

The Girl CB 1371

Chapter 1371-Subsequently, other “evil deeds” of Nikita were exploded one by one.

Although many netizens were misled by public opinion at first, and they believed the so-called “evil deeds” without much thinking, they now have come to react that maybe someone is targeting Nikita behind everyone’s back after the clarification of Nikita pushing people into the water.

Just after the police station issued a clarification statement, another clarification about Nikita’s school bullying was discovered on Facebook.

The person who sent out this statement is a high school student. And the nickname of her Facebook account is her name, Darleen.

Darleen: I was a student in Class One, Grade Three of the middle school in my hometown. My name is Darleen. Today, I saw a trending topic about school bullying on the Internet. I found that the heroine in that trending topic turned out to be a sister I used to know. Seeing that my sister, who is obviously very kind and upright, was maliciously slandered, saying that she bullied her classmates at school, I’m really furious.

That’s right. The sister I am talking about who is very kind and upright brave, is Nikita, the wicked person who bullies her classmates at school. Well, I don’t know why the people behind this maliciously framed Nikita and what kind of purpose they had. But since I saw you deliberately discredit my sister, I will never let you get what you want!

I can swear on my life that Nikita never bullied anyone. On the contrary, those who claimed that they were bullied by her are the real members of the evil forces of school bullying!

The reason I dare to say this is that I used to personally experience the so-called school bullying! If it weren’t for Nikita who stood out and helped me teach those people a lesson and let them no longer dare to bully me, I couldn’t imagine what my life would have been like! Yes, that’s right! Nikita did beat those rascals up and sent them to the hospital. But the reason why Nikita beat them up was that they bullied others first! Nikita couldn’t bear to see that. So she decided to teach them a lesson!

Those people who were hospitalized because of Nikita, are not innocent! None of them is!

I am Darleen from Class One, Grade Three. And I am willing to bear all legal responsibilities for every word I say. Also, I'd like to bother the relevant departments to carry on an on-the-spot investigation to find out about the truth!

After this girl named Darleen posted this article on Facebook, it soon made the trending topic too.

Then there were several students showing up in the comment area who reported their schools, classes and names and confirmed that what Darleen said was true. They all used to be in the same school with Nikita. And they all suffered from the school bullying before. It was Nikita who helped them out. After beating the boys who bullied them and sent them to the hospital, that group of rascal did not dare to bully them again.

"Jake and three other rascals, how dare you confuse right and wrong and slander Nikita by saying that it was Nikita who bullied you in the interview? You rats! Are there any students who were bullied by you?! Since you dare to be interviewed, do you dare to come out and confront us?!"

"Yeah! Do you dare to confront us?!"

"In those days, these rascals tricked a boy in our class into a remote place after school and almost caused him disabled just because the campus belle had a crush on that boy! I remember that the boy's family used to call the police at that time. If the relevant department goes to check now, the record could still be found."

After several girls from who used to be in the same school with Nikita stood out and told the truth, someone noticed that the trending topic about the school campus which used to firmly occupied the third place in the trending topic list, was immediately withdrawn from the list.

Chapter 1372-Several online celebrities who have a lot of followers also quietly deleted their posts on Facebook before.

The official account of some local news, which first released the interview audio of the boys who claimed to have been bullied by Nikita at school, also quietly deleted the interview audio.

No matter how stupid the netizens are, they can realize the truth by now. The news which claimed that Nikita bullied her classmate at school is just like the incident that she pushed Vanessa into the water. Both of them are fake news.

Someone is deliberately discrediting her.

Vanessa obviously jumped into the water by herself. Nikita was slandered to be the one who pushed her down.

Nikita obviously beat those people up because she didn't bear to see like bullying her classmates at school. But the whole thing was maliciously reported into a completely different story, which is that she was the one who bullied her classmates at school. All these things have a strong purpose.

All these things have a strong purpose, which is to ruin her reputation.

After two consecutive reversals, the netizens who were misled by public opinion instantly became smarter. And they no longer blindly believed in those so-called "shameful history".

Since these two things are both fake news.

Those gossips about Nikita hooking up with Joslyn and Xavier may also be fake.

