

The Girl CB 1241

Chapter 1241-Talbot took the document bag, looked at it doubtfully, and then handed it to Director George.

Director George took it and also looked at it doubtfully. He then looked up at Griselda and asked, "What is this?"

Griselda smiled and walked to Maddox: "Don't you believe Nikita can get full marks in every subject? The reason why you came here is also to check this matter, isn't it?"

I have brought you all the evidence. You can just see by yourself."

When Griselda finished speaking, she turned her head to hold Maddox, and said gently, "I didn't come too late, did I?"

Griselda was Maddox's wife.

When they were young, they were from the same school and department. They loved each other for many years and had a very good relationship.

Maddox had been sullen. While when he saw his wife coming, he finally had a smile on his face. He took Griselda's hand and patted it gently: "Sorry to bother you."

"No trouble at all." Griselda smiled, turned her head, and looked at Nikita with loving eyes. "How can you say trouble about Niky? What's more, if this matter is still not clear, it will have a great impact on the reputation of Niky."

Nikita also didn't expect Griselda to come, especially for her things.

She nodded at Griselda and politely called, "Auntie."

Griselda loosened Maddox, walked to Nikita's side, took her hand with intimate action, and smiled gently: "Niky, I had cooked your favorite dishes, and when things are solved, you can go for dinner at noon in my place."

Griselda's attitude was undoubtedly telling others that Nikita had known them for a long time.

And their relationship was very good.

This also indirectly confirmed some of Maddox's previous words.

Director George heard Griselda saying that she had brought evidence without delay, so he opened the file bag and took out the so-called "evidence" inside.

The other people from the Ministry of Education also gathered together to have a look.

After a while, Director George's face changed a little.

The other people's faces also changed a little.

Griselda looked at the reactions of them and smiled: "Have you finished reading it? I believe that after reading these evidences, whether Nikita's joint entrance examination cheated or not, you should know it in your heart, don't you?"

If you feel that the evidence is not enough, please show your evidence of Nikita's cheating. If you can't, then your saying about cheating is framing.

In fact, this achievement is nothing to Nikita. Whether you want it or not can't affect her. However, for the Ministry of Education, it is very important, isn't it?"

If there was a genius who got full marks in all the subjects in N City.

The Ministry of Education of N City should have definitely been benefited a lot.

Director George was stunned for a while, like dumbfounded again. After a long time, he was pushed by colleagues around him, and then slowly came back to his senses.

He raised his head to look at Nikita again. His expression was awkward and uncomfortable. The previous contempt was gone. Instead, it was absolute respect and shock.

Who would have thought about that!

At present, this problem student who had been despised by them was actually the talented girl who got full marks in all the subjects in the college entrance examination four years ago!

At that time, Autumn, a talented girl, took part in the college entrance examination at the age of fourteen, and achieved amazing results of full marks in every subject, which caused a national sensation.

Such a talented girl, naturally, had a lot of media vying to cover and report.

But it was heard that when the major media went to school and wanted to interview Autumn, they were told that Autumn had left the school.

Chapter 1242-Journalists also went to other places to look for her, but no one succeeded.

Later, the interview went away.

Moreover, the media reporters not only failed to interview her, but also failed to even get a photo.

Because they had heard that Autumn's character was secluded, who rare got along with her classmates, and was usually alone, so no one had taken photos with her in these years.

As a result, no one knew what this talented girl who sensationalized the whole country looked like.

Except for her classmates who had been with her for a few years.

Now, this talented girl who sensationalized the whole country had reappeared, but her true identity had amazed everyone.

Who would have thought that the top student in the national college entrance examination four years ago would be a scum who once scored zero in the entrance examination and got a terrible result?

It was impossible to falsify the information they had just read.

Griselda and Maddox were even less likely to lie to them.

Therefore, Nikita was indeed the talented girl Autumn who scored full marks in the college entrance examination four years ago.

It was just ...

There was one thing that Director George still couldn't figure it out.

He hesitated, but asked: "These materials are naturally true, which proves that Nikita's achievements are true, not cheating. However, why her the names different four years ago and now? Is she renamed?"

"Yes, four years ago, the reason why sister Niky went to J City to go to high school was to pay back a favor." The person who answered was Maddox.

"Pay back a favor?"

Although it was known that Maddox and Nikita had the relationship of sister and younger brother in school with the same team, but when listening to him called Nikita sister Niky, others still felt a little strange.

