

The Girl CB 1461

Chapter 1461-Getting Married in the Y Country

During this time, Sylvester has been thinking about this problem.

In the end is to continue to stay in f country, or follow Nikita back to the N City.

Duke Rosen did not say much about the matter, but asked him to think it over and tell him that no matter what choice he made, they would always be father and son.

Even if Sylvester chooses to return to the N City, Rosen Castle will always be his home, and he can come back at any time.

Sylvester considered for a long time and finally decided to stay.

But he was afraid that Nikita would be disappointed with him.

"I understand." Before he finished, Nikita smiled, indicating that he didn't have to go on. "I said that I will support you in any decision you make, as long as you can be happy."

"Sister, then..." Sylvester was a little uneasy and uneasy, "then you will be disappointed at me?"

"Of course not." Nikita thought it was a bit silly to ask this question.

Sylvester looked up at her again, and asked nervously, "If I miss you much, can I go to the N City to visit you? At that time, will you be willing to see me?"

Nikita nodded: "Definitely. You can visit me at any time."

Behind him, Duke Rosen breathed a sigh of relief after hearing Sylvester's final decision.

Although he didn't show much care about this matter on the surface, and he didn't exert any pressure on Sylvester, he was also afraid that Sylvester would choose to leave the F Country.

There's just one son.

Sylvester stared at Nikita and looked at it again. After making sure that she was really not angry, he relaxed. Holding Nikita's hand, he said intimately, "Sister, let me take you and brother-in-law to the airport."

When he held Nikita's hand, Sheehan frowned, and after hearing "brother-in-law", he relieved/ His future younger brother in-law is rather sensible.

He won't make fuss out of other things that makes him jealous.

After leaving the F Country, Nikita and Sheehan flew directly to the Y Country.

The F Country is not far from the Y Country. After flying for almost five hours, they arrived.

After the plane landed...

Sheehan dragged his suitcase with one hand and Nikita with the other, and they went out from the VIP passage.

Along the way, because both of them are good-looking, they have gained a lot of attention.

Even a few young girls came running to ask if they were celebrities and wanted to take photos with them.

After walking out of the VIP passage, several men in black suits stepped forward. After seeing Sheehan, they respectfully greeted, and then politely took the suitcase.

“Mr. Lambert, it’s really unfortunate that our young master just flew to the M Country yesterday. However, the young master told us that we must take care of Mr. Lambert. The young master also asked that Mr. Lambert must stay for a few more days and wait for him to come back”

The speaker looked at the beautiful Nikita with her hands held by Sheehan in surprise.

He heard their young master explaining that Mr. Lambert came with his girlfriend this time.

Before their young master left, he gave a special account and asked them to help him see how Mr. Lambert’s girlfriend looks like to win over Mr. Lambert’s heart.

Chapter 1462-Getting Married in the Y Country

“Is this Miss Nikita?” The man in black stared at Nikita for a few seconds and quickly took back his sight.

Sheehan, “Hmm.

These men in black are all arranged by Chadwick.

Before he came to y country, he didn’t tell Chadwick, who arranged someone to pick them up.

After thinking about it, it must be Vernon who told Chadwick.

It must be Vernon. After all, Chadwick enjoys high social status in the Y Country.

“Hello, Miss Nikita, our young master and Mr. Lambert are very good friends. The young master learned that Mr. Lambert would bring Miss Nikita to our country, so he arranged for us to welcome you.”

“We have already prepared the place where you stay. Please follow us.”

Sheehan booked a room in hotel.

But he knew that the place arranged by Chadwick must be a better place to live than a hotel.

He turned and asked Nikita’s opinion: “What do you think?”

Nikita is quite casual about where they stay: “It’s up to you.”

Sheehan nodded and said to the people who came to pick them up: "Let's go."

Several black men retreated to both sides one after another: "Mr.

Lambert, Miss Nikita, please."

The place arranged by Chadwick is perfect.

A four-storey villa located beside the island is located in the best position by the sea. There are all kinds of beautiful scenery by the sea.

This island is also one of the most famous scenic spots in the local area.

Nikita and Sheehan didn't bring much luggage, and they packed it in less than half an hour.

Nikita went to the open balcony propping herself up on the white railing, with gentle wind blowing.

There is a warmth approaching behind her. Sheehan hugged her from the behind herself. Rubbing her jaw, he lowered his voice: "Niky, when we get married, we will spend our honeymoon here."

