

The Game 511

Chapter 511 Even A Pig Is So Hardworking, So What Qualifications Do You Have To Be Lazy?

The old employees of the villa were very familiar with the matters of the villa and would not affect the normal operation.

Yang Dong had been transferred to the farm, or rather, the duck house had been integrated into the farm. One side of the duck house reservoir was also connected to a corner of the farm.

Yang Dong was also in charge of some of the livestock and poultry feeding in the ranch, including the pigpen.

it was just that the pigs in the pigpen had not been ordered yet. now that there were zhoushan weight-loss pigs, there was no need to order the pigs in the future.

Not long after the car stopped, Yang Dong came over with a few ranches 'employees with some tools.

"Boss!" Yang Dong first greeted Qin Lin, then called out to the employees, " clean up the pigpen first, then move the pigs from the cart. Remember to check if the fence is secure.

The pigpen in the ranch was different from the pigpen in an ordinary farm. There was a very wide area in front of the pigpen, specially used for the pigs to move.

After cleaning up the pigpen a little, Yang Dong got the employees to move the pigs from the truck.

After a few employees got into the car, they moved the weight-loss pigs out of the car one by one. However, when they moved the three adult weight-loss pigs, they looked at the muscular body and were all shocked.

"What's wrong with this pig? They've regrown their muscles?"

"There's a pig that's this meaty?"

"These three pigs are working out?"

"....."

Yang Dong heard the discussion and got into the car out of curiosity.

When he saw the three adult weight-loss pigs, he was equally surprised. f * ck, these three pigs 'tendons are a little too strong. Boss, are these Duroc pigs from the xingtiao Kingdom? "

"You can tell?" Qin Lin asked with a smile.

yang dong explained, "boss, you asked me to take care of this mess, so i have to go and learn more about it. i've also read some information about the general species of the pigs here."

"It's just that the Duroc pigs you brought back are a little small. They seem to be the rumored small Duroc pigs that were bred as pets? But didn't the pig's breeding fail?"

that's not right. This pig's muscular body looks like an iron dummy. It's very likable. If the training results are like this, it should be considered a success, right? "

Qin Lin didn't explain this question, so Yang Dong could figure it out on his own.

He just had to make the other party think that it was a Duroc pig.

This pig indeed had the blood of a Duroc pig.

Yang Dong got his men to move the three adult weight-loss pigs out of the truck. Then, he opened the cages and let the pigs out.

These weight-loss pigs became restless as soon as they were released. They were full of energy. They had been held in the cage for a long time. Therefore, as soon as the three adult pigs were released, they began to run around the surrounding area.

The point was that the piglets were actually running behind the three adult pigs, as if they were a small running team.

The key was that this was a team of pigs, and they were running in an orderly manner.

Yang Dong and the other employees were dumbfounded by the actions of these weight-loss pigs.

Were these pigs trying to escape?

That's not right. If they wanted to escape, they should hit the fence. Why did it look like they were running in circles? Even when they ran, they let out a very uniform groan.

This scene seemed a little strange to those who didn't know.

Only Qin Lin knew what was going on. After all, the remark of these fat pigs was that they would run every day.

Yang Dong and a few of the ranches 'employees did not do anything. They suddenly felt that it was quite interesting for the pigs to run in circles.

Suddenly, the fat pigs, driven by the three adult pigs, began to run around Yang Dong and a few ranches 'employees, even crossing each other.

Their actions once again made Yang Dong and the ranches 'employees even more confused.

Seeing this, Qin Lin was also surprised to hear the remarks of these weight-loss pigs. These weight-loss pigs could do some incredible exercises.

The scene in front of him should be an incredible exercise for a pig, right?

This was clearly treating Yang Dong and the others as obstacles.

Moreover, after going around Yang Dong and the others, the three adult pigs ran towards the rakes that the employees had placed on the ground. They actually jumped over the rakes as if they were jumping over obstacles.

On the other hand, the weight-loss piglets couldn't jump over. They would hit their heads if they jumped, so they could only go around them.

"What's going on with them? Fitness?" Yang Dong finally couldn't help but ask.

the ranches 'employees also looked at each other.

Seeing the actions of these pigs, he was inexplicably unable to refute. Weren't they working out?

Where did the boss find these pigs? These pigs couldn't have done this for no reason, right?

Yang Dong was extremely curious and immediately wanted to ask his boss.

At this moment, Qin Lin asked Yang Dong, " "Didn't you read the information? what's wrong with this pig? Why are they like this?"

Looking at the pig's magical performance, he didn't want to be questioned, so he could only ask others first.

He pretended to be confused, as if he really didn't know what was going on.

tsk tsk. Yang Dong was dumbfounded by this question.

This should be what he wanted to ask the boss. How did it become the boss asking him?

Chapter 512

At this moment, Yang Dong really wanted to complain in his heart. The key thing was that the other party was the boss, so he had to keep his complaints in his heart.

moreover, since his boss had asked, he had to answer. that would be too low of a eq in the workplace.

Therefore, he could only make up a story. boss, I don't know what's going on either. After all, these are pigs cultivated by the Star-Spangled nation. Maybe these small Durock pigs have undergone some kind of mutation after being cultivated, and they are particularly energetic. Some animals are so energetic that they need to vent their energy.

of course, it's also possible that these Duroc pigs were trained after they were bred. After all, they were used as pets.

yang dong felt that the content he had made up was reasonable and well-founded. moreover, this was cultivated by the pig-star country. even the boss who bought it didn't know about it, so who knew if what he said was true?

It was also possible that he was right.

When Qin Lin heard Yang Dong's nonsense, he laughed in his heart. Then, he put on a 'I believe you' expression and said, " that's probably the case. In that case, just write a brief introduction for these pigs as you said and set it up in the pigpen. It doesn't matter if it's true or not, since the people of the Hoshino won't be able to verify it.

ah!!! Yang Dong heard this and immediately felt uncomfortable.

he was just talking nonsense. why did the boss really let him write it like this? wasn't it too careless?

Qin Lin didn't give Yang Dong any time to think and said, " right, since these pigs are so special, we should give them a special name. What do you think about being called weight-loss pigs? "

Yang Dong immediately said, " boss, why don't we call them fitness and weight loss pigs? look at the tendons of those three pigs. They're obviously bodybuilders among the pigs. They're fit and lose weight. How good is that? "

"Alright!" Qin Lin didn't refuse Yang Dong's offer.

