

The Girl CB 301

Chapter 301 How can I give you acupuncture without taking your clothes off?

“Little girl, come and sit here.” Old Mr. Lambert patted the position next to the wooden bed, and looked at Nikita at a short distance, and the expression on his face became more satisfied.

The little girl is good-looking, her skin is so white, and her hair is black and bright.

Her genes of appearance must be the best.

Old Mr. Lambert likes good-looking people.

Sheehan’s mother was the daughter in law he personally selected at that time.

As for Sheehan’s mother, her family background is not very good, it is just a well-known family with scholars. It is suitable for the family background of the Lambert family from this angle

But Old Mr. Lambert appreciates her beautiful appearance.

Although her conditions of other aspects are poorer, he can also accept.

Now the watery little girl is standing in front of him, looking like a fairy, she is also the benefactor who has cured him. The more he looked at her, the more he was satisfied, he also admired her to a larger extent. The more he looked at her, the more he couldn’t wait for Little Hanne to marry her immediately.

“Old Mr. Lambert Facing his enthusiasm, Nikita looked faint. She stood by the bed and said, “There is no need to chat, let’s get down to the treatment directly.”

Nikita said like this, she took down her black bag, and took out the black wallet with needles.

With a few silver needles longer than fingers in her slender fingers, she turned around and said to Sheehan standing behind them: "Help him to take off his clothes and trousers."

Old Mr. Lambert:

Walker and Marie are also stunned, and Marie's face is embarrassed.

"He has to take off his clothes and trousers?" Walker doesn't know much about this aspect, and asks.

curiously.

"Of course." There is no emotion in Nikita's black eyes, and the voice is light. "How can I use acupuncture if he doesn't take off his clothes?

Through his clothes?"

"Well, then I'll leave here." Marie is a little embarrassed.

Although Old Mr. Lambert is her father-in-law, she can't look at his naked body.

Nikita didn't say anything, just raised her eyebrows: "Who will take them off, please hurry up, I am in a hurry."

Walker was just about to come forward.

"I'll do it" Sheehan came over and stood beside Nikita.

As soon as he approached, Nikita smelled a faint smell of cedar, grass and green leaves, which was a warm and fresh fragrance of wood.

It's strange.

Every time she smells the perfume on Sheehan, it will make her feel at ease and warm.

In his car, she can fall asleep quickly

The night she slept in his bedroom, she slept for more than ten hours without waking up once.

no so

But when she thinks what he has said in the car before.

When he approached, Nikita silently moved to the side by two steps, and became further away from him.

Sheehan saw all her slight movements.

The man's eyes became dark, and his mood was gloomy.

The little girl is beginning to avoid him.

Sheehan sipped his lower lip and stepped forward to take off Old Mr. Lambert's clothes.

Old Mr. Lambert is a little shy. When Sheehan is taking off his clothes, he looks shy and embarrassed.

Chapter 302 She is like looking at a corpse.

Sheehan sipped his lower lip and stepped forward to take off Old Mr. Lambert's clothes.

Old Mr. Lambert is a little shy. When Sheehan is taking off his clothes, he looks shy and embarrassed.

His shirt was taken off.

Old Mr. Lambert immediately stretched out his hands to cover his chest. He was embarrassed to show his chest in front of a little girl.

Nikita stood aside, and saw his movement, she said expressionlessly: "I have seen a lot of naked people, Old Mr. Lambert doesn't have to feel embarrassed.

It doesn't make any difference in my eyes whether you are dressed or undressed."

For doctors.

It really makes no difference.

No matter they are naked or not, they are just patients.

In particular, doctors who work in the Department of Male Obstetrics and Gynecology of the hospital have to treat so many patients every day, and they have already become indifferent.

Nikita has never worked in the hospital.

However, she helped Lemuel, a strange old man to make several operations before. Those patients were naked, lying on the operating table. Some of them looked handsome with good figures, but she had no feeling after looking at them.

Just like looking at a corpse.

When she said “I’ve seen a lot of naked people”, Sheehan, who was taking off clothes for Old Mr. Lambert, paused and looked up at her.

When Old Mr. Lambert heard her powerful words, he was shocked: “Have you seen a lot of naked people?”

Nikita looked faint: “Well, I have seen a lot when I was making operations.”

Old Mr. Lambert was shocked again: “Have you ever made operations?”

