

The Girl CB 1171

Chapter 1171-Nikita was silent for a few seconds and nodded: "Yes. It's me."

She didn't want to tell Sheehan about this matter now, but if he really wanted to ask, she wouldn't hide it.

Sheehan's face did not show too unexpected expression: "Sure enough, I was right."

Nikita couldn't help but ask: "How did you find it?"

Even Malcom didn't recognize her.

She didn't know where she had showed her slip.

Sheehan took a cake from the plate on the coffee table and handed it to her: "Just depend on my feeling."

Nikita stunned slightly : "Feeling?"

"Hmm." Sheehan nodded and smiled. "Just similar to you girls, who always have a very accurate sixth sense. In fact, when I saw you at the gate of the concert hall, I had a very familiar feeling."

"What's more..."

Sheehan hooked his lips, looking at her dark and beautiful eyes, and suddenly approached, holding her delicate jaw with one hand, and smiled: "Niky, don't you know that you have a unique aroma?"

"Even if your disguise is different from usual, the smell will not deceive people."

The distance was so close that there was a warm and moist breath falling on her lips.

With a slight itch.

Nikita smelled the clear and agreeable aroma of Sheehan. The closer he got, the stronger the aroma became.

Nikita pinched the fingers on the milk tea cup tightly with her heart beat faster.

She raised her eyes slightly, sipped her lips against the man's deep and bottomless dark eyes: "What unique aroma? I never use perfume."

The man's slender and clean fingers gently wiped her lips, lowering his voice: "I also want to know what aroma it is."

Nikita looked at the man more and more deep, with more and more hot eyes, and she suddenly smiled, holing the milk tea in one hand, with the other hand hooking the man's neck, slightly adding force to let him lower his head.

The girl was like a star-like bright eyes with a shallow smile, whose brow was lightly picked, and her voice was low: "What else do you want to know?"

Sheehan's eyes completely darkened. Looking at the girl's slightly raised lips, his eyes became dark.

Yvonne won championship in the piano competition, and also won the appreciation of Aroma, an internationally renowned music master, which meant that she was very likely to become his apprentice. This matter would soon spread all over First Senior High School.

No one knew who broke the news first.

When Nikita went to school the next day, everyone was talking about it.

Tammy was angry with upset all over her face: "Niky, have you heard that Yvonne actually became the apprentice of music master Aroma? She has now become the envy of the teachers and students of the whole school. Even people of the other schools envy her."

"Everyone is saying that Yvonne is now the most promising student in our school."

Tammy had always been against Yvonne, and she was furious when she heard such a thing.

She was not jealous of Yvonne, but simply didn't like this person.

She didn't like Yvonne even earlier, while this time because of Nikita, she hated her even more.

It could easily be heard that someone was talking about Yvonne everywhere, and they were all full of praise and envy. Tammy was so angry that she wanted to take a few days off and leave school temporarily.

Nikita went to her position, putting her backpack in the desk, and sat down with an indifferent look: "Well, I do have heard some."

It was hard not to hear it.

Chapter 1172-Since she entered the campus, there were voices discussing Yvonne everywhere along the way.

"Niky, since you have heard it, why didn't you respond at all?" Tammy looked at Nikita as if nothing had happened, and she frowned.

Nikita took out a book from the desk drawer, opened a page, and looked up at Tammy.

Looking at Tammy's angry appearance, she laughed: "Then tell me, how should I react?"

"Aren't you angry?" Tammy bit the bread in her hand. "If she really became an apprentice of Aroma, she will definitely show off in an ostentatious manner."

“You haven’t seen her showing off in that way. It looks really annoying!”

“There’s nothing to be angry about.” Nikita replied calmly, “This matter is not yet determined, isn’t it?”

“Yes. However, because Yvonne is so proud of that, I think it should be nearly true.”

Tammy was still furious: “I don’t know what luck she had. I don’t think she played the piano well. It is said that the requirements of the master Aroma were particularly high, weren’t is? Even Sister Rosa could not be accepted by her. Why did she accept Yvonne?”

Yvonne performed at the party held by the school every year.

Tammy was born in a noble family and learned piano since childhood. She felt that although Yvonne played the piano well, it was still worse than Rosa.

