

The Girl CB 1221

Chapter 1221-Father and Mother Before long, Cathleen's people came in with a couple.

Neither the man nor the woman looked young, about fifty or so, dressed very plainly. It's obvious that they're from rural areas.

When they were brought to the hall, they both looked cramped and uncomfortable, as if they didn't know where to stand and sit. They were obviously not used to be in such occasions.

"Madam, the family is here." Cathleen's people they retreated and stood behind Cathleen.

Margot looked up at the man and woman. She looked at the man and then at the woman standing next to the man, and couldn't help being stunned for a few seconds.

She thought the couple looked a little familiar.

But for a while, she can't remember where she saw them.

In her social circle, she should not know the couple.

"Mom, they are..." Margot turned to look at Cathleen in doubt.

Cathleen: "Do you remember all the people you have seen before?"

Margot was stunned again, confused: "People I have seen?"

She looked up again and looked at the plain couple standing by the sofa.

They did look familiar, but she really couldn't remember when she had met the couple.

The woman seemed to see Margot's doubts and stepped forward slightly: "Mr. and Mrs. Swift, we met once twelve years ago. At that time, you came to pick up Yvonne to go home. I didn't expect that more than ten years later, you didn't age at all."

The man also smiled and said, "Yes, you haven't changed at all."

"Twelve years ago..." Margot stared at the woman for a while. Suddenly, she widened her eyes. "You are, you are Yvonne's adoptive parents?"

Margot finally remembered who the man and woman were.

No wonder she feels familiar.

They are Yvonne's adoptive father and mother in the countryside.

In those days, after Margot and Patrick took Yvonne back to the Swift family, the kind couple didn't trust Yvonne and came to N City to see Yvonne several times.

Later, it was probably confirmed that Yvonne had a good life after returning to her biological parents' home, so they completely put down their worries and never came to visit again.

So, Margot actually met them several times.

But more than ten years have passed since that year, and both the husband and wife have changed a lot. Margot didn't recognize people for a while.

At this moment, after the couple's reminder, Margot finally remembered.

"Yes, Mrs. Swift, it's been a long time." The old woman nodded.

Margot stared at the old lady for a while, then turned to look at Cathleen, and soon understood Cathleen's intention.

Cathleen specially found people and led them here, only for Yvonne's sake.

Sure enough, the old woman said "Mrs. Swift, Mr. Swift, we came here today just for Yvonne's affairs."

"I'm sorry, Mr. and Mrs. Swift." The old woman pinched her sleeves. Looking down, she hesitated for a long time, and then continued, "In those days, we are haunted by the fact that we lied to you."

"Actually, actually..." The old woman looked up at Margot, hesitated for a few seconds, and hesitated. "Mrs. Swift, in fact, Yvonne was not trafficked to our home. She was... she was sold to us by her biological father."

When the old woman said this, she saw that Margot's face was so dark that she stopped and was a little afraid to continue.

Chapter 1222-She turned to look at Cathleen.

Cathleen picked up the coffee on the table and sipped it: "Go on and tell them the truth of that year."

As if regaining courage from Cathleen, the old woman nodded: "Mrs. Swift, Yvonne's father is a famous gambler in our town. Because of gambling, all the house deposits at home have been lost, and he still owes debts."

"He is not only good at gambling, but also a rotten wife-beater. Yvonne's mother left everything at home and ran away because she couldn't stand being beaten by him again and again. Since then, she has never come back."

"Even so, Yvonne's father still gambles outside all day and owes more and more debts."

"He really couldn't afford it later, and even sold his own daughter. Yvonne was sold to us, and it is the daughter we bought for five thousand dollars."

Margot's face was blue. She pressed the armrest of the sofa tightly with one hand. She gnashed her teeth, "Then why did you say she was abducted?"

Looking down, the old woman did not dare to look into her eyes. "It was Yvonne who told us to say so. She said that if she went to the city and became the daughter of a rich family, she would give us a lot of money in the future."

"When we have money, we can buy a son."

