

The Girl CB 1141

Chapter 1141 Is She Ugly?

Moreover, her fans were mostly young people. Therefore, she was almost equal to those popular stars.

Although most of the people waiting here were fans of Hugh, there were also fans of Aroma.

“Hugh, Aroma is coming!” The assistant next to Hugh was also very excited, craning his neck to have a look at Aroma, who had been surrounded by fans and reporters.

He served Hugh for many years, and he naturally knew that Hugh was a fanatical fan of Aroma.

“Well, I see her.” Hugh wanted to ask when would Nikita come, and she came down from a taxi. At this moment, he did not know how to describe his thoughts.

They were quite complicated.

Such an important person took a taxi to such an essential event...

That was too casual for her.

However, when a person became very powerful, it seemed that she didn't need to care about the attitudes of other people. He could act as he wished.

The only thing that relieved him was that she didn't wear a school uniform willfully.

However, he felt that if it weren't for hiding her identity, real age and appearance, maybe she would really come in school uniform.

“Unexpectedly, Aroma is still young.” “People said that she is already in her 40s or 50s. I don’t think so.” The assistant of Hugh looked at the woman with shiny white skin in the crowd and said thoughtfully.

Hugh: “...”

People who said Nikita was 45-year-old must be blind.

Even if they don’t know what she looks like, she can’t be in her forties and fifties.

“She was indeed young.” Hugh originally wanted to say hello to Nikita, but seeing that she was surrounded by the crowded, he gave up the idea..

“Hugh, how do you know?” Assistant was surprised, turned his head and looked at Hugh, asked in curiosity, “How do you know she is very young? Have you seen her?”

Of course, Hugh won’t say that Lan is Nikita. He took back his eyes from Nikita and walk towards the hall: “Of course. Can’t you see it?”

“Oh...”

The assistant walked in with him, and whispered as he walked, “I don’t know if Lan is pretty, she looks like a big beauty. However, I heard from others that she seemed to be disfigured, and she was afraid of scaring people, so she kept wearing a mask.”

Hugh is speechless.

He has also heard such rumors.

It is said that Lan was very ugly and dare not show people with her true face, so she always wears a mask.

If one day, Nikita doesn't want to hide this identity, people all over the world might be stunned.

The person they thought was an old woman turned out to be a young girl in her beautiful years.

The person they thought was an ugly woman turned out to be a fairy-level super beauty.

Banquet is looking forward to that day.

When passing by Malcom, Hugh took the initiative to say hello to him politely.”

Malcom is a predecessor and a big shot in the field. When a younger generation meets his predecessors, he must greet them.

But to Rosa, he turned a blind eye and didn't mean to greet Rosa.

Hugh didn't know the story of Nikita and Rosa, he simply doesn't like Rosa.

Many years ago, he went to a banquet as an invited guest, where he met Rosa once at that dinner.

He had a pretty bad impression about Rosa.

Chapter 1142 They ran into each other.

After greeting Malcom, Hugh went forward to take the elevator.

The performance hall is on the third floor.

Seeing that Nikita was still surrounded by the crowd, Malcom frowned. As he was about to send Homer over to help her, he saw a few people walk toward her who obviously didn't look like security personnel and easily push those people to the side, protecting Aroma to walk out from the crowd.

While he was wondering who those men in black were, he saw an old man dressed up neatly and elegantly walk off from a black Rolls–Royce with the help of another man.

The young man who was helping the old man had an outstanding appearance and temperament. And his extremely handsome face looked very familiar to him.

Malcom narrowed his eyes and recognized both of them.

Rosa, who was standing beside Malcom, recognized them too. And her face slightly changed and showed some joy. She walked quickly towards them.

“Malcom, it’s Old Mr. Lambert and his grandson. Do you want to go over and say hi?” Homer also recognized them. He turned to ask Malcom in a low voice.

Malcom nodded: “Since it is Old Mr. Lambert, of course, we need to go over and greet them.”

Although Malcom is a big shot in the music industry, he still has to socialize when he meets such a noble and powerful family as the Lambert family.

