

The Girl CB 1201

Chapter 1201-Then they stood up and walked out of the tea shop, ignoring Yvonne and her friend.

“Who does she think she is? What can she be proud of? After the results are announced, she’ll be the biggest joke.”

After Nikita walked out of the tea shop, Rocalia pinched her sore wrist, gnashing her teeth.

Yvonne narrowed her eyes, without a word, her eyes cold.

After Nikita had the hotpot with Samuel and others, they went to a KTV.

Samuel liked singing and always dominated the room in the KTV. He had a good voice, better at singing than the ordinary people.

When he went to the KTV with others, he was always more skillful.

Samuel ordered a famous song of Hugh, Memory in August, which was composed by Nikita. Although Tammy disliked Samuel, he also admitted Samuel was good at singing.

“After the College Entrance Examination, Samuel decides to participate in the singing talent show. How do you like it? Can he enter the entertainment industry with his ability and appearance?”

Tammy asked Nikita, for she had relationships in this circle.

Moreover, seriously speaking, Hugh’s popularity was mostly attributed to Nikita.

Nikita poked a piece of pineapple from the fruit bowl with a toothpick and looked up at the handsome and tall boy. After thinking for a while, she commented objectively. "It's not easy to be very popular. But with a good image designed for him, he can be popular with some people."

Samuel is good-looking, no less handsome than some boys in the entertainment industry.

But his looking is not perfect.

He sings well, but he doesn't give people a refreshing and amazing feeling.

With a few good advantages, it was not easy to be very famous.

Hugh's popularity was attributed not only to her composition but also his own advantages, such as his figure, voice...

Nikita was willing to help him at that time mainly because of his face.

She liked beauties.

If Hugh was not so handsome, she would certainly not be so enthusiastic.

Samuel heard their conversation.

He immediately put down the microphone, stood up toward Nikita and squatted down, his head up with excitement in his eyes. "Nikita, do you really think I can be popular with a good image designed?"

Samuel liked singing, street dancing and playing musical instruments.

He thought that the most suitable job for him was to enter the entertainment industry as an artist.

He has always planned to do so. After the National College Entrance Examination, he will participate in a talent show.

He didn't want to be very famous. For him, it is enough to be popular with millions of fans.

He never expected to be an A-list star.

Nikita looked down at his face which was not exquisite and less handsome than Felton. But he looked dynamic and outgoing.

This type of boys was also very popular with girls.

Nikita actually did not want to intervene in others' affairs.

Chapter 1202-However, Samuel was one of her few friends. If she regarded a person as her friend, she would treat him sincerely.

Seeing his excitement, she asked, "Do you really want to enter that circle?"

Samuel nodded. "You know I'm not good at study. I'm also not interested in other jobs. I like singing, dancing and playing musical instruments. I think the entertainment industry is quite suitable for me."

"If you really want to enter it, you don't have to participate in talent show."

"Then how to enter it?"

Samuel's family was rich.

Moreover, its business was also related to the entertainment industry, and it had relationships with this industry.

However, if Samuel wanted to be a star, his family would definitely not agree. So he could only participate in the show.

“If you believe me, I can recommend someone to you.” Xavier’s company was ready to train some young persons. It will choose some with good conditions. She can introduce Samuel to Xavier.

“Who?”

“Xavier.” Nikita said calmly, “He is an agent and has an entertainment company which has developed well and made many artists famous.”

“If you are interested, I will give you his WhatsApp account. You can talk about it in detail.”

“Xavier?” Samuel felt that the name was familiar.

“Is he the best agent who made tremendous stars popular?” Tammy suddenly stood up with excitement, his voice aloud.

Samuel was reminded by her shouting.

“X... Xavier Blake? Will you really introduce that powerful agent to me?”

“Well, that’s him.” As Nikita said, she took out her mobile phone and clicked on the screen, sending a message to Xavier.

“I’ll talk to him first, and then you can talk about some details.”

She seemed to be as calm as she talked about the weather. The rest three: “...”

The powerful agent of the entertainment industry who made countless stars popular and had the largest agency was just an agent who signed stars in her mouth. His company was also only not bad.

Samuel was stunned.

He did not expect that Nikita would introduce him to Xavier just because he wanted to work in the entertainment industry.

