

The Game 501

Chapter 501: The shop owner is so cool riding a horse! Isn't that Zhao Yun?

There were times when one's mental state would collapse. Sometimes, one would be inexplicably struck by something and then find it hard to accept.

Pang Bo felt as if he was on the verge of a mental breakdown, and his hand awkwardly hung in the air.

The most uncomfortable thing was that he actually saw a look of disdain in the eyes of a horse.

It would be fine if it was a coincidence, but if it wasn't, who would believe that he had been despised by a horse?

Pang Bo awkwardly retracted his hand and turned around to see the White Horse King affectionately rubbing its head against its boss. The boss was also stroking the horse's sideburns, making it chirp.

Anyone could hear the joy in his voice.

This was really a little lovey-dovey.

Thinking that this was the boss's horse, pang Bo did not find it strange anymore. This kind of high-class horse was smarter than the average horse and recognized its master very well.

Therefore, the fact that the horses in the TV series would run back to save their owners was not a lie. There were many such stories in the past.

"Boss, your horse isn't an ordinary breed, is it?" what's wrong? " pang Bo asked curiously as he approached the White Horse and looked at its snow-white fur.

Qin Lin explained, "it's a nüzhnng thousand-mile horse, called little lioness. Please take good care of it in the future."

"Then this is the night shine jade lion." Pang Bo's face was filled with shock.

Although he was not an expert in horse appraisal, he had some knowledge about horses.

In the beginning, the night illumination jade lion was not referring to the Jurchen's thousand li horse, but the kind of white Horse that was completely white without a single stray hair.

However, in history and novels, jurisha's Midnight Jade lion was too famous.

The first was Zhao Yun. His horse was the night jade lion. However, Zhao Yun's horse was not called Jurchen's thousand li horse back then. It could be said that it was the ancestor of Jurchen's thousand li horse.

The area where Gongsun Yan had obtained the White Horse was the area ruled by the Jurchen of the later generations.

In addition, there was the rise of the Jin Kingdom. Prince Wanyan's night jade lion and the night jade lion in Water Margin that killed Chao Gai were both Jurchen's thousand li horse.

Therefore, many people also regarded this snow-white Jurchen thousand li horse as the night jade lion.

Moreover, the Jurchen's thousand li horse was in the Golden Empress. Whether it was in the song or Ming, it was the first choice for war horses. However, after the Qing Dynasty, it was almost impossible to see it.

Who knew that the boss had such a night jade lion.

Pang Bo had never had the right to see such a horse before. He really wanted to touch it, or even ride it.

Thinking of the horse's disdainful eyes, would he be kicked if he rode it?

If he could teach the boss how to ride a horse, he would need to demonstrate and ride it. It wouldn't kick him, right?

He wanted to ask the boss if he wanted to learn how to ride a horse, but before he could say anything, he saw the horse urgently neigh at the boss. Then, the boss flipped over and got on the horse's back. His movements were clean and neat, and he looked very handsome.

tsk, tsk. pang Bo was stunned. The boss did not seem to need him to teach him.

As soon as Qin Lin got on the horse, the little lion ran out on all four limbs. He had heard the meaning of the little lion's cry just now. It was asking him to ride it.

"chirp, chirp!"

"Chirp, chirp!"

the little lion let out a happy cry again. it didn't go far, but its speed became faster and faster. qin lin also landed on the back of the horse steadily with the help of his horse riding skill.

The tamer apprentices were completely dumbfounded.

"The shop owner is so powerful!"

"Yes, the owner is so handsome when he rides a horse."

he seems to be even more powerful than brother pang.

Pang Bo was speechless.

Because the boss's horse-riding skills were really awesome. Just from the way he got on the horse, he could tell that he was an experienced rider.

but now, the boss could still ride the white horse king with ease even though it was getting faster and faster. but the key was that his posture was still so cool.

At that moment, he felt that his boss was a general who rode a horse across the battlefield in ancient legends. That cool posture, a bright silver spear, and a set of armor ... Wasn't that Zhao Zilong of Chang mountain?

Naturally, those who saw this scene all felt that Qin Lin was amazing. Only Qin Lin himself knew that this was because of his riding skills. His posture was handsome, which had an attribute of +1 posture.

Behind them, the 55 horses also followed the lion cub and galloped away. Under the concentrated sound of horse hooves, if there were people riding on these horses, they would be a group of galloping cavalry.

In the tent experience area.

Under Gao Yaoyao's lead, Yang Dong and the other tourists were already excitedly trying out sleeping bags, cushions, and other things in the tents.

Yang Dong and Hu Jing were both Southerners. To be honest, they hadn't lived in a tent for more than 20 years, especially such a carefully designed high-grade tent.

After trying it out, he found that it was very comfortable to live in the tent with the soft cushions and the like.

At the very least, the feeling of living in every tent was pretty good.

It was hard to tell which was good and which was bad.

Now, they were full of participation and had to choose the best tent. Therefore, when the comfort level was difficult to determine, it would depend on the style of construction and so on.

Soon, Yang Dong and the other tourists were done with their experience. They went to Gao Yaoyao's place to register and express their favorite tent.

Gao Yaoyao was also doing her registration diligently. Basically, every company's tent had a choice of tent, but the tent with the most choice was still from a company called shengdoya outdoor equipment Company.

The design of the company's tents was simple and comfortable. They had set up a wooden pad on the grass, presenting a triangular shape. The color of the tents was also very comfortable.

Chapter 502: The shop owner is so cool riding a horse! Isn't that Zhao Yun?

Moreover, a small wooden table and a small wooden chair were placed in front of the tent.

The tents were not as well-built as the other companies, but most people chose this company's tent.

the other companies were a little gaudy, and they were definitely better individually than this company's. however, when placed on the grass, they looked very out of place and could not fit in perfectly.

Therefore, it was the simple style of the company that could completely fit into the grass.

Gao Yaoyao was more confident now. Although the company's tents were simple, she had experienced it before. The comfort level was no worse than that of the other companies.

The most important thing was that it was suitable.

when the other five visitors arrived, they could basically make a decision after considering their opinions.

At this thought, Gao Yaoyao turned to Yang Dong and the other tourists and said, "thank you for your participation. Now, please follow me to receive the small gifts and discount cards that I have specially prepared for you.

Small gifts and discount cards were also common gifts. Moreover, after the service department was improved, there would be a certain amount of small gifts and discount cards given out every month. As the service manager, she could allocate and use these.

