

The Girl CB 181

Chapter 181 Got the Video

Felton is the young master of the Lambert family. Of course, he knew Nikita went to the Lambert family.

“Yeah.” Nikita didn’t deny it. She just replied him with a simple word.

“Are you really the one who cured my grandfather?”

But, where did you learn those medical skills?” Young man’s narrow and beautiful eyes were full of confusion and curiosity. “Have you ever studied medicine before?”

My grandfather has been in a coma for many years. We found the best doctor to treat him, but it was useless.”

“I heard them say that you only gave Grandpa an acupuncture once, and he woke up.

You are so good at this! Can you treat all kinds of diseases?”

After he asked too many questions, he saw a somewhat impatient look on the girl’s face.

Obviously, the girl next to him didn’t want to answer his question.

Felton lowered his voice and said: “Nikita, thank you for curing my grandfather.

From now on, I will protect you at school. You can come to me for anything, and I will help you.”

This was the first time that Felton said he wanted to protect a girl.

However, the girl beside him didn't look flattered at all. Her tone was extremely flat: "You don't need to thank me. I am not treating your grandfather for free. Everyone just takes what they need."

She is not a kind person.

She treated Old Mr. Lambert because Sheehan had something she wanted.

It was just a fair deal. That's all.

"Thank you anyway." Felton's eyes showed some gratitude. "If it weren't for you, I don't know whether Grandpa would wake up again or not.

Anyway, if you need my help in the future, just come to me.

As for that post on the campus forum, do you want me to help you find out who posted it?"

Nikita herself didn't sign up. But the person who posted that article made a rumor that she signed up for the competition and vowed to win the prize.

Obviously, that person sent such a post to watch Nikita make a fool of herself.

"There is no need for that." Nikita's slender white finger gently clicked on the screen of her phone. She said without looking up: "I will find out myself."

You want to find out by yourself? Felton looked at her skeptically.

What can she find out by herself?

post.

If he gets a hand in this, he can let Tobin find the IP address of the person who sent the Tobin's grades are not good, but his computer skills are quite impressive. He has a hidden identity as a famous backer in the country.

Nikita didn't say anything, and her fingers continued to click on the screen.

Felton didn't notice that several rows of red codes were displayed on the screen of the girl's phone. And soon, those rows of codes were converted into a video.

The video was mute.

Nikita clicked on the video. And a few seconds later, a familiar face appeared in the video.

Yvonne should have just taken a bath. Her hair was still wet, and she was wearing a sexy nightgown with suspenders and no underwear. When she sat in front of the computer, Her chest area was exposed.

Nikita was not surprised when she saw that the person in the video was Yvonne.

She traced down the IP address of that post.

Then she got the video by cracking the programming of the computer that posted it.

It took her less than two minutes to get all the information she needed.

She clicked to save the video. Then she locked her phone, put it back in her pocket, took out her headphones that could abate the noise, put them on and lay down on the table to start her daily sleep.

Not only all the students in the First Senior High School of N City knew that Nikita was going to take part in the National English Competition, but also many teachers knew it.

They all asked Miss Morris if it was true.

'The transfer student in your class is going to take part in National English Competition, really?'

"Miss Morris, don't mess things up!

If you allow this poor student from a village to take part in this competition, she'll ruin the reputation of our school."

Chapter 182 I want to apologize to her!

"We can allow our students in First Senior High School not to win the championship, but we can't allow a student from our school to take the last place.

Miss Morris, it should be honest and kind to conduct oneself."

Miss Morris was furious.

After asking around, she finally knew that someone posted an article on the campus forum.

After reading the post, she felt even more angry: "Nonsense!

I proposed to let Nikita participate in the competition, but she didn't promise at all

And she never said those big words about winning the championship, Who is spreading these rumors?"

Una returned to the office after the first class.

After she walked into the office and sat down in her own position, she looked at a stack of test papers piled on the table with a dull face. Her eyes didn't have a focus.

