

The Game 71

Chapter 71: Medicinal Honey Promotion! Sky-high-priced Drink? 2

The car owner's surname was Chu. Qin Lin had already thought of the car he wanted to book. It was a BMW 5 Series and a blue truck.

His brother-in-law's BMW 5 Series was very comfortable to drive. He did not know much about cars, so he chose the BMW 5 Series. The blue truck was naturally meant to transport goods, and it was time for the three-wheeled truck to be eliminated.

After booking the car, he and Zhao Moqing took the contract to the villa.

As soon as they arrived at the villa, Qin Lin asked Chen Dabei to bring the two of them to the sales center with the milk tea sealing machine he had taken from Zhao Moyun. There was also honey.

He could use the plastic cup directly when it was delivered tomorrow morning.

Zhao Moqing found Gao Yaoyao and asked her to help film the promotional video for the new medicine. Zhao Moqing had already written the lines.

In the evening.

Qin Ren and Hu Fei arrived at the villa and sent over the advertising cloth and all the promotional materials he needed.

The advertising cloth was upright and needed to be erected. Hu Fei and Qin Ren personally went to install it.

After installing it, Qin Ren asked, "Lin Zi, come and take a look. Are you satisfied?"

Qin Lin went forward to take a look.

The advertising cloth was basically made according to his requirements. First, it was a summary of medicinal honey. His wild honey could only be used as medicinal honey publicity.

This introduction only needed to let people know that medicinal honey was rare. The following effects were the most important:

.....

Firstly, it had a very good texture and tasted even more delicious. Secondly, it had the effect of relieving fatigue, treating chronic gastritis, and treating constipation.

When Qin Lin saw the end, he was stunned. "You placed constipation at the end and even specially increased the number. You guys are so knowledgeable!"

"He did all this!" Hu Fei pointed at Qin Ren.

Qin Ren explained, "Lin Zi, you have to know that among these effects, constipation is the most uncomfortable. That feeling is worse than death. It has to be especially striking."

“Oh, looks like you have a deep understanding of constipation. Are you constipated?” Qin Lin looked at Qin Ren strangely.

“No...” Qin Ren subconsciously wanted to answer, but then he realized that something was wrong and hurriedly corrected himself. “How is that possible? I heard this from my constipated friend. He complained that it was very painful.”

Qin Lin teased, “Do you want a cup of wild medicinal honey water? It’s really effective.”

“Yes!” Qin Ren replied decisively.

“I’ll make it for you!” Qin Lin said with a smile.

...

“Hello, everyone. I’m Gao Yaoyao from Qinglin Villa. First of all, welcome to our villa. Our villa has launched a new beverage: Medicinal Honey. Medicinal Honey is premium honey with special medicinal effects. It has...”

“300ml small cup of medicinal honey water is priced at 45 yuan, 500ml medium is 75 yuan, 700ml large cup is 100 yuan per cup.”

“To thank everyone for their continued support of the villa, our boss has decided to treat visitors tomorrow to a free taste of the Medicinal Honey.”

“There’s a limited amount. For the time being, there are 1,500 large cups of honey water. When the time comes, tourists can rely on the receipt spent at the villa or the tickets to the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea to collect them from the villa’s sales center...”“Please reading on newnovel.org”

There were many lines, but Gao Yaoyao passed in one go. Her expression was natural and her sweet smile made people feel comfortable.

Moreover, Qin Lin only planned to take out 90 catties of honey from his inventory and save the rest for emergencies.

Zhao Moqing also edited the video slightly and chose to post it on Douyin.

The villa was still popular. The videos taken by the tourists in the sea of flowers did not decrease every day, especially the videos taken by the beautiful tourists. With their beautiful looks and meaningful videos in the sea of flowers, it was very easy to become popular.

This kept increasing the popularity of Qinglin Villa, making it even more popular.

Therefore, with this popularity, Zhao Moqing’s official video quickly became popular. The people backstage also received likes and comments.

“Miss, you’re so pure and cute. What’s your account...”

This was clearly an old lecherous comment.

Naturally, many people were also attracted by the wild medicinal honey topic of the video itself.

“What’s wild medicinal honey water? Isn’t that too damn expensive? 100 yuan for a 750 ML cup?”

“100 yuan for a drink. Makes me think of some comic book show harvesting tourists, 50 yuan for a glass of lemonade.”

“F*ck, is it an expensive drink?”

“...”

There were questioning voices, and naturally, there were curious voices:

“The price isn’t important. What I care about is the efficacy of this medicinal honey water. Is it real?”

“Is it really effective in treating constipation? To be honest, I have a friend with severe constipation.”

“The friend upstairs is me. I’ve been constipated for days. I’m going to buy a ticket now.”

“I’m from Youcheng County. My friend is constipated too. I’ll be sure to collect one for him tomorrow.”

“...”

Under the original popularity of the villa, the wild medicinal honey had turned into fire and water in a short period of time. Be it those who questioned or those who were curious, adding a single comment or like would increase the popularity of this topic.

And this popularity reached its peak when a witness account appeared at night.

It was actually a video sent by an old physician professor who had certified the account of a certain tertiary hospital in the province:

“First, let me introduce you to the medicinal honey. This is high-quality honey. Honey itself has medicinal effects, but some honey is less effective. Some are more effective. Some of the more effective ones are also called medicinal honey. Another is... Our hospital has a lot of high-quality honey. High-quality honey of this level is not cheap. The cheaper ones cost more than 500 yuan per catty.”

“However, there are too many fake medicinal honey on the market. Ordinary people won’t be able to differentiate them easily. If the medicinal honey effect of Qinglin Villa is real, I can only say that the owner of the villa is generous. If we have to throw away tens of thousands of yuan for a free trial drink, the constipated tourists will be blessed.”

“So, don’t be in a hurry to question it. Since the villa is holding a free tasting, why don’t everyone look forward to it?”

Once this video was released, it was equivalent to an official statement, causing the previous discussions to turn into anticipation for this medicinal honey water.

Even the certified old professor had said so. It was always right to let the bullet fly a little longer. Whether it was true or not, it would be clear tomorrow after they tried the medicinal honey water.

Because 1,500 large cups of medicinal honey water were free to try, the owner of the villa couldn’t possibly find 1,500 shills, right?

Moreover, such high-grade medicinal honey water and a big cup of 100 yuan made people eager to try it.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing were also very surprised when they saw the old professor's video.

This video was clearly beneficial to the villa.

But why would a professor certified by a tertiary hospital help him?

It was only when he saw the old man that he recognized him. It was the old man who had brought his granddaughter that day. His granddaughter had chronic gastritis and asked for two cups of medicinal honey water.

He did not expect the other party to have such an identity.

It seemed like it was really convenient for him.

Chapter 72: The Mountain Villa's Influence on Youcheng County! The Medicinal Honey Water is Really Effective!

After a night, because of the recent popularity of Qinglin Villa, there were also many people paying attention to the medicinal honey water.

Many people were curious if the wild medicinal honey water of Qinglin Villa really had such an effect.

Early in the morning, Qin Lin had just moved everything from the game to the villa. Many tourists had arrived early. Some of them even looked pale and ugly. They were obviously constipated.

Previously, when tourists came to the villa, the first thing they would do was to buy tickets at the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea and then enter the Sea of Flowers. This time, after the tourists bought tickets to the Sea of Flowers, they swarmed toward the already open sales center.

The sales center was not far from the reception hall, visible as soon as they entered the villa.

Three sealing machines had already been set up on the most prominent sales counter in the sales lobby. There was also wild honey from the game, as well as custom-made boutique cups delivered by coconut fruit and Fuhai plastic.

Gao Yaoyao was also waiting with three waiters.

Tourists could also see the advertising cloth at a glance and gathered around. Someone asked, "How do you get wild honey water for free?"

Gao Yaoyao immediately explained, "Everyone, line up first. When you receive the tickets, just show us the receipt or the tickets to the Sea of Flowers."

Upon hearing this, a tourist immediately handed the tickets to Gao Yaoyao.

Gao Yaoyao also took out a special tool and made a hole in the ticket. She then returned the ticket to the other party so that she wouldn't have to collect it again.

Don't expect others to be self-aware. There were many people who are greedy for small gains.

The three waiters also began to move. Honey was put in, coconut was put in, water was poured, and the lid was molded and shaken evenly. Then, along with straws, it was given to the recipient.

.....

In a moment, this batch of tourists received the medicinal honey water for free.

After last night's popularity, these people came with curiosity and anticipation. When they received the medicinal honey water for free, they immediately inserted a straw and drank it.

Putting aside the effects, under the attributes of texture +2 and delicacy +2, these tourists were clearly attracted to the taste.

"Isn't this medicinal honey too delicious? I thought medicinal honey was bitter."

"Yes, it tastes too good."

"Not to mention the effect, just the taste alone is definitely stronger than any drink I've had in the scenic area."

"I agree! Have you noticed that after drinking this honey water, you feel slightly refreshed?"

"Indeed. I thought it was an illusion."

This was naturally the effect of relieving fatigue +2.

Apparently, whatever the effects of the medicinal honey, these tourists had been drawn to its deliciousness.

