

The Game 561

Chapter 561 The Phoenix Coronet And The Robes Of Dawn Are Actually Of A Grade 3

In the warehouse.

Qin Lin's figure appeared in the car out of thin air, along with two water containers.

The two aquariums contained the ornamental fish he had caught in the game's river and sea.

Over the past few days, they had caught more than 100 ornamental fish on both sides, and it was just enough to transport one back to the villa.

There were more than 200 ornamental fish, so the two aquarium tanks couldn't fit them all. He entered the game again and headed to the pond.

This time, he caught the ornamental turtles and put them into a new aquarium.

In fact, raising turtles was more troublesome. All turtles belonged to the species listed in the appendix of the Chinese Convention, which was a National protected animal. An individual could not raise them in compliance with the regulations!

Therefore, aquarium breeding also required a license, as well as an aquarium with a certain level of ability.

Linlin aquarium could get a license, and it wasn't difficult to get one.

Qin Lin loaded the 200 or so ornamental fish into the aquarium and brought them back to the villa. He then asked Chen dabe and his men to bring them back to the aquarium.

"Boss, did you find a way to find ornamental fish in the ocean again?" Ling Xuan's face was full of joy as she looked at the sea ornamental fish and sea turtles.

These marine animals could add a lot of color to the Aquarium's variety. The key was that these little guys were all exquisite and very beautiful and attractive.

He had to admit that the shop owner's connections were really amazing. He could find such high-quality ornamental fish both inland and in the ocean.

"director ling, " qin lin asked, " the environment for ocean ornamental fish should be different. our aquarium shouldn't have any problems, right? " don't worry, boss, " Ling Xuan explained. every aquarium has regional isolation and water environment replacement facilities. It won't be a problem to make an area to simulate seawater.

"Alright!" Qin Lin returned to his office after giving the ornamental fish to Ling Xuan.

He had just lit up a little agarwood incense when his brother-in-law, Zhao moyun, came over. The moment he entered, he gave him a big hug, "Qin Lin, I can't thank you enough. I wanted to thank you before, but I was too busy looking for the materials, so I only came now."

Qin Lin shook his head. you don't have to thank me for the wine. I don't want to see our mom angry.

Zhao moyin let go of Qin Lin and sighed, "But Qin Lin, your medicinal wine is really effective. After I threw a tantrum with mom the other day, I went to the hospital for a check-up, and it really was my problem. The doctor said it was because I drank too much alcohol and it wasn't a light problem. He said that I still needed to do some varicose veins surgery and told me to drink less in the future. But now, I'm better off drinking your wine. I feel that the doctor is a quack. Is this a problem with the wine?"

Qin Lin looked at Zhao moyun in shock. "Brother, you should drink less wine."

He didn't think the doctor was wrong.

The reason why his Linlin's child-giving wine was so effective was because of the game system's attributes. It was completely different from ordinary wine.

However, his brother-in-law's words also made him more aware of the effect of the Linlin child-giving wine.

After all, the doctor had said that she would be fine after drinking his medicinal wine if she had to undergo surgery.

Therefore, there was still a saying that made some sense. That was, Chinese medicine relied on strengthening the foundation and nurturing the vitality, while Western medicine relied on a one-shot approach.

Chinese medicine was still very impressive. Of course, the premise was that those Chinese doctors with real medical skills were not those scammers who swindled people.

Zhao moyun had specially come to thank him, so he left after chatting for a while.

Qin Lin also looked at the game in his mind after his brother-in-law left and started his daily mission.

It was just that his luck today was not too good. Apart from cutting down a tree and getting a fragrant Rosewood, he did not get any extra harvest.

It was a good time to control the game character to take the yellow Rosewood to the processing machine experience Hall and use the wood processing machine to process them into wine racks.

When the manor villa was built, the wine cellar would need a lot of wine racks.

after building the wine rack with the yellow rosewood, he brought it to the ranch house and left it in the game for a while to make it old.

He had already built some wine racks in the game. Other than Rosewood, he also had red sandalwood, oak, and some other wood that had some quality.

these wine racks were first built together with the office desk that was given to Chen Shengfei. now, they were real antiques.

Qin Lin put down the pear wine rack and was about to control his game character to leave the ranch house when he suddenly saw a system notification.

[you have purchased the custom-made Olive Town ceremonial dress for the champion-the mysterious Oriental wedding dress. It has been completed and sent out. Please take note to receive it!]

Qin Lin's eyes lit up when he received the news.

The Phoenix Coronet, red robes, and red Qilin robe had been waiting for a long time, and finally, there was news.

He wanted to see what the attributes of these two pieces of clothing were. They had actually made him, a customer and player, wait for so long.

Due to the time ratio in the game, it did not take long for the system prompt to appear again. [you have an express delivery from olive town!]

After a while.

A parcel appeared in the ranch house.

Qin Lin decisively locked the office door, entered the game with a thought, and saw the package.

The package was wrapped in a square box, and the outside was even carefully padded with foam.

He picked up a small knife and opened the parcel. Inside the parcel were two exquisite wooden gift boxes with many festive red makeup drawings on them, giving off an artistic feeling.

Qin Lin looked at it and was surprised to see a remark:

Chapter 562 The Phoenix Coronet And The Robes Of Dawn Are Actually Of A Grade 3

[exquisite gift box: quality 1]

[this is an exquisite box for a gown carefully made by Olive Town: Artistic +1, high-end atmosphere +1, storage ability +1!]

The boxes that were sent from Olive Town to contain the Phoenix Coronet and red Kirin robe were all of the same quality.

There was no need to mention the artistic and high-end atmosphere. In reality, just two such exquisite gift boxes would probably cost a lot.

Storage performance +1 should mean that things could be stored better inside, and it would be less prone to oxidation and aging.

Qin Lin opened the two gift boxes and saw two beautiful red outfits lying inside. At first glance, they were very attractive.

Qilin red robe: Grade 3 "

[this is the champion's suit of the olive Town formal dress Festival, and it was specially customized for the first guest. It seems to have been added with a special attribute by the olive town's gift ceremony: Observation +2, attraction +2, charm +2, temperament +2, cultivation +2, comfort +2, ancient style +2, mirror-like +2, happiness +3!]

Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank: Grade 3 "

[this is the champion's suit of the olive Town formal dress Festival, and it was specially customized for the first guest. It seems to have been added with a special attribute by the olive town's gift ceremony: Observation +2, attraction +2, charm +2, temperament +2, cultivation +2, comfort +2, ancient style +2, mirror-like +2, happiness +3!]

the moment qin lin saw the remarks of the two clothes, he chose to forgive the delay in the delivery of the clothes.

