

The Girl CB 1391

Chapter 1391-Sheehan was a little surprised, but soon, he calmed down.

“You know Duke Rosen?”

Nikita shook her head: “I don’t know.”

“No?” Sheehan puzzled, “The banquet tomorrow night...”

Of course, not everyone can attend his dinner party.

Those who can go to the dinner party are all people with high social status.

“I don’t know Duke Rosen, but I know Prince Wale. Prince Wale told me that Duke Rosen had a very strange disease and wanted me to help him with it. I promised him.”

“Tomorrow night, and I will find time to see what disease Duke Rosen has.”

“You know Prince Wale?”

Sheehan was silent for a while, surprised again.

The longer he spent with Nikita, the more he felt that she was like a mystery.

When he thought he knew her well enough, something happened that made him realize how little he knew about her.

Nikita nodded. Looking at Sheehan in surprise, she told him how she knew him.

After listening, Sheehan understood: “So just like you cured grandpa, Prince Wale admired you because of your medical skills and became a friend with you.”

“That’s about it.” Nikita said lightly.

“Sometimes, I’m really curious...” Sheehan looked at the girl who looked indifferent, calm, and humble at any time, with a very dark and deep sight.

Nikita looked at him: “What are you curious about?”

“Where did you learn this medical skill?”

According to the information revealed by Nikita, she started practice medicine a long time ago.

Even the world’s first-class medical leaders can’t help all kinds of intractable diseases, but she can easily solve them.

For example, she cured Prince Wale’s illness, his grandfather’s illness, and Corley’s leg.

Her medical skills can no longer be described by the word superb.

It is no exaggeration to use the word miracle in her medical skills.

Nikita saw through his curiosity. She smiled and said: “Didn’t you investigate me long ago? Why, haven’t you investigated where I learned my skills?”

“Are you really a disciple of Lemuel?” Sheehan never doubted this matter before, but now he is a little uncertain.

Nikita’s medical skill is so good.

If Lemuel is her master, wouldn't her medical skills be proved to be better?

Sheehan can't imagine what kind of level it is for people who are better than Nikita.

What's more, Lemuel was only existing in rumors. No one knows how old Lemuel is, and whether Lemuel is a man or woman.

"Did you mean Lemmy?" Nikita smiled. When she mentioned Lemuel, she didn't have the respect and worship between disciple and master. Instead, her tone was quite loose. "We are really disciple and master."

Sheehan listened to the girl's loose tone, and suddenly had a guess.

He squinted, and his dark eyes showed surprise.

Is it...

The girl lifted her eyes, smiling: "Have you figured it out?"

Chapter 1392-Sheehan did guess.

But at this moment, he was still surprised.

"So, you are not the disciple of Lemuel, but Lemuel is your disciple?" When asked this sentence, the man actually had the answer in his heart.

Nikita, "Hmm."

Sheehan: "..."

His mood at the moment is complicated.

He tried his best to find Lemuel all over the world, but later he didn't find Lemuel, but found Nikita, who is said to be a disciple of Lemuel.

He doubted Nikita's skills when he decided to let her treat his grandpa.

He never thought that he found Lemuel's master.

"What's the matter?" Nikita looked at him being silent for a long time, and raised her brows, "You are very surprised?"

"Hmm." Sheehan nodded, "Very unexpected."

He never expected Nikita turned out to be Master Lemuel.

He knew she was good.

But powerful as such...

Sheehan felt that he was under increasing pressure.

His girlfriend is so outstanding, which makes him very stressed.

He has always been confident. Only in front of Nikita, he will lose self-confidence. He is insecure.

He has been careful to maintain this hard-won feelings, even though humble, but also sweet.

He always knew that she was different from common people.

He also took a fancy to her individuality.

But she sometimes makes him feel insecure.

It's the situation at this moment...

"I didn't mean to keep it from you." Nikita misunderstood his silence, thought he didn't like her hiding identity. She then explained gently, "If you ask me, I will tell you the truth."

"But you never asked, and I won't take the initiative to mention it."

She won't take the initiative to tell him these things.

But if he wants to know, she will tell him.

"I don't mean to blame you." Sheehan was silent for a few seconds. He said everything from his heart, looking into the girl's dark eyes. "Niky, I'm just a little scared."

"Scared?" Nikita paused, "Of what?"

Sheehan looked at her: "I am afraid that one day, you will really leave me."