Besides...

Several concerts he held before were all sponsored by the Lambert family. And he gets along with Old Mr. Lambert in private life.

As Nikita just got off the car, she was surrounded by a group of people.

There were more than a dozen microphones aiming at her. And the flash that frequently lit up almost blinded her eyes.

“Aroma, did you just come off a taxi? Didn’t the sponsor arrange someone to pick you up?”

“Aroma, I heard that you suddenly disappeared because you were badly ill. And during the past two years, you have been living in a very secret nursing home for treatment. Is this true?”...

“Aroma, can you tell us your recent schedule? After attending the piano competition, do you have other working arrangement?”

The microphone was almost pressed against Nikita’s face.

“Get out of my way. I don’t do interviews.”

The girl lowered her eyes. With a mask on, no one could see the expression on her face. But the depressed and aggressive aura around her made people feel chilly.

Several reporters who were right in front of her were shocked by her aggressive and gloomy aura. They were stunned for a second. And they didn’t dare to move forward.

But the fans in the back row were still pushing forward. They kept handing notebooks and albums to her. Some of them even took off their clothes and hats, yelling to ask for her autograph.

“Aroma, I’m your fan. I have been a fan for a very long time. I went to all the concert you held. And I bought all your albums. Can you sign for me? I really like you!”

A cute girl in a pink dress was waving an album in midair.

Nikita looked up and saw the lovely girl.

Seeing her look over, the girl became more excited. Her eyes lit up. “Aroma, I really like you. I’ve been regard you as my idol for many years. I have been saving money every year in order to go abroad to see your concert. When I knew you came to M City, I was so happy. And I came here to wait for you since early in the morning. So can I have your signature?”

The album in the girl's hand was released after a concert a few years ago. The tickets to her concert have always been not cheap. And her albums are expensive too, which are not affordable for ordinary people.

But judging from the girl's clothes, she doesn't seem to be a noble daughter from a wealthy family.

She was just dressed like an ordinary people.

Chapter 1143 She pretended not to know them.

She could tell that this girl was indeed her fan, who loved her music with sincerity.

Nikita originally didn't plan to sign for others or take a group photo with others.

But seeing that girl who kept waving her arms, calling her name and looking at her with sparkling eyes, she changed her mind.

Sometimes, she can make an exception.

She nodded at the girl and walked towards her.

Seeing her coming, the reporters were even crazier. They kept struggling to get closer to her. The weather was hot. And the temperature was close to 40 degrees. Even if they sat quietly and did nothing, they would have got sweaty all over, not to mention that this group of people kept struggling and moving.

The air was filled with an unpleasant and pungent sweat smell. Seeing that a reporter was about to bump into her, Nikita frowned and clenched one hand tightly which was hung on her side. As she was just about to reach out and push the person away, she heard footsteps sounding behind her.

The neat and uniform footsteps were getting closer and closer.

As soon as Nikita turned around, she saw a dozen tall and strong men in black suits coming over. They seemed to be well-trained. And they fended off all the reporters and fans who rushed forward.

She was protected in the center by this group of men in black. There were still several reporters who wanted to come forward. But they were shocked by the aura of this group of men who suddenly appeared from nowhere. For a time, they didn't dare to approach her again.

Seeing that this group of men in black obviously didn't dress like ordinary security personnel, she narrowed her dark eyes. And her sights directly went through the two men in black in front of her and fell on the people who came down from the limited edition black Rolls Royce behind her.

A few seconds later.

After seeing Old Mr. Lambert and Sheehan coming down from the car, Nikita twisted her eyebrows.

She actually ran into Old Mr. Lambert and Sheehan at the door.

As Nikita's eyes fell on Old Mr. Lambert and Sheehan, Sheehan, who was helping Old Mr. Lambert and walking towards her, seemed to sense something. He looked up. And their eyes directly met in the air.

At the moment when they looked at each other, Nikita narrowed her eyes and looked at the man's deep and handsome facial features. She remained calm on her face. There was no weird emotion showing in her eyes.

Her eyes looked quite calm and alienated when she looked at Sheehan.