But Aroma didn’t even accept Rosa. How could she choose Yvonne who was not as good as Rosa?

She wanted to accept apprentices. But didn’t it need to pay attention to one’s strength rather than other aspects?

“Why in hurry?” Nikita was still calm. “Since it is something that has not yet been determined, variables may occur at any time.”

“You think she doesn’t play the piano very well. Why are you sure Aroma will accept her? I think she can’t be the apprentice of Aroma.”

Tammy was still angry: “However, the song she played in the competition was indeed very nice. Aroma must have accepted her because of having listened to the song she played in the competition.”

Yvonne’s luck was always so good.

Clearly, the level of those songs she played at ordinary times was not high, but every time she played, she could perform at least ten times higher than usual.

They didn't know if she was deliberately to be clumsy at ordinary times, or if she was really that lucky.

Although Tammy didn't like her very much, it must be admitted that the song she played in the competition was really quite good, and she was worthy of the name of the championship.

"The song that Yvonne played in the competition is indeed very good." Samuel also watched the game. He quite agreed with Tammy's words. "I also think Yvonne is very lucky. She was simply extraordinary yesterday, especially in the comparison with other players.

Unexpectedly, she is quite talented."

Having said that, Samuel just thought of something, and quickly turned to see Nikita. Seeing she didn't show angry, he just secretly relieved.

Fortunately, Niky was generous enough.

Otherwise, troubles would be caused by his tongue.

Nikita leafed through the book lazily with one hand on her chin: "It has nothing to do with you to worry about all this. There will be a joint entrance examination tomorrow. If you have this time, it is better to read more books."

Samuel: "..."

Tammy: "..."

Tobin: "..."

Was it appropriate for her who slept every day in class and became excited after class to say that?

Chapter 1173-Besides, wasn't it a waste of time to start to study hard the day before the exam?

Samuel said with self-knowledge: "Niky, you should have known what level we are in."

"Reading?" Tobin pulled out his mobile phone and opened the game. His voice was lazy. "It's better to have higher level in the game during this time. Samuel, come on, there are only three days left in this season. I still need to win two times. I have to achieve hundreds of stars before the end of the season."

"I'm still three times short. I've been playing for almost a month, and I'm still at the original level. Shit! Why is this season so difficult to play!" Samuel swore and logged in his account.

Both of the two boys were expressing their negative emotions while starting the game.

In less than ten minutes, their first game was over.

"OMG! Why are everyone opposite so fierce!"

"This game is too difficult."

"I am not convinced. If I come to another game, I don't believe that I will always lose!"

Then they started another game.

Less than ten minutes passed.

"Shit! This system must be intentional. Why is it that every time there will always be powerful on the opposite side, but all my teammates are all rookies? I give in. Have you seen the one who played the role of jungler? He has always been picking Ganoderma in the wild area! I have never seen him join in the team fight!"

“The mage is also too bad in playing, and he has no consciousness at all. He must have spent money to get such a high position!”

Having lost twice, Samuel was so angry that he kept swearing, because both the two games had ended in less than ten minutes.

Tobin was also angry and smashed his mobile phone on the table: “Holly shit game!”

Nikita was noisy by the voice of two people swearing. She raised her head and put down the book in her hand. She looked at Samuel: “How many stars are you still missing?”

Samuel was stunned: “Niky?”

Nikita took out her mobile phone: “Let me join you.”

Samuel and Tobin were stunned again. After a few seconds, Samuel reacted and said excitedly, “Niky, are you going to take us to success?”

“Do you want to play or not?” The girl pinched her mobile phone and clicked on the game, with impatience in her tone.

These two guys were extremely annoying.

It was so noisy that she couldn't read.

“Of course! Niky, wait a minute. I will invite you right now!”

To be led to success by boss, Samuel and Tobin were so active. They immediately re-entered the game and invited Nikita to play together.

At the moment when the bell rang in the first class, Nikita put down her mobile phone and buried her head again to open one-third of the books she had read: "Be quiet, and stop bothering me."

Tobin and Samuel held their mobile phones, slowly raising their heads. Then there was shock in eyes of both of them.

Although, they all knew that Nikita was particularly powerful in playing games, who was a god-level boss.

