

The Girl CB 1421

Chapter 1421-Nikita raised her eyebrows indifferently: "I don't care what she thinks."

"That's good." Sylvester sipped his lips and said with displeasure.

"Christine has always been like this. She is the youngest one in my father's medical team and the best one in medical skills, so she always despises others.

Before, some doctors came home to treat my father. She also questioned that their medical skills were not good."

"I don't like her for a long time. If you want me to vent your anger, I will go in and teach her a lesson now!"

"Why do you want to help me vent my anger?" Nikita raised her eyebrows and said indifferently: "I said, I don't care what she thinks. I just need to do what I can do. As for other things, I don't care."

Christine?

She hasn't taken this Christine seriously yet.

It was not the first time that she was questioned about her medical skills because of her age.

If she got angry about this kind of thing every time, she would be angry all day.

"Are you really not angry?"

Nikita shook her head: "There is nothing to be angry about."

“All right, then.” Although Nikita doesn’t care, Sylvester seems to be still angry. He frowned tight.
“Forget it this time. If she dares to be so disrespectful to you next time, even if you don’t mind, I won’t just let her go.”

When Nikita looked at Sylvester to protect her like this, she couldn’t help remembering that a small thin figure protect her. He was shivering with fear, but he still protected her behind him with his arms open.

Even in the face of a group of boys who are so much taller and stronger than him, he didn’t flinch at all.

“If you want to do something, just come at me! Don’t bully my sister. Are you ashamed when you bully a girl? As long as I am here, I will never let you hurt my sister!”

His figure looked so thin and short that the other party could kick him down with one foot, but he used all his courage to face the boys who walked towards him step by step with their fists, and stood still in front of her.

Nikita suddenly wanted to cry.

“Sister, sister?”

A voice rang in her ear, pulling her back to reality from her memories.

Nikita reacted, narrowed her eyes, and saw on a pair of brown eyes with worry and confusion.

“Sister, are you all right?” Sylvester saw Nikita’s red eyes and asked in a worried tone.

She said she wasn’t angry because of Christine, but now her eyes are red.

Did she lie to him?

"I'm fine." Nikita also didn't know why she just suddenly remembered Freddy. May be because his also called her sister, may also be because Sylvester has a pair of eyes similar to Freddy.

Beside her, Sheehan squinted, put one hand on her shoulder and hugged her. He looked at her with some uneasiness: "Are you okay?"

Sheehan knows Nikita, and knows that Nikita's abnormal mood is not because of Christine.

When she says she doesn't care, she really doesn't care.

But because of this, he is even more uneasy.

He rarely saw her show such a state and expression.

Just now, she looked somewhat fragile.

Nikita shook her head: "Nothing, just suddenly think of some things before."

Sheehan thought that she missed Granny Callie. After thought for a while, he whispered: "When we go back, I will accompany you back to Syracuse Village."

Chapter 1422-Nikita found that he misunderstood her, but she did not explain She only nodded and replied gently She really missed Granny Callie Sylvester sent Nikita back "Sister, I really didn't expect that you were not only a good fighter, but also a good doctor. By the way, I heard from my father that Prince Wale introduced you to his father to treat him. Have you and Prince Wale known each other for a long time?"

After getting in the car, Sylvester talked a lot and kept asking many questions, almost never stopping Nikita treated him very patiently. She basically answered all his questions "Hmm." In the co-pilot position, Nikita turned to look out of the window "Prince Wale looks quite easygoing, but his temper is actually very eccentric. It is not easy to get along with him. He doesn't have many friends, except my father and the queen But I think he has a good relationship you. I am curious. He is much older than you. How do you become friends?"

“He had a disease before, and I cured him.” Nikita answered concisely “So it is.” Sylvester nodded, smiled and said, “I have heard of Prince Wales’s disease, which was quite familiar with my father’s illness. No one can cure it. I didn’t expect you to cure it in the end.”