Not used to it.

After all, the age gap between them was too big.

“Yes, pay back a favor. Nikita owed the principal of J City High School a favor, so she went to study there, and won the honor of the national champion of the college entrance examination as a candidate of J City High School, all in order to pay back this favor.”

“As for the name change, it is because of some private matters, and there is no reason to tell you the specific reasons.” Nikita came out, seeing Director George in cold eyes, “Have cheating things already been found out? Can I go?”

Looking at the girl who obviously revealed some impatience between her eyes, Director George looked at Maddox and Griselda who stood next to the girl, not daring to saying anything.

He had all the evidence.

They also saw the clear facts.

What else was there to say?

At the age of fourteen, she could take the college entrance examination, and also got a perfect score in all the subjects. And four years later, she also got a perfect score in all the subjects in the joint entrance examination. Wasn't this just normal operation?

It should be known that the difficulty of the college entrance examination four years ago was also famous.

At that time, she could get full marks, not to mention now...

“Yes, already checked it out, Nikita, your grades are absolutely true, and there is no suspicion of cheating. Later, we will truthfully report the investigation to the bureau, and then make relevant clarifications on Facebook.”

In the face of this talented girl who had caused countless famous schools to compete, and the Ministry of Education of N City had also been asked that they should have this girl to college in N City, Director George’s attitude at this time was a great change of 180 degrees, which was extremely polite now.

Unexpectedly, such a rare talent was actually in N City.

The Ministry of Education of N City had owned a treasure!

“Now that you have found out, I will go back to class.”

Chapter 1243-Nikita turned around to Maddox and Griselda and confessed a few words. Then she turned and walked out of the office.

Seeing her leave, Maddox also turned around and said to Director George, “Have you investigated this matter clearly?”

Director George hurriedly nodded and smiled: “The investigation is already clear.”

Maddox’s posture was quite high. He was tall, carrying his hands behind his back, lowering his head, to look at Director George in a commanding manner, and asked: “Now are you sure Nikita didn’t cheat?”

Director George had known his relationship with Nikita, and just confirmed that Nikita and Autumn, the top student in the college entrance examination four years ago, were the same person. So how could they continue to insist that Nikita cheated?

He bowed his head: “Yes, yes.”

Maddox: “Since you have investigated clearly and confirmed that Nikita did not cheat. So I believe your Ministry of Education will definitely how to handle it well.”

Director George quickly nodded again: "Mr. Maddox, you can rest assured that we will definitely return Nikita's innocence and won't let her reputation be damaged at all."

Maddox nodded his head with a little satisfaction: "That's good. Now gossip has been flying all over the sky. You must deal with this matter as soon as possible."

"Yes, sir."

After Maddox confessed this matter, he turned around and confessed a few words to Talbot. Then, he left with Griselda.

After they left, the people of the Ministry of Education could not sit still, and they all got up, saying that they need to hurry back to the bureau to deal with Nikita's cheating.

Talbot and Miss Morris then sent them downstairs together.

After people from the Ministry of Education left, Miss Morris was still in a state of never returning to absolute being and felt like dreaming.

Suddenly.

The students in her class turned out to be the sister of the former principal, the uncle of the current principal, the top student of HF University, and the mysterious talented girl who got full marks in all the subjects four years ago.

This was incredible.

Was it true that she wasn't dreaming?

In those days, the genius who had been robbed by the famous schools turned out to be the students she taught? !

She had taught such a powerful and awesome student? !

Did this mean that she was also very powerful and awesome? !

Nikita was called to the principal's office by Miss Morris, and the Ministry of Education arranged people to investigate her cheating in the school, which soon spread to the whole school.

Yvonne naturally knew it soon.

Rosalia was particularly excited to run over and say to her: "Yvonne, I heard that the people arranged by the Ministry of Education have arrived at school, and Nikita was called to torture."

Yvonne slightly smiled and quietly replied "well" with her emotionless voice: "I also heard that, but I didn't expect the Ministry of Education to come so soon. It seems that they attach great importance to this matter."

"That's true." Rosalia smiled happily and said, "It's still the first time that someone cheated and dared to make himself a full score in every subject. Yvonne, you said how can there be such a stupid person? Isn't this clearly telling everyone that she cheated?"