“Hmm.” Nikita answered faintly again.

Old Mr. Lambert looked surprised: “Oh, my little girl, you are amazing.

Not only do you know acupuncture, but you can also operate for people?

Can you treat all kinds of diseases?”

Nikita seriously thought about it and nodded: “Yes.”

Her tone is sincere.

Old Mr. Lambert raised his thumb and praised her: “It seems that Lemuel, the magic doctor, really deserves his reputation.

You, a little girl, are so powerful, isn’t your master a magical doctor?”

“You can be accepted as a disciple by him, and your medical skills are so good at a young age.

You must be talented in medicine.

Have you ever thought about applying for a medical university in the future?

You can tell me which medical university you want to go to. Several professors from the best medical universities are now in the Lambert family.

“If you have a school you want to go to, I will introduce you to them.”

He’s talking about those old men from the National Medical College?

Nikita’s eyes are arrogant: “No, I don’t want to go to medical university.”

When she was still in primary school, she had thoroughly studied the basic knowledge of medicine in the textbooks.

What else should she learn?

As for the old men in the National Medical College.

Nikita is not looking down at them.

No matter how good the medical skills of those old men are, they can’t be compared with Lemuel.

But Lemuel also has to call her as his master respectfully.

“You don’t want to?” Old Mr. Lambert was stunned with surprise and pity, “Which university do you want to go to?

You are going to take the college entrance examination soon. Do you have a favorite university in your heart?

If there is a school you want to go to, I will write you a letter of recommendation.”

After a pause, he said with a smile: “My recommendation letter is very useful.”

Nikita is in the same class as his little grandson.

This shows that her academic performance is definitely not very good.

Her intelligence and talent are focused on medical skills

Chapter 303 I really like this granddaughter-in-law.

This so-called genius in some aspects may always not be talented in all aspects, so Old Mr. Lambert can understand it.

No matter how powerful Nikita’s medical skills are, the college entrance examination is just focusing on scores, her medial skills won’t be used as standards.

If she wants to go to a good university.

She can’t achieve her goal without excellent academic performance.

Old Mr. Lambert thinks Nikita is a talented person. It’s a pity that she can’t go to a good university because of her poor grades.

Having his letter of recommendation is equivalent to giving her an opportunity of entering a university without exams.

She can enter a school without examination.

Nikita refused indifferently and politely: "Thank you for your kindness, Old Mr. Lambert.

But I don't need it."

Go to the college?

She has graduated for many years.

Seeing that she refused such an excellent opportunity to change her destiny without hesitation, Walker, who stood by, couldn't help but remind her: "Miss Swift, Dad's recommendation letter can make you enter a university without examination."

"You can enter any university with his recommendation letter without examination."

This little girl probably doesn't understand how important this recommendation letter is.

Moreover, it is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for Old Mr. Lambert to offer to write a letter of recommendation for her.

Old Mr. Lambert is proud.

He has many privileges, but he disdains to use them.

He doesn't allow his families to use these privileges.

His own grandson Felton has not been treated like this.

So when Walker just heard that he wanted to help Nikita to write a letter of recommendation, he was quite surprised and shocked.

“Well, I know.” Nikita was still indifferent, “but I really don’t need it.”

“Don’t worry, don’t worry, there is still some time before the college entrance examination, so you can think about it slowly.

When you change your mind, you can tell me at any time.

This letter of recommendation will always be kept for you.” Old Mr. Lambert was a little surprised, he didn’t expect Nikita to refuse.

A letter of recommendation for any university in China.

How many people want it.

09:59

She just refused it directly.

She didn’t even think about it.

However, it made him appreciate the little girl to a larger extent.

Such a little girl has the temperament of a master who is not caring about benefits and reputation.

Little Hanne has made a good choice.

It's really good to choose this little girl as his granddaughter-in-law.

Old Mr. Lambert was only in an underwear, lying in the bed.

Nikita had a needle in her hand, when she was about to prick him, she heard the sound of footsteps.

Fabian was walking ahead.

He was followed by those old men from the National Medical College.

"Old Mr. Lambert, Mr. Lambert, Master.

They said they wanted to see how could Miss Swift complete her acupuncture for Old Mr. Lambert. Fabian explained the purpose of them.

Several old men went forward.