Which was no different from the way she looked at other people.

It was like they really didn't know each other at all.

However, when son made eye contact with her, he was obviously stunned for a moment. And he stared at her for a few more seconds..

Nikita didn't dodge his sights and acted as calm as possible.

After looking at each other for a few seconds, Sheehan looked away.

Nikita didn't know whether he recognized her. Anyway, Sheehan also looked quite indifferent and alienated, just like the first time they met

The grandfather and the grandson walked to the front of Nikita and stopped.

Old Mr. Lambert seemed to not know Nikita at all. He greeted Nikita with a smile. And his attitude was gentle and polite: "Hello, Aroma. I'm glad to see you again."

Seeing the grandfather and grandson she couldn't be more familiar with, Nikita acted like the Best Actress. She raised her eyebrows gently. And there were some doubts showing in her eyes. "Have we seen each other before? I'm sorry. Who are you?"

Old Mr. Lambert remained a smile. "A few years ago, I went to your concert. The whole performance was very brilliant and unforgettable. I was planning to find a chance to meet with you. But I had an accident later, which just put off our meeting.

"Oh, my name is Brandy Lambert. And this is my grandson, Sheehan."

Chapter 1144 She refused the invitation.

"Oh, my name is Brandy Lambert. And this is my grandson, Sheehan."

"Sheehan?" Nikita's eyes still looked quite alienated. She lifted her eyes and took a look at Sheehan. Then she calmly took back her sights and spoke up in a flat tone. "Sounds a little familiar. Are you from the Lambert family, the No. 1 famous family in N City?"

"Yes." Old Mr. Lambert smiled. "I appreciate your musical talent very much. I originally planned to make an appointment with you after the competition. But since we ran into each other here, let me invite you in person. I wonder if you have some free time recently. How is your schedule arrangement? I'd like to invite you to dinner. Do I have the honor?"

The surrounding people didn't know the identity of Old Mr. Lambert and Sheehan at the first place.

Even though they knew that the two men's identities must be extraordinary, they never expected that they would be Old Mr. Lambert and the man in power of the Lambert family.

Everyone knows the Lambert family, the most prominent family in N City.

They are actually from the Lambert family in N City."

"I didn't expect that Old Mr. Lambert is also a fan of Aroma. How awesome Aroma is!"

"Can he be considered as the most powerful fan of hers?"

Everyone thought Nikita would never refuse Old Mr. Lambert's invitation.

Although Aroma is very awesome and has a high status in the international music field, no matter how talented she is, she can't be compared with someone from a century-old famous family like the Lambert family in N City.

One is a big family that has been prominent for nearly a hundred years.

While the other is a just musician who has only become famous in music field in recent years.

There is no comparison between the two at all.

Besides, after Aroma came to N City, as the most prominent family in N City, the Lambert family invited her to dinner obviously to make friends with her. No one could refuse an invitation from such a powerful family.

This is a great opportunity to make friends with the Lambert family.

Knowing the Lambert family is equivalent to entering the whole circle of giants in N City.

Who doesn't want such an opportunity?

When Old Mr. Lambert put forward his invitation, Sheehan also turned to look at Nikita with his deep and dark eyes faintly. No one could tell the emotions in his eyes.

Old Mr. Lambert was also looking at Nikita.

The grandfather and the grandson both fixed their eyes on Nikita.

Nikita: "..."

She sipped her lips. "Sorry, Old Mr. Lambert. I will leave N City immediately after the competition is over."

This means that she has no time to have dinner with him.

Although she didn't refuse him directly, her intention of refusal was quite obvious.

Hearing Nikita's refusal, not only Old Mr. Lambert was a little surprised, but other people around them were also surprised.

No one thought she would refuse him.

Besides, she said that she would leave N City as soon as the competition was over. It was obviously just an excuse.

No matter how busy she is, she can always have some time for dinner.

She actually made it very clear that she didn't want to have dinner with him.

"She actually turned him down! She turned Old Mr. Lambert down!"

"She is my goddess for sure. I knew that Aroma would definitely not agree!"

