

The Girl CB 1091

Chapter 1091 I won't let it!

When she bid, everyone around her froze.

She added the price tenfold at once.

There were sounds of discussion.

“What’s the matter with this woman? Is she deliberately sabotaging?”

“How can anyone add the price like this?”

“Is she invited by the auction?”

People who wanted to participate in the bidding originally hesitated because of her bidding price.

Everyone is worried that she deliberately drives up the price.

For a time, no one participated in the bidding.

Such a situation is rare.

Even the host on the stage was stunned for a long time before making reactions. The anchor took the microphone and said to the guests under the stage again: “Is there a higher price than 5 million?”

Under the stage, people were still hesitating.

Nancy looked at a group of hesitant people around her and smiled: “Gee, that saves me money.”

Just now Nikita told her that this bracelet has excellent color, which is worth at least 10 million, and there is still a lot of room for future value-added.

If no one participates in the bidding next, she can win the bracelet for 5 million.

“No one higher? One, two...”

“Ten million.”

Just as the host was about to announce Nancy’s successful bid, a clear voice fell from above the hall.

Suddenly, the whole audience was silent.

Ten million...

Doubling the price.

This auction is too fierce.

They must be invited by the auction.

In the VIP room upstairs...

Rosa, under the surprised sights, raised the bidding card in her hand. She looked cold at Nikita and Nancy, she repeated again with provocation under her eyes: “Ten million.”

“Miss Garrett, you just said whoever wear this bracelet is old.” How come you bid for it?” Harrell asked.

Yates also looked at Rosa's provocative eyes, and soon understood what was going on.

Rosa is competing with Nikita for Sheehan.

Nancy is a friend of Nikita, she competes with Nancy, which is regarded as an indirect provocation to Nikita.

If Rosa participates in the auction, Nancy probably won't get this bracelet.

Although Nancy is rich, can she have more money than Miss Garrett?

Rosa smiled: "I suddenly feel it's good again."

Harrell chuckled: "You women are really fickle."

Downstairs...

Nancy frowned when she saw that the bidder.

She lowered her voice and restrained her anger. "It's that Garrett woman."

Nikita said faintly: "Well, I saw her."

"Why do I think she did it on purpose?" Nancy was infuriated, "She added to one million. Niky, do you think I need to continue?"

Nikita said expressionlessly, "Whenever you think it's necessary. If you don't want it, you can leave it to her."

“Hmm. I didn’t like it particularly. I would leave it to others. “However, if she’s fighting against me, I won’t let her have it.” Nancy gnashed her teeth, and held up her chin, “One point give million!”

Rosa sneered: “Two million.”

Nancy also sneered at her. “Three million.”

The hall was silent again.

After a few seconds, the discussion sounded again.

Chapter 1092 Ruthless

Harrell sighed: “Ruthless!”

Although they are all owners who are not short of money, it is really hard to bid for so much.

Moreover, there are not many people who can fight against Rosa in this way.

The Garrett family is still very powerful. If the Lambert family ranks first, then the Garrett family ranks second.

Therefore, few people dare to offend the Garrett family.

What’s more, Rosa is the young mistress in the Garrett family.

By contrast, although Nikita is Sheehan’s girlfriend, and Nancy is a famous designer in the world, their own family background is far inferior to Rosa’s. If there is any contradiction between the two sides, the loser will definitely not be Rosa.

If the person who offended Rosa is Nikita, Sheehan will protect her.

But Nancy is just a friend of Nikita. Although Sheehan protects his person, he only protects his girlfriend's friend. He should not do such things.

Nancy directly increased the price by 10 million, which made it clear that she was fighting against with Rosa.

Rosa frowned. "Forty million!"

Nancy smiled, "Fifty million."

"Damn it, crazy, the bidding price has reached 50 million."

"This is definitely insane. This bracelet is not worth 50-million anyway!"

"They spend so much money to fight for a bracelet, won't they be rivals in love?"

"Who can call the dibs? Miss Garrett."

"Then I also bet on Miss Garrett. She could definitely win over a nobody."

"Indeed. "It is impossible for that woman to have more money than Miss Garrett."

There was a lot of discussion around.

