

The Girl CB 1231

Chapter 1231-“Nikita? Let me see. It’s really called Nikita. However, this could not be the same person as the Nikita in our school. How could a genius with full marks in all the subjects be a student in Class F. Moreover, everyone knows that before transferring to all school, she always won zero scores in every subject.”

“That’s right. One Nikita had a general zero score, and one had a general full score. There was a huge difference between them.”

Yvonne were still standing at the door. After listening to these words, her face couldn’t help but change again.

The girl who got full marks in the general practice was called Nikita?!

Even Yvonne also felt that this happened to be the same name, and it was absolutely impossible to be the same person, but suddenly she became irritable.

Up to now, she still didn’t know the results of Nikita’s joint entrance examination.

“Yvonne, don’t worry. This girl with full marks in all the subjects is definitely not from our school. If someone in our school has taken such a full score, it is impossible to have no movement at all.

Under normal circumstances, if it were from our school, it would have spread all over the school.”

As if to see Yvonne in a bad mood, Rosolia tried to comfort her.

Yvonne took a deep breath, pressed down the impetuous mood in her heart, smiled, and said in a tone of indifference: “I have nothing to worry about, but I hope she is from our school.”

Rosolia was stunned and puzzled to look at her.

If it was really the Nikita in their school, could Yvonne be happy?

Yvonne slightly raised her lips, smiled again, without saying anything, and then walked towards her seat.

If the person who got full marks in every subject was Nikita, it would be interesting.

A person who had always been sleeping in every exam and used to get zero marks in all the subjects had got full marks in every subject this time. Who would believe that this result was true?

At that time, there would definitely be someone to make trouble.

The bigger the trouble, the better she thought.

However, she still thought that the one had the same name with Nikita was the most likely situation.

After a few minutes, the class bell rang.

The classroom was still noisy, discussing which school was the academic prodigy, who got full marks in all the subjects and had the same name and surname as Nikita in their school, from.

However, a group of people guessed for a while, without any results.

Some people asked friends of several other schools with little difference in strength from First Senior High School, and the answer was that the girl was not from their schools, and they also wondered which school was she from.

Chapter 1232- It was actually Nikita!

This was equivalent to the duck at the mouth flying away at once. Under such circumstance, who could not be depressed?

Walking to the podium, the class teacher stopped, looked at the students below for a circle, and said: "Everyone played very well in this joint entrance examination and achieved better results than expected."

"Here, I want to say congratulations to everyone first. I hope that in the next time, you can study harder and strive to play a better role in the college entrance examination."

"Especially Lanny and Yvonne in our class, they are the ones that I want to focus on to praise." When the class teacher talked about Lanny and Yvonne, he finally had a smile on his face.

He paused and continued, "Yvonne and Lanny, you had done very well this time and gave me a lot of surprises. Especially Yvonne, I really didn't expect you to do so well this time."

"It is indeed excellent

In the past tests, the highest comprehensive score was always in the Foreign Language School. While this time, our class finally surpassed them."

When Yvonne didn't know that there was a girl with full marks in all the subjects, such praise would definitely make her feel good.

But now...

She just wanted to find out which school the girl belonged to!

"Mr. Green." Yvonne looked up. She bit her lower lip gently and looked at the class teacher standing in front of the podium. She seemed to be very curious and asked, "I heard that there was someone who got full marks in this joint entrance examination. Is this true?"

When she asked, other students all looked at the class teacher one after another.

They were all curious.

They also wanted to know if this academic prodigy really existed.

The head teacher got serious, and after a few seconds, he nodded: "It is true."

It seemed that this matter was true.

Yvonne blinked, still in a curious tone: "Teacher, then which school did she come from? The Foreign Language School said that it was not in their school, and the rest of the high schools also said that there is no such person in their school."

"Now, everyone is particularly curious about this prodigy."

"Yes, Mr. Green, which school does such an academic prodigy come from? Say it out and let us worship her."

Other students also talked about that at a time.

The head teacher made a gesture to make the students quiet.

When the classroom was not so noisy, he said with a complicated look: "Not from other schools, but from our school. It was Nikita in our school."

Chapter 1233-"But..." The student was still unconvinced, wanting to say something.