"Those who acted surprised at her refusal must not be real fans of her. We all know that Aroma is always like this. She doesn't care about the identity of the other party. She won't agree on the appointment as long as she doesn't want to. And she won't take the other party seriously no matter how powerful he is.

Old Mr. Lambert was stunned for a few seconds before he returned to normal. Good upbringing etiquette made him maintain absolute gentlemanly demeanor from beginning to end. Even though he was rejected, he still maintained his politeness and demeanor.

"Since Aroma doesn't have the time, we can talk about this another time."

Old Mr. Lambert didn't force her.

Nikita nodded and planned to go.

Chapter 1145 Being Smacked in the Face

Old Mr. Lambert also followed her to walk towards the gate of the concert hall.

“Grandpa Lambert, Sheehan!” A happy voice sounded. Rosa walked to Sheehan, stopped and looked at him with unabashed pleasure showing on her face.

Just now, a reporter asked about the relationship between Rosa and Sheehan.

Rosa always knows that there is no smoke without fire.

Those reporters must have heard something before asking her such a question.

Even if the Lambert family and the Garrett family have never really been bonded with marriage. Rosa doesn't want people to think that she is the one who gets dumped. She has always been competitive. And she doesn't allow herself to be a joke in other people's eyes.

It doesn't matter whether the business marriage is true or not.

What really matters is that she needs to let people know that her relationship with Sheehan is as good as before, not like what they said in the rumor.

She raised up her face with delicate makeups and picked up a gentle and charming smile. And her voice also sounded warm and gentle. “Sheehan, are you and Grandpa Lambert here to watch the competition? Why didn't you tell me earlier so that I could ask my master to leave two more tickets to me? And we could sit together.”

When Old Mr. Lambert saw Rosa, he remained his smile and looked very kind: “Niky has long prepared the tickets for us. So we didn't bother you.”

Hearing that Nikita prepared the tickets for them, Rose's smile froze for a second. Then she returned to normal and spoke up. “Grandpa Lambert, you are being too polite. The friendship between the two families has lasted for so many years. And you watched me grow up. It's just a few tickets. How could it bother me?”

Rosa's words intentionally or unintentionally implies how close she is to people from the Lambert family.

In fact, although the Garrett family and the Lambert family have a good relationship, it basically exists among the elder generations.

As for Sheehan's generation, there are not many contacts between the two families. And Old Mr. Lambert didn't watch Rosa grow up.

The Lambert family is in N City, while the Garrett family is in Y City. They are basically living in different cities.

And Rosa just occasionally goes to visit the Lambert family as a guest with her elders.

Hearing that she intentionally implied the relationship between the two families was very close, of course, Old Mr. Lambert knew what she was thinking, since he is so smart.

So Old Mr. Lambert just smiled and didn't say anything. He didn't refute her either.

"Grandpa Lambert, which row are your seats in? Are you in a good position? I still have a few tickets for seats in a great position. If you need..."

Rosa thought that the seats of the tickets given by Nikita were definitely not very good.

Her ticket must have been given by Hugh.

Although Hugh is one of the judges, and he can have several tickets of good positions in his hand, he definitely couldn't get the tickets with the best positions, because the tickets with the best positions were all given to Malcom.

And Malcom gave those tickets to her.

With such a good opportunity, she naturally wanted to make a good impression on Old Mr. Lambert.

While saying so, Rosa took out the tickets from her bag.

As she was just about to hand them to Old Mr. Lambert, she saw Fabian who was standing behind Old Mr. Lambert and Sheehan taking two tickets out in no hurry. Fabian held the tickets and spoke up. "These two tickets prepared by Miss Swift are both with good positions. Miss Garrett, you can keep your tickets."

There is something that is inappropriate for Old Mr. Lambert to do. But Fabian can do it for him.

Rosa looked down at the two tickets that Fabian took out. And the two tickets in her hand suddenly became jokes.

She clenched her hand which was holding the tickets. And the expression on her face stiffened for a few seconds.

The positions of the two tickets given by Nikita are even better than the two tickets in her hand!