"These news media are too shameless. They misled the public opinion before they even found out the truth about the whole story. Pushing people into the water, school bullying and disorderly private life... These slanders are trying to ruin a girl's reputation in all aspects. Does the person behind all these want to completely destroy her life and leave her no chance to turn things upside down again?"

"If there were no such a reversal, Nikita's reputation would have really been ruined. It seems that we have to be smarter when surfing online in the future. Don't choose sides too early, so as not to get slapped in the face after things are reversed."

“Oh, my god... So... Nikita obviously had offended someone. And she was being maliciously discredited. I want to apologize for my own behavior. I didn’t know the true story before I believed those rumors about Nikita. And I said a lot of harsh words. I won’t be so impulsive in the future.”

“Am I the only one who thinks those boys are disgusting? Clearly, they were the one who bullied classmates at school. And they were actually shameless enough to be interviewed and accuse Nikita of school bullying! Fortunately, there were students coming out to clarify. Otherwise, who else dares to have good deeds after this if people who helped others out have to suffer such slanders?”

Chapter 1373-She was stunned for a second. Then she put down her phone and looked up at the man who was walking towards her.

The man walked up to her and stopped his steps.

“Why are you here?” Nikita’s eyes fell on Sheehan’s handsome and deep facial features. She asked with some doubts.

Sheehan didn’t answer her immediately. Instead, he took her hand before speaking in a low voice: “I worry about you.”

“You worry about me?” Nikita picked the eyebrows and quickly realized that Sheehan should have seen those rumors about her on Facebook.

He said he worried her. Does he worry that she may do something irrational after being affected by those negative comments on the Internet?

“Yeah. I can’t leave you alone.” Sheehan held her hand more tightly. “You can rest assured that I will help you revenge. Vernon has found out who is behind all these.”

“I will make this person pay for this.”

“You have sent someone to look into this?”

“Yeah. Those rumors about you are deliberately manipulated by someone.”

Of course, Nikita knew someone was deliberately ruining her reputation behind her back.

And she could even guess who was behind all these.

It's so obvious.

Therefore, she didn't even bother to do the investigation.

However, she didn't expect Sheehan to investigate it.

In fact, she didn't care much about those rumors. When she saw those so-called "evil deeds of hers" just now, she didn't feel angry. She just felt it quite ridiculous.

But judging from Sheehan's attitude, she realized that he seemed to care about that a lot.

Nikita doesn't want to let him down. After all, he has been doing all these things for her. If she acts too careless, it doesn't seem appropriate.

After thinking about it for a while, Nikita pretended to be very interested and curious. She asked: "So who hates me so much?"

"Vanessa, an actress in the same crew with you."

Except for Nikita and the women in his own family, it is difficult for Sheehan to remember the names of other women. But this Vanessa managed to make him remember her.

After hearing Vanessa's name, Nikita was not surprised at all.

This is something under her expectation.

She had already figured out that Vanessa was the one who was behind all these.

“I was suspicious of her.” Nikita also doesn’t know why Vanessa holds so much hostility against her. She not only framed her of pushing her into the water, but also started all these rumors about her, as if she were the one who killed her father.

However, she is not interested in guessing why Vanessa targeted her.

“I have asked Vernon to post all the evidence on Facebook in the name of the Lambert Group. And the local police station has also received all the evidence that can prove that she framed and slandered you. Next, the lawyers of the Lambert Group will sue her for the slander.”

“This kind of person who has such bad intentions should learn her lesson in prison for two or three years, so that she can have a deeper understanding that she is responsible for all the words she said and what kind of price she should pay for starting rumors.”

After hearing him say so, Nikita didn’t say anything else.

Judging from Sheehan’s tone, she assumed that he wouldn’t let Vanessa go easily.

The lawyers of the Lambert Group never made moves casually. But once it’s the case taken over by this group of lawyers, they never lose a lawsuit.

Vanessa made people spread rumors about her “evil deeds” in the past. And the people who read it and forwarded it had reached to a certain amount that reached the sentencing standard.

Once the charges are convicted, if the circumstances are serious, they will be sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment of no more than three years, criminal detention, public surveillance or deprivation of political rights.

