

The Girl CB 1351

Chapter 1351-“Even if she doesn’t take the college entrance examination, it will also have no effects at all, due to her excellent scores. There will still be plenty of good schools competing for her.”

Rosa saw that Old Mr. Lambert turn out to be such an attitude, and suddenly became a little anxious: “But Grandpa Lambert, even if she can not take the college entrance examination, don’t you mind her entering the entertainment area at all?”

Old Mr. Lambert had set the rules to the Lambert family, which were also known by Rosa.

Knowing that Old Mr. Lambert didn’t like people in the entertainment area very much, she came here specially to tell him Nikita’s behavior.

Old Mr. Lambert picked up the tea on the table and sipped it. His face was very pale, and said in a light tone: “Niky just acted for fun, which does not mean that she is going to enter the entertainment area.”

“I think, it is probably that she is a playful girl who just wants to have a try in acting.”

“Besides, if Niky really wants to enter the entertainment area, with the power of our Lambert family, she can definitely be well protected.”

Rosa was stunned, with the expression on her face changed, and her face obviously became terrible: “But, Grandpa Lambert, didn’t you forbid the Lambert family to enter the entertainment area? If she marries Sheehan in the future, don’t you care about that?”

Old Mr. Lambert looked up and smiled: “That’s nonsense. I am such an open-minded person, so how can I do such a thing? I won’t meddle in the affairs of the younger generation now. They can do whatever they like, and I don’t care at all.”

Rosa didn’t expect Old Mr. Lambert to have such an attitude.

Everything was out of her control.

She had thought that hearing Nikita engage in the entertainment area, Old Mr. Lambert would definitely be very angry, and he would definitely have disagreements on Nikita.

But now...

Not to mention disagreements, Old Mr. Lambert was clearly also supporting Nikita to engage in the entertainment area.

Old Mr. Lambert had forbidden members of Lambert family to enter the entertainment area. How could it be nonsense? This was exactly what Lambert's people told her.

Now, in order to protect Nikita, Old Mr. Lambert could even deny what he had said!

"But, but Miss Swift and Xavier..." Rosa was unwilling to come in vain, so she led the topic to the relationship between the two sexes.

"It is not credible to make groundless accusations." Old Mr. Lambert seemed a little unhappy, and his face changed slightly. "I believe in Sheehan's choice and the character of Niky."

"Grandpa Lambert..."

Rosa seemed to want to say something else, but she was interrupted by Old Mr. Lambert with an unhappy expression: "Well, I'm a little sleepy. You can go back now. Tell your grandfather that I will come to have tea with him when he is free."

Rosa left with an unwilling look.

After she left, Uncle Paul looked at Old Mr. Lambert's face, hesitated, and then said, "Master, do you believe what Miss Garrett said?"

"What's your opinion?" Old Mr. Lambert asked.

Uncle Paul listened to his tone and smiled: "You are wise, of course. Miss Garrett's words should not be taken seriously."

"She is such a stubborn girl."

Old Mr. Lambert sighed: "Sheehan has already expressed his attitude, but she has always refused to give up."

"This can only show that the young master is so outstanding that Miss Garrett deeply affected on him and will be reluctant to let him go."

"Sheehan is indeed very excellent."

At this point, Old Mr. Lambert was not modest at all. His grandson was really too excellent. He was not blowing his own horn, but he dared to say that among all the young people of Sheehan's generation, no one could compete with Sheehan.

"However, did Niky really go abroad to act?"

"Master, didn't the young master call you today, saying that he has gone abroad to talk about business? I guess, he must have gone abroad because of Miss Swift, and he actually went to accompany Miss Swift, pretending to go for the sake of doing business."

Chapter 1352-Old Mr. Lambert realized in seconds: "So Niky really went abroad to film. And Sheehan was reluctant to separate from her, so he went to accompany her, pretending to do business there?"

He had felt strange.

There was no big business in F country, so how could it deserve his grandson to go there in person.

It turned out that doing business was false, while accompanying his girlfriend was true.