“However, when he got sick, you were still very young. At that time, were you so powerful?” Sylvester turned his head and looked at the girl sitting beside him with admiration and worship in his eyes. Prince Wales’s disease is also a chronic disease. All doctors said there was no way to cure. Later, Sylvester heard that he was cured by a powerful doctor. Since that cure, there has been no recurrence. Sylvester couldn’t think that powerful doctor is sitting next to him now. At that time, Sylvester went to study abroad, so he never saw Nikita. Now he is a little sorry to miss the earliest time to know Nikita. If he didn’t study abroad at that time, he should have known Nikita long ago. Nikita looked back at him and smiled: “You said that there was something to ask me. Don’t you want to ask now?”

“I have one thing to ask you.” Sylvester thought of the dream that had troubled him for a long time. After pausing for a few seconds, he said to Nikita, “Sister, if a person often has the same dream and what happens in the dream is still very real, do you think this is some kind of memory in this person’s subconscious?”

“There is such a possibility.” Nikita nodded: “But it is not entirely the case, depending on the specific situation.”

“The specific situation is that I often have a dream over the years. The pictures in the dream and some things that happen are exactly the same, just like a movie that keeps playing in a loop. At first, I thought it was just a dream, but now...”

Sylvester said so, and his eyes were blank: “I think, will that be some memories I lost? If it’s just a dream, why do I always have the same dream? In any case, this dream must have some meaning for me.”

This dream has been bothering him for many years.

Chapter 1423-He can’t just regard it as a dream. Because what happened in his dream is too real, and those people who appeared in his dream also have an inexplicable sense of familiarity and closeness, which makes him feel very warm and makes him unwilling to wake up. Every time he woke up from his dream, he would be depressed. If it's just an ordinary dream, why does it have such a great influence on him?

"What did you dream of? Is it a nightmare or...?" Listening to him say so, Nikita was curious about his dream. "It's not a nightmare." Sylvester recalled everything in the dream, and a relaxed and happy smile appeared on the corners of his mouth. "It is a very warm and beautiful dream, so beautiful that I don't want to wake up, and I want to live with them all the time in my dream."

"Them?"

"Yes. In my dream, there are two people who seem to be my families. Although I can't see their faces clearly, I feel very at ease and warm when I am with them. I don't know who they are. But I always feel that I have lived with them for a long time."

Speaking of these, Sylvester's eyes are filled with yearning and nostalgia. "Sister, although I am living well now, I always feel like something is missing. Compared with my current life, I want to live like that in my dreams. I don't need any luxury. As long as I can live together with my families, I can be very happy."

Sylvester spoke and didn't notice Nikita changed her expression. When he finished, he waited for a while and didn't hear the response. He looked up and saw that the expression on Nikita's face became serious. "Sister, what's the matter?" Sylvester asked doubtfully. Nikita looked down at him. There was complicated emotion in her eyes. Her voice was still the same as before, but it can be heard that she seems to be trying to suppress something. "Sylvester, you just said that you can't see what the two people in your dream look like. Do you know are they men or women?"

"Yes." Sylvester thought about it and said, "An old grandmother and a very young sister. Sister, do you think it is strange? Although I can't see what they look like, I can feel that the old woman is very kind, and the young sister is very beautiful."

Nikita's hand hanging in the side clenched. She took a deep breath, tried her best to suppress her emotions, and looked at Sylvester: "In your dream, did you live in a place with mountains and water, and did you live in a yard full of all kinds of flowers and plants, and a small pond full of lotus flowers?"

Sylvester stunned and widened his eyes. "Sister, how do you know that?!"

In his dream, there are mountains and waters, and there is also the small yard she said, which is also full of flowers and plants, and there is also the small pond full of lotus flowers she said. However, he didn't tell her so specifically just now. How did she know?!

"Sister, are there others dreaming of it? Do you know what it stands for?"

Nikita bit her lips tight. Even if she is trying to suppress her emotion at the moment, after hearing Sylvester's affirmative answer, her hands still can't help trembling. A possibility occurred to her. Although this possibility is extremely small, although it may disappoint her again in the end, she must find it out!

Chapter 1424-Nikita looked at Sylvester, asking him as calmly as possible: "Sylvester, do you still remember when you began to dream of it?"

Sylvester carefully recalled "About nine years ago. I heard from my father that I was seriously ill and slept for a long time. I always have this strange dream when I wake up."

Nikita's eyes quivered. She pinched her fists again. Even the time is right. She didn't believe that there would be so many coincidences in the world. "Are you seriously ill nine years ago? What disease have you got?"