This place arranged by Chadwick is very suitable for their honeymoon.

"Good." Nikita smiled. "When will we get married?"

"If you ask me, of course I want to get married right away. But..."

The man chuckled in a low voice, "Before this, we need to feed you. I don't want my wife and I got married with hungrily.

Nikita really felt hungry.

"Is there a good place around?" She took out her phone to find whether there's good stuff around them. Sheehan pressed her hands.

Nikita turned to look at him.

Sheehan said as if he's spoiling her: "There is no good place nearby, but I know a very nice place. I think you will definitely like it."

In half an hour...

Sheehan and Nikita sat in a seafood barbecue shop, waiting to order.

Nikita looked at this small shop with poor decoration. She raised her brow: "I thought it would be a high-end restaurant. I didn't expect it to be such a small shop."

"Have you eaten here before?"

Sheehan just washed the bowl and chopsticks. He passed the washed bowl and chopsticks to Nikita, and turned to her.

“I’ve been here once. For you, it’s about the taste. Although the decoration is clean, the food is clean.

Nikita raised her brows.

Chapter 1463-Getting Married in the Y Country

Sheehan is also picky.

Since it is a good place for him, it must be good.

The two ordered some specialty in the store, as well as Nikita’s favorite seafood dishes. After waiting for almost half an hour, the shop-owner came with freshly cooked seafood.

“Sir and Miss, this is the barbecue you ordered. Please enjoy your meal.”

After the boss put down the dishes, he turned and left.

Sheehan put a steaming oyster on the plate in front of Nikita: “This freshly baked oyster is the best, have a try.”

The air is filled with attractive aroma, which makes Nikita feel hungry.

Without saying a word, she buried her head and began to eat.

When Nikita’s eating, Sheehan poured her a cup of fresh coconut juice. He put a few scallops in time for her.

Nikita ate devotedly.

When she found that Sheehan had been “serving” her, she put down her chopsticks: “Why don’t you eat? I can handle it by myself.”

Sheehan looked at her gently: “I like watching you eat.”

Nikita: “...”

“What’s so good-looking about eating?”

“Others naturally have nothing to look at. My Niky is the best-looking.”

Nikita: “...”

Before, she heard the rumors that Sheehan is lofty and won’t care for ladies. He’s so bland that he almost work every day in a year.

She actually believed it.

But now...

This man in front of her, speaking love lines and doing grand gestures, is completely different image from what she had heard.

However, these words, which she found disgusting, said by this man, is quite sweet.

This is about the so-called the apple in the eyes.

After eating for a while, the boss took a bottle of drink and said with a smile, "Sir and Miss, this bottle of 'Sweet Honey' is presented to both of you. I hope you will like it."

The drink presented by the shop-owner is a bottle of fruit tea with rose petals.

Sheehan took it and said thank you.

The shop owner smiled again, "Are you newly married couples? Are you here for your honeymoon?"

"Oh?" Sheehan looked up at the shop-owner and smiled. "How did you know we are newly married couples?"

The boss smiled and said, "If I guess it wrong, sorry."

"Newlyweds?"

Sheehan looked at Nikita sitting beside him, smiling. He was very happy, "Well, you didn't guess wrong. I came here for my honeymoon with my wife. Since you are a native, why don't you recommend some scenic spots suitable for newly married couples?”

The boss was very enthusiastic. After listening to Sheehan, he immediately recommended several famous local scenic spots with unique characteristics.

At the checkout, Sheehan, who was in a good mood, tipped a big sum of money.

Out of the store...

Nikita asked curiously: “Why did you tip so much?”

If she feels that the service in the store makes her happy, she will tip more.

But the tip given by Sheehan is really a bit too much.

It’s beyond 30%.

Chapter 1464-Getting Married in the Y Country

Sheehan smiled happily: “I like what he says very much.”

Nikita immediately guessed which sentence Sheehan liked.

Without saying anything, she smiled and waved to take a cab.

After getting on the car...

The driver asked, “Sir and Miss, where are you going?”

Nikita's voice is faint: "The marriage registration office."

She said lightly. Sheehan turned to her, with his eyes flashing, staring at her.

Hearing Nikita saying to go to the marriage registration office, Sheehan is still unable to restrain the excitement, even though it's their aim of this trip.

