

The Girl CB 1571

Chapter 1571-I can do anything for money.

Yvonne shook her head at the boy: "Thank you, I'm fine."

When the boy saw that her face was obviously pale, he asked again: "Are you really okay?"

"Well, I'm fine." Yvonne smiled reluctantly. "I was a little uncomfortable just now, but now I am fine."

Hearing it, the boy didn't say anything again.

After the boy left, Yvonne still stood in place, fixing her eyes on the screen of her mobile phone.

Costello was actually released from prison.

For Yvonne, this news was undoubtedly terrible enough to make her have nightmares.

In those days, when she knew that Costello was sentenced to prison, she didn't feel sad at all, but felt very happy.

She wanted Costello to be imprisoned all his life.

She never wanted to see this father who had blood relation with here.

Especially after she was taken to the Swift family by Margot and Patrick, she was especially afraid of seeing Costello again. She was afraid that the good life she had finally owed would be ruined by Costello.

At that time, although she was still very young, she also knew how disgusting

Costello was.

She was particularly afraid of being entangled in Costello.

Costello was sentenced to thirteen years in that year. It's time for him to get out of prison.

It's been more than ten years.

Yvonne has almost forgotten such a person.

But now, Yvonne panicked when she suddenly learned that Costello was released from prison and went to her past house to find her.

Anyway.

She won't let Costello find her.

She had to calm down, thinking of a way to handle Costello. She would return to N City in the future, so she can't allow Costello to ruin her life.

Suddenly, in a panic, an idea occurred to her.

Costello can do anything for money.

Costello was looking for her for money.

She still had some money...

Vague thoughts gradually become clear in her mind, Yvonne raised her head, although her face was still pale, her eyes were bright.

Costello has been looking for Yvonne for a long time.

After Costello failed to find Yvonne in the Swift family, he went to the school to find her. Naturally, he failed again. Yvonne was abroad, and even if she was not abroad, and she had already gone to other places to study at university.

“Fuck, where did this bitch go?” Costello came out of school in vain and found nothing for several days. Seeing that the money was getting less and less, he was anxious and angry.

He was used to being lazy.

After taking the money from the prison guards to support him, he never thought about seeking for a job at all.

These days, he found an express hotel to stay. Every day, besides looking for Yvonne, he went to gamble with people.

Originally, he didn't have much money, and now almost ran out of it after losing the gamble.

He was more anxious to find Yvonne.

Yvonne must have money even if she was driven away by the Swift family.

She has been a rich young lady in the Swift family for so many years, so she must have taken a lot of good things with her when she left.

When the time comes, she can take out a few pieces and sell them for a lot of money.

Costello was determined to find Yvonne. After lunch, he was ready to go to school to inquire.

The second-hand mobile phone he bought at a cheap price chirped as soon as he walked out of the restaurant.

Costello thought it was a harassing call. After all, there was nobody would call him except for selling and harassing.

Chapter 1572-You can't fight with her head-on.

He glanced at it casually and was about to hang up when he received a short message at the same time.

The content of the short message is only several simple words: Answer it, I am Yvonne.

Costello was shocked, widening his eyes and immediately picked up the phone.

A very indifferent voice sounded: "Costello, are you looking for me?"

"Are you Yvonne, my daughter?" Costello was skeptical.

"I am not your daughter long ago." Yvonne's voice is very cold, with disgust and alienation. "I have nothing to do with you after you sold me to others for money."

"It's really you, bitch!" Costello didn't expect Yvonne to take the initiative to contact him.

He said excitedly, "Is that boy telling you that I was looking for you. Didn't that boy say that you have been driven out of the Swift family? Is he lying to me?"

"You don't have to know these things. Didn't you come to me for money?"

Yvonne sneered. "I called you to tell you that there is a business. Do you want to do it?"

Costello was stunned and his eyes narrowed: "What business?"

"Money-making business, of course. If you want money, I can give it to you. But you need to do something for me, and if you agree, I can pay half of it first, and wait until it is done, and then give you the rest."

Costello was looking for Yvonne for money.

As for this daughter, he didn't care her at all.

