

The Girl CB 1281

Chapter 1281-Yvonne looked at some netizens in the comments section who doubted the identity of her alternative account, and her face changed. She ran to reply to one of the comments with a guilty conscience.

Yvonne Love Berries: I am not Yvonne, and I have not played any role-playing. Like you, I am just an ordinary netizen. I pretended to be her identity and messaged Annoyed Mary Sue. If you want to scold, scold me. Don't scold irrelevant people.

Later, Yvonne posted a screenshot of the conversation, with a paragraph attached: Do you think Annoyed Mary Sue is a good person? Look at her true face. She actually asked the other party to pay 100 million dollars for the copyright!

However, her reply let the netizens scold more fierce.

It also made more people doubt her identity.

"She is the original author, so she has the rights to ask no matter how much money, let alone 100 million! It's not forcing you to buy, so if you feel expensive, you can just ignore it!"

"That's it! And I think the reason why she asked for 100 million is that she doesn't want to sell it at all!"

"It was originated by her. So even if she asked for 10 billion dollars, there were no reasons to scold! If you are unwilling to buy and feel it too expensive, no one will force you!"

"I found this 'Love Berries' is also hypocritical. What is she doing? Does she think that if she posts this screenshot, we will feel that the Annoyed Mary Sue is wrong, and then we will let go of Yvonne and besiege the Annoyed Mary Sue?"

Seeing that public opinion was going to develop in the direction that she couldn't control again, Yvonne closed the comments section and message box of her alternative account due to her guilty.

With a dark face, she slammed her mobile phone on the bed.

Why did this group of damn netizens keep scolding her!

But even if they keep scolding, anyway, as long as she didn't admit plagiarism and the account that had messaged Annoyed Mary Sue was hers, even if more people came to doubt her, they couldn't do anything to her.

All she had to do was to firmly insist that she had written the music score.

She had been driven out of the Swift family.

She couldn't lose the quota of being recommended to Peking University anymore.

If she could keep the quota of being recommended to Peking University, then she would still have a chance to be outstanding.

As long as she could go to Peking University, the Swift family would... Sooner or later, she would make them regret for what they did today!

Nikita woke up at noon the next day.

When she slept, her cell phone was muted.

Therefore, when she turned on her mobile phone, seeing a series of missed calls and unread messages, she was a little surprised. First, she looked at the missed calls of Malcom and Maddox, and called them back respectively.

Malcom answered the phone quickly.

"Nikita, the plagiarism has been so influenced. What do you think?" Malcom just finished weeding the small garden, handed the shovel in his hand to the servant, and took the handkerchief to wipe his hands.

At the same time, he walked indoors.

He didn't wait for Nikita to speak, then said: "Before, you had said that this matter should be solved by yourself, so I didn't intervene. But I've been waiting for so long, and I haven't seen any movement from you. Are you soft-hearted, are going to let go of your sister?"

If so, Malcom felt that he had to be angry.

Stealing their work, and also taking it to participate in competitions, she won the championship twice, and even won the appreciation of the world-class music master.

Chapter 1282-He was absolutely intolerant of such a person.

He was also determined not to allow such despicable villains to enter their area for development.

So he had decided, even if Nikita was not willing to care, willing to let go of Yvonne, he would not let her go!

He called Nikita this time, just to ask this matter.

If Nikita didn't deal with it, he would take charge of it.

Nikita turned on her mobile phone on speakerphone, to continue Malcom's phone, and at the same time, check her Whatsapp.

There were some messages sent to her by Tammy and several messages sent by Sheehan.

Nikita first saw Sheehan's, who said that he had made breakfast and put it in an insulation box in the kitchen, so that she didn't need to order take-out after getting up and went to his side for meal.

There was ready-made meal, which was made by Sheehan. Nikita naturally wouldn't want to order takeout.

When Sheehan didn't cook for her, she might order take-out to eat.

With his cooking, she had no interest in take-out.

She was a very picky person about food.

After meeting Sheehan, she felt that her appetite had been raised more and more picky.

Walking outside of Sheehan's residence, she input the password, opened the door and went straight to the kitchen.

At a glance, she saw a four-story food box on the countertop of the kitchen. Nikita twisted the food box and went to the dining room. After opening the box, she took out the steaming seafood gruel and several dishes.

