

The Girl CB 1021

Chapter 1021 He Never Showed Any Mercy to His Enemies

“Listen to me,” William took her hand and patted the back of her hand, saying in a serious tone. “You should understand what I mean. “Sooner or later, the President’s office and the Garrett family will go against each other.”

In a few months, it would be time for the six year presidential election.

He would seek a second term in office.

But the Garrett family was supporting his opponent. So, whether he could win a second term or not, he would be on the opposite side of the Garrett family.

Since the Garrett family chose to support his opponent, it would be his enemy

He never showed any mercy to his enemies.

Nikita left the gym and went to the Lambert Group

After she parked her car she sent Sheehan a message, telling him that she had arrived at his office.

Sheehan replied after a second, I’m still out on business, I’ll send Vernon down to pick you up. Wait for me in the office for a while, I’ll be right back”

Nikita replied, simply and nicely, “Sure

When Nikita walked into the lobby, she saw Vernon coming out of the elevator. When he looked up, he saw Nikita and immediately ran towards her Vernon stopped in front of her and slightly lowered his head, saying respectfully. "Miss Swift, Mr. Lambert has gone out for a business talk. He asked me to receive you "Please follow me to Mr.

Lambert's office."

Nikita nodded, "Okay."

"Miss Swift, please Vernon led the way. After he reached the elevator and pressed the open button, he stood aside respectfully and waited for Nikita to enter the elevator first

A few seconds later, the elevator doors slowly closed

Only then did those employees in the lobby who were peeping lower their voices to discuss

The two new female receptionists had never seen Nikita before. Seeing Vernon treating Nikita with so much respect, they couldn't help but ask other staff next to them with curiosity. "Who is that girl Assistant Wilson received? Is she Mr Lambert's sister?*

It was known to the staff of the Lambert Group that Mr. Lambert had a cousin.

And that girl was a student.

The girl was wearing a school uniform. And she was so pretty and had such a good temperament, so she must be Mr. Lambert's cousin.

"That's not Mr. Lambert's cousin." The staff who knew the inside story also lowered their voices to introduce the situation to the two receptionists, "I heard that girl is Mr. Lambert's girlfriend. Mr. Lambert really likes her."

“Do you know why the previous two receptionists left the Lambert Group? “It was because they treated Mr. Lambert’s girlfriend badly when she came to the company for the first time. Mr. Lambert fired them to seek revenge for his girlfriend!

“So you must pay attention. Next time you see Mr. Lambert’s girlfriend, don’t be so stupid like those two staff members,”

The two receptionists who originally wanted to gossip broke out in a cold sweat.

They were curious about why someone would leave the Lambert Group when they had such good benefits here.

It turned out that they were fired.

The reason was that they had offended Mr. Lambert’s girlfriend.

“Miss Swift, if you need anything, just let me know.”

Vernon opened the door of the president’s office. He stood at the door and didn’t go in, He said respectfully, “Or, you can ring Secretary Chew to help. If you don’t have anything else, I’ll leave for work.”

“Hmm.” Nikita nodded and walked into the office

Vernon gently closed the room door behind him.

Chapter 1022 Mr. Lambert Really Likes His Girlfriend

His office was very big. The main colors were black, white, and gray. Because there was not much furniture placed in the office, it looked a bit empty.

This was Nikita’s second visit to the Lambert Group.

She hadn't taken a good look at Sheehan's office before.

This time, she was alone in the office. She was bored. So, she started to look around the office

There was not much furniture. So, she could see the whole office at a glance.

There was one bar sofa, one coffee table, one set of desks and chairs, and a wall of bookshelves filled with books.

Nikita didn't have any interest in anything else. She was a little interested in the shelves full of books.

She went over and took out two books. They were all in French

Then she looked at the other books on the shelf, and they were all written in foreign languages.

The types of books covered a wide range

There were books written in all genres, from ancient times to modern times, and from astronomy to geography.

