

The Game 581

Chapter 581 Linlin Leisure Tea In The Game! They Cheated And Used Drugs! 1

The Asian Games, referred to as the Asian Games, was the largest comprehensive games in Asia. It was held every four years in turn by the members of the Asian Olympic Council.

A few days later, the Asian Games became the topic of the entire internet. This kind of once-in-a-year international event was very attractive.

Of course, there were also people who sincerely hoped that the athletes of the national team would get good results.

Therefore, before the official games, the internet was already full of information about the Asian Games and predictions of the games.

And this Asian Games was bound to be very interesting.

Linlin villa had also turned on the LCD screen in the lobby and the LCD screen in the dining room to the live broadcast of the Asian Games.

this was also a response to the call.

In the office.

Qin Lin also sat down at the tea table. He turned on the LCD screen on the wall and played the live broadcast of the Asian Games.

He mainly wanted to see how much the Linlin leisure tea would help the national team.

According to his speculations, Linlin leisure tea would definitely be of great help in long-term competitions such as squash, table tennis, tennis, badminton, and basketball.

in addition, events like track and field and swimming, after the first day of the competition, the wheel-axis preliminaries and group competition on the second day, would have a great impact on the athletes' physical strength.

With the Linlin leisure tea, he could maintain his best physical strength and condition throughout the whole process.

Qin Lin was brewing a pot of Grade 2 wild Tieguanyin when he heard a knock on the door.

"Come in!"

The door opened.

Senior brother Chu and Huang Xin walked in.

"Freshly brewed tea?" Senior brother Chu sat down and took the initiative to wash the teacup. Qin Lin's tea was very delicious.

After brother Chu finished washing the teacups, Qin Lin also poured a cup of tea for each of them and asked, "Has Huang Xin's investment been settled?"

Huang Xin took the tea and said, " it's been decided. The contract has been signed. The people in you City County are indeed very attentive. At least, they gave me a very good impression.

"Qin Lin, do you watch the Asian Games?" Chu Feng drank a cup of tea and watched the live broadcast of the Asian Games on the LCD screen in surprise.

our Linlin leisure tea is sponsored by the national team, " Qin Lin explained. we have to see if it can help the national team.

"Yeah, I almost forgot about that." At this moment, Huang Xin seemed to have thought of something. He suddenly took out his mobile phone and started operating it. "With the Linlin leisure tea, I'm afraid many of my opponents will be beaten."

"Junior Brother Huang, what are you doing?" Chu Feng asked curiously.

huang xin explained, " the bets for sports competitions include the linlin leisure tea sponsored by qin lin. during long games, other than the men's football team, there are some brainless bets. it's just for fun. "

Chu Feng took a closer look and was somewhat speechless when he saw Huang Xin's operation. That was because Huang Xin had placed 10 bets in a row. Each bet was for long-term matches of famous badminton, squash, and tennis players. There were six zeros behind the one.

Chu Feng was well aware of the effects of the Linlin leisure tea. He had used it before. Not only did it have a strong recovery ability, but it could also quickly recover strength and stamina after vigorous exercise with his wife.

Such an effect would be of great help to the players who needed to consume their physical strength.

Therefore, a brainless bet like Huang Xin's would definitely earn him a large sum of money.

He even had reason to believe that many quick-witted people were already doing the same thing as Huang Xin. Perhaps after this incident, many people would have villas near the sea and young models in clubs because of this Linlin leisure tea.

"Junior Brother Huang, how should I bet on this?" Chu Feng asked after thinking of this.

"Senior brother Chu, I'll teach you," Huang Xin immediately said.

Qin Lin was not interested in this. Even though he knew that Huang Xin's method would definitely earn him a lot of money, he had always kept a respectful distance from gambling.

This was a problem of mentality.

Because he had seen with his own eyes a very happy family fall apart because of gambling, and in the end, the husband jumped off a building to his death because of a debt.

In the beginning, the other party had also won money. Within a month, he had been driving his BMW and Audi. However, in just three months, the other party had fallen to the situation of jumping off a building.

After a short moment.

The first match began on the live broadcast on the LCD screen.

Moreover, the first match was badminton, one of the most popular sports in the country.

Qin Lin and the other two were watching the game seriously.

"This first match is very interesting," Huang Xin said. "It's the first match of Group A. It's our country's Shenglong VS Little Days Country's Kento Momotada."

After the God of Alchemy retired, Kento Takeda became the Asian badminton champion. This time, the domestic media clamored for Kento Takeda to ban our players and not let us win any medals. It's like the Tiger is no longer in the mountain, and the monkeys are the Kings.

However, his current ranking is indeed higher than Shenglong's. He's ranked second in the world. Shenglong is getting old and is about to retire, so he's only ranked sixth in the world. The key is that Shenglong is the most qualified person in the country to enter the final.

"That's why the foreign websites have placed bets that Sheng Long has a very low chance of winning. Who knew that when they drew lots, the two sides would face each other in the first round?"

However, the foreigners don't even know about the Linlin Leisure Tea. This time, I'm afraid they're going to be scammed by many Chinese.

This Asian Games would be held in the Olympic sports exhibition city of Hangzhou.

The first round of badminton team A's competition, which was going to be broadcasted live, naturally attracted a lot of attention.

On the other hand, as the first live match, the pressure on Sheng Long was immense.

Chapter 582 Linlin Leisure Tea In The Game! They Cheated And Used Drugs 2

He was currently the highest-ranked badminton player in the country, but he was only ranked sixth in the world. His opponent, Kento Takeda from the Little Japan, was ranked second in the world.

Therefore, under normal circumstances, this match would be very difficult for him. It was not that his skills were not as good as his opponent's, but that his physical strength really could not keep up.

He was going to retire next year, but his opponent was an upright young man. Unfortunately, there was no one in the country who could take over his position in badminton.

He had also heard about the small country's media clamoring to ban them from entering the finals.

This also increased the pressure on him.

In the previous World Championship, he had withdrawn from the competition because of an injury and had already been scolded badly on the internet. If he lost this competition again, those people on the internet would definitely gang up on him.

They didn't care how many honors he had won in the past, and they didn't care if he was about to retire. As long as he lost, those people on the internet would stand on the high ground and scold him.

This was also a dilemma that many athletes had to face. When they won, they would praise you to the heavens, but when they were old and lost a game or got injured, you would be guilty.

Even the players who had given so many glory to the country like flying soar and giant Yao couldn't avoid this.

Shenglong, don't be too stressed. He's young, but we also have this Linlin leisure tea. The coach walked over with a box of Linlin leisure tea.

the packaging of the leisure tea was obviously different from the ones in the past. it was brand new with the words " national team " on it.

In fact, although it was said to be a sponsorship for the Asian Games, Deng Guang had already started sending a lot of it half a month ago after getting Qin Lin's approval.

Therefore, half a month ago, the participating athletes had already experienced and mastered the recovery power of the Linlin leisure tea, and knew how much it could play a role in the competition.

When Sheng Long saw the box of Linlin leisure tea, he smiled.

"Let's go, enter the arena!" The coach also greeted Sheng Long.

Sheng Long nodded and walked toward the entrance of the competition venue.

The coach also walked to the coach's seat and opened the box of Linlin leisure tea so that Shenglong could provide it when he needed it.