Usually, she would sneer at Miss Morris as long as she caught an opportunity. But today she was extremely quiet, which made Miss Morris feel very strange and couldn't help but look up at her.

As Miss Morris saw her, she was shocked by Una's gaunt look.

She hadn't seen Una for only one night.

Una seemed to suddenly get some serious illness. She looked haggard and decadent, as if her soul had been sucked away by a monster. Her face was extremely pale, as if she had lost all her blood.

She seemed a little distracted, and her face was full of worries.

Miss Morris had never seen Una being so miserable.

Even if she and Una are not in the right place at ordinary times, after all, they are colleagues who have been working together for many years. Noticing that there is obviously something wrong with her, she hesitated for a few seconds and asked: "Una, are you all right?"

Una suddenly turned her head.

Maybe because she didn't sleep well last night, her eyes were bloodshot and looked red. When she looked at Miss Morris, she was startled by her again.

"You..."

“The student named Nikita in your class, can you ask her to come to the office now!”

Una interrupted Miss Morris emotionally: “I have something to ask her.

Miss Morris, can you call her for me?”

What that student named Nikita said yesterday turned out to be true!

The joint bank account which she and Hackett used to save money only had over 500 dollars. left.

But when she checked the account at the end of last year, there were still more than 500,000 dollars on the account.

In addition to the deposit of the first half of this year, the balance on the account should be more than 600,000 dollars.

From six hundred thousand dollars to five hundred dollars.

She didn't notice the change at all.

Hackett has opened an SMS notification, and once the money in the card is being withdrawn, he will receive an SMS reminder.

But all the money in the account was about to be withdrawn. He never told her.

Obviously, Una couldn't think of other reasons except that he was the one who almost withdraw all the money on that account.

“Teacher Turner, it’s true that Nikita offended you by saying some bad words yesterday, but she...” Miss Morris thought Una was still angry about yesterday, and she wanted to give Nikita a hard time. So she couldn’t help but try to appease her.

“She didn’t offend me. She was helping me. It was me acting like a villain yesterday and misunderstanding her!” Una suddenly stood up, walked towards Miss Morris, grabbed Miss Morris’s shoulder and said excitedly: “Miss Morris, Nikita is a good student. I shouldn’t have said those things about her yesterday.

I’m going to find her now, and I want to apologize to her!”

Chapter 183 There must be a good show.

hope she is generous and willing to forgive me!”

After saying so, Una loosened her hand, turned around and quickly walked out of the office.

Behind her, Miss Morris looked stunned, “???”

Someone please tell her what’s going on!

Una said she wanted to apologize to Nikita, didn’t she???

“Yvonne, did you read that post?

It’s so hilarious! That hillbilly really wants to take part in the competition.”

“I thought she would refuse to go. But I didn’t expect her to have no self-knowledge.

Is she out of her mind? She knows that you, Yvonne, are participating in the competition, so she signed up.

Without knowing that she was completely unqualified for competing with you.”

On the corridor of the second floor.

Yvonne and two girls stood next to the stairs and chatted.

Hearing the conversation between the two girlfriends, Yvonne’s eyes sparkled. She sipped her lips and whispered: “Don’t say that.

My sister is very good at French, and maybe her English is also very good.

I think since she has the courage to sign up for the competition, she must have certain skills.

“Ha-ha, if she is truly excel at English, why did she get zero points every time in her previous school?”

“That’s true. If she has good grades, how can she be transferred to Class F?”

“I think she is just jealous of you. She watched you participate in the competition, so she signed up for herself, too.”

Yvonne sipped her lips again. And as she was about to speak up, she saw her English teacher Una coming upstairs in a hurry.

Una arrived at the second floor.

Yvonne came forward to greet her. And before she could shout out “Teacher Turner”, Una walked past her without squinting and headed for the third floor, as if she never saw her.

“Hey, isn’t that Teacher Turner?”

“What is she doing on the third floor?”