"At that time, we were also blindfolded. When we heard her say this, we were interested."

"I'm sorry, Mrs. Swift, Mr. Swift." The old woman's husband buried his head and apologized. "We did it wrong. We shouldn't deceive you for money, which caused you to find the wrong daughter."

"We are here today to apologize and make amends."

"What did you say? Did Yvonne let you say those words to lie to us?" Patrick was so shocked that he couldn't believe.

Yvonne was only six years old.

How can a six-year-old girl have such deep scheming and shrewdness?

This is a huge contrast from the clever, obedient and naive daughter in their impression.

The old couple didn't dare to look up at them: "Mr. Swift, Mrs. Swift, we're sorry."

Then, the old woman turned and looked at Cathleen. She asked in a low voice with some uneasiness: "Madam, you said that as long as we tell the truth of that year, you will no longer care about the things of that year."

“Of course. I will not go back on my word.” Cathleen saw the old couple’s fear and worry. She waved and ordered her assistant to send the old couple.

Moments later...

The assistant left with the old couple.

In the hall, it was so quiet that the sound of a needle fell to the ground can be heard.

Margot and Patrick frowned. Both of them clenched their fists, breathing heavily.

Cathleen is not surprised by the reaction of the two people at the moment.

She tidied up her clothes and hair slowly, took her satchel, and stood up slowly.

“If you still don’t believe it, you can investigate the matter yourself. By the way, Yvonne’s father will be released from prison soon. If he knows that his daughter has been adopted by a rich family, he will inevitably come to the Swift family to pester.”

Chapter 1223-Then, Cathleen turned and left.

Margot and Patrick frowned hard. They could not speak for a long time.

They always thought Yvonne was honest, clever, and obedient, and more sensible than children of the same age. Because of this, even after learning that Yvonne was not their own daughter, the couple chose to keep her.

But who would have thought that this clever and sensible daughter began to scheme them at the age of six.

Margot, who had always prided herself on being shrewd and competitive, trembled with anger at the thought that she had been treated like a fool by her most obedient daughter for so many years.

“How can this be!” Margot’s voice is shaking. “Over the years, we have treated her no different from our own daughter. Why would she deceive us like this!”

Margot couldn’t stand being played like a fool for so many years.

“Dad, Mom, you all know.”

In the hall, a voice suddenly sounded.

Nathan came in from the outside and saw that Margot and Patrick were very angry. He sipped his lip and walked to the front and back of the two people. His face looked complicated, “I wanted to wait for mother’s condition to stabilize before telling you, but now that you all know, there is nothing to hide.”

“What Grandma said is true. I personally investigated this matter. Yvonne was not abducted to her adoptive father’s family, but sold by her own father.”

“So, there is no amnesia at all. She knows her origin very well. She lied to you just because she didn’t want to stay in the countryside to live a poor life. She knew that she could live a good life with you. Therefore, she lied and made you mistakenly think that she was the abducted daughter.”

Margot looked at his son who had not been home for many days. She was stunned for a moment. She was surprised: “Nathan, you already knew about this?”

Nikita nodded: “Yes.”

“So, you quarreled with Yvonne before because of this?”

“Yes.”

“Well, how did you investigate this matter?”

Nathan bit his lip again: “On the day when grandma went to the hospital to visit you, I ran into Yvonne in the stairwell. At that time, her mood was very strange.”

“Later, I heard what grandmother said to you at the door of the ward, and then I thought of Yvonne’s reaction at that time, and I had some doubts about her.”

“So, I spent some time going to the village where she used to live to investigate this matter. After the investigation, I went back to the N City and confronted with her.”

Speaking of which, Nikita paused for a few seconds. He looked Margot in the eye and said word by word: “She admitted it. She cried and begged me to forgive her and not to tell you about it.”

“Because she was afraid that once you knew it, everything she had now would disappear. I didn’t want to stimulate you, so I hid it.”

If Margot and Patrick still have a trace of doubts about this matter because Cathleen doesn’t like Yvonne and deliberately planned this matter. However, after listening to Nathan’s words, the couple are finally had no excuse to be not convinced.