In front of Nikita, they were not that arrogant as they used to be when they met her for the first time. When they were talking to Nikita, their tone was also very polite: "Miss Swift, if we can, we hope to watch the process of your acupuncture."

"If Miss Swift feels uncomfortable, then we will go out at once."

A gork was awakened by using acupuncture for only once.

Such superb acupuncture, they really want to have a look. They really want to know the methods of Nikita of using the needles.

Nikita didn't look back, and stabbed a needle in her hand to Old Mr. Lambert's throat: "You can see it if you want, as long as you don't make noise and affect me."

They were quite delighted.

They treated the little girl so arrogantly and rudely before, and she could even promise to let them watch her acupuncture.

The little girl's kindness and generosity made them feel more and more ashamed.

Chapter 304 They didn't see it wrong, did they?

They immediately stepped forward, stood in a row, and watched how Nikita used her needles around the bed.

Nikita held more than ten needles in one hand, looked at the nervous Old Mr. Lambert, and told him in advance: "Then, it will be a little hurt.

Old Mr. Lambert, you have to bear it."

When she used acupuncture for Old Mr. Lambert for the first time, he was still faint, his perceptions of pain was not that strong.

At this time, he was accepting acupuncture when he was awake.

This acupuncture will hurt a lot.

"No, it's okay!" Old Mr. Lambert grabbed the sheets under his body with his fingers, he closed his eyes, and took a deep breath as if he was going to the battlefield. His voice was very tight. "A little pain doesn't matter.

Come on, prick it!”

After all, he was a soldier and went to the battlefield when he was young!

Although he may be dizzy because of needles, he absolutely can't show his fear in front of a little girl!

Nikita didn't say anything again, she pricked all the needles in her hands directly.

She moves extremely fast.

But within less than a minute, the dozens of needles in her hand were stuck in different parts of his body,

The needles were stuck decisively without hesitation, and she was quite skillful without pause.

Those old men became surprised and opened their eyes widely. They opened their mouths and looked incredible.

They didn't see it wrong, did they?

The acupuncture used by Nikita was quite similar to the acupuncture recorded in a classical book of medicine.

No, it's not just similar.

It's almost identical.

However, the acupuncture recorded in that ancient book has a history of almost one thousand years.

And because it is a method handed down from the folk, no one can verify whether the method inside is true or false.

What's more, in that ancient book, the method is incomplete, only a part of which is recorded, which is equivalent to a quarter of the whole method.

They have all read this ancient book.

They have also studied this method, but everyone agrees that this method is useless. It is probably made up by the ancients.

Because according to the records, as long as you can learn this method, you can use acupuncture to treat all diseases.

If you are proficient, you can be omnipotent and become a magic doctor.

Such an exaggerated statement, it is also an unofficial book from the folk, so no one will take it seriously.

If there is such a wonderful and powerful acupuncture in the world, other doctors will be useless.

Anyway, using acupuncture can cure all kinds of diseases.

They were stunned, and looked at Nikita stabbing several needles. They became shocked.

At this moment.

Old Mr. Lambert suddenly screamed loudly.

He broke out in a cold sweat in an instant, and his face suddenly became pale.

His breath also got faster.

It seems that he is going to die at any time.

“Old Mr. Lambert!” A few old men who were watching attentively suddenly saw Old Mr. Lambert look like this, and they were all startled. They asked Nikita, “What happened to Old Mr. Lambert? Is there anything wrong?”

Sheehan also turned his head and looked at Nikita.

But looking at the little girl’s face, she still looked calm, and Sheehan was relieved in an instant.

“Nothing, this is a normal phenomenon.” Nikita ignored Old Mr. Lambert’s scream. She picked up a few silver needles and pricked them at Old Mr. Lambert’s forehead. “I said it would be a little hurt.

Chapter 305 She is a highly-skilled doctor!

After Nikita pricked these needles, Old Mr. Lambert screamed again.

More cold sweat came out from his forehead and kept dripping down his cheeks.

His pale face got worse.

“Is this, is this really okay?” Looking at Old Mr. Lambert show painful appearance, these old men had cold sweat on their foreheads. They feel Old Mr. Lambert was almost dying because of the pain.

“If you talk nonsense again, go out.” Nikita didn’t look back. Her tone is very impolite, “Otherwise, I make room for you. You come to cure him?”

They?

How can they do it?