Yvonne put on a puzzled face, too,

On the third floor, there are only two ordinary class and clann & The two classes taught by Una are both top classes. She had never hoon to the third floor before.

t got it!” One girl pulled Yvonne and another girl’s hand and sold excitedly “I heard people say that the hillbilly quarreled with Teacher Turner yesterday and said a lot of offensive words, which made Teacher Tummer furious” “Teacher Turner must have gone to make her pay for yesterday!

Hurry up! Let’s go up and have a look!”

Yvonne used to go to Class F to show off. But she was embarrassed by both Miss Momis and Nikita. And this whole thing was recorded and posted on the campus forum

She suffered a lot of ridicule.

Originally, she was unwilling to go to class F again. But when she heard the girl beside her say that Una was going to make Nikita suffer, she hesitated for a while and didn’t refuse.

Una is notorious for being mean and harsh and difficult to get along with in the First Senior High School.

If Nikita really offended her, there must be a good show for her to enjoy.

Thinking so, Yvonne’s footsteps paused. She stood on the stairs, suddenly spoke up in a very loud voice: “Did Teacher Turner really go to argue with my sister Nikita?”

Then let's go and calm both of them down. Don't let them pick up a real fight."

Chapter 184 Grabbed the Last Straw to Save Herself

She deliberately raised the volume, and everyone standing in the corridor heard what she said.

After Yvonne finished her words, she seemed to be really worried about Nikita, and followed the other two girls in a hurry to the third floor.

A group of students standing in the corridor began the discussion: "Teacher Turner went to the third floor to find that transfer student. They won't really quarrel, will they? Shall we go and have a look?"

"That transfer student is too troublesome.

On her first day of school, she picked up a fight with the students of vocational high school. And now, she has a conflict with Teacher Turner.

No wonder she has to transfer to another school. Which kind of school can accept such a student?"

"Except for her good look, she really has nothing deserved to be praised.

She can never compete with our campus beauty, Yvonne Swift."

Lanny came out of the classroom with the examination paper which has just been collected by him. When he heard people were talking about Nikita, his footsteps paused.

“What’s going on?”

What are you talking about? “He asked a boy beside him.

“Monitor, haven’t you known yet?” All the students in Class A knew Lanny handed a love letter to Nikita in public that day. The people next to him saw that he was the one who asked questions. He picked up a meaningful tone. “Just now, Teacher Turner went to find Nikita in Class F, which is the transfer student you like.

They said Teacher Turner and Nikita had some contradictions, and she was going to give her a hard time.

“I’m about to go upstairs and have a look. Do you want to go with me, monitor?”

Lanny didn’t reply him and walked out of the classroom with the examination paper.

He looked in the direction of the third floor, hesitated for a while and turned to walk upstairs.

The group of people who just stood in the corridor and heard Yvonne’s words also went upstairs to rubberneck.

Una almost rushed into Class F.

This is her first time to come to Class F, but all the students in Class F know her. When Una rushed into their classroom with a pale face and looked desperate, all the students in Class F were shocked. No matter they were busy with their own business or just being idle one minute ago, they all look at her curiously now.

Una rushed into the classroom, stood next to the podium and glanced down.

Then she saw Nikita who was in the last row and sleeping on the table.

Una's dull eyes lit up instantly, as if a drowning man had grabbed the last straw to clutch at. She started to run towards the last row.

Tobin just finished playing one game on his phone. He rubbed his eyes and looked up. When he saw Una, he was stunned. "Isn't that the English teacher of Class A? What is she doing in our class?"

"Damn it!

I just heard the news that Una came to our class to give Nikita a hard time!"

Samuel held his phone and looked up. He saw Una went straight to the last row as expected. At this time, some students in Class F have received some news.

Una, an English teacher in Class A, came to give Nikita, the transfer student in their class, a hard time.

The group of students who were rubbernecking on the second floor also arrived at the door of Class F. They gathered around to look into the window.