But it was said that there were few stars signed by Xavier himself.

Unless some had perfect conditions.

Although Samuel was confident, he also was self-aware.

Although Nikita would introduce him to Xavier, he may not be able to be signed by him according to his requirements.

After Nikita sent a message to Xavier, he actually messaged her back at once.

Xavier: Hey, Babie, you finally think of me. Am I still in the dream?

Nikita: ...

Xavier: Is Sheehan so good? With him, you even forgot me.

He texted her with grievances and complaints.

Nikita even thought whether she played his affections.

But after thinking for a moment, she did not find him recently. Actually, they haven't contacted each other for a long time.

Chapter 1203-Nikita did not usually initiate a conversation. It was Xavier who always started it.

But Xavier didn't find her during this time, so they didn't contact each other.

Xavier said with grievances, so Nikita joked: Are you jealous?

This time, he didn't reply to her immediately. After a while, he replied: Yes, I am jealous.

He said seriously.

But Nikita thought he joked and did not take it seriously. She cast a look at Samuel who was in a trance and said directly. "I have something to tell you."

Nikita told him Samuel's affair.

Nikita: You're gonna sign some new stars? I'll introduce him to you.

Xavier: I have thought there was something serious. As a result, it's so tiny. Do you forget you're also the boss? You don't have to inform me. Make the decision by yourself.

Nikita: You have always been in charge of the company. You are good at choosing stars, not me. I'll push send his account to you. If he's suitable, then you sign him.

Xavier: OK, let me have a look first. But I believe that your vision. The guy recommended by you won't be bad.

Nikita: Well, I'll send your account to him.

She sent Xavier's card to Samuel.

After seeing the account card, Samuel added it with a mixed feeling.

Samuel: Hello, Mr. Blake. I'm Samuel Garcia, Nikita's classmate.

After adding Blake, Samuel greeted him politely.

Blake didn't reply to him immediately.

Samuel did not mind it. If Xavier replied at once, he would be nervous.

He was even unbelievable that he has already added Xavier.

But he did not wait so long. Xavier replied in a minute.

Xavier: I just browse your Moments. Your appearance is good, and your singing is good but not perfect. Nikita must have told you my requirements. If you like, you can come to my company to have a talk. Before you comes, contact me in advance, and I'll arrange someone to pick you.

Samuel stared at this sentence sent by Xavier and got stunned for a long moment.

He can't believe it.

Does Xavier mean he will sign him?

He asked carefully: Mr. Blake, can I meet the signing requirements of your company with such conditions?

Xavier: Yes, but we have different levels. Which level you sign depends on your appearance. So we need to have an interview.

In fact, Xavier did not take a fancy on Samuel.

There are many handsome men and beautiful women in his company, and there is no shortage of male artists with such appearance.

He has a plan to sign some new stars. He will choose some with quite excellent conditions by himself.

But Samuel was introduced by Nikita.

He has to be give him a contract.

Samuel was very excited: OK, I will have time tomorrow, so can I go to your company tomorrow?

Xavier: OK.

After negotiating with Xavier, Samuel said to Nikita with excitement, "Xavier said he could sign me. I'll go to his company to talk about the contract tomorrow."

Tobin raised his eyebrows in surprise. "Is it so easy to sign you?"

Chapter 1204-As all they know, Xavier is a picky person in the entertainment industry. It is so difficult to sign his company. He will not sign those without perfect conditions at all.

Tobin doesn't mean to look down on his brother. He thinks Xavier won't take a fancy on Samuel.

But he doesn't expect they have already talked about signing the contract.

It is so quick.

Thinking of something, Tobin turned to look at Nikita.

She sat there calmly without surprise.

“Nikita’s say is useful.” Samuel was also surprised, “My opportunity to sign the company is completely attributed to Nikita. After we sing, let’s have a supper. I’ll treat you. Choose what you want.”

He once watched the news and knew that Nikita had a good relationship with Hugh.

But he never thought that they were so close.

With Nikita’s sentence, he could even sign Xavier’s company. He did not dare to think about it before.

Nikita directly nodded. “Well, you treat. Have you carried enough money?”