Hearing Yvonne said that he could earn money, he immediately asked with great interest: "Of course I am willing to earn money. Go ahead, what do you want me to do?"

Yvonne was silent for a few seconds, suddenly lowered her voice and said in a strange tone: 'Do you dare to kill someone?'

Costello laughed loudly: "There's nothing I dare not to do as long as you give me enough money. But do you really want me to kill someone?"

"There is a man named Nikita Swift. As long as you can solve her for me, I can give you one million. One million is enough for you to use for a lifetime."

"I can arrange for you to go abroad after you have solved this person."

"In this way, you have no worries."

Costello squinted and looked like a hooligan: "One million is not enough if you want me to kill someone. Once it is found out, I will be sentenced to death."

What's more, it's not enough for going abroad."

Yvonne can already imagine Costello's insatiable face. She endured disgust and said, "How much do you want?"

I have indeed left the Swift family now, so I don't have so much money."

"Double that." Costello pulled out a cigarette from his pocket, smoking. "Give me two million, I will do it.”

Yvonne was silent for a moment.

“OK.” Her voice was cold. “It’s a deal. I’ll send you her information later.”

“Do you want me to kill a man or a woman?”

“Woman.

“I thought it was a difficult man. It turned out to be just a pussy.” There was disdain in Costello’s eyes. “Give me half of the money first and wait for my good news.”

“I must tell you in advance that although Nikita is a woman, she has some skills.

Don’t underestimate your enemy.”

“You can’t deal with it head on.”

“Ha, ha, ha, play tricks secretly?” Costello took a cigarette and looked confident.

“I am the best at playing tricks secretly.”

Chapter 1573-Attending School Celebration

“Stop wasting time. Give me the money. As long as I get the money, I will do what you said right away!”

Yvonne didn't say anything more. She asked Costello to get a bank card first.

Just on the street where Costello eats, there is a bank less than 50 meters ahead.

Soon, Costello received the card and told Yvonne the card number.

Yvonne directly transferred one million dollars to him first.

She is not worried that Costello will not fulfill his aim after getting the money.

Although she didn't really live with Costello for much time she still knew Costello very well even though she was little when she spent time with him.

Costello is an insatiable person who never satisfies.

With two million to take, he will never be satisfied with only one million.

Therefore, for the remaining one million dollars, he will definitely help her.

“Now you have received the money. Before it is done, let's stop contacting each other. When you get rid of Nikita, contact me again. I'm waiting for your good news.”

Yvonne didn't want to say a word more to Costello.

After she had said everything, she hung up the phone.

Her number is a virtual number, not her own number.

Before she contacted Costello, she spent money to find a hacker and deployed advanced technology to contact him.

In this case, even if Costello was found out and investigated, there is no evidence to prove that she contacted Costello.

What's more, she has decided that she will not return to her home country for several years.

As long as she is abroad, even if she is found, she can't be punished.

Domestic laws can't govern people in foreign countries.

Nikita received a phone call from Maddox, asking her to go back to school to attend a large celebration as an alumna of the First Senior High School. As a celebrity in the school, she needs to give a speech at the opening ceremony of the celebration.

The First Senior High School has received a lot of sponsorship and will build several teaching buildings and libraries.

In order to express gratitude to related enterprises, this celebration was held.

“Only stayed in First Senior High School for a few months, I am not an alumnus.”

For this boring activity, Nikita is obviously not interested.

Speaking of which, she is really not an alumnus.

After all, she was either asleep or absent from class in those months of First Senior High School. She is not a model representative.

“Nikita, I know you don’t want to participate. If it weren’t for the companies asking you to go before they pay the bills of teaching buildings and libraries, I won’t call.”

Maddox said in a low position, “I can’t refuse the request of the capital. Please do me a favor. When the opening ceremony is over, you can go.”

Nikita didn’t reply.

Maddox continued to please: "Nikita, I know you are the best and love me most.

You..."

"Stop!" Nikita really can't stand an old man who is over half a hundred years old playing coquetry with her. She rubbed the goose bumps on her arms. "When?"

Maddox's tone became jubilant. He immediately said, "Tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. Nikita, let me know before you come, and I will pick you up at the school gate."