Who would've thought that this shopping show would drop a quality 3 item?

Although it was only a relatively illusionary attribute of happiness +3, it was still a quality 3, and there were so many other quality 2 attributes.

Moreover, the attributes of this Phoenix Coronet and red Qilin robe were exactly the same. These attributes also made him understand why it was said that men and women were the most outstanding when they got married.

Regardless of whether it was A +2 in appearance, or A +2 in attractiveness, charm, or temperament, it was the most glorious moment of one's life when one put it on.

The +2 physique and +2 comfort attributes went without saying. Not only did it look good, but it was also comfortable.

As for ancient style +2, there was no need to mention it. The Phoenix Coronet and red Qilin robe were ancient styles.

Qin Lin was quite eager to try it out. He picked up the Qilin red robe that belonged to him. The main body cultivation robe and the red windbreaker were very eye-catching.

What surprised him was that there was a wig and a hairpin next to it, just like the Golden and gorgeous Phoenix Coronet that was pressed on Zhao mochen's Phoenix Coronet and robes.

Was she asking him to wear a wig at his wedding?

However, thinking about it, the red robe of the ancient Qilin with short hair and a crew cut seemed a little out of place.

[exquisite ancient-style wig: Grade 2]

[this is a wig specially made for the Qilin red robe. It's very exquisite. Floating +2, ancient style +2, style +2!]

It could only be said that this wig's quality was 2, which was really 666.

This time, Olive Town was very considerate.

It seemed that this place didn't only produce indecent products. When it was serious, people couldn't help but want to like it.

Qin Lin took off his clothes and put on the Qilin red robe. He put on the matching belt and the Qilin head style in the middle. It was very exquisite.

The moment he put on the Qilin red robe, Qin Lin suddenly had a strange feeling. It was a very strange feeling, and inexplicably, sweet memories of the past with Zhao moyin emerged in his mind.

The sweetness of those memories suddenly continued until now, and he couldn't help but reveal a happy smile.

He understood now. This should be the attribute of happiness +3.

Wearing the Qilin red robe, happiness was born in his heart, and the most direct manifestation of it was the sweet experience he had with Zhao moyin.

It took him a lot of effort to wear a wig and a hairpin.

Fortunately, he had a schematic diagram. After doing it countless times, he finally succeeded.

After putting on the Qilin red robe, Qin Lin went to a mirror in the ranch house and looked at himself.

When he saw himself in the mirror, he was stunned for a moment.

Although he wasn't ugly, he wasn't narcissistic enough to think that he was the most handsome man in the world. However, with the +2 charm,+2 otherworldly temperament,+2 ancient style, and +2 attractiveness attributes, he didn't think that he was handsome.

That indescribable temperament and charm made him feel like he was falling in love with himself.

He had never felt like the main character in a novel.

this qilin red robe's attributes were awesome.

Qin Lin gloated in front of the mirror for a while, then changed his clothes and put them away. He logged out of the game and left the clothes in the game. He would take them out to give Zhao moyin a surprise when they were taking their wedding photos.

In the next few days, Qin Lin acted as if he had nothing to do. He delivered things to the villa as usual and did his daily tasks as usual.

in a few days, he managed to cut down two more yellow pear trees.

&Nbsp; you Xi seemed to know that his Manor villa was almost complete, and had sent him the materials for the wine rack.

Even the manor had spawned golden Sakura and peach sprite, so he had to brew 100 pounds of Linlin medicinal wine, which could strengthen yang and strengthen the kidney.

He didn't lack this kind of wine now. He already had a lot of it in the game. He had asked Li Qing to build a temporary wine cellar in the villa, and he also had 20,30,40,50, and 60-year Linlin medicinal wine.

As for the older ones, they were all in the game.

Previously, when Li Qing had finished brewing the batch of second-Echo Water tribute rice wine and returned to Ming city to accompany his wife, he had happily brought back a bottle of year 60 wine.

Chapter 563 The Phoenix Coronet And The Robes Of Dawn Are Actually Of A Grade 3

as for fishing, he caught dozens of fish from both sides, and he also caught a wild yellow croaker.

In the office.

Qin Lin had just pulled his attention back from the game on the screen in his mind when Zhao moyin entered the office.

She was obviously different today. She walked up to him with a radiant face. hubby, the last batch of flowers in the sea of flowers has been planted. Let's go and have a look.

Qin Lin naturally knew why she felt different when she heard this.

After planting all the flowers, it was time to take the wedding photos.

For a woman, this was a once-in-a-lifetime thing, so she naturally cared about it.

"En!" Qin Lin also nodded.

Wedding photos were a once-in-a-lifetime experience for him. They were the most beautiful memories of him and Zhao moyin, so he naturally cared about them.

Linlin villa's comprehensive sea of flowers had a total of 100 mu of land, which was also one of the projects that you city had supported at the beginning.

However, due to the seasonal problem of the comprehensive sea of flowers, it needed to be planted in different seasons. Therefore, Linlin villa had already paid off the support Fund of you city, and the comprehensive sea of flowers was only completed.

The villa's current plan was to go to the integrated sea of flowers, and there were three passages.

One of the routes led to the viewing area of the floating bridge, one led to the newly developed plantation area, and the last one led to the ranch.

In other words, the integrated sea of flowers also had an area that connected the planting area, the villa, and the pasture.

However, the comprehensive sea of flowers had not bloomed, and the roads leading to it were all closed.

After passing through the viewing area of the floating bridge, Qin Lin and Zhao mochen saw a paddy field swaying in the wind.

These were naturally Xiangshui tribute rice, and the entire area was lush and verdant.

He believed that the ears of rice would grow out soon. At that time, some of the Xiangshui tribute rice would be harvested to supply the manor and villa, while the rest would be kept for planting.

Think about it, how high was the grade of a Manor villa that could provide Xiangshui tribute rice?

In other words, his Grade 1 Xiangshui tribute rice was better than the average Xiangshui tribute rice. After testing its nutritional value, it could be called Linlin tribute rice.

by then, he just didn't know if his linlin tribute rice would need to be specially supplied by the capital for sports like the linlin watermelons. without special supply, it couldn't be called tribute rice.

"Hubby, the tribute rice is growing very well." Zhao Mo sneaked to the side of a paddy field and squatted down to observe.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moyu didn't stay long and soon entered the comprehensive sea of flowers.

The last batch of flowers to be planted included summer pine, sunflowers, Calendula, Desert Rose, fragrant vine, and other flowers. They were connected with the flowers in other areas. At a glance, the 100 mu of land was full of colorful flowers.