The heat preservation function of the heat preservation box was so good that the gruel and vegetables were still steaming like just coming out of the pot.

Sheehan made her a very rich breakfast.

A plate of fresh and delicious vegetables, a plate of shrimp and mustard wonton, and a plate of fried eggs and chicken rolls.

After Nikita sat down, she took a sip of gruel. She was so contented that she narrowed her eyes.

After a mouthful of gruel, she felt her whole stomach warm.

She sipped a spoon of gruel. Listening to Malcom's slightly dissatisfied voice in her mobile phone, she said slowly: "Why are you in such a hurry? Who told you that I was soft-hearted and wanted to let her go?"

"Then why do you still let her..."

"Let her be so rampant without saying a word?"

"So you also know that she was so rampant?" Malcom gently snorted, "You are so quiet that I thought you didn't know about that."

Nikita slowly drank gruel, and her voice was also slow: "Of course, I know. I have seen all of it."

"So you're not going to deal with it?"

Last night's hot search made Malcom quite angry.

At that time, he wanted to do something.

While thinking of Nikita's temper, he had to hold back.

Nikita didn't like others meddle in her affairs, unless it was her permission in advance.

So this morning, Malcom got up. He seldom used Facebook, but he used it frequently in the recent days.

After he got up, before he washed his face or had meals, he picked up his mobile phone and logged on Facebook at the first time to see if Nikita had any response.

However, Nikita had no response at all.

It was also because she didn't respond that the public opinion, which had been very unfavorable to Yvonne yesterday, changed its direction early this morning, and there even appeared some public opinions that were not so friendly to Nikita.

Yvonne refused to admit that she had plagiarized, and in her response, she also pointed out that Nikita was suspected of plagiarizing her. Originally, netizens didn't believe her. After all, she couldn't get any evidence.

Chapter 1283-But because Nikita had not responded all the time, there gradually appeared a group of people deliberately pointed out that the reason why Nikita did not respond was that she was guilty.

In this way, Yvonne's words became a fact, and Nikita might have copied her music.

Most netizens always followed the crowd.

Whichever direction of public opinion was, they would just believe it.

Only a small group of people had the ability to think independently, and still insist on the idea that Yvonne was the plagiarist, saying that they would always support Nikita to protect her legal rights.

Seeing this morning's public opinion changed direction, and someone even believed that Nikita was the plagiarist, Malcom was so angry that he had no appetite for breakfast.

Didn't they just turn things upside down?

The originator's music was stolen and used, and now the thief also slandered the originator in turn, and some people actually believed the thief's words!

Nikita recognized the anger in Malcom's tone. She took another sip of gruel and quickly comforted him: "Malcom, it is unnecessary for you to be so angry. Your temper of easily being angry when you meet something, can never be changed. I just got up. You have to wait for me to pack up, finish my meal and fill my stomach before dealing with these bullshit things."

"Do you think I can be so generous that I will not further investigate after being stolen?"

Malcom was silent.

After listening to what she said, Malcom was finally relieved.

Indeed, Nikita, whom he knew, was not such a good-natured person and was not so tolerant.

He was also concerned about her.

He didn't want to see his favorite child suffer such great grievances.

"I believe that you can deal with it. As for such rampant and shameless villain, I absolutely can't tolerate her! If you don't deal with it, I will help you."

"If you don't think it's easy to deal with, I will..."

"Don't bother." Nikita knew what Malcom wanted to say, so before he finished the second half of the sentence, she interrupted him directly. "I have severed relations with the Swift family, and there is nothing wrong with dealing with her."

"I will deal with Yvonne by myself."

Malcom thought the reason why she didn't deal with Yvonne was related to the Swift family.

Then he was definitely thinking too much.

She had already cut off the relationship with the Swift family. What's more, she wouldn't let go of Yvonne, even if she still has relationship with the Swift family.

Someone who dared to steal from her.

She would break her legs!

After receiving Malcom's phone call, Nikita checked on her Facebook. After seeing Yvonne's response last night, she squinted and felt sniffy about it.

Dare to slander her that she had plagiarized?

Nikita sneered, and her finger clicked quickly on the screen of her mobile phone. Before long, she edited an information map with Yvonne's background IP address on Facebook and posted it.

Chapter 1284-There was nothing in her post, just a picture.

But this picture was the best evidence.