Nikita hung up the phone, and Sheehan looked up from a pile of documents and glanced at her: "Are you going somewhere?"

Nikita nodded, "Well, I will go to First Senior High School tomorrow-"

Nikita looked at him: "Aren't you a manager of First Senior High School? First Senior High School will hold a thank-you celebration tomorrow, don't you know?"

Sheehan smiled: "I am, but I generally don't pay much attention to things over there."

The next day...

Nikita woke up and noticed that she received a phone call from Maddox.

Chapter 1574-This Sycophant

“Nikita, are you awake?” Maddox is like a youngster talking to his elders, with a very polite and respectful tone.

Nikita lifted the quilt and got out of bed, then slowly walked to the bathroom:

“Well, just woke up.”

“Do you remember coming to school today?”

“yes.

“That’s good, that’s good.” Maddox smiled very pleasantly. “I was afraid that your would forget it. Do you need me to arrange a car to pick you up?”

Nikita: “...no need.”

“Okay, okay, then I won’t bother you.”

She rolled her eyes silently, speechless.

In Maddox’s eyes, is she such an unreliable person?

Calling early in the morning, is he afraid that she broke her promise?

Nikita neatened herself well and took a ride to First Senior High School.

When she got off the car, she saw Maddox standing on the side of the gate.

Maddox saw her and immediately came towards her.

“Nikita, have you had breakfast? If you haven’t, I will take you to breakfast first.”

Maddox hasn’t seen Nikita for a while, He was a little excited meeting her.

Not seeing each other for a day feels like it has been many years.

Why did he feel that Nikita is increasingly beautiful? She’s beautiful to the extent to being surreal.

Nikita was slightly sleepy, looking at Maddox from aside: “I have eaten breakfast. Besides, there are ten minutes before the celebration begins. Isn’t it too late?”

“Not late, not late.” Maddox said with a smile, “It is most important for you to eat.

The celebration time can be delayed.”

Nikita didn’t reply.

This sycophant

Chapter 1575-5 Nikita, it’s you.

It is not easy to get a compliment from Nikita.

Maddox immediately decided that if there is such an opportunity to make money in the future, he must ask for more money.

Nikita likes money.

The more, the better.

Nikita followed Maddox into the campus.

There were loud noises from the other side of the playground.

By this time, all the teachers and students had gathered on the playground.

In a few minutes, the celebration will begin.

Talbot is now the principal of First Senior High School, but on such an occasion today, Maddox, the old principal, was also asked to attend by the school management team. Talbot waited for a long time, and didn't wait for his teacher to come. He was a little anxious.

He asked Una who was standing next to him: "Why hasn't the headmaster come yet?"

Una was promoted last month, and now she is the office director of the school.

She is also a little anxious and said, "When I came over just now, I met

President Maddox. He said he would pick up someone at the gate. At this time, the person should arrive."

Una looked at the time, and the celebration began in five minutes.

She thought about it and said, "I'll go and have a look. Maybe the VIP car is stuck in a traffic jam- "Did Maddox pick Nikita up at the gate?" Talbot asked curiously, "Pick up whom? The funder?"

Otherwise, can they send Maddox to pick Nikita up?

The several representatives from the funder's side have already arrived.

Is there any leader in higher position?

Talbot didn't know Nikita was coming today.

Maddox personally contacted Nikita, and never told him that Nikita would come today.

Una turned around and was ready to find Maddox. As soon as she turned around, she saw Maddox coming.

Along with Maddox, there is also a girl wearing a gray hoodie, a ponytail, talking to Maddox, looking down.

That's...

Una though the gray hooded girl looks familiar.

When she got close, Una saw the person clearly and immediately cried out with surprise: "Nikita, it's you!"

Talbot paused.

Nikita?

She saw Nikita coming with Maddox. He was also surprised, and was quite surprised.

It's really Nikita!

Talbot has been in the education industry for so many years. Nikita is the only student impressed him.

He will never forget.

Talbot doesn't know how to describe his mood at this moment.

When Nikita first came to their school, she was a famous student for making troubles. In addition to sleeping in classes all day, she commonly escaped classes. Not to mention that she had a fight with the people in the vocational high school just a few days after she came to school.