Opposite them was the team from the small Japan. The coach of the team was doing the same thing, but the energy drink they provided was yuanteng red little bean Beauty Tea, which was also a famous energy drink in the small Japan.

however, both the yuanteng red bean beauty tea and linlin leisure tea had been reported to the asian games organizing committee.

In other words, during the competition, the athletes could only drink the drinks that were reported to them, and they had to be checked when they were brought into the venue.

On the court, Sheng Long and Kento Momoda were already warming up.

After that, it was the coach's final tactical instructions before the game.

Kento Momoda glanced at Sheng Long, then walked to the coach. He didn't think much of Sheng Long. His only goal now was to become the world number one in dan country.

the coach of the kiai kingdom was called yamada huiichiro, and he only had one tactic: the opponent is old, and his physical strength is not as good as yours. So, as long as you launch a fierce attack on him as soon as you go on stage and exhaust his physical strength, you can easily defeat the opponent.

Kento momada nodded. In fact, he had the same idea.

The game soon began. After the serve, Kento momada launched his most violent attack, which was very physically exhausting.

However, at the same time, if he exhausted his strength, his opponent would also exhaust his strength.

Sheng Long had no choice but to move quickly as well, quickly depleting his energy. He immediately knew why the other party wanted to drain his energy.

It was the same for the other people watching the game. This was the young bullying the old.

At the start, Sheng Long was able to respond quickly, but after only half a round, the problem with his age was apparent.

"Shenglong!" The coach beside him shouted.

Sheng Long understood. Taking advantage of a dead ball, he hurried over to take the Linlin leisure tea that the coach handed him and had a sip.

In an instant, he felt his physical strength and strength begin to recover.

It was a wonderful feeling, as if he had turned on a cheating device. However, his Linlin leisure tea had been openly marked, and there was no illegal substance in the inspection.

The people who were watching the competition online had naturally seen the scene of Sheng Long drinking the Linlin tea.

This was definitely the best advertisement for the Linlin leisure tea, but at the same time, those who knew the effects of the Linlin leisure tea also began to discuss it.

Linlin leisure tea is on the stage. Haha, isn't this cheating? "

"I've tried the effect of the Linlin leisure tea, but the other party has made the wrong decision to fight with physical strength."

"The Linlin leisure tea is definitely a cheating tea, and it's not against the rules."

haha, I'm going to cheat openly now. I don't have to pretend to have asthma and take asthma medicine like some national athletes.

On the field, the match started again.

Kento momada continued to use fierce fighting methods in an attempt to drag down Sheng Long. However, he soon realized that something was wrong. Just now, Sheng Long's physical strength was clearly running out, so why did he suddenly become so energetic?

By the time the first round was almost over, he was already exhausted. However, his opponent was still able to keep up with his fierce attacks. This made him a little flustered. Sheng Long seized the opportunity and killed him in the first round.

"How did this happen?" When Kento momada returned to the coach's seat, he said with an ugly expression, "The opponent's physical strength is better than I thought."

Yamada huiichiro hurriedly comforted him. don't worry. He must have done his best. At his age, he's definitely not going to last for the next two games.

Chapter 583 Linlin Leisure Tea In The Arena! They Cheated And Used Drugs! 3

"En!" Kento momada also believed this.

After Sheng Long finished a match, he went to the resting area immediately. He took a cup of Linlin leisure tea from his coach and quickly sipped it.

The feeling of his body recovering strength and stamina appeared again. After the first round, he had enough time to rest. With this Linlin leisure tea, he had enough time to recover all his strength.

This feeling was too good.

The second round began again.

Kento momada's physical strength had also recovered quite a bit.

the second round of the badminton match was a competition of physical strength. he was young, so not only was he physically stronger, but he also recovered faster.

Therefore, at the beginning of the second game, Kento momada intended to continue to launch a fierce attack.

However, what he did not expect was that as soon as the game started, the opposing team, Shenglong, started to launch a fierce offensive.

He was stunned for a moment.

The other party was older than him, and his physical strength was not as good as his. Wasn't he trying to lose by fighting like this?

kento momada had no choice but to follow suit and move quickly. however, what surprised him even more was that his opponent's physical strength did not seem to be affected at all in the last game.

That was impossible.

Soon, Kento momada felt that his physical strength was running out, and he began to panic.

Everyone could see the abnormality.

"How did this happen?" Looking at the situation of the game, haiichiro Yamada did not believe it at all.

At this time, the other party should have been dragged down by Kento momada.

Sheng Long took the opportunity of a dead ball to drink some more Linlin leisure tea.

The feeling of his strength recovering appeared again.

Therefore, as soon as the match started, Sheng Long looked at Kento Takeda, who was already in a sorry state, and launched another fierce attack. He didn't know that it felt so good to bully someone who had poor physical strength.

Soon, Kento momada found it hard to hold his own. In the second half of the second round, he could no longer keep up with Sheng Long's strength and stamina. He was completely crushed by Sheng Long, who was using the Linlin leisure tea to recover his strength.

it's impossible not to be afraid. I'm clearly younger and there's nothing wrong with my tactics. Kento momada lost the match. His eyes were a little dazed, and he could not believe this fact.

The people who came to the venue to support Kento momada were dumbfounded. They did not believe that the second in the world would lose.

After winning two out of three games and losing two games in a row, Kento momada also lost the first match of the group stage. It was likely that the media of the small country, who had been clamoring before, would collectively lose their voices.

On the internet.

The netizens who were watching the live broadcast were all excited.

haha, Linlin is so relaxed. Shenglong doesn't seem to have used up any energy at all!

the other party was obviously competing with their physical strength at the beginning. They didn't know that we have Linlin leisure tea.

"Thank you for the Linlin leisure tea. I'm here to buy a BMW 3 Series."

"As long as we don't bet on the men's team winning, it's not a dream to be near the sea!"

“.....”

Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin also smiled when he saw the results of the competition. The Linlin leisure tea had obviously been of great help.

"Qin Lin, I knew your Linlin leisure tea would work." Chu Feng couldn't help but laugh.

He had made quite a fortune by betting with Huang Xin.

"The athletes of this little country are probably still in a daze," Huang Xin also teased.

However, at this time, there was a new change in the venue. Huiichiro Yamada had come over with several members of the Asian Games organizing committee.

One of the members of the committee suddenly came to the arena and made a gesture with both hands.

this action caused an uproar in chengdu.

This meant that this match was temporarily not counted. A player had been reported for using forbidden drugs, so they had to go through a drug test.

the committee member walked towards shenglong after he was done and said jokingly, " Mr. Shenglong, you've been reported for using illegal drugs. We need to conduct a drug test on you.

To be honest, they had acted so quickly because they thought that Shenglong's behavior was indeed abnormal.

They had reason to suspect that Shenglong had used drugs.

The most important thing was that the drug would become the biggest scandal in the Asian Games held by their own country, which was what they wanted to see.

Sometimes, there were national boundaries in sports.

Although they could give the right to host the event to the other party for money and profit, they definitely didn't want to see this Great Eastern country have too high a position in the sports world.

sheng long and the coach looked at each other helplessly.

They knew it would be like this. Unfortunately, they were not afraid of inspection at all. It would be strange if they could find anything.