Yang Dong and the others were naturally happy to receive gifts as they followed Gao Yaoyao onto the sightseeing bus.

the group quickly passed by the race track again.

This time, Yang Dong and the others were surprised to see the group of galloping horses, especially the White Horse that was leading the group. There was actually someone on the back of the horse.

"He's so handsome!" hu jing couldn't help but praise him. she had watched so many tv dramas and movies, and she had seen horse-riding plots, but she had never thought that someone could ride a horse so handsomely.

Yang Dong was a little jealous when he heard her praise, but he had to admit that the rider was really cool. The speed was so fast that he was almost scared to death. How could the rider be so pretentious?

The tourists on the sightseeing bus took out their mobile phones and started taking pictures again. In a society where mobile phones were always on hand, it was not a joke to record beautiful scenes at any time and anywhere.

Gao Yaoyao also saw Qin Lin, who was riding a little lion. She recognized her boss at a glance.

She had never thought that her boss would have such an ability. He was too amazing.

Very quickly, the herd of horses ran off. Yang Dong and the others could only leave in the sightseeing minibus, still not satisfied, and left the ranch.

Qin Lin, on the other hand, galloped on his horse. With the horse-type Knight skill, the little lion was getting faster and faster, and he was getting more and more excited.

Moreover, compared to the area in the game, the 300-acre race track was much more lively. He also experienced what speed and excitement were. The speed was even more exciting than driving a BMW.

Not long after, Qin Lin controlled the little lion to return to its original place.

those tamer apprentices were already looking at him with complete admiration.

pang bo's gaze was also filled with respect.

The scene just now had told him that the boss's riding skills were very high, far beyond his.

"I'll have to trouble you to take care of the little lion." After Qin Lin got off his horse, he once again instructed pang Bo and the others to leave. When he was about to leave, the little lion cried out unwillingly.

He had to comfort the little lion for a while before it became obedient. Then, he left the ranch and went back to the villa.

As soon as she arrived at the office area of the villa, she was called to her office by Zhao mochen.

Gao Yaoyao was also inside. When she saw Qin Lin, she couldn't help but look at him with admiration.

"Yaoyao, I'll get shy if you keep looking at me like that." Qin Lin noticed Gao Yaoyao's gaze and teased her.

boss," Gao Yaoyao hurriedly explained, "I saw you riding a horse just now. You were so handsome!

"You saw it?" Qin Lin was stunned.

Gao Yaoyao nodded. yes, many tourists saw it too. They were all shocked. They complimented you for being so handsome and suave when you were riding a horse.

"ran ran." qin lin frowned. he had always been low-key and didn't want to show off in front of the tourists.

If someone took a video of this and posted it online, it might go viral.

He didn't want his identity to be exposed in public. If that happened, he wouldn't have the peace and quiet he had now.

Zhao Moyu was attracted by this topic,"Qin Lin, you went riding?" You haven't forgotten what you learned in college?"

She knew that Qin Lin had gone to learn horse riding with a rich second-generation classmate, but she didn't expect Qin Lin to still remember it after so long.

After getting a driver's license, one would not dare to drive for half a year.

"En!" Qin Lin also admitted that he had learned it from that rich second-generation classmate.

At this time, Zhao moqian handed a photo and a document to Qin ran and said, "this is the most popular tent chosen by the first group of tourists in the tent experience area. If the second group of tourists still likes this, then we will choose to cooperate with this company.

Qin Lin also took a look at the information. The tent sales company was called shengdoya, and the simple-style tents set up matched the green grass.

It would be even more perfect if he could plant some ornamental plants in the 100 mu of land.

"This company's tent is quite suitable for our Ranch. If you think it's okay, we'll choose this one." Qin Lin said with a smile after reading the information.

After this matter was decided, the next thing to do was to prepare the details of the opening of the ranch and the second batch of animals to order.

In addition to the attractive animals such as cows and pigs, ordinary cows and pigs were also needed to supplement the ranch.

Chapter 503: The shop owner is so cool riding a horse! Isn't that Zhao Yun?

However, for the overall benefit of the ranch, these animals would be placed at the edge.

After Qin Lin left, Zhao Moyu immediately called Lin Lanzi over. He also had to keep up with the publicity of the ranch. After all, the manor had been investing a lot of money to build this Ranch. It could be said that it cost a lot.

If the business of the ranch wasn't good, it would be a complete failure.

However, it was obvious that her worries were unnecessary.

Moreover, before Lin Lanzi could start her publicity, Linlin villa became a hot topic again the next day. In a short time, the internet exploded and it became a mess.

It was the group of tourists from yesterday who had uploaded the videos taken by Linlin Ranch to Tiandi, especially the video of The White Peacock.

The attributes of the grade 2 Dogtooth grass were already very impressive. With the +2 viewing and +2 photogenic effects, the boundless grassland was simply too perfect.

Moreover, The White Peacock also had the attributes of +2 in viewership and +2 in photogenic appeal. With these two attributes added together, once the video was released, everyone who saw it would be attracted and unable to look away.

Linlin villa had always been a hot topic. Someone had already posted a video about the qinlin Ranch to attract attention. However, the ranch had not been open to the public yet, so no one could enter. They could only take videos from the distance.

however, the scene from the background was already beautiful.

Now that he saw the video taken inside, it was just like the triangular plum blossom sea and the floating bridge viewing area. The popularity of the video shot up and the traffic pool exploded.

The main point was that the video was attractive, but the people who had been to the ranch had even vouched for it with their integrity, describing the various magical feelings of Linlin Ranch, saying that they would regret it for the rest of their lives if they didn't go. This made people want to go and see it.

Naturally, the most popular and attractive video was not these. It was a video of a White Horse leading a group of horses and the young man riding the White Horse. He was simply too handsome.

In that beautiful and fascinating grassland, a handsome young man riding a horse so suavely was something that people yearned to see.

this young man on the horse is too awesome. If he falls at this speed, he'll have broken bones all over the ground.

seeing him riding a horse and then thinking about the horse-riding plots in those television and movies, I really can't find the strength to ridicule him.

I'll give you five minutes. I want all the information on this little brother. I want him to ride that White Horse while carrying me.

"You're so carefree, I'm willing to admit that you're Prince Charming."

by the way, this young man's handsome appearance on the horse completely matches the image of general white Horse in my mind. I photoshopped a suit of armor for him. You can go and take a look.