They treated Old Mr. Lambert for five years, but they didn’t cure him.

For this reason, they are ashamed.

They suddenly shut up.

Why are they anxious?

The one standing next to them is the grandson of Old Mr. Lambert.

He is not anxious at all.

Thought so, no one said anything. They stared at Nikita’s hand pinching silver needle, looking at her skillfully put silver needles respectively into Old Mr. Lambert’s hands and feet.

Old Mr. Lambert has been screaming.

Walker was such a calm person. But when he listened to the louder and louder screams, he didn’t calm anymore.

He frowned and turned his head and looked at Sheehan in anxious.

But Sheehan looked calm. His deep and handsome face did not show any worry. He seemed to trust that little girl very much. He quietly looked at the little girl giving his grandpa acupuncture with appreciation in his eyes.

Seeing this, Walker's heart settled down a little.

Since this little girl can wake up Old Mr. Lambert by giving an acupuncture, she must have some skills.

Otherwise, Sheehan won't find her to treat Old Mr. Lambert.

Walker is well aware of his nephew's character. He won't appreciate the people who don't have some real skills at all.

With this thought, he settled down again.

He was not so worried.

These old men stared at that Nikita's method of acupuncture became faster and more changeable. Their eyes are already full of shock. They all held their breath. They are even reluctant to blink.

At first, they were not sure whether Nikita's acupuncture was the one they saw in ancient books.

Because the records about this acupuncture in ancient books were incomplete.

But now, they can be sure that this is the magic acupuncture they saw in ancient books!

It turns out that someone really can use this acupuncture in ancient books.

Moreover, a vegetative person was cured with that acupuncture.

Is it true as the ancient books write that anyone who has learned that acupuncture can cure all diseases with it?

The little girl in front of them must be a highly-skilled doctor!

Nikita put the last needle into Old Mr. Lambert's body.

Old Mr. Lambert screamed again.

This sound was louder and more tragic than any previous one, which made these onlookers shake. They felt that the needle stick on themselves.

Nikita finished it. She turned around and was about to explain related matters to Sheehan.

"Miss Swift, what have you done to Dad?"

Why do I hear him screaming all the time!"

Suddenly they sounded an angry voice.

Marie, who was waiting outside, hurriedly came in with anger. She went straight to Nikita, then angrily questioned: "Miss Swift, we trust you, so we hire you to treat dad."

"You took the huge amount of money from the Lambert family. How can you use our trust in you to torture Dad like this?"

Chapter 306 He never saw Sheehan protect someone like this.

While Marie spoke, she looked at Old Mr. Lambert, who was lying in bed with silver needles all over his body.

At this glance, her face turned pale with fear.

There were so many silver needles all over Old Mr. Lambert's body. At first glance, he looked like a hedgehog.

Half of the needle went into his body, and the other half was as long as a little finger!

At this moment.

Old Mr. Lambert's whole body was wet with sweat, as if he just got out of the water

The sweat on his face and chest was still flowing down.

Moreover, his face was very terrible. His face was pale, and even his lips were miserably pale.

He's still shaking!

It looks like he's very uncomfortable.

Seeing this, Marie was more angry. She turned her head to Walker and accused him angrily: "Walker, look at how uncomfortable dad is!

You had been guarding it all the time, but you didn't come to stop her!

"Aren't you afraid that Dad will suffer an unexpected misfortune because of her!"

Sheehan was also accused by her words.

Finished it, she turned her head and accused Sheehan: "Sheehan, how can you let her torment your grandfather?"

You act recklessly. I was worried that there would be an accident, and the thing what I was worried happened."

"She's a teenage girl. She is still in high school,

Do you believe that she can really cure people?"

Because of Rosa, Marie didn't like Nikita very much.

Rosa's mother is Marie's cousin, so Rosa is Marie's niece.

The man that her outstanding niece has a crush on may be robbed by a wild girl from a rural area now. How can she like Nikita?

Now she sees Old Mr. Lambert is so weak. She naturally catches the opportunity to scold Nikita mercilessly. But...

Marie thought Old Mr. Lambert was like this, so Sheehan must be on her side.

Unexpectedly, as soon as she finished these words, she saw Sheehan's face darkened. His eyes were full of coldness, and his voice was cold and low: "Aunt, Nikita is the highly-skilled doctor who I finally invited to treat Grandpa.