For an ordinary scenic spot, this 100 mu of land was absolutely beautiful, even in terms of the number of flowers.

However, in Linlin villa, with the beautiful scenery of the floating bridge, the triangular sea of plum flowers, and the pasture, the sea of flowers actually seemed a little ordinary.

However, there was something unusual about the sea of flowers. In the middle area, there was a flower bed with six rose plants.

These were naturally Duke rose.

the national flower of the hoshino had attracted countless people when it was placed at the entrance of the toilet previously. later on, because the people of the hoshino had some opinions, minister lu had a chat with them and decided not to place it at the entrance of the toilet.

However, it had also increased from one to six.

As for the remaining four seeds that were not affected by the environment, he would keep them as a backup and think about whether he should plant one or two in the manor villa.

Because of the Duke's Rose, the style of the comprehensive sea of flowers was also raised by several levels.

After all, she was the national flower of the shijy shijy and could only be seen in the White Palace of the shijy shijy. Moreover, not even 99% of the shijy shijy people had seen her before. Only a small number of top people had the chance to see her.

When the sea of flowers bloomed, all the Chinese people would be able to see it and even come to take photos and videos at will. How great of a sense of superiority would that be?

Naturally, if this one plant turned into six plants and the news spread to the Starstreak nation, 99% of the people in the Starstreak nation would be in trouble again.

He couldn't see the national flower of his own country, but it seemed that she could really cultivate and see her whenever she wanted to. How great of a setback was this?

however, this was none of qin lin's business. the duke's roses were planted here to show everyone. what did it have to do with him whether the people of the shinjo were suffering or not?

zhao moyu looked at the duke's roses and asked, " "Hubby, how's the dress you ordered?"

Obviously, this was also the reason why she had dragged Qin Lin to see the sea of flowers.

It was also a reminder to Qin Lin not to forget about this matter.

"Don't worry, I'll make sure you're satisfied. When the time comes, you'll wear that Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank, and you'll be the Empress." Qin Lin replied with confidence.

he believed that no woman in this world would be able to refuse a grade 3 phoenix coronet and robes of dawn. when zhao moyin wears it, he will definitely make all women envious.

"En!" Zhao moyin naturally believed her husband's words, and she held Qin Lin's arm sweetly.

After all, she had already seen many wedding dresses with her sister-in-law. When she heard that Qin Lin wanted to have a custom-made Phoenix Coronet and robes, she gave up on the wedding dress and had been looking forward to it.

Qin Lin looked at Zhao moyin's happy face and said, since the sea of flowers is done, I'll make an appointment with Qin Ren and the others in the next few days. I'll find time for Qin Ren to bring his team to help us take the wedding photos first.

He also took this matter to heart.

However, looking at the sea of flowers in front of him, he felt that it was not perfect enough. The sea of flowers had been created, but the flowers that had been planted were not in a perfect state.

He felt that it was time to use the remaining bucket of Earth Spring water to water the flowers. These days, the flowers in the sea of flowers would grow faster and grow to the most perfect state.

He had to find an excuse to waste some special soil.

Although this was a waste of the earth Spring water and special soil, it was something that could be dug up in the game, and it made Zhao moyin happy.

Back then, when he was penniless and his family was in debt, Zhao moyin had stolen the household register and registered their marriage with him in secret.

Therefore, as long as it was within his ability, it would not be too much to do anything for her.

Chapter 564 Forged From Pure Gold, This Is Too Beautiful

Marriage was a lifetime thing for a woman.

qin lin knew that he owed zhao moyin a lot. the wedding photo was the first step. after the villa was built, he would hold a wedding for her there.

However, before that, he had to ask his mother to go to the Zhao family to propose marriage again, and none of them could be missing. Then, he had to pick her up from the Zhao family.

When the time came, he would have to use the Jade he had prepared in the game. He would have to make the best jewelry he could from seibala.

He needed to find some designers to design some jewelry for him.

If it was meant for marriage, it had to be one of a kind.

After sending Zhao Mohan back to the office, Qin Lin went out of the villa again and went to the warehouse. He took out two bags of special soil and a bucket of underground spring water from the game.

When he returned to the villa, he called Yu Shui and ordered, "Manager Yu, take some people and mix these two bags of special soil into the water to water the integrated sea of flowers."

"Boss, is this the same soil that professor Li Kai made?" Yu Shui looked at the two bags of special soil and asked, "then I'll just follow professor Li Kai's previous method of mixing the water?"

"Yes, we'll do it the way we did before." Qin Lin didn't want to explain too much, so he just let old brother Li take the blame. After all, it was just for show, covering for the earth Spring water.

On the other hand, old brother Li had recently started his closed-door cultivation again, crazily researching low-temperature genetic experiments.

It seemed that after becoming a professor, old brother Li had some enlightenment and had a different way of thinking about low-temperature genetic experiments.

"Okay, boss." Yu Shui didn't ask any more questions. She took two bags of special soil with one person to the integrated sea of flowers.

As he had done it with Li Kai before, he was familiar with the process this time. After asking his men to bring the tools, he first dug a mixed pool and then led his men to water the integrated sea of flowers.

By the time Qin Lin received the report that Yu Shui had finished watering the plants, a whole night had already passed.

he had also brought the remaining bucket of earth spring water to the reservoir of the irrigation system, and poured the bucket of earth spring water into the reservoir used to water the integrated sea of flowers.

After he was done, he opened the watering system and watered the sea of flowers without anyone knowing.

The next day.

After Qin Lin moved the things from the game to the villa, the first thing he did was to check out the integrated sea of flowers.

The comprehensive sea of flowers was so big that he naturally couldn't remember what the situation was with all the flowers yesterday. However, he paid special attention to the flowers that he had just planted yesterday.

Now that a night had passed after watering them with the spring water of the earth, these newly planted flowers were clearly stronger than yesterday, far exceeding the normal growth rate.

In the following week, Qin Lin went to the comprehensive sea of flowers every day to check. The flowers looked the same almost every day, and the growth rate was very fast.

In a week's time, even the entire sea of flowers had changed greatly. It was a sea of flowers, and it was obviously more spectacular.

yu shui had also brought people over to check, and naturally found that the flowers had suddenly grown at an incredible speed.

However, with the experience of the pastures from before, he was not too surprised.

After all, the two bags were made by professor Li Kai.

In Linlin villa, everyone knew that professor Li Kai's creation was not something to be surprised about.

This was because there was a limit to the amount of Earth Spring water that each plant could absorb. It could not be increased indefinitely.

