

The Girl CB 1521

Chapter 1521-You are the same person.

From beginning to end, he didn't mean to avoid Nikita. Nikita also stood beside him and looked at it generously.

Until, Nikita saw him implanting the virus program written by him into a network system she was familiar with.

Nikita: "...

Therefore, Sheehan said before that Mr. Hall should die, and then asked her to give him an hour to do this.

He wrote an aggressive super strong virus program, and implanted it into the network system of Mr. Hall headquarters.

Mr. Hall's network system was involved in a lot of secrets, so it was also a defense system made by the world's top experts, which could guarantee that it would not be attacked by any virus programs and make hackers unable to start.

However, this virus program made by Sheehan couldn't be prevented by anything.

Mr. Hall's base camp was attacked by this virus program. It was conceivable how big the blow was.

Nikita could imagine if Mr. Hall knew this matter, what the expression on his face at the moment would be.

Definitely, it would be quite wonderful.

Just thinking about it, she felt quite relieved.

“Sheehan, what is your relationship with the middle-aged man”

Fritz “who is rumored to have such untidy living habits in the world that he can not take a bath or wash his hair for a month, and looks ugly?”

Nikita suddenly thought of this person.

Because she had studied some programs made by Fritz, and she found that the virus system just made by Sheehan was very similar to the style of Fritz.

Although two people were very different in appearance, age and living habits, they both reached this level, and there were not many people who were very similar in some styles.

Besides, all the information about Fritz came from some unconfirmed rumors.

No one could really investigate how old this person was, what he looked like and where he came from.

Just like everyone thought “Aroma” was a middle-aged woman in her forties and fifties with plain appearance.

Hearing that, Sheehan lowered his head, with his deep eyes narrowing.

He slowly raised his head, and the expression on his handsome face was somewhat intriguing.

“Why do you suddenly ask? Do I have anything in common with the man you are talking about?”

He didn't deny it.

Nikita's expression on her face was also intriguing. She rubbed her chin and smiled: “Seriously, you should be nothing alike. However, I just saw the virus system you made, and many things in it are quite similar to what he did.”

“Fritz is one of the top hackers in the world. I don't think anyone can have such skills and be so similar to him.”

Nikita's eyes stared straight at Sheehan: “You are the same person.”

Sheehan: “...”

It should be said that his children were a little too clever.

He hid his sockpuppet for so long that she guessed it right at once.

But she could understand his virus program just now, which also showed that she was also not simple.

“Then what was the relationship between you and one of the top hackers in the world, ‘Supernatural Y’?” The man asked.

Nikita: "..."

She hugged her arms and seemed to smile: "It seems that I asked you first. You haven't answered my question yet."

Sheehan also smiled: "If I answer, will you answer me?"

"No problem." Nikita nodded.

"All right." Sheehan also nodded. "I have answered your question just now, yes."

Chapter 1522-It was so ruthless.

"Well, so am I." Nikita also admitted in a quite calm tone.

Sheehan was stunned for a few seconds.

He had guessed Nikita might be this person, but when she admitted at that moment, his mood was quite confused.

It was another powerful sockpuppet.

Therefore, he didn't know how many powerful sockpuppets his babe had.

What he had already known were a highly-skilled doctor, a songwriter, a skillful game player, the top one in college entrance examination and a world-famous pianist.

Now there was another identity as a top hacker.

But Sheehan knew very well that this was definitely not Nikita's last sockpuppet.

Compared with the past, he had calmed down a lot in the face of these God-level sockpuppets that suddenly burst out.

"So, the Supernatural Y that I have been looking for is always right with me, and now it turns to be my wife?" Sheehan said with his deep and beautiful eyes full of banter.

Nikita crooked her head and looked careless: "Don't you also always do it right with me, Mr. Lambert?"

Sheehan was the top hacker who was good at the most advanced kind of virus program among hackers.