He never thought that his grandson, who was pure-hearted and self-strict, neglecting his personal feelings very lightly, would become so affectionate now.

It seemed that genetic inheritance was unavoidable.

The Lambert family was a family of affectionate persons. Sheehan's father was that kind of person, and now Sheehan was also the same.

Once they fell in love with someone, it was like they had changed to someone else, who would regard the lover in their hearts as more important than their own life.

He didn't know if this was a good thing or not.

Thinking of his son who died young, Old Lambert's eyes faded, and there appeared some worries between his eyes. He sighed: "Sheehan's father cared too much about his mother, so he would have..."

The car accident took away his favorite son.

He had seen the photos of the scene of the incident.

According to normal circumstances, Sheehan's father would not die, but the person who died would be his mother.

At the moment of the car accident, Sheehan's father acted as a protective layer of human flesh regardless of his own safety, and blocked in front of his mother, firmly protecting her under him.

All the stones that fell from the high slope hit his father.

Sheehan's father was so seriously injured and suffered from internal bleeding that he died instantly.

His mother, however, was only slightly injured.

But although his mother survived, she suffered a great spiritual blow. After her husband's funeral, she found a nun and became a monk.

"Master, are you worried about the young master? You can rest assured that he and Miss Swift will be fine. Miss Swift is so capable and intelligent. With her by the young master's side, both the young master and the Lambert family will definitely get better and better."

"Hope so." Old Mr. Lambert turned his head, looking out of the window, raised his hand, and motioned for Uncle Paul to bring his crutches. "I have eaten a little too much tonight, and my stomach was flatulent. Uncle Paul, accompany me to walk in the garden."

The descendants would have their own blessings.

It was no use for him to worry too much about them.

The next day.

Like yesterday, Nikita and Joslyn have to play opposite in the morning, and all the shots of the two were passed at one time.

In front of the whole crew, the director praised Nikita severely again.

Near the lunchtime, Xavier, who didn't appear all day yesterday, came.

When Xavier arrived at the crew, Nikita was changing clothes in the locker room.

"How is the shooting progress today?"

Xavier was received by the director, who clearly knew that Xavier had come for Nikita. He replied with a smile: "It went very well, and it ended two hours earlier than expected. Mr. Blake, the newcomer you recommended is really amazing."

“Oh?” Xavier turned his head, narrowed his eyes, and smiled. “Why do you say that?”

The director praised Nikita without stint: “Nikita really surprised me. If it weren’t for your telling me in advance that she had never filmed before, and this is the first time, I would never believe it.”

“She is very talented in acting. Although she is a newcomer, her acting skills are even much better than those of many professional actors.”

Chapter 1353-“For example, Henrietta has been an actress for seven or eight years, whose acting skills are remarkable. But there she still could not be compared with Nikita.”

Speaking of this matter, the director was still a little worried.

This supporting role was so much better than the leading role everywhere that he didn’t know whether this thing was good or bad.

He was afraid that Nikita would be too brilliant to press down the aura of the protagonist. And the audience might only pay attention to this supporting role, but not focus on the protagonist at all.

Xavier raised his eyebrows: “This is just her basic skills.”

“Basic skills?”

“Anything she wants to do can be done extremely well. The achievement that others need to work very hard to get may be got easily by her without too many efforts.”

Although Nikita had never been acting before, Xavier knew that her performance would be amazing.

In particular, the role of Fair Luna was too suitable for her.

It was almost her true self that she could act naturally.

Director: "..."

"Is Miss Swift also so talented in other things?"

Xavier smiled: "She sleeps at school every day, but she can still get full marks in all the subjects, becoming the top student in the national college entrance examination. The gap between genius and ordinary people is far greater than you think."

Director: "..."

He was depressed.

"Mr. Blake, are you really not going to let Miss Swift enter the entertainment area?" The director asked with some temptation, "If Miss Swift can enter the entertainment area and become a professional actor, she will definitely make great achievements in the future."

"She is uncertain and playful." Xavier shook his head with a smile. "She can't do anything for a long time, and she will soon get tired of it. Even if I am willing to let her get into the entertainment area, it is useless."