Indeed, adding the word "fitness" was very appropriate.

Things didn't have to be named after the game.

Yang Dong was also very happy that his suggestion had been accepted by his boss.

He was also anxious to show that he and Zhang Guizhu had made progress and confirmed their relationship.

Now, he and Zhang Guizhu were both at the supervisor level, and their salary was already very good.

but if he could be promoted again, it would be too perfect. after he married zhang guizhu and had children, he would also have a career, a wife, children, a house, and a car.

Moreover, he had a Manager position in the feeding Department. It was just that the feeding on the ranch was divided into several areas. He was responsible for the feeding of birds, pets, sightseeing animals, and special animals such as horses.

In the future, when the ranch was completely perfected, there would be a corresponding supervisor for these types of breeding. By then, the position of manager would also be available.

As the most senior employee, he naturally had the greatest chance.

After all, the boss and the lady boss were nostalgic and would give more opportunities to the old employees. Naturally, the premise was that they had to show their ability.

Therefore, after Yang Dong's suggestion to name himself was accepted, he wanted to show off and suggested to Qin Lin, "Boss, I think this pig is very special. It can definitely be made into a special project for the ranch. It might even become one of the main projects of the ranch."

"Tell me!" Qin Lin said with a smile.

he already had some plans for the weight-loss pig, but he was still very happy that his employees had ideas.

After all, the mountain Villas and ranches were getting bigger and bigger, and there were more and more things to do. There were many things that required the employees to take the initiative and participate in the construction.

Many companies had proven that one person's wisdom was short while everyone's wisdom was strong. Sometimes, a flash of inspiration from an ordinary employee could bring great benefits to the company.

Yang Dong didn't hesitate and immediately said what he had just thought of, "boss, the pigs look like they're training. We can build a loop around the pigpen for them to run. We can also build some special obstacles in the loop for them to cross alternately. It'll make it look like they're really training.

to make it more interesting, we can also create titles like 'even pigs are working hard, what qualifications do you have to be lazy'.

also, these pigs aren't sterilized, so we can cultivate them. There won't be many offspring. If they can be brought by the big pigs to exercise, then we can get some pigs every year and hold some auctions and other activities. It might become a feature of our Ranch.

Qin Lin was satisfied. okay, we'll do as you say. Write a plan for moxiao and ask her to approve it. She'll approve the funds for you to transform the pigsty.

Yang Dong's suggestions were excellent, and the heart-wrenching headlines even matched his plan.

"Yes, boss!" Yang Dong's face was instantly filled with joy when he saw that his suggestion had been approved.

Then, he would have a chance to perform.

He had to make this matter sound good.

After Qin Lin handed over the follow-up of the weight-loss pig to Yang Dong, he went back to his office and sat down. He received an unexpected call.

It was Zhou Chengjun.

After investing in the other party's sauce recipe, he had always kept his promise. Since the other party had not made any mistakes, he had always handed over the management rights to the other party.

Up until now, he hadn't interfered in anything, nor had he sent anyone to suppress them. At most, he had asked Zhao moyin to send some finance personnel to occasionally check the accounts and so on.

Chapter 513

Most importantly, he really did not take the sauce company to heart. He could not even manage the ketchup and leisure tea of the food company and left everything to Deng Guang.

However, Zhou Chengjun was still quite capable. With his investment of 5 million Yuan, he had developed you city sauce company quite well.

Because the sauce itself tasted good, it was a quality 1 product. With the help of Linlin food company and the channel of Linlin ketchup's agent, it now occupied 0.5% of the market share in the sauce market.

Although it couldn't be compared to the Linlin tomato sauce and Linlin leisure tea, this 0.5% of the sauce market was still very impressive for other companies.

Lao Gan Ma occupied 25% of the sauce market last year and had an annual revenue of 6.4 billion Yuan.

even if this 0.5% market share didn't increase in the future, you city sauce's annual revenue would be about 128 million.

Moreover, the sauce market was already in a frenzy, so it was a good time to expand.

The younger generation of the old godmother had been going downhill ever since they took over. Last year's 25% had already dropped by 5%, and it might be even less this year.

It could be said that Zhou Chengjun had also achieved wealth freedom and joined the ranks of successful people.

At least, his current achievements would make his girlfriend and her family regret it.

Qin Lin also answered the call.

Zhou Chengjun's voice was immediately heard, " "President Qin, I have something to report to you."

"Speak!" Qin Lin said with a smile.

In fact, he had given all the management rights to Zhou Chengjun. The other party could make his own decisions on business matters, and there was no need to report to him.

However, as a major shareholder, the manager of the company showed enough respect to him, which would always make him feel good.

Zhou Chengjun reported, " it's like this. You city's sauce is already on a certain scale, so I've decided to invite a celebrity to be the spokesperson. Our management has chosen a female celebrity and wants to bring her over to meet you. If you agree to the endorsement contract, we'll give it to her. If you don't agree, we'll assess other female celebrities.

"Alright, let's meet." Qin Lin didn't refuse, mainly because he was a little curious.

It was also his first time inviting a celebrity to endorse a product related to him. Moreover, it was the trend for most products to invite celebrities to endorse their products. It could more or less increase the image, popularity, and publicity of the product.

Of course, the Linlin leisure tea and Linlin ketchup from his Linlin food company were an exception. Because of the system's attributes, the demand was already in short supply and it was extremely popular. There was no need for celebrities to endorse it at all. If one wanted to rely on celebrities to promote the image, popularity, and publicity of Linlin leisure tea, they would need someone at the level of Heavenly King Liu.

If it was an ordinary celebrity, it would not be the celebrity's product that became popular, but the product that made the celebrity popular. Therefore, there was no need for him to take the unnecessary action of hiring a celebrity to endorse his product.

in the afternoon.

Zhou Chengjun arrived at Linlin villa. Behind him was a woman who was wearing a hat, a mask, and a pair of sunglasses.

"President Zhou, what kind of person is President Qin from Linlin company?" The woman followed behind Zhou Chengjun and asked curiously.

Zhou Chengjun explained, " Miss Li Yidong, you might be very surprised when you see President Qin. He might be younger than you think. You might even know him.

These days, boss Qin had been very popular on the internet. Countless people should have known about the horse trainer little Qin, but who would have thought that little Qin was the boss of Linlin villa, Linlin food company, and Linlin laboratory?

