Chapter 441: Leaving Behind A True Love Knot

Zhong Liping had never thought that Ning Cheng would actually come up with the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword. Not to mention him, even Tantai Fei following behind him did not imagine such a scene.

Everyone belonging to the older generation of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect knew about the importance of the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. Without the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword, it was equivalent to saying that their sect lacked both its grandeur and its symbol. For a faction without its 'symbol', bullied around with their fate in decline, was something completely normal.

However, today the lost Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword had once again returned to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, appearing in front of their own eyes. Zhong Liping simply wasn't able to keep himself composed anymore.

"Sect Master Ning, thank you. Thank you very much....." Zhong Liping stroked the blade of the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword with trembling hands. Even his voice shook uncontrollably. This sword, for the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, was too important; at this time, nobody could understand the churning emotions going through Zhong Liping's mind.

He even changed the form of address from the previous 'Ning Cheng'. He previously used to call Ning Cheng directly by name, not because of wanting to show disrespect towards Ning Cheng but owing to his seniority within the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect.

However, he now addressed Ning Cheng as 'Sect Master Ning', not because of something else, but because he felt deeply grateful towards Ning Cheng; grateful towards this young Sect Master for bringing the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword back to the sect.

Tantai Fei felt similarly excited, causing him to give Ning Cheng a profound and respect-filled salute, "Sect Master, Sect Master Rui had not misjudged you. You are the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's, Sect Master."

Although these words felt very strange; however, Ning Cheng actually understood the intent and meaning behind Tantai Fei's words. He brought back the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword, the effect of this on the entire Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, just cannot be described in mere words.

Ning Cheng pulled up Tantai Fei and spoke again, "I will have to ask Elder Taoist Zhong to return the Rainbow Fall Sword once again to the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak, and let my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect be restored to its peak once more."

Zhong Liping let go of the hand stroking the Rainbow Fall Sword's blade, before speaking up with a still excited tone, "Sect Master Ning, you should be the one to put this sword back. You are a Sect Master; it was also you who brought back the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword to my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect."

Ning Cheng felt moved in his heart. His status, after returning to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect this time, when compared to his initial standing when he had just arrived at the Tian Continent, were vastly different. Why not use this opportunity to increase the prestige of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect while still here?

Thinking of it until here, Ning Cheng received the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword and spoke, "Elder Taoist Zhong, Sect Master Tantai, I just thought of something. After I meet with Luofei, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect will hold a big event. Taking advantage of this event, my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect will place the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword back on public display. At the same time, I will also be holding my wedding with Luofei."

"Good, this indeed would be a huge event." Tantai Fei immediately clapped his hands and spoke. He knew that Ning Cheng soon would depart for Heaven's Way; however, before leaving to the Heaven's Way, Ning Cheng wanted to increase the morale and standing of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. With the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's prestige shooting up, the Yin Yang Dao Sect would also not dare to play any petty tricks.

"Elder Brother Ning, let me and Senior Apprentice Sister Lian'e handle this matter." Nan Yuefang quickly spoke up. She had been living with Luofei at the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak. When it came to Senior Apprentice Sister Luofei's feelings towards Ning Cheng, she knew it too well that nothing else in the entire world could replace it. In the face of such sentiments, she truly wanted to help her Senior Apprentice Sister Luofei, and make Luofei as happy as possible.

"Then I'll leave all the hard work to Junior Apprentice Sister Yuefang and Junior Apprentice Sister Lian'e." Ning Cheng quickly thanked them.

Tantai Fei also nodded, "For Yuefang and Lian'e to take up this thing, it would be for the best. However, this time we killed a few disciples from the Yin Yang Dao Sect, which is equivalent to provoking them. I estimate that they would use this excuse to come knocking at our doors."

Ning Cheng gave a bright smile, "I'm afraid of them not coming."

"Haha, yes, I'm afraid that they won't be showing their faces." After hearing Ning Cheng's words, Tantai Fei felt his worries vanish and gave a laugh. When Ning Cheng wasn't in the sect, he had chosen to not bring the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect to openly fight with the Red Star Sword Faction. Now that Ning Cheng returned today, how could he turn timid?

Ning Cheng then once again spoke, "I'm going on a trip to the Red Star Sword Faction. I should be back soon."

"NO, although the strength of the Red Star Sword Faction is much weaker compared to before, it is actually not much weaker than my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. You can't go there alone." Zhong Liping instantly understood the meaning of Ning Cheng's words and immediately scolded him.

Ning Cheng spoke up with a calm and soft tone, "Junior Apprentice Sister Hanrui ended up dead in the hands of the Red Star Sword Faction. I can never let go of this faction."

In fact, the moment he learned about Xun Hanrui's death, Ning Cheng had almost left for the Red Star Sword Faction on the spot. If he had the strength previously, he would have already gone ahead to exterminate the Red Star Sword Faction that year. How could Ning Cheng wait until today? Wasn't it because he could not eradicate the Red Star Sword Faction back then, which led to the death of Junior Apprentice Sister Hanrui?

Both Zhong Liping and Tantai Fei heard his words. Although Ning Cheng spoke in a calm and soft tone, the killing intent behind those words was almost palpable, something that even they could not stop. Tantai Fei also knew very well that Ning Cheng shared a good relationship with Xun Hanrui. So when the two of them heard his words, they could only sigh and speak up, "We could not retrieve Hu Hong's corporeal body; however, Hanrui's corporeal body is still within the sect. You can go take a look at it."

"Junior Apprentice Sister Hanrui's corporeal body is still here?" Ning Cheng asked in a shocked voice.

Tantai Fei nodded and spoke, "Yes; however, her soul has already scattered."

Zhong Liping on seeing Ning Cheng silent, spoke up, "The Red Star Sword Faction....."

Not waiting for Zhong Liping to finish his words, Ning Cheng took the initiative to interrupt Zhong Liping's words and spoke up, "Elder Taoist Zhong, I already killed Jia Shisan, and I don't fear the Red Star Sword Faction."

Zhong Liping felt moved in his heart. That's right; if Ning Cheng did not have the required strength, how could he kill Jia Shisan? Moreover, in the Heavenly Dao Public Square, Ning Cheng had even slaughtered Rong Jin, a Crucible Transformation 7th Level Cultivator. Over these few decades, how could Ning Cheng's strength not improve?

Thinking of this point, Zhong Liping no longer chooses to continue persuading him, and spoke up, "Such being the case, all I can advise you is to be careful. In the event of any trouble, just be sure to have a method to preserve your life. My Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Ancestral Cultivation Method, the Rainbow Fall Nine Revolutions, remains imprinted over the Rainbow Fall Sword. You can ponder over it in your free time."

"Yes, many thanks to Elder Taoist Zhong for the reminder. And also rest assured Elder Taoist Zhong." Ning Cheng spoke up as Zhong Liping, and Tantai Fei left the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak with bittersweet feelings.

As the crowd slowly dispersed, Ning Cheng returned to his own Immortal Cave. He found that after he left, Ji Luofei continued living in his Immortal Cave.

Once Ning Cheng entered his residence, he saw a jade box on the table. He stepped forward and opened the jade box.

The jade box contained a True Love Knot, which carried the imprint of Ji Luofei's Spiritual Soul. When Ning Cheng grasped this True Love Knot, he could immediately feel Ji Luofei's position, causing Ning Cheng to quickly rush out of the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak. He longed to immediately see Ji Luofei.

On a reef island in the Yi Xing Ocean near to the Tian Continent, Ji Luofei stood over a rock wearing black robes. A man, overflowing with a rich oceanic scent, stood in front of her. Just behind this man was an Iron Backed Seal.

“Move.” Ji Luofei spoke in a concise tone. In the recent years, she had travelled to many places, before arriving in the Yi Xing Ocean three months ago.

The man overflowing with an ocean scent showed an evil smile before speaking, “I’d like to invite you to my Immortal Cave, and I’m sure you will feel delighted. I have the best Spiritual Wine within the Yi Xing Ocean, the best flight-type Magical Weapon and can also provide the best cultivation environment.”

Ji Luofei was just about to answer when she suddenly grabbed at a True Love Knot. When she felt Ning Cheng’s aura coming from the True Love Knot, her face immediately flushed red with excitement.

“Did your Dao Companion send you a message? I helped you intercept off a few messages; however, I did not expect that you still possessed a True Love Knot. It really causes me to feel envy, aah.” The man with ocean scent spoke up.

However, Ji Luofei’s heart had already flown over to Ning Cheng’s side. Where would she find enough idle time for this man’s long-winded talks? Her stature flashed; subsequently, she disappeared from the reef island. However, no matter how quick she was, her body once again slowed down, as the man with the oceanic scent once again appeared in front of her.

“Don’t be in such a hurry to leave. I still want to invite you to drink some of my Spiritual Wine before leaving. After finishing a cup of Spiritual Wine with me, if you still wish to go somewhere, then you can go to that somewhere.” After the man stopped Ji Luofei, he did not begin, just kept slapping his hands with a Red Jade Ruler.

Ji Luofei tightly clenched the long sword in her hands, as she spoke in an ice-cold voice, “My husband....”

“Stop, do you think your background is better than mine? Then let me state it first; if my father went to the Heavenly Dao Academy, even the Heavenly Dao Academy’s Dao Master would have to personally come out to greet him. Therefore, I suggest that you don’t try to compare backgrounds with me; otherwise, even if your husband arrives, I will kill him to use him as fish feed.....” The male finally ran out of patience. If not for Ji Luofei’s stunning allure and beauty, he really would not have wasted this much time.

Ji Luofei, who could still keep her patience until now, on hearing the other person say that he wanted to kill Ning Cheng, finally let loose her anger. The long sword in her hands turned into a dazzling sword light; at the same time, a ribbon also shot out creating wave after wave of True Essence Walls.

However, Ji Luofei ultimately only possessed the cultivation of Crucible Transformation 1st Level. Even if she attacked first, facing against a Crucible Transformation 4th Level Cultivator, who indulged in the perennial slaughter in the Yi Xing Ocean, a considerable gap still appeared in their strengths.

Her sword light could not even provide half a bit of deterrence in the face of the attack from her opponent’s Magical Weapon, messing up her rhythm completely.

“Bang.....” Several formidable and powerful red lights exploded onto Ji Luofei’s scintillating True Essence Walls. A crack emerged on the True Essence Walls before it finally blew apart. Ji Luofei, under the backlash from the powerful True Essence explosion, shot backwards.

After this male cultivator saw Ji Luofei flying out due to the explosion, he immediately took a step forward, simultaneously lifting his hand to catch Ji Luofei.

Although Ji Luofei could not defeat this male cultivator at the Crucible Transformation 4th Level, she still would not easily be blown back flying. Taking advantage of the backlash, she immediately stepped onto a sword and shot out of the range of the reef island, just like a meteor.

The male cultivator with an oceanic scent gawked, immediately understanding this woman had fooled him. This female cultivator had intentionally forced him to send her back flying.

“Did you think you could get away from the hands of this Yu Dongqing?” The man gave a snort; causing many snowy lights to abruptly appear under his foot. At the same time, the snowy lights rushed in the direction of Ji Luofei, carrying the man over it.

Although Ji Luofei grasped the upper hand in the exchange with Yu Dongqing, she soon discovered that she was not quick enough when compared to Yu Dongqing. Even if she pushed her speed to the limits to escape, Yu Dongqing still managed to catch up with her in just half an hour.

Ji Luofei felt extremely anxious in her heart; however, she no longer had any means. She did have a talisman, an Escape Talisman given to her by Senior Apprentice Sister Jingxiu. However, she did not want to use it. Once she used this talisman, there was a substantial possibility that she would end up in the Le Continent. Furthermore, she was about to meet with Ning Cheng, how could she use this talisman?

Just like Ji Luofei felt great anxiety in her heart, Ning Cheng also felt a sense of great urgency in his mind.

After sensing Ji Luofei’s position, he quickened his own speed. In the beginning, there was only excitement in his heart. However, he soon felt that something was not right; he felt a somewhat anxious feeling emerge from Ji Luofei’s True Love Knot. It looks like Luofei encountered something dangerous.

Feeling that Luofei might be in danger, Ning Cheng simply stopped thinking about anything else. Fully unleashing the Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds, he immediately shot out. With every wave of the wings, he would disappear from that spot to reappear afar. Although using the Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds to achieve teleport-like speed would consume extreme quantities of True Essence, Ning Cheng still pushed it to the absolute limits.

Chapter 442: What To Do If There Is No Life Essence

Just when Ji Luofei thought about fighting it out with Yu Dongqing, she felt Yu Dongqing come to a sudden stop. Since Yu Dongqing would soon catch up to her, why did he stop?

Ji Luofei’s Spiritual Consciousness swept out and soon saw Ning Cheng, just like a lightning shadow, rapidly approaching near to her.

“Ning Cheng....” Ji Luofei almost couldn’t stop herself from calling out; it felt as if she would completely melt away. The next moment, she felt Ning Cheng’s arms wrapping around her.

The restlessness and anxiety from before melted away, without leaving even a trace behind, while she could not force herself to say even a few words. This moment of silence had already surmounted over many words, overcoming every other kind of action.

“Don’t worry, I’m back.” As Ning Cheng’s soft voice sounded in Ji Luofei’s ear, she had already forgotten about Yu Dongqing, not to mention worrying about anything.

Yu Dongqing stared coldly at Ning Cheng; at the same time, he felt an extremely dangerous sensation. Ji Luofei had been crazily fleeing from him so she might not be aware of Ning Cheng’s sudden appearance; however, he was fully aware of it. This newly arrived cultivator brought along an extremely dense killing intent; moreover, this killing intent remained aimed at him since the start, making him not dare to continue chasing after Ji Luofei.

Yu Dongqing lived almost his entire life within the Yi Xing Ocean amidst slaughter. Although being a Crucible Transformation 4th Level Cultivator, his strength and sensitivity towards danger had far surpassed that of ordinary Crucible Transformation Cultivators. Ning Cheng seemed to possess the power of intermediate stage Sea Opening Realm; however, Ning Cheng’s presence gave him a feeling that he was facing someone above the Crucible Transformation Realm.

“Are you her husband?” Although Yu Dongqing felt fear towards Ning Cheng, it was not to the point of dread.

“Luofei, you just take care of my Plundering Array, I’ll kill this guy.” Ning Cheng did not answer Yu Dongqing’s question. He just spoke in a gentle voice as he softly patted Ji Luofei’s back in his arms.

The initially fearful expression on Yu Dongqing’s face instantly turned cold as he spoke up, “I, Yu Dongqing, have traversed the Yi Xing Ocean for many years. However, I have yet to see such an arrogant Sea Opening Cultivator like you. If I, Yu Dongqing, want to kill you, I can easily find a reason. Did you think you have the strength to sweep through the entire world?”

“We’ll deal with him together.” Ji Luofei had experienced this Yu Dongqing’s strength first-hand. She had not encountered danger on the outside just once or twice in these years. The experiences she gained from wandering outside perennially made it so that her actual strength was not as weak as it looked in the surface.

Ning Cheng smiled and spoke, “No need.”

As he spoke, he already brought out his Nirvana Spear and shot out a spear shadow towards Yu Dongqing. Did he even need any other reason? With Yu Dongqing trying to chase down Luofei, it was enough of a reason for him to massacre 10,000 of these Yu Dongqings.