Without her, Grandpa would still be unconscious.

“Little aunt, you are a layman and don’t know anything. How can you conclude that she is torturing Grandpa?”

Did you go to study relevant professional knowledge when you were abroad? You also learned a superb medical skill, so you can see at a glance that Nikita is messing around?”

When Sheehan said this, he turned his head to look at Walker with squinted eyes. He raised his lips and sneered at him: “Uncle, do you know that little aunt goes to study medical skills?”

If I had known that my aunt was so powerful, I would have let her treat my grandfather, so that the Lambert family could save a huge sum of money.”

Walker’s face changed slightly.

Of course Marie didn’t study medical knowledge.

But he also knew that Sheehan said so deliberately to protect Nikita.

It seems that he is really keen on this little girl named Nikita.

Before, he never saw that he protected someone like this.

Walker smiled and lightened the embarrassing atmosphere, “Where can she learn any medical skills? You know that your little aunt just knows some romantic things.

Sheehan, your aunt was too worried about your grandfather, so she lost her sense of propriety and said some words questioning Miss Swift.”

“She is not questioning her.” Sheehan didn’t care about Marie’s feeling. He said directly, “She is disrespectful.”

Marie's face was a little gloomy, and the expression on her face became stiff.

Chapter 307 How dare you hurt my person?

She has been married to Walker for so many years. Every time she met Sheehan, her nominal nephew was very polite to her.

Only this time...

He didn't care about her feeling and embarrass her in front of so many people.

He just wanted to protect that wild girl.

She is his little aunt, his elder..

Marie was angry in her heart, but she didn't dare to say anything. Sheehan is now the master of the Lambert family. If Sheehan is really angry, as his elder, she can only adapt to his disposition.

There is no conflict between them at ordinary times. They get along well with each other.

But now.

Sheehan didn't care about her feeling at all.

"And." Sheehan's voice was more gloomy. "I spent a lot of money to invite Miss Swift to treat my grandpa. She is not hired by me.

I hope aunt can understand the difference between them.

“I, I am just worried about Dad.” Marie did not dare to say anything to Sheehan, so she turned her head and vented her anger and resentment to Nikita. “Miss Swift, Can you give us a proper explanation that why does dad become like this?”

“We are all amateurs, so we don’t know anything about it.

Since Miss Swift is an insider, at least she should say a few words to make us relieved.”

Nikita sipped her lips, looking at her with indifferent eyes. Her voice was light and slow: “Since you don’t understand, then shut up.”

She turned to look at Sheehan. Her black eyes had a bit of anger. She sneered coldly: “I have nothing to explain.

Since you don’t believe me, I will stop the treatment.

You can find someone else.”

For a moment, Marie looked very gloomy.

She is the second madam of the Lambert family.

Her mother’s family is also a noble family.

She is the lady of a wealthy family.

No one has ever dared to say “shut up” to her. But now, a wild girl from the countryside dares to shout in front of her.

Why is this wild girl unscrupulous?

Because Sheehan and Old Mr. Lambert support her?

Because she awakened Old Mr. Lambert, so she was so unscrupulous and impolite.

She will teach her today what is the rule and what is the distinction between superiority and inferiority!

Marie immediately got serious. She raised her hand to slap Nikita.

But before she touched Nikita, her hand was stopped by a powerful big hand.

Sheehan pinched her wrist hard. The man's cold eyes were full of rage. His voice was cold and fierce, showing a vicious taste: "Aunt, do you want to hurt my person in front of me?"

Because you are an elder, I tolerate you again and again. But if you go on fooling around like this, don't blame me for being impolite.

Marie froze.

She looked up at Sheehan's cold and cruel eyes. In an instant, she felt like she was frozen. She felt cold. from head to toe, and she couldn't help shivering.

She opened her mouth. Her lips trembled. Her face turned pale.

Looking at Marie, who was pinched the wrist by Sheehan and dared not move, Nikita took her hand back. slowly.

Her face was gloomy. She narrowed her eyes and glared at Sheehan.

Who is his person?!

Hum, if he didn't stop his little aunt, Nikita was bound to teach this woman a good lesson.

"Sheehan." Walker looked at Marie, who was stunned, and stretched out his hand to pull away the Marie. "Although your little aunt is wrong, she is your elders.

Do you really want to fight with to your elders?"