Then, a tourist thought of something and took out his phone to take a photo of the medicinal honey water in his hand. "I've successfully checked in. I received the free medicinal honey water from Qinglin Villa. I just drank it. I don't know how effective it is, but the taste is absolutely perfect. It's too delicious."

The other tourists also reacted and took out their phones to take videos. They all said that it was delicious and that they were intoxicated because it was easy to ride on the popularity of Qinglin Villa now.

If it wasn't to gain popularity, they wouldn't be the first to rush over.

Indeed, Qinglin Villa was still under the heat of blowing up the traffic pool. Tourists swarmed to post videos, and there were always people who could ride on the popularity.

As more tourists arrived, there were more such videos.

The already hot medicinal honey water attracted attention again.

"F*ck, do I need to be so intoxicated?"

"Is it that good?"

"Don't tell me I've misunderstood? Medicinal honey isn't the medicinal smell I imagined."

"..."

...

On the train, Zhao Qianqian frowned at the view.

She didn't look too good. Anyone who was constipated wouldn't feel very comfortable either.

She clearly wanted to defecate, but she couldn't.

She wanted to go to the hospital, but she thought it was a waste of time to register. She thought of what her best friend had said about constipation. The doctor had even suggested that she do a colonoscopy. She wasn't in the mood to go to the hospital and just found a neighborhood clinic to take a look first.

The clinic doctor prescribed medication and suggested a little honey water.

She also went online to check. The honey water did have some effect on constipation, but it didn't have much effect when she drank it yesterday. Therefore, when she saw the medicinal honey water in Qinglin Villa last night, she took the train from the city early in the morning.

She scrolled through Douyin in the car and quickly saw the video of Qinglin Villa's medicinal honey water released by the tourists. However, if these tourists wanted to ride on the popularity, so be it. Did they need to describe it so well?

It was as if no one else had drunk medicinal honey before.

Soon.

The car arrived at Youcheng Station.

Zhao Qianqian left the train station and got into a taxi at the taxi stand.

"Miss, are we going to Qinglin Villa?" the driver asked as soon as she got into the car.

"How did you know, Master?" Zhao Qianqian was surprised.

The driver explained with a smile, "There's been a lot of moving cars recently. Girls like you who don't bring any luggage and only carry a bag usually go to Qinglin Villa. Most of the time, we can drag someone to the villa and bring someone back to the station. We don't have empty cars. Now, we earn much more than before."

"In the past, we used to compete with online cabs for customers. Now, we're too lazy to do so. During rush hour, we can't even finish taking orders from Qinglin Villa."

Zhao Qianqian was surprised. A villa scenic spot had improved the conflict between Youcheng County taxis and online taxis?

However, she did not know that this was only one aspect of the influence that Qinglin Villa had on Youcheng County.

When she got out of the car at Qinglin Villa, Zhao Qianqian realized that there were already many people in the villa.

Inside, she also saw the sales center mentioned in the villa video last night.

Zhao Qianqian followed the signs to the sales hall of the Sea of Flowers tickets. After buying the tickets, she went back to the sales center.

The busboy wasn't surprised, either. Today's customers had been drawn to the honey water.

Zhao Qianqian quickly lined up at the end of a line, and surprised voices kept coming from inside.

“It was really good. I drank half a glass and I felt much better.”

“I’ve never tasted honey water so good.”

“Indeed. The taste is truly amazing.”

“...”

Zhao Qianqian looked at those people and did not see any pretense at all. They were all revealing their true feelings.

One or two of them might be fake, but all of them expressed that the medicinal honey water in the villa was really delicious.

Zhao Qianqian was looking forward to it. No matter how effective the honey water was for constipation, it should taste good.

After some time in the queue, it was finally Zhao Qianqian’s turn. She used her ticket to collect a cup for free and couldn’t wait to insert the straw. She had only taken a few sips when her eyes lit up.

It was really good.

Miraculously, it was always difficult to travel by train and taxi all the way, but after drinking the honey water, she felt inexplicably more energetic.

This medicinal honey water was a little expensive, but with this smell, if it could still be effective for constipation, it would definitely be worth it.

Zhao Qianqian walked towards the Sea of Flowers. As she drank the honey water and checked her ticket, she entered the Sea of Flowers and realized that the tourists around her were also discussing the medicinal honey water in their hands.

After entering the Sea of Flowers, Zhao Qianqian’s mood improved.

As they walked, the beautiful scenery intoxicated her, and she forgot her constipated anxiety.

Especially when she reached the Triangular Sea of Plum Blossoms in the middle, the beautiful scenery and cute squirrels made her feel good. She couldn’t help but take out her phone to take a selfie.

Zhao Qianqian only left the Sea of Flowers after satisfying her desire to take selfies. However, the moment she left, she felt a sense of discharge. This made her immediately head to the toilet in the villa.

Zhao Qianqian immediately ran into the female toilet and found a cubicle to close the door. Then, a comfortable voice sounded.

A moment later, she emerged, beaming.

It actually worked.

But when she came out, she was dumbfounded.

There was actually a queue outside the toilet.

Fortunately, she wasn't suffering from diarrhea. Otherwise, with so many people queuing up, that scene...

However, this medicinal honey water actually worked.

She couldn't resist taking out her phone to take a video. She had to tell everyone that the medicinal honey water was effective and share it with the other constipated sufferers.

Chapter 73: You Can't Get Involved! Astonished Chen Li!

Qinglin Villa became popular again. If it was because of the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea's popularity before, it was because of the constipation topic this time.

After the announcement of the special medicinal honey water at Qinglin Villa, the price and effect of this medicinal honey water had already caused a sensation online.

The price could be said to be very expensive.

At first, many people thought that even if it was a scenic area, the price of the medicinal honey water was too exaggerated.

However, after that certified medical professor became popularized, everyone finally knew what medicinal honey was. What they were conflicted about was not the price but whether the medicinal honey was real or fake.

If it really was medicinal honey, there was no doubt about the price.

And now, there was no doubt that Douyin had been flooded by Qinglin Villa again a few hours ago.

He could almost see the video about the medicinal honey water in Qinglin Villa with just a few videos. Almost all the tourists who went were praising the medicinal honey water.

In addition, the effect of treating constipation had been confirmed. The video of the long line outside the toilet explained everything.

That scene was really...

This was what amazed people. This was really the effect.

It had to be known that the best aloe capsules and laxative capsules in the world would take about six hours to take effect according to one's physique.

However, drinking this medicinal honey water for less than two hours was definitely effective.

Therefore, no one questioned the price of medicinal honey water anymore. What they were conflicted about was how to drink it. After all, the medicinal honey water was limited, and Qinglin Villa also had a limited supply.

For a moment, many people on the Internet said that they had a channel or source of medicinal honey water. As for whether it was true or not, no one knew.

...

In Qinglin Villa, two wonders could be seen today. One was the long line in the front row of the sales center, and the other was the long line in front of the toilet.

When Chen Li arrived, he was stunned by this scene. He said to the young man beside him, “Zhong Lei, it seems that we don’t have to worry about how to maintain the popularity of Qinglin Villa for the time being.”

Zhong Lei smiled and said, “The heat of this medicinal honey water is too hot now. There are even bored people who want to do a Youcheng County public toilet strategy. Don’t make things difficult for the toilet in the villa.”

Chen Li smiled knowingly when he heard this. This meant that the villa had become popular again. It was a good thing.

Yesterday, in addition to the approval of the Qinglin Villa Support Fund, the county also made a data report. Because of the tourists from Qinglin Villa, Youcheng County had already been affected in many aspects.

Especially hotels, snack bars, car trips, and so on.

Naturally, there were also some problems. For example, traffic. The exit of the villa was located at the intersection of Sand City, the city, and Youcheng County. Now that online taxis and taxis were converging there, it was easy to get into accidents.

Therefore, while the approval was given to the villa, the county was also hesitating about whether to build a special passage from Youcheng County to Qinglin Villa. They even asked the bus company to add more shifts for this route.

Given the current popularity of the villa, this was necessary. It would be of great benefit to both Youcheng County and the villa.

Chen Li was not in a hurry to find Qin Lin. Instead, he brought Zhong Lei to the sales center. Apart from the support fund, they also wanted to see the sales center.

This sales center was already the size of a medium-sized supermarket.

They entered the sales center, which was divided into areas. There were vegetable areas, fruit areas, and seafood areas. There were already some tourists choosing ingredients to cook for themselves at the mountain villa at noon.

A special-quality product area did attract his attention. And there were clearly more tourists in the area.

Chen Li walked over to take a look and realized that there were actually introduction cards erected in this area that introduced those products.

“Special variety of okra, a specially cultivated okra. It has more beneficial effects than the ordinary okra on the market... It has a stronger effect on the lactation, general circulation, and filling of the kidneys. It costs 15 yuan per catty!”

This was naturally a Quality 1 okra.

A couple of tourists were already there, selecting okra.

“The Internet says that the special variety of okra in this villa is very effective. It’s not easy for me to take time off to play. I’ll make you more.”

“It’s a pity that the villa doesn’t serve the kind that costs 400 yuan a catty anymore. Otherwise, I would have to take a leave of absence to play.”

The male tourist looked at his date suggestively as he spoke.