Otherwise, he would have signed Nikita in his company.

After all, benefits should always be kept by one's own.

Speaking of the area that Nikita had not been bored and still had interests at present, it might probably be medical practice.

However, she was also freewheeling in treating patients.

She didn't work regularly nor join any medical organizations, and also charging for medical treatment according to her mood.

If she was in a good mood, she could treat for free.

While she was in a bad mood, it was common to ask an extremely high medical fees.

Others who dared to do this might have already been kicked out of the medical profession long ago.

But she had her background, and she could even successfully deal with those notoriously difficult patients.

Chapter 1354-“Yep.” Nikita softly replied, “I have already got used to everything.”

Xavier nodded: “That’s good. Then I can be relieved. I just came to see how you are in the crew.”

“Mr. Blake, you can rest assured!” The director patted his chest and promised, “I will take good care of her for you, and I will never let her come to grief.”

Xavier lifted his wrist, looking at his watch, as if the unpleasant scene last night had never happened. As usual, he asked softly, “What do you want to eat at noon? I will take you to eat.”

Although Nikita still didn’t make a sound, a charming voice behind came over: “Does Mr. Blake only invite Nikita or also include us?”

Nikita looked up, seeing Henrietta and Vanessa, another actress of the crew, coming over.

Henrietta walked to Xavier, stopped and smiled at Xavier again: “If we follow, will you be unhappy?”

The director glanced at Henrietta, but did not say anything, while the expression on his face was quite intriguing.

“Yes, Mr. Blake, can we have a meal together with you?” Vanessa took Henrietta’s hand, and asked in a delicate voice.

Xavier looked at the two and smiled: "Of course."

After that, he turned his head and said to the director, "Director Koan, call everyone to come together."

Xavier's treat was naturally a place where consumption was very expensive.

He chose a local restaurant with a per capita consumption of more than 5,000, and invited the whole crew to have dinner together.

However, although all the crew members went, everyone knew that they benefited from association with Nikita.

During dinner, the crew members were automatically divided into groups.

Generally, there were one group of the main person in charge of the crew, one group of several leading actors, several groups of the remaining supporting roles and several groups of other staff members.

At the table of Xavier, all the principals of the crew were sitting.

Nikita was also in a group with them, sitting next to Xavier and the director.

Arguably, Nikita should be in the supporting role group.

However, no one in the whole crew would really treat her as an ordinary newcomer.

Except for some stupid people.

Like Vanessa.

Vanessa, Henrietta, Joslyn, Seymour and some other people sat at the same table. Vanessa sat opposite Joslyn. Seeing Joslyn's eyes intentionally or unintentionally towards Nikita sitting at the table, she suddenly felt envious.

She couldn't help but feel strange: "Hum, why can such a newcomer sit at a table with Director Koan and Mr. Blake? This is too unruly."

"Even if Mr. Blake always flatters her, it does not follow the rules. Everyone is watching, so how can she not know to keep a low profile! She might not be afraid of being discussed behind her back!"

Henrietta smiled: "It also requires Mr. Blake to be willing to flatter her. If Mr. Blake thinks she deserves it, then she deserves it. What if it is a newcomer or not? Look at the whole crew. Everyone is polite to her."

Vanessa's face looked disdainful and snorted coldly: "Being polite to her is for Mr. Blake's face. Without Mr. Blake, she is nobody."

Hearing that, Joslyn and Seymour all frowned.

"Vanessa, Nikita doesn't seem to have offended you. Is your prejudice against her a bit excessive?"

The speaker was Joslyn.

"Everyone is in the same crew, so there is no need to be so ugly." Seymour also frowned.

Chapter 1355-Seymour and Joslyn usually had a good relationship with Vanessa.

At the moment, seeing both of them actually maintain Nikita, especially Joslyn also supported Nikita, Vanessa immediately got angry.

She likes Joslyn and didn't want to lose her image in front of him. Although she was already angry to death, she had to endure her full of anger.

Henrietta's mood at this time was not much better.