She directly knocked down some 6 feet tall boys into the hospital.

At that time, Talbot had a headache for her.

Watching her cause trouble everywhere, he can't discipline her.

Privately, he has to respect the problematic girl.

He was humble to the extreme.

Later, Nikita, a poor student who was ignorant and scored zero in general practice, refreshed his cognition again and again.

First, she got full score of the joint entrance examination, then the full score of the general practice in previous years, and then she was the top student in the college entrance examination. Then, she was a talented e-sports player and a popular songwriter.

What shocked Talbot most was that she was Aroma, the world-class pianist.

When he first saw this news, Talbot couldn't believe his eyes.

Chapter 1576

The Mysterious Guest

He was so stunned that he didn't fall asleep all night.

If Talbot had to respect Nikita for Maddox reluctantly, he now respects Nikita from the bottom of his heart.

He is now convinced her strength. He is even proud of her.

"Teacher:

Talbot looked at Nikita with some excitement and said, "It turned out that you went to pick up Nikita. Why didn't you tell me Nikita's coming?"

Una heard him referring Nikita as his teacher's pupil former than him, she paused.

Talbot didn't care about Una, and said with Nikita enthusiastically and excitedly:

"Nikita, long time no see, you...are you all right?"

He almost blurt out and expose Nikita's identity.

"Well, I'm quite good." Nikita answered naturally.

"Teacher, will the celebration be held on time?" Talbot looked at the time and the stage.

Maddox nodded: "Well, let's start."

At his behest, Talbot explained to the host, who walked onto the stage and delivered a speech for the opening ceremony with beautiful and professional voice.

"Dear teachers, dear students, and representatives of companies who came to attend our school celebration..."

A speech is nothing more than those words.

All the students in the audience were bored.

After all, such celebrations are quite bland for them.

Until the hostess smiled: "In fact, we also invited a mysterious guest today.

When it comes to this mysterious guest, I believe everyone must have heard all kinds of legends about he

Chapter 1577

Is this over?

"It must be her. Who else can be praised as a talented girl?"

“Wow, the school actually invited Nikita back to school.”

The word Nikita itself is the biggest hot spot, which will cause heated discussion wherever she is, not to mention Nikita’s fame in First Senior High School.

Nowadays, Nikita is the pride of First Senior High School.

Every student in the school can proudly say they go to the same school as Nikita. They will take every opportunity to tell the world this fact.

Although, when Nikita first entered the First Senior High School, many people opposed her, and they disliked her very much. They also planned to call many students to jointly apply for Nikita to drop out of the school.

After all, First Senior High School is a century-old institution.

Letting a notorious student who only got zero marks in exam to stay in a prestigious institution, is no less than letting a rat’s excrement spoiling a pot of seafood soup.

It will seriously damage the reputation of First Senior High School.

However, how much they disliked Nikita at that time is how much they worship Nikita now.

In the eyes of a middle school student, Nikita is their god and a lifelong life model that they can’t reach.

Nikita looked a bit embarrassed, and was forced onto the stage.

The host handed her a microphone and said with a kind and gentle smile:

“Nikita, you’re back to school again, you must have a lot to say to everyone.”

“Would you like to talk about how you feel coming back to school? You now stand on this familiar ground, do you think it’s warm as if you’re back to your home?”

Nikita didn’t reply.

She looked at the hostess whose smile was kind and warm, feeling awkwardly embarrassed.

The host in First Senior High School seems to be a bit...

Under the gaze of the two hosts and all the teachers and students in the audience, Nikita sipped her lips, and said in an awkward voice expressionlessly:

“As a student, I am very happy to go back to school again”

The host smiled and nodded, waiting for her to continue.

Nikita said, and then stepped away from the microphone.

The host is still waiting for her to say the next sentence. After waiting for a while, she didn’t hear her voice again. When she saw Nikita who moved the microphone away and obviously didn’t intend to go on.

Moderator: “?”

That’s it?

“Uh.” The host smiled a little awkwardly. “Besides being happy? Is there anything else to say?”

Nikita shook her head. She said she was happy. What else do they want from her?

“Wow, she is so cool.”