"Crap! Una is coming to give Nikita a hard time!" Samuel stood up. "If she wants to bully Nikita, I'm the first one to disagree.

Nikita is under my protection. Bullying her equals to bullying me!'

While saying so, Samuel had already rushed over to help Nikita.

"Wait a minute." Tobin grabbed him.

"What? Why are you stopping me?"

I need to help Nikita! “Samuel used more strength to shake off Tobin’s hand.

He walked over to stand up for Nikita with his face showing some anger.

But he saw that Nikita, who buried her head and slept soundly, seemed to sense something and immediately opened her eyes when Una came near to her desk.

Those black and soft eyes look very clear, as if she weren’t sleeping at all.

“Nikita, I was wrong!”

Chapter 185 You are disturbing my sleep.

Una saw Nikita wake up, grabbed her arm with a regretful and ashamed expression on her face. “I was wrong about you.

Nikita, I came to apologize to you. You kindly reminded me, but I said those mean words to you. I shouldn’t have done that!”

“I want to solemnly apologize to you. Sorry, I’m really sorry.”

A group of people around were watching.

Una is usually a very proud person. But at the moment, she doesn’t care about losing face in front of all those students and apologized to Nikita over and over again.

The girl who just woke up didn’t seem to be in a good mood. Her black eyes showed some impatience. After reaching out and taking off her headphones, she took a look at Una who was standing next to her seat. And she didn’t act surprised at all.

It seemed that she knew Una would come to her sooner or later.

Una is still apologizing to her: "Nikita, I'm really sorry about yesterday.

I was so blind and short-sighted that I regarded the real master as a fraud.

I believe every word you said now, and I won't doubt you any more.

"Teacher Turner, you are disturbing my sleep."

Nikita scratched her ears. Although Una apologized to one of her students in such a humble way, Nikita still looked impatient and frowned slightly. "I accept your apology. You can go."

Everyone widened their mouths.

All the student was stunned watching this scene.

Didn't Una come to give Nikita a hard time?

But... what the hell is going on now?

She did not give Nikita a hard time, but apologize to her?!

Outside the classroom.

Yvonne followed her two girlfriends to Class F.

With a worried expression on Yvonne's pretty little face, she said as she walked: "My sister has a violent temper. She was just taken to the police station because of fighting not long ago. I am really afraid that she will attack Teacher Turner later."

"What if she injured Teacher Turner and needed to be taken to the police station again?"

"Yvonne, you need to leave her alone. This kind of person doesn't deserve your attention.

In my opinion, people like her should be taken away by podies and imprisoned

"But... But... if she really picked up a fight with Isacher fumer later what should be? Yvonne bit her pink lips and looked entangled One to my sister, and the other to my teacher I don't know which to help

While speaking, Yvonne has arrived at Class I

The corridor was surrounded by spectators

Yvonne looked to the last row from the door and my Una stall talking about something

Nikita looked impatient. Her eyebrows were twisted, as if she would beat someone on the next second.

Una is notorious for being bitter and mean

Thinking of Nikita's temper, Yvonne think maybe she will soon act out

"Hey, Lanny also came here.

He used to handed love letters to that hillbilly before. If he finds out about the nature of that hillbilly later, I wonder if he will regret it”

Lanny held the examination paper in his arms and went up to the third floor

Yvonne heard Lanny also came up. She bit her lips tightly, and her eyes showed some jealousy.

Although her target now is Felton.

Lanny’s condition is also very good, which is her second choice besides Felton.

If it weren’t for the Gant family being not as prominent as the Lambert family, in fact, Lanny was the person who met her mate selection criteria the most.

However, even if it is something she doesn’t want for the time being, she doesn’t want Nikita to have it.

Chapter 186 Are you making a mistake?

She is just a hillbilly who grew up in a poor ravine. She deserves neither Felton nor Lanny.

Felton was still sleeping on the seat next to Nikita

People were never allowed to sit next to Felton before.

But now, Nikita is sitting there.