Chen Li led his men to look at the other products in the special products area. There were also introduction cards.

The sales center was already starting to take shape.

It was just that most of the areas were empty. For now, with more than 1,500 customers, these things were a little small.

“Let’s go see Boss Qin!” Chen Li said and left the sales center. When he saw Qin Lin in the hall, he said with a smile, “Boss Qin, congratulations. The villa has successfully launched another consumer project.”

“Chief Chen, sit here!” Qin Lin immediately shook hands with Chen Li. He didn’t forget to instruct Chen Dabei, “Make two cups of medicinal honey water and cut a special watermelon.”

After Chen Li sat down, he handed a document to Qin Lin and said, “Boss Qin, I’m here today to tell you a piece of good news. The support fund has been approved by the county. Moreover, the project has already been contacted. After the contract is signed, the project can be developed as quickly as possible. Take a look at the information contract.”

Qin Lin nodded and took the contract. Just as he was about to look at it, Chen Dabei also came over with watermelon and two cups of medicinal honey.

Qin Lin immediately introduced, “Chief Chen, try this villa’s special watermelon and this medicinal honey water.”

Chen Li did not stand on ceremony. He picked up the medicinal honey water and inserted the straw.

It was also his duty to inspect the consumer projects in the scenic area. He had to try it out so that he could answer questions about this in the future.

After taking a few big gulps, Chen Li said sincerely, “Boss Qin, I finally know why your medicinal honey water became popular. This taste is really good. Coupled with the special effects, there’s no reason it won’t become popular.”

Zhong Lei nodded in agreement. After drinking it, he realized that the rumors online were not exaggerated.

Unfortunately, the price of this medicinal honey was too expensive and the production was small. Their tourism bureau had also done an investigation last night and could buy some medicinal honey regularly. However, there was not enough traffic and fame. This project really could not be as easy to get as Qinglin Villa.

The key was that Qinglin Villa had succeeded, so there was no need for them to do anything else. Otherwise, if there was an internal conflict, it would be detrimental to Youcheng County.

The two of them picked up the watermelon and ate it again. Then, they looked at each other.

Watermelons were probably one of the fruits that everyone came into contact with the most. Many fruit farmers in Youcheng County planted watermelons every year, but the key was that these watermelons were really too delicious, right?

It was difficult for them to describe the taste. One thing was certain, they had never eaten such delicious watermelons.

Chen Li sighed and said, "No wonder it costs 100 yuan a catty. This taste is really amazing. Boss Qin, where did you get this melon?"

When Qin Lin heard this question, it was really difficult to explain.

This was a game product, so he definitely couldn't say it.

Moreover, sooner or later, someone would ask this question and it would be noticed. Fortunately, he had a solution. He smiled and said, "Director Chen, this is a new variety of melon. It's still being cultivated for the time being. Therefore, the villa can't supply it now. If this watermelon seed can be cultivated, not only will the villa be able to supply it in large quantities, but even the people in the county should be able to grow this watermelon."

Didn't he specifically try to plant game seeds to deal with this situation?

If the county knew that he could really cultivate a game watermelon seed, they would probably ask if the watermelon could be promoted to the entire county. How much benefit would that be for the entire county?

When Chen Li heard Qin Lin's words, he did not think too much about it and did not probe further.

Then it would be impolite. It might give the other party a particularly bad impression. It would not be conducive to further cooperation.

However, he felt that there was something special about Boss Qin's words.

Chapter 74: The Difference Between Eating Alone and Being the Leader! Chen Li's Request!

Chen Li quickly returned to the topic. "Boss Qin, let's get down to business. Look at the terms of the support fund agreement."

Qin Lin nodded and took the document from Chen Li.

The terms of the contract agreement plus the information and additional introductions were more than a dozen pages long.

After taking a look at the terms, the results were the same as in the previous discussion. The county supported the expansion of the villa, the bridal chamber, and the 100 acres of a comprehensive sea of flowers. The total support fund reached more than 23 million yuan.

When the time came, the villa would especially apply for a bank card. The funds would be placed in this card and the people from the county's Financial Bureau would monitor every expenditure.

After the project was developed, the income from the three projects would be returned interest-free. After the support fund was repaid, all the profits of the project would go to the villa.

In addition, there was an additional fund of 10 million yuan. It was the fund for the ecological park development of the mountain where the river flowed past.

It had nothing to do with his villa. The county had invested in it. It was sort of the county's official property.

The reason why it was added was to liaise with the villa's drift project. It was because of this project that the county wanted to develop this ecological park.

For example, you need a special car to send drifting tourists up the mountain, right?

Then, the county would build an ecological park scenic area and build a sightseeing train that would go straight to the drifting point. Many people would probably be willing to buy tickets and take the sightseeing train up the mountain.

This project would definitely make money because it was to contact the villa. This project would give the villa a dividend.

In addition, the county could organize people to sell Youcheng County specialties at the floating-point, or sell swimming rings, swimming trunks, sunglasses, and so on.

As long as there was a lot of traffic, there would be a lot of benefits.

Naturally, Qinglin Villa could also do these things, but he had no intention of doing so. It was impossible for a person to earn all the money alone.

If a person insisted on earning all the money, they would only be met with envy. If they could earn a large sum of money themselves and let others earn money as well, they would have many followers.

On the surface, this additional clause meant that the county had taken the mountain villa tourist bonus, but Qin Lin knew that there were many hidden benefits for him.

If he did it well and the results were visible to the naked eye, at least no one in Youcheng County could cause trouble for his villa.

He didn't even need to do anything about that woman's unreasonable behavior last time. The county would settle such matters and give him a platform.

As for some people, they would definitely be worried that there would be some twists and turns in their cooperation.

But most people believed in this country that had always protected them and allowed them to have a peaceful life that the entire world envied.

Even if there was an individual problem, it was someone else's.

Moreover, this was the Internet era. Sometimes, one really wasn't afraid of others.

In the Internet era, how many people lived in fear? They were afraid that their families would make them suffer if they said anything wrong.

The Internet age had given birth to many bad things, and just as many good things.

"Boss Qin, you can consult the relevant lawyer about this contract. After confirming that there are no problems, we can go to the county to sign the contract. If there are any other doubts, we can also hold a meeting as soon as possible to make adjustments." Chen Li saw Qin Lin looking at the contract and took the initiative to remind him.

He took this cooperation very seriously. He also wanted both sides to proceed in harmony and not leave any loose ends. After all, they stood on different sides. If they felt it was reasonable, the other party might not feel it was reasonable.

Qin Lin nodded.

He was not a law student. Although he felt there was nothing wrong with the contract, it never hurt to be cautious.

Since Chen Li had mentioned it, he opened WeChat and took a photo of the contract to a senior from the law department. "Senior Brother Chu, please take a look at this contract."

He had met this Senior Chu in the university club and had a good relationship with him. When he confessed to his girlfriend, he had even brought the club members to help set up the scene.

At that time, the scene was so romantic that even Zhao Moqing was envious.

Senior Brother Chu entered the famous Quanjing Law Firm as soon as he graduated. In the end, he even successfully stayed in Quanjing Law Firm. It was very impressive.

After sending the photo, he transferred another 3,000 yuan. This was the other party's two-hour consultation fee.

A moment later, the other party sent an OK gesture, followed by a surprised message. "Qin Lin, you're good. Do you own Qinglin Villa? I knew there was something wrong with this name. Qin Lin, Zhao Moqing, I see."

"Senior Brother Chu, come and play when you're free," Qin Lin replied again.

"OK, definitely!"

Chen Li knew that things wouldn't happen overnight, so he suggested to Qin Lin, "Boss Qin, let's go take a look at that river when we have time? As a field research project?"

"Alright, let's take a walk." Qin Lin did not refuse and followed Chen Li and the other two out of the hall.

Chen Dabei also followed with two security guards.

The people and bosses in this county had to be taken good care of when they went out. Nothing must go wrong.

The river that was to be developed was less than ten minutes away from the villa. It was also connected to the reservoir. To be precise, the river originally merged into the Central Lake. This reservoir was built later and became the intersection point.

At that time, the end of the rafting would be next to the reservoir, and this road had to be specially renovated. A fence would be built, and the beautiful gravel road would be planted with vines and flowers.

At the foot of the mountain near the reservoir, Qin Lin was about to take a look with Chen Li when he saw three people working by the reservoir, carrying fish on a small boat.

When he saw one of them, he was stunned. Wasn't that Liu Hua, who had come with Zhao Moqing's brother and sister-in-law and asked him where he caught fish?

This guy really came to catch fish?

Qin Lin sighed inwardly. This person really believed him.

Liu Hua was also very embarrassed to see Qin Lin. After all, he knew that what he had done was quite embarrassing. However, once the temptation of 650,000 yuan was aroused, it was not so easy to resist.

He bowed his head in silence and urged his two friends to get on board, intending to enter the area where the reservoir and the lake were linked to place the fuel.

As long as he caught one of those wild ornamental fish, he could immediately change to another car.

Qin Lin did not care about them and followed Chen Li into the mountains.

The two of them talked a lot along the way, about tourist issues. They had a lot in common.