However, when they saw Sheng Long being taken away by the committee, the people from the Komori Kingdom who had come to support Kento momada cheered.

"I told you, there's no way Xian doujun would lose."

so the other party used medicine. That's too despicable.

they're a drug addict. They're embarrassed to be found using drugs in the first match.

"I'm so happy to see such a thing."

"....."

Chapter 584 Linlin Leisure Tea Is Being Punished! Has The Other Party Gone Crazy?

The news of Shenglong being requested to undergo a drug test was quickly released, and the Internet was in an uproar.

Linlin Manor.

Huang Xin, who was in Qin Lin's office, saw the live broadcast and immediately cursed, "I thought the people of the little days Kingdom couldn't afford to play with it? you're reporting me after losing!"

Qin Lin shook his head. I can't find anything. The Linlin leisure tea doesn't contain any illegal substances.

Since the national team dared to use it on their athletes, it meant that they had done countless tests.

But even if Shenglong was requested to have a medical examination, the Asian Games still had to proceed as planned.

then, another important race caused a sensation. a female marathon runner broke the world record and won a gold medal because of the linlin leisure tea.

This really caused a sensation.

Similarly, the female athlete was reported and asked for a medical examination.

In some people's eyes, it was impossible for their athletes to break the world record.

So, the committee took the female athlete to the medical examination.

However, the competition still had to go on. Take badminton for example. Although Sheng Long was in the middle of a medical examination, he was not suspended.

The next day, his group's second match continued as usual.

This time, Shenglong was up against a Korean player.

The Korean player was also a young player who ranked 15th in the world.

The key was that this young Xiaojiang was very good-looking and was the oppa of countless girls in Korea.

Therefore, many Korean girls with silicone faces came from thousands of miles away to support the young oppa.

Unfortunately, Shenglong had used the Linlin leisure tea to defeat the oppa with the fiercest attacks.

This made the group of girls whose faces were covered in silicone dissatisfaction. They raised their boards and protested, "

"The other party used medicine. The other party cheated."

"That's right, the other party is a country that uses medicine,"

"The other side has no sportsmanship and always uses dirty means."

yes, they can't afford to lose. They always accuse our athletes of having dirty hands after losing.

"....."

This was what they had planned before the competition. In addition to helping their oppa clear his name, they also tried to influence the judgment like the audience of the weightlifting event in veynaya sports meet.

At this time, the committee of the Asian Games showed up again with a test report in their hands.

This made the Korean girls very excited.

they knew that after a day, the results of the medical examination were out.

the other party must have used drugs to cheat. as long as the other party was disqualified from the competition, their oppa would not lose this competition.

Mr. Shenglong, I have good news for you. You've passed the test. There are no illegal substances in your blood. The representative of the Asian Games Committee was holding the test report. Although he was saying good news, he looked a little disappointed.

The test results were not what they wanted. There were no illegal substances in the opponent's blood, which meant that the results of the previous match were valid.

Although they were very unhappy, they did not dare to do anything since they were in another country and there were people supervising the testing. It was unlike in the Shinjyo nation where they had the help of the people there. Even a convenience store employee could be a drug tester.

After the committee of the Asian Games notified Sheng Long, they had to announce the test report.

When the Korean girls found out that there was no problem with Shenglong's test, their faces turned ugly.

they really didn't want their oppa to lose the game.

However, the committee's next move made them look forward to it.

Mr. Shenglong, I have another piece of bad news for you. You have been reported by the Korean coaching staff. We have to do a second medical examination.

The committee member was a white man. The white man served as a member of the Supreme Committee for the Asian Games, but from his attitude, it could be seen how far the tentacles of a certain country had reached.

The committee's decision angered the fans who supported Sheng Long.

Under normal circumstances, if there was no problem after the first drug test, the second drug test would not be carried out in a short period of time.

However, when it came to the athletes of their countries, this practice would be broken.

their country's athletes had been targeted many times. their gold medals in weightlifting, taekwondo, gymnastics, and ring were stolen many times.

In order to target them, the foreign referees could even pretend that they did not see one foot out of bounds.

thus, there were national boundaries in sports.

Most of the people on the internet who claimed that sports and science had no borders were either 500000 or wanted to put themselves in the position of Saints. They were all b * tches who thought they were above the material world.

"Mr. Shenglong, please cooperate!" the members of the committee said with a smile. even if the medical examination did not produce a result, such a continuous medical examination would disrupt the opponent's rhythm and mentality, causing the opponent to make mistakes in the later matches.

This scene made the Korean girls, whose faces were covered in silicone, cheer again.

This was another hope.

Their oppa was the most powerful.

Sheng Long did not care at all. It was just drawing blood again. There was no loss.

The next game was still the same.

The coaches had already analyzed this situation. After all, under normal circumstances, they had been targeted a lot.

The Asian Games was a sports competition in Asia, but it had always been controlled and controlled by the International Olympic Committee. Most of the members of the committee were Westerners. They had a domestic Committee, but they were in a state of separation from the International Olympic Committee.

Chapter 585 Linlin Leisure Tea Is Being Punished! Is The Other Party Crazy?

This was also out of helplessness.

They were shouting about the spirit of competition and that sports had no borders, but these people were showing that there were countries everywhere in sports.

perhaps it was just as a professor had said, science and sports were indeed borderless, but scientists and athletes were.

Shenglong's second medical examination blew up the internet. Everyone could see that they were specifically targeting him.

these guys just can't afford to play. They're breaking the rules just for the sake of it.

"I can only say that the Linlin leisure tea is too awesome."

it's not just Shenglong. All the other competitions, such as squash, tennis, and swimming, have been tested.

sigh, this is a large-scale assessment of all the athletes who have produced results.

table tennis hasn't been tested. Haha, I think they are too embarrassed to test table tennis.

hahaha, table tennis has blocked all the athletes from other countries.

all of you have transformed into great demon kings. I'm happy to see this!

"I still suggest that we show some mercy to our men in table tennis, in case the other party flip the table and directly sanction table tennis by canceling this event."

"....."

Indeed, in table tennis, they were the nightmare of athletes from other countries. If they used Linlin leisure tea, they would be bullying them.

Yes, this was bullying. Another young foreign player was beaten to tears.

Therefore, in the next half a month of the Asian Games, with the help of the Linlin leisure tea, the athletes fought bravely.

The committee members kept receiving reports and then carried out drug tests. This was the same for every competition. This was considered a large-scale drug test.

but the most shocking thing was that none of the athletes were found to be illegal substances after their medical tests.

This left them helpless. They could only watch as these people took the medallion while doing the medical examination. They also had to publicly announce that there was no problem with the medical examination.

On the internet, however, everyone was happy to see this. This was a typical example of someone being very unhappy but unable to do anything about it.

A reasonable cheat would anger you to death.

In the long game, with the help of the Linlin leisure tea, the original champion would basically be the champion, the original runner-up would be the champion, and the original no-chance would be the medal.

This scene stunned all the contestants.

The committee of the Asian Games was even more confused. This didn't make any sense. The headquarters of the International Olympic Committee sent a full representative to the office after they received the news.

The representative was a white man named venod.