She became the person who was specially treated by Felton.

Seeing this, Yvonne couldn’t help feeling more jealous. She clenched her fist, and bit her lip. “No matter what, Nikita is my sister.

I can't watch her make more mistakes. I'll go and talk to her."

Her voice was not very loud, but not very low either.

Everyone around her heard it.

After Yvonne finished her words, she pushed away her girlfriends and walked into the classroom.

She walked quickly to the last row.

Feeling that all the surrounding eyes were focusing on her, she took a deep breath and shouted sadly: "Sister Nikita."

This sound made everyone who was rubbernecking turn to look at her. Suddenly, she became the focus of the crowd.

Nikita also raised her head and looked at her.

Their sights met in the air. And Yvonne couldn't help but tremble because of the coldness in Nikita's eyes.

Nikita's dark eyes showed unlimited coldness with no temperature. When she took a faint look at her, Yvonne couldn't suppress the fear emerging from the bottom of her heart. She got so scared that she almost ran away.

But thinking of herself being in the classroom of Class F, and there were so many people watching around, she abruptly restrained her fear.

"Sister Nikita, you can't act like this anymore." Yvonne swallowed her spittle, as if she were very afraid of her. And her voice was weak and soft. "No matter what kind of contradiction there is between Teacher Turner and you, she is a teacher, and you are a student. You can't hit a teacher. It's not the right thing to do."

After a pause, she turned her head and looked at Una. Her tone was humble. "Teacher Turner, although Sister Nikita misbehaved, I believe she definitely didn't mean it.

offended Teacher Turner, I'm willing to take her place and apologize to you"

"If Teacher Turner wants to punish her, I am willing to accept the punishment for my sister"

"In any case, I hope Teacher Turner can forgive her once and give her a chance to turn over a new leaf."

After finished speaking, Yvonne bent down and bowed deeply to Una.

"Our campus belle is really nice.

Nikita didn't treat her well before, but she's still willing to stand up for her. How kind is shef Yvonne's actions brought herself a lot of praise.

Most of those who praised her were boys, and they thought she had a good look and a good heart.

After all, Nikita used to bring shame to Yvonne in public before. Although Yvonne is her sister, she never showed respect to Yvonne.

Now, Yvonne has put aside past grudges to help her.

It is clear at a glance who is generous and who is petty.

It's a pity that Nikita has such a good look.

She doesn't have a good heart, which makes her good look a complete waste.

Hearing the surrounding praise, she silently picked up a subtle smile.

"Wait, what do you mean she offended me? Are you making a mistake?!"

Nikita didn't offend me at all. On contrary, I offended her! " Una heard Yvonne's words and couldn't help looking stunned. She felt puzzled.

"Besides, why would I punish Nikita?"

She didn't do anything wrong. I wronged her and misunderstood her. I'm the one who need her forgiveness, not the other way around.

Chapter 187 Do you believe me now?

Yvonne is a student in Una's class, and her English scores are very good. So of course, Una is deeply impressed by this student.

She heard people saying that Nikita now seemed to live in Yvonne's home and was considered to be an adopted daughter of the Swift family.

Nikita and Yvonne naturally became sisters.

Therefore, Yvonne was worried that she might bully her sister, so she ran upstairs in such a hurry.

Thinking of this, Una patiently explained: “Yvonne, do you think I came to give your sister a hard time?”

You misunderstood the situation. I’m here to apologize to Nikita.

Because of my ignorance, I said a lot of excessive words yesterday, which hurt Nikita.

I hope Nikita can be generous and forgive my behavior as a villain.”

After explaining, Una turned to Nikita again. And she said with a very humble attitude: “Nikita, I need your help. Please help me!”

The group of students who were rubbernecking: “?!”

How is this getting weirder and weirder?

Why is it completely different from what they expected?

Una first apologized to Nikita with a humble attitude. Then she looked for Nikita’s help.

She is an English teacher. Why did she turn to her student for help?