“Of course.” Samuel pulled out his wallet from his pocket and patted it heroically. “Choose one restaurant you like in N City. Now that I treat you, I’ll certainly bring enough money.”

“I can afford a meal.”

Samuel was born in a rich family and had quite a lot of pocket money.

“Let’s eat seafood pot.” Nikita thought for a moment. “I know a restaurant is good. But I don’t know if you will like it.”

“Fine, seafood pot, I like it!” Tammy smiled. “The place you like must be great. Let’s go there after singing.”

“I agree.” Tobin raised his hand.

After they finished singing, they took a taxi to the seafood pot mentioned by Nikita.

The shop was quite normal, without big room and good decoration, but with good hygiene. All the tables and chairs were clean.

Its signboard showed it was a classic old-fashioned shop with good taste.

After ten o'clock in the evening, there were still many guests here. Both inside and outside the shop were full of guests.

When they arrived at it, only one table was left.

After getting off the taxi, they followed Nikita to the outside of the shop.

They were all young and dynamic high school students with good-looking faces. Their appearance attracted many people's attention.

Especially Nikita was still high among boys, attracting more attention.

She was even more beautiful than female stars.

"Are the girl students of my alma mater so beautiful now? It seems that I have to take time to go back to it." A boy stared at Nikita's delicate face, saying to another boy sitting next to him.

Another boy was also staring at Nikita, nodding in agreement.

Both of them were students in First Senior High School.

Chapter 1205-“What are you looking at?” Samuel saw the two boys staring at Nikita and immediately stood in front of her with a fierce appearance, like a hen protecting its children,

He was tall and usually played basketball, so he had developed muscles. After he stood in front of Nikita, he completely hid her.

Tobin standing next to him was also strong. The two boys did dare to provoke them, so they turned their eyes back, murmuring.

Tammy laughed. “Samuel, why are you so fierce? Nikita is beautiful. Don’t be rude to those appreciating her beauty.”

Even she loves to see beautiful women, and she will also cast glances at them.

Samuel sneered, “Do you not see their flirting eyes? Just don’t allow them to look.”

“Are you Nikita? Do I make a mistake?” Then a voice came behind them.

They turned back and saw a middle-aged man wearing an apron and holding a rag in his hand. He stood behind them with a surprised look at Nikita.

“Uncle Green, long time no see.” After seeing this man, Nikita showed a smile in her cold face, greeting him gently.

“Niky!” After the man confirmed her identity, he stepped forward with a big smile. “I just saw you, but I’m afraid that I make a mistake.”

“When did you come back? It is said you study abroad. Have you finished your study, or you’re in your holiday?”

“I came back after finishing my study.” Nikita was so obedient in front of this man.

“Then you won’t leave anymore?” asked the man.

Nikita thought for a while. “I’m not sure now.”

The man smiled, nodding. As he wiped the empty table beside him with a rag, he asked intimately. “What do you want to eat? Has your taste changed after going abroad for several years?”

“No.” Nikita walked over and sat down. She picked up a menu on the table with her slender fingers and turned to ask the confused trio. “Come to look at the menu and order what you like to eat.”

“Niky, are they your friends?” He seemed that he did not see those people beside her. He looked up at them with a smile. “You finally have friends at your age. It’s rare to see.”

Tammy: “...”

Tobin and Samuel: “...”

They turned even more confused.

Who can tell them what’s going on?

They walked over with confused looks. After they sat down, Nikita handed the menu to Tammy. “Dishes here are good. Order what you like.”

“I eat whatever you like.” Tammy didn’t look at the menu and handed it directly to Samuel. “You order.”

Samuel also did not look at it. For the boss knew Nikita, he wanted to take care of his business, so he said generously, “I want one for each.”

The boss got shocked.

Then he smiled and said gently. "One portion of oatmeal is enough for two people. You just need four portions at most."

"Four portions are enough?" Samuel frowned, casting a glance at the price on the menu, and added many dishes.

Chapter 1206-"Handsome boy, you order too many dishes. You may not be able to solve them. " The boss reminded him.

"Boss, you just serve. We can solve them. I'm a big eater." Samuel looked rich. "Nikita said that the food in your store is delicious, so we have to try all the specialties!"

Then the boss didn't persuade him again, but nodded and said, "OK, then wait a moment."