As a result, after about 10 days, the flowers that were previously planted had stopped growing. Only the latest batch of flowers were still growing.

However, this batch of flowers also stopped growing on the 15th day. Compared to half a month ago, they were completely different. They had already fully grown.

under the effects of the earth spring water, the entire sea of flowers had grown to its most perfect state, full of life and beauty.

Qin Lin also saw that the sea of flowers had grown perfectly, so he also found time to go to you city's economic and trade Building.

The economic and trade Building was an office building.

With the development of you city, there were more and more companies of all sizes, so this kind of building was also born.

Although it couldn't be compared to the office buildings in big cities, the Jin Mao Building was not small either. The top companies in you city would basically rent office areas here.

Qin Ren's Millennium production advertisement planning relied on the long-term cooperation with Linlin Manor and had already developed into the number one advertising company in you city. They had also moved their office area to the economic and trade Building.

It was Qin Lin's first time here.

However, when it was time for 'Millennium productions', he was recognized by the lady at the front desk.

"Little Qin? You're little Qin from Youli villa?" The waitress asked in surprise.

Obviously, Qin Lin didn't have to worry about his identity as the owner of Linlin Manor when he went out.

Now, the identity of little Qin, the horse tamer, was deeply rooted in people's hearts.

"I'm here to see your Qin Ren, President Qin," Qin Lin said awkwardly.

"Little Qin, please wait a moment," the waitress said immediately. As she spoke, she picked up the phone at the front desk and made a call.

The call went through and she said, " "President Qin, little Qin from Linlin villa wants to see you."

In Millennium production, Qin Ren heard the receptionist's words and subconsciously asked, " "Little Qin? which little Qin?"

Then, he realized that little Qin was Qin Lin.

Chapter 565 Forged From Pure Gold, This Is Too Beautiful

Only then did he remember that this brother had become an internet celebrity, little Qin.

After hanging up the phone, Qin Ren walked out of the office and saw Qin Lin outside. "Juan Zi, why did you come over today?"

Qin Lin explained, "I'm here because I'm planning to take wedding photos with Motian. That's why I came to you." &Nbsp;

Qin Ren knew about Qin Lin and Zhao moyin's situation. He immediately nodded and said, " it's time to take a wedding photo. When the time comes, we'll hold a wedding banquet. It'll be perfect. It just so happens that my company has hired a high-level photographer. I'll get him to take photos for you.

In fact, Qin Ren was a photographer himself, but he clearly knew his own capabilities.

When he was still a studio, it was just a small business. It was enough for him to act as a photographer. Now that it had expanded, not only did companies in you city come to them for planning, but they could also participate in the advertisements in the two neighboring counties. In addition, there were also government advertising plans. He had to have a good photographer.

Millennium production couldn't just rely on their long-term partnership with Linlin villa to get people to buy into their company, could they?

if the other companies were not stupid, then he would be stupid.

well, I'll leave it to you anyway. You can make the arrangements. Qin Lin also smiled and said. Qin Ren was an expert in this matter, and the other party would help him arrange it.

The receptionist at the side was obviously attracted by the topic and asked, " "Little Qin, are you getting married? Is it with little Zhao?"

Qin Lin glanced at the receptionist and saw her curious eyes. He said, " "It's her,"

"Really?" The receptionist looked at him and said in surprise, " " little qin, when i saw the video you guys took, i felt that you and little zhao were a good match. previously, many people on the internet were urging you two to be together. i didn't expect you two to actually be together. "

Qin Ren shook his head when he heard this. These ignorant onlookers.

She had already collected her marriage certificate.

He then said to Qin ran, " zhezi, go in and make some tea first. Tell the photographer if you have any requests. I'll also prepare the corresponding things here.

"En!" Qin Lin followed him to Qin Ren's office. He met the photographer and told him his requirements for the shoot.

Especially for the Phoenix Coronet and the red Qilin robe, the shooting of the ancient style naturally needed to be prepared with the corresponding items and the corresponding shooting style.

You can't possibly wear a Phoenix Coronet and red Qilin robe, and use a new Zealand's wild style shooting method, right? they would definitely use a traditional chinese style.

After explaining everything to the photographer, Qin Ren accompanied Qin Lin to Linlin villa to seek Zhao moyin's opinion.

"i'll listen to my husband." Zhao moyin's answer to Qin Ren was this sentence.

She didn't want to raise too many opinions. It was enough for her husband to take this matter to heart and make such careful arrangements.

As long as her husband put his heart into it, she would like it.

In the end, Qin Lin also arranged a time for the two to shoot. He gave him three days to prepare and then brought the people to the villa on time three days later.

After sending Qin Ren off, Zhao moyin wrapped his arms around Qin Lin's neck with a gentle expression on his face. "Hubby, you're the best!"

"It's done?" Qin Lin laughed and put his arm around Zhao moyin's waist, teasing, "If you know what kind of Phoenix Coronet and robes I've prepared for you, Won't You Be touched to death?"

"My husband is the best, anyway." Zhao moyin said as he kissed Qin Lin hard.

"Since you know that I'm good, shouldn't you give me a reward tonight?" Qin Lin said with an evil smile.

zhao moyu chuckled and whispered in his ear, " "I'll cooperate with you in any embarrassing position at night. Hubby, you can do whatever you want."

This really stimulated Qin Lin. He had to think about the teacher's teaching films in the past that he had never enjoyed in Zhao moyin's show.

So, if you treat your wife well and she's touched, you'll be the one enjoying it.

three days passed in the blink of an eye.

in linlin villa's special service building, which was a comprehensive sea of flowers, qin ren was already busy with the people from millennium production.

The photographer he had brought along was already moving the assembled filming equipment.

at the side.

Gao Yaoyao and Lin Lanzi were leading the mountain villa's employees to set up two tents.

since the lady boss and the boss were taking wedding photos, as the two highest-ranking female managers of the villa, they naturally had to come and serve.

The tent was used for Qin Lin and Zhao moyin to change into their formal clothes.

At this moment.

Zhao mochen's gaze was completely attracted by two extremely exquisite gift boxes. One of them contained the Phoenix Coronet and red robe that Qin Lin had custom-made for her.

Until now, she still didn't know what the Phoenix Coronet and robes looked like. She only heard Qin Lin's promise that it would surprise him, which made her eager to open the gift box.

After Gao Yaoyao and Lin Lanzi had finished setting up the two tents, Qin Ren turned to Qin Lin and Zhao mochen and said, "Tang Zi, mo Xiao, you can change your clothes first. I'll get the makeup artist to do your makeup after you're done."

Gao Yaoyao and Lin Lanzi had already stepped forward.