He felt that many of Chen Li's suggestions made sense. The other party must have done some research on Youcheng County's tourism development.

As they chatted, Chen Li suddenly said in embarrassment, "Boss Qin, actually, I have a very difficult request to make today. I hope you can help."

"Chief Chen, what is it that requires you to use the word 'request'?" Qin Lin asked curiously.

This matter should have nothing to do with fund support. Otherwise, it would have been added to the contract terms.

Moreover, since Chen Li had spoken, it should be something he could do.

Chapter 75: It Has Just Begun! Chen Li is Stunned!

Chen Li explained, "The purpose of the county's Global Tourism+ Plan is to promote the development of other industries through tourism. However, no matter how hard the county works, there are always some aspects that they can't take care of. For example, there are still a lot of stagnant agricultural products."

"Aren't many places holding official live broadcasts to help farmers these days? Even many small local county heads have personally appeared."

“The county wanted to try it, too. First came the task of offering 4,000 catties of honey. Unfortunately, that task fell to me.”

“Isn’t it just nice that your villa’s medicinal honey is famous? I want you to help use the villa’s self-media official to promote it on Douyin.”

“Boss Qin, don’t worry. The honey is carefully cultivated. There’s no problem with the quality. I can guarantee that.”

“Alright, I’ll go back and arrange it.” Qin Lin did not expect Chen Li to talk about this.

It was not uncommon for live streams to carry goods.

This industry also made a group of people rich. It also made it easier for the common people to shop. There was one more option.

However, the new student industry was also in chaos. There were all kinds of fake goods and tricks, and there was no way to guarantee quality.

As for being able to buy real or fake goods, that could only depend on the conscience of the person carrying the goods. But how much was conscience worth to many people? Cold water could be sold as bird’s nest.

But now, more and more officials were joining in to increase their credibility. He believed that the industry would soon be reorganized. Hadn’t that Internet celebrity just been criticized by the officials?

That was the clear signal. Some people were going to start suffering.

Now that the county was going to carry out this aspect, he would naturally support it. At the very least, there would definitely be no problem with the quality.

It was impossible for the county to roll over on this little matter and affect the grand plan of all-domain tourism+.

...

Time passed.

When Qin Lin accompanied Chen Li back to the villa, he also received a message from Senior Brother Chu. “Qin Lin, there’s basically no problem with the terms of this contract. It’s just that on the additional terms, Youcheng County clearly wants to take your tourist dividend. However, I suggest that you don’t dwell on this matter. This is also beneficial to you. Sometimes, it’s not a bad thing to lose some benefits.”

Qin Lin was relieved to see the reply. Therefore, when he returned to the hall, he said to Chen Li, “Chief Chen, there’s no problem with the terms of the contract.”

Chen Li also made an invitation. “Then let’s go to the county to sign the contract together so that we can make a public announcement and start work quickly?”

The approval of such a large support fund was not something that he could just sign with the villa. Not only did he have to be supervised by the relevant departments, but he also had to leave a background for the government to make an official announcement.

Qin Lin also knew this and did not refuse. He followed Chen Li back to the Tourism Bureau.

The process took another hour to sign the contract.

When they returned to the villa, Qin Lin also found Zhao Moqing and told him about the county's live broadcast.

Zhao Moqing nodded. "I understand. I'll send a video to the county's live broadcast room on time."

Night came quickly.

In the Tourist Bureau.

Chen Li was already sitting nervously in front of the live broadcast phone that had been prepared. This was his first time doing something like this. For this, he had even invited an eloquent female reporter from Youcheng County TV Station to be the host.

The live stream quickly opened. Although the county's official channel had already done some publicity, there weren't many people in the live stream at first. There were less than 100 people, and most of them were from Youcheng County.

How could they sell 4,000 catties with so few people?

For a moment, Chen Li felt that the task in the live stream was difficult. He immediately glanced at Zhong Lei.

Zhong Lei understood and took out his phone to send a message to President Qin of Qinglin Villa.

In Qinglin Villa.

After Qin Lin received the news, he asked Zhao Moqing to send out the video she had prepared.

"I have good news for all of you. The Youcheng County Official Tourism Bureau is assisting the bee farmers tonight. They have carefully cultivated premium honey for all of you. The quality is absolutely guaranteed. It's cheap at 45 yuan a catty."

There was also a link below the live stream.

The popularity of medicinal honey water was still high. It had been refreshing the screen continuously today. When they suddenly saw this announcement, everyone was attracted.

Honey was actually a very popular product. Many people liked it, but the key was that there were too many fake goods. No one dared to buy it online. Therefore, many people who wanted to buy it were conflicted and could not sell it.

If it was an official sale, it would definitely be credible.

Moreover, the authenticity of the medicine in Qinglin Villa also increased this credibility.

“Just in time to buy honey. I’ll go and have a look!”

“I don’t usually buy honey online. Too many fakes.”

“I’m sure there’s nothing fake about Youcheng County Tourist Board bringing goods.”

“...”

The video became popular, and more and more people saw the additional link to enter Chen Li’s live stream.

A moment later, Chen Li’s live stream was filled with comments from the party. There were more and more comments.

“Watch the tourist board bring the goods up close!”

“The anchor seems nervous!”

“...”

Chen Li could naturally see the rapidly increasing number of viewers.

Boss Qin’s help was indeed effective.

The female reporter who was acting as the host watched in surprise as the number of viewers increased. Soon, there were more than a thousand people, and the number was still increasing.

She had done live broadcasts on television before and knew very well how difficult it was to increase the audience. In addition to the fan base, there was also the official popularity.

Qinglin Villa was really popular.

How enviable.

However, she also knew her mission tonight. She began to shout into the camera, “Hello, everyone. This is the official farming operation of Youcheng County. Today, the live broadcast room has prepared 4,000 catties of high-quality honey. The quality is guaranteed by the officials of Youcheng County. There are many uses for honey. For example... let’s link up first...”

Zhong Lei and his colleagues were already prepared. After the female reporter said that she wanted to link up, they immediately posted the link to the honey backstage.

Almost at the same time, some viewers had already started to click on the link. The official guaranteed quality of the cultivated honey was really not expensive at 45 yuan a catty. While guaranteeing that it was the real thing, many people would definitely choose to buy it.

“Next, we would like to invite Chief Chen of our Youcheng County Tourism Bureau to introduce to you the cultivation technology and characteristics of our Youcheng County Honey,” the female reporter added before giving the camera to Chen Li.

“Hello, everyone. I’m...” For the first time, Chen Li spoke with trepidation.

He didn't want to screw up this mission, either. The expectant looks from the bee farmers were still fresh in his mind.

But as soon as he opened his mouth, an exclamation interrupted him. "It's sold out!"

"What sale..." Zhong Lei frowned and looked at his colleague beside him. When he saw the backstage data, he was shocked. "It's really sold out."

"What??" Chen Li was dumbfounded when he heard this.

What happened?

He had not even introduced himself, but 4,000 catties were sold out?

What happened to it being a difficult task?

The female reporter beside him secretly glanced at the number of people in the live stream. In that short period of time, the number of people in the live stream had reached an astonishing 15,000+.

Wasn't the popularity of Qinglin Villa too terrifying?

At this moment...

The audience in the live stream also discovered that the honey on the link had been sold out. Coupled with Zhong Lei's voice entering the live stream, the entire live stream became lively and dense comments floated past.

"6666. It was only on the link and it's gone."

"I've only just tapped the screen, and I've already discovered that it's sold out. I don't feel the least bit involved."

"Haha, Chief Chen is as stunned as I am."

"4,000 catties. The chief looks down on everyone."

Chapter 76: Unable to React! Limited Consumption!

Chen Li was indeed stunned. He opened his mouth and looked at the long speech on the table, not knowing what to say.

The county also knew the power of the Internet and wanted to use a more positive method to open up sales for some of the county's slow-moving products.

He had prepared 4,000 catties of honey this time. He had thought that even with the heat of Qinglin Villa, it would take a long time to sell the products at night, so he had prepared a long speech.

But he had never expected that the 4,000 catties of honey would be sold out so soon. His prepared speech had not come in handy at all.

"That... is really surprising. Let me introduce everyone to Youcheng County's honey farming..." Chen Li could only speak to the audience in the live broadcast room awkwardly. After finally introducing himself, he finally couldn't take it anymore and said, "Then, this live broadcast is over. Thank you, everyone, for your support of our Youcheng County's products."

On the other side, Zhong Lei turned off the live broadcast after receiving the signal.

Only then did Chen Li stand up with a sigh of relief. He took a piece of paper and wiped the sweat off his forehead. "Fortunately, I held back just now. I can't do it anymore."

Zhong Lei also stepped forward with a smile and said, "Chief Chen, it's not just you. We also didn't react in time."

Chen Li nodded and said, "This has also allowed us to see the network power of this information society. If we make good use of it, it can completely benefit the people. In addition, follow this batch of honey closely. We can't have any problems with the quality. Our Youcheng County can't afford to lose face. If anything goes wrong, the county won't let us off."

Then, he said to Zhong Lei, "By the way, there are already a lot of customers in Qinglin Villa. To prevent any accidents, write an application for Qinglin Villa to set up a scenic patrol officer. I'll submit it to the county."