Nikita felt his sight, "Have you brought all the relevant documents?"

Sheehan's eyes flashed.

At the marriage registration office...

Today is not a hot time, nor is it a weekend, so not many people come to register for marriage.

In front of Nikita and Sheehan, there were three people in line.

"Sheehan, Nikita."

When the staff called them, they handed them a copy of relevant information and asked them to fill out the form.

Although the Y Country and the A Country are different, the data forms for registering marriage are similar. Nikita took a pen and filled out all the questions in less than a minute.

The speed of filling out marriage information is similar to that of doing examination papers, and there is almost no hesitation in putting pen to paper.

It's Sheehan, a person who is very decisive and quick at ordinary times. It took him almost ten minutes to fill out the form.

"Miss Nikita, Mr. Lambert, have you both carefully considered it?

Are both of you willing to trust each other unconditionally, love each other, take care of each other for a lifetime, with no regrets?"

The staff of collected the registration form in their hands and asked solemnly and formally.

Nikita silently looked at each other, and replied: "Yes, I am willing."

Moments later...

The staff handed them two white marriage certificates printed with white lilies.

"Mr. Lambert, Miss Nikita, here are your marriage certificates. From now on, I declare you two officially husband and wife.

Congratulations to both of you, I wish you a sweet wedding and a good marriage."

Another staff member held a bunch of flowers and handed them to Nikita. He smiled and congratulated him:

Nikita took the flowers from the staff and politely replied: “Thank you.”

Sheehan also thanked the staff with a smile.

He looked down at the white marriage certificate in his hand and looked at Nikita standing beside him. At this moment, he felt the indescribable satisfaction and happiness in his heart.

He wants to announce the marriage to the whole world, so that all the people in the world can share their joy together.

He married Nikita.

Later, Nikita is his wife.

Sheehan led Nikita out of the marriage registration office.

He has always been low-key. Nevertheless, he posted a very high-profile photo of him holding hands with Nikita: Mrs.

Lambert, happy wedding.

The post immediately caused a sensation.

Yates commented immediately: Mrs. Lambert??! Is it Nikita??? You are married?

Chapter 1465-Rosa can't be more jealous.

Sampson: What do you mean???

Vernon: Mr. Lambert, have you gotten married in the Y Country?

Tammy: Brother Sheehan, do you mean it? Niky is really my sister-in-law now? You didn't really go to the Y Country to get your license, did you?!

Old Mr. Lambert called directly.

When Sheehan picked up the phone, old Mr. Lambert's excited voice sounded: "Boy, have you and Niky gotten married?"

You have already got the marriage certificate?

Sheehan's voice was quite light. He responded faintly: "Hmm."

Silent for a few seconds, old Mr. Lambert laughed heartily and cheerfully.

"Ha, ha, ha, good, good." Old Mr. Lambert was exhilarated, "Fortunately, smart boy. I'm rest at ease now.

He has a granddaughter-in-law!

He doesn't have to worry about others robbing his granddaughter-in-law.

"Then, you will stay in the Y Country for a couple of hours, and tell her to ask whatever she wants, I will satisfy her needs.

You can move to another villa. It's a wedding gift."

"Really?" Sheehan was slightly dazed. "Grandpa, isn't that house the place where you will stay in the future?"

The villa is one of the private properties of old Mr. Lambert, and the most important and valuable household.

At the beginning, even Sheehan's parents didn't get to share the property.

Thus, Sheehan was somewhat surprised.

"I'm an old man, thus I can live anywhere. The environment there is good, the air is satisfying, and the location is good. It is suitable for you young people. This is a little gift from grandpa. Niky would love it."

Sheehan pondered for a few seconds and accepted: "Thank you Grandpa."

The other side...

After calling Sheehan, old Mr. Lambert is still in a state of excitement. He was happy, and he called old Mr. Garrett to share his joy of having a daughter-in-law.

"Old Garrett, today is really a good day. I am so happy. I must share a great happy event with you."

They knew for so many years. Naturally, old Mr. Garrett was impatient to know this “great happy event”.

“Big happy event? Business?” Old Mr. Garrett guessed it’s about business.

Sheehan took over the company in recent years, which made old Mr. Garrett jealous.

But it didn’t make him happy like this.

The business should worth hundreds of billions of dollars.

Old Mr. Garrett is even more jealous.

“Do you think I care about the business?”