“I have long felt that these speeches are boring.”

“She’s so chill. I like her even more.

Maybe it’s the first time for the host to deal with people like Nikita. He paused.

After a while, he remembered to ease the atmosphere and shifted the topic.

“I believe that every one is familiar with Nikita’s achievement other than studies””Now when it comes to First Senior High School, everyone knows that there is a very outstanding student, that is Nikita. The students are also proud of you.

Taking you as an example, you have long been the goddess in everyone’s mind.”

Chapter 1578

Study hard and make progress every day.

“At this moment, I believe that the students under the stage really want to hear you say a few more words.

Nikita, can you satisfy everyone’s wishes and give everyone some necessary suggestions during their study?”

Once again, under the eyes of everyone’s expectation, she was silent for a long time before she said, “I hope everyone can study hard and make progress every day.”

“I hope that students who are about to take the college entrance examination can be admitted to their ideal universities.”

“Students who have not yet taken the college entrance examination should listen to the teachers’ advice and study hard, so that everyone can have a bright future.”

“I have finished speaking, thank you.” Two hosts on the stage: “..”

The business representatives sitting under the stage: “...”

Some teachers and students: “..”

Except Maddox and Talbot, other seniors and several students felt complicated.

Nikita finished speaking, and handed the microphone back to the host. She then turned and walked down from the stage.

After a few seconds, applause thundered from the audience.

The students clapped enthusiastically and hard. They clapped their palms reddish, but continued to clap.

They will listen to Nikita’s advice, study hard and make progress every day!

Although Nikita’s speech is very brief, and can’t even be counted as formal speech, she originally is just required to show up.

As for the length and content of her speech, it didn’t matter so much.

Therefore, Nikita received 50 million dollars from the funder after stepping down from the stage.

Of course, she didn’t ask for the money. It was Maddox who immediately asked for it after she stepped down.

After receiving the money, Nikita was in a good mood. She was pleased by Maddox's deeds.

She felt that Maddox was quite good at doing things now.

As he got older, he became worldly, but in a pleasant way.

Nikita was originally to show up. After she got her "showing-up fee", she was about to leave.

Before leaving, she called Una alone to a roadside with few people, and gave her a pulse.

Una had a physical problem before, which was quite serious. Fortunately, Nikita gave her a prescription. Una took the medicine according to the prescription and almost recovered.

Nikita wanted to check how Una recovered.

"Well, you are recovering well." Nikita finished checking, relieved. "There is no problem."

Una looked at her with gratitude: "Nikita, thanks to you, if you weren't willing to help me at the beginning, I would..."

It's hard to say whether she is alive or not now.

Nikita smiled lightly: "You're lucky. It's not fully my credit"

Sometimes, although she can treat people, the therapeutic effect depended on the person's body.

With the same treatment method, some people had a good treatment effect, while others not.

Una was the kind of person who has an amazing therapeutic effect.

Nikita never thought that she could recover fully.

“Even so, thanks to you, too. Thank you so much.”

Una is telling the truth.

She wanted to thank Nikita sincerely.

But she felt that her reward for Nikita may not even close to one tenth of how much Nikita earns.

Nikita: “Miss Turner, you are welcome.”

Chapter 1579

You could bring family members.

She was just a middle school teacher.

She would feel unbearable if Nikita continues calling her Miss Turner.

Nikita sipped her lips: “What should I call you?”

“Just call me by my name.”

Miss Turner sounded too distant.

Mrs Una sounds old.

After thinking about it, it's better to call her name.

She planned to leave after checking Una's healthy condition.

"You can go back. I'm leaving now. If there's something going on, call me."

Nikita then turned to leave.

"Nikita, wait." Una suddenly remembered one thing, hesitated, and stopped Nikita.

Nikita stopped and looked back at her: "Is there anything else?"

Una looked at her. After hesitating for a few seconds, she seemed a little embarrassed to talk. She sipped her lips and then said, "Well, I will get married on the 15th of next month. If you have time, would you like to come to my wedding?"

Nikita's status is different from before.

Una naturally can no longer look at her as a student as before.

Thus, she's not sure whether Nikita would like to come to her wedding.

