

The Girl CB 1361

Chapter 1361-Xavier intended to make her popular by himself. For this reason, he had also asked the screenwriter of the crew to add more plots to Nikita's role, and prepared to add scenes to her from a female supporting role to the extent that her plots could even be equal with the female host.

Xavier had not personally supported celebrities for many years.

Supporting Nikita personally this time was because their ambiguous relationship, due to which, Nikita could be taken special care of by him.

He flew to F country specially this time, just to introduce Nikita to the director and arrange everything for her. Because of his relationship, Nikita, a newcomer who just entered the area, had now got a role of director Koan in the next movie.

If it weren't for the unusual relationship between them, Xavier couldn't have done it so personally.

Moreover, Xavier had also defended Nikita on Facebook before, which was the first time he defended a woman on the social platform. When the actresses in his company were dug out dirt, they never saw him come forward to defend it. Only Nikita had such special treatment.

The comment area is even more filthy.

Some people say that Nikita is a lover raised by Xavier. While others say that Nikita gets her own resources by selling herself.

"Gifted girl? The top student in the college entrance examination? The role model and idol who is worth learning from for teenagers all over the country? To the hell with that! This kind of person who sells herself to obtain resources should be spurned by everyone no matter how smart she is and how good her academic performance is!"

"This can't be true, right? I quite like Nikita. She is so beautiful. Her academic performance is so good. And she is also good at electronic sports. Besides, she can write songs. Such a perfect character setting can't be collapsed like this, right?"

“There is no perfect person in this world! The more you want to label yourself with being perfect, the faster your character setting will collapse! No matter how beautiful she is, how good her grades are and how talented she is, I don’t like her. Just because she bullies her classmates at school, I will hate her forever for this!”

“Is it true that she bullies her classmate at school? Although I admire her good look, I’ll stop being her fan as long as she really does such an excessive thing. I used to be one of the victims of the school bullying, which is really a psychological shadow for my whole life. I really hate this kind of garbage that bullies others!”

“It should be true. I just watched a video of a few students who used to be in the same school with her being interviewed. They personally told all kinds of stories of them being bullied by her in the past, which sounded really miserable.”

After Sheehan read several hot comments that got “liked” by over 10,000 people, he looked very gloomy.

He called Vernon.

“Mr. Lambert, the investigation you asked me to do is being carried on. We’ve got some leads. But it still takes some time to find out the whole truth.”

Sheehan’s voice sounded cold and steady: “How long will it take?”

He didn’t show obvious anger. But Vernon at the other end of the phone, who has been following him for many years, could tell that his Boss was furious right now. Someone will suffer.

After thinking about it for a while, Vernon felt it was quite understandable, those negative comments on Miss Swift are getting more and more ridiculous, especially those gossipy news saying that Miss Swift and Xavier have an ambiguous relationship. Of course, Mr. Lambert will be furious after seeing those.

After all, he is Miss Swift’s real boyfriend.

However, the relationship between him and Miss Swift has never been made public on the Internet.

While Xavier had made headlines with Miss Swift over and over again. And every time, the trending topic was about their ambiguous gossip. If he were Mr. Lambert, he would be furious too.

Chapter 1362-The staffs of the Facebook are also helping with the investigation.

No matter who is behind all this, Vernon is very clear that this person is absolutely a dead man walking.

Since this person dares to harm Mr. Lambert's sweetheart like this, there is only one ending for him, which is, "death without whole corpse".

"If the technical department can't find out who is behind all this in ten minutes, tell them to take the initiative to apply for transfer to F country."

Vernon: "..."

The warning of being transferred to F country which he feared the most finally came.

"Mr. Lambert, you can rest assured that we can definitely find out the person behind all this in ten minutes!"

After hanging up the phone, Vernon immediately turned around and conveyed Sheehan's words to a group of elites in the technical department who were busy around. "If you guys don't want to go to F country to dig coal, you'd better hurry up. Mr. Lambert said that you must find out the person behind this in ten minutes!"

Several elite personnel trembled in fear and did not dare to have the slightest delay. Even their action of typing the keyboard was twice as fast as before!

After Sheehan ended the conversation with Vernon over the phone, he looked down at the screen of his phone and saw the trending topic which still ranked the first again.

The more he looked at it, the harsher those words looked.

Of course, he knows Nikita only take Xavier as a friend. And there is no ambiguous relationship between them.