Sheehan did not take it as a joke when old Mr. Lambert said Nikita will choose her peers in the future.

There is indeed an age gap between him and Nikita.

And this age gap is not small for him.

The generation gap could be huge.

He is really afraid that she will dislike and prefer boys of the same age as her.

She is so good, and there will naturally be many people who like her. Some of his most confident advantages and advantages don't stand out in front of her.

Because she doesn't lack anything.

Nikita noticed he's being serious, thus, she thought for a while and asked, "Then, how can I make you feel at ease? Or, what do you want me to do?"

Sheehan smiled, and shook his head. "I don't know. Niky, you didn't do anything wrong. And you don't have to do the things I want."

"But you said you were afraid that I would leave you."

"Hmm." Sheehan nodded, "I am afraid."

Chapter 1393-He's insecure because he cared too much.

If he doesn't care, he won't take it seriously.

He was deeply insecure for Nikita.

"If you are really afraid that I will leave you, otherwise..." Nikita quickly thought of an idea. Without thinking for too long, she said to Sheehan in an ordinary and indifferent tone, "We will go to the Y country to register for marriage as grandpa said?"

She wouldn't mind if it would make her partner feel secure.

She felt marriage is rather sacred.

She will think carefully about getting married.

For the other half, she naturally chooses carefully.

She didn't want to treat her marriage casually, but she didn't think marriage was more important than anything else.

For her, if she has a suitable and favorite partner, she can naturally consider getting married.

Although she didn't want to get married so early.

But if Sheehan asks, she will not refuse.

Listening to her talking about marriage with such an understatement tone, Sheehan paused.

He thought he had misheard.

"You just said..." He had doubts in his eyes. "Let's go to the Y Country for getting married?"

Nikita calmly looked at him in the eyes and nodded: "Well, if we register for marriage, will you be not afraid that I will leave you?"

Sheehan heard clearly this time, and he froze again, with surprise in his deep dark eyes.

Nikita was calm. Looking into his eyes, she noticed Sheehan didn't say anything. She said, raising her eyebrow: "If you don't want to, then forget it."

She just remembered that Sheehan, a man of this status, can't get married casually.

How is it possible that they could get married whatever she wants.

Once the two people enter marriage, there will be more involvement in the future.

The biggest involvement is the wealth of the Lambert family.

As the other half, she can enjoy half of all his wealth in the future.

When a celebrity or an ordinary person marries a wealthy family, it is necessary to sign a pre-up.

Sheehan hesitated probably because of this.

If she really wants to sign, Nikita feel it's fine.

Anyway, she never thought about his money from beginning to end.

However, although she didn't care for his money, he probably feels a little uncomfortable more or less.

After all, they are already getting married, and it should be a very close relationship with each other. If he doesn't even have basic trust in his close partner, she will feel a little bad.

"I'm not unwilling." Sheehan was silent for a long time and finally came to his senses, but he still looked somewhat uncertain. "I was just too surprised and found it a little unbelievable." "What you just said is true? Are you really willing to go to the Y Country with me to for marriage?"

"Don't you feel insecure?" Nikita lightly said, "Then we registered to get married, are you able to have a sense of security now?"

Sheehan was silent again.

After about a minute, he said in a complicated tone: "Niky, if I am selfish and only think of myself, I certainly hope to get married to you immediately."

Chapter 1394-Nikita looked at him, a little puzzled: "You mean, you want to get married to me?"

Sheehan nodded: "Of course I am willing. I even hope to marry you immediately."

"Then let's go and get the certificate." Nikita didn't understand what he thought, "Do you have any concerns?"

"My concern is you."

"Me?" Nikita blinked, "What do you mean?"

Sheehan looked at her: "You are still young, I can't be too selfish to let you enter marriage at such a young age."

Even if Nikita is willing now, he is afraid that she will regret it later.

"But, I said I would. Sheehan, are you afraid that I will regret it in the future and blame you?" Nikita didn't understand what Sheehan thought at first, but now, she probably understood.

Sheehan didn't make any noise.

Nikita knew she guessed right.

He was just afraid that she would regret it later.

Knowing his concerns, Nikita laughed: "Can't I get divorce?"

“Of course.” Sheehan seemed to be afraid that she would misunderstand and explained, “Grandpa is a very enlightened person and will never set any rules for us.”