Li Yitong was the female star that you city sauce had invited to endorse. She had acted in many TV dramas and had appeared in the industry with " half-demon devades a country ". She was the kind of female star who was famous but not very popular.

At this stage, you city sauce could only afford to invite a female star of this level.

Now that you city's sauce had opened the market, it was necessary to hire a celebrity to endorse it while old godmother kept making mistakes to grab market share.

Li Yitong's curiosity was piqued when he heard Zhou Chengjun's words.

in fact, she didn't need to come here personally to endorse a product like you cheng sauce, but knowing that the major shareholder behind you cheng sauce was the boss of linlin company, it was different.

Everyone knew the potential of the Linlin ketchup and Linlin leisure tea, not to mention that there was also Linlin's laboratory.

For a celebrity like her, the boss of Linlin company was a big Shot. No matter what, it was necessary to show her respect by meeting him.

If he could have a drinking session with the other party and have a few drinks with them, it would be good to increase his impression of them, and maybe there would be a chance for cooperation.

Zhou Chengjun quickly brought Li Yitong to Qin Lin's office.

Qin Lin also saw Li Yitong, who had been brought by Zhou Chengjun.

At first glance, he felt that this female celebrity looked familiar. At least, she should be somewhat famous.

When Li Yidong saw Qin Lin, he was a little dumbfounded, and his pretty face was full of shock.

She finally understood what Zhou Chengjun had meant.

These days, the horse tamer little Qin was too popular on the internet. Even she was amazed by the horse tamer little Qin's riding skills. He was wearing a silver armor and holding a silver spear. He looked really handsome.

However, she had never expected that the horse tamer little Qin was the boss of Linlin company.

If she told others about this, they would think that she was joking.

Chapter 514

Li Yidong didn't know how to express his surprise, so he quickly and respectfully said to Qin Yang, "President Qin, nice to meet you. You're such a surprise."

At first, Qin Lin was a little curious about the female star you Cheng sauce found to endorse their products. However, after seeing Li Yidong's respectful, cautious, and ingratiating tone, he didn't think there was anything special about her.

Those female stars who were sought after by ordinary people and regarded as goddesses by their fans were actually nothing in front of people of a higher level.

In terms of appearance, the other party couldn't even compare to Zhao moyin, who had been using quality 2 beauty eggs and quality 2 Xiangshui Gong rice for a long time.

In terms of figure, even an airport runway guy like Zhao Moyi would feel a little ashamed when he saw the pretty good body that she had trained.

Therefore, they didn't talk for long. He ended the meeting and let Zhou Chengjun take the other party away.

Over the next few days, Yang Dong was also working on the pigsty, creating a customized fitness Pigpen for the weight-loss pigs.

After the custom-made Pigpen was made, Qin Lin brought Zhao Moyi to have a look.

Zhao mochen was amused by those weight-loss pigs and kept laughing.

These days, with the publicity, the first step of the ranch's preparations was finally completed, and it was time for the opening.

Although the animals hadn't been fully ordered, and the cows hadn't come in yet, this was the nature of the scenic Area. It couldn't wait until everything was ready to open. It would be opened while everything was being perfected.

When Lin Lanzi posted the video of the ranches 'opening on the official account, she also released 1000 advance tickets.

As soon as the announcement video was released, the fans of Linlin villa went wild. They had been looking forward to the Linlin Ranch for a long time, so the announcement video became a hot search in a short time.

This was the current popularity of Linlin Manor.

Moreover, the entrance fee of Linlin Ranch was only 88 yuan, so there was no resistance. Instead, the 1000 pre-order tickets were sold out in less than five minutes.

There were countless people who didn't manage to get a ticket, waving their 88 yuan and begging Linlin Ranch to open more tickets.

In the office.

Qin Lin received a call from wang yang.

"President Qin, I'm sorry to disturb you with this call. I really have a favor to ask of you." Wang Yan's voice came through the phone.

The other party seemed to be gasping for air, and he didn't know what they were up to.

"Tell me, what's the matter?" Qin Lin asked.

Wang yang was now considered one of his generals, and under his promotion, the Linlin leisure tea had basically occupied the market in the provincial capital of min province.

The main agent for min province had already been given to the other party, and the promotion of the Linlin leisure tea in the other two cities in min province was also very smooth. The promotion of the king's Tea was like a bamboo shoot.

The key was that this guy really had a brain. He also knew how to make use of the traffic of a certain music Short Video. Previously, his account 'beating people with knives' had been popular several times and was well-known by many people. He had also used it as a promotion account and changed 'beating people with knives' to 'beating people with knives'- Linlin leisure tea min province general agent'.

More importantly, this account had accumulated a lot of fans, and it had already exceeded one million.

Almost every one of his videos had a beautiful woman on it, and they were all very pretty.

Obviously, he had mastered the data password.

"Boss Qin, isn't your Linlin Ranch open to the public?" My employees want to go to Linlin Ranch for a team building, and they even have my lifeblood in their hands. They're forcing me to make this call and beg President Qin!"

you're a Big Boss now. Can an employee threaten you? " Qin Lin shook his head. He didn't believe that someone like wang yang would be forced to make a phone call by his subordinates.

This was just a joke.

However, he also said, " I didn't want to accept team building at first, but you're one of us. You can count the number of people and send their ID cards over. I'll arrange it for you. When the time comes, you can just scan the code and enter. You don't need to enter and provide support.

From the opening of Linlin villa until now, there were many team-building companies, but they were all rejected and did not provide team-building services.

However, rules were dead, but people were alive. People like Wang Yan were considered part of Linlin company, so it was fine to arrange for them once in a while.

Min province.

When wang yang heard Qin Lin's agreement in the office, he immediately said gratefully,"Thank you, President Qin. You're my Savior."

After he hung up, he quickly put down his phone. "Sister Lingling, President Qin has agreed. Are you happy now? I'll send it to President Qin later."

However, the office seemed to be empty. There was no one else.

A moment later, Jiang Lingling suddenly came out of the office desk and winked at Wang Yan. "Thank you, boss ..."

As she spoke, she took a tissue from the table and wiped her mouth. Then, she walked out and called the young girls under Wang Yan to ask for the number of people to go to Linlin farm.

Those young girls used to be the main force of Wang Yan's night club, and now they had all become the young girls under Wang Yan. Each of them was in charge of the supply of goods in a region, and had become the main force of promotion.