"My father said, I accidentally fell into the water and almost drowned. At that time, I drank too much water. Although I saved my life, it caused aspiration pneumonia. I was treated for a long time before I slowly recovered."

"Drown?" Nikita's breathe paused. "Do you remember how you drowned?"

Sylvester shook his head: "I don't remember. I can't remember everything before drowning. The doctor said that it may be because drowning caused too much fear to me, so my brain automatically deleted that memory, and all the memories before drowning were deleted."

"Sister, do you think the doctor is right? Do I really lose my memory because I am too afraid?"

Nine years ago, drowning, amnesia, and the dream that bothered him for many years.. And his face, which is somewhat similar to Freddy.. Everything seems to confirm that he may be Freddy, whom she has been trying her best to find for so many years. Her intuition kept telling her that Freddy was not dead.

This is also the motivation that she has not stopped looking for Freddy for so many years. However, if Sylvester is really Freddy, how did he come to F Country from Syracuse Village and become the son of Duke Rosen?

As Duke Rosen's identity, it is impossible for him to go to a place like Syracuse Village. And even if he really went to Syracuse Village and really saved Freddy, he could not admit Freddy as his son. On the one hand, Nikita felt that many coincidences have proved that it is a great possibility that Sylvester is Freddy. On the other hand, there are many doubts in her heart. "When people encounter some kind of emergency, because they are too afraid, the brain may erase this memory."

Nikita slowly calmed down from the excitement. She felt that she couldn't be too anxious. If she was anxious, she would easily lose her mind and make some wrong judgments. Since Sylvester may be Freddy, she will definitely investigate this matter clearly. Whether Duke Rosen had been to Syracuse Village nine years ago is not beyond investigation. As long as he has been there, there must be traces. "Sylvester, how do you want me to help you?" Nikita hasn't determined the identity of Sylvester, but her eyes were softer a lot, and her tone became gentle a lot. Sylvester felt her change. Although he was a little confused, he didn't think much. He now just wants to ask Nikita to help him solve the dream that has troubled him for many years. "Sister, aren't you very good at medical skill? Can you find a way to help me determine whether my dream is just a dream or a memory of mine?"

"Is this matter very important to you?"

"Well, it's important!" Sylvester nodded, "In order to find out this matter, I have looked for many people related to it, but it is useless."

"Such as?"

"Such as psychologists, hypnotists, brain experts."

Sylvester frowned slightly: "These people are all very powerful. They are all the top experts in the world, but none of them can help me solve the problem!"

Chapter 1425-"Did you ask hypnotists to treat you? After hypnosis, you still can't remember anything?"

Sylvester shook his head: "The hypnotist said that hypnosis is ineffective for me."

If it worked, he wouldn't have been bothered for so many years Nikita thought for a moment: "My method is hypnosis. But you said hypnosis is useless to you. If you are willing to try again, I can hypnotize you again."

"Sister can also hypnotize?" Sylvester was a little surprised "Well, I just know some superficial things." Nikita said modestly, "I can't compare with those powerful hypnotists."

But how can Sylvester really believe her words?

She can be called a skillful doctor in her teens. No matter her medical skills or hypnosis, how can she really only know a little?

"Sister, I am willing to try again!" Sylvester also doesn't know why he is willing to trust Nikita unconditionally, "When will we start?"

Now or..."

Looking at his impatience, Nikita smiled: "I have to prepare some props. I'm afraid I can't do it today."

Sylvester was really anxious. He said: "Tomorrow? What props do you need to prepare? Do you need me to help you prepare?"

Nikita thought about it and nodded: "Tomorrow will be fine. When I am ready, I will call you."

"Good! At that time, I will come and pick you up!"

When they drove back to the villa, Sylvester was quite polite and didn't stay much. After sending Nikita, he drove away Nikita stood at the gate, watching his car drive away. Then she squinted and looked back She took out her mobile phone and sent a message in the group chat of the Misty Organization Niky:" All members, go and help me investigate something at once."

As soon as her message was sent out, the members of the group replied in seconds “Boss, you finally remember us!”

“Yes, the boss hasn’t chatted with us for a long time. We thought you just focused on dating and wasn’t in the mood to get along with us!”

“Boss, what are you going to investigate?”