Then he turned his head and said to Nikita, "Niky, I'll prepare food for you. Two altars of your favorite osmanthus-flavored wine were made. I'll take some to you."

Nikita nodded. "Don't worry about me. I'm not an outsider. You don't need to be so polite."

After the boss greeted them, he returned to the store.

"Nikita, aren't you going to explain it to us?" After the boss just left, Samuel couldn't hold back and asked.

Nikita raised her dark and calm eyes and eyebrows. "Explain what?"

Samuel asked, "You and the owner of this store have known each other for a long time?"

"Yes." Nikita nodded, "So?"

"Then you've ever lived in N city before you transferred to First Senior High School?"

They knew Nikita was transferred from villages.

They thought she had never been to N City before.

But her conversation with the boss meant that she had ever been here and lived for a period of time.

“Yes, Nikita, have you ever lived in N City before?” Tammy was also curious.

“Well, Yes.” In fact, She once stayed here for half a year. At that time, Sean was responsible for an archaeological project that needed her help. So she stayed here for half a year to help him. After she finished the job, she went back to Syracuse Village.

The owner of this shop was also a member of the archaeological team at that time, so she knew him.

“It turns out that you have ever been here for a long time, so how about going abroad?”

“Samuel, you forgot Nikita has ever been abroad?” Before Nikita answered, Tammy said for her. “Otherwise, why can she speak French so fluently? Yvonne wanted to show off at that time, but her face was slapped.”

Samuel was reminded of this matter.

At that time, Nikita said that she had lived abroad for a year.

But few people believed her.

They thought a poor hillbilly had no money to support her study abroad.

“Nikita, did you go abroad to study?” Samuel asked again, as if he had thousands of questions waiting for her.

Nikita was not annoyed, but answered patiently. “Yes.”

“Go to senior high school abroad?”

Nikita kept silent.

Of course, she went to university instead of the high school.

She won't hide the truth. But if nobody asks her about this, she won't take the initiative to tell others.

After minutes, she looked at several pairs of curious eyes and answered. “I studied in the university for two years.”

Samuel: “...”

Tobin: “...”

“Go to college? Nikita, you are kidding with me?” Samuel obviously didn't believe it. He grinned, “How old were you two years ago? At that time, you went abroad to study at university?”

“Not two years ago.” Her voice was still quite calm. “Four years ago.”

She was imprisoned on the island by Hall over the past two years.

The three people sitting opposite her: “...”

Chapter 1207-“What? Four years ago?” Samuel used a long moment to return to his sense. He asked unbelievably, “Four years ago, you were only fourteen years old.”

Nikita did not speak, only staring at him calmly.

He continued. “You studied aboard when you were only fourteen years old. So you had already finished your high school? Then you come back to high school now?”

He wanted to believe her.

There were also geniuses who were admitted to universities at teens.

There once was a student with high IQ skipped several grades and went to Peking University at the age of fifteen.

At that time, this event caused a sensation across the country, and various media rushed to report it. When the college entrance examination was around the corner every year, schools would inspire and cheer students up with this event.

If Nikita was admitted to the university at the age of fourteen, her affair would be a sensation, too. There should some media to report it.

But Samuel thinks Nikita would not cheat them.

But he doesn't understand if she had already finished the study of high school, why does she study in First Senior High School again?

It doesn't make any sense.

Tammy was also curious about what made Samuel confused.

A waiter served the wine for them. Nikita knocked on the sealed lid with knuckles and lifted it with a chopstick.

After pouring herself a glass of wine, she asked Tammy, "Have a drink?"

Tammy hesitated.

Nikita poured less than half a cup: "The sweet-scented wine is suitable for you to drink. It's mild."

Tammy nodded: "Oh, then I'll try some."

Samuel also poured a glass of wine.

Tammy rarely drinks, and she can't drink most wines. The only kind of drink she can accept is cocktails with extremely low degree. Squinting, she takes a small sip.

After a few seconds, her eyes lit up, as if she found something extraordinary: "Niky, it tastes so good!"

Nikita shook her glass and smiled: "I didn't lie."

"It tastes really delicious!" Tammy soon finished drinking the glass of wine. She held an empty glass and asked, "Niky, can I drink a little more?"