"If she hadn't cheated and became a full score in all the subjects, there wouldn't be so many people reporting her."

Yvonne noncommittal shrugged her shoulders.

Nikita was really stupid.

Staring at the first place of the whole country, she dared to resort to deceit to achieve full marks in every subject.

Chapter 1244-As for Nikita's cheating, Yvonne thought for a while, and felt that the reason why Nikita could get this result should be that she had recited the answer in advance.

Plagiarism could not exist.

The scores of the people sitting around her were not as high as her, so it was impossible for her to copy others.

The only possibility was to get the answers to each subject in advance and then memorize them in advance.

Although it was unlikely that such a thing that get the answer to the joint entrance examination in advance would happen, nothing was impossible if there is help from the Lambert family.

Nikita was in relationship with Sheehan.

She could ask him to help her get the answers to the test questions in advance.

Thinking of this, Yvonne frowned, feeling a little worried that if it was really Sheehan's help for Nikita to get the answer, then Nikita's cheating would not be investigated in the end.

The Lambert Family had great power in N City, not to say that he could dominate everything, but no one dared to provoke him.

If he wanted to protect Nikita...

Yvonne's eyebrows tightened with her eyes cooled down.

In any case, she won't let Nikita have any chance to turn over!

This time, she must let Nikita die thoroughly!

“When was Nikita called to the principal’s office?” Yvonne squinted and asked Rosalia.

“She has been there for quite a while.” Rosalia looked outside the classroom. “Yvonne, why don’t we go and explore the present situation?”

“There is nothing to explore.” Yvonne smiled, as if something had been inevitable, “It is estimated that the people of the Ministry of Education have already checked it.”

“There should be relevant notifications on Facebook soon.”

Nikita’s cheating was a sure thing.

As long as the Ministry of Education wanted to check, it must be checked correctly.

She was just thinking about this when she suddenly heard someone shouting in the corridor: “Nikita is back. Didn’t she cheat? Why didn’t the police take her away?”

Yvonne was stunned, stood up and walked quickly towards the outside of the classroom.

Rosalia also changed her face and started to follow her. They walked out of the classroom quickly.

In the corridor, there were many people standing, holding the railing and looking downstairs.

Leon stood with several boys and looked downstairs.

Yvonne walked to his side.

“Yvonne.” When Leon saw her, he moved aside and made an empty place.

Yvonne stood beside him, holding her hands on the railing, sipping her lips and looking downstairs.

Nikita copied her hands in the pockets with exquisite facial features and pretty appearance, who was in an indifferent look as usual, walking into the teaching building with no expression on her face.

“It’s really Nikita!” Rosalia’s face suddenly became very ugly. “How can she come back? Haven’t the people of the Ministry of Education investigated her cheating?”

If the investigation was clear,

Nikita must have been taken away by the police at the moment.

Yvonne fastened her fingers on the railing, bit her lips, and her face became very ugly.

Was it Sheehan who protected Nikita?

“Could it be... Nikita didn’t cheat?” Leon hesitated, thought about it, and objectively said, “It should be impossible to cheat in the joint entrance examination. If she really cheated, she would have been found out long ago.”

“There should be no evidence from the investigation from the Ministry of Education, so they sent her back.” Leon actually didn’t believe Nikita could test full marks in all the subjects.

But he also didn’t believe Nikita could cheat in the joint entrance examination.

“No way! She must have cheated!” Rosalia insisted. “If she hadn’t cheated, I would have jumped from upstairs!”

“Then you can jump now.”

Chapter 1245-Hearing this voice, Yvonne looked up. When she saw Nikita, Yvonne’s face changed, and she couldn’t help but ask, “Nikita, how can you be here?”

“Why can’t I be here?” Nikita saw her, narrowing her eyes, and replied in a cold voice.

Yvonne looked at her cold and proud appearance and pinched her fingers.

“Of course you can’t be here! You have cheated, and the police will take you away. You should stay at the police station!” Rosalia, with an indignant expression on her face, replied.

“Cheating?” Nikita narrowed her eyes again, with her eyes were somewhat cool, and still said in a cold voice. “Which eye did you see me cheating?”

“Hum, I didn’t see it, but people all over the country all have known you cheated! Otherwise, how can the people of the Ministry of Education investigate your cheating!”