Wang Yan looked at Jiang Lingling, who was walking out, and felt very tired. Why didn't he control himself at Linlin villa last time and fell into sister Lingling's hands?

At that time, even if he had been more determined, he wouldn't have had to be asked for food by sister Lingling every day.

He didn't dare to imagine what it would be like when su Juan's child was born and she was asked for food at home. When she came to the company, she would be asked for food again.

He felt that he would be emptied.

This time, he had to ask President Qin for a bottle of Linlin medicinal wine to save his life.

Not long after, Qin Lin also received the number of people Wang Yan had counted.

There were a total of 163 people, including Wang Yan's underlings and the sales people that the underlings had recruited in the three cities.

However, when Qin Lin got the list, he was a little surprised to see that all the names on the ID card were women.

he even counted seriously and found that there were only a few men on the statistics sheet. the yin was strong and the yang was weak to the extreme.

Chapter 515 The King-Like Female Army! The Bodybuilder Is A Pig! 1

The next day.

The entire Linlin Ranch was busy. Even though the opening ceremony had been held last night, the employees of the ranch were ready for the opening.

but early in the morning, there was already a long line outside the farm, which completely disrupted the plan on the farm's side.

There were too many people.

"Everyone, don't be anxious. Line up to buy the tickets one by one," Gao Yaoyao had no choice but to stand on a small stool and shout through the loudspeaker to maintain order.

"Five tickets." When it was a young man's turn, he immediately announced his vote number. After buying five tickets, he hurriedly called his other four companions to the entrance of the ranch to check their tickets.

"After waiting for so long, Linlin Ranch is finally open."

that's right. We didn't manage to get a ticket yesterday. Fortunately, we came early and queued up first to get one.

"Let's go in quickly. I can't wait to see The White Peacock."

at this moment.

a large bus suddenly drove in from outside the farm and went straight to the entrance of the farm.

This attracted the attention of all the tourists.

"Can you drive in from the ranch?"

I don't think I can. I was stopped by the security guard when I tried to drive in. I have to Park in the villa's parking lot.

"Then how did these buses get in?"

The tourists discussed in surprise and curiosity.

When they saw the words 'Linlin leisure tea agent sales tour group' pasted on the buses, everyone understood that these were the agent sales of Linlin leisure tea. No wonder they were exceptions.

When the buses stopped, everyone's eyes were fixed on them. There was a beautiful woman coming down from each bus.

It was followed by a second beauty, then a third, a fourth, and one after another.

Short skirts, stockings, bare shoulders, long hair, short hair, and all kinds of beautiful women came down and gathered together. In a moment, there was a group of them, and the number was far more than 100.

More importantly, all of these beauties were very beautiful.

"Is the sales quality of the Linlin leisure tea always this high?"

I suddenly want to sell leisure tea. The salary is not important. I just want to help sell leisure tea.

"I think it's okay to pay 5000 yuan to work for free for two months."

"..."

Most of the men had never seen such a gathering of beautiful women before.

Many of the men in the queue couldn't take their eyes off him. Some of them even secretly took out their phones and started taking pictures.

A crisp slap was heard, followed by an angry female voice. "They're pretty, aren't they?"

Everyone looked over and saw a woman walking out of the farm in a huff. Then, a man covered his red and swollen face and chased after her. "Honey, I'm not looking at them."

This made many men subconsciously look at their female companions and find that their female companions' expressions were not good. Just now, they were only focused on the group of beautiful women and had forgotten about their female companions.

Wang Yan didn't know that the group of beautiful women he had brought along had ruined the mood of many female tourists.

He carefully helped Su Juan out of the car.

Su Juan was pregnant, so he had to take care of her carefully.

This scene made the younger generation of girls under him a little jealous and looked at Su Juan with envy.

Everyone played in the nightclub with a sample, and who had not discussed the length and depth of the problem with a sample?

How could someone be so lucky?

The only person who wasn't envious was Jiang Lingling. She was very open-minded now. Anyway, she and wang yang were already in such a state. No one knew who would get more food in the future.

After all, men always spent more time at work or on business trips than at home.

If she really used all her means, she would make sure that wang yang didn't have any food to bring home. Whether he could receive any food would depend on her attitude and charity.

Wang yang didn't know what Jiang Lingling was thinking, or he would have screamed for her.

After he helped su Juan out of the car, he also waved to those girls and said, "let's go. scan the code and enter the ranch with me."

The girls from the younger generation who came from the nightclub immediately cheered 'long live brother Yan' and surrounded Wang Yan as they walked toward the entrance of the ranch.

This scene made many male tourists look at Wang Yan with envy.

this should be what a man should be like, right?

Wang Yan quickly brought the girls into the farm, and as soon as they entered, the endless grassland appeared.

The group of people were all shocked. That kind of impact was really indescribable.

"Is this the fragrance of the grasslands? It's so comfortable."

"She's really beautiful!"

yes, she's even more beautiful than in the videos online.

someone, hurry up and help me take a picture!

The girls were all excited and posed for their friends to take photos of them.

Clearly, the quality 2 dog tooth grass's attributes had attracted all the girls that Wang Yan had brought.

There were already many tourists who had checked their tickets to enter the ranch. The most attractive part of the ranch was naturally the race track and The White Peacock area.

There were already many people lining up to ride horses around the race track.

wang yang also brought his girls to the horse racing area. on the way to you city, there were already many girls who wanted to ride horses.

Pang Bo and the few apprentices from the race track couldn't take their eyes off such a beautiful lady.

Especially the few apprentices who were still single, they were even thinking about whether they should find a contact.

Naturally, they only dared to think about it. Under such circumstances, most people did not have the courage to ask for this contact information.

Chapter 516 The King-Like Female Army! Mr. Bodybuilder Is A Pig! 2

however, at this moment, many girls surrounded them excitedly, asking pang bo and the others one by one, "

" is little qin here? can i let little qin ride a horse while carrying me? "

I'm looking for little Qin too. He's so handsome. I want to take a picture with him.

"Yeah, I also want little Qin Wanwan."

"Let little Qin carry me and ride my horse."

"....."

"bi an" pang bo.

"Wan Wan" apprentices.

Pang Bo really did not know how to answer these beautiful women who were asking for hugs.

there was no little qin, it was just their boss who put on a sockpuppet to show off.

The apprentices were envious of their boss.

How good would it be if little Qin was one of them? With so many beautiful women, it must be very comfortable to hold.

