, we have one more contestant. I'll wait for you at the competition venue in the town Park. ]

With that, Mayor Thomas left the farm.

Qin Lin also left the office immediately.

In a dog-flying disc competition, one had to have a dog.

He found the young paparazzo and the white fox at a corner of the office.

Because the white fox snowy didn't dare to leave the office, the dog, as a member of his bad friends, spent most of his time in the office with snowy.

In fact, in terms of appearance, snowy was definitely far better than the dog. For example, snowy was the school beauty, and the dog was the school Beauty's little follower.

Lin Lanzi's media department also had their eyes on Xiaoxue. After all, animal celebrities had always been very popular on the internet.

Red hair and wangcai, a dog and a mouse, were about to break a million fans, and it was real, without any data.

They were also considered to be a little famous online celebrity in the animal Industry of a certain music platform, so Lin Lanzi naturally had her eyes on the white fox snowy again.

With snowy's looks and intelligence, she could easily become popular with the help of the villa's popularity. Unfortunately, the little guy was too timid. Lin Lanzi and the media department couldn't get close to it now.

Wuwuwu!

Squeak!

when the dog and the white fox saw qin lin, they ran over to him while barking.

Qin Lin picked up the young paparazzo and walked towards the office.

The dog didn't understand what was going on, and it could only subconsciously step on its hind legs and follow.

Snowy looked at this scene in confusion, then followed behind with her big fox tail wagging. Finally, they entered the office together.

Qin Lin brought the young paparazzo into the office and locked the door from the inside.

Wuwuwu!

The dog was still confused and barked at him.

Qin Lin picked up the dog and brought it into the game farm.

As soon as he entered the game, the dog looked around and barked. Then, it started to run around. It obviously remembered this place.

qin lin exited the game with a thought.

Squeak!

When the white fox saw him, it looked at him with its round eyes and called out, as if asking, " Where's the dog?

Qin Lin reached out and touched its head, and it closed its beautiful eyes in comfort.

Who cares about the dog!

A moment later, the white fox also lay there quietly, obediently not moving.

Qin Lin sat down and looked at the game screen in his mind. In the game, he could see that the dog had turned into a two-dimensional cartoon figure again, with the words 'Wu Wu Wu' on its head, indicating that it was barking happily.

Qin Lin also controlled his game character to pick up the young paparazzo, then they left ore town and headed to the race track in the park.

When the game character arrived at the park, the scene was completely different from usual. There were many NPCs gathered in the park, and almost all of the named NPCs of the town were here.

Chapter 469: two rewards! please call me the king of dance! wang!_2

In the center of the room, there was a banner that read 'flying disc competition'.

Qin Lin controlled his character and walked towards Thomas, the mayor with a yellow exclamation mark on his head.

[ you're here. Come with me to register. The flying disc competition is about to start! ]

Qin Lin controlled the game character to follow Thomas's registration. After a while, the game screen entered a mini-game of flying discs.

This mini-game didn't follow the rules of a flying disc competition. Instead, it was a rule set by the game designers themselves, which was to see who was the furthest. Naturally, the distance would only be effective if the dog bit the flying disc.

Players needed to control the force and angle of the disc. Different forces and angles would result in different distances. At the same time, special buttons would appear to control the dog to run quickly to the disc and then jump at the right time to bite it.

Successfully catching it would be considered a success.

There were a total of three times, and the one who was the furthest away from the championship.

This mini-game seemed simple, but it was actually a test of reaction time and finger flexibility. On the forum, many players lost to NPCs when they first participated in the dog frisbee game.

However, Qin Lin didn't control it with his hands. He controlled it directly with his mind, so there was no problem with mistakes.

Qin Lin was not in a hurry to throw the flying disc. After all, he had lost this competition and he did not know when he would trigger another flying disc competition.

Under the same force, different angles could form different parabolas, and the distance of the throw would be different.

He first went online to find out how to throw a flying disc to fly far away. There was quite a lot of information about it on the internet.

After knowing the most optimal angle, he looked back at the game again and threw the flying disc at the most optimal angle. Then, he quickly controlled the dog to run towards the flying disc and accurately catch it.

Moreover, the first time he threw a Frisbee, it was indeed farther than the other NPCs.