However, although they had already known that, they were still shocked watching her fight crazily in the game with their own eyes, seeing her playing without any pressure in a five to one fight.

Wasn't this just like the random slaughter of full-class boss in the novice village?

They played back and forth for more than a month, but still failed to play hundreds of stars. Nikita took them to play easily just in less than an hour.

Samuel turned his head, looking at the girl who was reading carefully with her head buried, like a fanatical believer looking at his own god, with his eyes full of worship.

His Niky was awesome!

He wanted to be her heeler all his life!

At noon.

Nikita, Samuel and Tammy went to the school canteen to eat together.

Chapter 1174-Yvonne had restored her former scenery, being crowded round and becoming the focus of attention again.

Now in First Senior High School, even the aunt who cleaned the toilet had already known that there was a great student named Yvonne in the school who would be accepted as an apprentice by a very powerful music master.

She was the pride of the whole First Senior High School now.

Such an honor was much more powerful than being admitted to Peking University.

When Nikita saw Yvonne, Yvonne naturally also saw her.

“Yvonne, it is Nikita and Tammy.” Yvonne’s two girlfriends also saw Nikita.

Yvonne stopped, looking up to Nikita, and raised her lip, with her eyes across a trace of not obvious provocation.

Now, she could finally be proud in front of Nikita.

“Oh, no wonder you look so familiar to me. It turns out that it is the new campus belle of our First Senior High School.” Yvonne didn’t make any noise, but the two girlfriends beside her got up first.

“New campus belle? Cilicia, are you mistaken? Isn’t the new campus belle changed again? The new campus belle now should be Yvonne. What does it have to do with her Nikita?”

“Yes, I almost forgot. The campus forum began to vote for the campus belle again. So far, Yvonne has the most votes.”

“It’s so funny. How long did some people sit on the throne of the campus belle? It was replaced so quickly. Sure enough, the so-called campus belle selected only by the appearance couldn’t win the real hearts of the people.”

“Ha, ha, ha, this is probably the fastest campus belle that goes up and down in our school.”

Two girlfriends were like singing duets, echoing each other's. The other girlfriend looked Nikita from head to toe again, and then covered her mouth laughing.

"Don't you say that." Yvonne waited for two people to satirize enough before saying hypocritically, "Although it is a re-vote, the voting result hasn't come out yet. It is too early to say this now."

"The result is so obvious. Unless some people cheated, otherwise, the campus belle this time must be you, Yvonne."

Yvonne sipped her lips and smiled, but didn't speak.

"Oh, in fact, Yvonne doesn't care about the identity of campus belle at all. Yvonne will soon become the first apprentice of the master Aroma. This honor alone has already exceeded everything."

"By the way, Yvonne." The girl beside Yvonne turned her head and pretended to be curious and asked, "I heard that the school has decided to recommend you to Perking University. Is it true?"

Yvonne smiled and looked at Nikita with pride in her eyes: "The teacher had talked to me about this, but it has not been settled yet."

She said this modestly.

Everyone else could understand that it must have been settled.

Otherwise, the teacher wouldn't have talked to her.

When people around heard that Yvonne would be sent to Perking University, they all looked envious on their faces.

Yvonne was really excellent.

She was sent to Perking University again, and was also approved by Aroma who wanted to accept her as an apprentice.

What a winner in life.

Although Nikita was also very powerful, she was still worse than Yvonne now.

Before the college entrance examination started, Yvonne had already decided to be recommended to the best Perking University to go to college.

Perking University was the best university in China.

Although Nikita had won the first place in the English League Competition before, if she wanted to get into Perking University, she couldn't just be good at English unless she could also get high scores in other subjects.

Chapter 1175- I can help you, too.

And Nikita's previous achievements had been...

The possibility that she could be admitted to Perking University was almost zero.

In this matter alone, she couldn't be compared with Yvonne.

"Yvonne, you are too modest. If it has not been settled, it is impossible for the teacher to talk to you."

"That's right. How can he talk to you without being sure? Yvonne, you really make us envy you now."

Two girlfriends constantly said words to each other, intentionally watching Nikita.

There was no expression on Nikita's face.

However, Tammy couldn't listen to it anymore. She couldn't help but say: "What's the big deal about being recommended? Niky doesn't need to be recommended, she can also go to Beijing by herself!"