As the Asian Games were coming to an end, venod had been looking at the number of medals for this year's Asian Games with a serious expression. It seemed that this Asian Games had become his own show.

The key was that no illegal substances were detected. If this was not resolved, one could imagine the scene of the next Olympic Games two years later. They absolutely could not allow such a situation to happen again.

"Are you sure it was caused by the drink?" Venod frowned as he looked at the bottle of drink in front of him, his face full of disbelief.

Everything was caused by this drink.

A world-class competition like theirs had been controlled by a bottle of drink.

This seemed like a plot that would only appear in a Hollywood sci-fi movie.

However, the plot in the movie happened in reality.

Most importantly, they couldn't find any illegal substances in the drink. Even if they knew it was caused by the drink, they couldn't do anything about it.

Even if they wanted to deal with it, they had to first add the substance in the drink into the illegal content, and then deal with it in the next world competition.

If they were forced to deal with it, they would ban a large number of the other side's athletes.

It was fine against small countries, but against a large country with a population of 1.4 billion, they didn't dare to force it, because they didn't want to play with them.

With a population of 1.4 billion, it was the largest competition market and the best money-making market. If they angered the other party, the market would be gone. They had no need to fight for money.

These people had a very contradictory mentality. If they wanted this market, they could not do without the 1.4 billion people. However, they did not want to see the good in this 1.4 billion country, so they wanted to target and suppress it in various places.

In the current situation, these people really didn't like you, but they couldn't do anything about you.

A short man beside him nodded and said, "it's indeed because of this drink. We tested it and found that it has some kind of substance that can recover physical strength and strength. We've tried it before. Doing push-ups consumes physical strength, but drinking this Linlin leisure tea is very effective.

it's because of this substance that those athletes can recover their physical strength and strength. Therefore, in a long game, the second half of the game is basically an absolute advantage.

"Is there really such a thing?" Venod still couldn't believe it, so he decided to experience it for himself.

He began to do push-ups in front of the other Asian Games Committee members. When his arms were sore and he had no more strength, he got up and took Qin Lin's leisure tea to drink.

In just a moment, his face revealed a look of disbelief, because he really felt his physical strength recovering.

this is a real energy drink. How can the other party create such a drink? " Venod couldn't believe it, but it still felt like science fiction.

This kind of drink was definitely a manifestation of technology. Even Western countries didn't have it, but now this thing appeared in the eastern country.

Chapter 586 Linlin Leisure Tea Is Being Punished! Has The Other Party Gone Crazy?

At this moment, someone next to him said, "I went to their internet to check out the information on this drink. I found out that this drink can not only be used on sports grounds, but also in husband and wife's bedroom life. They can use this drink to recover their strength after one session. Most importantly, it can be used at all construction sites and factories. It can help workers recover their strength quickly.

His words made venod's eyes widen in shock.

He knew the bosses of many Western companies. If there was such a drink, those capitalist bosses would definitely like it very much.

"what should we do with this drink?" One of the committee members asked.

"punish this drink!" we'll announce to the public that we haven't been able to clarify all the ingredients of this drink, " venod said without hesitation. we'll ban this drink from sponsoring any sports events, and we won't pass any of the tests for this drink.

Obviously, they didn't deal with the drinks according to the existing rules, so they would play the punishment method they were best at. After all, they had changed the rules of the competition a lot to limit the advantages of the other party.

As long as they restricted the drink, it was equivalent to returning everything to normal.

then let's do this. We'll hold a meeting and enter the sanction process. The committee member nodded.

Venod waited for the others to leave before he called his son.

His son was a small agent for a type of energy drink in the Starstreak country. No one in the Starstreak country had noticed this drink, so he wanted his son to be the agent for this Linlin leisure tea. As long as it was sold in the Starstreak country, he would definitely make a lot of money.

What he meant was, "I'm punishing you, and I want to earn your money."

He believed that as long as there was money to be made, the other party would definitely give him an agent. After all, he had a vast market in the xingtiao Kingdom.

And weren't the people from this country always clamoring to open up the foreign market? He was giving the other party an opportunity to open up the foreign market.

Finally ...

This year's Asian Games had come to an end. Compared to the joy at home, the athletes from all over Asia were stunned by the Linlin leisure tea, especially the former champions, who felt like they were dreaming.

Even the foreign betting companies were a little dumbfounded. Everything was different from what they had predicted before the game. Fortunately, they did not lose money overall.

However, at the end of the Asian Games, the Asian Games Committee announced something in a post-meeting press conference, which was the sanctions against Linlin leisure tea:

although we didn't find any illegal substances in the Linlin leisure tea, we can't be sure if there are any unknown substances in it. Therefore, the Linlin leisure tea won't be reviewed in the future sports competitions, and this drink won't appear in the competition.

Naturally, the unknown substance was just an excuse. It was not important.

At the venue of the Asian Games.

When Sheng Long and the other athletes heard the announcement, they all sighed.

this was what he had expected. in this way, he could only give up on the idea of delaying his retirement by another year next year.

On the side, the coaches were also watching this scene with director Yan, who was in charge of the Asian Games in China.

"Director Kuang, we really can't afford to play with these people," one of the coaches said with a frown.

"It's expected." However, director Yan said, "they can ban people on the field, but can they ban us off the field?" "Even if we don't use it on the field, the tea will be a great help to our daily training in the field. The athletes can improve faster and have longer golden ages. It's also a great help. We'll always be stronger. I'll apply to order the Linlin leisure tea for the national team after this."

The coach beside him nodded. He agreed with her.

On the other side.

Venod was also very satisfied with this scene. Now that the Linlin leisure tea was sanctioned, he was just waiting for his son to successfully become the agent of the Linlin leisure tea. His family could then rely on this drink to amass wealth in the hands of the capitalists in the starjo nation.

His phone rang.

When he saw that it was his son's call, his face also showed excitement. His son should have contacted the company behind the Linlin leisure tea and gotten the agent. As soon as the call connected, he said, "Hudson, how was it? did you get the retail opportunity for this drink?"

"Father, I've contacted that company, but they refused," "Furthermore, the other party also said that they have no intention of selling the Linlin leisure tea to the Hoshino."

"WHY?" Venod was stunned.

It was impossible for such a thing to happen.

Could it be that the other party's boss had gone crazy and no longer wanted the foreign market?

Chapter 587 Beautifully Done! This Is Too Much Of A Coincidence! 1

The sanctions against Linlin leisure tea were approved by the headquarters of the International Olympic Committee, so when they were announced, the whole internet was in an uproar.

"F * ck, I knew it would be like this. I can't afford this!"

sanction if you can't win. It's an old trick indeed.

Linlin leisure tea is pretty awesome. It's the first drink to be punished like this.

"haha, linlin's leisure tea is good. in order to make up for the influence of linlin's company, i plan to only buy this drink in the future. "

"upstairs, wake up. you can't buy linlin leisure tea now. " you can't buy it here either. A batch just came to the supermarket downstairs yesterday, but they were all sold out when I arrived.

haha, everyone, take a look at the announcement on Linlin company's official account and the Linlin villa's official account. Linlin company has retaliated!