She turned her head, seeing Xavier pouring water for Nikita. Her eyes couldn't help but cool down.

After meal.

Xavier drove Nikita back to the crew.

Along the way, both of them were quite silent.

When waiting for the traffic light, Xavier turned his head and looked at Nikita several times, as if he had something to say to her, but actually he didn't say anything.

Arriving the crew.

Nikita unbuckled her seat belt, saying goodbye to him, and then opened the door to get off.

"Nikita."

Xavier's voice came from Nikita's back.

Xavier looked at the girl's back with obvious alienation, and frowned: "Are you still angry with me?"

This meeting, Xavier could clearly feel that the atmosphere between them was somewhat different from before.

Nikita's character had always been quite cold, quite light, and when they get along with each other, her words had always been not much.

But this time it was too silent.

And when eating, she also didn't let him pick up food for her.

Xavier was not stupid. After feeling the change of Nikita, he knew that something must have happened.

Otherwise, Nikita would not be like this for no reason.

Perhaps, her present abnormality was also related to her early departure that night.

Thinking about it, he thought if it was not because of Henrietta, it must be Sheehan.

Because Sheehan came over, she wanted to alienate him to avoid suspicion?

Thinking of this reason, Xavier turned to a slightly serious look. He took a deep breath, holding back the envious feeling in his heart, and asked as calmly as possible: "Why do I feel that you seem to be alienating me?"

"Is it because of Sheehan?"

"Does he mind our relationship? What did he say to you?"

Nikita pulled the finger of the door handle tightly, and loosened it. Her tone was faint: "You have thought too much. Nothing happened."

"Really?"

Xavier didn't believe it, staring at her firmly: "I hope I do have thought too much."

Nikita didn't say anything, but pushed open the door and got off the car.

Xavier's eyes had never moved away. Looking at her fading back, he gradually felt upset.

Chapter 1356-“Sister, I was delayed for a while on my way, so I came a bit late. You won't blame me, will You?” Rani smiled, walking to the front of Fair Luna, and called her very affectionately.

Fair Luna looked at her without expression: “Rani, my sister died as early as ten years ago.”

Rani knew Fair Luna's temper was very cold and not easy to get along with, but her look was still frozen by Fair Luna's words.

“Oh, Fair Luna, don't think the emperor likes you, so you can do whatever you want by the emperor's favor! You should know, with what you just said, I can give you the crime of insubordination!”

Rani glared at Fair Luna in extremely sharp eyes that were like knives, as if she couldn't wait to kill Fair Luna.

To her sharp eyes, Fair Luna was fearless and looked indifferent: “If you want to add a crime on me, even if I'm innocent, I still can not escape from it. So whatever you think I am, just let it be.”

Looking at her this pair of indifferent appearance, Rani was more angry, raising her hand to hit her face, but was persuaded by the maid beside him.

The maid said, “Please calm down, empress. She has just entered the palace, so she is not familiar with the rules in the palace. Empress really doesn't need to waste time on her.”

Rani bit her teeth, thought of the plan for a while, took a deep breath, suppressed her anger, and took back his outstretched hand.

When Vanessa played this play, part of her emotions were in the play, while most of the emotions were brought outside the play.

Not far away.

The deputy director looked at the performances of them, nodded with satisfaction, smiled and said to the director: "Today's actors performed very well, and Vanessa's state today is much better than the previous days."

The director also nodded and agreed: "Vanessa performed well today, and I feel that she has really entered the play."

Especially the jealous and hateful eyes on Fair Luna, her performance was quite appropriate.

"Nikita is so powerful that no matter who act with her all can be quickly brought into the plot by her." The director boasted again.

"I also noticed that." The deputy director nodded, "But all the actors who act with Nikita have done better than other times. Director, I think it is possible to add some plots to the role of Fair Luna?"

"Add plots?"

"Yes, the role of Fair Luna is very hot now, which has even surpassed that of men and women. After the crew official announced Fair Luna's role as an actor yesterday, the hottest search exploded several times."

"Before our drama, the heat and discussion were not so high."