Seeing Ning Cheng send out only a single spear to deal with him, Yu Dongqing’s complexion turned ugly to look at. Raising the Red Jade Ruler in his hands, it burst into waves after waves of red lines. As for the Monstrous Beast, the Iron Backed Seal behind him, it also rushed towards Ning Cheng.

However, in just a single breath of time, Yu Dongqing’s complexion changed. He felt that the space around him no longer was part of the Heaven and Earth. To be exact, he actually thought that the area around him now belonged to the opposite party; inside his opponent’s territory, even simple movements felt challenging to execute.

Although he possessed many methods and means, in this area, he just could not use them at all.

A tearing sound echoed. Ning Cheng’s long spear passed directly through the head of the Iron Backed Seal; at the same time, the powerful Iron Backed Seal exploded into a bloody haze.

Yu Dongqing could only use his Iron Backed Seal to block the incoming attack, before barely extracting himself from the terrifying constraints of the area around him.

“Domain.....” Yu Dongqing’s face finally filled with rich horror. Many Crucible Transformation Cultivators simply could not grasp what a Domain entailed. However, he understood it, because his inheritance was on a higher level compared to the legacies of some of the major factions.

“Stop.....” Yu Dongqing no longer could spare any extra thought and quickly called out.

Ning Cheng behaved as if he did not hear anything in general. His long spear once again transformed into a bunch of Spear Lights, before they all shot towards Yu Dongqing. He felt a bit unsatisfied with his Spear Techniques. Other than the move he comprehended inside the Thunder City, he did not possess any particularly useful Spear Techniques.

Using this kind of Spear Intent to deal with a Crucible Transformation 4th Level Cultivator felt a bit too wasteful to him.

Feeling Ning Cheng’s strong killing intent, Yu Dongqing knew that it was impossible to stop Ning Cheng at this time. He roared, and the Red Jade Ruler once again burst into a bright red light; however, this time, it was several times thicker than before.

At the same time, a white light once again appeared under his feet. This white light immediately then burst into towering white waves. These waves rushed towards Ning Cheng, actually blocking the not-yet mastered Domain of Ning Cheng.

No wonder Ji Luofei couldn’t stop this person. This person was not inferior to Rong Jin. However, the more powerful the opponent, the more powerful the killing intent in Ning Cheng’s heart. The Spear Intent exploded as it directly passed through Yu Dongqing’s red line.

The True Essence in the attack caused the air itself to blast apart in waves just like an exploding bag of fried chips. Yu Dongqing’s densely clustered red lines also blew apart before disappearing without even a trace left behind. The towering waves manifested by Yu Dongqing that blocked Ning Cheng’s almost Domain-like attack also burst apart.

Seeing this, Yu Dongqing no longer dared to continue fighting with Ning Cheng. Even though he knew that he might not be able to escape from Ning Cheng, he could not help but want to flee.

The white light at his feet had just lighted up when the Nirvana Spear blew it up once again. Yu Dongqing unconsciously brought up his Red Jade Ruler to block, when six small axes turned into a black coloured Axe Trace and, in just a blink of an eye, reached his glabella.

“Stop!” A roar arrived in the form of a sonic boom; however, Ning Cheng’s Axe Trace did not pause even for a second in the face of this roar as it directly penetrated through Yu Dongqing’s glabella.

Yu Dongqing’s body exploded apart, causing a Life Essence to escape from it with a panicked expression.

Not waiting for Ning Cheng to destroy the Life Essence, a black shadow arrived before quickly collecting this Life Essence.

An expert, this definitely was an expert.

This black shadow had not yet arrived close to him, yet it was still able to take away Yu Dongqing's Soul Essence. This allowed Ning Cheng to realise that this new opponent was definitely someone strong. Compared to Yu Dongqing, even he could not guess how many times stronger was this opponent; however, he speculated that he should be at least on the same level as Jia Shisan.

Ning Cheng did not continue with his attack. He grabbed the Nirvana Spear and quietly stood over the waves as he calmly gazed at the area in front of him. In just a blink of an eye, this black shadow turned into a full-bodied, black-robed, dark-haired, middle-aged man.

"This friend has good skills; this old Yu had only seen Dao Master Xu Anzhen use skills on the same power level. It looks like this old Yu is not someone well informed; I didn't even know that my Yi Xing Ocean would contain such a strong friend. Do you mind if I ask this friend's great name?"

Although Ji Luofei met Ning Cheng just recently. However, Ning Cheng had killed Rong Jin that year, so now that she saw him slaughtering a Crucible Transformation 4th Level Cultivator, she did not find it surprising.

When Ning Cheng heard that this middle-aged male cultivator's opening words contained the name 'Xu Anzhen', he instantly realised that this person should be on the same level as Xu Anzhen. Not immediately taking any action, he calmly spoke up, "I am called Ning Cheng, the Sect Master of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect."

"It turned out to be Sect Master Ning. It's no wonder that you're this powerful. I've been living in the Yi Xing Ocean all these years, causing me to miss the opportunity to come and meet Sect Master Ning." Yu Haixi's face revealed a hint of relief. He did not know how many times had he heard the name Ning Cheng; however, he had honestly never seen Ning Cheng.

Although Ning Cheng truly wanted to retort back with the words 'You've met me now', the other party didn't seem to have any intention to cross hands with him so far and had been speaking politely. As such, he also chose not to take the initiative to compare moves with this man.

"Sect Master Ning, you already destroyed the corporeal body, almost even completely obliterating the Life Essence too. However, Yu Dongqing is my only son. I know that my son had always behaved arrogantly, so let me not speak about that. Can you just tell me how he ended up offending Sect Master Ning?"

Although Yu Haixi's tone was still polite, the meaning behind the question was obvious.

Ning Cheng spoke up in a calm tone, "My wife, Luofei came to the Yi Xing Ocean looking for me. If I came even a moment late, I'm afraid I would not have even met her. Therefore, you don't have to speak any nonsense with me. Since I destroyed his corporeal body, I will have to ask you to hand over his Life Essence."

Yu Haixi knew that if he came a moment late, who knows what might have happened. If an ordinary cultivator destroyed his son's corporeal body, would he have continued to talk nonsense? No, he would have turned that person into dust long ago. Although he might be speaking politely right now, it only depended on whom he was facing.

Ning Cheng is the Sect Master of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. Moreover, he had also felt and partly experienced Ning Cheng's Killing Force, which turned out not even a bit worse when compared to his own. Even if it wasn't, he felt that he might not necessarily be Ning Cheng's opponent.

He lived in the Yi Xing Ocean all year round, and his strength was above that of ordinary Crucible Transformation Cultivators. It was just that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect currently possessed a force that was countless times stronger when compared to his own faction.

However, it was also clear that he attacking Yu Dongqing also carried proper justification. Ning Cheng was a Sect Master, while Yu Dongqing was a person that did not know anything else other than bragging about his background, yet he actually dared to have ideas over Ning Cheng's Dao Companion.

He knew that his son behaved arrogantly in the Yi Xing Ocean and that one day he would inevitably end up kicking an iron wall; however, he now realised that he had indeed not guessed wrong. He pondered over it for a few moments, if he and Ning Cheng ended up in a fight, there was only a 50% chance of victory or defeat, and it was just a calculated guess on his part. Moreover, he had a hunch that Ning Cheng still had a few cards that he had yet to display, something that even he could not figure out. If that were indeed the case, then his chances of winning would definitely reduce by another 10% at the very least.

Moreover, Ning Cheng was still young and full of youth. From what he had seen from Ning Cheng's actions, who knows if he might end up summoning the rest of the experts from the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect to the Yi Xing Ocean directly to destroy his Yu Ocean Palace? What's more, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect still had that terrifying character, Rui Baishan, who caused fear to actually creep into his heart.

Thinking of this, Yu Haixi cupped his fists and spoke up once again, "Sect Master Ning, my dog-son is indeed in the wrong in this case; fortunately, Sect master Ning has already taught him a lesson. If you end up destroying my dog son's Life Essence, even if I used the entire strength of my Yu Ocean Palace, I would be unable to save him. I only have one son, and I humbly request Sect Master Ning to give me some face. My Yu Ocean Palace is also willing to compensate you in any other way."

The only reason Yu Haixi spoke those words was that he had some confidence to restore the corporeal body of Yu Dongqing. If Ning Cheng was still unwilling to let go, then he could only choose to see how skilled this person is. Even if he could not compare to Ning Cheng, it also wouldn't be easy for Ning Cheng to kill him in the Yi Xing Ocean.

Ning Cheng did not answer immediately. Yu Haixi's words showed a sliver of weakness. He had already destroyed the corporeal body of Yu Dongqing; however, Yu Haixi did not immediately start fighting with him. Instead, he actually wanted to negotiate with him. This showed that the other party was unwilling to fight with him; instead, wanted to resolve this matter in good faith.

He did not care much about whether he could fight against Yu Haixi or not. Even if he had to fight, he did not fear the opposite party. The only reason he remained silent after hearing Yu Haixi's words were because of his remark, that if Yu Dongqing's Life Essence ended up destroyed, the Yu Ocean Palace would not be able to save him with its strength. In other words, if the Yu Ocean Palace possessed enough power, then they might be able to reverse his situation even without the Life Essence.

Ning Cheng's thoughts immediately began to churn, Xun Hanrui's corporeal body still existed; however, it remained without a Life Essence. If there was a way to save her, then he must seize it.

The Gate Of Good Fortune

Chapter 443: Single Out Only The Red Star Sword Faction

"Palace Master Yu, according to you, in the event of someone's soul leaving the body, is there truly a possibility of them recovering?" Ning Cheng's tone also eased up. Since the person pleaded with him with such sincerity, then he too should speak with some honesty.

Yu Haixi had lived for a long time, so when Ning Cheng spoke those words, he instantly understood what was going on. He also did not ask the reason for such a question; he felt that as long as Ning Cheng obtained a satisfactory answer, then presumably with this person's status, he would not continue to pester with this matter.

After understanding this, Yu Haixi immediately answered, "Although it might be possible, it is extremely challenging. At least in Yi Xing Mainland, I haven't heard of any such method. However, I did hear one or two rumours about this. Does Sect Master Ning know about past lives and reincarnations?"

"I've heard of it." Ning Cheng spoke up without hesitation. If it were before, he would have never believed such a thing. However, such a thing had indeed happened to him. As such, there was no need for him to doubt it.

Seeing Ning Cheng say that he heard of it, Yu Haixi nodded and spoke, "The fact is, once a cultivator dies, meaning their Life Essence or their soul ends up completely destroyed, it would be impossible for them to reincarnate or even enter the reincarnation cycle. However, anyone who dies, in general, can theoretically find an opportunity to experience reincarnation; however, the prerequisite for that is that his or her Spiritual Soul should remain relatively intact. If you can find the Spiritual Soul of the fallen cultivator, then there might be a way to rejuvenate and revive it. Of course, these are just rumours; at least, I have not seen such a thing in my long life till now."

Ning Cheng understood the meaning of Yu Haixi's words. Life Essence and the Soul, there was only a slight difference between the two. For ordinary people, even cultivators below the Soul Essence Realm, almost all of their Spiritual Souls would fall into unconsciousness after death; this is what people referred to as the Soul, in general. However, once they advanced to the Soul Essence Realm, they would then possess a Life Essence.

Life Essence possessed a self-consciousness of its own; therefore, even if the corporeal body ends up destroyed, one can think of ways to recover one's own physical body. The two people in his ring, along with Fang Jiyang, were all conscious Life Essences.

"If the cultivator's soul has left its body, and if the soul truly ends up destroyed, then even if one possessed a heaven-defying method, it would be impossible to revive them. However, if the Soul or Life Essence is only shattered, and has not completely disappeared, then there is a chance to revive it. Especially, if this cultivator's corporeal body is relatively intact. That way one could retrieve the residual Soul Consciousness from the corporeal body, and then use it to locate the shattered pieces of his or her Life Essence. Then with the help of some Spiritual Objects, you might be able to grasp that chance.

However, these are just rumours. As for what Spiritual Objects could help you accomplish these, even I do not have any knowledge about it.”

Yu Haixi spoke with even more caution at this point, Ning Cheng’s current strength, and the strength of Ning Cheng’s background, both made him feel a bit jealous.

“Would a corporeal body left behind contain any residual Soul Consciousness?” Ning Cheng had always thought that once the soul departed from the body, then the corporeal body would just be a body without any consciousness.

“Yes, even if the Spiritual Soul is extinguished, the corporeal body would still possess a trace of residual Soul Consciousness. However, if the Spiritual Soul is completely extinguished, then even the remaining Soul Consciousness could never awaken and would eventually disappear along with the corporeal body.” Yu Haixi spoke with certainty.

“So how do I extract the remaining Soul Consciousness from a corporeal body?” This was the question that Ning Cheng was the most concerned about.

Yu Haixi spoke up in a helpless tone, “Only the Underworld Soul Flower can help you with that. Placing the Underworld Soul Flower on the dead corporeal body would not only preserve the remaining Soul Consciousness but would also be able to slowly nourish the soul. However, this kind of thing is just a rumour that I heard a long time ago.”

Although his son had lost his corporeal body, his Life Essence still existed. He could use the treasures of his Ocean Palace to help reshape his son’s physical body. After he heard Ning Cheng’s words, he realised that Ning Cheng was mainly talking about reviving a physical body without a Life Essence. This condition was a lot more dangerous when compared to his son.

However, Ning Cheng on hearing those words felt happy in his heart. He just happened to have an Underworld Soul Flower with him, which he could use.

“It’s been quite fruitful talking with Palace Master today, allowing me to obtain a bountiful harvest. For the sake of giving a face to Palace Master Yu, I will stop pursuing Yu Dongqing’s matter for now. However, I will not stop if there is ever a next time. At that time, don’t blame me for not giving you face.”

After hearing Ning Cheng’s words, Yu Haixi felt happy and quickly spoke up with cupped fists, “If there is a next time, then Sect Master Ning need not act, I will directly bring him to you.”

His son suffered a disaster. Maybe it might just turn out to be a good thing for him. Although he felt distressed in thinking out the various treasures that would be used up in reconstructing his son’s body, however, who could blame him for having a sole son?

“Luofei, let’s go.” Ning Cheng gently grasped Ji Luofei’s arm, before disappearing from the place.

Yu Haixi’s face instantly changed on seeing this spectacle. He did not expect Ning Cheng to even possess the Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds. Coupled with this, if he had chosen to engage in a fight, his chances of victory would drop even further. Fortunately, he did not start a battle with Sect Master Ning; otherwise, he feared that his Ocean Palace might just cease to exist.

Yu Haixi’s face sank, “I told you long ago that even if it is the Yi Xing Ocean, do not be arrogant. If not for me arriving in time today, even your Spiritual Soul would have ended up destroyed. Ning Cheng possesses a terrible name outside. Originally, when in the Soul Essence Realm, that person even dared to break into the Severing Emotions Dao Sect, and even Xu Anzhen could not do anything to him. Yet you actually dared to cause trouble for him. Are you trying to seek your own death?”

“I didn’t know that woman was Ning Cheng’s Dao Companion.....”

Yu Haixi once again interrupted Yu Dongqing’s words, “Stop talking to me. Once we head back, you’re going into solitary confinement to reflect on your actions.”