"Okay!" Zhong Lei replied. He knew that if the live broadcast results were given to the county, the scenic patrol officers would definitely set up.

...

In the villa.

.....

Qin Lin also ended the day's statistics. Today, the villa's turnover had maintained at 250,000 yuan. However, after the medicinal honey water was officially sold tomorrow, the turnover would break another new high.

"Qin Lin, the county's live broadcast is trending!" Zhao Moqing walked up to Qin Lin with his phone and said in surprise.

"That's good. At least we helped." Qin Lin nodded and asked, "How many cattles of honey have they sold?"

"See for yourself!" Zhao Moqing handed the phone to Qin Lin with an inexplicable smile.

Qin Lin took his phone and saw a video. The title stunned him for a moment: Youcheng County's official support, Bee Farmer Live Stream. Before the director of the Tourism Bureau could organize his words, it was sold out. The director was stunned.

"Uh, it was sold out in an instant?" Qin Lin asked in surprise.

Zhao Moqing nodded and said, "I've been watching the live broadcast. It was sold out as soon as it was connected."

"..." Qin Lin was abnormally surprised.

Moreover, this video was already popular. The comments section was even more exciting.

“Host: Uplink. Chief Chen, please speak. Alright, it’s sold out. You can turn off the live broadcast.”

“Chief Chen: The product we brought today is honey... Secretary: Director, the honey was sold out when you spoke!”

“Chief Chen: I’ve been preparing my speech for two hours, but I’ve only said one sentence, and the stock is sold out.”

“Next time, give them some face and let them have some room to play.”

“...”

“Chief Chen’s confused face is going to be an emoji.” Qin Lin couldn’t help but laugh when he saw these comments.

Even through the screen, he could imagine how stunned Chief Chen must have been.

Time passed.

After a night of fermentation, the county’s farm assistant’s live broadcast became even more popular the next day. Naturally, there was also the medicinal honey water.

Qin Lin moved all the items from the game to the villa and went to the sales area of the sales center. Three girls in work clothes had already arrived and were waiting.

These three girls were newly recruited. Gao Yaoyao brought them to familiarize themselves with the villa and helped them get used to the work there in a day or two.

“Boss!” The three girls shouted in unison when they saw Qin Lin.

Qin Lin nodded at the three girls. After a free trial drink yesterday, the taste and effect of the medicinal honey water had been confirmed. No one would question it. Today, it would depend on the sales.

90 catties of honey could be soaked in 1,500 large cups of medicinal honey water. In total, it could earn nearly 150,000 yuan.

After that, Qin Lin returned to the hall and called Chen Dabei into the back.

The large shed that he had instructed to deal with had already been built. It was going to be used to plant ordinary watermelon seeds.

He and Chen Dabei took the hoe and turned over the ground in the greenhouse. Then, they planted ordinary watermelon seeds and pollinated the seeds during the flowering period.

Watermelons were too short in bloom.

Besides, the two varieties had different flowering periods and had to be carefully calculated.

At that time, after the new quality 2 watermelon seeds grew, they would also need to use colchicine to change their chromosomes and become multiples again.

The description was simple, but the process was complex, even dull.

Chen Dabei didn't know what his boss was doing. He didn't seem to need to grow watermelons himself, but he knew that as a security captain, he had to do whatever his boss ordered him to do. He didn't ask or inquire.

The greenhouse wasn't big and the two of them quickly finished rummaging through it. Just as they were about to take a break, Gao Yaoyao ran in and reported, "Boss, the medicinal honey water has been sold out."

"So soon?" Qin Lin was surprised.

There were only 1,500 customers a day, but the medicinal honey was sold out before the morning was over?

"Are the tickets for the Sea of Flowers sold out today?" Qin Lin asked again.

Gao Yaoyao explained, "Many people came to the villa early this morning. The first thing they did was to go to the sales center to buy medicinal honey water. Some people even bought many cups at once. After buying them, they didn't stay any longer and left directly. They should be from Youcheng County. They came specially for the medicinal honey water. Now, the tourists can't buy it even if they want to. Many people are complaining."

Qin Lin frowned slightly.

He did not expect the medicinal honey water to sell so quickly, but on second thought, it was normal. Medicinal honey water was very popular, and there were people who specially bought it to take videos and clock in.

What was the point of buying 10 glasses at once? It was probably to make a video and gain more popularity.

This was a deformed consumption. It was probably why the first cup of milk tea in autumn had appeared.

Once it was autumn, the entire circle of friends would be showing off their milk tea. It was as if they would fall behind if they did not show off. It directly promoted the consumption of milk tea.

Gao Yaoyao continued, "Boss, are we going to take out the medicinal honey in our inventory and continue selling it?"

He had kept the 90 catties of honey in stock for emergencies. He had not intended to take it all out.

"Take out another 20 catties!" Qin Lin thought for a moment and said, "Moreover, if they want to buy medicinal honey water now, they have to use the Sea of Flower's tickets or the villa's 50-yuan receipt to buy a cup. If they have both, they can buy two cups."

Since there was such a phenomenon, he naturally had to think for the tourists. He might as well do a bundle sale. Moreover, the conditions were not harsh. Basically, all the tourists exceeded this standard.

This kind of bondage sales was often criticized.

However, there were some exceptions. They were limited in quantity and precious.

Not only would such restrictions not be criticized, but they could also be upgraded.

His medicinal honey water belonged to this category.

Chapter 77: The Support Fund Is Received!

“Boss, there’s one more thing,” Gao Yaoyao reported. “Many tourists asked about honey today and wanted to buy some ordinary Youcheng County honey. They said that they didn’t manage to buy it yesterday.”

“Got it. I’ll deal with this later.” Qin Lin nodded.

This meant that the county’s farm assistant live broadcast last night had made a name for itself.

Qin Lin returned to the hall and saw Zhao Moqing teaching Lin Fen how to use the computer at the bar.

In the end, Lin Fen got her wish and was responsible for the registration of the goods. Therefore, she was very curious about how to use the computer.

Actually, many old people were like this. They felt that if they could do something to help their children, they would still be useful. They would feel an indescribable sense of accomplishment.

Unfortunately, many young people did not understand this kind of mentality.

Qin Lin could only follow his mother’s wishes. He secretly instructed Zhao Moqing to check on his mother when she was free to prevent any mistakes.

It was not that he was afraid that there would be many losses. After all, there were still bills. If they were wrong, he could just redo them.

He was worried that his mother would blame herself and affect her mood if something went wrong.

The mother-in-law and daughter-in-law chatted seriously in front of the computer. Wang Cai was thrown aside and paced around their feet. From time to time, it would look at the computer as if it had been excluded.

It ignored the cashier girl at the bar who wanted to play with it.

Qin Lin walked into the bar and played with Wang Cai. He saw Chen Li bringing three people to the villa. One of them was his secretary, Zhong Lei. The other was a man in a suit and the other was a middle-aged woman.

“Chief Chen, congratulations on a successful live broadcast last night.” Qin Lin immediately walked out of the bar and walked forward with a smile.

Chen Li shook his head and said, “Boss Qin, just watch me make a fool of myself. I’ve already been made into a meme online.”

The man in the suit and the middle-aged woman could not help but smile when they heard this. The two of them also knew about the county’s farm assistant live broadcast last night. They could imagine how awkward Chief Chen was at that time.

“That means you’re famous, Chief Chen. Isn’t this better for the future farmers’ live broadcast?” Qin Lin smiled and led the group to a table to sit down.

Chen Li’s mood improved a lot when he heard Qin Lin’s words. After sitting down, he said, “Boss Qin, I actually came here today for two things. The first is to thank you first. The live broadcast last night was very effective, and Youcheng County Honey has also gained some fame.”

Qin Lin said, “Chief Chen, let me tell you something about the honey. Many tourists want to buy honey today. It seems that it’s time for my sales center to buy a batch of honey. It’s just that the quality of the goods is hard to guarantee.”

“Boss Qin, this is a good thing. Don’t worry about the quality of the goods. I’ll arrange it.” Chen Li was naturally happy to see such a win-win situation and immediately guaranteed.

That was Qin Lin’s goal. He smiled and said, “Then I’m relieved.”

Chen Li continued, “Boss Qin Lin, let’s talk about something else. The county’s support fund will arrive at your villa in the afternoon. I’ll also introduce these two to you.”

“This lady is Section Chief Hu of the Finance Bureau. This is President Sun of Youcheng First Construction Company. Youcheng First Construction Company will be in charge of the construction of the project and will send the best engineering team to complete the project in the shortest time possible.”

Qin Lin nodded and greeted the two of them.

Chief Hu was in charge of reviewing and supervising this support fund.

This was also a necessary monitoring procedure under the relevant regulations.

Youcheng First Construction Engineering Company could be considered to have an official background. They were in charge of official demolition projects and road projects. Previously, when the county said that they would help contact the engineering company, he had guessed that it would be this company.

“Hello, Boss Qin.” Chief Hu shook hands with Qin Lin.

“Boss Qin, don’t worry. We will do our best in the villa project. We definitely won’t embarrass ourselves in front of the tourists.” When President Sun shook hands with Qin Lin, he made a promise. He had seen Sun Xian before he came and knew the significance of this villa project, so he naturally didn’t dare to neglect it.

