

The Girl CB 251

Chapter 251 Do the two brothers get along so bad?

Perhaps, it might have caused some harm to her body and mind.

“Really, just pretend I didn’t ask anything!” The teenager emphasized it again, with a trace of chagrin in his eyes and chagrin for his recklessness.

Nikita was with a face of inexplicable expression.

Her black eyes narrowed. She looked at the handsome teenager whose face was full of annoyance. Her voice was light: “Last night?”

What happened last night?

“I’m fine.”

Last night, she was better than ever.

The best sleep in nine years.

But according to Felton’s expression now, it seemed like she suffered some unspeakable things last night.

Also, he just said that Sheehan bullied her?

Nikita squinted again, the girl’s dark and soft eyes crossed the shoulders of the boy in front of her and landed on the handsome man in white clothes and black trousers behind the boy.

At this moment, the man looked cold and his face was gloomy. He was staring at his brother Felton, the sharp eyes made Nikita, an outsider, feel a little terrible.

If eyes can kill people.

Nikita think Felton at the moment should have been dead thousands of times.

But she was quite curious.

The two brothers have such a bad relationship.

The boy saw his brother like an enemy, and the man saw his brother like he was disgusted. Is this really a brother from the same father and mother?

“You said you were fine last night?” Felton was stunned for a moment, his eyes were full of astonishment, as if he thought he had heard it wrong,, “Are you sure... you were fine last night?”

You don’t have to be afraid, if you have anything, just say it. Grandpa said it, he will... ”

“What are you trying to say?” Nikita gradually became impatient, her black eyes narrowed with impatience.

Felton: “ ...”

What should he say?

He can’t ask like that: Nikita, were you caught by my brother last night?

He didn't think he could ask.

"No, nothing." Felton clenched his lips and decided to give up asking this matter.

Perhaps, he might misunderstand.

She just slept in his brother's room, and nothing happened to them.

With Nikita's character, if there is something really happening, she shouldn't be so calm now.

Thought of here, Felton's inexplicably felt better.

The young slowly hooked up his lips, and her beautiful eyes also lit up, "Forget it.

Did you have breakfast, together?

After breakfast, we can go to school in my car together."

Teenagers are born to look good, and those who laugh are even more beautiful and dazzling.

Nikita looked at this delicate and beautiful face in front of him, and decided to forgive him for his inexplicable actions just now.

After all, in her place, good-looking people can have some privileges.

Her lips were also hooked, and she was about to speak when a cold voice sounded behind her: "Felton, you are enough."

Chapter 252 The Unspeakable Eyesore

Sheehan looked at the young boy and girl standing together and talking. Indescribably, they are his eyesore.

Especially his own brother.

He dislikes his brother's all aspects.

If he hadn't promised his mother that he would take good care of his younger brother, he would throw him to the Pacific Ocean now.

Out of sight, out of mind.

Although Felton was afraid of Sheehan, he raised his head and looked at him bravely, "Sheehan, I didn't make trouble."

"I asked Nikita if she had eaten. If she didn't eat, we could eat together. What's wrong with that?"

'Is it nonsense to have dinner together?'

"You let Nikita sleep with you last night..."

"You shut up." Sheehan is furious. His face was gloomy, "You are more presumptuous."

"I have been busy with the company's affairs and neglected to discipline you, which makes you forget what tutoring etiquette is."

"From now on, I will discipline you myself."

“All your bad habits must be corrected.”

*Since you are so free, Fabian, you take him to the back garden now, and watch him clean it up.”

“He is not allowed to eat breakfast until the garden is clean.”

Felton’s face suddenly changed.

He suddenly raised his head, and he noticed his loy eyes. A cold feeling instantly jumped to his body, and he couldn’t help shivering

Felton has been afraid of Sheehan.

He usually tried to avoid him.

This time, it was also because of Nikita that he was angry and had the courage to fight against him.

But this courage also has a time limit.

When Sheehan was furious, there was little courage left in Felton.

Although he was afraid, he glanced at the girl next to him. He revolted: “Why?”