Chapter 1466-Rosa can’t be more jealous.

Their Lambert family earned much.

No matter how much money he earns, it doesn’t make any sense to him, and it won’t bring old Mr. Lambert too many surprises.

Now he has a grandson and daughter-in-law in his dream, and he can’t wait to publicize this great happy event to the whole world, so that people all over the world can know what an excellent grandson and daughter-in-law he has.

There is only one genius with full marks in the college entrance examination.

It's invaluable.

"It's not about money?" Old Mr. Garrett pondered, but he really couldn't figure it out. "Hey. Tell me what it is. I am really curious."

Old Mr. Lambert proudly showed off: "Since you so want to know, I'll tell you, I have a granddaughter-in-law."

"Granddaughter-in-law?" Old Mr. Garrett paused.

Old Mr. Lambert continued to proudly say, "It's Niky. You also know about her together with Sheehan. They got the certificate today, and now they are officially couples."

"Niky joins the Lambert family now: "Have such an excellent grandson's daughter-in-law, don't you think it is a great happy event? When the young couple come back from their honeymoon, I'm going to throw them a wedding banquet.

When the time comes, don't forget to call your family to come."

Nikita and Sheehan got the certificate in the Y Country, but they didn't plan to hold the wedding now.

As for this matter, old Mr. Lambert naturally also understands.

Sheehan's plan is to wait for him and Nikita to get the certificate in the A Country before holding a formal wedding.

Therefore, old Mr. Lambert thought that if he didn't hold a wedding, he would at least have to hold a wedding banquet to celebrate.

"Niky and Sheehan got the certificates?", Old Mr. Garrett was stunned. "I thought she's too young to get it.

"They got a marriage certificate in the Y Country. As for the marriage certificate here in the A Country, they can get it after waiting for another year and a half."

"It counts to get a marriage certificate first.

"I'll inform you when the specific time for the wedding banquet is determined."

Old Mr. Lambert showed off here and hung up the phone.

The other side...

Chapter 1467-Rosa can't be more jealous.

There is no doubt that Sheehan is excellent.

It can be said that he is the best.

He naturally hopes that his granddaughter can find him an excellent grandson-in-law like Sheehan. The two families are family friends. They've thought about it.

Unfortunately, love is merciless.

His granddaughter has a crush on him.

But Sheehan doesn't like his granddaughter.

Even if old Mr. Garrett thinks his granddaughter is one of the best who can definitely deserve the boy of the Lambert family, but he can't force him to marry his granddaughter.

What's more, Nikita deserves the outstanding man.

She looks stunning and smart with a satisfying background.

Speaking of which, she is even his grandniece.

"Rosa, let it be. Don't think about Sheehan from now on."

"If you like that type, grandpa will find them for you. We can settle this with another boy. You've played when you are young."

Old Mr. Garrett patted Rosa's back and left after setting a date for Rosa.

Looking at him going upstairs, Rosa could no longer control her emotions, her eyes were red, her tears flowed out, her fists clenched and her body trembled, and her red eyes were full of resentment.

Sheehan got married, but the bride was not her.

She loved him for so long and waited for him for so long, but she did not get a happy ending as she wished.

She is unwilling.

She is indeed unwilling Grandpa told her to put it down.

She wants to let go, too, but she really cant do it.

“Nikita, it’s all because of you.”

Rosa gnashed her teeth and read out the name that she hated, and the strong hatred in her eyes almost overflowed: “If it weren’t for you, I will become Sheehan’s bride. Why do you appear and rob Sheehan from me, why do people around me all like you?”

“Why, why?”

“Without you, I wouldn’t have to suffer. All because of you.”

“Rosa, what are you doing standing here? What’s the matter? Why are your eyes so red?”

A voice sounded behind her, Rosa turned her head and saw Corley coming in from the outside.

Seeing that Rosa’s eyes were red and her face was full of tears, Corley frowned: “Who troubles you?”

“After Rosa saw her brother Corley, she burst into tears again. She threw herself into his arms, wronged and sad and said to him:” Brother, I hate Nikita, I hate her, I hate her! Why doesn’t she die?”

Corley thought she had been wronged. He was trying to comfort her. When he heard her words, he froze and then stretched out her hand to push her away.

He frowned more tightly, his face became Serious. He said with some displeasure: “What did Nikita do to you, why do you hate her so much?”