“Boss, I saw your image in that costume drama. It’s so beautiful!”

The group is not active at ordinary times, and few people come out to chat all the year round. However, when Nikita appeared, several members of the Misty Organization, who had been keeping silent for thousands of years, replied in seconds “Yes, boss, what do you want us to investigate? During this time, we are bored and have nothing to do. Hurry up to send us a task!”

Nikita walked to the villa and replied: “A thing related to Freddy. You should immediately investigate all the trips of Duke Rosen of F Country from 2002 to 2004. I want the most detailed and comprehensive travel itinerary. Also, give me the most detailed list of the background and history of all the members of Duke Rosen’s family.”

Several people who received the task were not calm. Sullivan couldn’t help but ask: “Boss, did you investigate something? Did you get a clue to Freddy?”

Nikita won’t let them investigate a thing for no reason. She asked them to investigate the Duke of Rosen, and the matter had to do with Freddy, so there must be a clue to Freddy, and this clue must have to do with Duke Rosen. Nikita didn’t tell the members of the Misty Organization the details after she met Sylvester. She just explained lightly: “Well, there is a clue. Therefore, you must find out what I want as soon as possible. I hope it’s not later than tomorrow at the latest.”

Chapter 1426-Sullivan: “OK, Boss. You can rest assured. Since it is related to Freddy, all of us will do a clear investigation for you even if we need to stay up all night.”

Several members of the Misty Organization are all very clear about how much Nikita cares about Freddy. Basically, the most important reason why Nikita set up the Misty Organization at the first place is for the convenience of collecting information, which is for finding Freddy. Now that they finally had a clue about Freddy, several members of the Misty Organization dare not neglect. After chatting with Nikita, they immediately began to check the trip of Duke Rosen those days and the information of the members of the whole Rosen family When Sheehan came back, Nikita was still awake She couldn't sleep because of Freddy's affairs. Her mind was stuck with all those old memories When Sheehan walked into the living room, he saw her curling up alone in the corner of the sofa and sitting on the sofa with her knees in her arms. She seemed to be looking in a certain direction. But there was no focus in her eyes It seemed that she had remained this posture for a while Hearing his footsteps, she finally looked up at him "Duke Rosen told me that after you gave him an acupuncture treatment, he felt much better and more relaxed than ever before He asked me to convey his gratitude to you again and invited us to his house again tomorrow."

"I told him I would reply to him after I asked for your opinion."

While Sheehan said so, he walked to the front of Nikita After lowering his eyes and taking a look at her, he sat down beside her and stretched out his hand to hold her in his arms: "Niky, is something bugging you?"

Nikita rarely shows her emotions so obviously He could tell at first sight that she was absent-minded In Sheehan's view, nothing seems to be enough to bother her "Yeah..." Nikita answered and did not deny it After Sullivan and the group found out the information she needed, she could confirm whether Sylvester is Freddy or not For the upcoming results, Nikita's mind at this moment is very contradictory She is both expecting and fearing the results She was afraid that it would just be empty joy "May I know what it is?" Sheehan reached out and gathered a wisp of hair hanging on her forehead behind her ears. His low voice sounded particularly gentle. "If something is troubling you, I'd like to help you."

Nikita remained in silence for a moment "I have a younger brother." She lowered her eyelashes, covering the emotions in her eyes at this moment. Her voice sounded low and hoarse. "Although he is not my biological brother, and we are not bonded by blood, we are still as close as families in my eyes."

"My brother's name is Freddy. Like me, he is also a child that Grandma picked up from outside."

"Our family of three once lived very happily together."

When it came to the day when Freddy fell into the water and disappeared, Nikita's mood obviously had some ups and downs Sheehan could feel that her body had become stiff He held her hand and spoke up to interrupt her: "Niky, if you don't want to talk about this, you don't have to."

"Actually, I think I'm fine." Nikita paused for a few seconds. After her mood gradually stabilized, she continued: "It was my birthday that day. Because I love to eat fish at ordinary times, Freddy said that he would personally catch a big fish and cook it for me."

"It had been raining that day. And the ground was slippery."

"Freddy accidentally fell into the water. And the flow was very urgent. Before I could catch him, he was washed away. Later, I searched for a long time. And I almost stepped on all the mountains in that area. But I still couldn't find Freddy."