But he is only sure about Nikita.

As for Xavier, he does have some “evil intention” for Nikita.

Nikita doesn't care about this kind of thing. But he can't ignore it.

He is always a very possessive person. And he has a very strong possessive desire for Nikita.

Originally, as they just started dating, he wanted to make their relationship public. If it weren't for Nikita still studying in school and the fact that she didn't want to make it public, he would have announced their relationship long ago.

Now that Nikita has left school, and their relationship has gradually stabilized, he has to make some consideration and decisions.

After thinking for a moment, Sheehan narrowed his eyes and made a decision on something in his heart.

After the crew called the police, the police arrived soon.

The police asked Nikita and Vanessa about the details of the incident respectively.

In the face of professional inquiries from the police, Nikita seemed quite calm. She said with a calm expression: “I didn't push her. I had nothing to do with her falling into the water.”

Vanessa, as one of the parties, was naturally there.

She stood beside Nikita. After hearing Nikita's words, she couldn't help sneering. She held her arms and picked up a mocking smile: "Do you mean I went crazy and jumped into the water myself?"

"Yes, you jumped into the water yourself." Nikita turned around and looked straight at her. There was faint mockery flashing in her dark eyes too.

Seeing her eyes, Vanessa somehow felt guilty. But thinking of the fact that the police could not find out any evidence, she stood straight and held her chin up high again, looking domineering.

She held back the inexplicable guilt and fear in her heart. After looking around, she deliberately raised her voice and said: "Ha ha, I jumped into the water myself? How can you say such outrageous words? Am I tired of living? Why would I want to jump into the water myself?"

"Vanessa can't swim." As one of the witnesses, Henrietta was also questioned. She stood up at the "right time" and said in an objective tone: "People who can't swim are instinctively afraid of the waters. Generally speaking, ordinary people can't overcome this instinctive fear and jump into the water themselves."

Chapter 1363-"Nikita, I also believe that there may be a misunderstanding here. But what you just said is really too much."

"Even if you want to absolve yourself of responsibility, there is no need to say that Vanessa jumped into the water herself."

The two cooperated with each other very well.

In particular, Henrietta's words might sound objective. But every word of hers was helping Vanessa, implying that Vanessa is pushed into the water by Nikita indeed.

Nikita looked at the two people who cooperated with each other very well with indifferent eyes.

“Now, one of you claims that the other party jumped into the water on her own. While the other party says that the other party pushed herself down. It seems that only monitoring can restore the situation at that time.”

“Now, have you both determined that you are unwilling to reconcile with each other? Do you both want to watch the monitoring?”

The police still wanted to solve this problem peacefully.

There are too many unwritten rules in the entertainment industry.

As the saying goes, three women can easily create a drama. There are a lot of women in the whole crew, just like the harem struggle. It is really unclear who is right and who is wrong.

“Yes, I want to check the monitoring.” Nikita nodded. Her attitude was so firm that it seemed there was no room for negotiation.

Although Vanessa felt guilty, she also considered monitoring when she pushed her. So the position and angle she chose to stand at that time was easy for her to deliberately avoid the camera.

If the police really want to check the monitoring, they can't find anything.

As long as the police can't find any evidence, Nikita can never clear her suspicion of pushing her into the water.

It doesn't matter whether Nikita really pushed her into the water.

The important thing is that as long as Nikita can't clear her suspicion, she can't live a good life in the future.

No matter how powerful she is or how talented she is, who would like a vicious person?

“I also agree to check the monitoring.” Vanessa sneered at Nikita. “Some people just don’t want to give up until they reach their dead end. In this case, let’s help her.”

Next, the police went to retrieve the shooting lens at the time of the incident.

Through the shooting lens, people can see that Vanessa was standing on the side of Nikita at that time. They were talking. But at some point, Vanessa suddenly screamed out and then leaned towards the pool. Then she fell into the water after stumbling.

The way she fell into the water really seemed to be able to make people believe she was pushed down instead of jumping by herself.

However, no matter how to enlarge the lens to see the details, people couldn’t tell that whether it was Nikita who pushed her into the water.

What can be seen is that Nikita had an action of pulling her hand at that time.

The police squatted in front of the camera and studied it for a long time. But they couldn’t find any definite evidence. So they couldn’t help frowning.

“I have to check other security cameras.”