Just now, Sheehan said he would send Vanessa to the prison and let her stay in there for two or three years. It means that he would let Vanessa suffer the most serious punishment in defamation.

Chapter 1374-Vanessa's life would be ruined even if she only needed to be in prison for half a year, let alone three years.

People who have been in prison can definitely no longer be artists.

Her career in the entertainment industry has certainly come to an end.

Her criminal experience will also be recorded in her personal profile which stays with her for the rest of her life. No matter what job she chooses in the future, her criminal record can be found out.

Such a price is undoubtedly fatal to a young and beautiful woman who is on the rise in her career.

"Why are you so silent?" Sheehan pinched her palm. "Do you think I am too cruel?"

Nikita shook her head.

Sheehan pinched her palm again: "I saw your post on Facebook."

"Hmm?" Nikita looked at him. "Which one?"

Sheehan's eyes darkened down. He held her hand tightly. "The one you just sent out, saying that you have a boyfriend."

"Oh, that's what you are talking about." Nikita looked the man in the eye. Seeing that his eyes seemed to look different from usual, she nodded. "Well, I did say that. What's wrong? Is it too abrupt?"

Thinking of Sheehan's identity, Nikita thought he might have some concerns. So she added: "If you think that's a little inappropriate. I can delete it."

"I don't feel it's inappropriate."

“Then what do you mean?”

As Sheehan was about to speak up, his phone rang.

It’s a call from Vernon.

He answered the phone. And Vernon’s respectful voice came from the other end of the phone: “Mr. Lambert, there is something I need to ask you for instructions.”

“What?”

“It’s about Miss Swift.” Vernon paused for a second on the other side and continued: “The official blog of the Lambert Group has sent out all the evidence we found. Now, everyone is curious about what is the relationship between the Lambert Group and Miss Swift and why we help Miss Swift.

Do we need to explain this to the majority of netizens?”

Sheehan thought about it for a few seconds and said: “There is no need for that.”

Vernon seemed to be quite appalled, as if he didn’t expect Sheehan to say this. After a while, Vernon spoke up again: “Okay, got it! Then I will inform the relevant departments that we don’t have to respond to the netizens.”

Sheehan looked down and took a look at the girl next to him. “I will personally respond to this matter.”

When Vernon was appalled again, Sheehan hung up the phone.

“Niky, I want to make our relationship public. What do you think?” Although Nikita has indicated on Facebook that she has a boyfriend, Sheehan still needs to ask for her advice in advance before publicizing their relationship.

If she doesn't want to do this, he will respect her choice.

Of course, selfishly speaking, he wants her to agree.

Hearing that he said he wanted to make their relationship public, Nikita was stunned for a moment:
"Make our relationship public? How?"

"We can announce it on Facebook." Sheehan took out his phone. "If you're okay with this, I can post to announce our relationship on Facebook now. If you feel that we are not there yet, I can continue to wait for you."

"Let me see what you just posted."

Nikita held out her hand to grab his phone.

"You can click on your own Facebook and check." Sheehan didn't give her his phone.

Nikita raised her eyebrows. "Really?"

She didn't ask Sheehan for his phone again. She took out her own phone and logged into Facebook. As she just entered the homepage of Facebook, she saw the man who posted one minute ago had already made the trending topic.

"Surprised! The president of the Lambert Group's officially announced his relationship!"

"The Relationship between Nikita and Sheehan has been exposed!"

She and Sheehan occupied the first and second place in the trending topic list.

The speed of them making the trending topic seemed to be a little abnormal.

Seeing that her name and Sheehan's name appeared together in the trending topic, Nikita thought about it for a while. Then she looked up at the man beside her: "Is this trending topic about us arranged by you?"

Otherwise, he wouldn't have ranked the first in the trending topic list one minute after he sent out that post.

Sheehan is not an artist in the entertainment industry. And he usually keeps a low profile.

His Facebook account is still unauthenticated. And no one knows who he is at all.

Under such circumstances, the reason why he could make the trending topic so fast could only be that it was arranged by him.

The girl's eyes looked so dark. And the way she looked at him obviously showed that she had seen through his thoughts. Sheehan went silent for a minute and then admitted: "Yes, I arranged it."