"That is, our Niky can be admitted to Peking University by her own strength, and it is not rare to be recommended!" Samuel couldn't help but say.

"Is it?" Yvonne smiled with unknown meaning and looked at Nikita. "There will be a joint entrance examination tomorrow. The joint entrance examination is always very difficult. How many scores can you get in that examination, and the results of the college entrance examination will almost be the same."

"If you have strength, it will be shown after taking the test, won't it?"

"Nikita, since Tammy is so confident in you, you should give full play and get a good result that shocked everyone. Don't gain zero again, which will definitely lose your face."

Nikita looked at her provocative eyes, narrowing her eyes, expressionless: "Lose the face? Your face is too ugly, I am not interested in it."

"But if you must come up and let me fight, I can help you, too."

Yvonne's face suddenly changed, her face sank, with her eyes igniting anger.

She took a deep breath, bit her lip, and sneered: "OK, then we will wait and see whose face it is!"

Having put malicious words, Yvonne walked into the canteen.

Seeing she was gone, the rest of the bystanders then all dispersed.

"It really makes me so angry! Niky, have you seen that Yvonne is too proud now? I am furious when I look at her swaggering appearance!"

“The school even recommended her to Perking University! So she feels much more triumphant now!”

Perking University was the school that Tammy wanted to go to most.

However, she was quite self-aware. Her grades were just middle level in Class A. There would be no problem to be admitted to universities in Project 985 or something, but it was almost impossible to get into Perking University.

Listening to Yvonne having been walked to the university she wanted to go to most, she was a little envy in her heart.

She also knew very well that the main reason why Yvonne was recommended to Perking University so quickly was definitely because that Yvonne would be accepted by Aroma.

Aroma’s international popularity and status were too high.

The students of First Senior High School were taken as disciples, which could become the capital to show off by First Senior High School. Yvonne earned such honor for First Senior High School, so the school would naturally reward her and give her some benefits.

Being recommended to Perking University would be the best reward.

Chapter 1176-If it weren’t for this matter, Yvonne probably would not be able to get the quota.

But it was exactly she who had such luck.

“What about being recommended to Perking University? What’s the big deal? Niky do not care about it at all. With the skill of Niky, she can develop well everywhere. I think that group of students in Perking University are not as powerful as our Niky!”

Samuel was afraid that Nikita would be stimulated by Yvonne, and would be in a bad mood. So he quickly said these words to comfort her.

But he felt that these words didn't have much effect.

Because people who could go to Perking University were really awesome.

If he could be admitted to Perking University, his family would definitely have a banquet to celebrate for him for three days and nights.

This could definitely be regarded as a matter of glorifying the ancestors of his family.

In that way, Yvonne couldn't be said to be so triumphant. If she were replaced by himself, he would definitely be more triumphant.

"Yes, it's not a big deal to go to Perking University. Sheehan brother didn't go to Perking University either. But he is much more powerful than most students from Perking University!" Tammy was also afraid that Nikita would be unhappy, so she tried to comfort him.

However, her comforting words made Samuel and Tobin speechless.

Samuel: "Tammy, aren't you talking nonsense? It's true that brother Sheehan didn't go to Perking University, but the university he went to was much better than Perking University."

How can Perking University, be compared with the world's No.1, HF University?

Although Perking University was also very powerful, it did not even rank in the top ten in the world.

One was the world's first-class university.

One was the first-class university ranked more than a dozen in the world.

This gap was just like the gap between the general giants and the top giants.

Tobin couldn't help but remind: "Brother Sheehan went to HF University, ranking first in the world, which Peking University can't compare with."

Tammy: "..."

Yes, her cousin went to the best university in the world.

"Anyway, what I mean is that those who go to Perking University are not necessarily very powerful. Those who don't go to Perking University are not necessarily inferior to them!" Tammy stretched out her hand, putting her arm together with Nikita's arm, and flattered "Anyway, in my eyes, Niky is the best! No one can compare with Niky!"

Nikita looked down at her.

"Niky, I'm sorry." Tammy bit her lip and apologized in a low voice.

"Why do you say sorry to me?" Nikita raised her eyebrows.