He wondered if he could suggest to the boss to carry a beautiful woman to ride a horse in the future. They didn't need to hold the horse on the ground and could ride the horse with the beautiful woman. After all, it was safer this way, right?

While the apprentices were having wild thoughts, pang Bo could only explain awkwardly, " "Everyone, I'm sorry, little Qin went home to visit his relatives. He's not here today."

At this moment, wang yang also hurriedly said, "stop messing around. If you're here to play, then follow the rules.""

He knew who little Qin was. He was boss Qin.

These girls wanted President Qin to carry them and ride a horse, how dare they.

When the beautiful girls heard Wang Yan's words, they could only give up and line up obediently. They let the apprentices help them onto their horses, and then the apprentices led them around the race track for ten minutes. There were also professional photographers who took photos for them, and they could pose in all kinds of poses for the photographers to take.

Just like drifting, the data of these photos would be sent to the service desk in the hall, where they could check it out. They could purchase any of the photos they took a fancy to for 10 dollars.

After wang yang brought the girls to ride the horses, he brought them to see The White Peacock.

Admiring The White Peacock was also the most popular project in Linlin Ranch.

Of course, Wang Yan stayed by Su Juan's side the whole time, acting like a good husband, if it wasn't for Jiang Lingling who occasionally appeared by his side and made eyes at him.

"Hubby, these white peacocks are so pretty." Su Juan's eyes were filled with stars as she looked at the White peacocks.

"En!" Wang Yan nodded.

These white peacocks were indeed more beautiful than the ones in the video. There shouldn't be any other peacocks that were more beautiful than this, right?

Jiang Lingling didn't have the time to flirt with Wang Yan anymore. She had already taken out her phone and started taking pictures of the White peacocks.

Women's sensibility always made them love beautiful animals.

Jiang Lingling felt that the entrance fee of only 88 yuan was too cheap to be able to enter such a beautiful Ranch that made her feel comfortable and relaxed. She would also be able to see such a beautiful white peacock. Even if it was 288 yuan, she would still come.

After admiring the White peacocks, Wang Yan and the others also got on the sightseeing bus, planning to tour the entire Ranch.

Because of the quality 2 Dogtooth grass +2, relaxed mood +2, and viewing +2 attributes, sitting on the sightseeing bus to watch the panoramic view was also a very shocking feeling.

As the tour bus moved forward, Wang Yan was suddenly attracted by an area where many tourists had gathered.

"There are a lot of people there, what project is it?" Su Juan curiously asked.

Jiang Lingling and the other girls also looked over curiously.

"Master, let's stop over there for a while." Wang Yan also asked the bus driver to look at that area.

The tour coach driver also drove his car to the same place and stopped.

Wang Yang brought Su Juan and Jiang Lingling out of the car. When they got close, they saw a sign in the enclosed area: Mr. Bodybuilding's performance.

Linlin Ranch had such a performance?

But bodybuilders didn't really match a Ranch.

Moreover, the area in front of them looked like a pigsty, right?

As if it was a response, the grunting of pigs came from the pigpen.

It was just that they couldn't see the exact situation inside through the door and wall.

The other tourists gathered here were also confused and discussed among themselves.

"If I didn't hear it wrong, it's the sound of a pig, right?"

yes, it's a pig, but why do the facilities in the area outside look like a mini sports field? "

I think so too. There's a running track and obstacles, " there's a sign here: 'because of the mutation, these Duroc pigs have special skills. They know how to exercise and exercise. They've also developed a body of muscle' forehead'.

As the tourist read, his words suddenly got stuck in his throat.

The others were also stunned when they heard this.

What the hell?

Pigs know how to work out and exercise, but they can still develop muscles?

This really wasn't a joke?

"Hubby, is the bodybuilder at Linlin ranch a pig?" Su Juan blankly opened her mouth and asked Wang Yan.

"Maybe, maybe, it is!" Wang Yan felt that it would be a joke if this bodybuilder was a pig.

Everyone knew what a pig was like. Being lazy meant that it was full of fat.

if even pigs knew how to work out and had developed muscles, then how could humans like them bear it?

Just as all the tourists were in a daze, Yang Dong appeared with his staff.

All these gimmicks and mysteriousness were naturally intentional.

In this situation, the tourists 'curiosity must have been aroused.

So, it was time for the pigs to show up.

Yang Dong took the microphone and said to the tourists gathered around, " welcome, everyone, to the performance of Mr. Bodybuilders of the ranch. Now, let's welcome our Mr. Bodybuilders.

The employees were very cooperative and opened the pigpen's door.

In an instant, the weight-loss pigs who had been impatiently locked up ran out one by one.

The space in the pigpen was obviously not enough for their exercise needs.

The moment the three pigs ran out, the gathered tourists exclaimed, " f * ck, are you serious? this pig's muscles.

"I'm not seeing things with my eyes, right?"

are these muscles kidding me? "

“ ... ”

Anyone who saw the muscles of the three pigs would be dumbfounded.

However, what happened next left the surrounding visitors even more dumbfounded. The moment the three pigs ran out, they immediately ran into the circular track.

The little piglets followed behind, just like a running team, snorting in an orderly manner after a few steps.

It was fine if they just ran, but after running one round, the pigs ran back into the middle of the obstacle area and ran around the crossed obstacles.

This was the effect of the weight-loss pig's incredible exercise.

What was even more incredible was that there were small wooden boards in front of the obstacles, and the three pigs actually knew how to jump over them, just like hurdles.

after praising all the wooden planks, they ran back to the track and continued running. it was as if they were full of energy and would not get tired.

"Hubby, they really seem to be training!" Su Juan's face was filled with shock as she spoke to Wang Yan.

f * ck! he opened his mouth, but he didn't know what to say. He wasn't joking. It was really a pig working out. This was beyond his understanding.

Suddenly, a loudspeaker sounded from the running pigs, " even pigs like us work so hard. What right do you have to be lazy? "

"Could it be that you guys are not as good as us pigs?"

"Even pigs like us have developed muscles. Don't you feel embarrassed?"

"Surprise" the tourists.

He was like a king.

Looking at the pigs exercising and shouting such slogans, he suddenly felt his heart ache.

Many male tourists subconsciously looked at their small arms and legs. They were really worse than pigs.

A slightly chubby man was eating a fruit in his hand when he suddenly heard this. Then, he saw that his girlfriend was looking at him with a strange look.