"Well, don't say anything without any basis." The class teacher stared at the student severely. "What's more, the invigilation system of the joint entrance examination is not a decoration, and it will not allow such a thing to happen. During the examination process, the whole process has been monitored. Under such circumstances, anyone's every move can be seen clearly."

"It is not difficult to admit that others are excellent."

“No matter what Nikita was like before. Now, she has taken the full score in all the subjects, who ranks the first in the whole country in this joint entrance examination!”

“If a person who used to take zero scores in every subject can take full scores in all the subjects, it shows that as long as one is willing to work hard, it will never be too late!”

“So, don’t be depressed if you haven’t done well this time. Work hard, and there is still a chance to turn over in the college entrance examination!”

After saying a few more words, the class teacher opened the lesson preparation book and began the class.

But none of the students sitting below could listen.

The one who got full marks in every subject turned out to be Nikita in Class F!

This incident really shocked them.

“How is this possible! How can Nikita take a full score in all the subjects!” Yvonne’s desk-mate turned her head and looked at her. She thought Yvonne would be very angry, and she was still thinking about how to comfort her. Unexpectedly, she saw Yvonne slowly raising her lips, and was in a good mood.

Her desk-mate was stunned and a little surprised: “Yvonne, did you hear what Mr. Green just said? The person who got full marks in every subject is Nikita of Class F!”

“Well, I heard it all.” Yvonne opened the Chinese textbook and raised her head. Her voice was not in a hurry. “I didn’t expect it to be her, it was quite unexpected.”

The desk-mate looked at her in no hurry, and said in a little hurry: “Yvonne, do you really believe she has such strength? Don’t you doubt that she has cheated?”

“She is sleeping in the whole process of the exam, so how can she do so well in the exam? I think there must be something tricky about it, and this is definitely not her true score!”

Yvonne smiled and turned over a page of books. Her voice was still so slow: “Didn’t Mr. Green say it? Don’t talk nonsense without evidence.”

“And the invigilation system of the joint entrance examination is as strict as that of the college entrance examination. If she really cheated, it can definitely be found out. Don’t hurry, but just wait, and this matter will definitely be found out.”

Could Nikita really get full marks in all the subjects?

Yvonne just wanted to laugh.

Rosolia was in the same classroom as Nikita, and had seen with her own eyes that Nikita slept most of the time in every exam.

In this way, if she could still get full marks in every subject, she would definitely be more powerful than a genius.

She was in no hurry about this matter.

There were so many people questioning about that, so someone would definitely make trouble.

Even if people in their schools didn’t, other schools couldn’t be silent.

The first place in the whole country. It was impossible for any school being willing to let a person who cheated take advantage of that.

Nikita thought that she could take the limelight with a full score in every subject, but she was so stupid that she thought that no one would check her after she got such a bad result.

This was called lifting stone and smashing her self in the foot, which was seeking her own death!

She would like to wait and see, how Nikita would be punished for her openly cheating in the joint entrance examination!

If she could be imprisoned, her life would be over.

At the same time.

After Mr. White, the head teacher of Class F, announced Nikita's achievements, the whole classroom was completely quiet for about a minute. Everyone was just like being silenced. At first glance, they were all in shocked look.

Chapter 1234-“Let's congratulate Nikita!”

Mr. White took the lead in applauding. After hearing the applause, the students in the class seemed to have returned to their souls. The next second, the applause in the quiet classroom was thunderous, and the applause and cheers lasted for a real long time.

Samuel clapped especially so hard that his palms were flushed, because he was too excited, and his face was also flushed.

That was awesome.

This was not just a person's honor.

It was the honor of their whole F class.

Class F had always been looked down upon by others, but this time, the top student in the national joint examination and academic prodigy who got full marks in all the subjects turned to be in their Class F.

This also gave their Class F real great honor.

From then on, their class F had stood up!

Full marks in every subject. Even the so-called top students in Class A couldn't achieve that. They would see whether the top students in Class A who had a great sense of superiority would be embarrassed to show superiority in front of them or not.

This class was destined to be a class that few people could calm down and listen to it.

After Nikita's full marks in all the subjects were announced, it seemed that the calm sea suddenly set off waves, which made all the students in First Senior High School unable to calm down for a long time.

The class was over.

As soon as the teacher left, the classroom suddenly became noisy, and a bunch of students gathered around to discuss Nikita's full marks.

All the students in Class F gathered around Nikita's seat, with envious voice, congratulatory voice, and some other voices with unknown emotions never stopping.