This sudden comment was quickly liked and pushed to the top of the hot comments. Many people saw it, and then they went to the official account of Qin Lin's company or the official account of Linlin villa:

"As many foreign companies have come to our door to look for the Linlin leisure tea agent, our company hereby states that we will not open the agent rights to any foreign company except our own country, and will consider opening the agent rights to friendly countries in the future.

This announcement also caused an uproar among everyone.

The discussions online would be even more lively.

haha, this must be someone from a Western country asking for an agent.

that's funny. The International Olympic Committee has just punished Linlin leisure tea and now they're asking for a representative. Is this even a dog? "

I fully support Linlin company's decision. We can't even buy it ourselves. What right do they have to buy it? "

Linlin's company is so confident. It's their fault that Linlin's tea is so good. It's definitely their loss if the foreigners can't buy it.

"....."

On the other side, venod also saw Linlin company's announcement video, which made him very annoyed.

He was sure that the boss of Linlin company was an idiot. How could he not make money?

...

Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin found Yun Fei, the head of security in Linlin's laboratory, and Deng Guang, the head of Linlin food company, in his office.

When the two arrived, Qin Lin went straight to the point. I called you here for two things. One is the security issue of the Linlin leisure tea factory. I asked President Deng to reject those foreign agents who want to sell Linlin leisure tea. I also announced that we will not open our retail business to foreign countries.

so, those foreign agents who want to be the agent might have some crooked ideas. Manager Yun, you and director Deng will go to ning city first and help strengthen the security system there. If you need any equipment or funds, you can look for director Deng directly.

This was also something he had to pay attention to at the moment.

The Asian Games had made Linlin leisure tea stand out, but it had also brought trouble.

The security of the factory was of utmost importance.

"Alright, Chairman Qin." Yun Fei immediately nodded.

Naturally, he had watched the Asian Games and heard about Linlin company's rejection of foreign agent applications and their announcement that they would not open Linlin leisure tea to Western countries.

He felt that this was very satisfying.

Therefore, he would do his best to ensure the security of the Linlin leisure tea factory.

Chairman Qin, I'll cooperate with you. Besides, after ning city learned about our announcement, they've also said that they'll send some police officers to patrol the factory's surroundings regularly. Deng Guang chimed in.

"Yeah!" Qin Lin nodded. Then you guys go back and discuss how to deal with it. "

After letting Deng Guang and Yun Fei leave, Qin Lin looked at the screen in his mind and controlled the game character to do daily tasks.

just as he finished fishing the 35 fish by the river, he saw li kai, his brother, running over in a hurry. " Brother Qin, let me tell you a piece of good news. I've finally made a breakthrough in my low-temperature genetic experiment. Hahaha, now I'm just waiting for the laboratory to be built for the next step of the experiment.

"Old brother li, congratulations." Qin Lin was a little surprised to hear this news.

According to Li Qing, old brother li had been doing this experiment for a long time, but there had been no progress. He didn't expect to suddenly have a breakthrough now.

Could it be that he had exploded after becoming a professor?

Or was it that after taking so many blame, the pressure had turned into motivation?

But no matter what, this was something to be happy about.

Li Kai suddenly said, " "Old Brother Qin, you are the first person I share the news with. Do you think our relationship is good enough?"

Qin Lin understood and said,"brother li, did you just finish the Linlin wine?" Isn't the speed at which you're using it too fast? No matter how good the wine is, you have to control yourself."

" it's all because of the old man, " li kai said bitterly. " he came to the villa before and took away li qing and my linlin medicinal wine. "

Thinking of this, he felt a wave of distress.

For the sake of his and xiuwan's happy lives, he had taken great pains to deduct some from Brother Qin's account and kept three bottles.

Who knew that the old man would suddenly come to his door? for xiuwan, the old man had to take away two bottles. Fortunately, Li Qing had helped put in a good word for him and xiuwan.

"Did your old man come to the villa?" Qin Lin was stunned. He didn't know about this. Then, he suddenly reacted. that's not right. I remember that Li Qing brought two more bottles of Linlin medicinal wine with him when he went back. Are you sure your old man took all his wine? "

"Two bottles?" li kai suddenly stood up.

Of the three bottles he had collected, didn't he ask Li Qing to give two to the old man?

Why did this seem a little wrong?

li kai was suddenly a little confused. the first thing he did was to take out his phone and call li qing.

As soon as the call went through, he anxiously said, " "Li Qing, I heard that you have a lot of Linlin medicinal wine!"

"What? Little uncle, what did you say? The signal here is bad, I'm hanging up." Li Qing's voice came from the other side of the phone, and then the phone was hung up.

f * ck! Li Kai understood what was going on when he saw this situation.

the old man might not even know that he had the medicinal wine.

It was Li Qing, that bastard, who had stolen his wine.

Thinking of this, he immediately made another call.

It was the old master's number.

As soon as the call went through, the old man's voice came from the other side of the phone, " you're calling me all of a sudden. Do you want to marry that Dr. Tang? " this topic made li kai, a man, look embarrassed. after all, this was the first time he was talking about marriage at his age.

Then, he remembered the proper business and said, " "Dad, how's the Linlin medicinal wine I asked Li Qing to give you? The effect won't be worse than the previous ones, right?"

The old man asked doubtfully, "when are you going to get Li Qing to bring me wine?" You can keep the wine. You're already so old. Even if you want to marry Dr. Tang, you should at least have a child of your own. This wine will be useful to you."

li kai was touched by her words.

The old man still cared about him.

But didn't this mean that Li Qing had cheated him of two bottles of wine?

The old man didn't even ask for his wine.

moreover, li qing had even used xiuwan to scare him.

This was his own nephew.

the old man was right, this guy was a rascal.

Thinking of this, he turned to the old man and said, " dad, when Li Qing went back, I asked him to bring you two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine. Remember to get them from him. By the way, he has one bottle himself. He has already given birth to two children, so there's no need to use this wine. You're already so old, so you should take more supplements.

you child, why didn't you realize that it's wrong of you to be so filial before? Li Qing has been back for so long, but he hasn't given me any wine. This little rascal wants to steal my wine, " the old man said, not giving Li Kai a chance to speak. He hung up the phone after cursing.

ming city.

After Li Qing hung up the phone, he hurriedly ran to his room and pulled out a box that stored wine from under his bed.

The few bottles of wine had been taken away by the old man in the wine storage room. He didn't even dare to put the Linlin medicinal wine in the wine storage room anymore. A cunning rabbit had Three Burrows, and the wine storage box under the bed was one of them.

however, something was wrong. why did it feel like little uncle's call was a little exposed?

As Li Qing was thinking, his phone rang again.

Seeing that it was his grandfather's number, he didn't dare to hesitate and hurriedly answered the call.

As soon as the call went through, her grandfather's roar came from the other side, " "You little rascal, you dare to steal my wine? send me the two bottles of wine your uncle gave me, and you should have one bottle of wine for yourself, right? At your age, you've already given birth to two children, so you have to control yourself. It's an old man like me who needs more nourishment."

" hehe! " li qing was dumbfounded when he heard this.

What the f * ck!

Linlin Manor.

li kai was in qin lin's office. he angrily put down his phone."Old Brother Qin, do you think it's easy for me at my age? i originally needed some wine to replenish my body, but who knew that my bastard nephew would turn my wine black. do you think it's easy for me?"