Beside them, Yvonne’s expression froze on her face. She widely opened her eyes and stared at Una. Then she turned to look at Nikita, who was still looking quite calm while facing Una’s apology. Her eyes were full of disbelief.

The expression on her face couldn’t get more ugly.

Didn’t Una come to give Nikita a hard time?

But what's going on right now?

Seeing her being so humble and respectful, it's quite obviously that Una came here to ask for help!

If Una actually came to ask for Nikita's help, wouldn't her words just now seem ridiculous?

"Teacher Turner, do you believe me now?" Nikita's voice still sounded a little lazy because she just woke up. She held her head with one hand, took out her phone from her school uniform and took a look at it.

Although the teacher stood next to her and talked to her so humbly, she still sat there and seemed to feel at ease.

There was no fear or uneasiness showing on her face.

It seemed that she deserved all these.

However, as a student, her attitude towards the teacher was too arrogant

What made people feel even more strange was that instead of getting angry, Una had been saying something nice to her with a smiling face.

Everyone knows that the English teacher in Class A doesn't have a good temper. Let alone she's very strict with her students, she often quarrels with other teachers.

Such an overbearing woman, is now acting like a completely different person.

In front of Nikita, she's unbelievably humble.

"Yeah! Of course! Now I trust you one hundred percent!" Una nodded heavily and looked at Nikita as if she were her lifesaver. She said in a humble tone: "Nikita, please help me!"

Una felt she really didn't have another choice.

Last night, she checked all the accounts under her and Hackett's names.

The result made her sad and desperate.

There should be 50,000 to 60,000 dollars with all the other bank accounts adding up. But Hackett transferred all the money away.

He is too cruel.

He wants to leave her with nothing.

Even though she hasn't caught him with another girl in bed and confirmed that he is really having an affair, she has now fully believed in Nikita.

If her relationship with Hackett has already come to an end, Una doesn't want to save it.

She is still proud, and has some self-esteem. She doesn't want a man who betrayed her and secretly took all her money.

Chapter 188 She actually knelt down to Nikita.

But as for the money she deserves, she still wants it back!

Besides, she is the one who contributed more to their savings of several hundred thousand dollars. She will definitely refuse to make it so easy for Hackett.

Since Nikita has such a powerful skill, which she can easily tell from her facial features that Hackett had betrayed her and transferred all the money on their joint account, she can. certainly help her to get the money back!

“Teacher Turner, I sympathize with what happened to you.

But, why should I help you? “Nikita’s voice was very light without the slightest emotions. “I am not a relative or friend to Teacher Turner. Why do I have to help you just because you ask me to?”

Una was stunned: “I...”

One second later, Una directly knelt on the ground.

“What the hell?”

“Damn! Teacher Turner actually knelt down to Nikita!”

No one expected that Una would make this move.

The group of onlookers looked stunned, and their faces were full of surprise.

Yvonne’s eyes were wide open as if she was severely shocked. She took a step back with a horrified expression.

Una actually knelt down to Nikita!

Is she crazy?

Yvonne couldn’t believe what she saw.

“Nikita, please help me!” Una completely gave up on her self-esteem. She whispered with her red eyes and begged. “I just don’t want to make it so easy for that bastard.

As long as you are willing to help me, I will do whatever you ask me to do.”

Nikita didn’t expect Una would kneel down, either.

She narrowed her eyes and looked at the woman with red eyes which showed sadness and hatred. After a moment, she nodded: “Teacher Turner, I can help you.

As long as you apologize to Miss Morris now, and promise not to bother her in the future, I will help you.

“OK, I will apologize to Teacher Morris immediately!”

Seeing that Nikita finally agreed to help, Una felt extremely happy. She immediately got up and said. “OK, I will apologize to Teacher Monis immediately!”

I promise that I will never give her a hard time nunin, and I will try my best to make us get along with each other”

After finishing her words, Una turned around and run quickly out of the classroom, as if she was afraid that Nikita would take back her promise in the next second.