Besides, he was more afraid that something would go wrong. In this age of the Internet, with so many tourists, it would be a huge problem to take a video and upload it online. The small things would be magnified tenfold. He couldn’t handle it.

Honestly, he was under a lot of pressure to take on this project.

Seeing that everyone was chatting, Zhao Moqing personally made four cups of honey water at the bar and asked the waiter to send them up.

She didn’t join in the fun herself. She knew that Qin Lin and the others were definitely going to talk business.

Seeing that four cups of honey water were served, Qin Lin also introduced, "Chief Hu, President Sun, this is our villa's new medicinal honey water. Try it."

After drinking the medicinal honey water, Chen Li also said to the two of them, "This medicinal honey water tastes really good. Qinglin Villa is very popular now."

Chief Hu smiled and said, "Then we really have to try it. Yesterday, my daughter was talking about this medicinal honey water."

President Sun picked it up and started drinking.

After a few mouthfuls of the medicinal honey water, his eyes lit up.

Chief Hu said, "This tastes really good."

President Sun: "Chief Hu, even if it's not good, it won't make so many tourists like it."

Chen Li casually added, "Boss Qin has a lot of good stuff. For example, that special watermelon is still in the cultivation stage. Only Boss Qin has it in Youcheng County."

Qin Lin smiled inexplicably when he heard this.

Although Chief Chen had said this casually, it would be different after the news spread. Then, everyone would have a consensus and it would become an established fact.

This was equivalent to official recognition of him. When he really cultivated the seeds, the rest would be much easier.

After that, Qin Lin and Chen Li discussed many more details.

President Sun asked about his needs and style. When the time came, he would get a design plan.

Qin Lin naturally had his own plans for the villa and told them his requests.

As for Chief Hu, he was listening at the side.

All he had to do was supervise the use of the funds. When the time came, he would write the public announcement report. The rest was none of his business.

After chatting for about an hour, Chen Li left with his men.

After lunch.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing were accompanying Lin Fen, who was holding Wang Cai's hand when they received a notification.

Just as Chen Li had said, the money support fund had been transferred to the special card, totaling 23 million yuan.

23 million yuan was nothing to those rich people who lived in a neighborhood with a per capita population of 100 million yuan, but it was definitely a huge sum of money to the current Qin Lin. It could save him a lot of time.

At the same time, without this money, not only would he have to build it slowly, but he would also have to pay for the villa's daily income. With this money, he might have finished paying his debts at the same time and not have to spend his own money.

Therefore, without him investing, his current capital flow would become abundant.

Then some things should be done.

Such as buying a house.

Chapter 78: A Miracle Created By the Society of Marriage Through Marriage!

Regarding the house, Qin Lin had his own plans after buying the villa. After all, the villa was 500 acres. He could build a villa there according to his wishes.

However, this did not conflict with buying a house. No one stipulated that a villa could not be built in the city, right?

Besides, Zhao Moqing had already moved into his house and could no longer stay in the rented apartment. Buying a house was also his promise to his mother-in-law.

Most importantly, it was inconvenient. They had just moved in together and were at their most passionate. However, they could not do anything because of their accommodation. It was very torturous.

It took time to build a villa.

Therefore, he had to buy a house.

Seeing Qin Lin stop, Zhao Moqing asked curiously, "What's wrong?"

Qin Lin smiled and said, "Moqing, let's go buy a house!"

"Buying a house? Why did you suddenly think of this?" Zhao Moqing was stunned. Back then, she and Qin Lin had to secretly register their marriage because of a housing problem.

Qin Lin explained, "The county's support fund has arrived, and we have more funds here. Since that's the case, we have to buy the house first. It's not convenient for us to live here now."

The words "not inconvenient" clearly meant something. Zhao Moqing understood what he meant from the corners of his lips.

Why was this guy's mind so dirty?

He knew it was inconvenient, but he still insisted on touching her every night.

Lin Fen also subconsciously stopped. Excitement was obvious on her face when she heard her son's words.

Her family's house had been sold a long time ago. What she wanted most now was for her son to buy another house. No matter how much money he made now, the house was a sore point.

"When do we go?" Zhao Moqing asked.

“Now!” Qin Lin didn’t want to waste time.

Seeing that Qin Lin had decided, Zhao Moqing nodded and said to Lin Fen, “Mom, let’s go look at houses together!”

“I still have to walk Wang Cai. You and Xiao Lin can go.” Lin Fen shook her head.

She was happier than anyone else that her son wanted to buy a house, but she also knew that she had different tastes from the young people. If they went together and she could not help but give her opinions, the young couple would be conflicted again.

She might as well let the couple go by themselves. Anyway, she would be happy with whatever kind of house her son bought.

As she spoke, Lin Fen was already leading Wang Cai forward.

Now that the family was finally getting better, and her son and Mo Qing were getting along well, she didn’t want to be like her parents in a television drama.

...

The housing prices in Youcheng County were very high, but at the same time, there was no lack of people buying houses. Instead, they were very tight on sales.

It was a deformity, and a miracle created by the society that talked of marriage through housing.

Every parent had to raise money to save almost as soon as their children were born, just waiting to make a down payment on a house for their children when they got married.

Many times, parents also became one of the conditions for whether their son could find a wife and keep his love.

Otherwise, how could the younger generation afford a house in a place with an average salary of 3,000 to 4,000 yuan?

Therefore, there was no shortage of people buying houses in Youcheng County. Even the exquisite hardcover renovation of the newly built Youcheng County First Class last year had reached 25,000 yuan per square foot.

That’s right. In a small county with a per capita salary of 3,000 to 4,000 yuan, a small district with a housing price of 25,000 yuan per square meter appeared.

There were rumors that property prices were going to drop, but what they saw in Youcheng County was still madness.

In a county with an average salary of 3,000 to 4,000 yuan, most families gritted their teeth and took out more than 10,000 yuan.

A housing price of more than 20,000 yuan was something that most families could not afford even if they tightened their belts. Thus, Youcheng County First Class became a truly high-end district in Youcheng County.

While the property was expensive, it also meant that the supporting functions were better. There was an underground parking lot, a small park, a pool, a basketball court, and other facilities.

Qin Lin brought Zhao Moqing out of the villa and headed straight for Youcheng County First Class.

He planned to buy a house here. One of the reasons was that it was more comfortable to live in a high-end neighborhood. The other reason was that he had checked all the houses in Youcheng County before he got the game system. Although he couldn't afford it, he could still have desires, right?

The well-decorated boutique in Youcheng County was the Nordic minimalist style that Zhao Moqing liked.

As soon as Qin Lin brought Zhao Moqing to the sales hall of Youcheng County First Class, a salesperson in a professional suit came forward to welcome them. "Welcome, I'm Fang Xin, the salesperson. I'm very happy to serve you. We have four new residential areas for sale. May I know if you have any residential areas that you already like?"

Qin Lin said directly, "Youcheng County First Class. My wife likes simple Nordic decoration."

When Fang Xin heard Qin Lin's words, she immediately introduced, "There are still many unsold first-grade houses on the sixth floor of Youcheng County First Class. Among them, there are 90 small, 120 medium, and 160 large houses..."

Qin Lin said directly, "Is there still a 160-square-meter double balcony with a big furnished house? My wife likes to grow flowers. She can grow flowers on the balcony. With more space, we can also get her a special cloakroom."

In the past, when Qin Lin looked at houses, his favorite was the first-grade exquisite house in Youcheng County First Class. In the past, he could only rely on his imagination to buy it. Now that he had the ability, he would definitely not hesitate.

Fang Xin only felt that she was on the receiving end of a wave of the couple's public display of affection. However, selling houses was a lucrative occupation, and there was never a shortage of a couple's public display of affection.

It was rare for someone to look at a house so readily. She wondered if it would be sold in the end. A 160-square-meter boutique house was the hardest to sell. After all, Youcheng County was a small place. At 25,000 yuan per square meter, that was more than 4 million yuan. A couple with a salary of 4,000 yuan would have to work for 42 years to save up. 30% of the down payment would have to be 1.2 million yuan for nearly 13 years.

And that was assuming they didn't eat or drink.

...

Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing followed Fang Xin to the exquisite room.

It was indeed pure Nordic simplicity.

After taking a look around, one could tell that the renovation was meticulous. There was a reason why it was expensive.

Neither of the balconies was small. Besides, they faced well, and the bright floor-to-ceiling windows illuminated the entire house.

The hall and room were also comfortably furnished.

“Qin Lin, the renovation is very good.” Zhao Moqing couldn’t help but praise. She was indeed interested in such a renovation-style house.

Qin Lin could also see the joy in her eyes. She clearly liked this suite.

Buying a house was like that. Those who didn’t have money had to carefully choose their prices. They often had to look at many properties and it was difficult to meet someone considerate. When they didn’t lack money, it was always easier to meet something they liked at a glance in a high-end neighborhood.

Sometimes, you get what you pay for. Except for the unlucky ones who wanted you to pay an IQ tax.

Qin Lin immediately said, “Manager Fang, we want this house!”