At that time, this group of people who came to participate in the auction seemed to forget their purpose of coming here tonight, and they were all watching the play, of Rosa and Nancy bidding while commenting with relish.

The bid has reached 50 million, and Nancy has no intention of giving up.

Rosa clenched her lips.

When the bid reached 40 million, she thought Nancy would be unable to afford it.

Unexpectedly, Nancy increased the price by another 10 million!

Fifty million...

If Rosa wants to continue bidding, she will have to increase the price to 60 million yuan.

She can afford.

However, if Nancy has to argue with her for this bracelet, 60 million will definitely, not the end point.

Rosa can get a lot of pocket money every month. She still has one or two hundred million in her card, but if Nancy wants to fight with her, her one or two hundred million is not enough.

But no matter what, she must take this bracelet!

With so many people watching, she must not lose face!

“Sixty million!” Rosa bit her teeth and continued to bid.

Nancy didn’t back down either: “Seventy million!”

“Eighty million!”

“Ninety million!”

There was a lot of discussion in the hall before, and when the price was increased to 90 million, everyone was silent.

After the whole audience was silent for a long time, there were successive exclamations.

“Damn it, it’s 90 million! Is it going to a hundred million?”

“Exciting, so exciting!”

Even the host on the stage was stunned for a long time.

The bracelet worth 10 million at most, and now the price has soared to 90 million?

If they continue to bid, it will exceed 100 million yuan.

Rosa’s face has been blue.

She can only bid 100 million at most for this jade bracelet.

Chapter 1093 Let me know if you don’t have enough money.

Is this damn Nancy crazy? She has the guts to go against her!

“Rosa, I think it’s better to forget it.” Harrell was worried that if the bidding continued like this, Nancy would be not able to afford it. He persuaded Rosa, “The bracelet only worths one or two million yuan. It is really unnecessary to spend so much money to bid now.”

Yates also advised: “Indeed. I don’t think it is necessary to spend so much money to buy that bracelet.”

Sampson didn't speak, but texted Nancy.

Sampson: Are you really determined to fight against her with her?

Nancy came back quickly: she was the first to provoke me.

Sampson: You call the dibs of that bracelet?

Nancy: I shall!

Sampson: Let me know if you don't have enough money.

Nancy: Let me ask Niky first. We should be able to hold on for a while.

Sampson looks up, and heard Rosa complaining, "They deliberately want me to embarrass myself! I won't let them succeed! I will take that bracelet!"

After that, Rosa raised the bidding card: "100 million!"

Nancy doesn't look very good either.

Although she is fighting against Rosa, the price now has increased the price to 100 million, which is far beyond her expectation.

She has always had a habit, that is, when she has money, she will spend it quickly.

This also leads to the fact that although she makes a lot of money, she doesn't have much fixed deposit.

She only brought 100 million tonight.

“Niky, she’s determined to fight against me. Can you lend me some?” Nancy whispered.

Nikita came out of the game temporarily and looked at Rosa, who was sitting in the private room upstairs. She said unruly and lazily: “Call the dibs, it’s on me”

“All right, boss!” With her words, Nancy instantly glowed, raised her bidding card and smiled, “110 million.”

Rosa clenched her teeth, took a deep breath, gnashed her teeth: “120 million.”

Nancy: “130 million.”

“One hundred and forty million!”

“One hundred and fifty million!”

At this time, the venue was so quiet that no sound could be heard except their bidding voice..

Everyone was shocked by this crazy auction and couldn’t say a word.

Bracelets worth 10 million were auctioned for 150 million.

This is crazy.

Everyone is guessing the identity of Nancy and Nikita.

These two strange and beautiful ladies, who seemed not from their rich and powerful circles.

“One hundred and fifty million!” “One hundred and fifty million! Is there anyone willing to pay a higher price than one hundred and fifty million?” The host’s voice trembled. “Is there a higher price than 150 million?”

Rosa finally can’t hold up.

She clenched her teeth, and she was full of resentment.

150 million, which is the most she can afford.

On the stage, the host waited for a while, and when the anchor saw that Rosa didn’t continue to increase the price, and knew that she didn’t intend to follow.

Indeed.

It’s difficult to follow even if she’s Miss Garrett.

This price is already sky-high.

Deal! Congratulations!” The anchor excitedly yelled.