Nikita, on the contrary, was better at doing defense programs and specializing in virus programs.

In the hacker world, they were opponents who disliked each other.

They had also met each other several times.

When Sheehan just made a virus program and released it, Nikita immediately went to conquer it, found flaws in his program and made a more powerful defense system.

When her defense system was made, Sheehan took the virus program to attack.

In that way, they had repeatedly teased each other for a long time, and each other absolutely felt the other was very powerful, but they all disliked each other.

Nikita never thought that the person she disliked would be the man beside her.

Sheehan never thought that the opponent he couldn't find would be the girl beside him.

Their mood at this time, were a little indescribable subtle.

"Well." Sheehan raised his hands and made a gesture of surrender.

"Then let's take a step back. From now on, shake hands and make peace. What do you think about that?"

Nikita smiled and held out her hand: "Since Mr. Lambert said so, of course | have no problem."

They shook hands and looked at each other with a smile.

Nikita raised her eyebrows and was in a good mood. Her lips pressed and smiled: "You just had that virus program, and you were afraid that you would give Mr. Hall's company to the end."

It was ruthless.

There was no room for saving.

The highest-level defense system, which Mr. Hall spent a lot of money to do, collapsed as ugly as it could be.

The whole network system of their organization would be directly invalidated.

Especially in the kind of serious consequences that could never be repaired.

The network system was completely abolished, and Nikita was very clear about the impact on Mr. Hall.

To be honest, she didn't want to retaliate against Mr. Hall in this way.

But she was mainly engaged in defense, and she couldn't make a virus system as powerful as Sheehan.

So she could only hold back the idea of revenge, but after so many years, she had been thinking about this matter.

Now, Sheehan had helped her realize it.

So she was definitely happy to see.

Nikita once again felt that Sheehan was really both handsome and practical.

She had quite a good taste for choosing boyfriend.

Sheehan closed his notebook, got up and walked to her side, taking her to the outside of the study:

"Give him a little

hardship today

Chapter 1523-He is not so incompetent.

"What about Rosa?" Sheehan made Mr. Hall unhappy, but Rosa's problem had not been solved.

“Give it to Chadwick.” They walked out of the room. Sheehan closed the door and took Nikita to the front of the elevator.

Nikita looked up at him: “Are you sure he can find someone? If not...”

She also had some relations in Y country.

They could also come in handy.

When the elevator arrived, they walked in. Sheehan pressed the button of the first floor. His thin lips were slightly hooked, but there was no worry in his tone: “Don’t underestimate Chadwick, even if Mr. Hall’s people robbed Rosa. As long as people are still in Y country, Chadwick will definitely find a way to find her.”

“Y country is Chadwick’s territory, and he is not so incompetent.”

Hearing his words, Nikita would no longer continue to say this matter.

She didn’t care about Rosa’s safety.

It was just the Garrett had asked Sheehan for help, and what she wanted to help was only Sheehan.

Sheehan’s mother, Bethel, went to the temple to become a monk after his father died.

She said she would recite Buddhist scriptures for Sheehan’s father all her life.

No one in the Lambert family stopped her from becoming a monk.

It was not that they didn't want to stop it, but Bethel was in a very bad state at that time. If they didn't promise her, they were afraid she might follow Sheehan's father at any time.

Old Mr. Lambert had just lost his favorite little son, so he couldn't afford to lose another daughter-in-law.

After Bethel became a monk, Sheehan would visit her at the temple when she was free.

He and Nikita's relationship had also already been told to Bethel.

Now that the relationship between them was determined, Sheehan took Nikita to visit Bethel.

The temple was located on a mountain in the suburb of N city. The scenery on the mountain was very good, with green mountains and green waters everywhere. It was a place suitable for leisure and health preservation.

Sheehan often came over, and people on this side of the temple knew him. They were surprised and curious when they saw that he had brought a little girl with him this time, and she was as beautiful as flowers and jade.