In addition to the shooting camera, there are other surveillance on the scene.

When Vanessa heard that the police had to investigate other surveillance, Vanessa’s face suddenly changed. And there was panic showing in her eyes.

She only considered the shooting angle of the camera and forgot all the other security cameras on the scene.

But at this moment, if she jumps out to stop them from continuing to investigate, it is equivalent to commit her crime.

Vanessa felt uneasy in her heart and did not dare to stop it. She had to pretend to be calm and followed the police to the monitoring room of the shooting place.

The director and several other actors went with the police.

When the police checked the surveillance, Vanessa, who was standing next to them, clenched her lips tightly. And her face changed several times in a short time.

Joslyn noticed her reaction. And his eyes couldn't help darkening down.

Moments later.

After the police checked the monitoring, they turned around and said while frowning: "The on-site monitoring can't give us the clear evidence of whether Miss Vanessa fell into the water herself or she was pushed down by someone else."

"Do you still want to apply for a further investigation on this incident? If you do, we can't get any results without strong and clear evidence."

Chapter 1364-Every deduction is based on evidence.

Now that there is no clear evidence, it is meaningless to continue the investigation.

Hearing the police say so, Vanessa, who has been looking nervous, stretched out her hand and pressed it on her chest. She couldn't help but take a deep breath of relief. The expression on her face changed from tension and uneasiness at the beginning to ease and cockiness.

"Officer, so even though she pushed me down, I can't do anything to her if I can't find the evidence?" Vanessa showed a wronged and angry appearance.

The policeman nodded: "If there is no definite evidence, you can't prove that your drowning is related to her. So, do you want to continue the investigation now?"

Vanessa bit her lips. As she was about to speak up, Nikita's voice sounded beside her: "Yes. I want to continue the investigation. The truth must be found out."

The police was stunned for a second. Seeing the girl's indifferent and calm eyes. Even though this matter has not been found out clearly, he has chosen to believe her, even though this truth has not been found out clearly.

He believes that the girl in front of him must have not pushed others into the water.

If the actress named Vanessa was pushed down by her, her eyes would not be so calm. And her performance would not be so frank.

But there is no point for him to believe her.

Unless they can find definite evidence to prove it.

"But the monitoring has also been checked. And you have all watched it. We can't get any strong evidence from the video." The police looked a little embarrassed. "If we continue the investigation, the result may still be the same."

He is actually advising her to forget it.

The director also wanted to persuade Nikita to let it go. But before he could speak up and say something, he saw Nikita walk a few steps towards the console of the surveillance video.

There was a computer next to the monitoring desk.

Nikita bent down, pressed the mouse with one hand and watched the last video again.

After a while, she turned around to look at the policeman behind her and said: "Give me a minute."

The policeman was stunned. He asked with doubts in his eyes: "What are you going to do?"

Nikita didn't speak up again. She pulled out the chair and sat in front of the computer.

A group of people behind her were all looking at her with puzzled faces. They didn't understand what she was doing.

"I'm looking for evidence." After Nikita finished saying so, she began to tap on the keyboard with her fingers.

Seeing this, Vanessa frowned. After she heard Nikita said she was looking for the evidence, there was panic flashing in her eyes. But soon, she picked up a mocking smile again.

Oh? Looking for evidence?

What kind of evidence can she find?

If there is evidence, can the police not find it?

She is just bluffing.

Thinking of this, Vanessa calmed down. She held her arms and stood behind Nikita. She looked at the girl with some mockery and saw her typing a lot of characters on the screen of the computer which she couldn't understand at all at a very fast speed.

She would like to see what kind of evidence Nikita can find a minute later.

The expression on other people's faces also looked a little stunned. They didn't understand what Nikita was trying to accomplish.

Including the young cop.

After a minute.

The girl stopped.

The characters on the screen of the computer also disappeared. And they went back to the previous surveillance video.

Everything looked no different from before.

Nikita got up and said to the police next to her: "Now, you can watch this video again."

Although the policeman was confused in his heart, he didn't say anything about it. He just nodded and said: "OK, I'll have a look again."

Vanessa sneered directly: "Haven't this video been watched over and over again for no less than ten times? How can it be different even if the policeman watches it again?"

Chapter 1365-Nikita turned around. Seeing Vanessa's dismissive look, she smiled faintly: "You will know after watching it. Anyway, since we have watched it more than ten times, it won't hurt if we watch it for another time."