At the same time.

Yvonne stayed up all night and went to school with two big dark circles under her eyes.

After she was driven out of the Swift's house, she had to take a taxi to school without a special driver to send her.

Yvonne had always been a person with strong vanity.

She was afraid that if she took a taxi to school, she would be seen.

So when there was still tens of meters away from the school gate, she told the driver to stop the car.

Unfortunately, as soon as she got off the taxi, she met Rosalia, who came to the milk tea shop to buy milk tea, and another girl who also had a good relationship with her at ordinary times.

Two girls just came out of the store after buying milk tea. Then they saw Yvonne getting off a taxi.

After confirming that the person who got off the car was Yvonne, Rosalia was surprised and said, "Is that Yvonne? Why did she take a taxi to school today?"

Yvonne had always been sent by the driver of the Swift family.

All the year round, 365 days, no matter in rainy or windy days.

This was the first time that they had seen Yvonne take a taxi to school, and they were both very surprised.

"It's her." Another girl was also very surprised.

After Yvonne got off the taxi, she felt as if someone was looking at herself. When she looked around, she saw her two girlfriends standing not far away, and looked at her in surprise.

Yvonne's face suddenly stiff, and the expression on her face became a little terrible

"Yvonne, where is your driver? Why did you take a taxi to school?" Rosalia and another girl looked at her for a few seconds and then came over to say hello.

Yvonne was asked to smile a little stiffly: "Uncle Charles needs to deal with something at home, so he asked for leave."

"Oh, I see." They didn't doubt too much. Yvonne was driven out of the Swift family, which was only known by the Swift family, rather than any other people.

Therefore, after Yvonne said that the driver had asked for leave, they believed it.

“Yvonne, do you want to drink milk tea?” Rosalia pointed to the tea shop behind her. “I can buy you one.”

“No, thanks.” Yvonne shook her head. She looked in a bad mood.

Rosalia glanced at her, guessed the reason, and couldn’t help but ask, “Yvonne, what’ wrong with the plagiarism? I know you certainly didn’t plagiarize, but how did the Annoyed Mary Sue get your music score? Have you ever posted it on Facebook?”

“Is Annoyed Mary Sue really a student in our school? If she is actually from our school and knows where you put the music score, then she must be a person who knows you very well.”

Rosalia thought she was very clever and analyzed: “Moreover, she is still a person who is jealous of you, saying that she must have planned it by plagiarizing it, in order to destroy you.”

“People who are in the same school as you, know you very well, and want to destroy you...”

Rosalia suddenly opened her eyes wide: “It should be Nikita!”

“Nikita?” The girl beside her was surprised.

“Yeah.” Rosalia felt that she had found the truth. She said in a certain tone, “It must be Nikita. Besides her, who else would be so vicious and come up with such a vicious way to destroy Yvonne?”

“She had always been jealous of Yvonne and wanted to replace Yvonne. She must be jealous that Yvonne can become a disciple of Master Aroma, so she wanted to destroy Yvonne with plagiarism.”

“She is too vicious!”

Yesterday, Rosalia had lost face because of Nikita in public, especially in front of so many people. Now she hated Nikita.

Speaking of Nikita, they were all gnashing their teeth.

Chapter 1285-“I think Rosalia’s analysis is quite reasonable!” Another girl also said, “If the person who stole Yvonne’s music score is from our school, Nikita is the most suspected.”

When Yvonne heard Rosalia say so, her heart thumped and her face changed.

Indeed, the Annoyed Mary Sue rain was quite like Nikita.

Especially the style of speaking, much like Nikita.

Moreover, Nikita could also write her own words and songs. In this respect, her level was quite high.

The two songs she wrote for Hugh had become popular.

Even the nickname “Annoyed Mary Sue” has the same ‘Sue’ as her name.

Thought of here, Yvonne’s face changed again. She pinched her fists and her heart jumped fiercely.

If Annoyed Mary Sue was Nikita, then it was impossible for Nikita to let her go.

However, it couldn’t really be such a coincidence.

If the Annoyed Mary Sue was Nikita, then she could also sign up for the piano competition, and then perform with the original score to win the competition championship.

But Nikita did not sign up for the piano competition.

Nikita could write songs well, but this did not mean that she could also play the piano very well.

Otherwise, she couldn't have given up such a good opportunity.