Just like that, after three consecutive times, he easily won the championship.

This was the power of wisdom. It was just a small game. How could a player lose to an NPC?

The game ended, and the screen returned to normal. Town mayor Thomas appeared again.

Congratulations on winning the first place in the flying disc competition. This is your prize, a mysterious gift box with an unexpected mysterious gift inside!

Next to Thomas, another weirdly-dressed NPC appeared. This was the pet master.

[ Your Dogman is amazing. He won the competition. Here's a gift I've prepared for him. There'll be a surprise when you open it! ]

The mayor Thomas and the pet master left after giving the gifts. A moment later, the NPCs gathered in the park also began to disperse, leaving only the game character and the dog.

Qin Lin immediately controlled his game character to carry the dog back to the farm and then checked the two prizes.

The two prizes were both gift boxes. The gift box given by the village chief was bigger, while the gift box given by the dog Pet master was smaller.

If he guessed correctly, the gift from the village chief was the fruit of the tree of power. He decisively controlled his game character to open both gift boxes.

[ congratulations on obtaining the fruit of the tree of power! ]

[ congratulations on obtaining the doggie's pet skill-dance when you hear music! ]

The next moment, a red sweet potato-like fruit and a scroll appeared in his inventory.

Qin Lin's eyes lit up when he saw the fruit of the tree of power.

It was just as he had guessed.

He had obtained another fruit of the tree of power, and eating it would increase his physique by another level.

At that time, his combat power would definitely be stronger, and he would have to make Zhao moyin beg for mercy every day.

The expression on a woman's face was the most charming when she begged for mercy. 1

However, he didn't understand the skill in the gift box given by the pet master.

'I feel like dancing when I hear music'?

let the dog listen to songs and dance?

This allowed him to see many videos of the dog listening to music and dancing. Each video had hundreds of thousands of likes, which showed how much joy it brought to the audience.

In particular, there was a video of a Golden Retriever listening to music and swinging its legs left and right while dancing the free flight square dance with humans. It seemed to have been a hot search.

What's the use of Wang Cai if it could get this skill?

I'll square dance with mom in the future?

as for whether or not the skill scroll meant that, he would have to go in and watch the video of the scroll.

Qin Lin entered the game with a single thought.

Wuwuwu!

Gou 'Zi's voice immediately rang in his ears. He saw Wang Cai circling him and barking anxiously. It even looked at him with anticipation.

Qin Lin seemed to understand.

The young paparazzo was asking for a gift from him.

It actually knew that he had won something?

Qin Lin also took out the pet dog skill scroll and saw the information on it:

[ dancing when you hear music: skill! ]

[ this is a reward given by the pet master during the dog Disc flying competition. After giving it to the dog, it can get 10 songs: Dancing skills for songs such as Gangnam Style, little apple, medicine Freedom's flying Pixiu (they were all background music for a dog dancing video). Restrictions: [ the decibel of these 10 pieces of music has to reach a certain level to trigger the dance skill in the young paparazzo's memory and have the ability to enter the crazy checkpoint. ]

Alright, the note proved that his guess was correct.

He wanted the dog to be mouyin's 'Disco Dog King'. Other than one or two of mouyin's dancing videos that were really trained by their owner, most of the other videos were coincidental. They might not be able to dance a second time.

Chapter 470: Two rewards! Please call me the king of dance! Wang!_3

However, it was different after the dog had this skill. As long as there was music, it could dance as it pleased. It would have no problem becoming the king of dance in the dog world.

However, there was a limit to this skill. It had to reach a certain decibel.

Wuwuwu!

&Nbsp; Gou 'Zi's cry sounded out.

This time, it was staring at the skill scroll in his hand, as if it knew that it was its.

[ do you want to use the skill scroll on your pet dog Wang Cai? ]

Qin Lin looked at the young paparazzo and a notification appeared.

This time, it was different from the dog's flying disc skill. Previously, it had learned it from the pet merchant in the form of a cartoon.

Qin Lin directly chose "yes."

The next moment, the scroll turned into light and entered the dog's body. Just like when he used the cooking skill, the dog had to receive information.

the young paparazzo also suddenly became crazy. he was trembling as if he was performing a spell, which made him think of a certain singer with the surname hua who was performing a french stage performance.