“You didn’t see. Then how can you say that! In that way, I can also say that you cheated. The people of the whole country all know that, and I will also go to the Ministry of Education to report you and let them check you!” Tammy came out of the classroom and walked to Nikita.

She looked at Nikita, lowering her voice, and asked, “Niky, are you all right?”

Tammy was not worried about what would happen to Nikita.

Even if people from the Ministry of Education come to investigate, they still needed evidence.

Nikita did not cheat, so no matter how they investigate, they couldn’t investigate anything.

Seeing her, Nikita reduced her coldness in her eyes, and the whole person looked also not so indifferent, with eyes much warmer, and nodded toward her.

Tammy then was relieved.

It seemed that the people of the Ministry of Education didn’t find anything, so they had to let them go.

“Niky!”

Samuel and Tobin just saw Nikita downstairs in the corridor and came down to find her.

Two big boys came towards Nikita, and people standing next to them all gave way to them.

Students in Class A actually looked down on students in Class F.

But they were afraid of roguish students like Samuel and Tobin.

Two tall boys stood beside Nikita, like her accompanying bodyguards, especially Samuel. He half squinted and stared at Rosalia with fierce tone: “Rosalia, although I never beat women, if you talk nonsense here again, don’t blame me for being impolite.”

He said, and also clenched his fist and waved towards Rosalia.

Rosalia’s face suddenly turned bad with fear.

But her face was still with the unconvinced expression, biting her lips, and muttering in an unconvinced whisper: “It is that she cheated originally. Since she has the face to cheat, she should not be afraid of being talked about.”

Listening to her still slandering Nikita, Samuel was about to have an attack. Suddenly, he heard someone screaming, and then looked at Nikita with a shocked face: “Nikita, the talented girl who got full marks in the college entrance examination was you!”

“You and Autumn are the same person, is this true?!”

“What? Nikita is the same person as Autumn, the top student in the college entrance examination four years ago?! OMG, where did you see it?”

“I also saw it. Just now, the official account of the Ministry of Education sent a blog!”

Another student also raised his mobile phone, and his face was also shocked: “The people of the Ministry of Education investigated clearly that Nikita did not cheat. She took the college entrance examination four years ago and was also a full score in all the subjects!”

“It’s true! The Ministry of Education really sent a blog!”

More and more shocked voices sounded.

Chapter 1246-The students were reading the blog sent by the official account of the Ministry of Education one minute ago with their mobile phones.

It was said that Nikita’s cheating had been investigated clearly. According to the investigation, Nikita did not cheat, and all her achievements were true. There was no cheating and plagiarism.

In the last sentence of its statement, a shocking thing broke out, which was that Nikita and Autumn, the top student in the college entrance examination four years ago, were the same person.

That was to say, four years ago, Nikita, who was only fourteen years old, had already earned the full score of all the subjects, and she still got such a shocking result in the college entrance examination.

Four years ago, she was a genius who sensationalized the whole country.

Four years later, she once again caused a sensation in the whole country with full marks in the joint entrance examination, which caused great controversy.

The comment area of the official account was full of incredible voices.

“Nikita and the top student in the college entrance examination four years ago are the same person? Are there students from J City High School coming out to talk about it? Is this true?”

“Four years ago, she was the top student in the college entrance examination, and four years later, she is the top student in the joint entrance examination. Both of them all got full marks in every subject?! My God, what level of academic prodigy is this! It is too outstanding!”

“I am a student of J City High School, and I was in the same session as Autumn. In fact, I thought Nikita, the school belle of the First Senior High School of N City, looked familiar before, and looked very, very similar to Autumn. At that time, I also doubted whether they were the same person, but I thought it was impossible. After all, Autumn had finished high school four years ago and went to a foreign university to study. How could she return to high school?”

“And the names of two people are different, so I think they should look alike, but not the same person. Unexpectedly, I really guessed right, Nikita and Autumn are the same person! After a lapse of four years, Autumn is as cool as ever. However, such a prodigy will be suspected of cheating. It seems that being a man can't be too low-key. “

In the hallway.

The students who have just checked Facebook were stunned and have an expression of skepticism about life.

None of them have ever heard of Autumn.

This name, this person, for them, was a god-level prodigy.

Even if it was a group of so-called top students whose eyes were higher than the top and easily refused to accept people, when it came to Autumn, all of them worshiped like gods, and they all admired her a lot.