“Ah... Sir, you’re buying it?” Fang Xin was instantly delighted.

She was still considering how to persuade him to set the deposit. She did not expect him to buy it so decisively.

Qin Lin nodded and said, “My wife obviously likes it, so I naturally have to buy it.”

“...” Fang Xin felt like she had just eaten another round of their public display of affection.

It was very filling indeed!

Not long after.

The three of them returned to the sales center.

Fang Xin invited the two of them to sit down. Just as she took out the contract and handed it to them, she heard a man and a woman arguing.

“Guo Zitan, what do you mean? We agreed that you wouldn’t need a betrothal gift after we registered our marriage. If you bought a house, you would write my name on it. Now that we’ve registered our marriage, you actually secretly signed the contract and only wrote your name?”

“Lin Lan, listen to me. My parents gave me this down payment. My mother didn’t agree. She was the one who insisted on signing my name.”

“Guo Zitan, you bastard! Let’s get a divorce!”

The two of them made Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing look at each other.

He could roughly guess what was going on from these simple words.

Fang Xin looked at the two of them worriedly. “Whose name will be written on the house?”

She’d been doing this for a long time, and this was the step she was most worried about. A lot of couples who were already interested blew up because of whose name they wrote in the book.

Qin Lin said without hesitation, "Write her name."

Honestly, he wasn't going to make the same mistake as the man next to him.

After all, it was common property to buy a house after registering their marriage. There was really no need to dwell on this.

Zhao Moqing immediately said, "Write our names. Our shared home is like a marriage certificate. We have to have two names."

"..." Fang Xin felt like she was a lightbulb again. This time, it was not pleasant.

Was this couple buying a house or taking turns showing off their affection?

However, the other party had decisively bought a 160-square-meter house. No matter how bad this felt, she had to swallow it slowly.

Chapter 79: Plan of the Villa! Mountain Goods of the Mount Notre Dame!

The house was settled, the contract was signed, and the down payment was made quickly. It was just that it took time to apply for a follow-up mortgage and transfer the property.

Previously, he had even booked a car. Now, he could not fork out four million yuan in one go. He could only take out a loan first.

These sales centers would also run errands. When the time came, he would just sign them. He didn't have to worry about them.

After signing the contract for such a hardcover house, he got the key first.

The furnished room had been aired for a long time. After cleaning up, they could move in directly.

After leaving the property sales center, Zhao Moqing maintained a happy expression.

Buying a house was a big deal for any woman. Having their own house was the real home for her and Qin Lin.

As soon as they returned to the villa, Lin Fen couldn't help but ask, "Lin Lin, Moqing, how's the house?"

"Mom, the contract has been signed. We can change the locks and pack up tomorrow." Zhao Moqing took Lin Fen's arm and handed the contract to her.

Clutching the contract, her face lit up with excitement. "I'll go pack with you tomorrow."

After her husband passed away, she sold her family's house and couldn't leave it for her son. Now that she saw her son buying a house, she was even more excited than Zhao Moqing.

Looking at Lin Fen's expression, Qin Lin was also very happy. He planned to let Master Lin kill a big fellow tonight and have fun with the employees of the villa.

As he was thinking about it, his phone rang. It was Ma Liewen. He had wanted to fill the membership before, but he didn't have the business, so he kept the number.

As soon as the call was picked up, Ma Liewen's voice sounded. "Boss Qin, congratulations. The medicine is popular and business is booming!"

Qin Lin smiled and said, "Mr. Ma, what can I do for you?"

Ma Liewen also said, "Boss Qin, I'll bring someone over in two days to help me get some special quality okra!"

"Alright." Qin Lin smiled and agreed.

Apart from the Quality 2 Watermelon that could be directly planted in the villa, there was no other supply of Quality 2 Watermelon. The Quality 2 okra had long been stored in the game.

...

The day passed again.

During the night, the bustling villa fell silent again.

The statistics for the new day at the villa had also been calculated. The limit was still 1,500 people and the admission fee was 75,000 yuan.

20 out of 25 Quality 2 watermelons were sold for a total of 23,000 yuan.

This was a good sign. After all, a Quality 2 watermelons cost more than 1,000 yuan. Previously, not many of them could be sold in a day.

As the villa became popular, there were obviously many more customers with high spending power. It was not like in the beginning, when the watermelons of Quality 2 were still not selling well and had to be packed up for Ma Liewen.

Quality 1 okra, yam, and broccoli came to a total of 54,775 yuan.

The medicinal honey water was sold out for a total of 145,540 yuan!

1,200 catties of Quality 1 strawberry and 68 Quality 1 watermelon were sold out for a total of 68,080 yuan.

A total of 37,880 yuan for the game's wild fish, fishing rod rental, stove, barbecue grill rental, jungle adventure, and grass-skiing projects.

There was also wholesale fruit and seafood. As the supply increased, the turnover reached 21,860 yuan.

With the addition of the medicinal honey water project, the villa's turnover today reached 426,135 yuan, breaking through 400,000 yuan and reaching a new high. Its per capita consumption reached 284 yuan, but it was still a little shabby.

However, it was very impressive to have a turnover of 400,000 yuan. Other than Qin Lin, Gao Yaoyao and the other employees were also happy.

This was because it was soon the 15th of the month. Just now, Zhao Moqing had already calculated the employees' salary last month and sent it to the employees' WeChat group so that they could check it.

The salary of the villa was the same as the previous Fuhai Villa. Besides the villa paying for their insurance, the salary was given on the 15th of the following month, which was equivalent to 15 days of salary.

Other than Gao Yaoyao's initial batch of employees, the other employees couldn't get a full month's salary. The newcomers wouldn't even get their salary until next month.

However, when they saw Gao Yaoyao and the others' salaries, the other employees were inexplicably looking forward to it. This was because the employees received a commission from some projects in the villa.

Gao Yaoyao's salary was 4,500+83 commission!

The other three waiters who worked for the entire month were paid 3,500+83.

The salary was not high, and the commission was only 83 yuan. However, it had only been two days since the official opening of the villa last month.

In other words, the 83 yuan was the villa's commission for two days. Wouldn't it be more than 1,200 yuan a month?

To Youcheng County, more than 1,200 yuan a month was definitely delightful.

"Sister Moqing, let me see this month's commission." Gao Yaoyao looked at Zhao Moqing with watery eyes. She naturally wanted to see this month's commission.

As the foreman, she naturally knew that the turnover behind the villa was increasing. The commission would definitely be higher than those two days.

"Come in and take a look. Don't do it again!" When Zhao Moqing saw this, she didn't refuse. Firstly, Gao Yaoyao was the manager and the villa had to be nurtured. It was definitely impossible if the waiter came to ask.

Secondly, she could also motivate the employees through Gao Yaoyao.

The software used to calculate salary at the villa was a company app specially customized by Qin Ren's studio. It did not have many functions.

In the current era of the Internet, this thing was not expensive. There was a special template, and the other party would make some changes according to your needs. Only Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing had the backstage management account password.

"1123, that much?" Gao Yaoyao exclaimed when she saw the commission for the past 10 days.

The number was clearly beyond her expectations. It hadn't even been half a month. Didn't that mean that she could draw more than 2,500 yuan next month?

Then her salary would be 7,000 yuan.

In Youcheng County, where the average salary was 3,000 to 4,000 yuan, 7,000 yuan was definitely a high salary. She would save 4,000 yuan a month and be able to make a down payment on a small car as a gift when she turned 20 next year.

She was excited just thinking about it.

The others were obviously attracted by Gao Yaoyao's voice.

For some reason, everyone became more enthusiastic about cleaning, especially the waiters. Their commission was the same as Gao Yaoyao's.

Qin Lin clearly felt this too, Other than the Hero Valley, there shouldn't be anyone else in Youcheng County who could give the employees commission.

After all, the customer flow had not reached a certain level. Even if they wanted to motivate the employees, they would not dare to do so.

...

Early the next morning, a construction team appeared on the other side of the villa. It was Youcheng County First Construction Company.

Qin Lin had just moved everything out of the game and sent them to the villa in batches when President Sun of Youcheng County Construction Engineering Company came to look for him.

President Sun's name was Sun Ming. He had also brought a blueprint with him. "Boss Qin, other than the drifting project, the general plan is that the Sea of Flowers will be in the wasteland to the west and the Triangular Plum Blossom Sea will be at the two ends of the villa. It won't cause fatigue from viewing. The accommodation area will be between the two Sea of Flowers. Take a closer look at the specific blueprint."

Qin Lin took the plan and looked at it. It was all according to his requirements. First, there was a restaurant. After all, there were many recipes in Ranches Story that could definitely be used. After that, there was the bridal chamber project and the Sea of Flowers project. The bridal chamber project included a resting area with many seats, cradles, and swings for tourists to rest.

There naturally wouldn't be too many bridal chambers, only 100-150.

With the development of the villa, this number was far from enough to meet the number of tourists. However, he did not intend to do more. This was only to perfect the role of the villa's facilities. There was no need to compete with the county for that bit of overnight resources.

Only by allowing more tourists to live in the county could it stimulate tourists' spending more and also show the importance of the mountain villa to the county's all-inclusive tourism + plans.