Therefore, Yvonne really lied to them.

Since childhood, Nathan spoiled Yvonne. Now, he stopped, because he can’t forgive Yvonne’s deception.

Chapter 1224-Leon invited Yvonne to dinner at a barbecue restaurant near the school.

As it happens, Samuel invited Nikita to eat because of him successfully signing of the contract. The place to eat is the same barbecue shop.

Two groups of people inevitably met at the door of the barbecue shop.

Rosalia saw Nikita and went to the door, blocking their way.

“Isn’t this Nikita?” She held her arms, holding her chin high, cocky, “I remember someone saying that she would hit me in the face with the results of the joint entrance examination. I specially waited all morning, but she didn’t tell me about it.”

“No, everyone’s grades have come out, so someone’s grades have not come out yet?”

Nikita was playing with her phone. She was just chatting with Sheehan. When Rosalia stood in front of her, she was still replying the texts. After finishing replying, she looked up at Rosalia.

The girl’s eyes are dark, cold, indifferent, and alienated.

It’s as if she doesn’t hear what Rosalia said: “Get out of the way, a good dog will not be in the way.”

Being scolded as a dog, Rosalia’s face suddenly changed, and she said angrily, “Nikita, how dare you!”

Nikita didn’t even look at her. She directly pushed Rosalia away.

Rosalia stumbled back two steps, almost falling to the ground.

“Nikita, you have gone too far.” Leon is the only boy among their group. Looking at Rosalia in the class being bullied, he stood up.

Yvonne held Rosalia and stood up. She looked at Nikita and accused her: “Rosalia just asked you about the results of the joint entrance examination. You don’t have to push her even though you didn’t want to tell her.”

“If it weren’t for her blocking the door, will she push Rosalia away? Moreover, Niky only pushed her gently. Who knows that she will be so delicate. She can’t even stand.”

“Hum, I think she wants to blackmail Niky!” Samuel, as the number one fan of Nikita, is naturally the first to stand up for Nikita at this time.

Leon looked at Samuel and Tobin standing next to Nikita, and frowned.

Both of them are notorious, which are not easy to mess with.

And the family is rich.

Leon did not dare to offend them.

But in front of two girls in the class, especially in front of Yvonne, he can't completely stay out of it.

“Nikita and Rosalia made a bet, saying that she would hit Rosalia in the face with the results of the joint entrance examination. Today, the results of the joint entrance examination came out. Rosalia remembered the previous bet and asked her results.”

“That's what she said. She can't forget it, right?”

“Or, she's too embarrassed of the results? It's fine if she doesn't want to tell her scores. As long as she could apologize to Rosalia, and admit that she goes back on her words, we can pretend that the bet never happened.”

“That's right! Apologize to me, and then admit that you are not as good as Yvonne. I can no longer care about betting!” With the support, Rosalia stood up again.

Nikita expressionless looked at them.

Chapter 1225-“Nikita, you'd better apologize to Rosalia.” Yvonne said in a nice tone, as if she's considering for Nikita, “An apology is always better than making fool of yourself in front of everyone on campus. As long as Rosalia didn't care about the bet, no one would mention it.”

When her voice just fell, she heard Nikita smile: “Yvonne, I heard that your total score in the joint entrance examination has won the second place nationwide?”

Before Yvonne could answer, Rosalia proudly interrupted: “Yes, Yvonne is the second place nationwide. Are you jealous? Well, you should be, because you can’t achieve it anyway.”

Although Yvonne didn’t speak, she is also surely proud.

Nikita won her over regarding everything previously.

Now, she can also let Nikita feel the feeling of being trampled.

“Oh, you turned out to be the second in the country. I thought you were the first.” Nikita smiled, saying lightly.

Rosalia sneered: “Do you know how difficult this test is? Yvonne can get the second place in China, which is already very outstanding. You are just jealous of Yvonne!”