Chapter 1146 Your girlfriend didn't come with you?

They are actually with the two best seats in the VIP zone.

Although the two tickets in her hand are also with the seats in the first row of VIP area next to the central position, which can be considered as a particularly good position, they still can't compare with the two tickets from Nikita.

Rosa's face was burning hot in embarrassment.

It wasn't Hugh who Nikita got the tickets from, right?

Or, were Nikita's two tickets also given by Malcom, who gave Nikita the tickets with the best seats and left the rest for her?

With this thought, Rosa's eyes couldn't help looking more gloomy with dissatisfaction.

Malcom is way too nice to Nikita!

So nice that she can't help but wonder if Nikita is Malcom's illegitimate daughter outside!

However, if she were really his illegitimate daughter, how could Lauren be so good to Nikita too. Which woman can tolerate her husband's illegitimate daughter outside?

After Rosa remained in silence with embarrassment for a few seconds, she smiled, as if nothing happened, and put the tickets back in her bag: "In this case, just forget it."

"Old Mr. Lambert, it has been more than one year since we met last time. How are you doing recently?" Malcom came over and greeted Old Mr. Lambert with a gentle voice.

"Master Malcom, long time no see." Old Mr. Lambert was very happy to see his old friend. He went forward, took Malcom's hand and asked with concerns: "I saw a report about you some time ago, saying that you were sick and hospitalized. Are you all right now?"

Malcom shook hands with Old Mr. Lambert. "I'm fine now. Thank you for your concern."

Old Mr. Lambert smiled and said: "That's great. I'm also in good health and fully-recovered."

Of course, Malcom knew that Old Mr. Lambert was cured by Nikita.

He knows better than anyone else about Nikita's medical skills.

Since Old Mr. Lambert said he was fine now, he must have been full-recovered.

Old Mr. Lambert is not the first vegetable cured by Nikita.

Before, there were several vegetative people who had been lethargic for more than ten years, whose health condition were worse than Old Mr. Lambert. And they were all cured by Nikita. And now, they are no different from normal people.

“Young Master Lambert.” After Malcom greeted Old Mr. Lambert, he turned his head and nodded toward Sheehan.

Sheehan politely greeted him: “Greetings, Master Malcom.”

Malcom looked him with a smile. “Is Young Master Lambert also interested such a competition? Or, you are just here to accompany your grandfather.” Sheehan told the truth: “I came here to accompany my grandfather.”

Malcom chuckled again: “Your girlfriend didn’t come with you?”

Sheehan nodded. “Yeah. She has classes to take today.”

“How is the thing going on between you and your girlfriend recently?”

“Everything is fine. Thank you for your concern.”

Old Mr. Lambert didn’t know that Nikita used to take Sheehan to visit Malcom. And he didn’t know the relationship between Nikita and Malcom. So he was quite surprised: “Malcom, how do you know that my grandson has a girlfriend?”

Nikita and Sheehan’s love affair was not made public.

On the one hand, Nikita is still young. And on the other hand, even if Sheehan has the intention of announcing their relationship to the public, he has to ask for Nikita's opinion. He can't make the announcement if Nikita doesn't agree with him..

Chapter 1147 Has Sheehan been dating someone?

Malcom picked up a subtle smile. "Nikita used to bring Young Master Lambert to the hospital to visit me once."

Old Mr. Lambert was even more surprised: "Master Malcom, do you and Niky know each other?"

Malcom chuckled again. "Of course, we know each other. That girl used to eat at my home from time to time. Considering the relationship between us, she can be considered as my goddaughter. My wife and I have always been looking forward to having a daughter. But our dream didn't come true because of her health condition.

And we just love that girl, which somehow fulfilled our lives. But she has a playful and unruly natural. And she doesn't like to be ordered by others. So my wife and I have always been worried about her. We were afraid that she couldn't take good care of herself. But since she has a boyfriend now, we can feel more at ease seeing that she has someone to keep her company and take care of her."

Lauren used to think about adopting Nikita as their goddaughter.

She told Malcom about this idea. And Malcom also agreed.