"Whatever." Vanessa feels very confident now. "If you think it is necessary, then we can watch it again."

Nikita picked up a smile again and didn't say anything again.

The police clicked on the video and watched it again. The first part was no different from the previous one. But when it came to the part of Vanessa falling into the water, the pictures were immediately enlarged. Originally, the policeman was just watching it casually. But after seeing this, he was immediately stunned.

And others behind him also froze.

Vanessa's face also changed in an instant. One second ago, she was still cocky. But on the next second, she froze in place with a pale face.

In the enlarged video, it can be clearly seen that Nikita grabbed Vanessa's hand. But her hand was thrown away by Vanessa. Then Vanessa intentionally stumbled two steps to the side and then fell into the water.

The surveillance video was still the same one.

However, the picture that could not be seen clearly after being enlarged before can be seen clearly now. And it's actually very clear now.

At that time, everyone turned to look at Vanessa.

The director's face darkened down: "You keep saying that Nikita pushed you into the water. Then explain the video to us."

Vanessa looked up in panic and tried to argue: "Director, I didn't do this. This, this is Nikita's tricks! Yes, she is playing tricks!

The video just now must have been added by herself!

She is going to set me up!

She must have done something to the video. And that's why it became like this. Director, I really didn't do this. You have to believe me."

"Do you still want to frame Nikita now?" The director looked at her with disappointment and anger. "That video is obviously the same video on the spot. It's just enlarged. You said it was Nikita's trick. What kind of trick can she play? Can she directly create a video and add it on the original one by herself?"

Vanessa opened her mouth: "I..."

"Can you tell me how you enlarged that video just now?" After the policeman watched the segment of Vanessa falling into the water several times and confirmed that Nikita really had nothing to do with Vanessa's falling into the water, he turned around with curiosity and surprise showing in his eyes.

They used to try to enlarge the monitoring video again.

After being enlarged, the picture became blurred and couldn't be seen clearly at all.

But with Nikita's operation, the video after being enlarged is still extremely clear.

Chapter 1366-Nikita slightly nodded.

The young policeman thought about it for a while and turned to say to Vanessa, who looked extremely pale next to him. "Miss Vanessa, you have seen the video just now. Miss Swift has nothing to do with this incident. You fell into the water by yourself."

The tone of the policeman still sounded very gentle. But there was some dislike and contempt showing in his eyes.

It's really nasty to frame a teenage girl in such a dirty mean.

Although everyone knows how messy the entertainment industry can be, this is not the first time for such a thing to happen, it really makes people feel sick.

Seeing the young policeman's eyes with disgust, Vanessa looked more embarrassed. She bit her lips tightly and couldn't say a word.

"It seems that it is indeed a misunderstanding." The young policeman said to the director again: "Miss Vanessa accidentally fell into the water. Maybe she was too scared at that time and lost her ability to distinguish. So she mistakenly thought that Miss Swift pushed her down."

“Now that it has been clear that this is a misunderstanding, the follow-up matters will be handed over to you.”

The director didn't look very good either. He nodded to the young policeman and politely said: “Thank you for your effort, police officer.”

Moments later.

The director looked at Vanessa, who stood beside him with a pale face and kept her head down in silence. He frowned tightly and said with a strict tone: “Everyone out! Vanessa, you stay. I have something to say to you.”

Vanessa still remained her head down and didn't say anything.

Nikita didn't say anything else. She just nodded towards the director slightly and turned to walk out of the monitoring room.

Seeing Nikita leave, the rest of the people also went out one after another.

After only the director and Vanessa were left in the monitoring room, the director's tone was no longer polite. He directly said to her: “You don't have to come to the crew tomorrow.”

Vanessa suddenly looked up: “Director Koan!”

The director looked at her with a blank face. “It's no use to call me now. Do you think you can still stay in this crew after what happened?”

“What you have to worry about now is not whether you can stay in this crew, but whether you can stay in the entertainment industry!”

“Mr. Blake is not that easy to fool. Do you think he will believe that this is really just a misunderstanding?”

How can such a thing be a misunderstanding?

Everyone can see clearly in the video that it was Vanessa who shook off Nikita’s hand and deliberately jumped into the pool.

Speaking of this, Vanessa almost succeeded in planting and framing this time.