Chapter 1094 They are all scolding Rosa.

The final transaction price of jade bracelet is 150 million.

Everyone who witnessed the auction with their own eyes was greatly shocked.

A bracelet costs hundreds of thousands of dollars has been auctioned at a sky-high price of 150 million, which is unusual in previous auctions.

No, it should be said that this is the first time.

The hall, which has been quiet for a long time, is lively again.

A heated discussion sounded.

“Fuck, I actually lost. What is Miss Garrett doing? Why doesn’t she continue?!”

“Yes, what happened to Miss Garrett? I thought she would definitely continue. Is this her only strength?”

“It seems that the Garrett family is just so so! If I had known this, I wouldn’t have bet on Miss Garrett. What a bad luck, I lost a lot of money!”

Just now, when Nancy and Rosa bid, many people set up a gamble, and most of them bet that Rosa could get this jade bracelet.

No one would have thought that Rosa had lost.

People who have lost money are all scolding Rosa.

In the private room upstairs.

Rosa’s face was gloomy, and she smashed her mobile phone on the table with a bang.

Härrell and Yates both looked at her.

“In fact, I think it’s not a big deal even if you didn’t get it. That bracelet is not worth so much money.”

“Yes, with this money, you can buy jadeite with much better than that bracelet. Rosa, don’t you have a crush on a set of jewelry at the auction. You’d better save your money to bid that set of jewelry.”

Rosa sipped her lips tight without saying anything. Her face was dark, and her eyes were gloomy and terrible.

thing

Nacy... Nikita...

They made her lose face again and again, and she must revenge them!

She’ll ask them to pay back double!

“Unexpectedly, the friend of our little sister-in-law is quite rich.” Yates looked at Sampson, who had never said a word, and said curiously, “Sampson, do fashion designers make so much money?”

She spent more than 100 million on a bracelet.

But she was still calm.

Gee, speaking of it, these so-called rich and powerful children are probably not so rich.

Sampson raised his eyes and looked calm. “I don’t know, but as far as I know, her image design center can earn more than a billion dollars easily a year.”

Yates: “...”

Earn more than one billion easily?

He also wants to make money so easily!

It seems that he underestimated her strength.

But after thinking about it, he thinks it's normal.

It is said that birds of a feather flock together. Since she can be Nikita's good friend, she must have some strength.

"She is so powerful?" Harrell looked at Nacy and touched his chin. He became more and more interested. "What's her name? Nacy, right?"

When Yates looked at him, he knew what he was up to: "Have you taken a fancy to her?"

Harrell smiled, without denying it.

Yates couldn't help throwing a wet blanket on him: "Since we are bros for many years, I advise you to give up your thought."

"Why?"

"You can't get her." Yates said directly. "She is different from those women around you who can be pursued casually."

"If it is difficult, it will be challenging." Harrell raised his eyebrows. "If I don't try, how can I know if I can do it?"

Yates:"

He felt that Harrell's final result was mostly to suffer a crushing defeat.

Since she is Nikita's friend, can she be pursued easily?

The way Harrell used on other women was nothing more than buy many things, but Nancy can earn more than one billion dollars a year. How can he pursue her by spending money?

Chapter 1095 If she wants it, just give it to her.

Hearing that Harrell was going to chase Nancy, Sampson said slowly: "Then I can only wish you good luck."

Harrell turned to Sampson: "Are you Nancy's friend? Do you know what kind of man she likes?"

Sampson looked at him: "Not you."

Harrell: "..."

A bang interrupted the conversation of several people.

Harrell, Sampson and Yates all raised their heads, looked at Rosa, who put the teacup on the table heavily.

With a sullen expression, Rosa stood up with her purse.

Harrell raised his eyebrows: "Rosa, you are..."

"I have something to do, so I'll go first. Enjoy yourselves!" After saying this sentence coldly, Rosa turned and walked out of the box.

Yates was stunned for a few seconds. After watching Rosa go out, he asked in puzzlement: "Why did she leave? Does she want to continue to bid a jewelry?"

Harrell is also full of doubts: "Why does she leave?"

Sampson looked at them like looking at two idiots: "She didn't win Nancy just now, and she is angry about it. But one of you said that you want to chase Nancy, and the other praised Nancy. Isn't it normal for her to leave?"