There were at least a thousand books.

Nikita casually flipped through a book about management which was written in German. She found that Sheehan had already finished this book. And there were his notes on it

His handwriting was beautiful. He made some margin notes with his own insights and analysis. Nikita originally was going to flip through the book. But after seeing Sheehan's insightful notes, she started to read his notes carefully.

Her reading speed was quick. In a short time, she had turned almost half of the book.

She found that Sheehan would write some of his own insights next to the opinions and theories that he did not agree with. And she thought Sheehan's own opinions were more useful than the ones in the book.

Even Nikita, who was not very good at management, felt that she had learned a lot of useful tips after reading the opinions and analysis that Sheehan had specially marked out.

She flipped through half of the book and took another book to read it. After that, she found that Sheehan had also made notes in another book.

Apparently, he had also read another book.

With the idea of confirming something, Nikita took a few more books off the shelf and flipped through them. All of them had Sheehan's notes on them.

She even saw a comment on a romance novel.

It was a realistic romance novel in French. The story in the book was not a happy one. It was about a man and woman who loved each other very much. The story was about how they met, how they fell in love, and the life after they got married and had children.

In the novel, the hero and heroine loved each other very much. And the hero also promised that he would only love the heroine in his life.

But in the end, less than two years after the woman died of illness, he fell in love with another woman and got married to that woman.

What the author wanted to express was that imaginary love was beautiful, but it would not exist in real life. Because real life was not a fairy tale.

Sheehan wrote a comment on the last page, "Anthony does not really love Jenny, True love is unique and inseparable. "If I fall in love with someone, I will not have anyone else in this life except her

When Nikita saw this paragraph, she felt her heart struck lightly by something. And at that moment, her heart was beating fast.

She wondered what kind of feelings Sheehan would have for her

If they separated in the future, would he be with another woman?

For no reason, Nikita felt inexplicably uncomfortable thinking that he would be with another woman in the future.

Chapter 1023 Why Are You So Good Today?

In the past, she always felt that she and Sheehan would not last long and would soon be separated. And she didn't feel anything when she thought that they would be separated And she had always felt that it would not be a big deal for her to break up with Sheehan. She thought she would be more free and more comfortable on her own

But recently, as soon as she thought about it, somehow she felt uncomfortable

She did not know what was wrong with her.

But she didn't feel right.

Nikita stood by the bookshelf with a book in her hand, dazed. And she, who had always been most alert, did not even notice the office door was pushed open and someone walked in.

She came back to her senses only when Sheehan walked up to her and took the book out of her hand

Sheehan smiled and stroked on the top of her head, asking in a gentle, deep voice, "What are you thinking about?"

Nikita turned her head and stared blankly at his handsome face. Her confused gaze fell on his deep brow. And after a while, her expression returned to normal. She reached out and took back the book he had taken away.

She turned around and put the books back onto the shelf one by one.

Without answering his question, she changed the subject and asked, "How come you're back so soon?"

Sheehan did not continue to ask her any questions. And he took her hand naturally and led her to the sofa to sit down, saying, "You are here. Of course, I had to come back as soon as possible. Are you done with your business?"

"Well, sort of." Nikita nodded.

She had refused William in very clear terms. The President's Office wouldn't force her.

Nor could she be forced.

"Will you come with me to visit Grandpa at Lamber's house tonight?"

The girl had fair skin and extremely delicate features. She nodded and said in a sweet and gentle way. "Sure"

Her obedient sweet look was particularly endearing

Sheehan laughed lightly and squeezed her soft palm. Why are you so nice today?"

Nikita raised her eyebrows, "When have I ever been not nice?"

F

Sheehan let out a low chuckle again. He stroked her head with his big hand. And he changed his tone into a lower and softer voice, 'Well, my Niky has been very nice"

His tone was so doting and gentle

Nikita looked up and met his extraordinarily deep eyes and felt her heart beat hard

His features are extraordinarily handsome, like being sculpted out. Especially when he looked at someone with his dark, deep eyes, it felt like he had an ocean in his eyes. His affectionate eyes could make people willingly drown in them.