He took the fruit and tried to put it in his mouth several times, but he didn't put it in. It was as if it was a crime to eat it at this time.

What the f * ck is this? i've been stabbed in the heart by a few pigs when i'm out on a vacation.

Wang Yan and the rest were completely attracted by the weight loss pigs. However, after half an hour, they realized that these pigs didn't look tired at all, and were still running.

At this moment, the tourists seemed to understand why the pigs had such muscles.

&Nbsp; if it was a human, they wouldn't even be able to run for half an hour, but these pigs were still running.

what amazing stamina! Wang Yan looked at the pigs, and couldn't help but show an envious expression.

Chapter 517

Wang yang and his men watched the pigpen for a long time before they left.

Boss Qin had arranged tents for them, and the people he brought could spend the night in the ranch tent experience area.

however, as soon as he left the pigpen, more sightseeing buses stopped and many tourists got off, making the pigpen seem crowded.

When Wang Yan and the others went to the tent experience area, they realized that there were already many people in the entire farm. The area for tourists was already packed.

"Hubby, there are so many people. President Qin's farm is so popular." Su Juan hugged Wang Yan's arm and said in surprise.

"It's super popular." Wang Yan added. How long had they been here? The people who came in later were squeezed into this.

according to the situation, linlin ranch would soon have to limit its food supply.

Just as the king thought, the ranch received more than enough customers.

gao yaoyao had already ordered the ranches to stop selling tickets. it was not even noon, and apart from the 1000 tickets that were reserved, more than 5000 people had already checked their tickets.

In other words, in less than half a day, the ranch had already received nearly 6000 people.

Qin Lin was a little surprised when he received the report.

Although he knew that the promotional video of a ranches with a quality two Dogtooth grass would definitely attract people, and there was a high possibility that it would be limited in the end, he did not expect that the ranches would already receive so many tourists before half a day had passed.

This had far exceeded their expectations.

It seemed that the Southerners were more enthusiastic about these ranches than he had imagined. Or rather, there were very few ranches in the South that could be farmed.

Qin Lin was not the only one who was surprised. The people in the county were also surprised.

Chen Li had just finished dealing with some matters. Seeing that it was not yet noon, he decided to ask about the situation at Linlin Ranch. After all, today was the opening day of Linlin Ranch, which was the most important thing in the county.

The county's expectation for the Linlin Ranch was for the number of tourists to exceed 5000. With the original 5000 daily visitors that the villa received, the number of tourists would exceed 10000.

For a County with a resident population of less than 200000, everyone knew what it meant to receive 10000 tourists a day.

Chen Licai picked up his phone and was about to call Zhong Lei to ask about the opening status of the Youli Ranch when he received a call from Sun Xian and was called to the office.

Take a look at the video. There's a traffic jam. When Sun Xian saw Chen Li enter, he immediately handed him a video.

Chen Li took the video and looked at it. It was a video of your city's main road. In the video, there was a long queue of cars.

Sun Xian was already being tactful when he said that there was a traffic jam.

This was clearly a traffic jam.

It was obvious that it was because of the opening of Linlin Ranch. Furthermore, the number of customers that Linlin Ranch received had exceeded their expectations.

Sun Xian said, "The latest news from Linlin Manor has arrived. Linlin Ranch has stopped its business in less than half a day. It has already received 6000 tourists in one morning.

Also, the tourists who are here for the farm can't enter the farm, so they'll go to the villa first. Now, a few of the projects in the villa have also been limited. The total number of visitors in one morning has reached 4000.

Achoo! Even though Chen Li had mentally prepared himself for Linlin Manor to explode, he was still shocked when he heard this number.

They had originally estimated that they would only receive 10000 customers a day, but now, they had already received 10000 customers in half a day.

It was no wonder that the main street was still so congested even though the county had already made preparations and arrangements.

Who could have expected Linlin villa to be so powerful?

Or rather, the Southerners were unexpectedly passionate about scenic spots like ranches. In addition, Boss Qin's ranches were really good. The attraction of the promotional video was too great, which led to this situation.

"Boss Qin's farm is really unexpected." Chen Li could only sigh with emotion in the end.

"But our your city is on the hot search." At this moment, Sun Xian's expression was somewhat bitter as he passed a video to Chen Li.

Chen Li took the video and looked at it. It was indeed a trending video. The video was actually a video of the traffic jam on the main street of their your city.

The title was, "Your city really doesn't deserve to build a villa."

After reading the title and the comments below, he finally understood why Sun Xian looked so bitter.

Haha, it's a city that wants to be promoted to a city. Why is there such a traffic jam when we're going to the nearby Scenic Area? " we'll see. A city being stuck in traffic because of a scenic spot. It's clear that the traffic planning and control of this County is not good.

I've been stuck here for half a day. To be honest, Linlin Manor really shouldn't be in a small place like you city. Otherwise, it wouldn't be unable to meet the basic traffic conditions.

with Linlin Manor's popularity, if I were you city's leader, I would have made arrangements long ago. It's absolutely impossible for such a situation to occur.

“.....”

Chen Li sighed when he saw these comments.

Although these comments were pointing out the situation, they were indeed stuck in a traffic jam.

This time, you Cheng was really embarrassed on the internet.

In the end, sun Xian said with a hint of urgency, " we need to do a new traffic plan. If the traffic continues, I'm afraid boss Qin will believe these comments.

Chen Li also hurriedly nodded.

This was also what they had to worry about. If it was on the hot search and many people said it, boss Qin might believe it and make some adjustments. Then, the county would have no place to cry.

Half a day passed.

Linlin Ranch was still popular and had to limit the traffic. You city was still stuck in traffic, and many tourists were not friendly to it.

Chapter 518

Some of the tourists arrived in the afternoon. They had been stuck in you city for half a day and finally arrived at Linlin Ranch. They found that Linlin Ranch's sales had been restricted in the afternoon, so they couldn't buy a ticket to enter.

They could only take a step back and go to Linlin villa to play first, only to find that the villa also had a limited number of tourists.

This gave them a headache.

Since they were already here, they could only think of booking a hotel and coming back early the next morning.

However, when they wanted to book a hotel room, they were shocked to find that you Cheng couldn't book a hotel room at all. Even the hotel or the foot bath that they could stay in were all full.

In other words, they couldn't play, but they couldn't stay. Now, they had to go to the village or the neighboring County to stay?

Did they come here to play with loneliness?