Who would not want to be appreciated by Aroma and become a disciple of him?

She had always been dreaming about it. So she didn't believe that Nikita would not want to!

Therefore, Annoyed Mary Sue couldn't be Nikita.

Yvonne found all kinds of evidence to prove that Nikita and Annoyed Mary Sue were not the same person in her heart, and suddenly she felt at ease, not as panicked as just now.

"Even if it is her, if we can't offer evidence, she can't be treated." Yvonne sipped her lips and sighed gently, as if she was very upset. "In fact, I also doubted whether it would be her."

"However, I am afraid that if I say this, others will think that I am jealous of her and deliberately want to slander her."

Nikita was now extremely popular.

She had not only become a model and idol in the eyes of the whole school, but also a model envied by the whole country.

In the past, Yvonne was able to deal with Nikita by some means.

But now, everyone supported Nikita, and her means were useless.

Not only was it useless, but she was very likely to be counterattacked.

But there was something that she didn't have to do by herself. If someone could do it instead of her, it would be wonderful.

“Yvonne, if you are worried that others will say you are jealous of her, then I will say it! I am not afraid!” Rosalia volunteered, “Anyway, she and I are already at odds, and I am not afraid of what others say about me!”

Yvonne’s eyes flashed slightly. Looking at the stupid and useful people in front of her, she scolded Rosalia as a fool in her heart, but she showed a hesitant and embarrassed look: “It may not be good. At present, it is only a doubt, and no evidence has been found that she stole the music.”

“It must be her, who else can there be besides her!” Rosalia resented, “I just don’t like her villain’s successful appearance! She was not that so-called talented girl, nor national treasure, but just a shameless thief!”

“I must expose her true face!”

“Besides” Rosalia patted Yvonne on the shoulder. “Yvonne, only by pulling out Nikita, the thief, can you prove your innocence!”

“You were recommended to Peking University and accepted by Master Aroma. Your great future can’t be ruined by her! We have been good friends for so many years. I absolutely can’t allow my best friend to be framed like this!”

Chapter 1286-Yvonne’s eyes suddenly turned red, and his voice choked slightly: “Rosalia, thank you. Thank you for believing that I am innocent, and thank you for helping me!”

At school.

As soon as she walked to the door of the classroom, Yvonne felt a series of different eyes looking at her.

Leon, who was sitting in the front row, was also looking at her, not in the loving and gentle eyes as usual, but in disappointed eyes with some other emotions. Anyway, his eyes were quite complicated.

As for the other students, some looked at her with suspicion in their eyes, and some with disdain in their eyes, and others with pure eyes to be a looker-on.

Her plagiarism had caused a lot of trouble.

It was no exaggeration to say that it was known all over the country.

As a classmate who had been getting along with her in the same class for almost four years, after hearing about her plagiarism, they had the mentality of watching the fun even more than others.

In particular, Yvonne was the celebrity of the First Senior High School.

Some time ago, she had also snatched the position of the campus belle from Nikita, and was still an inspirational figure and goddess in the eyes of others.

All of a sudden, the plagiarism incident broke out, and negative hot searches related to her appeared one by one, which could be said to destroy her image overnight.

It was thought that Yvonne would be ashamed to come to school after things happened yesterday.

Unexpectedly, she had such a good mentality that she still came to school as usual.

However, it could be seen that the plagiarism incident had a great impact on her. It could be clearly seen that she didn't sleep well last night, the dark circles under her eyes were particularly obvious.

Yvonne felt that all the students in the classroom were looking at her, and stood at the door with a stiff face. After a few seconds, she took a deep breath and summoned up the courage to walk into the classroom.

When passing by Leon, Yvonne paused. She bit her lip, looking at Leon, and said softly: "I really didn't plagiarize. I was framed."

After that, she walked past Leon.

Leon stunned, turned to look at her, thought about her just now. The light in his eyes slightly flashed, and Yvonne didn't know whether he believed it or not.

Yvonne walked to her seat and took out a book from the drawer with no expression on her face.

Her deskmate hesitated and asked in a low voice: "Rosalia said that Annoyed Mary Sue is Nikita, who stole the music score you wrote and then framed you to copy her. Is this true?"

Yvonne's action of turning over the book paused. She turned her head: "Does she tell you on Whatsapp?"