“Ruolan went to the Heaven’s Way, while I stayed back.....” Ji Luofei’s excited mood finally calmed down a bit. Since Ning Cheng had not entered the Heaven’s Way, Ruolan certainly would not find Ning Cheng in there. Luofei herself did not want to go into Heaven’s Way; fortunately, she chose to stay back and did not enter Heaven’s Way.

“I know; Ruolan along with the others entered Heaven’s Way. Sect Master Rui is also inside. Therefore, they would be able to take care of each other. After I’ve taken care of things here, we will also be entering Heaven’s Way.” Ning Cheng comforted her.

Ji Luofei did not ask how Ning Cheng had been for the past few decades. For her, as long as Ning Cheng came back, it was all worth it.

“Where are we going now?”

The Red Star Sword Faction remained situated on top of the Red Star River and looked like it floated over a silver ribbon from a distance. Even if the Red Star Sword Faction and the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect clashed with each other several times, causing its power and influence to drop significantly, it remained one of the major factions.

Since the battle with the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect a few years ago, the Red Star Sword Faction had kept itself low-key. Although it has not closed itself off from the world, its Mountain Protecting Grand Array remained in a half-closed state.

Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei had just stopped outside the Red Star Sword Faction when someone immediately stopped them, “Get out; this territory belongs to the Red Star Sword Faction. Anyone who approaches it will be killed without mercy.”

In general, visitors from the outside who wished to enter the Red Star Sword Faction would first go to their External Affairs Office on the outside to put forth a request. However, Ning Cheng had directly broken in; it obviously meant that they were uninvited guests.

Ning Cheng brought out his Nirvana Spear and swept out with it. The two disciples who stopped Ning Cheng turned into a bloody mist right in front of Ning Cheng.

These two disciples might have had nothing to do with the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect; however, the Red Star Sword Faction had finally crossed Ning Cheng's bottom line. Xun Hanrui ended up dead. If Ji Luofei died, or if his little sister Ning Ruolan died, or others by his side died, then it would have been too late for regrets for him.

The Red Star Sword Faction and the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect initially did not have much hatred between them; however, repeatedly, they would clash with the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. Not to mention that Ning Cheng currently possessed formidable strength, even if he did not have such power, he definitely would not have stopped. This time, when he came here, it was to completely eradicate the Red Star Sword Faction.

"Boom...." After instantly killing the guarding disciple, Ning Cheng's Nirvana Spear exploded onto the Mountain Protecting Grand Array of the Red Star Sword Faction.

The Mountain Protecting Grand Array trembled; at the same time, the entire Red Star Sword Faction immediately erupted in alarms.

"Someone is attacking the Mountain Protecting Grand Array....." Various cries erupted within the Red Star Sword Faction in just a moment.

The Red Star Sword Faction's current situation was different from the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. People had attacked the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect when it had already sealed off its mountains. However, since the establishment of the Red Star Sword Faction, no one had ever dared to attack its Mountain Protecting Grand Array.

In just a moment, many lights flew towards the entrance of the Grand Array.

The Mountain Protecting Grand Array generally remained sturdy, even a Crucible Transformation Cultivator would not be able to breach the faction's Mountain Protecting Grand Array within a short while.

However, this time, the one attacking the Mountain Protecting Grand Array was none other than Ning Cheng, an expert when it came to Array Formations. Moreover, the Red Star Sword Faction's Mountain Protecting Grand Array had just barely reached the level of a Rank 8 Array Formation. This kind of Array Formation, even if Ning Cheng were alone, he would be able to arrange it all by himself, given enough time. What's more, didn't he come here to destroy this Array Formation?

Being a Tier 8 Array Formation Grand Master himself, attacking a semi-closed Rank 8 Array Formation, no one else could match him in breaking apart this faction's Grand Array. In just a few breaths, the Mountain Protecting Grand Array issued a Ka-Cha sound, causing a massive crack to appear on it before it quickly spread throughout.

As Ning Cheng sent out another shot, it crashed into the entrance of the Mountain Protecting Grand Array causing it to finally explode under the hands of Ning Cheng. At once the faction's mountains and land, covered in fog, turned clear, exposing countless cultivators flying around in panic.

“That is Ning Cheng of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. Initially, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect killed many disciples of my Red Star Sword Faction. Yet, now this person willingly came our faction. My Red Star Sword Faction’s disciples, this.....” A cultivator at the Crucible Transformation 1st Level had just arrived at the entrance of the Mountain Protecting Grand Array and was trying to uplift the morale when Ning Cheng insta-killed him without even giving him the chance to bring out his Magical Weapon.

Ning Cheng had killed a Crucible Transformation 1st Level Elder in one shot, seeing this the rest of the cultivators finally stopped. Everybody who had seen Ning Cheng before knew that he was mighty. However, when these people saw their Crucible Transformation 1st Level Elder slaughtered in one shot, everyone realised that he was much more powerful than the rumours.

No one dared to come forward.

After Ning Cheng killed a Crucible Transformation 1st Level Cultivator, he did not immediately rush in; instead, he raised the Nirvana Spear in his hands and spoke out coldly, “My Rainbow Fall Sword Sect and the Red Star Sword Faction originally did not have any enmity. Yet the Red Star Sword Faction attacked my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect three times until now. Therefore, I came here today to completely eradicate this faction. All those who do not want to die, vow to renounce being part of the Red Star Sword Faction and you will be spared death. Otherwise, all of you will be killed without mercy.”

It immediately provoked an outcry, although Ning Cheng might be mighty, just two people wanting to eradicate the entire Red Star Sword Faction, it would be underestimating the Red Star Sword Faction too much. As such, there was no one willing to leave the Red Star Sword Faction, let alone swear such an oath.

A hoarse voice emerged, “Kill him for me, chop the two of them up, and feed them to the dogs.....”

This voice acted like a spark thrown at a pile of dynamites, instantly rousing all the cultivators within the Red Star Sword Faction.

Numerous cultivators brought out a variety of Magical Weapons before rushing towards Ning Cheng.

At this moment, Ning Cheng did not even lift his hands. 36 Cosmic True Devil Axes came out forming a long trail of Axe Lines manifested through his killing intent, which shot forward and reaped the lives of every cultivator rushing towards him under the Crucible Transformation Realm. As for those Crucible Transformation Cultivators, all of them fell under the crazy stimulation of his Nirvana Spear.

Ji Luofei wanted to help Ning Cheng block one or two Crucible Transformation Cultivators; however, she found that he just did not need her help at all.

Chapter 444: Red Star Blood Sacrifice

More and more cultivators flushed out of the Red Star Sword Faction, only to transform into waves of blood and gore at the entrance of the Mountain Protecting Grand Array. Not a single cultivator could break through the encirclement of Ning Cheng’s Axe Line.

Above Ning Cheng, the Blue Thunder City’s shadow remained suspended. In any case, the Crucible Transformation Cultivators weren’t able to get close to Ning Cheng before. However, now that Ning Cheng brought out this Thunder City’s shadow, it became even harder for them to breach through it.

Those 36 Cosmic True Devil Axes had transformed into a single Axe Line that blocked the entrance of the Mountain Protecting Grand Array. Under this powerful Axe Line, every cultivator with poor cultivation had no choice but to die. As for those Crucible Transformation Cultivators and Sea Opening Cultivators, as soon as they got anywhere even close to Ning Cheng, they would immediately feel a one-of-a-kind constraint that locked down the area around them.

Under Ning Cheng's fake Domain, this was a complete one-sided slaughter.

After the sixth Crucible Transformation Cultivator died at the hands of Ning Cheng, some of the lower levelled cultivators finally couldn't withstand the horrifying sight of slaughter in front of their eyes. They just had one single thought in their minds, and that was to escape from the confines of the Mountain Protecting Grand Array.

Unfortunately, none of them could walk away from the encirclement of the Axe Line, before ending up dead.

"I quit the Red Star Sword Faction. If I renege on this oath, then let the Thunder Tribulations kill me....." Finally, a Soul Essence Cultivator couldn't help but start working out the oath.

Immediately, he found that he was the only cultivator who managed to escape from the encirclement of the Axe Line. When he came out, he immediately took out an Escaping Talisman and activated it before quickly disappearing.

If one did not have a life, then why would they care about the faction?

With the first one coming out, more and more low-levelled cultivators copied the words of the first cultivator that managed to escape, and one by one rushed out of the Red Star Sword Faction.

From the moment that Ning Cheng had arrived at the Red Star Sword Faction to the present moment, only an hour had passed by. Yet, by this time, a mountain of corpses of dead cultivators formed around the area in front of the entrance of the Mountain Protecting Grand Array. If it weren't for Ning Cheng, who intended to spare the disciples who chose to abandon the faction, there would have been a lot more cultivators dying in this place.

The remaining Crucible Transformation Cultivators only felt trepidation in their hearts. They finally understood how terrifying Ning Cheng was and why he willingly came alone to wage war with the Red Star Sword Faction. What they were worried about was why their Old Ancestor Red Flame had not yet involved himself in this matter.

"Kacha... Bang....." Ning Cheng's shadow of Thunder City suddenly shattered apart; at the same time, his Nirvana Spear also ended up stopped in its tracks.

A red-haired man with a face full of murder appeared in front of Ning Cheng. He was the one who blocked Ning Cheng's Nirvana Spear. He was also the one who broke apart Ning Cheng's shadow of the Everlasting Blue Thunder City.

As the Old Ancestor Red Flame finally showed himself, the remaining Crucible Transformation Cultivators immediately felt their hearts loosen up. They knew that once their Old Ancestor came out, Ning Cheng would have to stay back permanently in the Red Star Sword Faction even if he turned out more impressive.

“Sect Master Ning. My Red Star Sword Faction had attacked your Rainbow Fall Sword Sect once before, and this time you attacked our faction. In light of this, we can call it even between us. From now on, we don’t owe each other anything. That’s all.” The red-haired man spoke up, while a vast Flame Beacon Diagram remained suspended over him.

Ning Cheng felt lazy to even give a reply. His 36 Cosmic True Devil Axes rolled up into multiple waves of Axe Lines before it shot out accompanying his Nirvana Spear.

At this point, other than the red-haired man, three other Crucible Transformation Cultivators appeared beside him. If these three Crucible Transformation Cultivators took the opportunity to escape, then Ning Cheng would have no alternative but to give up on them. However, he believed that if these three Crucible Transformation Cultivators decided to face him, they would certainly take up this opportunity to surround him.

At the same time that Ning Cheng attacked, the Flame Beacon Diagram suspended above the red-haired man also transformed into a sea of flames. It showed that he did not intend to let Ning Cheng leave this place. Once the red-haired man began, the other three Crucible Transformation Cultivators also shot towards Ning Cheng simultaneously.

The Flame Beacon Diagram, transformed into a sea of flames, seemed as if it wanted to drown the world in fire, as even the area around it showed signs of melting. Even Ning Cheng’s fake domain could not stop this kind of burning; at the same time, the surrounding area no longer remained under Ning Cheng’s control.

Previously, when both Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei ended up besieged, they still had the upper hand, not because of anything else, but because of Ning Cheng’s area-controlling fake Domain. In this area, Ning Cheng could completely crush the opposite party, no matter how many people he faced.

However, now that the Flame Beacon Diagram burned away the Domain around Ning Cheng, Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei immediately sank down.

The 36 Cosmic True Devil Axes were barely able to block against the four Crucible Transformation Cultivator’s True Essence bombardment. If not for Ji Luofei helping from the side, then Ning Cheng would have ended up wholly suppressed.

“Just a fake Domain, yet dares to talk about extinguishing my Red Star Sword Faction!” The red-haired man’s Flame Beacon Diagram suddenly turned even brighter, causing Ning Cheng’s hair to start to burn with some redness. However, Ji Luofei could not endure it.

This caused Ning Cheng to feel completely shocked; at this point, he was at a complete disadvantage. The other three Crucible Transformation Cultivators did not follow up with attacks; instead, they withdrew along with their Magical Weapons, leaving only the red-haired man to suppress him.

Ning Cheng absolutely did not believe that the other party would show such kindness. He did not hesitate anymore before speaking to Ji Luofei, “Luofei. Enter the Miniature World.”

Ji Luofei knew that this was not a time to be unreasonable; at the same time, she also had complete faith in Ning Cheng. Even if Ning Cheng was not an opponent against the other party, Ning Cheng still possessed the Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds, which could allow him to escape.

Ning Cheng had just let Ji Luofei into his Miniature World when the red-haired cultivator suddenly bellowed, "Red Star Blood Sacrifice....."

At this very instant, the Flame Beacon Diagram completely transformed into a flaming red sky. Ning Cheng, wholly encased within this red sky, could barely struggle with his 36 Cosmic True Devil Axes. Even his Nirvana Spear could not help him break through the flames of this transformed world of fire.

"Red Star Blood Sacrifice....." At the same time, the other three Crucible Transformation Cultivators shouted out those four words.

Ning Cheng suddenly found himself plunged into an illusion. The sky above his head still contained the same flames of the Flame Beacon Diagram, while an oceanic world appeared beneath his feet.

At this moment, Ning Cheng finally understood as to why the Red Star Sword Faction remained suspended over a long silver river. At this point, the silver river gave out roaring-like sounds, while endless silver waves rolled up and down the river, like landslides in general.

"Boom... Boom....."

The silver waves roared, while the earth also roared. It was as if a beast from ancient antiquity was about to awaken and consume all in anger.

The entire silver river burst forth with silvery waves, directly locking the area around them. Without even a place to move, the feeling of finding himself trapped in the opponent's sword domain once again emerged in Ning Cheng's mind, similar to the time when he fought against Rong Jin.

It was the same as his fake domain; however, the area control shown by the combination of Silver River below the Red Star Sword Faction and the Flame Beacon Diagram above was a lot better than his fake domain.

The silver waves and the Flame Beacon Diagram quickly started to converge, causing Ning Cheng to feel a threat of death. The silver river under the Red Star Sword Faction was the totem treasure of the Red Star Sword Faction, just like the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword. However, the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword had not shown its power before someone ended up stealing it. Nevertheless, once this Red Star Silver River of the Red Star Sword Faction came out this time, it started to show its might.

He underestimated this faction; moreover, he also realised that none of the major factions was easy to deal with. It was no wonder that the Red Star Sword Faction dared to attack the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect after it had already closed its Grand Array. It turned out that they already knew that the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword had gone missing. Either that or they knew that there was now no one within the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect that could activate the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword.

Why didn't the Grand Elder Taoist and Sect Master Tantai from his sect not remind him that the Red Star Sword Faction also possessed this kind of terrifying Silver River when they knew he was going to the Red Star Sword Faction?

The only explanation for this was that they did not know about it.

The Flame Beacon Diagram appeared over Ning Cheng's head while the Silver River's raging, silver waves encircled the Flame Beacon Diagram below.

Destruction, death, and fury filled the heaven and earth at this moment. Ning Cheng, wrapped in this devastating world, could not find any opportunity to escape at all. He couldn't even move, not to mention bring out his Star River or execute his Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique.

"Ka....."

Space quivered at this moment, Ning Cheng's no longer could see either the flames or the silver river. He just felt a dispirited incorporeal summoning. This kind of summoning ignored all space and time ignored all the Magical Weapons and all attacks. In the face of this kind of dispirited incorporeal summoning, no one could put up any sort of resistance.