After meeting his eyes for a few seconds, Nikita felt her heart fluttering hard.

Sheehan really had an outstanding look

If he hadn't been so good-looking, she wouldn't have been charmed by his good looks

Originally, she thought that she would lose her interest in his face after dating him for a while, just like she did with Xavier.

She didn't have any interest in Xavier

But she found that she would still be amazed by his good looks, and she would still have a strong interest in him.

And she even had more interest in him than she had when she first met him.

She did not know what this meant.

Anyway, she was satisfied with Shechan. If he kept performing as well as he did now, she could go out with him for longer.

In the Lambert's house...

Everyone was busy in and outside the kitchen.

Chapter 1024 His Child Seemed to Go Wrong

It was said that the young master would bring Miss Swift to dinner in the evening So, Old Mr. Lambert was very happy. He asked the chef to start preparing early, and asked the servant to list a menu for the kitchen. The menu was filled with Miss Swift's favorite dishes.

It was said that Old Mr. Lambert liked Miss Swift very much before, and has regarded Miss Swift as his future grandson's wife, which seemed to be true.

Old Mr Lambert has never paid so much attention to the young master

Miss Swift was beautiful and has very powerful medical skills. She also cured Old Mr Lambert. It was normal for Old Mr. Lambert to like her.

They liked such a fairy-like little girl.

Because Nikita was coming. Old Mr. Lambert was happy all day.

On this day, the atmosphere in the house of the Lambert family was also jubilant like during a holiday.

Felton was home first.

He saw that a group of people in the house were going back and forth, even Uncle Paul looked very busy. He stopped a servant to ask, "Is there a guest at home?"

"Sir, the young master will bring Miss Swift back later" The maid answered respectfully

Felton clenched his lips and walked upstairs without saying a word.

The maid looked at the back of him going upstairs and muttered curiously. Does he had an issue with Miss Swift?"

Otherwise, how could he act like that when he heard that Miss Swift was coming.

He looked unhappy

According to the temper of the young master, this was possible. Maybe they really had a quarrel.

Sheehan parked his car, unfastened his seat belt first, and then bent over to Sheehan Nikitas seat belt

When he approached, the attractive and tranquil fragrance on his body rushed to her nose, and his deep magnetic voice flew into her ear, "Are you sleepy?" "Would you like to go to my room to sleep for a while and eat later?"

After Nikita got in the car, she slept with her eyes closed.

Although she woke up at the moment, she looked lazy and dizzy.

She let him serve her, covered her lips and yawned lazily. Her voice was lazy too, "Let's eat first. I am hungry."

Sheehan unfastened her seat belt, chuckled, stretched out her hand and rubbed her head. He smiled kindly. Then we will eat first. After that, you can go to my room to have a good sleep."

Nikita lifted her eyes, and her smile at the corners of her mouth was very light with some profound meaning. To your room?"

The man's eyes were quite honest, and he shook her hand, "You should use my bed and I will sleep on the sofa" "If you don't trust me. I can go to the guest room."

Nikita had nothing to worry about and trusted him.

Sheehan was a gentleman in some aspects, and he would definitely not force her

"I have nothing to worry about" She half narrowed her eyes, smiled, and used her white and beautiful fingers to touch his firm jaw. What she said was also like flirting. It was slow, "I am afraid that you will lose your self-control, and felt uncomfortable at that time

Nikita flirted him and escaped from him. She stretched out her hand to open the door and got out the car

Sheehan:

His girlfriend seem to have gone bad.

He didn't know who she learned it from.

Uncle Paul came out early and was waiting for them. When he saw Nikita get out of the car, he immediately stepped forward and greet respectfully, "Miss Swift"

People in the house, including Uncle Paul, have already regarded Nikita as their future hostess.

Sheehan also knew it.