Nikita picked up a smile. "You actually made us rank the first. Mr. Lambert, are you really that eager to let others know that we are dating?"

When Sheehan saw the girl smile, there was a faint dimple showing on the corners of his mouth. He lowered his voice: "Yeah... I'm that eager to let them know."

"Okay, I see."

After Nikita finished saying so, she bowed her head down and clicked on the screen of her phone for a while, forwarding Sheehan's post of announcing their relationship.

Chapter 1375-The username of Sheehan's Facebook account is the first letter of his family name, L.

L: @Annoyed Mary Sue I'll be home tomorrow. What gift do you want, my princess?

If there were this Facebook account alone, the netizens would never know that this is Sheehan.

But after reading the trending topic, the netizens will see this post sent out by L first when they click in. So it is not difficult for netizens to guess who L is.

Nikita forwarded this post of Sheehan's.

Annoyed Mary Sue: I haven't made up my decision yet. I'll tell you when I think of one.

Nikita's reply is equivalent to confirming their relationship news on the trending topic.

The netizens were collectively shocked.

"What the hell is going on? Is this Sheehan, the president of the Lambert Group, the ruler of the richest Lambert family?"

"Did the ruler of the Lambert Group just announce that he is dating Nikita?? Did I see it right?!"

"Oh, my whole family was shocked! So the boyfriend Nikita mentioned when she made that clarification is actually Sheehan?!"

"If Nikita's boyfriend is really Sheehan, it is certain that the rumors about her hooking up with Joslyn and Xavier must be fake."

"Of course, if my boyfriend were Sheehan, I wouldn't have eyes for other men!"

“The ruler of the Lambert family is quite powerful indeed. However, it can’t prove that Nikita won’t have eyes for other man. Who knows what Sheehan looks like. Maybe he is not good-looking.”

“How is it possible? If Sheehan doesn’t look good, he won’t make the daughter of the Garrett family obsessed with him for so many years and refuse to let him go! Although I don’t know what he looks like, I can guarantee that he must be a handsome guy!”

At first, it was Sheehan’s arrangement to let this announcement make the trending topic.

But after that, the heat of discussion was no longer controlled by him.

The heat of the discussion over their trending topic kept rising. And it actually caught more attention than those rumors about her “evil deeds”. While the number of people who forwarded and left comments on Sheehan’s post of announcing their relationship was going up crazily.

Sheehan is not an artist who works in the entertainment industry. But today, his official announcement on Facebook caused a bigger sensation than any popular stars in the entertainment industry.

Not long after Nikita forwarded Sheehan’s post on Facebook, the official account of the Lambert Group forwarded their posts on Facebook too.

When the official account of the Lambert Group forwarded their posts, there were no words attached, just some heart emojis.

With the forwarding of the official account of the Lambert Group, some netizens who are still questioning Sheehan’s identity suddenly have nothing to say. Since the official account of the Lambert Group forwarded their posts, it meant Sheehan’s identity cannot be faked.

Therefore, the love affair between Sheehan and Nikita is true.

It is also true that Nikita’s boyfriend is the ruler of the Lambert Group.

Now, there are only a small group of people who is still unwilling to give up. They are all Joslyn's fans who insist on their idol being seduced by Nicole. After knowing that they can no longer question Sheehan's identity, they begin to question Sheehan's appearance.

They are all saying that Sheehan certainly doesn't look very good. Otherwise, why didn't they post any group photos of them even when they were announcing their relationship?

Nikita certainly takes a fancy to their idol's good look!

"Nikita."

There was a slightly surprised voice sounding behind her. Nikita turned around and saw the director coming followed by several leading actors in the crew. The director first noticed that she and Sheehan were holding hands together. Then he looked up at Sheehan with surprise and curiosity showing in his eyes.

He had some clues about Xavier's crush on Nikita.

Then who is this man who acts intimately with Nikita now?

Sheehan rarely does interviews and seldom appears in public. So not many people know him.

Not only does the director take him as a stranger, but several other people also don't know his identity.

But everyone can tell that his status must be extraordinary, because his aura is different from that of ordinary people.