Obviously, this person's comment attracted a lot of attention, and then it was liked and pushed to the top. At the same time, many people clicked into his background and saw a video of him p-mounting the armor.

The video showed a general on a White Horse in armor. The young man even had a silver spear in his hand.

Because there was also a display of riding skills, and it was even a posture +1 attribute, this video made people who saw it couldn't help but shout: F * ck.

Because he was too handsome.

A silver-armored horse galloped through the air. It was as if she was Zhao Yun, who had swept across Changban.

Furthermore, wasn't he more handsome than some Zhao Yun in television dramas and movies?

The P-rated video of the armor and the spear quickly became more popular than the original video.

Naturally, Qin Lin was also forced to go viral. In a short time, the video of him riding a horse began to be shared by more and more people, which also forced him to become an internet celebrity.

Chapter 504: the importance of boss qin! the horse tamer little qin is online!_1

The Linlin Ranch had exploded in popularity before it was even open to the public. Countless people on the internet had expressed their desire to visit the Linlin Ranch.

Linlin Manor's official background was quickly attacked by countless netizens, and the dense comments were all asking when the Linlin Ranch would be open.

These people seemed to be even more anxious than the boss, Qin Lin, as they were all urging Linlin Ranch to open quickly.

As the Linlin Ranch became popular, the county was naturally the first to receive the news.

early in the morning, sun xian had called chen li over for a discussion.”Did you see the news about Linlin Manor today?”

Chen Li sighed. I saw it. This Linlin Ranch is going to explode again. I can only say that boss Qin is boss Qin. He has never disappointed anyone.

The two of them naturally paid attention to the construction of the ranch in the Qin Lin Manor.

After all, the reason why Boss Qin contracted the 5000 acres of land was that there was not enough land to build ranches.

Moreover, when the ranches were being built, they had also seen the design plan of Linlin ranches from Sun Ming. They knew that the ranches were larger than the original area of the villa.

The county was also looking forward to the ranches. If the ranches were successfully built, the number of customers they received would definitely increase by a lot.

They had never doubted this.

After all, that was boss Qin. When had he ever let anyone down?

However, sun Xian and Chen Li did not expect boss Qin to expand the ranch to 1000 mu and make it so spectacular. It had exploded in popularity before it was even opened.

not to mention the others, when they saw those videos, they were all attracted and had the urge to play.

They didn’t have much need for these things because of the nature of their work all year round.

They all had this kind of fluctuation. Ordinary people, especially those young people who liked to go out and play, had this kind of fluctuation.

In other words, Linlin Ranch was really going to explode.

Therefore, you city had to make preparations. First of all, they couldn’t be stuck in traffic and the roads paralyzed like Duke rose, right?

If that happened, you city would be embarrassed.

the Linlin Ranch has reached 1000 mu, ” sun Xian said. do you think it can receive the same number of customers as the villa? ”

Chen Li thought for a moment and said, ” Sun County, based on the current popularity and the attraction of Linlin Ranch, it’s definitely possible. After all, there are fewer ranches in the South. It’s more attractive to tourists from the South.

Sun Xian nodded and said, ” since you’ve said so, some things really need to be discussed. At least, we need to open up a special road from you city to Linlin Manor. We can’t have another traffic jam.

also, we have to speed up the next step of the suburbs expansion plan. At least, we don’t have enough hotels in you city now.

the first step of this suburbs expansion is to build a star-rated hotel. Our you city has yet to have a star-rated hotel. The other step is to create a comprehensive service market. Then, we will use this as a Foundation to expand the area.

we'll have a meeting in the county to discuss this first. Then, you can bring the plan to boss Qin and see if he has any opinions and requests on this matter. If he has any requests, the county will try to satisfy them as much as possible.

"yes." Chen Li nodded his head.

It seemed unbelievable that they had to ask an outsider about the expansion plan of a County. However, the two of them knew that it was necessary.

This was their recognition of boss Qin.

Linlin Manor was only auctioned at the beginning, and it didn't make any profit.

Boss Qin had not only developed the villa to its current state with his own power, but he had also dragged you city's economy in all aspects.

Even without the event, Linlin villa had already received 5000 customers a day. If the Linlin Ranch could increase its daily customer intake by another 5000 days, the Linlin villa would be able to receive 10000 customers a day.

you city's entire population was 450000. excluding the permanent population working outside, there were 360000. after deducting the people living in the towns and villages, how many people were there in the county?

The two of them knew very well what 10000 visitors a day meant. The entire County could enjoy the tourist benefits brought by boss Qin.

You Cheng couldn't live without boss Qin.

Therefore, they had to pay attention to boss Qin in all aspects. This year's County representative must be boss Qin. The bosses of all the enterprises in the county had to stand aside. Moreover, they had to help boss Qin get a representative for the National People's Congress.

Otherwise, after seeing you Cheng get such a big benefit, wouldn't the people from other counties want to poach boss Qin?

Compared to pocketing Linlin company's assets, boss Qin's value was greater.

If boss Qin could develop a villa worth only one million Yuan in you city to this extent, why couldn't he do it in other places?

That was impossible.

If boss Qin hadn't bid for the villa back then and went to ning city instead, Linlin villa might have been ning city's now.

They firmly believed that boss Qin had the ability to do so.

“Let’s go. Get the others to the meeting room first. We’ll have a meeting,” sun Xian stood up and said.

Early in the morning, Qin Lin had transported the game’s items to the villa. When he entered the villa, he found that the employees were looking at him strangely.

This made him a little vexed. He knew the reason.

What he was worried about had happened. He didn’t expect that he would be photographed by tourists after riding a small lion on the race track. Then, it would be uploaded to the internet and become so popular.

Chapter 505: The importance of boss Qin! The horse tamer little Qin is online!_2

Fortunately, the employees of the villa had signed a contract after being recruited, forbidding them from posting information about the boss and the boss’s wife online.

Fortunately, there were many versions of the owner of Linlin Manor on the internet.

Many people posted videos of the ‘owner of Linlin villa’ in order to gain attention. They were just taking videos of someone to gain popularity.

therefore, even if someone said that he was the owner of linlin villa, no one would believe it.

However, as time passed, more people paid attention to it and talked about it, then that might not be the case.

Therefore, he could only hope that the popularity would die down quickly. Otherwise, his peaceful days in the future would be gone.