Only Nikita didn't know.

Nikita nodded toward Uncle Paul as a response.

Chapter 1025 Gifts

Sheehan then got out of the car, walked to Nikita's side, gently took her waist with one hand, and hugged her. They walked towards the house together.

Entering the hall, Uncle Paul quickly walked to Old Mr Lambert and said with a smile, "Mr. Lambert, the young master and Miss Swift are back."

Old Mr. Lambert was sitting in the living room and drinking tea. He looked up, and immediately waved to her with smile as soon as he saw Nikita, "Niky, you are here, come here quickly. Grandpa wants to show you something good, you will definitely like it!"

After talking to Nikita, Old Mr. Lambert turned his head and told Uncle Paul, 'Go and take down the gift 1 prepared for the Niky!

Uncle Paul respectfully responded and turned upstairs to get it.

Sheehan walked over with Nikita in his arms and sat down beside Old Mr. Lambert He sat down next to Nikita, and his big hand still didn't move away from her waist

A maid sent a cup of milk tea just made. Sheehan reached out and picked it up and handed it to Nikita, "Your favonte milk tea, try it

Nikita looked at the milk tea handed over by the man and took it. She lowered her head and sipped.

It was delicious, better than the milk tea in store outside.

And in terms of health, it must be much healthier than that in the store

Old Mr. Lambert certainly didn't like to drink milk tea, and Sheehan didn't like to drink either Nikita seldom saw Felton drink milk tea. Obviously, this milk tea was specially prepared for her alone.

As for who made it prepared, it was not difficult to guess.

Nikita looked up at the man next to her and smiled happily

Uncle Paul soon came down from upstairs

He had a sandalwood box in his hand. The box looked heavy and precious

"Niky, I heard that you won the first place in the country in the English competition before I thought that you should be rewarded with something. But I didn't know what you really like, so I prepared this gift according to my own conjecture."

"Uncle Paul Old Mr. Lambert gave Uncle Paul a look, "Show it to Niky"

"Yes, Mr. Lambert "Uncle Paul held the sandalwood box in both hands, bent down slightly, and handed the box to Nikita respectfully. "Miss Swift, this is a gift. prepared by Mr. Lambert. Check it and tell him if you like it"

Nikita looked at the sandalwood box and was stunned for few seconds.

Sheehan smiled, reached out and picked it up for her, and then handed it to her. This is a gift that concentrates Grandpa's love for you. Open it and have a look."

Nikita stretched out her hand to take it finally.

The solid wood box was heavy in her hands.

Although she didn't know what was in it yet, the box containing the gift was already very delicate

Under the caring eyes of Old Mr. Lambert, Nikita slowly opened the wooden box. After seeing the contents of the wooden box, she was shocked again, and then looked up at Old Mr. Lambert

Old Mr Lambert said, "You are good at acupuncture, and I think that this gift should be suitable for you. There were 108 gold needles inside, which were made by the best craftsmen

"I wanted to give you a set of needles made of pure gold, but gold was too soft as the material of needle, so I asked them to add some other metals to it" "I asked experts in traditional Chinese medicine, and these gold needles are better than silver needles

With this set of gold needles, your set of silver needles can be changed"

Nikita smiled at the gentle and loving eyes of Old Mr. Lambert, holding the wooden box and keeping silent for a few seconds. She said, "Thank you, Mr. Lambert"

Chapter 1026 Unique Treatment

"Still call me Mr. Lambert?" Old Mr. Lambert pretended to be dissatisfied, You are with my grandson, why don't you change it?"

Nikita was silent for a few seconds and called, "Thank you... grandpa.

She called 'Grandpa' a little awkwardly and not so naturally.

But it let Old Mr. Lambert overjoyed. His happy eyes were narrowed into a line. He immediately smiled and said, 'Niky called me grandpa and that made me comfortable all over. According to our family rules, I have to give you red packet for becoming my granddaughter-in-law. However, I couldn't give the red packet to you casually and in a rush. I have to prepare it well.'