No one could think that the prodigy in their mind was in the same school as them.

Moreover, it was still Nikita, a class F student who was despised by them.

“Nikita, are you, are you really Autumn?” Leon also checked Facebook just now, and the whole person was in a state of shock. He held his mobile phone and looked up in incredible eyes.

Nikita indifferently swept him, without saying a word.

“That’s right. Niky is the top student in the college entrance examination who got full marks in every subject! Is there still anyone who say that Niky’s grades come from cheating!”

Tammy looked at a group of stunned students and proudly raised her chin: “Now, you are convinced! Niky is too low-key and doesn’t want to show off her previous brilliant achievements. It’s not like some people saying everywhere when they have some achievements, who can’t wait for the whole world to think how powerful she is!”

When Tammy said this, she said it to Yvonne.

At this time, Yvonne, standing opposite them, was in a bad face, and she was even unwilling to hide it. Her whole face seemed to be pale like paint.

Chapter 1247-Her eyes were full of disbelief, and she clenched her lips.

Usually, in the face of Tammy’s provocation and irony, she would definitely fight back immediately. But at this time, her throat seemed to be stuffed with cotton, and she gambled so much that she couldn’t say a word.

She still didn’t understand.

How could Nikita and Autumn be the same person.

How could Nikita be Autumn?

If she was Autumn, how could she explain her previous achievements?

Was it just for fun to take zero scores in test?

If Nikita was Autumn, then she had already finished high school four years ago and went to college abroad. Why did she come back to study Senior Three again now? Was it also for fun?

Yvonne was unwilling to accept the fact that she had been trying to find out the evidence of Nikita lying, but she also knew in her heart that lying about such things was definitely untenable.

As long as the Ministry of Education checked, it could find out whether it was true or false.

Besides, there were so many students in the same class as Nikita. If she lied, someone would definitely stand up and puncture her lies.

Therefore, Nikita and Autumn must be the same person.

Yvonne knew that she couldn't compare with Nikita in appearance, so she has always been proud of her achievement to show superiority in front of Nikita.

She had always told herself silently in her heart that for students, everything else was secondary, and only grades were the most important.

Even if Nikita was severe in other aspects, as long as her academic performance was not good, it would be nothing.

If nothing else, as far as the Lambert family is concerned, Sheehan would definitely marry a woman who should have a good educational background and character, even if they didn't look at her family background.

Sheehan graduated from HF University, a famous university ranked first in the world. If he found an illiterate with a college diploma or even one who failed in the college entrance examination, wasn't it a joke for the public to see Lambert Family?

And in the future diploma, she definitely had an advantage over Nikita.

She had already been recommended to Peking University.

Even if Peking University was not as good as HF University, it was also the first university in the country. In terms of diploma, at least she and Sheehan were well-matched.

But now...

Her only advantage, which she had always been proud of, was gone.

She lost to Nikita in all aspects.

“Rosalia, didn’t you say that if Niky’s grades are true, you will jump from upstairs?” Tammy looked at Rosalia, who was also shocked and stunned. She said without caring of her at all, “Now you can jump, jump quickly, but don’t just have the courage to say and have no courage to do.”

Rosalia’s face suddenly changed bad constantly. And she couldn’t look more gloomy. She bit her lips and couldn’t come up with a word.

Chapter 1248-Rosalia’s face suddenly changed from green to green. And she couldn’t look more gloomy. She bit her lips hard and couldn’t come up with a word to say.

“Why? You are not going to go back on your word, are you? You actually said those words in front of everyone!” Tammy reached out and pointed to downstairs. “Now, it’s time for you to fulfill your promise.”

Rosalia subconsciously looked into the direction pointed by Tammy and took a look at downstairs. Then she quickly moved inward and stayed away from the railing, as if she were afraid that someone would really push her down.

“Why? You don’t have the guts?” Tammy looked at her with disdain.

Rosalia’s face looked livid: “Why would I jump? If I jump from upstairs, I will die!”

“Oh, so you don’t have the guts then. Since you can’t fulfill your promise, here is your second choice. You kneel down in front of Niky and apologize to her by saying “Daddy, I was wrong.” Then we can forget about the whole thing. I remember this is exactly our originally bet.”

“Don’t tell me you want to disavow it too!”

Many people remembered the bet between Rosalia and Nikita.

At that time, many people in Class A heard it.

