

The Girl CB 1301

Chapter 1301-“No, I don’t. I don’t know Miss Swift.” The driver just looked back, smiled shyly, and then said, “Mr. Blake, I have never seen such a beautiful girl as Miss Swift. She’s like a fairy, so I was rude just now, and I lost my mind.”

“Oh?” Xavier also smiled and turned to Nikita and said, “Niky, Uncle Lee has never boasted of anyone like this.”

Nikita raised her eyebrows.

Xavier looked at her exquisite facial features, and his lips were still raised, but the smile on his lips was much lighter.

Nikita was so beautiful.

When they first met, her beauty was amazing enough.

A few years have passed, she became more and more beautiful.

He should have had a sense of crisis a long time ago.

If he had been on guard earlier, he wouldn’t have let Sheehan have a chance to take advantage of the loopholes.

He was too conceited. He thought there would no man around Nikita except him, thought it was impossible for anyone to take her away from him.

Because of his conceit, there is a new guardian around the girl who is more important than his life.

He is no longer the only special person guarding her.

Regret?

Xavier asked himself this question more than once in his heart.

The answer is that he has never regretted it like this.

But once something happened, no matter how regretful he was, he couldn't change anything. The only thing he can do is wait, and his only chance is to wait.

Nikita is still young and playful, and any new things are attractive to her.

Sheehan is one of many new things for her.

Just as she was interested in him before, which was limited.

The feeling of freshness of Nikita will not last long.

Sheehan has been staying by her side for a long time. According to Nikita's temper, it's almost time for them to break up.

Nikita slept on the plane for a long time. When they arrived in F country, she was not tired. She directly took Xavier to eat without going to the hotel.

Xavier arranged everything properly and took Nikita to eat. It is a local high-end restaurant with special characteristics and good reputation.

The restaurant is located by the sea, and the environment is very beautiful. Xavier booked a position with excellent view, where they can eat and watch the sea view outside the window.

The dishes are also very distinctive. Nikita, who was so picky, was quite satisfied.

Xavier also ordered a bottle of red wine early.

“I booked it half a year in advance. Taste it!” Xavier poured a glass of wine and handed it to Nikita.

Nikita took it and didn't drink it immediately. She held up her glass and shook it gently: “You know I get drunk easily, right?”

“Hmm.” Xavier smiled, raised his glass, and toasted. “I'll drink it up, you can suit yourself.”

Nikita bowed her head and took a sip, then she didn't drink anymore.

She is a poor drinker, and will get drunk after drinking a little.

It's okay to get drunk, but she is afraid that when she gets drunk, she will do something she can't control.

There is a vague memory in her mind, a memory after she was drunk. She doesn't know what happened after she was drunk that day.

But Sheehan appeared in her memory.

Thinking of Sheehan, Nikita seemed to suddenly think of something. She took out her mobile phone and checked on it

Ten hours ago, she sent a message to Sheehan.

Chapter 1302-In the past, when she sent a message or called Sheehan, he would reply or answer immediately.

Even if he was busy, he would reply to her in half an hour.

But this time...

Ten hours have passed, but he didn't reply.

Nikita frown slightly, feeling strange.

Was it because she was on the plane and the signal was not good enough, so Sheehan didn't receive her message?

Or did he receive it and get angry, so he didn't reply?

Nikita careful analysis, think the latter is more likely.

Even if Sheehan didn't receive her message at that time, under normal circumstances, it was impossible for him not to contact her for ten hours.

Thought of here, Nikita felt if Sheehan was really angry, as his girlfriend, she should coax him.

But she is not good at coaxing people at all.

Therefore, she decided to learn from Xavier and raised her head and asked, "When your girlfriend is angry, how do you usually coax her?"

Xavier was putting food into her bowl. When he heard the words, his hand stopped and his eyebrows gently raised: "Niky, don't you know I am always single? How could I have a girlfriend?"

"You don't have a girlfriend?" Nikita thought of all kinds of box news related to him, doubting. "But those medias said that you often change your female companions. Or is it that those female companions are only your sex companions, not your girlfriends?"

Xavier almost gushed out a mouthful of blood.

Now he really wants to find out those damn media reporters and beat them up.

It's all their fault!