Chapter 1427-"Grandma told me to give up, saying that there were wild beasts in the mountains. And Freddy might..."

Nikita paused for a second. And her voice became hoarse. "But I always feel that Freddy should still be alive."

"So over the years, I have been looking for him. But after many years of searching, there is no clue. But tonight, there were some unexpected gains."

This is the first time Sheehan heard Nikita mention her brother to him He used to ask Yates to investigate Nikita in early days. But Yates did not dig out the incident Nikita just told him. He only knows that Nikita used to have a younger brother who died for unknown reasons It turned out that the unknown reason was drowning Sheehan knows how much importance Nikita attaches to her unrelated grandmother and younger brother It can be said that although the Swift family is her closest relative, its weight in her heart is less than one tenth of that of her grandmother and younger brother "When you said "unexpected gains", do you mean you have a clue to your brother's whereabouts?" Sheehan asked If it is the reason, no wonder Nikita will behave so abnormally "Hmm.' Nikita nodded. "But it is still uncertain. I hope it wouldn't be empty joy."

Sheehan held her hand tightly: "Can I help you with something?"

Nikita shook her head: "There is no need so far. But when I can't handle it myself, I will definitely let you know."

"So, even if I really want to help, I can't help at all?" Sheehan sighed lightly and pretended to be very disappointed. "I seem to be very useless as your fiancée."

"If you really want to help and make me feel better, there is actually something you can do now."

Sheehan: "OK, tell me."

Nikita looked at him: "I'm a little hungry. Can President Lambert cook something for me? It doesn't have to be something fancy or complicated. I just want to fill my stomach as soon as possible."

Sheehan frowned slightly: "You didn't eat anything after you came back?"

"Well, I was not in the mood to eat anything." Nikita covered her lips and yawned. It seemed that she had adjusted her mood again. She touched her stomach with her other hand and said: "But I feel hungry now."

Sheehan touched her head: "OK, what do you want to eat? I will cook it for you now."

"I will eat whatever you make." Nikita thought for a moment and then said: "Just get me some noodles... with two fried eggs."

"Noodles with fried eggs? Is that all?" Sheehan raised his eyebrows. "Is there anything else you want to eat?"

Nikita shook her head and said: "No. That's all I want."

"Okay."

Sheehan rubbed her head again. He got up and said: "Then you can go and get some snacks to ease your hunger first. I'll cook for you right away."

"Hmm... Nikita replied. Then she saw Sheehan take off his suit jacket. And he rolled up the sleeves of his shirt while walking towards the kitchen She's not in a good mood indeed Although there are some clues of Freddy, she is afraid that it will be empty joy But at this moment, seeing the man who is busy around in the kitchen for her, she suddenly feels much better She also suddenly felt that she seemed to like Sheehan more and more.

If married life is exactly something she is experiencing now, it seems... quite good.

Originally, she didn't feel much about going to Y country to get a marriage certificate.

But now, she really has a little more expectation.

The next day.

Duke Rosen arranged a driver to pick Sheehan and Nikita up in order to show how much importance he attached to them.

Chapter 1428-After getting in the car, Nikita finally realized that the person sitting in the driver's seat turned out to be Sylvester.

"Hi, Sister." AS soon as Sylvester saw Nikita, he greeted her sweetly.

Then he turned to look at Sheehan. Although his tone didn't sound as close as that when he spoke with Nikita, he was still polite and courteous: "Hello, Mr. Lambert."

Sheehan nodded at him as his response to him.

Nikita lifted her eyes and looked at Sylvester: "Why are you here?"

Sylvester smiled at her: "My father told me that he invited you and Mr. Lambert to come for lunch today. I have nothing to do anyway.

So I told my father that I wanted to come to pick you up.

By the way, sister, you are really awesome! No wonder people say you are a doctor who can create miracle! You are really qualified to that title!

My father told me that he felt sleepy shortly after you gave him the acupuncture treatment yesterday. When he woke up, he found that he had slept for eight hours and never woke up once in the middle.

My father said that this is the first time he has slept so well in the past six years. I think my father is really in good spirits today. The whole person seems to be glowing.

After a good sleep, his appetite becomes better too. He actually had more breakfast than usual.