Chapter 308 This word is serious.

Sheehan loosened Marie's hand, but he was still cold and acrimonious: "Uncle also knows protecting her.

Elders should behave like elders. You lose your proper limit first, so don't blame others for disrespect.

Clearly, Maria wanted to hurt Nikita just now.

Sheehan protected Nikita so much, which was enough to show how important Nikita was in his heart.

How can he not be angry when someone wants to beat his sweetheart in front of him?

Walker knew that Marie did something wrong.

In any case, the person who took the initiative to hurt others must be unreasonable.

"It's your little aunt's fault this time." Walker considered and said in a just way.

"Walker!" Marie looked at her husband with wronged and angry eyes.

What did she do wrong?

She just wants to teach the wild girl who was so arrogant!

Can't she discipline a wild girl from the countryside?

Sheehan must be fascinated by this girl.

He even protected that wild girl so much.

He even embarrassed his little aunt in public.

Now even her husband helped the wild girl and said that she had done something wrong. Marie's eyes turned red. She said angrily. "Even you help others!"

"Well, Marie, don't make trouble anymore," Walker frowned. "How can you beat Miss Swift?

She is our father's benefactor and a distinguished guest of the Lambert family. In any case, it is wrong for you to hurt her.

Marie bit her lips and was about to refute.

At this moment, Old Mr. Lambert's voice suddenly sounded: "What are you noisy about? Don't quarrel in my room!"

All people turned to look at the bed.

A moment ago, Old Mr. Lambert was pale, sweating all over, as if he were almost dying. But now his complexion turned ruddy, and his breathing was stable. The whole person looked full of spirit. His terrible situation of weakness before disappeared completely.

“Dad, are you all right?” Saw Old Mr. Lambert get better, Walker showed a smile.

Old Mr. Lambert’s body was still full of needles.

Seeing that Old Mr. Lambert wanted to get up, Sheehan stepped forward, carefully avoided the silver needles with his fingers, and helped him sit up.

Old Mr. Lambert frowned tightly. He looked at Marie in a disliked way. “Marie, did you just want to hurt my little benefactor? Do you still respect me?!”

“Dad, I... Seeing Old Mr. Lambert’s serious eyes, Marie’s face changed. She was anxious to defend herself. “Dad, she was the first to provoke me, I was just...”

“You just want to teach her a lesson by virtue of your status as the second lady of the Lambert family?” Old Mr. Lambert’s eyes darkened. He snapped, “Do you want me to get worse and lie in bed for a few more years?”

This word is serious.

Marie turned pale with fear. She shook her head hurriedly: “Dad, of course not. How can I think so?”

“Hum.” Old Mr. Lambert sneered. “Do you want to displease my little benefactor and drive her away through this way?”

If she leaves, who else can cure me?

Don’t you mean it?”

“Dad, I didn’t, I really didn’t...”

She just wanted to teach the wild girl a lesson.

But Old Mr. Lambert said this. He meant that she was unfilial and ill-intentioned.

“You all listen to me clearly.” Old Mr. Lambert glanced at everyone in the room with his serious eyes, and his voice was quite shocking. He said word by word. “Nikita is my benefactor. Without her, maybe I can’t wake up in this life.”

Chapter 309 A legendary Treasure of Medicine

“No one can be disrespectful to my benefactor,” Said this, Old Mr. Lambert stared at Marie a few seconds. He spoke in a serious tone. “The people who don’t respect her are not respecting me.

At that time, don’t blame me for punishing you ruthlessly!”

Marie stunned. Her face was pale She bit her lips tightly.

Old Mr. Lambert continued, “I’m her patient, so I know best her medical skills.

I will not allow anyone to question her medical skills.”

Old Mr. Lambert’s protection for Nikita has already showed his attitude.

Even if Marie was his daughter-in-law, he wasn’t partial to her. He was partial to Nikita instead.

Sheehan raised his eyes and looked at Nikita standing aside.

The girl looked indifferent. She exuded coldness all over.

Old Mr. Lambert's defense failed to restore Nikita's mood.

Obviously, Marie's behaviors just now really angered her.

But the way she gets angry is different from others.

She won't yell.

She won't make a scene.

But she will become extremely indifferent.

Sheehan frowned. He felt that it was a bit difficult to please her.