Originally, Xavier never took the box news without any factual basis seriously.

People who are a little famous in the entertainment industry usually have some box news.

For the sake of popularity, some media reporters can make up a story when they find a man and a woman stay together.

He has been in the entertainment industry for many years, and there are so much box news about him.

He doesn't care, because those news are false, he felt with Nikita IQ, she also won't believe those fake things.

But now...

Xavier knew how wrong he was!

Xavier's face was gloomy, and he looked at Niky with anger: "Niky, you don't think what the media said is true, do you?"

Nikita supported her chin with one hand, and her face was very serious: "Are they all fake?"

Xavier gritted his teeth and said word by word: "Of course they are all fake! You are the only woman who has a good relationship with me!"

“The so-called female companions you see are artists in the company or partners in business! At that time, there were other people, and those damn reporters deliberately cut off other people’s pictures, leaving only photos of me and other women!”

“Between me and those women, it is absolutely clear! I swear, they didn’t even get a chance to touch my hair! Anyway, I am innocent! I am not afraid of shame. I tell you the truth, I am still a virgin until now, and I have never touched any woman!”

Nikita: “...”

In fact, she felt that Xavier didn’t have to be so excited.

It’s unnecessary for him to tell her that he is still a virgin, which is so private.

She doesn’t really want to know.

Chapter 1303-“Niky, you don’t believe me? Do you want me to verify myself before you will believe that what I said is true?”

“...”

“Well, I believe you.” Nikita stretched out her hand and rubbed her temples, as if suffering a headache. “OK, you are innocent, you are still a virgin.”

“Do you really believe it?” Xavier seemed to care very much about this matter, staring into her eyes and asking again.

Nikita was a little helpless and nodded: “Well, it’s true.”

She doesn’t understand why Xavier cares whether she believes it or not.

Whether he has other women, whether he is a virgin, has nothing to do with her.

If he wants to have a girlfriend, just do it.

She won't stop him.

Xavier stared at her for a while, and he seemed to calm down, and he was not so excited. He put a piece of shrimp into Nikita's bowl, and then asked casually, "Niky, Why did you just ask me how to coax my girlfriend? Is that man is angry with you, so you are going to coax him?"

"Hmm." Nikita looked down at her mobile phone again. "I sent him a message before leaving, and he hasn't answered me yet. Is he angry? If he got angry, how can I coax him?"

Xavier suddenly felt unhappy.

He put down his chopsticks, narrowed his deep eyes, and his eyes were somewhat unhappy: "You can go wherever you want. What qualifications does he have to be angry with you?"

You are just his girlfriend, not selling yourself to him, does he still manage you? If he got angry for such a small thing, I don't think such a man deserves to be your boyfriend!"

When he was angry, Nikita never coaxed him.

Why can Sheehan get such treatment!

Nikita looked at Xavier, who was indignant. She was silent for a while and said, "I am quite satisfied with him."

Xavier: "Are you not tired yet?"

Nikita shook her head: "No."

“Do you really fall in love with him?” The man said in a very casual tone, but he was staring at her eyes.

Nikita thought seriously: “I don’t know. However, I think it seems quite good to live with him all the time.”

Xavier suddenly sank down.

When he was about to say something, his cell phone rang.

He picked up his mobile phone and answered with a gloomy face.

After a while, after hanging up the phone, he looked up at : “The crew knew that I came here today and prepared a reception ceremony for me. Do you want to go with me? If you don’t want to go, I will reject it.”

In half an hour.

A very famous local entertainment place.

After Xavier and Nikita got out of the car, a man came towards them at the door.

“Mr. Blake.”

The man waiting outside is a person in charge of the crew. After greeting Xavier, he didn’t look at Nikita and ignored her directly.

“Mr. Blake, everyone is waiting for you. This reception ceremony was organized by Henrietta. Knowing that you are here, Henrietta is very happy.”

Henrietta is a female artist of Xavier’s company.

Now she is particularly hot.

It's no secret that Henrietta takes a fancy on Xavier. The whole crew knows it.

Henrietta is different from ordinary female artists. Apart from her own good conditions, her family background is also very good, so she can be regarded as a real noble lady.

Therefore, after knowing Henrietta's thoughts, there are quite a few people who want to make a match.