Nikita didn't understand these rules of the Lambert family and pressed her lips to keep silent.

Sheehan's eyes slightly moved. He smiled but didn't say a word.

Uncle Paul, who stood next to his grandpa was also quiet, but he was very surprised.

The Lambert family indeed had the rules of giving red packet when there was a new granddaughter-in-law.

But it was offered on the wedding day according to the family rules.

That was to say when Nikita married Sheehan and became the real granddaughter-in-law of Old Mr. Lambert, then she could take this red packet.

But now, Nikita and Sheehan have just got together, and Old Mr. Lambert was willing to give her that red packet?

It seemed that Old Mr. Lambert was really satisfied with this grandson's daughter-in-law. Before, the first and the second granddaughter-in-law got the red packet after they officially entered the Lambert family.

"Mr. Lambert, young master, the dinner is ready" The maid came in and said respectfully.

Old Mr. Lambert put down his teacup, and Uncle Paul immediately went to help him stand up.

“Okay, let’s have dinner first, and then we can talk. Niky you are hungry, right? After meeting Nikita, she became the Old Mr. Lambert’s only concentration. Sheehan, as his grandson, was left aside by him and was not mentioned at all.

“Well, let’s have dinner first. Sheehan hugged Nikita and stood up, chuckling in her ear, “Grandpa specially invited the chef of Germy Hall to come over, and the chef made all the dishes you like” “Even me and Felton have never enjoyed such dinner

Nikita picked her eyebrows and looked at him. “So this is my unique treatment?”

“Hmm.” Sheehan smiled again, “It’s absolutely unique. It seems that Grandpa really likes you”

In the dining room.

The long white dining table was filled with all kinds of delicious food and dishes.

Nikita looked at the dishes on the table at will and found that at least two-thirds of the dishes on the table were her favorite

They sat down

Old Mr Lambert looked around the dining table frowning slightly, and called Uncle Paul, Where is Felton? Has he come back yet?”

Uncle Paul respectfully said, “He came back after school.”

Old man Lu frowned again, “Since he is home, and it’s time to eat. Why didn’t he show in the dining room?” “Go and tell him to come down for dinner and tell him that his brother has come back with his girlfriend. Ask him to come down quickly

“Yes, I’ll call the young master down for dinner at once.”

Uncle Paul turned around and went to the door.

Before he left the room, he saw Felton in a black sports suit. He paced lazy into the restaurant with his hands in the pocket.

“Young master, your grandpa asked me to go upstairs to ask you to get down for dinner. And you are already here” Uncle Paul walked up to Felton, gave him a look and said in a low voice, “Go over and sit down.” “Your grandpa is happy today. Don’t ruin his mood”

Chapter 1027 Studying Abroad

Felton tilted his head and smiled, which looked very dandiacal. He slowly walked to the table, took a chair out and sat down.

Uncle Paul asked the maid to bring him howls and chopsticks

Felton, what are you doing these days? Old Mi Lambert saw his expressions. He frowned, and his voice became stern, “You came back late at night a few days ago Where did you go to fool around?”

“You are going to take the college entrance examination, you should put your mind on studying, and you should not play with your satisfactory with the present friends all day long” “You were born by the same parents, and why you are not like your parents at all? You have not inherited their strengths, but you have learned many bad habits!”

Felton lifted his eyelids, and glanced at Nikita, who was sitting in front of him. He said in a nonchalant tone. “All the advantages were inherited by my brother.” “Anyway, our family only need one promising grandson. The future of other grandsons is not important at all”

“Besides, grandpa, don’t you often say that the wealth accumulated by our family will not be used up for several generations?” “Our family is so rich, and we can ensure that the family will have happy life for several generations Why should I work hard?”