"Mr. Lambert, Recluse Bethel was just talking about you, and you arrived."

The abbot of the temple came forward, bowed with his hands folded, and said with a smile.

Abbot's eyes stayed in Nikita for a few seconds with obvious curiosity.

Sheehan introduced: "This is my wife, Nikita. Niky, this is Abbot Shepard of Worry-free Temple."

Beside Sheehan, Nikita's bowed slightly towards the abbot: "Nice to meet you, abbot."

After listening to Sheehan's introduction, the abbot stunned, and then looked at Nikita and nodded: "It turned out to be Mr.

Lambert's lover. No wonder Recluse Bethel looked in a good mood during this time, and she got up early today to buy something."

When the abbot first met Sheehan, he was still thinking about what kind of woman can be worthy of such an excellent man.

At present, Miss Nikita looked well-matched with him.

Both of them were extremely suitable in both appearance and temperament.

It was indeed a perfect couple.

Although she was a monk, Bethel's treatment was very good, who had a separate small yard to live in, and the environment in the small yard was also very nice.

Bethel usually liked to take care of flowers and plants. Entering the small courtyard, they saw the courtyard was full of colorful flowers, which was very beautiful.

Chapter 1524-He will never be alone again.

Nikita saw a woman in a blue dress, a bun, fair skin and beautiful silhouette standing in front of a flower bed, watering the flowers.

The woman was very tall, who looked 1.7 meters by visual inspection.

Although it was only a silhouette, it was also outstanding in charm and extraordinary in temperament.

Needless to say, this woman must be Sheehan's mother Bethel.

The first beauty in N city, who was famous for a while, was not a lie.

Bethel's good-looking degree was the degree that even Nikita felt particularly beautiful.

Hearing the sound of pushing the door, Bethel, who was watering the flowers, stopped her movement and slowly turned her head.

Just now, it was just a side face. Nikita already felt that Bethel was a great beauty. Now she had seen Bethel's real appearance. Even if she had seen many top handsome men and beautiful women, she still was amazed.

Bethel was a recluse, so she didn't wear any makeup on her face, but she was still so beautiful.

Nikita looked at Bethel, and slightly looked up at the man beside her.

No wonder Sheehan could have such handsome appearance, which could make her take a fancy to it.

He and Bethel were so similar.

"Mom." Sheehan took Nikita and walked over. When he talked to Bethel, his voice had a different gentleness. "This is Niky, whom I have been telling you."

"I brought her to see you."

Bethel's eyes were very gentle, staring at Nikita for a few seconds, and her voice was also warm and gentle. "No wonder you often talk about her. It turned out to be such a beautiful and handsome girl."

"I knew my son would not have a bad taste."

It was Nikita's first time to see Sheehan's parents so formally, and unexpectedly she was rarely nervous.

She looked at the smiling Bethel, sipped her lips, and called out a little unnaturally: "Mom."

Bethel immediately stepped forward and took her hand.

Nikita felt more than a cold feeling on the wrist, and then she saw a green jade bracelet on the wrist.

With excellent and extremely rare color, at first glance, she knew it was priceless.

She was slightly dazed.

Bethel let go of her hand and said softly, "This is my dowry. I left the Lambert family with nothing else, but just brought this bracelet."

"Because it means a lot to me, which is something my mother left me."

"Now, I give you this bracelet. Niky, Mom hopes that you and Sheehan can have a better relationship for a long time. What Mom was most worried about at the beginning was Sheehan, but now, Mom can finally let go."

"With you by his side, Mom believes that he will never be alone again."

All of a sudden received such a valuable gift, Nikita felt a little at a loss to see Sheehan.

Sheehan touched her head: "This is a gift from Mom. Please accept it. This shows that she likes you very much and recognizes you very much."

Hearing him say so, Nikita also felt at ease to accept.

She touched the bracelet, looked up and said cleverly, "Thank you mom."