Now, hearing Tammy say so, they all turned to look at Rosalia.

There were students booing around: “Yes, Rosalia. At that time, you said that if Nikita could be admitted by Peking University all by herself, you would kneel down in front of her and call her Daddy. We all heard it.”

“I heard it, too.”

“Yes, I also heard it. Rosalia did make such a promise.”

“Nikita got perfect scores in all the subjects. So she can easily get in Peking University. No, with such a brilliant scores, Peking University will definitely beg her to take its offer. Rosalia, since you had lost the bet, you should keep your words.”

“Kneel down! Kneel down!”

With perfect scores in all the subjects,

Several famous colleges will definitely fight for her.

Four years ago, Peking University used to take a lot of efforts to fight with several other famous schools for Nikita. So far, the relationship between those schools is still particularly stiff.

Hearing the booing around, Rosalia's face looked more gloomy. She bit her lips so hard that there were deep tooth marks on her lips.

She did make a bet with Nikita.

But at that time, how could she know that Nikita could win.

She made the bet just to humiliate Nikita with the results of the joint examination.

While now... she has become the one who got humiliated!

Rosalia clenched her fists, raised her head and took a look at Nikita. Although she was extremely reluctant, and the expression on her face looked extremely humiliating, she slowly bent her knees with the constant booing around her.

She struggled to open her mouth.

"All right. That's enough. I'm putting an end into this." Nikita interrupted her before she could speak up.

Rosalia was stunned. Then she raised her head in surprise.

She never thought Nikita would let her go so easily.

While Nikita just took a look at her with disgust and then looked away. The girl's indifferent voice also show some disdain. "Even if you could actually call me that, I wouldn't like to have a daughter like you at a young age. You are not qualified enough for being registered on my household registration book."

Rosalia could tell the dislike and ridicule in her words. And her face changed again.

But this time, she couldn't come up a word to refute her.

She bit her lips and sucked up the humiliation. She turned to look at Yvonne. Originally, she still expected Yvonne to speak up for her. But she saw that Yvonne's face also looked gloomy. And Yvonne seemed to lose her pride and superiority too.

Nikita didn't pay more attention to them. She turned to whisper to Tammy beside her: "I won't be at school recently. If something comes up, call me."

Tammy was stunned. "Ah? Niky, then when will you come back?"

Nikita hesitated for a while. "I will come back on your birthday."

Chapter 1249-Actually, she doesn't plan to come back.

She won't stay in the First Senior High School as a student anymore.

However, she will come back to celebrate Tammy's birthday with her.

Tammy and Samuel didn't know about Nikita's plan. They thought she had some other plans. And after she finished doing her things, she would continue to go back to school. Tammy nodded with a clever look: "Okay, Niky, we will wait for you to come back."

Nikita nodded and turned to walk downstairs.

Behind her.

Lanny stood at the door and hung up the phone. Seeing the girl who had walked into the stairwell, he slowly showed a happy smile in his eyes.

He knew that she definitely didn't cheat.

He also had a guess that her poor scores in the exams which are seemingly absurd might be fake. And her true side was not what it appeared to be.

However, her excellence is actually far beyond his expectation.

Unexpectedly, Autumn, the genius girl who he has been secretly admiring and considering as his model, actually turns out to be the girl he likes.

When he learned about her another identity, Lanny was shocked at first. Then he was surprised. And his love for her was deepened. But in the end, he couldn't help feeling a little depressed and indescribable sour.

He originally was a very confident teenager. But at this moment, he felt inferior.

The girl he likes is so excellent that he feels that he is not even qualified for having a secret crush on her.

"Stop looking at her. It's not going to happen between you and her." His best friend who grew up together with him walked to him from behind and reached out to pat him on the shoulder. "Bro, Nikita is from a different world. And she will never fall for a student like us."

Lanny turned to look at him. The sorrow in his eyes has not completely faded yet. "Why won't she fall for a student like us?"

Although he also knows that his friend is right about this, this is the first time for him to feel this way about a girl. It's hard for him to control it. So even though he knows it's not going to happen, he still holds a glimmer of hope in his heart.

"Because I saw it." Lanny frowned: "You saw it? What did you see?"

His best friend hesitated for a while. Because he didn't want Lanny to be caught up into it too deeply, he chose to confess: "I saw Nikita's boyfriend. That man is very handsome. He has a very good temperament. And he is also very rich. He seems to be a social elite."