“I won’t go. Someone sweeps the back garden. Why should I clean it?” “You ask why?” Sheehan smiled coldly. “If you don’t go, I can freeze all your bank cards immediately, or I can arrange someone to send you to F State immediately.”

Felton's face became very ugly.

Now their family is in the charge of Sheehan, and Felton knows Sheehan's uncompromising character better than anyone.

"Fabian, what are you waiting for?"

"Take him to the back garden." Sheehan ordered.

"Well... young master, come with me to the back garden." Fabian stepped forward and gave Felton a wink. "Go quickly, and don't make your brother angry again."

Fabian certainly wouldn't let Felton clean up the garden.

He was afraid that Sheehan would really freeze Felton's card in a rage, and then send him abroad. He stepped forward, grabbed his arm and flowered his voice and said, "Don't worry, young master, I won't let your do it, just pretend."

"Come with me and just pretend to do it."

Felton clenched his fist, bit his teeth, and finally had to give in. He reluctantly followed Fabian and left.

Soon, Fabian and Felton disappeared from the hall.

Sheehan turned his head and looked at Nikita.

A moment ago, his face is gloomy, and the cold air covers his body. Now he was like an iceberg melting. The man's ink eyes were filled with a gentle smile, and his low and cold voice was no longer cold.

"Come on, go and have breakfast."

"I asked the kitchen to cook according to your favorite taste. You can try it later and see if that's OK.

Nikita: "..."

Chapter 253 Well, why do you mention her?

Does this man change his face so quickly?

Just now, he was scolding his own brother with a straight face.

At the moment, however, he was like a gentleman.

In the dining room, the long white table was filled with hearty breakfast.

Nikita looked at the desktop, and she found a few desserts on the table is very familiar.

Seeing her staring at the dessert, Sheehan hooked her lips and walked over to pull out the dining chair for her very gentlemanly: "This is a pastry made by the pastry chef of Germy Hall."

"Germy Hall?" Nikita looked at it again. It was indeed the desserts she had eaten in Germy Hall.

"I remember you like the dessert of Germy Hall."

"So I asked someone to pick up the chef, so that you can eat it at home." Sheehan said, and pushed the desserts to Nikita.

Nikita was stunned, and she has some strange feelings.

However, she thought that Sheehan was so attentive to her must because of his grandfather.

When she thought it, she no longer felt so uncomfortable.

Since he was paying attention to her because of his grandfather, she accepted it with peaceful mind.

The Swift family.

There is a sumptuous breakfast on the table.

Yvonne picked up the cup filled with milk and took a sip of milk.

“Is Nikita really not going to come back?” Patrick also picked up the cup and took a sip of coffee. His eyebrows were slightly wrinkled. “She is a girl. She comes here not long. Will it be bad for her to live outside?”

Yvonne is talking to Margot about the birthday party and the next. English competition and piano competition.

Hearing that, they both stopped talking and turned to look at Patrick.

Nathan sitting opposite also raised his head.

“Well, why do you mention her”? Margot faded the smile on her face. and said with displeasure. “She can go wherever she wants.”

“We have done our utmost to her. She wanted to leave herself, and we didn’t drive her away.”

“I think she is just a child who has her own temper.” Patrick thought and said, “When she was angry, she thought about running away from home. She definitely didn’t really want to move out.”

“The accommodation conditions in school are definitely not as good as those at home. She should move back.”

“Yvonne’s birthday is in a few days, it is also Nikita’s birthday. I thought since we are holding a banquet, we should hold it for them two.”

“We can also take the opportunity to let Nikita come home. “Patrick paused and looked at Margot.” After all, she is our own daughter. We can’t really throw her outside. ”

Patrick loved Nikita when she was a child.

He loves daughter. The couple decided to have the second child because they wanted a daughter.

Later, the second child was indeed a daughter, and both of them were overjoyed.

Although their daughter has been separated from them for more than ten years, and their feelings have faded, she is their own daughter after all.

Patrick still pays more attention to blood relationship.

He also likes Yvonne, but he can’t leave his own daughter alone.