"Haha, die for me." The red-haired man laughed out wildly as he spoke.

Ning Cheng instantly awakened because of this wild laugh. He found himself confined in an area, while this area only contained an incorporeal grey claw. Moreover, this claw was shooting silently towards his Life Essence.

No, he could not go on like this. He cannot die; he must not die.

A strong desire to survive and live rose up, causing the Nirvana Spear's Spear Intent in Ning Cheng's hands to crazily flare up, overcoming the constraints over him. This was a Spear Intent that pierced through the heavens. He had seen it with his own eyes this Spear Intent destroying a powerhouse that could easily annihilate an entire planet. Moreover, he had witnessed it first-hand, the vision of the Spear Intent destroying a world.

Why couldn't this Spear Intent break through the encirclement of these flames and the Red Star Silver River? This kind of Spear Intent should be able to pierce through the heavens, pierce through any space.

"Ka....." A small crevice formed above the Nirvana Spear's Spear Head, causing Ning Cheng to slightly breathe at ease after his initial breathlessness. He felt his own Life Essence returning to his body. However, at the same time, the surroundings seemed to have suffered complete destruction due to the devastating atmosphere.

Ning Cheng did not hesitate at all. His Nirvana Spear's Spear Intent had helped him recover his Life Essence. As such, the only thing he could do at this moment was to enter the Mysterious Yellow Bead.

During the countless dangers he faced, the many killing intents that he had encountered during the many years of cultivation, Ning Cheng had never thought to retreat into his Mysterious Yellow Bead. However, this time he had no choice but to enter the Mysterious Yellow Bead. Otherwise, he would end up torn apart in this kind of world.

The power showcased by the Red Star Blood Sacrifice was too terrifying, and he knew he wouldn't be able to resist it; at least, not for now.

Whether it was the Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds, or the Nirvana Spear, or his seemingly endless Axe Lines, or even the Everlasting Blue Thunder City, at this moment, none of them would be useful in saving his life.

Once this terrifying world converged upon itself, then even his Miniature World Ring would disappear; at that time, Luofei would also end up dying just like him.

“Boom-Boom.....” Terrifying explosion sounds rang out, while the Silver River under the Red Star Sword Faction burst into many water drops that directly punctured through the surrounding air, creating crackling explosion-like sounds.

The Flame Beacon Diagram was just like an upside-down World of Fire, with many volcanoes, flaming rivers, and fiery thunderstorms that seemed to want to turn anything and everything within its area to powder.

A mass of fire and a giant silver wave swept across this area piece by piece before finally converging at a point, followed by this piece of space folding up over itself before turning into nihility in just a moment.

The blood coloured skies infested with silvery waves, transformed into a dead grey colour. Looking at this colour, a shadow of death would creep up in any heart.

This kind of death-like, grey colour gave the feeling as if the world was on the brink of disappearing while all the life within it had turned into nihility. There was only one thing left behind, and that was the still crackling-like sounds of the destruction. As if it wanted to declare that, no one possessed the capability to stop this destruction.

Chapter 445: Extinguishing The Red Star Ancestor

The red-haired man looked at the emptiness in front of him due to the Red Star Blood Sacrifice, before he took a deep breath and spoke, “This person truly was terrifying. If he had advanced to the Crucible Transformation Realm before coming to us, it would have been our Red Star Sword Faction that faced a complete annihilation.”

At this moment, he and the other three were completely pale with churning True Essence. They all felt that the Red Star Sword Faction’s Red Star Blood Sacrifice was worth the price; this price precisely was their True Essence and Essence Blood.

“It’s a pity though. I heard that Ning Cheng not only possessed the Geocentric 9 Yin Essence but also the 9-Colored Mirage Tree.....” A Crucible Transformation Cultivator standing to the left of the red-haired man spoke up with a sigh. These two things, if they really did come out, then it would cause the entire Yi Xing Mainland to descend into a mad scramble for it.

“Huh, something’s not right; there is a yellow bead in the middle.....” After the rift gradually disappeared, the Crucible Transformation Cultivator on the right saw the Mysterious Yellow Bead.

“Origin Aura.....” The red-haired man’s complexion immediately changed. Not waiting for him to finish his words, he and the other three around him immediately felt the area around them collapse.

Ning Cheng’s shadow suddenly appeared before him.

“Not good.” The red-haired cultivator shouted, grasping a talisman that would help him escape. He had lost too much in this exchange; now that Ning Cheng attacked them at full force, he had no choice but to evade. His heart currently bled with curses, under the Red Star Blood Sacrifice, everything should have turned to ashes, why didn't this bead turn into ash? Just what was that bead?

As for that Origin Aura, if he could obtain its source, wouldn't his cultivation soar rapidly? He did not dare to continue to ponder over this thought. He currently felt himself to be in a hazardous situation; moreover, his strength had also dropped drastically. In the face of this kind of danger, he even felt a sense of powerlessness. What kind of Magical Skill was this?

The red-haired man knew that the situation had turned for the worse, and the remaining three Crucible Transformation Cultivators knew that it did not bode well for them. However, Ning Cheng had already deployed his Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique, the illusion of the seemingly endless Spatial Collapse, just an instant later, transformed into a massive ball of terrifying flames.

This flame was not something that came out from the red-haired man's Flame Beacon Diagram. It was a result of Ning Cheng's Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique.

The red-haired man's Red Star Blood Sacrifice had taken almost complete control of the world within its range. However, this time, Ning Cheng's Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique had taken full control over this part of the world.

Fate had turned the tables on them. Thirty years of the river flowing east, thirty years of the river flowing west.

[TL Note: The English equivalent of the phrase "Thirty years of the river flowing east, thirty years of the river flowing west" would be "Prosperity and decline never last/Life has its own up's and down's".]

Ning Cheng could escape into the Mysterious Yellow Bead; however, the red-haired man had no means to survive such a sudden reversal.

The just-calmed charred area, once again erupted in a violent explosion, immediately swallowing the three Crucible Transformation Cultivators and a being above Crucible Transformation Realm.

Ning Cheng did not know that the four people including the red-haired man were already spent-force after activating the Red Star Blood Sacrifice. He honestly felt afraid that if he came out and had to face that terrifying Spiritual Technique once again, he might genuinely end up dead at that time.

Moreover, he also found that the Miniature World had turned extremely unstable within the Mysterious Yellow Bead. There was even a possibility of its destruction at any time. In conjunction with what Cang Wei said, Ning Cheng guessed that it might have some relations to Luofei inside the Miniature World. The Mysterious Yellow Bead's Origin still was not uniform; as such, he did not dare to continue staying inside the Mysterious Yellow Bead.

Therefore, as soon as he came out, he immediately displayed the Maximal Spiritual Technique. This time, after fully unleashing the Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique, he did not even bother to protect the other party's rings.

If it weren't for the Mysterious Yellow Bead, then Ji Luofei would have already died. As such, he wasn't willing to take even half a chance.

“Boom.....” An extremely violent explosion sounded out following the undulating red waves. Two different Spiritual Techniques reared their heads in this battle against the Red Star Sword Faction. As such, even those who were far away from the Red Star Sword Faction were able to hear those two explosions clearly, one after the other.

The area all around blasted open. This effect was much weaker than the force created by the Red Star Blood Sacrifice. However, the remaining four people just did not have any strength to escape. Under the Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique, all of them thoroughly burned into nihility.

Ning Cheng’s Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique and the Red Star Blood Sacrifice had utterly eradicated everything within its range, leaving nothing behind. This caused him to finally give out a relieved sigh. After deploying the Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique, he realised that the opposite party of four did not have the strength to retaliate against him. However, he did not regret whatever happened today. It taught him a very harsh lesson, which was that he should never assume himself as infallible. The world had many things that he still did not understand.

The Red Star Sword Faction was finished. After Ning Cheng killed the last of the ten Crucible Transformation Cultivators, the Red Star Sword Faction had no more cultivators. All the cultivators either ended up dead or had already escaped.

Under the Red Star Blood Sacrifice and the Maximal Flame Spiritual Technique, the numerous rings strewn across the area had turned to powder; as such, Ning Cheng also did not obtain much loot.

Ning Cheng was just thinking about calling out Ji Luofei so that the two of them could go look at the Spiritual Medicine Garden of the Red Star Sword Faction when he suddenly felt his body turning completely cold. An extremely powerful killing intent suddenly surged into his consciousness.

At this time, the area beneath the Red Star Sword Faction started shaking. Ning Cheng immediately knew that it was not good. Quickly grabbing onto the Flaming Beacon Diagram, the only thing not destroyed, he quickly rushed out of the Red Star Sword Faction.

“Boom-Boom-Boom.....” Sounds more violent than before emerged, and Ning Cheng, who had already rushed out of the Red Star Sword Faction, looked at the Silver River under the Red Star Sword Faction in complete shock. The Silver River actually emerged from under the Red Star Sword Faction. Then transforming into a white light, it disappeared into the endless sky. Even his powerful Spiritual Consciousness could not catch up to it.

Without the support of the Silver River, a devastating roar emerged from within the Red Star Sword Faction. A moment later, the luxurious looking Red Star Sword Faction had turned into a ruin.

Seeing this, Ning Cheng did not feel even half a bit proud; instead, he only felt a lingering worry. Although the Red Star Sword Faction ended in his hands, that Silver River had disappeared for no reason at all. Who knows if a powerhouse took it away? There was also that killing intent that had utterly shocked him from a moment ago.

At this moment, Ji Luofei finally came out. Greeted by the sight of ruins all around, it caused her to feel an extreme amount of shock. Inside the Miniature World, she just was not aware of what events passed by outside.

“Luofei, let’s go back. This time we are going to get married in the sect. After getting married, let’s enter Heaven’s Way together.” Ning Cheng held Ji Luofei tightly in his embrace.

He had initially wanted to also go to the Yin Yang Dao Sect. However, after the battle with the Red Star Sword Faction, he immediately dispelled the thought.

He was sure that with his current cultivation, going back to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect was equivalent to making a narrow escape. However, he believed that once the news spread about him destroying the Red Star Sword Faction, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect would definitely give an appropriate answer on his behalf.

Previously, he had let the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect’s disciple kill a few Yin Yang Dao Sect’s disciple trespassing outside his sect. This should have undoubtedly angered the Yin Yang Dao Sect. Now that he destroyed the Red Star Sword Faction, then even if Yin Yang Dao Sect possessed even more courage, they would not dare to engage with them directly.

Even if he wanted to go against the Yin Yang Dao Sect, he could not do so alone. At the very least, he should have the support of the entire sect. However, the fact was that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect and the Yin Yang Dao Sect did not have much hatred between them. With the complete destruction of the Red Star Sword Faction, he had already achieved his goal of setting up the prestige.

“Ning Cheng, did you say we are going to get married after going back?” Great joy filled Ji Luofei’s entire being. She had long since wanted to marry Ning Cheng. The two of them already had a marriage contract between them. Now that the two of them had experienced so many things, she instead found herself falling behind Shi Qionghua in this regard.

However, when it came to these things since Ning Cheng had not spoken about it, she also felt embarrassed to say it.

“I’m sorry, Luofei. This matter ended up getting delayed until today.” Ning Cheng could feel Luofei’s excitement; however, he also felt a little apologetic. Previously, he had to search for his little sister. Afterwards, because of the significant changes in the sect, he could not find the time to marry Luofei.

However, after his battle with the Red Star Sword Faction, he increasingly felt a lack in his cultivation. If this were the case within the Yi Xing Mainland, then once he left this place, it would only be a lot worse.

Remembering what Cang Wei had spoken to him at the beginning, about continuing to wander throughout the vast universe in the future. He realised that if he did not possess the appropriate strength, then even protecting the people around him would be difficult. What else was there to talk about later? If he wanted to become more powerful, then it was necessary for him to go to the Heaven Opening Island, and enter Heaven’s Way.

Ji Luofei also heard Ning Cheng’s apology. She tilted her head forward and blocked Ning Cheng’s words with her lips. There were just no words to describe her embarrassed feelings about her upcoming grand marriage.

Yin Yang Dao Sect.

Even among the top ten factions of the Tian Continent, the Yin Yang Dao Sect remained within the top half; second to only the Thousand Buddhist Hall, the Battle Devil Hall, the Heavenly Dao Academy, and the Severing Emotions Dao Sect.

At this time, the Yin Yang Dao Sect's Discourse Hall had several Crucible Transformation Cultivators sitting within. There was also the Sect Master Hao Anye and a Grand Elder Taoist of the Yin Yang Dao Sect present in the Discourse Hall.

"In the past, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, to deceive my Yin Yang Dao sect, gifted the false Perception Pagoda to my Yin Yang Dao Sect. This is already enough to incite our hatred. However, this time, they even killed my Yin Yang Dao Sect's disciples. It looks like the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect likes to play with death. This time, we do not need the Red Star Sword Faction to make contact with us. My Yin Yang Dao Sect will take the initiative to visit the Red Star Sword Faction. This time, we will not rest until we completely destroy the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect." The Yin Yang Dao Sect's Sect Master Hao Anye spoke out aggressively.

No one refused the idea about attacking the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. Sending disciples to provoke the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect was already something they had planned long ago. The Yin Yang Dao Sect initially had a plan that, after a while, they would take the initiative to say that two of their disciples ended up disappearing within the areas controlled by the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, thereby claiming that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect killed them.

They did not expect that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect would actually cooperate with them. They had not yet had the chance to implement the complete plan when the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect actually killed a few disciples of the Yin Yang Dao Sect.

"I heard that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng has returned. This person had always been bold with his actions, daring to invade the Severing Emotions Dao Sect with just a Soul Essence Cultivation....." A good-looking Crucible Transformation Female Cultivator spoke up with some concern in her voice.

Ji Xiu, standing on one side, gave a smile and spoke, "Even if Ning Cheng turned out even more powerful, he is just one person. Just a slap from one of my Yi Yang Dao Sect's Crucible Transformation Cultivators each would be more than enough to kill him."

"Because the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword is back at the sect again, my main concern is about their Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword." The female cultivator explained.

Hao Anye nodded and spoke, "Ning Cheng has returned, while there is no news about Xiao Bisheng and Mu Ziming. I have sent people to both the Heavenly Dao Academy and the Heaven Alliance. If we can get the support of these two places, then even if the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect possessed a few more Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Swords, we would not need to fear them."

At this moment, a cultivator at the Soul Essence Realm rushed in through the door.

"What happened?" Hao Anye asked with a frown on his face. In general, if there were no emergency within the sect, they would never allow an ordinary cultivator to approach this area. However, this Soul Essence Cultivator was different. He was the Yin Yang Dao Sect's External Affairs Deacon. Although possessing low cultivation, his status was not small at all, as everything related to the external affairs of the sect had to go through his hand.

“Sect Master, honourable elders, I just received this news. Ning Cheng took his fiancée Ji Luofei, broke apart the Mountain Protecting Grand Array of the Red Star Sword Faction, and even killed ten of their Crucible Transformation Elders, including the Red Star Old Ancestor of the Red Star Sword Faction. The Red Star Sword Faction has already disappeared from the Tian Continent, perishing under the hands of Ning Cheng.”

“WHAT?” After the words of this Soul Essence Cultivator came out, almost everyone in the Discourse Hall stood up in shock.