Later, this idea failed to be implemented. Because Lauren once euphemistically asked for Nikita's opinion about this and realized that Nikita was actually not interested, they gave up.

But the couple have always been treating Nikita as their daughters in their hearts.

Malcom seemed to be chatting casually with Old Mr. Lambert. But in fact, he was implying Old Mr. Lambert by saying so that Nikita actually has her backing.

The Evan family is her backing.

Old Mr. Lambert didn't expect Nikita to be so close to Malcom's family.

Although Malcom was just chatting in a casual tone, all the media and reporters who heard their conversation were shocked.

They were all stunned one by one.

Has Sheehan been dating someone?

Who is she?

The daughter of the Garrett family?

But the name that Malcom mentioned just now was not Rosa.

Then Sheehan's girlfriend is not Miss Garrett!

Thinking of the rumors about the business marriage between the Garrett family and the Lambert family being cancelled a long time ago, the reporters turned to look at Rosa one by one, whose face had already looked very gloomy.

So... The cancellation of their business marriage should be put forward by the Lambert family.

Was Rosa dumped by Sheehan, the president of the Lambert Group?

No wonder she looked so embarrassed when she talked about the cancellation of the marriage between the two families just now.

Nikita stood on the side and listened to Old Mr. Lambert and Malcom talking about her.

When Malcom said he considered her as his goddaughter, Nikita turned to look at him. And the light in her eyes flashed for a moment.

She knows why Malcom said that.

This old man is worried that she will be despised by the people of the Lambert family because of her family background.

Although he doesn't need to be worried about that, Nikita still felt warm in her heart.

Malcom never acted so warm and sweet in front of her. She didn't expect that he could care about her so much in private.

"Aroma." Malcom seemed to sense her sighs. He turned to look at her. "We met again."

Nikita slightly nodded at him. "Malcom."

"Since Aroma is also here, how about we go in together?" Malcom stood aside quite gentlemanly and stretched out his hand to imply Nikita to go first.

Nikita wasn't being too polite.

She nodded and walked past Malcom. On her way of going in, there was always a pair of unknown and meaningful eyes falling on her.

Even though Nikita didn't look back, she could guess who was always staring at her.

Her disguise today successfully fooled Old Mr. Lambert, Malcom and Homer.

But it seemed to have aroused someone's suspicion.

It seems that Sheehan is not so easy to fool.

Chapter 1148 She reminds her of Nikita.

The man's eyes have always been fixed on her until she walked into the elevator, and the elevator door closed. Finally, the feeling of being stared at disappeared.

Although Malcom didn't come here to be the judge this time, he was still an important guest of the program group. He and Nikita both took the same elevator and went to the same floor.

Sheehan and his grandfather took another elevator.

Rosa followed Malcom. She and Homer walked behind Malcom and entered the elevator with Malcom.

There were four people in the Elevator, including Nikita.

"Aroma, do you really need to leave N City right after the competition is over?" Malcom walked into the elevator. Seeing Nikita standing in a corner with her eyes looking down silently, he intentionally started a conversation with her.

Aroma is the only person who Malcom appreciates and admires.

If he can, he would like to make friends with Aroma.

But Aroma has such a cold personality that she doesn't like to social with others. Malcom has met her several times. And she was always alone, with no friends or assistants around her.

According to the normal situation, when a musical master like her goes in and out of public places, there will always be many staff members around her. Malcom has never seen anyone like her.

Malcom has never seen anyone like her, who always deals with everything by herself.

However, it is normal for a person like her who has such a talent in one field to be a little eccentric.

Geniuses are always different from ordinary people.

Seeing Aroma like this, Malcom couldn't help thinking of Nikita.

In terms of personalities, Aroma and Nikita are somehow quite similar. Nikita also likes to be alone.

When this idea occurred to Malcom, he couldn't help but turn to look at Nikita again. Unfortunately, the person in front of him was wearing a mask with her hair loosened, only revealing a pair of light brown eyes. Judging from these eyes only, she doesn't look like Nikita.

S = SE < F F

And her dressing style was completely different from Nikita's usual style.