Even Joslyn and Seymour, who are superior in appearance, immediately looked inferior when they are in front of him. They can tell at first glance that this man should be a powerful person who is in the upper position for a long time.

When the director was checking Sheehan with his eyes, Sheehan looked down at him.

For no reason, the director suddenly got nervous.

“Nikita, who is this gentleman?” The director looked at Sheehan and asked.

The rest of the group also looked at Sheehan with different eyes, guessing his identity.

Henrietta is the most surprised one among them.

She didn't expect that Nikita had already had a boyfriend. And it's also a man who looks so handsome and noble.

The man seems to have an extraordinary status, unlike ordinary office workers nor ordinary businessmen. Instead, he looks like rich and powerful person who was born in an aristocratic family.

Moreover, it seems that he doesn't come from the ordinary kind of giants.

“Hello, I am Nikita's boyfriend. And my name is Sheehan. In the past few days in the crew, I am grateful to you for helping me take care of Nikita.” Sheehan's stretched out his hand to the director before Nikita could speak up. And he naturally introduced his relationship with Nikita to everyone.

The director was stunned: “Sheehan?”

Why does he think the name sound a little familiar?

With such doubts, the director shook hands with Sheehan and couldn't help but ask: “Excuse me if it's inappropriate, but can I know what Mr. Lambert does now?”

Before Sheehan answered, he smiled and added: “I really feel that your name sounds a bit familiar. So I wonder whether I have heard it somewhere before.”

Chapter 1376-“Director Koan, he... He is the president of the Lambert Group.”

A surprised voice sounded behind him. It was Seymour who had just looked through Facebook.

Seymour originally felt that the name Sheehan sounded a bit familiar, as if he had heard someone mention it to him before. But he couldn't remember it for a while. After checking the Facebook, he finally remembered him.

He has a friend who is outside this circle. And he is a famous rich young master. It was him who mentioned Sheehan to him.

This friend of his is known as Master Karsyn in the media circle. And his family is very rich. Every year, his family's business ranks first in a wealth list, so many netizens call him the son of the richest couple in this city.

Originally, Seymour also thought this friend of his was particularly awesome.

But once, his friend told him that the Karsyn family didn't even have a chance to touch the threshold of the top class in the upper-class circle. Only people who don't know their circle would really believe that the Karsyn family was the richest family here.

In fact, there are only four real top dignitaries.

The Lambert family, the Garrett family, the James family and the Samuel family.

Among these four great families, the Lambert family ranks the first.

When it comes to being richer than a whole country, only the Lambert family can be considered as the real rich family.

His Karsyn family, doesn't even have the qualification to serve the Lambert family tea.

And when it comes to the best and most capable person in their circle, it would be Sheehan, the ruler of the Lambert family.

These are Master Karsyn's original words: "You think I am someone. But to tell you the truth, compared with the Lambert family one, I'm nobody who has no points of living. People like him can only be considered as a powerful person."

At that time, Seymour was thinking, what kind of person would the ruler of the Lambert Group be, who could completely conquer Master Karsyn and make him laugh at himself like this? And How outstanding and awesome could he be?

Now that he has met him in person,

Seymour has to admit that Master Karsyn was not exaggerating at all.

Regardless of anything else, Sheehan is already unbeatable when it comes to appearance.

Even he, a man, thinks he is very handsome.

Not only his appearance is extremely superior, but his family background is also extremely outstanding. He became the president of the Lambert Group at a young age. Master Karsyn was absolutely right when he said compared to him, others had no points of living.

"The president of the Lambert Group?"

Hearing Seymour say so, everyone except for Nikita and Sheehan had a shocked expression on their faces.

Henrietta was even more shocked.

She widened her eyes in consternation and stared straight at Sheehan.

At this moment, Vanessa, who had just finished packing and was ready to leave the crew, walked over and happened to hear what Seymour just said. Vanessa was shocked. She raised her head and looked at Sheehan and Nikita who were holding hands together in disbelief.

The reason why Vanessa aimed at Nikita was that she was jealous of Nicole. After being provoked by Henrietta, she was angered and thought that it was Nikita who took the initiative to seduce Joslyn. So I just wanted to take advantages of her drowning to destroy Nikita.