The Gate Of Good Fortune

Chapter 446: Ning Cheng’s Wedding

Yin Yang Dao Sect’s Discourse Hall turned deathly silent and remained like that for quite a while. The Yin Yang Dao Sect’s Grand Elder Taoist, who had not spoken until now, finally spoke up after overcoming his shock, “Did you just say that Ning Cheng took his Dao Companion, and the two people completely destroyed the Red Star Sword Faction?”

The Soul Essence Deacon quickly gave a bow and spoke, “Whatever I just reported is indeed the truth, Elder Taoist Xi. I heard that Ji Luofei only possesses the cultivation of Crucible Transformation 1st Level. However, the fact is, Ning Cheng was the one to single-handedly destroy the Red Star Sword Faction. And.....”

In the hall, all the people sucked in a breath of cold air. This hall contained all the top experts of the Yin Yang Dao Sect. Not to say that none among them could destroy the Red Star Sword Faction by themselves, even if they all went together, they might not necessarily be able to extinguish the Red Star Sword Faction.

How could Ning Cheng be such a heaven-defying monster? Even if Ning Cheng possessed a cultivation equivalent of Crucible Transformation Realm, how could he possibly eradicate the entire Red Star Sword Faction by himself? How could it be that easy?

“And what?” Yin Yang Dao Sect’s Sect Master Hao Anye asked in a deep voice, the killing intent he showed towards the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect a moment ago, concealed itself in just a moment. If the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect’s Ning Cheng did possess such strength, then even if the entire Yin Yang Dao Sect rushed out in full force, rather than Yin Yang Dao Sect exterminating the opposite party, they might be the ones facing counter-extermination.

The Soul Essence Cultivator added on, “The people we sent to the Heavenly Dao Academy and the Heaven Alliance returned.....”

“What’s their response?” Hao Anye eagerly asked. This was the first time for him to show such anxiousness towards a matter, as a Sect Master.

If the Heavenly Dao Academy and the Heaven Alliance were willing to join in with the Yin Yang Dao Sect, then Ning Cheng destroying the Red Star Sword Faction would not mean much.

The Soul Essence Cultivator hesitated slightly before finally speaking out, "They not only refused to come out and join up with us, they even issued a warning that if the Yin Yang Dao Sect dared to provoke the Rainbow Fall Sword Faction without a solid reason, then they would immediately move to attack."

Hao Anye sat back down in decadence, not even daring to believe the words he heard. The meaning behind the warning was too obvious; their 'move to attack' was not to deal with the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect but against his Yin Yang Dao Sect. The Heavenly Dao Academy and the people from the Heaven Alliance were actually helping the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, what in the world was going on here?

Inside the Heavenly Dao Academy, although Zuo Qiugao was the School Master of the Heavenly Dao Academy; however, while facing Dao Master Xiao Bisheng, even someone like him had to show his utmost respect.

"Tell me, why did you join up with the Yin Yang Dao Sect, the Red Star Sword Faction and the others to lay siege to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect?" Xiao Bisheng spoke up in a bland tone. His skeleton-like appearance from before had improved a lot; at least, there was now some flesh and blood visible.

Zuo Qiugao felt helplessness. Facing Xiao Bisheng, he just couldn't conceal his purpose, "Reporting to the Dao Master. Rainbow Fall Sword Sect suddenly came into possession of a treasure, called the Perception Pagoda. With the help of this Perception Pagoda, one could steadily advance to the Crucible Transformation Realm. If our Heavenly Dao Academy did not compete for this kind of treasure, then we would definitely end up eliminated in the future."

"Oh, so after the Perception Pagoda was taken away by the Yin Yang Dao Sect, why did you give up then?" Xiao Bisheng asked in a calm tone; however, there was an apparent intent within those words.

Zuo Qiugao answered, "After the Yin Yang Dao Sect took away the Perception Pagoda, we found that not a single new Crucible Transformation Cultivator emerged; at least during these few years, there have been no new additions to the number of Crucible Transformation Cultivators within the Yin Yang Dao Sect. Afterwards, I also checked up on the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect; however, after the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect lost the Perception Pagoda, they too did not produce any new Crucible Transformation Cultivators. Therefore, it made me think that perhaps the Perception Pagoda might be a consumable item."

Xiao Bisheng gave out a sigh before speaking, "You are the School Master of the Heavenly Dao Academy, and I even watched you grow. Yet, you didn't even investigate the source and acted recklessly. If you had continued this way, then this academy would have reached a dangerous juncture. Let me put it this way, if someone came to my academy intending to snatch away the Heavenly Dao Bridge, what would you do?"

"Of course, I would use every ounce of my strength to defend it. Even if the academy ended up destroyed, I would never allow anyone to take away the Heavenly Dao Bridge." Zuo Qiugao spoke up without hesitation.

Xiao Bisheng finally spoke up with a disdain-filled voice, "Since the Heavenly Dao Bridge is so important, then I estimate that this Perception Pagoda might be no less important to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect compared to their Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword. Why did you not think that the other party did not use their full power to stop it from leaving their hands?"

Zuo Qiugao, instead, gave out a sigh, "Dao Master. Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword has already been lost. Not to mention about joining up with the other major factions, even if my Heavenly Dao Academy went alone, it would be easy for us to extinguish the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect."

Xiao Bisheng finally felt his anger rising, "Zuo Qiugao. Looks like you think that this world no longer contains other capable people. Did you think that the Heavenly Dao Academy could sweep through everything? I will not speak of anyone else, but the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng, he is more than enough to completely extinguish half the Heavenly Dao Academy all by himself. If you continued with this kind of attitude, you'd only be putting my Heavenly Dao Academy at risk. Let's go, call out all the Crucible Transformation Elders of the Heavenly Dao Academy to the Discourse and Discussion Hall."

"Dao Master, although Ning Cheng might be comparable to a late stage Crucible Transformation Cultivator, he is ....." Zuo Qiugao's words had hardly finished when a red light fell into his hands.

Zuo Qiugao then grabbed the red flying sword and allowed his Spiritual Consciousness to sweep into it. However, his facial expression suddenly changed.

"What is it?" Xiao Bisheng immediately asked; in any event, Zuo Qiugao was still the School Master of the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Zuo Qiugao couldn't help but feel a chill run through his back. He spoke up, still clutching the sword in his trembling hands, "Ning Cheng, accompanied by his Dao Companion, went to the Red Star Sword Faction alone, before killing all the cultivators above the Sea Opening Realm from the Red Star Sword Faction. The Red Star Sword Faction ended up completely annihilated at the hands of Ning Cheng. How is such a thing possible, this....."

In Zuo Qiugao's heart and mind, there was only a single question ringing 'how was such a thing possible?' Even if Ning Cheng turned out to be even stronger than what he estimated, how could he destroy the entire Red Star Sword Faction by himself? However, this messaging sword clearly stated that Ning Cheng had actually laid ruin to the Red Star Sword Faction all by himself.

Xiao Bisheng gave out another sigh before speaking, "This is completely normal. Not to mention the Red Star Sword Faction. Even if I teamed up with Mu Ziming, I'm afraid we wouldn't even be qualified to be his opponent. Not to mention the fact that both Mu Ziming and I owe our lives to him."

Saying that it seemed as if he was speaking more to himself, "Possessing a fake Domain, in the entire Yi Xing Mainland, who could even be qualified to be his opponent? Doesn't it mean that even Xu Anzhen would have to take the long way against him?"

These past few years, the Tian Continent remained remarkably calm. Although there were a few things here and there; however, nothing significant had happened. However, the current Tian Continent went through three major events, one after another.

The first event was the return of Heaven Dao Academy's Dao Master Xiao Bisheng, Heaven Alliance's Dao Master Mu Ziming, and the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng. The second event came after the return of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng. On learning that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect had repeatedly suffered attacks from the Red Star Sword Faction, causing the death of his friend Xue Hanrui, he turned utterly furious. He immediately marched towards the Red Star Sword Faction with his lover, and not only killed off the remaining ten Crucible Transformation Cultivators of the Red Star Sword Faction, but also extinguished the Red Star Sword Faction. From then on, the Red Star Sword Faction no longer existed within the Tian Continent.

If the first matter was a topic that everyone talked about, then the second event was equivalent to an earthquake passing through the entire Tian Continent. Destruction of smaller factions over time was a somewhat commonplace occurrence in the Tian Continent, and no one would be surprised about it. However, what kind of an entity was the Red Star Sword Faction? One of the top ten factions. Yet, such influence had ended up utterly annihilated, which turned out to be incredibly shocking for anyone who heard it.

When the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect suffered a sneak attack from others, it did not end up completely destroyed. However, this time, the Red Star Sword Faction ended up decimated in an entirely fair and above-board manner. This caused the name of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect to suddenly ring in every corner of the Tian Continent. Whatever the topic, it could not be separated from the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng along with his Dao Companion Ji Luofei.

Moreover, since the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master and his Dao Companion were inseparable, the news about the soon-to-be-married event of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng and his Dao Companion Ji Luofei quickly disseminated out with the fastest speed.

If Ning Cheng had not extinguished the Red Star Sword Faction in such a blitzkrieg manner, his wedding would never have been this sensational as to spread throughout the Tian Continent.

At this moment, both inside and outside of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, the place remained filled with festive colours. Even the Rainbow Fall Makeshift Market's stalls hung festive decorations in celebration.

The Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Mountain Protecting Grand Array was also wide open at this moment, while rows after rows of External Affairs Disciples lined up in front of it and welcomed people. Since the inception of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, this was the first time that they held such a huge event.

All the guests who arrived at the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect knew that this event was not just for the wedding of Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng. It was also for another important matter relating to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect. That is, the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword that had been lost for decades had returned once again, it would once again take up its original position at the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak.

Initially, although the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect possessed a sturdy grandeur; however, after the return of the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword, its glory increased by not just one or two times.

Countless guests streamed through the gates of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect to give their congratulations. Even a few rogue cultivators came to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect to take in the lively sights. Especially since these kinds of gathering with many cultivators would always incite large-scale exchanges and auctions. Moreover, such an exciting event on this scale was not very common in the Tian Continent.

At the Mountain Protecting Grand Array's entrance, the External Affairs Disciples were always on their toes to greet and welcome the more famous and celebrated guests that came to congratulate.

"Profound Light Chamber of Commerce's President Yuan Qin came in person to congratulate...."

"Great Change Island's Sect Master Yi Sichong came in person to congratulate...."

"Floating Snow Palace's Seventh Palace Master Sang Jiezhong came in person to congratulate....."

"Heaven Alliance's Dao Master Mu Ziming came in person to congratulate....."

"Heavenly Dao Academy's Dao Master Xiao Bisheng, Sect Master Zuo Qiugao came in person to congratulate....."

"Yin Yang Dao Sect's Dao Master Xi Ann and Sect Master Hao Anye came in person to congratulate....."

"Yu Ocean Palace's Palace Master Yu Haixi came in person to congratulate....."

Looking at all the high-profile people streaming into the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, the countless lively rogue cultivators felt thrilled. Even if compared to the Great Meet of the Academies that they had attended previously, they had never once seen so many high-profile personages together.

"From among the top ten factions, apart from the destroyed Red Star Sword Faction, it seems that only the Severing Emotions Dao Sect has not come. The rest of the factions have already arrived. Even people from the Battle Devil Hall have come."

"Wasn't there a conflict between the Yin Yang Dao Sect and the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect? So why did the Yin Yang Dao Sect's Sect Master come?"

"What do you know? Sect Master Ning already possesses cultivation that is above the Crucible Transformation Realm and had single-handedly uprooted the entire Red Star Sword Faction. If I were the Sect Master of the Yin Yang Dao Sect, I would also have definitely come."

Ning Cheng, along with the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Grand Elder Taoist Zhong Liping, personally came forward to welcome Xiao Bisheng and Mu Ziming. Compared to their appearances right after exiting the Blue Hole, Mu Ziming and Xiao Bisheng both looked a lot healthier.

"Brother Mu, did Xu Anzhen really enter the Heaven's Way?" Ning Cheng's first sentence was about asking Xu Anzhen's whereabouts. He had initially learned from Zhong Liping that Xu Anzhen had most likely entered Heaven's Way.

Mu Ziming nodded and spoke, "Yes, Xu Anzhen definitely entered Heaven's Way. I suspect that she is aiming for Rui Baishan. It's just that it's becoming harder and harder to enter Heaven's Way..."

Ning Cheng already understood Mu Ziming's meaning. He knew that if more people wanted to enter the Heaven's Way, it also needed more Mirage Stones to create the Array Flags for opening the entrance to Heaven's Way. However, something like a Mirage Stone was really too precious.

Chapter 447: The Rise Of The Rainbow Fall Sword Sect

The wedding of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Sect Master Ning Cheng attracted the attention of the entire Tian Continent. Apart from a tiny number of academies and factions, almost every power in the Tian Continent sent their representatives to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect with congratulatory gifts and giving their congratulations to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect in person.

Yin Yang Dao Sect's Sect Master Hao Anye specially sent the original Perception Pagoda back, and at the same time, took the initiative to apologise to Ning Cheng.

Even the Tian Continent's Foremost Array Formation Grand Master, Wu Mao, proposed that if Ning Cheng were willing to take out the Mirage Stones, then he would also be ready to participate in laying down the Array Formation for the Heaven's Way entrance.

Because there were just too many guests, and because of some other matters, Ning Cheng decided to hold his wedding over the Rainbow Fall Sword Stone.

Initially, an already stunning beauty, Ji Luofei, because of her elaborate robes, presently looked like an exquisite white lotus flower. At this moment, she beamed with happiness while holding onto Ning Cheng's hands as they tread the clouds from the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak. To everyone's surprise, the bride, Ji Luofei, chose to actually don a white robe instead of the usual red bridal robes.

However, Ji Luofei's suffocating beauty caused everyone to ignore her robes entirely. More specifically, her dress was more of a backdrop to accentuate her unmatched beauty. This kind of beauty eclipsed every other female cultivator present there.

For women belonging to the True Cultivation Community, as long as their appearance at birth was not outrageously ugly, as they progressed further along the path of cultivation, then their final appearance would not turn out too ugly, compared to what they were born with. As for the already beautiful female cultivators who tread the path of cultivation, they would find their beauty enhanced more and more.

However, once Ji Luofei came out, it immediately caused all the female cultivators to have a new standard for beauty. At this moment, the countless female cultivators only wished that they could also enjoy such a wedding in their futures. Wearing a white wedding dress, led by their beloved Dao Companion while treading the clouds. Or rather, only by having such a wedding, could a woman feel the most beautiful.

Ning Cheng gently grabbed onto Ji Luofei's hand before descending and standing in front of the seat of honour at the Public Square. Then accepting the congratulations coming their way, he cupped his fists and thanked them one by one. Ji Luofei was also brimming with joy from top to bottom. The day she was waiting for finally arrived, compared to Elder Sister Qionghua, she felt a lot happier.

“Today, it is this Ning Cheng’s wedding. I truly feel grateful towards all the factions taking the time to come to my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect.....”

After Ning Cheng started speaking, the somewhat noisy atmosphere over the Rainbow Fall Sword Stone instantly calmed down.

“I thank my wife, Luofei for marrying me, and I vow to love her throughout my entire life.....”