According to Corley’s understanding of Nikita, if someone didn’t trouble her first, she would never take the initiative to trouble others.

Rosa disliked Nikita, and he knows it.

Just, he didn’t expect Rosa would say that she hates Nikita, she even cursed Nikita to die.

Chapter 1468-That alone you lose to her.

Unexpectedly, she hates Nikita so much.

If it is because of Sheehan, he thinks it is not worthy.

Sheehan never paid attention to Rosa. If Rosa tried to bring credit to herself, she should not expect Sheehan to love her anymore.

One is his doting sister, and the other is his benefactor, who is also a person he appreciates very much. Corley doesn't want Nikita and Rosa to have a bad relationship.

"She stole my Sheehan!" Rosa's eyes were full of hatred, and the expression on her face became distorted. She gritted her teeth and shouted, "I knew Sheehan first. She is just a latecomer. What qualification does she have to steal my man?"

If she didn't appear, Sheehan is mine. If she didn't appear, the person who married Sheehan is me.

"I am the one who knows Sheehan best. Everyone says that we are the best match. What is Nikita's advantage? Why can she easily take away the people I like for so many years?"

Brother, I don't accept it, I'm not convinced."

She is unconvinced to lose a person like Nikita!

Corley saw her insane appearance, his face darkened down: "Rosa, I think you are out of your mind!

Look at you! You are like a crazy woman just for a man! Do all the men in the world die, only one Sheehan is left? You will not marry others in this life except him?

"You just asked what's Nikita's advantage. You are not convinced that Sheehan chose her. Then I will tell you now that if the person Nikita likes chooses someone else, she must let him go neatly, and will never be as crazy as you for a man.

<https://noveldrama.com/the-girl-come-back-is-super-nikita-sheehan/r1059130.html> 2/3

Rosa glared, and her eyes were very red, which was scary: "Brother, I am your own sister. Why would you rather help an outsider than help your own sister every time?"

"Nikita is not an outsider." Corley said in a serious voice. "She is my benefactor. Without her, my legs will be useless for a lifetime, and I can't live without a wheelchair in my life.

What's more, Nikita is also our cousin."

Nikita is the granddaughter of Cathleen, who is their aunt. So he will definitely regard her as his cousin.

Even if you are my sister, I will only help the reasonable party.

Nikita and Sheehan are already together. Whether you are willing to accept this fact or not, you and Sheehan are impossible.

You are my sister. You should have your own pride and self-esteem. You should not be distracted and crazy all day for a man. Don't blame me for not warning you. If you have to intervene in the relationship between them and have to target Nikita, which make Sheehan unhappy, no one can protect you."

Chapter 1469-Margot is seriously ill.

Although the Garrett family and the Lambert family are family friends, Sheehan was originally a man with cruel means.

Otherwise, he would not manage well all the old shareholders, who were difficult to deal with.

If Rosa really annoyed him, he will definitely turn against her ruthlessly.

After warning Rosa, Corley turned and left.

Behind her, Rosa's hatred in her eyes is still strong, with unwillingness and resentment. Obviously, she didn't listen to a word of Corley's warning to her.

On the contrary, the more Old Mr. Garrett and Corley asked her to let him go, the more they aroused her rebellious thought, and the more unwilling she was to Sheehan.

She was unwilling to pay for many years for free.

She was unwilling to lose to Nikita.

Even if Nikita and Sheehan got a marriage certificate, so what?

They got the certificate in Y Country, so she still has a chance.

When Nikita received a call from Nathan, she was standing on the deck blowing the wind.

On the other side of the deck is a barbecue shelf. Sheehan is dressed in casual clothes, holding several kebabs and a brush, adding seasonings on the kebabs.

This is their second day in Y Country.

The weather was fine and cloudless. Nikita wanted to go to sea to enjoy the scenery. Sheehan bought a yacht and roasted the seafood they caught on the yacht.

“Nikita, mom’s illness suddenly became serious. She is unconscious now, and doctors have no choice. Only you can cure her.”

Nikita’s hoarse and tired voice is anxious and worried: “The doctor said that if she is in a coma for another two days, she will be particularly in danger and may die.

Nikita, I know mom did a lot of bad things to you, no, it should be our family did a lot of bad things to you place, but you can...”

“I see, give me the hospital address, and I will go there.” Hearing Margot’s illness worsened, and she was unconscious, Nikita’s expression did not change, and her voice was still indifferent.