Lin Lanzi picked up the gown with the Phoenix Coronet and red robes. Gao Yaoyao also held Zhao mochen's arm and said, "Sister Moxi, we'll help you change into your gown."

This was what Qin Lin had instructed him to do.

This set of Phoenix Coronet and red robes required someone else to help Zhao Mo put it on, especially the Phoenix Coronet and hair. It just so happened that Lin Lanzi knew this skill.

Chapter 566 Forged From Pure Gold, It's Too Beautiful

Moreover, the two women were also very curious about the Phoenix Coronet and robes the boss had prepared for the lady boss.

After all, wedding gowns were common, but Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank were really rare. Moreover, they knew very well how loving their boss and lady boss were. The Phoenix Coronet and robes that their boss had specially customized for their lady boss would not be ordinary.

Qin Lin had already put on the Qilin red robe. He took the wooden gift box into another tent and changed into it with ease.

After Zhao mochen, Lin Lanzi, and Gao Yaoyao entered the other tent, the first thing they did was to open the gift box that contained the Phoenix Coronet and the robe of dawn.

An exquisite Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank appeared in front of the three women.

The moment she saw the Phoenix Coronet and robes, Zhao Mo Yin's beautiful eyes lit up. Just from the material, color, and the small golden patterns on it, she knew that this was definitely a very exquisite dress.

Moreover, there was an extremely exquisite Phoenix Coronet next to the Phoenix Coronet and robes. Whether it was the shape, the shape, or the gold hem, she liked it at first sight.

Lin Lanzi picked up the Phoenix Coronet, but her eyes revealed disbelief. "This color, it's made of pure gold."

"Pure gold?" Gao Yaoyao's mouth was wide open when she heard that.

She looked at the Phoenix Coronet and began to calculate with her little head.

The structure of this Phoenix Coronet should have 700 to 800 grams, right?

The international situation had been tense recently, and the price of gold had risen to 400 yuan per gram in some regions. Didn't that mean that the Phoenix crown might cost more than 300000 Yuan?

Wasn't the boss a little too rich?

Lin Lanzi's hand that was holding the Phoenix Coronet felt a little shaky. A Phoenix Coronet worth more than 300000 Yuan in your hand, why don't you try and see if it'll shake?

"Could the gold thread on this dress be made of gold too?" Gao Yaoyao pointed at the Golden embroidery on the Phoenix Coronet and robes.

Lin Lanzi said with certainty, "this Phoenix Coronet is made of real gold, so this golden thread must be real too." &Nbsp;

When Zhao mochen heard the two women's conversation, he took out the entire Phoenix Coronet and robes of dawn,

When the entire Phoenix Coronet and robes were unfolded, it became even more exquisite. It was simply like a piece of art, attracting people's attention.

Zhao mochen looked at the Phoenix Coronet and robes, and his heart was filled with joy. Qin Lin was so attentive, and it was a pleasant surprise. She couldn't wait to put it on, so she immediately asked Lin Lanzi and Gao Yaoyao to help her change.

This Phoenix Coronet and robes had a very beautiful long hem, and it was really impossible to change them without help.

Lin Lanzi and Gao Yaoyao immediately helped Zhao mochen put on his Phoenix Coronet and robes. Lin Lanzi also helped Zhao mochen fix his hair at the same time, putting on the exquisite Phoenix Coronet.

However, when Zhao mochen put on the Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank, Lin Lanzi and Gao Yaoyao looked at her in shock, and their faces revealed an incredulous look.

The lady boss suddenly changed the moment she put on the Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank. She became so beautiful and had an indescribable charm, which attracted all of them, even though they were all women. There was also an indescribable otherworldly temperament that made them feel ashamed of their inferiority.

Moreover, that unique ancient style made it seem as if the lady boss was a beautiful woman who had come from the ancient times. It made them lose their minds.

This was the effect of +2 charm, +2 elegance, and +2 ancient style.

With these attributes, even big sister Feng would be very comfortable to look at, not to mention a beautiful woman like Zhao moyin.

Lin Lanzi looked at Zhao Moye in a daze and said, "Yaoyao, in the future, you'll only agree to marry him if a man gives you a set of Phoenix Coronet and robes like this."

Gao Yaoyao's eyes immediately widened. sister LAN Zi, do you think I'm stupid? can I still get married? "

(I've been excreting nucleic acid for the whole day. I'm so frustrated!)

.....

In the comprehensive sea of flowers.

Qin Ren was already waiting outside the two tents with the photographer and the staff.

In fact, they were also very curious.

Their company had also taken on wedding planning business and had also held a Chinese wedding, but because of budget reasons, it was always unsatisfactory. Even the bride's dress was used as a Xiuhe dress.

Many brides and bridegroom had heard that a Chinese wedding was beautiful and high-end, so they wanted to hold it. But to be honest, without a real phoenix Coronet and a proper budget, they would not recommend their clients to hold a Chinese wedding.

No matter what, the Empress's stunning wedding was completely deformed. Instead, it looked like a small family from a good country who lived a good life.

Moreover, they had never seen a real phoenix Coronet and red robes.

The tent was opened, and Qin Lin and Zhao moyin came out at the same time, as if they had a tacit understanding.

The two of them looked at each other with a tacit understanding. Their eyes were bright. They were both each other.

Zhao moyin's face was brimming with happiness. When she put on the Phoenix Coronet and robes that her husband had carefully prepared for her, she could not help but recall the happy and sweet times she had with him.

The +3 happiness attribute made her feel that the whole world was sweet.

The moment the two of them came out, the employees of Millennium productions and the villa all looked at them in disbelief.

Ornamental +2, attraction +2, ancient style +2, causing everyone to be attracted by Qin Lin's Qilin red robe and Zhao moyin's Phoenix Coronet and robes of dawn.

Perhaps at this moment, they finally understood what a Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank were.

Qin Ren had a thought that this was how it should be. The scene in front of him was the Phoenix Coronet and red robes he had imagined.

Just the luster of the Phoenix Coronet and the Golden silk painting was different from ordinary ones.

The color was as if it was real gold.

If the Phoenix Coronet and red Qilin robe produced by the system were stunning at first glance, then the +2 charm and +2 temperament attributes made Zhao Mo's beauty even more unparalleled.

Perhaps everyone who saw it would know what 'a Red Phoenix costume, a branch wearing Ye Jing the third generation, a hundred combed hair, a city-toppling beauty' meant.

Similarly, with these two attributes and the wig and hairpin produced by the system, Qin Lin also had an indescribable ancient charm. His temperament was so out of the world that it made men jealous.