After all, although she is Nikita's teacher, they're not that close in terms of relationship.

Nikita is the head of the Malcom School. She is also a world-famous pianist.

A professor at St. John's College.

She is also in love with Sheehan, the young master of the Lambert family.

Maybe she will be Mrs. Lambert in the future.

Each one of her identity is out of her league.

She invited Nikita out of a bit of selfishness.

If Nikita attends her wedding, she will be very proud and boost about it in the future.

Such a renounced person came to her wedding.

“Wedding?” Nikita blinked. She remembered Una’s husband cheated behind her back and then divorced. Una, is...remarried?

As if seeing Nikita’s doubts, Una sipped her lips again, shy. She was embarrassed to say: “After I divorced my ex-husband, I was completely disappointed with men. I plan to never get married again, so I will take care of my child.”

“However, at the end of last year, I met a very good person who made me regain my trust and ignite my expectation for love.”

“So, I want to bet, that I won’t be mistaken this time.”

“We actually got a marriage certificate, and the wedding is scheduled for the 15th of next month. If you are available, you could come and have a fun.”

“Of course, if you’re not available...”

“On the 15th of next month, I should be available.” Nikita smiled under Una’s uneasy sight, “Where is your wedding held?”

Una paused, and answered happily. “It’s in the Oriental Hotel.”

Una is afraid that Nikita doesn't know where the hotel is.

After all, the hotel they booked is just an ordinary four-star hotel.

Nikita nodded, "Okay.

Una thought about it and said: "You can bring your family members."

Nikita slightly paused: "Hum?"

Chapter 1580

This man did it on purpose?

Una smiled, and gave her a thumbs up: "I saw President Lambert's official announcement online. Your boyfriend is very outstanding. We all say privately that you have a good taste and found a very nice boyfriend."

Nikita: "?"

In private?

They usually discuss her and Sheehan?

It seems that the teachers in these elite schools are also nosy.

Nikita never thought to bring Sheehan along.

But she has this idea after Una pointing it out.

Taking Sheehan along with her when the time comes?

At this point, Una was completely unaware that she intended to let Nikita attend her wedding and earn her reputation. As a result, she not only earned a huge reputation, but also earned a huge gift that she never dreamed of.

How huge?

It is a house that she always wanted to buy in the N City, and she can buy it directly with the full amount of the gift.

The N City is metropolis and the capital of A Country. Even the houses in the suburbs are extremely expensive.

Nikita drove by herself.

She walked to the parking lot and opened the door when she felt slight footsteps sounded behind her.

Without professional training and paying attention, the footstep can't be heard. But Nikita was not an ordinary person.

She stood in front of the car door, looked up slightly in the rearview mirror, and saw a man wearing mask that almost covered his face tightly, hiding sideways behind another car, looking at her.

The man looked sneaky. She knew he's aiming at her.

Nikita only glanced at the man, and took back her sight. She pulled the car door.

Of course, she didn't really want to get into the car.

So she squinted as she stepped into the car with one foot and felt the footsteps behind approaching her.

The man thought he had not been discovered. He walked softly behind her, raised his hand and saw the girl who was going to get on the car suddenly turned around, and buckled his hands tightly.

Then, when the man didn't react, he was severely thrown to the ground. He immediately cried out, "Ouch!"

When he was rubbing his ass and trying to get up, a foot stepped on his chest.

He felt down again.

This stamp was so painful that it made his face twisted.

"Stop, stop, I'm dying.' The man's facial features were twisted in pain, and he wanted to hold Nikita's leg.

Nikita looked at his outstretched hand in disdain, and took back her leg.

The man caught an empty space.

He looked up with his face was distorted. He rubbed his chest and said fiercely:

"Damn girl, I am injured by you.

You have to pay my medical expenses!"

Nikita squinted.

This man wanted to earn medical fee by trying to hit her?

Although she thought so, she didn't really think that men came to get hurt on purpose.

She held her arms, squinting. She looked down on the man lying on the ground.

“Listen, no matter what you are here to do, fuck off!”

“What?” The man’s expression became more and more fierce. “You damn girl, how dare you to talk to me like this, I...”