“It is nothing wrong to be a waste that doesn’t need to worry about livelihood”

Old Mr. Lambert was so angry that his face turned green. He slammed on the table heavily. "You little naughty boy! You"

"Mr. Lambert, Miss Swift is still there... Uncle Paul saw that Old Mr. Lambert was angry, and he was afraid that he would punish Felton, so he quickly whispered to remind him, "You would scare Miss Swift"

Old Mr. Lambert restrained his anger, took a deep breath, and pressed his temper, "Naughty boy, for the sake of your future sister-in-law, I won't care about it for now. But I will find you and punish you"

*Future sister in law? Felton's body seemed to be stiff. He looked up to Nikita in front of him, the mood in his dark eyes was vague.

"Niky will marry your brother in the future. Of course, she is your future sister-in-law Old Mr. Lambert said to him seriously, I knew you fool around in school, but i never punish you But if you dare to bully Niky, I will definitely take it seriously!"

He knew very well about his grandson.

Old Mr. Lambert was really afraid that Felton would bully Nikita, so he specially warned him

Felton who was warned

Nikita could take down more than a dozen punks in high school by herself,

Could she be bullied?

Did his grandfather have any misunderstanding about the strength of Nikita?

Sheehan knew that Nikita alone dealt with several best killers in the Dark Disney. She hypnotized them and changed their memory. So Sheehan fell silent

His grandfather was definitely worried too much about her on that

Halfway during the meal, Felton put down his chopsticks, pushed away the bowl and said he was full. After wiping his mouth, he got up and walked out of the dining room

Old Mr. Lambert wanted to scold him, but he held his anger because the current situation

After meal

Old Mr Lambert asked Uncle Paul to accompany him for a walk in the garden.

Sheehan led Nikita upstairs. After entering the room, he went to the locker room and took out a set of ladies' pink home clothes.

"Aren't you already sleepy? Take a bath and go to bed."

Nikita looked at the clothes he handed over with white lace on it, and the color was pink and sweet. His taste was very poor. She seriously suspected that this suit was bought by Sheehan himself

Nikita replied shortly and took her clothes

Sheehan reached out and rubbed her head again, "Sleep first, I will go to the study to deal with some business"

Chapter 1028 I accepted this arrangement.

Sheehan came out of his bedroom

When he walked to the door of the study, he heard Felton's voice behind, Brother I need to talk to you about something"

Sheehan looked back, seeing Felton standing behind him with his hands in the pockets, expressionless.

Having looked at him for a few seconds, Sheehan opened the door of the study, and walked into it
"Come in "

After entering the study, Sheehan went to sit down on the sofa. Looking at Felton who followed him, he pointed to the single sofa nearby, with a flat tone "Sit down."

Felton then walked over and sat down

"Go ahead, why are you here? Sheehan had quite complex feelings towards his younger brother. Seemingly, he was pretty strict in discipline and rarely had a kind look, but in fact he did spoil him.

Felton always made trouble in school. It was him that handle it each time

Once Felton was seriously ill, Sheehan ran around taking care of him

"Brother, do you still remember you have said that you tended to send me to study abroad? I have thought about it and accept this arrangement. Felton was usually very afraid of Sheehan, Each time when he saw Sheehan, he would manage to dodge, just like a mouse seeing a cat. However, now he seemed to be not afraid of him anymore. When talking, he kept looking at the eyes of Sheehan

Now it was Sheehan's turn to be stunned and even a little surprised: 'Do you really want to study abroad?'"

Felton nodded, with an apathetic countenance, "For we have donated a great deal of money to USM University, they ought to give me an enrollment quota it sounds quite good to go abroad for a few years and then return with a diploma from a prestigious university.

Anyway as for someone like me, none of the domestic universities can allow me, even the third rate universities"

Sheehan looked at his casual look, narrowing his profound eyes, lowering his voice: "Have you really considered it?"

He did suggest Felton to study abroad before.

Because studying abroad is the best choice for Felton

Their family did donate a large amount of money to USM University, and if they wanted an enrollment quota, they could successfully get one.