Time passed, and soon it was night. The mountain villa and Ranch, which were full during the day, began to restore its peace.

At night, Zhao mochen also gave the statistics he had prepared to Qin Lin as soon as possible.

Today, the villa and the ranch were full all day long. The villa was also affected by the ranch, and there was a restriction all day long.

As a result, the villa received 8000 customers a day and the turnover reached 2.95 million, which was 3000 more than the previous day.

And this was only because there was a limit to the number. If there wasn't, there would be even more.

Under the current limit of the ranch, the number of customers reached 12500, which was a full house. The entrance fee was 1.1 million Yuan, and the other sales reached 950000 Yuan, making it a total of 2.05 million Yuan.

From this, it could be seen that the consumption potential of the ranch had not been fully developed.

However, the sales of the ranch and villa just happened to exceed 5 million Yuan, and the per capita consumption was 243 Yuan.

This was an absolutely shocking number.

the daily turnover of all the other scenic spots in you city combined could not reach this number.

A daily turnover of 5 million, although it could not be compared with those top-tier scenic spots with daily turnover of tens of millions, it was still considered a leader.

moreover, the sales would continue to increase in the future. after all, the per capita consumption had only reached 243, which was a bit low.

In the next few days, Linlin Ranch was still popular. It was full almost every day. You city had also made some adjustments to the traffic command, but the traffic was still heavy.

This continued for a week before it finally stabilized. The total number of visitors to Linlin Ranch and Linlin Mountain Villa remained at about 12000.

The overall sales had dropped a lot, but after the development of the ranches was completed, it would quickly increase back, or even higher.

A few days passed.

linlin villa also welcomed a happy event. the travel documentary that you cheng had previously hired to film with the theme of two ginkgo trees singing had been released.

As soon as the documentary was released, it was broadcasted on you city's TV station. Even some well-known media companies in you city received requests from the county to help broadcast and promote it, including the official account of Qin Ren's advertising company.

Of course, the publicity effect of you City TV station and other media channels combined was not as good as the effect of a video uploaded by the official account of Linlin villa. It was even worse than the fan accounts of wangcai and red hair.

their likes and comments added together were not as many as the videos posted by wangcai and red hair fans.

This was a bit of a heartache for the county.

fortunately, the two maidenhair trees and the sound of the tree singing in linlin manor were very famous. the documentary still caused a response, and the county's promotion purpose was achieved. it would bring many benefits in the future.

In the Linlin villa staff canteen, the LCD screen on the wall was playing the promotional video of the two ginkgo trees and Master Lin.

Because it was a story about the people around them, all the employees watched it with great interest and discussed it.

"Haha, the documentary about Master Lin and these two trees is quite good."

"I didn't expect Master Lin to be so naughty when he was young. He often climbed these two trees."

"Master Lin is quite romantic. He even got to know zhezi as a hero saving a beauty."

"master lin was very brave when he fought against the woodcutters."

Indeed, in the documentary, Master Lin discovered that there were Lumberjacks going to cut wood. He carried a hoe and rushed forward, fighting to the death with the two Lumberjacks. In the end, he even sent the Lumberjacks in.

wuwuwu. Master Lin's face was full of bitterness when he saw this scene.

These were all forced by the director, there was no such thing.

However, the key point was that the other party had actually said at the beginning of the documentary film that they had discussed how to adapt the documentary. It was clearly made up by the other party, okay?

He only felt that he was a big liar who had deceived everyone and caused this kind of situation to get out of hand.

If he was given another chance, he would have controlled himself and not said a word.

Now that things had come to this, no one would believe him even if he said in public that those were fake.

Why bother!

Just as Master Lin was feeling vexed, Lin Lanzi suddenly came in and found him. "master lin, there's something i need to tell you. min province's television station is going to have a program about the deeds of famous people in min province. they would like to invite you and a few famous people from min province to appear on the program to promote your spiritual deeds. "

Chi. when Master Lin heard this news, his entire body suddenly went numb.

Was he still going to go on a TV show and continue to boast like this?

He was already so old, why did he have to face such a thing?

Qin Lin didn't know whether to laugh or cry when he received the news that the min province TV station was going to publicize Master Lin's celebrity deeds.

Because he clearly knew what was going on.

Chapter 519

In the past, it was often said that the times created heroes. This word 'created' was really interesting.

although master lin couldn't be considered a hero, he had created a famous person. he might even be a little confused about his own fame.

so, could the other famous people be in the same situation as master lin? They were all fake.

No one could guarantee this.

Just as Qin Lin was deep in thought, Zhao moyin came in with a middle-aged man behind him. The middle-aged man had a square face and a very awkward fake smile on his face.

When Zhao mochen came in, his face was a little gloomy, as if something had happened.

As soon as she entered the office, she said to Qin ran, " "Hubby, this is Han Su, Mr. Han, the owner of the largest farm in the South, Qing Yuan farm. He said he wants to buy the seeds of our farm."

Qin Lin looked at Han Su with a slight frown.

Zhao moyin's face was gloomy because of this? she rarely got angry, so the two sides probably didn't have a pleasant conversation.

After Linlin Ranch was opened, he knew that someone would find the difference in the pasture sooner or later and come to find him, but he didn't expect that someone would come so soon.

Moreover, the other party was the Qing Yuan farm, the top farm in the South.

To be able to be first, it seemed that they were indeed quite capable. However, the number one position in the South of Qingyuan farm would soon be handed over to Linlin farm.

Han Su didn't expect the owner of Linlin Ranch to be so young. The young people these days were really impressive. However, he already knew some details about Linlin Ranch, and that was the pasture.

when linlin farm had just announced the promotion, he knew that this farm would pose a threat to his position as the top farm in qingyuan farm.

Therefore, on the first day of the store's opening, he had already made preparations and sent people to investigate Linlin Ranch.

white peacocks and those pigs that can work out were not a big deal. he believed that he could buy white peacocks with money. linlin ranch could train duroc pigs to that level. if he hired a professional animal trainer and imported a batch of duroc pigs, he believed that he could duplicate them.

The Linlin Manor's greatest reliance was actually the patriarch grass.

His men found that these pastures were very different. They were better than ordinary pastures in many aspects, such as color, luster, and appearance.

Therefore, the dense gathering of these grasses made it even more beautiful and attractive.

The most important thing was that he had asked someone to test the patriarch grass and found that it contained an incredible amount of nutrients, which were very beneficial to livestock.