“Pal”

“You are so useless, and you are all useless at the critical moment!

Tell me, why are you still here!”

Mr. Hall received the news that the network system of the headquarters was attacked by viruses and could not be remedied.

He was furious and smashed everything at hand.

A group of subordinates standing next to them, looking at the man in rage, were too scared to breathe.

“What? The one I want has also been found and taken away? Are you stupid? You can’t do anything I told you well. Even such a simple little thing can be screwed up!”

“Get the penalty yourselves. Immediately find out who did it. If you can’t do it well this time, you don’t have to come back alive.”

Chapter 1525-He was really unwilling.

After receiving two bad news in a row, Mr. Hall was livid with anger.

After hanging up the phone, he turned and strode out.

People with Rosa were not difficult to check, and they would be found sooner or later.

But the person who completely destroyed the network system of the headquarters of the Dark Disney was the one who really made Mr. Hall frighten.

There were few people who dared to shoot against the Dark Disney all over the world.

Because such a behavior was undoubtedly showing that he was an enemy of the Dark Disney.

Either that person was tired of living, or the strength of the other party was not bad.

Either way, he would find out this person, and if he was tired of living, he would be fulfilled.

If it was the latter, then from now on, this person was the enemy of the Dark Disney, and Mr. Hall had always been merciless to the enemy.

The losses suffered by the headquarters were very great. Many confidential documents were placed in the network system of the headquarters, and there were many businesses that could not be traded openly, which also ran transactions through the network system of the headquarters.

But now, the whole network system had collapsed, and many extremely important confidential documents and contracts had not yet been saved elsewhere.

The losses and impacts were enormous.

Even Mr. Hall could no longer be as calm as before and ignore this matter.

This time, he must go back to the Dark Disney to deal with some things.

Before leaving.

Thinking of Nikita, Mr. Hall felt so unwilling.

He came for Nikita.

But in Sheehan's territory, he was very restricted in doing things and could not do whatever he wanted as before.

It was unrealistic to take Nikita with him.

But just go back like this, he was really unwilling.

"Boss?"

Mr. Hall stood in front of a black Land Rover, the door of which had been opened for a long time, and he stood by without moving.

The subordinate waited for a long time and didn't wait for him to get on the car. He plucked up the courage and urged him.

Because they received some news that Sheehan might have acted there.

They must evacuate now as soon as possible.

In case there were any variables.

Even if Mr. Hall was the world's fearful boss of Dark Disney, in other people's territory, he also had to be careful.

Mr. Hall pursed his lips and looked gloomy. After standing for a few seconds, he got on the car with one hand holding the door.

Along the way, the Black Land Rover drove smoothly and headed for the airport.

Mr. Hall came by private jet, but this time, in order to hide himself, he planned to take the flight back from the airport.

Half an hour later, they arrived at the airport.

Mr. Hall got off the car, with several subordinates separated by a short distance, followed him around to protect him.

After changing the air tickets, a group of people went to the VIP room to wait.

There were not many people in the VIP room, including those who bury their heads in reading, those who play with their mobile phones, and those who chat quietly while drinking coffee.

As soon as Mr. Hall walked in, it attracted the attention of many women.

There were several women sitting on the side of the door with excited expressions on their faces, looking at him with intense eyes, covering their mouths and discussing in an excited whisper: "Did you see the man who just came in? He is so handsome!"

"I see! Really handsome! His temperament is also very good. It looks like the kind of prince from a noble family.'

"He does have a handsome look, but I feel that his temper may not be very good."

"Sisters, do you want to go and ask for a contact information?"

"You go. I dare not go."

"I dare not go either.'

"Don't dare to go? Then forget it. I also dare not.'

That handsome boy was really good-looking, who was a rare handsome man.

But it looked very difficult to mess with, which made people scared to approach him.

Chapter 1526-She didn't really want to leave him.

Mr. Hall suspected that the group of women was noisy and found a corner position to sit down.