However, he had just sat down in his office when Zhao mochen brought Lin Lanzi in and said,“hubby, sister lan zi has something to discuss with you.”

Qin Lin looked at Lin Lanzi and asked,“Tell me, what is it that moqian can’t decide and needs to discuss with me?”

Lin Lanzi smiled. boss, I want you to shoot a promotional video. I’m planning to build a big screen at the entrance of the ranch to play the ranch’s promotional video.

the video of boss riding a horse is so popular on the internet now. I want to ask boss to shoot a publicity video of him riding a horse. It would be a pity if boss doesn’t make use of his popularity.

“No,” Qin Lin immediately refused. are you kidding me? I never wanted to be famous. If this goes on, wouldn’t I have kept a low profile for nothing? ”

f * ck. Lin Lanzi’s expression was a little resentful when she saw her boss reject her decisively. This could really have a very strong publicity effect.

To be honest, for people at the boss's age, which one of them wouldn't be high-profile when they had some achievements? He even flaunted that success was to let others know his value. That was the expression of confidence and strength.

The boss was obviously so accomplished, but he didn't like to show his face at all, as if he was scornful of the glory that success brought.

This was really no different from a night walk in silk clothes.

However, she had to admit that perhaps it was because of this that her boss could be so successful.

Qin Lin didn't know that Lin Lanzi would think so much. He kept a low profile in the beginning purely for safety and didn't want to expose his secret.

Later on, he got used to being low-key. Moreover, some things would fade away after a certain level. Not everyone liked to boast about one point of achievement as ten points.

However, Lin Lanzi obviously didn't want to give up just like that. Since she knew that her boss didn't want to expose her identity, she would just have to convince him.

"boss," she said, "if you don't want to expose your identity, then all the more you should shoot this promotional video. we can say that you're little qin, the horse trainer of linlin ranch. "

when the horse trainer little Qin becomes famous, people won't believe it even if they say you're the boss of Linlin Ranch. Besides, this is the only publicity. After a long time, even if people know you're the horse trainer little Qin, they won't pay much attention to it.

The horse tamer little Qin?

Qin Lin was stunned.

He was a warm-hearted citizen, Mr. Liu.

Lin Lanzi tried to persuade him, and even looked at Zhao moqian for help.

"Hubby, why don't we just take one shot?" Zhao moyin also tried to persuade him.

Qin Lin looked at Zhao moyin and saw a trace of anticipation on her face. He asked, "You're not just asking me to shoot like this. What idea do you have?"

zhao mochen handed him a piece of paper with a rare hint of shyness.

There was a shooting plan written on the paper, which was probably to ask him to wear an ancient costume and ride a small lion. The key was that Zhao moyin's scene was also included.

Zhao Moyu would also wear the Han Chinese clothing.

When he passed by Zhao Moye on his little lion, he directly carried Zhao Moye onto the horse and galloped away.

Wasn't this filming plan too low-class?

If he added, 'you're the wind, I'm the sand, lingering around the world', wouldn't that be very graphic?

however, looking at Zhao Moyin's anticipation, he still reluctantly agreed, " "Alright then, just take one shot."

It was rare for Zhao Moyu to look forward to doing something, so he would just satisfy her.

In his opinion, this shooting plan was very low-class, but to women, they should all have dreams of wearing Han Chinese clothing, not to mention wearing Han Chinese clothing with the person they loved. It should be a romantic thing to shoot such a video.

Seeing that Qin Lin had agreed, Lin Lanzi immediately smiled and said, "Boss, I'll get someone to prepare it."

"It's the horse tamer, little Qin," Qin Lin reminded.

Zhao Moxi was also very happy to see Qin Lin agree, and he echoed, "I'm little Zhao from the Human Resources Department, a temporary guest."

Lin Lanzi looked at the two of them who were following her husband's lead and hurriedly nodded. As long as the boss agreed to the auction, it was fine. Little Qin, little Zhao, and so on didn't matter.

Lin Lanzi's actions were still very fast.

After only one day, she actually brought a set of silver-white armor and a silver spear, which was somewhat similar to the one in P's video.

In addition, there was also a blue Han Chinese clothing for Zhao Moyin.

At the race track.

When Qin Lin and Zhao Moyu were called over, he was a little surprised to see the silver-white armor. "Where did you get this?"

Lin Lanzi smiled and explained, "I have a close friend who works at the Xia City Theater. I asked her to send this over. As a reward, I'll personally bring her to the ranch to play.

"Boss, you two go and change your clothes first!" she added.

Qin Lin nodded helplessly and followed Zhao Mochan into the tent. He then changed into the armor and the Han Chinese clothing.

When he and Zhao Moshan came out, Lin Lanzi was already busy with setting up cameras and moving drones.

The shooting obviously required drones.

When Lin Lanzi saw the two of them come out, she also smiled and clapped her hands, saying, alright, the horse tamer little Qin and the Human Resources little Zhao are already in place. Let's start filming!

This made the staff of the multimedia department, Pang Bo, and the others all smile strangely.

Boss, lady boss, little Qin, little Zhao?

He could only say that he was too good at playing.

The little lion cub had already arrived by Qin Lin's side, who was dressed in silver armor and holding a silver spear. It rubbed its head against him, and the horse seemed to be very happy to see him dressed like this.

Zhao moyin had already been brought a distance away, and Qin Lin was going to ride a distance before reaching out to carry her on his horse.

The little lion was also pulled a distance away. Qin Lin also had to rush a distance away and then flip onto the back of the little lion.

qin lin had already confirmed that he could do this, and it was his riding skills that gave him the confidence.

boss, these moves are a little difficult. I'm afraid that many stuntmen can't do it. If you can't do it, don't force yourself. We can use a simpler shooting method. Although Lin Lanzi had seen the video of Qin Lin riding a horse and knew from pang Bo that his riding skills were very good, she was still a little worried.

After all, this was the boss and his wife. He couldn't let the two of them get injured just to shoot a promotional video, right?

However, when the shooting started, Lin Lanzi was a little dumbfounded. She saw her boss wearing silver-white armor and rushing out with a silver spear in his hand. However, his speed was shockingly fast.

Because he had eaten two fruits of the tree of strength, his physique had increased, and his speed almost made everyone's jaws drop.