The girl who was surrounded by a group of people rubbed her eyebrows with some unbearable disturbance, only feeling that the twittering sound around her made her eardrum vibrate.

Chapter 1235-Several related blogs were posted, and the heat was quickly fired.

This joint entrance examination was of a national nature. There were so many candidates in the whole country.

Even students in First Senior High School suspected Nikita of cheating.

Thus, students from other schools also didn't believe that she could get full marks in every subject by herself.

Candidates posted on Facebook one after another. They went to the official account of the Ministry of Education to leave a message, that the official should thoroughly investigate Nikita's cheating. Within half an hour, the entry "The First Place in the Joint Entrance Examination Cheated" was on the hot search, and even the news broke in the entertainment industry was squeezed down. It directly ranked first in the whole hot search list.

"Yvonne, Nikita's cheating is on the hot search! Hey, it seems that not only do we think she cheated, but there are quite a few people who suspect her cheating. This time, she is done!"

"Once she is found to have cheated, not only her college entrance examination qualification and student status will be canceled, but she will also be sentenced to jail!"

Nikita made herself a full score in all the subjects through cheating, which belonged to the serious type of cheating. At that time, it was definitely not just as simple as canceling student status and college entrance examination qualification.

Thinking that Nikita might go to jail, Rosolia laughed happily: "She deserved it! Things have spread so widely now, so people will definitely be arranged to check it! I don't know if she regrets it now, but even if she does, it is too late!"

So many students are protesting against the report, which must give a statement.

Nikita must have cheated.

Some cheating methods were too clever for ordinary people to find out, but if the above attached importance to this matter, special people would be arranged to investigate. Once there was official intervention, no matter how clever and hidden the methods were, it could definitely be found out.

Nikita was done!

Yvonne clicked on Facebook and saw that “The First Place in the Joint Entrance Examination Cheated” had already reached the first place in the hot search list, and the signal of “explosion” was hung behind it. She smiled, silently placed a hot search help, and then logged out happily.

Wasn't Nikita quite pushy?

Just help her hang on the hot search for a longer time.

At the moment, in the principal's office.

Talbot looked at the hot search on Facebook and looked very bad.

“President Dylan, students from other schools are unconvinced, saying that our First Senior High School won the first place in the whole country by cheating. Now, this group of students all ran to the official account of the Ministry of Education to report it.”

“This matter has made a real big noise. In order to calm the students' emotions, a special team has been arranged to investigate.”

Mr. White, the head teacher of Class F, looked sad: “President Dylan, the special team will come later. What should we do?”

“I think other schools are jealous of our school!” Talbot was so angry that he struck the table. “Why can't First Senior High School take the first place? Why did they say that our student cheated!”

“Since they want to check, let them check. Being upset is not afraid of crooked shadows. What's there to be afraid of being slandered to do things that you haven't done! Wait until they find out, lest someone always gossip!”

Mr. White nodded, being silent for a while, and sighed, “I also think it's better to find out, so that no one will gossip in the future. But Nikita will be a little wronged.”

Talbot was silent for a moment and sighed: "You are right."

Thinking of Nikita's temper, Talbot was a little worried, in case she refused to cooperate.

Chapter 1236-At the same time.

The second class was over.

Nikita rarely didn't sleep but was reading a book. Samuel turned, excitedly discussed where to eat at night with her. Nikita replied to her, in a desultory kind of way.

"Hey, you still have the mind to read."

A voice of schadenfreude suddenly sounded from above the head.

Being disturbed, Nikita frowned slightly, and raised her eyes.

Rosolia was standing at her table, holding her arms, with an expression of showing off in an ostentatious manner and gloating. Seeing Nikita looking at her, she smiled in an ostentatious manner again: "If I were you, I would like to dig a hole to hide myself now. Your cheating is so high-profile that it is well known all over the country. Hey, I would have no face to see people."

Nikita narrowed his eyes, with her eyes being colder.

Samuel also sank his face: "Rosolia, what are you talking nonsense about? Who cheated? If you talk nonsense again, believe it or not, I will tear your stinking mouth!"

"I talk nonsense?" Rosolia turned her head and looked at a group of students who were watching the scene of bustle behind her. "Nikita cheated and made the first hot search on Facebook. You actually said I was nonsense!"