Nikita poured her another half glass of wine: "You can only drink another half cup. It will still make you drunk."

Tammy nodded.

Nikita noticed Samuel's staring at her, and smiled: "It seems that you will keep asking if I didn't tell you all about it."

Samuel and Tobin looked at each other.

“Niky, if it’s inconvenient, you should not tell us.”

Although they do want to know.

After a while, she said, “I left town when I was twelve years old and went to high school in the J City to study for two years. A foreign university has a major that I am very interested in, plus, the major in that college ranks the top, thus, I went abroad.”

“That’s it.” She said.

Chapter 1208-Several people were stunned.

She went to high school at the age of twelve and only studied for two years?

Tammy was stunned.

A fourteen-year-old high school student...

Tammy suddenly remembered a person.

Four years ago, there is a prodigy aged fourteen in J City, who got full marks in the college entrance examination. The incident even made headlines abroad.

But that talented girl is called Autumn.

Nikita and Autumn, one received zero marks, the other achieved full marks.

People can't associate the two together.

Tammy was about to ask a little more when she heard someone's low laughter behind her. She turned around, and saw a beautiful man walking towards them.

A man has a very beautiful face, and was so handsome that she felt a bit embarrassed.

Especially his eyes, extremely beautiful and alluring, which gave her an illusion of love.

Tammy is always appealed by beauty.

She stared at the man in a trance, until he walked to Nikita's side. Tenderly, he said, "Niky." Tammy finally realized who he is.

It's Xavier!

Tammy, very familiar to the entertainment industry, of course knows who he is. She only saw Xavier on television.

It's the first time to see Xavier so closely.

So, she just froze.

Although he's not an celebrity, he looks like one. Tammy already knew Xavier is handsome. However, when seeing him in person, she found that he is much more handsome than him on television!

He is...so, handsome.

Tammy was so infatuated that she stared straight at Xavier without blinking.

Tobin looked at her, and sneered.

“Tammy, you almost drill!”

Tammy suddenly came to her senses. She blushed, and wiped her mouth.

“Tobin, you lied!” After discovering that she was teased, Tammy punched Tobin

Tobin didn't hide either. He said in disdain, “Look at yourself when seeing a handsome man!”

“Tobin, shut up!”

“Niky, your friends are quite interesting.” Xavier sat down next to Nikita. When he saw that there was half a glass of wine left in Nikita's glass, he picked it up and took a sip.

Nikita took the glass of wine away expressionlessly: “If you want to drink, don't use mine.”

Xavier smiled. Leaning against his back, he squinted: “We used to drink the same glass of wine, why can't we now?”

Chapter 1209-Nikita looked at him expressionlessly: “It's different now.”

“No?”

“No.”

Xavier was stunned, then raised his eyebrows and chuckled: “Why? Are you afraid that your boyfriend will get jealous?”

His tone is quite light, but he's staring at Nikita.

Nikita put down the glass of wine, and took another glass to pour, saying lightly: "Yes, he will be jealous."

Xavier looked at her move. His smile faded.

"You care so much about his feelings?"

"Of course." Nikita looked at him. "He is my boyfriend. Of course I care about his feelings."

Xavier squinted. Sipping his lip, he looked cold.

Tammy and Samuel all felt that the atmosphere suddenly became strange. Several people looked at Nikita and Xavier, and at the same time, their thought of something.

Xavier's attitude is quite ambiguous.

It's not like he's treating her as a friend.

Tammy picked up her phone and quietly texted to Sheehan.

Near the end of supper, Nikita received a phone call from Sheehan.

Sheehan asked her when she would go back.

Nikita looked at the few empty plates and drank the last mouthful of wine: "Well, I'm ready to go home."

Sheehan's deep and gentle voice sounded: "Do you need me to pick you up?"

Nikita was about to reply to.Xavier pick up her backpack and stand up: “Niky, I drove here, I will send you back.”

Nikita thought about it and nodded: “Okay.”

She said to Sheehan: “Someone sent me, you don’t have to pick me up.”

Sheehan was silent for a few seconds, and then replied “Sure.”

After a few seconds, he said, “Then I’ll wait for you at home.”

“Hmm.”