Wasn't the boss a little too fast?

when the little lion saw its master running like this, it seemed to cry out excitedly. when its master got close, it trotted, knowing that its master could keep up.

sure enough, qin lin and the little lion quickly got close to each other. with the help of his riding skills, he jumped up and put one hand on the saddle. his whole body seemed to fly and then fell on the back of the horse.

His movements were very natural and unrestrained. The word "handsome" could no longer be used to describe it. It was simply amazing.

Oh my God! pang Bo exclaimed in shock when he saw this.

Lin Lanzi and the people in the multimedia department opened their mouths in disbelief.

This scene seemed to be a computer special effect. It was like those powerful generals in the movies, but the actions in the movies were all done by the celebrities.

But now, the boss didn't even use a wire.

Wasn't the boss too awesome?

It was indeed a difficult move, but Qin Lin managed to do it easily with his experience in horsemanship and the two fruits of strength.

The little lion seemed to be cheering for Qin Lin's actions as it cried out happily.

Lin Lanzi asked hurriedly, "did you film the scene just now?" Cameras and drones, answer!"

she was 100% sure that the promotional video would be more interesting and attractive than a movie trailer. it would definitely attract everyone's attention.

The boss would definitely go viral.

No, little Qin, the horse tamer, would definitely be popular.

Chapter 506: Xiao Qin and Xiao Zhao, please be together!

while lin lanzi was still in shock, qin lin was already riding the little lion towards zhao moqian at an extremely fast speed.

Zhao moyin looked at Qin Lin, who was riding towards him, with some anticipation. Qin Lin would stop the horse and carry her on the horse, then ride it quickly.

To her, this was a very romantic thing. It was the first time she had experienced such a thing.

lin lanzi also ordered the drone to quickly follow up. the next scene was an additional scene added by the lady boss, zhao mochen, and she must definitely do a good job.

Qin Lin quickly galloped his horse to Zhao Moxi's side, but he and his horse did not stop. The silver spear in his hand was switched to the other hand in a handsome manner.

A Knight's skill. The usage of this weapon is also a Knight's ability.

Then, he let go of the horse's rope and reached out with his free hand without slowing down. Under everyone's disbelieving eyes, he bent down and picked Zhao moqing up the horse.

This scene once again shocked Lin Lanzi and the others.

What did the boss do just now?

Not to mention the handsome sparks, bending down and carrying the lady boss onto the horse with his hands empty, was this something a human would do?

"Are you doing acrobatics?" Pang Bo could not help but ridicule. Naturally, this ridicule was also a shock. There were not many people in the world of horse racing who could do this now.

At the very least, he definitely could not do it.

Zhao moyin also took a long time to react. He hugged Qin Lin's neck tightly. It was really exciting just now.

Then, she looked up at Qin Lin and found that her husband was really handsome when he was riding a horse. She liked it so much that she leaned her head on his chest.

With Qin Lin's riding skills, the shoot was easily over.

When Qin Lin brought Zhao Moyu back to their original position and got off the horse, Lin Lanzi and the others were already surrounding them, watching the video that had been shot, and their faces were full of amazement.

"How was the shoot?" Zhao mochen walked up and asked.

lady boss, look for yourself. The boss is so handsome. A girl from the multimedia department handed a tablet to Zhao moyin.

Zhao moyin's eyes were full of stars when he saw the complete video. Her husband rushed out with his weapon, jumped on the horse, played with the gun, and then carried her on the horse. All of these actions were done in one go. It was simply too cool.

She couldn't help but look proud because this was her husband.

"Boss, this video will definitely go viral," Lin Lanzi said with a smile.

"En!" Zhao Moyu didn't doubt this at all. He returned the tablet and even asked Lin Lanzi to help her take a few more videos and photos.

She rarely wore traditional Chinese clothing, and this one that Lin Lanzi found was really not bad.

Since the lady boss wanted to take videos and photos, the other people in the multimedia department naturally rushed to take action.

Time passed.

Another day had passed.

The Linlin Ranch became even more popular after a day of brewing.

There were even many tourists loitering outside the farm just to take a video of the entrance of the farm, check in, and post it on their WeChat moments.

And today, a video posted by the official account of the villa had become a hot topic at an incredible speed.

The video of the young man riding the White Horse had gone viral and attracted the attention of countless people. Many people were curious about the young man.

Now, the official response came:

Hello everyone, I'm lan Zi. Everyone is very curious about who the handsome young man in the horse-riding video is. He's our villa's horse trainer, little Qin. Because everyone likes little Qin's horse-riding video, we've specially asked little Qin to shoot a video for everyone today. We've also found a female colleague from the Human Resources Department, little Zhao, to cooperate with him. Oh, Yingluo.

at this moment, everyone knew who the young man on the horse was.

The other party was the horse tamer, little Qin.

As the official video was played, a boundless grassland appeared. Then, a loud background music played, and a figure in silver armor and holding a silver spear appeared.

Upon seeing this figure, those who had seen the video were stunned.

this time, it wasn't photoshopped, it was directly arranged with silver armor.

The horse tamer, little Qin, held a silver spear in his hand and rushed out quickly. His speed was so fast that it made people's jaws drop.

If the video wasn't processed, he could have taken part in the 100m race in the Olympics.

Very quickly.

The horse tamer, little Qin, had already galloped away with the White Horse. The next moment, something shocking happened.

The horse tamer, little Qin, pressed his hand on the saddle and his entire body flew up onto the horse's back.

What kind of special effects was this?

Those who saw this couldn't help but like and comment.

"f * ck, i'm shocked. is this the horse tamer little qin or the real zhao yun?"

I don't care, I don't care. Little Qin the horse tamer is a bull.

"To be honest, the younger version of Zhao Yun in my heart is like this!"

"Is there any director who would like to give little Qin a chance? He's Zhao Yun benyun. If he can't do it, just give him the White Horse general Chen Zhibao. Wouldn't that be better than the slow-motion Chen Zhibao?"

It had to be said that in this era of Internet Information, capable people were always easy to pay attention to, and many things could be easily compared.

It was just like the TV series "Battle Through The Heavens". As long as the special effects were good, there would be a lot of comments asking 'please give Battle Through The Heavens some face'.

now that they had seen the exaggerated video of the horse tamer little qin, everyone thought that this was zhao yun. it was hard to compare.

Chapter 507: Xiao Qin and Xiao Zhao, please be together!

In particular, the young version of Zhao Yun played by that dog-named Lin was completely crushed in these movements.