Yvonne’s the fingers holding the milk cup got tight, then bowed her head and sipped the milk, without speaking.

Margot’s face showed some reluctance. “If she really wants to come back, she has her own feet. Doesn’t she know how to come back?”

“Has she called us once since she moved out?”

“I think she is heartless and doesn’t treat us as her parents at all.”

Margot did not want to pick up Nikita back.

Chapter 254 Don’t want Nikita back.

First, she has no feelings for this daughter, and Nikita made great trouble when she came back, which made her humiliated. She didn’t love them. Margot didn’t like her very much in her heart.

Second, this birthday party for Yvonne is mainly to invite the young master of the Lambert family, so that her partners can know that they have a close relationship with the Lambert family.

Once they know that they have a close relationship with the Lambert family Their current crisis will soon be solved.

Therefore, the birthday party in a few days is very important to them.

She never tolerates any mistakes.

If they take Nikita back, let her and Yvonne together to attend the birthday dinner. It will make them humiliated.

What should they do if she makes something terrible and provoke the young master of the Lambert family?

“Mom, I think Dad is right.” Nathan put down his knife and fork, thought about it, and said, “In any case, Nikita is a member of our family. You can’t really let her live outside all the time. We can’t leave her alone.”

“The reason she moved out is that she is angry with us. She doesn’t want to break the relationship with us.”

Yvonne looked up at Nathan, gently bit the lower lip. Her voice was soft: “Mom, I also agree with the father and brother.”.

“We should take Nikita back. ”

“When I think of the excitement at home on my birthday, but Nikita is alone, I am very sad.” Her eyes turned red, and she had a remorse expression on her face. She choked and said, “Originally, it is Nikita who should stay in this home, not me.”

“If it weren’t for me...”

“Yvonne, what are you talking about?”

Margot frowned and took her hand and pretended to be angry. “Your are my daughter. You can stay in this family all your life.”

“Don’t say that again.”

“That’s right, Yvonne, the Swift family is always your home.”

“We are your kinsfolk forever.” Patrick also frowned and said disapprovingly, “Don’t say it again.”

“You and Nikita are my daughters. Besides, when it comes to feelings, you have deeper feelings with us.”

“Well, I understand.” Yvonne nodded with tear, “I will not say that again.”

“Mom, just let Nikita come back, I hope our birthday party can be held together, so it will be very meaningful.”

Margot sipped her lips and didn't speak.

She really doesn't want Nikita back.

Yvonne saw that she didn't say a word, she bit her lip, showed hesitation on her face, and said: “If you continue to let Nikita live outside, I am afraid, I am afraid that...”

As if there were something unspeakable, she stopped talking several times.

Several pairs of eyes looked at her at the same time.

“Does Nikita make troubles again?” Margot's face was ugly.

“No, it's just...”

Yvonne said hesitatingly: “That night, we couldn't make a contact with her. We were worried that she would sleep on the street.”

“But the next morning, I saw someone send her to school.”

“The person who sent her to school seems to be very rich, and he drives a Rolls-Royce.” Yvonne bit her lips and sighed, and her moist eyes were full of worries. “I am really worried that she will do something to make money...”

She seemed can't say the following words. She stopped here and didn't go on.

Chapter 255 Nathan actually helped Nikita.

But what is the following words? Everyone knows.

"What?"

"You said someone drove a Rolls-Royce to send Nikita to school? "Patrick's face changed, and the expression on his face didn't look good.

Yvonne nodded gently: "Well, and that Rolls-Royce is a global limited edition."

"Even our family... can't buy a car like that."

Margot's face also became ugly.

Nikita just came to N City from the countryside. Apart from them, she definitely doesn't know others.

What's more, a person who drove a limited edition Rolls-Royce.

She is from the country. How can she know anyone with that status?

Thinking that Nikita didn't return all night, and then thinking that she moved out, Zoey once said that Nikita left sitting in a sports car that dayMargot's face became more and more ugly.

She lost temper. "Isn't she ashamed enough?"

"I thought she had the backbone, it turns out she has an old man."

“She doesn’t learn something good at a young age, she should do these shameful things!”