Towards the end, Li Kai was already pretending to be pitiful.

Qin Lin hurriedly said, " brother li, don't be impatient. I have some wine with me. You've made a breakthrough in your research. I'll give you a bottle to celebrate.

"Brother Qin, you are my brother." When Li Kai heard this, he immediately said, " we're the real family. If you and Li Qing fall into the water together, I can only save one of you first. I'll definitely save you first.

"Don't! I can swim!" Qin Lin shook his head. This uncle and nephew were really used to cheating each other. He remembered that since they first met, they had been cheating each other a lot.

When Li Kai heard Qin Lin's words, he was dumbfounded. "Old Brother Qin, can't you just pretend to be touched? li qing is my nephew. even if he fell into the water with you, i would still save you first."

"But I really can swim." Qin Lin laughed and teased.

Li Kai suddenly felt that he could not continue the conversation. Can't this brother Qin assume that he can't swim?

As the two of them were chatting, Qin Lin's phone rang. It was Gao Yaoyao.

He pressed the answer button, and Gao Yaoyao's voice was heard. Boss, there's a man looking for you. He said he's from a family of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and wants to trade some secret recipe for the Linlin medicinal wine.

"What's the situation?" Qin Lin asked, puzzled.

I don't know, " Gao Yaoyao said in distress. The other party just kept pestering the waiter to see you. I had no choice but to call you.

"Bring the other party over!" Qin Lin hung up the phone with a frown.

"What's wrong, brother Li?" Li Kai asked, puzzled.

"Someone said he's from a family of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners," Qin Lin explained. "He wants to trade some secret recipe for the Linlin medicinal wine."

"Is it the people from the special channel that you mentioned?" Li Kai asked in surprise.

He remembered that Brother Qin had said that people from Xiangshui came to exchange the Xiangshui tribute rice for Linlin medicinal wine. At that time, he and Li Qing knew that there was such a special channel of trading.

Moreover, this channel didn't even allow them to get in touch with the Li family's status.

He guessed that someone must have come to his door again.

"It should be, right?" When Qin Lin heard Li Kai's imagination, he was stunned for a moment. He was the one who made up this channel.

Was there really such a channel?

As Qin Lin was thinking about it, he was suddenly stunned. He looked at the game screen in his mind in disbelief, because a plot task had suddenly come to him.

A man in a white coat appeared at the entrance of the farm.

Wasn't this doctor Dott from the ranch?

What was going on? Wasn't this too much of a coincidence?

In reality, a person who claimed to be from a family of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners came to find him. The doctor in the game also came to find him.

Chapter 588 Doctor Dott's Special Ability, Is This A New Game?

Qin Lin immediately looked at the screen in his mind and controlled his game character to walk toward doctor Dott.

In the game's settings, doctor Dott was one of the most handsome men in ore town. He was a very young and promising doctor with excellent medical skills.

In the female version of the story of the farm, it seemed that doctor Dott had been married the most times.

This was a doctor Who was happy with sex.

[hello, i heard from mayor thomas that you're always very helpful and have experience in picking things at mount saint missus. now, there's a flu in ore town that can't be cured with ordinary medicine!

I need some herbs from the depths of Saint missus mountain, but I need to use cotton swabs to stab the throats of those patients for tests. I need someone to help me pick herbs. [as thanks, you will receive a special gift!]

Qin Lin was stunned for a moment when he saw the dialogue. Did people have to use a cotton swab to poke their throats for a test in the game?

however, the plot mission had been triggered, so he would definitely accept the reward.

After accepting the mission, doctor Dott left, and a special mission mark appeared above his character's head.

In this kind of special mission state, the mission items could be seen when they arrived at the designated place. Under normal circumstances, these special items would not be refreshed.

Just as Qin Lin was about to take control of his character and head to the goddess mountain to complete the plot mission, there was a knock on the door. Gao Yaoyao walked in with a greasy-looking middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man's eyes were flickering. He didn't look like someone from a family of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners at all. Instead, he looked more like a street thug.

As soon as Gao Yaoyao entered the office, she said to Qin ran, " "Boss, this is the gentleman who said he wanted to exchange for the Linlin medicinal wine."

The middle-aged man looked at Qin Lin in surprise. The owner of Linlin villa was too young.

Then, he looked at Li Kai and recognized the famous professor Li Kai.

The middle-aged man did not hesitate and quickly introduced himself. Hello, Sir, I'm Jin Da Ming. My family's ancestor is an Imperial doctor. My grandfather is a very famous Chinese medicine practitioner, and he left me a Chinese medicine recipe. I want to use this recipe to exchange for five bottles of Lin Lin wine from you.

When Qin Lin heard this, he looked at Jin Daming with a strange expression. A street thug-looking guy suddenly said that he wanted to use a Chinese medicine recipe to exchange for Linlin medicinal wine. This was very strange.

li kai almost thought that he had guessed wrong. it wasn't the person with the special channel who had come to find him, but a liar.

Jin Daming hurriedly took out a somewhat old thick paper cover made of some unknown material and placed it on the table. This is the Traditional Chinese Medicine recipe that my grandfather left me. I've sold it to other Traditional Chinese Medicine families, and they all thought that this recipe was useful. Sir, since you can make the Linlin wine, you must have done a lot of research on traditional Chinese medicine. I'll exchange this recipe for five silver bottles of Linlin wine.

Jin Daming revealed a look of anticipation after he finished speaking.

His words were half-true and half-false.

His grandfather was indeed a famous Traditional Chinese Medicine practitioner, and this recipe was indeed left behind by his grandfather. He had indeed sold it to a family of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners, but in fact, that family only had one Traditional Chinese Medicine practitioner who opened a clinic. The family didn't even look at it, and only offered 1000 Yuan.

He was short of money, so he only sold the Chinese medicine for 1000 Yuan. It was better than nothing.

This time, he really had no other choice. He owed 150000 Yuan to the loan shark. If he didn't pay it back, he would be in deep trouble. When he was caught by the other party, he accidentally heard a very rich brother-in-law of the other party talking about Linlin medicinal wine.

A bottle of this kind of wine had been sold for more than 150 thousand Yuan in Ming city. There were also wealthy people in Ming city who went to Linlin Manor to ask for the medicinal wine. However, most of them did not even get to see the old noodles in Linlin Manor.

The key was that even the rich would not dare to act rashly in front of the person who had this medicinal wine. The person did not want to see you or sell you the wine, but you still had to leave in dejection.

Otherwise, the Li family and the Wei family would teach you how to behave.

In Ming city, everyone knew that the owner of Linlin villa had a good relationship with the Li family. He and professor Li Kai were just short of wearing the same pair of pants to show off.

Moreover, there were rumors that the Wei family of Ming city owed Linlin villa a favor.

Who would dare to mess with Linlin Manor? even without these two, Chen shengfei and MA Lewen could still make most people suffer. Not to mention, recently, Chairman Liu often mentioned the owner of Linlin Manor in the circle of rich people, as if he owed him a big favor.

In addition, the owner of Linlin villa had his own business there, and the Linlin laboratory and Linlin food company were not small either.

If he really went to provoke the other party, he would really be out of his mind.

Jin Daming had no other choice but to go to Linlin Manor, because he promised the creditor that he could get a bottle of Linlin medicinal wine to offset the debt.