At the very least, Lin Zhaoyun wouldn't be able to Mount a horse even if he was hanging on a wire.

The horse trainer little Qin's set of moves was really awesome.

However, it was clear that the video was not over yet.

After seeing the people behind him, he quickly saw the horse tamer little Qin. After he got on the horse, the long spear in his hand actually swung in a very handsome manner.

With the +1 posture attribute, everyone was attracted.

It was as if he was a real general on a White Horse.

when they saw the horse tamer, little qin, lift his hands in the air and bend down to pull the guest-in-charge, little zhao, onto the horse, many people, like pang bo, could not help but exclaim, 'what the hell !'.

With that kind of speed and his hands in the air, it would be difficult for him to even sit steadily on the horse, right? He could actually do such a move?

At this time, the video also gave a close-up of the Human Resources Department little Zhao. Everyone was surprised to find that this little Zhao was very beautiful, especially when she was wearing the Han Chinese clothing. She was completely a classic beauty.

At that moment, little Zhao was already looking at the horse tamer, little Qin, with a look of admiration. Then, he leaned his head on little Qin's chest with a face full of happiness.

Although this was the script written by Linlin villa, everyone inexplicably felt like they had eaten a mouthful of dog food.

The look of admiration and happiness that little Zhao showed, wasn't his acting better than some female stars?

Most importantly, why did it feel like the two of them were a perfect match when they saw little Qin holding little Zhao and riding the horse?

All of a sudden, the comments section became even more lively.

"Those who have eaten a mouthful of dog food, report."

"although i know it's fake, i'm still envious of little qin."

"A letter of blood from ten thousand people. Little Qin and little Zhao, please stay where you are."

"....."

Just as Lin Lanzi had predicted, this video had gone viral.

At the same time, the horse tamer little Qin and the Human Resources Department little Zhao were also popular.

What was even more unexpected was that the two of them were even considered a couple by the netizens.

However, Lin Lanzi felt that this couple was acting weird.

At noon.

Qin Lin had just ordered some agarwood incense in the office and made a pot of Grade 2 tie Guanyin tea when he saw Zhao moyun coming in with a face full of resentment. When he entered the office, his leg was still limping.

“Brother, what’s wrong with you?” qin lin asked in surprise.

Zhao moyun’s eyes were murderous as he said, “Qin Lin, you’re still asking me what’s wrong? isn’t it all because of you? how did I end up with such a devilish brother-in-law?”

“Brother, you can’t accuse me like that. I didn’t do anything,” Qin Lin said innocently.

When Zhao moyun heard this, her resentment deepened. you didn’t do anything. All you did was ride a horse and show off your love for each other. Then, Jiawen saw the video and wanted to shoot it too, so she asked moqing to arrange for me to learn how to ride a horse.

Moyu even told me that you learned it after a few lessons from a rich kid in college. I actually believed him and agreed to it.

after I learned it, I realized that I had been fooled. Do you know how many times I fell just now? ”

When Qin Lin heard this, he finally understood why Zhao Mo Yun was limping. He was imitating a horse’s fall. Why did he suddenly feel like laughing?

This brother-in-law had really been tricked.

he had followed his rich second-generation classmate to the horse track a few times to learn, but he only dared to let the horse walk and did not dare to run. these days, horse-riding skills were really just a game skill.

“Hmph!” Zhao moyun snorted heavily to express her dissatisfaction, then took the tea that Qin ran had made and poured herself a cup.

He knew that Qin Lin’s tea leaves were good, but he felt that he would be at a loss if he didn’t drink more tea after being scammed so badly.

At this moment.

There was a knock on the door.

He opened the door.

Chen Li and Zhong Lei were standing outside the door.

County Chen, what brings you here today? have a seat. I’ve just made a pot of tea. Qin Lin hurriedly welcomed the two of them.

“Chen Xian,” Zhao moyun also greeted him with a hint of respect.

To a commoner like him, a person like Chen Li was also a Big Shot.

“Mr. Zhao!” Chen Li also said.

the county chief already knew enough about boss qin’s network of connections. he had naturally seen the information of his brother-in-law. although he could not be compared with a demon like boss qin, he was already very outstanding compared to ordinary young people.

After Chen Li sat down, he handed a document to Qin ran. boss Qin, take a look at this document. It’s a plan for the county’s development of the suburbs. County sun asked me to bring it to you and listen to your opinion.

When Zhao moyun heard this, she immediately asked, “Um, do you have something important to discuss? Do I need to leave first?”

He wanted to avoid suspicion, but at the same time, he was extremely surprised. He naturally knew about the plan to expand to the suburbs, and Qin Lin had also revealed it to him before.

But the county actually asked Qin Lin for his opinion on this kind of plan?

When Chen Li heard Zhao Mo Yun’s words, he didn’t mind and said, Mr. Zhao, it’s not a big deal. You came first and I came last. There’s no reason to let you go.

There was indeed no need for Zhao moyun to avoid suspicion. After all, Qin Lin already knew about this. It would be easy for his brother-in-law to know.

This kind of thing was inevitable and very common.

As such, there was no need for him to be on guard, as that would only put him at a disadvantage.

Qin Lin gave Zhao moyun a reassuring look, then took the document and started reading.

Chapter 508: xiao qin and xiao zhao, please be together!

You city’s expansion plan had already been carried out many times, because you city wanted to rise to a city, and the territory had to be big enough.

The expansion of the suburbs was the fourth development plan.

From the map in the document, it could be seen that the county wanted to connect you city, Linlin villa, and Linlin laboratory through the expanded suburbs to form a whole.

This way, he could enjoy the flow of traffic brought by Linlin villa.

In particular, the plan for a star-rated hotel and a comprehensive service market would be completely dependent on the number of tourists in Linlin villa.

The comprehensive service market, in particular, relied on the number of tourists in Linlin villa to attract merchants to settle in. Then, through the economy brought by tourists, it drove the economy of ordinary people, making it another economic center besides the Oriental commercial square.

Qin Lin had no opinion on the development plan in the county.

Firstly, this comprehensive service market could make up for Linlin villa's shortcomings.

After all, his villa did not have some night entertainment facilities. This star hotel would set up these facilities to make up for the lack of night entertainment facilities in the villa.

When the ranches were opened, the number of tourists in the villa would reach a new high. At that time, it would be good if the nuptial chamber and the ranches and tent experience area could accommodate 700 to 800 tourists.