“Mom, don’t be angry, maybe I was wrong.”

“Or perhaps, the person who sent Nikita is her friend…”

“What friend, can she know friends who drive Rolls-Royce?” Margot’s eyes are full of anger. “I still wonder why she didn’t want my money. It turned out that she had already found herself a rich man!”

“She disgraced our family!”

“Mom, I don’t think Nikita is such a person.” Nathan frowned. He was a little dissatisfied with her words,

“Maybe there are some misunderstandings.”

“I’m free tomorrow. I’ll pick up Yvonne after school in the evening and talk to Nikita by the way.”

Margot still wants to say something, Patrick advised her: “Let Nathan go and talk to her.”

“If she really did something to disgrace us, it wouldn’t be necessary to pick her up again.”

“If it is a misunderstanding, it is better to let her go home to live.”

Yvonne looked at Nathan quickly. There is a trace of dissatisfaction in her eye.

Nathan should help Nikita?!

This is what she didn't expect.

She thought that Nathan should hate Nikita very much.

That night, Nathan proposed to go out to look for Nikita. She followed him out and searched outside with him for at least four or five hours.

At that time, she noticed on the surface, Nathan didn't care about Nikita. But he did care about her in his heart.

Now she is more sure of this.

Nathan to Nikita, seems to have a little care.

Is it because of the blood relationship?

They are the real brother and sister. Even though they haven't seen each other for more than ten years, Nathan still has feelings for his long-lost sister.

Are her parents same with him?

They dislike Nikita on the surface, but in fact they are also concerned.

When she thought of this possibility, Yvonne's face suddenly became ugly.

“You go to find her, I won’t go anyway.” Margot’s voice was very cold, without a trace of feelings in it. When she turned to talk to Yvonne, her tone became very gentle and loving. “Forget it, don’t say these things that affect our mood.”

“Yvonne, did you tell the young master about the birthday party?”

“Will he come?”

“Patrick also looked at Yvonne: “Yvonne.”

“Will he come?”

Chapter 256 Her feeling is getting worse.

They are very concerned about this. After all, it is related to whether they can solve this crisis and their future fortune.

Compared with the daughter they haven’t seen for more than ten years, it is reasonable that their business is more important.

Yvonne stopped cutting the sandwich. After a few seconds, she just slowly raised her head, said with stiff smile: “Well, I have already told Felton.”

“And what did he say?” The couple asked the same sentence almost at the same time.

Yvonne put on a shy smile and said, “He said he would definitely come and prepare a special birthday present for me.”

“That’s great.” Margot was very happy, “It seems that Mr. Lambert really likes Yvonne, and he wants to prepare a special birthday present.”

“For a family like the Lambert, the birthday present must be very expensive.”

“He values Yvonne so much that he will not refuse us if we ask him for a favor.” Thinking that the crisis can be solved soon, Patrick can’t help but say, “It seems that the master really didn’t lie to me, and the fortune of our family really got better.”

“We should have the opportunity to make friends with super rich and powerful family like the Lambert family.”

This is something they didn’t even dare to think about before.

“Hum, even if our fortune is getting better, what does it have to do with Nikita?”

“The person who knows the young master is Yvonne. If our fortune.

really gets better, it is also because of Yvonne! “Margot’s eyes have disdain and disgust,” I think the master is thinking something wrong. The person he meant should be Yvonne.”

“A person who only knows how to make trouble all day, What good luck can she bring to our family?”

“It is good if she doesn’t make us in trouble.”

Yvonne listened to Margot’s scolding words, and her face looked complicated.

She doesn’t know whether Nikita will bring good luck to this family.

But Felton treats Nikita specially.

Felton may not come to her birthday party.

But if it was her birthday party with Nikita, Felton would not refuse.

This is why she wanted Margot to take Nikita back.

On the night of the birthday party, she needed Nikita to be there. She must keep her dignity and her position in the Swift family.

Only by making her father and mother feel that she has an unusual relationship with Felton, can she be more valued in this family, and her identity as a daughter of the Swift family can be more stable.