Since he had asked for five bottles, he naturally wanted to earn another four bottles. If he sold them, he could make an extra 600000.

Qin Lin and Li Kai looked at each other. The more he spoke, the more he sounded like a liar.

Li Kai looked at Jin Daming in shock. He asked for five bottles of Linlin medicinal wine. This man really dared to think.

However, he also picked up the thick paper cover made of unknown material and looked at it. They're all names of medicinal herbs. Some of the content is a little mysterious and I can't understand it. This paper seems to be made of some special material and is quite old.

"It must be quite old. It's a family of traditional Chinese medicine that has been passed down for many years," Jin Daming said immediately.

Although Qin Lin felt that Jin Daming was a liar, he still took the thick paper and said to Jin Daming, "I'll take a look at your secret recipe. I'll talk to you when I come back. Old brother Li, please help me entertain him."

Chapter 589 Doctor Dott's Special Ability, Is This A New Way To Play?

These words obviously made Jin Daming hesitate, "This bit is an ..."

Li Kai could tell and snorted, "What's with that expression?" Do you think my old Brother Qin would covet your secret recipe?"

"I don't dare, I don't dare!" Jin Daming quickly shook his head. He knew who Professor Li Kai was, the young master of the Li family of Ming City.

However, he was worried that the owner of Linlin Villa would not give him the wine after verifying the authenticity of the secret recipe.

One had to know that the Chinese medicine doctor who had sold the recipe for 1000 Yuan had said that his recipe was worthless.

Qin Lin had already walked out of the office.

He didn't know if this secret recipe was real or fake, but it should be fake to a large extent. That Jin Daming looked too much like a scammer.

However, he couldn't tell if it was real or fake. Therefore, there was only one simple way, and that was to bring it into the game and look at the remarks.

Qin Lin took the thick paper to the office area and found an unoccupied office to lock from the inside. Then, he entered the game with a thought.

When he arrived at the game farm, Qin Lin saw the remark on the thick paper:

[unknown Chinese medicine recipe: incomplete!]

[this is an unknown incomplete Chinese medicine recipe. The recipe seems to be quite useful, but it's a pity that it's incomplete. I heard that the town's doctor Dott has good medical skills. You can find him to try and repair the recipe. However, you have to complete the mission he gave you first!]

Qin Lin was surprised when he saw the note. The note said that this secret recipe seemed to have a great effect, which meant that this secret recipe was useful. However, the secret recipe was incomplete now, and the potion made with the medicinal materials on it was probably useless.

However, he seemed to have found a new way to play it.

this incomplete secret recipe could be repaired by doctor dott. if he succeeded, would he be able to obtain the complete secret recipe? There might be a surprise.

In other words, this Jin Daming couldn't be completely said to be a scammer. At least this secret recipe was still somewhat useful.

With this in mind, Qin Lin exited the game again and returned to the office with the thick paper.

Li Kai was currently making tea for Jin Da Ming. However, when Jin Da Ming saw Li Kai, he was obviously a little restrained and nervous.

of course, he only brewed ordinary tea leaves. wasn't it a waste of a grade 2 wild tieguanyin tea to serve people like jin daming?

"Old Brother Qin, you've confirmed it so quickly?" Li Kai asked in surprise when he saw Qin Lin return so quickly.

: I just studied it. It's not that difficult,"Qin Lin explained casually:

Li Kai didn't suspect anything. After all, Brother Qin was able to concoct those effective medicinal wines, so he must have some knowledge of traditional Chinese medicine. It wouldn't be a problem for him to roughly distinguish the recipe.

However, since the other party went out specially, he might have a special way to hide it from others, so he didn't probe further.

Jin Daming asked Qin Lin impatiently, "Teacher, how is it, are you willing to exchange for this recipe?"

Qin Lin looked at Jin Daming and said pretentiously, "Mr. Jin, you should know better than me what the secret recipe is. These five bottles of Linlin medicinal wine are a bit too much.

He wanted the formula and wanted to see if he could find Dr. Dott to repair it. However, the formula was incomplete and useless in real life.

he also couldn't let the other party feel that he had agreed too quickly and thought that the recipe was very good. then, he would have the opportunity to raise the price.

Don't doubt it, there would definitely be such a person.

Jin Daming was a little anxious when he heard Qin Lin's words because he knew what the recipe was like. The old Chinese medicine doctor only paid 1000 Yuan for it.

He was also afraid that if Qin Lin didn't change it, he wouldn't be able to pay off the loan sharks, and that would be the end of him. So, he hurriedly said, "sir, i know that five bottles of linlin medicinal wine is a lot. how about three bottles? three bottles will do. "

But when he saw Qin Lin's half-smile, he hurriedly changed his words. "Two bottles, two bottles will do."

This was his final struggle.

As long as he had two bottles, he could use one of them to pay off his debt, and sell the other bottle for 150000 Yuan. He could still use the 150000 Yuan to turn the tables.

Of course, if it really didn't work out, one bottle would do. He had to pay off the usury no matter what.

Qin Lin didn't care about the two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine. He said, alright, two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine then. However, the price of two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine is not a small amount. We need to sign a contract.

"Alright, alright, let's sign the contract." Jin Daming didn't think much about it. He was just afraid that the other party wouldn't exchange the wine for him.

Qin Lin also called Chu Feng.

Senior brother Chu was supposed to go back for a vacation. However, because of Huangxin company's business, he temporarily stayed behind to deal with Huangxin company's legal business.

Usually, he would return to the firm and process this kind of business remotely through email. However, because of his relationship with Qin Lin and the brainless bet he had won with Huang Xin, he considered this as a friendly service.

Chu Feng arrived at Qin Lin's office. After knowing the purpose, he took out his laptop and began to operate it. This kind of private purchase contract was not difficult as it had a template.

However, as Qin Lin's lawyer, he naturally had to add some clauses that were beneficial to Qin Lin and take some precautions.

Since Qin Lin bought this secret recipe, it must be useful. Who knows what other tricks he might play in the future? naturally, he had to prevent Jin Daming from getting jealous in the future.

This was what he should pay attention to as a lawyer.

Jin Daming didn't think about this at all. He just wanted to get the two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine as soon as possible.

After signing the contract with great difficulty, Jin Daming asked Qin Lin about the Linlin medicinal wine. Qin Lin gave him two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine and he left in a hurry, afraid that Qin Lin would regret it.

To Qin Lin, two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine were nothing, but to Jin Daming, it was equivalent to 300000 Yuan.

After Jin Daming left, Li Kai asked, " " brother Qin, two bottles of Linlin medicinal wine. is this Chinese medicine recipe really that valuable? "

Qin Lin explained, " we don't know yet. We'll only know after some research. Let's not talk about this for now. Brother Li, brother Chu, let's make some tea.

With that, he sat down at the tea table and poured away the ordinary tea that Li Kai had made. Then, he took out the quality 2 wild Tieguanyin and made it again.

Although Li Kai and Chu Feng were curious about the secret recipe, they were only curious. As friends, they wouldn't ask further since Qin Lin had already said so.

If Qin Lin wanted to tell them, he would naturally tell them. If he didn't, he would be blind if he asked again.