As for the other tourists, the three hotels in you city wouldn't be enough for them to stay in, so this new hotel was necessary.

In addition, there was a comprehensive service market, which could also supplement the various lifestyle functions of the villa.

Naturally, the county would benefit more from this development plan.

however, there was no need to be too calculative about this. the two sides complemented each other. he had obtained a large portion of the tourists 'benefits, so it was not necessarily a bad thing to share some of the benefits.

County Chen, I think the development plan in the county is very good, but I can't give any advice. Qin Lin said with a smile, but he deliberately showed the map to the tea table.

His brother-in-law, Zhao moyun, could see this position, and it was also his intention.

smart people could make some preparations in advance after seeing this map. they could catch a ride in the future development of the county and make money.

When Chen Li heard this, he also heaved a sigh of relief.

Although the development was carefully planned by the county, it still depended on boss Qin's tourist welfare. If boss Qin had any opinions about the development plan, the county had to take it seriously.

after chen li received qin lin's reply, he immediately bade farewell and left. he returned to the county to report the situation to sun county.

After Chen Li left, Zhao Mo Yun also did not have the mood to stay.

When he heard about the development plan of the county from Qin Lin, he had already contacted some friends and had some plans to make a big move.

now, not only was the information accurate, but he had also seen the map. the star hotel county might not allow people to participate, but the integrated service market definitely had a chance to participate.

He had to go back and do something.

Qin Lin smiled as he watched his brother-in-law leave in a hurry. He knew that his brother-in-law was a smart man.

When there was no one else in the office, Qin Lin looked at the screen in his mind and controlled some of his characters to go to the farm.

During the previous upgrade, other than Kong nesté, he could also build a pigsty.

Although this Pigpen was a little annoying, with the facility's function open, it had to be built.

After choosing to build the pigpen, a two-dimensional red brick building appeared in an area of the pasture, with a gray-black fixed shed on the top.

When they walked into the pigpen, they could see that there were three food troughs inside, which could only raise three pigs.

A pig needed half a year to be raised. According to the game's Billy time, it would grow in a day. One pig weighed 400 pounds of pork, so three pigs would be 1200 pounds.

If this was last year, when the price of pigs soared, just raising these three pigs would make him rich.

After the pigpen was built, Qin Lin controlled his character to go to the farm NPC to buy three piglets.

There were quite a few types of pigs on the list:

North-west eight-browed pig!

Zhe province Jinhua pig!

Two black boars from the flourishing districts!

The lake Tai pig of the Western Province!

Weight-loss pig!

“???” Qin Lin was stunned when he saw the words ‘slimming pig’.

What the hell?

Pigs are on diet?

Chapter 509: Even a pig is so hardworking, what qualifications do you have to be lazy?

Qin Lin was really attracted to the name “weight-loss pig.”

The key was that this was a random rare species with a hidden number.

One had to know that the previous leeches were all good things, but now it appeared on a pig.

Pigs were famous for being fat, and eating pork made it even easier for one to gain weight. It seemed to have nothing to do with losing weight.

Could it be that this pork is high in protein, low in fat, and can help you lose weight?

Wasn't this a little anti-science? wasn't this not giving those pigs in reality a way out?

Qin Lin immediately clicked on the list to check the piglet's information:

[weight-loss pig: quality 2]

[this is an unknown breed of piglets. It's a mutated pig that was produced after breeding a type of pig that was accidentally caught by the ranch store staff in the depths of Mount Saint Mary. Because of its low meat production, it's the most unpopular piglets in the ranch of ore town. The specific attributes will be known after the breeding matures!]

Qin Lin looked at the message as if he hadn't read it at all. Other than the fact that it was a special species from the goddess mountain and that it had very little meat, there was no useful information at all.

However, he was also interested in this weight-loss pig and immediately clicked to buy three.

[the weight-loss piglets you bought have been sent to your farm. You'll see them when you get back!]

When Qin Lin saw the notification, he controlled his game character to go back to the farm. When he entered the pigpen, he saw that there were already three cute, pink Little Pigs lying inside.

How should he put it?

This weight-loss pig was super cute. It was probably even more attractive than those pet pigs.

However, with this toot, if it grew up and gained weight, even if it was very delicious, if it ate too much delicious, it would grow fat, right?

This really didn't seem to have anything to do with losing weight, right?

On the other hand, these toot pigs were a little lively. They moved back and forth in the pigpen, looking very energetic.

just as qin lin was deep in thought, someone knocked on his office door again.

This time, it was Li Kai who came in with a stack of documents. it's for you. Fill it out and give it to me. I'll mail it back. They'll send back the proof of ownership and the procedures very soon.

Qin Lin took the stack of documents and read them. They were about quarantine and rearing procedures.

Previously, The White Peacock and the little lion's procedures had been entrusted to this old brother li. He had contacted the students from the relevant Department to apply with the excuse of 'Linlin's laboratory's special experimental use'. He didn't expect that the application would be so fast.

to save time, I've asked the other party to send more of these documents to the laboratory," Li Kai said. if you still have such problems, you can use them directly. The quarantine department in your city can make a quarantine certificate and stamp the document.

"Brother Li, I'm really sorry to trouble you." Qin Lin's eyes lit up.

This really saved him a lot of trouble. In the future, if there were such animals, he could just fill in the information directly. He didn't need to think of any countermeasures.

For example, as long as the lion cub was registered with the relevant Department of Ming city, the owner could raise it openly without any trouble.

"Since you know it's troublesome, then please remember to reward me," Li Kai said, as if he was pointing at something.

"I understand, I understand!" Qin Lin understood. Wasn't it just the Linlin medicinal wine? he didn't even get one or two bottles of wine from his brother Li.

However, brother Li seemed to have a huge demand for the Linlin medicinal wine.

Qin Lin didn't waste any time. He took out the quarantine forms and procedures that The White Peacock and the little lion needed, then called Zhang Guizhu.

A moment later, Zhang Guizhu ran over. She was still wearing a white coat and a veterinarian uniform. Her clothes were still stained with animal fur.

"Boss, do you have any orders?" Zhang Guizhu asked immediately.

Qin Lin handed the documents to Zhang Guizhu. these are the information forms about The White Peacock and the little lion. Take them and fill them out. Also, contact you city Animal Quarantine station and ask them to come over to do a quarantine check for The White Peacock and the little lion. After stamping them, give these documents to professor Li Kai.