Seymour, Henrietta and Joslyn were all celebrities with a large amount of fans.

They entered the crew with their own influence.

But the discussion heat of all of them was not as high as that of Nikita yesterday.

They spent so much thought and money to create this TV series, just to make the audience like it, didn't they?

Since the audience liked Nikita, then they should give her some plots to let her show more.

The director hesitated a little and thought it was feasible: "After filming, I will ask her if she is willing to do so. If she is willing, I will talk to the screenwriter again."

In front of the camera.

It had photographed the plot that Rani was trying to push Fair Luna into the water, and after being discovered by Fair Luna, she grabbed her hand and asked her what she wanted to do coldly, and then pushed her away.

According to the plot in the script, Fair Luna pushed the Rani to the ground.

Chapter 1357-"Ah, what are you going to do, help!"

With a sound, Rani, who should be pushed to the ground by Fair Luna, had been pushed into the water for some unknown reasons.

Vanessa, who played the role of Rani, screamed loudly and shouted for help. Under the eyes of the public, she totally fell into a set pool behind her.

Although the pool was set artificially, the director really injected several meters of water into it in order to make the effect realistic.

After Vanessa fell, she struggled desperately in the water and called for help: "Help, help, I can't swim, help!"

After a few seconds, the surrounding staff heard Henrietta shout in panic: "Vanessa can't swim! What are you still doing? Go and save her!"

When Henrietta shouted, two male employees finally reacted and immediately ran towards the pool.

However, before they jumped into the water, someone jumped one step ahead of them.

Joslyn saw that the person who had jumped into the water was Nikita, and took a step forward in a hurry, but only saw that Nikita had already held Vanessa out of water in one hand.

When the two staff members saw this, they quickly squatted down and pulled Vanessa from the pool to the shore.

“Vanessa, are you all right?” Vanessa’s assistant asked with a worried face.

Others also came to gather around.

After Vanessa landed, Nikita swam to the edge of the pool, pressed the edge of the pool with one hand, and easily landed without too many efforts.

Her costume was completely soaked in water, which was made of thin layers of yarn. So after being stained with water, it closely clung to her body.

She had almost been completely deserted.

Looking at the people around, Nikita frowned and just turned to leave, when a thin blanket was stuffed into her hand. At the same time, a warm voice fell on her head: “Put this on first, and then go to change clothes.”

Nikita draped the blanket over her body, looking at the man who handed the blanket to her in time: “Thank you.”

Joslyn looked at her in his dark eyes: “You’re welcome.”

Nikita didn’t say anything, just turned to change clothes.

Moments later.

Nikita finished changing clothes, and came out from the locker room, seeing Vanessa standing at the director, crying and saying something.

There were many people standing around.

Seeing Nikita coming, the people around all turned into abnormal eyes.

After Nikita walked near, Vanessa, who was still crying, stopped at once, touched the tears out of her eyes, and looked at Nikita with a look of fear and anger on her face.

Nikita also looked at her, and smiled slightly.

“Nikita, just now Vanessa said that she didn’t accidentally fall into the pool, but someone dragged her down.”

The director’s face was very serious, and he asked in a heavy voice, “What the hell was going on?”

Nikita didn’t show any unexpected expression, but just in an indifferent way: “It has nothing to do with me. I didn’t drag her into the water.”

When Vanessa fell into the water, Nikita was the only one next to her.

Although Vanessa didn’t say that it was Nikita dragging her down, it was no different from saying it.

Of course, the director didn’t believe Nikita had dragged Vanessa into the water, but Vanessa had been crying and complaining to him just now. He needed to ask as a mere formality.

The director nodded: “Then it turns to be a misunderstanding.”

Later, the director said to Vanessa, "Well, Nikita said just now that she didn't drag you into the water. I believe she has no reason to do this, so this matter is just a misunderstanding."

"Fortunately, everyone is fine. Just be more careful in the future."

Chapter 1358-When Vanessa saw that the director was completely standing on Nikita's side and helping Nikita to speak, she suddenly became dissatisfied: "Director Koan, you are too eccentric. This matter has not been investigated clearly. How can it be said that it is a misunderstanding?"