In a few seconds, she disappeared.

Students who were watching outside the classroom: III

This is the kind scene that they will only see once in their life.

Today's gossip is really exciting!

Samuel and Tobin, who watched the whole process, were also stunned.

They didn't know how to react for a long time.

"Damn! My Nikita is so awesome!" Samuel's eyes were sparkling. He looked at Nikita with admiration and worship in his eyes. "I knew that the woman I like is definitely unique. No other ordinary girls can compete with her!"

Tobin looked at the girl who was still calmly playing with her phone. He couldn't help holding lots of respect towards her.

Although he didn't know how Nikita did it.

Una, the most difficult teacher, was really conquered by her.

Compared to her Yvonne, who seemed to be beautiful and kind at first, made people feel very dull and tasteless.

After all, they have seen many girls like Yvonne.

But they have never seen a girl like Nikita before who has such a strong and unique personality.

Since Una left, there wasn't much for them to watch anymore.

Some students also left.

"Nikita, you looked so cool just now,

How did you do that?"

"Yeah! Teacher Turner is notorious for being difficult. She actually knelt down for you just now!"

Chapter 189 What a horrible scene it Inl

"Una has been teaching Class A. And she has been proud and arrogant all the time She never takes the students from Class F seriously

I feel so great seeing her begging you like that just now! Some students gathered around, and couldn't stop praising Nikita.

They all said that they felt great watching her teach Una a lesson.

Una has been teaching Class A. And she has been proud and arrogant all the time. She never takes the students from Class F seriously.

"Yeah! Nikita, you were really cool just now!

No one can earn my respect but you!" Samuel and Tobin also walked over. Samuel was so excited as if he were a fan of Nikita. He quickly took a look at Nikita's exquisite and beautiful little face, and couldn't stop his heart from beating faster.

Nikita looked at several people with a calm look. "I am not interested in teaching her a lesson. Since she wanted my help, her attitude was naturally humble."

Teach Una a lesson?

She's really not interested in that.

If she had that kind of spare time, she would rather play the games on her phone.

Samuel's eyes were full of worship. This handsome young man also looked a little shy. He took several quick looks at Nikita, sipped his lips and spoke up with his face turning red: "Nikita, you are so great.

You are skilled at fighting too. Can you teach me a few tricks when you are free the other day?"

Hearing this, Tobin's mouth couldn't help twitching a little.

He looked at the friend beside him in a speechless way.

Why did Samuel suddenly become a shy little pussy?

What a horrible scene to see!

Nikita supported her jaw with one hand and didn't show any interest. "I am not interested in teaching disciples."

"I can pay you money!

T'll

pay tuition fee!" Samuel's family is also very rich, which is slightly inferior to the Lambert's family. So, Samuel has plenty of money. He patted his chest and sounded like a millionaire. "As long as you can teach me, I am willing to give you as much money as you want!"

At this time, Felton, who had been sleeping on his desk, woke up.

The teenager slowly woke up, reached out and took off the noise-reducing headphones. And his eyes were still red and bloodshot. He looked up at the group of people gathering around and twisted his eyebrows. "Why are they all here? Go back to the place where you belong! This isn't a place for you to gather around and have meetings together!"

As soon as the irascible school bully spoke up, people who gathered around immediately ran back to their seats.

“Brother Felton, you didn’t see it just now!” Samuel explained the whole thing to Felton excitedly and vividly. It began with how Una found Nikita, and how Una apologized to her, and ended with how Una knelt down in front of her to ask her for help

“In short, Brother Felton, it’s a pity that you didn’t see that scene just now!” While Samuel spoke, he took a few looks at Nikita with his sparkling eyes again, which were full of worship and love, as if he were her fan.

Felton paused for a moment when he heard the whole thing. He also turned to look at Nikita.

“Una knelt down for you?”

What did she ask you to do for her?