Qin Lin waited for brother Li and brother Chu to leave before he looked at the screen in his mind. Then, he controlled his character to go to the goddess mountain and began to complete the collection task of Dr. Dott.

This time, as he was on a special mission, he discovered that there were many medicinal herbs on the goddess mountain that could only be collected during special missions.

However, these herbs could only be collected once, and they were marked with the words " Mission ". In other words, these things could only be used to hand in the mission to Dr. Dott.

After collecting all the herbs Dr. Dott had asked for, Qin Lin controlled his game character and went to the hospital in ore town.

The small town hospital was different from usual.

There were many more patients. It was probably the flu that doctor Dott had mentioned that had caused the increase in patients.

When the game character arrived, doctor Dott was holding a cotton swab and stabbing a patient's throat for examination.

He controlled his game character to step forward and click on doctor Dott. The mission completion notification also appeared.

[wow!] You've already collected the herbs I need? [you're really as capable as the mayor said. You're amazing. This influenza can be ended quickly. As a thank you, this gift bag is for you!]

[congratulations, you have received a thank you gift bag from dott!]

There was an additional gift bag in his backpack with a note:

[this is Dr. Dott's gift as a token of gratitude. Open it and you'll randomly receive a gift related to Dr. Dott!]

Then, Qin Lin received a prompt asking if he wanted to open it. He decisively chose to open it.

Then, the system prompt appeared again.

[congratulations on opening the gift bag that doctor Dott gave as a token of appreciation. You have randomly received the formula for Type 03 body strengthening potion!]

Chapter 590

"Body strengthening formula?" When Qin Lin saw the note, he subconsciously thought of the joke about increasing his height by five centimeters in seven days.

There were many such deceptive advertisements on the internet.

the system's medicinal liquid recipe shouldn't really increase by 5 centimeters in seven days, right?

or, could it be a 5 cm increase in a specific area?

This made it easy for people to think of perverted things.

Naturally, this was just a fantasy.

After obtaining the formula, he entered the game with a thought and saw the specific remarks of the type 03 liquid medicine formula:

[Type 03 body-strengthening potion formula: mysterious!]

[this is a very mysterious potion recipe. using this potion seems to strengthen one's constitution in a special way. using it will allow you to obtain the exact recipe and effects of the potion. do you wish to use it?]

it was obvious that this wasn't a potion that could increase by 5 centimeters in 7 days, but a potion that could increase one's constitution.

It was just that he didn't know how much this increase would be. Moreover, it would require a special method, and he didn't know how special the special method would be.

All of this could only be known after obtaining the specific information of the secret recipe and the medicinal liquid.

Moreover, this Type 03 liquid medicine was somewhat similar to the Linlin leisure tea from before.

Linlin leisure tea was secret recipe 04.

This meant that there were other formulas for the medicinal liquid.

Qin Lin decisively chose to use the secret recipe.

in an instant, just like the tomato sauce from before, a series of information appeared in his mind out of thin air. they were all related to the steps and methods to concoct the type 03 body-strengthening medicinal liquid, as well as the relevant information of each medicinal ingredient in the formula.

The information and formula of these medicinal herbs were firmly imprinted in his mind, allowing him to understand these medicinal herbs thoroughly in an instant.

After that, he still had a wonderful feeling like his muscles remembered it, as if he had concocted countless portions of this medicinal liquid.

After obtaining the recipe for the type 03 body-strengthening potion, Qin Lin also put away the incomplete recipe that Jin Daming had sold him first, and would study this thing later.

For now, he had to figure out the type 03 body-strengthening liquid first.

However, this Jin Daming suddenly came to exchange the secret recipe for the Linlin medicinal wine. Both old brother Li and senior brother Chu knew about it. This seemed to be another way to shirk responsibility.

With that in mind, Qin Lin left the office and went straight to the pharmacy that sold Chinese medicine.

The formula for the type 03 body-strengthening potion had quite a number of medicinal ingredients. There were more than 20 types of medicinal ingredients, and the order and proportion of each medicinal ingredient used were different.

When Qin Lin bought the herbs, he even put each herb into his nose and mouth to taste. To confirm the medicinal properties of the herbs, the herbs used to make the type 03 body-strengthening liquid had to be up to standard.

It seemed like a fantasy that he could distinguish the medicinal properties of the medicinal herbs by just tasting them with his mouth. However, after receiving the information from the system and muscle memory, he was able to do it miraculously.

Naturally, only the herbs related to these formulas could do it. Other herbs couldn't.

Therefore, the ancient Chinese medicine's theory of knowing the medicinal properties with a simple taste should not be false. Chinese medicine could really do it. As for the fact that no one had seen it before, it could only be blamed on the decline of Chinese medicine.

Moreover, Qin Lin's way of tasting the medicinal properties really made him taste that one of the medicinal properties was a little fake. He said, " "Doctor, the potency of this Eucommia is too low. Is it because it's not enough? What I want is the kind of old medicine that is sufficient."

Duncia was a special Chinese medicine for strengthening the body. Its roots would stay dormant for 60 to 70 days a year. The time taken for an old medicine to be used might be half of the time taken for an old medicine to be used.

This could save a lot of costs, and naturally, the medicinal properties would also be saved a lot. In many cases, it could not even meet the medicinal requirements.

These Chinese medicine merchants and pharmacies naturally knew this, but they knew that the Medicine's medicinal properties were not good enough, so they could buy it at a lower purchase price. Then, the person who bought the medicine did not know, so they could sell it at a price that was good enough.

To put it simply, it was a half-fake medicine.

This was considered a kind medicine. If he met some black-hearted people, it would be completely fake medicine.

However, selling half-fake medicine was not a good thing either. After all, they had earned a lot of money, but the effect of the medicine that the patient needed was gone. Although nothing would happen to the patient after eating it, it was equivalent to eating it for free. It was a waste of time and might even delay the patient's condition.

This was probably one of the reasons why Chinese medicine was declining.

The decline of Chinese medicine was due to the oppression of Western medicine. It was also because of the many dirty things that had happened in the industry.

The doctor in the pharmacy was shocked when he heard Qin Lin's words. Of course, he knew the details of the duzhong, but he didn't expect this young man to know the medicinal properties of the duzhong just by tasting it.

What kind of joke was this?

However, he felt guilty, so he immediately said awkwardly, " Sir, I'm sorry. The nurse might have put the discarded duzhong on the table when she was preparing the medicine. I'll change it for you.

Of course, the medicine couldn't be all fake. They had to prepare the real one. When the inspection came, they would take out the real one for inspection. When they met someone who knew the goods, they naturally had to take out the real one.

Qin Lin waited for the other party to bring out a new batch of Zhong du and tasted it again. This time, it was real. He bought all the herbs he needed before leaving the pharmacy.

The doctor heaved a sigh of relief after Qin Lin left. Who knew that a young man like him would come from your city? he could tell that there was something wrong with the duzhong just by tasting it with his mouth.

Fortunately, the other party did not buy anything else. Otherwise, it would have been really awkward.

There were more than 100 types of Chinese medicine in this pharmacy. The problem was definitely not with only the Zhong du. It was just that the other party had only stepped on the Zhong du among the more than 20 types of Chinese medicine.