As long as Felton came, she had a way to make people think that Felton came here for her.

Nathan noticed Margot's dislike, he suddenly felt uncomfortable.

He remembers that when he was a child, his father and mother also loved Nikita very much.

At that time, Nikita was a princess who have all their love, and she is a baby in their eyes.

But now...

When Margot talked about Nikita, the dislike in her eyes is like to say that she is worse than a stranger.

He suddenly thought, if he was Nikita, what would he do when he faced such a family?

Probably, he will also move out.

She finally reunited with her family that she has been separated with for more than ten years. Before coming to N City, she probably came with all kinds of wonderful expectations.

But how about them?

For the arrival of a family member, it seems that no one shows the slightest expectation.

If he is Nikita Nikita felt more uncomfortable in his heart.

He suddenly got up: "I finish eating, I'm gonna make a phone call, and you can eat slowly."

Chapter 257 She obviously didn't want to say to him.

Inside the carriage.

The man's slender fingers played with the platinum buttons on his shirt, and he glanced at the girl beside him many times, and the cold. eyes had some hesitation.

He hesitated to unbutton that third lesson or not.

If he untied it, it seems too frivolous.

But he remembered last night, the girl pulled his collar and asked him "Hey man, can I touch your chest muscles?" He hesitated.

She seems to like his chest muscles.

He is glad now that he has kept the habit of keeping fit for many years, and he has practiced his chest and abdominal muscles well.

He has determined his own mind and brought her into his life plan. If there is no accident, she will become his life.

If she really wants to touch it, he won't refuse.

But last night, that occasion was inappropriate, and he was afraid that he would lose control, so he stopped her again and again.

Besides, at that time, she was not sober.

The drunk people will regret something when they are sober.

Since he is serious about her, he naturally respects her very much.

It is even more impossible to take advantage of her.

But if she made such a request when she was sober, he would naturally not refuse it.

However The handsome man frowned slightly, and some confusion.

appeared in his eyes.

The girl hasn't looked at him since she got on the car.

Her attitude towards him is as alienated as before, and the relationship between them is no different from before.

But last night... she was so enthusiastic and active.

She also called him man.

Now she is cold and indifferent to him, which is completely different from the one when she was drunk last night.

He thought that after the ambiguity of last night, the relationship between them would be closer.

Now it seems that he thinks too much.

Half an hour later, Rolls-Royce stopped ten meters away from the school gate of No.1 Middle School.

He stopped the car.

Sheehan watched the girl pick up her black backpack and open the door with one hand.

He raised his eyebrows.

Just leave like this?

Don't say goodbye?

At least she would say thank you to him before, although she said it in a perfunctory way.

The door opened. Before Nikita got off the car, she turned her head and said to the man: "Mr. Lambert, thank you."

Sheehan was stunned, then smiled.

Still call him Mr. Lambert.

It seems that she is alienated from him and unwilling to have a closer relationship with him.

Compared with other women trying to get close to him, she is deliberately alienated from him all the time.

Nikita said thanks, didn't say anything else, then got off the car.

Then, the man's low magnetic voice sounded behind her: "Niky, I will pick you up after school."

Nikita stopped, did not turn back. A few seconds later, she continued to move forward.

Inside the carriage.

Sheehan looked at the girl gradually walking away, his thin lips evoked a little, and his dark and deep eyes showed his confidence and determination to get her.

The little girl has her own personality and obviously doesn't like to talk to him.

All his advantages in front of other women seem to be useless to her.

His wealth, power and position, including himself, are not as attractive as a dessert of Gerny Hall.

He was afraid it's a little difficult to pursue this little girl.

However, this difficulty really aroused his desire to conquer her as a man.

The harder it is, the more he wants her.

Chapter 258 She was only deserves to be played by rich old men.

The more challenging it is, the more interest he has.

The man half narrowed his eyes, with one hand on the armrest of the car seat, and his fingers with distinct joints gently knocked on the armrest. He watched the girl's figure walking into the school gate, and then he slowly took his eyes back.

"Go to the company."

"Yes, Mr. Lambert."