Ji Luofei did not expect that Ning Cheng would make such a public statement. She had not been to Earth, and as such, never participated in any weddings on Earth. Even if she had a thick face, Ning Cheng’s words had still torn apart the slight bit of reservation inside of her, Forgetting that this place was still the Public Square, she nestled her head over Ning Cheng’s shoulders.

“In the future, I will also hold such a wedding.” Proclaimed a male cultivator.

“If someone can treat me like Sect Master Ning, I certainly would not waste my time in cultivating, instead pour out all my love for him alone.” This time, the speaker was a very good-looking female cultivator.

“Don’t be hypocritical. I’m sure that when you go back, whether you ought to go into seclusion or not you still would go into seclusion. What about your pretty boy from the Guan Clan? You still haven’t kicked him out. Besides, other people loving you and you not cultivating, what relation do the two have.....” Another female cultivator sitting next to that female cultivator immediately retorted back.

“How could he compare to Sect Master Ning?”

As the voices in the Public Square quieted down, Ning Cheng then continued, “Taking this opportunity today, I have a few more things to announce. The first thing is that my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect’s Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword has returned. Today, I draw support from the testimony of the fellow guests present here, and place the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect’s Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword back to where it belongs, the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak.”

Finished speaking, Ning Cheng then took out a long sword that shimmered like rainbows. Countless Spiritual Consciousness fell onto the long sword in Ning Cheng’s hands; however, no one could make out the appearance of the sword. All they could see was just a rainbow.

Ning Cheng knew that this sword was definitely not an ordinary sword. Even his 36 Comic True Devil Axes added up could not compare to even a corner of this sword. After hearing Elder Zhong Liping’s words, he had spent a few days studying this sword; moreover, the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword indeed contained the Rainbow Fall Nine Revolutions.

The Rainbow Fall Nine Revolutions was a superior grade cultivation method; however, it was not suitable for Ning Cheng’s cultivation. Ning Cheng then passed the Rainbow Fall Nine Revolutions to all the people belonging to the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak. At the same time, asked Tantai Fei to pass it along to all the True Inheriting and Core Disciples.

With the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword returning to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, plus with Ning Cheng's mighty strength that everyone had come to know about, everyone knew it clear as day that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect would be climbing to new heights.

Under the gaze of many eyes, Ning Cheng flew up, bringing the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword and finally descending onto the peak of the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak.

He had not yet taken the initiative to put down the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword in his hands when the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword set itself free from Ning Cheng's grasp and inserted itself into the peak of the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak.

When the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword inserted itself into the peak of the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, a sword glow emerged causing all the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's disciples to feel a little comfortable at this moment, as if their understanding of the cultivation methods they were cultivating deepened by another level.

However, for those disciples with higher cultivations, and Elders from the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, this kind of feeling was even more profound. At this moment, they did not need a reminder from anyone else; they knew that the genuine Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword has returned.

Ning Cheng looked at the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword with some puzzle. He could not help but think of a question, how could anyone steal away this kind of a sword? He had a hunch that even if he used his full strength, pulling out the Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword might not be possible.

A mighty sword halo spread out, even Ning Cheng had no choice but to withdraw from the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak. With the doubt still his heart, he once again landed back at Ji Luofei's side.

"Many thanks to all the guests here for coming to witness me and Ji Luofei's grand wedding, and also to witness the return of my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Yonder Immortal Rainbow Fall Sword."

Ning Cheng's words immediately sparked a burst of warm cheers. They all were able to witness such massive events. Some of the lower levelled cultivators even started thinking about how to add even more flourishes to these events before spreading out and disseminating the news.

"Distinguished guessed, the third thing that I want to say today is that because of the restrictions imposed by the Yi Xing Mainland itself, we cannot achieve higher levels when it comes to cultivation. However, all of us know about the existence of such realms. Many of our Dao Friends, to pursue a higher level of strength, had to leave to the Heaven Opening Island to enter another new and vast world through Heaven's Way....."

When Ning Cheng spoke about the Heaven's Way, everyone present within the Sword Stone turned silent in almost an instant. This matter concerned everyone. If one day after reaching the Crucible Transformation Realm in their cultivation, they could not enter the Heaven's Way, then perhaps they would forever remain trapped within the confines of the Crucible Transformation Realm until the day they died.

Already too many Crucible Transformation Cultivators had perished in the Tian Continent due to old age. This was not a joke, but a fact. A Crucible Transformation Cultivator only possessed a few thousand years of a lifespan. A thousand years for a mortal would be quite a distant time. However, for a cultivator, with their hunger suppressed, could end up in seclusion for thousands of years.

Ning Cheng continued, "The Heaven's Way is challenging, but even if it was tougher, to reach the higher realms, we have no choice but to enter Heaven's Way. However, it is getting more and more difficult to enter Heaven's Way. The Rainbow Fall Sword Sect had a lot of quotas for itself due to the 9-Colored Mirage Stone contributed by our Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Elder Meng Jingxiu."

"The Tian Continent does not just contain the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, there are also many other factions. Therefore, I, along with Dao Master Mu Ziming, and the experts of other factions and the various other elders had a discussion amongst ourselves. We decided to take out the Mirage Stones in our possession and use it to re-arrange the entrance to Heaven's Way located in our Tian Continent. That way, at any time, as long as one had the ability, they could then enter Heaven's Way by themselves....."

This time even more enthusiastic cheers erupted. The words that Ning Cheng spoke were the real concern for most of the cultivators present here. At the same moment, all the factions were clear about an underlying point, from the words of Ning Cheng, it represented that the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect now vaguely stood in the leading position throughout the entire Tian Continent.

If Ning Cheng stayed in the Tian Continent for some time, then the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect would definitely be able to suppress the other remaining factions, allowing it to become the leading faction within the Tian Continent.

Ning Cheng indeed had not spoken up casually; however, he was also not a person who liked doing good deeds just to leave behind a good name. For permanently opening the Heaven's Way, according to Mu Ziming and Xiao Bisheng, it was necessary for him to contribute the Mirage Stones. However, not only did his Mirage Stones not fall from the sky, but the number of 9-Colored Mirage Stones on him were also not much.

He pondered over this issue over a long time, before he finally decided to take out his Mirage Stones. There were two reasons for it. One was that this move would genuinely help many people, while the second was to reduce the number of Crucible Transformation Cultivators within the Tian Continent, thereby balancing out the strength.

The Tian Continent had only a limited amount of resources. If more and more Crucible Transformation Cultivators emerged, then the issue of resource acquisition would become even more severe over time. There was also another point; if only the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's cultivator entered Heaven's Way, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's strength would inevitably decline. As a result, it would lead to the rise in power of other factions. In that case, perhaps one day, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect would end up walking down the same fate as the Red Star Sword Faction.

Once he permanently opened the Heaven's Way, anyone with the cultivation of Crucible Transformation and above would be able to enter the Heaven's Way, thereby balancing and keeping a check on the strengths of the other major factions.

No matter what Ning Cheng thought, his words definitely achieved the approval of everyone, causing the entire Rainbow Fall Sword Stone to burst into thunderous applause and cheers.

“I invite all the guests and friends into my Rainbow Fall Sword Sect to taste some of our Rainbow Fall Sword Sect’s good wine....” Ning Cheng looked at the cheering faces staring at him and realised that he had achieved his purpose. More accurately, his goal and the rest of the cultivators’ aim complimented each other.

At this moment, the entire Rainbow Fall Sword Sect drowned in cheers and festivities.

After such a lively scene, it was finally time for it to come to a stop.

The guests who came to congratulate also gave their goodbyes one by one, before Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei finally returned to their Rainbow Fall Sword Peak’s Immortal Cave.

“Ning Cheng.....” After returning to their Immortal Cave, Ji Luofei could no longer hold herself in reserve while tightly holding onto Ning Cheng. She wished her entire body could just melt into Ning Cheng.

“Still calling me Ning Cheng?”

“Dear.....”

“That’s right.....”

“So soft.....”

“Dear, you...”

.....

After years of cultivation, Ning Cheng rarely enjoyed this kind of a lazy sleep. When he woke up, the sun already shone brightly outside. Ji Luofei, stripped naked by Ning Cheng, lay curled up in his arms; like a well-behaved kitten rather than a Crucible Transformation Expert.

Ji Luofei opened her eyes, while a slight reddish tinge crept up her face. Just as she was about to speak, she saw Ning Cheng frown.

“What’s the matter?” Ji Luofei quickly asked.

“A person, whom I never wanted to see, arrived at the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak. Why did she come here?” Ning Cheng replied with a smile.

“Who is it?”

“Nalan Ruxue, from the Le Continent.”

The Gate Of Good Fortune

Chapter 448: Nalan Ruxue’s Apology

“Sect Master Ning.....” Seeing Ning Cheng come in, the quietly seated Nalan Ruxue and Lian’e immediately stood up.

Lian'e, standing on the side, on seeing Ning Cheng come in, greeted him, and immediately left the waiting room. The matters relating to Ning Cheng and Nalan Ruxue, she had already heard it from Meng Jingxiu. Speaking of which, this was Nalan Ruxue's second visit to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect, the first time was when she came to visit Meng Jingxiu.

"What matter did you come here looking for me?" Ning Cheng asked after motioning Nalan Ruxue to sit down.

If it were Yan Ji, he would have felt happy. Even if it was not Yan Ji, and instead was Cheng Yixiao, he would feel a lot more comfortable compared to seeing this woman.

When Nalan Ruxue came here, he really did not feel even half a bit happy. Comparing appearances, Nalan Ruxue might not be worse when compared to Yan Ji, and not worse than the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's first beauty Luo Ziyuan. However, Nalan Ruxue possessed a genuinely reviling character. It was no surprise that Ning Cheng felt a slight hatred towards this woman.

However, there was also no denying the remarkable qualifications of this Nalan Ruxue. It hadn't been long since she arrived at the Tian Continent, yet she had already advanced to the 5th Level of Sea Opening Realm in her cultivation. Cultivation level wise, she was slightly higher than he was.

"I joined the Battle Devil Hall. After coming out of seclusion, I learned of your grand wedding, which made me specifically come here to congratulate you." Nalan Ruxue seemed to already know that Ning Cheng did not have even the slightest bit of good impression of her, causing her to speak up in a slightly cautious tone.

Towards the congratulations offered by Nalan Ruxue, Ning Cheng didn't take it to heart. Even if Nalan Ruxue came with genuine intentions to congratulate him, he and Nalan Ruxue could never become friends. However, he genuinely felt surprised when he heard that Nalan Ruxue had joined the Battle Devil Hall. Moreover, the Battle Devil hall remained ranked second among the ten top factions of the Tian Continent. Second only to the Thousand Buddhist Hall and even stronger than the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Moreover, the Battle Devil Hall actually was a faction that specially nurtured Devil Cultivators. Although Tian Continent did not differentiate between Devil Cultivators and Dao Cultivators, when it came to the Le Continent, Devil Cultivators always remained mortal enemies to the locals. Because of his use of the embryonic form of the Cosmic True Devil Axe, resulting in Devil Qi spill over, it resulted in the issuance of a warrant for his death. Nalan Ruxue herself was someone from the Le Continent; properly speaking, she should feel repugnant towards Devil Cultivators, so how could she join a Devil Cultivator faction?

Le Continent's Thoughtless Academy also had extreme prejudice against the Devil Cultivators. Nevertheless, the premier disciple of the Thoughtless Academy joining the Battle Devil Hall. It could not be any more ironic.

"Oh, I never thought that you would join the Battle Devil Hall... Congratulations, congratulations." Initially thinking about the time when the Thoughtless Academy had issued a warrant for his arrest, Ning Cheng would have wanted to retort with a sarcastic remark. However, thinking that the other party had come congratulating him for his grand wedding, he immediately swallowed the words that had just arrived at the tip of his tongue. Saying that it was also unlikely to forever hold back his tongue.

Nalan Ruxue lowered her head. No one but she knew as to why she joined the Battle Devil Hall. With her qualifications, she could have entered any of the major factions within the Tian Continent easily; however, she chose to enter the Battle Devil Hall.

“This is a small gift for you and Big Sister Luofei.” Nalan Ruxue handed Ning Cheng a jade box.

Ning Cheng silently took the jade box but did not open it. Just worded a thank you.

Seeing Ning Cheng accept the jade box, Nalan Ruxue gave a sigh. She stood up again, before giving a respectful bow, “Sect Master Ning, this time apart from coming here to congratulate you for your wedding, I came here to apologise and also thank you for saving my life. If it weren’t for you, I’m afraid that that Sikong Kai would have already swallowed me completely without even leaving behind any dregs. I used to be ignorant before, not only did I not thank you, I even doubted you.”

For Nalan Ruxue, this was perhaps the first time for her to solemnly apologise to another person. If she were like before, then even if she had done something wrong, she would have at most felt upset. Although she might have felt somewhat apologetic, she definitely would never apologise to others.

Instead, she felt influenced by Meng Jingxiu’s words. In the beginning, she did not know much about Meng Jingxiu’s qualifications. Even though Ning Cheng had asked Meng Jingxiu to join the Thoughtless Academy; however, Nalan Ruxue had ultimately rejected her admission. However, when she met Meng Jingxiu again in the Tian Continent, Meng Jingxiu was already a late stage Crucible Transformation Cultivator, while she had only recently stepped into the early stages of the Sea Opening Realm.

Similarly, she had once looked down upon Ning Cheng and had disdained the thought of him joining the Thoughtless Academy. However, Ning Cheng was now a Sect Master of one of the ten most highly rated factions of the Tian Continent. Even the heads of the Battle Devil Hall had to personally come out and congratulate Ning Cheng. Ning Cheng, whom she had thought as someone who could never catch up to her, had now transformed into someone that she could never hope to even catch up to.

Sometimes, what the eyes perceive might not be the truth. Meng Jingxiu and Ning Cheng, both of whom she had deemed inferior to her, were both now far beyond her reach. This allowed her to understand a painful truth. That at any time, one must not look at how great one currently is, maybe many years later, in the eyes of those whom you once looked down upon, you might turn equally insignificant.

She recalled the words Meng Jingxiu said to her when she met her last time. Meng Jingxiu had said to her, “Nalan Ruxue, the fact is, in my eyes, you are just someone who holds a golden key; there would always be someone or the other to pave the road for you. I’m not mocking you; it’s just stating a fact.”

“For an ungrateful person, even if there were more golden keys in your possession, your achievements will always remain limited. To save you, Ning Cheng had secretly snuck into a Profound Congealing Cultivator’s Immortal Cave along with me. I can vouch that the Profound Congealing Nefarious Cultivator indeed was quite evil. At first sight of you, he tore off all your clothes. As for what he wanted to do to you, I believe that you should already understand by now.”

“At that time, Ning Cheng was only at the early stages of the Essence Building Realm, while that tomb contained not just a single Profound Congealing Cultivator. Other than Sikong Kai, there was even that Hang Jiaojiao. Ning Cheng was playing with his own life to save yours. Yet, how did you pay Ning Cheng back? I do not want to say any ungrateful words, but this is indeed the case. To be honest, I have never met anyone like Ning Cheng. He indeed possesses a compassionate and kind heart. That is the only reason why I am willing to be his friend and why I chose to come to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect.”