"She said she didn't push me into the water, so she didn't. But I stood there well. If no one pushed me, how could I fall into the water? It can't be my jumping by myself."

Seeing that Vanessa refused to give up, the director frowned: "Then what do you want to do? Or I will call the police now and let the police investigate clearly. What do you think about it?"

Vanessa's face changed instantly when she heard that he was going to call the police.

"Forget it. For the director's sake, I will not pursue this matter." Vanessa was silent for a few seconds and said reluctantly.

The director couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

They were all from the same crew, and it was very troublesome to raise an uproar.

Moreover, if this matter spread, it would also have an impact on the crew.

The reason why he said to call the police was because he knew very well that the reason why Vanessa fell into the water had nothing to do with Nikita. Nikita couldn't push her into the water.

Since Nikita did not push her into the water, there was only one possibility.

This drowning scene was written, performed and directed by Vanessa herself, in order to frame Nikita.

Vanessa had affected on Joslyn, which was also known to the whole crew. This time, the reason why she aimed at Nikita must also be related with Joslyn.

After all, even he could find Joslyn had a crush on Nikita, and Vanessa had always been so attentive to Joslyn, so it was impossible for her not to discover it.

Sure enough, as soon as he said he wanted to call the police, Vanessa chose not to continue to pursue.

This also confirmed his guess.

“Well, this matter is over. Nikita and Vanessa, you don’t have to stay in the crew today, just go back and have a good rest.”

The director looked at the girl who never said a word beside, knowing that she must have been wronged. After thinking about it, he soothed another sentence to her: “Nikita, you can rest for a few more days, and you are not in a hurry to shoot the next scene. It is ok to move a few days later.”

Nikita’s eyes moved and looked up at the director: “Director Koan, I think I should find out what happened when she fell into the water.”

The director was stunned.

Nikita turned her head and looked at Vanessa standing aside. Her voice was extremely light: “Miss Vanessa is unwilling to pursue it, but I must find out the truth.”

Vanessa was also slightly stunned, and her face changed: “What do you mean?”

“Nothing.” Nikita indifferently looked at her, “I will not deny the thing that I have really done. Similarly, if it is the thing I have not done, even if someone deliberately frames me, it will not work.”

“Your falling into the water has nothing to do with me. But if this matter is not investigated clearly, everyone will think that I have pushed you down, and my silence will only be regarded as guilty and wrong by others.”

” I support to call the police.”

Everyone thought this was the end of the matter.

Unexpectedly, Nikita wanted to call the police.

Of course, a group of people who were watching the scene were eager for things to get more intense. Hearing Nikita’s words, several people who were about to leave returned.

Vanessa knew best what the truth was.

When she heard Nikita say she wanted to call the police, she blinked guiltily, but when she thought of the position and angle where she stood before that even the camera couldn’t get a clear picture of how she fell into the water, she suddenly breathed a sigh of relief, straightened her waist and found back some confidence.

Chapter 1359-“OK, then call the police!” Vanessa smiled coldly. “I didn’t want to dispute with some people for the sake of Director Koan. However, since someone doesn’t accept my kindness and even wants to fight back, then just call the police!”

“I don’t believe it that someone can be absolutely lawless based on the supports of others !”

“Remember, it is you who insisted on calling the police! When the time comes, if you are going to really be caught, don’t say that I do harm to you!”

The crew called the police, and soon, the police dispatched several policemen to the crew to investigate the truth.

On the other side of phone.

Vanessa's falling into the water had also been sent to Facebook.

After the blog was posted, it didn't take long for it to be forwarded and paid attention for thousands of times, and it soon became one of the top ten hottest searches.

The person who posted, as well as a series of subsequent operations, was a paid posted specially found by Vanessa. Under the various deliberate controls of him, the public opinions soon became unfavorable to Nikita.

The title on the hottest search also changed from "Vanessa fell into the water" to "Vanessa was suspected of being pushed into the water by an actress of the crew".

The title of the latter was extremely inflammatory.