Her deskmate shook her head: "No, I saw it in the group."

"In the group?"

"Yes, the campus group."

Just a minute ago, Rosalia sent a long message in the campus group, which caused a sensation in the group.

After seeing those words in the campus group, she was curious, and then saw the words sent by Rosalia.

After reading it, she was also surprised.

Yvonne responded yesterday that her complete music score was put in the school, and then someone peeked at it.

Although it is not clear who that person is, the meaning in the speech is the netizen named Annoyed Mary Sue.

Rosalia said that Annoyed Mary Sue is Nikita.

The person who peeked at Yvonne's music score was Nikita.

Nikita is now a well-known man of the hour in the whole country. Even the Education Bureau publicly praised her on the official account, praised her as the pillar and talent of the country in the future, and gave her 500,000 talent cultivation bonus.

They heard that this bonus has been transferring to the official account of the school early this morning.

It was the fastest time that the bonus paid by those leaders.

Chapter 1287-It was heard that Nikita's earning full marks in the joint entrance examination had not only won glory for the school, but also for the Ministry of Education of N City. Therefore, the Ministry of Education was also preparing to give awards to the school.

The award was of great value, which could bring a lot of benefits to the school. Other schools had competed for this award every year, which was extremely a fierce competition. So it could be seen how important this award was, as for the whole education area.

At such an important time, if Nikita was involved in plagiarism, it would have a great impact on the school's awards.

Therefore, after Rosalia sending her words to the campus chatting group, students from other schools immediately took and saved the screenshots, and then secretly posted on the campus forum of their own schools.

There were also students who secretly sent the screenshots to the account of an Internet celebrity.

Although Nikita had won the first place in the joint entrance examination with full marks in all the subjects, which made others admire her, there were also some people who were very dissatisfied with her.

For example, Mamie from Foreign Language School.

As for the previous English joint entrance examinations, Nikita had once broken the record of consecutive winning the championship set by Mamie. Since then, she had been greatly dissatisfied with Nikita in her heart.

Later, she heard that Lanny affected on Nikita, which made her completely hate Nikita.

Unfortunately, she and Nikita were not in the same school, and Nikita was also difficult to deal with. Based on these, she didn't want to get into troubles, so she could only hide her emotions.

But now, since she had found the negative news of Nikita, how could she let go of such a good opportunity!

Mamie was very smart. She knew that if she used her own account to post on Facebook, it would not have any influence at all. It was very likely that she would put all her efforts in vain.

Therefore, she saved all the screenshots and sent them to an Internet celebrity who had millions of fans and great influence on Facebook.

That Internet celebrity usually screened out and posted some submissions that he felt can attract great attention. Recently, Nikita was extreme popular.

So seeing Mamie's submission, undoubtedly, the celebrity could not give up such attractive news. After compiling it slightly, he posted it.

The title was also extreme attractive: Unbelievable! The academic prodigy who has won full marks in all the subjects is suspected of plagiarism!

When it came to plagiarism, everyone knew that it referred to Yvonne's alleged plagiarism a netizen's original music, which was now highly concerned in the public. This Internet celebrity suddenly posted such blog, which immediately attracted a large amount of netizens who paid attention to plagiarism.

It was related to both the plagiarism and Nikita, the hottest champion in the national joint entrance examination in the recent days. Soon, this blog became popular, and it had been forwarded and commented more than 10,000 times, which also directly reached the first place in hot search list.

Even the Yvonne's negative hot searches last night were suppressed.

"How can it be! The academic prodigy plagiarized other people's music? I can't believe that!"

"Are you kidding me? Nikita is so awesome that she doesn't have to copy other people's works. Her talent in music is amazing. At the age of fourteen, she can write a super-high-level 'Memory in August', which was immediately popular all over the country, and she can directly help Hugh to be the hottest star in the music area! I don't believe it either. How can such a powerful person copy other people's things!"

"If you say someone plagiarized, you should offer evidence! Can you take it seriously? Bloggers posted it so casually that they even haven't verified whether it is true or false. If your post has caused any serious reputation loss, aren't you afraid of being brought to trial!?"

Chapter 1288-"I'm afraid there was someone who was jealous of Nikita deliberately discrediting her! Such a genius with full marks in every subject, can choose from all the famous schools around the words. There is definitely no need for her to copy others. Besides, she needs to have an intention to copy other people's songs, but she has not taken this song to participate in any competition or do anything else."