Several subordinates stood beside them, all of whom looked respectful and conspicuous.

"Boss, Someone just came to report. Sheehan did arrange people to intercept us. However, as you expected, they found the wrong direction."

"They went to the private airport."

"When they get there, it will take at least half an hour. After half an hour, our flight has already taken off."

Mr. Hall sneered: "It is said that the elder son of the Lambert is so powerful, but I do not think so."

Even Sheehan was fooled by him.

Unfortunately, Nikita was Sheehan's girlfriend. Except for to the good appearance, there was no advantage of him.

This also strengthened Mr. Hall's determination to recapture Nikita.

Sheehan was not worthy of Nikita at all.

Nikita was the best choice only to be with Mr. Hall.

“Yes, it is said that Sheehan is so powerful that it seems that it is nothing more than that. Compared with you, he is not worth mentioning at all.”

Seeing that Mr. Hall seemed to be in a better mood, his subordinates said a few words of flattery: “The young lady is just confused for a while. After a while, she will definitely despise Sheehan. At that time, she will feel that you are the most suitable person for her.”

“After all, in this world, there are almost no people who can be compared with you. After seeing the excellence of you, how can the young lady look at others?”

“Sheehan only has a handsome face. When the young lady is tired of watching, she will naturally leave him and return to you.”

These words said by the subordinates were just to please Mr. Hall.

In fact, they were very clear what Nikita’s characteristics were.

The word “docile” had never had anything to do with Nikita.

Mr. Hall sneered: “Niky has always had this problem, and she likes the handsome man. However, you are right. Her novelty comes and goes quickly, and she will get tired of Sheehan sooner or later.”

Nikita at the beginning had been attracted by him, and been cheated to the island, which was because this problem that she liked the handsome ones.

“So you don’t have to worry. The young lady is just confused for a while. She will return to you sooner or later.”

“Even so, | feel uncomfortable at the thought of her and Sheehan together. It’s just that there are more important things

now. After dealing with those troubles, | will come back and pick her up.”

“In the past, | forced her too much and made her rebellious.”

Mr. Hall always thought that Nikita didn’t really want to leave him.

She was only in a moment of anger to revenge him.

So he decided that if she came back to him again, he would not trap her as before.

As long as enough freedom was given to her, she would never leave him again.

“Boss, it’s time to board the plane. We should go.” Subordinates receive boarding reminders.

Mr. Hall raised his wrist and looked at the time. He got up and said, “Let’s go.”

A line of people, under all kinds of eyes, were going towards the outside of the VIP room.

Just walked to the door, a subordinate seemed to see something, and his face changed. He immediately stepped up and protected himself in front of Mr. Hall.

“Protect the boss.” The subordinate in front of Mr. Hall growled at others in a bad look.

Almost at the same time.

A group of uniformed and armed with shotguns came in. About twenty or thirty people directly stopped the way of Mr. Hall and his party.

Chapter 1527-Meeting of the Rivals in Love

Mr. Hall looked at the police in front of him, narrowed his eyes, and a trace of cold color passed at the bottom of his eyes.

“Mr. Hall, we have received a report that you are suspected of an arms smuggling case. Please come back to the police station with us for investigation.”

Led by a police officer to show the police officer’s card, Mr. Hall’s subordinates had reached to the neckline of the suit.

Mr. Hall turned his head and gave his subordinates a look. The subordinates put their hands back in place with a sullen face.

The rest of the people, also put down their hands slowly.

Mr. Hall looked at the police with no expression on his face, and his tone was restrained and polite:
“This police officer,

you just said that you received a report, and some people said that | was related to an arms smuggling case?”

“Yes, Mr. Hall, please go back with us to accept the police. You can’t leave N city until this matter turned to a clear conclusion.”

Mr. Hall’s face suddenly darkened, but a low smile escaped from his throat: “That is to say, you didn’t have actual evidence, but you came to arrest people?”