Harrell and Yates: "

They forgot about it.

Later, several items were auctioned.

Nikita has always been lack of interest, playing games with her mobile phone.

It was not until the ancient medical book was taken to the auction table that she put down her mobile phone and looked up at the stage.

Nancy knew that Nikita was interested in the ancient medical book to auctioned next. She reminded: "Niky, the ancient medical books will start bidding soon. I estimate that there are definitely not many people participating in the auction, so it should be quite easy to get it."

Few people are really interested in this kind of ancient medical books unless they are learning medical skills.

However, since it has been auctioned, there definitely be someone wanting to buy it

But there are not as many people participating in the bidding as before.

“The next ancient medical book starts at 300,000 dollars. Now we start bidding, and interested people can begin to bid.”

As soon as the host finished, Nikita picked up the bidding card: “Five hundred thousand.”

“Six hundred thousand.”

“Seven hundred thousand.”

“One million.”

As Nancy said, there are not many people participating in the bidding, just four or five.

Upstairs, in another private room, which is not so conspicuous.

“Great Hall, young master bid the ancient medical book you plan to give to her. Do we have to bid it?”
Mr. Hall’s subordinate standing beside him asked.

Great Hall lowered his eyes. Hearing it, he opened his eyes and look at the stage.

“If she wants it, just give it to her.”

The subordinate nodded and understood what he meant.

It means not participating in the bidding.

Not many people participated in this auction. When Nikita bid for 3 million dollars, no one continued.

An ancient medical book, which they don't know if it can be used, has extremely low practicability, and most of the people who took it back are also for collection.

In addition, Nikita is with Nancy. Thinking that Nancy spent more than one million to get the jade bracelet, other people don't dare to fight with Nikita.

In the private room on the other side.

"Other girls like gold, silver, jewelry and so on, but what the little sister-in-law likes is really different." Yates said with a smile, "No wonder Mr. Lambert told me that after he sent little sister-in-law jewelry, her reaction was very indifferent."

"It turned out that he didn't send the right thing!"

Chapter 1096 I remember your birthday is coming soon.

The last two finale items are a set of sapphire jewelry and a painting.

"I finally see what I was most interested in." Nancy looked at the sparkling sapphire jewelry on the stage, and her eyes blinked with obvious interest.

Although she liked the bracelet before, she took it at a high price in order to compete with Rosa.

She came to the auction tonight, mainly for this set of jewelry.

Nancy sat up straight, showing that she must get it.

“Niky, I overspent today. Will you give some sponsorship later?” Nacy looked at the girl who was playing games with her mobile phone again, picked up a glass of juice on the table, fed it to her mouth, and ingratiated her.

Nikita raised her eyes and looked at the set of sapphire jewelry in the stands: “Do you like it?”

“Yes!” Nacy nodded hard.

Nikita turned her head and looked at Nacy. “I remember your birthday is coming soon?”

Nacy grabbed Nikita’s hand and said excitedly, “Ah, Niky, am so touched. I can’t believe you remember my birthday!”

Nikita’s hand shook. Originally, her character could have escaped, but it was slain by the other character.

She squinted and looked at Nacy with dangerous lights shining in her eyes.

“Your birthday present was disappeared.” The girl narrowed her dark eyes, and her voice was calm.

“What birthday present?” Nacy was stunned for a few seconds, and suddenly reacted. She held Nikita’s arm and cried bitterly. “No, Niky, I was wrong. For the sake of our friendship for so many years, please give me a chance!”

Nikita snorted.

One second ago, the person was holding her arm and crying “bitterly”, the next second, she smiled warmly: “Niky, do you really want to give me this sapphire jewelry as a birthday present? If you do, I will not say the polite formula.”

Nikita played a game again: “Well, I will give it to you. But if you interfere with me again, then I’ll cancel it.”

Nacy loosened her hand and said with a smile, "Come on, my princess, have fun. I will never bother you again!"

On stage, the auction has already started.

The host loudly said, "Everyone should know this set of sapphire jewelry well, so I won't introduce it anymore. Start bidding now, the starting price is 2 million!"

"Two and a half million!"

"Three million!"

"Four million!"