Yvonne pretended to be kind. She held Rosalia, saying gently, “Forget it, Rosalia. You don’t have to speak for me. Since she wants to make fool of herself in front of everyone, we should let her be. I’m hungry, let’s go inside. We shouldn’t waste our time here.”

Leon didn’t want the two sides to really quarrel, so he nodded, “Since Yvonne is hungry, let’s go in quickly.”

Leon really doesn’t like Nikita very much, but he doesn’t hate Nikita either.

It’s mainly because of Yvonne.

Put aside Yvonne, in fact, in some aspects, he still appreciates Nikita.

For example, Nikita is very good at playing games.

For example, Nikita writes songs very well.

Also, Nikita is good at fighting. He was bullied by some scums once, and Nikita beat them off. He admired her on this regard.

From the beginning, he didn't have any bad intentions towards Nikita.

Later, he didn't like Nikita because of Yvonne.

If it weren't for Yvonne, he might like her.

It's a pity.

Nikita is beautiful and talented girl. It's just that her grades are not satisfactory.

If her grades are outstanding, he would definitely fall in love with her.

Into the barbecue restaurant.

Samuel booked a private room in advance. After the waiter took several people to the private room, he left after they ordered the food.

For ordinary people, the place is high-end. The environment and dishes are marvelous. Nikita was in a good mood after having those dishes.

"Niky, haven't you checked your joint entrance examination results yet?"

Samuel is responsible for barbecuing and cutting the roasted meat into small pieces. He put a piece of freshly cut meat into Nikita's plate.

Chapter 1226-Seeing Nikita not affected by Rosalia, he asked something he wanted to ask a long time ago.

When Tammy heard this, she looked up and asked curiously, "Yes, Niky, why haven't you checked your scores yet?"

Samuel thought about Nikita's previous scores and comforted her, "Niky, it's not a big deal if you blow it up."

"You see, Tobin and I don't care about the exam. We are used to being at the bottom of rankings. It's not a big deal."

Tobin was swallowing the meat. After Samuel finished speaking, he looked up and nodded.

"Wait, who told you that Niky failed the exam this time?"

Tammy put the chopsticks down and looked at them speechlessly: "How could you guys look down on Niky? Do you think Niky has failed the exam?"

"Tammy, you know that we don't mean it."

"Then why would you say she failed the exam? Don't you just think that she didn't do well?"

"Tammy, you!"

"All right, stop arguing." Nikita was annoyed by their arguments. She rubbed her temple, and stopped them from quarreling.

"I'm just too lazy to check my scores. If you are curious, you can help me check about it."

“Check it yourself?” Samuel stunned. “But Niky, I don’t know your account.”

Query passwords are all the same.

Nikita ate a freshly baked chicken wing: “QY277533.”

Samuel was stunned again, and it took a few seconds for him to react. This is the login account.

He immediately picked up the phone on the table: “Niky, I can help you check it.”

Nikita replied, eating chicken wings.

At that time, Samuel and Tammy gathered together. Several people were curious about how many points Nikita got this time.

Especially Tammy.

Samuel and Tobin don’t know her grades, but Tammy knew.

When Samuel entered the inquiry account, Tammy was a little excited and stared at the screen without blinking.

She’s still a little excited.

She had a faint feeling that Nikita’s joint entrance examination results might be better than she guessed, and maybe she could surpass Yvonne.

If the grades can really surpass Yvonne, it will be a great relief.

As soon as she saw the swaggering appearance of Yvonne and her girlfriends, she was so angry.

But her grades are not as good as Yvonne's, and she can't hit Yvonne in the face.

She could only endure the anger.

After entering the account number and password, they logged in immediately.

Within a few seconds, Nikita's scores in all subjects are displayed.

"Damn it!"

Samuel was so astonished that he almost dropped his phone.

"What the..." Tobin was also astonished.

The two were dumbfounded.

Chapter 1227-"No, Niky, the grade..." Samuel was shocked that the whole person couldn't even say a complete word, and he couldn't stutter. "Niky, this, this..."

He suspected that he's dazzled.

Is there a bug in the system?