We hired so many experts before. And he had tried all the medical methods. But the effect was disappointed. Sister, you just gave my father an acupuncture treatment once. And my father feels much better at once."

Sylvester looked at Nikita with adoration in his eyes: "Sister, you are really awesome! I think those top experts in the world are not as good as one tenth of you."

"What about you?" Nikita looked at the teenager's beautiful eyes.

And her voice was very soft. "Did you have that dream again last night?"

Sylvester shook his head: "No. I didn't have that dream last night."

Sheehan turned to take a look at Nikita. Then he looked at Sylvester again. His eyes flew back and forth between the two people for a few seconds. Then his eyes fell back on Nikita again.

And he seemed to think about something.

Nikita treats everyone with a lukewarm and alienated attitude.

But when it comes to Sylvester, he can obviously feel that her attitude towards him is different from that of ordinary people.

They arrived at the Rosen Castle.

Duke Rosen came out in advance to welcome them. After Nikita and Sheehan got out of the car, Duke Rosen walked to the two of them with a big smile on his face.

“Hello, Doctor, Mr. Lambert.”

Duke Rosen does look better than yesterday. And his mental state looks obviously different from before. When he speaks up, even his voice sounded louder.

Nikita looked at him: “Hello, Duke. You look good today.”

“Thanks to your magical medical skills, doctor.” Duke Rosen’s eyes were full of admiration and respect. “I really can’t believe that I can still get a good sleep and wake up naturally.”

“Your medical skills are really awesome, Doctor.”

Nikita gently picked up a smile. “Duke, if you can feel obvious improvement, then some of my previous judgments are correct.”

Duke Rosen was stunned for a second and hurriedly said: "Doctor, you said before that you haven't found out the specific cause of my disease. Now that you say so, does it mean..."

Nikita smiled again and didn't lay the details on him. "I just got some clues. But I can't be sure yet."

Actually, she has already had an answer in her heart.

She just needs some evidence to confirm her deduction.

"Father, lunch is ready. Let's go in and talk." Sylvester reminded him.

Duke Rosen finally came to his senses and nodded. "Yes, right! Mr.

Lambert, Doctor, lunch is ready. Let's go in and talk over lunch."

Chapter 1429-The lunch was very well-prepared.

The white dining table which is a few meters long is full of dishes.

Duke Rosen should have inquired Prince Wales about Nikita's preferences. More than half of the dishes on the table are what Nikita usually likes to eat.

Others are in line with Sheehan's usual taste.

"Doctor, I feel really sorry about yesterday's poor reception. I inquired about your favorite food with Wales, the Highness. And today, I specially asked the kitchen to cook the dishes according to your preference.

I wonder whether these dishes are in line with your taste, Doctor.

You should try them first."

Duke Rosen waited for Sheehan and Nikita to take their seats before he sat down.

Nikita ran her eyes over the rich and fancy lunch on the table.

When she saw several dishes near Duke Rosen, her eyes were fixed on them for a few seconds. And there was light flashing in her eyes.

Halfway through the lunch.

Seeing that Nikita seemed to have a good appetite, Duke Rosen smiled and said: "It seems that today's meal is in line with Doctor's preference."

Nikita really has a good appetite today. She ate a lot.

She put down her chopsticks, picked up the napkin and wiped the corner of her lips. She smiled at Duke Rosen and said: "Yes, the chef Duke hired is very good. Is this the first time for him to cook these dishes?"

Duke Rosen nodded. "Yeah... So I was afraid he couldn't finish this task well. I told him that if this lunch can satisfy you, I will definitely give him a bonus."

"Fortunately, he didn't let me down."

"This chef is really skilled. I wonder if such a good chef has worked for you for a long time."

Seeing that Nikita kept giving this chief compliments, Sheehan turned to take a look at her in surprise.

To tell the truth, this chef is skilled indeed.

However, he is not good enough to be praised by her all the time.

Sheehan is very clear about how picky Nikita is when it comes to foods.

He also knows very well how picky she has become after she is fed by him.

He thinks Nikita is behaving a little abnormally now.

Which doesn't seem like her usual style.

"Paul is an old employee here. And I have always been satisfied with him. So he has been working as a chef here for a long time.