If it weren’t for Nikita herself, who is awesome enough to use some technics to enlarge the video without changing the definition, she couldn’t have cleared her name.

As a director, he has naturally such things for many times in the entertainment industry. And he has seen framing which was even more insidious and vicious.

Therefore, the director was not surprised that such a thing happened in his crew.

If it were someone else who Vanessa framed, the final result would be that the two shook hands and made peace. It would be unnecessary to make a big fuss out of this.

But the person she planted was Nikita...

Even the director felt that Vanessa was really stupid.

As an artist who signed a contract with Xavier’s company, she planted a person whom Xavier took a fancy to. Isn’t she ruining her own career?

What was she thinking?

Vanessa was originally not that panicked. She thought even if everyone knew it was her planting and framing Nikita, she only needed to apologize to Nikita. It's not that big of deal.

Chapter 1367-Then she could send a statement on Facebook, saying that she was too scared at that time. Because Nikita was the only one around when she fell into the water, so she misunderstood Nikita.

As long as her fans and other netizens believe her, this incident will not have much impact on her.

As for Xavier, she naturally considered him.

She doesn't think Xavier will stand up for Nikita.

After all, she is an artist which signed a contract with Xavier's company. She can help Xavier make money. How can Xavier target at his own artist for a little girl?

But Vanessa didn't expect that the director would directly let her leave the crew because of this incident.

"Director Koan, don't you believe me? I really didn't mean to frame Nikita. At that time, I just fell into the water. And I was too scared. After being rescued, my brain was blank.

Under such circumstances, it should be understandable for me to suspect that Nikita pushed me into the water, right?

Now that I know I have wronged her, I can go to apologize to her.

Director Koan, I don't want to leave the crew. I have made a lot of preparations for this role and took a lot of efforts for her. I..."

Before she finished speaking, the director interrupted her words impolitely: "It's useless for you to beg me. Even if I can let you stay in this crew, Mr. Blake won't allow this to happen."

The director still doesn't know what he should do now.

Xavier made him promise that he would take good care of Nikita and be sure to let Nikita unscathed.

But now...

Nikita has just come to the crew for a few days. Such a thing happened.

He is still worried how to explain to Xavier about this.

Let alone replacing Vanessa.

Maybe, he, the director, will be replaced too.

In order to protect himself, he can only get rid of Vanessa quickly. With such a thing happening, if he still allows Vanessa to stay in the crew, he will have to the crew together with Vanessa in the future.

"Mr. Blake?" Vanessa was stunned. "Do you mean that Mr. Blake will agree on replacing me?"

No way!"

Before the director replied her, Vanessa said confidently: "How can Mr. Blake agree to replace me for her?"

The main investor of this TV series is Xavier.

And she is also an artist who signed a contract with Xavier's company.

If she is replaced, all her scenes need to be re-filmed.

Shooting those scenes alone will cost a big amount of money.

Unless Xavier loses his mind, he won't make such a decision that harms others and himself.

Chapter 1368-“Is there something really wrong with this Nikita? How can she be so hypocritical? Does she intend to seduce all the men? After seducing Xavier, she came to hook up with our idol again. What does she want to accomplish? Is she trying to prove her charm in this way?”

“Can that bitch Nikita stay away from our idol?”

“This woman is really annoying. Why is she flirting with guys everywhere? Originally, I liked her a lot because of her image of the schoolmaster. Now, after all these things, all my good feelings for her are gone!”

“If all the news is true, I can't like her any more even though she is the genius who has the perfect score in all the subjects.”

“Please don't drag my Joslyn down with you. Just consider that my Joslyn is not good enough for you.”

There are also some passers-by, who are not completely misled by public opinion, standing up and saying a few objective words.

Joslyn has a lot of female fans who consider him as their boyfriend or husband.

These fans are very competitive in arguing.

Soon, those passers-by netizens who made objective comments were attacked crazily by those fans. These netizens were afraid of being attacked and getting into trouble. So they deleted their comments one after another.

Facebook became a messy battlefield.

Not only Nikita was scolded.

But the official account of the First Senior High School was also dragged down into this. Because the netizens couldn't find Nikita's Facebook account and had nowhere to vent their anger, they all rushed to the comment area of the official account of the First Senior High School and scolded the school.

"What kind of school is this? How can you call yourself a famous school with a history of one century since this kind of garbage was graduated from this school?"