“That will do.” Nikita said casually, “If I regret, we divorce. Marriages don’t just bind the two for a lifetime.”

Sheehan: “...”

Listening to her talk about divorce in such a relaxed and casual tone, his mood is complicated.

Although she did make a good point...

If they get married, they can get divorced.

But now he suddenly feels that even that certificate can’t give him a sense of security.

He found a girlfriend who didn’t play by common sense at all, and even now he can’t guess what she will do in the next second.

Sheehan saw that she didn’t seem to be saying jokes, but was serious. After pondering for a moment, he asked carefully: “Do you really want to get married?”

Nikita asked him: “Are you willing?”

Sheehan looked at her with deep and dark eyes, saying gently: “I am happy to do it.”

“Then let’s find a time when we are all free and go to the Y Country?”

“Have you really thought it over? Do you want to think it over again and tell me your decision in a few days?”

For Sheehan, marriage is very, very sacred and very, very important.

He is still very traditional in thinking about some things...

...like getting married.

There are many commercial marriages among the rich and powerful families.

But in his case, the other half he wants to marry must be the one he really loves. What he is looking for is never a business partner, but a soul mate.

He is sure that he is willing to marry Nikita and let her become the love of his life.

He was just afraid that she would not think clearly out of impulse.

No matter how precocious she is, she is still a little girl.

Nikita frowned and showed dissatisfaction in her eyes: "Sheehan, how can you be so hesitant? If you don't want to get married, just pretend that I haven't mentioned it."

The words sound just fell, Nikita's hand was caught.

She paused, looked up at the man beside her, and threw into the man's deep and warm eyes.

Sheehan held her hand, with his voice was low and heavy, with a unique gentleness: "Sure, we will go to the Y Country to get married another day."

Chapter 1395-"Niky, I gave you a chance to go back on your word, but you don't want it." Sheehan clenched the girl's hand, gazing intently at the girl.

If they get married, they can get divorced.

But he would never let her have any idea of divorce.

The next day.

Evening.

When Nikita came to F country, she basically didn't bring anything else except two sets of clothes.

She didn't pay much attention to attending Duke Rosen's dinner, and planned to go to a shopping mall to buy an evening dress suitable for the banquet.

She didn't take the dinner party to heart, but Sheehan and His Royal Highness, Wale did.

The next morning, His Highness called. He asked her address, and said he wanted to give her a gift.

Two hours later, two staff members in black dresses and white gloves, each holding a beautifully packed box, knocked on the door of the villa.

Sheehan took Nikita's hand and opened the door.

Two staff members with good looks and temperament first looked at Sheehan, looked at him for a few seconds, and then turned their eyes to Nikita standing beside him.

After another moment's look, they were stunned.

"Are you Miss Nikita?" A staff member asked with a somewhat respectful attitude.

Nikita nodded: "Hmm."

“Hello, Miss Nikita, these are two gifts prepared by His Royal Highness for you. I hope you like them. His Royal Highness Will said that Miss Nikita has been very kind to him. I hope you will not refuse his humble gift.”

Then, he held the black box in their hands to Nikita.

Another staff member also raised a purple box in his hand and handed it to Nikita.

Nikita looked down at the box held by two people.

Just looking at the packaging, she knew that the things in the box will definitely not be just a little “humble gift”.

Although there is no logo on these two boxes, she can't see what brand it is, but Nikita is not the first time to deal with people from the royal family, and she naturally knows that the more this kind of thing without logo, the more precious it is.

Wale has always been a spender.

At the beginning, after Wale was cured, he gave a much higher price than the original consultation fee.

Although Nikita refused to accept the extra payment he gave, he finally gave her the extra payment in other ways.

Nikita thought for a moment, smiled and accepted the two gifts: “I accepted the gift, and would like to convey my gratitude to His Royal Highness.”

Sheehan took the box from the two staff members.

Among them, the big black box is heavy, and there seem to be many things in it.

After the staff finished the task, they left. When they left, they secretly looked at Sheehan for a while, and then left.

Indoor...

Sheehan put the two boxes on the sofa. He looked at Nikita and said, "Do you want to open them now?"

"Hmm." Nikita nodded. She picked up the smaller purple box.

The purple ribbon decorating the box, she can see at a glance, is the best kind of silk which costs tens of thousands of dollars.

These silks are all used to make silk scarves for luxurious ladies.