But if Nikita has a boyfriend, and her boyfriend is actually a man whom Joslyn can't be compared with, how can she have eyes for Joslyn and take the initiative to seduce Joslyn?

"Nikita, you have a boyfriend?" Vanessa said in disbelief: "Then why didn't you tell us earlier?!"

If she knew Nikita had a boyfriend, and her boyfriend was the president of the Lambert Group, how would she give Nikita a hard time?

She wouldn't have the guts to target at Nikita!

Unless she doesn't want to continue her career in the entertainment industry.

She can't afford to offend the president of the Lambert Group.

Chapter 1377-Nikita turned around and looked at her indifferently. She didn't say anything.

"Why didn't you tell me earlier that you had a boyfriend?" Vanessa seemed to feel angry and unconvinced. She asked loudly again. Thinking of what she has been suffering now, she attributed all the mistakes to Nikita.

Nikita still looked at her coldly and remained in silence.

Seeing that Nikita didn't intend to answer her question, Vanessa couldn't bear to see her like this. As she was about to continue questioning her, she heard a deep and cold voice.

The man's voice was very pleasing to the ear. But it was also extremely freezing, as if it were wrapped in ice. Hearing this voice again made people shudder.

As Vanessa looked up, she saw a pair of dark and cold eyes. The man's eyes seemed to be wrapped in ice too. After they looked at each other for less than three seconds, she was scared.

"Is she the one who framed you for pushing her into the water?" Sheehan's eyes did not stay on Vanessa for too long. After a few seconds, he looked away and asked Nikita in a low voice.

"Hmm..." Nikita replied casually.

Sheehan nodded without saying much. He just said: "Got it."

The conversation between the two was very simple.

But Vanessa, who was standing not far away and heard all the conversations between the two, once again began to shudder.

Especially when she heard Sheehan said "Got it" in a light tone.

"I didn't frame her for pushing me into the water!" Vanessa knew that Sheehan was not a person who she could afford to offend. Even though she hates Nikita to her bones, she has to defend herself. "At that time, she was the only one around me when I fell into the water. Of course, she was the first person who I was suspicious of."

"Now, I know that I misunderstood her. I can apologize to her."

"Misunderstood her?" Sheehan narrowed his eyes. And his voice sounded deeper. "You can save this explanation to say it in other places."

"In other places?" Vanessa was stunned. She didn't understand what he meant.

But on the next second, when the police suddenly appeared to her, her face changed instantly.

After receiving the notice from the supervisor, the police station attached great importance to Vanessa's crime of spreading rumors and discrediting Nikita on Facebook. They immediately set up a special team and rushed to the crew.

A leader of the police with four subordinates walked to Vanessa.

"Are you Vanessa?" With Vanessa's panicked look, the policeman showed her the police officer's card. "We received an alarm. You are now suspected of participating in a case of the network slander. You need to go back to the police station with us for deeper investigation now."

Vanessa's face changed instantly.

"What? What network slander case? Officer, is there some misunderstanding here? How can I be involved in such a thing as you said?"

At this moment, Vanessa still doesn't know that what she did behind everyone's back has been found out clearly.

The police ignored her defense and continued to say in a straight tone: "After you go to the police station with us for a further investigation, we will know whether you were a part of that."

"Now, please cooperate with us to accept relevant investigations. If you are unwilling to cooperate, we can only take you away against your will."

Vanessa finally understood what Sheehan meant just now.

"Vanessa, I really didn't expect you to be such a person. The evidence that you hired people on the Internet to discredit Nikita on Facebook has been posted. Do you still want to argue about this?"

“Now, I finally understand what you meant when you told me yesterday that you’ve prepared something good for Nikita suffer. We are all in the same crew, it is too vicious of you to bully the newcomer in such a despicable way.”

Chapter 1378-After knowing Sheehan’s identity, Henrietta was shocked and began to regret her attitude towards Nikita.

When she saw the police coming to take Vanessa away, she suddenly became scared.

Although Nikita falling into the water has nothing to do with her, she also added fuel to the flames. And in the end, she felt guilty.

At this moment, she had to admit that she stood up and expressed her position to somehow please Nikita.