"Before, the First Senior High School kicked Yvonne out of school because of her plagiarism, I thought it was a very good school. Now, it seems that it is not that good. After Yvonne's plagiarism was exposed, she was dismissed from school immediately. But the school couldn't be unaware of Nikita's school bullying by then."

"Okay, even if the school didn't know about this at that time, the leaders at school should be aware of Nikita's school bully now. Why haven't they carried out any punishment on her yet? Will they just ignore this only because she won the first place in the joint examination, which is beneficial to the school? Will the school just turn a blind eye on this only because of this?"

"That makes sense! Aren't they quite resolute when they dealt with Yvonne? Why are they so silent now? The leaders of this school can't have a double standard like this!"

The innocent First Senior High School made trending topics in all those scoldings.

Some netizens even felt that swearing in the comment area was not enough. And they also dialed the school's public contact number to scold them.

With things getting out of control like this, Talbot will naturally be aware of it.

"President Dylan, what should we do now?"

Una knocked on the door of his office, hurried in and found Talbot, who was reading comments from netizens with a gloomy face.

Talbot took a deep breath, looked away from the computer screen, raised up her head and couldn't look more angry. "Are these netizens' brains completely useless? They don't have the ability to think, do they? They just simply believe whatever other people say!"

"It really pissed me off. How can these people's mouths be so dirty! How can they attack a little girl with so many vicious words?"

Una also looked angry. She said with anger: "Those who only left comments on Internet are not that annoying. There were lots of people calling us. The teacher who is responsible as the receptionist almost cried because of them!"

"They say the First Senior High School is a garbage dump that specializes in cultivating garbage."

"And they also said that the school was reluctant to punish Nikita because of the little benefit. They even threatened us, saying that if we don't punish Nikita, they will report our school to the Education Bureau!"

"President Dylon, with things going out of control like this, the netizens are all clamoring for our school to give a statement now. I think they seem have lost their mind. Should they make a statement first, lest they do more radical things?"

Chapter 1369-"More radical things?" Talbot frowned. "What do you mean?"

Una sipped her lips. "Just now, someone called and said that if our school does not punish Nikita, they will organize a group to come to the school to ask for a statement."

Talbot's face changed. "Are these people crazy?!"

Una sighed: "Yeah, I think so. I am really worried that they will come to the school to cause trouble. And I'm worrying about myself. I'm just afraid that the students will be affected."

"If something happens to the students, our school can't afford to take such a responsibility."

Hearing her words, Talbot's face change again.

That's what he's worried about.

If someone really comes to cause trouble in the school, he is not afraid. But there are so many students in the school. And he also knows a thing or two about what those crazy fans are capable of.

Talbot thought for a moment with a gloomy face. As he was about to make order to Una, he saw Una look down at her phone. Then she looked up and said to him with a surprised face: "President Dylan, Nikita just sent a statement, saying that she has dropped out of school. If the netizens hold some grudges against her, aim at her, leave the school alone."

Talbot was stunned for a moment and showed a surprised expression on his face. "Nikita posted on Facebook?"

"Yeah, and..."

"And what?"

"And, the username of Nikita's Facebook account is that "Annoyed Mary Sue", whose work was copied by Yvonne before. I really didn't expect that the Annoyed Mary Sue was actually Nikita. And it was actually Nikita's work being copied by Yvonne!"

With Yvonne's plagiarism causing such a big sensation, Una naturally knows about it.

Everyone knows that Yvonne copied the original music score of a netizen named "Annoyed Mary Sue".

Una went to listen to the original music score of "Annoyed Mary Sue". Because she felt it very nice, she downloaded it to her phone and set it to be the ringtone of her incoming calls.

But Annoyed Mary Sue is actually Nikita.

When Una saw the statement made by Annoyed Mary Sue, she was completely stunned. And she couldn't be more shocked.

She knows that Nikita can write songs.

The two songs written by Nikita for Hugh are very nice.

Therefore, there is nothing surprising about Nikita being able to write music scores. In fact, what shocked her the most was that Yvonne copied two songs in succession, both of which were Nikita's works.

One is the biological daughter of the Swift family.

The other is the adopted daughter of the Swift family.

One was pampered and raised in a wealthy family.

The other grew up in a remote mountain village and suffered a lot since growing up.

The former's condition is countless times better than that of the latter.