Felton soon thought of Nikita’s medical skills. He guessed: “She is ill, and she asked for your treatment, didn’t she?”

Samuel and Tobin did not know Nikita cured the Old Mr. Lambert.

Hearing Felton saying so, they both looked stunned.

Nikita looked at several pairs of curious eyes, sipped her lips, quickly replied a message, put away her phone and stood up slowly. “Sorry, no comment.

Since you are so curious, you can ask her yourself.

She pushed away her chair and was about to leave.

But she saw a person who should have left long ago, was still standing next to her seat.

Yvonne's beautiful little face looked somewhat pale. She bit her lips with a timid expression on her face, which made her look weak and delicate. The whole person looked so delicate and pitiful, which made people want to love and cherish her.

Chapter 190 She's so hypocritical.

Nikita looked at her indifferently: "Get out of my way!"

Yvonne seemed to have been wronged, and her eyes suddenly turned red: "Sister..."

Before she could call her "sister" in a pitiful tone, she was frightened by the coldness in Nikita's eyes and had to give up calling her that.... Nikita."

What's going on between you and Miss Turner?"

She noticed that Samuel, Tobin and Felton were all looking at her. She bit her lip, and her voice became weaker and innocent: "I heard them say that Teacher Turner went to bully you, so I quickly came up."

"Fortunately, it is a false alarm. I was really afraid that you will be bullied by Teacher Turner. I was really worried." She said and patted her chest, as if she really cared about Nikita.

Nikita just brought shame to her yesterday.

But Yvonne not only held no hatred towards her sister who had just been adopted by the Swift family, but also worried about her and cared for her so much. Anyone would think that Yvonne had a good look and a good heart. Compared to her, they would also think that Nikita's personality was not good enough.

The Swift family adopted her and paid her to study in such a good school like the First Senior High School.

But she held this kind of attitude to the daughter of the Swift family. She was clearly jealous.

How can Nikita not know Yvonne's purpose?

Originally, she was too lazy to pay attention to this kind of low-grade hypocritical girl. But Yvonne kept coming to her, so Nikita couldn't bear it.

"Oh?"

It turns out that you are in such a hurry to come up, not because you want to enjoy a show, but because you are worried that I will be bullied by Teacher Turner?"

Yvonne was stunned: "Well, of course."

Nikita smiled: "In this case, why did you immediately ask me not to hit people as you arrived here?"

Are you worried about me being bullied, or are you worried that I will bully others?"

"I..."

Before Yvonne could answer her question, Nikita picked up a subtle smile and sneered: "No matter what kind of contradiction there is between Teacher Turner and you, she is a teacher, and you are a student. You can't hit a teacher. It's not the right thing to do.' Didn't you just say. this?"

Yvonne's face turned pale, and she said with her expression freezing on her face. "I was afraid that you would be taken away by the police because of fighting again."

“Oh?”

Since you thought I would hit Teacher Turner and bully her from the beginning, Why did you say that you were worried that I would be bullied by Teacher Turner?

Yvonne, don't you think your speech is self-contradictory?”

“Have you figured it out who you were really worried about?”

Yvonne's face turned green because of her words. “I, I...”

She stuck for a long time, but she couldn't even make up an eloquent explanation.

“Originally, I thought Yvonne was a kind girl.

But now, after hearing Nikita's analysis, I feel that she is quite scheming.

“I also see her hypocrisy.”

“Yeah... If she was really worried about Nikita, she wouldn't ask Nikita not to hit people as soon as she got here.

Does that count as worrying about her? She clearly said those words on purpose, so that people who don't know the situation will think Nikita is the kind of bad students who beats people casually.”

“Then she offered to accept punishment for Nikita. By contrast, it seems that she is kind and generous, and Nikita is barbaric and rude.

God! She is so hypocritical!”

The beautiful and kind Yvonne was suddenly questioned by people around her. The people who originally had a good impression on her and thought she was broad-minded, gentle and kind, now slowly realized how hypocritical she was just now.