The girl was angry, very angry.

wo

Just now, she said directly that they could find someone else. He was afraid it was a bit difficult to make her happy again.

"Miss Swift, may I ask if the acupuncture applied by Miss Swift just now is the Flos Mume Acupuncture in the TCM Corpora?" A voice with suppressed excitement sounded, breaking the frozen situation at that time.

It was Dr. Charles who watched Nikita give Old Mr. Lambert an acupuncture just now.

He was too excited, so his face was flushed, His voice trembled: "We have read the TCM Corpora and studied the various methods of treating diseases in it. This Flos Mume Acupuncture has been passed down from ancient times to the present, and the records in it are incomplete. It is said that the whole record of Flos Mume Acupuncture has been lost hundreds of years ago. The recorded part of this acupuncture is only a quarter of the whole acupuncture.”

“But the acupuncture applied by Miss Swift just now seems to be more than the recorded part.

I want to ask Miss Swift that have you learned the acupuncture method of the lost part?

This Flos Mume Acupuncture can really cure all diseases with a set of silver needles as recorded in ancient books?”

The other two old man were also excited. They looked at Nikita with their turbid eyes full of curiosity.

Several people are great masters in the medical field.

They are all decades older than Nikita.

But at this time, in front of Nikita, they are like newly enrolled students, asking for advice from their teachers.

Their attitudes are very polite.

Nikita turned her head and glanced at a few people, whose eyes were full of curiosity. She generously answered to their questions: “You still know this acupuncture. Yes, I applied Flos Mume Acupuncture just now.”

But this acupuncture she applied is a complete acupuncture, not a quarter of the acupuncture recorded in ancient books.

Dr. Charles and the other doctors were shocked. They looked more and more excited: "Sure enough.

Unexpectedly, this acupuncture recorded in ancient medical books handed down from the folk can really cure people."

"The ancient books say that this acupuncture is quite powerful. The people who can acquire all of it are definitely talents."

"Amazing, it's so amazing.

There is such a superb acupuncture in this world. We are so short-sighted. We thought it was just a false acupuncture written by charlatans.

But we don't know that this is actually a legendary treasure in medical field.

Chapter 310 Isn't it meant to embarrass her?

"How backward the living conditions and medical conditions were thousands of years ago.

But the forefathers can create such a superb acupuncture. Even after thousands of years, we can use this acupuncture to treat all diseases." Dr. Charles signed in a shocked way, "I'm really short-sighted.

Miss Swift, you are right. There is always someone who is better than us. Without Miss Swift, how can we see such a wonderful acupuncture?"

The other two nodded and couldn't help sighing: "Miss Swift can understand the mystery of ancient books. at a young age. I have studied it for many years, but I think the contents of this ancient book are useless.

It turns out that I am stupid. I'm so ashamed!"

They have studied medicine for decades.

They think they are well-informed, and they're the top in the industry of knowledge and medical skills, so they feel that no one can match them anymore.

They are authorities.

But this time, several people were proven wrong by Nikita. But they were not angry, but very excited. They regarded Nikita as a hot property.

This girl is talented. She learned the wonderful acupuncture in ancient books at a young age...

There are several vacant positions in national hospital this year.

They haven't found suitable recommended candidates yet.

Now, this recommended candidate is just around the corner.

Although the national hospital has never such a young expert, it is a special case. If she already has superb medical skills, what's wrong about her young age? She is also qualified to enter the national hospital.

Just like those gifted children who skip grades.

As long as she has the skills, there is no problem.

What's more, if the little girl enters the national hospital, she can carry forward the acupuncture method.

Nowadays, the reputation of Chinese medicine is getting worse and worse. Most people think it is deceptive. Fewer and fewer people believe that Chinese medicine can cure diseases.

Her specialties are acupuncture and Chinese medicine...

Moreover, once the news that she can cure vegetative people with acupuncture is widely reported, it is bound to reverse the ordinary people's stereotypes of Chinese medicine.

But she still understood these medical experts were boasting of Nikita. They seemed to appreciate Nikita very much.

It was meant to embarrass her.

Marie's face is more and more gloomy. She bit her lips tightly, feeling that she can't tolerate staying here anymore.

Miss Swift use this acupuncture to treat you.

However, it's very difficult to learn this acupuncture, and the records in ancient books are incomplete. Under such conditions, few people in the world can learn this acupuncture."