But now, the latter surpasses the former in every aspect for not just a bit. Even the two songs which the former used in the competition and helped her win prizes are actually written by the latter.

This really gives her a lot of thoughts.

After Nikita walked out of the monitoring room, she received a WhatsApp message sent by Sullivan.

"Boss, do you need me to deal with those trending topics about you on Facebook?"

Nikita didn't know that she had made trending topics. After reading the WhatsApp message sent by Sullivan, she clicked on Facebook and then saw those overwhelming negative comments on her.

She also noticed that the official account of the First Senior High School had to shut its comment area down because of those crazy attacks made by netizens.

After looking through the news with no expression, Nikita sent a statement with her account which had a username as "Annoyed Mary Sue".

Her statement is as simple and direct as her personality. There is no long essay, only one sentence.

Annoyed Mary Sue: "I am Nikita, and I have dropped out of the First Senior High School. It is meaningless to attack the school. If you hold some grudges against me and have to take it out on me, aim at me. I'll be here."

Chapter 1370-Yvonne's plagiarism before caused a big sensation.

After that incident, many netizens followed the account of "Annoyed Mary Sue", including Una.

So as soon as Nikita sent out her statement on Facebook, Una saw it.

And the netizens who have followed this account also saw it.

In an instant, the statement sent out by Nikita attracted a lot of attention on the Internet. Within ten minutes, the number of people who forwarded it and left a comment had already exceeded 10,000. And it soon made the trending topic.

After this post made the trending topic, the number of forwarding and comments went up more crazily. Joslyn's fans had no place to vent their anger since the comment area of the official account of the First Senior High School was closed. So after knowing that the Annoyed Mary Sue was Nikita, the fans rushed to her comment area immediately and abused crazily.

"Bitch! Stay away from our idol!"

“To the hell with those titles of talented girl and high-quality learning example, except for marketing all day long that you are a schoolmaster and showing off your good look, what else have you got?”

“I think this woman’s desire to be popular has driven her crazy. Have you found that there are all kinds of hype news about her recently? She is clearly not an artist in the entertainment industry. But she can make headlines every day! Don’t you think it is strange?”

“Isn’t Xavier very awesome? Isn’t he the most powerful agent in the entertainment industry? Why does such an awesome person have to drag down my idol to hype for the artists signed to his company?”

“Now, I even began to doubt whether the plagiarism incident not long ago was also a mean of hyping.”

“I sympathized with you because of plagiarism. Now, I think you really deserve it.”

Nikita looked at the rising number of the comments in her comment area. She sent out another post on Facebook with no expression on her face.

Annoyed Mary Sue: I have nothing to do with some actress’s falling into the water. Besides, I already have a boyfriend. And I am not interested in any other men except for him.

As the moment when Nikita sent out this post on Facebook, the official account of the police station who took charge of investigating the drowning incident also sent out a statement on Facebook.

The official statement says that after careful investigation, it can be determined that Nikita had nothing to do with Vanessa’s falling into the water. It was Vanessa who accidentally fell into the water herself.

The official account of the police station not only issued this statement, but also attached a video.

The attached video is a clear version of the intercepted video of Vanessa falling into the water.

After netizens click into the video, they can see Vanessa's actions before falling into the water, such as first pushing away Nikita and then falling down towards the pool.

As soon as the statement of the police station was issued, the group of people who had been crusading against Nikita for bullying the actress in the same crew with her and maliciously pushing the actress into the water suddenly became silent.

After other people who enjoyed a big show on the Internet knew the truth, they all realized one by one that they were being used with the person with bad intentions.

It can be clearly seen in the video that Vanessa fell into the water on purpose. She didn't accidentally fall into the water.

Under normal circumstances, after she pushed away Nikita, it was impossible for her to walk in the direction of the pool.

Unless she were blind.

Since Vanessa is not blind, the only reason why she fell into the water is that she fell into the water on purpose.

Vanessa is not a crazy nut who jumps into the water for nothing. She must have her own purpose to jump into that pool.

Thinking of the fact that after Vanessa fell into the water, there was immediately some so-called staff coming out to break the news and imply in every possible way that it was Nikita who pushed Vanessa into the water.

Next, there were all kinds of insiders coming out to break the news. Everyone claimed to be a crew member, saying that they saw Nikita push Vanessa with their own eyes.