Their voices don't sound similar, either.

Therefore, even if Malcom had some doubts, it was only an idea flashed in his mind. And he didn't give it another thought.

"Yes." Nikita was still looking down. And her voice sounded indifferent.

“Do you have to be in such a hurry? Can you leave one or two days later? Do you have something urgent to deal with?”

Malcom also wanted to invite Aroma to dinner and introduce Rosa to her.

Rosa wants to join Aroma’s orchestra, which Malcom knows. And he supports her to fight for this opportunity.

Rosa is his youngest disciple. And she is also the only female disciple of his.

Although she can’t compare with Nikita in his heart, she is also a disciple he dotes on very much. He naturally hopes that his disciple’s career can get better and better.

Moreover, Rosa’s piano skill is very good. Although she is not as talented and skilled as Nikita, compared with other people in the same circle, she can be considered as excellent.

After all, she is still young. Since she can have such achievements now, her future development must be limitless.

Aroma’s orchestra can be a good place for her to develop her career.

“Sorry, it’s urgent.” Nikita’s voice still sounded alienated. “I can’t be late.”

Hearing him say so, Malcom sighed with pity: “Well, in this case, I could only wish Aroma a pleasant journey in advance.”

It seems that Rosa can’t have such an opportunity.

God has plans for everyone.

Since she can’t get the chance this time, there is nothing else he can do.

Malcom didn't say anything more.

Chapter 1149 Rosa's Self-recommendation

While Rosa, who has been silent by his side, is a little anxious at this moment. Aroma will leave N City right after the competition is over? What about her?

She had a hard time waiting for the opportunity to meet Aroma again. If she can't seize this opportunity, she really doesn't know how much longer she needs to wait before she gets to meet Aroma next time.

"Aroma, hello. My name is Rosa. We met once a few years ago. I wonder whether you still remember me." Rosa couldn't wait any longer and spoke up.

Nikita lifted her eyes to look at her.

Her dark eyes look a little alienated and cold.

Seeing her eyes, Rosa was stunned for a second. She felt that this pair of brown eyes looked inexplicably familiar.

252 2 2 2 2 2 2

Which looked much like a person.

Nikita.

Thinking of this person who she dislikes, Rosa frowned. And there was some disdain showing in her eyes.

How could she think Nikita looks familiar with Aroma?

The two people have such a different status that Nikita is even not qualified for picking up shoes for Aroma!

Nikita looked at Rosa with indifferent and alienated eyes and didn't speak up.

Rosa is so proud at ordinary times that she doesn't seem willing to take anyone seriously. But at this moment, she somehow knows etiquette very well, and behaves like a humble and polite younger generation.

Although, Nikita didn't reply her words, she didn't get upset and remained a polite and humble manners. "Aroma probably doesn't remember me. Four years ago, at St. John's College of Music in M country, I represented our school to attend the musical communicating meeting of your school. Aroma, you also attended that meeting."

"Oh, I remember the meeting." Nikita's voice still sounded very faint, "However, I don't remember I have seen you."

"At that time, there were more than 100 representatives from music schools all over the world attending the meeting. With so many people there, it is normal for Aroma not to remember me."

"Oh." Nikita nodded and didn't say anything else.

"Aroma, I not only attended the concert at St. John's College of Music, but I also participated in the selection of the piano players in your orchestra. At that time, I was not skilled enough and didn't get selected."

"But I have always wanted to join your orchestra. Over the years, I have practiced piano hard and constantly improved myself, just to join your orchestra and become the piano accompaniment of your orchestra."

"I didn't get selected those years because I was not skilled enough. But now, I think I have become qualified enough for being the piano accompaniment of your orchestra." "I hope Aroma can give me a chance to prove myself."

This time, Rosa is confident that she can definitely join the orchestra.

She won the first place in this year's World Piano Competition. Simply with that, she can impress Aroma.

If she joins her orchestra now, she can help her orchestra earn more popularity.

Her participation is good for both her and the orchestra. So it is a win-win situation.

Aroma has no reason to refuse her.