Only the royal family and nobles are willing to pack these gift boxes.

Chapter 1396-It is a set of diamond jewelry.

Necklace, bracelet, earrings, it's a complete set.

The color of the diamond is very pure, and the quality is extraordinary at first glance, which is extremely rare.

Such a set of diamond jewelry is difficult to evaluate. It's top-grade diamonds which money can not buy.

Wale showed great care for her by giving her this set of valuable jewelry as a gift.

Even Sheehan, saw at a glance that this set of jewelry was of extraordinary value.

“This Prince Wale is very generous to you.” If Sheehan hadn’t known Wale’s age, he would have been jealous by now.

Nikita didn’t take this set of rare diamond jewelry too seriously.

She put down the jewelry box and opened another black box.

The black box is much larger than the purple box. Nikita guessed that it should be a dress inside. After she opened the box, she found that there was not only an evening dress, but also a pair of crystal shoes inlaid with crystal.

Cinderella in fairy tales has a pair of crystal shoes.

It’s beautiful beyond description.

Under the sun, the crystal shoes sparkle beautifully. Even people who are not very interested in such jewelry as Nikita felt it’s really good-looking.

The dress and crystal shoes are of the same color, both of which are silver gray.

Wale’s taste is extraordinary. Whether it is jewelry, evening dress or shoes, they are all very beautiful.

They are all simple and elegant in noble style.

In particular, the silver-gray fishtail mopping dress is of a shoulder-length style, and the line at the waist is very fitting, with a split design to the knee.

This design can make who wear this dress sway.

It’s of a little fairy, a little amorous feelings and charm.

Nikita took a look at the skirt. Before trying it on, the skirt was taken away by the man beside him.

She turned around, squinting slightly, and looked at the handsome man's facial features.

Sheehan quietly put her evening dress back into the box. Holding her hands, he smiled. "This Prince Wales is very thoughtful. He gave you a set of clothes and jewelry for dinner. He should know that you didn't prepare yourself."

"He shares the similarity with me." "Hmm?" Nikita raised her eyebrows, "What do you mean?"

Sheehan smiled. He said softly in a low voice: "I also prepared a set for you." No sooner had his voice dropped than the doorbell rang at the gate.

Sheehan smiled: "Someone should have sent it."

Moments later, Sheehan came back.

He came back with two boxes in his hand.

It is also a big and small box with exquisite packaging.

He went to the front of Nikita: "See if you like it?"

Nikita looked at the two boxes he brought back: "For me?"

"For you, of course." Sheehan put the box on the coffee table. He then opened the box on one of the boxes. After opening the box, he handed it to her.

"It is a bit hasty to prepare it. If you don't like it, I will prepare it again."

Chapter 1397-It took a day to prepare, but it can't be a custom-made evening dress. A couture needs to take a lot of time to prepare.

One day is obviously not enough.

But even if it is not a couture, the skirt prepared by Sheehan for Nikita should be a limited edition in the world.

Nikita took out the dress, which is an indeed limited edition. It appeared at the runway last week, and it set off a big fashion trend.

An A-list celebrity wanted to borrow it to a film festival, but she was rejected by the brand.

A-list celebrities often corporate with luxurious brands. They often borrow couture.

Only this skirt is not available.

A senior brand official talked about this matter privately, saying that because this skirt is of great significance and designed by their brand founder, they can't take charge of it unless the brand founder agrees.

Nikita didn't pay attention to these things.

Nancy usually talks to her about it.

She looked at this significant, hard to borrow skirt, looked up at the man beside her, asking, "How did you get this skirt?"

She told him yesterday that she was going to the party today.

In just one day, he got this skirt.

Nikita would like to know how he did it.

Even if he is Sheehan, it is not easy to do anything. What's more, the founder of the brand is famous for her strange temper and disliking men.

In the early years, the founder was cheated by a man for her feelings and money. Since then, she has been prejudiced against all men, and her motto is "There is no good thing in men".

So Nikita is very curious about how Sheehan gets this dress.

"It took some effort to borrow this dress." Sheehan knew that she knew the origin of this dress.

He was going to spend a lot of money to buy it.

But the founder disagreed, and the biggest concession was to lend it.

Seeing Niky's curiosity, he thought about it and said, "I wanted to spend more money to buy it, but I was rejected by the other party. I borrowed this skirt thanks to my mother."