Tammy's voice was smaller with his head even lowering, like a child who had done something wrong and was waiting to be punished in fear, trembling: "I just pushed you to quarrel with Yvonne."

"I shouldn't have said those angry words because of being angry with her!"

She referred to the phrase that Nikita did not care about that and could also be admitted to Perking University.

Her mind was on impulse at the moment, so she blurted it out.

In fact, just after saying this sentence, she regretted.

Just what you had said was just like the spilled water, which you couldn't get it back.

Moreover, many people present at that time had already heard it.

It was not that easy to be admitted to Perking University.

There would be a joint entrance examination tomorrow. When the scores of the joint entrance examination came down, if the scores of Niky were not enough, wouldn't many people laugh at her then? Yvonne couldn't miss this opportunity, and would definitely take the opportunity to ridicule her.

Thinking that Nikita might become the laughingstock of others because of her, Tammy felt particularly sorry in her heart.

"Niky, I'm really sorry. I just can't control my mouth! Why should I say those words in order to quarrel with Yvonne!"

Chapter 1177-Looking at her self-condemned face, Nikita picked her eyebrows: "Nothing, it's not a big problem."

Tammy: "..."

She thought the problem was quite big.

She was not afraid of being ashamed of herself.

But if her Niky was laughed at, she would feel guilty.

First Senior High School changed its campus belle.

Nikita, the new campus belle who had just been elected for a short time, was replaced, and Yvonne, the original campus belle, sat back on the throne. This matter was known not only to people in First Senior High School, but also to other schools.

The Campus Alliance Group of N City was very lively, and everyone in it was discussing this matter.

“Conan in First Senior High, I heard that the school belle of your school has changed again and has been replaced with the original one. Is it true?”

The interrogator was from the Experimental Senior High School.

Students from several other schools, also asked Conan.

“Yes, I heard that First Senior High School has re-elected the campus belle. Now the school belle is Yvonne again. Is there any reliable news to tell us what is going on?”

The so-called Conan, a student of First Senior High School, had always been active in the group, who not only knew all kinds of gossip in his own school very well, but also knew what gossip there were in other schools.

Therefore, if anyone in the group wanted to inquire about any gossip, they would ask him first.

Being asked by such a group of people, Conan finally came out and replied.

Conan in First Senior high: It is true.

“That’s true? So, that Nikita is not the campus belle of First Senior High School now?”

“How long did it last for Nikita being elected? It was replaced so quickly. However, Yvonne is really better and more suitable to be the campus belle of First Senior High School.”

“Yes, Yvonne in your school is really amazing, who is not only good-looking, but also has good academic performance, and is versatile. She was also accepted as the first apprentice by master Aroma. I heard that she had also been recommended to Perking University? Such a campus belle is 10,000 times better than the previous one, isn't it?”

“When it comes to being recommended, I heard a very funny thing. Do you want to hear it? It is universally acknowledged that Yvonne was recommended to Peking University. I heard that Nikita was so jealous that she actually bragged that she didn't want care about being recommended. She wanted to be admitted to Perking University by herself. Isn't this particularly funny? Ha ha ha!”

“If I remember correctly, Nikita seems to be a transfer student, whose grades were particularly poor in the previous school. Does she think that Peking University is a third-rate college? It was ridiculous to hear that she said she could admit to it herself. Doesn't she weigh herself who she is? Can she achieve it?”

The discussion in the campus alliance group was cheerful.

At this time, in First Senior High School, each class and all levels also discussed happily.

Especially in Class A where Yvonne was in.

During break time after class.

“Yvonne, it is said that Nikita declared war with you and said that she would be admitted to Perking University by her own strength.” Yvonne's desk-mate seemed to ask her curiously, whose voice was so loud that almost everyone in the class could hear.

All the other students in the class turned their heads to look at them.

Yvonne looked away from the textbook, sweeping the others very quickly, smiled and said, “Where did you hear from?”

“Everyone is talking. When I said that I went to the canteen to eat at noon, I met you. Knowing that you were sent to Perking University, someone was obviously too sour to say anything that she didn’t care.”

“That’s right, Yvonne was recommended to Perking University, so everyone envied her. It happened that someone is just like a pickled cucumber. If she can’t get that, she will say that she does care. Especially for being recommended. She doesn’t even evaluate herself if she is qualified to be recommended.”