Malcom turned to take a look at Rosa. Although he was a little surprised to hear Rosa bring these things up at this moment, after thinking about it for a while, he realized that she seemed to only be able to choose such a time to bring it up.

There is still a chance for her if she brings it up now.

"Aroma, this is my disciple." Malcom also spoke up for Rosa and helped her fight for this opportunity. "She worships you very much and mentioned to me several times that if I ever had a chance to meet you, I must take her with me."

"She has always been looking forward to joining your orchestra." "I remember that you haven't found a suitable pianist for your orchestra. How about let her try?"

Nikita: "

Malcom actually recommended Rosa to her?

If she included a person who dislikes her in every aspect into her orchestra, she would be crazy.

Chapter 1150 I don't think it will work.

“My orchestra does need a pianist. But I don’t think Miss Garrett is suitable for this position.” Nikita directly refused.

Rosa was originally very confident about this. After being rejected, she was stunned for a few seconds. When she finally came to her senses, her face immediately changed. She couldn’t help but ask. “I’m not suitable for your orchestra? Aroma, you haven’t seen my performance yet. Why do you think I’m not suitable for your orchestra? If you have some requirements about the pianist in your orchestra, just tell me. I’ll work hard to meet your requirements.” Malcom also looked puzzled. “Aroma, which aspect do you think she is not suitable for your orchestra? I know you have a high standard. But this disciple of mine is really excellent. If I don’t think she is qualified enough, I won’t easily recommend her to you.”

Nikita looked the two people and answered in a flat tone. “I just feel she is not suitable. And I have no reason. If you have to get an answer from me. I’ll say I don’t think her aura works with me.”

“Is this reason good enough?”

As

soon as she finished saying so, the elevator reached the floor they were heading to and stopped.

After the elevator door opened, Nikita went out directly.

In the elevator, Malcom frowned slightly. After a few seconds, he turned to look at Rosa, who froze beside him and looked embarrassed. After thinking about it for a while, he sighed and spoke up. “She is well-known as being eccentric. It’s not strange for her no matter what she did or said. Since she doesn’t think your aura works with hers, you don’t have to think about this in the future.”

“This is not that bad. Since she explicitly rejected you, you can give up.”

Rosa bit her lips hard with a gloomy face. And her eyes looked extremely unwilling. "If I am inferior to others, I will be convinced. But what kind of reason is that?!"...

The reason for rejecting her turned out to be that she didn't think her aura works with her.

Malcom could tell how unwilling she was. He shook his head. "Aroma doesn't need a convincing reason to reject someone." "In those years, she could casually cancel her concert the next day just because she was feeling blue. Originally, she is such an unruly person. You can't judge her with normal thinking patterns."

"So you don't need to think about joining her orchestra anymore. There is definitely no hope."

"But, master!"

Rosa really doesn't want to give up like this.

She can't accept such a reason.

Seeing that she still refused to give up, Malcom's expression became serious. And his tone sounded much more serious too. "That's enough! There is no need to continue to talk about this matter."

"Since Aroma has rejected you, don't ever think about it." "You are my disciple. Your words and deeds represents the Malcom School. If you choose to do something that brings shame to our school, don't blame me for being ruthless!"

After saying these words with a straight face, Malcom walked out of the elevator.

Homer quickly followed him behind.

Rosa was still standing in the elevator. And her face looked more and more gloomy.

She was rejected by Aroma. But Malcom clearly could help her fight for it again. But he didn't!

If it were Nikita who wanted to join Aroma's orchestra, even if she was rejected, he would certainly have continued to fight for Nikita!

Doesn't he just say those words to Old Mr. Lambert in order to make the Lambert family to value Nikita more? Isn't he just afraid that Nikita will be wronged in the Lambert family?

Which aspect on earth is she inferior to Nikita in?

Why is he partial to Nikita like this?

It's okay that he doesn't want to help her. But she will never give up like this!

When Yvonne and Margot arrived at the competition venue, the reporters and fans at the door had not completely dispersed. As soon as several people got off the car, they heard several reporters talking about Sheehan.