"Otherwise, the other party will not lend it."

"Your mother?" Nikita paused, "What is the origin of her and the brand?" Sheehan mentioned his mother in front of her rarely. The information that Nikita learned is well known to the public. For example, Sheehan's mother was the first beauty in the N City when she was young. She was not only outstanding in appearance, prominent in family background, but also outstanding in talent. There are too many noblemen who pursue her in the circle. Finally, his mother chose a man who had not pursued her among all the suitors, that is, Sheehan's father. "Well, my mother befriended with the founder. Thanks to my mother's help, the other party was willing to let go and promised to lend me this dress." Nikita listened to him and attaches her attention to another thing: "So, your mother knows about us?" Sheehan smiled: "She has known for a long time." "Oh." Nikita nodded, asking casually, "Hasn't she said anything?"

Chapter 1398-Nikita, "Hmm."

When she began to pay attention, her attitude was naturally different from before.

Since she will get a certificate with Sheehan immediately, she naturally wants to know what his family thinks of her and their relationship.

After all, she is also a common person.

Getting married and having a child is also a great event in her life.

"She is very happy. Although I have never seen you, I showed her your photos and told her some things about you. She likes you very much." When Sheehan talked about his mother, he became soft.

"I said before that I would take you to meet her. She has been looking forward to seeing you. She has asked me several times when I will take you there."

"Niky, I want to take you to see her."

He's unexpected that Nikita proposing to get married in the Y Country.

However, his original plan was to take Nikita to see his mother after returning home.

Now is also the right time.

"Good." Nikita said gently, "I also look forward to meeting her."

"Hmm?" Sheehan noticed the change of attitude, smiling. "Do you want to see her too?"

"Hmm." Nikita nodded.

The first beauty in the N City, who caused a sensation in those days. Certainly, she wanted to see what she was like.

“Good.” Sheehan shook her hand, and his voice was low and gentle. “When we go back, we will go to visit our mother together. She has been waiting for this day for a long time, and she will be very happy to see you.”

The jewelry prepared by Sheehan for Nikita is a set of sapphire jewelry that matches the color of starry dress. It’s top-notch sapphire.

Compared with the set of diamond jewelry prepared by Wale, they are all of great value and each has its own merits.

After seeing the dinner dress prepared by the two, Nikita laughed: “What should I do? Which suit do you think I should wear tonight to the dinner?”

She wanted to go to the mall to buy one by herself.

Unexpectedly, Wale and Sheehan both prepared for her.

One is an old friend, the other is her fiancé. She really was in a dilemma.

“Wear whichever one you like.” Although Sheehan said so, he still hoped that Nikita would choose the one he prepared for her.

Later... Nikita threw the problem of choosing one from the other evening dress to Nancy and asked Nancy how to choose it. Nancy’s text came quickly: one is from her boyfriend, the other is from a friend, and of course, choose the one from your boyfriend. Moreover, I think the one looks better. It’s the dress! You will sway.

Nikita: Sure. Oh, by the way, I have something to tell you. Nancy: Yes? Nikita typed calmly: Sheehan and I plan to go to the Y country to get married in a few days. Nancy and her are close friends, Nikita think she should let Nancy know. Nancy: what???! The next second, Nancy's call came. Before Nikita saying anything, Nancy screamed: "Niky, are you serious? You are going to marry Sheehan? Did I hear you right?"

Chapter 1399-Nancy threw out three questions in a row. She was obviously shocked.

The degree of being shocked was almost as if she knows tomorrow is the end of the world.

Although she knew they've been together for a long while, she still could expect Nikita will choose to get married so early.

Moreover, she wants to marry Sheehan.

It's not that Sheehan is not good enough to deserve Nikita.

No matter from the appearance, or from other aspects, she felt that only Sheehan could be worthy of Nikita.

If after three or five years, Nikita told her to marry Sheehan, Nancy wouldn't think it was a strange thing.

But now?

Nikita is really not dizzy?

"Well, you heard me correctly. What I said is true. I want to go to the Y Country with Sheehan. I am not joking with you." Nikita answered her questions one by one, because she was in a good mood, so she also seemed quite patient.

"Niky, are you crazy?" After making sure that she didn't hear her wrong, Nancy wondered, "Are you drunk by Sheehan? Didn't you tell me before that you are not going to marry anyone?"

This, Nikita really said to her before.

Nancy is also convinced by this.