It was as if even his wig, which was blown by the wind, could give people a sense of suave.

"Juan zi is really hiding her true abilities!" Qin Ren couldn't help but sigh. He had grown up with Qin Lin, but he had never thought that his brother would look so handsome in an ancient costume.

If he were to film a TV drama, he would look like the main character no matter where he stood.

Behind Zhao mochen, Lin Lanzi and Gao Yaoyao, who were dragging their Phoenix Coronas and robes, looked at Qin Lin directly.

The two girls couldn't help but stare at Qin Lin's face a few times, their pretty faces slightly hot.

They had never thought that their boss would be so attractive in such an ancient costume.

The boss's outfit suddenly seemed to have become the ideal type for all women. Most women should have imagined such a male lead when they were in love, right?

If it was like this usually, the girls in the villa would probably not be in the mood to work and would go to peek at the boss.

"President Qin, do you still need makeup?" The photographer asked Qin Ren after he regained his senses.

"Don't be scared, don't melt," Qin Ren shook his head hurriedly.

He felt that it was already perfect.

She didn't want her makeup to affect her current state.

"Tang Zi, mo Xiao, let's go into the sea of flowers and shoot!" &Nbsp; Qin Ren also greeted them. At the same time, he also had the thought of going online to buy himself and Liao Li a new set of clothes so that they could take a Chinese wedding photo.

Lin Lanzi and Gao Yaoyao had been helping Zhao mochen drag the long tail of the Phoenix into the comprehensive sea of flowers.

qin ren and the others found a few of the best positions and helped qin lin and zhao moyin shoot for a long time.

There were more than a hundred photos, and he picked five out of them.

It could be said that taking wedding photos was definitely a very tiring thing if one didn't deal with it.

Fortunately, everyone had prepared two bottles of Linlin leisure tea.

Now, this drink had been widely used in all industries. After all, the attributes of recovering strength and stamina were used by all industries.

Tang Zi, you have to authorize me to use these photos. They're perfect. I want to post them on the company's official account. Qin Ren looked at the five photos he picked out and said to Qin Lin excitedly.

the photographer was also full of anticipation.

To be honest, this was the best ancient-style costume photo he had ever taken.

zhao mochen looked at the photos that were taken with joy.

She was really beautiful.

it could completely satisfy her imagination of her wedding photos.

Qin Lin was the only one who felt a little disappointed.

He was also looking forward to taking a wedding photo with a sea of flowers. After all, it was a once-in-a-lifetime event for him and Zhao moyin.

When he was in University, he often imagined what kind of wedding photos he and Zhao Moyi would take.

However, when he looked at the photo, he could clearly feel that something was wrong. It was a sea of flowers in the background.

The game's Phoenix dress and Qilin red robe were both very beautiful and photogenic, but the sea of flowers was too ordinary and could not bring out the sense of perfection.

Therefore, taking a wedding photo with a sea of flowers was his promise with Zhao moyin, but the promise was not necessarily the most perfect, and expectations often had a sense of failure.

Chapter 568 Xiao Qin Is On Fire Again! The Directors Owe Xiao Qin A Male Lead!

"Daren, let's go to the ranch next!" Qin Lin told Qin Ren that the ranch was also one of the original shooting plans.

The pasture of the pasture was vast and spectacular, and it also had the attribute of +2 mirror view, which would definitely make the Phoenix Coronet and red Qilin robe look even more perfect.

"Yes, let's pack up." Qin Ren nodded.

On the other side, when Lin Lanzi saw that they were moving, she took out her phone and called the driver.

Linlin villa had hired many regular drivers. First, the sightseeing bus that took the tourists to the starting point of the drifting needed a driver. The sightseeing bus at the ranches also needed a driver.

Lin Lanzi immediately called for two sightseeing buses that could take them from the integrated sea of flowers to the race track.

Not long after, two sightseeing buses from the ranch arrived and brought Qin Lin and the others to the racecourse.

As there were many tourists at the ranch, they had specially chosen a spot with fewer people on the race track and had pang Bo bring the little lion.

the little lion was also an important prop for the wedding photos at the ranch.

Although pang Bo knew that the boss and his wife were going to take wedding photos, he was still dumbfounded when he saw the boss and his wife after bringing the little lion over.

With the boss and the lady boss's attire, they were probably celebrities from television or movie. If they didn't have that indescribable charm and temperament, it was impossible for them to be celebrities from television or movie.

If the tourists noticed this, they would surround the racing field again.

"Chirp chirp!"

The little lion was obviously very happy to see Qin Lin. It trotted to him and stood beside him affectionately.

Qin Ren walked to the side of the little lion and said, " "Juan Zi, I'll arrange it. Bring the red rope and big red flower and let it cooperate."

Qin Lin smiled. set it up. The little lion is very gentle. It will cooperate with you.

Qin Ren nodded and asked his staff to help decorate the little lion. After that, he discussed with Qin Lin how to shoot the movie.

When Qin Lin sat on the little lion's back, held the red rope, and held Zhao moqing in his arms, the scene was already there. When the photographer looked at the camera, he couldn't help but reveal a look of disbelief.

With the farm's attributes, the whole picture actually had an indescribable artistic conception. It was much more perfect than the comprehensive sea of flowers, and the whole picture was more than one level higher.

And that handsome White Horse, it made the whole grassland and red dress a perfect decoration.

coupled with the unspeakable charm and otherworldly temperament of the man and woman, this was probably the perfect concept of green mountains, green water, red clothes and white horses described by the ancient people.

Perhaps he also understood why the ancient people often put red equipment and white horses together.

For example, 'the red-robed Marquis returns, and the White Horse sends the monarch.' Or "White Horse comes out at night, red shirt breaks the dawn at night."

or 'a kasaya, red clothes, and a white horse'.

Alright, this sentence was a little strange.

However, the ancient people really liked to put red equipment and white horses together to describe them. Now, he seemed to understand after seeing the scene in front of him.

he didn't know how to describe the scene in front of him. when he pressed the shutter, he was sure that he wouldn't be able to take a better picture in the future.

Lin Lanzi also took out her phone and started taking photos of Qin Lin and Zhao moqian.

She was the manager of the multimedia department and was used to taking videos of the villa and the ranch with her mobile phone. How could she not take a video of the boss and the lady boss riding a horse?

However, after taking a video and slightly editing it, she was shocked.

That feeling, that mood, wasn't it even more impactful than the male and female leads in those historical romance dramas? The boss and the lady boss's charm and otherworldly temperament in ancient costumes seemed to be bullying the male and female leads of some TV series, okay?

There were many tourists at Linlin Ranch.