Chapter 1304-Everyone thought that they were such a perfect couple.

It was also because of this that the person in charge specially emphasized that it was Henrietta who handled this reception ceremony.

Hearing this, Xavier had no other expression on his face, but only nodded his head faintly: "I see."

"Mr. Blake, please." The person in charge stood sideways, bent down and made an invitation posture, letting Xavier go first.

Xavier did not move, but turned his head and looked at the girl beside who was playing with her mobile phone: "Who he just mentioned was an actress of the crew and also an entertainer of the company. I have met her several times, but we are not quite familiar with each other."

Nikita didn't care about that, and just replied with an "Ok".

While that person in charge, who had thought that Nikita's dress was so ordinary that she might just be a staff coming with Xavier by the way, and didn't take her seriously, turned into a look of extreme surprise.

It was obvious that Xavier was explaining his relationship with Henrietta to the girl beside him.

It seemed that he was afraid that the girl misunderstood them.

If she was just an ordinary staff, he didn't need to explain this to her.

The person in charge was so surprised and curious that he looked on Nikita again.

The girl kept her head down, so he couldn't see what she looked like.

But the outline could be seen vaguely that she should be a beautiful woman.

But even if she was a beautiful woman, it was also nothing unusual.

People like Xavier were never lack of beautiful women around. Every one of the female entertainers in their companies was good-looking.

But he had never seen anyone who could Xavier him take it so seriously.

"Mr. Blake, who was this young lady?" The person in charge did not dare to underestimate Nikita, so he asked in a good tone.

Xavier introduced with understatement: "This is my friend, Nikita, who came here to make a guest appearance."

It was such an important person that could be able to make him call his friend.

The attitude of the person in charge immediately changed, with a smile on his face, offering his hand and calling politely: "Miss Swift, it's my pleasure to meet you. I am the producer of the drama "Helen of Troy", and I am very pleased to meet Miss Swift."

Nikita looked at the man's hand in front of her, ignoring it, and just faintly replied: "Nice to meet you."

The person in charge's hand awkwardly stopped in the air, and he was kind of unhappy. But when he saw the girl's face which was exquisite perfect without any inappropriateness, he was directly stunned.

What a beautiful girl!

This face could even directly beat Henrietta down.

"Mr. Blake." After a few seconds, the producer barely recovered, but there was still amazing look left in his eyes. He couldn't help but ask Xavier, "I don't know which role Miss Swift will perform as?"

Xavier took a look at Nikita, feeling inexplicable.

Nikita's face was extreme attractive.

Wherever she went, she would be the focus of the public's attention.

If she were born in ancient times, she would be a dangerous beauty.

"She will play the role of Fair Luna."

"Fair Luna?" The producer looked at the eyes of the girls which was so pretty like just coming out of the picture, and nodded, praising that "Miss Swift's appearance and temperament are indeed the same as Fair Luna."

"Mr. Blake, you have such a good taste. I don't think there can be a more suitable person than Miss Swift."

Fair Luna was a stunning beauty known as "the most beautiful woman in the world" in the play. Before, they had also selected some actors to play this role, but the director was always dissatisfied with them because of certain reasons, either saying that they were not beautiful enough or the temperament was not enough.

Chapter 1305-It was really amazing!

Wasn't this exactly Fair Luna?

He could guarantee that no matter how picky the director was, he would be absolutely satisfied when seeing such a beauty.

If he had to say a shortcoming of her, it would probably be that she too beautiful that she might catch more attention than the hostess as long as she appeared in the play.

He felt that the director must be very satisfied.

However, as for Henrietta, he guessed that she might hold opposite opinions.

In the VIP box.

Someone was teasing Henrietta.

"Henrietta, you have such good cards that you shouldn't lose to us. I guess you may sympathize with us for losing too many times, and deliberately let us win."

"That's the reason why you are still single. I have understood everything. Why haven't you understood it yet?"

"Understood what?"

"Henrietta's mind was not still in playing cards anymore. At this moment, Xavier should have arrived."

Mentioned Xavier, all people in the room tacitly looked at each other, and then all smiled silently.

As soon as Xavier came, Henrietta would undoubtedly be absent-minded.