Vanessa turned around and looked at her in disbelief.

If it weren’t for the fact that Henrietta had been speaking ill of Nikita in front of her and implying her in all kinds of ways that Nikita intended to seduce Joslyn, she wouldn’t have come up with the idea to destroy Nikita because she was too jealous and angry.

It can be said that Henrietta is definitely one of the reasons why she ends up like this now.

No matter how stupid Vanessa is, she realizes what’s going on right now.

She was used by Henrietta!

Henrietta has a crush on Xavier. Before, there were rumors in the crew, saying that Xavier and Nikita had an unusual relationship. How could Henrietta not care about that?

In the past, when other actresses became the heroine of the gossips involved Xavier, Henrietta would make them suffer in every possible way. But when it comes to Nikita, she seems to be very generous.

She never mentioned Nikita and Xavier. But she always said in front of her that Joslyn was interested in Nikita.

Henrietta knows that she has a crush on Joslyn.

Of course, the reason why she always brings up Joslyn's crush on Nikita in front of her is that she wants to arouse her hatred for Nikita, so that she can target at Nikita.

After Vanessa realized that she had been used, her face turned livid with anger. She pointed to Henrietta and said angrily: "Henrietta, did you do this on purpose?"

Henrietta pretended that she didn't understand her words: "What do you mean?"

Vanessa knew she was completely screwed. But she would never let Henrietta get away from this.

Even if she is going to end up in hell, she will drag Henrietta down with her!

"You were the one who told me more than once that Joslyn had a crush on Nikita. You also told me that she was young, but quite scheming. After a few days in the crew, Joslyn and Seymour were both seduced by her!"

"You implied that she was a profligate girl in every possible way behind everyone's back. Why are you here pretending to the nice one now?"

"You provoked our contradiction over and over again just to make me hate her and use me to deal with her, didn't you?"

"I understand everything now. From beginning to end, I'm one part of your scheming plan!"

Henrietta's face changed. And there was panic showing in her eyes. She pinched her fingers tightly and pretended to be calm. Then she said: "What are you talking about? When did I ever say those things?”

“Henrietta, you did this to me! I will kill you!” Vanessa suddenly shouted out and rushed towards Henrietta. Then she stretched out to scratch Henrietta’s face.

“Ah! What are you doing? Are you crazy? Let go of me!”

Henrietta didn’t have enough time to dodge her attack. Vanessa got her and grabbed her hair. She screamed out in pain.

Two people entangled each other into a ball.

Henrietta is no match for Vanessa. After being pushed to the ground by Vanessa, Vanessa rode on her.

Vanessa held out her hand and wanted to scratch her face again. But she was blocked by Henrietta’s hand. And Henrietta also seized the opportunity to grab her neck.

When women fights, it’s never a beautiful scene. They either tear each other’s clothes up or pull each other’s hair. When the people around them finally reacted to this situation and came forward to separate them, their faces and bodies are already full of bruises.

There were several bloody marks on Henrietta’s face and arms. Her long hair was scattered. And her clothes were all messed up.

Chapter 1379-Vanessa looked no better than her. There were also bruises on her face. And her clothes are disheveled.

In the end, both of them were taken away by the police.

For a time, the female No.1 and female No.2 of the crew were both taken to the police station. And Vanessa was also involved in criminal cases. So there was no way to continue the shooting.

The director had no choice but to give the whole crew a few days off.

At the same time.

In the hospital of N City.

Nikita and Sheehan's announcement of their relationship caused a big sensation. Apart from Facebook, they made the trending topic on other major news Apps. Basically, people all over the country know about this.

Even Patrick and Margot, who don't have accounts on Facebook, have seen relevant news.

When Margot saw the headline, her first reaction was whether it would be a person who had the same name and surname as Nikita.

But inexplicably, she had a bad feeling about this.

After she clicked on the news link and saw Nikita's personal data written in the specific content, her face turned pale immediately. Her hand trembled. And her phone slipped out of her palm.

"Pa!" It fell to the ground.

Patrick just came back after buying foods for them. He pushed open the door and saw that Margot seemed to have lost her soul and looked like hell, as if she had taken a big blow.

She didn't respond when her phone fell to the ground.