After chatting, Nikita hung up the phone.

Samuel paid the bills. When he left, the owner gave them each a small bottle of sweet-scented osmanthus wine.

“Together? I will send Niky back and send it to you by the way.”

Xavier’s black Bugatti, which is extremely coquettish, stopped at the side of the road and attracted many passers-by to take pictures. He threw the car keys to Nikita casually: “Niky, you often drive this car. Come and drive.”

Tammy looked at the car keys and silently texted to Sheehan.

Tammy: Brother Sheehan, there’s must be something up with this Xavier. You must guard against him!

Niky is her future sister-in-law!

She has to beware of all those who try to call the dibs on her brother Sheehan!

Sheehan, who used to reply to her message for a long time, replied within seconds: What did he do?

Tammy told him what had just happened.

After a while, Sheehan texted: You have done a good job. If there is such a thing in the future, you should report it to me as soon as possible.

Along with this message, he transferred a thousand dollars as Tammy's pocket money.

He said it's the reward.

Tammy accepted the transfer and said sweetly, "Brother Sheehan is very kind. You can rest assured that the more a person lacks, the more he loves to show off, which shows that Niky didn't feel anything for him at all! You are the only one she cares. You and Niky are the most suitable couple!"

"Mr. Xavier, we won't bother you, just send Niky back. We'll send Tammy back."

Chapter 1210-Samuel is very polite.

This is his future big boss.

Xavier is just being polite. He didn't dare to let him send them back home.

Xavier nodded: "Okay, then be careful on the road."

Moments later, the group parted.

Nikita and Xavier got on the car.

When Nikita drove the car, and Xavier sat in the co-pilot position. He tilted his head, looked a little tired, rubbing his eyebrows.

“Niky.” The car was very quiet. Xavier squinted, and he took his sight back. He turned to looked at the girl deeply.

“Are you and Sheehan still together?”

“Hmm.” Nikita said in a dull voice, “What’s the matter?”

Xavier squinted. After a few seconds, he smiled, and said in a joking way: “Aren’t you tired of him? I thought you should have separated long ago.”

“You lost freshness about everything within a month.”

“I also thought that he and I would break up soon, and I would lose interest in him soon.” Nikita said without avoiding the topic, “However, this time it’s different.”

Xavier stiffened, but his tone was as usual: “Oh? What’s different?”

Nikita tilted her head. After a moment’s serious thinking, she replied: “I don’t want to be separated from him. I feel good to be with him.”

Speaking of which, she turned around, said in confusion: “Xavier, what happened to me?”

“I’m even...a little unhappy at the thought of being separated from him.”

She seemed genuinely confused, frowning lightly, as if she had encountered something that made her extremely puzzled.

Nikita doesn’t have many friends.

Xavier and Nancy are her best friends.

She can only bring up these topics with them.

Emotionally, Xavier is definitely more experienced than her, and she wants to figure out the problems she couldn't understand.

Xavier looked into the girl's puzzled expression, and clenched his fists. It was as if he's stung by something. He felt sour in his heart.

"It's just that you are used to have him by your side. Once people develop a certain habit, it's hard will quit, and they will naturally feel a little uncomfortable."

"Is that so?" Nikita blinked, still in confusion, "just because of the habit?"

"Hmm." Xavier lowered his eyes and covered the true emotions in his eyes. His tone was light. "If we can't be friends in the future, will you be unhappy?"

Nikita thought and nodded.

"That's right." Xavier caressed her head. "Remember the time when we lived together. Later, when we separated, you were not use to me not being by your side, right?"

"When you get used to a person. And then, he suddenly disappears from your world, of course you will be unhappy. But after a while, you will get used to living without him. It's the same between you and Sheehan."

After hearing this, Nikita was silent for a moment. Then, she nodded: "Maybe, but I don't want to be separated from him now."

Xavier sipped his lips tightly. His eyes flashed.

They arrived at the apartment.

Nikita unbuckled her seat belt and opened the door.

“Niky.” Xavier stopped her.

Nikita turned around: “What’s the matter?”

Xavier smiled: “Didn’t you tell me before that you wanted to make a movie for fun? Our company just received a very good script. There is a role in it that suits you very well. Are you interested?”