As one of the final finale products, there are many people bidding for this set of sapphire jewelry.

All of them showed that they must get it.

Nacy didn't participate in the bidding at the beginning, but waited until the bidding price soared to 10 million. Then she slowly raised the bidding card in her hand. Her voice was charming and lazy: "20 million."

With Nikita paying the bill, Nacy was very generous, and she added 10 million directly with full confidence.

The price increase...

People who participated in the bidding turned their heads one after another, and when they saw it was her, they were speechless.

Where did this mysterious rich woman come from?

A good auction was ruined by her.

Who is bidding like this?

How can other people afford if she adds price like this?

“Twenty-five million!” After a few seconds, someone continued to participate in the bidding.

Nacy said slowly: “Thirty million.”

“Thirty-five million!”

“Fifty million!”

Others around: “.

A few people who were still holding on to bid could only choose to give up under Nacy’s terrible price increase.

If they continued, they would lose money.

This set of sapphire jewelry has already been appraised, and the highest price can be 30 million.

Chapter 1097 It’s Mr. Hall.

A person who spent 50 million to get a thing cost 30 million is either brainless or too rich.

This unidentified, extremely beautiful woman spent so much money to bid and lost so much money twice. It seemed that she was so stupid.

“Fifty million! Does anyone else offer a higher price than this lady?” Two items were sold at a much higher price than the estimated price, so the host on the stage smiled and asked passionately.

“Nobody else? Fifty million once, fifty million twice, I declare...”

“100 million.”

The host was about to announce that the sapphire jewelry belonged to Nancy when a low, deserted voice came from a corner upstairs.

It’s a man’s voice.

As soon as the man finished, the audience was quiet for a few seconds, and then many people exclaimed in great surprise.

“OMG, did I hear it wrong? A big shot raises 50 million once!”

“Tonight there are so many big shots! They are so generous!”

Many people were exclaiming in the hall.

Everyone looked at the mysterious big shot upstairs.

What they saw was only a black silhouette with unclear face, and they couldn’t see the man looked like.

“Oh shit! Which crazy man actually increased the price to 100 million! How can he raise a price like this?” Nancy had already held the trump card, but she didn’t expect a man to rob it halfway. She was so angry that she gnashed her teeth and scolded him.

Nikita just started a game. When she heard the low male voice upstairs, her fingers froze, and her expression changed.

She put down her mobile phone, raised her head, narrowed her dark eyes, and looked at the black figure sitting in the corner upstairs with no expression on her face. Even if the man deliberately lowered his voice and changed his tone, Nikita still recognized who he was.

Her face suddenly darkened down. She stared at the black figure for a few seconds and pursed her lips tightly.

“Niky, what should I do!” Nancy was so angry. “Who is that man upstairs? Do I need to continue? What if he increases the price by 50 million later?”

-Nikita sipped her lips, and her eyes were gloomy. After a few seconds of silence, she said without emotion, “I can’t compete with him. You can go to other places to choose a gift another day.”

Nikita made a lot of money.

But most of the money she earned over the years was donated.

The rest was given to the Misty Organization.

She didn’t leave much on herself.

The man upstairs is Mr. Hall.

Not to mention Nikita, all the people present today can’t win Mr. Hall.

Unless, the person who competes with him is Sheehan.

“Huh? You know that man upstairs?” Nancy was surprised and curious. “Who is he?”

Nikita sipped her lips. Her bushy eyelashes drooped down, covering the mood in her eyes. She said indifferently: “A retard.”

Nancy: “...”

“Is there a higher price than 100 million?” The host on the stage shouted loudly.

Since Nikita said so, Nancy naturally wouldn't go to bid again.

She looked at Nikita obviously livid face, knowing that Nikita is not happy. Although she was very curious the identity of that man, she did not ask again.

Nikita looked so unhappy, showing that she wanted to beat someone.

Chapter 1098 YAN, a talented painter.

However, she became more and more curious about the unidentified man upstairs.

It is not easy for Nikita to say that she can't compete with someone.

She has never seen Nikita takes someone seriously.

“Congratulations to the gentleman who bid 100 million dollars. This set of sapphire jewelry belongs to you.”

Nancy stopped bidding.

The rest of the people did not participate in the bidding.