She just sat motionlessly on the bed with her lips moving, as if she was murmuring something. But her voice was so low that he couldn't hear her clearly at all.

Patrick walked quickly towards her with the lunch box he packed in the hotel.

After putting the lunch box on the table and picking up the phone from the ground, he asked Margot doubtfully: "Margot, what's wrong with you? What happened?"

Margot didn't seem to hear his voice. She remained in the same posture and same expression and sat there motionlessly. Her eyes looked empty without focus.

Seeing her like this, Patrick frowned and pressed on her shoulder with both hands. He asked with concerns: "Margot, what's going on? Tell me what happened!"

"Is it about your illness?..."

Patrick thought that Margot's health condition was getting worse.

A few days ago, Margot was hospitalized and began the regular treatment.

"How about we ask your mom to call Nikita now and let her come over to treat you. Didn't Mom say that she promised to treat you? I know that you don't want to see her now. Just suck it up for the time being. Nothing is more important than your health."

After Patrick pressed on Margot's shoulder, it seemed that he pressed her soul back to her body. She trembled all over and slowly raised her head.

Her eyes without focus fell on Patrick. And the shock in her eyes had not completely faded yet.

"It has nothing to do with my illness." Margot moved her lips, stretched out a hand and grabbed Patrick's arm. It seemed to be extremely difficult for her to spit out those words. And it took her a long time to finish this sentence.

"Then what is it?" Patrick became more and more confused.

“Nikita, Nikita, she...” Margot’s lips moved again. And her voice sounded hoarse. “Nikita has a boyfriend.”

“What? Nikita started dating?” Patrick was stunned. He felt surprised.

Margot still looked pale. She nodded.

“How do you know that?” Patrick asked curiously.

“I just... saw the news.” Margot thought of the content of the news she just read, his eyes became empty again.

How is it possible?

The man who was with Nikita before is actually Sheehan!

She was still planning how to introduce Yvonne to Sheehan and dreaming of getting connection of the Lambert family.

Chapter 1380- Regret

But she didn’t expect that the man she wanted to make up to for the Swift family was Nikita’s boyfriend.

Margot had seen Sheehan before, so she could guess that Sheehan was an extraordinary man.

But no matter how smart she was, she couldn’t find out that a relative of the Lambert family she thought was the master of the Lambert family.

She just recalled the things happened before.

She found that Nikita has been in contact with Sheehan for a long time.

At that time, she disliked Nikita very much.

When Margot thought of all the previous things, she felt that her heart was being pulled by something, and she felt very uncomfortable.

In addition to her pain in heart, she also felt regretful.

“News, what news?” Patrick looked at her in confusion. “Is it related to Nikita? Or is it related to her boyfriend?”

“Both.” Margot closed her eyes and then said in tiredness, “Patrick, do you know who Nikita’s boyfriend is?”

Patrick thought a little, “I have seen several good young people with her before. Which one do you refer to? Is it that lawyer or someone else?”

The lawyer Patrick mentioned was Sampson.

Another one was Sheehan.

Once Nikita and Sheehan went to visit the antique market and met Patrick. Although he only met the two young people once, he was very impressed by them.

Especially the young man he met in the antique market, Patrick was particularly impressed by him.

Margot was silent for a long time.

“Who is it?” Patrick was more curious, and his face changed because of some strange ideas, “Is it a criminal?”

Otherwise, why did she feel difficult to say it?

Although Nikita has cut off the relations with them, from the perspective of laws, she had nothing to do with them.

But after all, she was still a member of the Swift family, and the blood of Swift family was flowing in her body.

They had no relations in terms of laws, but they always had the same blood.

If she really had a boyfriend who committed crimes, it would be very disgraceful to them.

Margot shook her head, but remained silent.

Patrick was a little anxious, "Well, since he is not a criminal, why don't you just say it?" "He is Sheehan."

Margot was silent for a long time, and finally said the name in a difficulty.

Patrick didn't have the time to react and was stunned for a while, "Sheehan Lambert?"

Margot raised her eyes with great remorse and said word by word, "The master of the Lambert family. Patrick, Nikita's boyfriend is Sheehan, the Lambert family."