“What are you talking about?” Henrietta pretended to be angry and stared at them. “You should remember that when Xavier came, you shouldn’t talk so indiscriminately like this.”

As soon as Henrietta finished her words, the door of the box was opened.

She immediately looked up, with her eyes full of joy.

Seeing Xavier come in, Henrietta tidied up her skirt, got up and walked towards him.

“Mr. Blake.” She smiled.

However, her smile suddenly froze when seeing Nikita coming in behind Xavier.

“Mr. Blake, this young lady is...” After all, Henrietta was not naive. After a few seconds of gaffes, she soon returned to normal, and then she pretended to inadvertently look at Nikita carefully.

The box’s light was dim.

And the girl lowered her head.

Henrietta didn’t see what she looked like. She only saw that the girl was dressed in ordinary clothes. Then she suddenly let go of most of her worries and didn’t care as nervous as just now.

Like the person in charge, she thought Nikita was the accompanying staff with Xavier.

Xavier didn’t speak, but after Nikita came to him, he looked at the people in the box and introduced her to everyone: “This is a friend of mine whom I have known for many years, Nikita.”

“Nice to meet you. I am Nikita.” Nikita slightly raised her head, naturally and gracefully.

The light in the box was dim.

While as soon as the girl raised her head, everyone in the box was attracted by her beauty at the moment.

No matter men or women, they all felt amazed.

Henrietta’s face changed instantly, and her smile froze again, with her facial expression becoming stiff.

“Hello, Miss Swift, I am Henrietta.” Henrietta took a deep breath and smiled stiffly. “I am an entertainer of Mr. Blake’s company, and I have also known him for a long time. But I haven’t ever seen you before. So I wonder where do you work.”

“She was not from the entertainment area. It is normal that you have never seen her.” Nikita didn’t make any noise, but Xavier answered for her.

“Oh, it makes sense.” Henrietta kept looking at Nikita’s face, and asked casually, “Just now Mr. Blake said he and Miss Swift had known each other for many years, but Miss Swift is young. I’m just wondering how old are you.”

Chapter 1306-Nikita looked at the people in the room, who were all looking at her, she replied calmly and generously: “18.”

“18?” Henrietta was stunned, and then she laughed. Her smile was no longer as stiff as before, and she looked relaxed a lot.

She smiled charmingly, “I guessed Miss Swift was quite young, but it was really unexpected that you are only eighteen.”

Nikita didn’t say anything with a faint expression.

Henrietta then asked another question "So, Miss Swift is still studying now?"

"Ah, sort of." After thinking for a while, Nikita nodded.

"Then I wonder again that which university is Miss Swift studying at now. Maybe, we are even alumni." When Henrietta said this sentence, her eyes were full of pride.

Henrietta was well-known for her educational background in the entertainment area.

Not only did she have a good family background, but herself was also very powerful, who had studied at Peking University, the best university in the country.

When she said this, everyone's eyes became meaningful.

It was Peking University that Henrietta had once studied in.

There were only few people who could get into Peking University.

She just said that she might be an alumna with Nikita. Wasn't this a joke?

It was indeed difficult for anyone to get into Peking University.

"Oh?" Nikita saw her deliberately ostentatious eyes, and smiled, asking, "Are you..."

"I studied in the Department of Finance and Economics of Peking University, because my family hoped that I could take over the family business after graduation, but I had no interest in doing business at all. Therefore, after graduation, I refused to take over the domestic company and chose to do the work I like.

My hobby and dream has always been to be an excellent actor, since I was a child. Well, my family didn't support me. They all thought that being an actor or a singer meant not living by honest labor. I almost fell out with my family for my entry into the entertainment area. Fortunately, they finally knew that I was determined to be an actor, and they realized that they couldn't convince me, so they compromised now. "

Henrietta, with a distressed expression on her face, sighed while talking. After that, she looked at Nikita again, seeing that the girl was still calm, and couldn't help sneering at her heart.

She must pretend to be like that.

Maybe she was already extremely jealous at her heart.

While these young girls nowadays did have some scheming and means, so she couldn't underestimate them.

"Miss Swift should not have such troubles. Sometimes, I really envy..."