In fact, with these pastures for the animals to eat, a lot of nutritious fodder specially used to feed animals could be saved.

This was simply the treasure of a farm. Perhaps Linlin farm had yet to discover the benefits of this pasture?

So, he came here for the pasture. As long as he brought it back and Qingyuan farm made some arrangements, Linlin farm would never be a threat to their farm.

Of course, he was here to buy the seeds for Linlin's laboratory and professor Li Kai.

This grass should be the work of professor Li Kai.

Linlin's laboratory had previously donated the roots of adonaxi grass and had a good reputation. They had to obtain the seeds of the grass in a gentle way.

Otherwise, if he wanted to get the patriarch grass, he would not have to use this method. He could have just transplanted it in private, and the other party would not have been able to do anything about it.

As the number one Ranch in the South, he had the confidence to do so.

However, doing so would more or less bring about a bad reputation. That was why he had personally made this trip.

However, when he mentioned it to the lady boss just now, the other party refused. The discussion was not pleasant, so he could only threaten her a little and come to see boss Qin.

Women were inexperienced, but men would always know what to do.

Thinking of this, Han Su also spoke up. He put on a fake smile and said, " boss Qin, I'm sorry to have disturbed you. I don't have any other purpose, but I want to buy some of the pasture seeds from Linlin Ranch. We're both ranches in the South, so we should help each other to deal with the pasture in the North. I hope you can sell us some pasture seeds, boss Qin.

Chapter 520 Do You Think The System Is Trash? I've Always Been The Clown

When Qin Lin heard Han SU's words, he felt that it was a little ridiculous.

Because he heard a sense of matter-of-fact in the other party's tone.

it was as if it was only right to sell patriarch seeds to him.

More importantly, the other party could even say something like 'we're both from the South, we should deal with the North'.

this gave the impression that he was giving you face by buying your pasture seeds, and you should naturally sell me.

Qin Lin looked at Han Su and teased, "boss han, it's just pasture seeds. You don't have to buy them from me. I bought them from a seed company in Ming city. I can recommend you to buy them directly from them.

When Han Su heard this, his face darkened. "Boss Qin, you know that's not what I meant. I don't need those ordinary seeds."

"Then I can't do anything about it, because the pasture of our Ranch is grown with the seeds of that company," Qin Lin said with a smile.

Han Su fell silent when he heard this.

He understood that the other party was just casually dealing with him and had no intention of selling the seeds at all.

but thinking about it, he wouldn't sell it to anyone even if he had it.

However, this Qin fellow was still young and impetuous. He did not leave any room for negotiation when he rejected people. The key was that the pasture was good stuff, but the protective measures of the other party's Ranch were not good enough.

With that thought, Han Su smiled and said, "Boss Qin, sometimes you don't have to buy things. Most of the time, you just want to save face by buying them."

After saying this, he looked at Qin Lin with a smile that was not a smile.

The meaning of his words was already very clear. He was clearly telling the other party that he didn't need to buy the pasture if he wanted it.

I'm giving you face by buying it.

If you earned this sum of money, everyone's face would be okay. Otherwise, you wouldn't even be able to earn this sum of money.

zhao moyin's face was even gloomier. the other party had already threatened her once, and now she was threatening her husband.

Qin Lin naturally understood the meaning behind Han SU's words, but he still smiled and said, "Boss han, it seems that you really need these pasture seeds. I'll call the seed company in Ming city and ask them to send a batch of seeds over. You don't have to buy them, I'll give them to you.

Are you kidding me?

Who did the other party think he was?

Quality 2 dog tooth grass? Did the other party think that he was more powerful than the system?

Whoever could take the quality 2 Dogtooth grass from Linlin Ranch, he would give them the word 'respect'.

Han Su was clearly enraged by her words. boss Qin, you're still too young. It's good to be young and impetuous, but don't be too sharp. It's easy to break your own horns.

After saying that, Han Su stood up and left with a cold smile.

Since that was the case, the other party would not be able to get the money for the seeds.

As the saying goes, 'courtesy first, force later'!

He was concerned about his face, so if the other party didn't accept it, then he would deal with it later.

Although secretly transplanting the pasture would ruin their reputation, it was better than doing nothing. If they did not cultivate the pasture, the title of the number one pasture in the South would be handed over to Linlin pasture sooner or later.

Han Su left Linlin Manor without looking back. When he reached the parking lot, there were already two cars waiting there.

seeing that he had arrived, a few people got out of the car.

"How is it, President han?" one of them asked. Did Linlin Manor agree to sell their seeds?"

Han Su sneered. Mr. Fang is too young and impetuous. Or perhaps we've been looked down upon. He thinks that if he doesn't sell us the seeds, we won't be able to get the pasture of Linlin Ranch!

"Oh right, how's it going on your side?" he asked.

When the man heard this, he immediately brought Han Su to the back of a vehicle.

When he opened the trunk, he could see that there were potted plants inside.

The potted plants were indeed stalks of Dogtooth grass.

These were naturally from the Linlin Ranch.

Their people entered Linlin Ranch and were brought out just like that. They were not even noticed by the people of Linlin Ranch.

The man explained, " the Linlin Ranch is too poorly guarded. It's like they're not afraid of being stolen even though they have such good pasture. In the end, it's still a newly built Ranch. They're inexperienced.

Han Su looked in the direction of Linlin Manor with a cold smile. then let's wait until we've cultivated the dog's tooth grass and teach them a good lesson. The cultivation of patriarch grass isn't only through the seeds.

Han Su left the qinlin villa with his men and returned to Qingyuan farm.

Qingyuan farm was located in Guangdong Province, and it was much larger than Linlin farm. It was known as the number one farm in the South and was also very famous in the local area.

when han su brought his men back to qing yuan farm, there was already a manager waiting for him with his men.

"Chairman han, you're back." A man in a suit went up to him immediately.

"How's the farm doing today?" Han Su asked immediately.

The man in the suit suddenly frowned. President han, the number of customers today has dropped a lot compared to yesterday. There are also tourists who had originally booked their tickets but later refunded them.

moreover, many people have started to compare us with Linlin farm in our official comments and online comments. They said that our Qingyuan farm is far inferior to Linlin farm.

Han SU's face darkened when he heard that.

He didn't expect the impact to appear so quickly.

perhaps this was the reason why the young man was so confident.

Unfortunately, this was only temporary.