Chapter 1178-Yvonne sipped her lips and smiled: “You can’t say that either. If she really does not care, it may be true that she want to be admitted to Perking University by herself.”

“Just her?” A girl sitting in the front row was full of disdain. “If she can be admitted to Perking University, even sows can go up the tree!”

“Garland, how can you say that!”

Having listened to their mean talk for a long time, Tammy kept silent, but the more they said, the worse she felt, and finally she couldn’t help it.

“Am I wrong?” Garland turned her head. She knew that Tammy had a good relationship with Nikita, so she became more and more mean. “Can anyone be admitted to Perking University through college entrance examination? Even in our A class, few of us can get into Perking University, let alone the worst F class.”

“If she Nikita can be admitted to Perking University, everyone here will definitely be admitted to HF University casually!”

“Ha-ha, even class f students want to be admitted to Peking University?” Another girl also ridiculed in a strange way. “If she is really admitted, I will kneel down and call her Dad.”

“Me too.” Yvonne’s desk-mate said that, covering her mouth and laughing.

The others didn’t speak.

However, everyone agreed that it was a joke for Class F students to be admitted to Perking University.

Yvonne ranked in the top five grades in every exam.

But even if her grades were so good, if she had not been recommended this time but had taken the exam by herself, she also couldn't guarantee that she would be admitted.

A student in Class F dared to boast that she could undoubtedly be admitted to Peking University.

This was totally a joke.

Listening to several girls sarcastically mocking Nikita, Lanny's thick black eyebrows frowned. Just about to speak, she heard a distant voice at the door.

The girl's voice was alienated, low and heavy: "Really? It turns out that so many people like to kneel on the ground and call other people Dad."

This voice...

Lanny suddenly raised her head, seeing a girl standing at the door with a cold look and delicate eyes. She stunned and shouted in surprise: "Nikita, why are you here?"

Tammy also heard the voice of Nikita.

She was also quite surprised. After a few seconds, she immediately got up and ran towards Nikita.

"Niky, why are you here?"

This was the first time that Nikita appeared in Class A.

Other students also turned their heads to look at her in surprise.

Everyone was curious about why she came to Class A.

Yvonne lifted her eyes, looking at Nikita standing at the door. She squinted with bad expressions in her eyes.

The girls who mocked Nikita just now froze, stunned to look up, and no one would have thought, Nikita would hear the words they just said.

Chapter 1179-What did she want to do in Class A?

But only a few seconds of surprise, a few girls returned to normal, with their faces not being panic and uncomfortable anymore. On the contrary, several people looked at Nikita eyes with sarcasm and disdain.

“It is ridicule. You can’t hear what we said: If you can be admitted to Perking University, we will call you Dad on our knees. Do you think you can have such an opportunity?”

“Niky.” Tammy ran to Nikita and stopped. She asked in a low voice, “Niky, are you looking for me? What’s the matter?”

All along, it was Tammy who went to Class F to come to Nikita.

This was the first time Nikita went Class A to come to her.

Tammy thought there was something very important, so she asked nervously.

Nikita didn’t speak, just pulled out a small box from the bag and handed it to her.

“For you.” She handed it to Tammy.

Tammy looked down. It was a delicate red box, which looked like a jewelry box.

She took it in doubt.

“A birthday present.” Nikita looked at her, “I don’t know what you like, so I just bought a gift casually. If you don’t like it, I’ll change it.”

Nikita came to school today, originally to drop out of school with Talbot. Thinking that she would not come to school after that, she bought a birthday present for Tammy in advance.

Tammy looked at the jewelry box in his hand and said in surprise, “Birthday present? Niky, do you know when my birthday is?”

In half a month, it would be Tammy’s birthday.

However, she remembered that she didn’t tell Nikita when her birthday was.

“Well, the third of next month, right?” Nikita accurately said the date.

Tammy stunned again: “Yes, it is the 3rd of next month. But, how did you know? Did Samuel tell you?”

“No.” Nikita didn’t say she heard it from Sheehan. She changed the topic. “It doesn’t matter who told me. What matters is if you like the gift. Do you like it?”