"I'm not the only one who knows this matter. You say, have I wronged her?"

Some students took out their mobile phones and checked Facebook.

After a while, their faces were inexplicable: "I just went to see it, and it's true. The hot search said that Nikita... she cheated. The Ministry of Education has arranged for people to come and check this matter."

Several students also went to check the hot search.

After searching that, a group of students' faces became complicated.

Before, they also felt that Nikita won glory for Class F, and they could eventually be proud. They also ran to the campus group and severely beat the top students in Class A who usually had a high sense of superiority in their faces.

They didn't expect to be beaten back in the face so soon.

Nikita's achievements were false?

Did she cheat?

"What hot search?" Samuel also quickly took out his mobile phone and hurriedly clicked into Facebook.

Nikita's cheating was hanging in the hot search first. When he clicked in, he saw it at once.

Samuel was stunned, and then his face became complicated.

Of course, he didn't believe Nikita cheated.

But now it was the first hot search on Facebook, and this matter was real big.

It didn't work for him to believe, but it had to be believed by others.

"Now you all believe it?" Rosolia laughed more in an ostentatious manner, raising her eyebrows and looking arrogant. "Nikita, do you think that earning a full score in all the subjects by cheating really means you are the top student in the joint entrance examination?"

"Just wait. The officials will come to school soon. Dare to cheat on the national entrance examination! After finding out the evidence of your cheating, the whole country will spit on you!"

Rosolia's voice just fell, and Miss Morris pushed through the door with a face of urgency. Her pace was in a hurry, and the high heels stepped on the ground and made a "creaking" sound.

Seeing Nikita, she walked to the front quickly, and said with worry on her face: "Nikita, President Dylan is looking for you."

Hearing this, Rosolia's face beamed.

It seemed that people from the Ministry of Education had already come.

They were really fast.

It was enough to prove that they paid great attention on Nikita's cheating.

The more attention was paid to it, the more strict it would be.

With such an analysis, Nikita had a great chance of going to jail.

But she deserved it.

For ordinary people, no one will get full marks by cheating. If she was not so greedy and didn't want to take the first place in the country, there wouldn't be so many students to report her.

This was called self-inflicted iniquity.

Chapter 1237-"Niky, let us go with you." At this time, President Dylon asked Nikita to go to the office, which must be related to cheating.

Maybe the people from the Ministry of Education had already arrived.

Thinking of Nikita to face a large group of people alone, Samuel was not at ease.

Although Nikita was very powerful at ordinary times, she was just a girl.

Besides, she happened to meet such a situation.

If they went with her, there would be more people, so that nothing would leave her alone.

But Nikita refused their kindness, she looked at the eyes of Miss Morris, got up and said to Samuel: "I can cope with it. You don't have to worry. It won't be anything."

Then she said to Miss Morris "Let's go."

Miss Morris nodded. Seeing Nikita's face calm, she also relieved a lot.

To say that Nikita cheated, she also didn't believe it.

But for this achievement of Nikita, she also felt very surprised.

She only knew that Nikita was extremely talented in language. Unexpectedly, her other subjects were also so powerful, and her perfect scores had caused a sensation in the whole country.

In the principal's office.

The Ministry of Education had received complaints and reports from many candidates. In addition, this year's cheating of the top candidates in the joint entrance examination had become the first hot search on Facebook. Therefore, the relevant departments attached great importance to this matter and immediately arranged for people to go to the school for a thorough investigation.

The Ministry of Education was not far from First Senior High School, so it didn't take 20 minutes totally, and the special team arranged arrived at the school.

The people came to investigate Nikita cheating were all the elite personnel of the Ministry of Education.

Outside the office.

Miss Morris was afraid that Nikita was under pressure. Before going in, she lowered her voice and soothed her: "Nikita, although the Ministry of Education has arranged someone to come and investigate, you don't have to be afraid. Everything is about evidence. As long as you don't cheat, they will find out and return you an innocence."

Nikita face expression was quite light. A "well" sound, was a response.

The door was ajar. Miss Morris knocked on the door. After hearing the sound of "coming in", she opened the door.

Nikita followed Miss Morris into it with her hands in the pocket.

There were many people sitting in the office.

There were four men sitting on the sofa, which were all in their forties and all with serious expressions.