This process lasted for a while before it stopped. Then, he saw the dog jump in front of him and bark at him again, expressing something.

Qin Lin immediately understood.

It wanted to experience the new skill as soon as possible, just like the last time.

He immediately pulled the young paparazzo out of the game.

The moment he returned to the office, the young paparazzo barked at him again.

Let them play the song.

He sat in front of the computer and turned on QQ Music. He searched for Gangnam Style and played it.

“Oh right, just a style!”

A rustic-looking music played.

However, the dog didn’t dance on time. Instead, it barked at him as if it was very uncomfortable.

&Nbsp; Gou ‘Zi was like a man and woman playing music at a critical moment, and he didn’t know what to do.

Gou ‘Zi was very impatient.

Qin Lin frowned. Not enough?

The skill note’s restriction could only be triggered when the number of notes had reached a certain level.

He immediately turned the volume up to the maximum.

Wuwuwu!

The dog continued to bark impatiently. The computer’s low sound system was obviously not enough.

It seemed that it would have to be loud like the square dance.

The multimedia department did have such a sound system.

Qin Lin immediately opened the office door and planned to take the young paparazzo to the multimedia department.

Who knew that the young paparazzo would be even more anxious? he opened the door and ran out in the direction of the multimedia department.

Obviously, the young paparazzo’s eagerness to experience the new skills was comparable to his eagerness to study the system when he had just received it.

qin lin was about to walk out of the office to the multimedia department when he heard the white fox’s chirping.

He looked down and saw snowy’s beautiful eyes looking at him expectantly. She was obviously asking for a hug.

He also bent down and carried the white fox in his arms, then walked to the multimedia department.

The white fox's little paws were on his arm, and it stayed quietly in his arms.

as soon as qin lin arrived outside the multimedia department, he heard the young paparazzo's urgent whimpers coming from inside.

The multimedia department was in a mess. The planning girl and a copywriting girl were surrounding the dog, holding snacks and reaching out to it, thinking that it wanted to eat.

As one of the two internet celebrities in the media department, the dog was treated very well. When it went to the media department, someone would comb its hair and specially prepare snacks for it.

When Lin Lanzi saw Qin Lin, she hurriedly went up and asked, "Boss, I don't know what happened to wangcai. It suddenly rushed in and barked impatiently. It didn't eat any snacks when I gave it. In the past, it always wanted to eat when it came in and barked."

The young paparazzo seemed to think that the people in the multimedia department were stupid and did not understand what he meant. When he saw Qin Lin coming in, he whimpered at him as if he was urging him to hurry up.

"Mr. Lin, go and connect the slightly. Let wangcai play" Gangnam Style!" Qin Lin also ordered Lin Lanzi.

"???" Lin Lanzi was stunned for a moment when she heard Qin Lin's request.

The staff of the multimedia department all looked at their boss with confusion.

Although everyone knew that wangcai was smart and could learn the movements of other popular dogs whenever they asked it to cooperate in the video, would it understand when "Gangnam Style" was played?

However, since her boss had spoken, Lin Lanzi could only do as she was told. She had someone connect the slightly and search for the outdated square dance tune, "Gangnam Style."

A moment later, the uncouth music started playing again.

as the music played, the young paparazzo's ears twitched. it seemed that it was time for the separation and his nerves had been triggered.

Then, to everyone's surprise, it stood up and crossed its front paws. Then, it jumped back to the music, just like a Gangnam Style horse riding dance.

Lin Lanzi and all the staff in the multimedia department were stunned by this scene.

Not only did this dog understand it, but it even started dancing to the music?

The key was that Lin Lanzi and the others realized that the dog's timing was surprisingly accurate, which made people feel like crazy dancers.

Everyone's jaws dropped.

even if qin lin knew in advance that the young paparazzo had learned a skill, he still felt that it was unbelievable. this was definitely more awesome than the dancing young paparazzi in a certain music channel.

“Boss, did you teach the young paparazzo a new skill?” Lin Lanzi said with a face full of surprise.

The staff of the multimedia department also looked at Qin Lin with admiration.

The employees of the villa all knew that the boss was a master at training pets. He had trained dogs and squirrels to be very smart.