“Yes, I definitely like it.” Tammy was very happy. She put the box in the bag of the school uniform. “I like the birthday present from Niky, no matter what it is!”

“I will not open it until arriving home.”

A group of people around were staring at the box in Tammy's hand to see what was in it.

She put the box away.

Yvonne also saw the box. She felt a little familiar. When she wanted to take a closer look, the box was put into her bag by Tammy.

"But Niky, my birthday is still a long way off. But you actually bought me a birthday present so early." Tammy didn't know Nikita was going to leave First Senior High School.

So she felt a little strange.

Generally, birthday gifts were given on the birthday.

But this time Nikita gave it to her so early.

"Yep." Nikita didn't say she was going to leave First Senior High School. She had planned to leave school today, and would not come to school tomorrow, but now she changed her mind.

She decided to leave a few days later.

After Nikita gave the birthday present to Tammy, she turned her head, looking at the girls who talked to her at first.

"What you just said, does it count?"

"What words?" A girl stunned and reacted after a while. "Of course it counts! However, do you really think you can be admitted to Peking University?"

Chapter 1180-"Whether I can be admitted or not is my own business." Nikita looked coldly at them, "Remember what you have said, and that's enough."

After saying this, Nikita greeted Tammy and turned, walking out of the classroom.

When she left,

“Ridiculous! She doesn’t really think she can be admitted to Peking University, does she?”

“Just her? I think it is difficult for her to even get into a third-rate university.”

“Be confident! She can not be admitted to the third-rate university. Unluckily, she may not be admitted even to a technical university.”

Tammy stared at several girls who said in a voice dripping with sarcasm: “Have you said enough?”

A girl sneered and said, “We are all telling the truth. It is someone who can’t see herself clearly, saying the impossible things to make people laugh.”

“I heard that many colleges and universities will enroll students in advance after the joint entrance examination, including Peking University. We are waiting to see the result of someone.”

When the bell rang, the students who got together dispersed and returned to their seats.

“Now Nikita is almost the laughingstock of the whole school. Everyone knows that she can be admitted to Peking University.” Yvonne’s desk-mate lowered her voice. “I don’t know where she got her confidence. Maybe she thought Peking University is easy to get in, after hearing that you were recommended to there.”

This class was a physics class. Yvonne took out her textbook and turned to the page that she would learn today.

With a shallow smile in her lips, she said, “It’s a good thing to have confidence, but it’s not good to be too confident.”

Did she think that having won the first place in the Greek League was enough to be admitted to Peking University?

Ridiculous.

She dared not say so, while Nikita was quite confident to say, who was also not afraid to be punished.

She deserved to be the laughingstock of the whole school.

When the results of the joint entrance examination came out, it would show how she severely lost her face. She would be a real joke. Compared with the popularity she had before, her situation at that time would be extremely embarrassed.

Because of the joint entrance examination, Maddox called Nikita specifically.

“Niky, will you attend the joint entrance examination tomorrow?”

Sheehan got off work early today and came to pick up Nikita from school. Nikita just got in the car, wearing a seat belt and replying: “Yep.”

Although she had not planned to attend.

But now she changed her mind.

Maddox suddenly became in a good mood, and his tone was more excited than before: “Are you short of something? I can prepare it for you in advance.”

“Do you remember the examination room and time? Do you need me to arrange someone to pick you up to the examination room? If you have any needs, let me know, and I will definitely do it for you!”

Maddox’s tone could be described as flattering.

Nikita: "..."

She undoubtedly knew the wishful thinking that the old guy was playing.

She had told him about dropping out of school before. Although the old man expressed his support for her decision, he still revealed his intention to let her take the joint entrance examination and the college entrance examination.

At the moment, Nikita promised to take part in the joint entrance examination, which meant that this year's national joint entrance examination champion and college entrance examination champion were sure to be in their First Senior High School. So he was happy without doubt.

After a while, Nikita hung up the phone.

Sheehan looked at her: "Tomorrow is the national joint entrance examination?"

The national joint entrance examination was quite important, and its importance was second only to the college entrance examination.

Moreover, sometimes, it was no different from the college entrance examination.

For example, in this joint entrance examination, many famous schools would enroll students in advance, and recruit a group of excellent students first, so teachers and students of all schools had attached great importance to this joint entrance examination.