Doctor, if you think he cooks well, then I will ask him to go to your place. During the time when you stay in F Country, he can cook for you."

Duke Rosen thought Nikita was very satisfied with the chef's cooking skills, so he generously said on the spot that he could let the chef cook for Nikita.

Nikita didn't nod to agree. But she didn't refuse either. She just smiled and said: "There are some dishes here that I think are very delicious. I am usually interested in studying in foods. Duke, can you ask the chef to come over? I want to ask him how those dishes are cooked."

When Nikita said this, Sheehan turned to look at her again. And he narrowed his dark eyes.

Duke Rosen immediately asked someone to call the cook over.

A few minutes later, a man in chef's overalls, who seemed to be around his forties, came here.

This man also has a standard appearance of people in F Country.

He has blond hair and fair skin. And he actually looked handsome.

“Greetings, Duke.’ The man bowed slightly to Duke Rosen and greeted him respectfully.

Duke Rosen smiled and said, “Paul, Doctor said she likes your cooking very much. And there are some dishes she likes particularly. She wanted to ask you how you cooked them.”

Chapter 1430-Paul turned to look at Nikita. Knowing that Nikita was a distinguished guest invited by Duke Rosen, he asked very politely: “I wonder which dishes you are specially interested in?”

Nikita supported her chin with one hand. She narrowed her eyes and took back her sights from Paul who she had been studying with her eyes. She randomly pointed to the dishes near Duke Rosen on the table with her finger. “I think these dishes are all very good and quite distinctive”

Seeing the several dishes pointed by Nikita, Paul paused for a few seconds. And there were some weird emotions showing in his eyes.

“It turns out that Doctor is interested in these dishes.’ Duke Rosen was quite surprised. “These dishes are all my favorite dishes at ordinary times. I didn’t expect you would like them too.”

“Oh?” Nikita seemed to be just chatting casually. “So, Duke, do you often have these dishes?”

Duke Rosen nodded. He thought Nikita was really just interested in these dishes, so he introduced them to her one by one. “These dishes have been my favorite since I was a child. When I was a child, my mother would personally cook for me and my father.

Later, after my mother died of illness, no one could cook the dishes which had the same taste as hers.

These dishes cooked by Paul are the closest he can get. If Doctor wants to know how to cook these dishes, you don’t have to ask Paul. I can directly tell you.”

While Nikita and Duke Rosen were chatting, Paul, who was standing beside them, clenched one of his hands tightly and clenched his cuff with the other hand. He sipped his lips and looked very nervous.

Sheehan noticed Paul's abnormality. Hearing that Nikita has been asking Duke Rosen about those dishes all the time, he thought about it for a while and guessed that there must be something wrong with this chef named Paul.

And Nikita may not be really interested in those dishes.

But Nikita acted like she was really interested in those dishes. She asked Duke Rosen about the details of cooking these dishes. And the other party was also very patient to tell her every step carefully.

Moments later.

Duke Rosen once again offered to let Paul go to the place where Nikita and Sheehan lived and cook for them.

Nikita turned him down nicely.

"Thank you for your kindness, Duke. But Sheehan and I spend most of our time outside. I am afraid there won't be too many chances for Chef Paul to show his cooking skills."

Hearing her say so, Duke Rosen nodded and said: "Then I will arrange someone to pick you up when you and Mr. Lambert have some free time. I really hope that I will have the honor to have dinner to you two again."

"Paul, you can go and get busy." Duke Rosen saw Paul still standing by. He waved his hand to imply that he could leave.

Paul seemed to feel relieved. And he immediately looked less nervous. After taking a deep breath, he quickly turned to walk out of the restaurant.

He walked very fast, as if someone were chasing him.

Even Duke Rosen noticed Paul's anomaly.

However, Duke Rosen didn't put too much thought into it. He just thought Paul was a little nervous in front of unfamiliar guests.

After lunch.

Duke Rosen said that he planted many rare flowers and plants in his garden. And now, it happens to be the flowering season. He invited Sheehan and Nikita to go over there and enjoy the garden together with him.

Nikita looked out of the window and said with a smile: "It's not necessary to enjoy the beautiful scenery in your garden now. I think the most important thing you should do now is to check whether your chef is still in his position. If we waste a few more minutes, maybe he will flee away.'