Although Nalan Ruxue knew that what Meng Jingxiu had spoken might not entirely be right, at least the part about possessing a golden key and about hiding behind her background to cultivate. However, she also did not refute Meng Jingxiu’s words, as she genuinely mistreated Ning Cheng. Unfortunately, the words in her heart, she honestly could not tell them to anyone at all.

That time, when she left the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect after meeting her, she at least understood one truth. That is, one’s faction or master might not always be in the right, there would still be some things that one would have to judge for themselves. From the Law’s Way, she knew that Ning Cheng had saved her, but under her master’s preaching, she could not turn herself into someone like Yan Ji.

Yan Ji, a woman much more independent, when compared to her; after she acknowledged Ning Cheng, no matter who it was, whether her academy or even her own clan, none of them could affect her beliefs.

Once Yue Ying had also said to her, that Ning Cheng had once conveyed to her that sometimes what we see is not necessarily the truth. Yue Ying had understood this reason much earlier compared to her, while she, Nalan Ruxue, had only come to realise it recently.

However, regarding Nalan Ruxue’s apology or her gratitude, Ning Cheng did not feel too touched about it. Imagine if he perished under the hands of Nalan Ruxue’s master, the Daoist Priestess, all those years ago. Would someone like Nalan Ruxue even recall who Ning Cheng was if that had honestly happened? On the other hand, maybe she would have already forgotten him, tossed to one side, a mere speck in her memory.

Initially, Nalan Ruxue might not have doubted him; however, she had used him. Nevertheless, Ning Cheng did not want to care about such things.

“I’ve already forgotten about those things.” Ning Cheng spoke up plainly.

She did not care about Ning Cheng’s tone; after Nalan Ruxue heard those words, it seemed that she relaxed a little. It was her own master who had released the rumour that she and Ning Cheng had already done the deed between a husband and wife; however, she deliberately did not stop those words from spreading. This matter, only she understood that she was not the one to use Ning Cheng; however, she also did not feel it necessary to go and find Ning Cheng to explain it.

“Yue Ying and Yue Yuanhua, after getting to know that the Thoughtless Academy issued an arrest warrant for you, felt very discontented with me and the Thoughtless Academy, which led to them leaving the academy. As to where they are right now, even I do not know.” Nalan Ruxue continued.

Ning Cheng, only at this moment, recalled this pair of gifted siblings, and An Yi, which suddenly caused him to feel apologetic. When he was in the Le Continent, he didn’t even have a single thought of going to look for the three of them.

“After saying these words, I feel much more at ease. I will be taking my leave now.” Nalan Ruxue did not continue to linger around, before turning around and leaving quickly.

Ning Cheng also did not stop Nalan Ruxue. He estimated that there should not be any more chances for them to meet in the future. Opening the jade box, Ning Cheng only found an Escape Talisman. In the past, when forced by Nalan Ruxue's master, he had used this same Escaping Talisman to make his escape.

Closing the jade box again, Ning Cheng sat there for a long time. Only after Luofei came in, did he stand up and speak, "Luofei, I'm going to hand over the position of the Sect Master to Sect Master Tantai. We'll then depart for Heaven's Way; in any case, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect cannot be without a Sect Master."

After consulting with Tantai Fei and the two other Grand Elder Taoists, they also did not refuse Ning Cheng passing on the position of the Sect Master. With the approval of the several people, they decided that after Ning Cheng officially entered the Heaven's Way, the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect would once again host another Sect Master Ascension Ceremony.

Although the Spiritual Vein was in Ning Cheng's possession, after coming back to the sect, he couldn't spend even a single productive day in cultivation. After completing the procedure of passing on the Sect Master position to Tantai Fei, Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei then prepared themselves to go into seclusion.

Whether or not were there any dangers within the Heaven's Way, nobody could say for sure. However, there is a point that everyone knew, that is, many have managed to enter Heaven's Way; yet, no one had ever returned from there.

After taking out the Spiritual Vein from his Miniature World, Ning Cheng placed it under his Immortal Cave. The Miniature World did not contain any laws at all. As such, to obtain more power, going into seclusion in the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak would undoubtedly produce more powerful results than in his Miniature World.

Ji Luofei did not need to use the Spiritual Vein to cultivate like Ning Cheng; for her, as long as she had the Spirit Stones, it would be ok for her. Moreover, the Spirit Stones on Ning Cheng's body added up were at least a few hundred billion; as such, Ji Luofei could continue cultivating smoothly without any kind of pressure.

Three months later, Ning Cheng advanced to the 5th Level of Sea Opening Realm. Seven months later, Ning Cheng stormed through to the 6th Level of Sea Opening Realm. A year from then, when Ning Cheng almost consumed the entire Spiritual Vein, he narrowly advanced to the 7th Level of the Sea Opening Realm.

Ning Cheng clearly felt that even when cultivating with Spiritual Veins, his cultivation speed continued to drop. Tan Yun, with just a small piece of this Spiritual Vein, could already cultivate all the way up to the Crucible Transformation Realm, she even shared the remaining with Ning Ruolan and the others to cultivate. He had more than twice the size of Spiritual Vein compared to Tan Yun, yet he could only advance to the 7th Level of Sea Opening Realm, an advancement of only three minor levels. Although he still possessed the small clump of Essence of Wood, Ning Cheng was not willing to use it.

In any case, Ning Cheng knew that remaining behind in the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect did not have any meaning. So on this day, Ning Cheng first refined the Flame Beacon Diagram obtained from the Red Star

Sword Faction, then called out Luofei. They then proceeded to say their goodbyes to the Rainbow Fall Sword Sect's Tantai Fei, Zhong Liping, and other Crucible Transformation Cultivators, before moving onto the Rainbow Fall Sword Peak's Nan Yuefang, Lian'e, Yang Honghou, and the others before finally leaving.

Chapter 449: Breaking Into The Heaven's Way

The name 'Heaven's Way' not only represented pursuing the path of entering the Heavenly Dao, but it was also a path worthy of its name. In fact, the Heaven's Way, just like its name, existed in the skies above.

This was Ning Cheng's first time visiting Heaven's Way. At this moment, he was following behind Mu Ziming, Xiao Bisheng, Wu Mao, and the others. The flight-type Magical Weapons with their owners kept flying upwards. Just when Ning Cheng thought that they all were about to enter the Chaotic Star Space, all the flight-type Magical Weapons in front of him suddenly came to a stop.

The entrance to Heaven's Way was over a mountain, called the Heaven's Way Mountain. This was the only mountain peak within the Tian Continent, which remained eternally suspended in the sky. There were also several Crucible Transformation Cultivators residing within this mountain. All these Crucible Transformation Cultivators living here were from the Heaven Alliance; mainly stationed here to take care of the entrance to Heaven's Way.

A few hundred feet above this mountain suspended in the sky, there was an extremely faint ripple-like image. This was not a typical concentric ripple; instead, the ripples were in the shape of coils, coiling around themselves, moving from the inside to out.

Ning Cheng on looking at this peculiar ripple in the sky immediately realised that this should be the entrance to Heaven's Way.

Sure enough, Mu Ziming pointed to this ripple in front of them and spoke, "This is the entrance; however, it can't be opened just yet. If one wants to go in, then it would need a lot of Spirit Stones and Array Flags. These Array Flags must be refined from Mirage Stones to keep it in optimal operation."

Ning Cheng, as an Array Formation Grand Master, did not need Mu Ziming to explain it to him before he understood what was going on and immediately spoke up, "The original Array Formation laid out is improper. I suggest we lay down a proper Array Formation once and for all, that way anyone with the required strength can go in."

Ning Cheng had already mentioned this particular statement in the past and discussed it in detail with Wu Mao. Wu Mao and Ning Cheng had some differences between them due to the incident regarding the Spiritual Vein. However, since Heaven's Way concerned the entire Yi Xing Mainland, and Wu Mao being the Premier Array Formation Grand Master of the Tian Continent, coupled with two senior Dao Masters inviting him, he also had no reason not to come.

"I have already mentioned this idea to Brother Mu, to arrange a Lacerating Array Formation in this place. If one possessed a certain strength, then they then combine their strength with it to tear through this rippling sky and enter Heaven's Way. Otherwise, one would not be able to go in. The previous Array Formation, to forcibly attack and open the entrance to Heaven's Way, consumed a lot of materials, which also did not make much sense to continue it in the long haul.” Xiao Bisheng spoke out at the same time.

“I also agree with Brother Xiao’s view. I mean, although the previous Array Formation provided a supporting effect; however, if we can weaken the bindings of space in this location, and then tear through this space through the cultivator’s own strength, it would ensure that one would be able to enter Heaven’s Way at any time and from anywhere. At the same time, it would also ensure that one would not enter Heaven’s Way without possessing the necessary strength. Of course, the Mirage Stones required for arranging the Array Formation, I’ll be the one to take it out.” Ning Cheng immediately agreed to the idea of Xiao Bisheng. In fact, this was also what he intended.

He already possessed a bunch of Mirage Stones with him, which also included a few 9-Colored Mirage Stones. Other than the 9-Colored Mirage Stones, he also possessed other Mirage Stones.

Ning Cheng, originally a Tier 8 Array Formation Grandmaster, along with Wu Mao, a Tier 9 Array Formation Grandmaster, combined with the help provided by the other cultivators that surpassed Crucible Transformation Realm, needed only three days to complete the arrangement of the Lacerating Array Formation in front of the entrance of the Heaven’s Way.

A Spiritual Gathering Array provided the Spiritual Qi required for operating this Array Formation. When not in use, the Spiritual Qi from the Spiritual Gathering Array guaranteed that the Array Formation would not consume itself in the process. If someone wanted to enter the Heaven’s Way, then they were required to come up with an appropriate amount of Spirit Stones. These Spirit Stones could then play a role as both resources for the cultivators that looked after the entrance of Heaven’s Way and as additional consumable resources for the Lacerating Array Formation.

After finishing the arrangement of the Lacerating Array Formation at the entrance to the Heaven’s Way, the circular ripples at the entry became even clearer; however, the Array Formation still could not forcibly tear it apart with its own power. Therefore, anyone who wanted to enter through the entrance of the Heaven’s Way, they must rip through the opening by using their own strength.

“Ladies and gentlemen, the entrance to the Heaven’s Way has been secured. This Ning will be saying his goodbyes in light of this. In the future, if predestined, we will definitely meet in the vast starry sky.” After completing the arrangement of the Array Formation at the entrance of the Heaven’s Way, Ning Cheng no longer wanted to continue staying in this place. Whether it was for improving his own strength, or for finding his little sister as soon as possible, he hoped to enter Heaven’s Way as early as possible.

Even if he wanted to look for Shi Qionghua, he must first possess the ability to tear through the Void. Trapped in the Yi Xing Mainland, it was practically impossible to grow to the extent to be able to rip through the Void as he wished.

“Take care; we’ll definitely meet each other soon in the future.” Mu Ziming and the others gave their goodbyes to Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei. Although they had a full year to rest and recover, Mu Ziming and Xiao Bisheng still haven’t recovered fully. Therefore, if they wanted to enter the Heaven’s Way, they must wait until they recovered fully before going in.

“Let’s go.” Ning Cheng pulled Ji Luofei closer to him and raised his hand to grasp at the ripple-shaped entrance to Heaven’s Way.

Under the tearing force of Ning Cheng’s powerful True Essence, a slit immediately opened at the entrance. Then Ning Cheng immediately stepped into this newly opened slit, along with Ji Luofei. After they stepped through, the slit quickly vanished as if it never existed.

After Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei entered the Heaven’s Way, the Heaven’s Way entrance promptly disappeared behind them.

A violent squeezing force descended, causing Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei to almost feel suffocated. Not waiting for Ning Cheng to warn Ji Luofei, a dense cluster of Spacial Blade Lights flew over towards them.

Ning Cheng immediately brought out 12 Cosmic True Devil Axes to completely lock down their surroundings; at the same time, the Axe Shadows tore all those Spacial Blade Lights apart.

However, although these Blade Lights did not seem to be artificially induced, in just another breath, more clusters of Blade Lights shot towards them one after another.

Ning Cheng felt a bit worried thinking if Ruolan could block these Spacial Blade Lights or not; moreover, in addition to these Spacial Blade Light, the space here even created a squeezing pressure over them; if not for resisting it using their True Essence, even their storage rings would be squeezed and crushed into powder.

“Husband, you needn’t worry. Ruolan’s cultivation is a lot higher than my own. She will be ok. Moreover, she came here with many people. Even if they encountered any danger, there would still be someone to help her.” Ji Luofei and Ning Cheng knew each other very well. Therefore, she could easily read Ning Cheng’s thoughts.

Ning Cheng on hearing Ji Luofei’s words finally felt some relief. After coming in, he did not need to actively help Ji Luofei. Ji Luofei could cope with the squeezing space and the seemingly endless Spacial Blade Lights all by herself. From this, he realised that she had gained many experiences throughout the years.

Only at this moment could Ning Cheng feel free enough to observe the channel-like Heaven’s Way in front of him.

Although this channel-like Heaven’s Way stretched out in front of him, he just couldn’t see the end of it; moreover, his Spiritual Consciousness also could not sweep out far. There was only a dark, squeezing force pressing down on them, while the channel in front of him contained Spacial Wind Edges moving around at random. Beside this passage, there were even a few small Spacial Cracks.

“Luofei, stay close to me. We don’t have to be spread apart too open. Pay attention to those small Spacial Cracks. You must not go anywhere near to it.”

Along the way, the density of the Spacial Wind Blades increased gradually. However, with Ning Cheng’s strength, the two of them did not feel too much threat from them.

As a day passed by, Ning Cheng started to feel a little relieved. If this channel-like Heaven's Way remained like this, then it wouldn't be too much of a problem for him to walk out of this path within a month or two.

"Spacial Collapse..." Ji Luofei's horrified voice resounded. Ning Cheng did not think of anything and directly grabbed Ji Luofei while wielding the Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds.

Although he could also feel the Spacial Collapse, he had never expected a Spacial Collapse to occur within Heaven's Way. Once one fell into this collapse, who knows if one would find death or life?

Aided by the fast Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds, he managed to escape from the Spacial Collapse in just an instant. However, his Twin Wings of the Heavenly Clouds also ended up with many scratches from the incoming Spacial Wind Edges.

Although they managed to escape, Ji Luofei tightly grasped Ning Cheng's hand, while her heart still beat erratically. It might be just a Spacial Collapse, but if not for Ning Cheng, then she would not have necessarily managed to escape like a moment ago.

Ning Cheng felt a bit worried for Ruolan. Could she deal with such a Spacial Collapse if she encountered it? Not to mention Ning Cheng, even Ji Luofei felt concerned about it. If it was just the Spacial Squeeze and the Spacial Wind Edges, Ji Luofei believed that Ning Ruolan had the capabilities to block it; however, in the face of such sudden Spacial Collapses, it was just too dangerous.

After narrowly escaping a Spacial Collapse, Ning Cheng turned even more vigilant in using his Spiritual Consciousness. He had tempered his Spiritual Consciousness in the Chaotic Star Space; as such, it was far more resilient and could extend considerably more compared to any other average person. This allowed him to detect Spacial Collapses ahead of time, at the same time warn him about something potentially more dangerous.