The driver also took back his eyes, raised his head and glanced in the rearview mirror very quickly. He couldn't help thinking in his heart that she was really tough-minded. Mr. Lambert was such a handsome and unparalleled man, and she showed no interest at all.

Thinking about the women who went to great lengths to get close to Mr. Lambert, the contrast is really sharp enough.

But Mr. Lambert fell in love with a woman who ignored him.

This is probably the so-called "everything has its vanquisher".

He also heard a rumor this morning that Mr. Lambert and Miss Swift were going to get engaged. Now it seems that it is really just a rumor.

The little girl is still calling him Mr. Lambert.

How can they get engaged?

However, Mr. Lambert really has a crush on the little girl, but the little girl doesn't like to talk to him.

It seems that Mr. Lambert's pursuit is a bit difficult.

When Nikita got off Sheehan's car, Yvonne had just got off the black.

Mercedes-Benz.

She was just about to walk into the school gate when she Inadvertently saw the silver-gray Rolls-Royce parked not far from the school gate.

Yvonne has a deep memory of this car.

Not only because this car is a limited edition in the world, but also because she saw Nikita got off this car last time.

When she went back that day, she actually checked the license plate number of this Rolls-Royce.

But she can't find anything.

The information about the owner is very hidden. If you look it up in an ordinary way, you can't find out anything at all.

She wanted to spend some money to find a private detective, but the private detective was too expensive.

After the Swift family has finance problem, her pocket money was not as sufficient as before, and she didn't dare to spend money lavishly.

She later thought that even if Nikita really hooked up with the man who drove Rolls-Royce, it was not a big deal.

Selling her appearance and body and giving it to a rich old man, it is a shame to say it.

She even wished it was true.

If Nikita really is that rich man's lover, can Felton, Samuel, Lanny still like her?

They must think she's dirty.

No one will be interested in her anymore.

Last time she didn't have time to react, she forgot to film the evidence.

This time, she can't miss such an excellent opportunity!

Yvonne quickly took out her phone and took two photos.

Moments later.

She looked down at the saved photos in her mobile phone, and her lips slowly hooked up. She sneered and whispered, "Hum, she wants to rob something from me, she is overreaching."

"You, a hillbilly, don't deserve to have Felton and Lanny, and you only deserve to be played by rich old men."

She seduces men everywhere with foxy face, and finally becomes a man's plaything.

Deserve it!

But as a country bumpkin, she has nothing but a pretty face, and it is not surprising that she has become a plaything of a rich man.

It is the final destination of beautiful but mindless women.

When they were young, they got something through pretty face. When they were old and not pretty anymore, their fates were generally miserable.

As if having seen Nikita's tragic situation of her old age, Yvonne suddenly comforted a lot.

Chapter 259 One of Her Bragging Rights

She contentedly put her mobile phone back in her pocket, saw Nikita coming towards the school gate. She showed disdain, turned and walked into the school.

"Yvonne, I remember that the day after tomorrow is your birthday?"

"Happy birthday, Yvonne."

"This is my present prepared for you in advance. I hope you like it.

"Yvonne's eighteenth birthday this year is also a coming-of-age ceremony, which is really of special commemorative significance."

“Have you ever thought about celebrating such a special day? “Yvonne’s girlfriends and a group of students from Class A gathered around her and gave birthday wishes in advance.

Yvonne is the school belle, and her words and deeds have always attracted people’s attention.

The whole school almost knows when her birthday is.

Every year, a week before her birthday, people gave blessings and birthday gifts one after another.

This year is no exception.

Although compared with previous years, the blessings and birthday gifts received are almost half less, but she was still treated like queen.

After all, she still has a lot of die-hard fans.

Now the proponents of school beauty in No.1 Middle School have been divided into two parties.

One party continues to support Yvonne.

The other party supports Nikita, the “new school beauty” in their mind. Although this year’s school beauty selection contest has not officially started, many people have regarded Nikita as the next school beauty.

These people who support Nikita will naturally stop courting Yvonne.

Yvonne can feel that there are fewer people coming to give blessings and birthday gifts this year. She also knew the reason.