After confirming that there was no problem with the blueprint, Qin Lin said, "President Sun, other than the projects supported by this county, I have some other projects that I need your help with. I'll fund these projects myself after this."

"Go ahead, President Qin." Sun Ming didn't refuse. He had already accepted the Mountain Villa Support Fund project, so he didn't mind taking on two more projects.

Qin Lin thought for a moment and said, "President Sun, first of all, I want to build an employee dormitory. In addition, I want to build a manor villa for high-end tourists and plan the ranch in the remaining area."

How could Ranches Story not have a ranch?

When the ranch was developed in the game, there would be many livestock breeds. One had to know that there were even cows that could produce strawberry-flavored milk in the game.

Therefore, they could prepare for this aspect first. These were originally the next step of the plan. After the county approved the support funds, the plan could be brought forward accordingly.

“Then I’ll go back and see how to plan it. I’ll discuss it with President Qin later?” Sun Ming noted down Qin Lin’s request and went to command the engineering team.

He had to keep an eye on the first day.

Qin Lin returned to the villa’s hall.

His mother and Zhao Moqing did not come today. The mother-in-law and daughter-in-law could not wait to go to the bridal chamber to clean up.

He looked at the mental screen and controlled the game character to wander around the map until he reached the forested hills behind the ranch.

The mountain was called Mount Notre Dame. It was also a big map in the game.

In the older version of the game, it was possible to enter Mount Notre Dame and look for mountain goods for sale.

This version of the game was a little different from many of the older versions. He had controlled the game character to visit Mount Notre Dame a few times before, but he did not discover anything special. The mountain goods did not refresh either.

This time, an NPC appeared when he entered Mount Notre Dame.

It was Loggerhead Gozzi from Ore Town.

Gozzi said, “Mountains are a gift to the world. In addition to the endless supply of wood, there are a lot of mountain goods that people like. Who knows, Zach might like to buy those things.”

Qin Lin looked delighted when he saw the NPC’s conversation.

So he could look for mountain goods?

Chapter 80: One Can’t Make One Look Cheap!

No matter which version of Ranches Story, mountain goods were one of the financial sources of the early stages of the game, from the earliest version of Ranches Story to various later versions. The difference was the type of mountain goods.

Qin Lin had just started playing this new mobile game. It had not been refreshed before, so he did not know what it was.

Gozzi was also a regular NPC in several versions of Ranches Story. Like Zach, he loyally read his NPC lines and left with a log over his shoulder.

Qin Lin controlled the game character in his mind to enter Mount Notre Dame.

This time was indeed different from before. As soon as he entered the mountain, he encountered collectible targets.

[Congratulations on obtaining 1 catty of wild Cherokee rose!]

He controlled the game character to go deeper.

Soon, a new collection target was discovered.

[Congratulations on obtaining 2 catties of wild myrtle!]

...

[Congratulations on obtaining 2 catties of wild Cherokee rose!]

...

[Congratulations on obtaining 1 catty of wild myrtle!]

...

Qin Lin controlled his game character to collect all the targets that he could collect on Mount Notre Dame, but the notifications he received were all wild Cherokee roses and myrtles.

He wondered if Mount Notre Dame would only farm these two types of mountain goods, or if there would be any changes in the future.

Cherokee roses and myrtles were considered medicinal herbs and also a type of mountain goods.

These two things were also relatively common. In fact, many artificial plants were not very expensive. The ordinary ones were only about 10 to 15 yuan, and the pure wild ones were only 20 to 30 yuan.

However, these two mountain products had great use. They were used for brewing wine.

Moreover, after the golden Cherokee roses wine was brewed, as long as it was aged, one catty of wild Cherokee roses wine could be sold for 150 yuan per catty.

Naturally, this meant that it had to be soaked for a year or two. Usually, it was not so expensive if it was soaked for a month or two.

Whether it was wine or medicinal wine, the price would rise rapidly as time passed.

Besides, it gave him an idea.

Due to the uniqueness of Ranches Story, watermelons that originally needed three months to bear fruit in reality only needed more than ten hours in the game. The flow of time was different. Only when he entered the game would the flow of time become normal (Chapter 1).

According to this ratio, wouldn't leaving the brewed wine in the game for a day be equivalent to soaking for half a year?

This simply had no time cost.

One month was equivalent to 15 years.

However, it was not clear if the items outside would be affected by the special rules of this game.

He would have to experiment to find out.

Qin Lin retracted his attention from the game scene in his mind and found an empty place. With a thought, he entered the game and headed to the storage room.

[Wild Cherokee Roses: Quality 2 (10 catties)]

[This is a special mountain product. It is also a medicine that can be used to soak medicinal wine. Effects: Treating frequent urination +2, nourishing the kidneys +2]

...

[Myrtle: Quality 2 (10 catties)]

[This is a special mountain product and also a medicine that can be used to soak medicinal wine. Effect: Blood-nourishing, Qi-circulating, and Yang-enhancing effect +2!]

"..." Qin Lin looked at the introduction of these two things and suddenly felt that something was wrong with the game planner.

Nourishing the kidney?

Yang-enhancing?

How could it have such effects?

But what the... he liked it.

After brewing this wine and drinking it all year round, even at the age of 60, he would probably be able to become a super brave warrior.

However, these two were only 10 catties. That was a little too little.

With such an effect, he definitely could not treat it the same as the ordinary Cherokee roses and myrtles on the market.

When this wine was brewed, people would buy it for 500 yuan per catty. If it was older, 1,000 or 2,000 yuan per catty would not be a problem.

Besides, if he sold it directly, he would definitely soak it in wine.

After Qin Lin left the game, he left the villa and headed to the city. Then, he went to the tobacco and alcohol market and bought 100 catties of 55° white wine.

The best ratio for making Cherokee roses and myrtles wine was 1:5, and the alcohol content had to exceed 50°.

Moreover, the price was not too cheap. He directly chose a catty of 50 yuan white wine. He could not use a catty of 10 yuan white wine, right?

That would be embarrassing.

He would now test the validity of his guess about the ratio of time in this game.

Qin Lin transported 100 catties of white wine to the warehouse and went to the supermarket to buy two 60 catties worth of containers for brewing alcohol. They were jars that could be sealed and faucets that could be used to brew alcohol.

There were a dozen other small containers in reserve.

After that, Qin Lin moved the white wine and the containers into the game and placed them directly in the storage room. Then, the white wine, Cherokee roses, and myrtles were placed into the fermented wine container and sealed.

After everything was done, Qin Lin exited the game again.

When he looked at the game scene in his mind again, there were indeed two additional containers of wine in the storage room. However, the scene was already different from what he had taken in. From the outside, it looked like a two-dimensional scene like the game.

[Unknown medicinal wine!]

He controlled the game character to step forward. For the time being, there was only this notification.

He would have to check the rest tomorrow.

When he returned to the villa, Gao Yaoyao ran to him and reported, "Boss, after limiting the purchase of medicinal honey water, the supply is still in short supply. Can we increase the supply of medicinal honey water?"

Qin Lin shook his head and said, "There are only so many of these every day. There's no way to increase the supply."

Gao Yaoyao suggested, "Then should we add some other ordinary fruit tea and milk tea for the tourists to choose from?"

"Yes, I'll arrange it tomorrow." Qin Lin nodded. This was also the original plan.

The medicinal honey water was not even enough for 1,500 people now. There would be more in the future. It was necessary to match it with other ordinary fruit tea and milk tea.

He would go back and tell Zhao Moqing about this. Last time, he had gotten an order from his brother-in-law, Zhao Moyun.

The day passed again.

During the night, the turnover was calculated and still maintained at 400,000 yuan.

When he returned home, Zhao Moqing and Lin Fen were already back. They were looking at some decorations on their phones.

On the side, Wang Cai could only lie there and lick its claws in boredom. The two women at home had long ignored it.

“Woof, woof.” When Wang Cai saw Qin Lin return, it ran forward and rubbed against his leg.

“You’re back?” Lin Fen was all smiles. “Moqing and I went shopping today. There are many decorations...”

She started babbling.

For her, it was an accomplishment.

Qin Lin was happy to see his mother happy.

His mother being happy every day was more important than anything else.

“By the way, when we move, we have to call your Uncle Ergen and Uncle Dalin. As for your uncle and the others...” As Lin Fen spoke, her expression darkened. “Forget it. As for the others, we don’t care.”

Qin Lin went forward and comforted her. “Mom, since they used to dislike us, it’s fine if we don’t interact with them anymore. Let’s live well and not stick to them.”

As the saying went, it was better to have a close neighbor than a distant relative. Sometimes it was true.

When his father was seriously ill, there were people like Uncle Shuigen and Uncle Dalin who were generous. There were also many people who avoided him. They even hung up without a word when they received a call from his mother.

This included his two uncles. He remembered the image of his mother coming to his door to plead. His two uncles, who claimed all kinds of difficulties, had each bought a car after his father died.

Not that his two uncles had to lend money to them just because they had money. After all, it was hard to earn money.

However, feelings went both ways. Since they were heartless to him, there was no need for him to get involved with them anymore. Otherwise, wouldn’t he look cheap?

Anyway, his grandparents had already passed away, so he could just treat them as relatives.