Even though Qin Lin and the others had chosen a place with fewer tourists, there were still many tourists here.

"Eh, someone's taking wedding photos." One of the tourists shouted in surprise, and the group of tourists all ran over curiously.

This was obviously a group of besties' tour group. It meant that women would meet up and temporarily abandon their boyfriends to experience a happy trip with a group of besties.

This was a very uncomfortable thing for boyfriends. Fortunately, her best friends were of the same sex, which was acceptable. However, it would be really uncomfortable to travel with a group of friends of the opposite sex.

when they got closer, they saw the scene of qin lin and zhao mo wearing red qilin robes and riding on white horses. these women were all attracted and even a little shocked.

"What beautiful clothes, is this a Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank? The groom is also very handsome in his clothes. Don't you think he has a very good temperament?"

really. Not only does he have a good temperament, but he's also very charming.

hey, the groom seems to be little Qin and the bride is little Zhao. We've seen their video.

it's really little Qin. He's even more handsome and charismatic than in the previous videos.

little Qin is really together with little Zhao? "

I suddenly realized that the male celebrity I like can't even compare to a horse tamer. Little Qin's indescribable temperament suddenly makes my heart beat faster.

“...”

The group of close friends sighed with emotion and took out their phones to take pictures of Qin Lin and the others.

They were really attracted by that scene. They secretly decided that when they got married in the future, they must get their boyfriends to buy such a set of Phoenix Coronet and red robes. They must take a set of Chinese wedding photos like this. Otherwise, their boyfriends would not marry no matter how much they begged.

Chapter 569 Xiao Qin Is On Fire Again! The Directors Owe Xiao Qin A Male Lead!

little qin was only a horse tamer, but she could put in so much effort for little zhao. her boyfriend couldn't be worse than little qin, right?

The sudden appearance of the tourists was expected. After all, there were so many tourists at Linlin Ranch. They couldn't just drive them away.

However, the result of this was that more and more tourists paid attention to this place and ran over.

When Qin Lin and Zhao Moxi were done, they found that they were surrounded by a group of people, who were taking pictures of them with their mobile phones.

Qin Lin had no choice but to take his people back to the sightseeing bus and continue to slip away from the way they came. When they reached the tent set up in a comprehensive sea of flowers, they changed their clothes.

After changing her clothes, Qin Lin and Zhao moyin had also returned to normal.

Although he was still somewhat handsome and beautiful, at least he was now a normal fan Tao and not as much of a bully as he was before.

Qin Ren couldn't help but sigh. Juan Zi, mo Xiao, you two are really suited for ancient costumes. I didn't expect a set of clothes to change you so much.

"Boss, I have something to tell you." at this moment, lin lanzi ran over and reported something, " I just saw that someone uploaded a video of you and the lady boss taking a wedding photo online, so I took a photo and uploaded it to the official account of the villa.

the video is popular now, and it's even on the hot topic list. The key is that if this trend continues, you and the lady boss might be on the hot search again tomorrow.

"But don't worry, boss. It's still the horse tamer little Qin and the Human Resources Department little Zhao."

ran ran. Qin Lin sighed silently. He didn't know what to say for a moment. The popularity had finally subsided, and now it was back?

However, in order to take this wedding photo, he had also expected that it would be taken. With the attributes of the Phoenix Coronet and red Qilin robe, it was destined that he would become popular.

the next day.

Qin Lin got up early in the morning and took out his phone to check the top search list of Songshan music. When he saw 'horse trainer little Qin', 'Linlin villa's little Qin and little Zhao', and 'the directors owe little Qin a male lead', he sighed silently.

Especially since the directors owed him a male lead. What the hell was this?

In a university classroom, Chen Xue went to the teacher's office as usual and saw a group of female students watching a video.

"So handsome, so elegant."

"It's a pity that he's someone else's husband."

"He should have stepped out."

"....."

"What are you guys looking at?" Chen Xue leaned forward in confusion. When she saw her female classmates playing the video again, her eyes lit up. "What TV series is this? The male lead is so handsome, that charm, and that aura. The clothes on the female lead are also super beautiful."

The group of female students turned around and looked at her in shock.

"Chen Xue, you're not from your city?"

"That's right, and you're still asking us who he is?"

horse tamer little Qin, were you the one who showed us his riding video and made us fall for the couple of little Qin and little Zhao? "

"What?" When Chen Xue heard these words, she was stunned. She took a closer look. Wasn't that the horse tamer, little Qin?

'Good.'

This was incredible.

little qin was already very handsome in the ancient costume and riding a horse. now, her outfit was simply deadly. and little zhao, she just realized that she was also super beautiful in this outfit.

the two of them were indeed a perfect match.

Chen Xue returned to her seat and immediately took out her phone. She didn't expect to see little Qin's video on the first video. This meant that it was very popular.

"The directors owe little Qin a male lead!"

When Chen Xue saw the title of the video, she decisively agreed. However, when she clicked into the video and saw the comments, it was interesting.

"@ A certain Zheng!"

"@ Soy!"

"@ some guo!"

"....."

"@ A certain Huang!"

Chen Xue saw that all of these were the recent pretty boys in ancient costumes.

This was especially so for a certain Huang. The publicity had claimed that he was the most handsome male in ancient China. He was so handsome that flowers would lose their color. However, when she went to watch the drama "Feng junzheng", as a woman, she felt a little sorry for the female lead.

Did the director think that the women were fools? What they liked was little Qin's charm and temperament. They were not blind to a certain Huang.

On the other side.

Li Yitong was also a little distressed. She had just returned to the company after reshooting the You Cheng sauce advertisement. To be honest, she had also put in a lot of effort for this You Cheng sauce advertisement. She was very cooperative when the other party made a mistake and needed to reshoot. After all, the major shareholder behind the other party was the boss of Linlin Company.

However, she had never expected that when she returned to the company, her manager would tell her that she might be replaced in one of her period dramas.

The female lead didn't have many scenes in this drama, but the female lead would have a grand wedding. She had not worn this kind of costume yet, so she had to take it.

"Who's going against me?" Li Yidong asked his manager, somewhat annoyed.

Previously, the other party couldn't find the female lead to answer, so she had to reluctantly accept it. Now that this kind of thing happened, it would be strange if she wasn't angry.

The manager explained, "It's not just you, even the male lead has been rejected. It seems to be the director's request. He said that he found a more suitable male and female lead. They're the famous horse tamer Xiao Qin and Xiao Zhao from Linlin villa. Take a look at the videos of these two.

"Little Qin?" Li Yitong was surprised when she heard the name. She knew the real identity of this man. He was not little Qin, but Chairman Qin.