Talbot was pouring tea for several people. When he saw Nikita coming, he turned around and introduced Nikita with a serious expression: "Nikita, I think you should know why you were called here. These are the leaders of the Ministry of Education. They came to check your cheating reported by someone in the joint entrance examination."

"After a while, the leaders ask you what, and you just answer truthfully. Got it?" After that, Talbot made a wink at Nikita, motioning her to hold down her temper a little.

Nikita was his Sweet Uncle. So he never minded no matter how she played temper in front of him.

But these people in the Ministry of Education were not so easy to handle.

Even he was cautious in front of these people, and he couldn't speak too casually.

Nikita raised hers eyes with no mood in them to see Talbot, and nodded.

Talbot looked at her cooperation and was slightly relieved.

"Are you Nikita?"

A man looked Nikita up and down, and then, his slightly frowned, and his tone was not very good. "There are many candidates reporting that you cheated in the joint entrance examination. Do you know this?"

Chapter 1238-Nikita looked at the several men sitting on the sofa.

They looked at her eyes with a trace of disdain, as if she had been identified as cheating in the joint entrance examination, even if they hadn't investigated this matter clearly at all, but they had already set a crime for her in their hearts.

In their opinion, there was nothing else to check about this matter.

She was a person who used to get zero in every subject. Even if she worked hard, she still could not suddenly change from zero to full marks in all the subjects in a short time.

There had never been such a miracle.

There was a vast difference between genius and fool in nature.

And people who were born fools could never become geniuses.

The reason why Nikita could have such a great change in her achievements must be cheating, and there was no other possibility.

On the way to First Senior High School, the people from the Ministry of Education had already found Nikita's achievements in previous schools, and had also already identified Nikita as cheating, but no specific evidence had been found yet.

They were waiting for Nikita to recruit herself.

"Well, I just heard." Nikita was still in that calm look, and replied in a humble state.

The man's eyes were extremely severe, with examined force in them: "Do you know what kind of consequences you will bear once your cheating in the joint entrance examination is discovered?"

Nikita listened to the man with a kind of threatening tone, and smiled: "Do I need to know that?"

The man was stunned. Seeing her attitude, he frowned and said, "We have heard some of your previous' heroic deeds', but this is not your previous school, which can allow you to make troubles casually!"

"You dare to cheat in the joint entrance examination, and dare to cheat to achieve full marks in all the subjects. You are too daring!"

Hearing the man say so, Talbot felt a little dissatisfied.

He endured his temper and walked to Nikita's side, frowning slightly: "Director George, her cheating hasn't been investigated clearly yet, has it? Moreover, you have also checked the monitoring, and you have not found any cheating in Nikita."

The words just said by Director George seemed to be his affirmation that Nikita had cheated.

Of course, Talbot couldn't allow others to slander his Sweet Uncle like this!

Moreover, this was also damaging the reputation of First Senior High School!

Nikita was a student of First Senior High School. If she did cheat, how could the reputation of their school be good?

Director George grunted: "Nothing was found by checking the monitoring, but it doesn't mean she is innocent! If she didn't cheat, how can she explain that there is such a big gap between her grades before and after?"

Talbot frowned again: "That can't mean that she had cheated."

Director George snorted coldly again, and said in a determined tone: "It's just because she had cheated skillfully, so we haven't found out for the time being."

Nikita looked at Director George, who had already sentenced her to a crime, and smiled, but without any trace of smile in her eyes: "Without any evidence, I was judged to have cheated? Is this how people from your Ministry of Education do things?"

If the police handle cases like you and give people verbal convictions without any evidence, there may be countless unjust cases in the world."

The people were satirized by her, and their faces suddenly changed.

Director George suddenly turned to a bad expression.

When Talbot saw it, his heart beat faster twice. He was about to say something to moderate the atmosphere, but suddenly he heard Miss Morris behind him call out in surprise: "President Wilde, why are you here?"

Chapter 1239-Miss Morris's sound attracted several people in the office to turn their heads and look at the door.

Seeing Maddox standing at the door, Talbot was also stunned, and then walked quickly towards him.

Walking to Maddox, he stopped and called respectfully: "Teacher."

Talbot didn't tell Maddox that Nikita was reported cheating, but Maddox came over at this time, so he must have seen the relevant news.

A few people in the Ministry of Education were also stunned to see Maddox at this time.