Ji Luofei also began to carefully probe her surrounding using her Spiritual Consciousness. Her Spiritual Consciousness had also undergone tempering within the Chaotic Star Space. Although it might not be comparable to Ning Cheng's, she did not encounter any problems in predicting some of the Spacial Collapses.

After the couple walked for a few days, the two of them once again encountered several zones that contained dense clusters of Spacial Collapses. However, both of them relied on their pre-judgement, which allowed them to narrowly escape and avoid them all.

"Husband, Ruolan's Spiritual Consciousness has also undergone tempering within the Chaotic Star Space. I believe that she could also predict some of the things here in advance. You shouldn't worry too much about her." Although Ji Luofei tried her best to comfort him, Ning Cheng still did not feel too much relieved.

Initially, when they travelled from the Le Continent to the Tian Continent, Ruolan had also experienced Spiritual Consciousness quenching within the Chaotic Star Space. However, her cultivation was too low at that time. Every so often, she did not dare to cast out her Spiritual Consciousness.

When the two of them walked through the ninth day, all of a sudden, all the Spacial Wind Edges unexpectedly disappeared. Then, a powerful shock blew over, seemingly intent on blowing them away from their current position.

Ning Cheng did not have any time to ponder over it; he directly embraced Ji Luofei tightly within his arms. Then, ensuring they remained wholly protected, he allowed this shockwave to sweep them away.

This shockwave did not last long. After just a few breaths, the eyes of the two opened towards a brightly lit scene. Immediately, the two of them found themselves standing on top of a colossal stone megalith.

Ning Cheng estimated that this stone megalith was at least a few dozen miles in size. Judging from the surrounding Spiritual Qi and the gentle space around them, Ning Cheng knew that they should have come out of Heaven's Way.

There were a few buildings atop this megalith, as well as several shops. There were vague shadows of cultivators coming in and out of them. At the same time, this stone seemed suspended in the Void. Also, at the edge of this megalith, there were even several huge ships.

"We came out. This stone definitely does not belong to Heaven's Way. This place definitely isn't within the Yi Xing Mainland. We definitely have also never been to this place." Ning Cheng spoke while letting go of Ji Luofei's hand.

As soon as Ji Luofei was about to speak, three male cultivators came out of the row of buildings not too far from them. Out of these three people, the highest cultivation belonged to a man wearing ragged clothes, possessing cultivation of Crucible Transformation 7th Level. Of the other two men, the one with the small and stout figure possessed cultivation of Crucible Transformation 5th Level. While the one with a slightly blackish face possessed cultivation of Crucible Transformation 6th Level.

"Swish Swish..." A few whistling sounds emerged one after another, followed by a few Taoist shadows descending onto the megalith. This time, it was a group of three men and a woman. All four of them were Crucible Transformation Cultivators, while the highest cultivation among them was that of Crucible Transformation 4th Level.

"Ha-Ha, there are a lot of people today coming out of the Heaven's Way, aah. Six in one go." The man who spoke was the stout and diminutive looking cultivator.

Ning Cheng's felt his thoughts racing. From the words of this short cultivator, he vaguely guessed that the Heaven's Way did not exclusively belong to the Yi Xing mainland. Cultivators from elsewhere could also pass through Heaven's Way. As for the three men and the women, they should have come in from another region.

"Yi, there is a Sea Opening ant among them...." That short male cultivator spoke out in surprise.

Chapter 450: Receiving Heaven's Stone

"This woman..." The stout and short male cultivator suddenly paused when he saw Ji Luofei. It was not that he had never seen a beautiful woman in this place; even for someone as beautiful as Ji Luofei, he had occasionally seen a few. However, for someone as beautiful as Ji Luofei, only accompanied by a Sea Opening Cultivator, it was a first for his eyes.

After saying these words, he swallowed a mouthful of saliva and continued, "I want her."

The two people with him did not feel surprised about it. In their opinion, no matter who Ji Luofei was, coming here with just a Sea Opening Cultivator was no different from allowing others to prey on her. If this woman had come here accompanying a Crucible Transformation Cultivator in the late stages, then there would still be some leeway.

"Oh, the other one is quite good as well." This time the one who spoke was the dark-faced Crucible Transformation 6th Level Cultivator. The person he was referring to was the other women from the group of three men and a woman. All year round, they had nothing to do other than charging people a variety of fees, turning their days dull and monotonous. It would not come with too much surprise for them to swap around a few female cultivators.

Of course, there were also rules for this kind of thing, that is, the opposite party must agree to it, one way or another. It was best if they did not try to poke stronger parties that way the matter would also not blow out of proportion. However, with just a Sea Opening Cultivator accompanying a Crucible Transformation 2nd Level Female Cultivator, even if they blew it out of proportion, they believed that they would still be able to handle it.

"The six of you come over." The ragged robed cultivator with the highest cultivation among the three called out to the Ning Cheng duo, the other three men, and the woman.

When Ning Cheng heard that short cultivator, wording out the words 'this woman...' a faint trace of killing intent started to manifest within his heart. His Spiritual Consciousness was dominant, and his True Essence foundation extremely deep. Even if he was not standing close to the opposite party, he could still hear their words clearly. However, he was not very clear about the situation in this place; as such, he could only hold back his killing intent within his heart for the time being.

"I believe that it should be a first for the several of you to arrive at the Receiving Heaven's Stone. Let me briefly introduce ourselves to you. I'm Gary, from the Extinguishing Karma Star Fleet."

The ragged robed cultivator spoke, then pointed to the dark-faced Crucible Transformation 6th Level Cultivator at his side and spoke, "This is Bian Shao, from the Black City Pill Union. The other one is Cecile, from the Auspicious Star Chamber of Commerce."

Ning Cheng finally got the name of this short and stout cultivator staring at Ji Luofei, called Cecile, from the Auspicious Star Chamber of Commerce. However, what made Ning Cheng somewhat puzzled was Gary's introduction. It indicated that these three people were not from the same place.

"Gary, my friend. We have just arrived at the Receiving Heaven's Stones. However, can you point us out towards the nearest mainland?" The skinny looking male cultivator from the other group of three men and a woman asked a question. They should be the same as Ning Cheng, who came from somewhere else.

Gary waved his hand and spoke, "You don't have to worry about the specifics. Let me tell you about the specific situation here. There is no mainland from here on out, only the infinite Void. If you want to go through the Void to seek out a mainland within the starry skies of the vast universe, then let me state it clearly that it is not a simple matter at all. Even if you fly with a Best Quality True Artefact for countless years, you may not find even a single viable mainland. However, since we are here, then we can also help you all.”

“Then we ask Brother Gary for guidance.” The pale-skinned male cultivator spoke up in a polite and friendly manner.

Gary nodded before speaking, “It is not easy to survive in the vast Void of the endless universe. However, we can send you to a place called the Rootless Black City. Almost all the cultivators that come in through the Heaven’s Way will choose to stay at the Rootless Black City for a period. Only after your strength improves to the point that you can be considered powerful within the Rootless Black City, then with the help of our Chambers of Commerce or with the help of our fleets, would you then have a chance to enter a mainland within the starry sky.”

Ning Cheng immediately noticed the meaning and intent behind Gary’s words, that is, whether it was to reach the Rootless Black City or to find a mainland within the vast starry sky, the newly arrived crowd could not do anything by themselves. However, if they were willing to pay a certain price, then these forces here could help them.

“Then, may I ask Brother Gary, since we are cultivators who just arrived, as to what needs to be done?” The pale-faced male cultivator continued.

Gary gave the nod before speaking, “It’s a good question. You can take our airship to enter the Rootless Black City. Then while cultivating within the Rootless Black City, you can choose to head into the Void to search for Black Essence Stones, that way you would have the opportunity to enter the starry sky. Remember; be sure to enlist our help first. If you enter the Void without permission or want to enter the Rootless Black City on your own, then I regret to inform you all that you all would die without a doubt.”

“Does it mean that if we do not wish to enter your airships, then you would kill us?” The other female cultivator asked a question, her expression showing slight discomfort.

Ning Cheng had already noticed that this female cultivator possessed quite the looks to her, with a bright complexion, and a healthy cream-coloured skin; coupled with a cultivator robe made out of reds, greens, and greys, it only served to highlight her graceful stature. Apparently, she was a person who liked dressing up. Her beauty might be graded seven out of ten, but with the addition of this dress though, it immediately rose up a grade.

Gary laughed before speaking, “Our Extinguishing Karma Starry Sky Fleet is a relatively famous Starry Sky Fleet. How could we indulge in such a matter? Not to mention our fleet, even the fleets belonging to the Auspicious Star Chamber of Commerce and the Black City Pill Union’s fleet would never do such a thing. If you do not want to ride in our fleet, then you are free to not choose us. However, as long as you leave the Receiving Heaven’s Stone, even if you were at the Plundering Life Realm, you will only meet death, without the possibility of life.”

“The outside of the Receiving Heaven’s Stone is much more dangerous compared to Heaven’s Way you just passed through. Not to mention that it contains Spatial Wind Edges everywhere, even if was a tiny speck of a meteorite shooting past you; it would be more than enough to shatter your corporeal body to dust. In addition to this, if you end up encountering a Spatial Misalignment, then rather than dying outright, you’d willingly wish for death. Also, let me give you one last reminder, leaving the Receiving Heaven's Way is extremely easy; however, wanting to come back inside again, I would suggest that you forget even entertaining such a notion."

The female cultivator's face changed but did not continue to speak. Although her Spiritual Consciousness could not sweep throughout the Receiving Heaven's Stone, she sensed that this saying was not shocking at all; instead, it was very likely true.

Ning Cheng finally heard the name of the realm above the Crucible Transformation Realm, the Plundering Life Realm. He didn't have much doubt towards what Gary spoke. This Receiving Heaven's Stone seemed protected by a natural restriction; moreover, even his Spiritual Consciousness could not sweep out of it. Just like the female cultivator, he had a premonition that the outside Void was not something simple. However, when it came to the restrictions protecting the Receiving Heaven's Stone, as Gary mentioned it, he found it easy to get out, but hard to go back in.

"Then many thanks for Brother Gary's reminders, I am called Lan Wenbin. I would also like to ask Brother Gary, how many Spirit Stones would be needed if I want to go to the Rootless Black City?" The pale-skinned man spoke up in a more conscientious tone. He realised that these people have been camping here for a long time, and it definitely was not because they liked doing good deeds.

Gary smiled before speaking, "Spirit Stones are only needed where you came from. We do not use Spirit Stones here, what we use here are Black Coins....."

"Black Coins?" Even Ning Cheng felt a little bit surprised. Coins were things used in the secular world. How could coins be a currency in a True Cultivator Community?

"Yes, it's Black Coins. I guess that you people don't have any Black Coins on you, but it doesn't matter. You can also exchange for them. A thousand High-Grade Spirit Stones for a Black Coin. From here to the Rootless Black City, you would need 100,000 Black Coins. If you do not have the necessary Black Coins, then you won't be able to buy the ticket." Gary spoke out in a flat voice; however, his words also showed his real fangs.

"What?" The six people, including Ning Cheng, were utterly shocked. According to what the other party spoke, if one wanted to go to the Rootless Black City from this place, then it would require 100 million Spirit Stones. An ordinary cultivator, even one coming from a wealthy background, would not have these many Spirit Stones. The only reason why Ning Cheng could possess a few billions of Spirit Stones was all due to what he recovered from the sale of the Geocentric 9 Yin Essence and 9-Colored Mirage Tree. Otherwise, even if he toiled very hard, he would not possess these many Spirit Stones.

Moreover, Ning Cheng absolutely did not believe this conversion ratio. Even if this conversion ratio was genuine, he did not think that taking a seat on the Airship would require 100 million Spirit Stones. This was like being a billionaire with only 2 billion Yuan. If this wealthy man took out and spent a hundred million Yuan for just a plane ticket, then even his family property would not be enough for him to travel back and forth to the same place more than ten times.

Ning Cheng pulled back Ji Luofei and spoke, "Luofei, let's go inside and have a look around."

Saying that Ning Cheng then directly turned away from the Gary trio. He wanted to enter the row of buildings behind them. Since they seemed to be some Merchant Houses here, he wished to purchase information from these Merchant Houses.

The short and stout cultivator called Cecile, who had kept his eyes on Ji Luofei at all times, on seeing Ning Cheng about to leave, immediately stepped forward and stopped Ning Cheng and Ji Luofei, "Wait."

Ning Cheng coldly spoke up, "What, do you want to rob us now?"

"Oh, I wouldn't dare to rob anyone. However, you're just a puny Sea Opening Cultivator, how would it be worth for me to rob you? I'm just here to help you. This female cultivator can stay with me; I can help you out with 20,000 Black Coins. You can go to the Rootless Black City first, while this female cultivator can go there afterwards."

Cecile spoke in a taken-for-granted tone. In his view, this was all a natural matter.

"Not interested." Ning Cheng barely restrained his anger. Behind Cecile was the Auspicious Star Chamber of Commerce. He had no prior contact with this Chamber of Commerce, while he had just learned about cultivators in the Plundering Life Realm from Gary's mouth. This level of existence was a full realm higher than Crucible Transformation Cultivators. Since the Auspicious Star Chamber of Commerce can set up a base here, then it was only logical that they had at least one cultivator in the Plundering Life Realm. As such, he definitely had to be careful with his ways.

"Even if you are not interested, you will have to show interest. This master wants this woman today. If I say, go then go, if I say don't go then don't even dream about leaving." If not for Ji Luofei, why would Cecile, a Crucible Transformation 5th Level Cultivator, even exchange a few words with a puny cultivator like Ning Cheng in the Sea Opening Realm? Moreover, it was his Auspicious Star Chamber of Commerce's turn for business today.

In the face of this, Ning Cheng calmed down. Even if Cecile wanted to kill him, he believed that if it were that easy to seize people in the Receiving Heaven's Stone, then after passing through the Heaven's Way, it would be tantamount to entering a lawless world. Even if this place relied on strength, there would still be a few public rules.

Thinking until here, Ning Cheng secretly prepared a crystal ball, before asking calmly, "My wife and I just want to take a stroll through the Receiving Heaven's Stone, do you really intend to seize people forcefully? Is it possible that reason doesn't exist in the Receiving Heaven's Stone, in other words, is everything decided by you all? Who do you even represent?"

"Haha, still talking about reason with this master. That's right; this grandpa has the final say here. This master, on behalf of the Auspicious Star Chamber of Commerce, wants your woman. Moreover, you will even have to deliver her by yourself with your own hands. As for those 20,000 Black Coins, you can forget about it. Now that this master has laid down his words, then this woman will remain behind, even if she does not want to stay back she will be staying back."

Cecile laughed, while a hand shot towards Ning Cheng.

Ning Cheng pulled Ji Luofei back a few steps, slipping past Cecile's hand before speaking, "Since we do not agree, did you really think that you would be able to kill us, husband and wife?"

"That's right, I just have to kill you, what could you even do?" Cecile spoke up while slowly pulling out a blue knife. The knife had not fully come out when a few Knife Lights already shot towards Ning Cheng.

Ning Cheng put away the crystal ball and no longer bothered to play around with Cecile, while immediately bringing out his Nirvana Spear. At the same time, a berserk Spear Intent tore through the space between him and Cecile as it shot towards Cecile. No matter who he was, daring to have ideas over Luofei, he would never show even half a shred of mercy towards people like him.