The police officer was stunned and was about to say something when he saw several men wearing blue suits and twisting briefcases coming up.

“Mr. Hall, we have actual evidence before reporting it to the police station. Of course, if you have to ask what evidence it is, | can’t answer you now.”

“But you can rest assured that if you are really wronged, there is no place where anyone can force you to be charged with nonexistent crimes. After all, in the status of Mr. Hall, few people dare to force you.”

Mr. Hall looked at the talking man, squinted, and his eyes were cold: “Are you people of Sheehan?”

Dare to come out face to face and admit to reporting him, except Sheehan, he couldn't think of anyone else.

The man in the suit smiled and was humble in the face of Mr. Hall: “Mr. Hall, Mr. Lambert said that you came from afar, and he hadn't done the friendship of landlord yet. How can you just leave?”

Mr. Hall's face became bad: “It was him.”

“Mr. Hall, please.” The man in the suit leaned over and made an invitation gesture. “Mr. Lambert is still waiting for you.”

Mr. Hall's eyes were murderous, and stared at the talking man with cold eyes.

The man was not afraid, but still said with a smile, “Mr. Hall, please.”

Mr. Hall stared at the man for a few seconds, took back his eyes and sneered: “OK, | will go to meet Sheehan, but | want to see what kind of evidence he has in his hand.”

Every transaction of the Dark Disney was extremely hidden and safe.

Sheehan didn't have the ability to find out something about him.

However, Sheehan would come to this trick and bring people to the airport to intercept him, which showed that he was not as incompetent as Mr. Hall thought.

He underestimated him.

Police station.

Interrogation room.

Seeing Sheehan sitting inside, Mr. Hall walked calmly.

In the interrogation room, there were only two people, and the police were outside.

"Mr. Hall, the leader of Dark Disney, I have been waiting for you for a long time." Sheehan sat still, playing with a pen in his hand. When he saw Mr. Hall entering the interrogation room, he narrowed his eyes.

Mr. Hall opened his chair and sat down opposite him.

"Sheehan, do you think you can trap me in N city with this trick?"

The hostility in Mr. Hall's eyes was unabashed, and his face was cold.

Sheehan smiled: "A country is a country ruled by law, so it is natural to act according to law. If Mr. Hall is innocent, you will naturally be given back your innocence."

"Of course you do act according to law." Mr. Hall tightened his lips and his eyes were very angry.
"Sheehan, you can't trap me. If I want to go, no one can stop me: "Even if N city is the territory of your family, you can't keep me here

Chapter 1528-

You're in charge.

"Mr. Hall, if it is in your territory, I really can't take you. But in A country, especially in N city, I naturally can do anything to you, the boss of Dark Disney."

The more light his tone was, the heavier the rage in Mr. Hall's eyes.

The whole person seemed to be a little out of control and growled: "Oh? Is it? Then you can have a try, and I promise you will regret it."

"Is it?" Sheehan smiled, and the smile of his lips faded. "What I hate most is being threatened. I really want to see the consequences of doing something to you."

“What is Dark Disney? | am not afraid of anything.”

Mr. Hall supported his hands on the table, suddenly stood up, bent down, and stared at Sheehan with murderous look:

“Then try it.”

Sheehan also did not hurry not slow to stand up, he played the dust that did not exist on his collar, slightly raised his head, looked at Mr. Hall, who was almost crazy, with a cold look and indifferent eyes: “Well, it remains to be seen. Of course, first of all, you have to have this opportunity to leave here. Oh, by the way, if you need lawyers, | can introduce some good

lawyers for you. “

Mr. Hall sipped his lips tightly and his eyes were full of anger.

Sheehan looked at him, seeming to smile, turned and walked out of the interrogation room.

The police chief accompanied Sheehan out of the police gate.