She took the video that her manager handed over and saw that it was a video of an ancient costume wearing a Phoenix Coronet and red robes.

However, when she saw the person in the video, she was really surprised. Wasn't that Chairman Qin?

Moreover, the charm and temperament of Chairman Qin and Xiao Zhao in the video, that kind of match, she almost fell for it.

The key was that the last time he saw Chairman Qin, his temperament wasn't so out of this world. How could he be so handsome in an ancient style?

The manager said, "everyone knows what the director is thinking. It's cheaper to use internet celebrities, so he can make more money by playing some tricks. The key is that the video of little Qin and little Zhao is really attractive, especially the Phoenix Coronet and the red robes. This film will need them. The director might even have plans to use them.

"Hur hur, this director is overthinking things." that's right, "li Yidong said with a face full of disdain. if the other party comes to us again, we won't take on this drama.

Did this brain-dead director really think that little Qin was an ordinary internet celebrity? the other party could smash him to death with money.

Chapter 570 300 Yuan For 500 Grams Of Cucumber? 1

The horse tamer, little Qin, became popular on the internet again. It was so popular that all the celebrities and internet celebrities were envious.

It was the same for Zhao moyin, the little Zhao from the Human Resources Department of Linlin villa.

In this era where looks were the most important, the Phoenix Coronet and red Qilin robe produced by the system seemed to have made the two of them the ideal type for everyone.

After all, the attributes of +2 attraction, +2 charm, and +2 temperament were targeted at everyone, and there was no so-called aesthetic difference.

if qin lin and zhao moyu were willing to open an account in mouyin, they could probably become internet celebrities with millions of fans in a short time.

Unfortunately, the two of them had no interest in this at all.

In the eyes of a certain level of people, celebrities were just actors, and internet celebrities were not even as good as actors.

Naturally, as the wedding photo of Linlin villa's horse tamer little Qin and Human Resources Department little Zhao went viral on the internet, the Phoenix Coronet and red robe also went viral.

Countless men had been asked by their girlfriends and fiancées to get such a Phoenix Coronet and red robes when they got married, or they would not get married.

This had caused countless men to suffer.

He had originally thought that since there were so many Phoenix Coronet and robes of rank sold online, he could just buy one.

However, no matter how he looked at the pictures and videos, none of them were as good as the one on the Linlin villa's beauty, little Zhao. It could even be said that they were far inferior.

This definitely wouldn't be enough to deal with a smart girlfriend and fiancée.

If they couldn't buy it online, they could have it custom-made. However, when some people went to do it, they were shocked to hear from an experienced master that little Zhao's Phoenix Coronet and robes were made of real gold. The Phoenix Coronet and the Golden silk painting were all real gold. Otherwise, it wouldn't have had such a luster.

Such a set would cost hundreds of thousands of Yuan.

Some of the men who knew the truth were on the verge of tears.

A f * cking horse tamer getting a Phoenix Coronet and robes that cost hundreds of thousands?

What the hell was this?

could it be another publicity stunt by linlin manor?

However, hype was just hype, but they shouldn't ruin these good young people who were about to get married.

this was probably the reason why the qilin red robe was not popular.

The Phoenix Coronet and sunset fire were the woman's insistent demands. The man was already suffering unspeakably, so why would he still think of the Qilin red robe?

In the next few days, it seemed to be proven that Linlin Manor was trying to hype up the news because another group of horse tamer little Qin and little Zhao's wedding photos were posted on the internet.

The background of the video was a beautiful sea of flowers.

The comprehensive sea of flowers had been completed and was about to bloom. Lin Lanzi naturally wouldn't give up on the current popularity. It was a good opportunity to divert the attention of the boss and the lady boss. She would just treat this as the villa's hype.

In this way, they could attract the attention of the internet to the comprehensive sea of flowers in the villa.

Now, she was getting more and more comfortable with this kind of operation. She even took the dog Wang Cai, the squirrel red hair, the white fox snowy and the White Horse Lion who had already opened a separate account to the sea of flowers to shoot a video of animals and the sea of flowers.

After her operation, Linlin Manor's comprehensive sea of flowers project was also known to everyone.

In the end, after two days of hyping up the news, she released another King Bomb, which was six Duke King roses.

The attention of the former national flower of the Star-Spangled nation returned immediately.

99% of the people of the Starbar nation could not see the national flower of the Starbar nation, and only the 1% of the upper-class people of the Starbar nation could see it in the White Palace. Now, as long as they went to the comprehensive sea of flowers at qinlin villa, they could see it and take photos at will.

This was not only a relief +1, but also an inevitable +1 in pride.

Back then, when the Duke's Rose was placed at the entrance of the toilet, how many people had vented their anger?

The tourists that rushed to the Duke rose directly filled Linlin Manor.

Now, one Duke King's Rose had become six.

What were they waiting for?

Without the videos of the horse Tamers little Qin and little Zhao Xin being released, Linlin villa's comprehensive sea of flowers suddenly took over all the previous popularity.

This was the power of the internet.

Most of the hot news on the internet was probably what the people behind the scenes wanted you to see.

As a result, Linlin villa's comprehensive sea of flowers was very popular. On the day of its opening, the number of visitors to Linlin villa and the ranch, which had been stable at about 12000, suddenly increased to 20000.

Therefore, Linlin villa started to restrict the number of people.

At the same time, you city was stuck in traffic again.

This time, sun Xian and Chen Li had completely given up on trying. After all, you city's conditions were limited. They had done everything they could. However, no matter what they did, something new would always happen at Linlin Manor. The number of people would always increase, and the roads would still be blocked.

There was nothing they could do. All they could do now was to be happy and in pain. They had to fix the new Outer Ring Road as soon as possible.

Linlin Manor.

In the office, Qin Lin was also satisfied when he saw Lin Lanzi."Good hype."

Under Lin Lanzi's manipulation, not only did she suppress the popularity of horse tamer little Qin, but she also turned it into a popularity of a comprehensive sea of flowers.

Moreover, because of the Duke's Rose, the comprehensive sea of flowers was not a low grade item. Its popularity would not be less than the triangular plum blossom or the pontoon viewing area.

Lin Lanzi said, " boss, there are two more things I need to report to you. The first is that a director called and said that he wants you to film a TV series as the male lead. Oh, right. He also said that he wants Motian to come along as the female lead.

"What? You want me to film?" Qin Lin asked, his face full of surprise.

Lin Lanzi smiled coquettishly. to be exact, it was the horse tamer, little Qin. The other party wanted little Qin's number. I didn't give it to him.