Tammy guessed that Nikita must have done well in the exam this time, but she never expected that Nikita would get such a result.

Full marks!

Niky actually got a perfect score of 750 out of 750 points!

Tammy was going crazy with excitement, as if she was the one who got full marks. She suddenly hit the table, stood up, covered her mouth, and exclaimed: "Niky, do you know how many points you got? 750 points, your joint entrance examination score turned out to be full marks!"

"OMG, full marks! Niky, you are amazing, you are really amazing!"

Samuel was still immersed in the shock. He's so astonished that he didn't know what to say.

A person, in the past, who always got zero scores in all the exams.

How did she... suddenly got full score in all the exams?

It is outrageous.

It's even more outrageous than the story in Arabian Nights.

Tobin gradually returned to absolute being. He took his stunned eyes away from the screen, turned to look at Nikita with special complexity.

"Niky, you... scored 750 points, which is a full score in all subjects." Tobin looked at the girl who was still calm, stuttering and not lifting her head. The expression on his face became more complicated.

They were all thrilled.

The heroin is as stable as a mount.

She didn't show the slightest excitement or joy for the perfect score in general practice.

She is so calm... which is abnormal.

She is so calm as if she had expected that she would get such a perfect result in the exam.

But...

Even if she is really a hidden super-schoolmaster, she should be excited if she gets the perfect score of all subjects.

After all, no one was so confident to guarantee that they can get full marks in every subject.

Three people, all look at the girl who was still eating slowly.

As if feeling their gaze, the girl paused, slowly raised her head and looked at them three.

“Now you should stop being curious, can I eat seriously? With so much roasting meat, I can’t eat it alone. If I don’t eat it, they will be burnt.”

Nikita took the clip and divided the meat on the baking tray into their plates: “It tastes OK, try some.”

Tobin: “...”

Samuel: “...”

Tammy: “...”

Oh, no, it seems that the focus of attention now is not whether the meat tastes good or not.

“Niky, you scored 750 points and got full marks in general practice!” Tammy thought Nikita didn’t hear it clearly, so repeated it word by word. When it comes to the perfect score of general practice, she also emphasized it.

Nikita turned to her, and finally responded: “Hmm.”

But this response made no difference.

Looking at her reaction, Tammy was anxious. “Oh, no, Niky, you got full marks in general practice! Why are you not excited at all!”

Chapter 1228-Nikita looked at her again, thinking for a while, nodded and said, “I see.”

Tammy: “...”

She really hadn’t seen such a rebellious result as getting full marks in all the subjects, and she could even calm down like this.

It should be known that when Yvonne had scored 705 points, she already showed off in an ostentatious manner in front of them, who just looked proud and full of superiority, and even her nostril was facing the sky!

Those henchmen around her had also shown off in an ostentatious manner, who always said that Yvonne won the nation’s second place, and how powerful Yvonne was. In their eyes, the score of 705 points was already awesome.

If Yvonne got a full score in all the subjects, it was estimated that her tail would have to go up to heaven, and she wouldn’t wait for the whole world to her about that, but to actively publicize it everywhere.

Although Nikita had always been quite low-key.

But this time, she was too low-key.

“Niky, have you... guessed your scores long ago?” Tammy was no longer in the mood to eat now. Her mind was full of the shocking numbers she just saw.

Three were 150 and one was 300, which were simply too astonishing.

Nikita was clipping a piece of freshly baked beef. She slightly raised her eyes and looked at the trio who still stared at her without blinking. After thinking about it, she put down the clip, supported her chin with one hand, and nodded to the curious and shocked people.

The trio was stunned again.

Could you predict that you can get full marks in all the subjects early in the morning? !

“But, Niky, weren’t you...”

Samuel originally wanted to say, “Didn’t you all get zero points in all the subjects before?” When it came to his lips, he found something wrong, and quickly stopped it and changed it to a more euphemistic sentence: “That is, I wonder how you suddenly made such great progress.”

In fact, Samuel felt that this was not a big improvement.