She secretly hated in her heart, but smiled sweetly and said, "Thank you for your blessings and gifts."

"This year's birthday is really memorable, so my family want to hold a big party. "

"At that time, a grand birthday dinner will be held at N City Hotel."

"I hope everyone can come to my birthday party. "

N City Hotel is the best and largest star-rated hotel in N City.

A grand birthday party there will cost millions at least.

Although the students' family conditions in No.1 Middle School are good and there is no shortage of rich people, there are still many people who envy Yvonne.

Yvonne is beautiful, has good academic performance, has money at home, her parents still spoil her so much, and she has a star brother who likes her very much.

Although her brother Nathan has not become a big hit yet, Nathan is the man of the hour in their school before. With Nathan's appearance, it is only a matter of time before he becomes popular.

Yvonne's own conditions are excellent, and her future husband must be excellent too.

God, she is a winner in life.

Yvonne, Nathan will be there, right?" Although Nathan graduated long so he still has a few fans in No. 1 Middle School. Several of Yvonne's girlfriends are Nathan's fans. Nathan participated in the competition, and they also took all their pocket money to support him.

"Of course, my brother must be there." Yvonne smiled and said sweetly, "In fact, he still had a competition that day, but my brother said he would take time off to come to my birthday party."

"Wow!"

Nathan really dotes on you!"

"Such a good brother. Why don't I have one!"

There are many admiring voices.

At this moment, Yvonne's vanity was greatly satisfied.

Nathan has always been one of her ostentatious capitals.

Chapter 260 "Why don't we go to see what happened?"

She has been popular in No.1 Middle School for so many years, and every year she defeated others to be chosen as the school beauty. Besides her own conditions, another important reason is that she is Nathan's sister.

Nikita is a man of the hour in No.1 Middle School.

That kind of man of the hour who will make many people admire even though he has left school for many years.

The identity of “the sister of the school hunk” gave her many advantages.

So in any case, she can't let others take away this advantage.

Nathan's favorite sister can only be her.

But recently, Nathan's attitude towards Nikita made her feel a little worried.

After all, she is not the Swift family's own daughter, and she has no blood relationship with the Swift family.

She is afraid... Although they said they dislike Nikita, they may finally like Nikita because of the blood relationship.

She also knows very well why she can stand firm in the Swift family.

Fortunately, Nikita is terrible enough, so she, this non-biological daughter, can be valued and loved by the Swift family.

Although Nikita is not good at study, her character is not lovable, she simply can't be compared with her, she also doesn't need to worry about anything.

But she doesn't know why, she always has some uneasiness in her heart.

This uneasiness made her anxious to do something to prove her value.

She looked at the time and guessed that Felton should come to school at this time. She got up and smiled at the people around her. “Sorry, I have to go to the bathroom.”

In a corner of the classroom.

Tammy looked at the group of people around Yvonne. They complimented her variously. She pulled her lips carelessly.

There is nothing to envy about having a good brother.

No matter how good her brother is, she should be good herself.

She only envies people who are powerful like Nikita.

The other side.

Nikita had just stepped into the classroom, and Una, who was still sitting in the office, knew it, and she couldn't even prepare lessons, ran all the way from the teachers' office building to the teaching building, and ran to the third floor without stopping.

The students passing by Una almost ran into her, and were frightened by her running speed.

"Holy shit, isn't she the English teacher in Class A?"

"What happened? Why is she running so fast?"

"I just received the WeChat sent by Class F, and Una went to Class F."

"She went to Class F again?"

"Is she looking for the transfer student?"

“Before, she went to Class F to kneel down and apologize to the transfer student. What did she do this time?”

“Why do I feel Una is cursed? Don’t you think she suddenly becomes very strange?”

“Yes, she is.”

“But, I am more curious about what the transfer student said to her, and even made her, a teacher, kneel down to the student in public.

“Why don’t we go to see what happened?”

Class F is very lively at this time.

Inside and outside the classroom, students stood in three or five, whispering to each other from time to time.

English in Class A always goes to Nikita, a transfer student in Class F.