Although Maddox was nominally the principal of First Senior High School, they had long been informed that Maddox had resigned as the principal, and the current principal was Talbot.

But there was no formal document to inform it.

However, in the face of Maddox, a retired principal, those people in the Ministry of Education still did not dare to neglect him at all, and their attitude towards him was not as casual as that towards Talbot.

Even if Maddox was not the principal of First Senior High School, he still held important positions in other departments, and he could still directly administer the departments of their Ministry of Education.

Seeing that the boss's boss came, the people with some arrogance in their attitude all stood up and called respectfully: "Mr. Wilde, why are you here?"

It was heard that Maddox had retired early because of physical reasons in order to have a good rest at home.

But now, what was he doing here?

Was it because the school student's cheating?

But a little student was not worth a trip for him, wasn't it?

Maddox looked at a few people, without giving them any kind expression, and ignored all of them, directly walking toward Nikita.

"Who reported that my sister Niky cheated in the exam?" Maddox walked to Nikita, stopped and turned to look at the men of the Ministry of Education.

"What??"

Behind him, the few people in the Ministry of Education were stunned and thought they had misheard.

Miss Morris was also stunned. Like those people's first reaction, she also thought she had misheard.

Talbot was showing a startled look.

What was the teacher doing?

Hadn't he said, in front of outsiders, don't expose the identity of Sweet Uncle?

Nikita narrowed her eyes, looking at Maddox, without saying a word.

Maddox sneered at the people of the Ministry of Education, didn't save their face, and said in a cold tone: "The elite personnel of your Ministry of Education are at this level?

Without any evidence, you dare to judge a student's cheating?"

Chapter 1240-Behind him, they were startled.

If Maddox first called Nikita sister Niky, everyone except Talbot thought he had misheard, then this time, everyone heard clearly.

It also made sure that they didn't hear wrong before.

Director George's eyes widened, and his face was full of disbelief and doubts. He looked at Nikita and then at Maddox: "Mr. Maddox, what did you call her just now?"

Miss Morris was also wide-eyed.

Maddox glanced at the people present. This time, he didn't want to hide anymore, but introduced in a high-profile and generous way: "You didn't hear me wrong. Nikita is my sister."

"She is also a senior sister in the same school as me. The most proud disciple of our teacher is her."

Maddox said a few words lightly, but it seemed to have dropped a bomb into the crowd, and all the others except Talbot were blown up.

What? !

Nikita was Maddox's senior?

She even studied in the same school as Maddox, and was Maddox's senior sister?

It was universally known that Maddox's teacher was Ward, a special professor at HF University, who was also the president of HF University. If Nikita and Maddox came from the same school, wasn't she also Ward's disciple?

Just now, Maddox also said that Nikita was Ward's most proud disciple.

Nikita was a disciple of Ward?

The few people of the Ministry of Education were dumbfounded, looking straight at Nikita, unbelievable.

Miss Morris was also dumbfounded, and the expression on her face was blank, as if she were dreaming.

"Mr. Maddox, you, you just said Nikita was a proud disciple under Mr. Ward?" Director George had been stunned for a long time, only to return to some normal slightly, but he still looked dazed, obviously not having completely recovered from the shock just now.

A bad girl who studied in a township school since childhood and had always fought and skipped classes every day, whose grades were also in a mess, now turned out to be the disciple of the world-famous HF University president?

How could this be!

How could Mr. Ward accept such a bad student as his disciple!

"That's right." Maddox didn't look at this Director George, and he was not polite at all. "When I went to HF University for further study a few years ago, my sister Niky had already studied there."

"At that time, sister Niky had already helped her teacher complete several very difficult experimental projects, among which two experimental projects had won relevant international awards."

Speaking of Nikita's achievements, Maddox's face was full of admiration and worship.

Even if he was decades older than Nikita.

When talking about some aspects of achievements, he could still not catch up with Nikita.

Because it was rare for one to own talent naturally.

What ordinary people tried their best to study all their lives, was just a matter of minutes for talented people.

Therefore, Maddox could straighten out his mentality. He had never had any jealous thoughts for this sister Niky who was decades younger than him, but only admiration and envy.

Admire and envy her talent.

Maddox's words shocked everyone again.

Were the two experimental projects he mentioned that won international awards...

Director George opened his eyes wide again. He opened his mouth as if he wanted to say something, but he couldn't make any sound.