“Mr. Lambert, you can rest assured that we will do a good job in this case and will never let go of any criminals. This case is also a big case. We have reported it to the relevant departments. Our leader attached great importance to it, saying that it must be Strictly investigated and dealt with.’

Sheehan nodded slightly: "Thank you, sir."

"It's my pleasure." The attitude of the commissioner of police is cautious. "Combating criminals is what we should do."

There is a black Bentley parked outside the police station.

After Sheehan got in the car, she looked at the girl sitting in the back seat with her legs crossed and playing games. After sitting beside her, he reached out and touched her head.

"What would you like for lunch?"

Nikita just finished playing a game, put her mobile phone on her leg, turned her head and looked at him: "Have you seen him?"

"Hmm." Sheehan nodded and caressed her hair. "Yes, he seems to be quite impatient, and his face is livid."

"Really?" Nikita blinked, "Is his face really livid?"

"Hmm." Sheehan smiled. "Do you seem to be very happy?"

"Of course | am happy." Nikita said, "The more unhappy that pervert is, the happier | am. | feel that my appetite has suddenly improved.”

“Eat more at noon.’ The man spoiled her with smiles in his eyes.

“How about hot pot?”

“OK, | will accompany you to eat whatever you want.”

“Then let’s eat hot pot. Nancy told me that a new hot pot restaurant has started business recently. It tastes good. | was going to eat with her, but she flew abroad again.”

The hot pot restaurant Nikita said was not far from the police station. It took more than ten minutes to drive here.

They didn’t order a private room, so they sat by the window in the lobby.

When they went, it was not yet time for a meal, and there were not many people.

But when they walked into the hot pot restaurant, almost everyone sitting in the lobby looked up at them.

Chapter 1529-Public Display of Affection

Sheehan was a low-key person. Few people who was not in the same person knew him.

Nikita has appeared on trending topic several times, but after all, she is not a person in the entertainment industry, so not many people know her.

What attracted the attention of the lobby customers was their extraordinary appearances.

The combination of handsome man and beautiful woman, with outstanding appearances and temperament, is eye catching wherever they go.

Both of them have long been accustomed to this kind of gaze, and they walked to the predetermined position calmly.

The waiter brought the menu. Nikita ordered many her favorite food, and didn't ask Sheehan what he liked to eat. After ordering, she gave the menu directly to the waiter.

Before, Sheehan ate what she ordered. When she asked him what he liked, his answer was that he loved everything she ordered.

After asking twice, Nikita stopped asking.

She knows that Sheehan is not very interested in hot pot, so she can accompany him to eat his favorite dishes in the evening.

This is how they get along every day.

After the dishes were served, Sheehan knew clearly the preferences of Nikita. He first put the cattle stomach in the pot and stewing it. After that, he put it in the Nikita bowl.

Nikita directly ate them.

Sheehan didn't eat it. He kept boiling vegetables for Nikita. Seeing that she was eating happily, he smiled and said: "It seems that we have to hire a cook who specializes in hot pot in the future."

"Don't bother so much. We can come out to eat at any time if we want to eat hot pot.' Nikita concentrated on eating.

Sheehan smiled and put the freshly boiled spicy beef into her bowl: "Eating at home is different from eating outside."

"How about eating hot pot in the pavilion in the backyard of the Lambert family's villa? Isn't it good to enjoy the scenery while eating?"

"It also sounds quite good." Nikita quite likes the back garden of the Lambert family. This season, it is a good time to enjoy flowers.

The flowers in the back garden of the Lambert family must be beautiful.

"It's done. | will let someone do this later."

Nikita buried her head and answered. She indulged in eating hot pot and didn't lift her head.

Sheehan looked at her in a doting way and saw that there were not much food in her bowl. He helped her continue to boil food.

Neither of them noticed that a girl sitting at the next table took a picture of their interaction with her mobile phone.

The girl took a few minutes' clip, edited it into a one-minute video, and uploaded it to her social account.