A poor man with nothing, no matter how hard he worked, couldn’t become a billionaire overnight.

Unless... he was a billionaire himself.

Nikita turned her head and looked at Tammy. After a brief thought, his slender white fingers rubbed his chin: “Tammy can’t be smacked in the face by others.”

Samuel was stunned, with doubts in his eyes: “What? What does it have to do with Tammy?”

Tammy was also stunned. After a few seconds, she suddenly remembered one thing. She blinked at the dark and deserted eyes of Nikita: "Niky, is it because of what I said to Rosolia that day, so were you helping me out?"

Yvonne was walked, and Rosolia showed off in an ostentatious manner in front of her, and satirized Nikita, which made Tammy so angry that she refuted a few words, saying that Nikita could be admitted to Peking University without walking herself.

At that time, Nikita came to Class A to find her and heard those words.

Nikita lit her head.

Tammy was so moved that she grabbed her hand: "Niky, you are so kind to me, I really want to commit myself!"

Nikita: "..."

This was unnecessary!

"Do you want to know how I used to get zero marks hut get so good this time?" Nikita eyes glanced at the eyes with puzzled Samuel, asked actively.

Before Samuel could speak, she said, "It's also fun to get zero marks, but you can't understand it. As for choosing zero or full marks, well, it will depend on my mood."

"..."

"So, Niky, you used to get zero points, just because you thought it was fun?" Samuel was understood, Nikita is the person who had already been a billionaire!

What she had nothing, it was all pretending!

Nikita noncommittally raised his eyebrows.

“Niky, four years ago, a talented girl in J. City who took the college entrance examination at the age of fourteen and got full marks in all the subjects. That talented girl... is that you?” Tammy remembered this matter again and couldn’t help asking.

Chapter 1229-When her voice just fell, Samuel and Tobin looked at her in special surprise.

“Tammy, what do you mean? How can Niky and Autumn be the same person?”

The name Autumn was no stranger to Samuel and Tobin, even who had never been concerned about reading.

Four years ago, the top student in the national college entrance examination got a perfect score in all the subjects, and when she took the college entrance examination, she was only fourteen years old, which shocked the whole country.

Peking University and Imperial University were fighting for the talented girl, but also because of fighting for her, the two most awesome universities in China had turned against each other, and they were still like enemies.

But in the end, Autumn did not choose Peking University or Haida University, but went abroad to study.

Even if Samuel and Tobin were scum, they admired Autumn.

However, what was the relationship between Autumn and Nikita?

Why was it the same person?

What did Tammy think?

Could two people with different names be the same person?

Tammy ignored them at all and looked at Nikita all the time, waiting for Nikita's answer.

Four years ago, Nikita was also studying in J City. When she took the exam, she was also fourteen years old.

And she also had been gone to study abroad after the college entrance examination.

If everything was a coincidence, there were too many coincidences.

But in this world, where did so many coincidences come from?

Nikita also looked at Tammy in some surprise. She didn't expect her to guess here. She was silent, and didn't deny it: "Well, it's me."

Tammy was stunned, and the whole person was dazed for a long time.

Did she really guess right?

Autumn and Nikita were really the same person!

Tobin and Samuel were shocked again and couldn't say a word. Their brains seemed to have been bombed by something. For a time, their brains were blank.

This girl who was sitting with them for dinner and chatting turned out to be the super-high IQ genius girl Autumn who caused a sensation in the whole country and even reported abroad!

Nikita was Autumn!

Autumn was Nikita!

Four years ago, she got full marks in the college entrance examination, and this time she got full marks again in the joint entrance examination!

How impossible it was!

In the Lambert company.

“Mr. Lambert, I heard that the results of the joint entrance examination have come out. Do you need me to check Miss Swift’s scores?”

Vernon walked into the president’s office with a stack of documents and placed them neatly on the table.

These were all confirmed contracts, which would take effect only after Sheehan signing them.

Sheehan picked up one of the documents, turned it over, closed the document again, thinking about that, shook his head and said, “Don’t check it.”

Vernon then didn’t say anything about it again.