The USM University was also one of the top ten first class universities in the world. No matter whether Felton could really learn something or not, at least in such a learning atmosphere, it will not make him worse.

While before today, Felton had always been unwilling to go abroad whenever he mentioned this.

Sheehan never wanted to force him.

He had already found a pretty good university in their country, so even though Felton was unwilling to go abroad, he could study inside the country.

Unexpectedly, Felton changed his mind again.

Sheehan was a little surprised at first, but he soon thought of the reason. He didn't put it bluntly but pretended not to know and asked again. "If you are sure you decide to go. I will let someone contact USM University immediately. However, one thing you need to know it that once it is determined, you can't ever change it.

In addition, you are not allowed to go back because of repentance on the way.

"Well, I've already decided Felton did not hesitate anymore. "I have already considered this matter. You can arrange for me as soon as possible"

Sheehan narrowed his eyes, stared at Felton for a few seconds, and then nodded. "Now that you have considered it, I will arrange it for you as soon as possible is there anything else?*

"No." Felton put his hand into his pocket again and stood up. "Tell me when you decide the time for me to go abroad. I won't bother you busy man anymore. I'm leaving"

Chapter 1029 Are you serious about Nikita?

Sheehan smiled with his lips raised

He knew that the reason why Sheehan suddenly proposed to go abroad was definitely related to Nikita.

They were not alike in many aspects, but as for the female they like, they were quite alike

The one he liked was also favored by Felton

Felton accepted the arrangement of studying abroad, just because he wanted to escape from seeing him and Nikita dating together.

While Nikita was to marry him, and would become Felton's sister in law, which can not be escaped for a lifetime

There was meaningful light in Sheehan's eyes. After a moment, he said, '

her

She will be your sister-in-law in the near future, and there will be no other choices except Felton held the door handle in one hand, listened to his brother's answer, and then tightened his fingers. Standing at 1 the door for a few seconds, he replied "I know", and then went out of the study.

When Nikita woke up the next morning, she found that she was the only one in the bedroom.

After washing, she changed her clothes and went downstairs,

Uncle Paul was arranging maid cleaning in the hall, seeing Nikita down, and then immediately come forward respectfully called "Miss Nikita".

Nikita nodded at him. "Where is Sheehan?"

Uncle Paul "He is walking in the garden with his grandfather. I guess he may come back soon,"

As soon as Uncle Paul finished his words, Nikita heard the voice of Sheehan.

She then looked up, seeing Sheehan helping his grandfather in, from a corner of the hall.

Both Sheehan and his grandfather saw Nikita.

Old Mr. Lambert said dearly 'Niky, why do you wake up so early but not to sleep a little longer?'

Before Nikita spoke. Sheehan smiled and said, "Grandpa, have you forgotten what day it is today? Niky needs to go to school"

“Oh, I really forgot it Old Mr. Lambert laughed “I always forget that Niky is still a student who is still studying at school. However, if Niky still wants to sleep, she Can sleep a little longer It doesn’t matter to go to school one or two hours later”

Sheehan:

Uncle Paul

Apparently, Old Mr. Lambert was treating Nikita and others with totally different standards.

Felton had never had such treatment

If it were for Felton to go to school one or two hours later, he would definitely have been scolded by Old Mr. Lambert.

“Niky must be hungry.” Old Mr. Lambert greeted Uncle Paul again. “Let the kitchen set up breakfast as soon as possible. Niky has to go to school after eating You should not delay her study.”

Uncle Paul: “Yes, sir.”

At breakfast, Old Mr. Lambert asked Nikita to sit next to him.

When Nikita was eating, she barely spoke, with her head buned, taking small bites.

She didn’t eat slowly, but her eating etiquette was so elegant that she seemed to have specially leamed the course of table etiquette.

Onginally. Old Mr. Lambert had investigated the family background of Nikita.