"Ah, so you are from Peking University, so we are not alumni." Nikita was not interested in watching her performance, and interrupted her directly.

Henrietta was not annoyed, but smiled and asked: "Which famous school is Miss Swift studying?"

Nikita understated: "Not famous at all. HF University, just an ordinary place to study."

The girl said that casually. But hearing that, the people in the box all changed their faces.

"HF University?" A man sitting behind Henrietta was directly surprised. "Is it the HF University ranking first in the world?"

"Or what? Oh, I forgot to introduce her other identity to you. She can also be called Autumn, the top student in the college entrance examination who took the full score of all the subjects." Xavier was looking at the girl beside him proudly. Since his Niky was not going to keep a low profile anymore, he didn't need to keep that.

Chapter 1307- How could they be compared with her?

Hearing Xavier's words, the box was silent instantly.

Behind him, they were all stunned.

The top student in the college entrance examination who got full marks in all the subjects was known to everyone.

This matter was so sensational at that time that all the media had reported it.

In particular, more than a dozen well-known domestic universities had competed for her. Even Peking University, which had never disdained to compete with other schools for student resources, also joined the competition.

Moreover, she was also the first person in history to get full score of all the subjects in the college entrance examination.

How could anyone never hear of such a genius?

"That, that talented girl who got full marks in all the subjects is her?!" The man sitting behind Henrietta was stunned.

"OMG! I finally had the honor to see the true face of such an academic prodigy!" Another boy, who looked quite young and was might in his early twenties, stood up, with some excited expression, walking to Nikita.

"It turns out that my genius school sister in the First Senior High School in J City is you. Nice to meet you. I am also from First Senior High, who is two years senior than you. I don't know if I can have the honor to call you 'school sister'."

The boy was an actor in the crew, who was very popular at present. He played the role of male No.2 in the play.

He also graduated from First Senior High School in J City. The top scorer of the college entrance examination that year was from that school, who directly promoted the status of First Senior High School in J city in the education area.

At that time, when he told people that his alma mater was First Senior High School in J city, he felt extreme proud.

The boy was good-looking and polite, giving others a good first impression.

Nikita smiled at the boys: "Of course."

She always gave some special rights to good-looking people.

She wouldn't refuse their requests, as long as they were not too excessive.

The boy was a few years older than her, but he looked at her with worship and appreciation, and constantly praised: "Nikita, you are too powerful. Do you know that you were a legend in our school?"

Even those of us who have graduated for a long time have heard of your name. I have heard from them that you never listen to classes, but just sleep, while you can still get full marks in every exam. And later even the principal also granted you the right to sleep in class, saying that if people who were unconvinced could also get full marks in every exam like you, let alone sleep in class, it was no problem not to come to school!

Really a legend! After listening to it, we all feel that this junior is handsome!"

Nikita smiled: "Is it?"

The boy nodded: "Yes, there is a saying that although you are not at school anymore, your legend will always be here. After you graduated, everyone has been discussing you."

"Sleeping in class?" Xavier listened to people talking about Nikita's past and smiled. "Well, this is the consistent style of Niky."

Everyone else in the box was so shocked that they couldn't speak.

Even if she had slept in class every day, she still could get full marks in all the subjects, and was still the top student in college entrance examination.

Moreover, when she took the college entrance examination, she was only fourteen years old!

What about them?!

How could they be compared with her!?

They were not even qualified to make up the number!

The smile on Henrietta's face was extreme stiff. Looking at the girl who instantly became the focus of attention, she felt that her previous superiority had disappeared and replaced by indescribable embarrassment.

Chapter 1308-Her greatest superiority came from her diploma from Peking University.

But compared with HF University, Peking University was not that good.

One was the top university in the world.

One was a university ranking more than a dozen in the world.

She was accepted to Peking University with a score as high as 718 in the college entrance examination.

She could show off this score at any time.

But compared with the full score of all the subjects, the score of 718 was not so outstanding.

Henrietta originally wanted to show her superiority in front of Nikita, and took the opportunity to beat her, but she had witnessed Nikita's showing off instead.

It didn't feel good to be beaten in public.

Henrietta was used to flattery, now looking at a room of people all paying attention to Nikita rather than her, she immediately felt not that good.