Miss Swift’s grades...

There was really nothing to check, and it was even embarrassing to check.

If it was goose egg in all the subjects, not only Miss Swift’s face would be lost, but Mr. Lambert’s face would also be lost.

Mr. Lambert was a schoolmaster who graduated from HF University, which ranked first in the world, but his girlfriend was a super scum who scored zero in all the subjects, which sounded somewhat unbelievable.

Even if Mr. Lambert always didn't mind, it would be inevitable to be talked behind his back once it was known by the others.

Anyway, Mr. Lambert found Miss Swift a good school. Even if she didn't do well in the exam, she would still enter a good university.

Yvonne and Leon went back to school after dinner.

As soon as several people entered the classroom, they heard someone exclaiming: "Damn it! Check the Facebook just sent by the official account of the Ministry of Education!"

"What's the matter? What happened?" Another student said, clicking on Facebook on his mobile phone.

After a few seconds, another student also exclaimed: "OMG! Haven't I seen wrong? Someone actually got full marks in all the subjects in this joint entrance examination!"

Chapter 1230-Yvonne just walked to the door, and then was stunned.

"What full marks? Did I hear it wrong? Just now, I thought I heard them say that someone got full marks in all the subjects? Did you hear it?"

Yvonne turned to ask Leon, but what he saw was Leon's shocked expression.

"Yvonne, it's true! Someone really got full marks in this joint entrance examination!" Rosolia, holding her mobile phone, stared at the blog just released by official account of the Ministry of Education, and the whole person also looked stunned.

Yvonne frowned at first, then took her mobile phone and read carefully.

After a few seconds, her face changed gradually.

After checking Facebook, she looked not very good: "It's true. Who is so powerful that he can get full marks in all the subjects? Didn't someone has already asked other schools, and was told that the highest score in this joint entrance examination is our school."

In the morning, shortly after the scores came out, someone went to ask what the highest scores of other schools were.

All along, there was only Foreign Language School in the same city that could compete with First Senior High School.

The highest score of Foreign Language School was 702, which was even a few points less than Yvonne.

And the highest score of their school was from Lanny.

It is thought that the top three of the national entrance examination had been determined, but who would have thought that at this moment, the first place would be suddenly taken away by an unknown people.

This was not the point, and the point was that the first place actually got full marks in all the subjects!

Especially when it was particularly difficult to answer and the overall scores of candidates were relatively low!

This was incredible!

Yvonne already felt a little uncomfortable when she failed to get the first place this time. Now, even the second place had to be changed, so she felt even more uncomfortable.

What upset her most was that she felt that she had already done very well this time. Although she was a few points less than Lanny in the final result, she was still very satisfied on the whole.

After all, she was a girl, who could get the second place in the whole country. Everyone would praise her for being so excellent.

But now...

Actually, there was an academic prodigy who had made full marks in all the subjects. Moreover, the gender of this examinee was revealed on Facebook, and unexpectedly, she was also a girl.

This made Yvonne's superiority in learning suddenly be hit down.

"This examination is so difficult, so how can someone be so powerful that she can get full marks in every subject?"

Yvonne clenched her lips, and her voice was unconvinced with doubts: "It there is really such a powerful people, why haven't we heard of her at ordinary times? I think this matter is a bit strange. What about you?"

Leon slowly recovered from the shock just now. He looked up at Yvonne and nodded: "I also feel strange. Those who can get full marks in all the subjects in this joint examination definitely have far better test scores than ours. It stands to reason that this girl should have already been famous in our alumni circle long ago, but I have never heard of any school with such a powerful girl. "

"Did she cheat?" Rosolia guessed.

In fact, Yvonne also thought so, but she couldn't say it.

In case that someone might think she was envious.

Therefore, after listening to Rosolia saying what she wanted to say in her heart, she was about to reply when she suddenly heard a boy in the front row exclaiming: "OMG! Am I wrong? The girl who got full marks in all the subjects is actually called Nikita. Is this Nikita the Nikita in Class F of our school?"