"Okay, boss!" Zhang Guizhu took the list.

This was her job. After leaving Qin Lin's office, she immediately contacted the quarantine station.

You city's quarantine station was only a peripheral Department in you city. They didn't dare to neglect the Linlin Manor's Affairs. Everyone knew how important Linlin Manor was to the county.

So, in the afternoon, Zhang Guizhu finished filling up the forms and stamped the quarantine certificate at you city. Then, she gave all the things to Li Kai and asked him to mail them to Ming city.

There were many kinds of pigs, and they were all different. Some of them were raised for a short time, while some were raised for a long time. The average time was about half a year.

therefore, not long after noon the next day, qin lin received the system prompt that the zhusan weight loss pig had been successfully raised.

The first thing he did was to look at the game screen in his mind, and then control the game character to go to the ranch and Pigpen.

However, when he saw the three Zhouzi weight-loss pigs in the pigpen again, he was a little dumbfounded.

The three z weight-loss pigs were no longer pink and toot. Their skin had turned into a wheat color, and the hair on their bodies was surprisingly short.

Its appearance was exactly the same as the Durock pig in the Starstreak Kingdom.

The Durock pig in the star-chalked country was also a very famous pig breed. At first, they were fat pigs, but later on, due to market requirements, they were directly cultivated into lean pigs.

Chapter 510 Even A Pig Is So Hardworking, What Qualifications Do You Have To Be Lazy?

However, there was a difference between this weight-loss pig and the Durock pig in the Star Country.

The weight loss pig wasn't very big after it grew up. It wasn't as big as a Duroc pig, but it was a bit like a small Duroc pig that the Hoshino nation had once cultivated.

It was rumored that the small Duroc pig was to be cultivated as a pet, but the cultivation was unsuccessful and it was not promoted on the market later.

Naturally, the size of the body was not the most important thing.

what surprised qin lin the most was that these three zhouzi weight-loss pigs actually had muscles.

That's right, this pig actually had muscles, and its four limbs looked strong.

Could this be trusted?

Compared to ordinary pigs, this pig was simply a bodybuilder among pigs.

Moreover, these three weight-loss pigs were still the same as before. They ran back and forth in the pigpen as if they had endless energy.

Looking at the strange behavior of this fat-losing pig, Qin Lin was very curious about its attributes. He immediately closed the office door and entered the game with a thought.

qin lin immediately went to the farm and saw three adult weight-loss pigs. seeing these pigs in real life, he finally understood what the note meant when it said that they produced very little meat.

it didn't have much meat at all, at most a little bigger than a german shepherd.

in reality, these three pigs actually looked a little silly. as they ran back and forth with great energy, they were even making grunting sounds.

That look made people like it very much.

Qin Lin stepped forward and grabbed one of the pigs. The pig was still struggling even after being caught. The key was that the pig was very strong.

His muscles didn't grow in vain.

Then, he saw the remark:

[weight-loss pig: quality 2]

[this is a mutant pig born from the cross-breeding of an unknown breed of pig from Mount goddesses and the Duroc pig from xingtiao. It looks similar to the Duroc pig, but it's very strange because of the mutation. It can run on its own every day and even do some incredible sports. It also has high endurance, which makes it a weight-loss pig and a likable bodybuilder.]

[special attributes: vigor +2, stamina and endurance +2. After growth: [maximum muscular strength +2, taste-2, deliciousness-2!]

Seeing this note, Qin Lin knew that his previous guess that the pork was high in protein and low in fat, and that eating it could help one lose weight was completely wrong.

Moreover, he now truly knew what a weight-loss pig was.

have you ever seen a pig that runs every day and does incredible exercises? Could this pig that was caught for breeding be a pig spirit from the Saint missus mountain?

This was not a pig to be eaten, but a pig to be a pet.

The key was whether the attributes of energy, stamina, endurance, and muscle strength were suitable for pigs. Moreover, they were all +2.

Were these attributes that even humans were envious of?

If this pig was successfully trained, and someone raised one, only to find out that they couldn't outrun their pet pig in running and that their pet pig was still running even when they were already lying down, how demoralizing would that be?

The most important thing was that he had trained, but he didn't develop any muscles. His own pig, on the other hand, had developed a body of tendons. Wouldn't his mentality collapse?

At that time, master might even have the thought of eating the pig.

So, the flavor-2 and deliciousness-2 were to prevent this kind of thing?

To be able to add this kind of attribute, no one would believe that it was not born from a pig spirit.

Qin Lin looked at the three pigs and immediately had the idea of bringing them out, and he had to bring more Little Pigs out.

This fat-losing pig would definitely become a wonder of the ranch.

If you want to be more heart-wrenching, you can put up a banner in the activity area of weight-loss pigs and write: even a pig is working so hard, what reason do you have to be lazy?

to make it even more heart-wrenching, they would directly make a loudspeaker and shout at the tourists.

Qin Lin logged out of the game and returned to his office. He then went to the villa and asked the staff to find a few large cages. He then drove the truck to the warehouse.

When he arrived at the warehouse, he got into the car and brought the large cages into the game. When he arrived at the pigpen, he first put the three adult weight-loss pigs in the cages and brought them out of the game.

After that.

He looked at the game screen again and controlled the game character to leave the farm. He went to the farm NPC merchant and chose to buy the baby weight-loss pig again.

Because there were only three food troughs in the pigpen, he could only buy three first. Then, he entered the game and took the three pink baby pigs out of the game. Then, he controlled the game character to buy again.

This cycle repeated five times, and he only stopped after bringing out 15 piglets.

Three adult weight-loss pigs and 15 weight-loss pig piglets were enough. After all, a Ranch was not a pig raising base, and the pigpen had limited space. There was no way to make too many areas for these weight-loss pigs.

Qin Lin got into the truck, restarted the engine, and pulled the pigs to the ranch.

In the car.

These pigs were locked in cages and were still groaning.

When they returned to the farm, Qin Lin gave Yang Dong a call and drove the truck to the pigpen.

it was easy to hire employees in the ranch. after all, there were many people in you city who wanted to work in linlin manor. even when linlin ranch was recruiting, many people from the two neighboring counties came to apply.

However, there was really a lack of management staff at the ranch, so many of them could only be transferred from the villa. Then, the villa would promote the old employees and fill in new positions. It was also a way to give the old employees a chance.