In addition, she felt that Xavier seemed to be very unusual for Nikita, and her heart was even more uncomfortable, and she was more hostile to Nikita.

Knowing that Nikita would play the role of Fair Luna, the director showed strong interest and took the initiative to talk to Nikita.

"Has Miss Swift seen the script? I don't know how you understand the role of Fair Luna."

Nikita had already read the script.

It was because she was interested in the role of Fair Luna that she agreed to this guest appearance.

Fair Luna didn't appear many times in the whole drama, but she was an important role that ran through the whole drama all the time. Her setting was also very attractive. On the surface, she came from a noble family, but in fact she was a killer who was trained and raised by killer organizations since childhood.

Later, she entered the palace to be a woman in the emperor's harem, and the young emperor fell in love with her at first sight, conferred her as a concubine to let her in the harem, doting on her in every possible way.

However, the purpose of Fair Luna's entry into the palace was to find an opportunity to assassinate the emperor. No matter how good the emperor was to her, she had never been moved. Because she was brainwashed by a wizard when she was a child, she lacked human emotions. Therefore, she was a cold-blooded person who didn't know what love was.

Fair Luna was exposed when she assassinated the emperor.

Because the emperor had moved his true feelings towards her, even if he knew the true identity of her as a killer, he still risked his life to keep her around and try to influence her with love.

Later, the identity of Fair Luna as a killer was known by a concubine who had always been at odds with her. The concubine told the queen about this matter, and the queen picked a time when the emperor was away, poisoned Fair Luna's food and killed her.

When Fair Luna was poisoned, she was just pregnant.

The emperor was furious and also poisoned his concubine. The queen was demoted to normal people, and then chased Fair Luna as the imperial concubine.

Since then, Fair Luna had become the forever lover that couldn't be erased in the emperor's heart all his life.

This story of Fair Luna accounted for less than one tenth of the whole drama.

But in many subsequent plots, her role would be mentioned by others.

Therefore, even if there were not many plots, the director had attached great importance to casting. He auditioned for hundreds of actresses in total, but failed to choose one that satisfied him.

For Nikita, the director's first impression was quite satisfactory.

The shape matched.

Temperament also matched.

Next, it was to see how well she understood the role.

Nikita thought carefully and replied: "I think according to the character setting of Fair Luna, some plots can actually be changed."

"Oh?" The director looked very interested. "What do you think needs to be changed?"

Chapter 1309-The director was stunned. After a few seconds, he suddenly struck the table: "It makes sense. It totally makes sense. Yes, for men, what they can't get is the most precious. If they love the woman but can't own her, so that they can think about the woman for a whole lifetime!"

"If it were changed to let the emperor never own Fair Luna, it would be much better!"

"Miss Swift, your suggestion is very good indeed. I will let people contact the screenwriter now, and let her change quickly before some plots have started shooting!"

"Director, this is just a little personal advice from me." Nikita said objectively, "I can't guarantee whether the audience prefers to watch the content before revision or after. So I think you can have more consideration about whether to revise or not, before making a decision."

The director smiled: "Good suggestions should be adopted. I think your suggestion is very good."

A strange voice came from the opposite side by Henrietta: "Although Miss Swift is young, you really know a lot about men."

Nikita narrowed her eyes, looking at her.

Meeting her eyes, Henrietta was a little afraid without any origin. After looking at each other for a few seconds, she blinked with a little guilty and said: "Miss Swift, don't misunderstand me. I don't mean anything else. I just think you are so mature that is not like an 18-year-old girl."

"Is this the difference between genius and ordinary people?" She seemed to be joking, but her eyes were full of malice.

This malice was felt by other people in the box.

Everyone knew Henrietta's thoughts on Xavier.

But tonight, Xavier brought such an excellent young girl, who was not only better-looking than Henrietta, younger than Henrietta, but also smarter than Henrietta.

If the family background exceeded Henrietta again, she would crush Henrietta in all aspects.

Henrietta had always been the focus of the crowd and always liked to show off.

But now, her limelight was all taken away by a young girl who had just arrived.

It was quite normal for her to be unhappy.

Knowing that Henrietta was looking for trouble on purpose, everyone else pretended that they didn't know anything, without making any noise.