In the end, Mr. Hall got the sapphire jewelry at a price of 100 million dollars.

In the private room upstairs.

Looking downstairs, Mr. Hall can see that the girl's face is livid, and she is in a very bad mood.

His subordinate also looked downstairs along Mr. Hall's sight. After a moment, he carefully asked: "Great Hall, is the young master angry?"

Mr. Hall stared at the angry girl slowly raised lips: "Well, she should know it's me."

Mr. Hall thinks himself a little abnormal.

He likes to see Nikita's angry appearance.

Compared with her expressionless appearance, she is especially cute when she is angry.

Only when she is angry can he feel that she is also an emotional person.

"Do you want to call young master to go upstairs?"

"No, she won't want to see me." Mr. Hall squinted and slowly picked up the red wine on the table and sipped it.

The subordinate looked up at him and saw that he seemed to be in a good mood: "

After serving Mr. Hall for so many years, he didn't get his mind right.

The more the young master hate him, and the more cruel she is, the happier he is.

“Let’s go.”

After knowing that the person upstairs is Great Hall, Nikita put away her mobile phone, got up and prepared to leave.

Nacy participated in the auction tonight to get the sapphire jewelry to. But it was taken away by others, so she is not interested in continuing. Then she planned to leave with Nikita.

Two people both looked unhappy.

At this time, the host’s slightly excited voice sounded on the stage: “The last auction item tonight is the painting “Doomsday” by YAN, the hottest talented painter now. I believe I don’t need to say more about the level of YAN’s paintings and how high the collection value is. Everyone knows very well. I also know that many guests who came to our auction tonight for this painting. Therefore, I don’t need to say more about how popular this painting is.”

The host looked at the audience and smiled: “Everyone has been waiting for so long, so I won’t talk nonsense. YAN’s “Doomsday”, with a starting price of 5 million, is now officially starting bidding.

Interested guests please bid.”

Nikita and Nacy, who were planning to leave, paused and turned to look up at the stage at the same time.

The master of ceremonies has put the painting on the display stage.

The host just said the starting price, and immediately many people bid.

“Six million!”

“Seven million!”

“Ten million.”

“Eleven million!”

There are many people competing for this painting.

In two boxes upstairs, because of the appearance of this painting, those people who had been quite calm began to feel uneasy.

Mr. Hall’s box.

“Great Hall, it seems that many people are coming for this painting tonight. I just inquired. There are several people sitting in the opposite box from the Garrett family, the James family, the Samuel family and the Sue family. The two of the Sue family and the Samuel family have never bid before, and it is estimated that they are also coming for this painting.”

Mr. Hale raised his lips, gently shook the crystal cup in his hand, and said disapprovingly, “So? I am bound to win this painting, and no one can’t grab it with me.”

Chapter 1099 Let’s compete for it by our own skills.

His subordinate respectfully said, “Naturally, they can’t compete with you. However, are you going not to bid now?”

Mr. Hall squinted: “Don’t hurry. Just let them fight to the death first.

The subordinate understood what he meant and nodded: “Yes, Great Hall.”

Mr. Hall was going to make the last shot.

Just like bidding the sapphire jewelry before, he let others fight first, and wait until there is only one last competitor left before bidding.

Except for the president of the Lambert Group, no one can win Mr. Hall.

Tonight, the man in power of the Lambert family didn't come.

Therefore, the painting "Doomsday" was bound to belong to Mr. Hall.

In the other box.

From the beginning of the auction to now, Harrell and Yates, who have never bid, have participated in the auction.

Two people bid in tandem.

"Twelve million!"

"Thirteen million!"

Harrell smiled and looked at Yates with confidence: "Yates, I must get this painting. I won't give it to you."

Yates also smiled, and he did not give in at all: "I also want this painting. Since we both want this painting very much, let's contest for it with our own skills."

"OK." Harrell squinted. "Let's compete for it by our own skills."

Sampson didn't participate in the bidding. He narrowed his eyes, looked at the painting on the display platform, and sighed with a smile: "YAN's painting is still popular as always. Most people came here for her painting tonight. Now it is really a fierce competition."

Sampson still remembers that when he was abroad, he also participated in an auction.

That was about four years ago.

At that auction, there was also a painting by YAN called Dark Taboo.