She felt Nikita might not take fancy of anyone on earth. Besides, nearly no one could take her temper.

Most of the men who have taken up both of them can't pass her standard of appearance.

Nikita attached high importance to one's appearance.

The person she likes should be outstanding in appearance and talent.

These men, who have taken up all of them, are rare in the world.

"I used to plan like this, but it is normal for the plan to change." Nikita understated, "I really didn't want to get married at that time."

"Now?"

"I don't really want to." Nikita thought briefly and said, "However, I think I can give it a try. Maybe it's not as boring as I thought, and maybe it will be very interesting."

"Do you want to give it a try because that person is Sheehan?" Nancy put forward a key question, "If it were someone else, would you still want to give him a try?"

"Others?"

Nikita frowned: "Who do you mean?"

Nancy was silent for a few seconds, and then replied with a hesitant tone. "For example, what about Xavier? Do you want to have a try with him?"

Hearing her mention Xavier, Nikita's face changed slightly. Before, she didn't know Xavier's mind, but now, she knows. When mention this person again, your mentality is naturally different from before. "Do you know anything, Nancy?" Why don't you take others as an example, but only Xavier, obviously it is on purpose. Nikita would not doubt these before. Now, when she thought about it a little, I feel that Nancy already knows Xavier's thoughts about her. Nancy stunned: "Niky, you..." "Stop pretending innocent. Xavier likes me, did you already know?" Standing on the balcony to answer the phone, Nikita did not know what she said that said Xavier like her happened to be heard by Sheehan. Not far behind her. The man's footsteps paused, his deep eyes narrowed, the bottom of the eyes quickly skimmed over unknown emotions.

Chapter 1400-"You, you know?" Nancy shocked, "When did you know? Did... Xavier confessed to you? However, he should know that you are dating with Sheehan now?!"

Xavier likes Nikita, which is not hard to see.

Xavier didn't tell Nancy about this, but Nancy saw it herself.

Before Nikita is too young, Nancy didn't regard it as the love between men and women.

Later, Nikita gradually grew up and became an adult. The hot love in his eyes couldn't be pressed at all.

As long as you are not blind, you can see it.

Nikita was retarded on feelings. She always thought Xavier took her as a friend.

"He didn't confess to me, I guessed it myself."

Nancy: "..."

"Oh my god, you are not dull at all? I thought that if Xavier didn't confess to you, you would never find this thing in your life."

“Alas, though you have guessed his mind, it is already too late.”

Nancy’s tone is not without regret.

She always felt that Xavier was the most suitable person for Nikita.

In appearance, it can meet the requirements of Nikita.

As for personality, although he always lose his temper to others, but he is absolutely obedient to Nikita. He can tolerate all her strange temper.

Moreover, he is quite good at making money.

Although Nikita has never been short of money, her partner must be good at earning money.

What’s more, they have known each other for many years, and they know each other very well. She feels that if Nikita and Xavier are together, they will be very happy.

Xavier is sure to take good care of her.

But unexpectedly, Sheehan showed up.

She was shocked. She is afraid Xavier was so angry that she vomited blood.

Before he could confess, the girl he liked for many years has become other’s girlfriend.

Nikita sipped her lower lip and didn’t speak.

Nancy regretted for a while, and then asked curiously: “However, Niky, could you tell me the truth?”

“What truth?”

“If there is no Sheehan, and Xavier to confess to you, will you agree?”

Nikita answered her question without any hesitation: “No.”

Nancy: “...think about it? Don’t you like him at all? I think Xavier is very good. He is quite suitable for you. Among all the heterosexual friends around you, he has the best relationship with you”

“I always thought he meant something special to you.”

“He was really special to me. However, but is just friendship, not because of love.” Nikita said.

After a little thought, she continued: “I think he is like my brother. I have always regarded him as my brother in my heart.”

“I never thought about developing a relationship with him.”

Nancy was silent for a moment, then sighed. “Well, then it doesn’t make any difference whether he confesses or not. Anyway, you won’t be with him.”

“Now that you are with Sheehan, he should give up. Have you told him about your marriage?”

“Not yet, let’s talk about it when we go back. At that time, I will treat you and everyone together.”

Moments later, Nikita hung up the phone.

Without looking back, she said to the man behind her, “How long are you going to eavesdrop?”

Nikita has long known that Sheehan is standing behind her.