Because they were afraid to offend Henrietta.

And they were even more afraid to offend Nikita.

Since no matter which side they offended, it would be not good for them, so they chose to ignore.

When Henrietta finished speaking, she saw that a group of people who would answer the words immediately didn't say a word, and her heart was even more angry with a bad look.

But among this group of people who didn't say a word, there was also Xavier.

Seeing Xavier with his head down talking to a producer, who didn't mean to help Nikita, Henrietta suddenly felt comfortable again.

It seemed that Xavier didn't care much about this girl.

She had been too nervous to take this young girl seriously.

As soon as she thought about it, she saw that Xavier called a waiter and ordered in a loose tone: "Do you have fresh lemons here?"

"Lemons?" The waiter nodded. "Yes."

Xavier smiled and said, "Well, pick ten lemons, and don't cut them, sending them to Miss Green later."

The waiter looked at Henrietta with some doubts.

Although he didn't understand why Xavier ordered so many lemons for Henrietta, he still respectfully replied: "Yes, Mr. Blake, please wait a moment."

The waiter didn't understand what Xavier wanted lemon for, and neither did Henrietta.

However, Henrietta was very happy to see Xavier order her a fruit bowl.

Chapter 1310-She looked at Xavier with charming eyes and asked in a spoiled manner: "Mr. Blake, how do you know that I have been drinking lemonade to whiten my skin recently?"

Xavier smiled, and replied in a careless voice: "You misunderstood. This lemon is not used to whiten you."

"Not whitening?" Henrietta was still smiling. "What is that for?"

As long as Xavier gave it to her.

No matter what the use was, she was happy.

Xavier's smiled again. Although he said in a low voice, the people in the box could hear it clearly: "The effect of lemon fresh breath is very good, so you should eat more later."

Others in the box felt shocked.

Henrietta's smile froze on her lips, and she felt like being slapped severely. For an instant, her face flushed.

Others looked at Henrietta, and then looked at Nikita, who sat aside without saying a word with an indifferent expression as before, and had their own thoughts.

Xavier was unhappy with what Henrietta just said, so he was helping Nikita.

Henrietta was one of the main entertainers of Xavier's company to make money.

But Xavier was so disgraceful that he made her lose face in public.

Between Henrietta and Nikita, everyone clearly knew that who was the one that could not be offended.

A room full of people were playing cards.

Nikita was not interested in participating, so she was playing games with her mobile phone.

Just after playing two games, she found that her phone popped up, and the name "Sheehan" was displayed on the screen.

Nikita then turned off the game, picked up the phone, got up and walked outside the box.

Xavier sat next to her, saw Nikita leave, and looked at her: "Where are you going

"Answer the phone." Nikita concisely replied, then went out of the box.

"Are you also in F country?"

When she heard that Sheehan had just arrived at F Country Airport, Nikita was quite surprised.

So, the reason why he had not responded for ten hours was that he was on the plane at that time, wasn't it?

The man's slightly hoarse low voice came from the other end of the mobile phone: "Well, there happened to be a contract to sign, so I came."

Nikita was silent.

"Is it really because you have a contract to sign that you came here?" Nikita had some doubts about this.

No sooner had she left than he followed her.

This contract also came at a very perfect time.

Sheehan was silent and spoke again. There was a slight smile in his low voice: "Do you want to hear the truth, or..."

"The truth, of course."

"Well, the truth is that there is a contract to sign, but I don't need to come over."

"So?"

"I'm here for you."

This time, Nikita was silent again.

"Why don't you talk? Are you angry?"

Nikita sipped her lips: "A little."

"Think that I have supervised you too closely?" When Sheehan walked out of the VIP passage, someone immediately stepped forward, among whom one went to get the suitcase in his hand, and the other talked to him respectfully.

"Mr. Lambert, Mr. Owen has prepared a banquet and is waiting for you."

Sheehan nodded, made a gesture of waiting for the other people, and then walked to the side. In his low magnetic voice, he explained to Nikita with some caution: "Niky, if you go to M country or Y country, I don't have to worry. But F country is too chaotic, so I don't trust you to stay here alone."

"I'm not alone."

"I know." Sheehan tried his best to say without other emotions in his tone, "You came with Xavier."