This app is a video editing app software with huge popularity. The girl is originally a small online celebrity with 100,000 fans, and the videos she shoots usually have tens of thousands of likes.

She posted the interactive video of Sheehan and Nikita eating hot pot to her account, accompanied by a paragraph: This is probably the best way of display of affection. | really envied when | saw this scene.

After uploading the video, that little celebrity logged out her account and continued to eat hot pot.

Ten minutes later, she finished eating hot pot, checked out and left the hot pot restaurant.

“Damn it, Joie, is this the video you just post? The popularity is too scary!”

Just now, the girl who took a sneak shot of the video was called Joie. She heard the exclamation of her companion, stunned, and then immediately logged in her account.

“Holy shit, it is more than two million likes! My video is popular so much?!”

In ten minutes, the video she just uploaded has already received more than two million likes, which is close to three million.

And her own fans have also increased by almost 100,000.

She took hundreds of self-portrait videos before she rose to 100,000 fans.

But these hundreds of self-portrait videos are not as good as one video of shooting others

Chapter 1530- Eating Hot Pot and Displaying Their Affection

Joie looked at the rising number of likes and the rapidly increasing number of fans, and the whole person froze.

Shit!

The video she took casually is so popular!

It is less than ten minutes!

She got almost three million likes in ten minutes, what does it mean?

In other words, this video is very likely to get 10 million likes in a day.

In this app, only a few superstars in the entertainment industry can get more than 10 million likes.

Even now, the most popular hunky boy Hugh's most popular video only got 7 million likes in a week.

Her video got almost three million likes in only ten minutes!

"Joie, you are going to be popular!" The partner next to her is envious. "According to this situation, you have to get more 400,000 fans at least today!"

"Ah ah ah, I should have made a video just now!"

The video taken by this online celebrity Joie not only became popular on the social media she posted, but also quickly became popular on Facebook.

At first, a marketing account posted the video on Twitter, and then other marketing accounts twittered it one after another, which including many online celebrities of millions of fans. Soon this video was twittered tens of thousands of times.

Soon, the topic of "Occasionally a couple with outstanding appearances in hot pot restaurant" became the first place of the trending topics.

Netizens who have watched the video have said that they saw a display of public affection, shouting that they believe in love again.

“Ah, ah, ah, it’s so sweet. My heart beat very fast!”

“They are so eye-pleasing! Ah, ah, the man is super handsome, and the girl is sooooo beautiful!”

“Why do I feel this couple is so familiar?”

“Thy seems to officially announce their relationship before, right? If I remember correctly, the man should be the president of the Lambert Group, and the girl is very clever, called Nikita, right?”

“This is Nikita and Sheehan, the president of the Lambert Group.”

“Nikita? This name is familiar. Is it the same person as the world-class piano master Aroma?”

“Let me introduce them. The man is the president of the Lambert Group, and the woman won the first place and full marks both in the college entrance examination and joint examination, and she was the songwriter of the two songs of Hugh that are popular, the master in e-sports, the former coach of RG team, the owner of the Malcom School. The world-class famous pianist Aroma is also her.”

“Holy shit, it turned out to be Sheehan and Nikita. I didn’t expect them to get along with each other in such a treacherous way.

Ah, ah, I feel that Sheehan dotes on Nikita!”

Although Sheehan and Nikita both kept a low profile, they announced their relationship on Facebook. There was still a trending topic about Nikita yesterday.

So it didn’t take long for some netizens to recognize them.

The topic “Sheehan and Nikita eat hot pot and display their affection” also became a trending topic.

Yvonne looked at the noble man putting the food into girl’s bowl in the video, and her teeth bit a blood mark on her lips.

She is living in hell now, miserable, but Nikita is living a good life, which was much better than her dream.

Nikita got everything she longed for.

And what about her?

Clearly she has a bright future, clearly she can be a winner in the eyes of others, but now she can’t even go to a better university.