"It must be that Bitch Yvonne wants to be innocent, so she has taken such a despicable means! I don't know if she is reading the comments. If so, I want to tell you that your despicable means are useless, and no one will believe you! If you continue to do so, you are doomed to destruction. Yvonne, you just need to wait to your own punishment!"

In the comments section, there were a lot of scoldings.

However, they were still all scolding Yvonne.

Even if one or two people came out to support Yvonne, they were immediately scolded by netizens and did not dare to make comments anymore.

Netizens were quite rational that their positions were not changed because of this groundless rumor. On the contrary, some netizens had begun to suspect that all this had been secretly planned by Yvonne.

Because Yvonne couldn't prove that she didn't plagiarize, she might use the trick of slandering others.

Nikita's alleged involvement in plagiarism caused such a controversy on Facebook that the Ministry of Education directly called Talbot to ask him what was going on.

Recently, the Ministry of Education and First Senior High School had been publicizing Nikita, especially the Ministry of Education of N City, which had paid special attention to Nikita, and was also preparing to join the Propaganda Department to create a more perfecting image for her.

When Nikita was involved in negative news, the Ministry of Education of N City was annoyed immediately.

When Talbot received the call, he didn't know what was on Facebook.

After answering the phone, he checked his Facebook, and then he was so angry that he called Rosalia to the office.

"President Dylan, what's the matter?"

After Rosalia arrived at the office, she had already known what was going on, but she still asked innocently.

Talbot looked at her with a calm face and stern eyes: "What happened to the hot search on Facebook? Did you send the words that Nikita had copied Yvonne's song to the campus chatting group?"

Rosalia seemed to have been prepared and said without panic: "Yes."

Talbot slapped his palm on the table: "I have heard of the contradictions between you and Nikita. Even if you are at odds, you can't frame her in this way!"

Rosalia looked unconvinced: "I didn't frame her. It is her that copied Yvonne! I'm just fighting injustice for Yvonne! The plagiarist is her, so why should Yvonne be scolded by others!"

"You said she is plagiarist. Then do you have any evidence?"

"I don't!"

"There is no evidence, and you said Nikita is plagiarist? Do you know how much impact your words will have on her, on school, and even on the entire Ministry of Education of N City?" Talbot was so angry that if Rosalia were his own daughter, he would have slapped her up!

Rosalia seemed to be not afraid of anything. She raised her head and still denied: "I can't get any evidence, but I'm sure she copied Yvonne!"

"President Dylon, I heard that you want to cancel Yvonne's walk quota and want Yvonne to drop out of school! You treat Yvonne like this in order to make Nikita happy. You have gone too far! Didn't Yvonne once win a lot of honors for the school, just because he is not as good as Nikita now, do you just kick down the ladder!"

Chapter 1289-Looking at her being so unjust, Talbot looked said seriously: "If Yvonne really plagiarized, whether it was canceling the quota or dropping out of school, it was the punishment she deserved, which had nothing to do with Nikita!"

"If she can't prove her innocence, the school won't protect her! There is real evidence saying that she plagiarized, but you said that Nikita plagiarized without any evidence, so you framed Nikita."

"Since you want to stand up for Yvonne, are you willing to be punished together with her?"

"Be punished?" Rosalia looked at Talbot's dark face, stunned and blinked. "How will I be punished?"

“Of course, to be dropped out of school together.” Talbot said indifferently.

Rosalia’s face suddenly changed.

Being dropped out of school together?

She didn’t think there would be such serious punishment.

She was just fighting for Yvonne. Why would she also be dropped out of school?

Rosalia was frightened that she might be dropped out of school. One second ago, she was very brave, and she was still standing up for Yvonne, but now she immediately began to distance herself from Yvonne. “

“President Dylon, it was Yvonne who told me that Nikita had copied her music! And I think that she may not lie to me!”

Rosalia’s loyalty to Yvonne was only based on the condition that it would not have any negative influence on her.

She simply couldn’t be dropped out of school.

The college entrance examination was coming soon. If she was dropped out of school before that, she would rather go to die.

Although she said that she believed Yvonne and thought that Yvonne did not plagiarize, she was not sure in fact.

If Yvonne really plagiarized...