That night was also a wonderful scene. Big brothers from all over the world gathered in one place to compete for a painting.

He remembers very clearly that “Dark Taboo” finally sold for a sky high price of 500 million dollars.

Tonight, the price of the “Doomsday” must be comparable or more valuable, but it can’t be lower than the previous price.

It is rare for so many people to spend hundreds of millions to compete for a painting.

There is no other person except YAN can have such great influence.

After “Dark Taboo” was auctioned at a price of 500 million dollars, many people were shocked, and at the same time, they all felt that there were many hype elements. They thought that YAN’s paintings were not worth so much money at all, and the buyer who spent 500 million dollars was a sucker, and he would definitely regret it soon.

And YAN’s painting would soon lose its popularity and become worthless.

But now, it has been four years since YAN’s first high-priced painting was auctioned. YAN’s paintings have not lost their popularity as quickly as those people said, but have become more and more popular.

Several of her paintings were sold immediately as soon as they were auctioned.

Even the paintings of famous medieval painters are not as hot as her works, and the selling prices are not as high as her works.

YAN's paintings have a very strong personal style. Even if her paintings are not signed, others can identify them as her paintings at a glance.

Sampson also appreciates YAN's paintings very much. However, he is more interested in calligraphy and other things. Seeing that Yates and Harrell are contesting for the paintings, he Chapter 1100 She really admired the girl in front of her.

Anyway, he has already got what he wants most.

But... Sampson turned to look at Nikita, who was sitting in the first row of the audience.

He remembered that Nikita seemed to be interested in painting.

Once he went to her apartment to find her and saw her drawing a painting.

That painting has just begun to be painted, with only a few simple outlines, but it can be seen that her level is very good.

He even thinks Nikita's painting style is somewhat similar to YAN'S.

He wondered if Nikita would bid this painting.

"Shit, Niky that painting, that painting..." Nancy stared at the painting on the display stand, and her voice was very low. "Isn't that your painting? Haven't you painted it in years? How can there be a painting at auction?"

Nancy knew that Nikita was YAN, a talented painter.

What surprised her now is that Nikita has not painted for several years, but her painting is on the stage for auction.

How did they get that painting?

Is it a counterfeit?

Nikita turned from the stage to Nancy's confused eyes, saying flatly: "My scrap manuscript before."

Nancy: "..."

Scrap manuscript?

So now a group of people are competing for a scrap manuscript she didn't want before?!...

"Why are you looking at me like that?" Nikita has no guilt on her face, and her expression is quite innocent. "I didn't force them to buy it. There are no relevant provisions that stipulate that scrap manuscripts cannot be auctioned."

Nancy: "..

She really admired the girl in front of her.

She was really a big shot. Even her scrap manuscript can be auctioned, and many people are competing at high prices.

At this moment, under the extremely fierce competition, only a few minutes later, someone has already soared the price to 200 million.

"Two hundred million, someone has already bid to two hundred million! Is there anyone who has a higher price than two hundred million?!"

Hearing the price quoted by the host, Nancy's mood is even more complicated.

A scrap manuscript that she didn't want can be sold for hundreds of millions of dollars casually.

Clearly they are all people, but the gap between people is so big!

"Niky, let's wait before we go?" Nancy pulled Nikita back to the seat and said with a smile, "I want to see you the transaction price of this piece of scrap manuscript."

Nikita sipped her lips, did not speak.

The auction on the stage continues.

After a few minutes, the price has soared to almost 400 million.

Nancy kept sighing, "Niky, I really admire you. If you weren't so lazy and produced more paintings, you would make much more money."

Nikita raised her eyebrows to admit it.

Painting is only her hobby, and she never thought of it as her main occupation.

When she was interested in it, she would draw a few pictures.

If it is regarded as a main occupation, she will soon get bored.

When the bidding reached 400 million dollars, there were very few people continuing.

After all, this is not a small amount.

Harrell was somewhat triumphant: "It seems that this painting is mine."

Yates didn't continue. He spread his hands and threw in the towel: "I gave up, I can't compete with you."

The strength of the Samuel family was better than the Sue family's.

After all, it ranks among the four famous families in M City.

"Four

Chi and fifty million!" The host shouted, "Is there a higher price?"