Although the word "suspected" had been written on the title, it seemed that it had already been confirmed that Vanessa was pushed into the water in the relevant content and comments section.

Moreover, many so-called crew members said that they were at the scene of the incident and had seen with their own eyes that Vanessa was pushed into the water by a female supporting role named Nikita.

"Let me tell you the truth in this account. I am a staff member of the crew "Helen of Troy". It is true that Vanessa was pushed into the water by an actress of the crew. The actress who acted with Vanessa is called Nikita, who is the national college entrance examination champion that became popular some time ago."

"We don't know if she has any dispute with Vanessa. However, Vanessa's falling into the water is really related to her. According to the plot in the script, Vanessa will be pushed to the ground by Nikita instead of water."

Chapter 1360- Four trending topics in a Row

At the time, the news that Nikita had bullied female artists in the crew with the background, and the rumors of ambiguous relationship with Xavier were all well-known.

Her historical fact that she used to fight with others in school so severely that she had put someone into the hospital was also turned out again, and spread, becoming to the fake news that she had bullied her classmates on campus.

After a meeting, Sheehan didn't know that Nikita had been surrounded with some negative news until receiving a phone call from Vernon.

"Mr. Lambert, what should I do now? Do you need to let the company's department of public relations handle this matter?" Vernon's respectful voice came.

Sheehan had registered Facebook, but he didn't use it very much, and he rarely logged in at ordinary times.

After learning about the hottest search on Nikita from Vernon, he slightly changed his face and asked in a low voice: "When did this happen?"

"Just half an hour ago." Vernon replied, "A person who claimed to be a crew member exposed the news that Miss Swift deliberately pushed a female artist into the water. After this news was posted, many news officials soon forwarded and paid attention on it."

"I have looked at it, but in all the comments sections of related events, there are many crew members who claim to also have witnessed it with their own eyes. The comments sent by these so-called staff members are similar and extremely inflammatory. I suspect that the reason why Miss Swift was exposed to the news was someone deliberately manipulated it behind."

Hearing that, Sheehan changed his face again: "Check it immediately and find out who is behind the scenes."

"Yes, Mr. Lambert, I'll let someone find out immediately. The negative news about Miss Swift on the Internet..."

Sheehan squinted. After a moment's silence, he said in a low voice: "Don't pay attention to it first, and find out all the people involved behind the scenes as soon as possible."

Moments later, Sheehan hung up the phone.

When the president of JM consortium who accompanied him saw that he looked pale, he said carefully, "Is Mr. Lambert dissatisfied with the cooperation plan just now? If there is any bad place, please say it and we will revise it immediately."

Sheehan gathered the coldness implied in his eyes, turned his head, and replied in cold voice. "It has nothing to do with the cooperation plan. I'm sorry that I have something urgent to deal with immediately. Let's change the time to visit to the production area."

In the car.

The driver asked Sheehan where he was going.

Sheehan thought for a while and said the address of the crew.

On the way to the crew, he clicked on the unused Facebook and logged in to his account.

When he entered Facebook, he immediately saw several topics about Nikita hanging brightly in front of the hottest search list, and the topic hanging at the top of the list was her ambiguous gossip with Xavier.

The mysterious woman around Xavier actually turns to be Nikita #

Nikita is supported by Xavier #

Nikita deliberately pushed someone into the water #

Those who have been bullied by Nikita Campus #

Among the top ten in the hottest search list, Nikita, a non-entertainment amateur, occupied four in the top five.

Even the tidbits of the relationship between Hugh and a first-line actress had been pressed under her.

When Sheehan saw the first trending topic, he changed to a terrible look, with his dark eyes stained with a layer of anger.

Clicking into the hottest search, and reading the relevant content, the handsome man looked even more gloomy, and his face was so dark as the dark clouds.

That search said that Nikita and Xavier had an unusual relationship. The reason why Nikita could get the role of Fair Luna in "Helen of Troy", was actually a shortcut for her set by Xavier. She had already signed a contract with Xavier's brokerage company and was ready to formally work in the entertainment area.