She didn’t want to get involved!

“Yvonne told you that Nikita copied her music score?”

“Yes, it was she who told me that. President Dylan, I will take back my previous words now. I don’t want to be dropped out of school!”

Hearing that Yvonne had said Nikita plagiarized her, Talbot turned into a terrible look.

After seeing Nikita on the hot search, Yvonne spent great money and hired some paid posters to make comments.

Several students in the class also saw the hot search, including Leon. Leon always had a good relationship with her, so he came directly to ask her if the hot search was true or not.

Yvonne didn’t say a word, not denying nor admitting it.

Leon felt that she acquiesced.

“Nikita really plagiarized your music?” Leon was surprised and puzzled. “But, how could she steal your music score? You said that the score had been placed in the school. Except for the last time Nikita came to our class, I haven’t seen her come at other times.”

Yvonne still didn’t speak, just looked at Tammy inadvertently.

Leon followed her eyes and frowned: “Did Tammy steal it for her?”

Yvonne pursed her lips. “I don’t know. I also feel very strange about this matter.”

“You don’t know? Then how can you say she stole your music?” Leon asked.

After the plagiarism news came out, Yvonne's image in his heart was greatly destroyed.

On the contrary, after knowing that Nikita and Autumn were the same person, Leon's affection for Nikita had greatly increased, so he would not easily believe Yvonne's words now.

He didn't believe that a genius who could get full marks in all the subjects would copy other people's works.

Moreover, Nikita was also very good at writing songs.

She didn't have to copy anyone at all.

Yvonne, however, had been suspected of plagiarizing for such a long time, but still couldn't prove her innocence so far. All she did was just verbally denying it.

Chapter 1290-Leon was not stupid. It was true that he had once liked Yvonne, but who he liked was that excellent, simple and kind girl.

But now, he found that he might do not understand Yvonne at all.

Was Yvonne really as simple and kind as he had imagined?

Yvonne panicked at Leon's questioning eyes. Her eyes flashed and then turned to another side. She replied, "I haven't said such thing. It was Rosalia who suspected her."

"Rosalia?"

"Yes, Rosalia suspected that the person who stole the music was Nikita. I also told her that don't talk nonsense without evidence, but I didn't expect her to send her guess to the school chatting group."

"As for the hot search on Facebook, this is also out of my expectation."

Anyway, Rosalia was stupid and volunteered to stand up for her. She would push everything to Rosalia now.

Besides, she didn't say anything wrong.

It was Rosalia who originally suspected Nikita of plagiarizing. She didn't say these words by herself.

Tammy was also in the school chatting group.

As soon as Tammy saw Rosalia's words that Nikita had plagiarized Yvonne's music in the group, she severely scolded Rosalia at once.

Rosalia was so stubborn.

After being scolded, she still didn't change her words, insisting that Nikita's plagiarism was a fact.

Tammy was so angry that she dropped his mobile phone and wanted to beat people directly.

"Niky, she dares to be so arrogant just because of your absence! If you were here, she wouldn't dare to say even a word! I am so angry to watch them framing you like this!!"

During the noon break.

After class, Tammy found a place where there were few people and called Nikita.

After Nikita received the call, her voice was so calm, as if she was not angry at all: "Don't be angry for people who are not worth it. If you are still angry, you can just find a place to have a good meal at noon."

"You can choose any place you want to eat, and I will pay the bill."

Hearing her calm tone, Tammy was extremely anxious and angry: "Niky, aren't you angry! They obviously want to slander you!"

Nikita's voice was still so unhurried and calm: "How can they be successful in slandering? If slander me, I will definitely fight them back. They don't have that ability."

Hearing her confident words, Tammy suddenly felt relieved.

"Niky, have you thought about how to fight back?"

"Not to fight back." At the other end of the mobile phone, Nikita said confidently, "Just to shut them back. The more fiercely they slander, the more interesting it will be..."

Having finished the phone call, she was just about to go to the canteen for meal. When her mobile phone rang, a piece of news popped up on the screen.

She looked at her eyes at random, but the next second, she widened her eyes and quickly clicked on the news.

After a minute.

Having finished reading the news, Tammy was so relieved that she even wanted to laugh aloud.

After being angry for the whole morning, she suddenly recovered, no longer feeling any uncomfortable but feel so good.