“So the guys she will fall for should be that kind of successful men in society, not students like us.”

And there is something else he didn't tell his best friend, because he doesn't want to hurt his bro even more.

In fact, that man is far more outstanding than he described. Speaking of his look alone, he is absolutely one in a million.

Students who still need to rely on their parents to live have no comparison with him at all.

No wonder there were rumors about Felton having a crush on Nikita before, but Nikita not feeling the same way as him. Felton is already very handsome, but he still can't compare with that man.

However, Felton and that man actually look alike.

With such an excellent boyfriend, how can Nikita have eyes for other people?

At the Lambert Group.

After working for Sheehan for so many years, Vernon thinks that he has experienced a lot of up and downs. When he followed Sheehan, who had just returned to this country, and helped him regain the real power of this company's management from a group of shrewd shareholders those years, he experienced a lot of thrilling and dangerous crisis. And he could always remain calm.

But at this moment, he feels like he were riding a roller coaster with his heart constantly going up and down.

Chapter 1250-In his own words, he has lived for more than twenty years, but he has never been so excited.

In fact, Vernon has always felt that Nikita is not good enough for Mr. Lambert.

He doesn't mean Nikita is not good. It's just that Mr. Lambert is too excellent.

He even used to worry about the next generation of Mr. Lambert. If he really marries Nikita in the end, and their child gets his IQ from Nikita, what would they do?

After all, IQ is quite important.

As for the child's appearance, he is not worried at all. No matter the child gets his look from Mr. Lambert or Nikita, he must be very good-looking.

Of course, he doesn't think Mr. Lambert intends to find a life partner who has the same IQ as him. After all, it will be too difficult to find one who meets this standard. But Nikita is just...

Vernon has been thinking that it would still be great if Nikita could be a little more clear and get herself admitted to an ordinary university even though she can't get into any famous universities.

Anyway, it would be better than getting zero points in each subject.

It's really embarrassing to have such a poor score.

And now, Nikita finally got the scores she could show off. But this result makes Vernon have an unrealistic feeling, as if he were dreaming.

Before he could recover from this untrue feeling, the news of Nikita cheating in the exam suddenly broke out on Facebook.

While he was still thinking about whether to report this matter to Mr. Lambert, shortly after that, there was another news breaking out on Facebook, saying that Nikita and the student who ranked the first in the national college entrance examination four years ago were actually the same person.

Vernon held his phone and stood at the door of the conference room with a blank face.

Vernon didn't come to his senses until the door of the conference room was opened, and Sheehan came out, saw him standing motionlessly at the door like a statue and called his name.

"Mr. Lambert!" Vernon immediately stood up straight and greeted him respectfully.

Sheehan glanced at him: "What are you doing standing at the door with a blank face?"

"Mr. Lambert, it is something related to Miss Swift." Vernon took a look at those senior leaders who were still sitting in the conference room, paused for a second, lowered his voices and said to him: "Miss Swift's results of the joint examination have come out."

Sheehan walked out of the conference room, took out his phone and looked at it. He didn't see any new calls or unread information. He was actually psychologically prepared for Nikita's results of the joint examination. So he didn't care much about this matter. He just casually asked: "Oh? How many points did she get?"

Strictly followed him into the office. Although his voice sounded calm, it still showed some excitement that he failed to hide. "750. Miss Swift got perfect scores in all the subjects in the joint examination."

Sheehan's step paused. He turned around and narrowed his deep eyes. "Perfect scores in all the subjects?"

"Yes." Vernon nodded. "Perfect scores in all the subjects. Miss Swift ranked the first in the national joint examination this year. And Miss Swift is not only the No.1 student in the joint examination this year, but also the top student in the college entrance examination four years ago who got the perfect scores in all the subjects!"

Although Vernon has stepped into the society, he still remembers the No.1 student in the college entrance examination who caused a sensation in this country four years ago.

It's already very awesome for her to take the college entrance examination at the age of fourteen.

And she even got perfect scores in all the subjects!

A talented girl with super a high IQ always catches a lot of attention, no matter she is a student at school or a worker in the society.

At that time, Vernon even felt that the only person who could surpass their Mr. Lambert in IQ was Autumn.

However, who would have thought that Autumn was actually Nikita. And she even became Mr. Lambert's girlfriend!