While at this point, looking at the one sitting beside him, he found that no matter temperament, or etiquette rules of Nikita, all were not inferior to the daughter from an eminent family Old Mr. Lambert couldn't help feeling a bit of doubtful

Arguably, Nikita's growing environment was very poor, and people who grow up in such environment could not give her the opportunity to learn courses such as table etiquette

Moreover, it was obvious whether some things had been cultivated from an early age or just in a short time.

Nikita's distinguished demeanor revealed in her every gesture and attitude was more like from the one who was born in a noble family and received advanced education from an early age She had a kind of confidence and elegance that emanated from her soul.

Chapter 1030 I want to work harder on my own.

Although Old Mr. Lambert was puzzled in his heart, he was much more satisfied with his future grandsons daughter-in-law.

"Niky" Old Mr Lambert saw Nikita immersed herself in eating and poured her a cup of freshly-squeezed mango juice, asking with a smile, "I have heard that you are going to take the joint exam soon. How is your preparation? Do you have the confidence to earn a good grade?"

Nikita was eating a pyramid dumpling given by Sheehan. Just having taken a bite, she heard Old Mr. Lambert's words and raised her head.

Thinking about it with chopsticks in the mouth, she answered honestly. "I have not prepared yet.

"Grandpa, you often tell us keep silence when you eat and sleep. So you should only concentrate on eating first. If there is any problem, you can ask when finishing eating." Sheehan clipped a shrimp into Old Mr. Lambert's bowl

Sheehan was very clear about his lover's grades beyond doubt.

Asking Nikita about her study was a such a difficult question for her

Sheehan had already thought about that it wouldn't matter whether Nikita did well in the exam or not. If she did well, of course, it would be the best. If she didn't do well, he had already found her an excellent school. At that time, she could directly register at the school

Old Mr. Lambert stared at his grandson and said discontentedly. You brill was caring about Niky is there anything wrong with my questions?"

After scolding. Old Mr. Lambert turned his head to Nikuta. He changed his face in seconds and said with a smile. "Niky, don't have any pressure. Grandpa's asking has no other meaning. I just want to tell you that you don't need to emphasize too much on whether the joint entrance examination or the college entrance examination, just treat it with a normal heart"

Every profession has its own topmost master. So you don't have to force yourself to do well in academic area and to get into an excellent university. You are so skillful in medical area that to be a doctor in the future can also be a good choice for you You can tell me which hospital do you prefer to work in, and grandpa will airange it for you"

Definitely, Old Mr Lambert knew how Nikita's grades were

He didn't expect Nikita to be admitted to any good university through the college entrance examination.

Fortunately, Nikita's medical skills were very good, so it would also be a good way to be involved in medical areas in the future.

The old men in the National Hospital also revealed to him before that they wanted to let Nikita go to their hospital to work. If she could really enter the National Hospital, it would absolutely better than finding a job after graduating from college

There were numerous talents who had graduated from first-class medical universities were not even qualified to enter National Hospital.

Just at the moment when Sheehan talked with his grandfather, Nikita Silently finished eating the remaining half of the pyramid dumpling

She then picked up the mango juice that Old Mr. Lambert had just poured for her and drink it slowly. Then she raised her head and politely thanked him. "Thank you" Grandpa for your concern. I will work harder."

Old Mr. Lambert nodded admiringly "It's good that you have such thought. Well, then, study hard and take exams. As long as you have worked hard, no matter what the final result is, at least you are worthy of yourself."

"Niky, come on, grandpa always supports you! Old Mr. Lambert shook his fist and cheered Nikita up Nikita was silent, sipped her lips, and after a few seconds, she held out her hand and also shook her fist slowly: "Well, thank you Grandpa I will

After meal, Sheehan sent Nikita to school.

In the car

Sheehan turned his head several times to look at Nikita sitting beside him.

At about the fifth time, the girl who was playing the game locked the screen of her mobile phone, turned her head and raised her eyebrows: "Just say what you want to say directly"