Her voice was too calm to recognize any emotion, as if she were responding to a trivial matter.

At the other end, Nikita pursed tightly. There was a trace of disappointment in his eyes. After a few seconds of silence, he said in a hoarse voice: “Ward 3022. I am waiting for you.”

As soon as he finished, Nikita hung up the phone.

Listening to the disconnection sound in his mobile phone, he stood in the same place, keeping the posture of answering the phone, and the depression in his eyes became stronger.

He knew that Nikita would not accept them again.

It was the Swift family who gave up Nikita first.

The first one who proposed to sever the relationship was also the Swift family.

Nikita is just as they wish, really regard them as passers-by.

But he still felt very uncomfortable in his heart.

His favorite sister was abandoned by them.

“Well, did she promise to treat your mother?”

Patrick saw Nathan frowning after calling and saying nothing. He thought it was Nikita who went back on her word and refused to come. He couldn't help but get anxious: “If she dares to go back on her word, I will find a reporter to expose her. She even doesn't care her mother. Is this something that a normal person can do?

“Dad.” Nikita turned his head, held back his unhappiness, ‘Nikita was not so ruthless as you think. She promised to cure mom.”

“That’s what she should do.” Patrick took it for granted. “She still has a little conscience.”

Patrick suddenly got angry when he heard his father’s words: “Dad, it’s your emotional blackmail. It was you who wanted to sever the relationship with Nikita at the beginning. After severing the relationship, she is no longer your daughter.’

Chapter 1470-Nikita will never see them again.

“Even if she really refuses to treat my mother, it’s not her fault.”

“It’s not her fault, so it’s your mother and my fault, right?” Patrick was angered by his words.” Even if we were bad for her, didn’t we want to make up for her later? She didn’t want it! If it weren’t for her own willfulness, and she had to sever the relationship with us, can we finally really sever the relationship. “

Yvonne is better.

Although Yvonne deceived them, and this matter also made them very angry, Yvonne was much more obedient than Nikita. There was almost no shortcoming except that she was not their own daughter.

Thinking of this, Patrick regretted it a little.

At the beginning, maybe they shouldn’t have driven Yvonne away.

Anyway, Yvonne is much better than Nikita.

“It was your fault, and I was also wrong.” Nathan was regretful, “With Nikita’s character, how can she accept our compensation.

Dad, Nikita really didn’t do anything wrong. She doesn’t owe us anything. She can promise to treat my mother or refuse.

No matter how she chooses, she is not wrong.

Do you know why Nikita is unwilling to accept compensation from the family like us? Because now, you are still accusing her and thinking that her willfulness caused today’s situation.”

If I were Nikita, I wouldn’t want to have any contacts with such a family: Nathan has a hunch.

Perhaps, after Nikita treated Margot this time, it should be difficult for them to see Nikita again.

To be precise, Nikita will never see them again.

She is such a proud person.

What else can a family like them do besides causing her trouble?

Patrick wanted to refute something, but after Nathan finished, he turned and walked out of the ward.

On the plane.

Nikita turned to look out of the window for a while, stretched out her hand and rubbed her eyebrows. Then she turned her head, and saw Sheehan looking at her.

She was stunned, and then smiled: "Why are you looking at me like this?"

"Are you tired?" Sheehan put his hands around her neck and massaged gently at her temples. "Sleep for a while if you are tired."

The strength in his hand was very proper. Nikita closed her eyes and enjoys his service. Her voice is lazy: "I'm not tired, just a little annoyed."

Sheehan guessed it at once: "Are you worried about treating Margot?"

Nikita has severed relations with the Swift family. For Sheehan, Margot naturally is a stranger.

In terms of address, she also called her name directly.

Nikita didn't deny: "Hum."

"Are you worried about her illness?"

"No." Nikita slowly opened her eyes, and her voice was somewhat indifferent. "It is annoying to see people I don't want to see.”

She promised Cathleen to treat Margot.

Even though she is very reluctant to see the Swift family again, she will definitely do what she promised others.

She can't go back on her word.

Sheehan understood and nodded, He didn't speak anything.

Nikita turned to look at him, suddenly asked: “Do you think I am ruthless?”

After all, even if she has severed ties with the Swift family, that blood relationship still exists.
Physiologically speaking,

Margot is still her biological mother.

Unless, she changed all the blood in her body.
